STYLE

THE elements of style enters more largely every year in the determination of the value of clothing. Without it the best efforts of the salesman are wasted.

We might as well try to light our store with a candle dip as to build up a trade with ordinary clothing.

New Method Fitting Clothing not only embraces the season's advanced patterns and fabrics, but the workmanship—the merchant tailor kind is there—the kind that breeds confidence and furnishes a topic for conversation with our customers.

The founders of this store are old in the business, and have learned what to avoid and what is most essential from the customer's point of view. That is the whole secret of successful merchandizing.

COMMANDOS ROUNDED UP

British Column did the Deed North-West of Pretoria—Boers Killed.

Fifty-Four Prisoners Taken including two Field Cornets—Canadians Dangerously Ill.

London, Nov. 20.—A despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated from Pretoria to-day, says Lieut. Colenbrander's column has rounded up Beyer's and Badenhorst's Boer commandos 30 miles north-west of Pretoria. The troops killed three men, wounded three and captured 54, including two field cornets. The column also captured much stock and munitions of war.

ANOTHER SICK CANADIAN.

Ottawa, Nov. 20.—Hon. Joseph Chamberlain cabled Lord Minto to-day as follows:—"Regret to inform you that G. M. Cove dangerously ill of enteric fever, November 11. Father is George B. Cove, Amherst Head, Cumberland County, N. S."

MR. BECK A WINNER.

New York, Nov. 20.—At the horse show this afternoon, a number of additional prizes were awarded, among them the following:—For the best three qualified hunters from one hunt—Glouce, Gay Falconer and Gold Lace, Adam Beck, London, Ont.

A PIONEER GONE

John Sample has Passed Away in his 97th Year a Life Long Conservative.

One of the oldest and most respected of Kent's pioneers passed away yesterday in the person of John Sample, who died at the residence of his son, Alex. Sample, Stanley avenue, aged 97 years.

Mr. Sample was born Oct. 1804, in the county of Arima, Ireland, twelve miles from Belfast. In Ireland he worked successfully at his trade as a linen weaver. He was married in 1830 to Elizabeth Moore, who died September 11th, 1888. He came to Canada in 1837, but went to Michigan, remaining there about three years. He then returned to Canada and took up a farm on the 16th concession of Raleigh. He was one of Raleigh's first settlers, having out a farm for himself when Raleigh was nothing but a bush. He then some years later removed to another farm on the 3rd concession, Harwich, just west of Blenheim. About 40 years ago he again moved to a farm 10 miles east of Blenheim, where he lived comfortably until about four years ago, when he removed to Chatham.

Deceased was in religion a Presbyterian, and in politics a Conservative. Six children survive him. They are Mesdames R. Moore, Romulus, Michigan; H. Rouse, of Wyandotte, Mich.; S. Rouse, of Harwich township, A. Jackson, of Ridgeway, and Messrs. Alex. Sample, of Chatham township and Samuel Sample, of Romney township.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at ten o'clock, from the residence of his son, Stanley avenue, to the English burying ground, where he laid at rest by the side of his wife.

BELOVED BY MANY

Woman who Lost her Life in the Stone Fire "Went About Doing Good."

The Cleveland Press says: The funeral of Miss Mary A. Graham, who was killed in jumping from the N. O. Stone block fire, Tuesday, will be held from the home of M. V. Cooper, 196 Melrose avenue, either Thursday or Friday, probably Friday. Miss Graham had boarded at the Cooper home since her mother's death four years ago.

Miss Graham's mother was blind for many years before her death and Miss Graham gave her the most loving care. After her mother's death, her one thought was to do good among the poor. She belonged to no organization, but "went about doing good." Her means were ample for her charitable purposes, and she was the idol of the many needy people whom she had helped.

Miss Graham came to Cleveland from Chatham, Ont. Mrs. Cooper did not know anything about her relatives.

The burial will be in Woodland, where Miss Graham's mother is buried. Rev. S. P. Spurgeon, of the Euclid avenue Presbyterian church, will conduct the service.

INWARD AND OUTWARD.

The inward effects of humors are worse than the outward. They weaken all the organs, inflame the mucous membrane, cause catarrhal troubles, and endanger the whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors and cures all their effects.

It's the great alterative and tonic medicine whose merit has been everywhere established. Accept no substitute.

GOLD MINERS DIE BY FIRE

Horrible Disaster in a Colorado Mine—17 Bodies Recovered.

Two Hundred men had Just Started to Work When Fire Broke out in a Tunnel.

Telluride, Col., Nov. 20.—By a fire in the bullion tunnel belonging to the Smuggler Union Mining Company, probably 30 lives were lost to-day. Seventeen bodies have been recovered. The fire, which is known to have been accidental, started early this morning in the buildings at the mouth of the tunnel. At this point is located the upper terminal of the tramway to the company's new mill at Pandora, and it was in the bunk house attached that the fire started. From this it spread to the terminal station, which with its ore bins, machinery and supplies is a mass of ruins.

The day shift of 200 men had entered the mine and reached their stations when the fire broke out. The tunnel acted as a flue, and a great volume of smoke poured in and filled the slopes. About 175 of the men succeeded in reaching safety by another exit. The fire probably burned itself out, but the mine was so filled with smoke that it was six hours before rescuing parties could penetrate the slopes where the less fortunate were. Seventeen dead have been removed from the mine to-night. The engineer, Hugh J. O'Neill, was found alive, but is not expected to recover. No list of dead is obtainable at this time.

BAD BLAZE

A Former Chathamite Suffers a Severe Loss at Northcote, Minn.

