CONFERENCE FAVORS MORAL COMPULSION

Meeting of Military Heads Decides Voluntary System Has Shot Bolt.

Response of Toronto to Be Noted in Any Form of Compulsory Service.

Recruiting methods, the financing of new battalions and the issuing of a new kind of buttons, were subjects of the big recruiting conference held yesterday afternoon at military headquarters, Exhibition Park, and attended by Sir Sam Hughes, General Logie, Col. S. C. Newburn, A.A.G., Col. W. C. Macdonald and Lt.-Col. P. L. Mason, of the 1st Brigade; Lt.-Col. Henry Brock, commanding officer of the 2nd Brigade; Capt. R. J. Christie, chief recruiting officer, Toronto; and about ten commanders of various overseas battalions.

The conference gave much attention to the matter of financing new units which had found the procuring of recruits costly owing to the attraction of the high wages at present received. One officer suggested that the government allow each battalion $5,000 for recruiting purposes.

General Logie thought that the financing of battalions should be systematic and that the estimates for recruiting should be made on things that are necessary, such as printing, hire of halls, horse hire in the country and things of the kind that are legitimate expenses. This estimate would be passed upon by the paymaster and any improper or improper items would be eliminated and then the estimates approved by the general officer commanding, to whatever figure the government was willing to go per battalion or per recruit.

The general officer commanding either pay these expenses and put in a claim for them to the paymaster, or he would send the bills for payment to the paymaster after certifying to their correctness. That would eliminate waste of money for one thing. It would eliminate a temptation, which some commanding officers might have, to spend money for things that are not necessary, and to be generous in extravagant ways. The commanding officers would feel that all proper expenditures would be met and he would have to be careful not to incur improper expenses for fear of having to pay them himself.

Limit Calls.

If a battalion already organized still needed recruits he favored the government making an allowance on a new battalion basis. He thought the calls on cities and individuals for recruiting funds should be limited.

Regarding voluntary recruiting, the conference members mostly considered that the present system had about reached its limit, and that some form of moral compulsion would have to be adopted. It was pointed out that any form of compulsion (not conscription) would have to recognize that some districts, such as Toronto and other places, had already given their quota of the 500,000 asked for by Premier Borden.

The plan of a Hamilton recruiting officer for the issuing of four but one button for persons under or over age, one for those who have been recruited, and one for those who have not volunteered and are physically fit.

Pte. Sessanah of the 22nd "Sea" Battalion (quartered in Hamilton) died last night in the Toronto Base Hospital of tuberculosis. His home was in Nessey, Ont.

At last night's parade of the Queen's Own Rifles under command of Lieut.-Col. S. W. Band, 710 members were in line, making the largest turnout of the regiment since last June. Instead of holding a march-out they were thru extended order and battalion drill.

Charges Proven.

Staff-Sergeant F. W. Chappelle and Sergeant E. W. Wilson were tried by district court martial at the Toronto Base Hospital yesterday on charges of taking supplies from the Army Medical Corps stores. Lieut.-Col. J. A. Macdonald, assistant judge-advocate general, at the close of the morning and afternoon trials declared that the charges had been fully proven. The specific charges brought against each prisoner was that of having stolen from the hospital's supplies on or about September 9, two chickens and one side of beef.

The court was presided over by Lieut.-Col. Duncan Donald of the 48th Highlanders, with Major F. O. W. Tully, 189th Battalion, and Major W. C. Pink, 220th Battalion, as the members. Lieut.-Col. C. D. Spittal did the prosecuting. Col. Macdonald representing the judge-advocate general, Ottawa. This afternoon a third court-martial will take place, when Sergeant F. H. Elliott will appear.

Recruiting Yesterday.

There were 29 volunteers for enlistment in Toronto yesterday. Eleven were accepted. The Dept. Service Company obtained three of the accepted recruits, the 202nd Irish-Canadian and Artillery each two, and the Army Service Corps, U. of T. Training Company, Engineers and Signallers, each one.

Capt. Percival Norman Alexander, son of Mrs. John Alexander, 151 Bedford road, has been awarded the Military Cross for services with the 8th Battalion as a private and won promotion on the field for distinguished conduct.

Sgt. J. Barker, son of Dr. Bach Temple Building, has won promotion to lieutenant on the field. He has been serving with the 1st Motor Machine Gun Battalion for two years.

Capt. Norman B. Allen, son of Dr. Norman Allen, and Capt. W. R. Cameron, of Toronto, who resigned their commissions as senior officers in the 202nd Irish-Canadian Battalion and reverted to lieutenant ranks, in order to go overseas, have been promoted to captains at the Canadian Military College, Crowborough, Sussex, England.

I. W. W. OF EARLSCOURT REMEMBER SOLDIERS

President Reports Big Shipment Will Be Forwarded Soon.

A meeting of the Independent Women Workers' Association of Earlscourt, was held last evening at the residence of Mrs. Freese, Naim avenue. President Mrs. J. Roughley occupied the chair, and they are engaged on munitions, several members handed in their resignations, including the secretary, Mrs. G. MacLellan. The vacant office was offered to Mrs. Lee, who was elected by acclamation.

It was decided to entertain fifty returned soldiers with a concert and supper, to be held during next week, the arrangements to be left in the hands of a committee of soldiers' wives, members of the organization.

President Mrs. Roughley reported that a large quantity of comforts will be forwarded to the Earlscourt men in the trenches within the next few days. The president stated that three sisters, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. MacLellan and Mrs. Russell, had sent twenty pairs of socks in three weeks. It was decided to hold social evenings at regular intervals in Little's Hall. Several new members were enrolled.

CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR BOYS IN THE TRENCHES

Trench Comforts League Prepares Good Things for Residents.

That Earlscourt men who are fighting the battles of the empire in France and in other spheres of war will be remembered this Christmas is evident by the lead of good things to be packed and sent collected by the members of the Trench Comforts League. These "goodies" are contained in pairs of Christmas stockings, many of which cost as high as $5 to fill. Yesterday they were on view in the committee rooms in the Royal George Building, and they made an imposing sight. The bulk of the gifts are in the shape of pipes and tobacco, and dainties for the sweet-toothed troops, but they have not been omitted. In addition, there are 100 camphor balls, manufactured for the purpose of guarding the soldiers against disease and vermin. To the Christmas stockings are included in the parcels, also, 100 pairs of handkerchiefs. Tommy's feet are 175 pairs of handkerchiefs, and the winners of the association. But that is not all, while away the tediousness of trench life 300 complete stories have been compiled.

Between 60 and 70 Earlscourt men were profited by the Christmas stockings being addressed to each individual soldier.

Mayor and Board of Councils Pleased With Stand of the Satisfaction was everywhere expressed among the merchants and residents of the Northwest ward at the stand of the mayor and board of council in compelling payment in the matter of the grant of 500,000 for the extension of the citizens' express and freight company, and which objection was raised by the legal department and City Auditor Sterling.

City Assessor MacNeil hit the nail on the head when he pointed out that the legal department were so sure of their ground that they had not even considered the possibility of a citizen's express and freight company, and will do so in spite of its friends among the officials at the city hall.

New Hampshire, West Virginia, Oregon and New Mexico, which have a total of 20 electors.

In Minnesota, however, the Wilson lead of more than 10,000 early in the day, had been reduced by nightfall to about 6000, but in California the president has taken the lead, and with four-fifths of the voting districts counted, was 1438 votes ahead.

West Virginia, already accounted in the Hughes column, had become close, and with a little more than half its districts heard from, was still giving Hughes a lead of about 2000.

