PREFACE

King's Regulations and Orders, both Imperial and Canadian, demand that an Historical Record of each unit in His Majesty's Service be kept.

The present volume contains a record, in accordance with these requirements, of THE SEVENTY-SIXTH OVERSEAS BATTALION of the CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES, from the authorization of the Battalion to its being ordered on Overseas Service, 1916.

By permission the Compiler dedicates this first volume of the records to:

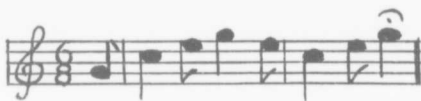

(1) Major-General the Hon. Sir Sam Hughes, K.C.B., Minister of Militia and Defence, to whose indomitable spirit, unflagging energy and whole-hearted devotion to the Empire's cause in this War—beginning in the almost magical calling into being of Valcartier Camp and the despatch of Canada's first heroic Contingent, and continued with undiminished vigor and determination as the Call of the Motherland found a ready response in Her Sons in Canada—much of the success which has attended our efforts in the Great Conflict is due; and

(2) Lieut.-Colonel J. Ballantine, D.S.O., and the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Battalion, with the earnest prayer that the SEVENTY-SIXTH, under the command and guidance of the Colonel and his Officers may be enabled to emulate the example of its earlier called Comrades, and add a later page to this history of duty nobly done, and of Victory bravely won, so that future generations of Canadians may look back with pride to this among the many Battalions sent forth from the Dominion, as they enjoy, in quiet days and peaceful homes, a "Britannica Pax," won for them by the devotion and self-sacrifice of those who as members of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces bore the burden and heat of the struggle, and may re-read with joy these pages in those serener hours which shall be theirs.

ERNEST R. J. BIGGS.

VALCARTIER

Again the white tents glisten against the glorious dawn,
 Again the bugles echo across the woodland lawn;
 The startled foals cease romping, the wild life hides in fear—
 But my heart is sad and lonesome for the Men of Yesteryear.

They gathered in their thousands, a goodly, valiant host,
 From the shoreland of Cape Breton, from the far-flung western coast,
 From the highways and the byways, busy mart and lonely mere,
 Came that band of brave crusaders, came the Men of Yesteryear.

They awoke this sleepy hollow where the searching feet of Change
 Had found their way but seldom. As they gathered to the range
 They sang of Tipperary, and with hearts that knew no fear,
 They yearned for coming battles, did the Men of Yesteryear.

They disturbed the solemn mountains with the thunder of their guns;
 We heard the tramp of marching feet on every road that runs
 Along this beauteous valley. By the river winding clear
 They laughed and learned and labored, did the Men of Yesteryear.

The tents were struck 'ere dawning. Beneath a starry sky,
 They marched away to Old Quebec to hear their last good-bye,
 The streets were filled with khaki and on the crowded pier,
 Were tearwet eyes and breaking hearts, O Men of Yesteryear.

O gallant, little army, the months have passed away,
 And bravely have ye borne yourselves in many a cruel fray;
 But many a gay, young comrade who laughed and labored here,
 Sleeps beneath the soil of Flanders, O Men of Yesteryear.

O sacred soils of Flanders, red altar of our pride,
 Historic field of Langemarck, whereon they fought and died;
 There were none that fought more bravely or their honor held more dear
 Than the men who lit their campfires in this valley Yesteryear.

They have writ another chapter on our envied scroll of fame,
 They have set the Empire ringing with our proud Dominion's name;
 But they paid a costly quittance and we with sigh and tear.
 We, too, must pay our reckoning, O Men of Yesteryear.

Once more the heavy lorries plough up Valcartier hill,
 Once more within the dust lines the troop-horse whinnies shrill;
 And khaki figures come and go. Their sharp commands I hear.
 But I see a phantom army. 'Tis the Men of Yesteryear.

And in the night when stars are out above the pine-ringed plain,
 I seem to hear the tramp of those who will not come again;
 The sound of marching heroes, with shining eyes sincere,
 Who go to meet their Captain, the Men of Yesteryear.

O, men who left Valcartier, God rest your valiant shades,
 That walk, amid the ghostly tents and haunt the lonely glades;
 When the last, loud trump is sounding and the Warrior Hosts appear,
 He shall number you among them, O Men of Yesteryear.

HISTORY OF THE SEVENTY-SIXTH OVERSEAS BATTALION C.E.F.

"STAND FAST"

"The Manhood of Canada was tested and came out pure unadulterated gold."

