All War is Outlawed, Unless Ordered by League of Nations SAYS CANADIAN BAK IN RUM CASE

DELEGATES OF 55 NATIONS PLANNING FOR LASTING PEACE

League Assembly Today Hears Final Report of Committees.

JAP CRISIS OVER

he Council Hears Charges Against Britain Regarding Turk Raids.

BY HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Cor.)

Geneva, Oct. 1.—All war, unless ordered by the League of Nations, is proscribed by the protocol and covenant of arbitration, security, and disarmament, which was presented to the assembly for final discussion today.

With representatives of 55 nations present, the assembly convened to hear the reports of committees, which have been working on various phases of the ambitious project, to bring about universal and permanent peace.

Reports Presented.

M. Petiti of Geneva presented the arbitration clause, in which war is proscribed and all disputes accepted for arbitration or conciliation. The Premier of Czechoslovakia presented those clauses of the project relating to mutual guarantees of territorial security and disarmament.

The Future and Alarm Stirred Up by Japanese Delegation's Amendments.

Known as the delegates gathered in the hall of peace how- ever Geneva. League leaders: jubilant over the Japanese solu- tions.

Charge Against British.

While the assembly was taking place the League council heard charges of activity much resembling war. The charges were brought against England by Fethi Bey, Turkish observer.

Fethi Bey detailed a list of five English airplane raids in the Mosul area, occurring between September 22 and 23, in which, he alleged, many Turks had been killed and wounded. The Turkish also suffered heavy losses in live stock, he said.

The Latest English Aid, Fethi Bey charged, was directed against a company of camels, belonging to private parties. Two camel drivers were wounded, 20 camels killed and 40 wounded.

Make War Impossible.

Benes and Petiti submitted to the assembly an analysis of the purpose of the arbitration-security-disarmament project, as follows:

"The purpose is to annihilate war, and make war impossible."

"For this reason, it was necessary to create a system of arbitration from which no international dispute, whether judicial or political, could escape."

"Our plan has left no loopholes. It prohibits wars of every description. It requires that all disputes shall be settled by pacific means."

FRANCE BALANCES BUDGET FOR 1925

For First Time Since 1914 Receipts Will Equal Expenditures.

Paris, Oct. 1.—Finance Minister Maginot laid before the finance committee of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday the outlines of the proposed 1925 budget and declared that, for the first time in 10 years, complete equilibrium of the entire annual expenditure budget receipts had been realized.

Maginot's declarations had been eagerly awaited because reports of the expenditures of the budget had been circulating for some time.

Maginot assured the committee that none of the measures proposed were such as to harm capital or to interfere with the activity of the exchanges.

The equilibrium achieved between expenditures and receipts in the 1925 budget, M. Maginot declared, would be maintained in the future and the government and parliament would watch out against any measure tending to upset the equilibrium.

Without providing corresponding receipts.

QUIET SESSION IN GLEANER LABEL ACTION AT CAPITAL

Plaintiff Calls Witnesses Regarding the Harris and Merryfield Cases.

NO CLASHES TODAY

Mr. Hanson Will Take the Stand This Afternoon—Witness III.

(Special to The Times-Star.)

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 1.—The proceedings in the Hanson-Gleaner Label Suit were very peaceful this morning.

Counsel for Mr. Hanson put on witnesses to testify regarding the connection with Harris and Merryfield cases and Mayor Phillips, one of the bondsmen in the Nevers case, was heard regarding the change made in the bond before it was signed by him.

Each witness was closely cross-examined by Mr. Jones, and while there were objections and arguments there were no clashes between counsel. Mr. Hanson himself will testify this afternoon.

Dr. Gerow testified just before adjournment for lunch that Bert Lint is wholly unfit to attend court. He might give evidence at his house in a couple of days, possibly tomorrow. He is wanted as a witness for the defense.

Mr. Jones urged strongly that the case be postponed until his evidence could be taken. Dr. Baxter objected.

Judge Barry said he would allow the plaintiff to call Mr. Hanson on the stand either in court or by a commissioner, or he would have to concede postponement. Dr. Baxter agreed to postpone.

Mr. Hanson on the stand this afternoon to testify regarding all but the matter concerning which Mr. Lint will give evidence; and to reserve the right to recall Mr. Hanson. This was agreed to.

WILL PUT BAN ON WOMEN SHYLOCKS

British Parliament to Stop
Activities of Female Moneylenders.

London, Oct. 1.—A bill to stamp out the women Shylocks who prey on women in the city slums is to be introduced in the British Parliament next session.

