Man's Intestines Blown Out by Jet of Compressed Air—His Fellow Laborers Put the Tube in His Mouth

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Andrew Babo was taken from Buffington, Ind. to the South Chicago Hospital of the Illinois Steel Company yesterday, with his vitals organs torn by a jet of compressed air. He probably will die. He is the victim of a practical joke played at the plant of the Buffington Cement Company, a subsidiary concern of the United Steel Corporation, where he was employed as a laborer. Because of his ignorance he was made the butt of many jokes, principally the harmless practice of turning a jet of compressed air down his neck and watching the dust fly from his clothing. As Babo took little notice of this his persecutors grew bolder. They put the nozzle of the air jet in his mouth and opened the stopcock, forcing the air internally in a frightful manner.

MINISTER'S WIFE ON THE STAGE Philadelphia Congregation Doubts as to What They Ought to Do About It

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 24.—Whether a clergyman's wife can, with dignity give up her position in the community to go on the stage is the question that is bothering the congregation of the Green Hill Presbyterian church.

The report that Mrs. Margaret Riley, wife of the Rev. Edwin Ellsworth Riley, pastor of the church, is at present employed in New York in the cast of a musical comedy has been confirmed by the minister and may cause dissension in the church as many members of the congregation express themselves opposed to such a thing, while others seem to think it perfectly right. Mrs. Riley said: "She has been engaged in such work about two years, and we both realize the call of our own individual temperaments and do what we think the best. There is absolutely no truth in the report that Mrs. Riley and I are estranged." Mrs. Riley is at present with the Philadelphi Scherff Opera Company as a chorus girl.

I. O. O. F. ENCAMPMENT TO HAVE A NEW RITUAL Sovereign Grand Lodge Decides that the Rebekah Assembly Will Not be Granted Legislative Powers

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 25.—Hopes of the order of Rebekah, the Women's Auxiliary of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, for obtaining a separate national legislative body have been shattered by the unfavorable attention of the committee to which their petition was assigned by the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Oddfellows. The committee of the whole grand lodge reported its conclusions on the revision of the Sovereign Grand Lodge ritual. This means that the subordinate encampment will have a new ritual for next year.

SIR ANTHONY MACDONNELL IS BACK INTO POLITICS He is Now a Leader of the Irish Reform Association Which is Opposed by Nationalists

DUBLIN, Sept. 25.—Sir Anthony Patrick Macdonnell, Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has resumed political activity. He presided at a recent secret conference of the Irish Reform Society, of which Lord Dunraven or William O'Brien, the Nationalist member of Parliament for Cork was present at this meeting, but they met recently at the Galway conference, which was called for the purpose of finding a common basis on which those believing in a more moderate form of home rule than that emanated and the officials of the new Irish Reform Society, could agree. The present movement is looked upon with suspicion by the Nationalists as an attempt to pull down Home Rule to a minimum when it becomes practically considered. It is supported by powerful interests including many powerful nationalists.

MURDERED BY DOG RIBS It is Feared Gold Prospectors Were Killed in Lizard Country

LESSER SLAVE LAKE, Sept. 24.—News has been brought in by nomadic Indians of a reported fight in the Lizard River country between the Dog Rib Indians and another tribe, name unknown, who are reported to have raided the territory of the Dog Rib. A party of white prospectors went up the Lizard into the South Nehama country last summer, and it is feared that these were the "other tribe." Two years ago Willie McLeod, a quarter-breed boy, went into this country with a companion for gold, and never returned. Last spring three different parties, one led by Charlie McLeod, a brother of Willie McLeod, a second led by a Chicago man, and a third led by an Englishman, started out from Edmonton for the Klondike. So far nothing has been heard of them, and it is now believed they have been murdered for their grub and ammunition.

The fires are reported as having started mostly from the railroad. Mrs. Hall of the Associated Charities states that during the past two or three weeks there have been received a great many applications for work. Those seeking employment are chiefly unskilled laborers, and it is very difficult to obtain situations. There is scarcely any room for even skilled mechanics, owing to the general dullness in trade, but for ordinary laborers only occasional opportunities arise. There are also many women desirous of obtaining housework by the day, but there is little difficulty in putting them on the right track. Suburbanites are now coming back to town, the season for fall housecleaning is now at hand, and there are many householders who are in need of help. The city difficulty in its bringing together those who want servants and those who want work, receives frequent applications, and women looking for employment would leave their names with her, she could often find situations for them.