Last Tuesday morning, Nov. 12, about one o'clock, the large barn of Jno. Wood, near Northcote, Minn., containing 13 head of horses, five set of harness, 35 tons of hay, 400 bushels of oats, besides other articles, was burned and all therein destroyed. The fire was started in a straw pile that was located a short distance from the barn, and spread from there to the hay stacks and then to the barn. Mr. Wood was awakened by the faithful collie, dog jumping at his bedroom window, and got to the barn in time to save two cows, two calves, and two colts, that were in an outside stable. Mr. Wood thinks it was the work of an incendiary, as tracks were found leading from a grove of trees across the garden, to where the fire was started, and back to the railroad. Mr. Wood carries insurance in the Farmers' Mutual, of Hallock, Minnesota, for $1000, but this will not cover more than half of his loss. This is the second fire within the last two months that has occurred in this neighborhood, and looks very much as Mr. Wood terms it, the work of an incendiary.

Mr. Wood is an old Chathamite, who has prospered in the west, and his many friends will regret to hear of his misfortune.

The prospectus of the Thanksgiving number of the Buffalo Express, to be issued next Thursday, is in the hands of Roy Chrysler, the hustling young local agent. It promises to be an exceptionally fine paper and contains a splendid series of photographs.

SUNDAY PAPERS

Thos. Walters Differs With P. O. Tom Groves Re Observance of Sabbath in Old London.

"I saw a letter from Thomas Groves in your paper the other night on Sunday newspapers," said Thomas Walters while in conversation with a Planet reporter. "In his letter he states if the hub of the world (London, England) can get along without a Sunday paper what's the matter with Chatham? Well, London, England, might get along without Sunday papers, but she does not. While I was in England I purchased a newspaper every Sunday and have some of them up at my house now. Sunday is about the only day you can get a weekly newspaper. One paper called Lloyd's Weekly, I purchased not a hundred yards from the King's residence."

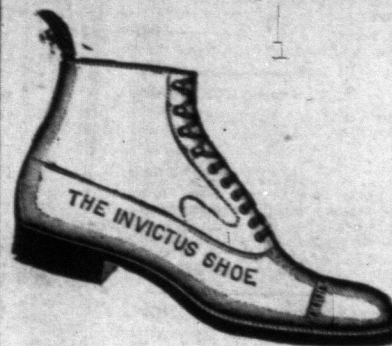

"Why," continued Tom, "you can buy almost anything in London on Sundays, especially in the Jewish quarters, where the Hebrews stick to their religion, closing up business on Saturday and keeping open on Sunday."

"Things have changed since Mr. Groves left England."

WABASH CHANGE OF TIME.

Taking effect Nov. 2nd, the following changes will be made in Wabash time table from this station, East bound trains 3.05 a. m. and 6.25 a. m. are withdrawn, West bound train 5.40 a. m. and 7.00 p. m. are withdrawn, west bound train now leaving 10.13 p. m., will leave 9.52 p. m., and east bound train now leaving 12.23 p. m. will leave 12.23 p. m. THURSDAY, NOV. 21.

A CANADIAN OPPORTUNITY.

An exhibition in which Canada should take much interest, is to be opened next summer. This exhibition, to be confined exclusively to the produce and manufacturers of the British Empire, will be held during the months of June, July, and August, 1902, in the Tauride Palace, St. Petersburg, which has been lent for that purpose by the Empress. It was originally intended to hold the exhibition during the forthcoming winter, but, owing to the large offers of heavy machinery which, was unsuitable for the interior of the palace, it has been found necessary to erect annexes in the adjoining grounds.

Powerful committees have been formed in London and St. Petersburg. Mr. George Collins Levey, C. M. G., has been appointed British commissioner, and all particulars can be obtained by applying to the officers, 22 Conduit street, London, W.

The construction of the trans-Siberian railway brings Russia to our doors. A natural portion of the new route through Europe and North America is over a Canadian railway. That a line of steamers will be put on between British Columbia and the terminus of the great Russian highway, and that through tickets by this route from Montreal to all parts of Europe, will be issued in the comparatively near future may now be regarded as assured.

It will tend to the progress of this country and the development of Canadian trade for our manufacturers to show Russia and all Europe, at the coming exhibition what the products of Canadian industry are. If our neighbors on this continent could increase their export trade with Russia from five and a half millions in 1896 to seven and a half millions in 1900, there is no reason why Canada should not be able to do some business with the same country.

The survey of the proposed Cape Breton electric railroad is about completed, and the work of construction, it is hoped, will be finished in time for cars to be in operation next summer. The power-house is to be located in Sydney.

A Glasgow firm of silversmiths has been commissioned to construct a silver model of the Royal yacht Ophir for presentation to the Prince and Princess of Wales (Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York) at the instance of the commander and officers of the vessel.

Britain's "wooden walls" being no longer a national defence are being disposed of to the highest bidder. Last year the Admiralty realized £15,000 by the sale of sundry ships, and the London Gazette now announces that three wooden ships are to be sold.

King Edward has ordered a special crown for Queen Alexandra, to be worn by her on the occasion of the Coronation. In it will be the famous Kohinoor (diamond), found in the mines of Golconda 341 years ago, and which was worn by Queen Victoria on special occasions.

A strike of country school teachers in Armstrong county, Pennsylvania, is the newest thing in the line of labor troubles. Ten of them have locked up the schoolhouses and pocketed the keys. Children are spending for lack of application of the rod, and the glorious cause of education stands still pending the settlement of a question of wages.

Periodically, reports are received that Miss Stone is alive and well, but the matter of her release still hangs fire. The ransoming of this kidnapped missionary seems to require almost as much negotiation as the settlement of a war between nations. A few ignorant brigands have the advantage over some of the world's strongest powers just at present.