It is inspired by the findings of a committee of the Liverpool Women's Citizenship Association, which discovered, among other things, that there were 1,000 women, out of a total of 1,800 and Birkenhead. There were hundreds of unregistered moneylenders doing business in a small way at a profit of 400 per cent. against the normal money-lender's 22 per cent.

The bill requires that a clear statement of each transaction shall be given to the borrower by the moneylender, and instead of any one being able to register as a lender on payment of 8s in future, a strict investigation is to be first made into their qualifications and character.

"An East London welfare worker said in an interview that the bill would be the greatest blessing to the poor that the Labor Government could pass.

"These women Shylocks," he said, "are a disgrace to our social life, and they leave a trail of misery, suffering, and sometimes suicide, up and down back streets and alleys.

"I can take you to a street in Hackney, in every third house I live of these harpies, who charge a penny and often twopenny every week or the loan of a shilling.

"Nothing but severe punishment can check this curse. They throng the shopping thoroughfares on Saturdays and Mondays, waiting outside the pawnshops and the public-houses for women who borrow without the knowledge of their husbands.

"Scores of women on my visiting list pay 8s a week interest on 50s or perhaps 60s."

Polish Your Teeth

Grit may clean a tooth quickly, but the tiny surface scratches that it leaves behind render the enamel more readily receptive to stains. More frequent cleansing becomes necessary. If persisted in, grit may scrape enamel away.

A polished tooth, like a polished floor, is easier to keep clean and stays clean longer. It feels cleaner, too.

Colgate's cleans teeth the right way—washes and polishes, doesn't scour, or scour. Colgate's is safe for a lifetime.

DOOMED TO DEFEAT.

Following their dinner in the Hotel Dunlop last night the Gypsy Club debated the resolution, "Resolved, that the married men with families were more unfortunate than the single men."

The interpretation of both the negative and affirmative sides of the question brought forth many fine arguments. They all had good fun. Alexander Machin and Len Wilson defended the affirmative but went down to defeat before the more convincing arguments of the negative, supported by Paul Cross and Arthur Speight. Grant Smith and Joseph Key were judges.

VENDOR'S SHOP ROBBED.

The shop of Donald Fraser, liquor vendor at Chatham, was broken into early yesterday morning and about $50 worth of goods were stolen. Entrance was made by breaking the plate glass in the store door and then prying off the shutter. Two young men were later arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the affair.

REALIZE PROPHECY OF KAISER'S MOTHER

Berlin, Oct. 1.—A remarkable prophecy by the ex-Kaiser's mother in the beginning of the 90's is now disclosed. Her treatment by her son is well known, and she refers to it in a letter to Frau Henriette Schrader, who had become intimately acquainted with Her Majesty through her work for women's welfare.

The Kaiserin in this letter, which is now published, remarked: "It is difficult to believe that history will not bring expiation and justice."

"But the end of the drama has not yet been reached. We may live to see it. One can only pray that understanding, calmness, circumspection and foresight may come without wisdom having to be bought by all experiences."

"The monarchy seems to me to be put to a hard test, and I tremble lest there be an evil turn."

Her Majesty deplored the effect of her son's example on the younger generation of the country.

YOUNG PEOPLE ORGANIZE.

KIPLING AND CANADIAN GRAVES

To many Canadians whose soldier dead lie beneath the fields of France and Belgium where they made the last sacrifice, Rudyard Kipling's message concerning Canadian graves in a part of the war zone will prove of interest and will bear a measure of comfort. Rev. T. A. Patterson, of Toronto, who served as a chaplain with the Canadians, lately received a letter from Kipling, in the course of which the great writer said:

"I am just returned from Belgium, and have come along the line of the northern cemeteries from Vimy, where so many of the Canadians rest. It is a comfort to see how well the graves are kept. Very sincerely yours, Rudyard Kipling."

"I believe," says Rev. Mr. Patterson, "this fact will add to the happiness of the friends and relatives of those whom they have loved long since and lost a while."

FEWER TAXES

The stamp tax on cheques and receipts has now been long enough in force to demonstrate that those who said it would be a considerable nuisance were right. The Department of Finance wished to have a separate record of the receipts from every form of taxation—and the forms are notoriously too numerous—so it abolished the use of postage stamps on cheques and decreed the use of special stamps to be bought only from the banks. That restriction was like adding insult to injury. The tax was bad enough when postage stamps could be used; it has been a great deal worse since their use on cheques, receipts and the like was forbidden. The department's wish for a definite record of income from each source of taxation can be understood, but that wish is by no means excusable for a continuation of the special stamps and the trouble they cause. The tax should go.

