St. John Gives Stirring Welcome To Sturdy Soldiers Of 69th Battalion

Lt. Col. Dansereau And His Men Warmly Greeted On Arrival Here For Winter Quarters And The Men In Khaki Show Their Pleasure

Welcome to the 69th! The hand of hospitality was eagerly extended to the French-Canadians from Montreal and other parts of Quebec who arrived in the city this morning, as they paraded from the Union Depot to the armory. Along every street were great throngs of people, from every vantage point they shouted welcome to the troops; cheer upon cheer rolled after the 69th as they moved smartly along and the reception accorded them was considered a most enthusiastic demonstration, and one which tended to make them feel instantly at home.

Under command of Lieut. Col. Dansereau, the men were drawn up in battalion order and from a waiting automobile Mayor Brink extended them a warm welcome, in behalf of the city, and the best wishes of the citizens. He complimented Col. Dansereau upon his return to health after having been wounded at the front, and wished him success with the command.

The arrival. The first train, with about 600 men of the 69th, reached the depot about 10:40 o'clock this morning, while the second did not come in until nearly noon.

KITCHENER NOW HAS DONE GOOD WORK IN ITALY

THE WIND CAUSE

The pilot in charge of the steamer Dundee, which had some difficulty in entering No. 15 berth, yesterday explained that the heavy wind was responsible. The steamer was docked just before high tide when the incoming tide was expected to offset the high wind but the breeze was so strong that the tug started to put their power on both lines parted and set the steamer adrift. Extra lines were secured from the towboats and another attempt made with the same result. By this time the steamer was abreast No. 15 pier and settled in against it. It is said that the damage is so slight that the paint had to be removed for examination before it was discovered. He adds that the port of St. John is singularly free from accidents even in comparison with other ports where conditions are easier for handling vessels.

CARNEGIE NOW HAS ONLY TWENTY MILLIONS LEFT

True to Policy of Dying Poor, Most of This is to Go to Charity—Has Given Away About $350,000,000

New York, Nov. 27.—Andrew Carnegie has a fortune of $20,000,000. Of the vast wealth which the ironmaster possessed when he started giving away his fortune twenty years ago in conformity with his principle of dying poor, that is all he has left. He is now far down on the list of American millionaires. Mr. Carnegie has given away about $350,000,000. If interest were to be included on some of the funds he has set aside the total would reach nearly $400,000,000.

TRouble BETWEEN BULGARS AND TURKS

Paris, Nov. 27.—Newspapers of Bulgaria, says the Schmidt correspondent of the Paris Press, are declaring that the Bulgarian army having conquered the Serbian Macedonia, Bulgaria should be satisfied with its triumph and, seeing that Thrace is being retained by the Turks, should not further the fear of the Serbians. In fact the correspondent quotes the Bulgarian papers saying there are now seven Turkish divisions at Sofia, northeast of Dedeagatch, one division at Mustapha Pacha, one division at Varna and one each at Burgas and Constantinople.

The Bulgarian newspapers, the correspondent says, are strongly insisting that the question of Thrace has been definitely settled and that with Germany's support Turkey in Europe should be replaced within the limits in which she was confined in 1911.

The correspondent adds: "If the misunderstanding on this subject continues and in view of the recent speech made by Premier Radoloff of Bulgaria, in which he declared that Thrace should be Bulgarian, the prophecy of ex-Premier Venizelos of Greece may yet be realized and the Bulgarians in the end may be found fighting on the side of those they formerly attacked."

HARMONY MALE GLEE CLUB TO GIVE FINE CONCERT TO HELP PATRIOTIC FUND

The name of this popular organization has appeared before the public quite recently of late, and its members individually, in quartette or as a body have taken part, quite voluntarily and without remuneration, in a number of patriotic gatherings, recruiting meetings and concerts to the soldiers during the last few weeks. A good percentage of the club's former members are either at the front or on the way there, while most of those remaining are ineligible for one reason or another. But if they cannot fight themselves, they are doing what they can to help those who have donned the khaki, or may do so.

The club is preparing for a grand patriotic concert to be given in the Opera House on December 1st, and it is safe to say that the programme will be the best ever given in the city by a chorus of male voices. Those who heard the concert given by the club last spring will not have forgotten the surprisingly artistic singing of the club, which now numbers nearly fifty voices. The programme being rehearsed is one of exceptional merit and that, together with the fact that all the proceeds of the concert will be given to the Patriotic Fund, which needs replenishing so badly, should ensure a large demand for tickets, which will be on sale by the members on Thursday next.

LI-Col. Danvers and the officers and men of the 69th Battalion are welcomed to St. John. This city has so many of its own young men in khaki that its people have a special and personal interest in all of the soldiers of Canada.

MR. HENRY FORD

Is Mr. Henry Ford, an enemy of human welfare? He is going about making a great ado about peace and the importance of getting the soldiers out of the trenches before Christmas.

COLORED MAN WON V. C.

In view of the fact that nearly a score of colored men of St. John who enlisted are still waiting to be attached to some battalion, it may be recalled that a Nova Scotia negro won the Victoria Cross at the relief of Lucknow.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Sergt. Knight is emphatic in his assertion of the claims of wounded soldiers upon places in the public service of Canada. He is entirely right. The men who save the country have a very strong claim upon what it has to offer.

UNITED STATES AND GERMANY

Since the beginning of the war the Germans have made the United States a base of operations against the Allies. Even before the war started their agents by an artfully designed newspaper propaganda did all in their power to arouse prejudice against the British.

LIGHTER VEIN

Not Practical. The self-made man was in a caustic mood. "These schools, ye know," he said, "they're no good. Don't give a boy no practical knowledge, see what I mean?"

Like Old Mortality

"Perhaps this passage from 'Old Mortality' seems fitting for the mouths of our leaders at this present time. 'Hinder me not,' replied Burley.

Caution

"Had you the audacity, John," said a Scottish laird to his servant, "to go and tell some people that I was a mean fellow, and no gentleman?"

CANADIAN WIRELESS SCORES NEW TRIUMPH

Station on B.C. Coast Talks to Ship More Than Half Way to Japan

The Naval Service Department which has had remarkable success with its wireless station at Cape Race, has scored another triumph on the Pacific Coast.

A range of 2,600 miles has been obtained by the Estevan wireless station which is half way up the west coast of Vancouver Island.

That is to say communication has been kept up with a vessel considerably more than half way to Yokohama, after which the ordinary wave length of 600 metres, the extra power does not seem to increase the range to any marked degree, but when a special wave length of 1,000 metres is used, one of five kilowatts and one of one kilowatt. This 600 metre wave length is used for all shipping work and is the wave provided by the international agreement.

The Estevan station communicates at night with liners on the Pacific routes at distances of 1,000 to 1,500 miles.

Distance Experiments.

Recently experiments have been made to ascertain just what distance could be reached by a station working with large ships, and it has been found that the station could communicate steadily with ships up to a distance of 2,600 miles.

For a small station of this kind the results are quite remarkable and are due to the peculiar atmospheric conditions. Occasionally results of this kind are obtained in other places, but they are freaks and only occur in odd instances, whereas in the winter season these distances are operated over as a regular thing on the Pacific Ocean.

When the Crockerland expedition from the United States went north to Flegler Sound west of Baffin Land, the Canadian Naval Service Department agreed to try at a certain hour every Monday night to communicate with them from the Port Nelson and Cape Race stations.

The distance, especially overland was too great, however, and the stations were never able to catch anything from the wireless operator with the expedition.

BILLY SUNDAY'S ORATORY AMAZES TORONTO CLERGY

Rev. Dr. Chown, General Superintendent of The Methodist Church, Does Not Doubt The Faith of Sunday

Toronto, Nov. 27.—The attitude of Billy Sunday in his tirade against liquor, has brought forth many opinions in ministerial circles in the city. While some of the parsons are surprised at the forcible actions of the famous evangelist, the consensus of opinion was that he was the "right man for the job."

Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, said that while he was like an electric battery he had no doubt of the man's faith.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Atkins, in an interview stated he believed Sunday a man of God, and as long as he assisted thousands from the downward path, he could afford to pay little heed to criticism.

Canon Dixon coincided with the views of Rev. W. F. Wilson, both gentlemen being amazed at his wonderful power of delivery.

The Rev. John McNeill, R. B. Cochrane and Dr. Neil, all members of the Presbyterian church, were unanimously of the opinion that the sermon would be a great impetus to stamping out the liquor trade in Ontario.

Rev. J. W. Peckley was of the reverse opinion. He said he did not attend the meeting and had absolutely no use for the man.

Dr. W. H. Hincks, a Methodist member, refused to praise or criticize. Approximately $8,000 was taken in collections at the meeting.

Promotion for Leon Archibald, Well Known Here

HIS MOTHER DOES HER SHARE

Exhibit of More Than 400 Jars of Preserves Personally Prepared by Mrs. Archibald for the Soldiers, Her Second Shipment

Miss Alicia Heales, Spring street, this city, has received a newspaper account of splendid work done for our Canadian soldiers by her friend, Mrs. Rachel Archibald, widow of the late Dr. Archibald of Wolfville, N. S. Her son Pte. Leon Archibald, at one time civil engineer with the C. P. R. and was among the first to respond to the call of his king and country.

A Wolfville paper says:—"The basement of Mrs. Archibald's residence on Central avenue presented a busy and interesting scene last week when her gift of more than 400 jars of preserves, jams, syrups and pickles, prepared by Mrs. Archibald, was distributed for the patients of the Canadian Hospital at Le 4 report, were being packed into their attractive travelling containers.

The packing boxes, made by Mr. Wright, were designed by Mrs. Archibald. On the outside they are bound with iron, reinforced where the handles join, and the covers were covered on the inside with corrugated paper, and each jar labelled and wrapped in tissue paper and waxed paper, was placed in its own little apartment, where which sawdust was used to fill all crevices, so that the jars were wedged firmly in place.

Miss Archibald pasted the labels. Mr. Mills did the packing, young ladies from the seminary tucked in little notes that were to let each sick boy know he had good friends at home who wanted him to be well and strong again. Joseph Bishop screwed the covers on the filled boxes, and Edson Graham pasted the lettering by hand. The finished boxes were most attractive.

When the fruit began ripening in August Mrs. Archibald began work. She gathered raspberries, blackberries, cherries, currants, grapes, pears, plums and apples, often taking the fruit harvesters left the orchards and some cases fruit was presented to her, and many friends knowing the work she was engaged in, helped her in the form of sugar and jars, the boxes were also given. But each berry and fruit received her own personal touch. Mrs. Archibald, ready to tempt the palate of some breathless soldier, prepared a variety of jams and jellies.

The long table filled with jars and bottles filled with preserves. Marmalades and jellies, put up by a connoisseur's skill, and designed for each purpose, were arranged in neat rows. To be seen. Here were plums in their purple jelly, canned peaches and plums, preserved raspberries and peaches, spiced plum sauce, jam, pear and ginger marmalade, currant and raspberry jelly, apple jelly, pickles of all kinds that invigilate, may taste and lastly, bottles and bottles full of syrup—raspberry, blackberry, currant and grape.

"I have tried to have such an amount" explained Mrs. Archibald, "that each of our 1,000 boys at Le 4 report may have at least a taste of homemade syrup or preserves in some form."

The gift was designed by Mrs. Archibald in response to a request sent her by her son, Leon, now serving with the Royal Engineers, who wrote her of the need of the sick boys for a little bit of something home-made, from the mother's pantries, saying it would be most helpful to them than any medicine.

One boxful of the fruit was sent as a personal gift to Mrs. Strong and her staff of nurses. This is the second shipment. Mrs. Archibald has made to Le 4 report since May, and she expects to make another before the end of the year."

Any man making a pretence of being honest will try to pay for what he gets. But having admitted the justice of the claim that he do so he may be surprised at the witness of the application of the principle that lies at the back of it. The earth pays for what it gets—the rain and the sunshine, and the breezes of heaven—with fruitfulness, waving grain, buds and blossoms and fruits, and the smiling green of the meadows. It is not a mere sponge, receiving always and never responding to the giver. It gives back every drop with added something of its own. The earth is honest, generously honest. And a man ought not to be any less so. He is getting every day and hour and moment of his life getting from all sides and on all possible ways.

"In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. It was treated by several physicians for nearly two years. I was in constant misery from my stomach and my weight dropped down from 220 pounds to 160 pounds. Several of my friends advised me to try 'Fruit-a-lives' and I did so. That was eight months ago. I began to improve almost with the first dose. No other medicine I ever used acted so pleasantly and quickly as 'Fruit-a-lives' and by using it I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble, and all pain and misery were cured. I completely recovered by the use of 'Fruit-a-lives' and now I weigh 220 pounds. I cannot praise 'Fruit-a-lives' enough."

GOOD SHOW AT OPERA HOUSE FOR COMING WEEK

A change of policy at the Opera House for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the coming week, will introduce a new picture programme, the chief feature of which will be that big vital Mutual Master picture in four thrilling acts, "Mama, Looey!" The drama was taken from the famous novel by Emile Gaborian and introduced the famous French Sherlock Holmes acknowledged to be the greatest detective of his time, in a series of thrilling and sensational episodes while on the track of a criminal in high life. The story is one of intense interest and will hold the spectator in breathless suspense while the many incidents are unfolded on the screen. The photography is remarkably good, one of the best pictures the Mutual company has ever screened, in fact. In addition to this sensational picture, the programme will include a big comedy scream, "Caught in the Act," full of fun and hearty laughter, in one reel, also the great Gaumont Weekly, with 1,000 feet of the latest pictorial news direct from the battle fronts and training camps. In addition to the picture, a clever local singer will appear at each performance. Matinee every day at 2:30, evening at 7 and 9, little prices. A full 2 hour show at every performance.

Saved His Comrade

Private Jack Markey of Fredericton who has been invalided home, has received a letter from the mother of Corporal Duncan Fisher, a young Scot, and a fellow member of the Princess Patricia's whose life he saved in May by carrying him to safety after Fisher had received four wounds.

A band of about thirty boys, ranging in age from six to ten years, wearing improvised uniforms and headed by a banner with the inscription "If men won't go we must," paraded the North End streets yesterday.

Souvenir of Battery

The 28th Battery Field Artillery, which was stationed in Fredericton, issued a booklet before leaving England containing the history of the battery from the time of its formation until it left for France. The booklet was arranged and produced by Sergeant-Major

About Baby

III.

BABIES are frequently over-fed. Their capacity for food is very small—at birth 1-oz., at two months 3-ozs.

It is the amount of food digested that nourishes. Do not feed Baby just because he cries, probably the reason is indigestion from over-feeding, not hunger.

The nature of the Food should be right as well as the quantity. Doctors and nurses throughout the world recommend

Allenburg's Foods

The best alternative to Human Milk.

Holly H. Patchell, of St. John, who was recently granted a commission in the Royal Garrison Artillery, in a letter to his mother, Mrs. E. W. Chase, tells of meeting several St. John men and of having supper with Fred Dancy, a former chum, in a French farmhouse.

It is interesting to recall just now (says The Westminster Gazette) that the inventor of shrapnel—Lieutenant-General Henry Shrapnel—gained much of his military experience in Flanders. He served with the Duke of York's army there, and soon after the siege of Dunkirk invented the case shot, a destructive engine of war used by the Royal Artillery, and known by the name of Shrapnel Shell. So runs the inscription on a large slab at the floor of the church in Bradford-on-Avon Church, Wiltshire, where the general was buried. The inventor's reward was a pension of £1,200 per annum. The Shrapnels were for three generations cloth weavers at Bradford-on-Avon.

"SOMETHING IN AIR" WRITES LT. CARTER

A very interesting letter has been received by E. S. Carter, of Rothesay, from his son, Lieut. Arthur N. Carter, machine gun officer of the York and Lancaster 8th Battalion, "Kitcheners" Army.

