MAYOR SEARS WILL READ ADDRESS TO GENERAL BOOTH

Salvation Army Commander's Visit Will Not be Allowed to Pass Without Some Recognition — The Matter Discussed at City Hall Today.

As a result of the action of the common council yesterday, in deciding not to present an address to General Booth on his arrival here, Mayor Sears received a visit this morning from Major Phillips, who is in command of the Salvation Army here. The Mayor's visit was made for the purpose of ascertaining just what steps would be taken by the city to welcome the General. His Worship stated to Major Phillips that he would be pleased to read an

CONSOLIDATED STOCK EXCHANGE OPENED

The Site Cost $72 Per Square Foot
Building is Located in the Financial Centre—Formal Opening Will Take Place Later.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Today the consolidated stock exchange took possession of its new building on the south east corner of Broadway and Beaver streets. No formal ceremonies were held, but there will be a house warming when the hot season is over. The site of the new building is advantageously located in the heart of the financial district within a block of the New York Stock, Cotton and Produce Exchanges. It was purchased at a cost of $70,000 or at a rate of $72.50 a square foot. The building, which is classed in style, the broad front showing a row of Ionic columns, is of limestone on a base of granite and is surmounted by a dome. An innovation in the Board Room is the electric clock which strikes automatically the opening hours, 12 a. m. It signals again at 2.15 p. m., the recognized limit of time for the delivery of stocks and at 3 p. m. it again sounds the gong, followed by a vibrating bell which rings for fifteen seconds. Coincident with the removal the exchange will drop petroleum from its official list and become known as "The Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York," dealing in oil having ceased many years ago.

DR. ATHERTON RESIGNS AS PROTEST IN ANTHRAX CASE

He Claims That the Hospital Commissioners Have No Right to Interfere in the Treatment of His Patient—Randall Has Gone Back to Gagetown.

FREDERICTON, Aug. 25.—Dr. Atherton, Fredericton's well known physician, has tendered his resignation as a member of the medical staff of the Victoria Hospital. The resignation was caused by the action of the board of trustees in respect to the anthrax patient, Elise Randall, who was Dr. Atherton's private patient. Randall was brought to the hospital some days ago, and the board at a meeting ordered the strictest isolation. Dr. Atherton claims that his patient was being especially cared for and that the trustees had no right to interfere. "I claim," says the doctor this morning, "to be able to look after my private patients and when I am not allowed to do that, I decided I had better get out." On Saturday Dr. Atherton got permission from Dr. Fisher, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, to allow the patient to leave the hospital. Randall left the institution and took the Saturday afternoon boat for his home in Gagetown. The death occurred at Oromocto this morning of Mrs. White, wife of ex-Sheriff James E. White of Sunbury. Besides her husband, deceased leaves two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Stocker and Miss Bessie White, of Oromocto, and one son Charles, of Boston.

JAPANESE HAVE CORNERED THE TORPEDO MARKET.

Have Placed Orders for a Thousand of the Most Modern Whiteheads—The United States Managed to Buy Fifty

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The Herald today says:—While the United States has been secretly negotiating with the Whitehead Torpedo Company of England, for the purchase of fifty of the newest and most approved whitehead torpedoes, Japan stepped in and bought 1,000 of the torpedoes at an expense of $5,000,000. The torpedoes were purchased by the Japanese at $5,000 each, immediately after the first negotiations of the United States Government. This information has come from England and has caused much surprise. It is believed the enormous purchase by the Japanese practically takes the Whitehead torpedoes from the market, and that in case the United States Government wishes to lay in an additional supply it will have to wait some time for the torpedoes to be delivered. The new Whiteheads are declared the most approved torpedoes now manufactured for naval warfare. They are guaranteed to go four thousand yards, while the best torpedoes in the United States Navy can only cover 3,500 yards. Naval officers in Washington who purchase torpedoes, it was admitted, however, that fifty Whiteheads had been bought for the government by Lt. Wells.

BABY DESERTED BY HEARTLESS PARENTS

Infant Suffered for Some Time With a Broken Arm.

John King, an elderly shoe maker, who has a store on City Road and a home on Erin street, related a tale of cruelty to a child that is liable to cause considerable trouble for some persons. He appeared in the police court this morning and told his troubles to acting magistrate Henderson who could give very little in the matter. Mr. King stated that four weeks ago a young man who says he hails from Augusta, Me., and is boarding at a Pond street house called at the Erin street house and in haste said that he wanted the King family to look after his child a few weeks old, that his wife had to go to the hospital and there was no person to care for the infant. The baby was taken in to the family and cared for at the rate of two dollars a week. The visitor paid for four weeks in advance. The baby was given all the care that could be expected at the King home, but it cried continually and at last Mr. King thought that the services of a doctor were necessary and one was summoned. As the result of the doctor's examination of the little waif, it was found that it was not sickness that made the outcast cry, but rather a broken arm. All attempts that could be possibly given was given and the child was made to rest as easily as possible with its little broken arm, no mother, no father, nor any relative to look after it. This was not enough, for John King learned that the mother of the child was not the wife of the man who brought the infant to his house, but an unfortunate factory girl. She left the city and the man in the case is also soon to go away. Mr. King besides the four weeks advance board on the delivery of the child says he was given two weeks more pay viz. $4, but that time the man will be gone and the unfortunate baby will be on the hands of the King family or be sent to some charitable institution. The old shoemaker, King, was at the police court this morning and asked for information. He was told that the court could do nothing for him.

VANCOUVER KICKS AGAINST JAPANESE IMMIGRATION

Demands That the Federal Government Take Steps at Once to Put a Stop to It—Sir Wilfrid's Words Quoted

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 25.—The Liberal Association of this city has passed a strong resolution urging the Dominion Government to take action in the matter of Oriental immigration. After meeting the circumstances on the Coast, the impossibility of such a disinclination races ever facing, the advantage held by Oriental labor against white, the apparent collusion of Japanese officials, "if not the Japanese Government, and the indifference manifested by the Canadian in the case, it is resolved:—"That we do most earnestly request and demand that the Dominion Government immediately take steps to restrict this dangerous and undesirable immigration. We do so with the more confidence since at the late colonial conference, Sir Wilfrid Laurier laid it down as a maxim of policy in the empire.—That every community knows best what does for itself, and as the Canadian Confederation was formed upon the same principles our unanimous expression of alarm at the Asiatic immigration into this province should have the greatest weight in inducing the government to consider this protest."

VALLEYFIELD OPERATIVES HAVE RETURNED TO WORK

Everything Lovely in the Mills Today—Sudden Death of French Consul at Toronto

MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—The Grand Trunk has decided to go into cigarette selling, and none of the common cigarettes will be sold on its trains. They ordered on Saturday a supply of the finest Turkish.
VALLEYFIELD, Que., Aug. 25.—When the cotton mills whistles blew at 7 a. m. today there was a large crowd at the gates, and in a few minutes the whole factory was in operation as if there had been no strike, but the usual Sunday closing. The great, good humor of the employees showed how glad they were to get back to work and to earning. The ten days' strike was called off on Saturday, when the strike committee decided to accept the company's terms. The loss to the men was $3,000 a day, or $30,000 in all which the merchants of the town feel greatly. The next move is to appoint a board under the Lemaux act to arbitrate all differences except the 10 per cent. increase in wages which the company refused to grant. F. A. Ackland, of the department of labor, was at the meeting on Saturday, and told the men plainly that the company would not grant the increase, and advised them to go back to work, as they had agreed last May to the present wages up to May, 1908.
TORONTO, Aug. 25.—After a little more than twenty-four hours' illness, Augustus Boile, French Consul at Toronto, died yesterday afternoon in Cobourg, where he went Saturday morning to spend the week-end. After arriving there on Saturday he walked to the golf grounds club house, which is only a short distance from the depot, and when spending a minute or so on the veranda he suddenly became unconscious. The late Mr. Boile was born in Montreal sixty-one years ago, but had resided in Toronto for about the last twenty-five years. He was married some years ago to a daughter of the late Chief Justice Armore, and besides the widow two young sons, Felix and Auguste, survive.