North Dakota, classed as a Wilson state in the early returns, was decreasing the Wilson lead at nightfall, and with two-thirds of its districts reported, had cut the Wilson lead there to 1231 votes.

Hughes is Confident.

Wm. R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican national committee, after dining tonight with Charles E. Hughes, said:

"I believe that Mr. Hughes has been elected, and he shares my view. We ask only what is fair; we want only what we are entitled to, and that we propose to have."

Secretary Tumulty announced tonight that the re-election of President Wilson was assured by a safe majority in the electoral college.

The present is sure of California and Minnesota. Besides these North Dakota, Kansas, New Mexico, New Hampshire and West Virginia are ours. The Republicans are not sure of single state west of the Mississippi except Iowa, which they have won by a greatly reduced plurality.

"The returns from states in which the vote is close are coming in slowly. The delay appears to be caused by the time required to get in reports from rural communities. The latest returns clearly indicate that Minnesota, North Dakota, New Mexico, Oregon and probably California have gone for Hughes. These added to the states already certain give him 28 electoral votes. Even if all other states should go to Wilson, there are still enough left to assure the election of Hughes."

"Every precaution must be taken to secure an honest count of the ballots in every close state. Anybody who would attempt to steal the presidency would permit any man or group of men to attempt to steal the presidency for him is a contemptible scoundrel, and knows it."

"I say further, with a full sense of responsibility to the American people, that any man or group of men who attempt to steal the presidency from Mr. Hughes will do so at their peril!"

POLITICS and POLITICIANS

Montreal, Nov. 9.—The plan in the part of several of the League's supporters to propose a vote of fifty thousand dollars for the French-Canadian of Ontario will not die, and especially in view of the fact that the prime minister has just announced by the speech from the throne that he will vote a million dollars to the patriotic fund.

Mr. A. David, M.L.A. for Terrebonne, is being credited with the intention of proposing some kind of aid to the French-Canadian of the sister province, and no doubt it will take the form of fifty thousand dollars, in spite of the fact that the movement has been put out of business by the privy council and the Pope.

Everything goes to show that Senator Landry and his friends will not die, and that a meeting to be held in Ottawa in the near future an effort will be made to revive the whole question. This belief is entertained by a good many people who do not accept the theory that the Conservative Government has been sustained.

They say even in the English-speaking areas that regulation it has been declared valid, there is no law to carry it into effect, these people evidently countenancing the Ottawa case with that of the whole province. In fact the decision of Senator Landry, and the entire province, is very interesting, and the English-speaking provinces that the higher clergy will sit on the movement very hard if any further agitation is attempted.

As for the vote which Sir Lomer proposed, there are two ways of looking at the question, first from the patriotic point of view, and the other from a matter of fact, it will fall chiefly upon a section of the City of Montreal that has already dipped down deep in the interests of the various war funds. In plain English, if the Province of Quebec votes one million, the English-speaking people will have to pay three-quarters of a million, as that is the ratio of English and French-Canadian contribution to the public treasury. Two ex-provincial treasurers inform the World that out of every thousand dollars paid into the treasury of the province $750 comes from the 250,000 English-speaking citizens.

HANDLING OF FUNDS EXPLAINED BY CALDER

He Denies Knowledge of Improper Transactions in regard to Them.

Regina, Nov. 8.—Campaign funds figured largely in the examination of Mr. Calder by N. A. Craig, counsel for Mr. Bradshaw, before the Senate commission this morning. Mr. Craig questioned Mr. Calder largely with regard to the Brown and Deviline funds and in the course of his examination inquired as to every cent of the contributions made by Brown to the Liberal campaign funds.

Calder denied knowledge of any contributions by Brown, and said that he did not know of any cent of the money going from this province to the Liberal campaign funds.

Immediately prior to the 1912 election there was a central fund. After the election he had a deficit and Mr. Calder himself and straightened it up. After that he had nothing to do with anything.

Mr. Calder also denied any knowledge of money going from this province to Manitoba, originating out of the road work funds, and taken by Brown or anyone else.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

attacks, regained positions from the Russians on both sides of the Bodza road. The advance of the Russians so far is in the Passes of Kirilbaba, Borgos, Tulghes and Bodza. Their successes are being won so far on their right wing and they are at last coming up not only to give Roumania powerful support, but to carry the war into the territory of the enemy. They have just won more ground, too, in Bukovina, south of Dorna Watra.

The operations in the Dobruja continue to be favorable to the allies. In this sector the forces under Von Mackensen are still beating a retrograde. On other sections of the Rumanian front the allies are not losing any ground, except it should be in the Jul Valley, where the Teutons have been reinforced and have begun an offensive. All is apparently not well with the Germans further north, in Bukovina and Galicia, for Berlin, which has been garrulous of late concerning these theatres of the war, has suddenly become silent and has nothing to announce.

On the front of the Somme, in France, yesterday, a storm of artillery fire was mingled with a storm of the elements, so the infantry rested in its trenches and dugouts and no action was fought beyond the never-ending artillery duels. The French, however, noticed a gathering of Germans in an area east of Salles and they fired a few well-directed shots, which scattered the foe. Sir Douglas Haig reported that there was artillery activity against the whole British front south of the Ancre.

Artillery firing at each other by the Italians and Austrians marked the situation on the front of the Julian Alps and the Carso Plateau. In scoring an abandoned great deal of booty, including a mountain battery of four guns. The Austrians are maintaining a lively artillery action in the Trentino and have evacuated observation posts on the slopes of Cima de Boche. The Italians as if the Teutons were organizing a counter-demonstration in the Trentino to relieve the pressure on their front before Trieste.

Obscurity continues to mark the situation of General Sarrail's international army north of Salonika. He is probably waiting not only for the situation in Greece to become settled, but for the arrival of sufficient supplies. Dr. J. E. Dillon says that the command of General Sarrail has been neglected by the allied governments and that it was only recently that the British administration that Sarrail has not found support where he should have found it. Unfavorable charges are probable from this theatre of the war.

The attack on the United States steamer Columbia by a submarine, somewhere in British waters, on the way to Genoa, is one of those incidents which political conditions obtaining in the republic is liable to pass with little bolder in their insults to the American flag, evidently because they regard the United States as determined to keep out of the war, and as certainly not liable to quarrel with the allies.

KILTIES COMMANDER GUEST OF TORONTO

SIR SAM PRESENT

Praises Help Given Cause by City—Mayor and Premier Speak.

Lieut.-Col. Craig, commanding officer of the 194th Edmonton Battalion, which is returning to the front, will be in Toronto before proceeding eastward to complete his training, and his staff were the guests of honor at a banquet in the Carls-Rite Hotel, tendered by Major Church, the city council, last night. The banquet was given in honor of the city's contribution to the war effort, and was presided over by the mayor, who spoke in praise of the city's contribution to the war effort, and was presided over by the mayor, who spoke in praise of the city's contribution to the war effort.

Eulogizes Sir Sam.

Col. Craig, in reply, expressed his appreciation of the reception that the battalion had been given in this city. When in France a year ago he said that every man in the city had done his best for the war, and he saw more and heard more of what Toronto was doing for the war, but he saw more and heard more of what Toronto was doing for the war, but he saw more and heard more of what Toronto was doing for the war.

Doctor Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent. In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home. Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man writes after trying it: "I was almost blind, could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me. A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without my glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read the print without glasses. It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and quantities more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles, many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules given in the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opte tablets. Drop one Bon-Opte tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bath your eyes three times daily. You should notice your eyes clear perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time. Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opte is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent. in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very best for regular use in almost every form of eye trouble. (Advertisement) Dr. G. Tambling writes it."

