TAKING AIR TRIP, TORONTO TO NEW YORK

Pilot Instructor of Curtiss Aviation School Left Long Branch To-day.

TESTING OUT NEW MACHINE

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Hector Carlstrom, pilot instructor of the Curtiss aviation school, left the hangers at Long Branch ten miles west of the city at 8:30 o'clock this morning on a daring 600-mile flight to New York City. If all goes well he will land at Governor's Island in New York harbor at about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The flight being made in six hours with an average speed of 100 miles an hour. Carlstrom is flying in a direct line and his height will probably be about 4000 feet for most of the trip. The flight is being made as an endurance test of a new model Curtiss land machine, much larger than any of those which have been flying about Toronto during the summer. It also has a new model 160 h.p. engine. The machine is known as model "R 2."

DISCUSSING WAGE INCREASE WITH UNIONS

Government of Britain Not in Favor of Higher Wages, But Will Control Prices.

London, Nov. 25.—In view of the fact that many trades unions are starting a new movement to secure further increases in wages, the trades union executive have been called into a conference at the instance of the government, to hear Premier Asquith, Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, and Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, discuss national finances and consider with the ministers the financial position of the nation in relation to organized labor. The conference is set for December 1. It is understood that the government does not favor fresh attempts to secure higher wages in the present crisis and that Mr. Runciman will explain what the government is prepared to do with regard to the control of prices, especially of coal and freight rates with a view, as far as possible to keeping down the prices of the necessities of life.

Again Italians Score Success Against Austria

Rome, Nov. 25.—An important victory for the Italians was scored yesterday when Austrian trenches between the fourth summit of Monte San Michele and the Church of San Martino were taken by storm and held in spite of desperate counter attacks, says an official statement issued to-day by the war office. The capture was taken by storm and held in spite of desperate counter attacks, says an official statement issued to-day by the war office. The capture was taken by storm and held in spite of desperate counter attacks, says an official statement issued to-day by the war office.

The defenders surrounded and a large part of them taken prisoners. The enemy immediately bombarded the lost positions with shells of all calibre, and behind a curtain of fire massed important forces for a counter attack east of San Martino.

While our infantry held firmly their positions, exposed on all sides, our batteries with rapidity and precision concentrated a quick, well directed fire on enemy columns and dispersed them. Five hundred and fourteen prisoners, many of them officers, fell into our hands and we captured great quantities of provisions, munitions and war materials.

Enemy aeroplanes dropped bombs on Arsiero, where no damage was done, and on Ala, where four soldiers were wounded. One of our air squadrons bombarded an enemy camp at Assevizza, another camp was being made at Aidussina, and railroad stations at Vagersko, Aidussina, Reifenberg and San Daniele. Our aeroplanes, which were fired upon as usual by anti air craft guns, returned undamaged.

Missanabie In England

Troopship Carrying Ontario Soldiers Reported Safely Across the Ocean.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 25.—It is officially announced through the press censors office that the troop ship Missanabie, which sailed from Canada on the 13th of November, has arrived safely in England. The following troops were on board 47th battalion (British Columbia) 36 officers and 1115 men; drafts (horse artillery) 2 officers, 1100 men; engineers, 9 officers, 104 men; infantry from Ontario (reinforcements) 3 officers, 244 men; medical corps, 2 officers, 78 men; civilian doctors for regular army, 11; details 7 and three Belgian reservists.

YOUNG HARLEY MAN WOUNDED AT THE FRONT

Elmer Metcalfe of 31st Battalion is Reported in To-day's List.

The casualty list to-day shows the name of Elmer Metcalfe, 31st Battalion, wounded at the front. He is a young man, 20 years of age and is a brother of Mrs. T. E. Patterson of New Durham. His parents are dead, but he has a step-mother, who is at present visiting his uncle in Iowa. Mr. Metcalfe left Harley some time ago and was in the West. He was a very popular young man and a fine type of character. He was working his way through college and had one more year to put in when he enlisted from Calgary. His father was the late Gilbert Metcalfe of Harley.

Thanksgiving Dinners.

New York, Nov. 25.—More than 5,000 Thanksgiving Day dinners were served to the inmates of public institutions here to-day. In addition, thousands of free dinners were distributed to the poor by charitable organizations. Owing to the belief that there is less distress among the poor people here than for several years, some of the large charitable organizations discontinued their custom of giving large dinners.

Big Motor Race.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—A 100 mile match race to decide the world dirt track automobile speed championship is one of the features of the Thanksgiving Day program at the Panama-Pacific Exposition to-day. It is conceded that the track is not a fast one. The pilots entered for the race are Barney Oldfield, Earl Cooper, Teddy Tetzlaff and Cliff Durant. A $5,000 purse was the prize.

FIRST DETAILED REPORT OF THE INCIDENT WHICH KILLED FOUR MEN ENLISTED HERE

Corp. G. Patte Had Left the Group Only Five Minutes Before the Tragedy—He Helped to Pay the Last Sad Rites—Later Had a Close Call With Another Shell.

The following letter received from Corpora George Patte tells its own sad story—

Somewhere's, Nov. 3rd. Dear Dad—Just received your letter to-day and was sure pleased to hear from you, although sorry to learn that you were feeling under the weather. However hope you have entirely recovered by now. Did not write you at all last week, as it was pretty near impossible to get any mail out. We were occupying the front line of trenches and believe me it was sure some sloppy job we were up against. It rained mostly all the time we were in, and as the trenches have to be practically rebuilt at this particular spot, we were short of dugouts to get in for shelter. There are two communication trenches leading in each about a mile and a half long. These communication trenches are built to allow us to enter the front line in safety. They are usually about six and a half or seven feet deep and wide enough for a man to walk easily. These rains have caused them to cave in at several points, so you can imagine the state they are in. mud and water up to your hips. We were out last night after dark, and take it from me, it was some nice job. We were wet to start with, in fact were never dry all week, but by the time we reached our billets we were mud and slime from head to foot. Personally I scraped mine off my trousers with a knife. So you see we are soldiering for fair at present, but they say this weather lasts only five months, so we should worry. To-day I was issued with a long pair of rubber boots, that come right up to the hips, so you see my luck still sticks, and in more ways than one, which I will mention later. Now, Dad, by the time you receive this, you will have heard of our great loss in paving Percy O'Neill, Vernon O'Neill, Corp. Stevenson and Jimmie Lowes, killed in the old days. Percy and I had together, and I think they were stick-en down without a moment's warning, four of the finest fellows in the world doing their duty to the last. It is another count against Mr. Kaiser. He will have to settle some day, and God help him when it comes. It was my place to throw the dirt in the graves, when the chaplain said "ashes to ashes and dust to dust" and it made me feel pretty bad walking along those four graves throwing a little earth in each. Next morning had just received your parcel of tobacco and handkerchiefs. W. R. Smith and myself were sitting in the dug-out, he was making a fire to dry our out and I had just opened your parcel and had the tobacco laid along on the blanket behind me, when they started shelling again. We thought we would be safe. However, a few minutes afterwards one hit the dugout showing it all in on us, covering us with earth and sand bags. You can bet we got out in a hurry, I buried all our stuff. We had to dig it out afterwards. I got everything except one package of Old Cham, my gloves and puttees. At least that is all I have missed so far. We were wearing horsehoes that morning. It was a close call. It seemed almost impossible for a fellow to be in it and to escape injury. It knocked out a big rat, it was the only casualty. After they had quit shelling we went down and I got the nose of the shell out of a sand bag on the dugout. It weighs about eight or ten pounds. Will ship it home the first opportunity as a reminder of one of the close calls a fellow has.