THE ESQUIMO

The Esquimo eats blubber. The lumbermen eat pork.

These people are constantly exposed to cold and physical strain. Experience has taught them that fatty foods give warmth and nourishment.

For those who have cold and thin bodies, or are threatened with consumption or any wasting disease, there is no fat in so digestible and palatable a form as Scott's Emulsion. Physicians prescribe it.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

If something is not done to restrain notoriety hunters and suicides from shooting Niagara Falls the place will soon become a field of horrors, and lose all charm for the ordinary tourist.

In Essex it is charged that the Ontario Government is shuffling on the question of the stoppage of the exportation of natural gas precisely as it has shuffled and deceived on the scrap-iron issue. Both subjects involve the interests of wealthy corporations, and the Government in each instance has stood by the companies against the people. Essex wants the exportation of gas prohibited in order to save the wells from exhaustion. The Ontario Government has pretended to be very active; but the gas is exported all the same. Mr. Archibald McNee, a strong Liberal, says the Government has been

HELP AT HAND

The Terrors of Dyspepsia Have at Last been Overcome—No One Need Suffer a Moment Longer.

Since man began to eat, his stomach has been a source of trouble. Often he eats what he should not, and how he should not.

Then Nature protests in Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion.

For many years laxatives were the only treatment thought of for such troubles.

Now, however, man has become wiser, and has at last found a better medicine; one that cures.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have never failed to cure stomach weakness.

They are composed of the very best digestive and curative agents known to medical science.

The proof that they are right is found in the fact that they always relieve, and when used persistently, never fail to cure.

And still, many suffer the tortures of Dyspepsia, because they have not heard of this wonderful medicine, or because having heard, they confuse Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets with the thousand and one so-called dyspepsia cures.

There is only one sure cure, and the name is Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are 50c a box. All druggists sell them. If you are a sufferer, do not hesitate a moment. If you are not, but know of one who is, let him hear the good news.

Think of the ills from which you are exempt, and it will aid you to bear patiently those which you may now suffer.

A Rumor

that keeps the old country on the anxious seat. The rumor that we are selling the best clothing at lowest prices in Chatham should make you anxious to get your suit or overcoat here before it is too late.

Our overcoats range from $5.00 to $16.00.

Suits—We have the best tweed suit you ever saw, at $5.50. You must see our clothing. We are sure to save you money. Remember, we are the only people in Chatham that keep the noted Leather Beaver Overcoats, black and blue, two lengths, $10.00. One price, money refunded.

simply "playing with the people," and the Leamington Post adds that while the Ministers may take it easy now there is a time coming when they will regret their indifference. The Ministers are evidently pursuing the double game and accomplishing nothing in the interests of the big company that is trading in gas at Detroit.—Mail and Empire.

There were some funny things in the recent election campaign in the United States. Mark Twain was on the stump against Tammany in New York, and Bill Nye was elected to the Massachusetts State Legislature.

The reports this week about the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States are in well-informed circles considered premature; but the completion of the business is expected within a month.

Theatrical

Special scenery, costumes and properties, together with a remarkably well balanced company will present "Mistress Nell," Geo. C. Hazelton's merry play at the Grand to-night. Not in many years has there been a success recorded equal to that of "Mistress Nell," and it will not be strange, therefore, if the local theatre is crowded to the doors when this very excellent play is offered as the attraction. "Mistress Nell" is deserving of a crowded house and very little need be said regarding its success, for undoubtedly every one has read of it in the magazines and daily newspapers. It is probable that more has been written and printed about "Mistress Nell" than of any other play ever produced.

The scenic environment and the costumes called for by this splendid comedy, "Mistress Nell," which comes to the Grand this evening, have been referred to wherever the play has been presented as absolutely correct. Nearly an entire year in New York City alone has given the comedy such a life that its local presentation will be a matter of universal enjoyment.

On Monday evening, Nov. 25th, the theatre-going public of Chatham will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the best attractions that ever visited this city. The attraction will be the Reeves-Smith Comedy Company, producing the charming comedy made famous by Mr. Reeves-Smith, entitled "A Brace of Partridges." The comedy was first produced in London at the Strand Theatre, where it afterwards moved over to the Garrick, where it ran the whole year. Mr. Chas. Frohman, one of the shrewdest theatrical managers in the country, was in London and saw "A Brace of Partridges," and immediately secured the attraction for his theatre in New York. The entire production was brought from England to America, where it was produced at the Madison Square Theatre in New York. The same success attended the comedy in New York that it had in London. The press was unanimous in proclaiming that it was the best company and comedy that had ever visited our shores, and that Mr. Smith was without a doubt the best actor in all England, and had but few, if any, equals in this country. After a long and successful run at the Madison Square Theatre, the company were compelled to go on the road for a short tour, owing to previous bookings at the Madison Square Theatre. Last season Mr. Reeves-Smith was under contract to Mr. Chas. Frohman, and played at the Garrick Theatre, New York, all season, creating the part and playing the title role, "Captain Jinks," one of the greatest successes in New York. The phenomenal success of "Captain Jinks" was undoubtedly due to the acting of Mr. Reeves-Smith. This season he resumes his tour with "A Brace of Partridges," supporting Mr. Reeves-Smith is Miss Margaret Robinson, another of Mr. Frohman's company, having been associated with the Frohman's for the past five seasons, playing the leading role. Prior to joining the Frohman's Miss Robinson was a member of such high class companies as Wm. Crane, E. H. Sothern and the Lyceum Theatre Co., New York. Reserve seat sale opens to-morrow.

