THE FALL SHOW

The Carrick Agricultural Society has passed another successful year in its history, and is to be congratulated upon the fact that this year's show was in many respects away ahead of any former exhibition here.

The weather was simply delightful. All signs of rain disappeared and the sun came out and shone brightly all afternoon.

The greatest attraction of the show was the fine display of horses. The special prizes in these classes brought out a large number of splendid horses, especially in the draught and agricultural classes. Seldom has been seen in this part of the country a collection of better horses than were shown here on Tuesday. Levi Good's special prize for spring colts brought many exhibitors from a distance and the result was the finest bunch of good colts ever seen here. The judge, Mr. Blackall of Hensall, had his work cut out for him, but his decisions appeared to meet with general approval.

The hall exhibits were not so numerous as in former years, but this is the case at nearly all the fall shows this year. The root and fruit crops have not sufficiently advanced to warrant the growers in exhibiting them.

In the fancy work department nearly all available space was taken up, and the many new articles shown in this department attracted considerable attention.

The cattle, hog and sheep classes were also pretty well filled, and there was also a good showing of poultry.

The attendance in the grounds was large, and we learn that the Society will have a neat balance on hand after paying all the expenses connected with the show.

There were a number of small side-shows on the ground, all of which received fair patronage.

The Mildmay Band kept the people in good spirits with plenty of good music.

The list of prize winners will be published next week.

Additional Locals.

—Joseph Hauck and Mrs. Magdalene Herrgott of Formosa were married on Tuesday by Rev. J. J. Gehl.

—Frank Schmidt has given up his position at the O. K. grocery. His place is being taken by Willie Eifert.

—Manitoba flour, oatmeal and cornmeal for sale at Eckel's grist mill, Mildmay.

The election of Hon. E. J. Davis in North York was voided in connection with the agency of W. J. Robinson of Meaford, who had been reported in North Grey for hiring a vehicle for the conveyance of voters.

The Canadian Northern Railway crop report states that, while harvesting and threshing have been considerably delayed during the week by unfavorable weather, the amount of work already done is surprising. From almost every point the report is more favorable than previous reports.

Under the criminal code of Canada the finder of a lost article must take steps to discover the owner if he wishes to escape indictment of theft. A London young man has learned this lesson at a somewhat heavy expense, having been required to restore a purse and money, and pay seven dollars costs of prosecution. The best way to recover the owner is to advertise in a newspaper.

An unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate the chief police of Odessa, Russia.

Leslie Chalmers, mason contractor of Elmwood met with an accident last week which resulted in a broken leg at the ankle. It appears his spirited horse became unmanageable, and having his two girls with him he put the oldest off the rig safely and with the other in his arms was leaping out when his leg caught in the spokes of the wheel with the above result. It was a severe break and will lay Mr. Chalmers off work for some time.

BELMORE.

Jas. Findlater has taken unto himself a partner for life in the person of Miss Roe of Fordwich, and left immediately after the wedding on a trip to Toronto; we extend them our hearty congratulations.

A wedding of more than ordinary interest to our citizens took place recently at Toronto though of a strictly private nature, the participants being Peter Terriff, sr. and Mrs. Law, who have been residents of this vicinity for a number of years. They have arrived in town and are at present living at the home of the bride.

The eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Totton of the 10th Concession of Turnberry died suddenly on Thursday last. She suffered for about one day with heart failure, and the doctor could do nothing to save her.

James Flemming of Turnberry was married on September 21st to Miss Barbara Cochrane of Howick. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Stewart.

WALKERTON.

J. B. Goetz of Formosa is making a strong effort to have the proposed C. P. R. line built through Formosa. The engineer says there are too many hills and rocks around that village to think of putting a depot there.

Miss Della White was married last week to Mr. Robert McNeil of Chicago. Miss White was formerly a milliner at Mildmay.

The Grand Trunk authorities are thinking of changing the location of the station. It will probably be moved down town to where the Pett factory stands.

J. A. Ritinger of Berlin was in town a few days this week. He is well satisfied with his change.

Next Sunday the opening of the new Roman Catholic church at Chepstow takes place.

All the pioneers of Howick and surrounding townships and towns are requested to attend and take part in the parade. This is one of the best local Fairs in Western Ontario and the admission is only 15c.

