SEVENTH ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of the Society was held in Zion Church, Montreal, on Friday evening June 10th, 1860; Rev. Professor Lillie, D. D., Chairman of the Union, presiding.

A hymn having been sung, Revd. J. Howell of Liverpool, N.S. led in prayer. The Secretary-Treasurer read an Abstract of the following Report, after which narratives,—five minutes in length—of the state of religion in their several churches were given by the following Missionary Pastors: Revds. J. Climie of Belleville, E. Barker of Eramosa, P. Shanks of Lanark, H. Denny of Trafalgar, A. Duff of Farnham, Cowansville and Brome, A. J. Parker of Danville, H. Powis of Quebec, and R. Hay of Vaughan.

The meeting, which was one of sustained interest, was closed with singing and prayer, by Rev. Timothy Atkinson of Westport, Ct.

APPROXIMATE STATISTICAL ESTIMATE.

There are 82 Congregational Churches in Canada and about 70 Ministers, a few of whom are without charge. The membership is within a few of 3,600. Hearers about 12,000. Between 65 and 70 church buildings belong to the denomination, the value of which exceeds $160,000. There must be 4,500 scholars in the Sabbath Schools, taught by at least 600 Teachers. The Churches have raised during the past year for their own support, for missions, and for other religious objects, not less than $38,000.

CONSTITUTION.

1. That this Society be called "The Canadian Congregational Missionary Society, in connection with the Colonial Missionary Society."

2. That its object shall be, to aid feeble Congregational Churches in sustaining their Ministers,—to spread the Gospel by means of Missionaries among all classes of inhabitants, and to promote other general missionary objects of the Congregational body.

3. That all persons subscribing 5s. per annum shall become Members of this Society; and any person subscribing at one time £5 or upwards, shall be an Honorary or Life Member of this Society.

4. That the business of the Society shall be managed by a Secretary-Treasurer, and Committee of not less than nine others, to be elected annually by ballot after nomination, by the Congregational Union of Canada, and to consist chiefly of Pastors and Delegates of Churches not aided by the Society,—five to form a quorum.

5. That the Annual Meeting of the Society shall be held at the Annual Session of the Union, and during such annual session the Committee shall adjust all the appropriations for the ensuing year so far as possible.

6. That in order to provide for local contingencies there shall be appointed by the Union a small Sub-Committee with its Secretary, within certain territorial districts, who shall possess discretionary powers to act in special cases, which action shall extend only to the next meeting of the Union, and which they shall immediately report to the Society.

7. That the Local Sub-Committees shall attend to the collection of funds, the supervision of the missionary work in their several bounds, and report annually to the Secretary.

8. That all Churches receiving aid from this Society to sustain their Minister, shall be required, as the condition of its continuance, faithfully to fulfil their own engagement towards his support.

9. That all Missionaries receiving aid from this Society shall report once in six months to the Secretary, and make a full statistical return annually according to the prepared forms.

10. The connection of this Society with the Colonial Missionary Society shall be maintained in the following manner :—

The General Committee, after making up its annual Schedule of actual and probable appropriations, shall transmit the same, with an estimate of the amount likely to be obtained in Canada, to the Col. M. S. ; with the understanding, that if objections be not made within three months, the arrangement shall stand for the year. The occasional grants made by the Local Sub-Committee shall be reported to London as soon as agreed on. The General Committee shall send to the Col. M. S., the Annual Report of its proceedings, with the statistical returns, after its acceptance by the Union. They shall also furnish any information at their discretion, or at the request of the C. M. S., as to the progress of the work, from time to time.

11. That this Constitution may be altered by any Annual Meeting of the Congregational Union of Canada, one day's notice having been first given to the Union in writing, of any proposal to that effect.

SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Another Anniversary summons the Committee of the Canadian Congregational Missionary Society to an account of their year's stewardship. The review of it would not justify the jubilant in tone; still less could the desponding be vindicated. There has been no striking event, no great and marked progress; but there have been no reverses, and some advance and consolidation have been effected. As this year 1860 marks a decade, it is not unnatural to look back through that term of years, which, if it be done with knowledge of the facts, cannot fail to inspire gratitude to God and courage in our future course. At its beginning, though we had enjoyed an existence in Canada as Churches and Missionary Associations during the previous fifteen to twenty years—a few churches having existence much earlier than that—yet we were unknown to one another, working in isolation or at least in small and imperfectly regulated bands, while from the nature of the case as then existing there were elements of disquiet and discouragement constantly at work to check our progress.

At its close, through God's blessing, we find ourselves as churches throughout the land in a state of great peace and unity. Without such organization as involves the slightest shadow of authority of the one over the other,—maintaining with all our historic jealousy the strict independency of the several churches,—yet have we such loving intercommunion, such entire confidence one in the other, and are so happily banded together for missionary work, that we find ourselves to-day a manifold cord not easily broken. Every year of the seven now closed, during which we have been organized as at present, has strengthened our bond of union and increased our efficiency of action; so that, in the year of decade, we thank God and take courage.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

The number of preachers of the Gospel aided in their work by the Society during the year now reviewed is fifty-four; but of these eight were Theological Students whose vacation of five months was occupied in this work—to be, it is hoped, the work of their lives. One is a native Indian Evangelist; and eight, though missionary pastors were aided during only a part of the year, in most cases a large part. Excluding the students, of whom special mention will be made below, eleven of these ministers of Christ have been devoted to the Lord's work in the WESTERN DISTRICT, extending from Port Sarnia to the head of Lake Ontario: thirteen have toiled in the vineyard, with more or less success, in the MIDDLE DISTRICT, extending from the above boundary to Bowmanville eastward, and to Lake Huron northward; six have fulfilled their ministry in the EASTERN DISTRICT, which embraces the region from Bowmanville downwards to Kingston, and then between the St. Lawrence and the Ottawa Rivers, except Glengarry and neighbourhood, which is for convenience placed in the fourth District; thirteen have ministered in the LOWER CANADA DISTRICT, which includes the said corner of Canada West; and three in NOVA SCOTIA AND-NEW BRUNSWICK DISTRICT.

