the museum of geology and natural history.
The collections in Mineralogy and Geology, and part of those in Zoology, are arranged in the Central Hall of the Museum and the gallery surrounding it. The Carpenter collection of Shells occupies a separate fire-proof room. The Botanical Collections occupy the west corridor, and the east corridor is used as a store-room and work-room. All the 'specimens are, as far as limited space will permit, so arranged and labelled as to be accessible and instructive to Students.

i. Mineralogy.-The basis of this department is the collection of about 2000 Canadian and Foreign Minerals acquired from the late Dr. Holmes in 1857. Subsequent additions have largely increased this collection, which is now arranged in table cases with drawers beneath, the former containing a complete series of the more important minerals and a suite of crystallographic specimens for the use of students. In the wall-cases at one side of the hall are separate collections of economic minerals, and illustrations of concretionary and stalactitic structures, metamorphism, mineral veins, &*c.
2. Geology and Paleontology.-The collections consist of large series of Fossils representing the successive formations. A typical series for the use of students is arranged in chronological order in table cases around three sides of the hall, with special and local collections in the drawers below. On the walls and in the centre of the hall hre large specimens, casts, $\mathcal{E} c$. Among the more important special collections are those representing Eozoon Canadense, Devonian Plants and Post-pliocene Fossils, and the skeletons of English Mesozoic Reptiles presented by Mr. Claxton of Montreal. There are also a number of casts of large Fossils from the Ward collection and from the British Museum. A typical collection of rocks is arranged in two table cases.
3. Zoology. - In this department the Carpenter collection of Shells, presented by the late Dr. P. P. Carpenter, is a principal feature. The specimens are beautifully mounted on glass tablets, and arranged in six large table-cases and seven upright cases, and in drawers beneath the former. The collections of Radiates, Articulates and Vertebrates are temporarily placed in wall cases on one side of the hall and in the gallery above.
4. Botany.-The principal part of this collection is the Holmes Herbarium of Canadian and Foreign Plants, including the Grasses and Carices, which have been revised and named by Col. Munro. There is also a collection of specimens of Canadian woods, preserted by the late Dr. Barnston, and by D. Davidson, Esq. a collection of Australian woods, presented by Sir Wm. Dennison ; collections of Foreign Ferns and British Plants, presented by G. Barnston, Esq., and collections of Mosses, Lichens, Fungi, and Algæ.
5. Ethnology.-In this department there are Indian Relics from the site of Hochelaga ; the collection of the late Dr. Van Cortland of Ottawa, purchased from his heirs ; and a small series of American Skulls.
[Donations to the Museum are solicited; more especially of Canadian specimens of Fossils, Animals and Economic Mineralogy.]

to which platforms are attached at intervals for the men to stand upon. The rods are suspended in the shaft and a reciprocating motion communicated to them from a steam-engine or wate: wheel. When a miner wishes to ascend, he simply steps upon the lowest pluform ; the rod then rises for, say, twelve feet, and the man steps on to a platform on the opposite rod which lifts him another twelve feet, and so on until the surface is reached.
2.-Boring Tower and Boring Tools.-A model of a form of Boring. tower which has been extensively employed in Belgium, where boring operations have been carried on with great success. It is supplied with Kindt's free-falling apparatus, an ingenious contrivance for preventing the concussion from the chisel being communicated to the rods above. There are also models of several varieties of tools such as are used in extracting broken rods from bore-holes.
3.-Vertical Shaft with Pumps, Man-Engine, Hoisting Apparatus, $\mathcal{E}^{\circ} \mathrm{c}$.-This large and beautiful model shows the way in which shafts are timbered and divided into different compartments for hoisting, for man-engine, ladder-way and pumps. It is provided with two large overshot water-wheels, supposed to be placed at a considerable dis'ance from the surface, and affording the necessary power for hoisting as well as for working the pumps and man-engine. The ore is raised in two wooden skips supplied with guides, the one ascending while the other descends.
4.-Vertical Shaft with Pumps and Man-Engine,-Somewhat similar to No. 3, but having only one water-wheel and no hoisting apparatus.
5.-Model showing the underground working of a Mine.-By means of this beautifully constructed model an idea may be easily obtained of the ordinary methods of working metalliferous veins of moderate thickness. It shows both shaft and galleries, different methods of timbering and walling, and exploitation by overhand and underhand stoping.
6.-Timbering.-Three models illustrating the partial and complete timbering of galleries.
7.-Walling.-Three models illustrating the walling of galleries with bricks.
8.-Tram-Waggon.-Model of a waggon such as is used in many of the English mines. The box is of wood, strongly bound with iron ; the wheels are of iron, and turn upon axles which are specially designed for use on roadways with sharp curves.
9.-SKIP.-Model of a wooden skip or box for raising ore in a vertical shaft.