Nor is that all. There are, admittedly, too many federal taxes. Dominion treasury is now in such condition as to warrant the abolition of the stamp tax, as a step toward lightening taxation and as a much needed move toward simplicity of method in raising federal revenue. There will be, too, as the next session approaches, a stronger movement than there was last year toward a downward revision of the income taxes. With heavy excise taxation, which recedes very slowly, and a multiplicity of federal taxation piled on top of it, the citizens, particularly those of modest income, do not understand why income taxes in Canada cannot be reduced as they were in the United States. A readjustment is due, not because we should follow any particular American example, but because justice demands a reduction and it is just as practicable in this country as it was in the Republic.

The man who has a very limited, or even a moderate income, particularly if he is of the salaried class, and who pays both a civic and federal income tax, is far too heavily burdened. It is a fact that in some provinces a provincial income tax is added, and though we may well be thankful that we in New Brunswick have at least avoided that, it is none the less true that a downward revision of the Dominion tax on income should be one of the measures of relief put through at the next session of Parliament.

Not only is it time for a movement back to greater simplicity of taxation, but it is time to begin to grant relief from some of the direct taxation which was so pointedly introduced when the full burden of the war and its commitments were realized at Ottawa.

THE COAL SUPPLY.

Not only commercial but domestic users of coal in the United States are being urged to secure and store a supply before winter comes. The National Association of Purchasing Agents says:

"Storage should have immediate consideration, as the demand on transportation is increasing for steam coal, and after winter sets in the operation of the railroads will be hampered by weather conditions. Coal prices remain about the same. We, therefore, repeat that it would be well to place coal in storage now."

The American Engineering Council has also issued a statement in which it says:

"The public is undoubtedly paying for irregular operation and over-development of mines and peak loads in transportation in the form of increased prices of coal. A gradual elimination of the causes of this will naturally lead to recovery and will be reflected in a reduction of the consumers' coal bill."

It is recognized that a continual flow of coal from the producer to the consumer would in the end benefit both parties. There would be less danger of over-production on the one hand and a sudden shortage of supply on the other. The problem is not easy of solution, but the attention given to it by those who have no coal to sell may presently lead to a solution.

A WOMAN WITH COURAGE

("Bystander" in Toronto Globe.) A woman who "dared to be a Dane" has just passed away in Quebec. This was Mrs. Honore Chasse, 119, for years was general manager of L'Evenement, a French daily, and which during the days of the war she held firmly to the policy of conscription. This was a most troubled period in Canadian history, and when feeling in the City of Quebec was at its highest and mobs ran the streets the office of L'Evenement was sacked, but it made no difference in the editorial views of the paper. It was the only French daily in the province to advocate conscription, but Mrs. Chasse's heart was in the conflict and two sons were at the front.

Mrs. Chasse, her husband, had been a prominent figure in the life of Quebec, and especially in newspaper and political circles. He was owner of a small daily called Avant Garde, which was suspended some years before his death. A printing business had, however, been retained, and the widow continued. When, in 1909, the Conservative party bought L'Evenement, and reorganized it, Mrs. Chasse was made general manager. This post she kept until J. H. Fortier took over the paper three years ago, and she retired. Mrs. Chasse was the daughter of the late Gideon Larocque, who was formerly member for Chambly County in the Legislature and later Sergeant-at-Arms. Thus she was brought up in a political atmosphere, where her keen mind absorbed much which was later of value.

HE WINS

(Forbes Magazine.) Albert Reed, attorney and transportation manager of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, was examining a witness in a case before William Disque of the Interstate Commerce Commission. A recent increase in the rate on grain was being protested by shippers through Mr. Reed. The witness had been on the stand for more than an hour and was getting tired and sleepy. "You say the present rate is already too high?" Mr. Reed said. "How would a $1 raise affect you?" "You win," the witness said, dramatically, "I only got queens up."

(Vancouver Province.) A Saskatchewan farmer claims that he has discovered a chemical preparation that will destroy weeds without injuring other vegetables. If it is powerful enough to

Make a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes. Get from any drugist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made and saves easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your drugist for "½ ounce of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. ### COME, LOVE OF LIFE.

O beauty of the autumn days that die,
O music of the wind and show of sea,

The Judge's Fault.

Chief Justice Parsons, U. S. Judge, one day stopped Dexter, an eminent advocate, in the middle of his address to the jury on the ground that he was urging a point unsupported by any evidence. Dexter hastily observed: "You Honor did not argue your own cases in the way you require us to do."

No Such Animal.