"For your great trouble about the socks I am very grateful. They will be of the greatest benefit imaginable to the men. While the government issue socks they are poor in quality and very insufficient in number. One pair of hand-knit Canadian socks will outlast four of government issue and be infinitely warmer. Every pair will be put to good use, depend upon it.

"We had a very quiet here largely due to the wretched weather. Lots of mud and water in the ditches now. I have a famous pair of rubber boots issued by the government and these are invaluable. They reach to the hips and save your thighs which get so wet as your feet—short rubber boots are practically worthless.

"I had a very merry time in the trenches last time. After the dry summer the sand bags of which the dugouts are made, were very rotten and literally soaked in burring officers, men, equipment, indiscriminately. It would have been humorous if it had not been so desperately stinky and cold. However, everyone practically keeps well and day's sunshine restores everyone's temper marvellously.

ONLY SIXTEEN, GIRL VERY SICK

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am now 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine—Miss ANSELJA JAQUILAND, 8951 Teboupolis St., New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."—Miss ESTRELLA MACQUE, 110 Twining St., St. Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medical Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

TWO NEW LINES ADDED TO TELEPHONE SERVICE
 Extensions to the service of the N. B. Telephone Co. have been made in some of the river districts, co-operating with rural exchange companies. With ten or twelve subscribers already a line has been opened by the Cambridge Telephone Co. connecting with the N. B. Company's exchange at Gagetown, starting from there across the river to Morris Scovill's by submarine cable, and thence along the Washademoak Lake to Colwell's Point and from there to Motta wharf.
 Service will be established this week by the Young's Cove Road Telephone Co. starting from Young's Cove station on the N. B. Coal and Railway Co. branch and going along the highway through Waterborough parish, a distance of about eleven miles. There are about fifteen subscribers on this line. Connection will be made with Norton and Chipman through the N. B. Telephone Co. exchanges.

Make Hay, Or Sell It
The man who talks of the wisdom of making hay while the sun shines has something to learn from the man who got a government hay contract while the war rages.

With patriotic potatoes and patriotic hay, Carden county will soon rank on a level with the Nova Scotia horse country.

No doubt the patriotic hay will be especially reserved for the Nova Scotia horse country.

The Peace Expedition
Those going on Henry Ford's expedition to Europe will have a cheerful little holiday, if nothing else.

Henry says he got the idea for the peace ship "Invincible," from the fact that persons are liable to ask what he ate the night before.

If Jane Addams accepts the invitation to join the expedition let's hope she will learn a little more about the war and its causes than she did on her last trip.

French authorities buying nine million pounds of dried vegetables in New York for soups for their soldiers. Some of those German "buds" who were doing so much talking some time ago must be about dry enough for shipment.

Have you noticed the outside windows of the street cars? They will make the cars much more comfortable.

The next installation should be a little heater in the vestibule not only for the conductor but for those who can't get a seat inside because of the crowd.

How is this for a motto: If I ride, rust; if I trust I bust; therefore no rust, no trust, no bust. Worth trying.

Those Parcel Post Rates
Postal department says French rates, almost triple, must be paid on parcels to overseas soldiers if there is any suspicion that the battalion has crossed the channel.

Of course the censors who carefully conceal the movements of troops, will confide in every country post mistress so she can tell what rates to charge.

Suppose the battalion goes to France after the parcel has been mailed, will our Canadian postal authorities instruct the British post office not to deliver the parcels?

Why should any one have to pay French rates on a parcel addressed to London?

And is it correct that the British army service corps delivers the parcels and that the French post office has nothing to do with the delivery?

If so what happens to the extra twenty cents a pound postage?

WILL MAKE BIG GUNS IN CANADA SOME TIME

Ottawa, Nov. 27 — While the reply from the British Department of Munitions suddenly dispenses of the expected manufacture of big guns in Canada, the investigation and favorable report of Sir Frederick Donaldson on the capacity of the Canadian steel plants and other shops gives reason to anticipate the making of big guns in this country a little later in order to supply at least the requirements of the military forces of the dominion.
No special reason has been given for the decision of the imperial authorities, but it is believed that it is partly, at least, the necessity for the earliest possible delivery.

AN INTERESTING FACT

St. John Volunteer Descendant of Man Into Whose Arms Nelson Fell on the Victory

To Gunner Clyde C. Corkum of No. 1 Company, Sarge Battery, now located at Partridge Island, belongs the unique distinction of being the direct descendant of the man who caught in his arms Nelson when, mortally wounded, he fell on his good ship, "Victory," at the memorable battle of Trafalgar.
Mr. Corkum traces descent as follows: His mother, Mrs. Margaret Corkum, now resident at 189 St. James street, is the daughter of a fleet-craft of Gloucester, N.S., (now 76 years of age). Mr. Croft was the son of Mrs. Margaret Croft who, in turn, was the daughter of Thomas Simmons, the name referred to. What young Simmons was at work when he was captured is not known. His place home town, Tomb Hill, London, England, the word came that his services were urgently needed and without more ado he scopped himself on board a man of war ship. For three and a half years he continued a sailor's life never having been home once in all that time.
He was the proud possessor of three medals. Needless to say, these are precious heirlooms in the family today. When Mr. Simmons finally gave up the sailor's life he eventually came to this country and settled at Dover, N.S. Young Corkum, who enlisted on Oct. 22, is now in his 18th year. His fighting blood has thus come down to him from his great-great-grandfather. He was a valued member of the Fire Side Club and his fellow members are proud of him.

Before leaving St. John he was manager of the National in the East End Baseball League and was prominent in the activities of the league. It is understood that when war was declared and since then no word had been received from him until the recent letter.

FORMER RESIDENT OF ST. JOHN NOW OFFICER WITH VON HINDENBURG

The interesting news that a former St. John resident is now lieutenant in the German army under General Von Hindenburg has been received in a letter from the young man to a friend here. While in St. John he was engaged in various lines of business and at the time of his departure had an office in one of the bank buildings. It was some time before the war that he left St. John to go to Berlin in an alleged effort to secure capital for a maritime province corporation. He was believed to be in Berlin when war was declared and since then no word had been received from him until the recent letter.
From his name and what was known of him it was believed that the young man was a Swede and not a German but certainly his sympathies, like those of many of his fellow countrymen were with the enemy.

FORMER CALLETON BANDSMAN ON WAY HOME FROM THE WAR

A message this morning by France Lodge of west St. John, from Ottawa, brought the good news that his son, Sergt. Frank H. Lodge should be home in a few days. Sergt. F. J. GILLET KICKED BY HORSE; NURSE IS ST. JOHN GIRL

His injuries were not severe, but he was being treated for a time in hospital. He wrote that he had been greatly pleased to have a St. John girl as nurse, Miss Powers, who was most kind to him. Gunner Gillett left here with the artillery.

LETTER FROM GUNNER R. J. TURNER

The following letters have been received by Mrs. Robt. Turner, Sandy Point road, from her son, Gunner Robert J. Turner, now in France with the 2nd Divisional Ammunition Column:
Dear Mother:
Just a few lines to let you know I am well, and hope this will find you all the same. This is Sunday, and it is pretty quiet. The weather is a little bit better, but the mud is a fright; it is not very cold over here yet and we are just as glad of it. I get up to the trenches pretty often, and getting pretty well used to it now. I wish they would start in good and drive the Germans off the map, and get it over with. I think this winter will make them look pretty sick by all reports, if things go the way we want them to.
Well, mother, we certainly have a great little bungalow here. I can't help telling you about it; we have a dandy fire on now, just like home, sweet home. Percy Lawson, "Happy" Evans, Les Young and myself own them. They all call us the "Happy Family" or the Big Four. If we have any wet clothes when we go to bed they are dry in the morning—some class.
I guess I will ring off now, remember me to all the folks, and do not worry as I am all right over here.
Your loving son,
BOB.