WELLMAN IS UNABLE TO MAKE A START

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Hamerfest correspondent of the Daily Mail says that Walter Wellman did not start from his camp at Spitzbergen for the North Pole in his airship on August 23, as he had hoped. The last two tourist steampers of the year arrived at the camp at Virgo Bay on Aug. 23. They saw the balloon high in the air, con- tained by anchor ropes. Mr. Wellman said he was not able to start as the breeze was wrong. He could not get an anchor rope to hold me and the North Pole in a week, if I am less lucky, in a fortnight.—If you do not hear from me in three weeks, you will never hear from me." The steamer left twenty-four hours later. It was then remarked that the balloon seemed to have been deflated. They passed Virgo Bay for the last time on August 23rd and no start had been made although the weather was calm and bright. The passengers doubt if Mr. Wellman will or can start this year.

IN THE COURTS.

In the county court this morning before Judge Forbes the case of Ault and Wilberg, Co. vs. The Canadian Bank Note Co. was taken up under the Act dealing with the Arrest, Imprisonment and Examination of Debtors. The case is the outcome of a judgment for $103.20 received by the plaintiffs against the defendant company in the supreme court on May 22 last.
Edwin B. Seely was examined. The examination showed that the following named persons are shareholders in the defendant company: R. D. Clarke, $3,000; George Clarke $3,000; J. C. Murphy $1,000; E. A. Goodwin $750; Edwin B. Seely $2,000. A letter from Mr. H. S. Wallace $1,000; and the name of Osbert A. Nickerson of Yarmouth appeared for $2,000. A letter from Mr. Nickerson was put in evidence in which he stated that he had never paid a dollar of this amount. Mr. Seely, the witness, swore that this $2,000 had been transferred to E. A. Goodwin. $1,000 of the $2,000 issued to Nickerson had been promotion stock. Mr. Seely did not have the cash book to show that Mr. Goodwin holds $2,000 in Nickerson's name as a court was adjourned till 2.30 o'clock this afternoon when the book will be placed in evidence. J. King Kelley appears for the plaintiff, Hamilton, Peed and Hamilton for other creditors.

PROBATE COURT.

In the Probate Court this morning accounts were passed in the estate of Nathan Hart to the amount of $3,000. L. P. D. Tiley appeared for the administrator, J. J. Porter for Abraham Isaacs a creditor and J. R. Taylor for one of the heirs. The DeBury case also came up but nothing was done. It was stated that an effort was being made to settle the matter without further delay in litigation. The hearing was then postponed to October 23.

THOMAS WHITE DIED ON MONTREAL EXPRESS

While Returning Home From Visit to Scotland.

Had Been Ill All the Way Across—He Was One of St. John's Oldest Merchants.

The death occurred last night of Thomas White, one of St. John's oldest and most honored citizens. Mr. White had been rather poorly for some time with a weak heart and accompanied by Mrs. White went over to Scotland to recuperate. He did not progress very rapidly on the road to progress to attend him on his arrival. During the ocean voyage he was quite ill, and after arriving in Canada Frank White was summoned by Mrs. White to Montreal to meet him, leaving here on Friday night. A telegram received in relation here shortly before the train carrying Mr. White left for St. John, said that he was very low and asked that the family physician be at the depot to attend him on his arrival. The C. P. R. authorities received word this morning that Mr. White had died on the train when near Sherbrooke. Up to within the last few months Mr. White had been in good health. He was well known to the younger as well as the older generation of citizens.

GOT ASTRAY IN THE FOG

S. S. Victoria got lost in the dense fog while coming down river this morning. The steamer sailed from Grand Bay out of its course into South Bay in among the timber aboutments. Capt. Perley soon surmised that he was out of his course and by constant signalling succeeded in receiving an answer from a tugboat coming up the Narrows and soon got squared away on his run again. The steamer narrowly escaped running into a couple of rats in South Bay.

GRAVE ROBBERS AT WORK IN NEW JERSEY TOWN

McKenzie, Order of Scottish Clans.
The body arrived on the C. P. R. train shortly before noon today. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his late residence 216 St. James St. Mrs. White, Frank White and F. S. Bonnell were with Mr. White at the time of his death. He became dangerously ill shortly after Montreal, and a doctor was wired to be in attendance at Sherbrooke, but Mr. White had passed away before the station was reached. A number of relatives and friends were at the depot to meet the bereaved party, and general sympathy was expressed for Mrs. White and her family in their great loss.

SPORTING MATTERS
LARGE CROWD AT
LILY LAKE REGATTA

Many Exciting Contests Took Place,
the Carleton Oarsmen Getting Their Share of the Honors

There was a very large crowd at Rockwood Park on Saturday afternoon, when the Neptune Rowing Club held a very successful regatta on the lake. The various events were well contested and a number of close and exciting finishes brought plenty of applause from the onlookers.

The large number of entries in several of the events made it necessary to run them off in heats, as only two boats were available in the classes. The entries of a number of Carleton oarsmen lent additional interest to the races as there is a friendly rivalry between the West ends and the Neptune boys.

The Results
The single scull race (N. R. C. only), was between W. W. Garnett and J. F. Doherty. The former won. In the double scull event (N. R. C.) Reid and McAvour defeated Doherty and Garnett.

The double scull pleasure boat race, open to boys under 15 years, was won by Belyea and McLeod from Miller and Johnson. This race was well contested from start to finish. The winning contest resulted in a victory for W. J. Coates and H. B. Robinson over W. W. Garnett and J. F. Doherty.

The double scull pleasure boat race (open) had six entries, as follows: Doherty and Garnett, Miller and Johnson, Belyea and McLeod, Reid and McAvour, Silliphant and McLaren, and Johnson and Silliphant. The latter two were taken by Silliphant and McLaren.

In the crab race there were four entries: W. J. Coates, H. B. Robinson, H. B. Robinson and W. W. Garnett. They finished in the order named. The single canoe race was won by H. B. Robinson from W. J. Coates.

An accident also caused the single scull (open) event to be left unfinished. In the first heat Miller won from McAvour. In the final heat, Miller and Johnson were victors over McAvour and Johnson.

An interesting feature of Saturday's programme was an exhibition of log rolling by William Gormally. He used two logs in his act and performed many difficult feats of balancing and rolling on single logs that elicited rounds of applause. Mr. Gormally has a challenge out for any one to meet him in a log rolling contest on Lily Lake.

During the afternoon and evening the St. Mary's band gave an excellent programme of music from the verandah of the pavilion. The various park attractions were well patronized and everyone appeared to enjoy the holiday. The reduction in the price of tickets for the shoot-the-chutes to five cents has made this feature more popular than ever. Tonight there will be a band concert.

CHARLES HAMILTON FOUND
AFTER WEEK IN WOODS

Demented Man Located on Saturday Out Sand Point Road — Had Lived on Berries and Was Apparently Afraid of Capture — Escaped but Was Caught Again.

Insane and exhausted after spending eight days in the woods around Millerville without food except perhaps a few berries which he might have gathered, Charles Hamilton, missing since Friday, the 19th, was found by his relatives, who have been continually searching for him, on Saturday, only, however, to slip away from them and spend another night in the open during a heavy rain.

The missing man was found shortly after twelve o'clock on Saturday on the Sand Point road near the country home of Col. Tucker and not far from the Starr residence, near which some strange cries have been heard. The missing man was discovered by his brother, William, and his brother-in-law, John McCutcheon, who with others have been on the search for him.

When found he showed no signs of violence but seemed timid of his discoverers, who found nearby a little hut of spruce boughs which the demented man had built for himself, and in which, apparently out of fear, he was trying to hide himself away from his fellow beings. When found his clothes were torn and ragged and his appearance haggard. His two relatives did not attempt to bind him but kept him engaged in conversation and also gave him much needed nourishment. They then tried to persuade him to get into a boat which they had with them to return to the city, but the insane man refused to be led into the boat.

His relatives finally giving up their efforts, sent for a carriage instead to bring him to the city, but while they were waiting the crazy man again slipped away and was not found again until the following afternoon.

It certainly is a matter of pride that in a fleet of seven boats she has again shown her supremacy to craft designed by some of the best known yachting experts. New York papers published the course in 34 minutes, while his next competitor took 33 minutes, and the last boat in was 24 minutes. The commander's cup won by Mr. Carrite is a very handsome trophy.

POLO
MONTEAL TEAM WON.
SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 24. — The Montreal Polo team won the Grand Union Hotel cups here today, easily defeating Otsego in the final round. The score was 10 goals to 2.

ATHLETIC
M. A. A. CHAMPIONSHIPS.
NEW YORK, Aug. 24. — Adverse weather conditions here prevented the M. A. A. championships from being held at Travers Island today.