In the old pre-prohibition days, before the O. T. A. put a lot of mirrors out of business in Ontario, an Irishman entered a bar, in which, in a glass case on the wall, was an enormous tarpon, stuffed and varnished. After a couple of drinks the Irishman caught sight of the tony monster. Turning to the bar-tender he said: "T'iv mon that caught that—hie—fish is a hie—domned liar."

ANOTHER LONDON LANDMARK GOES

Building in Cockspur Street Where Famous Clock-maker Did Business.

London, Oct. 1.—The changes of time and the steady blows of the pickaxe have sent another London landmark to destruction in a cloud of dust. This was the building at 34 Cockspur street which for generations housed the establishment of a famous London clockmaker. Affixed to the front of this building was a great white-faced clock surmounted by a time-ball, and very old Londoners recall that riding to the War Office of a morning from his home in Piccadilly, the Duke of Wellington would draw rein to correct his time-piece by the one which hung out high over the street. And now the old clock with its time-ball, which became a landmark to Londoners of a succeeding generation who, on foot or on horse, could view it from the far side of Trafalgar Square, has disappeared with the demolition of the building of which it was so long a part. The passage of time has brought strange changes to this part of London which became known as Charing Cross after King Edward I erected a Gothic cross there to mark the spot where his queen's coffin rested in the 13th century, when the royal funeral procession halted on its way to Westminster Abbey. Why Cockspur street came to be so named no antiquary appears to be able to say for certain. Conjecture has it that it was because of a fancied connection with the news adjoining the celebrated "Cock Tavern" where Sam-

LUMBER MILL AT KETEPEC BURNS

J. A. Gregory's Plant is Completely Destroyed—Loss $30,000.

J. A. Gregory's lumber mill at Ketepec was completely destroyed by fire which broke out last night soon after 11 o'clock. The watchman had just completed a regular round of the mill when he discovered the fire rapidly spreading in one end of the building. The strong wind fanned the flames and efforts of the volunteer bucket brigade were concentrated on saving the lumber piles as it was soon seen the mill itself was doomed. The mill has been in operation all summer and it was middle of November. There were 35 planned to keep on sawing until the men employed. The loss is estimated between $30,000 and $40,000. The fire illuminated the western sky and many citizens fared for the safety of their summer cottages.

DR. MORGAN TELLS OF PROMISED REST

On the second last day of his series of meetings, Rev. Dr. Campbell Morgan yesterday gave an inspirational address in presenting at the evening meeting the essential promise of Christ as found in the last four verses of Matthew II, the promise to give "rest" to humankind. Dr. Morgan explained that rest to mean, the finding of God, and of the right place in the universe. In the afternoon he continued the study of the Jesus of the Fourth Gospel. His closing meetings will be held this afternoon and this evening and it is expected that Centenary church will be filled to capacity.

GLEN FALLS FAIR IS SUCCESSFUL

The second annual fair of the Glen Falls Community Club, held yesterday, proved most successful and as a result of the fair the debt on the community hall has been reduced to $120. The exhibit of the school children was especially good and the judges had a hard time deciding the winners in the various classes. The fair was declared open by Miss Alice Fairweather, of Fundy Chapter, I. O. O. F., and the prizes were presented by H. G. S. Adams. The general committee was composed of Mrs. George Cuthbertson, Mrs. Percy Williams, Mrs. William Osborne, Mrs. George Howe, Mrs. John Sheehan and Mrs. G. H. Simpson. Others who had charge of departments were Mrs. George Howitt and Messrs. Callaghan and Hayman. A cushion, donated by Mrs. George Howe was won by Mrs. Callaghan. Prizes were presented by Magistrate H. G. S. Adams.

A jazz band of eight pieces provided some lively music and much appreciated vocal solos were given by Mrs. William Osborne and Miss J. Nealey. Sidewalks which were greatly enjoyed were conducted by Mr. Callaghan, Gabriel Hayman and Mrs. John Sheehan. Mrs. Hayman had charge of the candy stall and Mrs. G. H. Simpson was convener for the refreshments. Mrs. George Howe donated a cushion which was drawn for and was won by Mrs. Callaghan. Mrs. George Howitt and Mrs. Cuthbertson were convener for the prizes.

SOLVES MYSTERY OF ANCIENT STONE IN GREAT BRITAIN

Monument at Newton House Honors Briton King, Dated 400 B. C.

London, Oct. 1.—L. A. Waddell, who is a fellow of the Royal Anthropological Institute and of the Linnean and Folk Lore Societies, claims to have solved the mystery of the Newton Stone.

