A PRAYER FOR THE INFANTS' HOME.

O GRACIOUS God and Saviour, who hast promised that when two or three are gathered together in Thy name, Thou wilt meet them and answer their petitions, mercifully look on us Thy servants, and grant us Thy blessing.

We thank Thee that Thou hast put it into our hearts, and those of others, to care for these little ones whom we are gathering into this Home.

We thank Thee for the measure of success Thou hast bestowed on our efforts; and we pray Thee still to bless and prosper our humble endeavors to save both mothers and children. May we not grow weary in our labor and love, and do Thou increase the number of our helpers. Enable us by Thy grace to persevere against all discouragements, and to feel ourselves, and to show to others, that Thy blessing rests with us. Fill our hearts with zeal on behalf of these helpless little ones, that we may do them good.

Gracious Saviour, who, in the days of Thy flesh, manifested Thy good-will to little children, rebuking those who would have kept them from Thee, bless those who may be admitted to this Home from time to time. If their lives are spared, may they live to Thy Glory; or, if Thou seest fit to remove them, take them to Thyself, since Thou hast said, of such is Thy heavenly Kingdom. O Lord, hear us and bless us, and give us, we beseech Thee, a right judgment in all things, for the sake of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The above prayer was composed for the use of the Managers of the Home, by the late Canon Givins, always one of our warmest friends.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING.

The Fifteenth Annual Meeting of the Infants' Home and Infirmary was held at the Home, 21 St. Mary Street, on Saturday, October 25th, and was attended by a large number of ladies and gentlemen.

The Mayor being unable to be present, the chair was occupied by Sir W. P. Howland, and the meeting opened with prayer by the Rev. J. Pearson; after which the Secretary read the report of the Managers, the adoption of which was moved by Prof. Goldwin Smith, seconded by Mr. Geo. McKenzie of Deer Park.

The Treasurer's report, Work Room and Medical reports, were read, and, in moving their adoption, very earnest and eloquent speeches were made by Mr. Herbert Mason, Mr. Justice Rose, Mr. J. J. Maclaren, Mr. Thos. Hodgins, and others.

Among the gentlemen present were all the Medical Staff of the Home, Rev. Mr. Bilkey, Rev. Septimus Jones, Dr. Langtry, Rev. J. V. Smith, Wm. Boulton, &c.

Letters expressing regret at not being present were read from J. Ross Robertson, Stapleton Caldicott, George S. Holmsted, W. N. Miller, Rev. J. Alexander.

The very successful meeting was closed with prayer by the Rev. J. V. Smith.

The visitors were then taken to inspect the Home, and served with refreshments, which were, as usual, provided for their guests by the Ladies of the Board of Managers.

MANAGERS' REPORT, Oct., 1889, to Oct., 1890.

The yearly reports of all Charitable Institutions offer but little variety; as trees whose growth year by year is scarcely noticed, so with benevolent enterprises, they are by the general public considered but as necessary adjuncts to a large city, and it is only on an occasion such as this, our Annual Meeting, that the managers have an opportunity to show the public that this particular Home, or Charity, is one absolutely required. As an oak to an acorn, so is our present Infants' Home, compared to its first inception. Two or three merciful people, impressed by the misery and helplessness of a special form of wretchedness, began in a small way to relieve that want, and year by year, slowly but surely, has our Infants' Home attained to its present condition; and in presenting their annual report, the managers desire to acknowledge the goodness and loving kindness of their Heavenly Father, which has followed them step by step, guiding and directing their deliberations during the fifteen years' existence of this most necessary Institution. We say necessary, and are prepared in this Report to substantiate our claim to be so.

The year just closed has, fortunately for the Home, been marked by little beyond the ordinary routine. Last year we had the Kirmis to report, and the advantages accruing to the Institution, owing to the careful appropriation of the money raised by this special effort. This year the comfort to the inmates of the Home from the increased laundry facilities, has been very great, and in many little ways the Home has been improved, owing to the Kirmis receipts, which were divided between the reduction of the debt upon this building, permanent improvements, and payment of all outstanding liabilities. The reduction of our mortgage will in the future enable us to make still further improvements to the Home: chief among which will be the introduction of more complete fire-escapes than those at present attached to the building; also the absolute safety of our inmates from dangers arising from imperfect lighting. This subject, we may say, has for some time past engaged the most serious attention of the managers, and has been carefully considered. Some years ago, gas was used in two of our large rooms and in the Hall, in the hope that funds would shortly permit of its use over the entire building, but the amount charged for even so few burners placed this lighting far beyond our means. We know that coal oil is a dangerous element, but judging from the frequent fatalities reported due to defective burners, or the blowing out of the gas by ignorant persons, we cannot but feel the risks run by either mode of lighting are about equal. The electric light has been under consideration, but $700 for the necessary plant, while covering the entire cost of engines and fittings, is an outlay as yet, beyond our present resources. Meantime, patent safety lamps are used throughout the building, and the utmost vigilance is exercised by the superintendent of the Home over every department of this most important particular. The Chief of the City Fire Department has thoroughly inspected the Home, and is assisting, by his practical advice, plans now on hand to insure the speedy removal of the infants in the untoward event of a fire occurring in the building.