When war was declared, in August, 1914, between Great Britain and Germany, "the whole of Canada as one man rose and said they wished to take part in it, from Atlantic to Pacific" (Sir G. Perley). On the 1st of August, Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, sent a secret telegram to the British Government announcing Canada's desire to send an Expeditionary force if war should ensue. This offer was not accepted until Aug. 6th, but already, within indeed a few hours of the declaration of war, offers of service of every kind came pouring in to Ottawa, recruiting was begun officially on the 7th, and within six weeks 35,000 men had been made ready to embark. Early in October a fleet of transports took them safely across to England, when they entrained for Salisbury Plain, there to spend several months under climatic conditions of the worst character, until in February they moved to France, arriving "somewhere" on the 15th.

Among these troops was the gallant 4th Battalion, whose share in the deathless story of Ypres, when "the blustering Goliath of the world met his David, and he was a Canadian" (Bp. W. Ingram, of London), makes the hearts of the 76th pulsate more quickly, as they realize that they are commanded by one who helped to "save the situation," Lt. Col. J. Ballantine, then Major of the 4th Battalion C.E.F., who was mentioned in despatches and awarded the D.S.O. See G.O. (Canada) 105 of 15th Aug., 1915.

WAR OFFICE, 23rd June, 1915.

His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned honours and rewards for distinguished service in the field, with effect from 3rd June, 1915, inclusive:

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

MAJOR J. BALLANTINE, 4TH CANADIAN BATTALION.

But while the first Contingent had thus reached the battlefields of Flanders and France, Canada continued to evince a steadfast determination to bear her share of responsibility in the Empire's war. Preparations were accordingly made early in October to raise a Second Contingent of 25,000 men, followed by orders in Jan., 1915, for a third contingent of 35,000, and as each contingent moved forward fresh supplies were enrolled, a fourth contingent being ordered on March 17 of 25,000, and in June 8th, orders were issued from Ottawa for the raising of a 5th contingent of 35,000 men. See G.O. 103a. Appendix 3.

The second Divisional area was allotted three battalions, subsequently numbered 74th, 75th and 76th, the last-named to be recruited from Militia Units outside Toronto. To the command of this new Overseas Infantry Battalion, Major J. Ballantine, D.S.O., at that time on sick furlough in Canada, was nominated on June 30th, (2D.34-7-44), and recruiting was taken up vigorously throughout the assigned area, the quotas to be raised for the Battalion being thus apportioned:

- 4th Infantry Brigade.—13th Royal Regiment.
 19th Lincoln Regiment.
 38th Reg't. (Dufferin Rifles of Canada).
 91st Reg't. (Canadian Highlanders).
- 5th Infantry Brigade.—37th Reg't. (Haldimand Rifles).
 39th Reg't. (Norfolk Rifles).
 44th Lincoln and Welland Reg't.

- 14th Infantry Brigade.—23rd Reg't. (The Northern Pioneers).
 31st Grey Reg't.
 35th Reg't (Simcoe Foresters).
- 22nd Infantry Brigade.—20th Reg't. (Halton Rifles).
 34th Ontario Reg't.
- Unbrigaded.—51st Reg't. (Soo Rifles), and 97th Reg't. (Algonquin Rifles).

On July 22nd orders were received by the O.C.'s commanding the various quotas that the Battalion would mobilize at Niagara Camp on July 28th-30th.

Meanwhile the O.C., Lt.-Col. J. Ballantine had been occupied in selecting his Staff Officers, etc., as follows:

THE SEVENTY-SIXTH IS BEST

Our country has sent many men
To fight across the sea,
And they were all most gallant lads
As all of us agree.
But there are many yet to go
And out of all the rest
The fact is undisputed that
The Seventy-Sixth is best.

This is no empty, idle boast,
For they are tried and true,
And prove their capability
In everything they do;
When they have met the enemy
And there put to the test,
Then all the world will recognize
The Seventy-Sixth is best.

Perhaps a few are rough and tough
Or over fond of fun,
But what our country needs just now
Is the man behind the gun;
In this, as in all other things,
Should they be sorely pressed,
They'll prove anew, this fact is true
The Seventy-Sixth is best.

No task is ever too severe
For them to undertake,
No record set by other men
Too hard for them to break;
And officers and men alike
Feel 'neath each manly breast,
A pride in knowledge of this fact
The Seventy-Sixth is best.

