COMMUNICATIONS OF GERMANS ARE NOW BEING THREATENED

Plan of the Allies Has Developed Rapidly and the Invading Armies are Seriously Menaced - Outlook is Regarded as Favorable.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Herald's military critic to-day says:

Although reports from the battle front in the western theatre of operations reveal little of the complex strategical operations, the latest information is indicative of the fact that the allied general staff is following faithfully the axiom of Mahan, who said, "Grasp firmly some vital cord in the enemy's communications, and so force him to fight there."

It now appears, from the events referred to in recent despatches, that instead of an immediate resumption of their original objective of a speedy advance upon Paris, the Germans fought for control of northern Belgium, with the primary purpose of protecting their lines of communication through that territory.

The reduction of Antwerp, however, was but a step in this direction. The renewed activity on the part of the Belgian field force, which was interred in the fortress, concurrent with the forcible advance of the Franco-British troops before and north of Lille, has proved an effective counterstroke to the exertions of the invaders in Belgium.

Military experts are now of the opinion that without a tremendous reinforcement of first line troops, the German offensive in the west is effectually checked. The German troops which occupy Belgium are of the second line, and are consequently not as pliable as those that were under arms at the commencement of hostilities. It is a well-known fact that the strength of an army resides not in the weight of numbers, but in its power of concentration.

The working out of figures is an academical exercise as far as warfare is concerned, for although the ability to place a numerically overwhelming force in the field is a decided advantage to either combatant, many factors enter into the condition of non-effectiveness of all armies. Losses in killed, wounded and prisoners are often-times exceeded by reduction of the full strength of an army by illness. In this regard sinister reports have come through telling of the existence of enteric or typhoid fever among the German troops in France and cholera in Galicia.

In 1815 Napoleon counted one Frenchman the equal of one Englishman, but held that a Frenchman was the equal of two Prussians. Whatever reasons the master tactician had for such comparison relative to the field of effectiveness of his own and the troops opposed to him, it is certain that the remarkable organization of the great German army to-day has materially increased the Prussian's value as a fighting unit.

The supreme test of individual prowess in arms, however, has now come in southwestern Belgium, where the flat nature of the terrain and the almost complete absence of facilities for the construction of entrenchments and defensive works necessitates to a degree fighting in the open. Here a decisive result is inevitable.

The allies now are not confronted with the same conditions which obtained when they contested with General Von Kluck and General Von Bulow Belgian territory two months ago.

Then the Franco-British troops were fresh from concentration camps and barracks, and they were opposed by a force whose numerical superiority was sufficient to crush any concerted effort to hold them in check. The slaughter inflicted by the artillery and rifle fire of the allies meant little to a general staff to whom "Primate's" seat could be injured only by a complete crushing of their adversaries in France.

To-day the German is fighting upon this field a second time, and his opponent is a Belgian, whose grit and the principle for which he fights make up in large measure for what he may lack in military training; a Frenchman, whose fighting spirit has been kindled by success in battle and the bitter desires of forty-four years, and a Briton, a fighter of intelligence and indomitable perseverance.

This allied force has tasted and tested the German military strength. The fact that the allies have thrust forward considerable advances within the last few days even after the Germans had released to the firing line men from

SCENE OF HEAVY FIGHTING IS NEAR THE COAST--THE ALLIED ARMY HAS SUCCESS

London Experts Claim German Movement Has Failed Completely--Invaders are Threatened With Envelopment by the British

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Oct. 20.—10.15 a.m. The plunging German attacks on the allied line along the Belgian coast between Nieuport and Dismude, similar tactics by the allies in France between Arras and Roye, where progress is claimed, a continued assault on Lille, still held by the Germans, and stubborn fighting in the vicinity of St. Mihiel, where for days the allies have been trying to drive the Germans from their southernmost lodgment, where the arrow points to-day in the battle in France and Belgium.

The communications issued in behalf of the allies last night enabled Britons to visualize for the first time in days the approximate battle line after crossing the Belgian frontier, and showed how the allies, during the days of censorship, were throwing their forces westward to meet the inevitable German advance which followed the taking of Ostend.

The fighting is now centering only a few miles southwest of that city, and the Belgian army, heretofore reported as having repulsed the Germans on the banks of the River Yser, is again in the thick of the fight, being credited with bending back the German line as far as Koulers, Belgium, 13 miles northwest of Courtrai, which point they are holding according to the latest reports available when this despatch was written.

A despatch dated merely "North of France," says that the allies have retaken Ostend, but this is not confirmed and is at variance with the German contention that they have reached the neighborhood of Dunkirk, whose inhabitants as well as those of Boulogne, are in a state of panic. If the Belgians are holding Roulers it seems incredible that the Germans have advanced so far, as that would mean a complete bending back of the allied left, which rests on the coast west of Ostend. Torrential rains have been falling recently, near the scene of the coast fighting, making the flat country a sea of mud and this, with the network of canals, makes the movement of German guns extremely difficult. The Germans, however, are still bringing up reinforcements, a message from Amsterdam saying that troops are steadily moving westward between Wetteren and Termonde, toward the French frontier. It was added that the men were of all ages and were accompanied by heavy guns supposedly for Ostend.

The London press is unanimously hailing the German attempt to sweep through Belgium to the north French coast towns as a failure. News from the east shows no notable change in the battle lines there. The Russians contend that the Germans are still held on the Victoria and San rivers.

GERMAN ARTILLERY BECOMING BOGGED IN A FLOODED AREA ROUND ANTWERP.

FROM THE SPHERE BY E. MATANIA
This drawing by E. Matania, special artist for this newspaper, the New York Herald and the London Sphere, depicts the trouble experienced by the German forces in the flooded meadows around Antwerp. The depth of water may not be great, but the shifting surface covers ditches and treacherous hollows into which a column of wading troops may suddenly stumble, to their immediate discomfiture. This uncertainty makes it almost impossible to attempt to cross some of these swamped districts.

STORY OF ATTACK ON PRZEMYSL TOLD BY AN AMERICAN CONSUL

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

BERLIN, Oct. 19, via London, Oct. 20.—American Ambassador Gerard has arranged for the release and departure of all Englishmen in Germany over the age of fifty-five, including clergymen and physicians. They will leave for England via Holland.

Julius G. Lay, the American consul-general in Berlin, has returned here from a visit of inspection to the officers' prison camp at Torgau, Saxony. He says that the officers, with soldiers as their servants, run their own mess, of which the Frenchmen, with traditional Gallic culinary skill, have taken charge. The officers play tennis and football, but are not permitted to have liberty in the town. The general commanding explained that this was because the anti-English feeling was so high he feared that the British officers would be mobbed if they left the limits of the fortress.

