PRIVATE H. MAGEE—Killed

Mrs. M. Jeffrey of 26 Somerset street, received a telegram on Saturday evening from her son-in-law, Mr. Magee, of Sydney, C.B., telling her of the death of her nephew, William Smith, who was killed in action on September 15. The young hero was a son of the late Daniel Smith, of Sney, formerly of this city, and was a bright young man highly esteemed by all who knew him.

PRV. WM. GAYNES—Killed

her husband, Private Thomas F. Maden, had been wounded in the left arm on September 26 and had been admitted to the Charing Cross Hospital in London. He is a native of Cork, Ireland, but resided in this country for upwards of twenty years. Prior to enlisting he was engaged at Longshore work.

PRV. SAMUEL FERGUSON—Killed

the words received by his mother, Miss Katherine McCollom of 128 Erin street. This is the fourth time in two years that Pte. McCollom has met with misadventure, the first time he was gassed, the second was from shell shock, the third he injured his foot, having been caught in a wire entanglement, and now he is in a hospital in France suffering from a wound in the leg.

PRV. A. J. WHIPPLEY—Killed

He is twenty-one years old, and prior to enlistment was employed with the 10th Battalion in England. He was transferred into a well known New Brunswick battalion. Prior to calling he was employed in the Maritime Mill Works. He has a brother, Sergeant Jack Farmer, fighting in France. He was a member of the first contingent and was wounded several months ago, but is now back in the firing line.

Mrs. Eleanor A. Moore of 91 Germain street, West St. John, received word last night from Ottawa to the effect that her son, Private V. Bayard Moore, was killed in action between September 10 and 11. He was twenty-one years old and prior to enlistment was in the company of the Maritime Dredging Company. He leaves behind his widowed mother, three brothers and four sisters. All the boys had offered for the war but only the one passed, and he has given all he had to give. He was a young man of fine type. There will be many to sympathize with those left to mourn his death.

Lance-Corporal McJunkin, Portland St. received a telegram Saturday night notifying her that her son Lance-Corporal Charles McJunkin was admitted to a military hospital in Baginhorpe, Nottingham, on September 28, suffering from a gun shot wound in the face. Lance-Corporal McJunkin was previously wounded in the memorable crater fight in which members of the 20th Battalion played a conspicuous part. At that time he was hit in the shoulder with a piece of flying shrapnel and his shoulder blade was broken. He returned to the front last February. Prior to enlisting he spent a few years in Calgary, and upon his return home donned khaki. He has many friends throughout the city who will unite in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Corporal Fred Storm, 11 Pine street, has been advised by Ottawa that his son, Corporal Fred Storm, was admitted to the clearing hospital in Eastleigh, Hants county, England, on September 17, with his left foot shattered. Corporal Storm was a member of the police force and was given leave of absence to enlist. He signed on with the first Siege Battery here and left the city with a draft for a battery in Halifax; after the final dressing up process he was one of only three St. John men left with the unit.

Mrs. Sabean, of Millidge avenue, has received a telegram informing her that her husband, Private Archibald Sabean, had been admitted to No. 1 Australian Hospital in Hosen on September 19, suffering from a wound in his left arm. Private Sabean enlisted in the 20th Battalion, but upon his arrival in England was transferred to another unit. Prior to enlisting he was employed as manager of Bucknall Colwell Boot & Shoe Company in Eastport, Me., where he lived for the last nine years. He is a former St. John boy.

Major J. F. Wandlass, Thomas Wandlass, caretaker of the Fredericton cathedral, has been officially notified that his son, Major John F. Wandlass, has been shot in the leg while fighting in France. Major Wandlass went overseas in the 74th Battalion, organized in Toronto. He is a veteran of the South African war and also served in the South African Constabulary.

Tale of British Soldier's Amazing Exploit

STORIES OF THEIPVAL

Instances of Individual Gallantry Recounted—Armored Car Straddles Trench and Protects Impressed Dressing Station Below