Archbishop Armitage suggested that a committee be appointed to study the subject and report at the next synod. At a late hour a vote was taken on the resolution in favor of anointing. The clergy largely voted in favor of it and the lay delegates against. As it required a majority of both branches to pass such a resolution, the vote resulted in its defeat.

Union Hall Packed at Last Night's Meeting

One of the Most Enthusiastic Meetings Meeting Held in the North End—Candidate Gets Great Reception

The meeting in Union Hall last night was a popular demonstration in favor of the administration. The speaker, Mr. Laurier, assumed the packed the house to the stowaway, and displayed their enthusiasm by thunders of applause.

Mr. McCallum was the first speaker, and gave a strong address in which he arraigned the Conservatives for the many blunders they had made while in power.

Nowadays, after twelve years of Liberal rule, we hear certain praising the twentieth century is Canada's, and we find that since Laurier assumed the reins of power all problems have been settled, all departments of government have been honestly and honestly conducted, and the country has prospered as never before in its history.

Turning his attention to Mr. Hassan, the speaker said that when on his way to work early in the morning he often met Mr. Pender also getting down to work. At that hour Mr. Pender was in bed dreaming of what he was going to do for the workmen.

Regarding Mr. Macdonald's nomination he said that the party had labored heavily to produce a fitting candidate, and remarked that truly the motto of the party was 'wisdom and not human wisdom that is now to be appraised and glorified.'

Sheep have been lent by a farmer who has not entered for the trial, and of the trio a member of a different flock, and a fresh lot is supplied to a new candidate. The sheep, however, are not the first competitor stands near the pen of hurdles erected at the far end. MAKE BIG CHANGE IN THEIR SYSTEM

Oddfellows Decide on New Plan for Confering Degrees

During the past few weeks the Oddfellows of St. John have made an important and interesting change in their system of confering degrees. It has been found in the past that where each lodge has been called upon to work all four degrees, a great deal of study on the part of the members is necessary, and in some cases lodges have given more attention to some one particular degree, while the others have not been conferred in an equally efficient manner. If the members of each lodge had less to learn it was felt that the degree work in the city would be made much better. Accordingly, all the lodges appointed committees. Hereafter, as required by the constitution, each lodge will confer on its own candidates the initiatory degree. Peerless lodges in North End has given particular attention to the third degree and will work it on all applicants. Arrangements will, it is expected, be made very soon for the evening on which the various degrees are to be conferred, such dates to be suitable to the convening of each lodge. Last evening Golden Rule worked the second degree. Tonight four candidates appear for initiation in Pioneer lodge.

FOUR INCHES OF SNOW FELL AT CALGARY

WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.—Eight million bushels of wheat have already been irrupted at Winnipeg this year, which is just 200,000 more than at the same date last year. The wheat grades were high, and the farmers will have a very profitable crop.

Falls of snow were reported in Alberta last night. At Calgary four inches of snow fell, and at Edmonton, in Saskatchewan the thermometer hovered around 32, and Ontario the average temperature was about 55.

G. P. R. STRIKERS NEARLY KILL A MAN

WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.—A gang of fifty strikers, foremen and English-speaking, went over to the C. P. R. terminals at St. Boniface this morning and attacked the men working there. One man, Richard Brown, was nearly killed, being badly mangled. He is lying in a critical condition at the hospital with a broken leg among his other injuries.

A strong force of police rushed to the scene and have the situation well in hand, several arrests being made. The C. P. R. employes were repairing a derailed engine just across Louise bridge, when they were attacked by the strikers. All but Brown fled and he was left for dead by the strikers.

MORSE IS AGAIN AFTER THE EASTERN

Petition to Terminate Receivship of Steamboat Co. and Sell to Syndicate

PORTLAND, Sept. 22.—Proceedings have been instituted in the United States Circuit Court for the purpose of terminating the court's control of the Eastern Steamship Co., and effecting its sale to a New York syndicate which includes some of the company's creditors. The Eastern Steamship Co. owns and operates paying lines along the New England coast and has done a most unusual business the past summer under the management of Gov. William T. Cobb and Calvin Austin, the temporary receivers appointed the first of last February. The proceedings took the form of a petition for a final decree on which the hearing was postponed Wednesday until Sept. 30. It is not certain whether Charles W. Morse is a member of the syndicate, but it is believed he is.

EXTINCT WHALE THREATENS WHOLE

It will come as a surprise to many to learn that the whale is threatened with early extinction, yet such is nevertheless the case; that is, unless the various governments co-operate, and induce to step in and stay the slaughtering that is now going on.

Quite a number of zoologists and Government experts in both Europe and America have now voiced the opinion that something should be done and done without delay. At a recent meeting of the New York Zoological Society, a resolution was adopted favoring the protection of whales by international agreement.