The senior championship of the Metropolitan Amateur Athletic Union, comprising fifteen events, were decided, but two records precluded any possibility of a record being broken, even equalled.

The contest for team honors was solely between the Irish-American and New York A. C., each organization having its star performers in perfect form for the meet. The final point score was Irish-American A. C., 87; New York A. C., 48.

The big event of the day was looked for when the sixteen pound hammer throwing contest began, but the slippery condition of the field gave the competitors insecure footholds. The long-looked-for duel between John J. Flanagan of the Irish-American A. C. and Matt McGrath of the New York A. C. did not come up to expectations.

McGrath threw the hammer 188 feet 4 1/2 inches, beating Flanagan, who threw the world's record, 12 feet 10 inches. Keating, a young sprinter, who had carefully trained, won the hundred and 200 yard dashes for the Irish-Americans.

J. Sheridan, the world's champion, won the discus throw and the sixteen pound shot put handily, and E. Cook enlarged the score of the point winners by taking first honors in the high and broad jumps, as well as third place in the pole vault.

THE MOTOR
INTERESTING MOTOR RACE.
FRONTENAC, N. Y., Aug. 24. — In the best motor race ever seen on the Lawrence River, the P. D. Q., owned by Miss Clover Bold of New York, today defeated the Vingt Trois, owned by James Park Gillespie of Pittsburgh.

The time was 1 hour 5 minutes 45 seconds. On the second lap of seven 1/2 miles, the Vingt Trois gained only a half second, so closely were the boats matched. The race was the final free-for-all of the Frontenac Yacht Club, for all of the Frontenac Yacht Club, owned by A. R. Peacock of Pittsburgh. The handicaps were won by the P. D. Q., the Damphino second, the others finishing in the following order: So Long, Pirate, Mona.

The danger of slides at Rodney Wharf as a result of the deluging which has been done, is that within the last few days there have further indications of a gradual sliding away at the wharf and the new street railway tracks were.

At both yesterday's services in St. Andrew's church the preacher was Rev. W. G. Wilson, of Guelph, Ont., who has previously been heard with pleasure by St. John congregations.

Each night he again showed signs of wishing to be off and his relatives were anxious that the police should take him in charge. The North End police, however, did not feel like taking this step, especially when his relatives had the whole of the previous afternoon to make out the necessary papers, if they wished to have done so.

Lately he had been working with his brother, G. H. Hamilton, as a builder. Lately, however, he has shown a disinclination to work, and on Friday he was seen on the next day near the line kin walking out the road and again on the following afternoon.

Hamilton has already been in the asylum for a number of months. His father had been the outcome of blows on his head so serious as to require a number of stitches by the doctor.

On Saturday afternoon about eighty-five of the employees of W. H. Thorne & Co. Ltd., enjoyed an outing on the grounds of Arthur Thorne at Lake Minota. Games and other amusements took up much of the afternoon, a baseball match being the greatest attraction. Supper was served on the grounds at 4.30 in the evening. Three hours later the party set out for the city, after the most enjoyable afternoon and evening.

R. M. Wetmore, agent of the S. P. C. A. and Inspector Jones on Friday last visited a house on High street in which Mrs. Cook conducts a baby farm. Wilson, who celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their wedding and Her Majesty's birthday on the same day.

The double celebration, which took place at the spacious grounds and residence of P. C. Wilson, Brown's Hill, Amesbury.

A plucky rescue in record making time was accomplished in Carleton Saturday afternoon. Duncan Campbell, the five-year-old son of Andrew Campbell, had wandered away from home and while playing on Rodney wharf near the ferry entrance fell overboard. The tide was well on the ebb and it was difficult to get down to the youngster. A number of men were standing around helplessly, when Dr. B. M. Wilson, who is moving his dental practice here from St. George and was at the time waiting for the ferry, saw the danger and promptly slid down a rope into the water, where he secured the almost exhausted boy and helped him ashore. The ferryboat was coming into the slip when Dr. Wilson started to save the boy, and he accomplished the feat in time to catch the boat that trip.

The following were the prize winners and their scores:

ST. GAUDENS' DESIGNS
FOR U. S. CURRENCY
NEW YORK, Aug. 24. The Tribune says:—
Notwithstanding the reports that the St. Gaudens designs for the new gold eagles and double eagles would not be accepted by the United States Government, owing to the fact that they were unfit for practical purposes, Dr. George F. Kunz, of Tiffany and Company, said yesterday that he had positive assurance from a person high in authority in the government that the designs would be accepted. The only device that it proposed to put in the coins are embossed too high, and the while new one has only two. She says that she is going out of the business. The visitors think that the place is being conducted in Mrs. Cook's poor circumstances will permit. Mr. Jones expressed on her that she must see that the birth of all children entrusted to her was reported to him.

DEATHS
FRED MONAHAN.
The death of Mr. Fred C. Monahan took place Saturday night at his home 42 Brussels street at the age of thirty-nine. Mr. Monahan was born at St. John twenty-four years ago. He was highly respected by all who knew him and his family will miss him very much. Mr. Monahan leaves a wife and four small children, his mother, a sister and one brother in Boston. The funeral will take place tomorrow at half-past two from his late residence. (Boston papers please copy)

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 25, 1907.
FEW WERE PRESENT.

At the meeting of the maritime board of trade held last week in St. John, nothing was more noticeable than the neglect on the part of the people's representatives of the opportunity given them to learn the feelings of their constituents. Members are elected to provincial and federal parliaments for the purpose of making laws for the whole of Canada and also for safeguarding the interests of those countries which they are supposed to represent, but as a rule these legislators pay very little attention to the views of the board held in Amherst last week. A resolution was introduced and passed authorizing the secretary to send formal invitations to all maritime members of the provincial assemblies and of the Dominion parliament to be present at this year's meeting in St. John. Answers were received from a few. The majority of those who took the trouble to reply treated the matter lightly and evidently regarded the gathering as of slight importance. One or two seemed to honestly regret that they would be unable to attend. When the meeting opened in St. John there were present Messrs. H. J. Logan, of Cumberland, N. S., and W. S. Loggie, of Northumberland, N. B., members of parliament, Messrs. E. H. Armstrong, of Yarmouth, John Morrissey, George Robertson, and Dr. Pugsley of New Brunswick, and George E. Hughes, of Prince Edward Island. Five at least were in attendance. None of the other 150 odd representatives through the provinces could find it possible to attend. The ones who were present took an active part in the deliberations and besides imparting information learned much that will be of value to their legislative duties. Those who remained away have lost a valuable opportunity and will take their seats in the various parliaments at the next session without any proper appreciation of the wishes of a large number of their constituents. These absentees are the ones whose negligence in such matters necessitates the sending of frequent delegations to provincial and federal capitals while parliaments are in session for the purpose of impressing upon representatives those ideas which should be gathered in meetings like the maritime board of trade.

THE CZAR'S ADVISERS.
Europe is wondering if during the next few months the influence of the Russian Grand Dukes, will continue to direct the policy of the Russian Empire or whether Nicholas will promulgate the advice given by King Edward and William of Germany. These two rulers have found a field for joint action along similar lines, in endeavoring to straighten out the Russian tangle without seeming to make other peoples' business their own. Both have taken the opportunity to suggest to Emperor Nicholas that by a more diplomatic exercise of his own common sense, a freer play of those humanitarian tendencies which must exist even in the autocrat of all the Russias, a less attentive ear to the clamorings of those near the throne who hope to profit by the monarch's weakness, he could bring order out of chaos and restore in his empire that national patriotism which is necessary to the life of a nation. King Edward urges a constitution and a truly representative parliament—a halfway measure for him. The Emperor of Germany profiting by some what exciting experiences at home suggests firmness in dealing with the Socialists, and at the same time utters a warning against a too reactionary policy. These friendly counsels should not pass unheeded, but the Emperor has during the few years of his reign failed to exhibit any remarkable firmness, and his future policy will remain a matter for conjecture.

GENERAL BOOTH.
The St. John Common Council has decided that by presenting an address to General Booth it would be establishing a bad precedent. This is just what the council might be expected to decide. It is well that General Booth cares nothing about such things; the littleness of mind displayed by the St. John aldermen will not worry him in the least. But it would scarcely be beneath the dignity of those men to formally welcome one whom kings have delighted to honor. Addresses have been presented to the Governor General, to Prince Henry, to Prince Arthur, and to lots of other representatives of earthly rulers, who have come here in the interests of earthly kingdoms. General Booth is a prince of another empire which will live when Britain has faded from the map of the world. His name will be revered when those of Earl Grey and many others who have been gladly welcomed in St. John shall have entirely passed from memory.