The captured officers have few complaints, according to Mr. Lay, and are chiefly anxious in regard to their speedy return to their regiments. The consul was able from various officers of regiments to learn the fate of a number of officers carried on the British list as missing. This one had been seen to fall; another one had been buried, while still another was known to have been taken to a hospital. Eleven reported among the dead were found unaccounted among the prisoners at Torgau. The German feeling toward the French is far different than toward the British. The consul witnessed an example in a French surgeon who, crippled from rheumatism and over-exertion, was being repatriated via Switzerland. While he was being carried past the consul under the escort of a soldier, an accompanying officer stopped the soldier, ordered him to unfix his bayonet, and said: "Remember he is not your prisoner and that you are his servant. See him safely to the Swiss frontier and allow nobody to molest him."

A correspondent of the Zeitung Am Mittag, who entered Przemysl after a four days motor ride over unspeakable roads, learned the story of the siege on that place. The first shots were fired on September 18, the city was surrounded on the 20th, and an unbroken bombardment, with many desperate sorties, ensued until October 2 when the Russians sent a white flag and demanded the city's surrender. This was refused.

The attack reached its height on Oct. 5. The Russians seemed utterly contemptuous of death and stormed again and again. They seemed to have learned much from the Japanese war, for they attacked with great skill.

The men seemed specially trained for fortress work. Hills of corpses outside of the works testify to the furious attacks they made. The Austrians estimate that 40,000 men fell and many prisoners have been taken.

The Russians succeeded in carrying temporarily one of the outlying works. Eleven battalions succeeded in approaching these works without being detected because of damage to the searchlight, and suddenly mounted the walls. The garrison retired to the casemats from which they defended themselves with machine guns and rifles. The Russians forced their way to the casemats with bayonets, gun butts, and hand grenades ensued. When reinforcements, which had been hastily telephoned for, arrived the attacking party was already retiring leaving 300 dead and wounded in the casemats and 150 corpses on the wall.

The Russians were still in contact with the fortress on one side and cannonading was in progress when the correspondent left. Rockets, light shells and searchlights illuminated the laque before the fortress and the night was made as bright as day. It was a majestic sight, says the correspondent, as the troops marched out through this lighted zone.

OFFICIAL FRENCH NOTICE

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

PARIS, Oct. 20.—2.35 p.m.—The French official communication given out this afternoon says that the Belgian army is holding its position on the River Yser. The French war office gave out an official announcement this morning as follows: "In Belgium, in spite of violent attacks on the part of the enemy the Belgian army has held its position on the line of the River Yser. There have been other actions in the region of Ypres, between the allied forces operating in this territory and the forces of the enemy. "On our left wing, the Germans continue to hold strongly their advance posts around Lille in the direction of Armentieres, Fouries and Labasse. "On the Meuse the enemy has endeavored in vain to drive back the advance posts of our troops who have moved out along the right bank of this stream in the peninsula of the Camp Des Romains. "To sum up, during the day of October 19, we have made progress at various points on the point.

"Russia in East Prussia, and on the Vistula River, reports there is no change in the situation. The efforts of the Austrians to cross the River San have been repulsed. The battle south of Przemysl is continuing under conditions favorable to the Russians." Contributions to the Red Cross fund have reached $104,473.27.

No Election Until 1915

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—"I do not think that there is a possibility of an election before 1915," said Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of Public Works in the Dominion Government, when seen at the King Edward Hotel this morning. The Cabinet, so far as I am aware, is not making any preparation of going to the country, and the talk of an immediate appeal is far-fetched." The Hon. Mr. Rogers admitted that if any movement was on foot to bring about an election he would be aware of it. He did not believe that the proposal to dissolve Parliament in (Continued on Page Two)

NEW DRIVEWAY WILL PROVIDE EMPLOYMENT FOR MANY IN THE CITY

The City Council Puts Through By-law Authorizing Expenditure of $27,000--Work to be Launched Immediately on Park Drive.

A by-law for the construction of a park driveway, the main object of which at the present time, was to provide work for the unemployed, was put through at the City Council last evening. It followed joint action by various committees including those from the parks board, water commission and board of works. The scheme has been mooted for several years past, but the present time looked especially opportune for the completion of the work. It was announced at the City Council that road-making machinery would be eliminated largely and the cutting and grading would be done chiefly by labor. Just how many men can be employed was not announced, but there is a big cut to be made in the rear of the O. I. B. and grading right to West Mill street to Jubilee Terrace, thence along the West Brantford dyke. This should take a large number of men to whom it is proposed to pay $1.40 per day, and to keep them busy until winter weather becomes so severe as to stop the work. The total cost of the driveway is estimated at something over $27,000. To this amount the Parks Board will donate $500 out of its regular appropriation and the City Treasurer announced a method whereby practical financing could be carried out.

There was considerable discussion on the matter until it was finally agreed that the driveway was the only practical means of providing work for the unemployed. Sidewalks, sewers, streets, etc., were all on the frontage tax and work in this direction could not be arranged as an emergency. The by-law finally received its three readings. The Discussion. A proposition for the construction of the proposed park drive came up in the form of a by-law which involved the expenditure of $27,000, according to the estimate of the City Engineer. The proposal came from a joint committee which had considered the matter, and it was recommended that it would provide employment and also prove of great advantage to the city. A letter to this effect was read from Frank Cockshutt, Ald. Ward, in speaking on the by-law, said it was largely a matter of raising the money although he noticed in the plans for the drive an estimate of $4,500 for a bridge. He pointed out however, that workmen of Wards 4 and 5 had wanted for years a bridge over the canal and yet they could not get it. Mr. A. K. Bunnell outlined the proposition for the drive as he understood it. The question arose as to cost. Mr. Cockshutt promised $500 from the parks board and from other sources a practical method of finance could be carried out. On such work, laborers were to get $8 per week. It was thought that labor paid for would be better than charity distributed. The sum of $25,000 withheld from the Grand Trunk railway from an old by-law, was available. It really amounted

LOSE SUBMARINE

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

BERLIN, Oct. 20 (by wireless to Sayville, L.I.).—It was officially stated here to-day that the British new submarine E3 was sunk on Sunday, October 18, by German warships in the North Sea. The destruction of the British submarine E3 by German warships in the North Sea, as announced from Berlin, is the first loss sustained by the British submarine service since the outbreak of the present war. The E3 was a comparatively new boat, having been completed in 1913.