London, Nov. 25.—(In Montreal Gazette)—The Daily Mail prints a list of fifteen English journals which have refused to accept the Ford Motor Company's advertisement on the same ground as The Daily Mail. The Draper's Record wrote to the Ford Company— "With reference to the advertisement business which you have been good enough to place with us, we feel it necessary to explain the position of your company in relation to a speech recently reported to have been made by Mr. Ford. This gentleman, if the report is accurate, is evidently an enemy, and, therefore, we find it necessary to ask for an explanation. "Perhaps you will kindly inform us what position, if any, Mr. Henry Ford holds in your company. We shall feel obliged if you will inform us whether he has personally sufficient holding in the capital of your company to be able to control its policy, even though he may not be an officer. "In reply, dated November 22, the Ford Company's publicity manager says— "We shall be happy to supply the information you desire on the understanding that you will give us a list of your principal proprietors and shareholders, their nationality and brief outline of their private occupations, political views and religious beliefs."

BALKAN EVENTS MARCHING VERY QUICKLY TO DISASTROUS END FOR THE SERBIANS

Approaches to Kossovo Plain Which Were Expected to Form a Strong Defensive Already Have Been Traversed by Invaders—Situation in South Remains Unchanged

London, Nov. 25.—Military events in the Balkans appear to be marching swiftly to a conclusion disastrous to Serbia. The approaches to this historic battlefield of Kossovo Plain, which were expected to form a strong defensive line seriously delaying the advance of the invaders, already has been traversed. In the ensuing battle, the Serbians are reported to have been unable to withstand the shock of the attack and they are now said to be in retreat toward the Albanian border. Since the fall of Pristina and Mitrovitz, the keys to the Serbian defensive position, final Serbian retreat has been regarded as inevitable.

In the absence of late information concerning the situation at Katchanik Pass, it may be assumed the Serbians are still holding this position. In the south where the allied troops are operating, the situation is unchanged. Within twenty miles of Bagdad, the British army is advancing through Mesopotamia. After a serious battle with heavy losses on both sides, the British troops retired three or four miles below the position they had captured from the Turks, owing to lack of water.

The violent struggle on the Austro-Italian front continues unremittingly. Rome reports an important victory for the Italians in the capture of Austrian trenches in the region of Gorizia.

TEXT NOT PUBLIC YET. Although the full text of the Greek Government's reply to the collective note presented by Entente powers had not yet been made public in England, there is every indication that the British Government is satisfied with the position taken at Athens. The assurances given by Greece differ in marked degree from the previous expressions of benevolent neutrality. They are neither vague nor evasive, but promise explicitly that no military measures will be taken against the Serbians, French or British troops in case they retreat to Greek territory.

Whether this guaranty of safety to the allied troops will carry Greece to the extent of opposing with her army any German forces which might attempt to pursue the allies across the Greek border probably will not be ascertained until full details are received in regard to the assurances given by Greece. From the optimistic tone of Athens despatches to London, however, it may be inferred Greece has yielded on every essential point raised by the allies. The Greek situation therefore is regarded as having been cleared finally.

Germany Claim Success. By Special Wire to the Courier. Berlin, Nov. 25.—via London.—"The army under General Von Koenigs took about 10,000 Serbians and 19 cannon near Mitrovitz. In the Pristina swamps and on the Sancer River, 7,400 prisoners and six cannon fell into our hands. The amount of war material and other supplies taken is important."

Cruiser to Mexico

U. S. Warship San Diego Sails to Protect Lives Menaced by Indians.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—The United States cruiser San Diego, carrying an extra complement of 300 marines is scheduled to sail to-day for Topolobampo, on the west coast of Mexico, to protect 250 men, women and children, mostly Americans, whose lives have been endangered by attacks of Indians. The marines comprise the first battalion of the fourth regiment under command of Col. Myers. They had been stationed at the Panama-Pacific exposition grounds for several months. The men received instructions to prepare for "tropical service ashore," which was taken to mean that they would land at Topolobampo.

SCHOOL PICTURES DID NOT ARRIVE

It was the intention of The Courier to publish to-day another group photo of Ryerson school. Owing to the failure of the engravers to forward cuts, this had to be omitted. Friday's issue will contain the remainder of Ryerson School children groups and on Saturday the group of St. Basil's and St. Joseph's schools.

SIR SAM SAYS THE SITUATION IS UNBEARABLE

In London To-day and Will Sift Trouble There to the Bottom.

HELD MEETING WITH OFFICERS

London, Ont., Nov. 25.—General Sir Sam Hughes, accompanied by General Hodgins, arrived here this morning to investigate the affairs of the Thirty-third battalion. General Hughes stated the investigation would be a strictly private one, but declared that the probe would go to the bottom, both as regards the street battles with the police and the alleged grafting which has been under investigation for some time.

London, Ont., Nov. 25.—"I am going to sift this thing to the bottom," said Sir Sam. "I am going to find out who is at fault and we will get at the truth of things. The situation here is unbearable, and it must be cleared up. It will be, too, or I do not know my business and will have something to say later."

Later at Wolsley Barracks, Sir Sam had a conference with the officers of the 33rd Battalion. The press was excluded from the interview, and it is said that some pointed things were mentioned. Sir Sam was too busy to explain his famous interview in Ottawa, in which he declared that the men of the 33rd Battalion should trim their officers. He stated that he had too much to do at this time to pay any attention to that.

TWO MORE LOCAL BOYS FOR FRONT

Messrs. Harvey Ryerson and Arthur Livingston Join Overseas Force.

Next Tuesday, Messrs. Harvey Ryerson and Arthur Livingston will leave for Toronto, where they will join the 5th University Company. They both passed the medical exam. on Tuesday in Toronto.

After six weeks training in Montreal they will leave for the front to act as reinforcements to the "Princess Pats." Both of the boys are very well known and popular in the city. They were both active in all sports and social events at the Collegiate while there and they will certainly be missed by their many friends.

Greece Meets Demands of the Entente Powers

Athens Nov. 25 via London 12:25 p.m.—Greece has met the demands of the Entente powers and given guaranties that their requirements will be fulfilled. Official announcement is made that the reply to the collective note presented by the Entente ministers has been delivered to them. The announcement says— "The reply is couched in very friendly terms and gives satisfaction of the demands of the Entente powers and all guarantees considered essential. The collective note was presented to the Greek Government on Tuesday. As outlined in unofficial despatches, it contained no request for Greek intervention in the war with the Allies, but asked Greece to give assurance that she would preserve her friendly attitude in case the allied troops now in Macedonia should be compelled to retreat across the frontier to Greek territory."

BRAND WITLOCK, THE MAN OF FEW WORDS

Has Not Been Recalled, For He is Going Back to Belgium.

New York, Nov. 25.—Brand Witlock, American Minister to Belgium, lean, bronzed and fully recovered from the indisposition that prompted him to seek recuperation in his native land, arrived this morning from Rotterdam by the Holland-American steamship Ryndam. He was uncommunicative on every topic relating to war, and would not even discuss literature, other than martial or diplomatic, with Sir Beerbohm Tree, who also is an ocean veteran.

Mr. Witlock disposed of the rumor that Germany had asked for his recall, not by denying it, but by saying that he would return to Belgium by the Holland-American line on Saturday, which sailed hence on December 28. A big delegation of Toledo men, including Marshal Sheppey, chairman of the official reception committee, will accompany Mr. Witlock to Toledo, and other delegates boarded the cutter Calmuet at quarantine and came up the bay with Mr. Witlock. The chief purpose of the committee was to find out if Mr. Witlock would consent to take the nomination for Vice-President if it should be tendered him by the Democratic National Convention. Mr. Witlock declined to discuss this theme with the reporters.

Collector Malone had made preparations to take Mr. and Mrs. Witlock off at Quarantine and they decide to leave the liner there. The collector's cruiser, Neutrality which is small but swift, went alongside the Ryndam at Quarantine and the collector asked by megaphone of Mr. Witlock would like to be taken off, but he said he preferred to stay aboard the Ryndam. Mr. Witlock called from the rail to his former law partner, Mr. Milroy, Mayor-elect of Toledo: "Congratulations and heartfelt sympathy."