(London Times) Special Cable to Telegraph. London, Oct. 2.—Repeating again to the Thiepval battle, the Times correspondent at British headquarters in France, says: "One hears many tales of individual gallantry. An officer of considerable rank met gallantly among ruins of what was once a chateau, directing the operation of a machine gunner with one private whom he had taught how to load a gun. He sat in a shell crater and kept the gun at work all night. "One man rounded up sixty prisoners single handed from dugouts. A corporal bayoneted two men with a machine gun and dragged the gun away. "Assistance rendered by tanks has already been told, but one machine served another useful purpose for which it straddled a trench it gave sufficient shelter to house an emergency dressing station where our wounded received first treatment, while at this point the German fought most stubbornly. After our advance their behaviour was simply one-sided. There are many tales abroad to account for it but that there is in some measure demoralization in the German machine seems undoubted. "We heard a most amazing story, that of a man who was end man in a trench. When a party of Germans consisting of two officers and twenty-two men came along to attack with bombs he killed all but one. Then he took shelter in a trench. He used his revolver first and then picked up one German rifle and another. Half way through the trench he was actually shot and then he ran and he hunted them along the trench clambering over those whom he had already killed and actually shot. The story is vouched for by more than one witness and also by the prisoner. It is officially accepted as true and a report has been made on it here. "A corporal of the Eastern Ontario Battalion of Canadian troops which has recently been fighting over ground which formerly had been the Australian front, after nine days found a shell hole far ahead of where the front line had been. Three Australians, two wounded and one unharmed, who had pushed out by themselves in the enemy country when caught by shell fire, took shelter in the crater. After two nights he sallied forth and got water bottles and rations from the German dead and thus kept two patients and himself alive nine days. One of the two wounded is doing well. The other's wound unfortunately became septic."

Paris Says That Allies Have Outwitted Enemy

LONG TIME PREPARING

Prussian Staff Realized Too Late What Was Going on—New York Heard Spoke of Possibility of Shortening Time of War

New York, Oct. 2.—The Paris correspondent of the Herald Tribune says that the drive on Constantinople may begin before the end of the month. The knowledge that this drive is coming is regarded as the explanation of the abrupt change in German strategy as shown by the refusal of the great bankers and moneyed classes to subscribe to the new loan and for an agreement delivered on last Thursday in the Reichstag by the chancellor, with its appeal for new sacrifices. "The preparations for the march on the Turkish capital have long been under way, and as there is now no apparent motive for concealment the subject is being alluded to in rather frank manner in the press of the allies. "Realization Too Late "The Prussian great general staff realized the trend of the allies' campaign only when it was too late. A desperate effort was made to relieve the situation when Field Marshal Hindenburg was appointed as the supreme commander. Field Marshal von Mackensen being sent to bar the road southward through Bulgaria to the Russians and for a moment there was concern in the camps of the allies lest he should succeed in creating a situation which would halt for an appreciable time the projected operations of the Russians and Romanians. "All previous information given out regarding the intentions of the allies in the southeastern field was designed to furnish the impression either that Nish or Sofia was the objective of the projected Russian movement southward through Roumania. The conquest of either of these cities would be of great importance to the allies but would be trivial in comparison with that of Constantinople. The Russian Grand Duke's army, using the conquered port of Trebizond as a base, is expected to have a vital importance part in the conquest of Constantinople. Although the plans of the allies are kept secret, it is regarded as established that the attack against the well-guarded capital of Constantinople will this time be made simultaneously from the Bosphorus side of the Straits and from the land side by armies operating through Bulgaria.

HEARTILY WELCOME SUPREME KNIGHT

St. John K. C's Have Pleasant Visit From J. A. Flaherty of Philadelphia

For the first time in the history of the Knights of Columbus in St. John the local council has had as its guest a supreme officer, and it was the head of the order himself, J. A. Flaherty, supreme knight of the order and secretary of the council, who was here on his visit from Philadelphia.

He was met by the local knights and a large number of the membership took advantage of the occasion to meet him and give him a hearty welcome. On the platform, besides the supreme knight and Grand Knight Maloney, were present Mr. W. M. McMillan of Charlottetown, P.E.I., who is state deputy, Rev. Wm. Duke, Rev. M. P. Howland and Dr. W. P. Broderick, grand knight elect of St. John council.

Mr. Flaherty spoke for nearly an hour and was on the order and its work. The membership, he said, now is 370,000 and he prophesied a steady increase. He impressed his hearers deeply by his forcefulness, eloquence and enthusiasm and held all intensely interested to the very end. It was a grand address.

Mr. McMillan spoke briefly and all the members then were presented to Mr. Flaherty. The supreme knight then employed an auto tour through the city and suburbs and called upon His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc to pay his respects. In the evening Mr. Flaherty and Dr. McMillan with several local knights were the guests of Grand Knight Maloney at a very pleasant dinner in the Union Club. This morning Mr. Flaherty and Dr. McMillan left for Charlottetown, hence to go to P. E. Island. The supreme knight will visit Moncton council on his return on Thursday and will then go to Boston.

WAR NOTES

Negotiations between Greece and the Entente Powers are still in progress, and apparently favorable to Greek participation in the war.

Since August the Germans have sunk Norwegian steamers valued at $9,000,000. Ten Zeppelins took part in last night's raid over England. One, of the latest type, was destroyed. The others did no serious damage, though bombs destroyed were burned beyond recognition and scattered over a farmer's field in which the machine fell.