How Private Soldier From Brantford Sizes Up His Routine Duty

The following interesting letter has been received from Private M. Cross, of this city, who is with the Canadian contingent.

S. S. Tyrolia. Dear father and mother—I suppose an account of our adventures up to date will interest you. We left Vancouver on Friday evening, Sept. 25th, caught the train and did the journey to Quebec (18 miles) at the terrific speed of about four miles an hour. Thinking we might possibly get there in a reasonable time, we did not trouble to remove our equipment, so we sat boxed up in heavy marching order until we crawled into Quebec. The steamship Tyrolia was docked alongside the train and we (the 4th Battalion) embarked about 9.30 p.m. We were directed to our berths and unlike troopships as a rule, we were treated as passengers—instead of sleeping in hammocks, we have upper berths, and the stewards wait on us. We found a capital supper ready for us, consisting of bread and butter, jam, real salt water fish and tea. On Saturday morning, the 26th, we found we had left the harbour and pulled out into the river. We were issued with leather-soled canvas deck shoes. Sept. 27th, Sunday, every man was detailed to his post in case of an alarm being sounded, and instructed to roll up with belt on, ready to man the boats. The food is first class and the stewards are kindness itself. They are assisted by fatigue parties, told off daily. We also have to take turns at sentry duty, and do regular physical drill twice a day. On Sunday evening a steward pointed out the spot where the Empress went down and as it was twilight, bitterly cold and snowing a little the scene can be pictured more vividly—such a desolate waste of water, rolling and lapping unceasingly.

DUFFERINS HELD GOOD PARADE LAST EVENING

Regiment is Showing Old Time Form Again—News at Armories.

The 48th D.R.C. paraded 398 strong last night under Major H. Genet and Captain Banceby. A few recruits straggled into headquarters and were annexed; three in all; and without comment it was scarcely satisfactory, and it will require still more push and get, till the regimental roll call can be recommended with "All's gawner, Sir? Roll up you chaps. Things military cannot be forced on freemen's sons, so that till freemen's skirts chafe realize these days, it will be necessary for the continued effort being made by all ranks. No doubt they will brush up, and the regiment has every reason to be proud of the quality which has so far joined—they are men with a purpose, that is evident.

Provisional Classes. The men of the provisional N. C. O's class will be given a lecture to-night by Sergt. Major Coleman.

F Company. Captain McLean, F Company, was last night presented with a carving set. This fitting addition to the worthy officers' lethal collection was suitably received. The cause was the nuptial event which occurred in the captain's life some time ago.

B.C.I. Cadets. The B. C. I. cadets had their usual weekly drill yesterday afternoon from 2 p.m. till 5 p.m. at the Dufferin Rifles armory. Extended order drill was exercised in under Captain Sweet, Vaughan and Sergt. Major Oxtoby.

Stretcher Bearers. The "Poultice Wallahs" had a kick last night—the bonneters felt that their position in Sunday's parade order was, to say the least of it, an infringement of the dignity of "medics"—they were rear of some B. C. I. Cadets. Horrible!

Kitcheners. Lt. Burrows rejoices in the sobriquet of "Kitchener." The command, when he entered the company's room was, "Shun 'Kitchener'! He smelt 'Somewhere'."

Post cards were received by the Sergeants, Mess from Col. Sergt. Jack Mott and Sergt. E. Hollister, from the "Somewhere" in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. These cards were held up by the P. O. for some time.

Sergt. Meates, the winner of the company cup, entertained his comrades to a coffee fight with sandwich ammunition, to increase its deadliness. Alexandra church, the programme was as follows, without discrimination. In the Anthem "At Even Ere the Sun was set," the soloists were Miss A. Howarth and Miss S. P. Davies. "The Recessional" by Kipling (De Caven) Mr. John Howarth, "Anthem 'Lord of Heaven', soloists, Mr. John Anderson and Mr. John Howarth, Mr. Kenneth Tennant, an organist and Mr. P. MUTT AND JEFF ON ANNUAL VISIT

Real Mirth Provoking Play Will Be at the Grand Next Monday. Once again the merry-making "Mutt & Jeff" will visit us. The season of laughter is about to begin. "Mutt & Jeff in Mexico" in a brand new dress come to the Grand next Monday, October 26 with a bigger and a better show than has ever appeared before under the well known title. "Mutt and Jeff" a new and superior production each successive year is an act of diplomacy on the part of Gus Hill. Bud Fisher's eccentric characters can live for a century or they can die as dead as a door nail in sixty days, if allowed to do so, but it is decidedly the policy of both Bud Fisher and Gus Hill to see them live for years innumerable, which they will do as long as Fisher is able to furnish new "dope" and Gus Hill is able to furnish situations, and as long as Gus Hill furnishes a new and acceptable vehicle for their stage work.

Obituary. Late Mrs. Daniel Woolams. The many friends of Mrs. Daniel Woolams will learn with regret that she passed to the Great Beyond Sunday morning. She was well known, being highly revered for her many endearing graces. The late Mrs. Woolams was in her 75th year and passed away at the residence of her daughter at 230 Chatham street. For twenty-five years has Mrs. Woolams gathered around her a large circle of city friends and those who mourn her loss will be numerous indeed.

Work at Lorne Bridge. The city end of Lorne Bridge is now almost unrecognizable as the old bridge that it once was. The approach has been altered, the grade changed, and the whole is vastly improved. On each side of this end of the bridge two fine grades reach from the banks of the river, and a new road has been constructed from Water street to the foot of the bridge as it rests upon Jubilee Terrace. The track now runs along almost to the ice house, and upon this line the engines are now plying. The iron framework for the construction of a lesser bridge to span from the old original to the earth across the cutting has arrived, and within a few days it will be erected. The wooden construction now doing duty will be taken down and the iron substituted. So expeditiously is this to be carried out that there will be very slight inconvenience, if any, to traffic. The whole work in connection with the bridge is on a speedy way to completion, and the engineers are confident that the ironwork will cause no delay and that its erection will only be a matter of hours. They regard everything as entirely satisfactory.