DEMAND ATTENTION.

Indeed, statistics certainly prove that the case of the whale demands immediate attention. Nearly all species of these great sea monsters are exterminated with extinction. This is due to two reasons: first, because it will witness the end of one of the oldest industries in the world, that is, whaling; secondly, the whale is interesting zoologically being the largest of all living creatures that are now to be seen on our degenerate globe.

One species, the Sulphur Bottom whale, attains a length of over 80 feet, being of greater size than the extinct mammoth, the largest of the wonderful animals of the past. Captain C. M. Scammon, one of the most observant and scholarly of all whalers, once killed a Sulphur Bottom whale that measured 90 feet in length with a girth of 35 feet, and a total weight of 284,000 lb. The jawbone of the creature measured 21 feet in length, the total weight of the whalebone obtained from this single specimen being 800 lb., not to mention 110 barrels of oil.

It is the destructiveness of the modern methods of whaling, practiced chiefly from stations located on shore, that is mainly responsible for the scarcity of the whale today. Unlike the "catch" of these stations is controlled by Government it is clear that the industry will be ruined. This is evidenced from the statistics of the whaling industry in Newfoundland, and it is her laboring sons who will suffer most when the whale no longer inhabits the waters of the deep.

EMPHATIC WARNING.

The importance of the industry is shown by the facts that the value of the whale products rose successively from $125,000 in 1888 to $1,200,000 in 1902. So late as 1904 it was valued at over $350,000. In that year 488 whalers were employed, and three more were planned, although the whaling industry was then employed, Mr. R. P. McGrath, who was asked to prepare an account of the industry for the Government at that time, gave the following figures regarding the whaling industry in Newfoundland: The number of the Newfoundland Department of Fisheries for 1902. He said: "Six factories are now in operation, and two more are under construction, and are

CURIOUS ACCIDENT STATISTICS

The statistics of death by negligence and accident, published quarterly by the Board of Health of New York City, reveals some curious facts regarding the proportions of deaths from various causes. The highest percentage of accidents, deaths in a recent quarter was due to falls, 285 persons out of a total of 1,129 who met death by accident having been killed by falls. The detailed tabulation shows an astonishing variety in the manner of falling. Besides the ordinary and prevalent modes of falling down stairs, from windows, and off fire-escapes, the tables record sundry deaths caused through falling from roofs, walls, trees, ladders, shelves, chairs and so on. Twelve persons met death through falling from the floor. A fall from an elephant was the cause of death in one case.

Another significant total was the number of deaths from automobile accidents, which was thirteen.

LOCH LOMOND PICNIC

The Liberal picnic at Loch Lomond yesterday was a great success. At two o'clock the speeches were begun in the large tent erected for the purpose. The Minister of Public Works outlined clearly the issues of the present campaign. He spoke of the attacks made on the government by the opposition, and demonstrated the weakness of the opposition campaign. One matter which he touched and which aroused considerable interest was the possibility of constructing a railway through the Loch Lomond valley. The Minister said he was unable to make any definite promises regarding the proposition, but acknowledged his deep interest in the scheme, and expressed his willingness to do all that lay in his power to aid it. The Minister was loudly cheered at different times during his address. The speaker pointed out that the working men of the country have added to them in prosperity, and that the value of land has increased. Referring to the record of Sir Wilfrid Laurier he said any man should be proud to be enrolled under his banner. The Conservative policy is to shut out of Canada all foreign goods, by a high tariff. He does not doubt make the cost of imported goods greater and cut down the revenue from the customs. The Liberal government have been asked to invest large sums in public works, and in spite of this the public debt has only slightly increased. The Minister told at some length the great improvements being made by his

HIS DISCHARGE.

A touching instance of the humor which never deserts a true Irishman even in his worst troubles is recorded. A soldier was seen in the trenches holding his hands above the earthworks. His captain asked: "What are you doing that for Pat?" "He replied, with a grin, as he worked his fingers: "I'm thinking of a furlough, sir." Just then a rifle ball struck his arm just below the wrist. Then a queer expression of pain and humor passed over his face as he exclaimed: "And faith, it's a discharge!"-London Answers.

NO PLACE FOR DOGS.

Is it impossible in Japan to keep a good dog? I have twice had my dogs disappear in a common thoroughway. As I am well aware that there is a great demand for dogs, especially those of young dogs, we have been careful in having our dog watch. Nevertheless he disappeared this morning. At last every dog owner has lost a dog or two, and even a captain who was three days on shore had his dog killed the first day he put his feet on land.-Japan Chronicle.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 25, 1903.

