ITALIANS STILL DRIVING AHEAD

Now Solidly Established in City of Gradisca

AN AUSTRIAN SACRIFICE

Fortress They Evacuated and Blew up Was Important One—Rousing Welcome For Italians From Canada and States Arriving Home to Fight

Rome, June 12.—An official statement of last night says: "Some progress was made today at different points. A reconnaissance party beyond Monte Nero found in the ravines recently explored by our fire the wreckage of files and machine guns abandoned by the enemy and the bodies of forty Austrians. "Enemy forces comprising six battalions, coming from Plesco (in Austria, 89 miles northwest of Gorizia) attempted, according to statements made by prisoners, to take our troops in the rear of the section of the Driul. This attempt was frustrated by the Alpine troops. "We are now solidly established in the city of Gradisca which has been held by our advanced troops for some days."

Additional Successes For Russian Arms

Many More Prisoners and Guns - Disaster For Teutons at Przemysl—Popular Call For the Duma to Assemble

Petrograd, June 12.—Russian successes are reported in the following official announcement: "On the night of the 10th and the 11th, the Germans after a furious bombardment, renewed determined attacks from the west of Shavli on the front of Koullie, Rakievo and Elnorod. Several times during the night they reached our barbed wire entanglements, but each time were thrown back, leaving piles of killed and wounded. "North of Shavli, an enemy detachment, principally of cavalry, advanced slightly in the direction of Sankinow, coming from the west. "On the left bank of the Dubysa from Shavli to Beligala, we assumed the offensive on the morning of the 11th by a vigorous night attack more than 500 prisoners with guns, mitrailleuses and other booty. "The enemy continued his fruitless attacks in the region of Mosiska. "On the right bank of the Dniester we continued on the 9th and 10th to press the enemy on the front between the rivers Tymenica and Swica, capturing many prisoners, quick fives and other booty. In this region the enemy, to cover his retreat, despatched a train of five armored automobiles, supported by infantry, toward Stry and Mikolow, but the accurate fire of our guns compelled the train to beat a rapid retreat. In this action the head of our infantry column developed an energetic offensive and made prisoners the entire 8th Company of the 79th Austrian regiment. "On the left bank of the Dniester on the front of Olowichow and Bucksowice the fighting has been obstinate since the 10th, for the villages of Olowichow, Nowolochne, Wyschnaw, and Kosars, termin-

ATTEMPTED FRAUD ON PATRIOTIC FUND HERE IS CHARGED

North End Woman in Court Over Matter of $26 Check

Mrs. Annie Carlin, of 72 Camden street, was arraigned for preliminary hearing in the police court this morning on suspicion of attempting to obtain the sum of $26 from the Canadian Patriotic Fund with intent to defraud.

Secretary C. B. Allan testified that he made out a check for that sum in favor of Mrs. Ida Craft, and had it sent to her address at 72 Camden street. Later, he said, a woman saying she was Mrs. Craft, called at his office and told him that for some reason she had been unable to cash the check in the Bank of Nova Scotia. He called L. D. Tilley, who said that she was not the Mrs. Craft who was entitled to the money. The former then took the check to the bank and there was informed that it had been presented, but as the woman had no identification card and as the check was not indorsed, they had refused to cash it. The matter was then put in the hands of the police and the arrest followed. Several other witnesses were heard.

IF THEY HAD MORE MONEY FOR WORK HERE

Outline of Board of Health Work in Toronto

Some of the possibilities of the work of a properly organized Board of Health are indicated in the monthly publications of the Toronto department of public health, copies of which have been received.

The monthly report is a pamphlet of twenty seven pages packed with detailed information of their work. The list of contents which is sufficient to give an idea of the extent of their activities, follows: Divisions of vital statistics, laboratory, public health nurses, child hygiene, public service, communicable diseases and quarantine, service of diagnostic, hospital, dental, medicine and ambulance inspection, sanitation, plumbing and drainage, and ambulances.

In addition to the monthly report, a health bulletin is published for more popular use. It is a well printed four page leaflet containing straight talks on the dangers of the common house fly, the duty of learning to swim and first aid measures to prevent death by drowning; special articles on dangers of baby "comforts"; a list of "Well Baby" clinics; descriptions of Toronto's baby clinics and restaurants; from a health standpoint and what should be a valuable feature, a list of all the dairies whose milk scores at least eighty per cent in the monthly tests.

On their literature is prominently displayed "Dazzle's" saying "Public health is the foundation upon which rests the happiness of the people and the welfare of the state"; and their slogan "With a well organized department of public health as it is willing to pay for."

The latter sentiment is one which has a strong bearing on the situation in St. John. There is no doubt about the efficiency of the Board of Health officials and the medical health officer but there is also no room to doubt their statements that their work is limited by the comparatively small appropriation at their disposal.

Anderson, an officer of the 23rd, with whom I share a dug-out, was hit yesterday, the bullet drag him out of danger, but it was the German fighters make a special target of them, which means that the wounded have to wait until night before receiving attention."

Bryan To German Americans Urges Them to Aid in Maintaining Peace Between United States and Germany

Washington, June 12.—Former Secretary Bryan's campaign to put before the American people his position growing out of the situation between the United States and Germany, was expected to have come to an end for the present, with the publication of his appeal to Germany with those in progress with Great Britain, because the cases are different.

With the assurance of Mr. Bryan's latest statement interest today centered in the former secretary's future course, and he is both; second, that the president is desirous of peace and that it is their duty to aid him in maintaining it, and third, not to attempt to connect the negotiations now in progress with Germany with those in progress with Great Britain, because the cases are different.

CHURCH PAPERS MAY AMALGAMATE

Proposal Before Conference This Morning. Approved by Book Committee—Session Devoted to the Reception of Reports

A proposal for the amalgamation of the Wesleyan with the Christian Guardian was laid before the Methodist conference this morning. The offer was made in a communication from the Toronto Book and Publishing Committee, publishers of the Christian Guardian, and was also referred to in the report of the conference book committee, the latter body approving the terms offered and recommending their acceptance. Action on the matter was deferred.

Other matters dealt with during the morning were the reports of the committees of Children's Fund, Sustentation Fund, Contingent Fund, Class Leaders and Sabbath Observance. The morning session opened at nine o'clock with a devotional service at which Rev. M. E. Conroy was heard in an able discussion of "The Teaching of Jesus concerning Man."

The conference was called to order at 9:45 by the president, Rev. R. O'Neil, for the resumption of business. A communication received regarding a proposed amalgamation of the church papers, the Wesleyan, published in Halifax, and the Christian Guardian, of Toronto, was presented, but action was deferred.

Miss Hattie J. reported for the Deaconesses, regretting her inability to be present to represent that branch of the work. On motion, Rev. J. J. Weddall was appointed to the passage committee, replacing Rev. M. Rowland.

F. W. Mosher was then heard with regard to the work of the Methodist book room in Halifax. The report of the book committee was presented in printed form by Rev. George Steel, secretary. The committee reported total sales for the year of $18,356.04 with a gross profit of $6,092.77, a slight decrease from last year. The outstanding accounts were reduced by about $4,000 and the financial situation thus improved. The Wesleyan, published by the committee, maintained its circulation and showed increased receipts for both circulation and advertising, the cash receipts being $4,132. The committee reported on the proposal received from the Toronto Book and Publishing Committee for the amalgamation of the Wesleyan with the Christian Guardian and reported passing a resolution, by majority vote, approving of the terms offered and recommending their acceptance. The financial statement shows total assets of $2,938.51, a surplus of $10,454.61 over liabilities.

MARKED CHANGE IN MOTHERLAND. England of Today Contrasted With a Year Ago. WAR HAS GRIPPED ALL. Effect on Fashion and Idle Life. Most Noticeable—Nearly All Young Men Enlisted; Now Married Ones of 30 to 40.

New York, June 12—A cable from London to The Tribune says:—"No sign is lacking at the present time to show that the war has gripped the very heart of the motherland. As compared with June, 1914, Britain is a new country.

A year ago the season was at its very height; restaurants, theatres, and dressmakers were doing an enormous business, while the prospect for the Assot race meeting furnished the chief theme of conversation. Today several fashionable hotels are empty, that they would be better off if able to close down entirely. Smart restaurants have lowered all their prices and depend mainly on the patronage of officers on leave from the front. The principal milliners and costume makers have discharged more than seventy per cent of their employees and are doing practically nothing. Women are giving up attention to the new fashions, and alter old gowns instead of buying new. Expensive private automobiles are fewer daily.