It may be hard to leave their homes
And those they love so dear,
But duty's call they will obey
And face without a fear
Whate'er may confront them—
And if they're laid to rest
The last thought they will have is that
The Seventy-Sixth is best.

TRAINING AT CAMP NIAGARA

I CONGRATULATE you upon the splendid Camp at Niagara. The physique, spirit and bearing of the men are magnificent. Sanitary and other arrangements are excellent."

"By direct instructions of the Hon. The Minister of Militia and Defence, the above message from The Right Hon. Sir Robert Borden, G.C.M.G., etc., Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada, is published in Camp Orders No. 560, dated Sept. 28, 1915, for the information of all concerned."

Here at once is a telling testimony to the fact that the many thousands of men, drawn from every sphere of social and industrial life, in response to the call of King and Country, in some mysterious way—yet not mysterious to those "in the know"—had, in the short period of two months, been transmuted from what, militarily, we may call the base metal of civil life, into the pure gold of efficient soldiers of the Dominion and Empire.

To those, to whose lot was entrusted the training and preparation of the heterogeneous units, who, as a "motley crew came into Camp about two months ago," the period had been one of endless anxiety, yet of ever-increasing exultation, as from Section Commander to Company Commanding Officer, and from Company Commanding Officer to O.C. of the Battalion, each and every one had worked from Reveille to Last Post to bring his Section, Platoon, Company and Battalion into a state of such efficiency as would justify its (The Battalion's) early call to the front—the objective of every man.

"Form fours, right!" "Halt!" Why did you say "Quick March" when the men were marking time? "Present Arms!" "For Heaven's sake, don't climb up your rifle—you there in the rear rank." "Now then, 'D' Co., jump to it. Advance in fours from the right." "Oh, extend everywhere." Such were the orders, or mis-orders, coupled with many a muttered retort or outspoken criticism (only by officers—please note) with which the days were filled, and the nights made restless. Yet through it all—even when trench digging, Bombing, Physical Drill, at 6.15 a.m. N.B., Bayonet Exercise, Sapping and Mining, were super-added to the day's work, while dreary Lectures from recently joined Subs. were an infliction almost too soporific to keep the hearer's lively—the work was done, men, non-coms. and officers alike felt the exhilaration of the training, and were ready to follow the Col. into the very jaws, aye, and right through to a cleansing end, of the Hell of Prussian Militarism.

"To follow," we said. The Battalion had indeed learned to follow. Week by week from Aug. 20th there had been Route Marches to Queenston Heights, at first bemoaned, then suffered, at last almost eagerly looked forward to. But when on Oct. 2, through Camp Orders No. 602, "The Officer Commanding 2nd. Division desires to congratulate all ranks on the splendid showing made in the route march last Friday," and singled out certain Battalions as specially worthy of a meed of praise, the spirit of the 76th revived and for a period, variously named according to taste, as 7 days or 168 hours, or a week, preparations were made to "beat the band" and "bust all records."

We saw the result! All records went by the board, but whatever the Poet of the Battalion may, in his most afflated hours, suggest, there was one and only one who led the Battalion on that record-breaking day—Oh! no! you're wrong! No! I assure you it wasn't the Bandmaster, but it was the Colonel who was climbing (metaphorically speaking) over the heads of Band and Bandmaster, assisted by a gentle shove from the rear by No. 9 Platoon.

Thus, day by day, week by week, the training of the Battalion was carried on, with a rest day on Sunday, which, as soon as we had been marched off Church Parade, was a continuous downpour of rain—certified for 8 weeks by the astronomer or astrologer, or some other meteorological authority—and we were forced to rest and yet Squad, Platoon, Company, Battalion, Brigade, and Divisional training—with all the "side dishes" before mentioned, and many others, such as Bombing, sandwiched with Inoculation, and "Bathing Parades" with a slice of Vaccination between, and "Musketry" at the Chautauqua Ranges, all served the one and supreme purpose of our enlistment; to make us man for man better physically, morally and, pray God, spiritually, than the individual Hun."

Route marches, of which we have already spoken, were an almost unwearying joy. They began on Aug. 20th and had so far captivated the physical and mental aspirations of the men, that when, on Oct. 15th, by Div. Order No. 694, "Attention is directed to the number of men, who, although suffering injuries, pluckily resumed their march yesterday. All ranks are to be congratulated for their spirit and determination," another drop—and that a large one—was added to the cup of rejoicing and satisfaction which the Battalion had experienced on Oct. 2nd.