CHANGES IN TWELVE YEARS.

Since Sir Wilfrid Laurier first assumed the leadership of the government there have been many changes among the leaders of the Liberal party. Middle aged men who twelve years ago were active in Canadian affairs, have followed the popular custom of growing older and a considerable number have retired, several have passed away, while others still continue in harness, though not immediately connected with the administration.

Among those who were at one time members of the cabinet, and who are now in some other branch of the public service, or who have retired to private life are—Sir Louis Davies, Sir John A. Macdonald, Mr. Chas. H. Fry, Sir Wm. Auluck, Mr. Chas. H. Fry, Sir Wm. Auluck, Mr. Chas. H. Fry, Sir Wm. Auluck, Mr. Chas. H. Fry.

Mr. C. Fred Hamilton, of the Toronto News staff, has acquired a certain reputation in Canadian journalism and is supposed to be a very fair reporter. This reputation he is fast losing by the articles he is sending his paper on the Borden meetings, and by the special paragraphs in connection with the tour, which he is writing. Mr. Hamilton in Tuesday's News had a review of the tour, in which he stated the situation as it appeared to him. Speaking of Nova Scotia he says: "If conditions there are normal, the Conservatives will win five or six seats. It is not certain that conditions are normal; there are indications that a tide has set in against the shameless wholesale corruption which disgraces a province which in every other respect is foremost in the Dominion." So far Mr. Hamilton is right. As he suggests conditions are not normal, and the wave of public feeling against the shameless corruption of the Conservative party as exemplified in Colchester, absolutely prohibits that party from winning even one seat out of the eighteen. But Mr. Hamilton goes on: "If that tide has set in the conservative gains will be substantially increased."

"In New Brunswick," says Mr. Hamilton, "the present minority is certain to be converted into a majority." It would be interesting to hear how Mr. Hamilton arrived at such a conclusion. The standing here is now seven Liberals to six Conservatives, with a strong possibility of the result being thirteen to nothing.

"Prince Edward Island's intense hostility to the government requires no stating," of course not, if any attempt is to be made at sticking to the truth. P. E. Island will give a good account of itself in the coming contest.

THE ANT AND THE SLUGGARD. Consider the life of the slugard. O ant! Why ruin your lungs with that torturing pant? Why climb with your burden those wearying steeps. While the slugard at ease so restfully sleeps? He drifts without care on a river of dreams. While the sweat from your forehead is running in streams; And when lean from your labor you see the slugard at ease, He'll feed, fresh and fat, at the charity lunch.

CONDEMNED POWDER PUFF. Pastor Entraged Ladies of His Congregation. NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The World has received the following despatch from Taylorstown, Pa.—"The Rev. J. H. Moore, pastor of the First Christian Church, who came here from Hanibal, O., less than a year ago, has occasionally uttered a thought that has been set up and taken notice. Emboldened by his success as a critic of human frailties, he told his hearers mostly women and girls, Sunday night that he would as soon have a black snake in his house as a deck of cards, and had his own private opinion of any woman who used a powder puff. In an instant half a dozen young women were on their feet expostulating against such words from the pulpit. There were cries of 'Shame!' and other expressions of condemnation. When the congregation was dismissed the babel of indignant voices became almost an uproar. The choir demanded that the pastor resign, but he refused to do so unless the arrears of his salary were paid. The ladies promised to see that this was done. They have half the sum collected already, and are determined not to give Mr. Moore a chance to preach another sermon.

KING EDWARD IS DEBT FREE.

The Burden of Debt That Queen Victoria's Economy Piled on His Shoulders as Prince of Wales and the Men Who Helped Him to Carry It—All Paid Now.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—King Edward's good spirits, says a French writer, are not to be explained merely by the diplomatic successes he has won. If he travels about Europe with a juvenile ardor which is the envy of other men of his age, and if he has never before shown such amiable, philosophical equanimity, it is not for any good reason for it. The King of England had become a rich man, he has paid his debts.

King Edward was reared in a school of strict economy. His father, Prince Albert, sprang from a family of petty German sovereigns which was compelled to handle its money with care, trained him to thrift. Queen Victoria adopted her husband's principles.

Instead of saving the revenues of the Duchy of Cornwall when he came of age she hoped to prevent him from squandering this money by investing it in land. So she bought the property of Sandringham, today one of the King's favorite residences, but one she has absorbed immense sums of money.

