LOVERS KEEP AGREEMENT TO END LIVES TOGETHER

William Wild and Veronica Meehan are Dying in Bellevue as Result of Suicide Fact--Parental Opposition to Marriage the Cause.

New York, July 14.—Sweethearts from childhood, Veronica Meehan, 18 years old, and William Wild, 22, he dying today in Bellevue Hospital, as the result of a suicide agreement. The girl, a pretty stenographer, was shot twice in the head by Wild, who then turned the revolver on himself. He fell unconscious, struggling to her feet, the girl reached Wild's side and with her handkerchief began to wipe the blood from his face when she, too, fell unconscious. A policeman, attracted by the shouts, summoned an ambulance in which the dying lovers were hurried to Bellevue Hospital, where they remained unconscious today. A letter found in Wild's pocket, addressed to Mrs. Meehan, told her that the two had decided to die together. Wild blamed the girl's mother in the letter for trying to part them, and said that they had tried to die twice before and that they had resolved that this, the third attempt would be successful. There was no signature to the letter, but a postscript reading "I was only insane like poor Harry Thaw."

INJURED ON I. C. R.; WILL LIKELY DIE

Wesley Hope of Steeves Mountain Very Seriously Hurt at Salisbury--St. John Man Arrested.

Moncton, N. B., July 14.—(Special)—Wesley Hope, a well-known farmer of Steeves Mountain, lies in a very critical state at Salisbury. Hope was working with a steam shovel crew, and Saturday while lifting a cable attached to the unloading plow and engine, he was caught between the cable and the car and hurt very badly. Small hopes are entertained for his recovery. Drs. Barnett, of Salisbury, and Dr. Jones, of St. John, are attending his injuries.

T. E. Kennedy, of this city, has received from Kingston, Ont., a handsome gold watch and medal, which is a gift from the citizens of Kingston as a token of his services on the military hockey team of that place last winter.

There is some talk of reorganizing the intermediate base ball league. Some of the promoters of former leagues have practically arranged for a three team league composed of the Y. M. C. A., Y. M. C. C. and Sunny Brae Orioles, and a meeting will be held Wednesday evening to discuss the project.

UNITED STATES CAPTURES TWO OF THE FIRST THREE EVENTS IN THE OLYMPICS

Flanagan of United States Wins the Hammer Throw, Melvin Sheppard of United States the 1500 Metre Run and Larner of England the 3500 Metre Walk--Canadian Athlete Gets One Third Place.

London, July 14.—The opening day of the Olympic contests concluded last evening with a brilliant reception by the Lord Mayor and Mayores which was attended by one thousand guests, including Lord Desborough and the majority of the members of the council and committee of the games, together with a large number of athletes. The Lord Mayor, wearing the robes and chain of office, received his guests at the entrance to the Egyptian Hall. It was one of the most cosmopolitan gatherings ever seen at Mansion House. The athletes evidently came to London unprepared for civic entertainments; some were in flannels and others wore the variegated combinations of every day dress. The Germans and Swedes, however, were in uniform.

Heavy showers which followed the fine weather of the beginning interfered with the last events of the morning meeting, including the third heat of the twenty kilometre bicycle race. In the first heat of this contest, Wienter, United States, and Young, Canada, alternately held the first two positions. Wienter won time 33 minutes and 39 seconds.

In the second section of the hammer throw, Nicholson, England, made 157 feet 4 inches; Hirtz, American, 154 feet 4 inches; Fyfe, England, 122 feet 4 inches. In the third section of the hammer throw, McGrath, American, threw 167 feet 11 inches, breaking the British record; Flanagan, American, threw 165 feet 2 inches; and Gills, American, 149 feet 6 inches.

Walsh, Canada, McGrath and Flanagan, United States, qualified for the final.

In the final Flanagan finished first, with a throw of 170 feet 4 inches, beating the Olympic record. McGrath was second, with a throw of 167 feet 11 inches, and Walsh, Canada, third, 159 feet 14 inches.

G. E. Larner of the United Kingdom team, easily won the first heat of the 3500 metre walk, in 15 minutes 32 seconds. H. E. Kerr, Australia, was second, and W. J. Kelly, England, third, in 14 min. 37 sec.

In this event she had three in each heat qualify for the final.

It is learned by the same messenger that two priests were drowned at Smith's Landing about 500 miles down the Athabasca river from here, while out in a boat. The bodies had not been recovered when the messenger left. The two priests were the father in charge of the mission, and a young priest who went there this summer.

HARD ON JAMIE

It was the custom for a certain cricket team to have a fixture with G. Asylum every summer. The Asylum team, which included some of the inmates, and one in particular who played with great vigor was a special favorite with the visitors. On this occasion, while the game team was playing with Jamie, the inmate in question, and he remarked: "I'm looking well, Jamie, since you saw you last year."

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

PROPERLY ANSWERED. PATRIOTIC CANADIAN.—You are entirely wrong in assuming, because St. John has contributed nothing toward the fund for the preservation of the national battlefield where Wolfe and Montcalm fell, that therefore we have been brought out of the old canon on Queen square. Have we not the Historical Society and Mr. Peter Bink's? If your extraordinary communication had been signed, the Times new reporter would feel disposed to hold you up to the well merited contempt of a people who die daily for their country. His advice to you would be to go and gaze upon the Champlain monument, walk in the Old Barracks, or lean pensively for an hour or two upon an old cannon. For, as the poet truly says: Breathes there a man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said I love my country and my king? And if you doubt it hear me sing: For none is cheap and none are hard And with our lungs our land we guard.

James Lowell, M. P. E., who has been fighting the flames during the past few days, went out to the burned district this morning, and finding that the fire was gaining headway, he went back to the village for more men to go out and help those who have been stationed along the Back Lands road to watch the fire. It is feared the fire will get beyond control if there is not a rainstorm very soon. There are some thirty men now engaged in fighting back the flames.