Instant Relief for Biliousness and other Liver Troubles. The astonishing efficacy of Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief is due to its tonic effect upon the liver and bowels. THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 9.

Farmer Duff and the Calves

One of the factors in the high cost of living that is going to count more and more as time passes, has been touched upon occasionally, but not emphasized as it ought to be. It is the killing of young stock. This has been resorted to such an extent by farmers that it is estimated that in two years the results will be very serious in the security of cattle.

The high prices current for milk and butter tempt the farmers to kill off their calves, and as the Jewish consumers have practically cornered the veal trade, so that high prices prevail in this department also, the calf has small chance of perpetuating its existence. With such a general slaughter of calves the scarcity of cattle in a year or two is going to be very marked.

There is only one remedy, for with the farmer the bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, and his present milk and butter is more to him at present than cattle two years hence. The remedy has been adopted in several countries where it has been made a criminal offence to kill young stock of any description without permit or good cause shown.

It is a matter for the serious attention of the department of agriculture and an embargo on the slaughter of calves would be so useful and practical that there ought to be no danger of having the measure turned down.

Energetic Application of Go-as-You-Please

The News, last night, attempted the difficult task of reconciling all the different policies of recruiting with the present obvious failure to obtain a sufficient number of recruits. It finds fault with the soldiers chiefly who argue for conscription and incidentally acquiesces in the decision of the political leaders. Conservative and Liberal, that conscription will not be adopted. The obvious answer to this is that the leaders, Conservative and Liberal, do not lead, and they do not lead because they do not know. The News appears to be aware of this, and wrestles with the difficulty and sides with it as adroitly as possible, but admits that it does not argue against conscription. Unlike the leaders, Conservative and Liberal, it knows, but unfortunately, like them, it falls to lead.

The News urges "more energetic application of the voluntary system." In the same article in which it reproves the soldier recruiters who adopt the "more energetic application," it finds fault also with those who "suggest that we are a nation of slackers and shirkers." We have never suggested that, but we know that we have a large number of slackers and shirkers among us, and we know of no method, however energetic, of the application of the voluntary system that will reach or touch these slackers and shirkers. Nor does the News appear to know any such method either. If it does we should hear it and have it adopted. Great Britain found that there was only one way to deal with slackers and shirkers. It was an energetic application of the voluntary system and it was thoroughly successful. The News thinks that it would be fouling our own nest to suggest that there are people in Canada who ought to go into the army and do not. The News knows that Great Britain regarded those who refused to go as the foul element of the nation; not those who brought them to their duty. Finally the News thinks we can refuse the Canadian army to half a million without any form of compulsion if we will. It is to be hoped that we can and shall. But it is going to be a slow, costly business, and the war may be over before we have succeeded.

The Polish Proposal

Germany's offer to Poland is a certain sign and token of Germany's weakness. The acceptance or rejection of the offer by the Poles will be equally the sign and token of their weakness or of their strength. Germany never made an offer of the kind out of a generous heart or on account of humane principles. The offer, like all of the Kaiser's policies, arose out of a hell of war in order to aggrandize the Kaiser. The absurd pretensions that Poland would have a government of its own and an army of its own are so transparent that they can surely deceive no one in Poland. Even the proposal, which is stipulated, that the Poles shall be a Teutonic tool, and if the Poles create themselves into an army it will be under German officers and commanders, and they will be dragged into fighting the enemies of Germany.

This, in fact, is the secret of the whole matter. Germany is running woefully short of men, and 750,000 more men out of Poland, driven to fight for the Kaiser, might stop a gap somewhere in the tottering barriers. Were the Poles all slain in battle so much the better for Germany, would be the Kaiser's reflection. The rest of Poland could then be Prussianized. If the Polish army assisted in gaining a victory for the Kaiser there would be no more force in Poland than in Belgium to constrain the Kaiser to keep his word, and there is no moral constraint that would hold him to it.

Germany fears Russia, and would like immediately to erect a living dyke against the Slavonic hordes. The Russian Empire can produce twenty million soldiers if necessary. No one knows how many have yet been mobilized. Probably Germany is beginning to hear and to realize that her time is short.

If there are ten million Russian soldiers being drilled and equipped Germany knows that her doom is sealed, and all the Hindenburgs or Volckenshans or Mackensons in Kaiserdom would not save her. Russia's tremendous man power has taken a long time to get into motion. In the first months of the war the mot was passed around that France and England were to stonewall Germany and Russia was to steam-roller it. The roller has never yet quite got up steam. There were signs of pressure on the safety valve during the summer, and some notable offences were made. The drive on the Somme was evidently part of a concerted plan followed by Roumania's entry into the war, and Italy's renewed drive on Austria. But the steam roller did not get going, and Germany is now trying to tempt the Poles to get in front of it. If the Poles are sagacious as Poles bear they will refrain. Russia is beginning to move, and when the impetus gains force it is doubtful if there will be anything between Warsaw and Berlin to stop it. Hindenburg probably scents this fact and his policy has always been dominated by the desire to protect his eastern front by violent attacks on Russia, carried, if possible, by the Poles. We have frequently seen the generals of the entente alliance that they did not wish to break thru on the Somme, but merely to keep the Germans busy and wear them down. This also agrees with the claims of Hindenburg. Austria is fairly exhausted. France and Britain are going strong. When Russia comes along in force the treaty of peace will be in preparation.

OUTLOOK IS GOOD FOR WINTER WHEAT

Grain is Showing a Good Spreading Top, Says Dr. Zavitz.

SEED TO BE SCARCE

Advisable for Farmers to Conserve Every Bit of Seed Grain.

Guelph, Nov. 8.—Dr. C. A. Zavitz, O. A. C., had some interesting things to say today regarding the seed and grain situation, which will be beneficial to the farmers of Ontario. "The remarkably fine weather we have been having this fall is excellent for fall wheat," stated Dr. Zavitz this morning. "On the plot that we have here the winter wheat looks almost as well as in an average year. It is getting a great foundation and is showing a good spreading top. We sowed here the second week in September, which we consider rather late as we plan always to seed the first of September. Reports from other points also indicate that the winter wheat is benefiting by the mild weather."

RETURNED SOLDIER

WEDS AT ST. AIDAN'S
Sergt. H. Tomlin and Miss Edna McBrien Joined in Wedlock.

Yesterday afternoon a military wedding took place at St. Aidan's Church when Sergeant Harry Tomlin and Miss Edna McBrien were the principals. The nuptials being witnessed by a fair-sized congregation, amongst whom were a number of soldier-comrades of the groom.

The bride procession was preceded down the aisle of the church by a surpliced choir of girls singing "The Voice That Breathed over Eden," and Rev. E. A. McIntyre officiated. The bride, who was given away by her uncle Mr. Whitmore, was dressed in white crepe de chine with wreath and veil and carried an armful of white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sisters, Evelyn and Lillian, dressed in pale shell shades, with large black hats trimmed with pink. They also carried white "naums." The groom was supported by Corporal Howe.

As the party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march a company of soldiers from the Spadina Convalescent Home lined in a double row at the entrance, and crossing their raised canes formed an arch thru which the bridal pair passed to their motor. A reception was held later at the home of the bride, 20 Russell avenue. The bridegroom is a returned soldier, having been gassed at St. Julien.

MUST USE WOMEN TO MAKE SHELLS

Government Expects Manufacturers to Do So in Three Months.

OPENS LABOR BUREAUS Dilution of Male Help With Female Their Chief Object.