FIGHT IN BLACK SEA

$67 GONE. Every Canadian consumed, during 1913, approximately $67.54 worth of imported goods. Every Canadian thereby sent sixty-seven dollars of Canadian money to enrich some other country, to keep foreign workmen employed. It does not seem so much, but it makes the gigantic total of $675,428,168. The value of all goods "Made in Canada" is less than double this. Of these imports 65% come from the United States, yet by every condition of nature we are just as well equipped to manufacture many of these goods as our neighbour—and we do. If only 25% of this 675 million dollars' worth of goods were produced in Canada, that production would give employment to 62,500 workmen, sufficient with their families and dependents to support 250,000 people, to populate a city larger than Winnipeg, or to create 16 cities the size of Guelph, Moncton, Brandon, or New Westminster. By purchasing only goods "Made in Canada" you can help to keep a good share of this 675 million dollars at home, you can bring about a greater prosperity than Canada has ever known. MONTEREAL, Oct. 19.—Cables on Manitoba spring wheat were strong again today, at a further advance of 5d to 9d per quarter, with a fair demand from overseas buyers for supplies, but owing to the raise of 20c per bushel in the Winnipeg market the bids were all out of line and no fur-

ket for oats was stronger at an advance of 3/4c to 1c per bushel, but the

owing to the steady upward tendency of prices for wheat, but no actual change has taken place yet. The demand is still and quiet from both local and outside buyers. The trade is more active in rolled oats. Millfeed is quiet and the condition of the market is un-

per bushel in the Winnipeg market the
bids were all out of line and no further sales were effected. The local market for oats was stronger at an advance of 3/4c to 1c per bushel, but the demand is still limited for oats. The trade in corn and barley is quiet. The tone of the flour market is stronger, owing to the steady upward tendency
of prices for wheat, but no actual change has taken place yet. The demand is still and quiet from both local
and outside buyers. The trade is more active in rolled oats. Millfeed is quiet and the condition of the market is unsettled. Cheese is quiet but firm. Exports for the week were 4927 boxes, as compared with 63,006 for the same week a year ago.

NO ELECTION

The near future had been very seriously considered by Premier Borden.

"Is there any truth in the report that the Hon. Sam Hughes is to resign as Minister of Militia and Defence?" Mr. Rogers was asked.

"No, absolutely no truth at all.
The trip which the Hon. Sam Hughes took to England was for the purpose of recuperating after the severe strain of working out the details of Valcartier camp.

Further actions, the statement adds, are being fought between the allies and the Germans in the region of Ypres, Belgium. From Ypres the allied left wing extends to the English Channel, where it is being supported by British naval forces.

Tokio officially announces that the German torpedo boat "Sgo" after escaping under cover of darkness from Tsing-Tau, an shore at a point south of Kiau-Chow Bay and was destroyed by the Japanese blockading squadron.
It was the "Sgo" according to a message from Tsing-Tau, which sunk the Japanese cruiser Takachihio.

HIGH COURT
IS OPENED

The autumn sessions of the high court of Assizes was opened at the County Court buildings at one o'clock today. His Honour Judge Middleton of Toronto presided.

Shortly after the appointed time, the court rose to the judge and the empanelling of the Grand Jury followed. With J. R. Cornelius foreman, the following were selected for this duty of citizenship: Robert Cochrane, A. W. Eddy, Arthur Foulds, Albert Tisall, William Fenn, Henry Hoyle, Alexandra Hall, Peter Johnson, J. R. Moyle, S. F. Misner, Sam Murray, J. S. Misner, Fenn and Fitzall were unable to present themselves. A. J. Cropp and Algar W. Doeringer were elected as deputies. They retired to select a foreman, and upon their return were addressed by the judge.

There had been seventy applications for citizenship. The occupations showed the applicants to be in the line of business as well as in the life. While it was a good thing that this Dominion could assimilate these men, there were yet other things, and many of them lacked education and were of a poor stamp, but it was a law that such men as applied could be brought to court so that the jurymen could see to whom they were giving the rights of citizenship. The jurors could exercise that right. It was no light thing to do. Any of these men ought to understand the responsibility which rested upon them when they swore to be true to our King and our country.
By reverting to the enemy they could betray for treason and the penalty was death. This was all implied by application to become a citizen. Loyalty to our king and our country.

The judge then dealt upon the inspection of public institutions, remarked especially upon fire escape facilities, sanitary conditions and cleanliness. It was good, he observed, for a body of citizens to visit these places as an official body, inasmuch as they were able to judge for themselves, and they often made suggestions which were adopted. He would see that their every injunction was brought to the notice of the proper authorities.

That the Allies are frustrating the attempt of the reinforced extreme right wing of the German army to skirt the English Channel ports, with the supposed object of finding a new route to Paris, is indicated by the French official statement given out this afternoon, which asserts that the Belgian army is maintaining its position on the River Yser.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Hurts or 'Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract.
Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urino waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grape and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

THE SITUATION

What a great navy it is that Great Britain has built up. The fleet of no other country in the world, or combined countries, could accomplish what it has done in keeping the seas open for the transportation of men and commerce and in bottling up into the bargain the second largest flotilla of war leviathans, but not content with this, she is now giving a helping hand on land by shelling the Kaiser's troops from off the coast of Belgium.

The Russians are pushing forward five hundred thousand more troops to help deal with the German dash towards Warsaw, and it seems to be certain that Turkey is about to jump into the fray because of her dread of Russia. If so, that may mean other countries getting into the maelstrom—a maelstrom deliberately brought about by the Kaiser and his war lords.

In the latter regard it is worthy of note that Prime Minister Asquith, in recently speaking at a great recruiting meeting in Cardiff, made the statement that two years ago Great Britain made the solemn declaration to the Fatherland that she "would neither make or join in any unprovoked attack upon Germany."

THE KAISER

In his own army the Kaiser is beginning to be looked upon as a veritable Jonah. He has taken a fancy to pay flying visits to various portions of the fighting area, and his appearance is usually followed by defeat.

He went to Nancy to make a triumphal entry, and had to leave quicker than he arrived. He took command of the operations before Ossowitz and ordered the fortress to be taken in three days. His command was no more effective than was Canute's to the sea.

In East Prussia he had to fly before the victorious troops of the Tsar, and ran back to Cologne, his arrival there being greeted with anything but pleasure by the staff.

Before he left for the Niemen district the Kaiser attended a War Council, at which the military aptitude of the Crown Prince was severely criticised. The Emperor had several fainting fits.

SMART WORK

A very interesting case has been in progress in the Bow Street Police Court, London. Karl Gustav Ernst, an Islington hair-dresser, is on trial on the charge not only that he is a German spy, but that he has acted as intermediary for other spies.

His master was a person named Steinhauer, a member of the German Secret Service and an organizer of espionage in the Old Land.

It was alleged that Ernst received from Steinhauer a very large number of letters enclosed in envelopes, having the appearance of ordinary communications, and posted them in England to various members of the Secret Service Force. His second duty was to pursue inquiries concerning persons or places which Steinhauer thought might be useful. For these services he received a retaining fee of £1 a month—afterwards raised to £1 10s.—and out-of-pocket expenses.