AN IRISH FOLK SONG.
Rory O'Rea sailed out on the sea—
Out on the sea when the sun was
Night came over him, grim and grey,
And love went out of his heart, folk say.
When the stars came blinkin', blinkin'.
Rory O'Rea sailed over the sea;
Woe to a heart that is fond and breakin'.
Altogether on the lonesome shore
Singin' a song to him, o'er and o'er,
Her bidde-gown makin', makin'.
Rory O'Rea will never come back;
Many's the soul that is sore and grievin'.
Altogether in her weddin'-gown,
Still, and white as the flaxen down
O' the shroud they're weavin', wasin'.

A Chicago professor has discovered that sea gulls possess reasoning and perceptive powers. He is convinced that the birds think. Would it not be a good plan to catch some of the thousands which are to be seen on the Thames between Westminster and London bridge and train them to work in Government offices?
At the Home Office their perceptive powers would come in handy. The War Department is badly in need of thinkers. In the admiralty the birds would be specially welcome. We just throw the suggestion out!

She—No, I didn't use the word 'throw'. I'm simply going to drop you.

THEY WERE TRYING TO EXPLAIN TO THE AUSTRALIAN HUSBAND THE PRINCIPLE OF THE CURVED BALL.

BRONZE CASNETS FOR PRES. AND MRS. MCKINLEY
SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Aug. 24.—The bodies of the late President and Mrs. McKinley are to repose permanently in specially made bronze casnets. The memorial committee has decided that the receptacles which now hold the bodies should be replaced by others of a more enduring character when they are laid to permanent rest in the new mausoleum. The new casnets will be hermetically sealed and among the finest ever constructed. The work of making the new casnets has been assigned to a local concern. The element of cost will not be allowed to enter into the construction of the new receptacles.

MUSEUM IN MEMORY OF THOMAS B. ALDRICH
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 25.—A movement is under way to establish a permanent memorial to the late Thomas Bailey Aldrich, whose boyhood days were spent in Portsmouth. A committee of prominent citizens from all over the country have formally accepted the Thomas Bailey Aldrich Memorial Association, which proposes to acquire the old house here, which belongs to Mr. Aldrich's grandfather, Thomas Darling Bailey, and to preserve it as a memorial museum. Mr. Aldrich lived in the house for many years. Mrs. Aldrich and Mr. Thomas Aldrich, the house's surviving son, have agreed to deposit in his house his collection of first editions and valuable manuscripts and autographs.

IMPALING IN TURKEY.
Impaling was used as a punishment in Turkey up to 1885. The last man so executed were four Arab sheiks who had rebelled. They were impaled at the four corners of the Bagdad bridge. One of them lived for nine days.

NEW YORK WORTH MORE THAN ALL MISSOURI
NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—In his report to the mayor, president of the Tax Board, Lawson Purdy, makes this interesting comment on the land values of the city. The value of land today in New York city is so enormous that it is hard to realize its amount without some comparison:
"The assessed value of land alone, exclusive of improvements, in the city of New York, is greater than the assessed value of all real estate, improvements included, in the state of Pennsylvania, and nearly twice as great as the value of all the real estate, including improvements, in the state of New York, outside the city. The assessed value of the land on six square miles of Manhattan, in the neighborhood of Central Park, is greater than the assessed value of all the real estate in the state of Missouri."

SERVIAN PRINCE INCOG. IN LONDON

"Bad Boy of Europe" Enjoying the Sights of Great English Metropolis.

No Question of State Involved in Prince's Visit to England—Makes Good Impression.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—London is at present entertaining one of the most interesting personalities in Europe—the crown prince of Servia, formerly known as the "Bad Boy of Europe," and "His Highness the Hooligan."

Prince George is travelling incognito, and since his arrival he has been sight-seeing like an ordinary tourist. Country cousins visiting the Tower of London yesterday puzzled their heads over the identity of the youth with close-cropped hair, prominent nose and swarthy face, who wanted to see "everything as quickly as possible."

It was only natural that the crown prince, who is now 30 years of age, should visit the Earl's Court Exhibition. He has become more subdued of late, and although he took a childish delight in the water-chute—which he declared should be twice as steep—and insisted on his suits being photographed with his picture on the cards, he made a very favorable impression on several Servian gentlemen who are not favorably disposed toward the present dynasty.

One of these said yesterday that the young prince had undoubtedly begun to recognize his responsibilities. Although as restless as King Alfonso of Spain, and still very excitable, he has a frank, simple manner and is capable of enjoyment which arouse a certain amount of admiration.

Formerly he had his tutors an unborn life—Major Levasseur, a French disciplinarian, who had the honor of "instrucing" his responsibilities. Although as restless as King Alfonso of Spain, and still very excitable, he has a frank, simple manner and is capable of enjoyment which arouse a certain amount of admiration.

FONTENOY, Belgium, Aug. 25.—The lord mayor of Dublin today unveiled the monument erected to commemorate the bravery of the Irish brigade in the battle of Fontenoy in 1745, in the presence of 200 Irish visitors, the local authorities and the clergy. The monument was presented to the town by various Irish societies. After the unveiling speeches in Gaelic were made by prominent Irishmen and the monument was solemnly blessed by the Dean of Antwerp. Several Irish-Americans participated in a memorial banquet tonight.

A Little Revolution in South American Town
BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 25.—A local revolution broke out last night in the city of San Luis, capital of the province of San Luis, a town of 11,000 inhabitants and situated about 160 miles southeast of Buenos Ayres. The chief of police was the leader of the insurrection and the governor and other provincial authorities were made prisoners. The insurrection is to choose a new governor and install him in office.

HE NEVER OFFERED A JOB TO BOURASSA
MONTREAL, Aug. 24.—Hon. Lomer Gouin, asked as to the report that Bourassa had been offered a portfolio in his cabinet, said:—"I would ask you to state once and for all, and this in the most positive manner, that never directly or indirectly have I offered nor caused to be offered a portfolio or anything else to Mr. Bourassa. Further I have also never asked or caused him to be asked for anything whatsoever. His false statements at the meeting at Rigaud are entirely without excuse."

WORTH KNOWING.
To remove a tight finger ring pass the end of a piece of fine twine underneath the ring and wind it evenly around the finger upward as far as the middle joint. Then take hold of the lower end of the string beneath the ring and begin to slowly unwind upward, when the ring will gradually move along the twine toward the tip of the finger and come off.

PATRIOTISM.
(By Lucia Ames Mead.)
The selections from a chapter in Mrs. Mead's "Patriotism, the new Internationalism" which I have been sending you for the past six weeks, may be just as appropriately followed up by a selection from the introduction of that work, which is a text book as well as a clear and vigorous presentation of the argument against war and an armed peace. Teachers are especially admonished all through the book, stress being laid upon the immense importance of placing before the child the highest morality.

PEACE.
"For a generation no great new genius in statesmanship has appeared; the poets, statesmen and men of vision are replaced in the admiration of the great body of youth by financiers, inventors and millionaires. The present generation knows not the inspiration of living in a world in which one might be surprised any morning by reading a fresh poem from the pen of Tennyson, Browning, Lowell, Longfellow, or Carlyle, or an essay from Emerson, Whitier, or an essay from Emerson, or an address by Gladstone, Sumner, Cassia or Darwin. Our surprises today are of another sort."

"It has been surprisingly evident that the terms 'educated man,' 'good man,' are not synonymous with 'good citizen.' The indolent father, the faithful husband, the man who has no private vices has often proved to be the poorest citizen. Indifference, apathy, ingratitude for benefits received, and lack of willingness to sacrifice personal interests for the country, in the very spot where and at the very time when she most sorely needs it, mark the spirit of prosperous classes in numerous communities. In many city wards almost the entire body of youth is being sent forth from the common school, who, although well instructed in the rule of three, in particular adjectives, and the number of bones in the body, will in a few years be preparing for the suffrage by allying themselves with a party machine for purely personal ends, with frank admiration of the boss who manages a fortune by peddling patronage. The training in 'civics' which they have had at school has frequently taught them but the technicalities of the business of politics."

