

COUNCIL TO DECIDE ON CENSUS WHITNEY EVADES RESPONSIBILITY IN THE SUNDAY CAR MATTER

Letter From Premier Says He Is Willing to Allow Figures To Be Taken If Money Is Put Up by the City.

COUNCIL DIDN'T ASK FOR A CENSUS

Although It Was Thought That They Had Done So—There
Appears To Have Been Some Misunderstanding—
A Special Meeting.

The question of a census is before the city council.

A letter was received at the city hall from Premier Whitney, saying that if the council wanted a census and would raise the money for it, he would be willing to allow it.

The communication was not made public, but this is the gist of it. The Ontario Government declines to make a census unless the city provides, of course, the council declare it advisable by resolution, and set aside the sum of $500, which is considered about necessary.

SOME MISUNDERSTANDING.

It was thought that the communication, at present in the hands of Sir James Whitney from the council, was a request from that body asking the Government to allow a census to be taken.

It now develops that there was some misunderstanding as to the intent of the council. That body asked the Government to take steps to have the population of the city declared to be 50,000, and was not a request for a census.

None of the members of the council considered that it would involve the expenditure of money, and all voted in favor of the resolution. Premier Whitney interpreted the resolution as a request for a census, but during the past few days has been informed that such was not the intention.

THE POPULATION.

However, the Premier would not declare the population on the figures submitted to be 50,000, and Assessment Commissioner Grant, owing to the fact that the figures were not collected by himself, would not take an affidavit to the effect that the population was at the present moment the number required.

Sir James Whitney, in order to obviate further discussion, has put the question directly to the council, and in effect says that if they are willing to pay the price he is willing to allow a census to be taken.

SPECIAL MEETING.

The communication will be made public at a special meeting of the council on Monday evening, and will be discussed.

From what can be learned, there is no possibility of the census being taken this year.

More than half the members have declared that under the circumstances it would be inadvisable to spend the money for a census.

However, pressure sufficient to make them change their minds may be brought to bear on the aldermen, and a census may yet be taken.

At the present time it is distinctly up to the aldermen.

FOUND DEAD AT PORT STANLEY

Body of Alfred Hastings Discovered Close to Franklin House.

NO MARKS OF VIOLENCE

Dead Man Was Ex-British Soldier and Had No Friends in This Country.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Port Stanley, Nov. 20.—The body of Alfred Hastings was found dead in death just north of the steps leading up to the Franklin House barroom this morning. No marks of violence were noticed except a bruise over one of his eyes. The coroner, Dr. Guest, was notified and an inquest is now being held. Hastings was an ex-British soldier, and as far as known, had no friends in this country, but had brothers and sisters in England. He had been working at odd jobs here for the past month or more, and for the past few days had been acting as porter in the Loney House.

STANDARD OIL ORDERED DISSOLVED

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 20.—In an opinion written by Judge W. H. Sutherland of St. Paul, Minn., and St. Paul today the United States Circuit Court for the District of Minnesota held that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey was an illegal corporation and ordered that it be dissolved.

MRS. SHORE DISCHARGED

Squire Chittick Decided That Evidence Was Not Conclusive.

Judgment in the case of Mrs. Susan Shore, of Westminster, who was accused of placing salt around a number of trees and vines on the premises of Mr. John E. Jones, was given this morning by Squire Chittick. In considering the case the squire did not think that the evidence was very strong, however, of the wisdom of Mr. McEvoy in considering the action so thoroughly, as he considered that if such cases were known to be taking place they should be very severely dealt with.

In the information laid Mrs. Shore's son Albert and Albert Moore, the third man, were also implicated, but the latter turned King's evidence, and no case was made out against the son, so they were both dismissed.

CALLED TO THE BAR.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—The following students at Osgoode Hall were called to the bar before Chief Justice Falconbridge today: C. E. Bothwell, J. McEwan, A. C. Mackintosh, C. A. Irvine, Lionel Davis, M. Macdonald, J. W. Carrick, G. B. Balfour, J. E. Caldwell and F. E. Treleven. W. F. McPhie was enrolled as a solicitor.

BURNED TO DEATH IN HOME AGED MAN'S TRAGIC DEATH

John McIntyre Perishes in Early Morning Blaze That Wipes Out
His Home on the 13th Concession of Yarmouth County.

St. Thomas, Nov. 20.—John McIntyre, aged 70, met with a tragic death early today in his home on the 13th concession of Yarmouth County. About 3 o'clock this morning neighbors noticed smoke and flames coming from McIntyre's house and immediately rushed to the scene. The flames had spread with such rapidity, however, that it was impossible to enter the building to effect a rescue. When the fire had burned itself out the remains of the unfortunate man were found burned to a crisp close to the front door, their position indicating that he had made a desperate effort to get out. The cause of the fire is unknown, and an inquest will be held. McIntyre lived alone. He has a daughter in St. Thomas, and a son in Michigan.

TEN CENT FARE WILL BE ASKED

Water Commissioners Have Their Minds Made Up in Regard to Springbank Park
Next Summer.

LOWER FARE TALKED OF

But the Commissioners and the Mayor Believe It Would Be Unfair to the London Street Railway Company.

Springbank fares will be taken up at a special meeting of the water commissioners to be held on Monday afternoon.

The agreement with the London Street Railway Company will expire in a short time, and the water commissioners in order to certain improvements and amusement devices may be erected by the company on the park.

The bone of contention will be the Springbank fare. At the present time the fare is three tickets. The present commissioners, to a man, will demand a ten-cent fare straight, and it will be granted.

Some Petitions.

In connection with that matter it is expected that some petitions will be presented to the commissioners.

The residents of Byron and district will present a request for a more frequent service. They claim that in the winter time an hourly service should be run.

There are a number of citizens who claim that the fare to Springbank should be the ordinary city fare—a single ticket each way.

The commissioners have been approached on this matter by some citizens, and asked to compel the company to come to a straight fare agreement as outlined.

Commissioners Opposed.

To this latter proposition, the commissioners will not agree. They will insist upon a ten-cent fare, and no more, nor less.

Manager King will agree to this, provided, of course, his claims are allowed as to park privileges. "A straight ten-cent fare seems to be the most equitable," said Chairman Jones. "We will insist upon that or allow the board of next year to act upon it."

"I think a ten-cent fare is the correct thing," said Mayor Stevely. "We will demand it. The single ticket each way idea is not equitable, as it would not be fair to the company."

"We want a ten-cent fare," said Commissioner Darch.

To this latter proposition, the commissioners will not agree. They will insist upon a ten-cent fare, and no more, nor less.

Inspector Edwards received a circular this morning from the department of education in Toronto, stating that owing to the scarcity of properly-qualified teachers in many districts, the department has decided to extend the term of the existing limited, third-class, county-board, third-class, extended third-class and extended district certificates, which expire on Dec. 30, until June 1, 1910, provided that the teachers produce a certificate of recommendation from the inspector of their district.

"This will not, of course, apply to London, where there are no vacancies," Inspector Edwards told The Advertiser, "but to many of the districts all through the country where there is a great scarcity of duly qualified teachers."

OLD MAN STOLE COAT

John Devlin Was Remanded for Week for Sentence.

John Devlin, an old man who gave his home as Montreal, and who since coming to London about a week ago has been applying at the police station every night for lodgings, was found guilty this morning by Magistrate Love of stealing an overcoat belonging to Frederick Ward, a young man from West London, who is staying at the Houghs House, and was remanded for a week for sentence.

WOMAN BROKE JAIL.

St. Johns, Mich., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Bertha Baker, who escaped Thursday night from the Clinton county jail, where she was awaiting trial on the charge of murdering her aged husband, was captured last yesterday near her home, the scene of the crime. The woman's children for hours yesterday defied the sheriff and denied that their mother had returned home. But the eldest boy finally broke down under a fire of questions and directed the sheriff to a swamp, where the woman was discovered wrapped in a blanket. Mrs. Baker said her escape was effected by stealing a key from the sheriff's wife.

SIR WILFRID IS SIXTY-EIGHT

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, Nov. 20.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier is 68 years old today. From all parts of the country messages of congratulation on his continued good health are pouring in. Sir Wilfrid is celebrating his birthday by working hard in council.

BRILLIANT WEDDING OF LONDON COUPLE

Miss Estelle Louise Leonard Becomes the Bride of Mr. J.
H. Innis Carling.

THE CHURCH CROWDED

Large Gathering to Witness the Interesting Ceremony—Edifice Beautifully Decorated for the Occasion.

This afternoon two of London's oldest and best established families were united, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Estelle Louise Leonard, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elton Leonard, of London, Ontario, to Mr. J. H. Innis Carling, only son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Harry Carling, and grandson of Sir John Carling.

The ceremony took place in the church of St. John the Evangelist, and was a most brilliant affair, the church being filled to overflowing with guests and spectators, and the picturesque old church was adorned and beautified by a gay and brilliant display of floral decorations, including trailing asparagus fern, and the pews reserved for the guests were marked by knots of white silk cord and huge bunches of pink chrysanthemums. The church was simply but artistically decorated with pale pink and white chrysanthemums.

The pastor, Rev. Canon Dwyer, presided, and the ceremony, and Miss Katherine Moore, organist of the Memorial Church, presided at the organ, and played softly throughout.

An interesting side issue to the business is the fact that next year the Grand Trunk Railway Company's property in the city will have to be reassessed, according to the latest assessment act.

At the present time the company are assessed for approximately $625,000. The new assessment, it is expected, will bring the total up to about $800,000, a decided advantage to the city of London.

This, it was thought, would influence the company in opening negotiations with the city, but apparently, it has had little influence whatever.

"I have heard nothing at all," said Mayor Stevely. "I have forwarded all the information I presume, has it in his possession. I do not know when the matter will be taken up seriously, but it certainly will not be long."

CRUELTY TO ANIMAL CASE

George Metcalfe, charged with cruelty to animals yesterday, brought his horse to the police station this morning in order that Magistrate Love might see it. The court inspected the animal, and decided that as Mr. Metcalfe has been taking good care of it, that he would not press the charge. The magistrate remarked that the constable was perfectly right in laying the information and not allowing the horse to be worked.

John Chapman and James Fox, charged with being disorderly by fighting on the street, pleaded guilty and were fined $2 each.

Richard Haynes, a young man who admitted being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10 or 21 days and was released any time to pay.

COUNCIL WILL IGNORE THE REAL ESTATES

Will Not Ask Mayor and Ald. Ferguson to Refund Recent Trip Money.

Mayor Stevely is paying no attention to the resolutions of the R. E. O. P. A. regarding the expenditures of himself and Ald. Ferguson while at the convention at Medicine Hat.

"I have nothing to say," said his worship. "It does not make any difference how much they resolve, as we spent no more than was absolutely necessary."

The council will not request his worship and Ald. Ferguson to make the refund demanded by the R. E. O. P. A., but will ignore the petition altogether. It was stated today.