One sees thousands of khaki figures marching along the private thoroughfares. The men have awakened to the gravity of the situation, a state of mind due largely to the Zeppelin raids, and realizing the prospect that they would be better off if able to close down entirely. Smart restaurants have lowered all their prices and depend mainly on the patronage of officers on leave from the front. The principal milliners and costume makers have discharged more than seventy per cent of their employees and are doing practically nothing. Women are giving up attention to the new fashions, and alter old gowns instead of buying new. Expensive private automobiles are fewer daily.

If He Died—The Business Would Die

How often have you heard some statement made about a particular business?

It means—that one man, either through technical knowledge, or through his ability as an executive, controls, for the time being, the destiny of the firm. If he died creditors might become anxious, inquisitive, or even troublesome, or any one of many contingencies might arise to threaten the stability of the business.

Unless—his life was insured in favor of the firm. It is possible to so insure "his" life that the storm can be easily weathered and the business successfully carried on without him.

Our book, "Business Conservation," explains how. Write for a copy. It's most interesting and it's free. THE IMPERIAL LIFE Assurance Company of Canada Head Office Toronto A. P. ALLINGHAM, Provincial Mgr. St. John, N.B. The Imperial maintains for policyholders' protection stronger reserves than does any other Canadian company.

HENDERSON GRAMS. From The Battle-Front of Business—"Official" Steady Advances Daily. Holding Every Foot of Ground. Have Won.

Special for Saturday—Men's brown tweed suits at $15, men's light tweed suits $16, men's white and black effects $16, men's blue serge suits $15. To buy these blue suits today they are getting comparatively few young men, because those ready to serve have already enlisted. Present day recruits are most of them married men between thirty and forty.

"The father" has almost disappeared. The apparently eligible young men to whom recruiters appeal no more than in a twenty is deliberately refraining from joining. This recruiting stimulus is characteristic of the change which has come over the nation. Practically all the engineering works throughout Britain are now devoting themselves in one way or another to military munitions. Retired engineers and men with engineering knowledge, many of them amateurs, are giving their services to warlike authorities, factories, without pay, to increase the output.

All this goes to show that every class of society is now giving itself up to the war and nothing else. There is scarcely a family which is not personally affected by the struggle, and the country is rapidly reaching the point where every person, in some fashion, will be assisting in fighting the Germans.

RECENT DEATHS. The death of James H. Smith occurred at his son's residence, Elgin, yesterday. Mr. Smith is survived by his wife, two sons, Rev. W. H. Smith, of Gardiner, Me., and Clyde L. Smith, of Elgin, and one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Beck, of Moncton. He was about sixty-five years of age. He has two brothers, George W. Smith, and R. A. Smith, Scott Act inspector of Albert county, both of Elgin. The sisters are Mrs. Estarrax, of Moncton; Mrs. Jacob W. Steeves, and Mrs. Martha Dyars, of Elgin, and Mrs. B. N. Colpitts, of Pettit-codiac.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 12, 1915. The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Cornhill Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE WAR NEWS.

The week ends with much more favorable news from the Russian front, the Russian armies, reinforced, have turned upon the enemy in Galicia and gained what is regarded by military observers as an important success. It shows at least that they will make it necessary for the enemy to retain very large armies in the eastern arena, and that in itself is very important.

and from purely selfish motives he should do his part to promote the common good. The St. John Standard pretends to believe that the patronage list has been abolished by the Borden government. Such engaging simplicity is very refreshing in these days of Royal Commissions.

No great battle has yet been fought between the Austrians and Italians, but the latter appear to have established themselves firmly on Austrian territory, which is a distinct advantage. They are still pressing slowly forward, and occupying new positions. There is renewed activity by Serbia and Montenegro which will tend to make Austria's position more difficult and threatening.

The German submarines prey mostly on small and slow craft. The sum total of their depredations is fairly large, but does not prevent Britain from doing "business as usual."

The second American note appears to have had a somewhat sobering effect in Berlin, although a portion of the German press is defiant in tone. It is intimated that no action on the note will be taken until the messenger from the German embassy at Washington has reached Berlin. In Washington the tone of discussion is more peaceful, and it is hinted that a note may be sent to the Allies insisting on a change in the operation of the blockade. It will not be surprising, however, if before many weeks have passed the United States joins in making that blockade more effective; for Germany can hardly be expected to receive from the position she has so vigorously declared to be right.

Mr. Lloyd George said yesterday that there was a shortage of shells, and the work of producing a sufficient supply must be speeded up with no shirkers. The question of a larger output of munitions was discussed in the French Chamber of Deputies yesterday, and the minister of war said the laborers of the factories must be intensified and the output greatly enlarged. This question is one of the gravest importance to the success of the armies of the Allies. Germany's splendid industrial organization has given her a great advantage in this respect.

There is a report that one Dr. Gildermeister of Holland, who has lately been in Berlin, and is now in the United States, and is an apostle of peace, is giving out the peace terms which Germany might be induced to consider. They involve very distinct advantages to Germany, but the situation regarding them and the attitude of the Allies is very well stated by the Bangor Commercial, which says: "It is not at all unlikely that Germany would be well satisfied to conclude peace on such terms, for in spite of the successes that have been achieved by the German arms the maximum efficiency of the Teutons must have been nearly if not quite reached, while that of the Allies is slowly being increased with the limit a long way off. Italy has added millions, the Balkan nations may follow suit, while England with her mighty resources is just getting under way. The Allies are bound by a firm agreement to make no peace until such a step is satisfactory to all, and it is certain that they will consent to none that does not include proper reparation to Belgium and the curbing for generations to come of Teutonic militarism, unless they are beaten, and that contingency is as remote as it has been from the commencement of the conflict."

Two important St. John cases were before the Supreme Court in Fredericton yesterday. These were The St. John Railway Company vs. the City of St. John, to settle the matter of the use of grove rails and concrete foundations; and the case of the Municipality vs. the Board of Valuers, to determine how tax-exempt property shall be listed. Judgment was reserved in both cases. In the case of the King vs. B. L. Gerow, ex-parte Gross and Dawson, H. W. Robertson supported an appeal from a judgment setting aside an order discharging from arrest. The court decided the case was not appealable.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE. The great public has the utmost confidence in the outcome of the present war, the integrity of the British Empire, and the glorious future that awaits. One small proof that this is so may be taken from our recent experience. Our Diamond Sales for the month of May were largely in excess of the Diamond Sales of May, 1914. This is a wonderful record, and one of which we are justly proud. It shows that our methods are right; that our values are all that we claim for them; that our stock is the finest in the city.

Doctor Said Sciatica--Rheumatism--Lumbago But He Could Not Help Me, and Endorsed The Use Of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Mr. Wm. Parker, 106 Cayuga street, Brantford, Ont., tells in the following letter of his remarkable experience with Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. My doctor treated me for some time for Sciatica Rheumatism, Lumbago, but to no purpose, for I had to lay off work. The visiting officer of Sick Benefit called to see me and advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, stating that he had been cured of the same trouble by their use. I asked the druggist about them and he recommended them highly. Not being satisfied with this, I went back to my doctor and when he said they were good I began their use. The promptness with which they relieved the action of the kidneys and bowels was wonderful, and it was not long before I was rid of all my trouble. "I was so bad that I could only walk by hanging on to a chair or the wall. My wife had to lace my shoes. Only those who have had this ailment can realize the way I suffered. I am writing this letter to let people who have my trouble know of these pills. You are at liberty to use this letter, and if anyone interested will call or write to me I will give every detail." Write to Mr. Parker, enclosing stamp for reply, and he will verify this statement. He will do this out of the gratitude he feels for his cure and because he realizes how difficult it is to obtain the cure of these dreadfully painful ailments. There are so many treatments recommended for rheumatism that you naturally doubt them all. Here is an opportunity for you to verify the cure and put this great medicine to the test. It will only cost you a quarter to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They get at the very foundation of rheumatism, sciatica, by removing the poisons from the system, take away the cause of pains and aches. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

"THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER"

Prima Donna With "The Chocolate Soldier"

Tena Rasband, the little prima donna who will sing the title role in "The Chocolate Soldier" at the Opera House next week, is a plain American girl, possessing simple tastes. On being asked recently by an interviewer what kind of music she liked best, she said, simple music had for her the greatest charm. She took as much pleasure listening to the tunes contained in a Hardy Gurday as she did in the most perfectly balanced symphony orchestra.

