Editorial.

THE Midsummer issue of a School Magazine is always a more or less mournful one in spite of the usual cheery accounts of cricket, tennis and sports, for the reason that we have to bid farewell to so many faces which seem to have become part of the School. This term, not only amongst the boys is this the case, but amongst the masters also, we have to regret the loss of the one who has been the longest at the School of any of the staff, Mr. Morris; and one whose loss will be keenly felt, both in the editing of the RECORD which he did for so many years, and also in cricket affairs for which he has been secretary almost since prehistoric times. Unfortunately that is not the full tale of our woe; we are also losing Mr. Barker, who is leaving for Switzerland, Mr. Bocking and Mr. Gilbert who are returning to Toronto, and Mr. Perks.

However we must not let our coronation number, as it ought to be, seem too lugubrious. We have many things to be cheerful about. Our Examination results, especially those at the Royal Military College, have been excellent; to have filled one quarter of the vacancies at that institution with Trinity College School boys is surely a just cause for pride.

In cricket this year we have not quite carried all before us, but reverses are always good tonics, so we will hope for still better things next year.

The Athletic Sports in spite of inclement weather on the Visitors' Day and the consequent postponement till the next day, showed some good records, though there was naturally a scarcity of visitors.

As to lawn tennis all that need be said is that we could easily keep busy twice as many courts as we have.

The Coronation of our King was celebrated on June 22nd by a special service (in the School Chapel) of a very hearty character—and also by the addition of four extra days to the summer holidays. Our warmest congratulations to Sir William Osler, K. C. M. G., and may he live long to enjoy his well-merited baronetcy.

We hear of many improvements taking place during the summer holidays both inside and outside the School, such as : new fittings for the dormitories, a cement walk all the way up to the School from the town, and last but not least the commencement of the new skating rink.

May we take this opportunity of begging past and present boys of the School to send us articles for insertion in the RECORD, be they truth or fiction, grave or gay, prose or poetry we care not, but we do want the magazine to contain something else besides merely sporting results.

In conclusion we wish to extend a very hearty welcome to the new members of the staff.

The Oxford Cup.

THE much-contested Oxford Cup race was run this year on Tuesday, May 16th. At the commencement of the term the general impression in the School was that the Upper Flat could not help winning this famous race, as they had five men who had run in it before, while the Lower Flat had but one. This mistaken idea soon faded, however, as the Lower Flat dark horses began to loom up, especially as Symons who came third last year for the Uppers was forbidden to run by his parents.

During the first week the gradual weeding out of the squads commenced, and soon only more or less select squads were in training. Now the flats were saturated with the odor of linament, while the druggists gloated over the sudden boom in that useful fluid.

The following three weeks were strenuous ones for the committees, and oft in the stilly night could be heard the groans of the tortured runners, as their vigorous trainers applied the linament. Also the little block was varied by runs across country and longer runs on the road. All through the weather was admirable, and the usual business of plunging through bogs disguised as plowed fields was dispensed with.

For a time the dark horse crop was flourishing, but some became discouraged and dropped out, leaving about ten runners on each flat. The School began to realize that the Lowers would have some team after all, especially their trio of Vernon, Winchester and Urch was watched with interest. For the Uppers Gossage and Waller ii were the star dark horses, but when the latter showed signs of over-training he was promptly sent to the Tuck, which improved him greatly; he was also hampered by weak ankles. Gossage was handicapped by a perpetual stitch in his side. However, they both stuck pluckily to it and covered themselves with glory. Coldwell and Stone could be seen every afternoon skimming over fields at an awful pace, while McIlree and Hughes plodded along and improved slowly.

The Lowers undoubtedly had hard luck, for Patton who came fifth last year received orders from the doctor to stop running, while Denison cultivated German measles which isolated him for ten days. In fact he just returned three days before the race, which made it necessary for Downer, Denison and Stuart to run the course on the last Sunday in order to decide who should catch the last two places.

As the fatal day approached the excitement increased, and each day scouts from each flat skimmed around the country, trying to time the opposing runners. By this time the Lowers, stimulated by Voght, had fully decided to win the Cup; but as the Uppers were equally determined, the race promised to be the best yet.

On the 15th the rival committees and runners went over the course to determine the exact direction the contestants should take. On a similar occasion last year an argument as to whether the fences should be left up or down, nearly resulted in war; but this time everything was harmonious, and it was decided to open barbed-wire fences, and leave the others intact. The only subject that caused any trouble was over the colours that each team should wear, both flats refusing to wear red, considering it unlucky. The matter was finally decided by the ancient method of flipping a coin. As the Uppers won they chose their old colours—white, while the Lowers picked white with a red band. Undoubtedly the red hoo-dooed them and earned their downfall.