"The government of Ontario, thru Dr. W. A. Riddell, its recently appointed superintendent of the trades and labor branch is about to open a public employment bureau in Toronto to meet the need of the department of labor of the imperial munitions board," says a statement issued by the premier yesterday.

Mark H. Irish, the director of the department of labor of the munitions board, has been studying the labor conditions in munitions plants and has reached the conclusion that the increased output asked for by the imperial authorities cannot be had except by a careful dilution of the male labor now employed with additional female help.

"Moreover, altho the supply of women labor is abundant, the public works exceeds the demand, the munitions manufacturers are willing to provide the requisite accommodation for women wherever the work they are doing can be done by women. It is therefore expected that within the next three or four months many more women will be employed making munitions than at present. Mr. Irish very naturally turned to the provincial authorities for assistance, and lic. Mr. M. D. Macdonald, the minister under whose care the trades and labor branch falls, and the government consented at once to do their utmost to assist. It is expected that bureaux will be opened in various centres from time to time at the request of the munitions board.

The bureau about to be opened in Toronto and the other bureau which may be opened, while intended in particular to assist in the special work above referred to, will act also as general employment centres, and thus help to some extent to meet the present abnormal labor conditions. While not the permanent bureaux which are to be established, the present step is an indication of the willingness of the government to meet the emergency now existing without waiting for the completion of a complete provincial system of employment bureaux."

RACE IMPORTED HORSES TOO SOON ON U.S. TRACKS

August Belmont's Hourless, Bred in France, the Only Notable Winner.

New York, Nov. 7.—There are a number of disappointed owners of young race horses in the United States. The cause of their disappointment is the failure of yearlings imported by them from England and France to show high-class form as two-year-olds against American horses of their own age in races at metropolitan tracks last season. Liberal prices were paid for these baby racers of royal breeding, whose performance here fell short of the hopes of their sires and dams on the French and English turf.

Of the one hundred and fifty youthful alien thoroughbreds imported and raced by Americans within the last year only one has proved himself to be a performer of real quality. The single exception is August Belmont's French bred two-year-old Hourless.

This colt, whose sire is Negrol, a one-time colt winner, Derby winner, took a long time to convince sceptical horsemen of his greatness in spite of the fact that a stake victory over James Butler's speedy colt Ivory Black marked his initial effort on an American track in the juvenile at Belmont Park on May 27 last. Subsequent failures led many horsemen to believe that his spring victory was a fluke order, but later performances at Saratoga last August and in Maryland recently have compelled all to hail him as one of the best of his age in this country.

The disappointing races run by the other horses of foreign breeding have given rise to all sorts of conjectures as to the reasons for the same. Explanations offered by different authorities for their failure are as varied as the colors of a rainbow, but the one most generally accepted by old time horsemen and breeders is that the horses have not yet become acclimated and will not reach that state until next season.

Mr. Rowe, registrar of the Jockey Club, an authority on the subject in the United States, is a strong supporter of that theory. Mr. Rowe believes that no horse born and bred in Europe, regardless of age, can show his best racing qualities until he has been here a year and a half or two years. And Mr. Rowe has indisputable data to support his contention.

The bitter experience of American sportsmen of today with foreign race horses is not new to those who have followed the fortunes of imported stock in races on the American turf," said Mr. Rowe.

"More than twenty years ago," he continued, "Mr. John A. Morris met with like disappointment with a spring colt young horse he bought in England at high prices. All failed when put to the test here in the lot imported from the celebrated sire Ormus. This horse was brought to the United States when a yearling. Mr. Morris had high hopes for the horse on account of his superb blood lines and speed trials in England, but he failed to win until he was a four-year-old, also he started many times as two and three-year-old. In the stud he sired such good horses as Chambliss and Oleson.

"That experience convinced Mr. Morris that the game was not worth the candle, for the reason that the element of chance was too great to justify the big outlay of money involved in the transactions. He therefore hit upon the idea of sending some American brood mares to England, mating them with high-class stallions there, and bringing the produce to this country as weanlings. It was a happy scheme, because several of these weanlings earned high honors on the American turf when they reached racing age. The Friar and Bowling Brook were two of the most notable weanlings thus bred and imported by Mr. Morris.

"The success achieved by Mr. Morris' schemes convinced me that a successful thing for a prospective purchaser of foreign race horses is to buy weanlings or mares with weanlings, and ship them here, or send American mares abroad and mate them with the best stallions. Mr. Morris, as you see, has presented a good deal of alien stock, purchased with a view to the two-year-old stakes, because they are the valuable stakes prizes offered in events for older horses.

"If an American pays a big price for a yearling abroad and has to wait a year or two for the animal to attain his true form, those years of waiting represent a most unfortunate period of unproductiveness on the part of the importation. In other words, after the valuable two-year-old and possibly three-year-old events are decided, the animal begins to show signs of age when his greatest opportunities have passed. It reminds me somewhat of the saying, 'The operation was successful, but the patient died.'

"Mr. Daingerfield's theories.

Algermon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, and a son of the late Major Foxhall A. Daingerfield who managed the famous Castleton stud of James A. Keene for many years, attributes the inferior performances of the foreign youngsters to climatic changes.

"Father always maintained that no horse purchased abroad was capable of giving a true demonstration of his worth as a race horse until he had been here acclimated. This usually took from one year and a half to two years. To obtain the best results with foreign stock (whether old or young) it was necessary to import only weanlings, or horses in utero.

"Father attributed the inability of high-bred and well-bred yearlings of foreign breeding to show their true form as two-year-olds in this country to change of climate and food. For the imported animals to become accustomed to their new conditions took more time than the average owner was willing to give them before starting them in races. Hence their disappointing performances.

"Father often spoke of the peculiarities of broodmares purchased abroad. They required as much care and attention as real old mares, with whom father always kept them. When first served with the bluish-green of Kentucky, or corn they did not appear to know how to chew it. Many months were required to educate them in the art of eating both before they were able to take care of themselves.

"So good a judge of horses as the late Byron McClelland once told me that the change from Kentucky to New York frequently upset his racers. Unless horse was a month in advance of the meeting at which he expected to start his thoroughbreds they would run far below the winning form they had exhibited in Kentucky.

"I believe that many foreign youngsters who disappointed their owners in races here this season will do much better next season. Omar Khayyam and Jack Mount

William L. Powers believes that the young foreign racers will be seen to better advantage next season. He attributes their shortcomings to change of climate.

"By next spring," he explained, "the youngsters will be thoroughly acclimated and fit to give good accounts of themselves. That the climate here has a bad effect on old as well as young horses has been pretty thoroughly demonstrated in the case of Short Gage and Boots."

NEW DIFFICULTY IN GETTING POWER

Canadian Niagara Power Co. Unwilling to Supply Amount Expected.

NO FORMAL DOCUMENT

Government Doing Everything in Its Power to Force Full Amount.

The government will employ every means in its power to compel the Canadian Niagara Power Company to turn over to the Hydro the full 50,000 h.p. promised by the company in the understanding reached during the summer, said Premier Hearst yesterday.

When the understanding had been reached he had been satisfied with it. Since then a difficulty had cropped up. Asked if he had any doubt that the company would ultimately provide the full amount, Mr. Hearst said he had not.

He supposed the difficulty was one of transmission. That was the Niagara company's affair, if he knew what steps the company was going to take he would be able to be explicit with regard to the time when the difficulty could be overcome.

Additional Power. On Monday last an additional 10,000 h.p. was turned over by the company to the commission. This brings the amount now supplied by the company to 35,000 h.p., which it contended is 2,500 h.p. more than it ought or is bound to give for the uses of the Hydro.