This stone has been known to archaeologists since 1803, and all attempts to decipher the inscriptions have failed. The stone stands at Newton House, in the valley of the Don, in Aberdeen-shire, and according to Mr. Waddell who has spent 16 years in deciphering the inscription and following up the implications of his discovery, it proves to be a monument erected by an Aryan-Phoenician Briton King, dating to about 400 B. C., and bearing a first-hand notice of Britannia.

He finds the inscriptions are bilingual and read:
"The Sun-Cross (Swastika) was raised to Bili (or Bel, god of Sunfire) by the Kassi of Kast of the Siluyr (sub-clan) of the Khilani (or Hittite-Phoenician), the Phoenician, (named) I Kar of Cilicia, the Phwt (or Brat, that is Barot or Brithat or Briton)."
"Starting from the solid new ground of the positive concrete historical inscriptions," he says, "we are led by the clues thus gained to fresh clues, leading us back from Britain to the Phoenician and Hittite homeland of the Aryan Phoenician Britons in Syria, Phoenician and Asia Minor of St. George of Cappadocia (and England), and these offer us solutions to most of the long outstanding problems in regard to the stone and the meaning of our ancestral British folklore national emblems and patron saints."

"So far from these ancestral Britons having been mere painted savages roaming wild in the woods," he says, "they are now disclosed to have been from the very first grounding of their

STRIKING MATCHES ALL DAY LONG WAS MAN'S WORK MANY YEARS

London, Sept. 13.—(Associated Press, by mail).—Tom Tutthill, who worked for 36 years in a London match factory striking matches to test their quality, died recently from blood poisoning contracted while at work. His job, one of the queerest in King George's kingdom, was created for him after he had suffered from infantile paralysis, and needed an easy task. All day long, day after day, year after year, Tutthill went on with his work, scratching all his matches by hand and passing judgment upon the quality of each fresh consignment from the workrooms. Some years ago he became eligible for a pension from his company, but he liked his work and would not give it up.

AFRICA LEADS

Cairo, Egypt, Oct. 1.—Plans for utilizing part of the tremendous water power of Africa were made at a convention of British scientists here. Nearly half the potential water power in the world is in tropical Africa, but only a small part of it is developed. Asia ranks second, with North America, South America and Europe following in the order named. The water power of Australia is very slight.

GARDENS IN THE SUBURBS ROBBED

Complaints have been made recently that wholesale stealing of crops of summer residents in the vicinity of the city have been going on and seemingly there is no protection for them. Apples have been taken off the trees and in some cases the trees destroyed and vegetable gardens have been raided. The blame for these depredations is placed on motor parties and the hope has been expressed that the municipal authorities would provide some measure of police protection in an effort to put an end to this form of crime.

MRS. MARSHALL FIELD urges women to give their skin the wisest care

The Regence mirror and sofa add distinction to this charming room in Mrs. Field's Washington home, which also contains her famous collection of jade.

"I am always impressed with the charming youthfulness of American women. They manage to keep such clear, delicate skins in spite of the strain of their many activities and strenuous out-of-door life. I believe that women everywhere can have the same lovely complexion with the aid of Pond's Two Creams."

an American woman, has had social opportunities accorded to few. For in addition to an interesting and delightful personality she bears a name known the world around.

It is as a gracious and cosmopolitan hostess that Washington knows Mrs. Field. The drawing-room of her lovely home is as nearly a salon as one finds in the United States. Against its pearl grey walls moves the brilliant pageant of official and diplomatic society.

The daily use of Pond's Two Creams keeps the skin supple and exquisitely protected.

MADE IN CANADA

It is from the crown of this interesting and sophisticated life that Mrs. Field speaks when she advises the younger woman how to take the proper care of her skin.

How Exquisite Women Keep Young

The society woman learned long ago to depend on just two creams that answer the two great needs of every normal skin — a rejuvenating cleansing, and a delicate protection and finish.

A thorough cleansing every night with Pond's Cold Cream. Apply it generously on the face and neck, letting it work deep into the pores, ridding them of excess oil and powder, dust and dirt. Wipe the cream off with a soft cloth, apply once more and wipe off again. Now how soft, smooth, and fresh your cheeks are!

Preparation of the skin before powdering, protection before going out. Before you powder, smooth in a little Pond's Vanishing Cream — just enough for the skin to absorb. Notice what a becoming pearly tone it gives. And how much longer it makes the powder cling. And when you go out, it protects your complexion from wind and cold and keeps it soft and satin smooth. Pond's is the method lovely women everywhere are using to achieve the clear skin Mrs. Marshall Field bids them have. Try it yourself today. See how gratefully your skin responds. ## Wins $1,000 Physical Culture Prize at 65

Robert G. Jackson, M.D. Photograph taken in his 65th year. A wreck at 55 — a perfect body at 65 — built up by Roman Meal.

