SCHOOL TESTS KEPT SECRET

Showed Colored Children Superior

Tests of school children in the public schools of Louisville, Kentucky, have shown startling results, according to an editorial in the October Crisis, which states that the authorities have been suppressing the results. Says the Crisis editorial:

"A little bird whispered to the editor and he wrote a polite note to the Superintendent of Louisville City Schools asking for the published results of the 'Intelligence' tests. Silence. Some of the local colored schools teachers asked. Silence. The editor wrote again and even more politely, enclosing a stamp, and the reply came:

'I have your letter of July 17. We are constantly making tests in the Louisville schools but this information is not available to the public.

Very truly yours,

B. W. Hartley, Superintendent'

"What is wrong? Why all this heavy secrecy? Tell it not in Gath, but if the truth must be known, those damned tests went and came out wrong! In other words, instead of proving white children superior they actually proved—but no; we cannot write it; it's too awful.

"But what difference does it make anyhow? Who needs psychology or evolution or anthropology or anything else to prove Nordic superiority? Doesn't everybody know it without proof? And if the new psychology in the hands of scientists, instead of army Bullards and academic idiots, eventually fails our McDougalls, Grants and Stoddards, need they worry? There's plenty of 'scientific' proof to come.

"Meantime to Louisville in its misery, we make the suggestion: Don't publish all the results, publish the parts you like best. Or better, wait and publish only those which come out RIGHT!"

The October Crisis also publishes a list of the winners in the recent Amy Spingarn Literary and Art Contests, poems by Countee Cullen and Langston Hughes, two of the prize winners, and contains in full the address on "Science, Pseudo-Science and the Race Question," delivered at the Den-

REV. THOMAS WOODCOCK, pastor of the B.M.E. Church, London, Ont. He is in the midst of a $500.00 rally and is optimistic over the outcome.

Colored Vocalists Win At C.N.E. Competition

Miss Mary Berry, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Berry, Rhodes Ave., Toronto, and a very clever pupil of Mr. C. Andrew Johnson, pleased and surprised her many friends by winning the 3rd prize, bronze medal, in the soprano class, low voice, for girls 16 and under. This is her first attempt to try her splendid voice in such keen competition. She sings with rare evenness, self-possession and extraordinary beauty of tone. Miss Berry deserves great credit for her performance, doing a great deal better than the adjudication indicates.

Mr. C. Andrew Johnson, who last year won the gold medal and a $75 scholarship in the baritone class, again demonstrated his ability to hold his own even among the bass singers by winning the 2nd prize, silver medal. Mr. Johnson possesses a beautiful voice, well trained, clear, smooth and sympathetic and furthermore he sings with extraordinary understanding and intelligence.

ver Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, by Professor Herbert Adolphus Miller of Ohio State University.

Attempt To Draw Color Line Fails

South Africa, August 25th— The Senate has rejected the government's color bar bill, a measure that would have made it penal for any native, however cultured, to compete with a white man in skilled trade.

The bill fathered originally by the labor party which has consistently refused to recognize that the real laboring man in South Africa is the native and the colored man, had the general approval of the nationalist party. That party is largely composed of the least cultured and most conservative portion of the electorate, and it finds its chief strength in the Free State and the Transvaal, where a policy of native repression has, from a time long before the Union, been advocated and on many occasions, carried into practice.

The Free State has many apologists who declare that in native affairs its past policy has been enlightened and broad-minded; on paper, indeed, it has, but in practice the native has had no better chances in the Free State than he has had in the Transvaal.

Denver Dailies Give N.A.A.C.P. Large Amount of Space

The daily newspapers of Denver and Colorado Springs, Colorado, devoted more than 50 feet of news and editorial space to the 16th Annual Conference there, of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, it was announced to-day, besides the exceptional support given the Conference by the local colored editors.

The white dailies which so extensively covered the proceedings of the N.A.A.C.P. Conference are the Rocky Mountain News, the Times, the Post, and the Express. The Colorado Statesman and the Denver Star are the local colored weeklies.

In addition, the Christian Science Monitor, of Boston, designated a special correspondent and published dispatches aggregating four and one-half feet of news column.