The semi-annual reports furnished by these brethren indicate that they are not labouring in vain. In many instances gratifying mention is made of a spirit of united prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. This was much fostered by meetings during the second week in 1860, which were largely attended and of much spiritual power in many parts of the land. The call to such united prayer from a mission in India, epdorsed by leading ministers and others in Great Britain, was very extensively responded to,—in many instances resulting in prolonged arrangements for united prayer at stated seasons. In connexion therewith there has been manifested generally an increased desire to hear the word, so that in places unaffected by numerous removals on account of diminished employment, congregations have been larger: more of the people attend the house of prayer than were wont to do so. It is confidently believed that the more precious results are not yet reached: prayer continues, and the Lord's time will come for such a baptism of the Holy Ghost in Canada, as hath been enjoyed in so many parts of the Father-land during the past year.

One evidence of an increased spirit of hearing and of a desire to have God's word clearly and faithfully expounded, is supplied by the fact that many of what might be called preaching districts which are without any regular services of the sanctuary, are evincing intense solicitude to have among them an intelligent and faithful ministry. While other sections which have heretofore been supplied by teachers ill furnished for their work, are craving the services of "able ministers of the New Testament"; so that there has been no time in our history when it was more important to have a Theological Institute in a state of thorough efficiency and when we should send forth from it men of faith and zeal, and well furnished for their important work.

THE VACATION WORK OF THE THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS.

It was found needful last year for the sake of economy somewhat to shorten the session of the Theological Institute, so as to afford the students a vacation of between five and six months. In anticipation of this plan the Local Committees were asked if they could find suitable stations for the young brethren, where they could exercise their gifts in preaching the Gospel, and otherwise acquire practical knowledge and skill in the work of the ministry. Places were soon found for all who were in a state of preparedness sufficient to justify their being sent forth; and such in most cases was their success in winning the confidence and affection of the people among whom they laboured, that their travelling charges were paid, they were boarded and lodged, and a considerable part of their monthly allowance was paid by their congregations. Two proceeded to the Lower Provinces, and six were placed in different positions eastward and westward. The whole cost to the Society did not exceed $150, while their labours were abundant, and they were also undergoing a very important part of their training. It is gratifying to know that the Colonial Missionary Society, which does much in support of the Institute, and largely aids us in our missionary work, greatly approves of this movement. The details of their missionary labours during the vacation will be found in an afterpart of this report. This year the same course has been adopted, and the students are now engaged in similar work.

FINANCES.

The prolonged effects of the commercial and financial paralysis, in the Western section of the Province particularly, have extended over the past year, crippling everywhere the efforts of the community and producing much pecuniary distress. Such a condition of the whole community, as might be anticipated, has injuriously affected the funds of the Society, while several self-supporting churches have at this moment a hard struggle to maintain their ground. Considering the severity of the pecuniary pressure, the aggregate collections for the year have been encouraging. It is now admitted generally that the tide is turning. Should we be favoured again with a bountiful harvest, there is reason to believe that the incubus will be taken off the springs of industry and enterprise, and another season of temporal prosperity will begin. Should these hopes be realized, it will be eminently fitting that gratitude should be rendered to the Giver of all Good by a commensurate enlargement of the gifts of his people for the advancement of his cause in our land and in the world.

The financial statement will be found at the close of the Report, which assumes a somewhat different form this year. Instead of numerous extracts from the correspondence of the missionaries, as heretofore, the Home Secretary has prepared a brief and characteristic resumé in each case; a plan which, while it shortens the Report, gives to the friends of the Society a distinct though birds-eye view of every station.

WESTERN DISTRICT.

The usual amount of labour has been devoted to this important district by the Local Committee and its respected Secretary. No new field has been opened during the year. Stratford, vacant at the date of last report, has however been supplied with a Pastor. Eden Mills and Garafraxa have received no assistance since June, and are at present without Pastors. Port Colborne and Southwold are also without ministerial supply, but as they have received help for part of the year, they will be found reported in the proper place.

Barton. The Rev. W. Allworth continues to labour at this station. Both his reports are expressive of patience in toil, tinged with sadness that greater results are not apparent from his work of faith. He now confines himself to Barton, Glanford having been relinquished last year. Things are on the whole encouraging, the Congregations steady and good, the Sabbath School considerably enlarged and financial matters somewhat improved. In his first report, January 2nd, 1860, he mentions that his people had made him a donation party, from which he realized in presents, &c., between $60 and $70. May this loved brother soon be encouraged by an answer to his, and his people's earnest prayer for times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

Dresden and Bothwell. On the return of the Rev. W. Clarke from Britain, he resumed charge of these two Churches, and notwithstanding his enfeebled health, has been enabled ever since, to keep his appointments regularly, with the exception of one Sabbath. The Congregations although small, are deeply interesting; and our brother is encouraged to believe that his labour is not in vain. In both places, the people are for the most part poor in this world's goods: and the hard times have been sorely felt. The Church at Dresden has suffered by the loss of one member through painful discipline, yet his loss has been more than made up. The Sabbath School is encouraging.

Erin. The Rev. E. Barker, Pastor of the Church at Eramosa having expressed his willingness to take charge of this Church another year, the Committee renewed the small grant of last year, to aid him in his missionary work. His reports are very encouraging. The Church although small, is united and vigorous. There are two stations Ospringe and Burtshill, at the former of which, a new place of worship is in course of erection. The Congregations have been excellent, and a few have been added to the Church. "I can bear" writes Mr. Barker, "my testimony with joy to the zeal and self denial manifested by the members in the maintenance of the gospel ordinances. Their hearty co-operation makes the work pleasant for the Missionary."

Kelvin and New Durham. The reports, especially the one for April, from the Pastor of these Mission Churches, the Rev. John Armour, are most encouraging. The field is somewhat large, yet so fully occupied by other denominations, that there is no lack of preaching. Indeed there seems to be an oversupply of meetings, and yet though many attend the means of grace, more than half the population are unconnected with any Church. The Congregations connected with our body have been on the increase during the year, and "sometimes very solemn and melting seasons have been enjoyed, seasons when the Lord's presence was felt, with that holy awe which compels the worshipper to look on the place as sacred." About the beginning of February, nightly meetings were commenced and were kept up for seven weeks. The Church was greatly refreshed. Several were awakened and led to weep in secret places; and five have united with the Church as the result under God of this effort. A Bible class composed of upwards of fifty young men and women has been formed for some time.