IO.-SKIP.-Model of a wooden skip for hoisting ore in an underlie shaft.
I I - Kibrle.-Model of a wooden kibble or bucket for raising ore.
12.-Horse Whim. - Model of a form of horse-whim once extensively used in the Saxon mining regions. The principle is the same as in the case of the ordinary whim so frequently seen in Cornwall, but the details are more elaborate, as it was originally designed for permanent hoisting.
13.-Hartz Ventilator or Air Pump.-A simple but useful contrivance employed in the mines of the Hartz for temporary ventilation while shafts are being sunk or levels driven.
14.-Stamp Batteries.-Working model of three batteries of stamps for stamping ores, gold-bearing quartz, &c. Stamps like this model are employed in some parts of Europe, but those used in this country differ from it considerably.
15.-Stossheerd or Shaking Table.-A machine extensively used in different parts of the world for the separation of ores from the gangue or useless material with which they are commonly associated.
16.-Rotating Buddle.-Like the last, a machine largely used for the concentration of ores.
17.-Slime Box or Trench.-A kind of wooden box used for the concentration of "slimes" or pulverized ores.
18.-Pattinson's Concentrating Apparatus.- Model of one of the iron pots and accompanying heating apparatus used in Pattinson's process for the extraction of silver from lead.
19.--Belgian Zinc Furnace.-This is an exact model of furnaces used in Belgium and elsewhere for the extraction of zinc from its ores by distillation in retorts. It show - not only the arrangement of the retorts but also the details of the heating apparatus.
20.-Blast Furnace.-This is a model of a blast furnace, the stack of which is supposed to be constructed of masonry. It is made in two sections so that the Student may obtain a view of the details of the interior. The lining, hearth flues for tapping off the waste gases, Ecc., are admirably shown.
21.-Reverberatory Furnace.-Model of an English Reverberatory Furnace made in two sections so as to show the details of the interior.

The forty-eighth Session of the Medical Faculty of McGill University will be opened on Friday, October rst, 1880, with a general Introductory Lecture at II a.m. The regular lectures will begin on Monday; the $4^{\text {th }}$ Oct., at the hours specified in the time-table, and will be continued during the six months following.

The Medical College, a large and substantial building situated within the University Grounds, contains two spacious class rooms, Students' waiting-room, Library, Museum, Laboratories, together with a large and well-furnished Dissecting-room.

During the past year one of the three lecture rooms has been converted into a Physiological Laboratory and fully equipped with suitable apparatus.

The class tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the various Colleges and licensing bodies of Great Britain and Ireland, and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

To meet the circumstances of the General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon graduation is that of "Doctor of Medicine and Master of Surgery," in accordance with the general nature and character of the curriculum, as fully specified hereafter. The degree is received by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec.

COURSES OF LECTURES.

1 Anatomy.-[Prof. Scott.]-The importance of Anatomy, both descriptive and in its relation to Medicine and Surgery, is duly considered by the Professor, who employs chiefly the fresh subject in the illustration of the lectures, aided, however, by dried preparations, wax models, plaster casts of dissections, plates, Erc., the full size of life.

2 Practical Anatomy.-[Drs. Shepherd and MacDennell.]-Special attention is devoted to this important branch, the teaching being similar to that of the best European schools. The Dissecting-Room is open from 8 a.m. to $10 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$.,
the De
Demol
Every

the Demonstrators' hours are from 10 to $12 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. , and 8 to $10 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. Special Demonstrations on the Brain, Thorax, Abdomen, Bones, etc., are frequently given. Every Student must be examined at least three times on each part dissected, and, if the examinations are satisfactory, a certificate is given. Prizes are awarded at the end of the Session for the best examination on the fresh subject. Material provided under cost.

3 Chemistry.-[Prof. Girdwood]-Inorganic Chemistry is fully treated: a large portion of the course is devoted to Organic Chemistry and its relations to Physiology. The branches of Physics bearing upon or connected with Chemistry also engage the attention of the Class. For experimental illustration, abundant apparatus is possessed by the Professor, among which may be enumerated, a powerful Air Pump-Oxy-Hydrogen Microscope-Polariscope-extensive series of Models of Crystals, Electrical and Galvanic apparatus, steam engine, &oc., Evc.