Ald. Ferguson is out of the city today, and will not return until Monday.

Travellers' Society Meets.

The annual meeting of the Mutual Benefit Society of the Western Ontario Commercial Travellers' Association will be held this afternoon at 8 o'clock in the office of Secretary A. M. Robinson.

MR. F. J. SMITH.

Mr. Smith, a prominent young member of the Liberal Club, is a candidate for the chairmanship of No. 1 ward. Although quite a young man, he has been in politics for some years, and is extremely popular among the younger Liberals. His father was engaged in the same work for many years. He is certain to poll a heavy vote in his ward.

SIGNS OF DISASTER ON LAKE SUPERIOR

Found Wreckage That Would Indicate the Boat Came From Sarnia.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 20.—The steamer Minnie M. arrived down last night and reported passing through wreckage consisting of some 200 barrels of naphtha oil and gasoline along the shore from Whitefish Point down for miles. The only mark on the barrels indicated they were from Sarnia, and filled with Canadian oil. There is no due to what steamer they are from, except that the steamer Arabian unloaded 100 barrels of the same oil here Sunday night, and looked up for re-election.

CITY MUST REASSESS GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY

Expected That Company's Assessment in London Will Be Run Up to $800,000.

No word has been received from the Dominion railway commission regarding track elevation.

It was expected that some announcement would be made before this, but nothing has come.

The Grand Trunk have sent no communication to the city on their side of the matter, and it is now a question merely for the commission.

An interesting side issue to the business is the fact that next year the Grand Trunk Railway Company's property in the city will have to be reassessed, according to the latest assessment act.

At the present time the company are assessed for approximately $625,000. The new assessment, it is expected, will bring the total up to about $800,000, a decided advantage to the city of London.

SISTERS SUFFOCATED.

Philadelphia, Nov. 20.—With gas escaping from the loosened tube of a stove in their room, Fannie Freilich, 16 years old, and her sister Katie, 12, were found dead in bed here today, both asphyxiated. The bodies were discovered by their mother, who had gone to the room to awaken Fannie. Rose, aged 11 years, had a narrow escape from the fate of her sisters. She retired with them last night, but was made ill by the gas, and went to her mother's room for relief. Thinking the child was suffering from nausea due to a minor complaint, home remedies were administered, and Rosie was put to bed in her parents' apartments.

THE MILITIA STORES DESTROYED IN GREAT FIRE AT OTTAWA

Conflagration Early This Morning Consumes Many Thousands of Dollars Worth of Supplies and Wipes Out Big Building.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Nov. 20.—A serious fire occurred here this morning. Between 7 and 8 o'clock flames were discovered issuing from the central stores building of the militia department. The building belonged to the Federal Government, and was full of valuable militia properties consisting of small arms, harness, saddles, tents, blankets and uniforms, ambulance supplies, and in fact everything which is issued to the militia. This is one of the largest of the militia department's depots. Before the fire was extinguished the contents were nearly all destroyed or badly damaged. The loss will run into many thousands of dollars.

CANDIDATES WILL STAY IN FIELD

Ald. Ferguson and Beattie Will Run No Matter What Opposition Crops Up.

R. F. MATTHEWS AGAIN

It Is Said He Will Try To Get Even With Ald. Beattie—Mayor to Run For Utilities Board.

Municipal matters are becoming greatly involved these days, and it does not appear that there is any relief in sight.

Slates of all sorts and descriptions are being promulgated, and confusion is the result.

The two candidates in the field for the majority have definitely decided to run. Ald. Beattie and Ald. Ferguson are in to the hilt, they declare, and nothing will stop them.

Nothing further has been heard from the civic committee slate, which Mr. C. C. Gibbons, K. C., is asked to lead.

The members of the committee are hopeful that he will enter the list, and if he does they expect his election.

It was stated by a close friend of ex-Ald. R. F. Matthews that he would enter the field provided that Mr. Gibbons did not run. In other words, he is not going to allow Ald. Beattie to run without opposition from himself.

He remembers his own experience two years ago, and blames Ald. Beattie for his defeat.

However, this is a rumor about which Mr. Matthews has little to say, although many of his personal friends take it for granted that he will run under certain circumstances.

Utilities Commission.

The utilities commission is adding to the candidates' troubles. It was stated today that the present council would not pass the bylaw authorizing the election of a commission.

Their excuse is that the Niagara River disbursement point will not be ready until next autumn at least, and the council, through the special power committee, could handle it very satisfactorily.

However, it is not thought likely that the council would do such a thing, but there is a persistent rumor to that effect about the city hall.

The present council are having plans for the coming election. They are not going to be caught napping, and the majority of them are on the lookout for re-election.

Ald. Cooper, Ald. Saunders, Ald. Rose, Ald. Fitzgerald, Ald. Moorhead, Ald. Garratt and Ald. Stevenson are trying to get the present council to pass the bylaw authorizing the election of a commission.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN ASSESSMENT CASE

Interesting Action Over Dividends of London Electric Company.

Judgment was reserved this morning by Judge Macbeth in the case of Mr. J. I. A. Hunt, M. K. Kent, Mrs. Rayley, and J. C. Judd, against the decision of Assessment Commissioner Grant that the dividends of the London Electric Company were assessable.

It will be remembered that Mr. Judd on behalf of several of the stockholders appealed to the court of revision against the assessment of the dividends of the company. Their contention was that the company had not declared a dividend, and consequently it was not assessable. Mr. Grant contended the department was assessing dividends that had been paid, and that the assessment of this year's dividend was a matter for future consideration.

Mr. Judd would not agree to that and action was brought.

At the court, this morning the facts of the case were admitted by both sides, and the decision as to the legality of the claim was left to his lordship.

Mr. J. C. Judd, K. C., represented himself, Mr. Hunt and Mrs. Rayley, while Mr. F. F. Harper represented Mr. Kent.

Mr. T. G. Meredith, K. C., appeared on behalf of the city.

CASSELMAN SECOND IN O. H. A. POLLING

John Dymont Elected to Executive by 25 Votes, Londoner Getting Twenty-One.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Nov. 20.—At the O. H. A. meeting today John Dymont, headed the polls for the executive committee with 25 votes. Casselman, of London, ran second with 21, Bart 17, Whitney 13, McPherson, of Peterborough, 18.

The junior age limit was reduced from 20 to 19 to take effect a year from date. Motion to allow juniors to rest five minutes at quartertime was rejected.

A proposal to secure new cups for junior and intermediate series passed.

UNCLE SAM VICTOR OVER STANDARD OIL

Great Company an Alleged Corporation and Ordered Dissolved.

St. Paul, Nov. 20.—The Government wins its suit against the Standard Oil Company. The United States circuit court today ordered the company dissolved and pronounced it an illegal corporation.

This case was heard in the United States circuit court at St. Louis in April, 1908, by Chief Judge Sutherland, of St. Paul, Minn., presiding, and Judge C. C. Gibson, of Chicago, concurring. The case was brought on behalf of the defendants, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, and about seventy other corporations, from maintaining a combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade to monopolizing interests and international commerce and the decrees grants the injunctions sought by the Government.

The case was argued by Frank R. Kellogg, of St. Paul, and Mr. Charles B. Morrison, of Chicago, for the United States, and John G. Milburn, of Buffalo; David T. Watson, of Pittsburgh; Moritz Rosenthal, of Chicago, and John G. Johnson, of Philadelphia, on behalf of the defendants. It was brought to enjoin John D. Rockefeller, Wm. Rockefeller, Henry M. Flagler, Wm. H. Rogers, John D. Archbold, Oliver H. P. Belmont, and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, and about seventy other corporations, from maintaining a combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade to monopolizing interests and international commerce and the decrees grants the injunctions sought by the Government.

Sale of Black Dress Goods Monday One-Quarter Off Skirt and Dress Ends

An accumulation of ends from this season's selling which have been gathered from our Black Dress Goods shelves, will be found on the counter, Monday morning at a reduction of 25 per cent. The materials, needless to say, have been the best selling goods in the stock, and many are of our regular lines of Broadcloths, Worsteds, Serges, Cashmeres, Silk Warp Henrietta, Lustre, Resilda, Venetian, Cheviot, Panama, Voile, Wool Taffeta, etc. Almost every kind of black goods carried in our immense stock is represented in this sale—not remnants, either, for all are good lengths, from 4 to 7 yards, and a few over 7, sufficient for skirts, suits or princess dresses. This is a splendid opportunity to secure a few Christmas gifts, and if you desire you may have any you wish reserved by paying a deposit and have them delivered any time before Christmas. We will enumerate a few lengths which will give you an idea of the savings. About 60 ends, no two alike.

4 1/4 yards $1.25 Panama, $5.31; 1/4 off end, for.....$3.99
4 1/4 yards $1.00 Cheviot, $4.25; 1/4 off end, for.....$3.19

6 yards $1.25 Stripe Voile, $7.50; 1/4 off end, for.....$5.63

These are but a few examples. There are 60 ends and all are equally good value. It is just a question of whether it is a coat, skirt, dress or suit that is wanted. These will be on sale until sold, but most shoppers have long since learned the wisdom of coming early for first choice when sales of this kind are on. Remember, the same reduction on all ends no matter what price or quality, 25% OFF.

SIR WILFRID AND THE ANTI-CANADIANS.

Some of our Conservative contemporaries are doing their utmost to drag the naval question into the party cockpit. In his memorable speech a few days ago, Sir Wilfrid eloquently exhorted Canadians to shoulder the responsibilities of British subjects by helping to bear the burden of Imperial defence; but our contemporaries pretend to find a snake in the grass. They scent treason in Sir Wilfrid's assertion that the Canadian navy would not go to war unless the Canadian Parliament so decreed. The Kingston Standard is more than ordinarily hysterical. It says the Canadian navy has been damned out of the Premier's own mouth. A Canadian navy subject to Canadian control "breeds disloyalty." Sir Wilfrid's speech is "tantamount to a declaration of independence." The Standard pictures him "waving over his head the Union Jack, in an endeavor, as a political cut-throat, to darken the waters of political discussion, that his real purposes may be concealed in a display of mongrel patriotism." The Standard is as muddled in its metaphors as in its reasoning. Even the Ottawa Citizen alleges that it is a "piece of gratuitous cheek" to proclaim that "Canada reserves the right to repudiate the claim of Great Britain to its support."

The eagerness of these and other journals to impute sinister motives to Sir Wilfrid Laurier has in this case badly overshot the mark. It happens that Sir Wilfrid merely repeated the declaration of the Government of Australia on the same subject. In the memorandum transmitted by the Commonwealth Government to the Imperial authorities, this passage occurs:

"It is, however, to be understood that if the services of any of the coast defence vessels be desired in seas remote from Australia, the approval of the Commonwealth Government shall first be obtained to their removal."