A GOOD EXAMPLE

The following is a copy of a letter sent to a Canadian house by a Liverpool firm:

Liverpool, Sept. 12th, 1914. Messrs. The J. H. Still Mfg. Co., Ltd., St. Thomas, Ont., Canada.

lies freely circulated in the U.S.A. and all other neutral countries, by the German Government. We send by accompanying post a copy of to-day's Times, and will send a copy weekly to you until the true position of affairs is more widely known. Please persevere and circulate also the following news:

Our company employs upwards of 200 hands. We have not discharged a single employee on account of the war or on account of slackness in trade.

We have not reduced a single salary or other emolument, or worked short time on either of the above accounts. We keep 14 travelling salesmen on the road ordinarily. They are all now travelling as usual.

The orders they have booked are slightly above the average for this time of the year.

We have in no single instance deviated from the usual terms of credit we give our customers, viz., 2-2-2 per cent, for cash in 30 days, or four months net.

Nor have we been asked by any houses from whom we purchase materials of any sort in the United Kingdom for payment on any other than usual terms.

Out of 17 single men in our employ eligible for military service, 10 have joined the army for the term of the war, and are now under arms. These places are being kept open for them, and their dependents adequately provided for.

Our experience is not very different from that of other firms who have adopted a calm, progressive and optimistic policy, as most firms in this country have done and are doing.

Apart from recruiting and drilling work, it would be difficult to realize anywhere in the country that we are at war.

Railway traffic has been normal, in spite of the heavy strain thrown upon it by mobilization.

With the exception of the North Sea, trade routes are open and shipping is normal, the war risks on shipments being considered normal.

For instance, a war risk on a coasting steamer and cargo from Liverpool round to London, in spite of the danger of mines, is three-eighths of one per cent.

With the single exception of sugar prices in this country are absolutely and entirely normal; there is no shortage of any sort whatever. The reason for the sugar being higher is that the great part of the supply of beet comes from Germany.

There have been no failures of business concerns of sufficient size as to create any attention whatever.

You will find most of these facts verified in the Times. By reading it carefully you will be able to judge the feeling of the country and the position, and by making the facts in this letter as public as you can, you will be doing the cause of civilization a service.

Yours faithfully, J. C. PLIMPTON & CO., LTD.

Press Comment Poor Old England London Chronicle The following news which has been circulated in Germany, throws an instructive light on the kind of thing which the public in that country is bamboozled.

ROME, Monday. Telegrams from Berlin on the subject of the sinking of the three British cruisers in the North Sea make remarkable reading.

The "consternation and dismay" of the whole English people is depicted with vivid coloring. In certain political circles in London, it is said, the resignation of Mr. Winston Churchill is expected. The Commander in Chief of the British Fleet "is to be tried for incapacity," the organ of the Labor party demands "that the whole Cabinet shall be impeached for participation in the war."

The Berlin telegrams go on to cite supposed statements from a London paper, described as the "Evening Post." This paper is represented to have said: "We have lost our courage, which means that we have lost the war."

The Daily Chronicle has never made any such remark.

PARIS IS ELATED AT SUCCESS

Work of British Warships Matter of Favorable Comment.

Alsace Campaign is Viewed With Satisfaction.

By Special Wire to the Courier] PARIS, Oct. 20.—(6.20 a.m.)—Increasing satisfaction was shown by the people of Paris to-day on reading the latest reports from the front. These indicate that the allies are continuing their operations, the character of which are clearly offensive, and which, in the opinion of French observers, promise the best results.

The action of the Belgian army and of a squadron of British warships in repulsing an attack by the enemy is a subject of particularly favorable comment.

The public was equally, if not more, gratified with the announcement of the situation in Alsace. This was the first time in some days that the War Office has indicated definitely the French positions. It is now seen that French troops have almost reached the outlet of the valleys leading to the plains of the river Ill, which flows north through Alsace and empties into the Rhine.

The French consider that they are firmly established in Alsace on territory doubly dear to them. Word has been received also that the Germans are hastily preparing new defensive works around Strassburg and digging innumerable trenches in front of this city. Vineyards have been levelled by the German engineers in the carrying out of this work.

The fighting in the vicinity of Lille has been watched with deep interest here, and it is hoped that not many days will pass before the Allies take this position.

The Institute of France, after a prolonged and lively meeting, has decided to read in public at its annual meeting on Monday, the report of five of its members condemning the course of Germany in the present war.

SCENE BEHIND THE FRENCHES IS INTERESTING

By Special Wire to the Courier] AT THE BATTLE FRONT, via Paris, Oct. 20.—On the eastern wing along the Meuse heavy fighting is incessant and in this the French artillery is playing a most important part. The concentrated fire of several French batteries at St. Mihiel, Monday, destroyed a complete battery of heavy German artillery which had been causing great annoyance. It was due to the clever work of a French artilleryman that this was accomplished.

Carrying a portable field telephone he hid himself for two days near the German position and informed his comrades in his rear of the position of the German guns and the direction in which they should fire. This information rendered the German position untenable and when his work was done the brave gunner returned safely to the French lines.

The scenes behind the battle lines denote the characteristics of the various nations engaged. The French soldiers are very gay, singing when they return from the trenches and always seeking to learn the news from any new arrival from the rear. They gather branches from bushes to make fires on which they boil their soup and coffee.

The Belgians are somewhat the same in character but the recent damage to so many cities of Belgium has rendered them rather gloomy, though they are still full of fight and sure of eventual victory.

The British appear to be ready to seize the slightest opportunity to play some game when off actual duty. They are always cleanly, shaven and love to plunge into a creek or river. Behind their trenches are many mending troughs captured from the German commissariat and now turned into tubs.

The Indian troops maintain a calm silence except when in action. Then they utter wild cries in their eastern languages as they enter the fight.

The Moroccan auxiliaries, known as "goumiers," maintain their African habits. They apparently are always ready to rest anywhere that they may find themselves, but sleep with the bridle over their arm and spring into action at the slightest movement or noise.

SUCCESS SEEMS TO BE NEAR

Latest News This Afternoon From London Re the War.

By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Oct. 20.—Nothing has been received up to the present from the German intelligence department to counteract the British impression conveyed in the news, both official and unofficial, published here that the tide of battle, both in the eastern and in the western theatres is not for the moment flowing in favor of Germany. This picture, however, continues so blurred, that it is impossible, except for the commanders on the spot, accurately to gauge the effect of the momentary changes on the ultimate outcome.