$25,000 FOR PLAYWRIGHT

Maurice Campbell's Offer for a Drama for Henrietta Crossman.

Chance for Unknown Authors, Who Will have Two Years to Complete Their Work.

The production of "Miss Nell" will take place at the Grand tonight.

Now let the playwright burn his midnight oil with assurance that he will be paid for his services—providing his services yield something that strikes the fancy of a certain actress. Maurice Campbell, the husband and manager of Henrietta Crossman, will pay as much as $25,000 bonus for a play to his liking.

The offer is unprecedented, and, as a matter of fact, the offer is not exactly that. To be quite accurate, Campbell formally announces he will pay $10,000 as a bonus for a proper vehicle, but in conversing on the subject with several dramatists yesterday, he went farther, and said:

"Practically there is no limit within reason to what I will pay if I can get just what I want. I want it understood that I will give as much or more than any one else if I get exactly the right thing. Twenty-five thousand dollars will not be too high if the goods are delivered."

CHANCE FOR AMERICAN PLAYWRIGHTS.

The offer has been made to the representatives of American and foreign playwrights and will be called to their attention further by an advertisement soon to appear. The playwright—especially the American playwright—long has complained that there is no market for his wares. Campbell's answer is the most practical sort of one. The field is an open one.

There are but few conditions to the offer and nothing like a "string" is attached to the proposition. The play must be delivered to Campbell within two years and it must be a romantic comedy. Furthermore, it must be deemed suitable by both Miss Crossman and Mr. Campbell. Those conditions fulfilled, a small fortune awaits the lucky dramatist.

The sum thus offered is a bonus. Besides the amount which may be paid, the ordinary royalties also will accrue. The proposition will be advertised in London and Paris as well as in America. Campbell prefers to get a play by a well-known author, and he particularly would like the opportunity of producing a Rostand or Sardou drama, but he does not bar unknown dramatists.

"THE PLAY'S THE THING," HE SAYS.

"The play's the thing," said Campbell yesterday. "I have a star and she has some plays, but I want something exactly suited to her. Every actress, of course, has a personality of her own. 'Miss Nell' suited Miss Crossman, and it was written by a comparatively unknown playwright. I want another like it, and for that I can afford to pay what I offer. The offer is genuine and made in good faith. Moreover, it is promulgated only after careful deliberation. I wish to be a competitor for the best in the market."

Of course, the sum mentioned is a surprisingly large one, but Campbell is quite in earnest in the matter. He realizes that "Miss Nell" in his case was a "find" for through it he was able to make Miss Crossman a recognized star, a long sought-for condition.

She does not appear to be in pressing need of plays judging from the manuscripts she either has on hand or holds options on. Besides the revival of "As You Like It," she soon will present "Joan of the Shanks" by Mrs. Evelyn Greenleaf Sutherland, who made the dramatization of "Monsieur Beaucaire." This will be produced within a month.

PLAYS IN PREPARATION.

In addition George C. Haddon, Jr., nearly has completed a new play for Miss Crossman. Mrs. W. K. Clifford, of London, has one in preparation for her, and she holds options on a new play by Gilbert Parker. J. Comyns Carr, the manager of the Lyceum Theatre in London, is negotiating with Miss Crossman about the rights of a new piece and A. E. W. Mason has given Campbell the option on his next work.

Every well known publishing firm in the city received a notice from Campbell yesterday announcing he would pay a large bonus for the rights to make dramatizations from books suitable to his purposes.

Gilbert Parker's Great Novel The Night of Way

Just Published by the Copp, Clark Company, Limited, Toronto and For sale by C. C. Dingman.

The story opens with a court room scene. The figure there, absorbing all the interest, is — not the prisoner, but the young and brilliant criminal lawyer Charley Steele.

"Beauty" Steele, as he is at this time commonly called because of his pink complexion and foppish airs, is a riddle for his friends to read as best they may; "acquaintances" were perhaps a more correct word, for this man chooses to wear a shell of reserve which makes friendship impossible. He is intemperate, and an egomaniac, and he exaggerates his fellows

WOMAN'S WEIGH

Does not always keep pace with woman's will. There are energetic, home-loving women who by sheer force of will keep themselves going, and fancy that strength of will can take the place of strength of body. But it can't. Every day will see a loss of strength, and that loss will be indicated by a loss of weight. When the weight begins to fall below the normal it is time to ask, Why?

In general, ill health in women may be traced to those womanly diseases which sap the strength and undermine the vitality. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. Where the disease is marked by loss of flesh, there is a steady regaining of weight coincident with the cure which proves the renewal of health to be thorough and permanent.

"Three years ago," writes Mrs. John Graham, of 201 Plum Street (Frankford), Philadelphia, Penna. "I had a very bad attack of dyspepsia which left me with heart trouble, and also a very weak back. At times I was so bad that I did not know what to do with myself. I came to Philadelphia two years ago, and picking up one of your little books one day began to read what your 'Favorite Prescription' had done for others. I determined to try it myself. I took seven bottles, and today I am a strong, well woman, weighing 125 pounds. Have gained 25 pounds since I started to use your 'Favorite Prescription.'" with his enigmatical phrases, his puzzling questions, his cynical philosophies, and the ever-present monologue with which he inspires confusion in the brain of the man surveyed. Many men stand in awe and admire; none can be wholly indifferent, while a few are filled with a smoldering dislike.

At present every man in this chamber of law is compelled into admiration; and one woman—one woman who was before wavering and uncertain—now is moved by the power of his oratory to make a final decision regarding certain important matters. She is tall and nobly planned, perfectly moulded, but with a heart—if she has one—thickly incased in ice. But this marvelous pleader at the bar has done, without trying, what others have striven to accomplish but failed. He has caused this statute to thrill with something like life.