What have these assailants of Sir Wilfrid to say to that? Do they allege that the Government of Australia six months ago was also tainted with treason? Or is it the ancestry of Sir Wilfrid that makes the difference? That a Canadian navy, built by Canadians, manned by Canadians, and paid for by Canadians, should be controlled by the Canadian authorities, is a self-evident proposition. Those who dispute it are siding against their own country.

MR. BYRON WALKER ON THE BUDGET.

Mr. Byron Walker, the able general manager of the Bank of Commerce, has returned from Great Britain and offers some opinions upon public affairs in the mother land. He says the amount of destitution and unemployment is a grave problem, which British statesmen are compelled to deal with. He thinks that the opponents of the budget do not make sufficient allowance for the fact that money has to be found for this purpose; but he is afraid that the weight of taxation, especially the death duties, may ruin many landed estates and cripple many business concerns in the matter of capital. Mr. Walker elaborates the point as follows:

"Generally in taxation a moderate part of the income is taken and may be spent by the state without encroaching on the nation's saved capital. With death duties, however, if a government takes from an estate one-fifth of the entire capital and spends it for current expenses, which do not return a money income, so much of a nation's productive capital is lost. This cannot go on very long, for the nation is living on its capital, and must soon pay the penalty of such folly."

The death duties have been imposed in Great Britain since 1894 and no party thinks of abandoning them. The present budget, however, proposes to increase the duty by a graduated scale, rising from 4 per cent on estates valued at more than $25,000, and less than $50,000, to 15 per cent on a value of $500,000 and over. The contention that money so taken by the state is productive capital destroyed is not the reasoning of some eminent British economists who have discussed the subject. In the first place, the owner of the estate may pay the duties in land instead of money. The land so acquired by the state is to be leased or sold to small holders. There is no destruction of capital in such a process—quite the contrary. The increase of small holdings is the declared policy of all political parties in Great Britain. The breaking-up of the great estates is admitted to be desirable, though politicians differ as to methods. If the death duties, however, are paid in cash, what is the result? It may be spent in old-age pensions, in afforestation, in the purchase of small holdings, in a score of different ways; but its expenditure in any event increases the demand for food, clothing and other products of industry. It adds to the saving power of workmen, merchants and manufacturers. The bulk of a nation's capital represents the savings of the many. If this were not the case, the condition of the country would be parlous indeed.

The proceeds of the death duties may be as productively employed by the state as if the money or property had remained in the hands of the person who inherited it. The capital is not destroyed; it merely changes hands. The wages-fund theory—the theory that wages and employment depend upon the capital in a country at a given time—is dead. It was discarded even by John Stuart Mill after he had made it an integral part of his system. As a matter of fact, wages are highest and labor more in demand in new countries, where capital is comparatively scarce and dear. A time of industrial depression often coincides with an abundance of capital lying idle for want of investment.

A CHEERFUL STATEMENT.

The October statement of the chartered banks of Canada shows three records. Bank deposits, bank note circulation, and bank assets are the highest the country has known. The banks have taken advantage of the new legislation permitting an expansion of their note issues during the season of crop-moving. Their circulation exceeds their paid-up capital for the first time, and showed an increase of $10,000,000 last month. This extra issue will, of course, be speedily retired under the provisions of the act. Bank assets at the end of October were $1,133,986,560, an increase of $28,614,990. The deposits reached the imposing total of $731,806,093. The figures of deposits for ten-year periods are instructive:

Year	Deposits
1869	$ 39,418,259
1879	63,183,099
1889	123,233,210
1899	261,124,323
1900	688,893,565

There could be no more trustworthy index of the growing wealth of Canada. It is a remarkable evidence also of the recuperative powers of the country, remembering the money stringency of two years ago.

According to some Canadian naval critics, what is reasonable in Australia is reasonable in Canada. The eminent economists of the Real Estate owners' Association strain at the kindergarten gnat and swallow the Niagara power camel.

The treason-hunters are on the trail of Hon. George Graham because of something he didn't say. They have been hunting somebody for nearly a hundred years. Isn't the game nearly played out?

The convention of the American Federation of Labor has passed a resolution to the effect that there is more freedom of speech in Canada than in the United States. As the delegates are guests of this country, it would be impolite to dispute their assertion.

The bills for Germany's big navy are falling due. The people are winning, and the Government is at its wits' end.

to find the money. In the meantime the Socialists are sweeping everything before them. Germany has troubles at home without seeking them abroad. She is not so formidable as some Britons imagine. He sat in the Legislature for 30 years before going to Ottawa in 1904. The doctor's one fault was a propensity for speaking often and too long, but no legislator was more attentive to his duties. The London Free Press says that the Lloyd-George tax on land values has pleased the disciples of Herr Bebel in Germany, and all the Social elements in European populations. "Wake up! Land values are taxed in 100 German municipalities, and now the anti-Socialist German Government intends to adopt the tax as a source of national revenue. There is a peculiar appropriateness in the choice of William Ewart Gladstone's son as the first governor-general of South Africa. No man of British blood could be more welcome to the Dutch. They revere the memory of his father. The statesman who gave the Transvaal its independence after the battle of Majuba Hill showed a lofty magnanimity, and added a page to the history of the Empire which Britons can reflect with more pride than upon the subsequent Boer war."

REAL ESTATERS WANT REFUND TO BE MADE

Meeting Last Night Passed Resolution in Regard to Medicine Hat Trip.

There was a lively time at the regular meeting of the Real Estate Owners' Association last night, when the trip to Medicine Hat was discussed. Practically every member took a hand in framing a resolution in regard to the matter, and the following was carried:

The Resolution.
"That whereas it has been publicly admitted by the mayor that he and Ald. D. Ferguson obtained from the city treasury the sum of $490 for their expenses on the trip to the municipal convention held at Medicine Hat and Calgary, that whereas the C. P. R. issues a first-class return ticket from London to Calgary at $55, a fullman fare of $24 return, the term of the convention and time of travel occupying 13 days, thus at $3 per day for dining car and hotel service, would amount to $39, or a total of $148 each;

"That this association requests the city council to ask these representatives to return the overcharges of $27 each, or a total of $194, and to furnish the ratepayers at a public meeting to be held at the city hall, with a full report of the proceedings of the convention, that the taxpayers may consider whether it is wise to any further send representatives to any further convention of this character; and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the press and city council by the secretary."

Mr. Baker in Limelight.
Several of the members cited the case of City Clerk Baker, who after he attended a meeting in Montreal was able at a public meeting to give the citizens very valuable information that he had acquired there. They professed to regard the trip of the mayor and Ald. Ferguson as a pleasure jaunt at the city's expense.

Another Resolution.
The following resolution in regard to the proposed census was passed:

"That whereas the Sunday car question will require a census to establish the required population, we believe the best interests of all concerned will be best served by waiting for the federal census, due to be taken in the year 1911, nominally only a year to wait, that this association respectfully request the city council to suspend all action on this question until said census shall be completed, and thereby save the citizens any expense in connection with the matter, and that copies of this resolution be sent to the city council, and also to Sir J. P. Whitney."

MISS RUSSELL TO WED NEPHEW OF MIKADO

Daughter of Lillian Announces She is To Become "Princess Mutsuhito."

Los Angeles, Nov. 20.—Not having a great fortune to pave the way, a European title, Miss Dorothy Russell, daughter of Lillian Russell, the actress, has decided to become an oriental princess. She admitted tonight that she was engaged to Prince Mutsuhito, a nephew of the Emperor of Japan. She is waiting in Pasadena, accompanied by Miss M. A. Driscoll, who is to act as her chaperone, she says, until she becomes "Princess Mutsuhito."

The prince has sailed from Japan, and the wedding is expected to follow his arrival. The romance, Miss Russell says, began when the prince was a student at Yale.

Although Dorothy Russell is only 28 years old, this will be her second matrimonial adventure. In 1902 she eloped with Albert Louis Einstein, the son of a New York lawyer. She divorced him three years later. The newspapers at the time were full of the affair, and pointed out that her mother had been divorced three times.

TERROR AT TENERIFFE

Volcanoes Appear Suddenly and Threaten To Destroy Villages.

Madrid, Nov. 19.—Official advice received from the island of Teneriffe state that the activity of the volcano that appeared in the mountains of Las Flores continued for only five minutes, but that the eruption menaces all of the villages in the south of the island. The inhabitants to whom the only way of escape is by sea, are panic-stricken. Other mountains in the vicinity are giving evidences of volcanic activity.

T. AND N. O. EARNINGS.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—The earnings of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway for the month of September, according to a statement just issued, were $157,777, and the operating expenses, $90,151, leaving a net profit on the operating account of $67,626. This does not include $10,000 in royalties received by the railway from various mines.

GEN. BOOTH COMING.

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—It was announced at the local Salvation Army headquarters today that Gen. Booth has definitely decided to visit Canada during the latter part of February and early in March. He will spend one day in Ottawa while en route to Toronto.

COMMUTATION CASE.

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—In the supreme court today the appeal of the city of Toronto vs. G. T. R. and C. P. R. was taken up. This is a case referred to the board of railway commissioners regarding the railway companies issuing commutation tickets on some lines and not on others. The question to be decided is whether or not this is an illegal discrimination.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DANDRUFF

PRESIDENT FALCONER OPENED NEW WING

Toronto Varsity Head Guest of Honor of the Stratford Collegiate.

Stratford, Nov. 19.—The opening of the new wing at the Stratford Collegiate Institute was formally celebrated last night in a banquet held in the Collegiate building, at which President Falconer, of Toronto University, was the guest of honor. The banquet was given by the staff of the Collegiate, and among those present were the city council, the school boards of the city, and a majority of the public school teachers of the city.

A reception was first held in the assembly hall which was tastefully decorated for the occasion, after which the guests adjourned to the new wing, where the tables were set. A unique feature of the banquet was that the catering was done by the domestic science department, and too great praise could be given to Miss Drake and her assistants.

Mr. C. A. Mayberry, the principal of the Collegiate, was the toastmaster, and seated on his right was President Falconer. After the toast to the King had been honored, Mr. Mayberry welcomed all present at the opening of the new wing, which he said was an enduring monument to the liberality of the city and board of the council of Stratford. He was especially glad to welcome the president to this one of the most progressive of the smaller cities in the matter of education.

President Falconer, in responding to the toast of the University of Toronto, congratulated the gathering very heartily on the splendid addition to their educational facilities, and also complimented the domestic science department on the way the banquet had been served.

"The very environment of Cambridge," said the speaker, "was eminently suited to academic life. England is the home of great men in statesmanship, literature and science, and universities will always be great in so far as they produce men who will tell others a little of what they have learned of life."

"The University of Geneva," said Dr. Falconer, "had impressed him as a university of the people and for the people. Calvin's aim in starting the university was to provide freedom of spirit, and there the state and university are regarded as complementary factors."