WEALTHY SOUTHERNER KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 25.—The recent decision of the customs authorities at Callao to sell at auction all goods deposited therein previous to March, 1904, has aroused a general storm of protest. It is cited by the protesters that the law provides that goods deposited in the customs house may remain for an indefinite period. As the ruling affects property belonging to foreign nations, it is probable that the matter will be the subject of diplomatic exchange.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 25.—Benjamin Franklin Reese, 48 years old, a Chattanooga clubman and a capitalist, and son of Hans Reese, a pioneer of the leather industry in New York, was instantly killed last night in an automobile accident. William Love was seriously injured and W. E. Hendrich, a travelling representative of a New York house, was slightly hurt. The car dashed over a 15 foot embankment. Mr. Reese was caught under the car and his neck and back were broken.

SHOT BY WOMAN HE TRIED TO KILL

GRAFT EVERYWHERE

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Aug. 25.—Alton Thomas, 70 years old, a farmer, was shot and killed by Mrs. Katie Brumet, the 29-year-old wife of Abe Brumet, another farmer. Brumet was a tenant of Thomas and they had a disagreement. While Brumet was away from home Thomas shot at Mrs. Brumet three times, one bullet grazing her head. She got a revolver and fired at Thomas five times, one bullet piercing the brain. The young woman is about to become a mother, and is in a critical condition. Thomas leaves a family. Mrs. Brumet is highly respected.

NAPLES, Aug. 25.—Thirty officials of the Castellammare Arsenal have been arrested as the result of the discovery of extensive embezzlements alleged to have been made in collusion with contractors for supplies of materials. One of the contractors has been arrested for supplying a large quantity of imperfect hemp for which the highest market price was paid.

CROKER WINS IN THE JOCKEY CLUB SPORTS

WASHING DECANTERS.

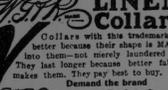

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The stewards of the Jockey Club have revoked the decision forbidding Richard Croker to train his horses at Newmarket and Mr. MacCabe, Mr. Croker's manager, has now applied for and received a license, to train Mr. Croker's horses there. MacCabe will bring over a small string from Ireland for a month toward the end of the season, but his residence at the English turf headquarters will be only temporary. The horses will be trained in Ireland at the close of the campaign in England.

After washing decanters turn them upside down and allow water from the cold water tap to run over them. In about five minutes' time they will be beautifully dry inside, and if the outside is carefully wiped and rubbed they will sparkle beautifully.

BROOMS.

A heavy broom should always be selected in preference to a light one for thorough sweeping, as the weight aids in the process. In buying a broom test it by pressing the edge against the floor. If the straws brittle out and bend, the broom is a poor one, for they should remain in a firm, solid mass.

MORGAN'S ART GEMS ASTONISH FOREIGNERS

Delegates to School Congress in London Marvel at American's Rare Treasures.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—About a dozen foreign delegates who are attending the International School Congress at South Kensington had a novel experience yesterday. They were permitted to view the pictures, miniatures, and art treasures contained in the Prince's Gate mansion of J. Pierpont Morgan.

One of the delegates interviewed after his visit, remarked: "It was the most extraordinary experience of my life. When we arrived we were keenly scrutinized by several clean-shaven men who were evidently detectives. We signed our names in a book in the hall, and then traversed a series of beautiful rooms, in which articles of fabulous worth were strewn about broadcast. One little case of ancient church ornaments, which was placed in my hands for an instant, was said to be worth $100,000."

SAW MARVELS OF ART.

"I saw in the course of a brief half-hour in this one house marvels of art from every corner of the world which must have represented a total value of close upon $100,000,000. A tiny miniature lying in an open case, with the jewels of its frame sparkling in the sunlight, would have realized not less than $200,000."

"No wonder the credentials of visitors are so keenly inspected before they cross the threshold of this treasure palace. Pictures by the most famous painters of all times cover the walls, each being illuminated by an ingenious and artistic arrangement of concealed electric lights, which serve most admirably to throw into relief just those aspects of it which are most notable."

MANY NEW ROOMS BUILT.

"The owner of this vast wealth of art treasures was absent, but I learned that he has been obliged to knock two houses into one to accommodate his ever-increasing collection, and that he has built many new rooms especially to contain and show to the best advantage the most costly of his possessions."

"I heard incidentally that he has thirty artists engaged upon the production of hand-painted volumes dealing with the miniatures of his marvelous collection. Each of these books will cost $250, and they are, it is stated, to be presented to the crowned heads of Europe."

SAYS THAT BLONDIN IS STILL LIVING

Former Acquaintance Meets the Famous Rope Walker Who Was Thought to be Dead

WATERBURY, Conn., Aug. 25.—Charles Blondin, the once famous tight wire walker, who made the perilous trip across Niagara Falls, is said to be living the life of a hermit in West Chester, though rumor had it that he died ten years ago in London.

Blondin, who is working as a carpenter on odd jobs and going under the name of Michael Todd, is said to have been recognized by an old circus performer named Abe Trotten, Blondin, when he was seen at a circus performance in New York, which he had made in the maddening pleasures of life and I certainly have felt the need and the value of money since. My oldest son knows where I am. He is with Whitney's circus in the West."

BISHOP BURGESS GETS A BLACK HAND LETTER

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Bishop Burgess, of the Cathedral of the Incarnation, at Garden City, L. I., has received a black hand letter threatening his life. It is said that the writer declared they would blow up the See house unless the bishop and all his family if the demands were not granted. The bishop refused to discuss the matter.

NORWAY'S WOODEN CHURCHES.

Some of the wooden churches of Norway are fully 700 years old and are still in an excellent state of preservation. Their timbers have successfully resisted the frosty and almost arctic winters because they have been repeatedly coated with tar.

WHO IS WORLD'S QUEEN OF BEAUTY?

England and Europe Challenge America's Claim to Most Perfect of Sex.

NEWSPAPERS IN MANY COUNTRIES TRY TO Beat Uncle Sam's Fairest Daughters

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Daily Mirror has started a contest for the most beautiful woman in the world, and premises its announcement by asking: "Is there a more beautiful woman in the world than Miss Marguerite Fry, of Colorado, whose photograph appeared in the Daily Mirror on August 27?"

The Daily Mirror has taken up this challenge on behalf of Englishwomen. Its example has been followed by leading newspapers in Australia, Argentina, Denmark, France, Japan, Mexico, Norway, Scotland, Spain and Sweden, on behalf of the womanhood of those countries.

HOW THE COMPETITION STARTED.

A competition, which started a few months ago in a friendly wager between a New York City Chicago man as to which city possessed the most beautiful woman, has spread until now it is a great international contest. The woman of the first wager, made in December last year, grew a contest to find the most beautiful woman in the United States. She was found in Miss Fry.

Then America challenged the world to find a more beautiful woman, and the world has accepted the challenge. The jury is composed of ten famous painters, whose names and whose names are well known. They are John Lavery, R. S. A.; Arthur Hacker, A. R. A.; George Henry, A. R. A.; Sir James Linton, R. I.; A. Carruthers Gould, R. S. A.; Richard Jack, G. F. Jacob-Hood, R. I.; John Hassall, R. I.; Miss Maud Porter, Charles Lewis, R. S. A.; and the most important member of the United States in issuing the challenge, no professional theatrical performer or model is eligible.

ENGLAND IS AROUSED.

According to the Daily Mirror, not only towns, but the rural districts are up in arms against the American challenge. Some of the photographs already ready sent in come from remote parts of the west of England, where live the most perfect types of Englishwomen—fair country girls, the descendants of a long line of sturdy forefathers, to whom the fresh air life is life.

When the most beautiful woman has been found the Daily Mirror proposes to pay her the highest tribute that can be paid to any mortal—to perpetuate her name and beauty.

The woman best known to the committee to be the fairest in England shall have her portrait painted by a well-known British artist. This portrait will be offered to the most important picture gallery in the neighborhood in which the lady lives as a permanent possession.

The Daily Mirror is championing the cause of England. In this week's issue of the People's Friend, of Dundee, is the cause of Scotland's fair daughters is being taken up.

PERSONALS

Miss Helen Perkins is visiting friends in Nova Scotia.

Miss My Martin and Miss Katie O. Fry have returned after spending their vacation at Bayswater.

Miss Nellie Connell, accompanied by Miss Kate Cooper and Fred. Cooper of the suburbs, has returned from a visit to Fredericton.