FIGHT WELL ON EMPTY STOMACHS

Serbian Have Been Battling Four Years

THE SMILE NEVER LACKING

Every Man and Boy Who Can Carry a Rifle or Serve a Gun Fighting For Honor and Safety of Nation

London, Nov. 26.—(Correspondence)—A writer in the Times gives interesting personal impressions of the Serb people, as seen by him in war time. He found many Irish characteristics among the people and declares that the Serb soldier is the ideal fighting man.

the (Cisic railway) this year, at which the population of half a province annually gathered. With others, I tried to buy some of these scarfs to send home to England, and we did buy them in yellow and white. But the Serbs were not, as I learned afterwards, elsewhere there was a black one to be bought in Serbia. The black scarfs—either all black or with a little decorative border in white—were worn for mourning; and the demand has been so great that black scarfs were not to be had.

Serb Like the Irishman.

"Yet the Serbian's laughter-loving disposition has remained unimpaired. The discovery which every British soldier goes to Serbia soon makes for himself is that the Serbian is like the Irishman. The two master words in the Serbian tongue today are 'Dobro,' which means 'No, there isn't any,' and 'Dobro,' which means 'Good-bye.' It is the result of the last four years of privation. 'There isn't any' is true of almost everything. The visitor grows accustomed to going down a street of shops and asking everywhere for some simple article, and everywhere meeting with the same reply, 'Nema.'

"At the smallest excuse 'Dobro' follows. Everything is 'good.' You see the soldier, wounded or ill, awaiting his turn to be admitted to the hospital, how he and before you ask you know that the answer will be 'Dobro' and that it will be accompanied by a smile. You will find the unwounded man that the Germans are coming, outnumbering the Serbian army by three to one, to wipe Serbia and the Serbians off the map, and he laughs a carefree laugh and his eyes twinkle as he tells you 'Dobro.'

"There is also a third master word in the language, which is 'sutra,' and that is 'tomorrow.' That beautiful indefinite time when everything is going to be done that ought to be done today. That also is very Irish. But in the Serbian case it is chiefly the result of 400 years of Turkish rule, four centuries during which procrastination and indifference have been the guiding principles of all policies and all administrative acts.

"It is impossible to think of the Serbian man except as a soldier, and that is his chief quality. He is already a soldier in position today. She has no reserves. Her entire fighting strength, almost her entire population, is already in the ranks. Only in Nish, in connection with the government offices, does one see any number of military age men who are not in uniform, grey or khaki, with the little Serbian service cap, like a khaki Gleanery without the tails, and a jaunty hat on the head, and the queer headdress of a black felt coat, foot-guards, which look like a first attempt at a military uniform, and which is excellently adapted to the rough hills and muddy valleys which make the Serbian soldier's battlefield.

GREAT BRITAIN'S BUSINESS IN GREECE

There is No Parallel Between it and Germany's Invasion of Belgium. (Toronto World)

There is an impression in some quarters that Great Britain has as little business in Greece as Germany had in Belgium. It is a mistake to compare the two cases. The British business in Greece is a business of peace, not of war. It is a business of commerce, not of conquest. It is a business of mutual benefit, not of mutual destruction.

CREUSOT WORKS SURPASS KRUPP'S

Tremendous French Plant For Making Munitions. OWNERS HAVE GERMAN NAME. The Home of the Famous .75 Millimetre Gun—Efficiency and Co-operation Their Keynote.

One of the great factors in this war has been the 75 millimetre gun of France, unquestionably the most important weapon that has been turned out since the struggle began. Consider the fact that German spies have overran France, that whole armies of them have been maintained there in every state of society, the wonder is that the secret of the 75 was kept until the beginning of the war, or that it is still kept. It is understood that one of the features of the gun, which had been a birthday celebration in France, was that by the removal of a pin it could be rendered into a heap of junk. No enemy could place two parts together. For the 75 we must give credit to the Creusot Works, operated by a company with the name of Schneider, German Schneiders would turn in their graves could they reflect that somebody of their name is responsible for the factories that have saved France from the invaders.

The plant of France. It has recently been asked: "What would happen if the Creusot Works were destroyed?" The answer is: "The Creusot Works are the main source of French munitions. Messrs. Schneider have artillery shops at Harcourt and Havre, but interesting and big as these are, they have only a secondary standing compared with the factory at Creusot. Nor is the shipyard at Chalons-sur-Saone, vital as it is to the national defence because of the destroyers and submarines built there, so important as a military asset as the plant in question.

Near the Coal Mines. Originally the factory was placed there to take advantage of the local coal supply, and the result has been that the Creusot Works have reached in sufficient quantities. The Creusot Works are a long time ago, and the diversified output of the Creusot Works and the size of the plant today have long outrun local resources. Coal from the nearby mines is not able to supply one-quarter of the fuel needed, and one has been drawn in large quantities from Alsace, Spain and Algeria. Ordinarily, the Creusot Works use so much fuel that they have to burn down to the sea, and it was found expedient after the original foundry came into the control of Joseph Eugene Schneider and his son, Adolphe, in 1888, to run a railroad to the Canal du Centre, and this line was later extended to reach Salins-sur-Saone.

German Brutality Again

Condition of Exchanged Russian and Teuton Prisoners Affects a Lesson For Neutrals

The London Times of recent date publishes the following from a correspondent: "As one of a party of three representatives of the British Red Cross returning from a tour of inspection in the Baltic, I have, by courtesy of the Russian authorities, had an opportunity of seeing an exchange of German and Russian prisoners, about 200 in a large and comfortable hall, and the care of the Swedish Red Cross, transported to Turin. The Germans being returned from Russia are brought by train to Turin and handed over to the Swedish authorities at Haparanda. I watched the disembarking of four large loads of returning Russian prisoners, between 700 and 800 prisoners in all, and spoke to many of them. I went through a train of returning Germans and again spoke to many of the men. In both cases every possible facility was given me to assure myself of the condition of the prisoners.

The Released Russian. "It is difficult to find words to describe the deplorable condition of the released Russian prisoners. Everything possible had been done to invest the prisoners with the poor Russian with an air of festivity, and the released Russian was a man who was well looked after by the committee, was there to receive the released Russian.

Germany during the Greek crisis, but Britain demurred, with the result that action was taken by the powers and Greece had to withdraw from Crete, which was granted autonomy. It was apparently out of these troubles, and the war with Turkey that Germany shaped a course which led Constantine to the position he occupies. Germany never had any business with Greece and has none now. Great Britain and her allies, France and Russia, are bound by treaty to see Greece assured of her democratic liberties and government, and, no doubt, Lord Kitchener will be able to interpret Greek history to Constantine in a convincing manner that will leave no room for comment or emendation by the Kaiser.

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE WAR

Australians and Canadians

Mary MacLeod Moore, in Saturday Night. "The striking signs of London now include the Australian and New Zealand soldiers, those who value will never be forgotten. They are to be found in the military hospitals all over London, and they swarm in Victoria street, where there is not only the office of the Australian High Commissioner but the headquarters of the soldiers from the Commonwealth and the beautiful Dominion. Tall and lean, burnt brown, blue-eyed and keen, with heads held back and fearless bearing, they are conspicuous wherever they go. They are men who have never been 'home' before, one at least known to the writer, had never been in a large city till he reached London. Straight from the 'back of beyond' he enlisted and fought, was wounded and invalided, and he is now well enough to see the great sights of which he was told by the wistful mother for the sake of whose teaching he is fighting for the king and Empire.

Snow Sister, we have followed quick

Reformatory Boys Win V. C.

(London Mirror, Nov. 1). Boys are not bad by nature, is the conclusion of the Chief Inspector of Reformatory and Industrial Schools in his annual report published yesterday. He states that opportunity has been given by the war to show, as in no other way could have been shown, the innate sterling qualities of thousands of boys too lightly termed bad or even criminal. "The very qualities of mind which perhaps have caused the young slum dweller to steal and find his way to a reformatory may be just the qualities that go to make the courageous, unselfish, cheerful soldier."