It may be taken as one of the direct results of the entire cordiality that we find this French writer ascribing the indebtedness of the Prince of Wales solely to the part he had to play in the representative of the Crown while the Queen lived a retired life. While she enjoyed an income of $3,000,000, had to rival the style of living of men like the Duke of Devonshire, Bedford, Westminister and Leveson, who were far richer than he. He had also to receive foreign monarchs of his visits, entertain the officials of state and organize all court functions.

Some ten years things went on smoothly by Queen Victoria's economy. Prince got deeper and deeper into debt. At length the day came when the Rothschilds would no longer provide money for him. An appeal for assistance was made to Queen Victoria with a refusal; her son's extravagance, she said, might not be encouraged. It was only when the Prince threatened to throw himself on the generosity of the nation, that she was moved to two occasions to provide some assistance. Then arose a series of benefactions to the Prince, which were devoted or worldly ambition devoted their wealth to restoring the Prince's financial position.

SAY THAT EVELYN THAW CAME TO ST. JOHN
 Bangor Commercial Has a Dope Yarn Filled With Brainstorms and Curious Reporters
 (Bangor Commercial.)
 Maine Central employees and others at the Union station Wednesday afternoon had several attacks of "brainstorm" before the departure of the 1:30 express for the west all because of the fact that some express messengers on the St. John train told them that Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was on board.
 When the noon train from the Province rolled into the station at 1:15 p. m., Wednesday afternoon, the rumor also rolled in that the wife of Harry K. Thaw was on board. Immediately there was a grand rush of idle trainmen and bystanders for the platform near the St. John chair car in the hope of securing a squint at the famous ex-chorus girl.

 It happened that there were a number of young women in the car who might pass for Mrs. Thaw if one had never seen that much-heralded woman. None of the express messengers could point to the so-called Evelyn out, so it was up to the by-standers to pick her out if possible. Each passenger in the car was carefully scrutinized, much to her embarrassment and wonder as to what it was all about.
 One woman who was pointed out as the probable Evelyn, caused one bystander to say that he didn't "see what Harry Thaw saw in her to get huffy over." Another said that Mrs. Thaw was younger than the passenger in the car. Opinions generally different as to whether Mrs. Thaw was a blonde with peroxide hair and pink eyes or a brunette and pretty one, too, and when the train pulled out of the station for Portland the question as to which was which, was still in abeyance with an answer not forthcoming.
 The store said "brainstorms" were caused by the report that a telegram had been received at Vaneboro by the Maine Central operator, addressed to Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, and had been delivered to her at that point by the operator. The news that a telegram had been received for Mrs. Thaw spread along the line like wild-fire and when Bangor was reached there was a good-sized delegation of the sidewalk committee present to give the keys of the city to the famous New York woman.

 A Commercial reporter endeavored to ascertain if the rumor had a foundation for fact and accordingly interviewed the Pullman conductor of the car for elucidation. The Pullman man said that he had not been able to discover Evelyn in his car, as there was, only one female passenger on the car at Vaneboro and she certainly wouldn't pass for the ex-chorus girl, as he had seen photographs of Mrs. Thaw and the passenger didn't look anything like them. He was sure Evelyn Thaw was not on the car, so the Commercial man didn't proceed further with the investigation.
 There was a lively time on Haymarket Square yesterday afternoon, and the chief spectator was Policeman Charles Rankine. The cause of all the disturbance was James McMullin who in view of the policeman showed his feistic ability by beating Wilbur Graham, who was drunk. The policeman made a clean sweep when he arrested McMullin on the charge mentioned above and Graham on the charge of drunkenness.