The Belgian minister at London has no confirmation of the story that the allies have re-occupied Ostend, but in any case the German hold on this seaport must be somewhat precarious if the allies still retain the positions assigned to them in the latest French official statements.

Should the allies push the wedge beyond Roulers, where its point rested yesterday, Ostend would be in considerable danger of being cut off from the rest of the German army.

The Germans are making great efforts to break through their opponents lines in the neighborhood of Arras, whereas General Joffre's statements point out that the fighting has proceeded for ten days without a respite.

News of the contact of millions of men along the Vistula River in Russian Poland is mostly of a favorable character. That significance attaches to the announcement that Canada will keep sending batches of volunteer reinforcements, each numbering 10,000 men, so long as the war lasts, is fully appreciated in comments heard both in London and on the continent.

The convention of the Baptist church of Canada was concluded.

COMMUNICATIONS OF GERMANS

(Continued from Page 1) garrisons which were obligatory while the Belgians were in the north, indicates that the offensive is being pushed with a vigor made possible by numerical strength.

If sufficient gains are made by the allies to the eastward, and the front advances in a powerful salient to the north, the flank resting on the Channel coast. Ostend will be untenable to the Germans. In order to prevent being cut off or driven across the Dutch frontier, they will have to evacuate eastern Belgium.

While along the remainder of the battle line in France both sides may be held in a condition of stalemate for many months, the individual fighting ability of the men of either army, providing approximate equality in numbers is maintained, will soon turn the balance in Belgium.

Another attempt to wreck German stores in London was foiled by the police. Stratford Light and Heat Commission donated $3,500 to the Canadian Patriotic Fund and $200 to Belgian relief.

TRAINS COLLIDED. LONDON, Oct. 20.—A despatch to The Chronicle from Pas De Calais, dated Monday, says that between 40 and 50 passengers were killed and 80 were injured in a train wreck Saturday at Marquise, between Calais and Boulogne. Two trains, carrying soldiers and refugees, collided owing to the fact that a broken signal wire released the danger signal. Many carriages were wrecked.

ALL WERE LOST. SAZEBRO, Japan, Oct. 20.—According to information reaching here today, only three members of the crew of the Japanese cruiser Takachio, which was sunk by a mine in Kiachow bay on the night of October 17 survive the disaster. The body of Captain Itô has been recovered. The mast of the cruiser is visible above the water. It is believed that she ventured too close to the harbor. At the time of her sinking her complement consisted of 284 men.

An Austrian submarine was sunk in an attack upon a French cruiser in the Adriatic Sea. Two deaths were reported in the Canadian contingent at Salisbury Plains.

The Civilian Rifle Club will drill in the Collegiate Institute regular intervals and Thursday has been fixed for the first of squad drills. The rifles have not arrived and it seems that they not until the second contingent been despatched. There are no sixty rifles at the Collegiate, which may be used in the interim.

WINTER VISITS. A meeting of the Business Club took place last night when visits for the winter were taken consideration. These visits are of an athletic character and it is proposed to meet Woodstock, Gallop, and such centres in physical contests of basketball, bowling, ball and volleyball are to be played. The meeting decided that a winter must be planned and the journey to meet again on the next.

CHOIRS EXCHANGED. The choirs of Alexandra and Andrews Presbyterian churches changed duties Sunday evening. St. Andrews a large congregation in attendance and greatly enjoyed the music of the visiting choir. The was as follows: A double quartet entitled "Come unto me and rest" sung by the Misses, Waldron, Patterson, Messrs. Heath, Scott, Howison and Crutcher; an "Now the day is over" with Barton singing the obligato solo. Barton also sang very sweetly "Hail, Holy Land" by Francis. Many words of appreciation were heard and the hope expressed that this would be repeated.

TROUBLES OF SHOWMAN. Wm. C. Murray, 219 Dalhousie, a legal entertainer, a member of Webb H. Chamberlain's Stock travelling through New York and Canada, has returned home his company owing to poor business. Chamberlain, the noted Canadian, has closed his company and his looks bright. Wm. Murray that all along the line war has had things badly. During his 6 travelling he noticed all the far way bridges of the company guarded by armed guards, in some instances have been the of shooting, in one case below Falls one guard was shot dead another below Trenton, Ont., in the arm and seriously wounded. The company also had to bring past the customs officials border line, who at the present bleesome times are stricter than the show was treated for a time, losing valuable train conduct until matters were righted.

 a local entertainer, a member of the Webb H. Chamberlain Stock Co., travelling through New York State, and Canada, has returned home from his company owing to poor business affected by the war. The star, Webb Chamberlain, the noted Canadian actress has closed his company until business looks bright. Wm. Murray states that all along the line war has affected things badly. During his 6 weeks travelling he noticed all the large railway bridges of the company were guarded by armed guards, who in some instances have been the victims of shooting, in one case below Smiths Falls one guard was shot dead, and another below Trenton, Ont., was shot in the arm and seriously wounded.
 The company also had trouble in getting past the customs officials at the border line, who at the present troublesome times are stricter than usual.
 The show was detained for a long time, losing valuable train connections until matters were righted.

OBITUARY
 The late Mrs. Davis
 There passed away on Saturday, the 17th inst., one of Onondaga Township's earliest and most respected residents in the person of Susanna England, relict of the late Isaac Davis, in her 79th year.
 The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, a brief service being conducted there by Rev. Mr. Parke, rector of St. Peter's, Oshkosh.

The cortege then proceeded to Holy Trinity church, Onondaga, where the beautiful burial service of the Anglican church was conducted by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Strong, assisted by Rev. Mr. Parke, the full choir being in attendance. Interment was made at Mt. Pleasant cemetery. All the members of the immediate family were present, paying the last tribute to a mother, who devoted her lifetime to their welfare.

MUSIC AND DRAMA
 At the Brant.
 There is a pretty good bill at the Brant Theatre this half of the week and patrons thereto will be entertained with a pleasing and clever variety of the programme.

Nothing has exceeded the club performances, Kelso Brothers. They instill first rate comedy in their act and are exceptionally smart in their work.
 A dancing and club juggling trick, being a feature. They have club throwing down to a fine art.

With a style distinctly her own, Ruth Tafford has a freedom upon the stage which few possess. Her imitation of a school girls' first attempt at public singing was splendid mimicry.

There is only one fault with the sketch of Chas. A. Loder and Co.
 They act it cleverly and are a success, but the farce is capable of further extension and a better climax. The fun is just becoming intense when the end is suddenly introduced and finishes an otherwise smart sketch in a rather tame manner. The impersonation of a drunken man is superb and his mistakes cause great merriment.
 The ever popular film Million Dollar Mystery continues to thrill the house.