It would have been a thing incredible that such a body of men, who had been in training for so long, should pass from their Camp of Instruction unreviewed. And thus it was that the Camp Battalions were honoured three times by Reviews: (1) By the Minister of Militia; (2) by Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada, and (3) lastly, by H.R.H. The Governor-General of Canada.

Probably no more glorious day ever broke over Niagara Common than did the early dawn of Sept. 22nd. Before Reveille was sounded, there was a perceptible hum of life in the lines, and when at last the Battalion Parade "Fall in" rang out, every detail of equipment and accoutrement, as well as personal clothing, was cleaned and polished to the limit. The Battalion was placed in the Second Brigade, and as it swung by in column of companies, a spontaneous cry arose from the Inspecting Officer, and was echoed by the onlookers, both military and civil, "There goes the best." The Minister of Militia, as he took the salute, beamed his satisfaction and pleasure at the bearing of the Battalion, and turning to the many returned heroes from the Front, said, "Did you see Ballantine's Brigade go by?"

After the Division had returned in close column, the various Battalions were marched to their Camps, and shortly after, the Minister of Militia motored over to the Ante-Room of the 76th, there to congratulate the O.C. and the Officers on the bearing of the Battalion, and to repeat his desire—already informally expressed—that the Battalion should proceed to the Front as a Unit.

In the Battalion orders of the following day the feelings of the Commanding Officer were thus expressed: D.O. Pt. 1, 23rd Sept. 1915:

"The Commanding Officer wishes to congratulate all ranks on the splendid appearance of the Battalion during the Review on Wednesday, which evoked the highest praise from Major General Sir Sam Hughes and Officers of the Headquarters' Staff. He trusts that at the Review on Saturday, by Sir Robert Borden, the Regiment will make a similar showing."

This confidence and trust in the Officers and men of his Battalion was amply justified on the following Saturday. Although called for 10 a.m., it was nearly noon when the Parade began to move, so that it was only possible to march past in Column, yet so well did the Battalions carry themselves, that the message which heads this section of the History of the Battalion was despatched by Sir Robert Borden through the Minister of Militia and Defence to the Camp.

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE FROM SIR ROBERT BORDEN

By direct instructions of the Hon. the Minister of Militia and Defence, the following message from Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada, is published for the information of all concerned.:

"I congratulate you upon the splendid Camp at Niagara. The physique, spirit and bearing of the men are magnificent. Sanitary and other arrangements are excellent."—Camp Orders No. 560, of Sept. 28th, 1915.

Once more, on Oct. 7th, the troops in Camp were reviewed, this being the most notable of the three, as His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, was the reviewing Officer. The various batteries of Artillery and three Brigades of Infantry passed the saluting base, making again a splendid appearance, and impressing the Governor-General very greatly.

In after Orders of Oct. 7th, 1915, by the Camp Commandant, Col. W. A. Logie, the following congratulatory message from His Royal Highness was issued:

"The Camp Commandant is commanded by Field Marshal His Royal Highness, Arthur W. P. A. Duke of Connaught and of Strathearn, K.G., etc., Governor-General of Canada, to promulgate the following order of His Royal Highness:

"I congratulate the Officer Commanding upon the splendid spirit, bearing, and physique of the Officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Overseas forces Canadian Expeditionary Force, concentrated at Niagara Camp, upon the very evident keenness and earnestness of all ranks to acquire proficiency, and upon the progress they have made in their training, particularly those units which have been only a short time in Camp.

DRAFT FOR THE 37TH OVERSEAS BATTALION.

Oct. 21st.	Rank and File.		71
------------	---------------------	--	----

RE-INFORCING DRAFT FOR OVERSEAS

On August 1st, word was received from Headquarters that the 76th was to supply a draft for re-inforcing the Overseas Battalions of 5 Lieutenants, 8 Sergeants, 2 Buglers, 8 Corporals and 232 Rank and File, a total of 255 all ranks.

Though the O.C. would have greatly preferred to have taken his Battalion overseas intact, yet the need of fresh drafts of men to fill up vacancies caused by "casualties" was so great, that steps were at once taken to select, train and equip the quota asked for. Lieutenants H. C. Young, W. O. Brown, W. H. Fair, A. C. Bowles and C. E. H. Thomas were selected by Colonel Ballantine as Officers of the Draft, but owing to the resignation of Lieut. W. H. Fair, the name of Lieut. N. Nicholson was submitted in his place and accepted, and after two months strenuous training, the Draft left Camp for England on Thursday, Sept. 30th.