Mr. Witlock said he was not at all when he boarded the Ryndam Nov. 10, but that he had improved swiftly under the influence of the tonic of the rumbled Atlantic, which did not rattle his feelings.

Mr. Witlock will go to Washington to-day.

The Ryndam's captain said five mines were passed between Rotterdam and Falmouth, but that the day was bright and it was not difficult to avoid them. The liner was held a day at Falmouth, where she was boarded by British officers. Nobody was taken from her.

"BUY YOUR OWN CHERRIES" GOOD LECTURE

Rev. Mr. Alexander Gave First of Series of Winter Evenings Last Night.

Last night to almost a full church of young and old people Rev. David Alexander of Immanuel Baptist Church rendered excellently the first of a series of evenings for the people by delivering an illustrated lecture entitled "Buy your own cherries."

The address was illustrated by 24 excellent slides and showed how a British workman was redeemed from the drink habit to sobriety, Christian character and wealth.

The audience had the pleasure of singing several popular songs such as "The Glory Song" "Where is my boy to-night" etc. Miss Hazel Walton, a young member of the Sunday School, rendered excellently "Hiding in Thee", also illustrated on the screen, the audience singing the chorus. Mrs. McCombe, who presided at the piano with marked ability, sang "Home, Sweet Home" along with Mrs. D. Alexander, the pastor's wife. The duet was skillfully rendered and much appreciated. Judson N. Ruck delighted the audience with "Sullivan's Lost Chord" illustrated with 10 magnificent pictures. The electric lantern, which the Sunday school purchased, was skillfully manipulated by Mr. Albert Crab and Mr. John P. Graham. A vote of thanks brought the meeting to a close.

The object of the pastor is to make such meetings entertaining, educational and religious and last night's meeting with its spirit and attendance justified his expectations. A collection of $13 was put on the plate at the door.

RESERVE MILITIA IS AUTHORIZED

Voluntary Organization for Home Defence Will Receive No Pay.

Toronto, Nov. 25.—Authorization for a reserve militia in Canada has been announced by a recent order from Ottawa, and particulars are given in divisional orders, some of the main points being as follows:—

"The minimum age limit and qualifications are to be the same as for the active militia, all ranks being required to be physically fit, fit not for service in the field, for garrison duty, or administrative work. The drill and training are to be voluntary and will not entail any expense to the public either in the way of uniforms or equipment. In the same way officers of the reserve militia, are liable to be called out on active service anywhere in Canada when the government will provide uniforms, arms, and other equipment. In the same way officers and men will only be entitled to transportation, subsistence, pay or allowance, while on active service, when they will be rated, rank for rank as though they belonged to the active service, an officer being permitted to resign at any time, except on active service, while a man may claim his discharge after thirty days' notice to his O. C. in writing. Officers to be confirmed in their appointments are required to qualify in the regular way, and will be junior in rank to officers of the active militia, while they will be able to exercise command only over members of the reserve militia. Regiments will be able to maintain reserve battalions if they so desire at no expense to the government, the order permitting units of the reserve militia to be associated with corresponding units of the active militia."

Obituary

MRS. J. H. BELFRY.

Mrs. J. H. Belfry passed away at her reward on Sabbath evening at 9 o'clock in the 75th year of her age. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Brooks, and the home of the earlier years at Farrington. She was twice married, her first husband being the late Charles E. Bellhouse, who passed away some 33 years since. To her second husband who survives her, she was married about twelve years ago. There also remains to mourn her loss, one brother, Richard Brooks and four children, Mrs. A. W. Daniels, of this city, and Harry, James and Edwin Bellhouse, all of Tees, Alberta. Her Christian life began in early youth, and for many years she has been a faithful member of the Wellington St. Methodist church. Hers was a quiet, contented, beautiful Christian life. She adored the doctrine of God, her Saviour, and of her it may truly be said, "she being dead, yet speaketh." The funeral services will be held at the family residence, No. 1 Wellington street on Saturday afternoon at 2.30.

BENJAMIN SPENCER

The death took place early this morning in the Brantford General Hospital of one of Brantford's most respected citizens, in the person of Mr. Benjamin Spencer, 50 Lawrence street. The deceased had only been ailing for a short while, and on Friday last was removed to the hospital where an operation was performed in an attempt to save his life, but owing to other complication, proved unavailing. The late Mr. Spencer was born at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, and came to this country and this city when of a comparatively young age. He has resided in this city for a number of years, and was a well-known member of Court Endeavor, A. O. F., this city. Deceased leaves to mourn his sincere loss a sorrowing widow and two daughters, Miss Lucy at home and Mrs. David Kerr, of Regina. A fond husband and a loving father, a sterling citizen, has passed to his last long rest to be mourned by those whom he has left behind, and the hosts of friends who knew him in this life. The funeral takes place on Saturday afternoon to Greenwood cemetery. The deceased was a lifelong Conservative, and identified with the Borden club of this city.

BRITISH ARE ONLY 18 MILES FROM BAGDAD

Took Ctesiphon, But Were Unable to Hold It From Lack of Water.

FOUNDED BY ALEXANDER HINDENBURG

London, Nov. 25.—An official communication issued last evening concerning the operations of the British force in the region of Bagdad says:

"After the capture of Ctesiphon, 19 miles from Bagdad, and the repulse of a Turkish counter-attack, the British forces under Gen. Townshend were compelled to retire three or four miles in order to secure water. The British losses in the fighting for Zeur, which also was taken, and Ctesiphon, are calculated at 2,000 men killed or wounded."

The communication says: "After a night march from Zeur, which had been occupied on the 10th, Gen. Townshend's division, attached to the Turkish position at Ctesiphon, 18 miles from Bagdad, on the 22nd."

"After severe fighting all day the position was captured, together with about 800 prisoners and large quantities of arms and equipment, our own losses being calculated at two thousand killed or wounded."

"Gen. Townshend's force and the general headquarters bivouached in the captured position that night. On the night of the 23-24th heavy counter-attacks by the Turks were successfully repulsed, but on the 24th want of necessaries and retirement of our forces to the river three or four miles below the captured position."

Ctesiphon, on the left bank of the Tigris, is the town built by Alexander the Great on his conquering march from Babylon. Little now remains of the town except the famous arch of the banquet hall of a great palace, and has withstood the ravages of time and weather through all the centuries, when the rest of the building has fallen to pieces.

Hindenburg's war worn troops were again forced to retire in fighting before Riga. They temporarily assumed the offensive, but reinforcements rushed up by the Russians compelled them to evacuate all the ground occupied.

On the left bank of the Dvina there has been sharp fighting in which the Russians were the aggressors. They occupied a position there of some importance. On the rest of the front there were several encounters, all of which left the combatants pretty much where they were.

KUROPATKIN AGAIN LEADS RUSSIAN HOSTS

Will Take Command of Forces Acting Against the Bulgarians.

HINDENBURG BEATEN OFF

London, Nov. 25.—According to despatches from Berlin Gen. Kuropatkin has been chosen to lead the Russian invasion of Bulgaria.

The Bucharest correspondent of the Geneva Tribune sends a despatch in which he says that a former member of the Roumanian cabinet and leader of the Liberal party in Roumania, is quoted as expressing the belief that the Roumanian Government is desirous of following the national policy and soon will intervene in the war on the side of the Entente powers."

M. Jonecu, according to this despatch, also said he had learned from Petrograd that a strong Russian force was ready near the Roumanian frontier to aid Roumania against Austria and Bulgaria.

The Roumanian premier, M. Bratianu, in a conversation regarding the relations between Roumania and Russia, is also quoted as saying: "They are better than ever before."

New Russian formations have appeared on the Riga front and have proved themselves the masters of the troops that remain under command of Gen. Hindenburg.