Fredericton, N. B., July 14.—(Special)—At a special meeting of the University Senate held in the Education Office this morning Dr. W. C. Kierstead, of Woodville, was appointed to the chair of philosophy and economics vacated by the resignation of Dr. Stewart MacDonald.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Ernest McNeill, the 11 year old son of Mrs. Elizabeth McNeill of 132 Duke street, met with a painful accident this morning at the Eastern S. S. Co.'s wharf. The young lad was sitting on the cap of the wharf watching the steamer Calvin Austin come in to her berth. His left hand was resting on the wharf, the fingers in a crevice between two heavy timbers and when the steamer came up to the wharf the two timbers were pressed together and his fingers caught and held fast. Although the pain was excruciating the little fellow bore up well until crewmen were brought and the fingers removed. He was then taken home where his hand was dressed.

PEARY'S SHIP AT SYDNEY

Sydney, N. S., July 14.—(Special)—The steamer Roosevelt is sighted off Low Point heading into Sydney harbor, and will reach International Pier this afternoon, where she will take aboard coal and supplies. She will likely sail within forty-eight hours.

WANTED TO JOIN PEARY.

The Times new reporter could hardly be restrained last night from joining the Peary expedition. He has always wanted to get up higher, and when he learned that the Roosevelt was provisioned for three years and would probably not receive a copy of a newspaper for that period, his companions had to remonstrate and prevent him from getting on board the Peary car.

CITY MAY BUILD GRAIN CONVEYOR AT NEW WHARVES

This and Other Matters Will be discussed by Harbor Facilities Committee Tomorrow.

A meeting of the harbor facilities committee will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, to discuss the matter of repairs at the Marsh Bridge, and the barges at Courtenay Bay, with a view to bringing the matter before the provincial government at their meeting in Fredericton, on Thursday evening next.

There will also be a discussion on the attitude to be assumed by the city with respect to the harbor commission bill, whether the city should ask parliament to put all the wharves in commission or allow the bill to go as at present proposed.

The question of erecting a grain conveyer on the D. C. Clark & Adams wharves will also be discussed.

The C. C. R. apparently does not intend to build a conveyer, claiming they have not sufficient power at the elevator according to a telegram received by the Mayor from Hon. Dr. Pugsley the cost is placed at $90,000. The proposal is that the city should build the structure and supply electric power.

 Cooney paused and shuttled. Great beads of perspiration poured down his face. Then he resumed once more.
 "Well, he was dead, and there was an end of it. Just for the moment I wasn't thinking about much besides my little happy home. I pocketed all the valuables I could lay my hands upon, and carried them away. You may say that that was a mad thing to do, but after I saw Mr. Delahay lying dead at my feet, it seemed to me as if he wasn't likely to miss 'em. Oh, I know as I stand in what the papers call a serious position, tell you any more. It seems to me I have said enough. And now, if you will call a cab, sir, I am ready for you."
 A cab was called, and Dallas drove off in the direction of Bow street and his prisoner. He stopped just a moment to exchange a few words with Lacey and Venables.
 "There is no reason why Mrs. Delahay should not know this just yet," Walter said. "You may be sure that she tells her position keenly. Would there be any objection to getting out at my place as far as Cannon Green to-night? You will understand why."
 "None at all," Dallas said.
 A message to the man who is watching outside the Grand Hotel, and let him know that his presence there is needed no longer. All the same, we had still to go to find the culprit. It isn't Cooney. He told us the truth, I'm certain. The culprit is at Cannon Green! What a fool I've been!"
 Mrs. Delahay received her visitors in a dull apathetic way, which had never before since the night of the tragedy. But her face cleared, and her manner became more soft and gentle as she listened to the story which Walter had to tell. She dropped into a chair, and for some moments the tears ran unrestrainedly down her cheeks. She wiped her eyes presently, there was something like a smile on her lips as she turned to Walter.
 "I believe those tears saved my reason," she said. "I have never been able to cry. I have not been able to feel the last few days. The death of my husband was suspected of his murder was worse, but the feeling that my own sister possibly had a hand in the tragedy was worse than all the rest. There are one or two matters to be explained yet, but the great truth is growing plain and I feel like a living being once more. Oh, yes; I will come down to Cannon Green with you; I am looking forward to it with something like pleasure. I know that when I have seen my sister everything will be cleared up."
 It was a different woman who came down from her room half an hour later, ready for the journey. She looked sad and pathetic enough in length to the house on the common. The windows were lighted up, the hall looked comfortable and cheery.
 In the drawing-room were the Countess Flavio and Vera. They rose as Mrs. Delahay entered.
 "I have brought your sister," Walter explained briefly. "She has much to say to you. Perhaps I had better leave you alone."
 CHAPTER XLV
 Count Flavio's Diary.
 It was getting exceedingly late now, but the two sisters Dosarti, together with Vera, were still in the drawing-room. Nobody cared to disturb them. It was felt that they would have much to say to one another. And no doubt, all they had to tell would be disclosed when the proper time came. Valdo had not recovered consciousness again. He lay there overhead, with a vigilant-eyed nurse watching him. Venables had not come down with Mrs. Delahay and Walter. He had

CREPE DE CHINE GOWN WITH CHENILLE BORDER. Very beautiful and artistic are these costumes of bordered crepe de chine and similar, clinging materials designed for semicircular occasions, such as informal house dinners and restaurant dining. Sometimes the border is in a contrasting darker shade than the material itself, and again it is in the same tone. The border is used in various ways, though the pictured arrangement is much the most attractive, both in skirt and bodice, in this instance developed with a guimpe of beautiful lace.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

HUNTLEY STOCK COMPANY
 "Hazel Kirk" will be the initial offering of the Huntley Stock Company which is to open three days engagement at the Opera House on Monday, July 27. This sterling play is pronounced to be one of the best presented pastoral comedy dramas offered to the theatre-going public, while in incident and theme it is most powerful, every climax breaking with almost volcanic intensity. To go into the play itself, nothing can be said to detract from its worth. In the entire company, from the artists who interpret the leading roles to the actors who assume the minor allotments there is not one person who has been negligently selected or unintelligently cast. This comedy drama which lacks all of the melodramatic thunder of bygone days is not new or unknown. It was one of the greatest reigning successes of the Madison Square Theatre in New York City when Ethie Ellsler and DeWolfe Hopper were members of the cast. The situations, the motives, the characters, the tragedy when they can see and hear the real, palpating thing for nothing? Outwardly, Carlotta and myself are at daggers drawn. She thinks I am unrepentant, I leave me, I ask her why she is here, knowing perfectly well that she has not the slightest intention of leaving me. Women are very much like cats in these matters—they will make many sacrifices for the sake of the domestic hearth. I was talking to Dr. Sacci, the great surgeon, the other day, and he was telling me of the fierce joy that comes through some new discovery which has been the outcome of vivisection. But, then, Sacci is only working in the interest of humanity, whereas my vivisection allows me to see the exquisite suffering of the patient. I can study the nerves, and the palpitating wound, at every moment when the knife enters.