Dr. Robt. G. Jackson, of Toronto, "Youth at 65" won the annual $1,000 first prize offered by Physical Culture Magazine for the best story of health restoration through natural means.

Dr. Jackson is rated as 98% perfect physically, a perfection that athletes rarely attain at any age, yet at 55 he was a physical nonentity — a wreck.

Authorities have claimed that a man cannot develop muscles after 45, yet Dr. Jackson, between 55 and 65, has developed muscles and a general physique that any youth would be proud of, and such as not one youth in 5,000 possesses at any age.

Dr. Jackson says: "Any man can do what I have done if he eats the proper body-building foods."

Dr. Jackson says it was Roman Meal and milk, lots of both, that built him to his physically perfect state, and it will do as much for any man or woman who will use it consistently through a period of months or years, "if there is no malignant or advanced organic disease."

Roman Meal is whole wheat, whole rye, flaxin and bran, a food supplying every element needed by the body and nothing at all not needed by the body.

Dr. Jackson proved its unequalled food value by beating a man of 35 in a 1300 mile bicycle contest in April and May, 1924. Dr. Jackson at 65, though living almost entirely upon Roman Meal and milk during the entire 19 days, simply ran away from his young challenger.

Roman Meal prevents indigestion and positively relieves constipation.

TIPPETTS AND MOORE ARE LEADERS FOR THE WAR VETS THIS SEASON

Bonnell, Had But Twelve Errors on 450 Fielding Chances.

Gene Tippetts and the youthful Clarence Moore, who has been offered a tryout in the big leagues, were the highlights in the War Vets baseball campaign for the season just finished, as revealed by the official statistics compiled by William Carney. Tippetts, playing the best brand of ball seen here in many years, won 14 games, lost here and there, for a fine average of 2.00. In addition, Gene allowed but 1.92 runs per game, which, in view of the class Gene was tackling this year in some of the best touring teams in the United States, is remarkably good. Tippetts was the leading batter of the team, with a mark of .386, and topped the list in doubles, with 10 to his credit. This about gives him the best all-around performance of the year, and the fans hope that when he returns next year he will be even more successful.

Moore was runner-up to Tippetts in the batting parade, with a mark of .318. He played in three more games than did Tippetts. The St. John boys had the most triples and was second in "Scotty" Sterling in the home-run division, Sterling getting three and Moore two. Moore also led in stolen bases, with twelve to his credit. Bonnell's record of a scant 12 slip-ups on 450 fielding chances is outstanding. The following are the averages—

OIL & GREASE

WANTS MOVIE MEN OF WORLD TO MEET

French Professor Urges the League of Nations Committee to Act.

Geneva, Sept. 11.—(Associated Press, by Mail).—Declaring that there are at least 80,000 cinema halls in the world and that the moving picture is steadily increasing as an international force for good or evil, Julian Luchaire, professor of Grenoble University, France, and inspector-general of public education, has urged the League of Nations committee on intellectual co-operation to convene an international cinematograph congress which would bring together representatives of producers, directors, authors, artists, critics and directors.

Professor Luchaire hailed the motion picture as one of the most important movements in the history of intellectual life in the course of the last 20 years. He said its influence on the populace can only find a parallel in that of the theatre in the cities of ancient Greece and that of the daily press in modern nations since the nineteenth century. He estimated that, taking the average number of spectators to be 300 in each of the 80,000 world cinema halls, and keeping in mind that each picture is usually repeated 10 times, as many do, is seen in a relatively short space of time by 180,000,000 persons.

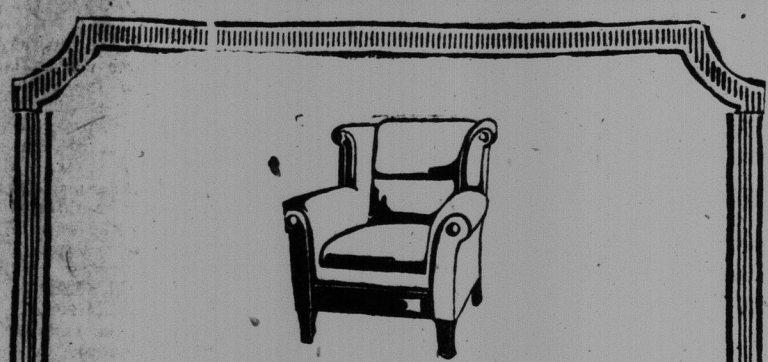

Undoubtedly, said Professor Luchaire, the impression made upon this enormous public is superficial compared with the influence of certain books which have taken years or centuries to impress themselves on the human race, certain sacred books, for instance, but it is a striking fact that only the Bible and the Koran have an indisputable larger circulation than that of the latest film from Los Angeles. He said that religious propaganda in various countries, and that in the United States it is estimated that about 25,000 churches use the screen as an adjunct to the pulpit. For all these reasons and for the additional one that the cinema has become intrinsically international, Professor Luchaire held that it should be included within the scope of the activities of the Committee on Intellectual Co-operation.