The previous night was one long to be remembered. At half-past four the draft paraded and were addressed by the Camp Chaplain, who presented a Bible to each man. At supper they were the honoured guests of the Battalion, objects alike of keen solicitude for their physical welfare, and of envy of their good fortune. The good wishes of the Colonel, Officers and Men of the 76th were conveyed to them with considerable feeling by the Colonel, who, in the course of his remarks, said, "You are going overseas to be the vanguard and, for a while, the representatives of the 76th Battalion, and you have in your keeping the honour and the good name of this, one of the best Battalions in Canada. This honour and good name is something that cannot be bought save at the cost of personal effort and sacrifice. Into your keeping we entrust it as you go to "The Front," and we who are left behind will do all in our power to raise the standard of the Battalion still higher if possible. When you are called on to fight, fight hard, and may God in His love and mercy guide you through all."

The evening was spent in various forms of amusement, a perambulation of the Camp being a leading feature, and next morning saw the Draft embark for Toronto and "Further," leaving us a little sad, a trifle jealous because we were not going for a while.

They were a fine body of officers and men, and will undoubtedly play their part with credit to the Battalion whence they were drafted.

On arriving at Toronto they were met by the Chaplain who wished them God speed and said good-bye as they entrained for Quebec.

MARCH TO HAMILTON

EARLY in October it was made known that the Battalion would winter in Barrie, Collingwood and Orillia, "A" Co. going to Collingwood, "B" to Orillia, and the remainder to Barrie. On the 21st Daily Order No. 716 stated, "No further leave to Officers, or passes to N.C.O.'s or men can be granted from, and including, this date, etc. This is owing to the movement of troops commencing on the 25th inst.

A "Memorandum for the movement of troops of the Overseas Forces from Niagara-on-the-Lake to Toronto—Autumn, 1915," was issued, in which the 76th was scheduled to leave on Wednesday, Nov. 3rd.

On Tuesday, Nov. 2nd, the Colonel and Officers entertained the Sergeants of the Battalion, first at the "Kitchener" Moving Picture Theatre, where a splendid programme was put on, and afterwards at a "Farewell to Niagara" supper in Camp.

The date of departure was changed, owing to the 58th Battalion joining in the march, to Thursday Nov. 4, and everything was in readiness early that morning for the Battalion to move. There was a fine rain falling as Reveille sounded, but no one seemed to give it a thought, being keyed up to concert pitch for the march to St. Catharines and onwards. Suddenly a bolt fell from the blue, when a telegram reached the Colonel ordering the Battalion to "Stand fast" for the day, as weather conditions on the line of march had halted the 81st Battalion at Grimsby, and the whole movement was delayed for a day. It was a very great disappointment to all, but promptly arrangements were made to entertain the men and herein the Band did yeoman service, providing a concert in the afternoon in the Y.M.C.A. tent, and one at night in the Town Hall. Billets were also provided in various public institutions for the men to sleep, and so the hours passed until at mid-day on the 5th November, the "Parade" sounded and the Battalion started on its march to winter quarters. As it swung along the road it suddenly became apparent that the training in route marching at Camp was bearing fruit, for as mile by mile was reeled off and "times" were taken, it was found that the column was eating up the distance at the steady rate of a mile in 15 minutes. Without showing the least sign of fatigue, the Battalion swung into St. Catharines in record time and proceeded to the Armouries in the grounds of which the Camp was pitched. Many of the men, especially those of "A" and "B" Companies, had been looking forward to spending Sunday in Hamilton, where indeed preparations had been specially made for our reception, and in order to obviate disappointment the Colonel proposed to the men that the 76th should make the two marches—to Grimsby and on to Hamilton—on the one day, Saturday. The suggestion was hailed with delight, but unfortunately it was found impossible to carry it out, so we had to content ourselves with the schedule which meant out to Grimsby on Saturday, and halt there on Sunday.

Once more the men moved with a swing and determination which augured well for a quick march, and a second record went by the board as we marched into Camp at Grimsby Park.

On Sunday we had the usual Church Parade and afterwards were free to spend the rest of the day as we would, there being only one restriction, a somewhat unexpected one, viz., no one was allowed out of Camp grounds.

A sumptuous dinner was provided by the ladies of Grimsby and was followed by an equally splendid supper, chicken pies and cakes in abundance being added to the ordinary day's rations.

Monday morning saw everyone early astir for the last lap of the route, with Hamilton as the objective, and so well did the men acquit themselves that almost an hour before the citizens of Hamilton expected them, the head of the column entered the suburbs of the city, and the strains of the combination March, "Bab el-Mandeb," were heard as the Battalion made its way along the streets.