The Austrians made heavy counter-attacks yesterday in an attempt to regain ground lost in the new Russian drive on Lemberg. The attack was repulsed, and 1,600 more prisoners taken.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

SIR GILBERT PARKER'S "THE RIGHT OF WAY" TONIGHT AT THE IMPERIAL

The most successful book the Canadian author, Sir Gilbert Parker, ever wrote is "The Right of Way," and after years of introduction to the public, it is still a "best seller." The Metro Film Corporation, after securing the costly rights to present the story in motion pictures, lavished still further big money in engaging the noted star, William Faversham, to play the leading role. This is the special attraction for Imperial Theatre tonight and tomorrow. It is a marvelous production throughout and will give great pleasure and satisfaction to those who are familiar with "The Right of Way" in printed form and also to those who have never read the book.

The Kendal Weston Players will present an exquisite comedieta entitled "The Honeyeaters" with special stage treatment. As this is the farewell work for Mr. Weston and his talented partners to those who have not already enjoyed their bright little plays, should not miss the last two offerings. Parker's British Gazette and some scenic reels will conclude tonight's programme.

COME TO GEM TONIGHT

Everybody likes a detective story. The Gem has a five red one for tonight and tomorrow "The Phantom," in which Frank Keenan and Emil Markey are starred. It's full of surprises and thrills, a great finish. You're bound to like it. The fun will be in the capable hands of Frank Mann, two reels of comedy, "His Bread and Butter."

THE COMING OF THE 165TH

There still is some uncertainty regarding the hour which the troop train bearing the 165th Canadian battalion from Valcartier will arrive in St. John. According to the schedule received here by the railway officials, it was not due until 11 o'clock, but word was received this afternoon that the train had left Moncton at 1:37 and this would enable it to reach St. John by 4:30 or five o'clock. The wife of one of the officers also received word this afternoon by telegram that he would reach the city at 5 o'clock.

The uncertainty will be a handicap to the welcoming committee, but efforts are being made to meet the situation. Flags and bunting decorating the buildings in the principal streets will give evidence of the heartiness of the welcome which will be accorded the soldiers by the citizens.

LITTLE ONES DEAD

Friends of Somerset street, will sympathize with them in the loss of their only daughter, Helen Muriel, who died this morning.

The sympathy of friends of Mr. and Mrs. David McQuinn, aged thirteen months, will be extended to them in the loss of their little son, Leo D., aged thirteen months, who died this morning.

RUSSIA OPENING THE DOORS OF THE HIGHER SCHOOLS TO HEBREWS

Petrograd, Sept. 30.—Jews will enjoy greater educational advantages in Russia in the future. A series of high schools and technical schools exclusively for Jewish students is to be established and greater freedom will be accorded with respect to their entry into the universities.

The Russian government in the interest of education extends this greater advantage to the Jews. In addition to the large number of schools exclusively for Jewish students which exist at the present time, permission has been granted Mrs. Charles J. Harris of this city, for the establishment of Jewish gymnasiums (high or preparatory schools) in Petrograd, Kiev and other cities and towns, as well as colleges among which is the polytechnic institution at Yekaterinburg.

The increased facilities for the entry of Jews into the Petrograd University are to be seen in the fact that this year ninety-four out of 87 matriculated students attended the university, or about 11% per cent.

WERNER HORN APPEALS TO SUPREME COURT

Washington, Oct. 2.—Werner Horn, under indictment for the explosion which damaged the Canadian Pacific international bridge at Vancouver, B.C., last week, appealed to the supreme court last week.

He asked that the lower court ruling, denying him a writ of habeas corpus, be set aside. He contends that as a German army officer he could not be prosecuted for carrying out "an act of war" against British property.

His indictment was brought under the law prohibiting interstate transportation of explosives on passenger trains.

STRONG MEN OF OTHER DAYS.

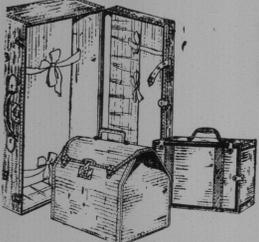

With reference to the police tug-of-war team which won the championship of the Maritime Provinces twenty-five years ago, an ex-police man writing to the Times mentions the names of the members of the team: A. Andersen, Harry Kilpatrick, S. D. Hannu, George Garrett and L. Thorne. At that time, he said, they defeated the Y. M. C. A. quintette, the Portland Rolling Mills team and others and later pulled a police team from the city, vanquishing it in like manner. The city team was composed of George Baxter, J. Green, J. Merrick, Wm. White and Hugh Gilson. 46834-10-2

IN THE DAY OF PERIL

(Toronto Star)
The proposals of the American Congress as to the reprisals which the United States might take against Great Britain and her allies because of interference with the free play of American trade during the war, have caused the New York Outlook to speak out strongly. It is not pleased with the way congress passed over the loss of American lives at Germany's hands, but at once talks of reprisals when there is loss of business at Britain's hands. "It is not astrange," it says, "that salaried broad-think we care more for property than for life."