HITS CATHOLIC ATTITUDE AGAINST COLORED RACE

From the St. Louis Argus.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 9—In an address delivered at a mass meeting of the National Catholic Woman's Union in St. Michael's Hall, last week Rev. Edward Kramer, D.D., a young missionary and former Cleveland, vigorously assailed the general attitude of his church toward the Negro.

The Negro problem has been rapping at the door of the Catholic church for years, and the priests and laity have been indifferent, the missionary declared.

"There are between 11,000,000 and 12,000,000 Negroes in the United States. Of these, only 250,000 are Catholics. Just reflect on that."

"The colored man is religiously inclined. The Methodists and Baptists have gathered in 5,000,000 of them. Some 6,000,000 are still pagans. We Catholics are not doing our duty," Dr. Kramer said emphatically. "Indeed many Catholics, instead of helping, are actually frustrating our work among the Negroes. They show their biased feeling whenever a Negro happens to kneel by them in church. In the house of God, mind you! It is the infernal prejudice! It is not necessary that we take them into our homes; but, at least, let's not turn up our noses.

What are we Catholics doing for the Negroes? We have each year an Indian and Negro mission collection but we give only 1.1 cent per capita to these purposes a year."

Dr. Kramer explained that he did not come here to collect money, but simply to state facts.

"The Negro is as good as I am. I am as good as you are. Therefore, he is as good as you are. The Negro was bought by the same Precious Blood that bought you, and he is destined for Heaven. If you are not willing to associate with him in eternity, then give up your hopes for heaven."

Father Kramer is the son of Peter Kramer, 11414 Durant avenue. He is stationed at the Catholic Board of Mission Work Among Colored People, 1 Madison Avenue, New York. Other speakers included the Revd. Albert Muentch, S. J., St. Louis; the Rev. Msgr. Nicholas Pfeil, the Revs. A. Mayer and John A. Schaffeld, and Mrs. Sophia C. Wavering—Cleveland Catholic Bulletin, August 28, 1925.

Editorial

ENCOURAGING.

Last year at the Canadian National Exhibition, in Toronto, the community singing in front of the Grand Stand included the song "Polly Wolly Doodle" the chorus of which contains the words, "I jumped upon a nigger for I thought he was a horse." To those last words and the sentiment they expressed, we colored folk took exception. We voiced our displeasure in an editorial in an issue of The Dawn. We sent morked copies to the president and to other officials of the Canadian National Exhibition. We called attention to the fact that not only were there thousands of Canadian Colored people visiting the Exhibition but also there were thousands of colored people there from foreign countries; that we were asked to sing and in singing to refer to our race a niggers and to compare ourselves with horses and other beasts of burden.

This was in the year of our Lord 1924. However, it was most encouraging to visit the Exhibition in 1925, one year later and to read the following instructions to community singers: "Last year we sang 'Polly Wolly Doodle,' but this year we shall sing something else." We felt proud because we knew that our protest had had the desired effect. We felt proud because we interpreted the "we shall sing something else," to be an acknowledgement that the Board of Directors had allowed "Polly Wolly Doodle" to step in without proper censure; that it was not meant as an insult to the colored patrons of the Exhibition. It takes a big man to acknowledge his mistakes and we are therefore of the opinion that the Directors of the Exhibition are men of fine calibre and that they are deserving of all the confidence which the good citizens of Toronto have placed in them.

As we sat reflecting upon the quality of British fair play our thoughts received a sudden jar by the appearance of that excellent military pageant displaying most graphically the strength of the British Empire. There were represented, soldiers and sailors from every part of the great empire, England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, India, Australia, Africa, New Zealand and last but not least, CANADA.

It was indeed a glorious sight, one which would inspire both confidence and patriotism. And yet withal, the attitude of the Empire's fighting strength seemed to have portrayed, not bigotry nor imposition, nor self-importance, nor the spirit of the bully, but rather there was an air of humility mingled with that spirit which is expressed in one of Canada's national anthems: "We don't want to fight to show our might, but when we fight, we fight, fight, fight!!!" We were tremendously inspired. We felt proud of the land of our nativity, and proud of the British Empire. As we further watched the great procession this sober thought came to us: "Seeing the great responsibility which rests upon our Empire it behooves every part of it to ever be fair and just to all men and all nations, to all races and to all creeds. We should frown upon any and all organizations which are meant to bring about a division among the people and races of any part of our beloved Empire."