The scene changes to the home of the beautiful Kathleen, and things happen which perhaps might better never have happened. Who can tell—as Charley himself would ask.

The great advocate, and the beautiful woman are married, but they prove ungenial. He becomes more than ever intemperate, and more than ever a scoffer. One day he goes to an inn to drink, and while there haughtily antagonizes the crowd, who become enraged, attack him, and leave him apparently dead. He is carried away by the man whom he defended on the charge of murder to the little village of Chaudiere, and is resuscitated. But his memory for some months is entirely gone. On recovery he cannot return to his home, for by so doing he would ruin his wife, who, believing him dead, has married again. Faced by this terrible situation the hero renounces his former life, adopts another name, and resolves to spend the remainder of his life in Chaudiere.

There he meets Rosalie Evanturel, the postmaster's daughter, a deeply religious and beautiful girl, who materially influences his destiny, and whom he would like to marry. Which woman has the right of way? The spiritual struggle is profoundly indicated, the love exquisitely described, while the development of the whole plot is a masterly achievement. Sixteen illustrations add value to this excellent work of fiction.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

TENDED HER COW.

A Very Pleasant Story of Italy's King and His Bride.

The young King of Italy and his bride were walking a short time ago in the vicinity of a chateau in a quiet part of his kingdom where they were visiting. The afternoon being warm, her majesty became thirsty, and said she would like to get a glass of milk or water somewhere.

An old woman was taking care of a cow near by, and the King went and asked her for a little milk. Fancying that the young man was an ordinary tourist, the old peasant answered that her cow had no milk.

"But you have some water at home?" asked the King.

"Of course I have," was the reply.

"Will you be good enough to fetch me some?" continued the King.

"Yes, if you will take care of my cow until I come back," answered the old woman.

"All right," said Victor Emmanuel, and from that moment he kept his eyes on the cow.

Ten minutes later the old woman came back with a bowl of fresh water.

"How is it," asked the King, "that there are so few people here today?"

"Because they have all gone to the chateau to see the king, queen and little princess," was the reply.

"Only old women like me have been left at home, and so we'll never have the luck to see the king and his family."

"You are mistaken, my good woman," answered the King, as he handed her a new gold piece. "I am the king, and this lady is the queen."

For some moments the old peasant could not speak; then in a faltering voice she cried:

"Pardon me, your majesty, but I really had no notion that you were the king."

The royal couple tried hard to calm her, and at length succeeded; but even as they were strolling away she was still reproaching herself and saying over and over again:

"How crazy I must have been to ask the king to take care of my cow!"

Parsnips in Winter.

To a woman without a cellar, a good supply of vegetables that may be left in the garden all winter and drawn upon as needed is a boon. Among this class of roots, the parsnip is perhaps the most satisfactory for general use. Its flavor is improved by the action of the frost, and is therefore at its best when a succulent, nutty vegetable is most relished and usually highest priced in the market.

Parsnips are a fine seasoning for soups. To one quart of soup stock allow one well cleaned parsnip cut into slices, fry several slices on one another, and cut into small narrow strips; add to the stock and simmer until tender, and serve without straining. A spoonful of Chili sauce blends nicely with the flavor of the parsnips, as do also chopped parsley and onion.

To make delicious parsnip fritters boil four or five parsnips till tender, remove the skins and mash them very fine. Add to them a teaspoonful of flour, one well beaten egg, salt to taste. Make the mixture into small cakes with a spoon and fry on both sides to a delicate brown in sizzling hot butter or beef drippings. When done serve them on a napkin. Parsnips are often broiled under roast beef and served in a separate dish with the exception of a few pieces which are left to garnish the meat. Wash and scrap the parsnips, and if very large cut them across. Put them into boiling salted water and cook quickly until tender. Drain and place them in the dripping pan under roast beef, and when the meat has been removed, dust over them a little pepper and salt and let them brown nicely.

Sir Henry Irving's Hint.

During Sir Henry Irving's performance of "The Merchant of Venice" at the Theatre Royal, Belfast, much annoyance was caused to frequenters of the stalls and circle boxes who did not remove their hats, with the result that the management at last decided to give the fair ones a gentle hint.

Prior to the commencement of the first act a curtain was displayed on which was painted in large letters the following: "Madam, will you kindly take off your hat, as I am sitting immediately behind you, and cannot see the stage?"

The hint was sufficient, for all hats and bonnets disappeared.

Writers as Pilferers.

A historian who has recently had access to the state records of some foreign countries says that it is becoming increasingly difficult to obtain permission to examine historical documents and letters. There can be no doubt that a certain amount of pilfering has been indulged in by writers of historical romance in search of facts for their fiction. It is a curious coincidence, that the originals of most of the documents made use of by a famous French novelist are missing from the official archives.

Rumors in Vienna of an Hysterical Scene at the Court of Serbia.

Vienna, Nov. 20.—An unconfirmed report reached Vienna that Queen Draga has been shot in the streets of Belgrade. The Neue Presse and other Vienna papers publish various rumors, one declaring that the Serbian Queen was assassinated, another that she was wounded and a third that she committed suicide. Reports from other sources deny the statement that Queen Draga was killed and assert that the rumor of her death was caused by a hysterical scene with King Alexander.

There is no reliable information on the subject here, but it is generally believed that a serious crisis exists in Belgrade.

JOHN DAVIDSON

East Kent Liberal-Conservatives Select Their Standardbearer—A Popular Choice.

Special to The Planet.