"Don't misunderstand me," says Miss Rasband, "I don't mean to say that I would care to listen to the strains of a hand organ for a whole morning, nor on the other hand, neither would I care to listen to a whole string of Beethoven symphonies. The contrary, one thing certainly has its artistic drawbacks, but I must admit that in my moments of leisure I can have just as much fun with a coon song as I might have with a most brilliant aria. All classes of music have a special meaning for me, and I believe that all artists of the right temperament are of this mental attitude.

"Especially is the popular music attractive to one who has spent all her life in the study of the more erudite forms. When it is considered that a prima donna spends a great many years in the preparation of the most heavy and technical compositions, I know that I, for one, can find a great deal of diversion and amusement in running over all the new songs of the popular variety. My teacher told me that when I grow older I will get over this silly notion, and this is the only thing that I regret. My teacher is a waste of time. But any teacher is a bit of a classist," said Miss Rasband with a twinkle. "When I scored so big a hit in 'The Chocolate Soldier' I thought that it would be a good joke to sing a large bundle of newspaper clippings to my teacher with the comment that, in spite of his heretofore receipts to the contrary, I believe that his name and fortune by singing the most popular music in the last decade."

THE PERILS OF PAULINE

DRAWING TO A CLOSE

Last Showing Next Week; Other Features Coming

The showing of "In the Grip of the Guillotine," at the Gem Theatre today marks the 19th episode in the popular serial "The Perils of Pauline," of which only one more will follow, the final being "At the Battleship's Mercy" to be shown next Friday and Saturday. For Monday and Tuesday of next week, the Essanay Co. will present a two part drama of exceptional power and interest, "The Lieutenant Governor," a gripping story of a life hanging in the balance, and the reliance on clemency.

The Wednesday and Thursday show will be featured by a three part Lubin story of strife in Mexico, "The Terrible One," with exciting adventure, romance, and intrigue as keynotes to the plot. Bright, enjoyable comedies, of the kind well known to Gem patrons, will be presented at every change.

Orpheum Stock Returning

The Orpheum Stock Company, which made such a good impression during their recent engagement at the Opera House, has been booked for a return engagement commencing on June 21, when they will produce the George Broadhurst drama, "The Mills of the Gods." This is the play which made such a big hit in New York last season. It has just been released for stock presentation.

"COME AND LET US SAVE THE KIDDIES"

(Conservation for June.)

The above words, credited to Alfred G. Vanderbilt in his last hour upon the doomed Lusitania, will, as the Bishop of London has said, ring round the world. Many men and women have used the same terms, though probably not under such tragic circumstances. Today, in Canada, we have groups of self-sacrificing men and women, who are devoting both their time and energies to the saving of the children.

The playgrounds movement, which has been taken up by many cities in Canada, is only one of the many ways in which this result is being secured. In Canadian cities and towns there are still innumerable children who will not be able to have a day in the country this summer—who are confined, for their pleasure and play, to the street or lane. It is on behalf of these children that the appeal of Alfred Vanderbilt rings out so truly as it did to the children on the Lusitania. Let Canadian men and women, who are interested in the welfare, organize, and see to it that every child, whether of Canadian or foreign parentage, has the opportunity of the open air, and liberty to develop the young life, that he may grow up to manhood, a credit to Canada and Canadians.

It is in opportunities such as this that the true spirit of conservation is found. Canada is looking to the future, and there is no field in which greater results may be secured than in the conservation of the individual unit—the child.

WORRY AND WEAKNESS

Often indicate Overwork, and a Run Down Nervous System

Overwork and worry have an evil effect on the system and often give rise to nervousness and sleeplessness. Other signs include a weak back, headaches and indigestion. In time if matters are neglected a complete breakdown of the nervous system follows. On every hand one can observe victims of this state of nervous exhaustion who are at a loss to know what to do with themselves, their nervous debilitated state having baffled all ordinary treatment.

If you are a victim of exhausted nerves, if your symptoms are as described above, you need Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because they are a powerful nerve tonic. Their strengthening action on weak nerves is due to the fact that they enrich and build up the blood through which the nerves are fed. Under the tonic influence of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills all traces of nervous weakness disappear together with the headaches, the insomnia, the feeling of intense weakness and depression of spirits that mark the victim of nervous ailments. Here is the proof: "I give me greatest pleasure to testify as to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I began their use I was a physical wreck; my nerves were all unstrung, I suffered from frequent headaches and backaches, and was almost wholly unfitted for work. I had tried several remedies without success, when I finally decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. I took six boxes and they made me a well man."

What these Pills did for Mr. Marr they will do for every other weak and nervous man, if given a fair trial. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville (Ont.).

The source of true living is not in possessions, but in disbursements. The mould of a man's fortune is in his own hands.

While Mr. Bryan may have some sympathizers in the United States, the press generally gives him cold comfort. The following are a few extracts—

New York Sun—He has chosen to make his leaving as unpleasant as his staying. He deserts the president at a moment of grave international complication. He deliberately does all that lies in his power to create a prejudice against the note to be sent to Germany Thursday, a note whose contents are still unknown to the public. His remarkably tender sense of duty makes him forget that he owes a duty to the United States.

Los Angeles Times—President Wilson is to be congratulated upon this breach in his cabinet. Secretary Bryan was the weakest point in his line, and now he can strengthen it. The inefficiency and ineptness of the secretary of state has been a reproach to the country and no doubt a source of mortification to the president.

New York World—Mr. Bryan's resignation, however unfortunate, cannot change the attitude of the country toward the president. Rather it will solidify public sentiment still more strongly behind Mr. Wilson.

Albany Press—It was the duty of Mr. Bryan at the present time to stand by the president just the same as it is the duty of every loyal American citizen to stand by President Wilson in this crisis.

Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch: It is Wilson, not Bryan, who strikes today the note to which the heart of the American people responds and with which it beats in general sympathy. The nation is with him. If here and there are dissenting voices they are drowned in the great surging chorus of national approval.

Indianapolis Star—Mr. Bryan is now free to pursue the prohibition propaganda from which he seems to expect so great returns. The president, it has long been suspected, has taken Mr. Bryan's measure and will doubtless be much relieved at this sudden release from an always awkward situation.

Pittsburg Gazette-Times—The resignation of William Jennings Bryan as secretary of state is a good riddance. It is a great relief to the people of the United States and President Wilson. It puts Mr. Bryan just where he belongs.

Buffalo Morning Express—Mr. Bryan resigned as secretary of state yesterday. The Wilson administration is to be congratulated. The people of the United States are to be congratulated.

Rocky Mountain News—He was a failure as secretary of state and during his term lost prestige throughout the nation. And as Mr. Bryan receded the president grew in strength with the people and congress.

The Philadelphia Ledger—In a crisis like this Mr. Bryan's pathetic inadequacy is only too apparent. It would be at once unkind and superfluous to dwell upon his failure in his high office. No one but himself is to blame for it.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune—The retirement of William Jennings

Bryan from the state department at Washington removes at a peculiarly critical time a serious menace to the good name and the welfare of the nation.

Boston Advertiser—The announcement of the withdrawal of William Jennings Bryan from the cabinet will, we feel sure, be received with profound satisfaction by most Americans.

Philadelphia Inquirer—And so Mr. Bryan is to go at last. That he has resigned is not at all strange. What is singular is that he could have remained as long as he had.

Boston Globe—Candor obliges us to state that Mr. Bryan's whole life has been such as would make him unfit by training and temperament for his position in this crisis of world affairs.

Salt Lake Tribune—Even those who were the faithful friends and admirers of the Nebraska statesman felt that his extreme views on several issues made him a crippling team-mate for the president.

The Salt Lake Herald-Republican—Mr. Bryan's retirement from the state department and from President Wilson's circle of official advisers is profoundly relieving.

The Arizona Republican—For what, if any, department of statesmanship Mr. Bryan is fitted to be at the head of foreign affairs.