Kincardine and Bruce. This mission station is still occupied by the Rev. Neil McKinnon, who labours with much self denial among a poor but attached people. The Church has suffered much from the failure of the crops and from the general commercial distress which has been peculiarly felt in the surrounding region. It has however been inwardly peaceful, and the Pastor although longing for larger measures of divine influence, has reason to hope that his work has not been in vain. Our brother preaches in Gaelic. The attendance has been generally good, and attention marks the hearing of the word.

Listowell, (Wallace). The Rev. Robert McGregor has charge of two mission Churches, Listowell and Molesworth, and preaches at four stations. The field is large, but with the aid of two of his deacons, who render valuable assistance, it is efficiently wrought. "The machinery is in good order for work, for the people are willing, and put forth earnest efforts." Lately the Church at Listowell has had to remove five members for error of doctrine and conduct; but a very refreshing season has been enjoyed at Molesworth and fifteen members have been added during the last six months. The meetings are all well attended and there is good reason to believe that the word is preached with success. Sabbath Schools are kept at all the stations. Our brother does the work of an Evangelist as well as Pastor, and has visited the adjoining Townships, in one of which, he hopes soon to form a new sister Church. A student has been applied for to labour at this point, and Student Lewis will probably occupy the station during his vacation.

Port Colborne. In last annual report the opening of this station was intimated. We regret that the prospects which encouraged the Committee to send the Rev. George Ritchie to occupy the field have been darkened, and that for the present, circumstances demand the removal of the missionary and consequently the relinquishment of the field. We cannot but hope that the preaching of the truth as it is in Jesus, will leave impressions deep and sacred, and although the labours of the missionary have not been followed by the establishment of a Congregational Church, if souls have been brought to the Redeemer, the funds of the Society have not been wrongly or vainly employed.

Sarnia. The Rev. Robert G. Baird continues Pastor of the Sarnia Church. Although many have removed to other places the Congregations keep good. Several have been added to the Church during the year, and the Pastor labours hopefully in a field which however important now, will become increasingly so. An efficient Sabbath School is maintained by the Church, and an addition has been made to its Library during the year.

Southwold. For several years the Rev. William Burgess has been Pastor of the Church of Southwold, but in consequence of the want of adequate support he has had to relinquish his post. In December 1859, he reported the Congregations as on the whole good. A new Bible class had been commenced with encouraging prospects, one member was about to be added to the Church, yet the religious condition of the stations was rather low and few were found giving themselves to Christ.

As this Church is now vacant, may it be kept by the grace of our divine master from indifference and coldness, and soon provided with another pastor.

Stratford. This Church was left vacant by the removal of the Rev. S. Snider, and was reported last year as without a Pastor. The Rev. R. Robinson having received an invitation from the Church, accepted it, and entered on his work on the 15th October 1859. The Congregations have considerably increased and several members have been added to the Church, since the present pastor commenced his labours. The cause is decidedly improved and fresh life is very evident in every department. Our brother remarks in his report for May, "the brethren seem encouraged and active, and I myself, am hopeful respecting this cause." Prayer meetings, Bible class and Sabbath School with an outstation at Downie, besides the services at Stratford are attended to by the Pastor.

Warwick. The Rev. D. McCallum continues to occupy this field. There are three stations, Warwick, Watford and Plympton. The Church during the year has had to exercise its disciplinary authority. There is, we fear, room for increased spirituality, and greater union of effort. Although the effects of the "hard times" are still felt, contributions to the cause of God, will exceed those of last year. The Pastor writes "our prayer is that the dews and showers which are refreshing other localities may visit us, and cause that reviving among us which we so much need." May the increase of surrounding denominational effort and zeal prompt our brethren on this field to hearty union among themselves, and to earnest work for the Lord Jesus Christ.

MIDDLE DISTRICT.

The Local Committee has efficiently attended to this District during the year, and its active Secretary, the Rev. J. T. Byrne, has devoted much time and thought to its interests. Pine Grove has been received, as a new field, on our missionary list; while Trafalgar and Oakville have been placed under the pastoral care of the Rev. H. Denny, and also appear for the first time among our mission churches. We regret that the churches in Oro and the church at Newmarket are without Pastors; the latter, however, is kindly supplied for the present by the Rev. T. Baker, its former pastor.

Albion.—This station gives signs of spiritual health; and its pastor, the Rev. Joseph Wheeler, labours on, encouraged and hopeful. The congregations are on the whole increasing, the church united, and the Sabbath School flourishing. No special work of grace has taken place during the year, but earnest prayer is offered that the Lord will again manifest his power. Having enjoyed a time of great refreshing a year or two ago, the church longs to witness afresh the return of such a season. A new chapel is in course of erection at one of the stations. The pastor has felt the "hard times" somewhat, yet lives in hope of a good time coming.

Bowmanville.—The pastor of this church, the Rev. Thomas M. Reikie, continues to serve the general interests of Congregationalism by editing "the Canadian Independent." His reports concerning his missionary labours are hopeful. The church during the year has received six additions to its membership—five of them by profession. The Sabbath congregations are encouraging. A commendable spirit of liberality, and of interest in the cause of Christ, has been evinced. The contributions for the missionary cause are a little in advance of last year; a good library has been purchased for the Sabbath School; and the house of worship has recently been painted, papered, &c., and is much improved in comfort and appearance. Much interest has been felt during the last four months by the church in union meetings for prayer, attended by five denominations. "In pastoral and private visitation of the sick, there have been cases of persons connected with other bodies who have expressed gratitude for efforts made to win their souls, and who left this world cherishing the hope of eternal life."

Brock and Mariposa.—This church evinces no small measure of prayerfulness, of liberality and of earnestness, and retains its pastor, the Rev. Dugald McGregor. It is generally found, as in this case, that a working church highly esteems its minister, and is mindful of his temporal interests.

The congregations are reported large and attentive, the church united and prayerful; additions have been made to the membership, and well nigh $1,000 have been raised during the year. One of the chapels announced in last annual report as in course of erection has been completed, and the other would have been so but for the failure of the contractor to fulfil his engagement. The pastor writes in his last report: "My people have faithfully fulfilled their part towards my support. I hope the time is not far off when we shall cease to ask your aid, and realize the truth that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Were our chapels nearly paid for we should become self-sustaining."