John Davidson, of Thamesville, ex-Warden of Kent County, and one of the most popular of men, was chosen as standard bearer for the Liberal-Conservative party at the convention held in Ridgetown to-day. The Convention was very enthusiastic, and the largest in the history of the riding of East Kent. Only two names were nominated, ex-Warden Davidson and Philip Bowyer, editor and proprietor of the Ridgetown Dominion.

The first vote stood—Davidson 76, Bowyer 68. Mr. Bowyer at once moved that Mr. Davidson be made the unanimous choice of the convention.
This was done amid enthusiastic cheers.

Speeches were then delivered by the candidate, and by James Clancy,
M. P., John Frazer, candidate for West Kent, Findlay McDiarmid and others.

Harmony and enthusiasm characterized the convention.

Warden Davidson is well known in the county. He served for several years in the County Council and was Warden in 1900. His upright manly character has won for him the respect of all and no more popular candidate could have been chosen.

FOUND DEAD IN THE BARN.

Alexandria, Nov. 20.—Dougal Cameron, aged 25 years, was found dead on his father's barn floor at noon today. Cause of death unknown. An inquest will be held.

WANTED TO BE HANGED APART.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 18.—Counsell for Edward and Thos. Biddle, the Amherstburg men, under sentence of death at Pittsburg, has requested Gov.
Stone to fix separate days for their execution. The Biddies, who are brothers, do not want to be hanged from the same scaffold on the same day.
The day of their execution has not yet been fixed.

The Biddies, together with Walter Dorman, were convicted of the murder of Thos. Kahnany while attempting to burglarize his home at Pittsburg.
Dorman turned State's evidence and may, for that reason, escape the gallows. He has not been sentenced yet.

When officers went to Ed. Biddle's room to arrest him he made a desperate resistance. During the fight Detective P. J. Fitzgerald was shot and killed.

The United Gas and Oil Co., has stopped the piping of gas from Essex fields to Detroit, during the continuance of the injunction preventing Sheriff Iler from disconnecting the pipes.

An Anglo-American syndicate propose to erect a large office building in the Strand, to be called the Victorian buildings, if the London County council will suspend the regulations which prohibit such large buildings.

An unfortunate man, unduly under the influence of John Barlecorn, made the acquaintance of the granolithic pavement in altogether too cordial a manner on Queen street this morning. His face was badly cut and bled profusely.

The building lots offered for sale on William street and Dufferin Avenue, near the Park St. Methodist Church, by D. McLachlan, are among the most most desirable locations in the city to-day. Dufferin Avenue has very little traffic on it, and is therefore one of the cleanest and healthiest streets in the city. It is also very convenient to church, school and market, and is about midway between the G. T. R. and C. P. R. stations. There are still some of these lots left.

Quality

Quality is what we are continually looking out for. No matter how cheap an article is it must be good before it finds a place in our stock. Those figs we are selling at 5c a lb. are good. Some cheap figs we have seen this year are poor, the skin is tough and a number have black seeds, but the ones we sell are fresh and tender, and we have yet to find one black one among them.

We have another shipment of last year's finest selected raisins. We are offering them at 5c a lb.

A great many people are using them for pies instead of apples.

To-day we expect to have in some more fine dates at 5c a lb. The last we had could scarcely be told from the new ones.

He has had a most successful season's business. On Monday he will go east as far as Montreal, and will call on the druggists in all cities and towns east of that point with Miller's preparations, that have long been recognized as amongst the best selling goods in the market, and that are controlled by C. H. Gunn & Co.

CHATHAM'S EARLY SPRING.

"I just met a man who had been out to the Dowsle yWorks," said ex-Ald. Arnold. "He said things were going along very nicely, and that the factory would be running before long. Therefore," I continued "Doe," "although I am no weather prophet, we will have spring about January."

STILL UNIDENTIFIED.

Detective McGregor has been unable so far to find any one who could identify the body of the young man who was killed on the Grand Trunk tracks just east of this city on Tuesday morning. It is Mr. McGregor's theory that he had been from Berlin instead of Merlin, and he is now in communication with the authorities of that place in the hope of clearing up the mystery. He is up the river to-day interviewing some of the farmers with whom the deceased had been in conversation.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

ALIMONY SUIT.

At the St. Thomas non-jury sittings Tuesday, Graham vs. Graham, an action for alimony was heard. It was before the last court of assize, when the parties entered into an agreement whereby the defendant was to pay the plaintiff $5 per week, and in the event of his failure to do so then judgment was to be entered at the present non-jury assize court in accordance with the terms of settlement. The defendant, Archie Graham, formerly a contractor of this city, made two payments, and then, it is alleged, left the country. On motion of W. K. Cameron, counsel for plaintiff, judgment was given for plaintiff with costs, allowing Mrs. Graham alimony at the rate of $5 per week from the date of last payment.—London Free Press.

WORK CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED

Applications have been received by the Clerk of the House from five companies and others who seek private legislation at the coming session of the Legislature. Among this number ratification is asked by the Townships of Orford and Aliborough and the village of Dutton, in Elgin County, of by-laws voting bonuses to the Lake Erie & Detroit River Railway Co.

THEIR LAST HOPE GINE

The Higher Tribunal Declines to Consider Appeal for Intervention.

Dr. Krause to be Tried on the Charges of High Treason and Incitement to Murder.

The Hague, Nov. 20.—The administrative council for the court of arbitration decided to-day that it was incompetent to consider the Boer appeal for intervention in the war in South Africa.

CHARGES AGAINST DR. KRAUSE.