The official statement from Petrograd to-day mentions the regiments from Lithuania as displaying "the greatest courage."

Hindenburg's war worn troops were again forced to retire in fighting before Riga. They temporarily assumed the offensive, but reinforcements rushed up by the Russians compelled them to evacuate all the ground occupied.

Blockade in Baltic Ties Up Iron Ore Trade

German Ships Must Sail Close to Shore, Which is Difficult in Winter.

Stockholm, Sweden, Nov. 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)

Swedish iron mine owners state that from ore bound for Sweden, but at present all Swedish and other neutral shipping is otherwise engaged, and no vessels are available.

Figures at hand show to what extent the exportation of iron ore has been concentrated on the Baltic and how shipping has decreased, owing to the risk of capture by British cruisers in the year 1913, 3,180,000 tons of iron ore were shipped from Narvik and 2,320,000 tons in 1914, according to reports of the current year, the total shipping of iron ore will not be over 1,200,000 tons. From Lulea, on the other hand the amount of iron ore exported has increased to 2,198,000 with one month of the shipping season still unreported. Other Baltic ports record a like increase.

The present stoppage of the iron ore trade is a heavy blow to Sweden, but the Swedish press, realizing England's necessity has indulged in neither bitterness nor complaint.

German ships are now playing a difficult game. Navigating close to the shore in order to be in neutral waters is not easy during the best season, and with the rough seas of winter it will be particularly hazardous.

IRISHMUN SHOWS HIS INGENUITY

John Redmond, Held Up by a Belgian Sentry, Got Through by Surrendering Himself.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, Nov. 25.—It developed from special despatches from the British headquarters in France, that John Redmond, Nationalist member of parliament was taken as a prisoner to visit King Albert. The last day of his trip was allotted to an inspection of the Belgian lines. When Mr. Redmond's automobile, containing himself and his son arrived at the junction of the Belgian lines, a sentry refused to allow it to pass on the ground that Mr. Redmond's papers were not in order. Mr. Redmond protested vainly. Finally the difficulty was solved by Mr. Redmond suggesting that he be put under arrest and escorted by an armed soldier sitting behind the military cross.

Once at headquarters, Mr. Redmond's difficulties were at an end. He held a long and earnest conversation with King Albert and assured him, as has been previously stated, that the Irish people never would entertain a thought of peace until Belgium was liberated.

Later Mr. Redmond visited Niort and several shell-ravaged towns along the Belgian front.

Prince Pierre Tronbetnikoy, convicted of speeding his automobile in New York, was threatened with a term in the workhouse if he repeated the offence.

C. E. Munday was found guilty of conspiracy in connection with the working of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago.

BRANTFORD ASTONISHED BY SIMPLE MIXTURE.

Brantford people are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka. ONE SPOONFUL demotes such surprising food matter it relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas. Because Adler-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. M. H. Robertson, Limited.

KUROPATKIN AGAIN LEADS RUSSIAN HOSTS

Will Take Command of Forces Acting Against the Bulgarians.

HINDENBURG BEATEN OFF

London, Nov. 25.—According to despatches from Berlin Gen. Kuropatkin has been chosen to lead the Russian invasion of Bulgaria.

The Bucharest correspondent of the Geneva Tribune sends a despatch in which he says that a former member of the Roumanian cabinet and leader of the Liberal party in Roumania, is quoted as expressing the belief that the Roumanian Government is desirous of following the national policy and soon will intervene in the war on the side of the Entente powers.

M. Jonescu, according to this despatch, also said he had learned from Petrograd that a strong Russian force was ready near the Roumanian frontier to aid Roumania against Austria and Bulgaria.

The Roumanian premier, M. Brațeano, in a conversation regarding the relations between Roumania and Russia, is also quoted as saying: "They are better than ever before."

New Russian formations have appeared on the Riga front and have proved themselves the masters of the troops that remain under command of Gen. Hindenburg.

The official statement from Petrograd to-day mentions that regiments from Lithuania as displaying "the greatest courage."

Hindenburg's war worn troops were again forced to retire in fighting before Riga. They temporarily assumed the offensive, but reinforcements rushed up by the Russians compelled them to evacuate all the ground occupied.

On the left bank of the Dvina there has been sharp fighting in which the Russians were the aggressors. They occupied a position there of some importance. On the rest of the front there were several encounters, all of which left the combatants pretty much where they were.

Germans Have Now Arrived at Prilep, Serbia

It is Said Advance on Monastir Was Delayed Until Huns Were Ready.

Geneva, Nov. 24, via Paris, Nov. 25.—The arrival of seven regiments of German troops at Prilep, Serbia, is announced by the newspapers in what purport to be despatches received from Bucharest.

There have been reports that the advance upon Monastir was delayed after the capture of Prilep by the Bulgars to await the arrival of German troops as it was feared the occupation by the Bulgarians of a town so near the Greek border might cause unrest in Greece.

HON. W. H. TAFT SPEAKS TO HAMILTON AUDIENCE

Ex-President Interprets Signs of the Times.

Hamilton, Nov. 25.—Hon. W. H. Taft, ex-President of the United States lectured last evening before an audience that packed the First Methodist Church. This was the first of a series of four lectures arranged for the city by the church. Sir John M. Gibson, president, and Mayor Walters gave the distinguished visitor an official welcome on behalf of the city, and presented him with an illuminated address. The ex-President's subject was "Signs of the Times."

He made only brief reference to the war, remarking that Canada was now going through the same crucible through which the United States passed during the civil war. "We have profound admiration for the courage and sacrifice of our neighbor to the north, which is responding to the throbs of patriotism," he said. He traced the development of the United States during the past fifty years. He thought the civil war might have been avoided. The history of the United States proved the success of popular government, in which all classes had a voice.

TO PROMOTE WORLD PEACE.

In responding to a vote of thanks, Mr Taft referred to the hundred years of peace, and announced that he would do all in his power to promote the establishment of an international court of arbitration to settle all differences between nations. The Supreme Court of the United States or any other civilized country would serve as a model. In case any nation was attacked, all other nations would be bound to go to its aid. The fact that there had been one hundred years of peace between the United States and Canada with 4,000 miles of unfenced boundary, was an example to the world. All differences had been settled by arbitration. Previous to that there had been wars, which prove that both nations could fight.

Blockade in Baltic Ties Up Iron Ore Trade

German Ships Must Sail Close to Shore, Which is Difficult in Winter.

Stockholm, Sweden, Nov. 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press) Swedish iron mine-owners state that the British submarine blockade will result in a complete stoppage of Germany's large iron ore importation from this country. Iron ore is not contraband and could ordinarily be shipped on neutral vessels, but at present all Swedish and other neutral shipping is otherwise engaged, and no vessels are available.

Figures at hand show to what extent the exportation of iron ore has been concentrated on the Baltic, and how shipping has decreased, owing to the risk of capture by British cruisers. In the year 1913, 3,380,000 tons of iron ore were shipped from Narvik and 2,300,000 tons in 1914, and according to reports of the current year, the total shipping of iron ore will not be over 1,200,000 tons. From Lulea, on the other hand the amount of iron ore exported has increased to 2,198,000 with one month of the shipping season still unreported. Other Baltic ports record a like increase.

The present stoppage of the iron ore trade is a heavy blow to Sweden, but the Swedish press, realizing England's necessity has indulged in neither bitterness nor complaint.

German ships are now playing a difficult game. Navigating close to the shore in order to be in neutral waters is not easy during the best season, and with the rough seas of winter it will be particularly hazardous.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A OF FALLING HAIR

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can find not a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No dandruff, no itching, no falling, no scraggy, just moisture a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, until the effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—and, also, you already can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

John Redmond, Held Up by a Belgian Sentry, Got Through by Surrendering Himself.