Caledon (Alton).—Matters are reported in connection with this mission church, by its pastor the Rev. Edward A. Noble, as much the same as they were last year. He regards the words "rejoicing in hope," as expressive of his feelings in the review of his field. The attendance on the public means of grace retains its former encouragements to continued effort. The Sabbath School and Bible-class are hopeful. "The prayer-meetings, though attended with some irregularity, are refreshings by the way"; and fellowship-meetings were for a time maintained, and greatly contributed to the spiritual advantage of those who attended them. "Old Hard Times," writes our brother, "has not yet wholly relaxed his grip upon us, but we hope that the summer's sun will so warm his heart, and mother Earth so lavishly fill his bosom with her fruits, that ere another winter he will ease his grasp and wear a more benignant mien."

Caledon (South).—In last annual report the church in Caledon South stood by itself, and the Rev. H. Denny was its pastor. The General Committee, at its meeting in Toronto, requested the Local Committee to secure, if possible, some amicable arrangement by which it might be placed under the pastorate of one of the missionaries whose field would admit of such enlargement, and thereby save a labourer for another station, and some amount of missionary funds. The Local Committee was successful in their efforts, and the church was placed under the charge of the Rev. John McLean; and the Rev. H. Denny assumed the pastorate of the church at Trafalgar. The church will, therefore, be reported in connection with the Hillsburgh station; and the report of its former pastor will appear in connection with Trafalgar.

Colpoy's Bay.—A small church was formed in 1858 among the English settlers at Colpoy's Bay by the Rev. L. Kribs. The settlement was one of considerable interest; and although it has not increased in population, as was at first expected, there is a fair prospect of its ultimate permanent advance. The committee, on application by the church, voted a small sum to secure the preaching of the gospel and pastoral oversight; and the reports from the pastor, the Rev. L. Kribs, indicate on his part the possession of an earnest missionary spirit, and the prospect of an enlarged sphere of usefulness. Two promising members, one of them a brother of the respected pastor, were drowned in the bay about the close of 1859; and their removal under such painful circumstances cast a gloom over the settlement, and has weakened the infant church.

Hillsburgh, and South Caledon.—There are three churches, under the pastorate of the Rev. John McLean,—Hillsburgh, South Caledon, and the Gaelic church (formerly South Erin, now South Caledon). The English church at South Caledon was placed under the care of Mr. McLean in September 1859, and the Gaelic church was only formed on the 20th May of the same year. Nothing of special interest is reported by the pastor. He labours on in hope, not without trial, nor without encouragement. Concerning the Gaelic congregation, he writes: "I may say that everything is going on very encouragingly among them. The congregation is good; and it is pleasing to find not only the members themselves attending so regularly, but bringing their families with them."

Newmarket.—The Rev. Joseph Hooper, who accepted the pastorate of this church on his arrival from England in 1858, continued his charge until the beginning of the present year, when on receiving an invitation from the church in Owen Sound, he removed to the latter place. From the report of his labours at Newmarket, received in January, it would appear that some removals had taken place by which the membership was reduced, and certain remarks were made by our brother which indicated that a change was at hand. We trust that ere long another pastor will be raised up for this important field.

Oro and Innisfil.—This field has been occupied by the Rev. A. Raymond for nearly twenty years. As stated in last report, our brother was induced to remove his residence to Bell Ewart, formerly one of his out-stations. The field was too large for one laborer; and Mr. Sanderson, one of the students, at the instance of pastor and people, was sent to spend his vacation with the churches in Oro. Mr. Sanderson "was universally liked as a preacher and respected as a man. His success in drawing out congregations was far beyond the hopes of the most sanguine." During the summer the pastor visited the churches in Oro to administer the ordinances; and after the return of the student to his studies, resumed his labours, preaching twice in two weeks, as formerly, until the 1st of January 1860, when his pastoral relation to those churches terminated. "Some ten or twelve were added to their membership during the summer and autumn as the result of religious awakening which commenced nearly two years since, from which some eight or ten persons, as fruit, had been previously gathered."

Mr. Raymond preaches at Bell Ewart every Sabbath evening and every alternate Sabbath morning, and at Lefroy the other alternate Sabbath morning. The Congregations continue on the whole very good, but the membership has not increased. A prayer meeting and Sabbath School are sustained with considerable interest.

Owen Sound. The Rev. James Hay, having been obliged through the failure of his health to leave this Church in June, it continued without supply until the beginning of March last when the Rev. J. Hooper, formerly of Newmarket, having received and accepted a call to the pastorate, entered on his work. On the 30th of April he reports that the Church, though very small, seems peaceful, united and industrious. The Sabbath School is rapidly growing, and the Congregation for its size is remarkably liberal. "During the last four weeks," he says, "special meetings for prayer have been held nightly. God has been with us of a truth, Christians have felt greatly refreshed. Several persons are deeply exercised on account of their sins, and four profess to be now hoping in the Saviour."

In a letter, more recently received from one of the deacons, we have the following additional information, as the result of special services. "Three have joined the Church, three more stand proposed, and there are at least three others giving evidence of a change of heart, whom we hope soon to receive."

Pine Grove and St. Andrews. At the close of the Institute 1859, Mr. Robert Hay, who had just completed his course of studies, received and accepted a call from the Pine Grove Church to become its Pastor. Application having been made by two friends at St. Andrews for a grant from the Society, the General Committee in June voted the sum required.

Our brother reports favorably in reference to his charge. The Congregations are good and increasing. Evidence of the Spirit's presence has been furnished in their meetings for prayer. The Sabbath Schools are prosperous and a bible class has been hopefully commenced. Additions have been made to the Church at Pine Grove, and a Church has been formed at St. Andrews, which although still small has the prospect of increase.

Stouffville. The Rev. J. Durrant, who has sustained the Pastoral relation to this Church for upwards of eight years, has formally tendered his resignation, and will close his labours at this station, on the first Sabbath in July. Nothing of special interest is reported by the Pastor, as to the condition of the Church and Congregation. We heartily unite with our brother in the prayer "that the Lord of the harvest would send to the little cause, long the centre of my efforts and affection, a Pastor after his own heart who shall be honoured to gather the now scattered flock: and while uniting them in the bonds of a renewed and reconsecrated Christian fellowship, shall be also blessed in gathering into the fold, many to whose minds the truth has been long addressed." May the removal of their Pastor lead the members of the Church to solemn self-examination and may the God of Peace grant them to be like minded and to seek not their own but the things of Jesus Christ.