Miss Edith Keith, of Moncton, who received a black hand letter threatening her life, is said to have returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Plagg, who has been in the city, left for her home in Boston by the steamer Yale on Saturday evening. Mrs. Plagg was accompanied by Miss Ethel Conacher, who is returning to Boston after a long vacation.

In Trinity Church yesterday, the banners were published for the first time of Frederick G. Taylor, formerly of the Union Bank in St. John and now of Halifax, and Miss Mary Titus of this city.

Miss Laura Gleason has returned home after visiting in Maine, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. E. K. Smith and daughter Dorothy, who were visiting in Esport, Maine.

Mayor McLeod, G. S. Crockett, M. P., James H. Crockett, editor of the Globe and Dr. Vanwart, of Fredericton, arrived in the city at noon today.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank P. Mullin returned today from their bridal tour and will reside on Paradise Row.

BOSTON, Aug. 24.—The entire family of Martin Cooper, consisting of himself, his wife, four children, and John Dwyer, a lodger, was wiped out by a fire in their home, 49 Norfolk street, Somerville, at midnight last night.

Mrs. Margaret Cooper, her daughter Margaret and Theresa, and her son John, together with her father, John Dwyer, were dead from suffocation when discovered by the firemen, but her husband, Martin Cooper, and William, a 3-year-old son, were still alive, although it was later at the Somerville Hospital, where they were taken, that both would probably die.

The police, after an incomplete investigation, believe that the fire was the consequence of a row between Cooper and Charles Rogers, a fellow-workman at the Bushway ice cream factory.

TONS OF POISONED NUTS ARE SEIZED

Prompt Action of London's Medical Officer of Health Prevents Serious Epidemic

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The prompt action of Dr. Collingridge, the medical officer of health for the city, and his department has prevented an epidemic of poisoning in London which was intended for the nuts and stopping their sale.

Application was made at the Tower Bridge Court yesterday for an order for the destruction of one and a half tons of the nuts, it was stated that they were a new variety from South America, and were rancid.

Dr. Milson, medical officer of health for Southwark, who made the application, said these nuts were intended for sale at Blackheath on bank holiday. The consequences of their sale might have been serious.

Giving to a technical difficulty the magistrate could not order the destruction of the nuts, but it was announced that the importers had stopped their sale.

At the Mansion House Court fourteen hundredweight of the nuts were ordered to be destroyed.

In addition to the five cases treated at Guy's Hospital, another has been reported, but all the patients are now out of danger. "The cases were very severe," said the house physician at the hospital yesterday, "and it there had been any delay in their treatment the consequences might have been serious."

CAMBON AND VON BUELOW DISCUSSED MOROCCO

French Ambassador and German Chancellor Arrange That France Shall Have No Interference

BERLIN, Aug. 25.—Julius Cambon, the French Ambassador to Germany, returned here today from Norderney, satisfied with the results of his visit to Chancellor Von Buelow. The Ambassador had three long conversations with the chancellor, covering the entire field of international politics. Most of the subjects were touched upon lightly, nothing in the way of fresh proposals or serious suggestions being made.

Possibly the most interesting subject to the French Government at present was the Moroccan situation, upon which the Chancellor talked freely, repeating and elaborating what had already been communicated to France through the Foreign Office at Berlin.

BANKERS WERE BEATEN BY WESTFIELD PLAYERS

A base ball team composed of local bank clerks met their fate at Westfield on Saturday, when they faced the Westfield nine on the picnic grounds at Bayswater.

The game was the second at the finish of the game was 20-10 in favor of the Westfield nine. The game was played by men on both sides, and the batting was by far the heaviest ever seen in Westfield for a long time.

Percy Clark who held down second base for Westfield, Paris, France, was the star of the game. He made a two-bagger every time he went to bat.

The suburbanites had an excellent battery in Frank Dooly and Harold Clawson, and the former's mysterious shots seemed to puzzle the bankers.

When the ball was hit, it surely fell into the hands of Gordon Wilson, who covered left field, and who was practically a human basket. Bob Magee played a star game on first base. "Percy" Howard was third baseman, and the score at the end of the game showed that he had not made an error.

Jack Roberts proved an efficient umpire. The bank clerks went to Westfield in a motor boat. They left for the city at 7 o'clock.

GOOD SHOOTING AT THE OPENING OF D. R. A. MEET

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 25.—The Dominion Rifle Association shot opened this morning with almost 500 marksmen in attendance. The morning opened with the usual preliminaries of extra series and tyro of five and six hundred yards. The bankers and Mitchell matches at six hundred yards followed. The day was dull but the light good, and shooting was of a high class though the scores have not yet been compiled.

STIFF HATS FOR FALL '07.

The shapes of Stiff Hats to be worn the coming Fall will, in many cases be full shaped crowns of different heights, with flat set brims of different widths, though the rounded crown with rolled brim will be equally correct.

MAGEE'S are already showing several new shapes in Black, $2.00 to $3.00, and two snappy shapes in Brown in three shades, at $3.00. We've something new all the time.

COMMERCIAL WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The opening trading in stocks was dull and prices in the prominent issues were generally lower, however, in stocks of less importance.

There was a fair mixture of losses, however, in stocks of less importance.

MONTREAL, Que., Aug. 25.—The Grand Trunk traffic earnings for August 15 to 21, 1907, were $87,881 and in 1906 were $83,506; an increase of $4,375.

THE DECLINE IN VALUES.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The next issue of the Banker's Magazine will print a table telling the tale of millions evaporated on the Stock Exchange by the depreciation of securities of all grades and of all varieties, which the editor likens to "a survey of a district afflicted by some devastating calamity."

For August the decline is 34 per cent. representative stocks reaching the staggering total of $80,000,000. This makes an aggregation of $1,250,000,000 since the beginning of the year, of which $555,000,000 is in American Railroad stocks, $340,000,000 in British funds, and $350,000,000 in British Railways and ordinary stocks.

Judging purely from a percentage basis, however, the most serious losses have been in the South African market, averaging about 25 per cent. As regards the month itself, the table indicates that American Railroad Securities are far in the front with a shrinkage of $28,000,000.

FIVE MEN DROWNED IN SINKING OF A TUG

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 25.—The British steamship Barnstable, Captain Davidson, from Port Antonio, for Baltimore, late last night ran into and sank the tug Gerry, Capt. McCoy, of Wilmington, Del., in the ship channel off Sparrow's Point, Md. Five men were drowned.

The drowned men were members of the crew of the dredge Standard and included the captain of the Standard. The tug was in the river engaged in towing mud across from the dredge Standard. The Barnstable was not damaged.

The dredge had been at work near Seven Foot Knoll, widening and deepening the channel. The men were returning to the Standard on the tug from a visit to this city.

SOPHY OF KRAVONIA, A Novel, by Anthony Hope

(Continued.) "And here we are!" she ended with a wistful smile. "If Moneigneur lives, I think we shall win. For the moment we can do no more than hold Volenski, I think we can do that. But presently, when he's better and can lead us, we shall attack. Down in Slavna they won't like being ruled by the Countess and Stenovic as much as they expect. Little by little we shall grow stronger. Her voice rose a little. "At last Moneigneur will sit firm on his throne," she said. "Then we'll see what we can do for Slavna. It's a fine country, and rich. Lord Dunstanbury, at our side Slavna the people are good material. We shall be able to make it very different—Moneigneur lives."

Moneigneur! He laughed at his own annoyance—and determined to serve Moneigneur as well as he could. At the same time, while conceding most amply—nay, even feeling—Moneigneur's excuse, he could not admit his policy in the choice of a bride. That was doubtless a sample of how things were done in Slavna. He lived to feel the excuse more strongly—and to pronounce the judgment with greater hesitation. "Moneigneur lives!" she said. "Moneigneur lives!" she said. "Moneigneur lives!" she said. "Moneigneur lives!" she said. "Moneigneur lives!" she said.

"What is it to me except for Moneigneur? If he dies—" Her hands thrown wide in a gesture of despair ended her sentence. "If she lived and worked for Slavna, it was for Moneigneur's sake. Without him, what was Slavna to her? Such was her mood, plainly she took no pains to conceal it from Dunstanbury. The next moment she turned to him with a smile. "You think I talk strangely, saying, 'We'll do this and that? Yes, you must, and it's suddenly become strange to me to say it—to say it to you, because you've brought back the old things to my mind, and all this is so out of keeping with the old things—with Sophy Crouch, and Julia Robins, and Morphin! But until you came it didn't seem strange. Everything that has happened since I came to this country seemed to lead up to it—to bring it about naturally and irresistibly. I forgot till just now how funny it must sound to you—and how—how—how!"