London, Nov. 25.—It develops from special despatches from the British headquarters in France, that John Redmond, Nationalist member of parliament was taken as a prisoner while on his way to visit King Albert. The last day of his trip was allotted to an inspection of the Belgian lines. When Mr. Redmond's automobile, containing himself and his son arrived at the junction of the Belgian lines, a sentry refused to allow it to pass on the ground that Mr. Redmond's papers were not in order. Mr. Redmond protested vainly. Finally the difficulty was solved by Mr. Redmond suggesting that he be put under arrest and escorted by an armed soldier sitting behind the driver to headquarters. Once at headquarters, Mr. Redmond's difficulties were at an end. He held a long and earnest conversation with King Albert and assured him, as has been previously stated, that the Irish people never would entertain a thought of peace until Belgium was liberated.

Later Mr. Redmond visited Niernport and several shell devastated towns along the Belgian front.

Prince Pierre Tronbetzkoy, convicted of speeding his automobile in New York, was threatened with a term in the workhouse if he repeated the offence.

The Situation.

The coon has come down. King Constantine and his advisers have given such assurances to the Allies that the latter will not resort to extreme measures. Had a firm attitude not been taken there is little doubt that a treachery equal to that of Ferdinand of Bulgaria would again have been recorded.

British troops are nearing Baghdad, the capital in Asiatic Turkey. The capture of the place will not only prove an important strategic move, but also exercise a great moral effect. The Serbians are still retreating, but, like the Russians under like circumstances, they are not in any sense beaten.

France is calling out more of her reserves. It was said at the commencement of hostilities that it would be the part of John Bull to pour in his forces on the Western front towards the beginning of the end, and this will undoubtedly prove to be the case. He will have the men aplenty, even if there has to be a resort to conscription.

The 84th.

By letters and personal representations efforts have been made by certain members of the battalion stationed here to call attention to alleged grievances. The disaffection apparently exists only with regard to a few, and, as a matter of fact, they have their own proper channels in which to make representations.

The main trouble seems to be that certain of the men from the Queen City are anxious to be located in Toronto, and do not like the expense of the trip there when they desire to make a home visit.

What about the scores of Brantford men located in that place? They do not make any kick, but take the lot of a soldier's life in the right spirit.

Surely a little consideration must show that in this matter it is the duty of those who have enlisted to accept in a reasonable spirit any of the vicissitudes, either of location or anything else, in connection with the service.

As far as Brantfordites are concerned, it is not too much to say that they have exhibited marked hospitality to their visitors in every possible direction. They are as proud of these outside men as of their own, a fact fully appreciated by the vast majority of the 84th members.

The Paris-Galt End. The Courier the last two days has devoted a good deal of space to reports appertaining to the Paris-Galt end of the Municipal Railway.

It is an enterprise owned by the citizens, and they have a right to be in full possession of every detail regarding the same.

Some criticism has been aroused in connection with the sale of this portion of the line, but in view of what has been demonstrated, this can no longer be based on valid ground.

It is shown that this portion of the system has not been paying, and that there would have to be a large outlay to place it in any kind of shape to meet Lake Erie & Northern competition.

In this regard Mr. Royce, the engineer whose services were secured in connection with the matter, estimates with regard to general improvements that the cost would be $43,000, with a further outlay of $50,000 on new steel rails.

Under all the circumstances, a majority of the citizens will incline to the belief that disposal is by far the better plan.

Salving the Cruiser Emden

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 25.—Negotiations between private contractors and the Navy Department for the salvaging of the German cruiser Emden having been broken off by the department chiefly because of the fear that the complications might arise if the Emden were used as a "show ship" at various ports, the department itself intends to salvage the wreck. A gunboat adequately manned for the purpose by experts and provided with needed apparatus has just left for North Keeling Island in the Indian Ocean where the hulk of the Emden has laid for almost a year.

URGES CENSORSHIP FOR UPPER HOUSE

Lord Derby Denounces St. Davids and Ribblesdale.

London, Nov. 25.—In severe denunciation of freedom of speech such as in the recent instance of the speech delivered by Lord St. Davids in the House of Lords, in which he attacked the British Headquarters Staff, the Earl of Derby, in charge of the Stock Exchange, speaking before the House of Lords declared that the House of Lords needed a censorship.

"The man who gives information to the enemy," said Lord Derby, "goes by an ugly name, and it should be given just as much to a speech delivered in the House of Lords as to a man who risks his life getting information for the enemy."

After stating that "no gentleman would have made no gentleman would believe Lord St. Davids' accusations, and subjecting Lord Ribblesdale's recent utterances regarding the Dardanelles to a like denunciation, Lord Derby spoke of recruiting and said he had not come to enlist recruits from the Stock Exchange, but to ask their loyal co-operation of their members in the scheme he had undertaken.

"At the present moment no man has a right to say he is indispensable in his present employment," continued Lord Derby. "Apart from the numbers we will get is the moral effect upon our allies and our enemies in showing them that the voluntary spirit in England is as strong as at the beginning of the war. Every man should go before a local tribunal, which will determine whether he is indispensable."

PLEA FOR PATIENCE. Lord Derby asked for patience, saying that those working under his scheme were endeavoring to do in six weeks under the voluntary system what Germany had accomplished in showing them that the voluntary spirit in England is as strong as at the beginning of the war.

Men were enlisting in large numbers, but they must come in very much larger numbers during the next three weeks if the position of the voluntary system was to be made absolutely unassailable.

"We are going to win this war whatever the cost," he added, "but it is no use making that assertion unless everyone does his duty at this crisis."

Regarding Lord Ribblesdale's allegation in his recent speech that it was common knowledge that Lieut. General Sir Charles C. Monro, Commander of the British expedition at the Dardanelles, had reported in favor of the abandonment of the Dardanelles campaign, Lord Derby said:

"I am in the War Office and knew nothing about it. There must have been a second traitor to give him information, and we ought to know who he is."

ST. DAVIDS MISCONSTRUED. Stung by the vitriolic criticism of his recent attack in the House of Lords on the British Headquarters Staff at the front, Lord St. Davids told the Peers to-day that a wrong construction had been placed upon his words.

When he spoke of the visits of women at Headquarters he had in mind only a single visit at the beginning of the war, he said. Following Lord St. Davids' explanation, Lord Crewe, as spokesman for the Government, expressed his pleasure at the manner in which St. Davids had qualified his remarks, but the incident is not considered over.

Lord Ribblesdale is yet to be heard from, and others, both partisans of Lord Derby and of the army critics, are expected to take the matter up.

WILSON MAKES AN APPEAL FOR RED CROSS AID

Asks That Thanksgiving Day be Remembered by Generous Donations.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Officials to-day looked for generous responses to President Wilson's thanksgiving appeal to Americans for contributions to the Red Cross to enable it to continue the work of alleviating suffering throughout the European war zone.

The appeal recites the urgent need of funds to assure the Red Cross against the curtailment or discontinuance of its relief work, and adds that the amount now in its treasury will suffice for only a few weeks. Of the $1,600,000 war relief funds received by the Red Cross, only $500,000 remains to meet pressing demands of the winter. To permit the work to cease, the committee says "is unthinkable."

The appeal contrasts conditions here and abroad, and says that although this country has made generous contributions of sympathy and money for the war sufferers, the "harvest of death desolation is not ended, and our sympathy must not withdraw its hand."

NO UNSOUND METHODS USED IN TAXATION

British Government Must, However, Raise Enormous Amounts for War.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, Nov. 25.—"In raising money for the war, the government resisted all temptations to unsound methods," said Lord Incheape last night in his inaugural address as president of the Institute of Bankers. Whether we can continue in the paths of financial rectitude depends on how far the people respond to the urgent demands for thrift and economy.

"The amounts still to be raised for ourselves and our allies are enormous. We may be able to borrow a portion abroad, but the remainder must come out of the nation's savings. Any other course would involve inflation and consequent rise in prices, but I am sanguine that the nation will make the heavy sacrifices necessary."

