

FROM THE STATES.

BALTIMORE, June 13. In Fremont's late engagement with Jackson the enemy left 500 dead on the field. The Federal loss was 125 killed and 500 wounded.

Jackson escaped across the Shenandoah, burning the bridge. Fremont occupies Fort Republic.

Several thousand bales of cotton are reported destroyed on the St. Francis River, Arkansas, upon the capture of Memphis.

Gen. Nagler's expedition into East Tennessee is highly successful. He defeated the enemy's forces, taking many prisoners, and capturing supplies.

The people came out in crowds, cheering the Union troops enthusiastically.

Fremont reports that Jackson attacked Shields on Monday and drove the latter down the river.

Fremont sent a detachment of cavalry to open communication with Shields.

It is reported that the Confederates are retreating from Cumberland Gap towards Chattanooga. This would free East Tennessee and enable Gen. Morgan to take immediate possession.

Advises from McClellan's headquarters on Thursday evening state that a reconnaissance as far as Meadow Bridge found the enemy quiet but in force. Weather good and ground drying rapidly.

False telegrams announce the assassination of Governor Johnson and General Butler.

The reported burning of Vicksburg by the Confederates is discredited.

It is rumored that an Irish regiment attempted to desert from Richmond. Deserters come in thickly.

Beauregard's army is represented as greatly disorganized. A mutinous regiment had been disbanded, and many shot.

Super $1.20 to $4.25. Extra $4.50 to $4.55.

June 14. Halleck's department is enlarged; it is to include all Tennessee and Kentucky. Fremont's department is also enlarged.

Federals occupied James Island, near Charleston, under protection of gunboats. Confederate forces greatly augmented at Charleston.

Deserters report that 30,000 of Beauregard's army reached there and were making preparations for a stubborn defence. Com. Dupont judged it unadvisable to proceed until receiving strong reinforcements.

Mexican news confirms the defeat of the French 4,500 killed and 700 taken prisoners; latter released for lack of provisions. Disaffection is said to exist among French officers.

English Minister concluded the treaty with Doherty, and Gen. Prim's Agent concluded the ratification with Almonite Treaty.

The yellow fever is increasing in Havana.

SHIELDS ADVANCE ATTACKED BY JOHNSON. THE FEDERAL FORCE COMPELLED TO FALL BACK.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Advises received at the War Department, state that Jackson's army attacked Shields' advance on Monday morning near Fort Republic.

The conflict is said to have been maintained for four hours by 2,000 of our men against the main body of General Jackson's army. The enemy's force became so overwhelming in number that our advance was compelled to fall back.

After falling back some 3 or 4 miles, a body of cavalry was sent to attack us, but they were received in such a manner as to compel them to retire, when the engagement ended having lasted five hours. Our men were killed and wounded in not known, but in large number of prisoners. Col. Canell's horse killed, injuring the Colonel badly.

LEWIS, June 10 (via Washington 11th).—Col. C. R. combining the 4th Brigade, comprising of the 84th Pennsylvania, 7th Indiana and 1st Virginia regiments, altogether about 1600 strong, reached Port Republic on Sunday, reconnoitered, found the enemy in the town, and had a skirmish. He concluded to hold the bridge, and ordered it to be burned, and put guns in position commanding it.

At 6 o'clock A. M. on Monday, he was opened upon some twenty heavy guns, placed in position during the night. Our forces tried to reach the bridge repeatedly, to destroy it, but were met by storms of bullets and had to retire.

A large cavalry force crossed and attacked our troops, with their infantry following. Our men opposed them at every step, often driving them back with heavy loss, but our numbers, after the arrival of Gen. Tyler's brigade, were so much inferior to the enemy that we were compelled to hold our position, and were compelled to fall back, our men fighting every foot of the way.

We retreated in good order until we met the main body of Gen. Shields' command near Conrad's store. As soon as this was effected the enemy retreated.

No particulars have reached the Department.

A private letter states that Gen. Shields had previously succeeded in destroying large quantities of supplies belonging to the rebels found at Millford and at Conrad's store.