London, Nov. 20.—When Dr. Krause, the former governor of Johannesburg, who was arrested Sept. 2 on the charge of high treason and inciting to murder, was brought up on remand at Bow street to-day, for the thirteenth time, the treasury representatives created some excitement by announcing that they withdrew the application for the prisoner's extradition to South Africa, and wanted Dr. Krause committed to the Old Bailey on charges of high treason and inciting to murder. The treasury officials consider there is ample justification to try Dr. Krause here on the charges of inciting Dr. Cornelius Brocks, the former public prosecutor of Johannesburg, who was executed Sept. 30, to murder Douglas Foster, an English lawyer attached to Lord Roberts' staff, who was killed above against the Boers. Witnesses were called to support the charge. Dr. Krause was remanded for a fortnight in £4,000 bail.

MAY NOT HAVE BEEN INTENDED FOR THE BOERS.

London, Nov. 20.—The steamer which the government caused to be detained yesterday at the Victoria docks, is named the Banrigh. She had been used to carry passengers between London and Aberdeen, and was sold three weeks ago ostensibly for use in the West India fruit trade. It was at first supposed that the vessel was laden with contraband of war destined for the Boers, but it is now vaguely suggested that any contraband on board of her was intended for Colombia. Customs officers are still on board the Banrigh.

PUGH-ROBINSON.

At 1:30 o'clock, Miss Maud Robinson became the bride of Mr. Harry H. Pugh, son of George Pugh, of Stratford. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. M. L. Leitch, pastor of Knox Church, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Engineer and Mrs. Robinson, Shakespear street. There were no bridesmaid or groomsmen. The flower girl was Miss Hazel Stewart, who carried a basket of chrysanthemums. The bride wore a gown of navy blue tulle and carried a bouquet of roses. Her sister, Miss Robinson, played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

Mr. and Mrs. Pugh left on the afternoon train for St. Edward, where they will reside for this winter. Mr. Pugh is now employed as pattern maker in the Crosey works at the Point. There was a beautiful collection of wedding presents, including a cheque for $300 from the bride's parents. About 35 close friends and relatives were in attendance, among them guests from Chatham, London and Hamilton.

A LITTLE TRAMP.

Joseph Vincent, 13 years of age, and a mulatto, boarded a belt line car yesterday. He has a tough-looking little citizen. His left leg was of wood from the knee down. "Joe" seemed to glory in his tough western appearance. He said he had been tramping for six weeks, and wouldn't accept the offer of a good home if it were made to him. His Dresden stethoscope and himself had had a falling out, and he had resolved to join the great army of the homeless. The astonished conductor was more surprised when the boy tendered a quarter-dollar as his fare, and refused to take any change until it was placed on the seat beside him. He announced that he had not yet breakfasted, and forthwith produced a tin of sardines, and taking a front seat devoured the entire contents. This alone served as a meal for the budding tramp.

The youth begged some during the forenoon. Shortly after the dinner hour a policeman found him. "Joe" cried when taken to jail, and refused to talk. He was a shivering, friendless kid, and even the policeman, accusatory of sort of thing, pitied him. —London Free Press.

SEIZED BY THE PETREL.

Amherstburg, Ont., Nov. 20.—The Dominion fisheries protection steamer Petrel arrived here last night. Capt. Dunn reports gathering in 92 gill nets set in Canadian waters east of Middle and Pelee Islands. Fifteen of the nets were tagged number 5, 37 and 7. The Yankee poachers have been getting bold at this point for some time, and Captain Dunn took a run out and gathered in the gill net. The Ontario fisheries department has lately granted licenses to fishermen to gill net along the international line, so that the Americans will be kept on their side of the line. The Petrel, which is doing great service, will not go into winter quarters for some time.

G. T. R. CHANGE OF TIME.

Taking effect Sunday, November 24th, the following change will be made in G. T. R. time tables: train east bound now leaving at 8:22 will leave at 8:12 a. m., and train east bound leaving 10:32 a. m., will leave at 9:02 a. m., train leaving 5:30 p. m. will leave at 5:01 p. m., and train west bound, formerly leaving 9 p. m., will leave 9:10 p. m. O. L. LEWIS HONORED

Past Grand Master's Jewel Presented to him by the I. O. O. F.

Gift Comes as Surprise—A Pleasing Feature of the At Home Last Evening.

The "At Home" in the I. O. O. F. Auditorium last evening, given by the Oddfellows, was taken advantage of to present O. L. Lewis with a Past Grand Master's jewel. The presentation came as a great surprise to the Oddfellows, who were gathered for an address, which Mr. Lewis anticipated would be a speech on Oddfellowship or something equally important. Chairman Lewis was profoundly surprised when Mr. Turner's part on the program proved to be the reading of the following address to the Past Grand Master and the presentation of a Past Grand Master's jewel:—

THE ADDRESS.

To Orie Lander Lewis, Esq., P. G. of Chatham Lodge, No. 29, and P. G. M. of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, I. O. O. F.:

Dear Sir and Honored Brother.—The brethren of your lodge realize that the present juncture offers an opportunity for giving expression to the respect and esteem in which you are held by the members of our beloved order, not only in Chatham but throughout the jurisdiction of Ontario.

Initiated into Oddfellowship in Chatham Lodge, on the 21st day of February, A. D. 1888, you manifested a deep interest in its welfare and willingly contributed your time and ability in carrying on the good work of our order. After filling various subordinate positions in the lodge, you were elected to the office of Noble Grand, the highest and most honorable in the gift of your brethren, and you were installed into the same in January, 1894. Having filled this office with honor to yourself and satisfaction to your brethren, you were elected in the following year, 1895, to be one of the representatives of our lodge to the Grand Lodge of Ontario.