NICKEL STILL GETS CROWD
 It was a merry muffled and straw-hatted summer crowd that filled the Nickel's big interior yesterday afternoon, and particularly the evening, and each and every member of it saw a great show of pictures, and listened to a couple of remarkably good songs. One of the features of the day was the debut of Jack Gurney, the robust tenor, whose rendering of the seaside novelty, "Sweet Rosie May," was received with unstinted plaudits. Miss Foley's new song, "That's What the Daisies Said," was perhaps the most tuneful and catchy thing this talented mezzo has yet sung here.

SAYS LAURIER DODGED THE SEPARATE SCHOOL QUESTION

Conservative Member Taunts the Premier With Lack of Courage—Maritime Members Protest Against Territory Added to Quebec Affecting Representation.

Ottawa, July 13.—That the government has upon the Laurier resolution regarding the extension of provincial boundaries as an expedient to avoid the issue of another Manitoba school question and to enable the Liberal party to play a double game was the charge made in the house by Conservative members today. Resuming the debate on the resolutions at the afternoon sitting, Dr. Roche blamed the government for procrastination regarding the memorial of Manitoba passed last session and presented to the house, which left the government without excuse for delay. Compliance with this resolution would have given Manitoba not only a portion on Hudson Bay, but one on Lake Superior. The object of the government in proceeding now by way of a resolution instead of a bill, was to enable the government to play a double part in the next elections. "It is a sure precursor of an election between this and the next session," said Dr. Roche. The educational issue was what the government wished to avoid, so that upon this question it could make one appeal to one section and a different appeal to another. For this there was no excuse except the desire to avoid a difficult question by means of procrastination. In 1905 new provinces were created, why were not Manitoba's boundaries extended then? Why, only four days after the session was over, an order-in-council passed, taking Keewatin out of the jurisdiction of the governor of Manitoba, and placing it under the North West Territories act. Keewatin was thus placed under the educational clause of the North West act. Now the government was faced with another school question and Sir Wilfrid had not the courage or manliness to face the issue. "By staving off the issue it would enable Liberal members in Manitoba to tell their constituents that after the election, Laurier will give them control of their school laws, while certain others would promise that the educational system would provide protection to the minority. Mr. Stanfield, Colchester (N. S.), moved that the following be added to the resolution: "That no extension of boundaries be accompanied by such provisions as will prevent their extension prejudicially affecting the representation of any province in parliament." Mr. Stanfield spoke briefly in support of his amendment. Mr. McLean, P. E. Island, seconded the amendment and spoke vigorously in support of it. Mr. Fowler said that he would vote for the amendment, but he would like it to go farther. He said that the ministers from the Maritime Provinces should have overlooked this matter of representation. Compensation in this respect should be made in cases of additions of territory to other provinces. Messrs. Fowler and Crockett expressed surprise that Dr. Pugsley, after the stand he had taken in 1906, should have consented to a scheme for enlarging the boundaries of Quebec and thus increasing the unit of representation.

BEERSVILLE MINE IN COURT

Appointment of Permanent Liquidator for Imperial Coal Company Asked For—Judge Reserves Decision.

The matter of the winding up of the Imperial Coal company was before Mr. Justice Landry in chambers here yesterday afternoon. Some time ago a winding up order was made, and Dr. M. F. Keith, of Moncton, was appointed provisional liquidator. His report was read yesterday and the appointment of a permanent liquidator considered. On behalf of some of those interested, an adjournment for a few days was applied for on the ground that within that time a settlement with creditors might be arranged. His Honor considers as to whether he will at once appoint a permanent liquidator or grant the adjournment. The array of legal talent present was imposing. Counsel representing various interests were: A. H. Harrington, K.C.; W. B. Chandler, K.C. of Moncton; M. G. Teed, K.C.; W. D. Carter, K.C.; of Richibucto; R. A. Irving, of Buctouche; E. A. Reilly, of Moncton; A. Allan, of Moncton; F. R. Taylor, and Geo. P. Harris, of Moncton. The last named announced that he was present in the capacity of solicitor for the company and also as vice-president of the company. Mr. Chandler, in addressing his honor, referred to a meeting of directors held some months ago, at which an American shareholder was elected vice-president, and there seemed to be not a few of such tangles. In some instances, parties had the benefit of two or three counsel, and altogether unknown to the learned gentlemen. The report of the provisional liquidator showed liabilities of some $56,000, and assets of $27,715.66, while a sworn statement of George G. Follos, of New York, who, with Dr. Hugo Von Hagen, also of New York, was successful in promoting the company with a capital of $1,000,000, and selling all the stock, the par value of which was $10 a share, "gladdened the hearts of the shareholders," as his honor remarked, by holding out the prospect of the mine's being worked at a yearly profit of $125,000, and placing the value of the property and rights at something more than $4,000,000 above all encumbrances. The mine, situated at Beersville, in Kent County, and a branch railroad runs into the mine, which is now being worked. Shares are held by many farmers throughout Kent County, but the large bulk of them are held in New York. Mr. Harris said that within the past three years the company have sold more than $35,000 worth of coal to the I.C.R. alone. The proceedings were at times interesting and at one stage Mr. Harris, addressing Mr. Harrington, declared that he did not intend to be examined by him "or any other Harrington." It was put forward in support of the application for adjournment, that within a few days shareholders would be approached with a proposition to accept bonds to the value of seventy per cent. of the par value of their stock, and it was stated that Henry O'Neill, of New York, who is alleged to hold $35,000 worth of stock, had agreed to accept that proposition. Mr. Chandler, representing him, Italian bark Arriello in tow. The bark will load there with lumber for South America. Mr. Teed, upon the subject of the adjournment, if that could be accom-

COMMANDER PEARY PASSED THROUGH CITY LAST NIGHT

Arctic Explorer Says it is More Than an Even Chance That he Will Reach the Pole This Time.