The trouble has been, in the opinion of the Outlook, that Washington has taken too much the view of the attorney who would regard the nation as an client and seek only to defend her legal rights, whereas the view taken should have been that of the statesman concerned for the nation's welfare. "The official policy of the American nation," it says, "has been that of an attorney, not that of a statesman, and is full of serious peril to the nation in the future."
Germany declares that she is fighting for her life; America officially replies that she cares nothing about that. The allies declare that they are fighting to defend free government from a military autocrat; America officially replies that it is no concern of hers. The Outlook sees:—
"Individual Americans have once more countersigned this official declaration of merely neutrality, but indifference.
Thousands of them have gone across to border to enlist in the Canadian army; thousands of them have gone to the sea, some to enlist in the scronic ranks, some to enlist in the scro-
nic ranks, some to enlist in the scronic ranks. And the American policy, with a remarkable approach to anymity, has interpreted the faith of a American people that the Allies are siding on European soil, the battle which our fathers fought in 1776. But dividual expressions of appreciation

SCHOONER REACHED PORT
IN NICK OF TIME

The little schooner Hustler, Captain Irving, bound from Kingsport, N. S., to St. John, with a cargo of potatoes for the Eastern Steamship Company, sprang a leak off Quaco about nine o'clock Saturday night and, after a hard fight, reached here yesterday morning just in the nick of time, for she was washed and undoubtedly would have foundered.
The tugboat Wasson, Captain Morrell, sighted the vessel in the harbor and was successful in bringing her to the wharf.
With the high tide the vessel became submerged in the water and many of the barrels of potatoes went overboard. A big hole was discovered from the stern. It is doubtful if the potatoes will be any good or not. There were about 600 barrels.

MARINE NOTES

Half loaded with deals the English steamer Orange River, 4,000 tons registered, arrived in port yesterday from Alma. The steamer has been near the firing line as it is possible for a seafaring craft to get. Her headquarters have been at Dunkirk, France, fourteen miles from the battle front. The English and Canadian troops do all the unloading at the docks. At the approach of a hostile air craft a bell is sounded and the men make for the sand houses on the docks. Dunkirk has been wrecked by the air bombs and long distant shells. Some of the crew have seen aerial battle between the German and Allied airplanes.

THE WAR NEWS

The slow but steady advance of the British and French on the Somme front continues. The Russians, after a period of preparation, have launched a new drive north and south of Lemberg, and are drawing nearer the Galician capital.

CONCERNING INDEPENDENCE

"By all means," says the Sackville Post, "let us have an independent press. The Post adds that the spirit of independence is conspicuously lacking in the office of this newspaper."

A newspaper may be Conservative or Liberal, and yet be truly independent. Such a paper will condemn wrong-doing and wrong-doers in its own party. The chief fault of Canadian journalism has been a too strict adherence to party, and that fault is gradually being cured by the rise of journals which do not need a party, but refuse to accept responsibility for its wrong-doing.

THE FATE OF GERMANY

As an expression of the views of the great majority of the American people concerning the war situation, the following comment by the Bangor Commercial last week is of interest to Canadian readers: "But the address of the chancellor had no ring of confidence, no song of triumph to come. It halted in its facts and went lame in its conclusions. His remarks about the crops come close upon the appeal of the German food dictator to the rural residents to cut down their food consumption in view of the need that the soldiers and the munition workers should have sufficient food."

FEDERAL ELECTION MAY BE HELD NEXT APRIL

A rumor current in political circles in Ottawa is to the effect that a federal election is probable in April. The forces that are out for an appeal in December have little hope of success. The growing discontent with bungling and lack of leadership alarms those in touch with the people and another extension would probably not be concurred in by the Liberals.

The teacher was teaching her pupils grammar. "Now, Tom Jones," said to an intelligent youngster in the front seat of the class, "A is the indefinite article, you see, and must only be used with the singular number. You say 'man,' but you can't say 'a men,' can you?"

CAPTAIN'S LIFE SAVED BY STEEL WAISTCOAT

The escape of Captain Kinred provides one of the most remarkable stories of the war. He saw a bomb coming over his trench and drop near seven sleeping men. "In a moment," he writes, "I saw the danger they were in and so time could be lost in picking it up, so I decided to smother it by lying on it. No sooner had I laid on it than it exploded, blowing me from the corner of the trench at an angle of 303 degrees on its top and I was wearing a steel waistcoat. The captain was promoted on the field and was awarded the military cross for this act. The Bayfield steel waistcoat is worn under the tunic.