A FIGHTING NAVY

Taft Says It Should Be Something More Than To Look At.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 19.—The second annual convention of the Atlantic Deep Waterways Association, now assembled in this city, took up its most important feature today, the arrival of President Taft for an all-day stay here as the guest of the association and the municipality of Norfolk.

In an open air address President Taft reiterated his interest with regard to waterways improvements, and decided that he would earnestly support any project which could prove its practicability and worth, and which would tend to the general good of the navy, he declared, should not only be "worth seeing," but should be able to fight if it ever has to. The president's speech was listened to with proper growth of the navy, and aroused a great deal of enthusiasm by declaring that Hampton Roads and Chesapeake Bay should be protected by an invulnerable island fort midway between the Virginia capes.

NEW RAILWAY COMBINE.

St. Louis, Nov. 19.—St. Louis bankers are discussing a widely circulated report that Edwin Hawley is organizing a $500,000 holding corporation to include the St. Louis and San Francisco, Chicago and Alton, Missouri, Kansas and Texas; Chesapeake and Ohio, Toledo, St. Louis and Western, Iowa Central, Colorado Southern, Minneapolis and St. Louis, and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad companies.

BIG IRRIGATION SCHEME.

Guadalupe, Mexico, Nov. 19.—Fernando Pimentel, mayor of the City of Mexico, has organized a company known as the La Sauteña, with a capital of ten million pesos, to take over twenty million acres in the State of Tamaulipas and to irrigate and colonize 240,000 hectares, or approximately 400,000 acres. It is the largest project of the kind ever undertaken in the republic. The lands extend along the Rio Grande for fifteen miles, and south to the Conchos River, about 90 miles. Water for irrigation will be secured from rivers and from the storage of storm waters, and for supplying the 240,000 hectares the company will receive a subsidy of 6,000,000 pesos from the Mexican Government. The company expects to secure the majority of its colonists in Europe.

FRENCH COURT REFORM.

Paris, Nov. 19.—For the first time in a French assize court, a trial was conducted today after the Anglo-Saxon method. This was in fulfillment of the wish of Minister of Justice Marthou that certain reforms be instituted, including the doing away of the judges' interrogation of the prisoner.

Deputy Moulliet introduced in the Chamber of Deputies today a bill providing that witnesses in court trials may have a lawyer present when they are examined.

TO BE DEPORTED.

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—A Frenchman who arrived on the steamer Manchuria from Yokohama and a stowaway who had been on his way around the world on a waver, will be deported. The department of commerce advised North that he will be treated as a regular stowaway. Application for permission to go through to Mexico on his way back to Paris has been denied.

HURRICANE AT LISBON.

Lisbon, Nov. 19.—A hurricane struck this city this afternoon causing considerable damage. No casualties are reported, though it is rumored that a fishing vessel was swamped off shore.

MRS. STETSON MAY FORM A CHURCH

Her Admirers Are Discussing the Possibility of Her Starting for Herself.

New York, Nov. 20.—It was learned today that the board of trustees of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, were waiting for the next move on the part of Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, before acting on her resignation, which she had given to the Mother Church at Boston.

Mrs. Stetson's resignation from the board was expected, it was said, and a meeting of the board, or the congregation, would not be called until she had been given ample time to present her resignation.

Friends of Mrs. Stetson predict a general reorganization in the board of trustees of the New York church, as a result of her excommunication. Some of her followers today were strong in their disapproval of the conduct of her case by the directors of the Boston church. It was charged that Mrs. Stetson had been tricked into the power of her enemies at Boston by partial promises of vindication at her trial, and that it was this belief which led her to admit her error. It was said that when she left Boston Wednesday at the close of the hearing, she believed that her judges would pardon her "errors" and reinstate her with added powers.

TELEPHONING WITHOUT WIRES

Interest is still unabated in the first public exhibition in wireless telephony, given in Canada at the recent Canadian National Exhibition by The Collins Wireless Telephone Company, of Newark, N. J. It was shown conclusively by these wonderful instruments that the voice could be transmitted across buildings and through brick walls without any wire communication whatever. Among the many hundreds that demonstrated the Collins Wireless Telephone, Mr. W. K. McNeigh, M. P., Mr. J. C. Eaton, Dr. J. O. Orr, manager of the Exhibition, and Mr. B. Anderson, customs official, Mr. Collins has accompanied the exhibition in Canada of this great invention. Mayor Oliver had his picture taken operating a Collins telephone.

A dispatch has been received in Toronto which says "The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, at Seattle, Washington, has conferred the Gold Medal, the highest award, on the Collins Wireless Telephone Company, of Newark, N. J."

Marconi, the wireless wizard, says: "Wireless telephony is an established fact. I am satisfied that wireless telephony has been solved, and to Mr. Collins is due the credit for the invention. I believe that from my tests that in the near future communication can be maintained over any distance by the wireless telephone. There is a great practical future for the wireless telephone, it will be a benefit to science and to the commercial world."

The Collins Company are about to organize subsidiary companies throughout the United States and Canada, commercially the parent company, to retain a large interest and to receive royalties from them.

LANSDOWNE'S ACT CAUSES CHAOS

Financial London Hopes for Compromise Over the Budget.

London, Nov. 20.—The London stock markets rule stagnant, awaiting some indication of the next move in the budget controversy.

Kaffirs are depressed, but the situation otherwise is suggestive of stubborn steadiness. This possibly reflects the underlying belief, perhaps no more than hope, that the budget will be a compromise and that the King's efforts in this direction have not ended, and the financial consequences of the refusal of the Lords to consent to the collection of revenue, which the Government has already obligated itself to spend, are so grave that a compromise is still seems the more plausible solution.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Lisbon, Nov. 19.—Twelve members of the party on Eugene Higgins' yacht Varuna, which was wrecked on the coast of Madeira, had a narrow escape, according to advices received here from Funchal.

The British steamer Hesperly sighted them in a small boat far from land and drifting helplessly. In their struggle with the high seas the survivors had broken their oars.

The steamer picked them up and landed the party at Funchal. The total number saved from the Varuna was 65. The yacht has been abandoned as lost.

TO SAVE RUINS

Historic Old Spanish Missions in California To Be Preserved.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 20.—Preserve the missions! That is the keynote of a movement which before the dawn of 1910 will be heard from the Pacific to the Atlantic in the effort to preserve the crumbling ruins of the old Spanish missions in California. Wealth and influence of California's most prominent citizens are being exerted, and their plans to make the movement country-wide in its scope have touched the responsive chord. President Taft lent his influence to the preservation of the missions, and his speech at Riverside, Cal., in 1908, has been a great help to the public spirit, has been restored to all its beauty.

Three of the finest of the missions—San Juan Capistrano, San Antonio, and San Bautista—are in need of immediate attention. San Fernando Mission, in the San Fernando Valley, is deserted and rapidly going into ruins. Some effort is being made to restore the mission at San Gabriel, between Los Angeles and San Diego, and today it is in fairly good shape.

R. W. GILDER, POET
AND EDITOR, DEAD*Head of Century Magazine Is a Victim of Heart Disease.

New York, Nov. 19.—Richard Watson Gilder, poet, author and editor of the Century Magazine, died tonight of heart disease.

Gilder, like many who have risen to place in letters, early showed his bent of mind. Born at Bordentown, N. J., in 1844, one of eight children, he was writing, setting the type for and publishing the St. Thomas Register, at Flushing, L. I., when he was 12 years old. Four years later he united with two young colleagues in the production of a campaign newspaper, supporting Bell and Evans for Presidential honors. His interest in politics then faded and while still in his teens, he enlisted with Landis Philadelphia battery and served through the campaign of 1862 when Pennsylvania was invaded by the Confederate forces.

The death of his father cut short a subsequent novitiate in the law, and, thrown on his own resources, the young man became first a railway paymaster and later an editor and more. In "My Journalistic Experiences" he tells how his duties as editor of the Newark Morning Register, a daily, and "Hours at Home," a New York monthly published by the Scribners, proved too exacting for his strength. Moreover, the Register was losing money, he wrote, "just as fast as a newspaper can lose money, which is faster than anything else in the world."

Accordingly, he sold out his interest, but the acquaintances he had made stood him in good stead and when Scribners' Monthly was started, absorbing "Hours at Home," Gilder found himself, at the age of 26, in a position of honor and high literary influence. For eleven years he was managing editor of Scribners' under Dr. Holland, and when at Dr. Holland's death the magazine underwent a further reorganization and change in ownership, Gilder became, in 1881, editor-in-chief of the Century Magazine, a position he held until his death.

Better known as a poet, even than as an editor, Gilder has published six books of verse, among which are "Lyrics and Lyrics," which have found a strong in the American anthology, and have been heralded by critics as sure to pass into the heritage of the language. His best work are: "The Cathedral Passion," "Lyrics," "Two Worlds," "The Great Remembrance," "In Palestine," "Poems and Inspirations," "A Christmas Wreath," "A Book of Music."

A HAMILTON HOLD-UPCourt Interpreter Said To Have Trampled Up a Charge.

Hamilton, Nov. 19.—Proceedings were started yesterday in what may prove to be a very sensational case, when Budimir Protich, the local court interpreter, was summoned on the serious charge of conspiring with Frank Bluestein to prosecute Samuel Strasburg for an offence of which he knew the latter to be innocent.

Protich had been the confidant of the local authorities for a couple of years, and he was regarded as generally to be relied upon in laying information. In the case at issue, Bluestein asked him to assist him in having Strasburg prosecuted for teasing him in a restaurant in Dundas.

Protich is alleged to have told him that he could not lay a charge on that ground, but offered, so it is alleged, to trump up a charge against Strasburg for the sum of $5. This Bluestein is alleged to have accepted over, and Protich laid a charge against Strasburg of trying to obtain $5 from Bluestein by means of threats.

When the case came to court the complainant refused to proceed, and the magistrate was so annoyed at the trouble he had put the police to that he ordered the complainant to pay the costs, $5 of which went to the interpreter. Instead of getting the money from Bluestein it is alleged Protich demanded it from the prisoner, who paid it. The case will be heard on Monday, and should it proceed, Protich is liable to 14 years' imprisonment.

HIGH-HANDED ZELAYANicaraguan Dictator Filling the Jails
With His Enemies.

Panama, Nov. 19.—Zelaya is acting in a high-handed manner according to travellers from Nicaragua.

More than 1,000 persons have been imprisoned in the penitentiary at Managua, the number including congressmen, the military commanders of Granada and Rivas, and many other prominent persons. President Zelaya has severed relations with the Liberals of Managua, and all of whom he is particularly inimical, and the United States Consul Olivarez. The homes of these men are guarded day and night. No one is permitted in the vicinity of the military barracks or near Zelaya's residence, where he is guarded by 1,000 picked soldiers.