Mount Forest is having a horse show on October 4th, when large prizes are offered for all kinds of heavy and light horses, and one, two and three year old colts in both classes.

Walkerton is all agog over a branch of the C. P. R. that is to be built from town to Lucknow. The object of building this great transcontinental railway is not disclosed. Perhaps it is to convey the petroleum from the Formosa oil wells, or carry Hugh Clark out of the Legislature.—Harriston Review.

HUNTINGFIELD.

The marriage of David Haskins to Miss Bertha Hamilton of Lakelet took place at Wingham on September 14th. The young couple will live on the old homestead.

McIntosh and Belmore congregations held a joint meeting on Sept. 19th and extended a call to Rev. Mr. Radford of Essex county.

Rev. Mr. McLellan of Brant occupied the pulpit in McIntosh church the last two Sundays, preaching very acceptably.

Clifford.

Voting on by-law for installation of a gas plant here on Thursday last resulted as follows: For the bylaw 32; against 47; rejected ballots 2. This shows a decisive defeat and rather a damper on those who are desirous of seeing the village benefited by a lighting and heating system which is proving satisfactory in many other places. The vote however, was a fairly representative one, few available resident votes being left unpolled and has at least served the purpose of obtaining a guide to the opinion of qualified electors on matters of this kind.

Mr. W. H. Young, who has been working in the copper mines at Calumet Michigan to gain experience as mining engineer, returned to his home here on Monday. He leaves shortly to complete his studies at the S. P. S., Toronto.

On Sunday evening occurred the death of Conrad Lanz son of the late Charles Lanz, (who it will be remembered met a violent death four years ago by falling off the roof of a barn in Carrick.) passed away at the home of his mother here. The deceased man was aged 25 years, in the prime of youth and bid fair for a bright future. In the early part of this year he was compelled to quit his trade of cabinet making on account of lung trouble. During the early summer months he seemed to have improved in health but a few weeks ago was attacked with typhoid fever which caused death. His death was a sad blow to his widowed mother and brothers and sisters.

An electric car running between Boston and Melrose, Mass., struck a car of dynamite, with the result that nine people were killed and many injured.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

Mrs. D. McKellar of Komoka was born in Scotland in August, 1804, and is now quite smart at 101 years of age.

The corn crop of Essex county is practically ruined. Rain and bad weather with the poor seed is the cause.

The killing of quail has been prohibited in Ontario until November 1905 and the killing of deer in Bruce peninsula for three years.

The Ontario factory inspectors report business dull in many lines of manufacture throughout the province. In the canning factories there is a prevalent scarcity of help, and women and girls cannot be secured. The small fruit crop this year will come what shorten the canning season. The output of canning vegetables promises to be the heaviest on record.

Burglars visited Wingham during the past week and entered the Exchange hotel and Walton McKibbin's drug store some time between Saturday night and Sunday morning. At each place money was taken. We understand that this is not the first time that business places in Wingham have been broken into during the past few months.

Two months ago, Miss Annie McLeod of Harrison sister of D. A. McLeod of that town entered the Mount Forest Business College to study Shorthand, a subject entirely new to her. Last Saturday, in the presence of a large class, she wrote at an average speed 205 words per minute and immediately read her notes without a mistake. She is only fifteen and we believe holds the world's record in speed at that age.

Opie Roade and a travelling mate who were filling engagements for an entertainment bureau one day were standing on a railway station platform in Texas, waiting for a train. A negro boy came out as soon as the train signaled and began ringing a bell to attract customers to the eating house. A lank dog that had followed howled indignantly at the ringing of the bell. The boy gave the dog a look of ineffable contempt once or twice, but the sad voiced animal continued his howl. Finally the boy said: "Wout's de match wid you dog? You daon hafter eat hear."

On Saturday, Sept. 15th, Samuel Rourke of Park Head had two horses killed by the C. T. R. passenger train in a somewhat strange manner. Rourke's son aged ten years was riding one of the horses in from the field when they bolted throwing him off. The horses both ran on the railway track and were killed by the train which came along. Rourke valued his team at $800.