Lord Incheape said the financial policy of Germany bore the marks of recklessness and improvidence. None of the money required for the war had been raised by increased taxation and each successive loan meant fresh inflation of the currency, which showed itself in a steady rise in prices.

The more this procedure was persisted in, said Lord Incheape, the more would prices rise, despite all official attempts to fix maximum prices, though they might be successful for a time in regard to individual commodities, would be powerless to meet the situation. The task of redeeming the securities and retiring the notes would be left for an exhausted and defeated nation to face after the conclusion of peace.

"As certain as the sun will rise tomorrow," he concluded "Germany and her militarism will be crushed, and the peace of the world, so far as it will be secured for another hundred years."

An American is a Director of Hun Bank

Also Married to a Frenchwoman, and Berlin Papers Are After Him.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Berlin, Nov. 25.—At the annual meeting of the Berlin Electricity Works, opposition was concentrated against the election to the board of directors of Hans Winterfeld, one of the leading directors of the National Bank for Germany on the ground that although he is a former German officer, he has become and remains an American citizen. After sharp personalities had been indulged in, Mr. Winterfeld finally withdrew his candidacy.

The element which fought Winterfeld's election, now threatens to raise the question of his Americanism in connection with the directorate of the National Bank for Germany. An article in one of the afternoon newspapers demands to know whether Mr. Winterfeld, who it says not only retains his American citizenship, but also is married to a French woman, should not, during the war, be replaced in the management of the bank by a good German.

GOLF FINAL. Yesterday afternoon the final for the gold medal presented by the captain, Mr. W. H. Webling, was played off between the Rev. Dr. Henderson and Mr. P. C. Towers, resulting in a well-earned victory of the former by a narrow margin of one hole.

A LONG SERVICE. Mayor Spence received a post card from Captain C. E. Jenkins, chaplain of the 58th, this morning. It was dated Sunday, Nov. 23rd, and post-marked Truro, Nova Scotia. He stated that the services had taken him three hours, as he had to go through the train and repeat the service in each car.

PARCELS TO SOLDIERS. Parcels of comforts have been forwarded by the Women's Patriotic League to the draft of 44 men of the 25th Brant Dragoons who left some days ago for Hamilton. As no notification was given them of the proposed departure, the ladies were not able to present these parcels in person as is usually done.

WEEKLY MEETING. The International Order of Good Templars, Hope of Brantford, No. 5, held their weekly meeting in Moffat Hall on Tuesday evening. Installation of officers followed, by initiation of two new members. A very welcome visitor, Sergeant Tipper of the 84th Battalion was present and in a neat address, told of his experiences as a Good Templar in India and South Africa, the latter place where he joined the Good Templars. Sergeant Tipper is a Good Templar of long standing, holding certificates and diplomas of the highest rank. His address and advice was much appreciated by all present.

WEEKS ENGAGEMENT. The May Bell Marks Company have been booked to play a return engagement at the Opera House for one week, commencing Monday next. They come here after five weeks record business in St. Thomas. Entirely new plays will be presented.

REASON FOR DELAY. The City Treasurer anticipated being able to send out this week the completed Treasury Notes for the Brantford Domestic Loan, lately made, but is now advised by the printers that they will not be able to complete the certificates for some few days on account of the work in connection with the Dominion Government war loan. Mr. Bunnell expects to have the completed treasury certificates shortly after the first of the month.

FAITHFUL WRITERS. The military committee of the Y. M. C. A., before the 84th Battalion came to the city decided to supply them with all the writing paper they needed and for that purpose ordered 5,000 letter heads and 3,000 envelopes. The writing tables at the Y. M. C. A. are so very handy, and the signs with "Write Home," etc., are so evident, that before the men had been in the city three weeks, the whole supply was used up. A rush order for 10,000 letter heads and 5,000 envelopes had to be sent in to the makers.

FAREWELL PARTY. A number of friends and former workmates of Gunner Len Mears, gathered at his home at 270 Murray St., on Monday night to bid him farewell before leaving for Toronto. The early part of the evening was spent in cards. After a splendid supper, song and speeches were the order, the speakers all testifying to the esteem in which Gunner Mears was held. During the evening Gunner Mears was presented with a set of military hair brushes by his parents, and a pipe and case by Mr. J. Farmer. The gathering broke up by singing the National Anthem and "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Gunner Mears will be greatly missed by a large number of friends, especially the Beaver carpet-ball team, of which he was a member.

NOTABLE EVENT. A large and representative number of Oddfellows greeted Noble Grand Tucker at the opening of Mohawk Lodge, I.O.O.F., last night. The lodge was called to order shortly after 8 p.m. and the regular order of business proceeded with, after which the election of officers for the ensuing term was held. Lodge was then closed in 3rd degree and opened in the initiatory, when the Degree team of Gore Lodge, under Degree Instructor Cochrane conferred the initiatory degree in their usual efficient manner on a class of six candidates. On the conclusion of the work, the Noble Grand tendered the thanks of Mohawk Lodge to the team for their kindness in putting on the degree. Bro. Cochrane replying on behalf of the team. An invitation has been extended to Harmony Lodge to confer the same degree on Dec. 8th. The social committee then took charge and the brothers were soon enjoying themselves at progressive euchre. Bro. Wm. Dawson, after a very exciting finish, won the first prize and to Bro. Bancroft fell the honor of carrying off the booby.

Medals as decorations for military service were first issued in England Charles the First in 1643.

SEASON OPENED. The basketball season was opened last evening at the B. C. I. when two games were staged. The first game was played between the girls team of the school and the Y. W. C. A., and resulted in a score of 14 to 1 for the former. The Y. W. team were nervous on the new gym, and didn't play together at all. The next game was much faster, the Junior O. B. A. team of the Y. M. played the Fourth Form team of the Collegiate. The Association boys did some nice playing in the first half, and when time was called the score was 20-10 in their favor. In the second half though, the school boys put up a better fight. The O. B. A.'s, however, kept ahead and the final score was 34-21.

GOOD NATURE. An evening of music and merry-making took precedence, last evening in the Y. W. C. A. over the usual gymnasium classes. A very funny pantomime in four scenes, called "Thrift and Thriftiness" was presented by Miss C. Mitchell as "Thrift" and Miss Ida Ord as "Thriftless." The musical programme was excellent and included "Topsy Turvy" chorus, a solo by Misses Bessy Johnson, Edna Bowers and Pearl Kent. Amusing readings were given by Miss Amabelle Ryerson and Miss Neva Smith. Miss M. Best, Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. was in charge of the program after supper, which was provided by the Y. W. C. A. director. The rooms were prettily decorated in the Y. W. colors, crimson, emerald and gold.

An impromptu debate was the most interesting part of the subject chosen was "Resolved that a slovenly, good-natured wife is more to be desired than a tidy, cranky one." Misses B. Longstreet and Mabel Cook represented the affirmative side and Misses Annie Heaman and Luella Dewell took the negative side. The judges were Misses Wilma Jones, Pearl Kent and R. Gardner. After the speaking had been completed, the judges gave the decision for the affirmative.

Many friends will extend congratulations.

SERVICES AT PARK BAPTIST WELL ATTENDED

Rev. Mr. Miller of North Carolina Giving Very Interesting Talks.