"It's been a terrible night. I'm glad you've had some sleep. It was rather an hour, the hemorrhage had set in again. I had to tell him it was a thousand to one against him. He was for her, and made me leave them alone together. There was only one other room, and I waited there with a little woman—a Madam Zerkovitch—who cried terribly. Then he sent for Lukovitch, who seems to be the chief man in the place. Presently Lukovitch went away, and I went back to the King. I found him terribly exhausted; she was there, sitting by him and whispering to him now and then, she seemed calm. Presently Lukovitch came back; the Zerkovitch and the German man came too. They all came, but I would not hear my objections—and with them came a priest. And then there the King married her! She spoke to nobody except to me before the service began, and then she only said: 'Moneigneur wishes it.' I waited till the service was done, but I could bear no more. I went outside while they shrived him. But I was called back to the room beside her, and came very soon—less than half an hour. He sent everybody away except her and me, and when I had done that, which was possible, I went as far off as I could—into the corner of the room. I came back at a call from her just before she died. The man who looked so extraordinarily happy, Dunstanbury."

"In Slavna they call me a witch," she said, "and tell terrible tales about my little mark—the Red Star. But here in Volenski they like me—yes, and I can win over Slavna, too. If I get the opportunity, No! I shall try to weaken Moneigneur if he lives."

"You'll be—?" "His wife?" she interrupted. "Yes. She smiled again—my, almost laughing. "That seems worst of all—worse than anything else!" Dunstanbury allowed himself to smile too. "Well, yes, of course that's true," he said. "Out of Slavna, anyhow, what's true in Slavna I really don't know yet."

"I suppose it's true in Slavna too. But what I tell you is Moneigneur's will about me." He looked hard at her. "You love him?" he asked. "As my life, and more," said Sophy, simply. "At last Dunstanbury ceased to look at her; he laid his elbows on the batlements and stood there, his eyes roaming over the lake in the valley to the mountains beyond. Sophy left his side, and began to walk slowly up and down the rugged, uneven, overgrown surface of the wall. The moon was sinking in the sky; there would be three or four dark hours before the dawn. A man galloped up to the gate and gave a counter-aim in return to a challenge; and another rode out and entered off along the road towards Praslak. There was a faint light in the sky, and it was not to be caught napping as Praslak had been. Whether the King lived or died, his Volensians were on guard. Dunstanbury turned his back on the hills and came up to Sophy.

"I give it to you," he persisted. "Yes—and all that misdeed I give to Moneigneur," said Sophy. "Any man who meets, or after an interval of time meets again, an attractive woman, only to find that her thoughts are pre-occupied and totally pre-occupied, suffers an annoyance not less real because he sees the shadow of it; it is to find shut a gate which with better luck might have been open. The unusual circumstance of his now encounter with Sophy did not save Dunstanbury from this common form of chagrin; the fragile element in her situation gave it a rather uncommon flavor. He would fain have appeared as the knight-errant to rescue such beauty in such distress; but the nature of the distress did not seem favorable to the proper romantic sequel. He made his offer of service to her; she assigned him to the service of

"Did you act on that principle when you came to Slavna?" With a smile Sophy gave him her hand. "So be it, I accept your service—for Moneigneur."

"I give it to you," he persisted. "Yes—and all that misdeed I give to Moneigneur," said Sophy. "Any man who meets, or after an interval of time meets again, an attractive woman, only to find that her thoughts are pre-occupied and totally pre-occupied, suffers an annoyance not less real because he sees the shadow of it; it is to find shut a gate which with better luck might have been open. THRILLING ESCAPE OF TWO PRIESTS Canoe Upset While They Were Shooting Rapids Near Prince Albert—One Rescued the Other

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Aug. 25.—Two Roman Catholic priests, who escaped to shoot Cole Falls rapids, near the forks of the Saskatchewan River, had a narrow escape from a watery grave. They left Prince Albert in a Peterboro canoe well loaded with supplies, one of the fathers being bound for his post at Cumberland House, while the other intended taking a holiday trip to Fort La Corne, returning by rail. They passed two rapids successfully, but at the third the canoe capsized. The supplies were lost in the river, but the canoe floated bottom up and the fathers both managed to cling to the craft. In this perilous position they were swept on by rushing waters, beaten and bruised against rocks, but holding on for dear life. One of the adventurers retained his paddles, and eventually climbed upon the boat and towed his companion ashore, some miles from the scene of the upsetting. Their plight on reaching the shore was bad, as there was no habitation within five miles, but by midnight they found shelter in a settler's shanty, and next day went on to Fort La Corne, where supplies and guides were obtained.

More Pictures at Nickel The programme of new motion pictures and illustrated songs for today and tomorrow at Nickel is as usual of a very high order. It is a fact worth noting that in spite of the tremendous demand made upon the film market for interesting subjects the Nickel still secures the very cream of the new and extra-ordinary. The programme is undeniably evidence of this fact. Travel, pure comedy, realistic drama and extra-ordinary were pictorially produced to the delight of thousands. The photographic quality was excellent and the subjects well chosen. Last week's three changes of programme is undeniably evidence of this fact. NO "JUNGLE" PACKING ESTABLISHMENTS CAN EXIST IN CANADA New Inspection Law, Which Goes Into Effect Next Week, Will Guarantee Absolute Cleanliness and Purity—Provisions Are Strict and Will be Rigidly Enforced—Forty Trained Inspectors Are Ready.

OTTAWA, Aug. 25.—Next month all the large packing establishments in Canada will be under the strictest possible inspection, and all the fruit, fish and vegetable canneries will be subject to inspection. The act "respecting the inspection of meats and canned foods" passed at the last session of parliament goes into effect on September third. Seventy-five thousand dollars has been appropriated to carry out the inspection and forty men have been trained for the work. The result is it is confidently expected will be that hereafter meats and provisions exported bearing the words "Canada approved" will carry the highest guarantee of purity and healthfulness and will command the highest prices in the markets of the world. The general export business of Canada is bound to benefit, and no individual packer need suffer if he packs good meats and vegetables in with clean methods. The regulations, like the act, apply only to establishments which do interprovincial or export business. However this applies to practically all canneries and all places for the preparation of meats except local butchers' shops. There are about thirty meat packing establishments in Canada which will be under the eye of an inspector during every working hour and a very much larger number of canneries which will be required to live up to the provisions of the act and will be liable to inspection without warning at any time. Some of the larger packing establishments will have two or three inspectors assigned to them. The most impressive of the new regulations for the packing of foodstuffs relating to cleanliness, and under the supervision of an inspector. Rooms in which carcasses, parts or products thereof are prepared shall be frequently whitewashed or painted, and shall contain facilities for cleaning all equipment. Employees of the establishment engaged in handling foods must be free from tuberculosis or other communicable diseases, and must observe such general rules as to sanitation as may be deemed necessary by the inspector in charge. No carcasses or parts thereof entering into the production of food shall be allowed to come into contact with anything that will contaminate or deteriorate them. Covering used by employees to protect their clothing or persons shall be of material easily cleaned. Dressing rooms and lavatory accommodations shall be ample, sanitary and shall only those approved can be packed or prepared for sale. Condemned animals and carcasses have to be "tanked," cooked by steam for four hours and if necessary treated with a dye to prevent use. Every carcass found fit for food must be stamped with the words "Canada approved" and the establishment number. Sausage, canned meats and portions intended for cure must be prepared only from carcasses which have passed inspection and which on reinspection are found to contain deleterious substance, dye or drug or preservative. No clearance from a Canadian port will be granted to a vessel carrying meats unless the carcasses and parts are marked "Canada approved." Transportation companies cannot export shipments intended for export unless accompanied by a certificate that the meats or foods have been properly inspected. The words "Canada approved" cannot be used on packages which have been officially inspected. Offences are punishable by fines to the extent of five hundred dollars.