A requisition from the Hydro for the final 12,500 of the 50,000 was forwarded to the Niagara company by the commission yesterday. Any formal refusal by the company to supply the balance of the 50,000 h.p. which the commission thought the company was prepared to supply them with will come as a reply to this demand, it is supposed.

During the controversy over this matter in the summer, assurances were received from the Dominion authorities that if necessary the customs department would refund the license necessary before the power generated by the company from the Canadian side of the falls is transported to the American side of the line.

The board of control yesterday recommended Charles J. Fox, a returned soldier, to be chief restaurant inspector at a salary of $900 a year.

Following the application of the jurors for an increase in fees to $3.50 a day, the county sheriffs have asked the city to grant them a like increase.

Works Commissioner Harris says the city is not being forced to use steam power because of the failure of the Hydro to supply sufficient electric power. The report in an evening paper to the effect that Toronto had endeavored for a long time to secure more efficient service, he said, was incorrect.

Bigamy Charge Preferred Against William Wescott. William Nathan Wescott, 730 West King street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Morality Officers Kerr and Lawler on a charge of bigamy.

Will Run Department in Own Way as Long as He is Chief. Chief Smith declared yesterday, in regard to Ald. McLeod's attack in council, that as long as he was chief of the department he was going to run things his own way.

Up to Military Authorities To Provide Fire Protection. When Fire Chief Smith's recommendation that fire precautions be taken in the base hospital on East Gertrude street, was before the board of control, Controller Cameron declared that when the city was furnishing the staffing free of taxes it was up to the military authorities themselves to make the necessary alterations.

Indigestion Resulted From an Inactive Liver. The Bowels Became Constipated and the Whole Digestive System Upset.

With many people constipation becomes a habit. And it is a dangerous habit which is certain sooner or later to cause serious disease.

Remember, but got to using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and was so benefited that I began to study this malady. I found that the indigestion resulted from a bad case of inactive liver, and as soon as I got the liver working again, and had my bowels to stomach trouble or indigestion, I cannot praise this medicine too highly, and would advise anyone suffering from indigestion or constipation to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. My husband also claims that these pills have done him more good than any medicine he ever used.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills positively relieve and cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, headache and kidney disease. Put it to the test. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

STONECUTTER PERMITTED TO CONTINUE BUSINESS. Appeal From Previous Judgment Dismissed and Work May Go on Uninterrupted.

As Osgoode Hall yesterday the first divisional court dismissed with costs the appeal from the judgment of Mr. Justice Britton, who dismissed the action of William Oakley v. George Webb, to restrain the defendant from carrying on his business of a stonecutter and a sawyer on Summerhill avenue, so as to interfere with the health and comfort of the plaintiff and his family.

Railway Board Seeks Working Agreement Over Change of Gauge.

HELLMUTH'S OFFER

To Let Board Assess Costs of Temporary Line After Court's Decision.

The Ontario Railway Board is now anxious to find some way by which the change of gauge on the Toronto Suburban Railway's line along Dundas street and Davenport road may be accomplished this fall without endangering the interests of the parties concerned.

After lengthy argument yesterday afternoon between E. Fairly, for the city, and I. P. Hellmuth, K.C., for the company, the board decided to suspend, until Saturday, judgment on the city's application for the board's interim injunction against the change of gauge.

The board recently granted the company permission to change their gauge to standard, but at the same time instructed the company to construct part of its line with a concrete substructure.

Chief Justice Falconbridge then refused the city's application for an injunction, and the city applied to the board for an interim injunction, which the board granted while in Peterboro on Monday.

Mr. Fairly argued that the matter did come within the jurisdiction of the board, and said that the company had flouted and ignored the board. He based his claim chiefly on the section of the act which reads that a company shall not, without obtaining the consent of the board, make any addition to or extension of its lines.

Mr. Hellmuth contended that "lines" did not include change of the position of the rails, but referred solely to location. He further urged that the board surely would not assume that it had a jurisdiction which was the very subject of a case which had been thrown into the courts by the city, which he dismissed a writ against the company. Surely it would pause until that case had been decided.

If a change of gauge were within the meaning of the clause then a railway company could not drive a few more spikes or add a few new ties without first obtaining the consent of the board, he argued.

Not Fair to City. "I do not think the adjudication of the chief justice did the city ample justice," said Mr. Fairly. He was willing to take his action out of the courts if the board thought that the jurisdiction of the two authorities conflicted.

"What we want is to get things done," said the chairman of the board. "Why not allow that part of the order which refers to the change of gauge to be proceeded with for the convenience of the public and later pass a mandatory order?"

"This would necessitate tearing up the street twice and prove an additional expense to the city and an additional source of inconvenience to the citizens who use the thoroughfare," said the city's counsel. The cement base for the rails was whether the maintenance of the pavement.

Mr. Hellmuth then offered in the name of the company to make an undertaking to leave the matter of additional cost to be adjudged by the board after the matter had been decided by the courts.

Mr. Fairly objected that they would not get the money until the agreement had been made, through the courts to the privy council.

"Surely you don't doubt your own ability to frame a binding agreement?" said the chairman. But Mr. Fairly maintained his attitude of "once bitten twice shy."

"We want to make an interim arrangement safeguarding the interests of both parties until the courts give their decision," said Mr. McIntyre. "I can't see any possible objection if you really have the interests of the public at heart. If it can be done in the interests of the public it should be done. You ought to endeavor to meet the wishes of the board in this matter. Finally it was decided to postpone judgment on the matter until next Saturday morning, when a "modus vivendi" as Mr. Hellmuth termed it, might be discussed.

BOARD OF CONTROL MAY ENTER FLOUR BUSINESS. Sell to Housewives at Wholesale Prices if Legislature Assents.

Ald. Flewman appeared before the board of control yesterday and suggested that the city purchase large quantities of bread flour to be resold at wholesale prices to housewives. Controller Cameron expressed some doubt as to the wisdom of the city going into the flour business.

All. Flewman appeared before the board of control yesterday and suggested that the city purchase large quantities of bread flour to be resold at wholesale prices to housewives. Controller Cameron expressed some doubt as to the wisdom of the city going into the flour business.

He thought it might be too drastic an interference in ordinary trade conditions. The alderman quoted statistics to show that housewives could bake their own bread and save fifty per cent. If they could get flour at anywhere near the same price paid by the bakers, he wanted the city council to make an appointment with the government and ask them for permissive legislation.

The board agreed to make an appointment and lay the proposal before the Ontario cabinet ministers.

DOUGLAS MACKLEM GUILTY OF CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE. Fined Two Hundred Dollars for Driving Motor Car Into Wagon.

Judge Winchester yesterday found Douglas Macklem guilty of criminal negligence, when he drove his motor car into Robert Handley's wagon on King street, early on the morning of Oct. 21, and imposed a fine of $200.

The police evidence as to the condition of the accused was contradicted by witnesses for the defence. They blamed the accident on poor lighting, shadows cast by the trees on the roadside, a dirty wind shield and the fact that there was no light on the rear of the wagon.

Police Sergeant Reilly and F. C. Hony stated that the accused was under the influence of liquor at the time of the accident. Mr. Macklem said that during the entire evening he had only seven drinks and they had not affected him. His counsel, H. H. Dewar, K.C., argued that the want of light on the rear of the wagon had a lot to do with the accident and stated that the legislature was to consider an act that all vehicles shall carry lights. The judge held Macklem was negligent in not having the windshield clean and that he did not take proper precautions when his vision was obscured. He said he was sure that the accused was in no way intoxicated.