SAYS ALLIES EXPECT A YEAR MORE OF WAR

Paul D. Cravath, Chief of Germany's Doom

Sudden Peace a Myth—Attorney Found England and France Determined to Continue Until Prussianism is Crushed

(New York Times.)

Paul D. Cravath, a corporation lawyer, returned last night on the American liner Kronland after a two months' trip to France, where he visited the Somme and Verdun fronts. He said the official figures regarding the aerial fighting gave the Allies sixty during the month of August. It was evident, he said, that the Allies were preparing for at least another year of war, if not longer.

"The question of how long Germany can hold out will be decided when her government realizes that it is going to lose, he said. When asked by a Times reporter for his opinion of the conditions in the war zone from his own observations, Mr. Cravath said:

"My observations, superficial as they necessarily were, have completely revolutionized my conceptions of the magnitude of the achievements of the French and English nations in this war and of the issues at stake, not only for them, but for us in America. I return home with all doubt removed as to the ultimate certainty in this regard, and I am told that the same opinion has become general in neutral countries in Europe, even in those having pro-Teutonic sympathies.

"It now seems to me as certain as human affairs can be that the German armies that lost the battle of the Marne two years ago to greatly inferior forces, when every advantage was in their favor, cannot now win when superior and highly organized forces are facing them on every front.

"The question which is on every lip is: How long will the war last? The men who are in best position to say do not hazard an opinion except in their minimum duration. I am convinced that one element is wholly eliminated, and that it the possibility of the war ending suddenly or soon in a peace based on a compromise or an acceptance by the Allies of the conditions existing prior to the war. In both England and France—and I am told that the same is true of Russia—confidence in ultimate victory is accompanied by a grim determination to continue the war, whatever may be the sacrifice of life and treasure, until the Allies can impose upon the Central Powers a conclusive peace. One finds this determination alike in official circles, in the armies, and among the rank and file of the people at home. The governments of both England and France have already committed themselves to a definition of the term 'conclusive peace' which involves not only the liberation and indemnity of Belgium and Serbia and the restoration of Alsace and Lorraine to France, but also the assurance of an enduring peace by the destruction of Prussian militarism.

Another Year at Least.

"Manifestly, if the conclusions I have just stated are sound, the duration of the war will be measured by France's ability and willingness to resist the economic and military pressure to which she will be subjected with ever-increasing force. Few with whom I talked expect Germany to come to the Allies' terms within a year, and the governments of England and France make no concealment of the fact that they are making their preparations on that basis.

"We, in America, have no adequate conception of the magnitude of England's achievements in the war. The appeal of France has been so simple and direct that one's sympathy and admiration for the support of that nation for the most marvelous achievement of the war since the beginning of time, the victory of the Allies in the battle of the Marne, which still remains the miracle of the war. We are apt to forget that before conscription came almost 90 per cent of the available men of England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland were already volunteered and offered a volunteer army of 400,000 men. No one who has seen the mobilization of the British army can fail to be struck by the magnitude of the voluntary action of her people what it has taken Germany and France two generations to accomplish with the most drastic measures of conscription and organization. England has been turned into a veritable army camp. Soldiers are everywhere. To equip and arm this army there are over 4,000 factories operated by the government or under its control, many of them built since the beginning of the war. At least 2,000,000 people are engaged in the manufacture of munitions, and in other activities directly connected with the war. Since the outbreak of the war the production of munitions in England has been multiplied at least fifty-fold.

England's Gigantic Task.

"In two years England has spent over $2,000,000,000 on her own preparations, and loaned about $1,000,000,000 more to her allies and colonies. After allowing for the loss of the blunders and delays, this gigantic mobilization of the energies of the nation has been accomplished with a promptness and a universality of sacrifice and service for which history affords no parallel. The women of England have been wonderful. Hundreds of thousands of them of all ranks are doing work which in normal times is done by men.

"What is the feeling regarding the United States and her attitude toward the belligerents? That is a hard question to answer in a few words, and the feeling differs widely in different circles. In France the feeling is much more cordial than in England. That is doubtless partly due to the traditional friendship between the two great republics, but it is chiefly due, I should say, to the appreciation of the French people of the unofficial assistance which the people of America have been rendering to France.

Masses in England Despise U. S.