Acadels Thurston has announced that her next starring vehicle will be "The Dehance," a new play by Harry W. Hawley. The play will be produced early next season.

A good place to judge a woman's beauty and a man's disposition is at the breakfast table.

LAYS A HEAVY HAND ON BRYAN

Bangor Commercial Scores Late Secretary For Leaving Post At Time of Crisis

(Bangor Commercial)

The retirement of William Jennings Bryan from the office secretary of the Bangor Commercial, which comes coincidentally with the crucial moment in the relations between this country and Germany will be received with grave surprise by the American people.

At a time when men of both great parties and people of all beliefs are standing solidly in support of President Wilson, upholding his hands and giving to the world the most remarkable exhibition of unanimity that history has presented, Mr. Bryan places his personal views above the opinion of the great majority, not only of his fellow cabinet members but of the citizens of the United States, and leaves his post.

Mr. Bryan has occupied the chair of the secretary of state for more than two years. He has never, we believe, held a place in the administration comparable with his high title. His principal endeavors have, as throughout his public career, been largely confined to the advancement of his favorite "isms," chief among which has been pacifism. He has negotiated honestly, and with the advice and consent of President Wilson, some thirty treaties with as many nations looking towards the abolition of the evil of unnecessary war. In his spare moments he has turned an honest penny by using his high office to draw crowds to the lecture hall to hear him preach upon his favorite subject. Now, instead of showing loyalty to his chief, the president, in the present crisis and by another for the moment his own personal desires as to the methods to be pursued, Mr. Bryan, believing that he sees danger ahead, quits, unwilling to sacrifice anything of that which he holds precious and valuable to himself.

The country will be quick to grasp the difference in calibre between President Wilson and Mr. Bryan. President Wilson's views upon peace are well known. The thirty treaties placed to the credit of Mr. Bryan, would never have been drawn and signed but for the assistance and assistance of the president. We suspect that the note to Germany following the Lusitania massacre, was written by Mr. Wilson only after he had studied himself to the task. It was a man-sized note. That he is ready to follow it with another equally strong, proves, not only to the American people, but to the people of the whole world that he is a man who will never hesitate from personal motives to follow absolutely and to the end the course that he believes to be right and which he knows in his heart to be the only course that the United States can hold compatible with its dignity and self-respect.

Whether Mr. Bryan is big enough to realize this, we do not know but that he is not big enough even to follow in the lead of a greater mind where fear for his personal future stands across the path, is the latest and most spectacular action. Politics, personal beliefs, personal ambitions and thoughts of self have no place in the mind of a public servant at a time like this.

That the nobility of President Wilson's example should be lost upon Mr. Bryan is not strange. Mr. Bryan's entire political career has held one ideal and only one, and that is the personal advancement of William Jennings Bryan. If Mr. Bryan had waited for the outcome of this present precarious stage in our foreign relations and then had resigned he would have been easily forgiven. His withdrawal from office now embarrassing as it does the administration.

RIVALLED BALACLAVA

The following letter signed "A Gunner" and dated from the Red Cross Hospital, Harlow, Essex, May 19th, appears in the London Morning Post: "The following is an extract from your report of Lord Kitchener's statement in the House of Lords: "The Canadians, however, were soon supported by British brigades pushed up, and the enemy's advance was thereby checked. I want to tell you that the pushing up of those British brigades was one of the most glorious episodes of the war. They went up in broad daylight, in skirmishing order, in face of the most awful shell fire. It seemed impossible that any of them would reach the trenches. Their exploit will bear comparison with Bal-sac's and I hope the day will come when a more able pen than mine will tell the world of the deeds performed by our incomparable infantry in front of Ypres. I am thankful for the privilege of having been a witness of their heroism and offer them my undying admiration."

LEUT. SMITH'S FUND CLOSED

R. He acknowledges cash contributions as follows: James F. Robertson, $50; Joseph Allison, $50; W. C. Allison, $10; W. S. Allison, $10; St. John W. C. T. U., $10; R. M. S., $10; John F. The above sum was cashed yesterday by Lieutenant Smith, care of Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd., London, and the appeal is now closed.

Contributions of wool socks have been made by the following ladies, thus providing a pair for each member of his company: Mrs. D. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. David Watson, Mrs. Retailick and daughter, Mrs. J. J. String, Mrs. J. Walter Holly, Mrs. Allan Schofield, Miss S. R. Smith, Miss J. L. Robinson, Royal Standard Company, Daughters of the Empire, and Miss Alice Wilson.

Nervous Prostration and Heart Troubles.

Nervous Prostration, or Neurasthenia, is one of the worst forms of nerve trouble and brings about a general weakness of the whole nervous system.

The symptoms presenting themselves are: headache, a feeling of depression, disturbed and restless, unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with dreams, fainting when in crowded places, dread of being alone, loss of society, flight at travelling, muscular weakness, sense of fatigue upon effort, etc.

When the nerves become affected in this way the heart generally becomes affected too.

All are curable if taken in time. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just what you require at this time. They strengthen the nerves and build up the whole system.

Mrs. John Heron, Caladonia, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know the great benefit your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. I suffered for four years with heart trouble and nervous prostration. I was so bad I could not go up stairs without fainting down at the top before I could go to my room. I could not sleep nor could I lie on my left side, for it would seem as if my heart would stop. I thought my life had come. I was doctoring with the doctor, but didn't get any benefit. I took eight boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and am enjoying good health."

Price, 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cape Wolfe, Canada.—"Last March I was a complete wreck. I had given up all hope of getting better or living any length of time, as I was such a sufferer from female troubles. But I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am in good health and have a pair of twin boys two months old and growing finely. I surprised doctors and neighbors for they all know what a wreck I was.

"Now I am healthy, happy and hearty, and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies. You may publish this letter if you like. I think if more women used your remedies they would have better health."—Mrs. J. T. Cook, Lot No. 7, Cape Wolfe, P.E.I., Canada.

Because your case is a difficult one, and doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinatest of women ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying: First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays!

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Druggists sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

HEADACHE?

Thousands of persons who have never known a day's sickness in any other form are subject to frequent attacks of headache that almost drive them mad.

Whenever the nature may be regarded as the immediate cause of headache, the production of the pain is a congestion or filling up of the blood vessels of the brain with blood, thus creating a pressure on the brain cells and nerve elements.

In treating all forms of headache the first thing to do is to relieve the congestion of the blood vessels of the brain. Abbey's Effervescent Salt is a laxative does this promptly.

Sold everywhere at 25c. and 50c.

Full blooded people who are subject to frequent attacks of headache can be entirely relieved by taking laxative doses of the Salt every morning. Headaches from indigestion and biliousness are also entirely banished by continuing the use of the Salt until the normal action of the liver and stomach is restored.

CHATHAM BOYS' PLUCK SAVES HIS COMRADES

Baldwin Carries Message Under Hail of Shot

DISASTER PREVENTED

Battalion of Canadians Would Have Been Cut Off—Wounded in Gallant Act—Praise, Too, For Major Edgar

News of how a Chatham hero saved a whole Canadian battalion by delivering a message under fire, although wounded, is told in a letter from Pte. Jack Forrest to Alvan Walls of Chatham. The wounded man is Andrew C. Baldwin, whose name has already appeared in the casualty lists.

"I suppose you have heard," he writes, "that Andrew Baldwin is wounded, but I suppose you have not heard just how he got it. I know he would not tell it, but he did it splendidly. It was owing to his pluck in carrying a message from one part of the line to another under a regular hail of shot and shrapnel that a battalion of Canadians were not cut off and captured. I cannot tell you how proud all the boys are of him, and he deserves it all. It was while carrying this despatch that he was wounded. I do not know whether he will get anything for it or not, but he deserves the best that goes."

Also Major Edgar. At a critical moment he received word asking how long he could hold out, and the word he sent back was "Hold the cows, come home," and he did it, too. Chatham should be proud of both, and also of Charles McCully, who carried wounded out under a regular hail of fire. The ones at home have not the slightest idea of what our boys have gone through, but themselves know, and what it means to a fellow who wins the respect of his comrades on the battlefield. I do not know whether he will get anything for it or not, but I suppose there are quite a few coming with the second contingent.