CITY HALL NOTES

The city chauffeurs, in a petition signed by about a score, asked the board of control yesterday for a 25c per day increase in wages.

Col. G. C. Nasmith, C.M.G., arrived home from the front yesterday, but refused to discuss war conditions because he is still a soldier. "I have not resigned," he said. "I have merely arrived from England on ten days' leave, suffering from a sprained ankle."

The board of control yesterday recommended Charles J. Fox, a returned soldier, to be chief restaurant inspector at a salary of $900 a year.

OLD TIMERS LOOK FOR NEW COBALT

Generally Admitted That the Old Camp Has Passed the Zenith.

PRODUCTION DECLINING

Cobalt Ores Richest Found Anywhere in Hundred Years—Still Very Active.

Mining has been proceeding at Cobalt for the past twelve years, and the total output of silver is about $135,000,000. This would mean an average production of $11,250,000 per year.

Dr. Willott was probably the only man who sounded a note of caution in 1905. In doing so he lost popularity, in fact, he brought down on his own head a great deal of censure.

Dr. Miller distinguished between the fragmental and the continuous character of the diabase, and his conclusion was that large rich ore bodies would not form or live in the latter.

The Timiskaming and Beaver seem to occupy a zone of special fracture or shattering, and it is not likely that many other properties in the diabase or keewatin will be markedly productive.

The Nipissing leads the producers mainly from its large conglomerate areas, but it has one important vein in the keewatin.

Cobalt has proved to be the greatest silver camp in North America. Its ores were the richest known within the last hundred years. They outcropped on the immediate surface, and the percentage of profit from mining was unusually large.

The Elk Lake-Gowganda district would seem to present the most favorable opportunities now that the cream has been taken from the Cobalt mines. A sensational strike has been made at the Miller Lake and O'Brien, and there is a wide distribution of silver in the area.

It is not alone in facilities for transportation that the modern Cobalt differs from the primitive Cobalt of 1905. Then we had probably 1000 prospectors, some of whom could be seen wherever one went on the trails around the mines and the railways, and in the hotels; now there is hardly one to be seen anywhere, the whole energies of the camp are directed to mining, not searching for the precious metal.

Warning Unheeded. In 1905 there was an atmosphere of optimism permeating all classes. Dr. Miller's warning note was unheeded. The silver was coming out of the mines in huge sheets, chunks and nuggets. It was hard to realize that some day Nature's bounty would be overdrawn.

It is not alone in facilities for transportation that the modern Cobalt differs from the primitive Cobalt of 1905. Then we had probably 1000 prospectors, some of whom could be seen wherever one went on the trails around the mines and the railways, and in the hotels; now there is hardly one to be seen anywhere, the whole energies of the camp are directed to mining, not searching for the precious metal.

With the increased price of silver there has come greater activity in Cobalt, about seventeen additional properties being under development. It is possible that a few new producers may be brought in, but the old-timers think they knew all about Cobalt in 1905. In fact, the tailings from the Timiskaming and Beaver, there has been nothing of importance discovered since then, and it does not follow that other mines will succeed in the same vicinity.

We are all looking for a new Cobalt, a counterpart of, and fully equal to, the old. With the experience now available much better use could be made of grand opportunities such as existed in the Cobalt of 1904-5. The precambrian rocks occupy seventy per cent. of the total area of Ontario. This great expanse has immense possibilities, and it may be that some day a fortunate prospector will bring to light a new and greater Cobalt.

DAVIDSON CROSSCUT HAS STRUCK GOOD ORE

Recent Developments Indicate Possibility of Mine Becoming Big Producer.

A wire was received from Porcupine yesterday afternoon stating that the crosscut from the main shaft on the 300-foot level of the Davidson Gold Mines property had cut the ore body, which appears to be of a similar character to that which has been developed on the upper levels.

Sampling of the ore is now in progress and the results should be known in a few days, but from its general character and appearance of the ore there is every reason to expect it will grade as high as that on the two upper levels.

It was a little over a month ago, after having done considerable lateral work on the main vein on the 100 and 200-foot levels, that the development on the lower level was commenced.

Despite the fact that the drilling was held up on several different occasions because of minor breakdowns, rapid progress was made, and the management is now being congratulated that success was achieved in so short a time.

The location of the vein on the lower level is an important development in the company's record, as it brings the production of considerable quantities of ore, which the management have now demonstrated the existence of an extensive ore body from the surface to a depth of 300 feet, and as the values on the upper levels ran considerably higher than the average in the camp, it is believed that the property will prove a high grade mining proposition of unusual merit.

The development program calls for the immediate opening up of the vein on the lower level, and this work will be rushed as it is desired to put into sight as large a tonnage of ore as possible before a mill is installed.

Meaning the development of the new vein on the lower level, where the shaft is down about 40 feet, holds out great promise, as up to the time that the lead dipped from the shaft the ore assayed $115 to the ton. Should the values be maintained when the ore body is developed at depth, this will put into sight a considerable tonnage of high grade ore.

An offer has been made by American interests for the purchase of a block of treasury stock, and the proposal is now being considered by the board of directors. The deal calls for the sale of about 700,000 shares on a graduated scale up to a dollar a share, and this would net the company close to $375,000. If it is decided to accept the offer, the company will be put in a remarkably strong position as the funds would provide for the installation of an extensive mill which would enable a production basis in keeping with the known possibilities to be attained.

At the present time the treasury is in shape to take care of the entire development program, but with the ore reserves developed to such a remarkable extent as has been indicated, it will be only a matter of time until a mill will have to be installed, and this will call for a certain amount of financing.

Work Started on New Shaft at West Dome

Homer L. Gibson, in his forthrightly review, has the following on West Dome Consolidated: Also delays in delivery of machinery and other materials necessary for a start on the new shaft have caused a slight postponement of original plans in this connection, everything is now ready for such start, and drilling was expected to begin last Monday.

The pipe line is all in, foundation for new electric hoist, which is on the cars at South Porcupine, is complete, and a contract has been let for the first 300 feet of the new working, which it is stated, will be done until a 300-foot depth has been reached. A drift from the 300-foot level to the present shaft is being extended as rapidly as possible to a point under the new shaft site, which is about 1400 feet directly west of the old shaft. It is expected that both of these workings will reach this point at about the same time. In addition to an extensive underground work, diamond drilling will be continued, a contract calling for an additional 7500 feet having recently been closed, with a mill being installed at the present incline shaft which will greatly facilitate hoisting of rock from development. From the above it can be understood that preparations are being made for a big program of development during the winter months, and on the results of this work depend the erection of a mill which has been stated, will be provided when needed and proven to be justified. The weakness in the stock is no doubt accounted for by the limitation of the stock of the stock by interests connected with the estate of one of the original promoters, now deceased. From both mine and market standpoint, this stock would appear to be an attractive speculation.

NEWRAY CROSSES PAR

Newray stock stood 99 bid on the Standard Stock Exchange the whole of yesterday morning without an offering, and consequently no transactions occurred. This was regarded among brokers as a remarkable record, considering that within a few months the price had risen from 33.

The only explanation accepted was that the large number of holders had resolved themselves into investors rather than speculators and were satisfied that the developments at the mine warranted them in keeping their shares until further operations had given a larger intrinsic value to their holdings.

In New York the stock sold at 103, and during the afternoon a few of the shares sold here as high as 101. Seldom indeed has a mining stock shown such a steady advance and held with such tenacity. There can be only one conclusion from the record and the present market position, and that is that any new buying of the shares must be made at such prices as the holders are willing to sell at and at the moment these are indifferent to releasing holdings.