CARD OF THANKS.

The management of The Dawn wishes to thank the citizens of London for their generous response on the occasion of The Dawn's Tag Day, which was held on August 29th. The management feels grateful to the Boy Scouts, the Salvation Army and to the colored girls who assisted on Tag Day.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Susannah Allen, beloved wife of the late Edward Patterson, who passed peacefully away Sept. 16th, 1910, at Owen Sound. We often sit and think of her when we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend that grief can call her own;
Like ivy on the withered oak, when other things decay,
Our love for her will e'er stay green and never fade away.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith of Detroit and Dr. and Mrs. Frapp, of Chicago, were distinguished visitors last week. Dr. and Mrs. Frapp were on their honeymoon. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGrouder.

J. F. Jenkins, Editor of The Dawn and Mrs. Jenkins, spent a few days in the city last week. Their visit was a combination business and pleasure trip. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Graves.

Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Wright of Brantford attended the Canadian National Exhibition last Friday and Saturday. They motored to St. Catharines on Saturday.

The Toronto branch of the Canadian League has planned an open mass meeting for the near future. All who are interested will be cordially invited to attend. The meeting will be for the purpose of receiving new members.

Special anniversary services were held in the B.M.E. Church on Sunday and despite the inclemency of the weather were well attended. The pastor spoke at 11 a.m. using as his subject, "The Beatific Sight." At 3.30 p.m. Rev. A. McEwen Williams, pastor of the First Baptist Church was the speaker, and his message was one of great interest and very inspiring. Sub. "The Undeified Inheritance." At 7.30 a well filled auditorium of anxious, earnest listeners were addressed by the Rev. Thos. H. Jackson, who took for his text, Isa. 62: 1, Sub. "Crying Aloud for God." All present were made to rejoice because of this splendid message. On Monday evening the supper under the auspices of the Stewardesses Board was worthy of special mention in view of the fact that every member of this board worked faithfully and prepared and served a very tasty meal. The program under the direction of Mr. C. A. Johnson, the chorister, was one very fitting for a closing anniversary affair. The soprano number by Miss Mary Berry, who received the bronze medal at the exhibition this year was very beautiful and well rendered. Mr. Johnson also rendered two selections, one entitled "The Horn" and the other was "The Wanderer". The last mentioned number Mr. Johnson sang at the Exhibition this year in the bass section and was given the silver medal. The organ number by Mrs. E. Parker, and by Mr. E. Crawford were both very interesting and well rendered. The duet by Mr. Crawford and Mr. Johnson, the anthems by the choir, the addresses by Messrs Sharp, Simpson, Montgomery and Rev. Williams all made a very interesting evening for the audience. Mr. Williams, pianist, and Mrs. E. Parker were the accompanists for the evening and no small amount of credit is due them for their part in the successful rendering of the various numbers given.

The Rev. F. O. Stewart presided in his usual capable manner and made a stirring appeal in behalf of the Canadian League for the Advancement of Colored People and claimed that this organization was endeavoring to assist the young people to rise in life. Mr. Montgomery also touched along the lines of this organization. The evening was brought to a close by singing God Save the King and benediction by Rev. F. O. Stewart.

Mrs. Harry Brown of 98 Bristol Street is on the sick list. She is reported convalescing at this writing.

Many out of town visitors attended the Exhibition this year and Mrs. H. D. Wright of Brantford, Mr. Ronald Smith of Niagara Falls, Ont., Mr. J. Jefferson of Cleveland Ohio, and Mr. Jackson of Port Huron, Mich., being a few of the many.

Many of our residents are visiting the Toronto Exhibition and what with the inclemency of the weather, attendance was small at Sunday's services, but Rev. Richardson gave two very helpful messages. At 7 p.m. the pastor spoke on "The Bible as Inspired," and said among many other points, that it is an infallible record of things spiritual and historical. He continued, It is human because it passed through human minds and hands and uses human modes of speech. It is essentially divine, as it is divinely imparted truths, bears divine sanction and seal. God speaks in and through it.