Trafalgar and Oakville. The arrangement referred to, in the report for South Caledon enabled the Rev. H. Denny to accept of a call from the Trafalgar Church to become its Pastor. The Church at Trafalgar was originally organised by our brother, but subsequently became united with Georgetown, Churchill and Stewarttown under the pastorate of the Rev. J. Unsworth. On the recent allocation of the field the Local Committee recommended that in consequence of the necessary relinquishment of Trafalgar by its former Pastor, in connection with Oakville it should be occupied by Mr. Denny. This recommendation was accepted by the parties concerned, and was carried out in October. Subsequently another station has been opened by our missionary with encouraging success. The Congregations have been increasingly good, and additions have been made to the Church.

Whitby. The Rev. J. T. Byrne remains in the pastorate of this Church. His reports are on the whole encouraging. Two new stations have been opened during the year and wrought with considerable success. The Congregation at the central station continues much the same and the Church has received no augmentation. Our brother has enjoyed many expressions of affectionate respect, not only from those who may be regarded as under his pastoral care, but from others. Besides efficiently discharging the duties of Secretary of the Local District, his labours are abundant in connection with the Literary and Benevolent Societies of his town.

EASTERN DISTRICT.

The stations in this District are fewer in number and more apart than in any of the others, they have however been well visited by missionary deputations, it is hoped with some measure of success. An important addition has been made to the list of mission Churches during the year, by the formation of a Church in the city of Ottawa. Brockville still remains without supply.

Belleville. Since last report the cause at Belleville has on the whole improved. Financially, the loss by death of a liberal contributor has somewhat thrown it back; but on the other hand the spiritual condition of the Church has considerably improved. A quiet but most encouraging work of grace has been experienced. "Twenty nine persons" according to a report received from the Pastor, the Rev. J. Climie, under date 7th June, "have professed to have found peace by looking unto Jesus, and quite a number more are enquiring the way." Ten members have been added to the Church since the commencement of the work, and a few more are expected soon to seek fellowship with the Church.

The Church is in the enjoyment of perfect peace, and the Pastor is very hopeful that a good cause will yet be established in Belleville.

The mission station on the Plains is especially interesting, and efforts are now being put forth to erect a union place of worship on a site generously granted by D. D. Bogart, Esq. Our body is to have permanently the prior right to its occupancy.

Cobourg and Port Hope. The Rev. A. Burpee retains the pastoral charge of these two Churches. Although he has a good deal to encourage him, the want of increase to the Congregations is a severe trial to his faith and patience. Several persons have removed to other sections of the country, and their places have not yet been filled up by others. The brethren belonging to both Churches are hopeful that prayer will yet be graciously heard on their behalf, and a time of refreshing granted from the presence of the Lord.

In Cobourg, a prayer meeting is held on Sabbath morning before public service and one in the evening after it. The attendance at Port Hope has on the whole improved, the Sabbath School gives evidence of increasing vigor, the weekly prayer meeting is regarded with affection by all who attend it, and there is evidence that the word is not preached without feeling on the part of the hearers.

Cold Springs. This Church still enjoys the pastorate of our much esteemed missionary, the Rev. W. Hayden. Advancing years, honourably spent in earnest and self-denying labour in England and in this Country are now accompanied with some degree of bodily weakness, yet our missionary toils on in the midst of an affectionate people, cherishing the belief that his labours are not in vain in the Lord.

Lanark 1st Church. This Church has suffered very severely by removals westward. Indeed, had it not been for this source of weakness, before this time, it would have been off our list and numbered among Churches self-sustaining. From the report of the Pastor, the Rev. Robert K. Black, for January, we find that during the period which it embraces "a work of consolidation had been done, although there had been little if any numerical increase. At Middleville the Congregation is as large as formerly, and at Rosetta, which had suffered most by emigration a few years ago, it is now about as large as formerly. The preaching of the word is listened to with marked attention. The three Sabbath Schools are well sustained and the prayer meetings are on the whole very well attended. Yet the pastor mourns over the want of spiritual fruit, and longs to be able to report that his Church is again filled with the Spirit, and that souls are converted in their midst. May the consciousness of spiritual leanness beginning to manifest itself in the Church lead to a still deeper earnestness in the cry for another outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Lanark Village. The Rev. Philip Shanks retains the pastorate of this Church. The Congregations continue encouraging and the contributions to the Missionary Society and Theological Institute are this year considerably increased. With a good deal of encouragement, both Pastor and Church have to contend with trials and discouragements. Discipline has been necessary to preserve the purity of the Church and both directly and indirectly intemperance has much hindered and injured the work of the ministry. As in most of our Churches, so in this, the external instrumentality is to a great extent in efficient operation, but the Spirit of the Living God is needed to give power and demonstration. We have the truth, we require the Spirit; we possess the form, the life is wanted.

Ottawa City. At the suggestion of the English Committee, Ottawa as the future seat of Government was brought before our General Committee in June 1859, for special consideration as a probable mission station. After mature consideration it was resolved to send a missionary with a view to the commencement of a Congregational interest in this city, and our committee unanimously regarding the Rev. Joseph Elliot as well qualified for the work, cordially invited him to undertake the mission. To the invitation thus extended Mr. Elliott, not without reluctance to leave his people at Hawkesbury, yet regarding the call as providential, heartily responded.

On the 17th July, 1859, he entered on his work. The Temperance Hall was secured at a reasonable rent, and the few Congregationalists in the city nobly rallied round him. Although at first the Sabbath Congregations were small, reaching only from 35 to 45 in the morning and from 50 to 70 in the evening, there were indications that the Head of the Church was present: and the prayer meetings on Friday evenings were often very interesting. In September a Sabbath School, with some excellent Teachers was formed, at the same date, a bible class numbering in December, 18 members, conducted by the Pastor, was also organised.

On the 10th March, 1860, a Church was formed, consisting of twenty-two members, and since that date there has been a slight addition.

This movement, has thus far, been as satisfactory in its results as could possibly in the circumstances be expected. It is of great importance that our principles should have expression in the political centre of the country, and that a spiritual home should be provided for persons of our faith who may be attracted to the seat of Government; but the geographical position of the city, of itself makes Ottawa an important centre for missionary operations, and fully justifies the attempt there now made, to establish, what, as a denomination we believe to be, a Church framed after the New Testament model.

LOWER CANADA DISTRICT.