DIAMOND DRILLING AT INSPIRATION STARTED

Operations Commenced on Property Adjoining Those of Hollinger.

After a couple of days spent in setting up the diamond drill rig at the Inspiration Gold Mines, information was received from the Porcupine camp last night that the drillers have started on their downward course in the search for the continuation of the Hollinger Consolidated vein system. These operations are being carried along at two points, along the southern lines of Hollinger Consolidated and the Moneta, and daily results of this important work will be eagerly watched by the miners at the surrounding producers, as well as by other interests at Timmins.

The work being done in the Inspiration Gold Mines continues to climb gradually, with more than 75 per cent. of the buying reported as coming directly from Porcupine, where, it is agreed, success will quickly be recorded in drilling, owing to the excellence of property location. Another factor upon which dependence is being placed is the strong interests in whose hands rests control, as past records of every individual of the Inspiration board failed to show a single instance of being connected with a mining property which did not make good under development.

Following favorable reports by engineers representing influential interests in New York and Boston, several offers have been received in this city for large blocks of Inspiration Gold stock at slightly below the current prices, but without avail, as the treasury of the company is now sufficiently strong to complete the present diamond drilling campaign to desired and desirable underground development. It is probable, however, that as quickly as these interests realize there is no chance of getting in below the market, they will commence buying as the reports received were couched in strong terms that a stock-coupled expansion is being installed as a direct result of this, it is likely this stock will be listed shortly on the New York Curb.

New York, Nov. 8.—Bar silver, 71 1/2. London, Nov. 8.—Bar silver, 84 1/2.

MINING MARKET STRONG HIGH RECORDS BROKEN

New Levels Reached by Some Active Stocks—Silver Up Again.

Owing to the fact that the price of silver advanced again yesterday to 71 5/8, a three and one-half cent rise inside of a week, more interest was displayed by traders in the silver stocks at the Standard Exchange. The bulk of the trading was still maintained in the Porcupine list. The market closed strong with new high records made by several of the active issues.

Newray, Davidson and Inspiration all made further ground. Inspiration sold up to 24 1/2. Newray exhibited considerable strength during the day. In the morning session an advance in the bid price to 99 1/2 failed to entice holders to sell, and the demand in the afternoon consisted of a sharp return, the stock establishing a new high at 101, crossing par for the first time. This stock has had a remarkable advance, but from all appearances the end is not yet, and those in close touch are confidently expecting to see still higher prices for the stock.

McIntyre was very active and extremely sensitive. It opened at 180, went up a point, back four, and closed at the opening price. There was a rumour on the street that a find had been made on the property at the 300-foot level, but no official confirmation of the story could be obtained. A new high level was reached by Davidson, which touched 88. Developments at the property are said to be highly satisfactory, and there is some talk of building a mill. Dome Extension was fairly active at 30 to 31. Dome Lake was stronger, going up to 60. Hollinger Consolidated displayed considerable strength, advancing to $6.95 for an odd lot. Teck-Hughes was strong at 40 to 41. West Dome Consolidated receded a point from the previous day's high at 35 and recovered 1-4.

Vacuum Gas started a real "come back," selling up to 110, closing at 100. After its natural reaction this stock is quite liable to better its high record of 113. In the Cobalts, Timiskaming was stronger, advancing to 62. On active trading Peterson Lake went up to 19, but lost the gain later, closing a point lower. Nipissing was firm at $5.50. McKimley showed strength at 59 to 60. Kerr Lake sold at $4.37 1/2 and Comings changed hands at $4.85. Ophir retained its gain, selling at 11.

BELLE ELLEN SINKING AGAIN; ADJOINS LORRAIN

Thought That Veins on Former Will Be Picked Up on Latter.

The Belle Ellen will again commence sinking, says The Cobalt Nugget, and the next level will be established at a point near the contact. Last spring the management decided to sink to the contact, and after going down to a point approximately 150 feet above where the contact is thought to be some rich ore was cut into. Drilling on the vein and good ore is being mined. The ore is pocketed but of a good average grade.

The policy originally outlined, however, will be carried out and a deeper level reached before further development will be commenced. The property adjoins the Lorrain Consolidated, and it is expected that the same veins may be picked up on the latter property. Sinking in progress rapidly on the latter property, but a considerable distance has to be gone yet before the contact is reached, after which intervals will be put out and the eight-inch vein drilled upon.

MINING MEN

Between West Shining Tree Gold Camp and Nipigon (400 miles) several mining belts cross the continent, especially the west. The Porcupine Gold Belt, Dominion and Porcupine, are the most important. The latter property, Sinking in progress rapidly on the latter property, but a considerable distance has to be gone yet before the contact is reached, after which intervals will be put out and the eight-inch vein drilled upon.

GOOD NEWS ON DAVIDSON

The announcement of the picking up of the main vein on the Davidson at the 300-foot level was not received from Porcupine until just before the close of the markets, but in the last few minutes' trading on Wednesday the shares of the company rose to a new high record at 58 cents, and the close of the markets, the location of the ore body on the lower level marks an important stage in the company's development, and is taken to prove conclusively that a mine has been demonstrated to be a prospect. With the vein proven to exist at depths of 100, 200 and 300 feet, Davidson promises to pass into the list of producing mines, before many months have passed.

Engineers Enforce Inspiration Miners Buying Heavily

Now that diamond drilling is under way at Inspiration Gold Mines, the demand for this stock is increasing daily, as a result of which prices are advancing steadily and considerably higher prices may confidently be expected.

A Gold Mine of Size

Nothing is to be gained, in my opinion, in withholding buying orders in this stock as when news of a favorable strike in the diamond drilling leaks out, which may come without warning—there is no doubt a sharp advance will follow. If you ever intend to buy Inspiration Gold, it is my candid opinion.

MARK HARRIS on MINES and MINING

A man walked into my office the other day and told me, among other things, that he greatly enjoyed reading my articles in the World, but had one fault to find, which was that I did not tell the public what to buy and what to sell.

I explained to him that the chief reason for this was the fact that, in making an investment, it all depended on what a man really wanted, and that what would suit one investor would not suit another.

Porcupine is the greatest gold camp in the world, and, being the greatest, it offers the investor more genuine opportunities than any half-dozen camps put together.

This is a broad statement, but it is one that will stand up after a most searching investigation, because it is founded on facts, and facts, after all, are the only thing that really count when you are investing money.

Porcupine offers the investor a wide choice from the absolute safe investment, paying regular dividends, to the rank speculation that can only be classed as a gamble.

Between the safe investment and the rank gamble, there are many investments and speculations that could be graded into half-dozen or more classes, each representing a different degree of safety and possibility.

For this reason, I always endeavor to ascertain an investor's circumstances before recommending a stock, as it makes all the difference in the world whether you worked hard to save a few hundred dollars, which you cannot afford to lose, or whether you have a hundred lying idle that you are willing to take a business risk on.

Some like one thing, while others want something entirely different. For instance, you may purchase a stock to lay away as an investment, while your neighbor may buy the same stock for the purpose of selling again when it shows a substantial profit, no matter what you want in the way of an investment, Porcupine can accommodate you, and if you will only write me frankly and fully, I will gladly advise you to the best of my ability.

I wish the investors of the United States and Canada to Porcupine as I do, for, if they did, they would never invest a penny in outside camps, at least not while conditions remain as they are today.

I never advise my friends and clients to invest in a mining stock while a boom is on, for in boom times prices become greatly inflated, and you usually pay twice as much as you should.