Major Norman Edgar referred to in another Chatham boy. Both Edgar and McCully are sons of Col. McCully, of Chatham. Col. McCully has another son wounded and who is now in a hospital in England.

Trumpler, Joseph Lavigne, of Bathurst, has written a letter dated May 20 from the British Red Cross hospital at Netley, Southampton, England, where he was lying wounded, in which he said: "We had a big fight in Belgium a spell ago, and it was awful to see the fellows falling all around you with their heads blown off and some cut all the pieces. It makes a fellow think of good old Canada sometimes. But there is not a death better than to die for your country. When the Canadian boys charge the enemy they shout 'Canada Ever. All the fellows think it is when my turn comes, I wonder. The Canadian boys save the day and they will be always remembered for their bravery."

THE "BACK TO NATURE" FOOD

Under the leadership of Dr. Harvey Wiley, the famous pure food advocate, the people have learned that the real food value of grains lies in the darker portions—the parts which are eliminated by the modern millers. It is these which build muscle, bone, brain, blood. The white parts are not food—they only produce heat and stimulation. A plebeian diet of white bread, made of bleached "snow-white" flour, and of refined cereals, causes indigestion and a prolific source of constipation. Dr. Jackson's "Roman Meal" is the only "back to nature" food. It contains all the dark, nourishing parts of wheat, rye and flax seed, which is as odorless and tasteless as white flour. "Roman Meal" is the coarsest and darkest food known, and can be made into porridge, the most delicious pancakes, puddings and all baked products. It aids digestion and positively prevents constipation. Ask your doctor. At all grocers, 10c. and 25c.

Dr. Caldwell indicated that Kelly was to be allowed to make money out of the caissons contract for the campaign fund, at first $50,000 was suggested, and then $100,000. His estimate of the cost, including the $100,000 gift, was $200,000 and he could not tell when it was that he first learned that $244,000 was to be paid.

"BLUE RIBBON" TONIC DRINKS ARE GOOD PURE DRINKS

Every mother ought to know something about the care of children's eyes. Defective eyesight, which is so common nowadays, is largely the result of ignorance. Excessive study at school, faulty positions when reading and writing, and light for work will cause short sight in after life. Short sight, contrary to popular opinion, is not a hereditary affection. The young child is never short sighted. Not until about the age of nine does the defect make itself felt and from then it becomes steadily worse unless it receives care and attention.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE IN SUMMER

Whether you spend the summer months in the city, or country, at the lake, mountain or seashore, the season brings added responsibility in the extra care to be devoted to the toilet. The hair in particular needs more attention than at any other time. The perspiration that exudes in increased quantities carries with it waste and poisonous matter, which unless removed promptly, clogs the pores and irritates the scalp. This makes it doubly difficult to keep the hair and scalp sweet and clean, and renders the frequent and intelligent use of Newbro's Herpicide almost a necessity.

ADDS TO YOUR COMFORT

It is refreshing. Regular applications give a sense of coolness and cleanliness besides keeping the hair and scalp healthy. Herpicide adds gloss and beauty to the hair and thus increases ones personal charm and attractiveness.

If the hair be wet from bathing, whether in fresh or salt water, Herpicide quickly restores the natural fluffiness and softness. It stops itching of the scalp, due to dandruff almost instantly.

Possessing a dainty, exquisite odor, Newbro's Herpicide is an ideal hot weather hair dressing. When you start away on your summer outing have a bottle in your grip.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE In Centenary church last evening at a meeting in connection with the Methodist conference, Rev. Professor Watson in which he spoke of the justice of Great Britain's case in the world war.

Rev. Dr. Sprague, president of the conference, addressed the delegates bearing greetings to the members. Lieutenant Governor Wood on behalf of the province, and Mayor Fink gave the delegates a hearty reception on behalf of the city. Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson, Rev. Ralph Haughton, and Rev. J. James MacKasilla have fraternal greetings from the Baptist, Congregational and Presbyterian churches, respectively.

On motion of Dr. Sprague appropriate replies were addressed to the various bodies represented in the delegations. The report of the evangelistic committee was presented by the secretary, Rev. Captain H. E. Thomas, and taken up section by section. The committee declared its deep conviction in the church's supreme need of that for which the committee stands and expressed the opinion that the special circumstances existing at present make the opportunity for such work greater than usual.

The committee reported that for the conference sessions of 1916 the services of Dr. L. J. Burney, dean of the Boston University School of Theology, may be secured for a series of special addresses and asked for authority to complete the arrangements.

The report was adopted and the old committee reappointed with Rev. W. H. Barracough and George F. Dawson added, the latter to act as secretary. Rev. Captain H. E. Thomas was excused from the rest of the conference sittings, in order to attend to his duties as military chaplain.

The nominating committee reported nominations as follows: Standard certificates, Rev. E. Rolands, J. A. Lindsay; enrollment, Rev. J. J. Pinkerton, J. H. White; letter writers, Rev. J. C. Harris; Rev. W. J. Kirby; visitors to Mount Allison, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, P. A. Fitzpatrick, E. C. Turner, Thos. Stabings, Henry Pierce, C. H. Hudson, A. D. McCully, F. A. Wightman and H. Johnson; laymen, R. T. Hayes, J. M. Lemont, J. T. G. Carr, Samuel McLeon.

SAYS AMERICAN ACTRESSES BARRED FROM CANADA

Sensational Stories in a New York Journal

ARTHUR COGLISER IN NEW YORK

Rose Coghlan's Anniversary, Keith's Vaudeville Policy, "The Chocolate Soldier," Tom Wise in New Play, General Dramatic Notes

Two sensational articles advising actresses against going to Canada, have appeared in the issues of the New York Dramatic Mirror, this week and last, the first headed, in double column form, "Don't Go To Canada—American Actresses Taken Off Trains and Treated as Indecent Women by Officials," and the second in the same manner, "Not Allowed To Enter Canada—Another Well Known American Actress Has Humiliating Experience." It is probable that the experiences "so humiliating" were no more so than would have been the case under similar circumstances had Canadian women been going to the States, for in both cases mentioned the reasons for the deportation or refusal of admission, were lack of the required funds, $10 being necessary.

In part the articles in the Mirror follow: "American actresses are wanted not to go to Canada. Several well-known players who crossed the Canadian border, unaccompanied, to fill engagements or look for summer engagements in the various Canadian towns, have been stopped by the Canadian officials, their baggage manacled, ordered off the train and sent back as undesirable characters. Several actresses who were able to show their contracts fared no better. They were summarily dropped at any convenient station at all hours of the night or early morning and left to shift for themselves. Miss Wilma Moore, who was under contract to the Orpheum Players at Montreal, was put off a train, although she showed her contract to the officials. The manager has taken the matter in hand, and filed a vigorous protest. She was able to enter Canada by another route.

Miss Helen Robertson, a well-known leading woman, formerly Mrs. J. Harry Benning, recently underwent a humiliating experience following the closing of her eight weeks' engagement with His Majesty's Stock Company in Montreal, as a consequence of which Miss Robertson will bring the matter to the attention of the minister of the interior. Her lawyer, Justin L. Miner, has already taken the preliminary steps toward this end. After the close of her theatrical engagement, Miss Robertson returned to New York for a few days in order to attend to some business. She had promised to return to Montreal for a visit of a few days, and so took a train, leaving this city at 7.45 p. m. She was her friends to meet her on her arrival at Montreal. Shortly after leaving New York, the passengers received forms to be filled out with information concerning their age, name, occupation, etc. Miss Robertson complied with these requirements and thought no more about them. At five o'clock in the morning she was rudely awakened by a man who proved to be an inspector. He wanted to know if she were really an actress. Miss Robertson assured him that that was her profession, and that she had just finished an eight weeks' engagement at His Majesty's Theatre in Montreal. She was sent back to New York, forfeiting the price of her ticket.

Arthur L. Cogliser, who played a leading role in St. John in "The Climax," is in New York in a new play, "The Three of Hearts," a four act comedy. There is a report that Julie Opie will return to the stage next year to assume leading roles with her husband, William Faversham. For the past two and a half years Miss Opp has been very ill, but her physicians now declare that her health has been sufficiently recovered to enable her to resume her work. Up on the conclusion of Mr. Faversham's tour in "The Hawk," Miss Opp will be a member of an all-star company that Mr. Faversham is organizing for next spring to appear in a series of Shakespearean revivals.