There are one hundred and thirty-nine lady students in training at the Toronto Normal School with only three males. The Star commenting on this state of affairs, fears that educationists of this province are face to face with a serious problem. Without intending to disparage the teaching ability of women, the Star goes on to say that many people are inclined to the belief that children who have got passed the kindergarten stage are better for the influence of male instructors whose tendency is to virilize character. That the school teacher has a tremendous influence in the community may be seen by the habit people have of reckoning events by the time Mr. So and So "taught in this section." If the teaching of this province falls entirely into the hands of ladies, as it appears to be doing just now, and the teacher is expected to be a person of strong personality, capable of moulding character, the tendency will be then to mould a feminine character in our race. It would be a very doubtful policy. Hundreds of trustees to arrest the movement by paying more lucrative salaries to more lucrative

SHE FOUND A DIFFERENCE. A Buffalo Lady says:—Dr. Leonard's Anti-pill differs from the methods in Medicine as day from night.

Mrs. J. H. Reborn, of 169 Laddon St., Buffalo, N.Y., says of Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill—the Great System Treatment: "It's action is so different to anything else I ever used | Anti-Pill is so mild and gentle that I never thought it would cure my chronic Constipation, put it did. "Soon after the birth of my first child, 14 years ago, Constipation became troublesome. I used everything I could get, but temporary relief was all I got. I must have used fifty different medicines in that time. "I finally got very bad and at times I would have no relish for food, and what I did eat would distress me afterwards. I had headache, bloating, bearing down pains, backache, could not sleep well, easily tired, and never felt rested. "From the very first dose of Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill I began to improve. Now I am well. It is wonderful." Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill is sold by all druggists, or the Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagra Falls, Ont. Sole agents for Canada. The price is 50c.

The hearing of the protest against the election of Hugh Clark, M. P. P. for Centre Bruce, came up on Walkerton on Tuesday and lasted ten minutes. The petition was looked on as a huge bluff from the first, and was carried too far. The Court congratulated Mr. Clark on the purity of the election and the absence of outside interference. The member for Centre Bruce will have peace for two sessions unless the recent election trials precipitates a general election.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS TORONTO.

Receipts of live stock at the City Market were 71 carloads, composed of 1801 cattle, 511 hogs; 1557 sheep and lambs and 88 calves.

The quality of fat cattle offered, generally speaking, was not good, only a limited number of the better class being on sale, and more would have found a ready market at quotations given.

Trade was slow and draggy, drovers refusing to accept prices offered early in the day, as prices generally were easier all round.

There was little or nothing doing in shipping cattle, only one straight load being offered, and there was no one who seemed to want them although offered at less than $4.75 per cwt.

The bulk of the butchers cattle on sale was of common to medium quality; only a limited number could be classed as good to choice.

There is a good demand for choice breedy steers, weighing from 900 to 1000 lbs each. These would be worth from $3.70 to about $4 per cwt.

About 40 milch cows and springers generally of medium to good, but few what might be termed choice cows, were offered. The bulk sold as high as $35 to $45.

Export Cattle—Choice loads of heavy shipper sold at $4.50 to $4.75; medium exporters sold at from $3.50 to $4.25 per cwt.

Export Bulls—Choice heavy export bulls sold at $3.75 to $4.25 per cwt, and light export bulls sold $3.50 at $3.75 per cwt.

Butchers Cattle—Choice picked lots of butchers cattle equal in quality to the best of exporters weighing 1100 to 1175 are worth $4.30 to $4.50 loads of good sold at $4.00 to $4.25; medium at $3.40 to $3.60; common $3.00 to $3.35 rough to inferior $2.50 to $3.00.

Feeders—Feeders, 1050 to 1150 lbs are worth to $3.50 to $3.80 per cwt.

Stockers—Stockers, 400 to 700 lbs each, of good quality are worth $2.75 to $3.00 per cwt, off colors and those of poor quality but same weights at $2.00 to $2.50.

Milch Cows—Deliveries were not large milch cows sold at $30 to $31 each.

Veal Calves—Prices for good to choice are firm at $3.50 to $5.50 per cwt while common sell at $3.00 per cwt.

Sheep sold at $3.75 and lambs at $4.25 per cwt.

Hogs—Selects sold $5.15 while lights and fats brought $4.90 per cwt.

The Lindsay Watchman Warder says that a bull recently got upon the railway tracks near Dunsford, and started for the sectionmen. The latter escaped by climbing telegraph poles. Then a train came along, and when the engine whistled for the bull to get off the earth the latter excepted the blast as a challenge, and with its head down tail up, boldly charged the enemy. The beast managed to put two cars off the track, but the impact was sufficient to smash his own skull, and end a brave career.