We just now spoke of the Infants' Home as necessary, and feel that a few facts will prove that this word is not misplaced.

A young man of twenty-two appears, bringing an infant of but a week old; his wife, aged nineteen, has been snatched from him by death; no relatives in the town, his income that of a salesman in a small shop; where could he place his motherless child but in this Infants' Home?

An older man applies to have his child, eighteen months' old, taken in. "My wife acted queer, ladies; spent my wages faster than I could earn, and was not good to the little one." Kindly questions elicit the fact that the poor mother has just been placed in the Insane Asylum. Need we say our nursery doors were opened to his boy?

Application is made for the admission of two children of a poor woman whose husband has been sent by charitable people to the South, in hopes to arrest consumption; the wife, worn with nursing, is unable by her sewing to support herself and children. How grateful was this poor woman when told that not only her two children were admitted, but that she could still care for her infants by entering the home with them herself.

We have had a large proportion of these sad cases during the year, such as tiny, motherless twins; several admissions of infants whose mothers are in the Asylum; and fewer than in former years of unmarried women, but alas, too often is the story repeated: "No mother; came to this country to better myself; no relations here." Our doors are open to all cases such as these, but no unmarried woman can ever be re-admitted to this Home. Here is the strong point in favour of this Charity: Shelter and care are bestowed upon those who would otherwise be driven to despair; and in letters we have from parents, grateful for the restoration of their daughters; and in the large percentage of marriages made by girls who have been placed in service from this Home, the managers realize ever more and more the necessity of the work they have undertaken. People who condemn this Charity, incur a grave responsibility in thus prejudging an Institution, whose methods of working and rules for admission they have not taken the trouble to ascertain fairly for themselves.

This report with all other statistics of our work, collected together in pamphlet form, is distributed by our managers while engaged in their individual work of collecting from house to house funds to carry on the work of the Home: Never a very pleasant undertaking. It is the thought of the little ones of Christ's Kingdom, and of His words: "Inasmuch as ye have done it to one of these, My little ones, ye have done it unto Me": that induces the carrying out of this part of the work of a manager; and the sight of our nursery children, and the satisfactory adoptions from their ranks, are constant encouragements to persevere in what is far too often most up-hill work.

Pay a visit to some of the densely populated back lanes and streets of our city; how hard it is for little children to thrive in such localities, and what care can the year old child of some widow get in a room already crowded with the family of the woman who takes the child to board. We listen to the ever repeated entreaty made to us, sometimes by a young widow, sometimes a deserted wife, sometimes by a sad faced woman who should still be an innocent girl at home: "I want my child taken here so that I can feel easy about it, it gets so knocked about where I have it boarding, I don't feel it will live." How often have we to say sadly to the pleading woman: "We cannot take your child, we have no room." The miseries endured by these helpless children, and the hope that some few may be rescued, and from the watchful care bestowed upon them here, be enabled in the future to become sturdy men and women, is an ever present incentive for renewed efforts, amidst many discouragements, in this work of rescuing infants and tiny children from a life of suffering that it is impossible in the limits of this report to describe.

Our deserted or orphan children are the class for whom we endeavor to find good homes, and the following extracts from letters yearly written to us by the parties who have adopted our children, will serve to illustrate the reality of these adoptions:—

"Our little girl, Louise, taken by us in February, has got along nicely; she is quite strong and hearty; has improved wonderfully in looks, and is beloved by all." And again: "Our boy, George, is splendid; whatever we did before we got him, his father and I cannot think." Think of the happiness brought into the life of the writer of the following:

"I am so satisfied with the child; I feel as if no one had any right to her but myself; she is everything to us, she is so clever, goes to Church and Sunday school, and to say all in a few words, she is all we could desire."