Up to this time the weather had left nothing to be desired, but now it started to drizzle occasionally, making the roads slippery, but hardly affecting the fields, which was good for the runners, but hard on the farmers.

The 16th dawned cloudy and dull, rain threatening all the time. This caused the Lowers some trouble in choosing the team, but Denison was finally picked instead of Stuart, because he was more robust and better fitted to stand heavy running.

On the auspicious day the Head gave a half, and soon squads of forcers, spongers etc., started for their distant posts, while the runners suffered intermittent attacks of nervous prostration. At 3.15, in a light drizzle, the contestants lined up at the usual starting-place. The teams were as follows :—

UPPERS—Coldwell, Stone, Waller ii, Gossage, McIlree. Spare, Hughes.

LOWERS—Urch, Winchester, Vernon, Downer, Denison. Spare, Stuart.

At the crack of the pistol both teams started as if in the quarter mile, and kept it up for some time each hoping to tire the other. At the new C. N. R. track a grading train caused a frantic spurt. Even then Waller was cut off and had to wait till it passed.

At the first ploughed field the terrific pace began to tell, and the runners settled down to their fit strides. The last three members of the Uppers' team had orders to break up the Lowers' famous trio or bust ; but it is doubtful if they could have done this if Urch had not collected a violent stitch which hindered him greatly. For over a mile Gossage and McIlree worried him, running on each side and wearing him out by occasional spurts. Coldwell as usual kept the lead, and was followed closely by his side-partner Stone. At the Ravenscourt corner these two were first and second, while Vernon and Winchester followed not far behind. At a longer interval came McIlree and Gossage, closely followed by Urch. The order of the others was Downer, Waller and Denison, all running hard.

The first Lower forcers were stationed at this corner, and as the first Upper relay was further down they expected to gain, but failed to do so because the roars of the Lower forcers stimulated both teams equally. Soon the Upper outposts were reached, and their low-voiced encouragements acted as a tonic to their runners. Tom Coldwell increased his lead, and strive as they might, Vernon and Winchester could not pass Stone. Behind, Gossage, Urch and McIlree were still having a glorious time, but the latter drew ahead as his pacer joined him. Waller also commenced to gain, and passed Downer near the creek.

At the corner of the Cobourg road the runners were still in this order, but Waller drew up and passed Urch, who was running on his grit. The latter made one last desperate spurt and led again till the Little Block road was reached, where Waller passed him for good. In the meantime Gossage had drawn away and was well up, while Vernon, who had passed Winchester, tried in vain to get near Stone.

As Tom Coldwell swept down the hill near the finish, a winner for the third time, the Uppers went crazy, especially when they heard that he had, as usual, slipped a minute from the record. When Stone appeared they went crazier still ; but the Lowers had their turn on the appearance of Vernon and later Winchester. They felt bad, however, when McIllree, Gossage and Waller followed in succession. All three finished strong, and were followed by Downer. Urch and Denison then appeared, and the latter, who would have given a different account of himself had he been in training, forged ahead near the finish. Urch is to be congratulated on the plucky race he ran. That stitch was certainly hard luck; at the finish he presented a woeful appearance, being positively blue in the face. The score was Uppers 21; Lovers 34. The time of finish was as follows:—

First, Coldwell, 24.12; 2nd, Stone, 24.45; 3rd, Vernon, 25.03; 4th, Winchester, 25.30; 6th, Gossage, 26.15; 7th, Waller, 26.21; 8th, Downer, 26.50; 9th, Denison, 27.45; 10th, Urch, 28.05.

The distance was afterwards measured more or less accurately, and was found to be practically four miles.

The committees were: Uppers, Hinckley, Oldham and McIllree. Lovers, Voght, Greey and Fiskin. Both committees were very hard working and deserve great credit, especially is Voght to be congratulated on the way he managed things when the other two were away trying their examinations. Both flats backed up their runners splendidly, and even went down into their pockets to supply oranges, etc. The facers also were very important factors, and all did their duty nobly; each runner will remember how their blandishments urged him on, and helped him to forget his own troubles.