James Pickering of the Shelburne Electric Light works was in Toronto with samples of gold ore and coal discovered in his locality. He visited the government bureau of mines and had his samples tested. The gold ore contained certain quantities of gold, but they did not think it would be got in paying quantities. The samples taken down were picked up on Andrew street in Shelburne. The government authorities say it is one of the best samples of coal shown them and is even a better quality than the anthracite coal brought into Canada from the United States. The government informed Mr. Pickering that the coal was alright and hoped he would locate a paying deposit.

CRUISERS FOR THE FAR EAST

The Czar Witnessed Departure of the Baltic Fleet.

OFF FOR THE ORIENT.

A despatch from Cronstadt says:—The Baltic fleet sailed on Sunday for the Far East. The vessels of the fleet were as follows:

The battleships Souvaroff, Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's flagship; the Navarin, Sissoi Veliky, Borodino, Alexander III., Orel, Oleg, and the Oslaba, Rear-Admiral Voelkersam's flagship; the cruisers Admiral Nakhimoff, Dmitri Donskoi, Aurora, and the Almaz, Rear-Admiral Enquist's flagship, and several torpedo boats and torpedo-boat destroyers.

The fleet will merely touch at Libau, where it will be joined by twelve transports, colliers, and supply ships, already waiting there, and will then proceed direct to the Orient.

The scene on the departure of the fleet was an imposing one, for which the town has long waited. At dawn the first anchor was hoisted on the swift cruiser Aurora, which accompanied by two torpedo boats, slipped out of the harbor. The town was awakened by the booming of the guns of the forts as the Aurora sped out towards Libau, in advance of the main squadron.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the time set for the departure of the remainder of the fleet, the Imperial yacht with the Emperor, Grand Duke Alexis, the High Admiral, and other high naval officers on board, put out from Peterhof, on the other side of the bay, with an escort of three torpedo boats.

Admirals Rojestvensky, Voelkersam, and Enquist went on board the Imperial yacht, and personally said farewell to the Emperor.

Then with destroyers ahead and abeam, the Souvaroff led the squadron down the Finnish Gulf. The water front and the piers and forts were crowded with spectators. The ensigns on the forts and yachts were dipped and guns of each chain of forts across the bay joined in an admiral's salute, while from the signal masts above the forts fluttered a string of colored flags reading:—"Good luck to the Baltic fleet on its long voyage."

TO INJURE THE OREL.

According to the St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Standard, a third attempt has been made to injure the battleship Orel, one of the most powerful of the Baltic fleet. Quite recently, he says, a quantity of steel shavings were found on the end of the wick of the lubricators on the main bearings by an engineer. Gen-darmes were then posted at all the important parts of the machinery to watch the workmen. There is authoritative information that the attempt was not the act of nihilists, but of discontented reservist sailors, who are averse to going to war.

MOVING INTO MANCHURIA.

A despatch to the London Standard from Tien-Tsin says that Chinese troops beyond the Great Wall and others from the Tien-Tsin side are reported to be quietly moving into Manchuria. Some of them now occupy both sides of the Liao River. It is stated that these troops will be used to occupy the territory conquered by the Japanese. German military officers are investigating the truth of the reports concerning the movements of Chinese troops.

JAP LOSSES 17,538.

A despatch from Tokio, received at the Japanese Legation, at Washington, places the total casualties on the Japanese side at the battle of Liao-Yang at 17,538 officers and men killed and wounded. Of these, the army of the right (Kuroki's) lost 4,886, the centre (Oku's) lost 4,992, and the left (Nodzu's), 7,681. The number of officers killed was 136, and the number wounded 161.

TROOPS RESTING.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says:—The Russian army is safely at Mukden. Kouroupatkin having accomplished his retreat in good order in spite of the harassing Japanese, sodden roads, and hampered by more than 12,000 wounded. Beyond this there is no direct news bearing on the military situation. Advices from Japanese sources are significantly lacking, and the exact whereabouts of the three Japanese armies are unknown. No word has been received to indicate the present location of Kuroki's army, which was last reported on the Russian left flank and steadily pushing forward.