Porcupine had her boom five years ago, and if you compare prices prevailing in those days with today's figures, you will see I mean.

Of course, some stocks, like Hollinger and Dome, have increased in value; but these increments are based on intrinsic value and not on wild, excited markets.

Every new camp must, sooner or later, go through this melting-pot process, which is nothing more or less than a true test of intrinsic value. Porcupine had her boom, followed by a reaction that must come, and, since then, the market price of a share is, in most cases, a barometer of its value.

Gold mines are not made in a day; it takes several years of large sums of money to develop a good prospect into a producing dividend-paying mine.

Investors, as a rule, want quick action, and, for this reason, often sell a good security that is in the development stage, and the proceeds in a proposition that is still a prospect.

If investors understood mining, they would never do anything. To make this perfectly clear, I must explain that mining is divided into three stages: 1st—The Prospect Stage. 2nd—The Developing Stage. 3rd—The Producing Stage.

All properties are classed as prospects until they find ore, if the ore is found in quantity, the prospect advances to the development stage, which is the least understood by laymen. A mine can remain in the development stage anywhere from five to ten years, because, as a rule, good mines do not attempt to produce in quantity until sufficient ore is blocked out to insure a supply for the mill for years to come. No man can see down into the ground; consequently, a conservative management always endeavors to secure, by its operations, a plentiful supply of raw material (which is ore) for commencing to operate the mill which is to grind the ore into particles of gold that bring stockholders their dividends. The great Hollinger mine spent more than one million dollars before they earned a nickel for their stockholders; but, in the time when they did start, they had such a vast amount of raw material blocked out for their big mill that the proposition was nothing more or less than a manufacturing one; and this big mine will continue to manufacture gold for its stockholders for many decades to come. In gold mining, the best dividend-payers are always low propositions, and this means an expensive equipment as well as intensive development, which, of course, takes time to complete. If investors will bear all these details in mind when they make their investments, they will find that disappointments in the business are fewer in number than in any other industry, while profits are many times greater. Knowing the mining business as I do, I hesitate to advise an open article, for, until I know exactly what an investor wants, it is practically impossible to give advice that will suit every particular person. In sending out bulletins to friends and clients, I always plainly state the character of the investment I recommend, and then giving all of the available facts, without gloss or embellishment, are in a position to judge whether it suits your requirements, or not.

U. S. Steel Continues Central Figure of New York Exchange.

SOME GAINS VANISH

Final Hour Brings Backset to Several Active Market Issues.

New York, Nov. 8.—U. S. Steel was at all times the central figure in today's market, selling up to 125 at the opening and advancing another point at midday, to the new maximum of 126, but fell back to 121 7/8 in the final hour, and closed at 124, a net gain of a point.

Other new records included Bethlehem Steel, up 15 points to 68 1/2; Utah Copper 1 to 114 1/2; Central Leather 7 1/2 to 110; American Beet Sugar 1 1/2 to 105 1/2, and China Copper 1 1/8 to 65 1/2.

Among the other substantial gains, most of which were obliterated in the final hour, were Mercantile Marine common and preferred, American Locomotive, American Woolen and International Paper, at gains of 2 to 4 points in the rise of the first hour, but this advantage proved to be no more substantial than the advance in investment rails, whose early gains of 1 1/2 to almost 2 points, were mostly substituted by net losses of as much as 1 1/2.

Estimates of the importance of the market were more variable than in the preceding month, further deterioration in some staples being offset by gains in others.

Bonds were firm, with the initial rise in stocks, but receded moderately later. Total sales, par value, $4,370,000.

WALL STREET FOLLOWED BY DOMESTIC STOCKS

Presidential Uncertainties Bring Frequent Liquidations That React on Canadian Stocks.

Hilarious buoyancy in the Wall Street market yesterday, in the belief that a Republican president had been elected, lent a bullish flavor to domestic stocks in the early business, and the prices of some issues preferred to earlier records. New York was kept in a state of uncertainty up till the close, and modification of early views gave frequent turns to the whole market. This also had its effect on the Toronto Stock Exchange, and during the afternoon session some of the early first operators preferred to take profits rather than stay long overnight. Canadian stocks naturally followed the big United States shares, and the Scotia and Dominion made important advances and new high levels in this market. Steamships came in for new speculation and held firm throughout the day. The Russell stocks were also strong. Dominion Steel Foundry held its rampant advance with a close at 290. Wads of N. A. Pulp were handed out with the result of a net loss for the day of a quarter of a point. The Toronto market is now in a highly speculative mood, and quick turns in either direction may be witnessed.

PRESIDENT NO DISTURBER.

Heron & Co. had the following at the close: Montreal, Nov. 8.—Considering the uncertainty of the presidential elections, a nervous market might have been expected both here and in New York. On the contrary, however, both markets were persistently strong, and it would seem as though the prosperity of this continent is on such a firm foundation that such political considerations as these movements in this presidential election, cannot disturb the markets.

Plummer & Co. Report

On Margin Trading. Outside of purely financial circles there are a number of misconceptions prevalent regarding stock trading on margin and there is, likewise, a largely exaggerated idea of the danger involved in this method of dealing. As a matter of fact, the purchasing of shares on a margin basis is, to all intents and purposes, exactly the same form of transaction as is the mortgage, subject to a mortgage. In the one case the real estate in question becomes the actual property of the purchaser, though not fully paid for, and interest is paid on the balance of the purchase money; in the case of stock, the shares are purchased and become the sole property of the buyer, and in this case, likewise, interest is paid on the balance due. Since, however, a time limit set for the carrying of the loan and are a liquid asset, they are not delivered to the actual owner, but are deposited in a bank from which the loan is secured, or are held by the broker if the loan is made direct by him. In either case the shares are immediately delivered to the purchaser in the event of the payment by him of the unpaid balance. The main point of difference between a mortgage transaction and a margin stock transaction is that, since a stock is a fluctuating medium and is thereby subject to changes in value, the margin, or in other words, the sum deposited to secure the broker against loss, must be kept good and renewed in the event of the shares in question declining to a point which exhausts a large proportion of the deposited funds. There is, in no case, a time limit set for the carrying of stock on margin and stocks so carried may be held indefinitely, so long as the margin is kept good.

Granting the establishment of the status of a marginal purchase, let us consider the advantages to be derived from this form of dealing. In the first place the most obvious advantage is that a much smaller amount of money is requisite to make a purchase of a reasonable amount of stock than would be the case were it necessary to pay for the shares in full, but the benefit of this mode of trading extends farther than this, and again becomes very apparent in the matter of annual return upon the money invested. For instance, take the purchase of say 1,000 shares of Porcupine Crown:

As to the matter of the safety of making stock purchases on a margin basis, it is to be said that any reasonable degree of caution and the exercise of a small amount of judgment renders this mode of trading perfectly within the bounds of conservatism. The trader need only avoid becoming overextended, to a point where a sudden break in the market will find him unable to meet the call for margin, in order to feel that his investments are entirely secure. One other, and most important, point which is to be taken into consideration, is the financial soundness of the broker. Naturally the failure of a broker must, of necessity, jeopardize the holdings of those carrying stocks on margin, and, therefore, it is imperative that the soundness of the brokerage house be proven beyond question before margin commitments are made.

In this connection we beg to offer our services in the matter of carrying stocks on margin. We will be pleased to go more fully into the matter with anyone who cares to write us, or to call at this office, and we will be pleased to demonstrate to any inquirers our complete financial responsibility. Our policy is, and always has been, one of absolute conservatism, and our clients are protected to the uttermost degree. We will be glad to hear from you.
