Volume XI. No. 15.

Clear in the hot Arabian day Her arches spring, her statutes climb; Unchanged, the graven wonders pay No tribute to the spoiler, Time !

Unchanged the awful lithograph Of power and glory undertrod, Of nations scattered like the chaff Blown from the thrashing floor of God.

Yet shall the thoughtful stranger turn From Petra's gate with deeper awe, To mark afar the burial urn Of Aaron, on the cliffs ot Hor.

And where, upon its ancient guard, The rock El Ghor-is standing yet-Looks from its turrets desertwa And keeps the watch that God has set,

The same as when in thunders loud, It heard the voice of God to man ; As when it saw in fire and cloud; The angels walk in Israel's van !

Or when from Ezion-Geber's way It saw the long procession file, And heard the Hebrew timbrels play The music of the lordly Nile.

Or saw the tabernacle pause, Cloud bound, by Kadesh Barnea's wells While Moses graved the sacred laws, And Aaron swung his golden bells.

Rock of the desert, prophet sung, How grew its shadowing pile in length, A symbol, in the Hebrew tongue, Of God's eternal love and strength.

On lip of bard and scroll of seer. From age to age went down the name, Until the Shiloh's promised year, And Christ the Rock of Ages came.

The path of life we walk to-day Is strange as that the Hebrew trod ; We need the shadowing rock as they ; We need like them, the guides of God. "His chariot will not long delay, We hear the rumbling wheels and pray Triumphant Lord, appear !"