"In England the feeling is less cordial. In official circles and among well-informed people, particularly in London, the difficulties of our position are fairly well understood, and it is realized that the anti-British German and Irish elements in America are isolated and do not materially influence surrounding

POOR MEMORY TROUBLESOME

It May be Strengthened

The brain is a great nerve battery that presides over all the powers and impulses of the human body. Very frequently as a result of poor blood it becomes enfeebled and a general weakness of the entire system follows.

No remedy possesses the marvelous brain strengthening power that Ferronine has demonstrated in thousands of cases.

It contains an abundance of phosphorus and iron which are essential in the formation of red vitalizing blood, and in this way supplies the brain with extra power to perform its numerous and important duties.

Ferronine is the best preparation for brain workers, and those inclined to a sedentary life. It improves the appetite, insures good digestion, regulates the bowels, and helps the stomach to do its work.

Lawyers, ministers, and those whose occupation entails much thinking and brain labor, will find Ferronine of immense value, because of its power to stimulate mental activity. Students who take Ferronine regularly, find it not only clears the brain, and makes it more receptive, but makes them strong in body as well as mind.

A medical student of Toronto University, who has proved the good qualities of Ferronine, says: "On my study table there is always a place for Ferronine. I find by keeping my digestion in perfect order and maintaining a splendid appetite, it enables me to accomplish a good deal of hard work. I consider Ferronine at the same time food for the brain, the blood and the nerves, and can highly recommend it."

Very few are so strong and healthy that a course of Ferronine would not benefit. It is good for the young and old alike, and is prepared in convenient tablet form, price per box 50 cents, sold by all druggists.

FRENCH BAN ON MUSIC BY LIVE HUN COMPOSERS

New Conductor of Metropolitan Opera Will Conduct for Works of Dead Only

New York, Oct. 2.—On the steamer Rochambeau, which arrived from Bordeaux, came Cleonofonte Campini, conductor of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, Rita Formis, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and Pierre Monteaux, a French conductor, who was permitted to leave the front to conduct the music for the Russian ballet at the Metropolitan.

"I, for one, have never realized, as I do now, how deeply concerned we are in the victory of the Allies, and what terrible risks for the future our government is running in impelling our bloodless from the struggle which is convulsing the rest of the civilized world would entail."

Edgar Wright, a lumber dealer of New Orleans, filed suit for $2,000 against an engineer on the Baton Rouge, Hammond & Eastern R. R. In his petition Wright alleges he lost a lumber contract worth $2,000 because the engineer halted his train two hours to try his luck at fishing in a pond along the line.

would be permitted in Paris after the war. He hinted that the military success of the French would be so great that the government and people would not mind such a concession to the German composer.

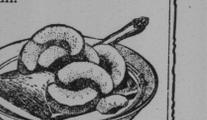

However, Mr. Monteaux went on to say that while music of a dead German is all right, the compositions of a living Teuton can never be recognized by a loyal Frenchman.

Hence the Metropolitan Opera Company, with the season only two weeks distant, is searching for a conductor for a Strauss opera. Monteaux said he refused to conduct Richard Strauss' "Till Eulenspiegel" because Strauss is living. He will conduct operas by List and Schumann because they are dead.

Mrs. Newcome—They tell me those dishes I bought for antique pottery were made in New York last summer.

Mr. Newcome—It must be the not what they were cracked up to!

Off to the Front! Put yourself in top-notch condition by eating Shredded Wheat Biscuit, a food that supplies the greatest amount of body-building material with the least tax upon the digestion. You cannot get to "the front" in any business with a poorly nourished body. Delicious for breakfast with sliced peaches and cream.

BRUCE RENEWS CHARGES Says Marwitz Evades the Issue at Antwerp in Belgium

London, Sept. 30.—Speaking of comments by General von Marwitz on the Bryce commission's report on German treatment of Belgian non-combatants, Lord Bryce said:

"While it is interesting to know the views of General von Marwitz as to how German armies might be expected to behave, it is much more important to know how they did in fact behave in Belgium, as proved by abundant evidence and by the diaries of German soldiers themselves."

"The invention of an Englishman, a clock that stops at the appointed hours, making the causes for the responses, has been presented to the Pope."

most of the worst acts they committed were done under discipline by orders of their officers, some of whom themselves expressed their regret at having been commanded to give such orders.

"It is significant that the German government has never attempted to disprove the report of the British commission published a few days ago. When it attempted a reply to the Belgian government's report its reply practically admitted the facts charged and tried to justify or palliate German offences by alleging that Belgian franc-tireurs had given provocation."

"The invention of an Englishman, a clock that stops at the appointed hours, making the causes for the responses, has been presented to the Pope."

"The German army is doubtless well disciplined, as the general says, but"

"The death of Walter Frederick, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, 47 Broad street, occurred yesterday at his parents' home."

