" Let Me Go "

Let me go where saints are going,

To the mansions of the blest ;

het me go where my Redeemer

Over on the other shore. gus .- Les me go ; 'tis Jesus calls me,

Has prepared his people's rest.

would gain the realms of brightness

would join the friends that 'wait me

Bear me over, angel pinions-

Longs my soul to be away.

Let me go where none are weary,

Let me go and bathe my spirit

Let me go, for bliss eternal

In the raptures acgels know ;

Lures my soul away, away ! And the victor's song triumphant

Thrills my heart ; I cannot stay.

Let me go ; why should I tarry ?

What has earth to bind me here ?

What but cares, and toils and sorrows.

Let me go, for hopes most cherished Blasted round me often lie :

Oh ! I've gathered brightest flowers, But to see them fade and die.

Let me go where tears and sighing

Are forevermore unknown ;

Where the joycus songs of glory

Call me to a happier home.

Let me go ; I'd cease this dying,

Let me join the myriad harpers,

Le me go ; there is a glory

am thirsting for the waters

There is where the angels tarry,

There the saved forever throng ;

There the brightness wearies never,

There I'd sing redemption's song,

I would gain life's fairer plains

Let me chant their rapturous strains.

That my soul hath longed to know ;

That from crystal fountains flow ;

What but death and pain and fear?

Let me go, etc.

Let me go, etc

Let me go, etc.

Where is raised no wail of woe :

Let me gain the realms of day ;

Where they dwell forever more ;

They act on the WORMS only, producing no other consti-tutional effect than that which would follow a dose of SENNA, CASTOR OIL or SALTS. In the treatmer of WORMS the principal indi-cation is the FXPULSION of the Worms from the Bowels. This may be fulfilled in some instances by active Pargatives, which expel by increasing the peristaltic action of the bowels, or by Anthel-mintics, which favor their expelsion through the ordinary contraction of the bowels, by destroying them, or rendering them less able of less disposed to resist this contraction. Other preparations in The celebrated Prof. Reid, of New York, Lecture on Chemistry in the College of Pharmacy, styles Radway's Pills as " the Great Purgative," and the only l'urgative Medicine safe to administer in cases of exl'urgative Medicine safe to administer in cases of ex-treme Debility, and in Erysipelas, Small-Pox, Typhoid Fever, Billous Fever, their action being soothing, healing, cleansing, purifying, instead of griping, initating, debilitating, and nausesting. "After ex-amining these Fills," writes the Frofeneor, "I find them compounded of ingredients of GEEAT FURITY, and are free from Mercury and other dangerous sub-stances, and propared with skill and care. Having long known Dr. Radway as a scientific gentiemen of high attainments, I place every confidence in his remedies and statements." hem, or rendering them less sole or less supposed o resist this contraction. Other preparations in ise possess the latter property only, and to a fee-ble extent, for to produce it, it is necessary to give arge and nanseous doses, and on the following day ome purgative to carry off the effects of the pre-rious day's medicine.