Rev. Hugh Benson, a noted English priest and author, is dead.

Dr. Chas. A. Hidgetts has been appointed Commissioner to Britain of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Orders for immediate recruiting of 16,000 infantry were sent out from the Militia Department.

ed to $3,500 with accumulated interest.
 This amount was deposited of the city council would have to sanction the legality of the same. These funds made up $10,000, and it was suggested that the Patriotic committee lend the city $10,000. This would make $20,000 out of the $27,000, $4,500 of which, of the latter amount was for a bridge. A meeting of the Patriotic subscribers would be held when the plan would be voted upon. If the city proceeded, steps would be taken to make everything legal without recourse to a vote being taken among the ratepayers.

City Solicitor Henderson said it was pointed out that the matter was one of urgency as for the next two months labor could be employed on the proposed work. If the men were not employed, they would have to be maintained at any event. The construction would be public, that is, no private person would derive any benefit therefrom. It was proposed to start the drive at a point behind the O. B. B. from Ava Road, to Waterworks land, thence to West Mill street, across the hydraulic canal down to Jubilee Terrace, thence across the bridge along the dyke. It was not expected that the work could be completed this fall. It shall consist almost entirely of labor, or of excavation and grading.
 The next question was as to the financing of the proposition. Following an announcement by the Premier of Ontario, a vote of the people would not be necessary to invalidate the raising of money by debentures for the purpose of relief measures. Mr. Henderson said the practical end of financing the proposition was taken care of. It was up to the council to decide what way the unemployed would be taken care of. It was matter of method, either to provide work or charity.

Ald. Bragg asked if those employed would be Anglo-Saxon or foreigners.
 The Mayor said the work would be done under the City Engineer and he doubted if any objection could be made against those employed since the war broke out.

Ald. Charlton could not see what good the driveway would do the general ratepayers. Sewer construction would be much more beneficial to the city and would provide as much labor.

Ald. Ward wondered just how many men would be employed. He thought there was a chance of the teamsters getting the money and not the men.
 He raised the question of sewer idea, where there was a man in the trench every yard.

The Mayor told Ald. Ward to work it out with the Engineer. If they couldn't in four or five days, they shouldn't go on with the job.

Ald. Calbeck favored the scheme being gone with now, because it would have to be gone on with some time or other.

Mayor Spence made it plain that he would not favor the driveway in ordinary times, but at present they were faced with extraordinary contingencies.
 It was a matter of providing employment for a first year and could be found by the board of works that the driveway was unexpedient, they could drop it, even if the government approved.

Ald. Ward argued that a start was sufficient, whereby the city would only commit itself to about $8,000. He did not like a by-law calling for $21-000.

Ald. Sutch said he failed to see where the by-law would be of any benefit to the unemployed. The park drive would be mostly cutting and filling for which work the city had machinery. The job could be done very cheaply. There was lots of work in the city and county, with better streets. The city was to stand the heavy end of it, therefore the city should get the benefit. There were lots of sidewalks which had to be built. Ald. Sutch said he could not see where the scheme would help very many outside of the teamsters.

Ald. Ryerson said he believed it would be to the benefit of the city and county. The money had to be spent for public work, city and county, without private gain to any one. Inside of ten years, the property around the park drive would increase in value, so that interest on the present expenditure would be more than repaid. Ald.
 Ryerson asked if the board would look at the matter in a broad way. Employment had to be given.

The Mayor said if work were given, men out of employment would be elevated and charity would be disbursed, men would be debased. The driveway in West Brantford would greatly strengthen the dyke.

Ald. English was informed that the City Engineer's estimate did not allow for steam shovel work. It was labor entirely.

Ald. Hollinrake said that in all the discussion, he had heard of no suggestion whereby work could be provided. Sewers and sidewalks were on the frontage plan, cement roads could not be built. The present time was most opportune for the park drive. It would greatly enhance the attractivness of the city and he strongly supported the by-law, whatever the cost.

Ald. Ward and Sutch both said finally that they were not out to knock the park drive. They wanted a scheme where the maximum number of men would be employed with the maximum advantage to the city and with the minimum expense.

More New Lights
 The committee on Fire and Light, reported as follows:—
 We recommend a light to be placed on the following streets: Wade Ave from two to three; Catharine St., from three to six; Marlborough, from two to three beyond Rawdon St.; Nelson, from two to three beyond Rawdon, St. Campbell, from four to five beyond.

The committee ask power to purchase a desk chair and files and order printed matter necessary for the Electrical Inspector.

Ald. Ryerson said the new lights were necessary for new houses which had been built since the system had been installed. On Wade Avenue there were houses which the tenants would vacate unless they got electric lights.
 The commissioners would not put them in the houses unless the city put the line on the street, practically meaning that the city paid the shot.

The Mayor said it was a case of the city finding from where the money was to come.

Ald. Ward thought it would be illuminating to know just where the Hydro Board was financially. The Mayor said he would reassure Ald. Ward. The commission would have a surplus to cover the 5 per cent depreciation on plant, which is the usual allowance. For a first year and with stiff opposition, this was thought to be going along pretty well.

Board of Works
 The board of works reported as follows:—
 That the City Engineer be authorized to proceed with repair of lower drive in Sanitorium grounds at estimated cost of $39.60, and the repair of road to the north of House of Refuge, estimated cost $200 in accordance with his report of Oct. 13th to the joint committee. The county council has agreed to bear one half the cost of this work as set forth in the attached letter of the county clerk of Oct. 16th to the City Engineer.

That the storm sewer on Erie Ave. between Market street and the city limits be proceeded with by the city engineer. For a first year and with stiff opposition, this was thought to be going along pretty well.

Westrumite Paving
 Ald. Ward gave a report on the matter of Westrumite. He had an offer for the repair of local Westrumite streets, the city to pay $2000 for the work. Ald. Ward said the $2000 represented the amount of a debenture held by the city against the company. If the work was done, the offer looked good, and a resolution sanctioning the deal was passed. Ald.
 Bragg wanted to know how long repairs would take, while Ald. Quinlan thought the city should do the work.
 Ald. Ward said if the city did the repair work, $2000 wouldn't make a start on it. The city would get a guarantee that the streets should be ported to the satisfaction of everyone. One street alone would cost the city $800 according to estimate. The Mayor said the new owners of Westrumite proposed to make Brantford pavements worth looking at, and assurances had been given that the money was available to do this.

Ald. Quinlan insisted that the patches be permanent.