"It is more than an even thing, this time," was the reply of Commander Robert E. Peary, when asked last evening if he had engaged the berth, arranged the baggage and assisted Mrs. Peary to her berth, he was not receiving newspaper men. He had a bluff but hearty greeting, beginning with "Well, don't believe I can tell you anything new, but ask all the questions you like and I'll do my best to answer them." He said the Roosevelt had been sighted off Eagle Island at 9:30 Friday night and would be at Sydney very soon. It would not be twenty-four hours from the time he arrived at Sydney until he was away again if the Roosevelt was on time. He would say good-bye to his wife and children, not expecting to see them again inside of fifteen months or possibly three years. If the first dash for the pole was successful, then the return would be made in fifteen months, but if not, then the voyage would occupy two and possibly three years. His plan was to go as far north by fall as the Roosevelt could be taken and in February to push forward over the ice with sledges hauled by dogs and driven by the Eskimos. The chief obstacle was the roughness of the ice which they had to cross. This depended altogether upon the season and if the season of 1909 was favorable the chances were more than even. On the last voyage when Commander Peary established a new Farthest North, the season was most unfavorable and under different conditions a better mark could have been made. Should the expedition of 1909 fail, the party will fall back on the Roosevelt for supplies during the summer and make another attempt the following winter in the hopes of striking a better season. A third attempt will be made in case of a second failure and that the intrepid explorer does not purpose to relinquish the idea was demonstrated by his statement, and if we do not succeed in these three trials then it remains for us to try again until we do it."

ORANGEMEN CELEBRATE

July 12th Observed Yesterday in Lorneville and St. George—Processions in Both Places.

The annual Orange parade, picnic and dance in celebration of the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne took place at Lorneville yesterday and proved very successful. The march, which covered about six miles, started at 10:30 o'clock from the hall of Coronation L.O.L. First came the Royal Black Knights with the Scarlet Chapter members and the Lorneville Fifo and Drum band. Next in line were the members of Mount Purple Lodge, No. 29, followed by Coronation L.O.L. No. 121, more than 200 members being in line. The parade disbanded at the picnic grounds, where hearty cheers were given for the King and Our Country, County Master Galbraith and Past Grand Master D. McArthur. The picnic was attended by a very large number of people, hundreds of teams being there from St. John and other places. Dinner and tea were served on the grounds by an efficient committee of ladies. The sports were well patronized and the ladies at the refreshment tables were kept busy. The receipts from all sources were large. Words of praise were heard for the excellent music given by the Lorneville band, both on the line of march and on the picnic grounds. Everybody was delighted and the day was perfect. All voted the celebration the best yet held in Lorneville. St. George, N. B., July 13.—(Special.) Master Galbraith and Past Grand Master D. McArthur, of St. George, N. B., were here today to celebrate the twelfth. They came from Eastport (Me.), Calais, St. Stephen, St. Andrews, Boabec, Pondsfield, Beaver Harbor, Lepaux, Musquash and St. John, making a large assemblage. There was a big parade this afternoon with the Maple Leaf Band of St. Stephen and the St. George Band playing inspiring music. This evening from 6:30 to 8:30 a large gathering in the public square listened to a number of speakers, including Hiram Gritmaker and W. G. Ganong, M.P. The Lord Kilchessie will leave for Weymouth (N. S.) tonight with the Italian bark Arriello in tow. The bark will load there with lumber for South America.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL PAY THE BOGUS BOND

This Decision Was Reached at a Meeting of the Board Held Yesterday Afternoon.

At the monthly meeting of the school board held yesterday afternoon, instead of in the evening as is usual, the bogus bond of $2,000 was finally disposed of by the passing of a motion to have the bond paid with whatever interest is due. This was decided on the recommendation of a committee consisting of the chairman, Mr. Coll, and Mayor Bullock, appointed at a special meeting to consider the matter. The bond fell due on July 1st, and the interest accrued to $200. This was referred to the annual training and domestic science committee. Miss Katharine Bartlett asked to have her position defined as director of domestic science in St. John, and to have her salary increased to $800. This was referred to the manual training and domestic science committee. Piles are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Haic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. I surely would not send it free unless I was certain that Dr. Shoop's Haic Ointment would stand the test. Remember it is made expressly and alone for swollen, painful, bleeding or itching piles, either external or internal. Large jar 50c. Sold by all Druggists. The record for unloading a coal steamer at this port was broken on Saturday, when the cargo of 220 tons from the S.S. Cape Breton, was discharged in nine hours.

TENDER AND CONTRACT

There was an interesting discussion in the city council yesterday on the question of the tender, at an estimated cost of $10,000, that is necessary in connection with the Clark & Adams wharf.

FARM LABOR

The question of skilled farm-labor is giving much trouble to the farmers in Ontario as well as to those in New Brunswick. Readers of the Times will be interested in the following article on the subject, quoted from the agricultural page of the Toronto World.

THE ALL-RED LINE

Federal government organs endeavor to create the impression that Mr. R. L. Borden and his supporters are opposed to the principle of an All-Red Line.

"Parliament yesterday voted in practical unanimity for the principle of the All-Red Line. The Opposition only showed a natural unwillingness to trust the government to conduct the negotiations, and desired to bind them to submit any proposals to parliament before committing the country."

ought not to be committed to any detailed development of it without the full and parliamentary discussion. Not only should parliament be consulted, but the debate in the house will give an opportunity for an informal consultation of all the interests in the country which may be concerned.

Alluding to the fact that Laval University has conferred upon Father Burke, of Alberton, P. E. I., the degree of Doctor of Divinity, the Toronto News pays this tribute to that worthy Canadian citizen.