4 Practical Chemistry.-[Prof. Girdwood.]-Thorough instruction is given in the different departments of Practical Chemistry in the Laboratory of the Faculty under the personal supervision of the Professor. The course includes blowpipe manipulations, qualitative and quantitative analysis, toxicological investigations, Ecc., Esc. This class may be taken in the Summer Session.

5 Institutes of Medicine.-[Prof. Osler and Assistant.]-Embraced in this course are the following classes :-
(a) Physiology, comprising,
(1) A full course of didactic lectures upon the structure and functions of the various organs of the body in health. The lectures are illustrated by fresh preparations, diagrams, plates and models, and, when practicable, by experiments.
(2) Practical demonstrations, held every Saturday from 2 to 4 p . m. In this class a complete series of histological preparations is exhibited and explained. Specimens illustrative of physiological anatomy and practical physiology are also shown, and the Students invited to propound and discuss any questions which may not have appeared clear to them.
(3) Practical Histology-normal and pathological. A course of 25 lessonsMicroscopes, re-agents and material provided. This course is generally held during the Summer Session, but will also be conducted during the Winter if a class of io Students be formed. It comprises thoroughinstruction in the use of the Microscope and the preparation of the tissues, each Student preparing for himself during the course a cabinet of 100 or more specimens.
(b) Pathology, comprising,
(I) A limited number of lectures on General Pathology, which are included in the systematic course on the Institutes.
(2) Pathological Demonstrations-weekly-Saturday, II a.m. This course is based upon, and conducted, as far as pussible, in the same way as that of Prof. Virchow, at the Berlin Pathological Institute. Specimens of all kinds are collected throughout the week, kept fresh until Saturday, and then brought before the class, when practical comments are made upon them. An idea of the amount of material at command may be gathered from the fact that over 150 fresh pathological specimens, illustrative of almost all the common forms of disease, were laid before the class during the past session.
(3) Instruction in Post-mortems-The Autopsy Room of the General Hospital is in charge of the Professor, and the post-mortems are performed by the Students in rotation, under his supervision. System and thoroughness in inspection are insisted upon, the method followed being that of Virchow. As far as possible, attention is drawn to the Medical Anatomy of the thoracic and abdominal organs. In connection with this class, aided by the Professor of Medical Jurisprudence, two Coroners' Inquests will be conducted during the Session before the class, and the Medico-legal aspects of post-mortems dwelt upon.

6 Materia Medica.-[Prof. Wright.]-In this course the ordinary Medicines officinal in the British Pharmacopoeia are taken up in classes according to their chief actions, and described under the various heads peculiar to Pharmacology. The Therapeutics of each are fully detailed, under the effects that follow from different doses. Those from toxic or over-doses are added, together with the mode of treatment, etc. The course is illustrated from a cabinet of the various drugs and their preparations, and the plates of Wagner, Roque, Stevenson and Churchill are also shewn. Analytical experiments with the ordinary re-agents are exhibited.

7 Theory and Practice of Medicine.-[Prof. Howard.]-While the lectures on this subject are mainly devoted to Special Pathology and Therapeutics, the department of General Pathology in this University being included in the Institutes of Medicine, no opportunity is lost of illustrating and explaining the general laws of disease. With the exception of certain affections seldom or never observed in this country, all the important diseases of the body, not described from the chairs of Surgery and Obstetrics, are discussed, and their Pathological Anatomy illustrated by the large collection of morbid preparations in the University Museum, and by fresh specimens contributed by the Demonstrator of Morbid Anatomy.

The College possesses an extensive series of Anatomical plates illustrative of the histological and anatomical appearances of disease, and the wards of the General Hospital afford the lecturer ample opportunities to refer to living examples of very many of the maladies he describes and to give the results of treatment.

8 Clinical Medicine.-[Prof. Ross.]-Attendance is giten in the Medical Wards of the Montreal General Hospital on three days of every week. Accurate reports of all cases are kept by duly appointed clinical clerks, and are systematically read before the class. Instruction is given by the bedside, and special inducements are offered to every pupil to take part in the physical examination of patients. Senior Students are called upon in rotation to examine new cases before the class, and to be examined thereon as to their general knowledge. In addition, one weekly Clinical Lecture is delivered, bearing upon some case or cases of importance which may happen to be under observation at the time. Special attention is directed to Medical Anatomy, and candidates for the degree will be examined thereon.