FROM SOUTHERN PAPERS. PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—The following

Items are from Southern papers received in Baltimore:

CHARLESTON, June 3.—The enemy's gunboats are moving up as if to engage our batteries. Great excitement prevails, as the gunboats are in sight at times. Every confidence is felt in Gen. Gist's ability to drive the invaders off. There is still heavy firing in that direction, and it is rumored that 100 more Yankees have been cut off and captured.

Afternoon.—Gen. Gist's last despatch says that the prisoners we took this morning report the enemy landed 1700 strong on Lattery Island and on John's Island. He is now in front of me in force and under the cover of his gunboats. An advance is imminent.

CHARLESTON, June 4, A. M.—The enemy landed 2000 men at James' Island, opposite the city. A battle took place. The enemy were repulsed with a loss of 20 men taken prisoners by the forces of Gen. Gist. They will be sent to Selma, Alabama, immediately.

VANCOUVER ISLAND. We have received the British Colonist, (Victoria, Vancouver Island) to the 29th, and there is the usual story of suffering. Smallpox is making sad ravages, among both the whites and Indians, particularly the latter in Vancouver Island and New Westminster. The editor of the Colonist, referring to the disease among the Chinaman Indians, yesterday morning we noticed one of the sufferers apparently in the last stage of the disease—his body covered with corruption and sores, and the death rattle sounding in his throat—while not five paces away sat a dozen or fifteen young bucks, his late associates, or may be his relatives, engaged in gambling, quite as unconcerned and indifferent as if the small pox were a thousand miles away. The Chinamen at their village number, men, women and children some 300 souls—about ten per cent of which number have died, or are hopelessly ill with the disease. The Enterprise had arrived at Victoria with about $10,000 in gold dust from New Westminster. The following letter is from Port Douglas:—

PORT DOUGLAS, April 19, 1862. DEAR C.—M. has just arrived here from Victoria and we have been talking matters over. I am sorry to tell you that things look worse here than ever. Men are rushing up by hundreds and we are satisfied that it is perfect madness for any one to think of going up. There are no provisions in the upper country. This is the only place where there is anything to be had. I do not know what the men who have gone up are to do. They will have to return, and you will see plenty of them back to Victoria before many days. Every one that arrives here from the Lillooet gives deplorable accounts of the want of provisions at the Lillooet. We have come to the conclusion to return to Victoria and go by the Coast route.

Yours truly, JOHN BRUCE. We cannot discover one word about the state of affairs at the different mining districts, other than the above. H. M. S. Topaze continues at Victoria; and the House is still in session. Several persons bound to Salween River had been drowned in the Columbia. [Globe.]

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION.—The editor of the Halifax Presbyterian Witness who is now in London has given some interesting sketches of the Exhibition, which have been published in that paper. In dealing with the Colonial portion of it he speaks very plainly, pointing out what is really creditable and condemning its defects.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—If the Nova Scotia furniture is good that sent from New Brunswick is decidedly shabby. The areas allotted to the two provinces are near enough to provoke comparison, and I see no harm in indulging a little this propensity of comparing others with ourselves. Well, the N. B. furniture is slightly shabby to say the least of it, but their sleigh is better than ours. They have sent a fair representation of the minerals are good enough; but the arrangement is absurd, childish, without the slightest regard to scientific principles. Was this done in Fredericton—in the capital of that province, where ministers are not allowed to have anything to do with education? Well, Fredericton has need of a little scientific light from some quarter or another. The local Commissioner, Mr. Daniel cannot be blamed for it; what he had to do, has been done excellently.

The specimens of grain are good—better I think, than most of the Nova Scotia specimens. The Photographs &c. may be classed with those of our own province. There is a very beautiful collection of Indian garments that excite universal attention. Woodens ware in abundance is here, and all of it is good. Machinery of various kinds too, makes a decent show. There is a bonnie little "summer house" that excites the wish to be in New Brunswick when the days are hot, and the whistling winds of July are making music in the trees. Horse-shoes, hearth-stones and homespun—all as good as need be. The N. B. Exhibition is not so compact as ours—not so scientifically arranged as a whole; thought is decidedly good and reflects credit on the taste and enterprise of those who have had it in charge. In speaking of the Colonies I think it is better that I should point out any faults that may exist rather than dwell exclusively on praise worthy aspects; for some improvement may thus be secured for the future. It must not be imagined for a moment that I have any desire to find fault; to strangers I speak of all our provinces in terms of the highest commendation consistent with truth; but when addressing a provincial public it is my duty to point out those blemishes at least that are prominent.