AS several of the winners of last year's sports were back this year, it was thought a few records would be broken. On the afternoon of the starting of the sports and the morning of the Visitors' Day the weather fulfilled all expectations. Unfortunately it rained in the afternoon of this last day causing the sports to be postponed until the following afternoon. Of the eleven events contested on the first day, (Tuesday, May 30th), two School records were broken. The 220 yards (open) was won by Hinckley in 24 4-5 seconds, 7-10 a second faster than the previous record held by Macaulay in 25 1-2 seconds. In the mile Coldwell beat Ings' record of the previous year by 9 9-10 seconds, covering the distance in 5 min. 5 3-5 sec. On Wednesday, Visitors' Day, three School records were broken. Macaulay in the broad jump beat the previous record held by Martin by 10 inches, jumping 20 feet 4 inches. Ross in the high jump, beat the previous record of Maynard's by 2-3 of an inch, jumping 5 ft. 1 2-3 inches. Macaulay also lowered the record for the 100 yards from 11 seconds to 10 2-5 seconds. On the Little side no records were broken.

Tom Coldwell (Upper Flat) lowered the School record for the Oxford Cup course beating his last year's record, and covering the distance in 24 minutes, 12 seconds, as against his last year's record of 25 minutes and 45 seconds.

Dennistoun and Bethune Cups.

THIS year the Upper and Lower Flats produced very evenly matched squads for the Dennistoun and Bethune Cups, the former being for shooting and the latter for drilling and shooting. In the Lent Term McIllree and Fitzgerald were elected Captains of the Upper and Lower squads respectively. Each squad consisted of sixteen boys, not including the captain.

In the indoor shooting, in Lent Term, the Upper Flat won from the Lower Flat by .09 points. In Trinity Term at the ranges the Upper Flat also won by .02 points. The shooting of McKendrick and Dawson for the Lowers, and McIlree, Ross and Martin i for the Uppers being specially noticeable.

The competitive drill between the squads was judged by Capt. Philips and Lieut. Outram. The Lowers won on neatness, while the Uppers won on guard mounting, the drilling and skirmishing being practically equal, the points standing 260 to 244 in favour of the Upper Flat.

The Captains of the two squads, McIlree and Fitzgerald, are deserving of praise for the spirit and enthusiasm they showed, and by the veteran manner in which they drilled their squads. The squads consisted of the following boys:—

UPPERS—Capt. McIlree, Clarke, Denniston i, Denniston ii, Greer, Hebden, Hinckley, Hughes, Martin i, Mewburn, Patterson i, Rogers i, Ross, Ryrrie, Skinner, Spragge, Tucker i.

LOWERS—Capt. Fitzgerald, Belcher i, Bigwood, Dawson, Denison, DeVeber, Fiskin, Greey i, Harvey, Ince, Lindsay, Macaulay, McKendrick, Mortlock, Urch, Vernon, Young.

Winner of the Watts' Challenge Cup, given for shooting (boys under fifteen) belonging to the School Cadet Corps—Stevens.

Winner of the Lieut.-Governor's prize for the best shot in the School—McLeod.

Winner of the Ralston Cup, best shot under fifteen—Stevens.

CRICKET CHARACTERS.

TUCKER—Very careful bat who scores slowly. Hits freely at loose balls. Medium pace break bowler and sure bat. Slow in the field.
 MACAULAY—Steady left handed bat but weak on the off side, not taking advantage of short balls. Good fast field.

MARTIN, C. E. K.—Stylish bat but lacks confidence. Should be a useful man next season. Brilliant field at short slip, getting seemingly impossible catches.

LEMESURIER—Free hitter and quick scorer when set. A hard working and keen field.

BATH—Shows good style with the bat and should become a good scorer if he would hit harder. Slow but fairly good field. Fair bowler.

LINDSAY—Careful left handed bat; very weak on the off. Lacks experience which would prevent him from knocking so many catches. Fair wicket keeper who should use his hands more.

GREEY—Fair bat and unreliable field. Bowls well on a soft wicket possessing good breaks.

ROBERTS—Fair bat and bowler and reliable deep field. If he would stand up to his wicket should be a good scorer.

FISKEN—Fair dashing bat but rather weak on the off. Sure and brilliant field.

ROSS—Played well at first of season but fell off towards the end. Fair bat and field.

TIME ON TEAM—Tucker 2 years; Macaulay 2 years; Martin 1 year; Symons 1 year; Fiskin 2 years; Bath 2 years; Lemesurier 1 year; Greey 1 year; Lindsay 2 years; Roberts 1 year; Ross 1 year.

Lawn Tennis.

NEVER perhaps in the annals of the School has Tennis achieved such a popularity as it did this term, chiefly, no doubt, owing to the good weather we enjoyed. The three courts were always busy, even at such unusual times as before breakfast, and in the few minutes interval between Morning school and dinner, so that by the close of the term there was even less grass than usual on them. Hinckley showed splendid form and is to be congratulated on winning the open singles. In Virden, who won the junior singles, and also with Welsh, the junior doubles, we have a very promising young player.