9 Surgery.-[Prof. Fenwick.]-Divided into Principles and Practice, including Surgical Anatomy and Operative Surgery, exhibited on the subject. The various surgical instruments and apparatus are exhibited, and their uses and applications explained and practically illustrated.

10 Clinical Surgery.-[Prof. Roddick.]-This course is eminently practical, consisting of bedside instruction and lectures delivered weekly, illustrative of Surgical cases actually present in the wards of the General Hospital. The class is taken charge of by the Teacher on alternate days, when the reports of the Clinical clerks are read and criticized, and fresh cases examined by the senior Students. The Surgical dressings are, as much as possible, reserved for these occasions, so as to give all present an opportunity of participating in the application of splints to fractures, dressing of wounds, minor operations, etc. Major operations are performed in the spacious theatre attached to the Hospital, which is so admirably constructed that the most distant can generally obtain a fair view of the operation. This is also used as a Lecture Room by the Clinical Professors. All of the recently invented appliances for the treatment of Surgical disease have been introduced into the Hospital, prominent among which is a complete outfit of Lister's Antiseptic Apparatus, so that this excellent method of treating wounds is now almost universally adopted.

11 Midwifery.-[Prof. McCallum.]-Including diseases of women and children, illustrated by a series of drawings on a large scale, by humid preparations, by models in wax, by the use of the artificial Pelvis, and by cases in the wards of the Lying-in Hospital.

12 Medical Jurisprudence.-[Prof. Gardner.]-This course includes Insanity, to which a good deal of attention is devoted, the subject being treated of in its Medical as well as Medico-legal aspects. Special attention is devoted to the subject of blood stains, the Clinical, Microscopic and Spectroscopical tests for which are fully described and shown to the class. The various spectra of blood in its different conditions are shown by the Sorby-Browning Micro-spectroscope, so well adapted for showing the reactions with exceedingly minute quantities of suspected material. Recent researches in the diagnosis of human from animal blood are alluded to. In addition to the other subjects usually included in a course of this kind, Toxicology is taken up. The modes of action of poisons, general evidence of poisoning and classification of poisons are first treated of, after which the more common poisons are described with reference to symptoms, post-mortem appearances, and chemical tests. The post-mortem appearances are illustrated by plates, and the tests are shown to the Class.

13 Hygiene and Public Health.-[Prof. Gardner.]-A three months' course of Lectures will be delivered on this subject, the attendance upon which is now compulsory.

14 Opthalmology and 0tology.-[Dr. Buller.]-Will include a course of lectures on diseases of the Eye and the Ear, both Didactic and Clinical. In the former the general principles of diagnosis and treatment will be dealt with; in the latter, cases illustrative of the typical forms of ordinary diseases of these organs will be exhibited and explained to the class, and afterwards placed under the special care of gentlemen who may show themselves competent to take charge of them. A Course of Operations on the Cadaver will be open to such Students as may wish to avail themselves of the same.

15 Botany and Zoology.-[Prof. Dawson.]-The Course in Botany is illustrated by specimens, diagrams, models, and the miscroscope. Students have access without any additional fee to the lectures in Zoology in the Faculty of Arts, and to the Natural History Museum of the University and the Museum of the Natural History Society of Montreal.

16 Helminthology.-A course of six lectures on the Parasitic Diseases of Man and the Domestic Animals. (Prof. Osler). The life history and development of the Entozoa, together with the diseases caused by them, are fully considered. The lectures are illustrated by a series of beautiful diagrams, and by fresh and prepared specimens.

The following are extracts from the University Regulations with respect to the courses of Lectures :

Ist. Each Professor shall deliver at least five Lectures during the week, except in the classes of Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery, in which three bedside demonstrations and one Clinical Lecture shall be given; and in that of Medical Jurisprudence, if extended through six months, in which case three Lectures a week will suffice.

It was not thought advisable that Students should pass finally on important subjects of the Primary branches at the end of the first year, hence the second year examination embraces the whole range of the Primary subjects, and the same holds good for the Final branches in the 3 rd and $4^{\text {th }}$ Year, with the exception of Medical Jurisprudence and Hygiene, which may be finally passed at the end of the $3^{r d}$ Year.

The Sessional Examinations at the close of the ist and 3rd Years are compulsory upon all Students, and they will be rated according to merit.

With regard to the Primary Examination at the end of the 2nd Year, it remains optional with the Student whether he passes in all the branches or leaves two for the 3rd Year. In any case, Chemistry and one other must be taken at the close of the and Year.

HOSPIPALS.

MONTREAL GENERAL HOSPIT $$ L.