"The next five or six weeks," says the Ottawa Citizen, "will be a period of great interest and possibly a little anxiety to a large section of the people of Canada. The harvesting will then be in progress, and on the output of this year depends more than usual. Up to the present nothing has yet occurred to dim the expectation that the harvest will be the greatest ever garnered in Canada.

"It is a sure precursor of an election between this and the next session," said Dr. Roche, M.P., in the house of commons yesterday, discussing Sir Wilfrid Laurier's resolution respecting the extension of provincial boundaries.

The Victoria Colonist mildly observes: "When we pick up one of our Halifax exchanges, with its editorials in letters of several sizes and news items in colored ink, and reflect that no one is quite sure there is going to be an election this year, we wonder what is the matter down in that usually placid city on the shore of the sounding Atlantic."

The Montreal Gazette says: "The majority of the House of Commons, at the instance of the Government, has voted to first approve of the All Red Line scheme and then to find out what can be done under Sir Wilfrid Laurier's what is called politics gets farther and farther away all the time from what people know as business."

The Laurier Government, says an exchange, spent $108,000,000 last year and are asking leave to spend $129,000,000 this year. Before they came into power governments got along by spending about $40,000,000 a year, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier complained that it was too much.

In Ontario active steps are to be taken to re-stock the forests. If the present careless methods of forest protection in New Brunswick continue there will be a fine field here for similar enterprise.

The protest of maritime province members of parliament against any reduction in the relative representation of these provinces in the house is timely and will doubtless have the desired effect.

Before the Fredericton city council and police commission are through with their little dispute about the police some peaceably disposed member may feel constrained to summon the police.

NO EXTORTIONATE RATES SAYS MR. HAM

(Montreal Herald.) Mr. Geo. H. Ham, of the C. P. R., who has just returned from Quebec, where he has been looking into the arrangements for the housing and feeding of guests during the tercentenary celebrations, says the manager of the information bureau informs him that apart from the Tent city there will be lodging accommodation for about 20,000 persons in the city and suburbs.

Mr. Ham also says that the proprietors of the principal houses of accommodation are very indignant at the reports which have been in circulation that no accommodation would be available during the pageant at less than from $3 to $5 per day. There will be no difficulty in obtaining accommodation at $3 per day, meals included, and rooms at $1.00 per day.

Mr. Ham also announces that 3,000 persons, nearly all local, will participate in the pageants and amongst these participants will be members of the very best families. The first dress rehearsal will take place on Tuesday next—a week before the commencement of the pageants—and there will be in the case of representatives of families who have been in the land since the days of Champlain.

WHAT IS TO COME

What is to come we know not; but we know that what has been good—was good to show.

Better to hide, and best of all to bear. We are the masters of the days that were. We have lived, we have loved, we have suffered—no so.

Shall we not take the ebb who had the flow? Life was our friend. Now, if it be our foe, let us not let it spoil and break us—use we care.

Let the great winds their worst and wildest blow. Or the cold weather round us mellow slow; We have fulfilled ourselves, and we can dare. And we can conquer, though we may not share.

In the rich quiet of the afterglow, What is to come. —William E. Henley.

"Do you regard wealth as essential to happiness?"

No, answered Mr. Dustin Star. "I admit that people can be happy without it. But it is a point on which I am perfectly willing to accept lesser evidence."

BOBBIE'S PREFERENCE. (Dallasstar).

One morning, just before starting to school, little Bobbie, aged six years, was watching his mamma put up his noon lunch.

Suddenly he said: "You were so busy, let Katie put up my lunch instead of doing it for me."

"It's no trouble, my dear."

"Then why—"

"Cause, mamma, she's got a better appetite than you, an' she puts more in."

HER HUSBAND'S SAD CONDITION. (The Green Bag).

Attorney for the Defence (to witness): "You say that on the night of the attempted murder, the moon shone so brightly that you could plainly see the burglar in the room. Was your husband awake at the time?"

Witness: "I don't know."

Attorney: "Was his face turned toward you or not?"

Witness: "I don't know."

Attorney: "What if you don't know whether his face was turned to you or toward the wall?"

Witness: "No."

Attorney: "Your Honor and gentlemen of the jury, you hear what this witness says. She declares that the burglar had her back toward you when she was in the room, and yet she is unable to state in which direction he had turned his head?"

Witness: "I could not see."

Attorney: "It is, just what I thought. You did not see. You were so positive in your recognition of the accused and yet you did not see the burglar's face?"

Witness: "I am certain my husband is so bald that in a dim light I am unable to distinguish his face from the back of his head."

UNVEIL MONUMENT TO WAR'S VICTIMS

The Japanese Unveil Structure Erected to Mark Graves of the Russian Dead.

(Victoria Colonist.)

Advice were received from the Orient by the Empress of India that the ceremony of unveiling the monument to the Russian dead took place on the 10th inst., at Port Arthur.

When the monument was unveiled it was seen that one face bore the inscription in Russian already translated in these columns; another face carried the words "Erected by the Japanese Government"; on the third face was carved the inscription in Japanese "Monument to the memory of the Russian officers and soldiers who fell at Port Arthur," and on the rear face there was a long inscription in Japanese and composed by General Viscount Oshima.

Its gist was that death levels all distinctions of friend and enemy, above and below, and that the Japanese government was anxious to do honor to the memory of the Russian heroes, had collected their remains from the various parts of the field where they had fought so nobly, and re-interring them at one place, had erected this monument to mark the spot. Within the enclosure where the monument constitutes the central object, 12 tombstones of granite are arranged on either side of the monument. These are to mark the places of interment of the men who fell in the twelve principal sections of the defence. The total thus buried in 14,631, out of which number the terrible 203-metre hill stands for 6,500.

There are, further, within the enclosure 38 iron monuments, erected to the memory of the officers whose account separate graves had been prepared by the Russians at various parts of the Japanese fortress. It had been originally intended to hold a Japanese religious ceremony as well as a Russian, but this idea was strongly opposed by the priests of the Greek church who had come from Peking, and in deference to his objection the service was entirely in accordance with the Russian ritual. After the religious rites, however, the principal Japanese and Russian generals proceeded to the graves and paid the last tribute to the dead. Among the suite of General Gellingos, the principal Russian representative, there were some men who had served throughout the siege, and one was particularly noticeable for having lost both his arms.