HEAVY FIRE.—A fire broke out on Friday morning at an early hour, in what was formerly known as "Keltie's Brewery," Union Street, but now the property of Mr. S. Jones. Shortly after the fire was discovered the whole upper portion of the building was in flames, and they were not extinguished until the brewing and distilling apparatus and a large quantity of malt, and the business plant generally, was destroyed, in all valued at least at $20,000, on which, we were told, there was $10,000 insurance. The building itself was of brick and was a most extensive and substantial erection, but its interior is almost entirely destroyed. The cellar and contents were saved. The engines behaved nobly. We enquired as to the origin of the fire, but could not get no satisfactory information. It was believed, however, to be purely accidental. [Globe.]

ANOTHER FIRE.—A fire broke out last night about 10 o'clock, in a building in Cliff Street, occupied by Mr. John Brookfield as a stable. The barn was nearly destroyed together with its contents. [News.]

THE PRINCE OF WALES continues his travels in the East. At Nabool, on the 12 April, he witnessed the ceremony of the Samaritan Passover, the only direct vestige of the Jewish Passover. The Prince was to leave Constantinople for Athens on Monday, 26th ult. The Sultan being desirous of presenting the decoration of the Osmanli to the Prince of Wales on the occasion of his visit, telegraphed to the Queen to ask Her Majesty's permission. This was promptly accorded, and the Prince will receive the first class of the order in brilliant.

A rumor prevailed in Military circles at Quebec that a large body of regular troops were to be despatched to Canada; and that officers who were about to return to England had received orders to remain.

The Quebec Chronicle of the 7th says:—The rumor touching the sending of troops from England to Canada turns out, as we anticipated, untrue. No despatch of the character alleged has been received by the provincial authorities. We believe, further, that ever since the commencement of the civil war has there been less likelihood of difficulty between Great Britain and the States than at this moment.

THE STANDARD. ST. ANDREWS, JUNE 18, 1862.

EUROPEAN NEWS.—During the week three steamers have arrived from Europe. The "Bavaria" and "China" have arrived the latter Steamship of the Cunard line brings dates to the 7th from Liverpool, Queenstown to the 8th. The Political news is unimportant. The Crops were satisfactory. Reported that Napoleon contemplates establishment of French influence in Mexico by means of a Protectorate.

The China made the shortest passage on record, 5 days 18 hours from Cork to Cape Race.

Several persons who had been serving in the Federal army, returned last week in the Steamer Forest City to St. John. Not long since we recorded the fact of some New-Brunswickers who were wounded, and one well known here, we observe, has been killed, Mr. Wm. Pheasant. Are these New-Brunswickers aware that Brother Jonathan "has a rod in pickle for John Bull," and that "the next President is to be elected on the condition that a quarrel is to be picked with Great Britain, for the purpose of embroiling the two nations in a war." It was so stated publicly by one of their own citizens, with a warning to the Provincials to prepare themselves. The Government may take time by the forelock, or in other words "in time of peace prepare for war," as it is not unlikely, an attempt may be made to extend Uncle Sam's dominions, and embrace the North American Colonies in his big folds—when he conquers the South and pays off the national debt. Verily we live in stirring times; it is not enough to possess the Country from the fertile Aroostook to the gold bearing lands of California, but the Colonies are to be placed under the "Star Spangled banner" and the noble old Union Jack—a flag which "for a thousand years, has braved the battle and the breeze," must be trampled under foot—"Britannia" will not "rule the waves," and Britons will become "slaves."

Forbidden it that is noble and free. O ye shades of Wellington, Havelock, Nelson and Cochrane, come forth and wrap our country in the mantle of safety, ere it be swallowed by the republican annexationists.