The Montreal General Hospital affords ample means for the instruction of Students in Clinical Medicine and Surgery. The daily number of beds occupied by patients averages from 140 to 15 . and during epidemic visitations has reached a much higher number. The Governors have also erected a Hospital for Children, contiguous to the Reid Wing of the present building. The Students have thus an opporunity of becoming familiar with nearly all the diseases of suffering humanity, and with the peculiarities imparted to them by infancy, adolescence, maturity and declining age.

The large number of out-door patients that are treated in the Hospital, averaging from sixty to seventy daily-supply illustrations of most of the diseases of infants and childrea, of very many of the eye and skin, and of those chronic and ill-detined ailments which, as they do not require admission to the wards of a hospital, would not otherwise come under the observation of the Student, although, on account of their variety and frequency, they are of great importance to the Physician.

The large number of patients affected with diseases of the eye and ear, now attending the out-door department, will afford Students ample opportunity to become familiar with all the ordinary affections of those organs, and to make themselves proficient in the use of the ophthalmoscope, and it is hoped that every Student will thus seek to gain a practical knowledge of this important branch of Medicine and Surgery. Operations are performed on the eye, by Dr. Buller, after the out-door patients have been seen, and Students are invited to attend the same, and as far as practicable to keep such cases under observation so long as they remain in the Hospital.

The shipping contributes many examples of accidents and surgical cases.

Clinical Clerks to both medical and surgical wards are appointed every three months, and each one during his term of service conducts, under the immediate direction of the Clinical Professors, the reporting of all cases in the ward allotted him. The holding of one of these offices is found to be of the greatest possible advantage to Students, as affording the most real practical training for his future professional life. They will be awarded on application at the end of each Session to final Students of that year, in order of their standing in the primary examination.

Dressers are also appointed to the Surgical iourds and to the Outdoor Department. For these appointments application is to be made to the Professor of Clinical Surgery, and to the Out-door attending Physicians.

The Operating Room (used also for a lecture room) is so constructed as to enable the Students to obtain a good view of the opera tions.

MONTREAL DISPENSARY.

ST. ANTOINE STREET.

About 10,000 patients yearly are treated at this Institution. The cases are of great variety, comprising a large number of pulmonary affections and children's diseases. Minor operations are of daily occurrence, and excellent practice is afforded in the application of splints and bandages. The attending Physicians furnish Students with all possible facilities. The hours of attendance are from 12-2 daily.

UNIVERSITY LYING-IN HOSPITAL.

This is under the direction of the Professor of Midwifery. Students who have already attended one course of his lectures, are furnished with cases in rotation ; they are advised to attend this Institution as much as possible during the summer, when, since there are as many patients and not so many pupils as in winter, a larger proportion of cases falls to the share of each. Moreover, in this way more attention can be given to their duties during the winter.

The Assistant to the Professor of Midwifery attends each case, and gives instruction to the students in the methods of examination and the diagnosis of presentations.

UNIVERSITY DISPENSARY FOR DISEASES OF WOMEN.
Clinical instruction to Senior Students will be given thrice weekly at this Institution, ro7 St. Urbain Street.

I. SUMMER SESSION IN THE FACULTY OF MEDICINE.

The Classes are chiefly practical and demonstrative, and are designed to supplement and extend the teaching of the regular winter Session.

The experience of the past sessions has been very encouraging, both in regard to the numbers in attendance and the diligence with which the classes have been followed ; and the Faculty hopes that all students will endeavour to take one or two of these extra Sessions, the fees for which have purposely been placed so low as to be almost nominal.

The special advantages of attendance upon a Summer Session are :-
(i) The benefit derived from the practical and demonstrative classes.
(2) Dresserships and Clinical Clerkships are more easily obtained at the Hospitals, and the student has more time at his disposal to follow up the cases.
(3) Cases of Midwifery are obtained in greater numbers at the Lying-in-Hospital.
(4) Systematic study can be carried out more effectively than at home.

The advantages offered by the city of Montreal for the practical study of Medicine and surgery are unequalled in the Dominion. In the wards of the General Hospital there is always-and more particularly in the summer months, when navigation is opened-a large collection of interesting medical and surgical cases. In the out-door department there is a daily attendance of between 75 and 100 patients, which affords excellent instruction in minor surgery, noutire medical practice, and diseases of children. The Eye and Ear Department, will afford to the student an opportunity of studying practically, under skilled direction, these important branches.

Dresserships and Clinical Clerkships may be obtained on application to the Attending and Out-Door Physicians.