The services which are being conducted by the Rev. R. G. Miller, of North Carolina in the Park Baptist Church are increasing in interest, the one held in the evening being largely attended. The subject last evening was the Transfiguration. The features in the discourse were (first) the personality of Jesus, based upon the words contained in the passage in Matthew 16: 13-20: the question asked by Jesus, "Whom do men say I the Son of Man am?" The fact that our Lord announced himself as the Son of Man was dwelt upon. The answer given, "Some say that Thou art John the Baptist and some Elias, etc." Then the confession of Peter in answer to the further question by our Lord, "But whom say ye that I am." And Simon Peter answered, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Therefore we have the scriptural evidence that Jesus is the Son of Man and the Son of God, and further that He was Christ the anointed one—annointed as a Prophet, Priest and King. The prophetic and priestly offices have already been fulfilled, and He is coming as the King. This Jesus, the Son of Man, the Son of God, the Anointed One, had to die. Then His transfiguration as in Matthew 17: 1-8 and Luke 9: 28-35 were especially dwelt upon. Moses,

ANNUAL MEETING OF CHILDREN'S AID SHOWS THE SOCIETY IS IN MOST FLOURISHING CONDITION

Reports of Secretary-Treasurer and House Committee Received--Further Increase to Endowment Fund--Mr. Joseph Ruddy Retires as President, Mr. E. Sweet Being Elected in His Place--Address by Mr. Kelso.

The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held yesterday afternoon in the Children's Shelter, George and Chatham Sts. There was a splendid attendance and it was considered the best meeting of this kind ever held by the Society. The retiring President, Mr. Joseph Ruddy, was in the chair.

The reports of the secretary, the treasurer and the house committee were received, and officers were elected for the ensuing year. The feature of the meeting was the address by Mr. Kelso, Provincial Inspector of Children's Aid Societies. Mr. McIntosh, head of the Children's Aid of Norfolk County, and Rev. Mr. Ferguson of Stratford, also spoke briefly.

A FEW FACTS
Some items of interest were brought out at the meeting. It was found that very many neglected children who had been cared for by the society were now at the front, the Society showing an excellent record of enlisted men. Thirteen children were made wards of the society during the year. The secretary, Mr. Axford had, by phone and personal call, over 2,500 interviews since the last meeting, an average of about 9 per day. The Shelter has under its roof an average of six residents every day; of these, about 30 per cent were from the county.

ENDOWMENT FUND
Several improvements have been made to the Shelter, thanks chiefly to generous aid of its admirers. The sum of $1,000 has been received for the endowment fund from the Eliza Clark Estate and $500 from the Milligan only a few days before, what a splendid place the Shelter in Brantford was. He reminded his hearers that the central authorities checked critically every case of a child being made a ward of the Society and they had to be perfectly satisfied that the charge was justified.

"Keep children with their own parents. The best thing to do with a child is to keep it with its own mother," concluded Mr. Kelso, and added his good wishes for their every success.

A FORMER WORKER
Mr. McIntosh of Norfolk County, spoke briefly as did also Rev. Mr. Ferguson of Stratford. Both commended highly the work of Mr. Axford. Mr. Whitelaw, once an active worker here, but now in Haldimand County, addressed the meeting, pointing out the difficulties encountered there, these being chiefly the presence of Indians and the lack of a shelter building.

PERTH'S RECORD
Rev. Mr. Ferguson said that 99 per cent of the wards visited of Perth County, were doing well. The value of Children's Aid work, he held, could never be estimated.
A vote of thanks, moved by Mr. Lavell and seconded by Mr. Bowyer, was passed unanimously. Mr. Lavell mentioned and commended especially the work of the retiring president, Mr. Joseph Ruddy, the Secretary, Mr. Axford and Mrs. Ker, convener of the House Committee.

MR. AXFORD'S REPORT
Mr. Axford stated that the children placed in foster homes were being treated in true Christian fashion. Emphasis had been laid on the preventive side of the work with good results. Though only 13 wards were taken in during the year, that did not represent adequately the number of cases inquired into and dealt with. He recommended that parents be more careful in keeping their children off the streets at night. No children had been committed to an industrial school throughout the year. Many shelter boys had enlisted. He wished to acknowledge the kindly offices of physicians, both of the city and county.

He regretted he had to chronicle the death of two workers during the year. Their late president, Mr. Gladstone Whittaker had passed away as had also Miss Annie Smith, the matron. The memory of their devoted service would always abide with the Society. He also wished to acknowledge the receipt of three bequests, and hoped there would be a flow of such bequests in the years to come to keep up the great work.

HOUSE COMMITTEE'S REPORT.
It noted the following:
Through kindness of Mrs. Peter Wood, a brick porch had been added to the rear of the Shelter, and a sanitary sink in the pantry at a cost of $30.00.

The Pansy club will furnish the new boys' ward and will as well pay the coal bill for the winter.
A six foot trellis fence has been built around the grounds a cement walk has been laid from the back porch to the fence and a fire escape added to the equipment of the building.

The House committee has taken part in all Patriotic movements. About $400 had been collected for various patriotic purposes since the spring.

STILL TRYING TO CAPTURE CITY OF DVINA

Russian Armies Now Have Lots of Shells and Need Not Spare Them.

London, Nov. 25.—The Germans still are making desperate efforts to advance in the direction of the Dvina says a Petrograd despatch to the Times. They have built a new road for the transport of ammunition and heavy guns. Huge quantities of ammunition recently have been forwarded to the regions of Ikskul, Fried-richtstadt and Jacobstadt.

The position of the Russian armies has been enormously strengthened, however, by an abundance of ammunition, the correspondent says. Gunners now show infantrymen inscriptions written by workmen on ammunition boxes which read in substance: "Don't spare shells. Plenty more are coming, comrades. We are working hard to keep you supplied. Cheer up!"

INTEREST PAYABLE HALF-YEARLY—1st JUNE, 1st DECEMBER.

ISSUE PRICE 97½

A FULL HALF-YEAR'S INTEREST WILL BE PAID ON 1st JUNE, 1916.
THE PROCEEDS OF THE LOAN WILL BE USED FOR WAR PURPOSES ONLY.

In the event of future issues (other than issues made abroad) being made by the Government, for the purpose of carrying on the war, bonds of this issue will be accepted at the issue price, 97½, plus accrued interest, as the equivalent of cash for the purpose of subscriptions to such issues.

• THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers here-with on behalf of the Government the above named Bonds for subscription at 97½ payable as follows,—

10 per cent on application,
7½ " " 3rd January, 1916,
20 " " 1st February, 1916,
20 " " 1st March, 1916,
20 " " 1st April, 1916,
20 " " 1st May, 1916.

The instalments may be paid in full on and after the 3rd day of January, 1916, under discount at the rate of four per cent per annum. All payments are to be made to a chartered bank for the credit of the Minister of Finance. Failure to pay any instalment when due will render previous payments liable to forfeiture and the allotment to cancellation.

Applications, accompanied by a deposit of ten per cent of the amount subscribed, must be forwarded through the medium of a chartered bank. The bank will issue a provisional receipt.

This loan is authorized under Act of the Parliament of Canada and both principal and interest will be a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Forms of application may be obtained from any branch of any chartered bank in Canada, and at the office of any Assistant Receiver General in Canada.

Subscriptions must be for even hundreds of dollars.

In case of partial allotments the surplus deposit will be applied towards payment of the amount due on the January instalment.

Scrip certificates payable to bearer will be issued, after allotment, in exchange for the provisional receipts.

When the scrip certificates have been paid in full and payment endorsed thereon by the bank receiving the money, they may be exchanged for bonds with coupons attached, payable to bearer or registered as to principal, or for fully registered bonds without coupons.

Delivery of scrip certificates and of bonds will be made through the chartered banks.

The interest on the fully registered bonds will be paid by cheque, which will be remitted by post. Interest on bonds with coupons will be paid on surrender of coupons. Both cheques and coupons will be payable free of exchange at any branch of any chartered bank in Canada.

Holders of fully registered bonds without coupons will have the right to convert into bonds with coupons, payable to bearer or registered, without payment of any fee, and holders of bonds with coupons will have the right to convert, without fee, into fully registered bonds without coupons at any time on application in writing to the Minister of Finance.

The issue will be exempt from taxes—including any income tax—imposed in pursuance of legislation enacted by the Parliament of Canada.