German Gas War Long Planned.

(New York Times). The experience of a number of Americans who were in the midst of the great battle of Champagne last month when the French made their notable advance against the Germans, are related in a letter from Richard Norton, the organizer and commander of the American Motor Ambulance Corps now made permanent. One point that is disclosed in Norton's narrative is the fact that gas apparatus which was captured from the Germans had decided to fight with gas.

A British Sea-captain's Style

(E. Ashmead Bartlett, in London Paper). "After the sinking of the Triumph at the Dardanelles, the admiral transferred his flag to the twenty-year-old Majestic, which was now the only battleship left of the fleet. He took no time in making his arrangements. It was a beautiful night, clear and bright, with the sea as calm as a lake. I went up on the after-shelter-deck, where my bed had been placed, lay down and was soon soundly asleep. It was at 6.40 that someone trod on or stumbled against my chest. This awoke me, and I called out, 'What's the matter?' A voice replied from somewhere, 'There's a torpedo coming.' I had just time to scramble to my feet when there came a dull, heavy explosion about fifteen feet forward of the shelter-deck, on the port side. I made my way to the quarterdeck, was pushed over the side, and rebounding from the net shelf, rebounded into the sea and went under. I swam to a boat, mixed up with a struggling crowd, and managed to get into it. Captain Talbot, of the Majestic, the moment the ship was struck, rushed forward with his yeoman of signals to seize either save or destroy the confidential signal book. This was accomplished, and then when the ship went down he was thrown into the water, but was picked up. Then, seeing two of his men in danger of drowning, he plunged into the sea again and saved them both.

Another Censor Effort

(London Times). We published yesterday a first-hand account of the fight at Hulluch on October 18. In the course of it our correspondent, describing the storm of bombs, shells, gas, and other means of destruction which fell upon the enemy, was rash enough to quote Brownings. "Twenty-nine distinct detonations, One sure, if the other fails." His message was duly submitted to the censor, who passed it without material alteration—except for the Browning quotation. The words, "twenty-nine distinct" were neatly ruled out, and the single word "detonations" inserted instead of them. We do not complain. Incidents far less trivial and far more damaging to our national reputation are daily features of the censorship.

The queen was quite ready to receive this memento of German barbarism, but the Swedish people were up in arms at the proposal, and the iron crown never reached its destination.

A Mystery

(Birmingham Observer). A party of soldiers bound for "somewhere in France" was waiting for their train at a rural station in Wiltshire. Among the lookers-on were an old countryman and his wife. Walking slowly past the warriors, the woman eyed them carefully, her attention being mainly paid to their puttee-clad legs. "I say, Garry," she whispered, when out of ear-shot, "there's something I can't understand about their soldiers."

MORE ABOUT THAT HAY BUSINESS

Woodstock, N. B., Nov. 26.—What does the farmer get for his hay, and what does B. Frank Smith, M. P., get? This matter, which the farmers have been debating for a long time, forms the subject of a frank and powerful open letter by F. B. Carvell, M. P., to the farmers of Carleton and Victoria counties published in today's Carleton Sentinel.

The letter follows:

To the Farmers of the Counties of Carleton and Victoria:

As your representative in parliament, I feel it my duty to lay before you the facts in connection with the treatment which you are receiving at the hands of the dominion government, and B. F. Smith, its representative in this portion of New Brunswick, over the hay situation.

When the European war broke out in 1914, the British government at once asked the Canadian government to act as its representative in purchasing hay for the use of the army, and in due course of time the Atlantic Hay Company, of which Mr. Smith was an active member, received a contract for 7,000 tons of compressed hay delivered in St. John, for which they received $24.50 per ton.

The government then made another contract, at the special request of Hon. Mr. Hasen, with Messrs. Kennedy & Wetmore, at $21.50 per ton, or $3 less than Mr. Smith's company was receiving. Messrs. Kennedy & Wetmore did no pressing themselves, and bought no hay from you or anybody representing you, but made a contract with Phillips, Esey & Co. and the McCain Produce Company, of Florenceville, at $20.50 per ton for the compressed hay, delivered in St. John. I understand that the McCain Company finally made a contract with another party, but under the same conditions.

These two companies purchased the hay from you, paid the pressing in your barns, paid the freight to St. John, and compressed the hay for the price named, and of course the price which they could pay to you fixed the price which Mr. Smith did pay.

What the Farmer Got.

You received $11 to $12 per ton, and later in the season for a few lots, a slightly higher price.

It cost these companies $1.25 a ton to press it in your barns, and an average of about $1.75 to deliver it in St. John as freight. The cost of compressing would be about $8 per ton, thus leaving them $2.50 a ton with which to purchase their machinery and pay their profits, which would not be unreasonable, and as the price was established by these companies, Mr. Smith purchased the hay at the same price, and would have his reasonable profit at $2.50 a ton, plus $4 per ton which he received for the hay delivered, more than these companies, or a profit of from $8 to $9.50 per ton, and on 7,000 tons he received a profit out of your business of between $40,000 and $45,000.

During the last session of parliament I attempted to discuss this matter and ventilate it, but at the request of Sir Robert Borden I allowed to stand on two occasions, as he wanted to get further information before answering. The opportunity never came, and therefore I was debarred from making the matter public at the time. However, I went to the acting minister of agriculture and laid the matter before him, and promised that if this was not rectified during the coming year he certainly would hear from me in no uncertain terms, and he assured me that the matter was absolutely unfair, and would not be repeated.

What is Now Going On.

I now find that Mr. Smith's company has the sole contract for compressing hay in New Brunswick for the coming year at $23 a ton, delivered in St. John. About a month ago he informed one hay dealer in this county, whose name can be produced if necessary, that he was going to offer for hay $12 a ton to be carried in his barn, unpressed, and the price which he paid would establish the price for hay in these counties during the coming winter.

A few days ago another hay merchant approached him for the purpose of selling hay to him, and he was told he could only purchase from him on the basis of $12 in the farmer's barn, unpressed, and stated that if the New Brunswick farmers wouldn't sell at that price, he carried it in Nova Scotia.

Now let us figure it up, and see what Mr. Smith is making out of you under present conditions. Assuming he pays you $12 per ton, $1.50 for pressing in your barns, and $1.75 freight to St. John, and $4 for compressing, which is a good price, and I will agree to compress all of his hay at that price in the town of Woodstock, if he will give me the contract for doing so, and make money out of it at that, and you have $18 as the cost of this hay to Mr. Smith delivered to the government in St. John. On this he is receiving $5 per ton profit.

Do you consider this a fair deal, and do you think the department has carried out its pledge that the scandalous conditions of affairs existing last year would be remedied? To make it worse this year, Mr. Smith's company are the only persons having a contract.

It is variously stated at from 15,000 to 20,000 tons, but at the smaller amount it leaves $75,000 profit for handling your business, or at least $45,000, more than he would be entitled to under the most generous treatment imaginable in times of national stress, when every member of the community is called upon to do his share, and more than his share, towards helping out the empire in this life and death struggle.

Unfair Profits.

It is very patent, that you are deliberately prevented from receiving a fair price for your article, and you need all you can get out of this year to pay your bills, or the British government, which Mr. Smith and his friends profess to love so dearly, are being made to pay $45,000, which they ought not to be compelled to pay.

When I am discussing this hay question, I am doing so with absolute knowledge of what I am talking about, as I was interested in a company during the South African war which compressed hay at McAdam Junction, and I know what it costs to compress it, and I also know what would be a reasonable profit to the man who did the business, and I have no hesitation in saying that $45,000 is way below the actual amount being paid for this hay to Mr. Smith's company, more than should be paid to him on the basis of the price which he is paying to you.

I have given you the facts, and trust that those of you who have influence with the Conservative party, will get busy immediately and see that Mr. Smith is compelled to pay you a fair amount for your product, or that he is compelled to treat the British government with some degree of fairness.