BIJOU FILM SUPPLIERS SAY "EVERY PICTURE UP-TO-DATE TODAY."
 Two more days of the best of pictures await the patrons of the cozy Union street picture house—The Bijou. Although we are at the present time unable to announce the names of the different subjects to be shown, owing to the failure to ship of the firm who supply the Bijou with films, we may state that the management of the Bijou informs us that they have received word from the shippers that they will be up-to-date in every respect. So patrons of this house, of "pictures" can rest assured when they drop into the Bijou today that they are going to see something above the average. We'll just tell you now the songs they are going to sing and would suggest that you hear Miss Smith sing "Ellen Allamah" and also Mr. Higgins in his new song, "Those Songs My Mother Use to Sing."
HAPPY HALF HOUR.
 Another splendid show awaits patrons of the Happy Half Hour today. Holmes and Buchanan will sing a duet, "Love Dreams"—a very catchy number, from A Woodland Wooing. The new pictures are very fine. The Man and The Woman is one of the best dramatic pictures ever presented at the house and that means something. It is a picture of a very strong play that has been presented in this city under a different title. Do you know the play? A picture that will prove interesting to everybody, particularly members of the Natural History Society, is A Naturalist At Work. A prominent naturalist connected with the British Museum is photographed at his work, and the result of his investigation is shown by the aid of the microscope and it will be a surprise to those who see it. A Good And Bad Fairy is a hand-colored picture full of trick surprises. Harry LeRoy and Prof. Titus are both singing popular songs. Adgie's Lions are still on exhibition, and during intermissions hold receptions. During one of the intermissions at night they are fed. A most interesting sight.
FARLEY AND DUGAN AT THE CEDAR THEATRE TONIGHT.
 This clever team of high class dancing artists are making a big hit. Tonight they will offer something new in the way of buck and wing dancing. The picture end of the programme is good, the subjects are all new. Mr. Wallace will have a new and catchy song to offer. Don't miss this big show tonight. Big matinee for the children on Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Admission all times 5c.
THE ROBBERY OF THE CITIZENS' BANK AT THE UNIQUE TODAY.
 One of the best dramatic pictures ever produced will be put on at the Unique Theatre today. It is called "The Robbery of the Citizens' Bank," and is in every way worthy of the praise it has received. A gang of expert bank thieves conceived the idea of robbing a bank located in a suburban town. One of the number, a venerable, plausible old rascal, in company with a girl, presumably his daughter, opened an account and rented a deposit box in the bank vault. This action gave them a good opportunity to study the location of the treasure. A German member of the gang rents an empty store next door and apparently does business as a cabinet. The rest come separately to his shop and wait for instructions. "Old Doc" shows a plan whereby tunnelling through the cellar the vault may be reached. At a convenient time the plan is put into execution. An immense sum is taken. A burglar alarm has been overlooked and the robbery is discovered. A posse is organized and starts in pursuit. After a desperate chase they finally corner the thieves, place them in irons and recover the money. Two other great pictures, "The Poisoned Bouquet," a drama of the fifteenth century, and "Buried Alive," a great comedy, a story of the beach at Coney Island. Two new songs, "Sweetheart," by that charming soprano Miss Mae Power, and "You're Just the Boy For Me," by Miss A. Ountou. Do not forget the matinee, every afternoon, beginning at 2:15.

PERFORMANCE AT THE PRINCESS.
 The Princess Theatre was crowded last night with the most pleased audiences that have visited this family amusement resort this season. In addition to an excellent programme of moving pictures, the big musical act of Goldie and Good is attracting large crowds. This is one of the best musical acts that has been offered in the city for some time, and is deserving of all the applause they are receiving. Mr. Curtin, a noted New England baritone, was heard to great advantage in the late and pretty song entitled, "There Never Was a Girl Like You." Harry Newcombe was heard to great advantage in the stirring song entitled "The Broncho Buster."
 The pictures that are being shown for the first time made a hit. Seal Labor is the title of a picture that has many amusing situations. The Old Shepherd is a melo-dramatic picture that has many thrilling scenes. From a Spectator's View is the title of a picture that is most amusing. The Expecting Study is the title of another funny picture.
 Today Mr. Curtin will sing "Soldier's Dream," a beautiful solo, while Harry Newcombe will render "Stingy." There is an entire change of programme today.
HALIFAX MINISTER DIED ON HIS WAY FOR SWIN
HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 24—Rev. William W. Ross, retired Baptist clergyman, died suddenly this afternoon. A son is H. F. Ross, manager of the Union Bank, Sydney. Mr. Ross complained of not feeling well at noon, but he nevertheless left his house for the North West Arm where he had been accustomed to go daily for a swim. His son, Will, advised him that perhaps he had better stay home, but he insisted on going. On his way down while crossing the Common he fell down and almost immediately died.
AN ANCHOR TO WINDWARD.

Mrs. Annabell Garraway—the rich Mrs. Garraway, and rich even for New York—had a glimpse of Paget Fitzhugh dodging around a large six-legged bull from Nineveh and, when she beckoned to him, the young man came forward with a little of the air of being caught at something.

SCOTTISH CONCERT GREATLY ENJOYED

The Spence-Strachan Scottish entertainment at the Every Day Club last night did not surpass the expectations of those who heard Gavin Spence and Miss Nannie Strachan in the same hall last spring, but it was nevertheless one that roused the audience to great enthusiasm.

S., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on the steamer Prince Rupert and placed in the county jail no less than four prisoners who have been found guilty of serious offenses, and are en route to Dorchester penitentiary today, where they will spend terms of imprisonment.