As a contrast to these bullying sentiments and we hope misrepresentations, we give the following extracts of an educated American's speech, Mr. Thurlow Weed, on his return from England to New York, upon receiving the thanks of the Common Council of that City, for his efforts in support of the United States Government in Europe, and his earnest endeavours to sustain public opinion in favor of the Union. Mr. Weed said:—

Lord Palmerston and Earl Russell were adverse to us; other members of the cabinet were warmly affected toward the North. The Queen whenever she could say a word, always expressed the most decided sympathy with us. Prince Albert had always been the devoted friend of this country and his last public act had been to modify a despatch which the ministry had prepared to send to Lord Lyons.

Dr. Russell was one of our best friends in England. He took every occasion to express his sympathy for the North. He ment, to everybody whom he encountered. He pronounced our army the finest in the world; the raw recruits were equal to veterans in other countries.

These are the public expressions of a native born American gentleman. How do they comport with such statements as "Dr. Russell, the Times correspondent, seldom speaks the truth, when alluding to the "Federal battles." Comment is unnecessary.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.—The Masonic fraternity of Portland, Maine, intend holding a celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of the introduction of Masonry into Maine, to take place on the 24th inst. The Programme consists of Procession, Oration, Free Collation &c and a Historical Address in the evening. It is expected that a large number of Brethren will be present on the occasion. Our thanks are due to our respected brothers, the Committee, for their fraternal invitation.

THE WEEKLY DISPATCH, is the title of a neatly printed and well filled Quarto, published at St. John, by G. A. Knodell for the Proprietor. A new feature in the "Dispatch," is a portion of its columns being devoted to the interest of the Volunteers. We trust it will be patronized by them, and that it may meet with that success which it merits.

In the New York "Tribune" and Herald" we notice lengthy reports of Dr. Wolff's lectures on the "Duties of the Army Surgeon," delivered at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, by request of the leading Medical men of that City. At the conclusion of the lecture Dr. Wolff received the congratulations of the Surgeons present.

H. M. S. Cadmus, 21, screw corvette, recently on the block at St. John. N. B. for repairs to her stern-post, may be expected to return to Halifax at an early day. H. M. S. Challenger, 21 screw corvette, will leave this port for St. John, to undergo a similar operation. It is not at all creditable to this great naval station, Halifax, that ships should be sent away from the port to have similar defects made good. The extraordinary rise and fall of the tide in the Bay of Fundy greatly facilitate the construction of dry docks in that quarter. [Halifax Express.]

The "Challenger" arrived here last evening, and came to anchor off Partridge Island. [Globe.]

LETTERS FROM THE PLAN OF THE GREAT EXHIBITION.—A page of the Times was recently devoted to an elaborate letterpress plan of the contents of the Exhibition building. Since the first Great Exhibition eleven years ago, when "an Edinburgh printer received honorable mention for a beautiful letterpress design of the Free Church College, no such elaborate piece of typography has been published in this country as the plan referred to. In clear type, divided into sections by many hundred pieces of brass rule, are detailed the arts and manufactures of almost every country in the world. Besides being of great use to the visitor, by at once showing him where the products of each particular country are placed, the plan is highly creditable as a specimen of the typographical art.

In the Great Exhibition of 1862 there is a gilded pyramid, forty-four and a half feet high and ten feet square at the base, intended to represent the eight hundred tons of gold which Victoria produced between the year of the first Great Exhibition and the close of 1861.

LOSS OF A SCHOONER AND FIVE LIVES.—The schooner A. E. Douglass, Capt. Coleman, of Middletown, Conn., from Philadelphia for Boston, with a cargo of two hundred tons coal, sprung a leak during a heavy gale on the 4th inst., and went down the same night in nine fathoms of water, about eight miles north of Barnegat and five miles from the beach. Capt. Coleman, his wife and child, the mate, Sherman Bailey, and a boy named George —, of Milton, Mass., all found a watery grave. A seaman named Edward Donohue got on the mainmast head, where he remained until Friday morning about eleven o'clock, when he was rescued, after being there thirty six hours.