TWO MORE VICTIMS OF DEADLY MOTOR Wealthy Boston Broker and His Chauffeur Dashed to Death by Colliding With Stone Wall

VALLEYFIELD COTTON STRIKE SETTLED Result Considered a Victory for the Company, Who Conceded Only What They Offered Before Strike

SAUNDERSTOWN, R. I., Aug. 25.—W. Waldo Merrill of 215 Beacon street, Boston, a State street broker, and Eric Landstrom of Mattapan, Mass., chauffeur, were killed today by the overturning of an automobile which collided with a stone wall at a sharp curve on the road leading to Narrows camp pier. Four other occupants of the touring car, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic L. Milliken of Milton, Mass., their daughter, Miss Rita Milliken, and Mrs. Merrill, wife of W. Waldo Merrill, escaped with slight injuries, although Miss Merrill is believed to have sustained a fracture of the wrist. The party of six had left the hotel Newcliffe at Newport at half-past one this afternoon in Mr. Milliken's large touring car for Narragansett pier. MASONIC GRAND LODGE

WILL MEET TOMORROW

Since the Last Session a Number of Prominent Members Have Passed Away.—Grand Master Everett Relates.

The fortieth annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of New Brunswick will be opened at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. A large number of visiting delegates will be present. Grand Master Edwin J. Everett of this city will occupy the chair.

During the past year some of the most prominent brothers have been called away, among whom were Brothers A. A. Stockton, Joseph A. Magilton, Alexander Burchill, J. Edgar March, M. D., and John S. Benson, M. D.

The Grand Master will present his address at tomorrow's session and in the evening the British Journalists will be invited to the lodge.

Lodge officers will take place. Grand Master Everett, having served three years, has declined to be nominated again as a new Grand Master will be chosen.

The session will conclude on Wednesday evening.

THE LUDLOW HAS

FOUND A JOB AT LAST

Without Consulting the British Journalists

This Boat Will Take Them for a Trip up River.

The committee of the Common Council appointed to arrange for the reception of the visiting British Journalists on Thursday next, met in City Hall this morning. The committee was composed of the Mayor, Ald. McCordick, Baxter and Willet. Ald. Baxter said the ferry boat Ludlow would in all probability be ready to go into commission on Thursday and it was decided to take the party round the harbor in it, showing them the Dominion Government works on the island and the civic improvements in the harbor. The boat will then be steamed up river and will go as far as Westfield. On the return the steamer will dock at Indiantown and the party will leave by street cars for Union depot, where the visitors will again take their private cars and leave the city.

A luncheon will be served on board the Ludlow. The arrangements for the trip are now in the hands of Ald. Baxter and McCordick. About 150 guests will take the trip up river. The president of the board of trade will be empowered to invite twenty persons, and the other guests will be chosen by the city fathers.

On Thursday morning the visiting journalists will be driven about the city by the local newspaper men.

SCHOOLS REOPENED WITH A LARGE ATTENDANCE

The city schools reopened today after the two months' vacation. There was a full attendance in all the schools. Over 800 permits have been issued for new students and Dr. Bridges expects that after Labor Day the buildings will be overcrowded when arrangements will then be made to place the numerous scholars to the best advantage.

The first division of boys will be sent up to the manual training school tomorrow. The domestic science course will not be in operation this week as the plumbers have not yet completed their work on the building.

POLICE WERE CALLED IN TO EJECT PRINCIPAL OF SCHOOL

But Happily Force Was Not Required—A Dispute Between Mr. Allingham and Trustees Led to a Lively Session—An Action for Damages Coming

Proceedings of a most unusual nature took place at the opening of Tower school in Carleton this morning, when the trustees and school board to the assistance of the police in persuading former Principal Wm. H. Allingham to give up the keys of the school and making matters easy for Walter H. White, who has been engaged as Mr. Allingham's successor. The school is in a building called the Beaconfield district and is managed by a local board of trustees.

The trouble had long been anticipated and although the dispute did not terminate in a fist combat, matters today waxed warm for some time. At the conclusion of last term the trustees decided that Mr. Allingham should be dismissed. A notification of dismissal was sent to him by registered letter, but the former principal did not accept it. The trustees in the meantime, busied themselves in securing a new teacher. Walter P. White, who had been teaching at Newcastle was the man selected and he arrived here a few days ago.

Shortly before nine o'clock this morning, the school children began to assemble and at school time a large number occupied the seats in the classroom. But no teacher was present, and the young folks became restless. In an adjoining room a warm discussion was taking place between Mr. Allingham and several trustees. Mr. White was also present, but he took no part in the dispute.

Seated at the door were Policemen James McKinnon and Constable Rawlings. They had been summoned to be present in case of trouble of a serious nature took place. Mr. Allingham argued with the trustees that he had received no notification of his dismissal and he therefore did not intend to resign. At this point one of the trustees recommended that the policeman do his duty by ejecting Mr. Allingham from the premises. This was not looked upon favorably by all the trustees and it was decided to have the matter settled as quietly as possible.

Trustee Colby Smith was not present and it was deemed advisable to send word to him. When he arrived the matter was left to him and he addressed Mr. Allingham, telling him that the trustees of the district considered him dismissed. A sudden change then took place. Mr. Allingham pulled from his pocket the keys of the school and after handing them to Mr. White, shook hands with him and wished him success. The trustees then announced to longer required and all left the building except Mr. White who at once entered his class-room and commenced work in his new quarters.

Mr. Allingham was seen by the Star shortly after he handed up the keys. He stated that he considered his contract with the school was not yet up and as he had received no notification of his dismissal, he thought the action of the trustees was high-handed indeed. He stated that he would positively bring an action for damages against the board.

Walter P. White is a young man and brings with him the best of references.

William Allingham has taught school for many years. He has been located at Tower school for about three years. He has not decided where he will locate in the future.

Mr. Allingham is at a loss to understand why the police were summoned, and expressed the opinion that such an action was beneath the dignity of the trustees. It left a very bad impression on the minds of the children. The officers were entirely unnecessary as he had no intention of employing any force.

MR. BORDEN ARRIVED HERE AHEAD OF TIME

Reception Was in Consequence Called off—In Consultation Today With Conservative Leaders.

Much to the surprise of a number of leaders of the local Conservative party, Mr. R. L. Borden arrived in St. John early this morning by train from Nova Scotia, upsetting the plans which had been prepared for a reception to him at the steamer Prince Rupert. Mr. Borden went at once to the residence of Mr. W. H. Thorne, Mecklenburg street, where he is spending the day. During the forenoon and afternoon he has been in consultation with a number of local Conservatives, talking over the situation and discussing plans for the approaching by-election. It is the Conservative hope that before he leaves something definite may be done in the choice of a candidate to oppose Dr. Pugsley. Mr. Bergeron did not come with Mr. Borden, but will arrive this afternoon on the Prince Rupert.

An interesting event will take place in the pretty town of Dorchester on Wednesday of this week, when Herbert W. Wetmore, son of A. W. Wetmore, of Garden street, dry goods merchant, will be wedded to Miss Rachel Love, of the I. C. R. town, a popular and comely young lady. Mr. Wetmore is one of the best known travellers going out of St. John and represents Vassie & Co., of this city.

SALE OF LAWN AND LINEN WAISTS CONTINUED TOMORROW.
Last Call for This Handsome Array of Bargains!
AT THE TIME OF WRITING IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to tell just how many of these waists will be available for tomorrow's shoppers, but we hope to have a goodly assortment so that there will be no disappointed ladies leaving our stores tomorrow. Today's rush of buyers was large and eager, but we feel sure many choice garments will be left for the second day's crowds. The Lawn Waists are a special-purchase lot and the Linen Qualities the remainder of a very large and charming summer supply.
The Special Lot of Lawn Waists at $1 and $1.25. Here we have a manufacturer's bargain assortment, something with which we can wind up a very successful season by giving everybody a present of a lovely waist at about half price. The lawn is of the best, charmingly embroidered, tucked and lace inserted. A maze of new patterns. Collars attached, three-quarter sleeves and buttons at the back or front as desired. Sizes 32 to 44 bust. Only about fifteen dozen in the lot.
Irish Linen Blouse Waists, $1.75 to $4.00. Most ladies know full well that these are ridiculously low prices for such exquisite goods. A few weeks ago—even a week ago—they could not be purchased for dollars more. The embroidering in itself is worth the money, and when it is understood these waists formerly sold at from $3.00 to $7.50 an appreciation of the great value may be had. Besides the art needlework on these waists there are lavish pleatings, tuckings, etc. The sleeves are long or short, as preferred, and the buttoning at back or front.
Special in Ladies' Cotton Undervests, 15c and 20c each. Something catchy in the bargain line for Monday shoppers in the Underwear Department. These vests have short sleeves, high neck and long sleeves. Laco trimmed.