It was a great pleasure and satisfaction to us to learn that you at once took a foremost position in that Grand Lodge, which numbers amongst its members some of the ablest men to be found in the great Province of Ontario. Through the professional training which you had received, affording the discipline which has a tendency to sharpen a man for executive work, your abilities were at once recognized by the members composing the Grand Lodge; for in the year 1898 you were elected to fill the office of Grand Warden, leaving a large field of competition far in the distance; and in the following year you were advanced to the position of Deputy Grand Master; and again, in the year 1900, you were elected to the highest position in the gift of the Grand Lodge, that of Grand Master of Ontario. Through the professional training which you had received, affording the discipline which has a tendency to sharpen a man for executive work, your abilities were at once recognized by the members composing the Grand Lodge; for in the year 1898 you were elected to fill the office of Grand Warden, leaving a large field of competition far in the distance; and in the following year you were advanced to the position of Deputy Grand Master; and again, in the year 1900, you were elected to the highest position in the gift of the Grand Lodge, that of Grand Master of Ontario.

We are aware that your year's devotion to the discharge of the varied duties of Grand Master was no easy task, for, judging from the large number of visitations you accomplished, the able and instructive addresses you delivered in the lodges you visited, the good counsel you imparted to the members of the order, while you encouraged them in the practice of the pure principles of Oddfellowship, and advised them on the various laws governing the order, judging from these and other benefits you conferred, the demands on your time and patience must have been immense, while you became not only one of the best known but also one of the most popular Grand Masters our Grand Lodge has ever been blessed with.

Distinguished as had been such services rendered during the year, it was not until the annual session of the Grand Lodge, recently held in the city of Guelph, that your executive and administrative abilities as its presiding grand officer shone in their true lustre and compelled the just admiration of your brethren, who observed your tact, skill and experience as the moderator of an assemblage of about 500 representatives, sent forth from more than 300 lodges, aggregating nearly 26,000 members in Ontario.

It was with very great pleasure, pride and satisfaction that the representatives from Chatham listened to the favorable remarks made and often repeated, as well by the new members of the Grand Lodge as by the oldest, wisest and ablest members—the Past Grand Masters—not only for the very elaborate report of your year's work submitted to the Grand Lodge, but also for the very distinguished, courteous and efficient manner in which you conducted the business of the Grand Lodge session.

We, therefore, ask you to accept this Past Grand Master's jewel, representing the high and honorable position you have attained in our beloved order, as a slight token of the respect and esteem in which you are held by your brethren, who wish for you many years of happy life to continue the good work of advancing the pure principles of Oddfellowship, and who have the conscious assurance of presenting you with this distinguishing badge.

For work well done, Honors well won.

Signed on behalf of the officers and members of Chatham Lodge, No. 29, I. O. O. F., this 20th day of November, A. D. 1907.

JOHN MCORVIE,

The Reefer That Goes To School

It's a responsible garment. T. & D. Reefers are made with that thought always in mind. Every seam has that strenuous word, "boy" worked in, so to speak.

There's an old saying about the uselessness of sending a boy to do a man's work, but in clothing its the other way on. You have to tailor more vigorously for a boy than for any other known creature. At least that's our notion of it.

We're using a good range of warm cloths; black and heather mixed friezes, black curl cloths, blue nap and gray twills. Mostly heavy woolen linings and good high storm collars. Sizes 22 to 32.

Not much to pay, $2.50 to $4.50.

Those $3.89 suits are moving fast. Did you get one?

THE N. A. FIELD TRIALS.

Rutheven, Ont., Nov. 20.—The North American field trials club ran off the all-age stake to-day. The weather was fine and the grounds perfect for walking. The birds were plentiful and the attendance was good. The winners were—First, Katie Winders, owned by L. H. Smith, Stratford, Ont.; second, Toney Bee, G. J. Armstrong, Detroit, Mich.; third, Dan Winiers, L. H. Smith, Stratford, Ont. The members' stake will run to-morrow, and the prospects are favorable for a very successful event.

CAUSE OF DEAFNESS

The Most Common Cause Only Recently Discovered.

It has been stated on good medical authority, that nine-tenths of cases of deafness are caused from Catarrh of the ear.

The little tube which leads to the ear from the throat is lined with a sort of velvety structure called the mucous membrane. This membrane is simply a continuation of the mucous membrane lining of the throat. When disease of any sort attacks the mucous membrane of the throat it is very liable to extend into the eustachian tube and up into the ear.

This history of nearly all cases of deafness is like this: a cold is contracted and neglected, other colds are taken, the throat becomes sore and inflamed, which is aggravated by particles of dust and germs from the air. This condition causes the disease to spread into the tube that leads to the ear.

It seems a little far fetched to say that most cases of deafness are caused from catarrh, but it is certainly true, and anyone who has had a severe catarrhal cold must have noticed how the hearing was affected while the cold lasted.

With catarrh sufferers this impairment of hearing becomes chronic and grows worse the longer the catarrh is neglected.

You can cure catarrh and deafness by the regular use of an excellent new preparation called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, composed of antiseptic remedies which act both on the mucous membranes, but principally and most effectually on the blood, eliminating the catarrhal poison from the system.

People whose hearing is defective may think it a little remarkable that a simple and harmless tablet would very often remove all traces of deafness, but when it is remembered that the catarrh is easily cured by the regular use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets there is no mystery about it.

If you are subject to nasal catarrh or catarrh of throat, bronchial tubes or catarrh of stomach and liver, the safest and most effective treatment is the new catarrh specific, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by all druggists at 50c for full sized package.

AFTER US.

That recognized Elevator, Geo. G. Martin, says that he regrets that several typographical errors crept into his interesting educational essay in yesterday's Planet. The word "organum" was printed "organdum," and the word "deadly" "dewly"; and there were other errors.