Viceroy Alexieff telegraphs that railway and telegraphic communication between Harbin and Mukden is open. The general staff denies that a battle is in progress before Mukden.

Gen. Meyendorff, who is commanding Gen. Kouroupatkin's rear guard, has not yet succeeded in reaching Mukden.

Gen. Kouroupatkin telegraphs that he has decided to hold Mukden as long as possible, but its evacuation is believed to be now in progress.

Gen. Kuroki's vanguard is now fourteen miles from Mukden. The reports that he was nearer Mukden probably arose from bodies of Chinese bandits being mistaken for some of his troops. It is believed that the Japanese are still resting their main forces.

Gen. Stakelberg still retains his command. He telegraphs that there was no fighting during Sept. 8.

The Russians continue to hold Sintsintin, and Russian cavalry is operating over a wide area east of Mukden to prevent a Japanese column from slipping through and making its way north.

It is expected that the railway route around the northern side of Lake Baikal will soon be used for the first time. It will greatly decrease the difficulty of transporting troops and supplies to the Far East.

OVER 12,000 WOUNDED.

A despatch from Mukden says:—The Russian retreat here has been accomplished without losses, and with the precision of a review at Krasnoye Selo. The accommodation of wounded between Liao-Yang and Mukden tested to the utmost the resources of the Red Cross. Most of the transport was carried in the roughest kind of two-wheeled carts, but the arrangements for providing the troops with food along the line of retreat worked magnificently.

During the five days, from Aug. 30 to Sept. 4, 12,300 wounded were treated in Red Cross ambulances, the Sisters of Mercy vying with the doctors in physical courage and resistance to fatigue.

Much of the Japanese success is attributed to the millet fields, in which the Russians were not accustomed to manoeuvre.

ODDS FAVOR JAPANESE.

A despatch from London says:—Military experts say the war is working towards a double climax at points far apart, and the odds against Russia for permanent purposes are becoming heavier, rather than less. The Japanese, once the Port Arthur siege is over, will reinforce their armies in the north faster than their opponents under the best circumstances can gain strength. They have river communication into the heart of Manchuria. Several hundred miles of track of the Siberian Railway are in their possession, and they are altering the gauge. They hold the central mountain frontier, from which it will take larger forces than Russia can hope to maintain permanently in the field to dislodge them. Throughout Japan new levies are drilling and everything is being prepared for the maximum emergencies of a second campaign. The Japanese empire may be tested to its utmost in ultimate developments of the struggle, but a tolerable certainty is she will keep all she holds.

TWO ARMY CORPS.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says:—Beside the formation of two fresh army corps as the first answer to the Japanese success at Liao-Yang, the Russian army at the front will be re-organized, probably in the form of two armies, in command of Gen. Linovitch and Gen. Baron Kaulbars respectively, with Gen. Kouroupatkin as commander-in-chief. Gen. Kaulbars will go out with the two army corps now organizing in the Governments of Kazan, Odessa, Vilna and Kieff. Gen. Linovitch has been ordered by telegraph from Vladovostock to Mukden. This decision is due in part, doubtless, to the growing unwieldiness of the big force under Gen. Kouroupatkin's command, and which will be largely increased by constant reinforcement.

Gen. Kouroupatkin heretofore has handled every detail of the vast organization. The work is too much for one man, and he is now almost broken down under the strain.

It is known that the Emperor is personally one of Kouroupatkin's strong supporters, and it is thought the General will in all probability retain chief command of the two armies. Kouroupatkin, however, has been seriously criticized by some of the Emperor's close military advisers, and it is possible that he may eventually be superseded.

VIVID WAR PICTURES.

In the course of a description of the fighting around Liao-Yang, M. Dartchenko, the well known Russian correspondent, draws some vivid pictures confirming the stubborn valor displayed by both sides. The Russians at one time pursued two Japanese battalions through the millet fields to Saitza and surrounded them. A desperate fight ensued. The Japanese refused to accept quarter, preferring death to surrender. The Russians would have liked to have spared them, but there was no alternative in the circumstances but to kill them all. In another part of the field the Japanese reached a trench which had been abandoned by the Russians. Another Japanese force, believing that the trench was held by the enemy, shelled the position and then captured it by assault. On reaching the trench, and realizing that they had killed their own comrades, they fell on the prostrate bodies in the trench and covered them with tears.