This District includes not only all our mission stations in Canada East, but three in Western Canada have for convenience been placed within it. It was thought desirable in June last, that the Committee of the District, should be divided into two sections, each having its Secretary, the sanction of both sections being necessary in making interim grants. The plan has contributed somewhat to the efficiency of the Committee. Franklin, Hawkesbury and Indian Lands have to be reported without Pastors. Two new laborers have been introduced. Rev. J. T. Pattison to assist Rev. A. McDonald at Stanstead, and the Rev. C. Pearl as a missionary in Hatley and Compton.

The Churches were during the winter visited by missionary deputations, and the public meetings in this District as in the others, were more than usually interesting this year.

Cowansville and Brome. The Rev. A. Duff who still continues to labour in this region, in both his reports writes somewhat hopefully. His numerous appointments are fulfilled with regularity, and the Congregations at the several stations are encouraging. Some alterations in his preaching appointments have been made which it is believed will increase his usefulness. The field is too extensive for one man, and yet at present, we are not able to send a second missionary.

While Mr. Duff's faith has been tried in his work, he has also had many delightful encouragements, and the substantial expressions of attachment which he has received from his people reflect honour both on the donors and the recipient.

Danville and Little Warwick. The Pastor of these Churches, the oldest settled pastor in Canada, and the first missionary in this region, the Rev. A. J. Parker, thus opens his report: "during the period over which my report extends, no events in connection with the Congregations of marked interest have occurred. We have pursued the even tenor of our course with a degree of comfort, but with less success than in some seasons past. We have not to record painful cases of defection; nor can we tell of many additions." Although the mission Church at Little Warwick is very feeble the pastor is assured that there is evidence that labour in the Lord has not been in vain.

Four members have been added to these Churches during the year; but two have been dismissed to other Churches.

Eaton. We have little to report from this station. The Pastor, the Rev. E. J. Sherrill, continues his faithful and acceptable labours among his people, not without tokens of good; yet both he and they, feel that they have reason to present the supplication with increasing earnestness, "O Lord, revive thy work."

With commendable zeal the people are remodelling and painting the house of worship. The Temperance cause is revived and a new impulse is given to the work.

Fitch Bay. The Rev. L. P. Adams reports favourably in regard to his field of labour. The infant Church shews considerable rable signs of earnest life, prayer meetings are sustained, the attendance on the means of grace encouraging, and although the people are poor, they contribute somewhat liberally to the support of their pastor.

There are four places at which preaching is maintained on Sabbath besides occasional appointments in other places. The Congregations on Sabbath are attentive, often interesting and solemn Franklin, formerly Russeltown. This station is again without a pastor. Efforts have been made to secure one, but hitherto without success. We deply regret that the influence of its recent Pastor has by no means strengthened the Church. May God soon raise up a faithful and devoted missionary for this station.

Hawkesbury, C. W., still remains without a Pastor and has received no missionary aid during the year.

Indian Lands, C. W. The return of the Rev. J. Campbell to his charge, in January 1859, gave the committee hope, that this Church would not suffer itself soon again to be deprived of the ordinances of the Gospel. The first report from the Pastor for this year, was on the whole favourable. The Congregations were reported large and attentive, and a new station had been opened under promising circumstances. The second report announced Mr. Campbell's resignation. Had the Church exhibited a little more activity and the Pastor a little more patience, we would not, we believe, have had this result to report.

Martintown and Roxborough. The Rev. John McKillican, Pastor of the Church at Martintown, is much encouraged in his work. In one of his reports he says "I am thankful that matters connected with the Church are in a no less hopeful state than at any former period of my whole ministry." The Church is united and affectionate, the Congregations increasing, the word is listened to with evident attention, and it is the belief of the Pastor "that the seed of the word is finding a prepared soil in hearts, where the fruits shall yet be seen to the glory of God."

Melbourne and Windsor.—The Church at this place was supplied by Student Strassenburgh during his vacation, whose report will be found elsewhere. In Nov. 1859 the Rev. Samuel T. Gibbs accepted an invitation to labour for some months with a view to a settlement. During his stay, good was evidently done. The Congregations were hopeful as to attendance, and the attention was encouraging. On the first July 1860, he was called elsewhere, and the Church is now vacant.

Quebec.—This station is important from its missionary character, as well as from the existence of its church organization. Many persons coming to the country remain for a time in the city, although they subsequently remove westward. This fact accounts for the long continuance of the church on our funds. Few remain permanently.

During the past year, the congregations have been somewhat increased by the temporary removal of the Government to the city; yet others have been lost by death and emigration, who have been useful members of the church and congregation.

The Rev. H. D. Powis still continues pastor of the church; and seems, by his reports, encouraged in his work. The church is reported "peaceful and united." The congregations manifest much interest in the preaching of the word, and the Sabbath School goes on as usual. In money matters, the remaining debt on the Place of Worship is considerably felt, and the depression in the ship-building interest which has existed for the last two years not a little increases the pressure.

St. Andrews, C. E.—Although this field of labour is not large, it is wrought with great zeal and efficiency by our missionary the Rev. A. Sim, M.A. Since last report he has been much encouraged by a gracious work, which originated in his interesting bible-class, and spread through the young people of the village. Several of those who were led to the truth as it is in Jesus at that season, have subsequently united with the church, and other denominations have also received additions from the same movement.

Besides preaching three times on the Sabbath, other services are maintained during the week. The Sabbath School is in a somewhat prosperous condition. Although "hard times" have prevented an increase in contributions for the various objects to which the church contributes; it is believed they will not be found less than in former years.

Stanstead Plain.—In our last annual Report, it was our privilege to record an extensive work of grace which took place at this station under the ministry of the Rev. A. Macdonald, pastor of the church. It gives us much pleasure to be able to present evidence that this work was real and in its results highly important in its bearing on the extension of our missionary enterprise. So much was the church strengthened that in January 1860 it was able to support its pastor without further missionary aid, while another labourer was called to occupy the rear part of the field. One of the students spent his vacation on this section, and in June following the Rev. J. T. Pattison succeeded him and has since continued on the field.

For the half year over which Mr. Macdonald's report extends we are able to state:—That the meetings on Sabbath kept up and were slowly on the increase. Although no conversions were reported, yet the pastor was cheered by cases of deep impression, and by the progress of the brethren in spiritual matters. This field, now independent of missionary assistance, will not again appear on our report; and as a Society, in parting with the church on Stanstead Plain, under the circumstances, we thank God, and pray that their prosperity may abound.