After 9 o'clock at night no one is allowed in the streets of any of the towns under Government control. All houses are ordered closed at that hour. Anarchy reigns within the Government, as well as in the army because Zelaya will trust no one who has made for himself his confidants.

All Nicaraguans have been called to arms, and many are leaving the towns and joining the rebels, or hiding in the mountain fastnesses.

Up to the present Zelaya has exacted war contributions amounting to nearly $1,000,000.

DEAD RABBIT REVIVED.

New York, Nov. 19.—Dr. Louise G. Robinovitch, the young Russian woman who came here from France recently and started medical men of this city with her declaration that she had discovered a way to bring the dead to life, demonstrated today to scientists that she can perform wonders with the electric apparatus she has perfected.

In the presence of a number of medical men Dr. Robinovitch electrocuted a rabbit and brought it to life again by rhythmic electric excitations that caused its heart and respiratory organs to resume their functions. She also showed the advantages of electricity as an anesthetic.

NEW ONE FOR COURTS.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—The courts will grapple with an entirely new question in connection with suit which has been entered by Nancy Francis against E. Kagan to recover $5,000 damages for the alleged seduction of her daughter. "An action for damages for seduction," said H. C. MacDonald, of Curry, Erve, O'Connor, Wallace & MacDonald, solicitors for Mrs. Francis, "must be based on loss of service. It has hitherto been loss of service through illness of the subject of litigation, but in this case the girl was not ill. We are setting up that there is loss of service to mother through the fact that her daughter is incarcerated in the Alexandra Home."

FEDERATION DEMANDS
A TRIAL BY JURY*Strongly Denounces Sentence to Jail of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 19.—The feature of the American Federation of Labor convention this morning was the report of the committee on the annual address of the president. In this the main thing was the reference to the injunction proceedings which resulted in the sentences of Gompers and other officers of the Federation. The committee held that the injunction was not legal when applied to cases where actual property is not involved, and maintained that property does not exist in patronage of this or that store or article of establishment, patronage being controlled solely by each individual. The committee very strongly condemned the sentences of imprisonment on the labor leaders, holding that it was against the Magna Charta and the Declaration of Independence, that any man should be imprisoned without a trial by his peers. The committee recommended that an appeal be made and a special fund for the purpose opened if necessary. This section of the report was passed by a standing vote amid much enthusiasm.

The other feature of the morning was the demand of the New York Upholsterers' Union that the Siegel-Cooper advertisement be excluded from the Federationist, the official organ of the American Federation of Labor, on the ground that the firm is unfair to union labor. President Gompers vacated the chair, and taking the floor as a delegate, defended the company. He said no departmental store in the United States was more friendly to the unions than the Siegel-Cooper. His story of the troubles more than suggested that the upholsterers were themselves to blame. The matter was not finished at adjournment.

PARK SCHOOL EXAMS.Results of the Fall Examinations Posted Friday Morning.

The results of the fall examinations were posted at the Park School, Public Library building, on Friday morning. The following students came first in their respective divisions:

Senior School—Third year, Enallie Young; second year, B. E. White; second year, A. Anita Black; first year, Nora Nicholson.

Junior School, Grade VIII.—Kizzie McCormick, Grade VII.—Mary Brown; Grade VI.—Frances Wilson. The term was brought to a close by the usual meeting of the literary society of the school, the programme being provided by the juniors, and was devoted to the study of Longfellow's "Tales of a Wayside Inn." Helen Moore presided, and the following took part in the programme: Vera Martin, Alice Graves, Katharine Cronyn, Betty Hodgins, Mildred McCracken, Edith Fisher, Ruth Young, Catharine Sabine, Mary Brown and Kizzie McCormick. Two of the seniors, Enallie Young and Kitty Hague, gave the beautiful rendering of King Robert of Sicily, set to music.

SALARIES WILL GO ONFive Thousand a Year for Labor Leaders If Sent to Jail.

Toronto, Nov. 19.—The A. F. of L. convention this afternoon decided that if President Gompers, Secretary Frank Morrison and John Mitchell go to jail for the terms to which they have been sentenced, they are to be made the recipients of salary on the basis of $5,000 per annum. This is the salary paid the president.

This resolution was reached after a discussion on the report of the committee appointed to consider the question of remuneration to the leaders in view of their sentences.

During the day President Gompers said the sentence was unjust and illegal because they had not had a trial by jury.

The report was passed by a standing vote amid much enthusiasm. The other, a feature of the day, was the demand of the New York Upholsterers' Union that the Siegel-Cooper advertisement be excluded from the Federationist, the official organ of the convention, on the ground that the firm is unfair to union labor. President Gompers vacated the chair, and taking the floor as a delegate, defended the company. He said no departmental store in the United States was more friendly to the unions than the Siegel-Cooper. His story of the troubles more than suggested that the upholsterers were themselves to blame.

ULTIMATUM TO CHILIUnited States Forces Settlement of Long-Standing Aisop Claim.

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 19.—The Chilean Government today opened negotiations with Washington with a view to submitting the Aisop claim of the United States against Chile, to a specially constituted court of arbitration, at the Hague.

This action followed notification through Chilean Minister Cruz at Washington, that the United States would close its legation at Santiago within a few days, unless the Chilean Government consented to an adjustment of the claim or a reference to The Hague.

This notification was regarded by many as an ultimatum.

In 1874 the Aisop Company of New York and Connecticut advanced large sums of money to the Bolivian Government in exchange for the right to valuable guano deposits in that country, and other concessions. The Government contracted further to return a portion of the loan from the receipt of customs at the port of Arica. Before long contract could be fulfilled Bolivia lost Arica and the adjoining districts to Chile in war. In 1885 following representations by the United States state department, Chile agreed to assume the obligations of Bolivia to the Aisop Company. She has never, however, made good her promise, and the matter has been the subject of diplomatic negotiations ever since. The claim now amounts to more than $1,500,000.

FELL FROM WINDOW.

Lima, Ohio, Nov. 19.—Physicians gave the life for William Frick, of Beaufort, a member of the wealthy Frick family, following the amputation of both his legs last night, but he rallied, and today had a bare chance to recover. The woman who fell with him from a third floor window Wednesday night, both were injured, and who gave her name as Miss Florence Adams, of Toledo, today admitted that she is married and that her husband lives in Eastern Ohio. She is held on the charge of disorderly conduct. She has developed symptoms of internal injuries.

Read This:

THERE ARE SCORES OF MEN who have made upwards of $1,000,000 each in California oil during the past few years. John A. Bunting was formerly a brakeman on the Southern Pacific Railway. He borrowed money to acquire oil land and go into the oil business, and his wealth is now estimated at about $3,000,000. He recently paid $300,000 for a private car. Joe Chanslor was clerk in a grocery store in Los Angeles, and BORROWED THE MONEY TO COMMENCE OPERATIONS. He is now rated as being worth over $5,000,000. The Home Oil Company was started by a few men of limited means. Stock was sold in the company at $10 per share, and the same stock afterwards sold as high as $5,000 per share. The Hanford Oil Company raised $6,000, and started operations on a tract of land acquired from the Government by location, the total cost being the location fees. In a few years it had paid $86,000 in dividends, and the controlling interest was sold on a basis of $360,000, and about a year later the entire property was sold for $855,000. The Reed Crude Oil Company was started with a cash capital of $650. This company HAS SINCE PAID IN ONE DIVIDEND $400,000, and its TOTAL DIVIDENDS IN FIVE YEARS are considerably over $1,000,000. The Peerless Oil Company paid TEN TIMES ITS ORIGINAL INVESTMENT IN DIVIDENDS WITHIN FIVE YEARS. The Canfield and Chanslor Oil Company sold some of its stock originally at 25 cents per share, and AFTERWARDS PAID ONE DIVIDEND OF 25 cents per share. The Whittier Oil Company sold some of its stock at THREE CENTS PER SHARE, AND WITHIN A YEAR paid one dividend of $4 per share. The California Oil Fields, Limited, an English corporation, was organized. Its stock is now selling at SEVEN TIMES ITS PAR VALUE. The Pacific Coast Oil Company has paid $5,000,000 in dividends, and the San Francisco Petroleum Company has paid nearly $3,000,000 in dividends. The Lucile Oil Company was started with a very limited capital, and the stock sold as low as FIFTEEN CENTS PER SHARE. Its stock CANNOT NOW BE BOUGHT FOR $5 per share.

SCORES of similar cases might be recited, but the above are sufficient to show that the oil industry is playing a prominent part in the financial history of the world. WONDERFUL AS THE PAST has been in California, ALBERTA OIL IS SIMPLY IN THE INFANCY OF ITS DEVELOPMENT, and just at the threshold of a wave of great prosperity and money-making possibilities, and SMALL INVESTORS ARE AFFORDED OPPORTUNITIES THAT CAN SCARCELY BE DUPLICATED, to share in ENORMOUSLY INCREASING PROFITS.

Get Out of the Rut

Have you ever noticed that the GREAT MAJORITY of people are SLAVES?

YES. Slaves JUST AS MUCH as the negro of ante-bellum days.

Slaves to the man "HIGHER UP."

Why is this? The answer is easily found.

NO ONE gets beyond MERE EXISTENCE by the sweat of his brow.

The ONLY WAY he can GET AHEAD is to put his savings TO WORK, instead of hiding them in a savings bank.

Unless YOU prefer to be a DRONE ALL YOUR LIFE, GET OUT OF THE RUT.

Money is not made by DRUDGERY.

Do not make a SLAVE of yourself.

MAKE A SLAVE OF YOUR SAVINGS.

Reports on Northern Alberta Oil FieldsExtracts From Evidence*Heard Before a Select Committee of the Senate of Canada During the Parliamentary Session of 1906-7, and the Report
Based Thereon.*Northern Alberta*Evidence of Alfred Von Hammerstein, Resident of the Athabaska District of Northern Alberta.

Mr. Von Hammerstein stated that:

The natural gas springs there throw out small amounts of tar. It is what Mr. Hammerstein would call an oil spring, or tar spring, and made HIM VERY CONFIDENT THAT THEY ARE GOING TO HAVE ONE OF THE BIGGEST PETROLEUM FIELDS IN THE WORLD.

THERE IS NO DOUBT PETROLEUM WILL BE FOUND ALL THROUGH THAT COUNTRY, FROM THE ATHABASKA RIVER TO THE PEACE RIVER.

There are inexhaustible quantities of that. It has formed pools over the land, which are of considerable size in some places. THIS IS THE LARGEST QUANTITY OF PETROLEUM WITNESS HAD EVER SEEN IN THE WORLD.

Mr. Von Hammerstein remarked: "As far as Petroleum is concerned, I have all my money put into it, and there is other people's money in it, and I have to be loyal. I have been taking in machinery for about three years. Last year I placed $50,000 worth of machinery in there. I have not brought it in for ornamental purposes, although it does look nice and homelike."