SENIOR SINGLES—Forty-three entered for this. H. LeMesurier, Fred. Denison and Hinckley were the winners of the fourth round. Denison unfortunately had to leave early, and Hinckley defeated LeMesurier, 6-3, 10-8, 4-6, 6-4 in the final.

SENIOR DOUBLES—Twenty-two pairs entered. Denison and S. Fiskén, C. Patterson and C. Martin, W. Patterson and J. Ross were left in the third round. Fiskén and Dennison beat C. Patterson and Martin (6-3, 6-1), and finally Fiskén and Winchester (vice Denison) beat W. Patterson and J. Ross, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3, 8-6.

JUNIOR SINGLES—Sixteen entered. Virden and Stratton won in the third round and Virden won the final by defeating Stratton, 6-4, 7-5, 7-5.

JUNIOR DOUBLES—Nine pairs entered. Virden and Welsh defeated Saunders and Stratton, 6-1, 6-4, 0-6, 6-0.

Visit from Mr. Nightingale.

Just after School closed for the holidays we had the pleasure of welcoming Mr. Nightingale, now Headmaster of Westward Ho, Edmonton, Alta., who was for so many years connected with T. C. S. and for whom many generations of Old Boys have the warmest affection. Mrs. Nightingale had come down a few weeks before, and Miss Rigby had given an afternoon tea in her honour. We are only sorry Mr. Nightingale's visit came after the School closed, though it was unavoidable that this should be the case. He received a hearty welcome from the few who were still remaining at the School.

Coronation Honours.

Very general satisfaction was felt at the School when we found that in the list of Coronation honours Dr. William Osler had been made a baronet. The Headmaster cabled congratulations in the name of his old School.

Obituary.

JAMES FREDERICK EATON: Very general sorrow was felt when the news reached us in the middle of last term of the death of Jamie Eaton. Always a delicate boy he had been growing much stronger of late and there was every hope he was outgrowing the heart trouble which had been with him all his life, but it was not to be so, and he died in Philadelphia after a short illness. He was a boy of gentle, patient disposition, much liked by all who were brought into contact with him, and his success in his work was remarkable, considering how he was handicapped by repeated illnesses. To his mother and all the other members of the family we tender our most sincere sympathy. A short memorial service was held in the School Chapel on the receipt of the news of his death.

JAMES MARK WENLEY.—The news of the sudden and instantaneous death by accident of Jim Wenley which reached us at the end of last term came as a great shock to all who knew him. He had a brilliant career at the School and there was every reason to believe that the promise of that career would be fulfilled in his life. To Professor and Mrs. Wenley who are very well known at T. C. S. we desire to express our most sincere sympathy. A short memorial service was held in the School Chapel after we had heard the news of his death.

Preachers in Chapel.

During the Trinity Term we had the advantage of sermons from the Rev. J. R. Moore, an Old Boy of the School, now rector of St. George's and St. Margaret's, Toronto; the Rev. Canon Spragge, rector of Cobourg; and the Rev. Canon Plumtree, rector of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto. We had hoped to have had the Rev. Professor Cosgrave of Trinity College with us for one Sunday, but he was unfortunately taken ill and unable to come. We were however fortunate enough to have a visit on the Sunday he was to have been with us from the Rev. A. E. Wykes, rector of St. Stephen's the Martyr, Liverpool, England, and he was good enough to take Professor Cosgrave's place.

ORDINATIONS.

Amongst those ordained on Trinity Sunday were Victor C. Spencer B.A of Trinity College, and Mr. Pratt, who was for a short time a master at the School.

OLD BOYS AT WINNIPEG.

The T. C. S. Old Boys' Association played their annual cricket match with the U. C. C. Old Boys on Coronation Day, winning by 122 to 101. The T. C. S. Old Boy team consisted of Loucks, Conplin, Morris, Brown, Marks, Helliwell, Burbidge, Campbell, Ince and Merrick.

An Experience in Camping.

THERE are few nicer things to do in the summer time than camping. This is partly because it is such a healthy invigorating life. The following is a short account of a few personal experiences which happened to me.