Stanstead, Beebe Plain.—This is the section above referred to, as occupied by a Student during his vacation, and subsequently, and still, by the Rev. J. T. Pattison. Mr. Pattison has faithfully devoted himself to the preaching of the word and visitation of the people since his removal to this field; and although he finds the people painfully divided by the existence of different isms all struggling for support, and is somewhat doubtful as to the ability of our people to sustain the movement; has reason to believe that his labours have been appreciated and blessed. He reports:—

“The attendance on preaching has been considered good; my visits have everywhere been received with pleasure, and I have known them to be attended with benefit.”

Waterville and Massawippi.—The Local Committee have had these places under their consideration as missionary ground for the last two years, and were authorized by the General Committee to grant a certain sum for the support of a missionary, should a suitable one be found. During last winter the Rev. J. Armour, at the request of the Local Committee, visited the station; but, after spending three Sabbaths, declined remaining on the field. Subsequently the Rev. Cyril Pearl, formerly of Maine, U. S., was induced to spend a few Sabbaths with the people, and his visit has resulted in the opening of the stations under circumstances of considerable promise. His congregations at both stations are increasingly good; the people seem to be interested in his work, and contribute liberally for his support. As in other parts of the Eastern Townships, the want of agreement in religious sentiments presents a grand difficulty in the way of missionary labour; yet, at the same time, urgently demands it. The people have already decided on erecting a place of worship at Massawippi; and another is in contemplation at Waterville. Altogether this effort has been most successful.

NOVA SCOTIA AND NEW BRUNSWICK DISTRICT.

The Society is, as yet, only feeling its way in these Sister Provinces. Congregational Churches have existed in both of them for more than a century, and they are a most fitting field for our special efforts; but from various causes, which need not now be explained, most of the churches were destitute of pastors, and previous efforts had failed from mismanagement. Circumstances, as they were found existing when this Society entered upon these provinces as a field, compelled an organization into one District. This is, of course, cumbrous and incomplete, as because of distance from each other the Local Committee can seldom meet. Hence the indefatigable Secretary, Rev. Robert Wilson, has had many difficulties to contend with in bringing the organization into working order. It is matter for grateful rejoicing that so much has been done during our brief connection. As the number of pastors increases and the churches are in a state of efficiency, it will be practicable to divide the District into two or more parts, thus securing greater local interest and effort. In addition to what is reported below, it may be mentioned, though belonging more properly to next year's transactions, that the churches at Yarmouth and Chabogue have secured the services of the Rev. George Ritchie, one of our Canadian Ministers.

Cape Canso and Manchester, N. S.—In June 1859, the Rev. S. Snider accepted an appointment to this mission, and immediately removed from Canada thither. His reports indicate a large amount of physical and mental toil. Cape Canso, Crow Harbour, Glasgow Harbour, Halfway Cove, Manchester, Clam Harbour, and Greenbush have been visited, and at each stations formed. Congregationalism in this whole region has been brought to a very low ebb, and our missionary in the discharge of his work has had to contend with very great difficulties. The state of religion is most discouraging; and while the spiritual condition of the country calls loudly for a scriptural faith and a New Testament church polity, it presents a sad picture, with only a few encouraging features.

The congregations at some of the stations are good; the preaching of the word is listened to with attention; and the missionary is everywhere received with kindness. Some idea of the work done by Mr. Snider may be formed from the statement that he has had sixteen services every four weeks since the 15th July 1859; and that, during the first six months of his missionary labours in Nova Scotia, to reach his appointments, he travelled on foot 500 miles, sailed 90, and rode on horseback 30.

Florenceville, N. B.—Mr. Robert Brown, one of the students from the Institute, spent his vacation at this interesting station. A statement of his labour will be found hereafter in its proper place.

Keswick Ridge, and Cardigan, N. B.—The Rev. George Stirling retains his pastorate of the church at Keswick Ridge, and continues his missionary visits to Cardigan. He writes encouragingly of his labours, and is hopeful that the work of the Lord is prospering. At both stations the congregations are good; several of the young people seem to be under religious impression, and are attached to our principles. The need of a spiritual quickening is however deeply felt.

Liverpool, N. S.—Although this station is able to do without missionary aid, as it appeared in last report, we may mention, that the Rev. J. Howell, lately of Guelph, C. W., has accepted an appointment, and has gone thither with his family.

Milton, N. S.—The settlement, over this church, of the Rev. H. Lancashire, noticed in our last report, which was so full of promise, was soon overcast by his serious illness. Before the close of the current year, from want of health, he was compelled to leave his charge, and the church was again left without a pastor. We are glad, however, to be able to state that the Rev. George A. Rawson, on the completion of his studies at the Theological Institute, accepted an appointment to visit Milton with a view to settlement; and that, after having spent several weeks with the people, he has received a unanimous call to the pastorate, which he is likely to accept.

STUDENTS.

Although in previous years the Committee occasionally made a grant to assist a student during his vacation to devote himself to the preaching of the word and missionary labour, no systematic effort was attempted till this year, to make full use of the young brethren preparing for the ministry at the Theological Institute, during their recess. For many reasons it seemed desirable that some plan should be adopted by which they might be employed in missionary service. Besides furnishing suitable employment for the young men, the hope was confidently cherished that engagement in the actual work as temporary missionaries would form an important element in their education for the pastoral office or for evangelistic labour. Vacant pulpits might thus be supplied for a time, and new fields might be opened. Accordingly the Committee sanctioned an arrangement by which the students were to be employed, and at the close of the session of 1859, eight young brethren were on the mission field.

We now present an account of their labours in the respective fields which they occupied, following the order in which their names stand on the Institute roll, and supplying the information from reports which they furnished at the close of their work:—

Mr. J. V. Bryning.—The church at Trafalgar having applied for a student, Mr. Bryning was appointed in compliance with the application. For five months he preached with acceptance, every Sabbath morning at Trafalgar, and once every two weeks at Hammondville. During the first two months he also preached every Sabbath afternoon at Oakville: this service was, however, discontinued, chiefly from want of a house where public worship could be maintained. The attendance on the Sabbath services at the above stations was encouraging, and the prayer-meeting held during the week and a Bible-class were also encouraging. These stations, as will be seen in a former part of the report, were subsequently supplied by the Rev. H. Denney, who still occupies them.