Evidence of Mr. Elihu Stewart, of the City of Ottawa, at the Time
Superintendent of Forestry for the Dominion Government.Petroleum and Tar Sand

Stated "The tar sands evidence an upwelling of petroleum to the surface unequalled elsewhere in the world."

"Indications of the presence of oil in the district is not confined to tar sands, as on the Peace River, and the Lesser Slave Lake, inspissated bitumen was found in a number of places, lining creeks in nodules, and at Tar Island, in Peace River, small quantities of tar are brought to the surface by a spring."

Evidence of Mr. Richard George McConnell,
Geologist in the Geological Survey Department.

Stated "That all through that country there are chances for oil. Every one knows about the tar sands along the Athabaska. There is tar there for about 100 miles to a depth of 150 feet to 200 feet, and several tar springs. One is reported at Lesser Slave Lake, one on the Peace River, SO THAT ALL THAT STRETCH OF COUNTRY IS A POSSIBLE OIL COUNTRY."

Professor Macoun's Evidence—Geological Expert.

In reply to a question, the witness said he saw timber, coal, asphaltum and oil—THE BEST OIL HE HAD EVER SEEN. SOME PLACES YOU CAN SEE IT LEAKING OUT OF THE BANK. HE COULD NOT FIGURE OUT THE EXTENT OF IT. THERE ARE MILES OF IT.

The Company's Property

The property of the Company is located in Northern Alberta, Canada, about thirty miles northwest of Edmonton, and consists of 1,980 acres.

I sincerely believe that this Company is destined to pay dividends as surely as the great American companies have done. I am offering shares at 15 cents per share, payable one-quarter cash and one-quarter monthly.

200 Shares for $30; pay $7.50 down, $7.50 per month.

500 shares for $75; pay $18.75 down, $18.75 per month.

1,000 Shares for $150; pay $37.50 down, $37.50 per month.

I do not ask you to take my word on conditions and indications in the territory, but to CAREFULLY CONSIDER the above evidence given before the Senate of Canada by men who had ABSOLUTELY NOTHING TO GAIN. Their evidence can be relied upon, and it all points in the one direction, THAT THERE IS UNDOUBTEDLY IN NORTHERN ALBERTA THE GREATEST OIL FIELD IN THE WORLD, only waiting to be tapped, and the minute this territory is opened SHARES IN COMPANIES ESTABLISHED will advance RAPIDLY IN PRICE, and there will be HUGE RETURNS for those who get in on the ground floor. Remember the price of these shares will soon be raised, so don't delay.

BRISK MARKET AND MANY BUYERS

Potatoes Offered in Large Quantities and Apple Market Guttled.

FRESH EGGS ARE SCARCE

A Great Demand For Dairy Products and the Supply is Very Large.

Despite the bad roads and the disagreeable weather generally, there was a very good turnout at the local market this morning, and the business was brisk. A week's absence has given a fresh zest to marketing, and there was a very large turnout of buyers, and traders on the market were offered in very large quantities. Potatoes were offered in large quantities, and a large number of loads of 20 or 40 bags being offered. The prices which were ruled, however, of 50c to 55c, and single bags as high as 60c, was too much for the demand. It is reported that whole carloads are being shipped from Mount Brydges at the price, and there is little doubt that the price will have to come down before there will be any great demand.

Apple Market Guttled.
Apples have been offered in such quantities for some time now that the market seems to have been glutted, and though the quality of the fruit offered is very good, there is little demand. They are still selling at 10c to 12c a bag, and from 12c to 25c a barrel.

Poultry Plentiful.
Poultry was fairly plentiful today, and there was a very brisk demand. Turkeys were selling at 12c to 15c per lb. at retail, and ducks at 10c to 12c, and chickens at 10c to 12c. There was a large demand for the supply.

Butcher's Meats.
Butcher's meats showed little change. There was a very fair demand, but little change in prices. Dressed hogs were plentiful, and there was a very fair demand. Some sold as high as 10c a lb. and as low as 8c, but the majority of the supply went for 9c.

Dairy Products.
Dairy products were in great demand. There was a fair supply of butter, and it found a very ready sale, crocks bringing 24c to 26c at retail, and at retail, crocks sold for 25c to 26c, and retailed at 25c. There was a very fair demand for the supply.

Vegetables.
Vegetables were quite in evidence, and there was a very fair demand, though no change in prices are to be noted. Several loads of cabbages were sold, and the price was 10c to 12c a head, and as low as 8c, but the majority of the supply went for 10c.

Grain.
Grain remained about the same price. Other quotations remain as follows:

Hay and Straw.
Hay, per ton, 10 to 15. Straw, per ton, 5 to 10.

Dairy Produce.
Butter, creamery, 10 to 15. Butter, retail, 10 to 15. Eggs, fresh, 10 to 15. Honey, strained, 10 to 15. Honey, in comb, 10 to 15.

Poultry, Dressed.
Turkeys, per lb., 10 to 15. Ducks, spring, per lb., 10 to 15. Old ducks, per lb., 10 to 15. Chickens, per lb., 10 to 15. Geese, each, 10 to 15.

Poultry, Alive.
Old fowl, per lb., 10 to 15. Turkeys, per lb., 10 to 15. Spring ducks, per lb., 10 to 15. Old ducks, per lb., 10 to 15. Chickens, per lb., 10 to 15. Young fowl, per lb., 10 to 15.

Butcher's Meats.
Beef, by the carcass, 10 to 15. Mutton, per cwt., 10 to 15. Pork, per cwt., 10 to 15. Veal, per cwt., 10 to 15. Sausages, per lb., 10 to 15. Dressed hogs, per cwt., 10 to 15.

THE HOUSE IN SUPPLY
Agriculture and Labor Department Estimates Occupy Time of Parliament.
Ottawa, Nov. 19.—This afternoon Hon. W. S. Fielding moved the House into supply. Mr. Foster said he had a few remarks to make about the expenditure on civil Government before the motion passed. While Mr. Foster's subsequent remarks were largely confined to the civil Government expenditure, he made some general references to the estimates as a whole.
Some information was vouchsafed to Mr. Foster regarding the international institute at Rome, at which Mr. Fisher represented Canada last year. An official will be appointed here whose duty will be to gather such information and statistics as are required and forward them to the institute. The cost to Canada of this institute will be about $10,000.
The civil Government estimates of the agriculture, public works and labor departments occupied the evening.

GOVERNMENT MEASURE AIMED AT PESTS
Will Prevent Spread of Insects and Diseases Destructive of Vegetation.
Ottawa, Nov. 20.—The Commons yesterday from Sydney, introduced a resolution on which a bill was based providing for the prevention of the spread of insects, pests, and diseases destructive of vegetation. The bill in its scope will be similar to the act introduced some time ago, which has contributed largely to the prevention of the introduction of the San Jose scale into Canada. Mr. Foster explained that it was discovered last spring that a species of brown-tail moth was coming into the country on nursery stock imported from France. Through the co-operation and forbearance of the importers much harm was prevented, but it was necessary to legalize the preventative acts.
The minister assured Mr. Martin Burrill and Mr. J. E. Armstrong that with existing provincial legislation, it would apply to all dangerous pests.

BONUS FOR C. P. R. VOTED BY BLANSHARD
Bylaw Carried By a Majority of Four—A Protest Likely to Be Entered.
[Special to The Advertiser.]
St. Marys, Nov. 19.—The bylaw (second) voted on by electors of Blanshard Township, to grant a bonus of $20,000 to the St. Marys and Western Ontario Railway Company, to build a branch of the C. P. R. through Blanshard to Exeter, was carried by a small majority of 4. The vote by polling subdivisions was as follows:
No. 1 26
No. 2 29
No. 3 38
No. 4 35
No. 5 26
No. 6 26
Totals 240
Majority for, 4.
It is stated tonight that a protest will be entered on the ground that a number of tenants voted, who are not owners.
James O. Mitchell and C. Wilkin Coupland bagged on a Thursday hunt in the township of Blanshard, three coons, several black squirrels and one fox.
Miss Agnes Evans, with the Small-Ban and Ingram firm of London, is home on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Thomas Evans, of Blanshard.
The board of water, light and heat commissioners met this evening. Particulars later.

LEPINE NOT DEAD.
Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 20.—Reports published in Montreal and other eastern papers to the effect that Ambrose Lepine, the famous old lieutenant of Louis Riel, and the man who presided at the court-martial of the rebels when Thomas Scott was sentenced to be shot, is dead, is incorrect. Lepine has been very ill, but is now recovering.

BANQUET TENDERED TO J. INNES CARLING

And Employees of Carling B. & M. Co., By Mr. Harry Carling.

A banquet was tendered the employees of the Carling Brewing and Malting Company and Mr. J. H. Innes Carling, by Mr. T. Harry Carling last evening, in honor of his son's marriage today to Miss Kathleen Leonard. The affair was held in the large shipping room at the brewery, which was elaborately decorated for the occasion. Practically all the employees of the different departments were present. When the banquet commenced there were fully 100 guests present.

Mr. John Fottitt presided, and near him sat Mr. Harry Carling, J. H. Innes Carling, J. H. I. Carling, Charles S. King, of Walkerville; J. A. Croden, Dr. Leon Patrick, J. A. Croden, R. Murray, A. L. Davis, R. A. Carothers, A. A. Booker, Thos. Albert and many others.

When the dinner had been disposed of, Mr. Fottitt introduced the toast list. A letter was received from Sir John Carling, expressing his regret at his inability to be present. After the health of the King had been drunk, the toast to the bride and groom followed.

Mr. John Fottitt read an address to Mr. Innes Carling, expressing the good wishes of the men for his future happiness and prosperity, and then presented him with a handsome diamond pin, the gift of the employees. They had previously presented the bride with a set of crown derby dishes.

Mr. Carling's Reply.
Mr. Carling responded briefly on behalf of himself and Miss Leonard. He thanked the employees for their great kindness to him and hoped that the pleasant relations that had always existed between them would continue.

The toast "The Men Who Save the Goods," brought responses from Mr. R. A. Croden, A. L. Davis, and Thos. Albert, all of whom spoke in a enthusiastic vein. They congratulated Mr. Innes Carling on his marriage, and wished him long life.

A Little History.
Mr. T. Harry Carling and Mr. John A. Carling, briefly to the toast, "The Carling Family." The toast was referred to some length to the good feeling that had existed between the management and employees for many years.

Mr. Harry Carling declared that there were twenty-two men in the employ of the company who had taken part in a banquet tendered to the bride and groom on the eve of his own marriage some years ago.

Other Speakers.
Speeches were also made by Messrs. Otto Hindelhardt, Alf. Butler, John Bennett, E. J. Jones, Hammond, S. Mcintosh and J. Decker, on behalf of the "Men Who Make the Goods," and Mr. A. A. Booker, A. Zimmerman, A. Minihugh, Charles S. King and others responded to other toasts.