After the unveiling of the monument to the Russian dead at Port Arthur, the Japanese and Russian generals proceeded to Pehyushan and General Gellingos placed an aluminum wreath of laurels and a quantity of flowers before the monument of the Japanese dead. At a banquet given at the Army Club at Port Arthur General Nogi is quoted as having said that at the time of the capitulation he asked General Stoessel whether the latter had any wishes to express with regard to the sepulture of the brave men who had fallen fighting for their country. To this the Russian general replied that he hoped for nothing more than that the temporary graves in which his comrades had been buried should be converted into permanent sepulchres. General Nogi expressed the wish that an account of the day's proceedings should be conveyed to General Stoessel. It is related that among the officers present on the occasion there was a captain who had been wounded in 44 places at the siege of Port Arthur and had been treated in a Japanese hospital. His meeting with General Nogi is said to have been very demonstrative on both sides.

FINANCIAL and COMMERCIAL

COTTON LETTER

New York, July 14.—Yesterday's market closed steadily after a quiet session resulting in but small transactions, yet developing features making the short side of the account look dangerous. Although the trade was small, they demonstrated a leading strength in connection with some October contracts that suggested seasonal possibilities before the new crop movement shall have become sufficiently large to dominate the trade. While the new crop positions were a dozen or more points lower, as compared with the previous day's closing, July, which had closed at 9.65, sold up to 9.50; August sold at 9.40 against 9.36, or four points above the previous closing, and September gained a point or two. This exhibition of strength in the old crop months reached over to October, which, all day, showed a tendency to pull away from December and January on buying by leading spot interests. While the short interest in the general market has been much reduced of late, there remains enough of it in the way of scattered accounts to be a factor whenever the inevitable change to crop outlook. July and August have not yet failed to furnish crop scares. The entire cotton world has waited overlong for lower prices on the big crop talk. They now have a price 2 cents under last year's to contemplate alone. All this and the slogan of returning prosperity are heard upon every hand. We note that the Memphis Commercial Appeal reports crop deterioration in the Atlantic states and Southern Texas owing to rain.

DETAILED STOCK GOSSIP

We still regard Nor. Pac. as the bull rail leader, and Steel as the industrial leader. An extra div. is likely on the former. The industrial steel agreement may help the latter. Amal. is a close second in the industrials, with rumors of a consolidation. The market is still in a state of uncertainty. The latter should be taken only in recessions just out.

PREPARING A BOMB

I sat next to the nervous little man in the car, and after he had grinned and chuckled and taken out a pad and written on it several times I made bold to ask him the cause of his agitation. "Preparing a bomb!" he hoarsely whispered in my left ear. "But don't look like an anarchist."

SHOT DOWN MAN WHO MADE HER A WIDOW

Mrs. Bartley Horner Likely Mortally Wounded Her Son-in-Law.

Northport, L. I., July 13.—Standing within a few feet of the spot where, a little more than two years ago, she shot and killed his aged father-in-law, Dr. James Weddell Simpson, a dentist, of New York, was shot and perhaps mortally wounded today by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Bartley T. Horner, the woman he made a widow.

Dr. Simpson's wife, from whom he has been estranged for many months, was near when the shot was fired, but she did not fire. However, her husband, who was being brought into the principal distributing points from western mines, will be physically impossible. If, therefore, a severe winter follows, the situation may become serious.

Statements from Dr. Simpson and from Mrs. Horner as to the circumstances attending the shooting disagree. The dentist says that he was in the house at the time when he was shot, but that he was not in the room when the shot was fired.

THE RING

LITTLEJOHN HEARD FROM Dan Littlejohn called at the office of this paper this morning and left the following challenge:— St. John, July 14.

To the Sporting Editor: I hereby challenge the winner of the ten round bout between Miles (Twin Bullivan) and Tom Foley which is to take place Wednesday night, the 10th, to take place within a reasonable time.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER

Canadians of all classes, irrespective of political opinion, will, we are sure, heartily endorse the sentiments expressed in the following, which we find in the Vancouver News-Advertiser.

We congratulate Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., on having entered the eighty-eighth year of his age. He was born on July 2nd, 1821. Far past the allotted span, Sir Charles retains almost to the full those characteristics of a public man, who in him have been so gloriously embodied with the history of Canada.

His "natural force is not abated," and he is today, as he was in 1867, a factor in the fortunes of the Dominion. Though he has laid aside the active participation in affairs which his vigorous energies for several decades, his name and reputation stand yet as a power in the councils of the Conservative Party and therefore in the policies of the nation.

His name stands as one of that galaxy of statesmen which assured unity to Britain's greatest colony. His influence was profound in the inception of the Canadian Pacific Railway. In a word the name of Tupper was synonymous with the fortunes of the Dominion since its birth.

The following have been reported for carrying on a junk business in the city without a license: William Trotsky, Morris Kuzley, Isaac Carl, Joseph Ross, Nathan Melzer, Alexander Selek, John Epston, Isaac Lavigne, Samuel Lavigne, David Baig, Simon Melzer, Myer Perchok, Abraham Freedman and Myer Budovitch. The reports represent the industry of Detective Killen.

Five Years' Hay Fever Cured.

Don't leave home—don't experiment—just use Catarhizone—it cures every case as quickly as it did Thomas Eaton, of Westwood, Ont., who says: "Five years I suffered from Hay Fever, and had to leave this part of the country a year previous to the time of attack. Since using Catarhizone I have not been bothered. My cure is complete."

THE EXHIBITION

Management Makes an Important Change in Season Ticket System—Plans for the Opening.

At a meeting of the executive of the Exhibition Association last evening, it was decided to make an important change in the system of issuing season tickets.

This year a book containing six admissions will be obtainable for $1 and the coupons will be transferable as long as not detached. By this concession a family party of six people, by buying a book can obtain admission to the exhibition instead of having to pay twenty-five cents each as on previous occasions.

Some consideration was also given at the meeting to arrangements for the opening ceremony. The industrial committee was appointed to draw up a programme which it has been decided will have more attractive features than in the past.