Letters such as these, added to the knowledge that 102 orphans, or deserted children, have been adopted into loving homes, are most encouraging items in the record of fifteen years, and furnish additional proofs of the necessity of this Home.

During the past year we have received into the Infants' Home and Infirmary, 161 children, 97 boys, 64 girls. Their record is as follows: Went out with their mothers, 6; adopted, 4; taken out by friends, 41; died, 58; remaining in Home, 52. Of these children 35 were entered at their admission into the Infirmary, by the physician, as dying; that is, in some cases they might linger weeks, or even months; but owing to their diseased and enfeebled state the utmost care, combined with skilled medical attendance, was powerless to save these little lives. 10 foundlings came in during the year, and twice we have had twins brought to us but a few days old and motherless. Only 1 death among the children over 8 months old took place, showing most conclusively the good effects of the Home care, can they once rally from previous neglect.

Of the nurses, the record is as follows: Went to service, taking children, 6; gone back to friends, 23; went to service, 19; sent away, 3; remaining in Home, 24; total, 75. Therefore, during the year there have been 236 inmates to board, to lodge, and to clothe. The amount of work and the sewing required for this number can hardly be estimated by the general public. All needful garments are made in the house, with the exception of generous gifts of clothing made for the infants by the elder girls of the Jessie Ketchum and Wellesley Street schools; a grant being made by the School Board to provide material on which the girls are taught to cut out and make clothing, which is divided among the various Charitable Institutions of the city. The ladies of the work room, presided over by two of our managers, Mrs. Hodgins and Miss Grieg, steadfastly continue their labours of love in making the tiny garments required by the babies. The nurses in the Home also do a large amount of sewing, having made during the year 400 articles, besides making over and keeping in repair the general wardrobe. We may here say that gifts of clothing are always acceptable, especially out of door garments for the nursery children.

Our medical staff, as usual, have been most kind and attentive to every detail of sickness. The managers feel they can ill express their sense of what the Home owes to the gratuitous services of our talented physicians.

The managers also desire on this occasion to express their thankfulness to the Clergy, who so regularly conduct religious services for the inmates. Also to the ladies who take charge of the various Bible classes for the women. Miss Jarvis, long the faithful teacher of the Sunday evening Bible class, has, we grieve to say, been many months obliged to give up her class, owing to severe illness; her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

For the order and careful management of the Home, the managers feel they are much indebted to the lady Superintendent, Miss Boulton; also the Matron, Mrs. Jordan; both being unwearied in the discharge of their duties.

The "Little Maids" Club have continued their third annual donation, $50, to support a cradle in the Home. The Maurice Mason cot is, as yet, our only one endowed. Truly in this instance, a little child, "being dead, yet speaketh." The Mulock cot continues to receive its annual support. To all kind friends who have sent donations of clothing, gifts of fruit, etc., the managers desire to offer their sincere thanks.

We have now, as regards our Infants' Home, touched upon the past, and dwelt upon the present, and feel that this report would be incomplete, did we not express our hopes for the future. No Institution should limit its possibilities. "Ever Onward" should be our motto. And our hope for the coming year will, we feel sure, meet with the sympathy of all present to-day. It is that at our sixteenth annual meeting we may show that this Home has been enlarged by the addition of a wing, thus enabling us to keep our children with us, or admit others up to five years of age a continuation, as it were, of the Infants' Home, and thus endeavour in even a partial manner to relieve what is at present a most keenly felt want.

The late Mr. William Gooderham, whose generous bequest to the Home, of $2,000, we now most gratefully record, while visiting the Home shortly before his lamented death, remarked upon the necessity of such a wing, and that it was an enterprise in which the managers of the Home must shortly engage.

Had we such a wing, and could keep our nursery children, the School Board would, we believe, supply a Kindergarten teacher, and the first cost over, such branch of our work would soon become self-supporting.

A man ventures his life to rescue an infant from a burning building, and the saving of that child is felt by on-lookers to be well worth the possible risk of a man's life. Why then do not people realize that to rescue one of these poor infants, and often the mother from a far more miserable fate than death, is a noble act, and one in which all can participate. An untimely frost chills the early blossoms of the spring. The tiny bud of infant life droops and slowly perishes in the dreary frost of neglect and starvation. The sufferings of an infant are soon over, and one more is added to the mighty host of infant martyrs.