AWFUL CARNAGE IN BALKAN FIGHT

Bloody Battle of Serbians and Bulgarians

LATTER PLANNED SURPRISE

No Bombardment Preceded Attack—Three Hours of Bayonet and Hand Bomb Deadly Work—Enemy Finally Routed

(London Times' Special Cable to Telegraph)

London, Oct. 1.—A Times' special from the Serbian army at Ostovar on September 29, describes a bloody battle at Kaymakchian as follows:—The Serbians were not unprepared for Monday's determined attempt to recapture the magnificent position essential to the defence of Monastir. The expected attack came at four o'clock in the morning. No preliminary artillery fire heralded it. The Bulgarian commander evidently deemed it best to dispense with this help, hoping to take us unaware and have his troops carry all before them by a surprise rush. The attacking host came so suddenly that the Serbian advanced line was overwhelmed.

MRS. MAY'S LETTER TO WOMEN

More Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a bad case of female illa. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and I took about six bottles. It fixed me up all right. The common symptoms of such a condition—pain when walking, irritation, bearing down, nervousness and disordered digestion—soon passed away. I look much better now than I did before, and I recommend the Compound every time for female troubles, as it did for me all it is claimed to do. You have my permission to publish this letter." Mrs. J. May, 3648 S. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill.

If you have any of the symptoms mentioned in Mrs. May's letter, remember what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and try it yourself. It is a good old-fashioned medicine, made from roots and herbs, and it has helped countless numbers of women. If you need special advice, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

The New Whirlpool Bath Is Used Instead of Bandages

Wonderful Improved Appliances and Methods Cure Many Soldiers Without Pain at English Military Hospitals—Electric Machine Sprays Ozone Into Injured Limbs

Of new and improved appliances and methods of treatment many wonderful examples are to be seen at the English military hospitals. Queen Alexandra's Military Hospital is described as follows by the London Daily Mail: I saw several patients unlimbly covered with a loose layer of lint in the intervals, and in four days healing was in rapid progress. This treatment is simplicity itself. Oxygen passes from a reservoir into an electrical machine which converts it into ozone; the ozone flows out through a fine metal tube. The machine is wheeled close to the patient's bed, the wound uncovered, and a stream of the ozone-killing ozone flows into the deepest recesses. No painful dragging of bandages, no rebandaging of the limb to hurt and exhaust the patient. I saw here a soldier who had lost his right foot with a stump covered with skin so healthy and hard that he could walk upon it, a surgical marvel. What might be called the open-air treatment of wounds has come to stay. At the Herbert Hospital is a soldier with a bad compound fracture of the leg. The limb is not swathed in many layers of bandages as was the custom, but lies between sandbags to secure immobility and is covered only with a single layer of lint.

The Whirlpool Bath The lint is kept constantly wet with an antiseptic fluid (peroxide hydrogen). Surrounding the leg is a large cage covered with a sheet of thin rubber matting, so that the wound is continuously refreshed by a free current of air. Extremely rapid healing and freedom from the agony of manipulation are the great gains from this mode of treatment. The whirlpool bath is entirely a war invention, from which excellent results in cases of stiff joints have been obtained in France. As I saw it at some of the military hospitals visited, it consists of a small oblong bath, filled with water which is kept in continuous movement by a miniature propeller revolved at a very high speed by means of an electric motor. A stiff arm or leg, hand or foot, placed in the bath and kept there for some time is much improved by the stimulus of the running water. Marvellous examples of bone carpentry are to be seen, such as the transference of a large piece of bone from the leg to fill a gap in the arm bone or jaw. Trench-foot is being more or less successfully treated by massage, operation, and other methods. I saw a soldier victim of this affection walking with a little difficulty, but very well pleased with himself; it was the first time he had put on boots for nine months. Cured by Exercise All sorts of joint injuries go to Hammermith Hospital, and there as well as at other hospitals, is to be seen a col-

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACK YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends all Stomach Distress in Five Minutes If Cross, Feverish or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store. These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach distress and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

If Cross, Feverish or Bilious Give "California Syrup of Figs"

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given. If your little one is out-of-order, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping and you have a well, playful child. Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