It is also the intention of the executive to rearrange and beautify the grounds in front of the buildings and render them attractive to visitors by providing a lawn or some other form of entertainment which can be listened to while resting in the chairs.

The features for the entertainment have not yet been settled, but an attractive programme is under consideration.

The industrial committee, with W. S. Fisher in the chair yesterday afternoon, made an encouraging report on the prospects of receiving many interesting exhibits from manufacturers both in and outside the city.

A firm in Montreal was negotiating yesterday for space for a machinery exhibit and it is expected that quite a number of machines will be seen in motion.

COINCIDENCE IN CELEBRATION OF GOLDEN WEDDING

Rev. Dr. Kierstead Who Attended Celebration Last Night Was at the Wedding of Happy Couple Half Century Ago.

In Waterloo street United Baptist church last evening, a large gathering of friends honored Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, of Portland street, on their golden wedding. A happy coincidence was the presence of Rev. Dr. E. M. Kierstead, of Toronto, who, when but a lad, was present when Mr. and Mrs. Graham were married half a century ago, at Millstream, Kings county.

Dr. Kierstead has been spending his vacation here and was greatly pleased to be in St. John at this particular time. He made a happy address at the celebration last night.

The gathering was in the vestry of the church, which had been nicely decorated. Mr. and Mrs. Graham occupied seats of honor on the platform where Rev. Gidson Swin, pastor of the church, presided. The proceedings opened with a few words from Deacon William Peters, who also read an address of congratulation and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Graham.

Deacon James Peterson then presented, on behalf of friends, a fine gold headed cane to Mr. Graham, and an umbrella with gold handle was presented to Mrs. Graham by Deacon Thomas Robinson. Brief speeches accompanied the presentations and to all Mr. Graham responded suitably. Both umbrellas and cane were nicely worked inscriptions.

During the evening there were also presents of congratulatory by Rev. Dr. W. E. Melnyre, Rev. Dr. Kierstead, Rev. Mr. Swin, who spoke of the worth of the happy couple in their anniversary, and E. W. Shipp. All present took the opportunity to congratulate the happy couple on their anniversary.

FEAR FUEL FAMINE AGAIN IN THE WEST

Stocks of Coal Very Light at Distributing Points—Railways Will be Unable to Handle Any.

Winnipeg, July 13.—Reports from various parts of the west outline rather serious prospects in regard to a fuel supply for next winter. The railways last winter had abundant stock owing to the light crop and there was never anything approaching a fuel famine in any of the provinces.

This summer, however, partly owing to financial stringency which forbade the dealers carrying large stocks, and preventing consumers buying in even the average supply ahead, practically no coal is being brought into the principal distributing points from western mines.

At the same time it is already clear the railways are likely to be blocked in the attempt to handle the crop this fall, and in a coal famine in the west.

THE EVERY DAY CLUB WILL BOOM PROJECT TO DAM MARSH CREEK

Club Will Ask City Council to Investigate Feasibility of Plan—Seaside Sports Proposed.

At a meeting of the Every Day Club last evening, a resolution was adopted to memorialize the city council to have the proper officials investigate the feasibility of damming the Marsh Creek above the bridge.

At the same time it is already clear the railways are likely to be blocked in the attempt to handle the crop this fall, and in a coal famine in the west.

P. E. ISLAND CROPS

A BRITISH EXPLORER GOING TO SOUTH POLE

Lieut. Shackleton of the English Navy Making a Second Attempt.

New York, July 13.—When Commander Peary boards his steamer Roosevelt, at Sydney, C. B., this week and starts on his expedition in search of the North Pole, an inter-national race to the utmost ends of the earth will be on.

Lieut. Shackleton and party left London July 31, 1907, on board the Nimrod, a steam barquentine. Shackleton is an officer of the British Navy, and before leaving London, King Edward bestowed upon him the Victorian Order. He was a member of the British Antarctic Expedition of 1902-03, under Captain Scott, and with his commander and another member of the party accomplished a sledge journey with dogs to a point 82 degrees, 17 minutes, south latitude.

Shackleton took with him a specially built motor sledge which he hoped to use in his polar expedition and a number of Siberian ponies in addition to a pack of dogs. Peary will use only Eskimo and dogs.

Before leaving London, Lieut. Shackleton was presented by Queen Alexandra with a British Flag to carry with him on his southern dash. About the same time the daughters of the American Revolution gave Commander Peary a beautiful flag, made of silk, consisting of the Stars and Stripes surrounded by a broad field of white, to carry with him to the North.

BRYAN'S CONCEPTION OF A PRESIDENT'S DUTIES

New York, N. Y., July 13.—William J. Bryan, the Democratic nominee for president, has written an article entitled "My Conception of the Presidency" for the July 13th issue of Collier's Weekly.

The president's power for good or for harm is often over-estimated. Our government is a government of checks and balances; power is distributed among different departments, and each official works in co-operation with others.

In the making of laws, for instance, the president joins with the senate and house; he may recommend, but he is powerless to legislate, except as a majority of the senate and the house concur with him.

Even in the enforcement of law, he is hedged about by restrictions. He acts through an attorney general (whose appointment must be approved by the senate), and officers against the law must be prosecuted in the courts so that here again the responsibility is divided.

In the making of important appointments, too, he must consult the senate and is, of necessity, compelled to exercise care and discretion. The most important requisite in a president, as in other officials, is that his sympathy shall be with the whole people rather than with any fraction of the population.

He is constantly called upon to act in the capacity of a judge—deciding between the opportunities of those who seek favors and the rights and interests of the public. Unless his sympathies are right, the few are sure to have an advantage over the many, for the masses have no one to present their claims. They act only at elections, and the responsibility is placed in the hands of those who seek unfair advantages.

He must possess the moral courage to stand against the influences that are brought to bear in favor of special interests. In fact, the quality of moral courage is as essential in a public official as either right sympathies or a trained mind.

A president must have counselors, and to make wise use of counselors he must be open to conviction. The president is committed by his platform, to certain policies, and the platform is binding; he is also committed to certain principles of government, and these he is in duty bound to apply in all matters that come before him.