I was camping up on Balsam Lake, the first and largest of a string known as the Kawartha Lakes, when I received an invitation to go to a regatta dance at Sturgeon Point. This is a place about fifteen miles away on another lake. I started out with two other boys at five o'clock on Monday morning with two canoes and a dunnage bag filled with blankets. We paddled about two and a half miles and then came to locks over which we had to portage. After accomplishing this task we went straight on for another three and a half miles which brought us to that fast and exciting city known as Fenelon Falls. The falls are just the enormous length of two and a half feet and you reach them by a train which goes twenty miles an hour—if the hour is long enough. But unfortunately, unless someone gets out to push behind, the hour is only long enough for the train to go—. But I wont give the train away and will leave you to imagine the speed. Well, as I was saying, at this fast and exciting city we had breakfast, and were joined by two others who were going to the same place as we were. There was a small river leading from Fenelon Falls into the next lake and just as we were starting to go down we were told we wouldn't be able to get through on account of a jam of logs belonging to somebody or other who had quite obviously overlooked the fact that we wished to get through, so we had to carry the canoes and the dunnage about a mile down to the mouth of the river, then we started off to paddle the remaining eight or nine miles to Sturgeon Point. We just got there in time to have dinner and go to see the regatta. There was a motor boat race won by a sort of half breed cross between a motor boat and a hydroplane. After the regatta was over we boys (young men) had two and a half hours with nothing to do. We got our canoes into a boat house, started for supper, and then for a swim. We had just got dressed when one of the others remarked that he had been thinking. Now as this was an impossibility he was promptly sat on, and told that little boys should be seen and not heard. We cleaned up and walked the half mile or so to the house where we were going to try and dance. Everything went well until about the ninth dance when I slipped and fell on the edge of the verandah, and, whether by accident or design cut my ankle. I immediately became a person demanding great admiration and sincere sympathy. All kinds of restoratives were offered from liver pills to hair tonic, and I was very much afraid I sould have to do something energetic to get rid of the dear children. We stopped dancing about 2:30 when someone remarked that there was a person sitting in a motor car out on the lawn. Lights were brought but it was too late, for on investigation the car was found to be empty. Immediately people began to guess who the intruder was and someone guessed me! How can people be so idiotic? We then got our canoes out and paddled about half a mile up the shore to find a place to bunk for the rest of the night. We reached a nice spot, spread our blankets on the ground and retired to rest. It seemed to me I had only been to sleep five minutes when I dreamed I was having my face washed (for a wonder) and woke up to find it was raining. I aroused the others and we went under the shelter of some trees to have breakfast. I was standing with one leg out of my oilskins and the other in, no shirt on and a sou'wester on my head, eating breakfast and feeling miserable. Thank goodness nobody had a camera. By and by the sun came out and we had a swim and felt much better. The other two took one of the canoes and the dunnage and made rather a crooked bee line for camp while I went for my two passengers. During the wait for them on the wharf I was cornered by two Indian relic hunters. They were both dressed in seedy frock coats and dirty white bow ties. They started telling me of their finds and discoveries of the past hundred years. At length one of them said,—“The other day I found an Indian skull with a tomahawk stuck in the left side about two inches above the ear. Only two bones had been broken and the skin had healed before he died. Now don't you agree with me that the poor fellow had obviously suffered from a declivity of the interstices?” “Doubtless,” I answered, “but it is never good to come to such an obvious conclusion as that too soon or it might prove fatal.” They left looking rather annoyed and I believe they thought I didn't know anything about it. How silly of them to think! Presently my passengers came along and we all paddled home and lived happily ever after.

Dog-gerel.

BY KATIE.

In Port Hope Ont. quite near Toront--O sixty miles away,
 Is T. C. S. which is no less
 Renowned for work than play.

On campus green the boys are seen,
 Or on the skating rink
 In manly sport of every sort—
 They learn to act and think.

They all go down into the town
 On every holiday;
 The prices rise on shirts and ties
 In an alarming way.

Down to the Tuck just like a buck
 By instinct new boys go;
 To get a place e'en old boys race
 They love the old shop so.

But on the morn haggard and worn
 Onward through life they go—
 They hate to see their room mates' glee
 And seek the realms below.

Many a one who's helped to run
 This School upon the hill
 Has gained renown beyond the town
 For patience and for skill.

The pupils too have not a few
 Won fame in foreign clime;
 There's Bishop Brent who long has lent
 The Philippines his time.

We wont forget our Baronet—
 Sir William Osler, Bart.
 Long to survive his 'Forty-five'
 Is hoped by every heart.

In Church or State whatever fate
 May overtake our boys,
 They play the game but not for fame,
 Through all life's griefs and joys.

OUR SUITS & OVERCOATS

Are known throughout this district for absolute dependability of wear and good style.

The Sweater and Underwear Departments are amongst the most important of this business. This season's values are better than before, and mean largely increased sales.

We place before our customer's such a display of Shirts and Neckwear as is recognized as authoritative in indicating the latest style tendencies.

A positive assurance of satisfaction is attached to the purchase of every article bought here.