LEAGUE OPPOSES SUNDAY PARADES

The Sunday School League of the city of St. John is not in favor of Sunday parades either by the militia, by fraternal societies or by any other organization whatever. More than that, the workers are down on Sunday funerals, and while they do not go so far as to suggest to people that it is very improper to die on Thursdays or Fridays, they suggest to ministers and all others in any way connected with the burying of the dead that interment will be just as effective if carried out on a day other than the Sabbath.

ACADIA APPOINTS ANOTHER TEACHER

WOLFVILLE, Sept. 24.—Acadia University has appointed Henry G. Hartmann of Brookton, N. Y., as instructor in philosophy for the coming college year, pending the appointment of a permanent professor in that department. Mr. Hartmann has just completed a course in philosophy leading to the degree of Ph. D. at Columbia University, New York, and in addition has spent a year at the universities of Jena, Leipzig and Berlin, Germany. He has had several years' experience as teacher in the Polytechnic Institute of Brookton, where his work is very highly spoken of. He comes with the highest commendations from his professors at Columbia, both as to scholarship and character.

LAST NIGHT'S OPERA PROVED RARE TREAT

Those who did not bear the tragedy of Rigoletto sang at the Opera House last evening missed the best performance so far given. This composition is not as well known in St. John as Travatore, Faust or Carmen, but it is a work that there are endless duets, choruses and quartets, and there were last evening all splendidly rendered. Miss Darling as the daughter of Rigoletto, the count jester, who falls a victim to her father's anger, was never heard to better advantage. The dramatic qualities of her voice were repeatedly enfolded for effective work. Mr. Paul, too, found in the part of the Duke of Mantua an exacting part, sharing with Miss Darling the honors of the evening. Mr. Bartlett and Mr. Boyle also most creditably performed their parts, and the opera throughout was an artistic success. The cast was as follows:

A NEW ONE FOR HIM. "The climate here is salubrious, isn't it?" "Yes, friend," replied the tourist. "Say, friend," replied the native. "I just wrote that there word down for me, will you? I get tired of swears' at this climate in the same old way. That's a new one."

SYND HAS BIG DEBATE AT OTTAWA

A Prayer in Giving of Uncion MAJORITY OPPOSE ONE Speakers Declare Church is Losing and Christian Science Gaining

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—The general synod of the Church of England in Canada today, after a long and interesting debate, defeated a resolution providing for the adoption of a prayer to be used by clergymen in the administration of unction to the sick.

The debate was of peculiar interest on account of many references to the Christian Science movement. More than one of the speakers declared that the church was losing and Christian Science was gaining followers because the church had abandoned unction and the practice of granting unction of oil and prayer when called upon by persons in extreme physical distress.

The synod during the debate showed a distinct cleavage between advocates of high church doctrine and those of the high church adherents favored the unctio resolution which was proposed by Canon Scott of Quebec.

On a vote this was supported by a majority of the clerical delegates present, but was defeated because a majority of the lay delegates cast their votes against it.

Canon Scott's resolution provided for the unctio of the sick and the use of prayer for administration of unction in the first prayer book of King Edward sixth. The church, he said, had a mission to the body, he said, for the soul, and there was no reason to suppose that the healing power of the first ages had died out.

Many acts, such as Christian Science, were now sprouting up and groping for truth which is suggested. He urged the original purpose of anointing of the sick and the nineteenth century had erred in holding that anointing was for the forgiveness of sins and in rare cases for healing of body.

Ven. Archdeacon Harding, of Indian River, in supporting the resolution, declared that the church, like her divine, was bound to administer to the body as well as the soul of men, in reference to a case cited in the resolution when a child of the bishop of Moosonee had been cured by anointing with oil followed by prayer.

Archdeacon Armitage of Halifax moved in amending the resolution that a committee be named to consider the question of anointing of the sick, and report to the next synod. This was defeated. After some further discussion the original resolution was adopted.

Remarkable Luck of Carson Brothers at Red Pine—One of the Heads a Beauty.

To sit on the railway track, call for moose just for fun, and kill two magnificent specimens was the experience of A. R. Carson, an I. C. R. employee, and his brother, a few days ago.

On Wednesday last Mr. Carson and his brother, A. Walter Carson, went out on a brief hunting trip. They were walking along the Intercolonial Railway track at Red Pine on the North Shore and thought that it might be advisable to call for a moose. The call was given only a couple of times when it was answered by a bull. The hunters had not long to wait before the head of the animal appeared through the bushes near the track. Walter Carson took a steady aim and the big bull lurches and lay dead.