But there is a wide zone in which he must act upon his own judgment, and here he ought to exercise the aid of intelligent, conscientious and faithful advisers.

There ought to be cordial relations also between the president and those who occupy positions of influence in the coordinate branches of the government, for our government is not a one-man government, but a government in which the chosen representatives of the people labor together to give impression of the will of the voters.

But the presidency is the highest position in the world and its occupant is an important factor in all national matters. If he is a devout believer in our theory of government, recognizes the constitutional distribution of powers, trusts thoroughly in the people and fully sympathizes with them in their aspirations and hopes, he has an opportunity to do a splendid work; he occupies a vantage ground from which he can exert a wholesome influence in favor of each forward movement.

The responsibilities of the office are so great that the occupant ought to be relieved of every personal ambition, save the ambition to prove worthy of the confidence of his countrymen; for this reason he ought to enter the position without thought or prospect of a second term.

While the burdens of such an office are heavy, and while the labors of the office are exacting and exhausting, the field of service is large, and measuring greatness by service, a president, by consecrating himself to the public weal can make himself secure in the affections of his fellow citizens while he lives and create for himself a permanent place in the nation's history.

GOMPERS TO SUPPORT BRYAN

Lincoln, Neb., July 13.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, will support William J. Bryan in the coming presidential campaign.

In political circles today this announcement overhauled all others, even the arrival of John W. Bryan, the presidential nominee. While Mr. Gompers' support was promised to the ticket, he specifically denied any present intention of taking the stump in Bryan's presidential campaign.

SYRIAN AND HIS YOUNG BRIDE HAVE RETURNED

Joy in the Syrian Colony Last Night Over the Return of Elopement Couple.

There was rejoicing in the Syrian colony last night for the prodigal had returned, bringing with him his thirteen-year-old wife. The anxiety and bitterness of many nights was forgotten in the joy of the homecoming, and Sadie Zaid who has just passed her thirteenth birthday returned home the lawful wedded wife of George Zaid.

The girl was getting along nicely in Grade III in school but her ambition was to reach higher and she announced her intention of wedding George Moses. Mrs. Zaid had no objection to Mr. Moses as a son-in-law, but she considered the girl's youth.

The young people then took the matter in their own hands and left the city without any further address. They were accompanied by Joseph Bechara for the sake of appearances and they were first heard from in Amherst, Mass., where the marriage had been arranged and that the young couple would return home for the matrimonial blessing.

The reception was held at the groom's home and all went merrily as the marriage bell.

Fellow employees of McLean and Holt's establishment declare that he is an inveterate wife beater and hard drinker.

Collector of Customs Dunn in conversation with a Times representative this morning, declined the prohibition by statute in the Shipping Act, of the running for hire of gasoline boats in the harbor and bay, stating that several men have been warned to discontinue the practice under penalty of seizure of the boats engaged. Those liable are all who carry passengers for hire. Schooners are not affected if the gasoline is used for hoisting alone.

CASE OF WIFE DESERTION.

A case of wife desertion is reported from Charlotte street. James McCormick, who lives in an alley running off Charlotte street between Princess and Duke streets, has left his wife and baby, and as a result they are in need. The baby is ill, requiring the attention of its mother. Consequently, she has been unable to earn any money, and neighbors have been supplying her with food. This is said to be the second time within a few weeks that McCormick has deserted his family.

COME TO WRONG PORT.

Swedish bark Atlantic, Captain Nordgrin, arrived off Partridge Island this morning from New York. The captain came up from the bark, and when he was informed that he brought his vessel to the wrong port, he was more than surprised. The vessel left New York a few days ago for Carleton, N. B., but should have gone to Carleton, Quebec. The vessel came six or seven hundred miles out of her course. She has sailed again for her port of destination.

BARK BELMONT IS TOO BADLY BURNED TO FIX

(Boston Journal.)

It is believed that it will cost about as much to repair the damage to the big British Bark Belmont that was partially burned in Wednesday's fire as the entire vessel is worth. This was the estimate made by the agent of the steel craft. Notwithstanding this, the bark was yesterday afternoon towed to the dry dock at East Boston, where she will be given a thorough examination. Her entire starboard side is badly damaged and some of the plates have buckled and the beams are visible underneath.

Because of the damage to the vessel, the negotiations that were in progress looking toward the charter of the big three-sticker for a voyage to the River Plate have been interrupted.

Capt. Pease, the harbormaster, yesterday made a visit to the revenue cutter Gresham and personally complimented the officers and men for their prompt and effective work in putting out the fire aboard the four-master O. H. Brown, which was tied up at the grain elevator. The Journal has always told how the jacksieps clambered aboard as soon as she was pulled out into the harbor, climbed into the rigging and did one of the most effective bits of fire-fighting during the day.

Nine years afterwards the petitioner found out that James E. Phillips had married Martha Dyre and that she presumed that he had obtained a divorce, although not being notified of any proceeding. POLICE COURT

William Barker who was arrested by Officer Perry in a box car in the I. C. It developed in the charge against Lawrence McAleer for the theft of harness valued at $8 from David Keele's barn on Clarence street on Sunday night that McAleer did not purloin the harness on behalf of Leo McNamara, who owned the harness, but owed Mr. Keele four dollars for barn rent. The dilatory tenant was ordered by the magistrate to settle with his landlord to-day and the charge against McAleer was allowed to stand.

HE FELT RELIEVED

It was the voice of a woman shopper crying out:

"Stop him! Stop him! He's a thief! He's got my purse!"

It seemed as if a hundred men gathered at once and shouted in reply:

"Who is it? Where is he?"

"That man! There he goes!"

The crowd took after a middle-aged man who was running down the street, and as the foremost was about to come up with him he ran into the arms of a policeman and was first hit with the officer's club and then questioned.

"I never done it! I never done it!" he exclaimed.

"But he's got my purse right there in his hand!" said the victim as she came up.

"Of course he has," added the crowd. "And he'll go to the station!" said the cop. "Come on, you!"

"But who for? I say I never done it."

"For snatching that purse. You are caught with the goods on you."

"Purse? Purse? Oh, I see, and I'll go along. I thought you took me for the man who brought on the panic!"