The future alone will divulge, the speaker insisted, whether the cinema is to have high educational value and the elevating and ennobling influence which the theatre seems to have had on the masses in ancient Greece, or the debasing influence of vulgar music-hall shows or of cheap novels. The French professor said he was convinced that great things could be accomplished by an international conference in the way of leading the cinema into channels which would be productive of good for humanity.

PLAN WINTER FIGHT FOR JACK DEMPSEY

Tex Rickard Offers Champion Chance to Meet
Tom Gibbons.

New York, Oct. 1.—(United Press).—Jack Dempsey probably will be seen in action in Madison Square Garden before the winter ends. Tex Rickard wants to put the big fellow on in an indoor show and the champion is considering the offer. Tom Gibbons will be offered as the opponent and it is probable that Dempsey will accept.

Dempsey hasn't worked in an indoor fight since he stopped the late Bill Brennan in 12 rounds almost four years ago. That was before the time of million-dollar gates and half-million-dollar purses and since that time Dempsey's price couldn't be touched by the entire receipts of an indoor fight. The Garden this winter it will be practically an admission on his part that the day of huge money boxing is over. Tex Rickard believes that day is passed and Dempsey owes his fortune to the good judgment of Rickard on what the public will stand for.

There are a number of boxing managers brooding now over the poor judgment they showed in refusing to accept reasonable offers for indoor matches last winter. The case of the flyweights, Paulino Villa and Frankie Genaro, can be quoted as an illustration, not because they were the only ones who made the mistake of misjudging the public's willingness to pay, but because their case is a prominent one and typical of the others.

Villa and Genaro could have gone into Madison Square Garden last winter and it is possible that they could have split up a purse of $100,000. But they refused to consider any offer. "We're too big for an inside show," their managers insisted. "We can fill one of the ball parks next summer or even the Jersey City arena. We can work on a percentage and get twice the money that could be drawn at an indoor show."

They held out against good advice from their friends and they are now holding the bag and weeping on their sleeves. They haven't a thing to show for a wasted winter and a blown summer.

It was quite natural that no season would be big enough to hold all the fancy boxing cards that could be made. When the outdoor promoters went to work last spring they found the principals of prospective matches figuring that their show could fill any park in the country and discovered them fighting about percentages, dates, places and everything in the book. They kept fiddling and fooling around until the season was over and they all were out of luck.

Benny Leonard blew more than $150,000 because he sparring around so much with the promoters who wanted to stage a match between him and Mickey Walker, the welterweight champion. The match was postponed once because the promoters didn't promise Leonard the percentage he was figuring on and it had to be called off eventually for the same reason.

Boxing in the ball parks was a complete bust and the failure of the group that set out to "take" him probably has been the source of considerable amusement to Tex Rickard.

The past summer was a very bad season because, for the first time, the boxing public refused to dig down as it had in the past. Rickard didn't make any money on the Firpo-Wills fight in Jersey City and when that match failed to draw a profitable crowd, what chance was there to meet the demands of other fighters with less drawing power?

Since the outdoor season proved to be such a fiasco it will have the good effect of booming the indoor season. Managers who passed up opportunities to work last winter and idled through the summer will not be so hard of hearing when Rickard approaches them and they will not have such an inflated idea of the worth of their fighters.

Rickard believes that he will be able to promote the biggest season in history this winter. He has found, he says, that the boxers have learned a lesson and have begun to realize that the promoters are not making the money they once believed.

Dempsey, being a good business man, probably knows that money is tighter now and that the public, which hung around so long for boxing before the Walker bill was passed, has been fed up fairly well with boxing that has been none too good.

Dempsey knows also that he needs a workout match or two before he defends his title against Harry Wills—if that match ever is made. He should know that it was his match against Tom Gibbons last summer that got him on such a fine edge for the Firpo fight and no doubt he wants to prepare himself for his next big fight in the same manner.