The Infants' Home and Infirmary by its very name suggests the possible refuge in which these neglected waifs may be sheltered. Want of room, or lack of nurses, are the only reasons for ever refusing admission to children answering to the class for whom this Home was begun. In writing this report the wish arises that each word were as a living coal, burning its way into the hearts of all who hear or read it, inkindling a flaming zeal which should cause subscriptions to pour in towards the enlargement of the building, thus enabling the managers to take into its shelter a greater number of destitute mothers and infants, and also arouse the sympathies of many who have not yet considered the matter, to the manifold needs of the young children of the poorer class in this our rapidly increasing city. "Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in Heaven, that one of these little ones should perish."

PHYSICIANS' REPORT

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN :—On behalf of the Medical Staff of the Infants' Home, I have pleasure in presenting our report for the year ending September 30th, 1890.

During the year there were admitted

Infants	161

of the Infants 101 were placed in the general wards of the Home, and 60 in the Infirmary. On admission 35 of the latter were registered as hopeless cases. A total of 58 deaths occurred during the year, or a percentage of 36.02. The highest monthly death rate was in February when 10 succumbed, and the lowest in November, when only one was recorded.

Amongst the cases of death Marasmus holds the highest place, other causes of death have been

When so many are admitted in a dying condition our death rate must of necessity appear high, but we cannot select cases for our institution, all are gathered in and the critical statistician must judge us accordingly. Were we to deduct the hopeless cases from our calculations and take those only whose prospects for living are reasonably good we then have a death rate of 18.25 per cent., which is more favorable than the general death rate of the city.

But if the last few days or weeks of these unfortunate waifs are made comfortable and happy, if our duty towards them has been done, need we care for comparative percentages?

For a variety of reasons, epidemics of contagious diseases are always dreaded in public institutions. We have suffered in the past, and, although exercising every precaution, may again suffer in the future, but for the year just closed we have cause for congratulation in the comparative absence of such, whooping cough being the only invader. It came to us in April, and lasted ten weeks, attacked thirty of the inmates, and is held responsible for one death. During the continuance of the disease, when controllable, no new cases were admitted to the Home.

The general health of the nurses has been good, one taken ill with Inflammatory Rheumatism was sent to the Convalescent Home where she made a good recovery.

During the year Dr. R. A. Pyne was promoted to the consulting staff and his place on the active staff was filled by Dr. D. A. Gibb Wishart.

3. DOLLIE.—A very pretty blue-eyed child, mother dead, deserted by her father; has been adopted into a comfortable home.
4. MAY.—In the Home some months with her mother; both May and her mother were sent to friends in England.
5. ARTHUR.—A very fine boy; admitted with his mother, a deserted wife.
6. ARTHUR. } Twin babies, brought to the Home with their young
7. GERTRUDE. } mother; a very sad case.
8. JOHN.—A great fat fellow, a pet with the nurses; taken by his mother home to her friends.
9. ALICE.—A sweet little girl a few months old, admitted with her young mother, who was deserted by her husband.
10. ROY.—A fine boy, taken into the Home while his mother, a poor widow, tried to get work to provide for her older children.
11. MABEL.—A very delicate little girl, half starved when admitted; was taken out by her mother greatly improved in health.
12. MYRTLE.—A tiny delicate child; still in Home with her mother.
13. OSCAR.—Admitted with his mother; one of those sad cases of deluded English emigrant girls.
14. ROBERT.—Child of a poor working man, mother dead, no relations.
15. WILLIAM.—Tiny delicate baby, brought by his father to the Home, mother had died in the Hospital of consumption; after a few months the little life of suffering was ended.
16. EDNA.—The wee blue-eyed baby of a very young and forlorn mother; the poor little mite did not linger many months.
17. IRENE.—A poor little waif brought to the Home by a policeman, found on a doorstep nearly dead from cold and hunger.

18. WILLIE.—Admitted at a week old, mother died, and the young father brought the poor baby to the Home.
19. GEORGE.—A great sturdy boy, one of the romps of the nursery ; adopted by respectable farmer and his wife.
20. WILLIE.—A poor deformed little baby ; after weeks of suffering he was released from pain.
21. MABEL.—The very pretty child of a poor girl, a particularly sad case. The mother died in the Hospital from illness brought on by over-work, trying to support herself and child.
22. GERTRUDE.—Another sad case, the mother friendless, and destitute ; the little one soon improved with care and good food.
23. MAY.—A dear little girl, one of the pets of the nursery.
24. MARTHA.—A very fine little girl, taken by kind people as their own child.
25. NELSON.—Admitted with his mother, a few months in the Home did wonders for both, and friends in England took home mother and child.

This partial record of the 167 children in the Home during the year must of necessity be very brief, the history of each child being very much the same stamp throughout.