Clean Vaudeville. Because of the Imperial here being one of the links in the chain of this company, St. John people should be interested in an order that has gone forth that the vaudeville theatres known as the Keith houses will not permit the appearance of persons whose notoriety came from criminal prosecutions, nor ill-gotten gains. This distinct and clear definition of their policy will do more to win the respect of the playing public than anything else that could have been said or done. It was an announcement at once timely and courageous. The Keith houses represent the best quality of vaudeville entertainment in the United States. They were founded on cleanliness and wholesome amusement. Their founder has passed away, but his spirit survives, and all honor is due to the men now at the helm of the great circuit for their outspoken opposition to noisome amusements. The decision followed the announcement that a woman, who has recently been cleared of a charge of murder, was about to make her debut in vaudeville. A section of the public is always ready to spend its money to gratify a morbid curiosity. A man or woman passing through a sensational murder or divorce trial is an object of such curiosity, and the manager who so far disregards his own interest as to exclude such heroes and heroines from his stage, in these days of questionable money-making shifts, a rare bird. It takes moral courage in the slang of the day, it is like giving away money.

The Chocolate Soldier

The sweet strains of "The Chocolate Soldier" still linger fondly in the minds of music-lovers in St. John. On its last visit here, it charmed and delighted large gatherings—it should afford equal pleasure on its return visit, particularly with the talented cast which will present it in the Opera House, including: George Tallman, whose powerful tenor voice made so distinctly favorable an impression before; Francis J. Boyle, whose rich basso, was one of the outstanding features of last year's presentation; Tena Rauband, Kitty Burke, Walter Green, Della Nevins, and others, besides a big singing chorus that can sing, and dance also. Manager McKay is to be congratulated upon having secured such a fine attraction despite the feeling in stage circles in the states, with respect to the soundness of touring Canada at the present time.

Julia Walcott, an actress, who is credited with having played more parts than any other woman on the American stage, was found dead recently in bed in her apartment in Chicago. She had been playing the role of Mrs. Hubbard in "Along Came Ruth" at the Olympic Theatre in Chicago. She was seventy years of age, and went on the stage in Philadelphia when six years old.

Seiwyn and Company will tour in Irwin Cobb's play, "Back Home," at the Atlantic City, on June 19. The leading roles will be played by Willis P. Swalmann and Thomas A. Wise, formerly well known in St. John.

Richard Barbee, who was selected by Countess and Count to play Youth in "Experience" during the latter part of the New York engagement at the Maxine Elliott Theatre, scored such a success in the role that he will play it next season also. Mr. Barbee is a young actor new to New York, who has been on the stage only four years. He is a Princeton graduate, and his sole New York experience was the juvenile role in "The Last Resort," last season. When William Elliott recently retired from the cast of that play, Mr. Barbee was selected as the best juvenile man to succeed him. He has made a strong impression and a great success in the role of Youth.

Among those honored with degrees at Anshert university this June is Sir Johnman Forbes-Robertson. At the commencement exercises of Columbia university held recently the English actor who has just concluded his farewell American engagement, was one of nine to receive the honorary degree of Master of Arts.

The Orpheum Stock. Few St. John stage-goers comparatively speaking, witnessed the production of "The Lottery of Love" at the Opera House this week. In not doing so, they missed an enjoyable comedy, capably presented by a talented stock company.

Blossom Seeley has been engaged for the principal role in Ned Wayburn's musical revue "Town Topics."

Phil Dwyer, who was the Lion in "Androcles and the Lion," has been engaged for the new "Ziegfield Follies."

Ernest Glendinning is to be starred in the Fall in a new play by Owen Davis which Harry Askin will produce. The piece concerns a young business man engaged in the steel industry and many of its incidents are said to parallel the life of Charles M. Schwab.

To celebrate her fiftieth year on the stage, Rose Coghlan a former St. John favorite is to have a golden jubilee in the fall. A number of her friends are already preparing for the event which will take place in the Shubert Theatre in Boston in October where "Trilby" will be playing.

The appraiser's report of the estate of the late Walter Browne, author of "Everywoman," was recently filed in the Surrogate's court. The report showed that "Everywoman," which incidentally was Mr. Browne's only play, netted $80,884. The playwright's share was $20,000. The net estate of $17,878 goes to the widow.

Canadian Gin is proved to be the best in the world

It has been necessary, — to save the working classes in Great Britain from the evils of immature spirits — to lay a new law before the British Parliament. This bill says that all spirituous liquors shall be matured for three years before being sold to the consumer. It proves that CANADIAN GIN is the best in the world, for our Canadian law says that liquors must be matured for years before being sold to you.

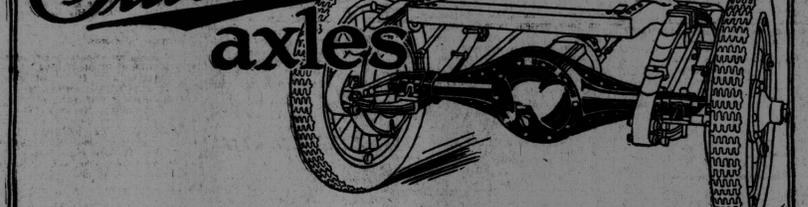

GOLD CROSS GIN

is the only Gin made in Canada—matured for years in bond under Government supervision. You have no such guarantee with Imported Gin. Foreign Gins come into this Country raw — destructive to the human body. Ask for CANADIAN made-Gin.

Studebaker axles

—not what they call a floating type but a REAL full-floating axle

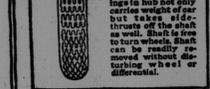

The "Ordinary Axle" The shaft does not seat at all. Axle housing slips over hub, and shaft is not only turned by the wheels but carries the weight of car and thrusts and wear between shaft and hub means difficult to get at axle shaft or differential.

The "Semi-Floating Axle" Well over the axle shaft end of semi-floating axle housing slips over hub, and shaft is not only turned by the wheels but carries the weight of car and thrusts and wear between shaft and hub means difficult to get at axle shaft or differential.

Studebaker Full-Floating Axle Safest, simplest and most accessible. Axle housing runs over hub—not only carries weight of car but takes all side thrusts of the shaft to hub wheels. Shaft is free to turn wheels. Shaft can be readily removed without turning wheel or differential.

Studebaker Full-Floating Axle Safest, simplest and most accessible. Axle housing runs over hub—not only carries weight of car but takes all side thrusts of the shaft to hub wheels. Shaft is free to turn wheels. Shaft can be readily removed without turning wheel or differential.

You take one of the semi-floating types of axles and the axle shaft not only turns the wheels but carries the weight of the car and also has to take up the side-thrusts. It has THREE tasks laid on that one slender shaft of steel. And if that shaft breaks—off flies the wheel.

Two minutes to remove shaft This Studebaker FULL-floating Axle, on the other hand, frees the shaft of everything except the one task of turning the wheels. The axle housing runs thro' the hub and with TWO Timken Bearings in each of the hubs, it rides the axle shaft of the car's weight and the side-thrusts, too. You can take the axle shaft out—and the wheel stays on. You can tow the car along with the shaft out of the housing.

Take one of the so-called "floating types" of axles, and to remove the shaft, you have to take the wheel off. It's a messy job. But if you happen to have to remove the axle shaft from this Studebaker FULL-floating Axle, you simply unscrew 8 nuts and draw the shaft out. Two minutes and a common wrench—that's all.

—and a STRONG steel housing Take the axle housing of the two types. The "semi-floating type" always has a malleable casting. Now, you know castings are weighty—and, also, they can break. Doesn't take so much to break them, either. But Studebaker uses a steel stamping for the axle housing—with folded edges to re-enforce it. And it is not only LIGHTER but VERY much stronger.

But you can't begin to compare the two axles. For the simple reason that the FULL-floating Rear Axle is admittedly so much better that every high-grade, high-priced car uses it. Salesmen for other cars will say: "Oh! yes! we have a floating axle—but look at our motor here a minute." Or else they'll try to brazen it out and say that they have so many thousands of cars on the roads and haven't had the slightest trouble.

That's just a matter of salesmanship, if you like to call it that. The FACT, as any mechanical engineer will tell you, is that the earlier types of axles, that they call "floating types," are NOT as strong, durable or as accessible.