Gibbons, it might be argued—because it is true—would not be a set-up for Dempsey, because he is too fine a defensive fighter, but Gibbons would be the best possible opponent Dempsey could find to try himself against. The champion, perhaps, knows that he can beat Gibbons, because Tom can't be much better than he was in Shelby. It was shown rather conclusively in the Shelby fight that Dempsey has an advantage over Gibbons in weight, size and strength that the St. Paul boxer hardly can overcome.

Gibbons has signed articles with Rickard to meet Dempsey, Wills, Firpo, Renault, Tunney or any other fighter that Rickard picks. Certainly no more could be expected of him. Furthermore, Gibbons agreed to accept 25 percent of the gate receipts. Gibbons is one of the few attractions in the country. When he agrees to work inside for a percentage, and if Dempsey does the same, the actions of two boxers should be of great value in encouraging other fighters to be reasonable, and it should remove a lot of commercial stain that is now blighting the game.

Interest In Big Bout Increased

Announcement of plans for a title bout between Paul Berlenbach and Mike McGuire, world's light-heavyweight champion, have increased interest in Berlenbach's impending struggle with Johnny Gill, York (Pa.) boxer, which is scheduled to feature the card tonight at Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City. Berlenbach and Gill are scheduled to box ten rounds as the principal attraction on the card, which holds three ten-round battles in addition to the main preliminary. In another ten-round bout Jack Britton, former world's welterweight champion, will box a remanagement with K. O. Phil Kaplan of Harlem.

PLAY THREE COUNTIES

Honeoye, Falls, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Players on the Honeoye Falls and Manchester baseball teams outbathed Babe Ruth in a recent game. They actually knocked the ball into three different counties. The diamond is situated on the border line of the three sections. A left-hander batted the ball into Livingston county, a high foul lander in Ontario county, and a mighty swing to centre dropped into Monroe county.

ARE ENLARGING RIVERSIDE COURSE

Golf Club Makes an Appropriation With 18-Hole Objective.

At a recent meeting of the executive of the Riverside Golf and Country Club it was decided to proceed at once with the completion of the course to a total of eighteen holes. At present the course is nine holes in extent, though there are several additional greens practically completed, as far as basic work is concerned, but none of them have been played upon as yet.

It is expected that a recent appropriation of $10,000 will not quite finish the big work now being pushed vigorously but will at least result in making the course fifteen holes long. When completed Riverside should be as fine a course as any in the eastern section of Canada.

The work recently authorized has begun in the wooded sections of the property where a tract of trees are being removed and shrubbery growths. These are being burned. Large rocks and other obstructions are being hauled away and boulders dynamited. Much of this class of work has been done the last two seasons making fairways and greens for the new holes already established but, as before stated, not yet played upon.

During the present season the direction of several of the holes has been changed, notably Nos. 1, 2 and 8, but when the extra greens are ready for use it is likely the course will undergo further re-adjustment. With a well mixed topography, the Riverside links are at present considered good sporty golfing grounds by expert players and when the new holes are added it is anticipated this quality will be much enhanced.

IS FINED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Kenneth Malcolm was fined $10 or 30 days in jail by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning after having been adjudged guilty of assaulting Alexander Logan. The plaintiff testified that on the night of August 14 he and his wife were proceeding to their home in Chesley street when they saw the defendant and another young man near their alleyway. He said they were singing and yelling. He accused the defendant and advised him to proceed to his home whereupon he assaulted him. Mrs. Logan corroborated the evidence of her husband.

The defendant took the stand on his own behalf and swore that the plaintiff had seized him by the coat and threatened to arrest him. He said he had seized him by the wrists and forced him to let go. John Sullivan, Frank Wilson and William Grey were sworn in by the plaintiff. E. J. Henneberry appeared for the plaintiff.

WANTS STREET CAR LINE EXTENDED

Councillor Dalzell Says Little River Matter Will Go to Utilities.

Following on the announcement by the New Brunswick Power Company that they would extend the street car lines to Moore's Hill, Lancaster, Councillor Dalzell, of Simonds, said today that some years ago the N. B. Power Company had applied for leave to run the tracks to Little River, that the track had never been extended to the point agreed upon and at the present time was about 800 yards short of that point.

The matter had been taken up several times, he said, and on the last two occasions the company had contended they were not in a position, financially, to undertake the work and, feeling that the people had waited and had withdrawn an application which they had made to the Board of Public Utilities to compel the carrying out of the agreement.

The councillor said that, as the company had been able to extend the line in Lancaster it was now the intention of the residents of Little River to make an application to the Utilities Board for an order for the extension in Simonds and this would probably come before the Utilities Commission at its next meeting.

M. A. Pooler, general manager of the New Brunswick Power Company, is absent from the city and The Times-Star was therefore unable to get the company's interpretation of the agreement.