Mr. George A. Rawson.—At the urgent request of the Rev. A. Macdonald, Mr. Rawson was sent to assist him in his extended field at Stanstead. On commencing his labours he found satisfactory evidence of the reality of the work of grace which had existed in this locality. He writes: "I found a deeply earnest spirit pervading those who had been thus blest; and was led to hope, from the good attention paid by the congregations to the truths declared from the pulpit, that the Holy Spirit was still working powerfully among them, and that not a few were inquiring the way to Zion. I trust these hopes may still be realized." He adds: "I must not forget mentioning the kindness shewn me by many of my charge, nor the cheer they gave to encourage me in my work. May the Lord reward them abundantly."

Mr. Robert Brown. Our young brother was stationed at Florenceville, New Brunswick, during his vacation. This flourishing little village is situated on the western bank of the River St. John about 84 miles above the city of Fredericton, the seat of Government. As yet no Congregational Church has been formed in the Village, but a neat little place of worship has been erected by our friends, and the visit of our brother has revived the hopes of those attached to our principles; and the wish is now somewhat strongly felt, that a Church be formed, and a regular minister obtained.

Mr. Brown during his visit, preached every Sabbath morning in Florenceville, to a Congregation of about one hundred people; and in the afternoon chiefly at Greenfield, a settlement about four miles distant. Here in a private dwelling he has had as many as ninety of a Congregation. He also held an occasional service at Wicklow and at Wakefield Corners. We have explicit testimony in reference to the efficiency of Mr. Brown's services in this field. His feelings towards the people is expressed in the following sentence, "Go where I may, I ask no more kindness than I received from the people of New Brunswick."

Mr. John Brown. Mr. Brown was appointed to Liverpool and Brooklyn, Nova Scotia. Brooklyn is a small village on the opposite side of the harbour from Liverpool and about two miles eastward. In the former place there is a neat commodious place of worship in which Mr. Brown preached regularly on Sabbath morning, in the afternoon he preached in Liverpool in "Old Zion," a rather antiquated building which has been erected for about one hundred years. "The Congregational Church," he informs us, "may be said to be here, the established Church; for with few exceptions the people are all favourable to our principles." The number of hearers attending his preaching, at both stations, was very gratifying; and there is reason to believe, that as his visit was acceptable to the people, so it will be made subservient to the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom. Mr. Brown bears cheerful testimony to the kindness, which he experienced at the hands of those, to whom he ministered the Truth.

Mr. George Strassenburgh. The Church at Melbourne, C. E., being without a Pastor, applied for one of the students and Mr. Strassenburgh accepted an appointment to this field of labor for the vacation. His services were highly prized by the people and he had many tokens of their affectionate regard for him.

He occupied three regular preaching stations viz: Melbourne, Windsor and Durham. Besides prayer meetings during the week he took charge of an interesting Bible class which he had established in Melbourne. "I have labored," he reports, "with considerable pleasure; have endeavoured to preach the Gospel from the love of it, and to secure the glory of God in the salvation of souls. What success has attended my efforts in these respects I am not prepared to say. I hope they will not be altogether fruitless. My preaching, however, has been received with a considerable degree of seeming satisfaction."

The Rev. Mr. Gibbs subsequently became stated supply of the Melbourne Church.

Mr. B. W. Day. On invitation of the Church at Stratford Mr. Day went to supply the pulpit during his vacation, and continued his labours until the visit of the Rev. R. Robinson, who shortly afterwards accepted a call to the pastorate. He commenced his service on the first Sabbath in May and closed it on the first Sabbath in August, a period of about three months. The distracted state of the Church made his work arduous and in many respects painful; but his affectionate and prudent conduct was of good service to the cause. "As it regards myself," he writes "although meeting with many discouragements, still I think I can say the Saviour was present with me, and strengthened me. I have no conversions to report, or an increase of interest in religious matters to set before you, but can indeed say that the work has been profitable to me in many respects, having learned much which I humbly hope will be of use in after life."

Mr. John Sanderson. The Churches in Oro wishing more frequent preaching than their Pastor, from his extensive field, could supply, applied for one of the students and Mr. Sanderson was accordingly sent. The Congregations gradually increased under his earnest ministry of the word, until the places of worship were filled. Although he reports no individual cases of conversion, the interest manifested by the people in religious services and the deep impression which the truth evidently made on the minds of many afford good reason to believe that his labours were not in vain.

During his last session in the Institute, he has continued to visit the field as often as his studies would permit.

Mr. Charles Duff. The field occupied by Mr. Duff was new ground for the Society. A few friends in Meaford, anxious to have an attempt made to test the possibility of establishing a Congregational interest in their midst, and at the same time to have for a season at least, additional missionary effort in their locality, applied for a student. Mr. Duff accepted an appointment to spend his vacation with them. His report is very encouraging. After five months of labour, the hopes of the people were strengthened and the expectation which he expressed on leaving the field, that a Church might be formed has been subsequently realised. During his visit he preached three times every two Sabbaths in Meaford and once every alternate Sabbath in a little village ten miles distant. The attendance at both places was good, some attending who had not been in the habit of going to any place of worship "and the attention which the people gave to the word of God made it peculiarly easy and pleasant to preach to them."

In reference to the employment of the students, it is gratifying to be able to state, that the plan has been successful above our expectations, work has been done which otherwise could not have been attempted, and experience has been gained by our young brethren, which we doubt not, will be of service to them in years to come.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The receipts from the Western Districts this year bear the impress of that straitness and pressure to which allusion is made in the beginning of this Report. Those from the Eastern Districts have not been so affected. The following is a summary of contributions:—

Western District,	$759 27
Middle District,	703 98
Eastern District,	414 12
Lower Canada District,.....	905 48
Nova Scotia and New Brunswick District,	381 11
	$3163 96

While the expenditure has been $8977.77, and has therefore involved a large draft on the Treasury of the Colonial Missionary Society.

CONCLUSION.

It would be ungrateful not to recognise the steady progress which as a whole marks the operations of the Society for the current year now closed. God has been with us of a truth; and yet how much do our Churches need the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. May the earnest prayers which have so unitedly ascended from the hearts of the brotherhood for this blessing, be graciously heard, and ere another report is presented, may the Churches generally enjoy rich "times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord."