Perhaps I am able to take more than the interest of a representative in this matter, as I also am a farmer, having disposed of a large amount of hay last year, and have a much larger amount this year to be disposed of, and on the basis of the two years taken together, I feel that either I have or will lose personally at least $800, which I should have received if the British government had paid that amount more than it should have been compelled to pay, and what is true of my case, is true in the case of every one of my constituents, either to a greater or less degree, who is making his living with the sweat of his brow by farming, and I trust something will be done, and done quickly, in order to give us all something like the rights to which we are entitled from the government.

It seems incomprehensible that a government of this country, acting as the trustee for the British government under the present terrible conditions, will so manipulate things that one of its political friends in New Brunswick can compel you to sell your hay to him for $12 per ton, when if you will take any daily paper, you will find the price of number two hay in Montreal to be $17.50 per ton, delivered in Montreal, loose-pressed, as it is done in the farmer's barn. If you subtract from that $1.25 for pressing and $1.75 for freight, from the point of production to the city of Montreal, you have $14.50 net as the price to the farmer, whereas there is competition where there is no competition, you are told to take $12 or the hay will be bought in Nova Scotia.

True, Mr. Smith may say to sell our hay elsewhere, but he knows very well that the quality of hay such as we produce, only a certain percentage under ordinary conditions is marketable elsewhere than to the government, and therefore as he is stated, he is able to fix the price, and what is worse last year the price was taken to St. John and compressed, and sent to France and Flanders which to feed the horses that are helping to fight your battles.

Think over these matters, and let us see if something can't be done to obtain justice.

Sincerely yours,
 F. B. CARVELL.

CREUSOT WORKS SURPASS KRUPP'S

(Continued from preceding page), and remembering what the gigantic Krupp plant at Essen represents in the metallurgical arts and the production of war machinery, the quotation is of great significance. The manufacture of armor plate, has always been vigorously prosecuted. In this particular the Creusot Works have never been surpassed. In fact, it is only fair to say that they lead the world in this field of industry. It was at Creusot that the armor plate was invented about the middle of the nineteenth century; and that stroke of genius made it possible to forge complete pieces of previously unheard of dimensions. It was because of this that the heavy armor plate was turned out there, and later on the wonderful turret armor for French defenses was produced. Subsequently, with the advent of steel, the hydraulic press supplanted the hammer, and now at Creusot there are shaping presses capable of squeezing into form great masses of heated steel—the biggest of these machines exerting a pressure of 10,000 tons.

A Tremendous Plant.

The steel-making plant is a splendid example of productivity and economy. It is in the neighborhood of 20,000 tons a year, and ingots of seventy tons in weight are made and handled with astonishing ease. Pieces of armor plate weighing from thirty to seventy-five tons each are worked into shape under the impulse of a steam engine developing 14,000 horse-power. And yet the utmost care is taken to utilize the greatest amount of the blast-furnaces, and the coke ovens—some for the generation of power and some for the production of certain chemicals. Also other by-products are obtained, and these are sold to the manufacturer of fertilizers and soil tar crudes.

Co-operative System.

Today the Creusot Works are running continuously night and day, and this vast factory has done its part toward making it possible for Gen. Joffre to announce lately that France has now more munitions than she needs. Efficiency has been the keynote of the Schneider management, and the Creusot Works are rightly famous for the marvelous output of every department, making it possible for the plant to turn out an immense volume of finished articles with a minimum of lost motion. One thing that has contributed very largely to this state of affairs is the policy of efficiency prevalent in everything that has been done by the administrative and the industrial personnel. There has been within the factory an organized system of education that has made it easy for an ambitious youth to advance. Any boy showing special aptitude for a branch of work has been helped along to that education which would peculiarly fit him to make the most of his native talents. This in its turn has promoted a bond of interest between the artisan and his employers, and the excellence of everything produced at Creusot bears eloquent testimony to the advantages of this co-operation.

GERMAN BRUTALITY AGAIN

(Continued from preceding page), "I do not know what, if anything, can be done about it, or how the facts can be spread abroad so the people of the world may understand. For my part, I know that, if the Germans had hitherto, throughout this conflict, borne themselves, as far as the world knew, with moderation and decency, the slight I saw at Tormes alone would convince me that they are waging a war as only a brutal and half-civilized people can wage it. Only the German authorities will ever know how many thousands of the enemy wounded in their hands have died from treatment which produced the human wreckage which I saw."

RUSSIA SPENDS MONEY FREELY TO FIND NEW HOMES FOR REFUGEES

Petrograd, Nov. 26.—The efforts to find a solution of the problems connected with the great migration of peoples incident to the Russian withdrawal from Poland and other parts of Russian territory is seriously engaging Russian thoughts.

The monetary cost of the vast movement already has mounted high. The imperial government and the governments of various provinces and cities of the empire have expended money freely to shelter, feed and clothe the refugees, whose numbers are estimated as high as 18,000,000 by some. The expenditures of the central government in this connection are already in excess of 33,000,000 roubles ($6,000,000), and the total cost is probably more than 100,000,000 roubles. Besides this sum there must be reckoned the huge sums involved in abandoned property and the cost to the railways over which free passage was given, and whose operations were for a time largely confined to removal of unfortunate victims of the war.

Improvement of Canada's Cities Aim of League

(Ottawa Free Press.) At a meeting of town planning enthusiasts and civic improvement advocates from all over Canada, held in the commission's rooms, this morning, it was decided that a civic improvement league for Canada be formed.

The resolution was passed amid great enthusiasm. After the meeting had been called to order, Sir Clifford Sifton, chairman of the Commission of Conservation, delivered an address of welcome to the delegates.

He began by outlining briefly the objects of the Commission of Conservation, and said that its activities extended to include town planning and municipal development and improvement.

The system of municipal government in Canada had proved a partial failure, it would always be a failure as long as it depended upon the individual judgment of electors in voting for councilors and aldermen.

Education Methods Criticized. Sir Clifford strongly criticized the system of education that prevails in Canada. Young men received an education which fitted them as professional men and nothing else.

"Some improvement should be made," said Sir Clifford. "Cannot we do it in a way that will not make the poor poorer and the rich richer?"

"We have not yet realized the real value of land," he said. "How can we have happy, contented people, when the price for a few feet of land is more than a working man could save in ten years?"

Sir John Willison said that the interests of the man at the bottom should be considered.

London, Nov. 27.—According to dispatches from Berlin, Gen. Kuropatkin has been chosen to lead the Russian invasion of Bulgaria.

The Bucharest correspondent of the Geneva Tribune sends a despatch in which he says that a former member of the Roumanian cabinet and leader of the Liberal party in Roumania, is quoted as expressing the belief that the Roumanian government "is desirous of following the national policy and soon will intervene in the war on the side of the Entente powers."

M. Joneau, according to this despatch, also said he had learned from Petrograd that a strong Russian force was ready near the Roumanian frontier to aid Roumanian against Austria and Bulgaria.

The official statement from Petrograd tonight mentions the regiments from Lithuania as displaying "the greatest courage."

Hindenburg's war-worn troops were again forced to retire in fighting before Riga. They temporarily assumed the offensive, but reinforcements rushed up by the Russians, compelled them to vacuate all the ground occupied.

King Ferdinand of Bulgaria has been disowned by his French foster brother, King Ferdinand of France.

Major W. R. Brown, of the 24th Battalion, Regina, who lost his life while burning an unsuspected German bomb out of the trenches, is an effort to save the lives of his comrades. The medal will be sent to his family.

The distinguished conduct medal is to go to Pte. H. Compson, 20th Battalion, Regina, who on Oct. 23, after being dug out of the debris caused by a shell explosion, led a party of bombers who drove the Germans out of some craters they had occupied.

Major W. R. Brown, of the 24th Battalion, and Sgt. Ryan, of St. John, have also been recommended for Distinguished Conduct medals.

CORP. GEO. F. SMITH IS EXPECTED HOME SUNDAY

Word was received in the city last evening that Corp. George F. Smith would arrive in the city on Sunday night at 8:40 p.m., from Halifax. He went to France with the First Canadian Division, and has seen active service, taking part in nearly all the battles. He first suffered concussion and after a rest at the base hospital, he returned to duty, and a short while later was wounded in the leg and arm by shrapnel.