The bonds with coupons will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000. Fully registered bonds without coupons will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000 or any authorized multiple of $5,000.

Application will be made in due course for the listing of the issue on the Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

The loan will be repaid at maturity at par at the office of the Minister of Finance and Receiver General at Ottawa, or at the office of the Assistant Receiver General at Halifax, St. John, Charlottetown, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary or Victoria.

The books of the loan will be kept at the Department of Finance, Ottawa.

Recognized bond and stock brokers will be allowed a commission of one-quarter of one per cent on allotments made in respect of applications which bear their stamp.

Subscription Lists will close on or before 30th November, 1915.

"THE GODDESS"

UNIQUE SERIAL STORY

BY GOUVERNEUR MORRIS

CHAPTER SIX
"Don't be afraid," said Celestia, calmly. "I won't hurt you."
And that was the last thing that Freddie's vaguely working mind expected her to say. "She," he thought "ought to be afraid of me. I am a man; she is a girl. I have a club; she hasn't. I am to take her to Sweetz's—dead or alive. I can crack her head like an egg. So why does she tell me not to be afraid? Why does she say she won't hurt me? Maybe she's got a gun. Maybe she knows something."
All the while her magnificent compassionate eyes held him spellbound. "What's your name?" asked Celestia.

"Freddie Douglas."
"Do you belong in this house?"
"Yes, ma'am."
"Then we must be friends, because I belong here too."
"You going to live with us?"
Celestia nodded.
"Honor bright?" asked Freddie suspiciously.

"Honor bright," smiled Celestia. "It was then no longer necessary for Freddie to take sudden action. If Celestia was going to live on in the same house it would be a simple matter at some propitious moment (when she wasn't looking at a fellow, for instance) to turn her over to Sweetz."
First he went to Sweetz.
"Well," said Sweetz.
"I shouldn't wonder," said Freddie, "if I was going to find her. I got a clue."
"Good."
"How much money is there in it?"
"A dollar."
Freddie simply smiled a sad little smile, turned on his heel, and started to walk away. "Hold on, Freddie; I was kidding you."
Freddie returned.
"You mustn't kid me. It drives me crazy. I shouldn't wonder if I could find her for (his lips trembled at their own audacity) fifty."
Sweetz's face did not even show surprise.

"You take me to where she is," he said, and "I'll go you the fifty."
A dull spot on Freddie's brain tried to make him say "all right, come along," but a bright spot suddenly intervened and made him say instead "All right, I'll find her sure."
Next Freddie went to Mrs Baxter's home. A taxicab was drawn up at the curb and the front door was ajar. Freddie simply walked into the house. There were voices in the front parlor.

"So help me God, Mister Barclay, I have told the truth," Mrs Baxter was saying, and Freddie judged she was crying.
"You see," said Tommy, "I got hold of the cab that you brought her here in. That's how I found out she was with you. I don't know if women like you ever tell the truth but I am inclined to believe you this time, Mrs Baxter. Now where in thunder can that poor child have strayed to?"
"Mr Barclay, I wouldn't worry if I was you. She came to no harm with me, and I am as bad as they make them."
"Look here," said Tommy. "I believe you do know men and lots of other things. What would you do in my place?"
"I would offer big money for news of her. Money acts quicker than lightning."
"Why," said Tommy, "I would give a thousand dollars just to know that she was safe."
Freddie the ferret stepped into the room from between the portieres.

"She's safe," he said with fine dramatic instinct.
"Safe," cried Tommy, "where is she? You haven't seen her. Who is this young man?"
"He's called Freddie the Ferret," said Mrs Baxter, "because he often finds things that other people can't. But" (she lowered her voice a little), "he ain't to be always relied on; he's soft of half-witted."
But Freddie's bright spots were all on quiver for once.
"I see her. A terrible man was just going to baste her over the head with a table leg, but she gave him one look and he beat it."
"Where is she?"
Freddie shook his head.
"She was safe when I last seen her, but I don't know where she is, and I'd have to hunt for her. Didn't you say you would give something just to know she was safe?"
"I did," said Tommy, "but I don't know she's safe. You find her and take me to her and you shall have a thousand, and more too."
"All right," said Freddie, "you'll hear from me soon," and he swung importantly out of the room.
He had a new proposition now. How to take Sweetz, Mrs Baxter and Mr Barclay all to Celestia at the same time, so that he could get all the money. This new proposition required very patient thinking, and he walked on and on without considering in the least where he was going. After a long time he sank down on a bench in Central Park and took a nap. Sometimes he dreamed of solutions to difficult problems. But he didn't think this. He was waked by a hand on his shoulder.

"Why, Freddie, what are you doing hereabouts?"
"Dunno," said Freddie. "What are you doing, O'Gorman?"
(To be continued.)

SETTLEMENT IS REACHED

In the Case of Whittaker vs. Farmers Binder Twine Company.

At the Non-Jury Court yesterday in the case of Whittaker vs. the Farmers Binder Twine Company the following settlement was arrived at and judgment given accordingly—
1. The contract has been set aside.
2. The Farmers Binder Twine Co. is to pay Mr. Whittaker $1,000.00.
3. The counter claim of the Farmers Binder Twine company against Mr. Leeming is dismissed.
4. The Farmers Binder Twine Co. are to pay Whittaker's costs fixed at $550.00.
5. The Farmers Binder Twine Co. have to pay Mr. Leeming's costs fixed at $550.00.
6. All accusations of impropriety against Mr. Leeming or Mr. Whittaker are to be withdrawn.
His Lordship during some remarks referred to Messrs. Whittaker and Leeming in the highest terms and also paid a notable tribute to Miss Hyslop, secretary. He stated that she had given her evidence in the best and clearest manner of almost any witness he had ever heard.

JUDGMENT RESERVED

The next case taken up was that of Mrs. Byrick versus the Catholic Order of Foresters for $1,000 insurance in connection with the death of her late husband. The defendants alleged misrepresentation as to his health. Judgment reserved.

WON ON POINTS, LOST IN GAMES

Bankers Started Off Strong Last Night, Then Died Away and Were Beaten.

The Keystone surprised the Bankers in the Y.M.C.A. Bowling league last night by taking two games. The games were all fairly close and well contested. Bob Hope, the popular manager of the "Keymen" was high man for his team with 478. Cam Thorburn the "skip" of the "financiers" started for his quartette with a nice score of 515, while Ernie Moule, his team mate ran him a close second with 507. The following are the scores:

KEYSTONES.
Fairfax	115	213	133—460
Hope	158	142	178—478
Hanson	133	152	155—440
Hepton	147	149	145—441
	552	656	611—1819
BANKERS.
R. Cleator	188	109	152—449
Moule	175	177	155—507
C. Cleator	154	130	132—416
Thorburn	178	172	165—515
	695	588	604—1887

"SPLITS."
Bill Fairfax had a nice single of 213. Ernie Moule is the "mains'ay" of the Bankers' team. The "Keystones" on total pins but lost out in games. Dave Hepton struck out in the final game and won for his team.
The League race is getting very interesting and the game Friday night between the Cocksfoot Plow and the Verity Plow will have some bearing on the League leadership.
Roy Bramton, the genial manager of the Alleys says "I don't see a team that has two five hundred 'rollers" and can not win must have a "junks" somewhere.

BEST FOR LIVER BOWELS' STOMACH, HEADACHE, COLDS

To-night sure! Take Cascarats and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up with your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right and feeling fine. Get rid of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, furred tongue, sour stomach, bad colds. Clear your skin, brighten your eyes, quicken your step and feel like doing a full day's work. Cascarats are better than salts, pills or calomel because they don't shock the liver or gripe the bowels or cause inconvenience all the next day. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious, feverish children a whole Cascarat anytime as they can not injure the thirty feet of tender bowels.