The City Solicitor said that if repairs were not carried out before the bond expired in six weeks the city would collect the bond.

Ald. Ward informed Ald. Ryerson that the highway street would be fixed up satisfactorily.

The entire work is to be done without cost to the city, and it looked as if the city got out of a Westrumite hole when the resolution was carried.

NOTES OF COUNCIL

 lan, Sigman, Charlton, Fitcher, Sutch, reference to the smoke nuisance therefrom. He advised Ald. Fitcher to have his committee take it up, which Ald. Fitcher said would be done.

Local merchants who want early closing by-laws, will have to pay for the legal advertising for the same.
Mayor Spence announced last night that he saw no reason why the expenses should be taken from the general taxpayer's funds.

Ald. Charlton urged the extension of South Market street over Erie Ave.
This would provide employment for many, and would constitute a work which would have to be done some time or other.

Ald. Calbeck thought Water street could also be improved. The Mayor urged that these suggestions be made at the next meeting of the joint committee.

A resolution of condolence, moved by Ald. Charlton and seconded by Ald. Ryerson, was passed to Alderman George Wollans, in the loss of his mother.

Ald. Sigman called attention to the Lake Erie & Northern Railway embankment which had no outlet or no subway. In the case of a flood in West Brantford it would prove dangerous. The Mayor said that a hole would then have to be punched through it.

Ald. Hollinrake introduced a motion to have the Provincial Government waited upon in regard to the pool room club license on Dalhousie street. The city solicitor said a provincial charter did not necessarily mean a license for the conduct of such a pool room.

Live Stock
Prices Advance

In spite of the hard times, there seems to be money on the market whenever there is a good prospect in view. This has been brought out by more than one auction sale of the past few weeks, and the sale of the farm of Frank Snider is a case in point. Good cattle there brought excellent prices, and it was no exception for a cow of a good grade to bring in $120. They were not pure-breds, just simply useful cows, and prices ruled from $100 to $125.

Indications seem to point to a general rise in the price of good live stock. The ordinary horse has no special points is cheap enough at the moment, as it usually is with the approach of winter, but there is no depreciation in the value of the horse of merit. The fact that the War Office has taken several thousand horses has led to increasing values, and the spring may see some high prices for good horses.

Mr. Burns of Toronto got together 268 horses for Government inspection, and of this number 266 were accepted for the War Office, while 1,000 have been accepted in Ottawa. Horses at this time are a good investment, says Welby Almas.

Moderately southerly winds, fine. Wednesday, southerly winds, fair, moderately warm.

BASKETBALL
A basketball league is on the boards at the Y. M. C. A. It is felt that there is sufficient talent in the building to support a real fast set of teams and hence the league is projected. There will probably be six or eight teams in when the schedule is drawn up.

GRADING ARTHUR ST.
The grading of Arthur streets proceeds and gravel is now being drawn and deposited under the street railway ties on this thoroughfare. It is to be well executed and the job is to be a good one.

INDOOR BASEBALL LEAGUE
The formation of an indoor baseball league in the Y. M. C. A. is projected. The business men, the dormitory men, the seniors and the junior physical class can each line up a team and with these four the league will be inaugurated. As there is some pretty fast players included in the Y. M. C. A. bunch, some good games are expected.

HAMILTON BOUND
The "Dormitory Kolts," the indoor baseball aggregation, at the Y. M. C. A., who have successfully cleaned up everything they have yet opposed, will travel to the Hamilton City on Thursday night when they will oppose the Harriers at their specialty. The Kolts have a strong team in hand and will take to Hamilton as their representatives the following: Harry Fleming, p; Reg. Robbins, c; Harold Gould, 1b; George Ryley, 2b; Jim Douglas, 3b; Will Frank, s.s.; Stewart Carroll, rf; Kirkpatrick, cf; and L. McArthur, re. They leave by the 6.45 radial on Thursday night.

Along the remainder of the 360-mile battle front stretching from the North Sea to Switzerland, where the defenders and the invaders have been deeply entrenched for 37 days, the only activity noted is that in the region of the Meuse River, where heavy fighting goes on incessantly, principally in the vicinity of Camp Des Romains.

French batteries at St. Mihiel, south of Verdun, are reported to have destroyed an entire battery of German artillery which had been particularly active in swooping the French positions. There is a dearth of news from German sources concerning the operations of Emperor William's forces, either in France or in Russia.

WAS GLORIOUS SIGHT WHEN TROOPS SAILED

How the Canadian Fleet of Transports Sailed Across the Ocean.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
NEW YORK, Oct. 20. - A line of grey transports led by a pilot boat and two British cruisers and flanked by an armada of battleships, cruisers and destroyers, a smudge of its smoke against the sky as far as sailors could see to the east and west - such was the fleet that carried Canada's troops to England, and its convoys as glimpsed from the decks of the Minnewaska, 370 miles from the mouth of the Thames, on October 10. Officers of the steamer told the special spectacle upon her arrival here to-day.

There were thirty-two transports in the line and they churned the water of one another's wake at distances of half a mile to a mile. Each transport flew the British flag and each was painted the battle color of the sea, steel grey, even to the funnels. Well to the front of the long line, perhaps five miles in advance, steamed the leader - apparently sent ahead to make sure the way was clear, for cruiser to the starboard and another to port forward.

All the transports were converted passenger liners or merchantmen and some of them were recognized, or at least it is thought they were, by the Minnewaska's officers who viewed the wonderful maritime procession through glasses.

The fleet really moved in three lines. The transports sandwiched between a line of warships on each side. Among the warships were many destroyers sent out from British ports to reinforce the larger war craft as the fleet neared its destination.

The day was one of brilliant sunshine, the sky was cloudless and the distance of the Minnewaska from the line about five miles. Notwithstanding the fact that the British ensign floated over the liner, a cruiser darted out from the line of convoys, circled the Minnewaska, came quite close and steamed alongside till the last transport was a speck on the horizon. Then the cruiser turned about and steamed away, without having flashed a word to the liner, either by wireless or signal, to join the rear guard.

Sir Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, discussed naval defence while in Toronto.

With the City Police

Koral Randle was fined $3 for striking John Antol with his fist last night. The assault took place on Pearl street and the plaintiff could give no reason for the punishment inflicted upon him.

The neighborly squabble which involved Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Percy Harmer and Mrs. Sybella of Mohawk street, was aired at the court this morning and the bench decided it was a case of events and he dismissed the charge laid by Mrs. Sybella.

Dr. J. A. Amyot addressed the Toronto Canadian Club on sanitation in war.