He will make his home for the present at least, it is expected with his brother, Bartlett Smith, 40 Carmarthen street. His mother is living at 100 Dorchester street.

Corp. Smith was in the party of the battalion commanded by Lieut. F. W. Campbell at Givenechy when the heroic young officer won his Victoria Cross by holding a trench against terrific odds, using the back of a bury private as a machine gun tripod.

FERDINAND DISOWNED BY FOSTER BROTHER

Son of King's French Foster Mother Says "I Knew Him No More"

King Ferdinand of Bulgaria has been disowned by his French foster brother, King Ferdinand of France.

Emile Meunier, who is a woodchopper, has been interviewed on his feelings toward his foster brother, who has turned against the French.

"Ah, Monsieur," he declared, "it is a sad thing for us. To side with the Germans! Never should I have expected that; I must say that he and his mother were always good to us. He never missed sending a present for each birth and each First Communion. We have thirteen children.

"But what he has done is abominable. I say so without wishing to insult him, not forgetting his past kindness. But I cannot forget his alliance with the Germans. We are all patriots in our family. As a child I suffered terribly in our children's quarrels. We were six and they called me the 'Austrian.' And now when I go to the village they say to me, 'A fine thing your foster brother has done, eh?'"

"I say it wasn't I who told him to do it. Above all I am French and Ferdinand is against us, so I know him no more."

King Ferdinand gave 1,000 francs ($200 several years ago toward the restoration of the old Church of Camarat, in recognition of the military services of the men of Camarat to his ancestor, Louis XIV., in 1684. When Ferdinand allied himself with the enemies of France the Camarat fishermen led by the poet Saint-Pol-Roux, took up several collections, raised the 1,000 francs, with interest, and returned the whole sum to the Bulgarian monarch.

LOCAL STEAMSHIP NEWS

The steamer Dunedin crashed into the concrete wharf when she was being docked at No. 15, West St. John, yesterday afternoon, and two of her plates were indented. No serious damage resulted, however, nothing to make uneaseworthy, and after temporary repairs have been made she can make her scheduled voyage.

The steamer Shenandoah which arrived at Halifax on Thursday, is due here this afternoon. The Furness line which came from London landed at Halifax with Capt. Lawrence of Hantsport, and three officers of the ill-fated lake steamer Donauca, which foundered in mid-ocean about the middle of October.

THE LIBERALS AND THE MATTER OF AN ELECTION

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—Because Sir Wilfrid Laurier has not consented forthwith to proposals made by Sir Robert Borden, on behalf of the government, looking to an unconditional extension of the time of the present parliament for a full year after the conclusion of peace, or at the present constitutional term of parliament next October, and also because Sir Wilfrid has not bound himself to an unconditional filling by acclamation of all the vacancies in the commons, created either by death or for party reasons, dark hints are now being thrown out by the government here that an election will be thereby precipitated. It is made to appear that the onus for such an election during a critical time of the war would rest upon Sir Wilfrid and the Liberal party.

stance, one of the big controversial questions for the consideration of parliament agents looming on the horizon is as to the railway problems, and what will be done if the Canadian Northern again makes application, as it is believed will be done, for a further large amount of public aid. There might also come up further tariff revision, and another cleavage of opinion on the question of fiscal taxation. In the event, also, there is bound to be raised again the issue of the removal of the duty on wheat, for which the west in parliament should be agreed to until all the terms and conditions have been publicly discussed in parliament and the people taken into the confidence of the political leaders. So far as the extension of the life of parliament is concerned, that is still in a critical stage, the Liberal take the ground that no decision as to an extension of the life of parliament should be agreed to until all the terms and conditions have been publicly discussed in parliament and the people taken into the confidence of the political leaders.

In Canada, the counsel, or assistance, of the opposition was never invited, nor was the party trace offered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the beginning of the war, accepted or encouraged. On the contrary, two abortive attempts were made to spring an election, and these attempts were almost successful, and were only being blocked, or by the protest of public opinion, and by the discretion on the part of the prime minister. Moreover, it may be noted that in the British parliament the extension of the life of parliament is only now taken within a few weeks of the time set by the constitution for the holding of a new election.

MONEY WILL LAST LONGER THAN MEN New York, Nov. 27.—The London correspondent of the Tribune sends an interview with Reginald McKenna, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in which he quotes the Chancellor as saying: "I am absolutely convinced that victory for the allies is assured. The whole world profoundly admires the enormous efforts made by the Russians, French and Italians in this war, as well as our smaller allies. The sacrifices are conspicuous and increasing. The resources of the German Empire are being exhausted. The reserves of man power are being depleted. The rate of production is falling. The rate of financing efforts of this country must be one of the main factors upon which success will ultimately depend. The total numerical superiority of the male population of the allies over the forces of the enemy is overwhelming, but the extra cost of their maintenance as armies in the field must, in considerable measure, be borne by Great Britain. Long before British money runs short the supply of German men will be exhausted. "To maintain her armies Germany has first called up her efficient between 45 and 52; she first invited and accepted volunteers under 19; and, lastly, she has called up her inefficient of military age. The reserve of man power not yet called to the colors consists only of men over 45 and of boys under 19 who have hitherto not volunteered. This permanent wastage of German soldiers is at the rate of not fewer than 200,000 monthly, and it becomes almost a mathematical calculation how long Germany can continue to fight."

BING
Commission Ousts Ferguson
A little time before the 10-round bout between Welfert, a Newark heavyweight, and Sandy Ferguson was scheduled to begin at the Broadway Sporting Club, New York, Tuesday, John P. Dunn, matchmaker, announced that the contest was off because the New England boxer was indisposed.

Ferguson's physical condition was such that the physician of the club would not allow him to enter the ring, said Chairman Wencak of the State Commission, who was a spectator at the ring-side, noticed Ferguson's condition and called a meeting to pass upon his standing.
The commission decided that Ferguson should never be permitted to take part in a boxing bout in that state so long as the present members of the State Boxing Commission hold office.

WRESTLING
Bernard Badly Injured.
Eugene Tremblay was victorious over Bernard after thirty-six minutes of wrestling in Montreal, Wednesday evening. It was the first meeting of this pair this season, and was the subject of a good deal of interest.
Tremblay, who proved to be Bernard's superior at all stages, had the latter on the defensive practically the whole of the time.

The bout was marred by an accident to Bernard, who was carried unconscious to his corner with a nasty wound in the back of his head after a fall. In working himself out of a body hold he worked into a crutch, and Tremblay then banged his head down on the floor outside the mat. There was some protest on the part of the crowd, but the fall was held to be legal, as Bernard's shoulders were on the mat, but he cut his head on the hard floor, and this spoiled his undoing.

TURF
Twin Trotters Sold.
New York, Nov. 27.—There were no sensational prices at the continuation of the Old Glory sale in Madison Square Garden but steady demand for young stock with speed or breeding prospects maintained a fair average throughout the day.

The unusual feature of the afternoon was the offering of twin sisters, George Blake the auctioneer, declaring that he had never before put up twins at auction. It is seldom that trotters both together amount to much in the racing line, but Beatrice King and Biddy King, three-year-old daughters of Kine, Bell II, both achieved records of under 2:30 as two-year-olds.

They were not raced this year, but were driven in double harness at the Hill and Dale Farm, which consigned them to the auction. Both have stake engagements and when Beatrice King was put up first she was sold with the successful bidder having the privilege of taking her sister, Biddy King. O. McGovern, of Oxford, Ontario, gave $175 for Beatrice, but declined the other twin, which also goes to Canada for the same amount to Dr. A. McLaurin.