During the evening musical numbers were contributed by Dr. Leon Patrick, R. Murray, Joseph Minnes and others. The banquet broke up with cheer and the "National Anthem" sung.

GOVERNMENT MEASURE AIMED AT PESTS
Will Prevent Spread of Insects and Diseases Destructive of Vegetation.

Ottawa, Nov. 20.—The Commons yesterday from Sydney, introduced a resolution on which a bill was based providing for the prevention of the spread of insects, pests, and diseases destructive of vegetation. The bill in its scope will be similar to the act introduced some time ago, which has contributed largely to the prevention of the introduction of the San Jose scale into Canada.

Mr. Foster explained that it was discovered last spring that a species of brown-tail moth was coming into the country on nursery stock imported from France. Through the co-operation and forbearance of the importers much harm was prevented, but it was necessary to legalize the preventative acts.

The minister assured Mr. Martin Burrill and Mr. J. E. Armstrong that with existing provincial legislation, it would apply to all dangerous pests.

BONUS FOR C. P. R. VOTED BY BLANSHARD
Bylaw Carried By a Majority of Four—A Protest Likely to Be Entered.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
St. Marys, Nov. 19.—The bylaw (second) voted on by electors of Blanshard Township, to grant a bonus of $20,000 to the St. Marys and Western Ontario Railway Company, to build a branch of the C. P. R. through Blanshard to Exeter, was carried by a small majority of 4. The vote by polling subdivisions was as follows:

No. 1 26
No. 2 29
No. 3 38
No. 4 35
No. 5 26
No. 6 26
Totals 240
Majority for, 4.
It is stated tonight that a protest will be entered on the ground that a number of tenants voted, who are not owners.

James O. Mitchell and C. Wilkin Coupland bagged on a Thursday hunt in the township of Blanshard, three coons, several black squirrels and one fox.
Miss Agnes Evans, with the Small-Ban and Ingram firm of London, is home on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Thomas Evans, of Blanshard.
The board of water, light and heat commissioners met this evening. Particulars later.

LEGAL DIARY, 1910.

A Musical Treat.

A rare musical treat was "Aida," presented by the National Grand Opera Company the Grand last evening. This splendid opera was sung magnificently, and the audience was more than pleased by the interpretation of this beautiful musical offering. The attendance was not large—Londoners have the faculty of missing a number of the real good things—but all were enthusiastic. "Carmen" this evening should draw a capacity house, as a sort of peace-offering.

The leading roles were taken well. Mme. Frery enacted Aida, and her interpretation was inspiring. An exciting, emotion-stirring role at all times, it imposes a great deal of real acting upon the singer essaying the part, but never did Mme. Frery fail to rise to the possibilities of it. She threw into the role at times a passionate fire, an intensity that made an irresistible appeal to her auditors.

Perhaps her best number was that of "Fuggiam Gli Ardori" (art aria), which roused the audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. In "Amore, Amore," she was also splendid, and showed there the brilliancy of her voice and histrionic ability. It was excellently done, "O, Ciel Azzurri" was most appealingly sung.

One of the most impressive characters in the opera was that of Radames, the Egyptian soldier, in love with Aida. It has been seldom indeed that Londoners have had the pleasure of listening to so fine a tenor as Mr. Battain, who enacted this role. Possessed of a voice of rare quality, excellent range, and fine training, he brought all to bear in his interpretation, leaving little to be desired. He was heard much during the progress of the opera, and his every appearance was more pleasing than the last. In the air, "Celeste, Aida," he was positively brilliant, and the audience was forced to pay him a high compliment. It was thought by some that his gestures were not sufficient for the part, but this was a minor detail, and to many the lack of extravagant gesture added a great deal of force to his soldierly bearing. Mr. Battain scored signally last evening, and demonstrated that he is an artist of rare parts.

Miss Blanche Hamilton Fox also scored heavily. Although a young woman, she showed a marvellous control of technique, and a rare skill in interpretation. Her voice is rich and powerful, and was responsive to her emotions at all times. As Amneris, the daughter of Pharaoh, she was really superb. She sang "Amore, Amore," with a passionate abandon that swept the audience off its feet. She with Mme. Frery was recalled several times after this air. Her most brilliant work was in the last act, when her lover and she were the best in the drama. She pleaded with him to renounce Aida, and when he refused she begged with the high priest and the king to save his life. She threw into these passages a wealth of pathos that stirred the audience greatly. Miss Fox has a brilliant future in grand opera.

Alessandroni, as Amosato, king of Tylos, was a piece-quint in his role, and sang well. Signor Gravina, as the high priest, possesses a baritone voice of excellent tonal quality, and much power. The other roles were well taken.

The orchestra of 25 pieces, embraces musicians of quality, and the orchestration is one of the most pleasing features of the performance. Signor G. Angelini is a conductor of a temperament and skill, and never failed to get the best out of his musicians.

London has an opportunity to witness as fine a presentation of grand opera as the most fastidious could wish, and it will be a shame if theatre-goers do not rise to this opportunity. "L'Idle di Lammormoor" will be given this afternoon, and tonight "Carmen" in French will be presented.

Woman's Music Club.
The concert of the Woman's Music Club, given in the Auditorium last night was a musical treat of a very exceptional nature. This organization had always stood for a very high quality of entertainment, and last night only added another to their long list of successes. Strong counter attractions diminished the audience that might under other circumstances have been expected, but those who were present were thoroughly delighted with the evening's programme.

The visiting artists Max Heinrich, baritone; Julia Heinrich, contralto, and Mrs. Abbie Heimer-Vining, pianist, are all musicians of unquestioned excellence, and their work was a revelation to many in the audience. Their two opening numbers were duets, "Gondoliers" (Henschedel), and "Night Hymn at Sea" (Goring-Thomson), and in them the wonderful blending of their voices that has been noted in their concerts was evident in a marked degree. The manner of both of the singers is very easy and unsullied, and they bring not only their voice but their fact of expression to aid in the interpretation of their selections.

Their solo numbers were hardly less enjoyed than their duets. Miss Heinrich has a very sweet and rich contralto voice in perfect control. Her songs were: "L'Esclave" (Galo), "L'Heure Exquise" (Hahn), "Sur la Plage" (Chaminade), "Lullaby" (Courtland-Palmer), "Where Corals Lie" (Galo).

IT'S A SINGLE TOOTH
That causes most people to make their first visit to a dentist. It is not always necessary to have it extracted, because it causes vexation. This is for a reliable dentist to decide. In most cases it is brought on by failure to take effective care of the mouth. Any dentist who consents to treat this tooth alone, without calling attention to the urgent need of further measures, is of no real service to his patients.

Patients are glad to get my services, because they gain such helpful information that is valuable to save real teeth.

MADAME'S WARD

BY PAULINE BEVERLY.

"Let's look about the garden," I suggested. "I dare say Alice is idling about there somewhere. I believe she spends half her time in that hammock."

"And, if she does, I'd like you to find her a better place, Master Ned," said Alice, looking round the corner of the house, had caught the last words. "I thought you would come today, Ned. I've been looking for you. Have you been indoors?"

"Not yet," replied Ned, returning her effusive kiss. "A lucky escape for you, my dear. Father is doing a sermon on Sunday's sermon in his study. He has been engaged at it for a couple of hours, and has written only two lines, and scratched them out again—I peeped in to see how he was getting on. He is as sound asleep on the couch in the drawing-room as most of us will be by the time the sermon is preached. She has got half a dozen new symptoms since the beginning of the week, and they are all original, too. So in those circumstances, I thought it more prudent not to disturb her, and had tea taken out to the grass under the sycamore. You are just in time for some, Ned. We were commencing it."

"Well," I echoed. "Major Constable is there. He came over to tell father something or other, but hearing that he was busy, said that he could wait. Why, you both know him, don't you? But no—neither Ned nor I knew him. We had heard of Major Constable often enough since the evening when Roger Yorke had leaped over the little gate in the park pallings and told me about him; but he had not called at Chavasse's or so far come in our way elsewhere. I said so, adding: "Do you like him, Alice? I like everybody and everything but Fraser Froude and mustard-plasters. Come along, and I'll introduce him to you, Ned. You will be able to help me to entertain him."

"I didn't know you ever wanted help at that sort of thing," Ned said, laughing, as we followed Miss Deeping's green-and-white maid in skirts round the corner of the house—for the red-tory grounds lay chiefly at the back. Alice's gossip ten-table was placed among a cluster of rustic chairs under the huge sycamore in the centre of the smooth lawn, and Major Constable stood there, his right hand resting upon the head of a great mastiff and his left arm—coat-sleeve slung across his breast.

"A battlescarred veteran," Yorke had called him, and the title did not appear to me to be an inapt one. Certainly the major could not be classed among feather-bed soldiers if he went for anything. He was not very young—thirty-five, I should think, with a fine figure and a fine face, but, although bronzed and a good deal lined, his dark hair and thick black beard and mustache were slightly streaked with grey, and across one temple was an ugly scar, as of a saber-cut. But, although his expression was grave and a little stern, I took a fancy to Major Constable even before I had heard his deep kind voice, or seen how his eyes and face lighted up when he spoke."

Five minutes after Alice's introduction we were chatting away as we slipped our tea, the liveliest of quartets. Even Ned forgot to be shy, as he usually was at first with strangers, and let his tongue run almost as fast as Alice's own. Those beautiful golden-black eyes of hers cast so many sweet and sympathetic glances at the major's empty, but grave, face, that he broke off presently in something he was saying, and asked her if she would like to go to the house with him. Ned said, "Yes" eagerly, and so did I, although I had not been asked.

Major Constable had been through a good deal, all sorts of dangers, escapes, and adventures, and he knew how to relate them. He had been wounded twice slightly and once almost to death, and had lost his arm into the bargain.

Listening to his graphic talk, the time sped away upon wings, and I do not know which of us three listeners started the most when the church struck seven. The major laughed, and his dinner would be waiting, and bidding a kindly farewell to us all, went off across the garden with his enormous mastiff. He had previously asked me to come to the Lodge whenever I felt inclined, and I had asked him to call at Chavasse's.

The two girls lingered a minute or two by the fire, laughing about the burgher Mademoiselle, Alice saying that she meant to come up to the Mount the next day to see her. Then she ran indoors, and I put Ned up on her horse again.

A very serious little face she had as we rode slowly along in the High street, so serious that I presently asked her what was the matter.

"Thinking of mademoiselle," Ned said. "Mademoiselle?" she repeated, starting. "No. Why?"

"You looked solemn enough to be thinking of a dozen governesses."

"Did I? I was not there. Do you like Major Constable, Ned?"

"Rather!" I said, heartily. "He's a jolly fellow, I think—as jolly in his ed with an easy, almost deprecating glance to Madame's introduction of Ned and myself.