ENGINEERS HAVE GRIEVANCE AGAINST OTTAWA POWERS

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—The government is in hot water with the engineering, architectural and contracting interests of the Dominion. Discrimination against Canadian engineers, architects and contractors in favor of Americans is the reason given. The Canadian Society of Civil Engineers has addressed a strong letter of protest to the government in connection with the recent commission appointed to inquire into the railway problems of the Dominion. This commission consists of Sir Harry Drayton, chairman of the Dominion Railway Commission, and A. H. Smith, general manager of the New York Central Railway. Sir George Paish, financier of London, England, was a member, but is too ill to act. The commission, it is charged, immediately appointed an American engineer as its advisor, and instructed him to organize a corps of engineers for valuation and advisory work. "We wish," says the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, "to record our strong disapproval of the appointment of a commission appointed by the Canadian government to investigate Canadian railways for which the Canadian community has paid. The inference to be drawn from such action," continues the letter, "is that the federal government considers—first, that the Canadian engineers who built the railways are not competent to report on them; second, that the Canadian engineers, in many cases enjoying government subsidies, are not producing competent engineers; third, that the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, although embracing a membership of about 2,000, is not considered worthy of consultations of an important engineering question." The society contends that this is not the first "flagrant case of aliens being preferred to Canadians. Strong protests have been received in connection with the letting of the contracts for the million-dollar Lindsay arsenal to the New York firm of Westinghouse, Kirk Company. It is contended by architects and contractors that many Canadian firms are competent to design and do the work, but that no opportunity was given them to tender upon it. The governments "truck and trade" with the Yankees is getting it into serious difficulties.

12 U. S. WARSHIPS CONVOY INTERNEED CRUISERS ON MOVE

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Convoys by the United States battleships Minnesota and Vermont, the interned German cruisers Kron Prinz Wilhelm and Prinz Sidel Friedrich arrived at the Philadelphia naval yard tonight from Norfolk. A convoy of 12 warships escorted the interned cruisers up the coast, because it was necessary to go outside the three-mile limit. The seventy-four officers and men of the cruiser will be kept in close confinement at the navy yards.

IN THE CHURCHES

Several of the churches of the city conducted a Sunday school rally yesterday and they were marked generally by a large attendance and special features to interest the pupils. In most of the Presbyterian churches the rally was held last Sunday, but St. David's rally was held yesterday.

The rally in St. David's was of the nature of a recruiting meeting and was of an appealing nature. Many of the pupils were given an opportunity of expressing how they could best "do their bit." Special hymns were sung and the pastor of the church, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, gave an interesting and helpful address on Do Your Bit. Robert Reid, superintendent of the school, presided and he also addressed the children. T. H. Hutchinson, of the Y. M. C. A., spoke briefly on the coming boys' conference to be held here.

A special programme of appropriate music was conducted at the rally in the Queen square Methodist church. The special features included a solo by Mrs. Curran, the reading of the honor roll of the Sunday school and church, following which Miss Marion Paterson gave a patriotic solo; J. G. Stenhouse, solo; Mrs. T. J. Gunn, violin solo; Miss Roberta Smith, reading; Miss Marion Paterson, reading; songs by the primary class, and reading by nine little girls. Mayor Hayes was present and gave a very helpful address.

The rally in Main street Baptist church, held in the afternoon, was attended by more than 400 pupils, and there were thirty children of the primary class who graduated into the advanced classes. The superintendent, A. R. Christie, presided and special music was rendered by the Sunday school choir, led by Miss Grace Hutchinson. Miss Ella McAlary, superintendent of the primary class, conducted the graduating exercises, following which addresses were given by the superintendent and the pastor, Dr. D. Hutchinson.

BURIED YESTERDAY

The funeral of James Stringer took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, 118 Sheffield street. It was very largely attended and there were numerous floral offerings bearing testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Rev. H. A. Cody conducted service at the home at the grave in Fernhill. The little child of Mr. and Mrs. George Stafford was buried yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from their home, 18 Clarence street. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

MILITARY MOLLY HAS SET A NEW MARK

Rain and damp weather of Saturday afternoon and evening alone prevented a record breaking attendance at the last two seasons of Military Molly's big fair, which closed at St. Andrew's rink, Saturday evening. The total gross receipts for the three evenings and Saturday afternoon were $8,899.86. This figure surpasses any of the previous fairs held by the Rotary Club.

AFTER LONG AND HONORABLE TIME OF SERVICE

On Saturday evening Thomas J. Morgan was given a genuine surprise at his home in Main street, when about a dozen of his fellow employees of the men's clothing department of M. R. A. Limited, called at his home and made him the recipient of a beautiful Morris chair and an umbrella suitably engraved. The affair was the occasion of Mr. Morgan's severing his connection with the firm.

Mr. Morgan joined the staff twenty-one years ago and since that time has been a valued and efficient member. His long and faithful career as an entrusted employe now closes with his superannuation.

During the evening there were many expressions of goodwill and a very pleasant time was spent. Regret was expressed at the departure of Mr. Morgan from his post and his separation from his former employe, and it was evident that during his long period with the firm he had won the esteem of all. His many friends will hear with interest of his superannuation and will join in wishing him many years of happiness.