HUNS ATTEMPTED TO START REVOLT AMONG MEXICANS
Fund of $30,000,000 Available Six Months Ago to Finance Huerta and Others in Opposition to Carranza
New York, Nov. 27.—From a foreign official source, in no way connected with European affairs, there came out last night the story that a fund of approximately $30,000,000 was made available about six months ago to Germany to start a new revolution in Mexico with Victoriano Huerta and other Mexicans opposed to Carranza as its leaders, the purpose being to embroil the United States with its southern neighbor, and in that way stop the export of arms and munitions of war to the Allies.
Within the last few weeks Carranza, Huerta, it was said, have found $500,000 in Havana and $25,000 in Mexico City. Both of these deposits being parts of the "war fund" and there was every reason to believe the disbursement of $30,000,000 was under the control of the German who was known in this country as "Frans von Rintelen, and also as F. Hansen."
Ten millions is the amount understood to have been available for starting the revolution, which was about to get under way when the United States government nipped it in the bud and arrested Gen. Huerta on his arrival at the port on June 27 last.
The new revolution, it was said, was planned in Spain, a fact that accounts for the unexpected departure of Huerta from Barcelona for New York last winter. Moreover, the reason von Rintelen so hurriedly left this country under a false passport early in last August was that he was told the United States government had the details of the plot.
Recently Rintelen, under secretarial assistance in the Carranza cabinet, found the two funds, one of $25,000,000 and another of $5,000,000, both of which were to have been used by Huerta. The $25,000,000 fund, which was confiscated, was in a German bank in Mexico City, and the $5,000,000 was in a German bank in Havana, Cuba.

Tobacco Heart
CURED BY Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.
Tobacco does not seem to affect all alike. Many men enjoy their smokes after a good old age, and apparently suffer no ill effects from the use of the pipe.
There are others, though, on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results.
It causes palpitation, pain in the heart and irregularity of the beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, and the brain becomes short.
To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is a remedy that cures Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.
They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tranquility to the brain, nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco.
Mr. Nelson Young, Brampton, Ont., writes: "I have had, up to about a month ago, a very weak heart, which I suppose came from smoking cigarettes. When I heard of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as a cure, I immediately began smoking and started using them. It does you justice to be the founder of such a great remedy. They made me feel like a new man."
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CANADA SEES RIVAL FOR PANAMA CANAL?
Domestic Capitalists Trying to Buy Railroad Right-of-Way Across Nicaragua
Canadian capitalists are reported to be trying to obtain from the Nicaraguan government permission to build a railroad across Nicaragua from the Atlantic to the Pacific. A representative of the Canadian company, whose headquarters are in Winnipeg, has just returned from Managua, where he discussed the matter with President Diaz.
Nicaraguan officials are understood to have decided against granting the concession at present but have indicated that it might be granted later if the United States senate failed again at the coming session to ratify the Nicaraguan treaty, designed to rehabilitate Nicaraguan finances.
The U. S. State Department has been apprised of the facts in the case and is watching developments.

FRUIT TREE DISEASES
"Fruit Tree Diseases of Southern Canada" is the title of a very instructive bulletin (No. 24 of the Second Series of bulletins of the Dominion Experimental Farms), of which Mr. W. A. McCabbin, M. A., assistant in charge of the Dominion Plant Pathological Laboratory, St. Catharines, Ont., is the author. In this bulletin, prepared under the direction of H. T. Gossage, Dominion Botanist, 14 diseases of the apple tree, 5 of the pear tree, 4 of the quince, 7 of the apricot, 5 of the cherry, of the plum tree and 12 of the peach, are dealt with. In each case there is given a description of the disease and their nature, information is furnished for their identification and control are outlined. In addition to these descriptions, the value of which is greatly enhanced by numerous original illustrations, the opening chapter deals in a general manner with disease, its nature, types of disease due to various fungi, transmission of spores, wintering of diseases, infection, methods of meeting diseases, and other causes of unhealthy conditions, as winter injury, dieback, bud injury, sun scald, crown or collar rot, etc. Directions are also given for sending specimens attacked by unidentified diseases to the Dominion Botanist. The preparation of the several fungicides, sprays, washes and disinfectants is also outlined. The author clearly shows that timely attention to the control of destructive fungus diseases will save considerable wastage and losses and will result in increased production, a factor over important, but at this present time most important to observe. This bulletin is available to applicants to The Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Ontario.

Coughed Almost All Night WITH THAT DRY, TICKLING SENSATION IN THE THROAT.
How many people have lost a good night's sleep by that nasty tickling sensation in the throat?
The dry, hard cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all.
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is a specific for just this kind of a cough, as it is composed of the most soothing and healing expectorant herbs, roots and barks known to medical science.
Mrs. Joseph Riley, Orangeville, Ont., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup did for me. I took a severe cold, and coughed all night with that dry, tickling sensation in my throat. The next morning I saw so much good I am pleased to say 'Dr. Wood's' is a complete cure."
There is nothing that can take the place of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. There is nothing "just as good."
Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is on the market for the past forty-five years.
It is put up in a yellow wrapper; these pine trees the trade mark; price, 50c and 25c.

SAYS GERMANY CAN'T WIN
French Writer Shows Allies Possess Immense Advantage
Edouard Driault, writing in the Paris Figaro, undertakes to prove that German victory in this year is a mathematical impossibility. He begins with a comparison of populations. Germany he puts down at 68,000,000; Austria-Hungary at 59,000,000 and Turkey at 35,000,000, making a total of 162,000,000. Against this Germany total he ranges the following figures, Great Britain, 42,000,000; France, 39,000,000; Russia (Europe and Asia), 150,000,000; Japan, 50,000,000; Belgium, 8,000,000; Serbia, 3,000,000, and Italy, 35,000,000, making a total of 300,000,000.
So far as the possibilities of territorial control are concerned—mining products, supplies, and the like—M. Driault believes the Allies possess a tremendous advantage. Including all German, Austro-Hungarian and Turkish territory he names a total of 5,668,000 square meters, which he deducts Germany's colonial possessions, leaving 4,000,000 square meters, as against an allied total of 78,000,000.
"Cannot one see," he continues, "how the immeasurable forces of the whole world are tightening the ring of iron that must perform crush the fractional pieces of the German Empire?"
M. Driault believes that the productive power of a country can be gauged by its exports. On the eve of the war, he says, the total exports of the allies were valued at eighty-one milliards of francs ($16,200,000,000), as against twenty-seven milliards for the central powers, or 85,400,000,000.

MUST PAY FRENCH POSTAGE RATES
Rules for Parcel Post for Soldiers at Front
THE OFFICIAL DECISION
Twelve cents to England, Thirty-two cents to France, Although All Parcels Must Be Addressed to London
Post Office Department, Canada
Re postage on parcels going to the troops in France.
The department is in receipt of applications to have parcels addressed to our soldiers in France sent free or at reduced rates of postage, there being a feeling of an impression that the department has control of these rates and could do as it wished, but this is not so, as the question of postage is fixed by international agreement, so that it is not within the power of the Canadian post office department to undertake to carry the parcels free or at a reduced rate of postage. Under the international law, provision is made for the free transmission of parcels for prisoners of war, but this privilege does not extend to parcels for troops engaged in active service, nor is it within the power of the department to extend it.
The rate of postage required on parcels addressed to the troops depends upon the location of the addressee. If the addressee is in England, the rate on parcels for England applies, which is twelve cents per pound, whilst, if he is in France, the parcels are subject to the rates applicable to parcels for France, which are as follows:
1 lb. $0.22
2 lbs.40
3 lbs.58
4 lbs.72
5 lbs.88
6 lbs. 1.00
7 lbs. 1.12
8 lbs. 1.22
9 lbs. 1.30
10 lbs. 1.38
11 lbs. 1.45
12 lbs. 1.52
These are exactly the same charges which existed for years between Canada, England and France before the war, and are the result of an agreement or convention made between these countries and Canada, and as these countries have not agreed to lower their rates between England and France, Canada has to pay to them the same rates as before the war and must charge the same postage. In all cases parcels for the troops must be addressed care of Army Post Office, London, England, but this does not in any way affect the rate of postage which depends entirely upon the location of the addressee.