And the thing to do, when you go to look at some other car and the salesman tries to dodge on the matter of rear axles, is to —ask him if his car has a FULL-floating Rear Axle like the Studebaker has, and make him show you.

TOM DALY HAS WON HIS PLACE

St. John Player's Success With The White Sox

HE IS NOW NEXT TO SCHALK

Newspaper Writer Quotes Veterans as Saying Daly is One of the Coming Stars of the American League

Larry Wells in the Chicago Examiner of recent date has the following to say about Tom Daly, formerly of the city who is with the Chicago White Sox.

"Ray Schalk is going to have some help this season, and his helpmate is no other than Charles Rowland, the pitcher who has toured the world with the White Sox-Giant party, and who was used in the outfield, infield and behind the bat at various times during the American League pennant fight of 1914.

"You are to catch for me and I know you can deliver," was Rowland's bright cry. Daly, although following instructions, he realized that he would not replace Schalk as the first string catcher. But so ball club is completed without a first class second string catcher, and the Sox had to have such a performer.

"The honors looked won by Red Kuhn when all of a sudden the wonder ball Schalk was obtained from Milwaukee of the Pacific Coast League. The release of Kuhn made matters look brighter for Daly, although Mayer and Baldwin, both likely looking youngsters, were still on the Sox roster.

"But Daly kept plugging away in practice. He showed Rowland that he was worthy of the position of second string catcher. And such is Tom's regular title today.

"However, Daly is regarded by the White Sox players as one of the likeliest looking catching recruits that had come to the big show since the wonder ball Schalk was obtained from Milwaukee. The Sox assert that Daly is one of the coming stars of the American League.

"Of course Schalk will do the bulk of the backstop work. He is too valuable a man not to have in there at all times. At the same time the little backstop will be even more valuable to the club if he is allowed a day of rest occasionally. And that day of rest would not be given him were it not for the fact that a capable understudy has been found in Daly.

"Daly was started for the first time this season in the game against the Indians not long ago. His work was of a high order. Wounded little Schalk could not have done better. Tommy, besides catching both Benz and Cloette in splendid fashion, was a prominent figure in the attacking party. He tore off three clean hits and drew one base on balls.

"Daly is a youngster of clean habits and loves the game. And now that he realizes that he is to get a chance to start a game every now and then he has more pep and glee than at any time since joining the Sox. His work in the series with the Senators showed that Rowland is a good judge of a player's capabilities. While Schalk was missed, his place was ably filled."

Game Did Not Materialize

The trip of the St. John professionals to Moncton did not materialize. The game was supposed to have been arranged for today, but the locals apparently heard nothing about it. Those mentioned in the St. John's line-up were—McLown, Ramsey, Riley, Copeland and Lynch. Some of these have not participated in a game this year and are at a loss to know the source of the report. It is said that arrangements were being made to have the team, which played in Moncton on May 24, make another trip to the railway centre.

Bobby Schang Injured

Pittsburg, Pa., June 11—Bobby Schang, Pirate catcher, is in a hospital suffering from injuries received during batting practice on Thursday when a bat slipped from the hands of Bill Hinchman and struck him in the face. Schang's nose was broken in two places, three teeth were knocked out and he was badly bruised.

Physicians do not believe he will be kept out of the game long.

Jack Lester, a Seattle heavyweight whom Tommy Burris discovered and expected to coach to win the heavyweight title, will not be convinced that he is not to be the champion. Joe Cox of Springfield, Ill., gave him a whaling in Joplin the other night.

The Dixie Kid is still holding on in England and is picking up some money about every week. The other night he defeated Louis Berger of France in a 12-round bout in London.

Great Race of Frank Dowd and Black in Victoria Rink

McCORMICK AND LAIDLAW

Local Champion Had it Easy With Nova Scotia—His Records—Victory of Carroll of Pictou Over B. Stevens

The three mile record of the Victoria rink was broken by Frank Dowd of Montreal, in February, 1908, when he ran and defeated Black, of Pergus, Ontario. Only 800 people witnessed the race. Before he went on the track they said they were going to skate to break the record and from the word 'go' no one who realized their goal could doubt that they would smash it all to pieces.

At the start Black took the lead and with long strokes set the pace, while Dowd took his easy graceful style much better than his opponent's and giving a close observer the idea of immense reserve power. The people recognized him as the one man in Canada who was a match for their own champion, and they accorded him that respect which a worthy opponent secures anywhere.

The men warmed to their work in the first half mile and three times registered 1:38 for that distance. The pace increased in the second half and the mile ended in 3:15 without a change in positions. Then with one of his spurts Dowd dashed by Black. The crowd cheered and the gate became faster until, on the eighth lap of the same mile, the Ontario boy showed great speed and made the latter begin to crawl up on the 29th lap. The skaters slackened their efforts until the ninth lap of the last mile when Dowd shot past the leader and was away for the finish. Black then exhibited wonderful speed and the wonder of the crowd at Dowd's recent defeat in Canada by Black lessened when the latter began to crawl up on the Montrealer. The finish was too near, however, and Dowd passed the line a winner in 9:49. The former record was 9:47, made by Champion McCormick.

McCormick and Laidlaw.

On March 1, 1888, more than 1,200 people witnessed a race in the Victoria rink between Champion Hugh McCormick and Laidlaw, a Nova Scotia speed skater. The latter was not in the local man's class and as a result the race lacked the interest of spectators had anticipated. McCormick started off with a fine burst of speed and soon left his opponent tugging along behind him. It was all he could do to keep the champion in sight. It was evident that the Halligan was not so speedy as McCormick and it was not long before he seemed unaccustomed to hugging the poles. For the first four miles there was no change of position, but McCormick made one of the grandest finishes ever seen in a rink. His time for the last mile was 9:08.

Champion's Records.

In the Clipper Annual, published in 1887 and 1888, Hugh McCormick, of this city, holds the following records: One mile was 2m. 58s., made in the Victoria rink April 5, 1887; four miles, made in the rink, Montreal, Feb. 10, 1887, time 14m. 13s.; six miles, 21m. 28s.; nine miles, 32m. 17s.; ten miles, 35m. 28s.; eleven miles, 38m. 58s.; twelve miles, 46m. 13s.; thirteen miles, 46m. 37s.; and fourteen miles, 50m. 45s., all made at the same time and place.

Stevens and Carroll.

A skating match for the amateur championship of the maritime provinces was held in Pictou on February 9, 1888, between B. Stevens of St. John and Frank Carroll of Pictou. The large rink was packed with spectators, who manifested a deep interest in the race. At the word go Stevens got ahead of Carroll and maintained that position until the 29th lap, when Carroll made a grand start and shot ahead of the New Brunswicker and, cheered by the throng, maintained a lead until the very end of the race. His time was 11:48. The distance was three miles.

After Suffering Almost Two Years "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Relief

882 St. Valer St., Montreal.

In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. I was treated by several physicians for nearly two years. I was in constant misery from my stomach and my weight dropped down from 225 pounds to 160 pounds. Several of my friends advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I did so. That was eight months ago. I began to improve almost with the first dose. No other medicine I ever used acted so pleasantly and quickly as "Fruit-a-tives", and by using it I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble, and all pain and Constipation and misery were cured. I completely recovered by the use of "Fruit-a-tives" and now I weigh 208 pounds. I cannot praise "Fruit-a-tives" enough.

LARRY McLEAN WAS SUSPENDED

Manager McGraw Says He Was Leading Merry Life — Negotiations With Federals?

St. Louis, Mo., June 10—Upon the Giants' arrival here, Larry McLean, catcher, received official notice of suspension. Manager John J. McGraw has set the big furlow down for failure to observe training rules. McLean was given his transportation and told to return to New York.

According to McGraw, McLean has been leading a merry life since the season began. McGraw declares that he had warned McLean repeatedly. He says McLean failed to take heed of the warning. When McLean violated a strict rule in Chicago, McGraw says there was no other alternative for him to do but to suspend him without pay.

McLean denied he was guilty of the matter. He denies that he has been breaking rules and says that his suspension is not warranted.

"I have not broken any rules," said McLean. "There never has been a time in my baseball career when I have kept myself in better trim than I have this year. Since I was to get a bonus on July 1 I looked to me as if a scheme was concocted to do me out of the money. In my contract it is stipulated that if I behaved myself I was to get a certain amount this year, the first installment to be paid the first of next month. Knowing this, you think that I would run any chance of losing it? I have kept myself in shape all year."