Something was wrong in the kitchen, I suppose—Batterlin's rheumatism perhaps; but, at any rate, dinner was nearly a quarter of an hour late. Ned moved off to the fire, after her somewhat ungracious reception of the stranger's greeting, and stood there, looking down into it, and now and then stealing a glance at me over Madame's point-lace head-dress—glances expressive of intense despair, which I was not very able to reciprocate. I went over to the window, and, standing there, pretended to look out, listened to the conversation between my mother and the new governess—a very polite and charming conversation, and most gracious upon Madame's part. The excellent manners and unobtrusive style of mademoiselle had evidently appealed to the fastidious fancy of the mistress of Chavasse's.

Had mademoiselle had a pleasant journey? Mademoiselle had found it hot. And dusty? Oh, yes, and dusty of a certainty—even very dusty. Was Mademoiselle familiar with England? Mademoiselle was not—in fact, this of today was her first experience of it! Had it so far made a favorable impression? Ah, altogether charming. Mademoiselle failed to express the delight with which the heat and the first day's experience had been filled by her. Mademoiselle had made up her mind, in fact, to drop from her vocabulary the term "La Belle France" and to substitute in its place the phrase "La Belle Angleterre." Nothing less could possibly express the extent of mademoiselle's admiration. And Chavasse? Madame hoped that mademoiselle had reserved a special quota of enthusiasm for Chavasse. Ah, surely! In places it was the most beautiful, the most truly enchanting. If mademoiselle was charmed with England in general, with Chavasse's particular she was more than charmed. It is true there were French chateaux; but—Ah, bah—mademoiselle would not pretend to talk of Madame's French chateaux.

This tribute to Chavasse and, by implication, to the possessors of Chavasse's, brought us to the announcement of dinner, and sent the two elder ladies off to the best of the possible humor with each other, leaving me to follow with Ned, pretty sure of things and undecided as to a how to play her cards, and Ned, who, having started by making the best of her hands; second, that, but for the occasional French "turn" of the words, I had never heard better English in my life; third, that I was not by any means sure whether I liked mademoiselle or the reverse.

VICTORIA CROSS ON OCEAN

ness and daring of those two men who won against such heavy dangers.

Terrible Night in the Sea.

There is the story, too, of Captain John MacMillan, Mr. Charles Bell and L. H. Thomas, who did valiantly on the Titanic of the Harland Line, bound from the Cape to Buenos Ayres, and was thirteen days out when she lost the tail end of her shaft and propeller. Heavy seas, heavy fog, and a heavy drizzle, all of the line of vessels, tossing helplessly on a deserted ocean, and her only chance was to mend what had broken.

Now the propeller of such a boat weighs some six tons, and the task ahead of the Titanic's crew can be well imagined when it is known that this had to be lowered over the side of a vessel, fitted into exact position, and despite the sea that ran mountains high, fixed firmly by a new shaft. The Titanic was out of the water as much as possible by shifting the propeller from the stern to the bow.

Then the three officers mentioned were let down into the water, and, without food, but with dangers swirling all around, they worked the cold and raging waters a whole day and a whole night, lit by buckets of burning oil and tar swung over the stern. They were hurried about so mercilessly by the swirling currents of the deep that while one man worked at the nuts which held the propeller to the shaft, the other two held on to him, all the time, and only by the use of each one's approach, lest he should be battered against the hull.

For six days and nights the captain never left his post, and only the trustiest kind of British pluck brought them safely from their plight.

One Woman's Way.

And once at least a woman, having done man's work, was counted among this band of the brave.

Here is a remarkable story. She was Mrs. Reed, wife of the captain of the T. F. Oakes, an iron ship which, on July 4, 1896, left the Cape for New York. She reached that port March 21 of the following year, having been 255 days making the passage. A terrible typhoon caught her in the China seas, which blew her far out of her course, and made it necessary to change her route. The captain decided to go by way of Cape Horn, which was rounded off by the day after the next. Then an attack of surly seized the crew, and one by one they fell and no one was left to work the ship except the captain, second and third mates and the captain's wife.

Then the captain and the second mate fell ill, and through all this havoc and disease Mrs. Reed attended the sick with all a woman's tenderness, and between times took her place like a strong man in the ship's working.

At last she was alone on deck, and until March 1 her gaze swept an empty sea. Then an oil tank steamer, the Kasbek, sighted the blue light of distress which the T. F. Oakes was carrying. The steamer signalled to the distressed vessel by light.

"We can't leave to," came the reply. "All dead or sick."

Still Further Disaster.

The steamer lowered a boat and in an hour overtook the sailing vessel. A line was hauled to the ship, and by misfortune continued, for the thin rope got foul of the Kasbek's propeller and stopped the engines. The sailing vessel was once again put to rest, and while the serious damage to the steamer was repaired the other vessel drifted over the edge of the horizon. The steamer at last gave chase, and after scouring the sea for three days, the Oakes, at whose wheel Mrs. Reed stood valiantly though nearly dead with cold and starvation.

Then the breeze freshened into a stiff gale, and for twelve hours the steamer had all her work cut out to keep the other vessel in sight. At last, however, it was deemed safe to lower away a boat, and the T. F. Oakes, little more than a huge floating coffin, but with one of the bravest women in the history of the world on board, ploughed her way to safety—Casell's Saturday Journal.

EUSAPIA PALADINO

something directly on the point of my finger. I am touched again. I am taken hold of by fingers, and I can feel the nails quite plainly.

C.—Her head pressing against my hand, I am absolutely holding her left hand on the table. Both her legs are around my right leg under the chair.

B.—I am absolutely certain that her right hand is on my left hand, on her right knee.

C.—I am touched again. Groped this time as though by the slender parts of a thumb and fingers.

B.—I am touched gently on my head, and at the same moment I am touched by a hand on my shoulder.

C.—The curtain also comes out, as though struck violently by a hand from within.

12:20 a.m. C.—The medium now has her left foot on my right foot.

B.—And she places her right foot on my left foot, and I am feeling her knee with my hand.

C.—The medium rests her head on my right shoulder, and is pressing against it. I have my arm around her neck.

B.—I have my left hand in my left hand on the table, and the curtain blows out in front of me.

Mr. Carrington noted that by making certain movements with her body outside the curtain, the medium could produce corresponding movements of objects inside the cabinet. For instance, she operated a music box by making a circular movement upon her cheek with the finger of one of her controllers. This made it seem "as though" when she executed some movements with her physical body, some "astral counterpart" in the cabinet duplicated her movements, and performed in reality upon the instruments which she played merely in imagination.

Of another illustration of this power we read:

A tambourine was lying on the floor of the cabinet about a foot distant from her feet. We had just examined it and found it to be free from material attachment. We asked Eusapia to fetch this tambourine, or have it brought and placed upon the scene.

She said, "I will bring it out with my foot." Her two feet were pressed securely on our feet, on opposite sides of the table, and were also tied to them with rope, so that it would have been an utter impossibility for Eusapia to reach the small object with her hand, or even to touch it.

What she did, then, in order to obtain the tambourine, was to kick to and fro with her foot—still resting upon ours—until her chair and the tambourine were raised up with a rush.

Exactly corresponding to movements of her hand made over it at a distance of about a yard, the tambourine began to jump up and down; and finally, giving one big leap, it jumped upon my lap, but fell down again to the floor.

The phenomena all occurred under the eye of an acknowledged "expert" in the detection of fraudulent mediums, and are the only ones which he detected and found out to be clearly fraudulent in character. In order to obtain a conclusion his article by saying:

I hesitate to lay the foregoing facts before my readers, feeling that they will be treated with incredulity by those who are inclined to admit the possibility of the existence of an unknown force, capable of moving material objects, visible to the eye, and without the aid of any known force, capable of moving material objects, visible to the eye, and without the aid of any known force.

When I state that, issuing from the cabinet, came hands and faces—the former of which especially could be seen, and distinctly felt—I fear the general opinion will be, rather than we were hallucinated, or that trickery must have been employed, though undetected by us. Be the explanation what it may, I am sure that it is certain that neither one nor the other of these interpretations is the right one. We were not hallucinated, for the results of the investigation have been registered by the graphic method, so that their reality has been guaranteed by mechanical apparatus, and not only by faithful human senses.

It is obvious that if these phenomena occurring in the presence of Mrs. Palladino are genuine, they are of the greatest importance to science, since they indicate the existence of a force or forces unrecognized by physical science as it exists today. There is no a priori objection to the existence of such a force, since the nature of the vital action within the human body is but little understood; and it is only necessary to conceive that this vital force, which is the source of all times, beyond the periphery of the body (whereas, normally, it is terminated at the surface) in order to account for many of the phenomena observed. Certainly such a theory would not explain the more remarkable phenomena—such as the appearance of hands and faces—and these remain absolutely inexplicable.

EDIBLE FLOWERS.

Most people are apt to regard the artichoke as a vegetable, whereas as a matter of fact it appears upon the table as a flower, and is a vegetable plant. If they are left on the plant they eventually turn into handsome purple blossoms. This statement has reference to the species of thistle known as the globe artichoke.

Dr. Johnson called the cauliflower "the finest flower in the garden." This statement was accurate, for when the "vegetable" of the name is served they are nothing but the unexcited flower.

Dr. Wood's

Norway Pine Syrup.

It contains all the virtues of the world famous Norway pine tree, combined with Wild Cherry Bark and the soothing, healing and expectorant properties of other excellent herbs and barks.

At last I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and with the first few doses I found great relief and to-day my hacking cough has entirely disappeared and I am never without Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in the house.

The price of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 25 cents per bottle. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, so be sure and accept none of the many substitutes of the original "Norway Pine Syrup."

Dr. Rivenburgh:

Dear Sir—Just a line to let you know that a great benefit I have derived from your excellent course. I may say that a person in conversation with me now would never imagine that I ever stuttered, and I owe my present condition wholly to your instructions. I sincerely believe that any person, no matter how badly afflicted, may be cured in a very short time if they will but follow your instructions, and I will certainly recommend you to any stammerer that I may come in contact with.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

HEAR IT YOURSELF - the Edison Phonograph

You cannot judge the Edison by hearing other kinds. The Edison is the sound-reproducing machine at its best. It is not a talking machine. It is a Phonograph reproducing every sound faithfully—the song exactly the way the singer sang it; the opera exactly the way the orchestra played it; the two-step exactly the way the band rendered it. That is the Edison Phonograph as Mr. Edison makes it—the object of his constant, daily care.

When he says he wants to see an Edison Phonograph in every home, he means your home. Do you not want one there? Do you not need this amusement maker for your own sake, for your children and for your guests? Hear one today. Hear all the others too and compare. Only in this way can you know that what we say is true.

Edison Phonographs - $15.00 to $150.00
Edison Standard Records - .40
Edison Amberol Records (twice as long) - .35
Edison Grand Opera Records - .35

There are Edison dealers everywhere. Go to the nearest and hear the Edison Phonograph play both Edison Standard and Amberol Records. Get complete catalogs from your dealer or from us.
