Points of Discussion.

Some discussion is being occasioned in the matter of the appointment of a successor to the late archbishop. In the cases of the late Archbishop Lewis, of Ontario, and of the late Archbishop Bond, of Montreal, it happened that both were senior bishops, and if the election should be governed by this precedent the nominee would be Bishop Sweatman, of Toronto. It is observed that, while the Mail

Bishop Dumoulin was ordained deacon Judge Sherman for sentence the clerk and priest by the late Bishop Cronyn, and was curate of St. John's, London Township, afterward going to Galt and from ship, afterward going to Galt and from there to Montreal. From Montreal he went to Hamilton, and from there back to Montreal, afterward holding prominent appointments in the Montreal, Toronto and Niagara dioceses. In the year 1896 he was elected Bishop of Niagara.

Bishop Carmichael was also ordained by Bishop Cronyn in 1859, and had charge of the mission at Clinton for some time. He afterward removed from the Diocese of Huron to Montreal, then to Hamilton, and back to Montreal again, where he was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Montreal.

Immediately after the Bishop of Canada has been elected, the Primate of All Canada must be chosen. And, besides the ten bishops already mentioned, all the bishops of Rupert's Land will meet with them, and thus the primate will be elected by the Synod of Canada. The Archbishop of Rupert's Land has the calling of the general meeting, and it is possible that Archbishop Matheson will be the choice. The Rev. Samuel Pritchard Matheson, Archbishop of Rupert's Land, was born in Kildman, Manitoba, in 1852, the descendant on his father's side of one of the Scotch settlers brought to the Red River by Lord Selkirk in 1812.

He was educated at Mr. Pritchard's Academy and St. Paul's parish school, and later entered St. George's College school. He was ordained to the priesthood by Archbishop Machray in 1876. He was created a canon in Winnipeg Cathedral in 1882. His rise was rapid, and it was with the commendation of the church in all Canada that he was appointed to succeed the late Archbishop Matheson, among other honors, has held the office of grand master of the Manitoba Grand Lodge.

FOOTBALL. TIGERS EAT 'EM ALIVE

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 10.-Although without the services of Capt. McCormick, Princeton overwhelmed Lehigh today by the score of 52 to 0. Princeton played poorly in the first half and fumbled frequently, but in the second half they made a furious attack on 6 the visitors and scored six touchdowns, from which Cooney kicked all the goals, The Tigers' gains were made chiefly by long end runs, the scrimmages between ends, and tackles. Mr. Greening, instead of going to Hamilton, will have charge of the Ottawa house, and Mr. R. A. McVean who was slated for Ottawa, will have charge at Montreal. This will mean that Mr. J. H.