A few minutes after this animal with a 44 inch spread and a beautiful head was laid low, the Carson brothers were amazed to see another bull break through the bushes as if in search of his brother. It was A. R. Carson's turn, and a bullet caused one of the finest heads in the New Brunswick forest to fall. The brothers had only a about three hours to skin the game and get the carcasses ready for the train. Having no distance to travel they had no trouble in getting the heads and carcasses on the train. The two heads arrived at the store of St. John, and Oden-Smith, Taxidermist, on King Square. The meat went to a local firm in the city market.

The big head is attracting much attention. It is one of the finest ever sent to St. John, and as Mr. St. John describes it, it is not a freak head, but is perfect in every respect. The main of the horn measures 16 inches while from tip to tip is 6 1/2 inches, and the 27 tips are excellently divided. It is the finest head that the King Square firm ever handled. There is record head in the government building at Fredericton, which measures 67 inches.

The King Square firm also has a head from J. D. Hanson, of Chipman, that measures 53 inches.

CLIFTON HOUSE PORTER GOT AWAY WITH $100

Cleaned Out the Cash Drawer Early This Morning

Frank M. Isaacs Took Advantage of Proprietor's Absence and Also Took Everything Else He Could

The management of the Clifton House found this morning that their kindness of heart had cost them a hundred dollars. Frank McIsaac, whom they had given a job as day porter a couple of weeks ago, when he was in destitute circumstances, disappeared early in the morning and took that amount with him.

A fortnight ago, Mr. McIsaac, who had previously worked as ticket taker at the Happy Hat House, applied for a job at the hotel. At that time he was without even decent clothing. The management took him on and gave him a new suit of clothes and a pair of boots, and since then he has worked around the hotel.

Between six and seven o'clock this morning Mr. Black, the proprietor of the Clifton House, placed $100 in the cash register to be used as change. He then went upstairs to breakfast, leaving Mr. McIsaac in charge of the office.

When he came down again he had reason to go to the cash register, and on opening it found the entire contents missing. Even the copper drawer had been emptied. He started to look for the porter, but he was not to be found, and it did not require much detective ability to connect the missing man with the missing money.

The police were notified, and Detective Killen was placed on his trail. The last time the man was seen he was on board a street car going towards north end, and this as the detective only clue.

Mr. McIsaac seemed to have been planning this coup, for yesterday he was leaving of Peart Black, the brother of the proprietor, as to the best way to get to Vancouver and Portland. The information was cheerfully given with, of course, no suspicion of the purpose to which it was to be put.

THE SINNER WHO NEVER GAST A VOTE FOR FOSTER

Mr. McAlpine's New Jerusalem Story Which Made a Hit in North End

Mr. E. H. McAlpine told a rather good story at last evening's meeting in north end. "Up the river," he said, "there are some districts in which Scripture names are popular. There is a place called New Jerusalem, and not far away is New Canaan. Occasionally, in winter, religious revivals break out—the people have no time for these in summer. Well, one winter after all the work had been done, the revival epidemic started. Everyone was infected. This was at New Jerusalem and you can see old men in the street. There was one young man, courting a girl, who showed symptoms and the fellow thought he would make a better impression if he got religion, even though it didn't take. So one evening he was sore afflicted. The hand of conscience lay heavily upon him when he thought of his many sins. All the people were making various kinds of appeals, and this young man joined the chorus. With tears in his eyes, an head bowed in sorrow, he loudly confessed the many sins he had committed, but there seemed then no hope for such as he.

"But then came a pause. A sudden thought struck him, and his face brightened. 'But,' said he 'I never voted for Foster.' The burden fell from his shoulders, he stood upright, a man among men, for this one qualification seemed to blot out the guilt of many of those sins which he had committed."

FORESTERS MOVE TO LARGER QUARTERS

The I. O. Foresters, Companion Court Hetherington, met in Foresters' Hall, Charlotte street, on Wednesday evening for the first time, the former place of meeting being in the lodge room of the Temple of Honor, Union Hall, north end. Having added largely to the membership during the past year, and in view of the fact that ladies are now admitted to the sick and funeral benefits, and also as social members, it was found necessary to seek larger and more convenient quarters. The meeting was largely attended by members and visitors from subordinate courts. After the general business of the court, a pleasant hour was spent, addresses and refreshments being in order. This court has for its officers: Mrs. M. A. McLeod, chief ranger; Miss Mabel Starkey, recording secretary; Mrs. E. D. Starkey, financial secretary; and an efficient staff of officers under whose management and with life facilities which Foresters' Hall affords it carry on the work, the success of the court is assured.