In the notice McGraw served on McLean, McGraw says that he saw McLean drinking in a Chicago saloon on last Monday. McGraw says this is not true, for as Monday was election day in Chicago, the saloons were all closed.

Discussing McLean's case, McGraw said: "I have put up with that fellow long enough. As far as the Giants are concerned, he is through."

St. Louis, June 10—Larry McLean who was suspended for the remainder of the season because he had broken training rules in Chicago, will be allowed to play with his team at the expiration of ten days, it was announced here tonight by Manager McGraw.

A meeting between McLean and Otto Stifel, a large stockholder in the local Federal League club here, set afoot remarks that McLean was about to sign a Federal League contract.

Lloyd Rickard, president of the St. Louis Federals, said McLean had opened negotiations with Federal League officials but that it was improbable that he would be signed.

ATHLETIC

"Ted" Meredith, the Iron-hearted University of Pennsylvania athlete, who has just been honored with the captaincy of the 1916 Quaker track team, is the world's greatest middle-distance runner, writes John L. Hallahan. His double victory in the quarter-mile and half-mile runs at the intercollegiate track and field championships at Philadelphia on Saturday proved that he is the marvel of the age. Meredith accomplished a feat that exceeded anything the once remarkable Mel Shippard ever did, his time for the double furlong being forty-nine seconds, and for the half mile one minute, fifty-four and two-fifths seconds, achievements that promise to live long in the history of American track and field sports.

It was thirty-one years ago that Billy Goodwin of Harvard, the last man to win both of the events in which Meredith excelled on Saturday, showed his heels to the best collegians of those days. Goodwin won both events for three consecutive years.

News of the Boxers

Ad Wolgast, ex-champion lightweight, is to meet Gilbert Gallant at the Atlas A. A., Boston, next Tuesday night. Manager McLean has in view bouts with Freddie Welsh and Charley White for Gallant, and if Gallant shows well in his bout with Wolgast, will angle for Freddie Welsh to meet Gallant in Boston.

The Man In The Street

When Lowell wrote "What is so rare as a day in June?" he didn't have a week like this in mind.
The fine ones have been unusually rare thus far.
To Glen Falls makes a peasant car on Sunday, but how much more so would it be if one could quench his thirst while there, softly, of course, softly.
If it is true that tobacco saved many soldiers from the German gas, patriotic St. John women should organize a "baecy" day every fortnight, or oftener.
News note speaks of "a derelict in a singing condition." The dramatic editor must have swapped desks for the night with the marine expert.
What's in a Name?
A Swedish steamer, called the "Ottago" was torpedoed by the German yesterday, but probably with any other name she would have fared no better.
Bryan may hold out the olive branch towards the Germans, but it looks as though he had a chip on his shoulder when he speaks of Wilson.
Might Go to the Minors
A new secretary for the Hague Permanent Court of Arbitration was appointed yesterday for a five-year term. A Standard headline this morning announced he had been "re-elected." If the sporting ed. did this, the idea was so possibly that he would be useless for that period of time.
There is a large attendance of members at the Methodist conference—"good and plenty."
English As She Is Spoke
Another summer has again brought the open cars, and still they carry the sign about smoking on the "four last seats."
The bigger cars are still being used with windows open, on the main line; and, on days when it is uncomfortably warm, it should be known, if you're going for a car ride, what there are four fairly comfortable seats in them—one in each corner.
The Lights and Benches Are There
Question of the lights: "Come in, any band concerts in King Square this summer?"
One thing is certain: There won't be any in Victoria Square this summer—even though the "No Dump" sign has been put up.
The public works department may look on that as a "mere scrap of paper."
Any person desiring a safe passage across the Atlantic should call today on the steamer from New York, which is carrying Dr. Dernburg and his wife. It's hardly likely that that boat will be torpedoed.
Flour is a dollar lower, and still the baker insists upon that extra cent.
Or as an ancient whizzer would have it, "the probably needs the dough" if that's an old one, but we're willing to admit it.
A New Specimen
Here is a new one in the way of reformed spelling. An employe in a local establishment was looking over the shoulder of another chap, who was busy writing and promptly came to bat with a harsh criticism.
"Don't you know how to spell?" he asked "Look at that word 'specimens'."
"What's the matter with it?"
"Well, if you wanted to speak of more than one man you would not say 'men's' would you? The singular of that word is 'specimen' and the plural 'specimens'."
Stimulants were required before the writer recovered.
Of course this could not happen in a newspaper office! No?
"Informations" Please
A disconsolate individual was wandering the city streets the other evening. In desperation he finally stopped another man and unboomed himself of his trouble.
"Isn't this a — of a town. Here I've just discovered that they close the bars at eight o'clock and I ain't carrying any booze with me this trip. Could you give me any idea where I could get a real drink?"
"I am sorry to disappoint you," the other man answered in a sympathetic tone. "But I am a stranger here also. You see, I just came in to attend the Methodist conference."
The broad smile on the face of the delegate was not so sympathetic as his tone might have led one to expect and the thirsty one, with muttered apologies, dried up and faded away.
A Pointed Hint
"If I were a man I'd enlist," vigorously declared a young lady to the young

BISHOP LeBLANC CONFIRMS 161 IN THE CATHEDRAL

In the Cathedral this morning the Sacrament of Confirmation was administered to 161 by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc. The ceremony followed mass celebrated at 7 o'clock by His Lordship, assisted by Rev. M. P. Howland, Rev. Dr. Bourgeois, Rev. Hector Belliveau, and Rev. Wm. Duke, rector. After mass the candidates received Holy Communion, following which they were conformed. Bishop LeBlanc delivered an inspiring address to them upon the Sacrament, giving them much good practical advice, and also taking their pledges of temperance.
The class confirmed was divided among Holy Trinity, St. John the Baptist and the Cathedral parishes, and was made up as follows—Cathedral, girls, sixty; boys forty-one, adults eleven; Holy Trinity, girls fifteen, boys thirteen, adults three; St. John the Baptist, girls eleven, boys six, adults one.

WINDOW BOX IDEA IS TAKING HOLD

Further Suggestions in Reference to This Plan For Beautifying of City
The suggestion, made in The Times last week, that the appearance of the city would be greatly benefited by the use of window boxes of flowers to brighten up the streets, has been received with marked approval. The idea has been recognized as a good one but what is needed is some individual or firm of sufficient initiative and sufficient prominence to show what can be done along this line.
The suggestion emanated from N. C. Cameron, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, and since then Mr. Cameron has received many inquiries as to where such boxes could be secured. The inquiries have been answered by proposals which have been made to the association by local firms to furnish standardized window boxes, neatly painted, filled with earth and with flowers already planted, at $1 each. A sample set contained good sized geraniums already in bloom and dwarf nasturtiums which would soon be in flower.
At this rate the amount of money involved would be very small compared with the difference that a liberal display of growing flowers would make in the appearance of the city. Another suggestion, which would make the cost even lower, has been made by an interested party, who suggests that a florist or gardener could develop a profitable annual business by supplying boxes free of charge for the privilege of filling them with flowers, at reasonable cost, each spring.
Halifax has now taken up the window box plan and it is being urged daily in the newspapers of the city. St. John seldom allows Halifax to show more enterprise in any matter than this city.

C. P. R. SECURES NEW RUSSIAN PRIVILEGES

London, June 12.—The official announcement is made from Petrograd that the Russian government has entered into an exclusive agreement with the C. P. R. which provides for a through goods service with North America via the Trans-Siberian Railway and Vladivostok. This is explained at the offices here to be an extension to the freight service of the special privileges granted with regard to passenger traffic two years ago, whereby travelling was rendered much more convenient. It will doubtless be a set-off against the loss of the privileges in Austria, including that of operating C. P. R. observation cars over the state railways, against which it is now known, strong German influences were brought to bear two years ago.
FOR THE PLAYGROUNDS
Mrs. George Dohart, treasurer of the Playgrounds Association, acknowledges a contribution of $5 from William Brodie.
A man at her side in a street car one evening recently.
"You would" queried the young man. "Quick as a flash she replied "Yes—wouldn't you?"