Word of its arrival was hurriedly passed on and ere we reached "The Armouries" the streets were thronged with enthusiastic crowds, who cheered the Battalion on its way—having on this last trek added another to its marching laurels and setting a record for marching which will stand for some time.

CAMP ORDERS BY COL. W. A. LOGIE, COMMANDANT, EXHIBITION CAMP TORONTO,
Wednesday, Nov. 10, 1915.

MARCH NIAGARA TO TORONTO.

The Officer Commanding 2nd Division noted with great pride and satisfaction the magnificent spirit and "esprit de corps" shown during the tactical movement of troops from Niagara to Toronto.

Where all did so well, it would be unfair to select particular Battalions.

Any Battalion that completed the march without a single casualty can rest assured the performance is of which the oldest seasoned soldiers of any country might well be proud.

Let this spirit, which has so splendidly shown itself, continue; and let Battalions jealously guard their reputations thus established.

TRAINING IN WINTER QUARTERS

THE Battalion was given a day's halt at Hamilton, and on Wednesday, Nov. 10th, entrained for Winter Quarters at Barrie, etc. Halts on the journey were made at Georgetown—where a lavish supply of provisions was brought by the ladies of the town for the men—and at Cookstown, which had done so well in recruiting. The band played selections at both places, much to the delight of the townsfolk.

On reaching Allandale Junction, the left half Battalion, which was to winter in Barrie, detrained, and the Colonel was greeted officially by the Mayor and Corporation of Barrie (J. H. Craig, Esq., Mayor); the Parliamentary Representative of the Riding of South Simcoe (W. A. Boys, Esq., K.C.), and the Representatives of the various local public bodies.

Without loss of time the troops formed column of route and preceded by the official representatives, Boy Scouts, Cadet Corps, etc., marched to the Armouries in Queen's Park, making a circuit of the principal streets of the town.

On arriving at the Park addresses of welcome were delivered by the Mayor of Barrie, and Mr. Boys, M.P., after which the men were entertained by the ladies of the town at dinner in their Mess Rooms.

Reassembling on the East of the Armouries after dinner the Colonel, in a very few but most telling sentences, called on the men to respond to the trust and confidence reposed in them, and to prove themselves worthy of the regard and esteem of the townsfolk.

Quickly settling down into their new Quarters the work of training was carried steadily on, the weather, up till Xmas, keeping sufficiently open to enable tactical exercises to be worked out and practical schemes of attack and defence to be studied, and, even after a more rigorous season of snow, frost and intense cold set in, the desire to attain proficiency and to satisfy the rigorous requirements of the O.C., so enthused the rank and file, that, through the many weeks of varying climatic conditions, snow, thaw, slush, frost, ice (skating rink quality), flurries and heavy fall, there was nothing but a ready response to the commands of Company Officers and their N.C.O.'s when the men were called out to follow the Colonel in Route Marches, or to engage in the various field exercises of an intensely practical character which the O.C. devised, whether at Shell Trap Farm, or Lake Shore Road, away to Midhurst or hiking along the Penetang Road.

Learning by our mistakes, the half Battalion in Barrie and the Companies in Orillia and Collingwood steadily progressed, and it was with a confidence in their ability to stand any test, that the visit of the G.O.C. 2nd Division Brig.-Gen. W. A. Logie, on Feb. 4th, 1916, to inspect the Battalion was looked forward to with the hope that it would seal the 76th with the much wished for word of approval, "Fit and ready for Overseas."

That the outlying Companies and the Headquarters Parade earned this encomium, can hardly be doubted, although owing to the state of the parade ground at Barrie little drill could be performed, yet at Collingwood and Orillia intense satisfaction was given to the G.O.C. by the Companies and he expressed himself as satisfied with the past work and present condition of the Battalion.

The War Office in England having asked the Government of Canada for an immediate despatch of 14 Battalions to the Old Land, the 76th are polishing up and awaiting the expected call. "Veniat quam celerrime."

RECREATIONS, SPORTS, ETC.

"What are we to do with the men during their free hours?"

THIS is perhaps, and especially in Camps, one of the most difficult questions to answer satisfactorily. Yet we venture to think that the question was most satisfactorily answered in the case of the 76th Battalion. Ever keeping uppermost in his mind the trinity of his men's make-up, the O.C. gave his attention to the threefold training whereby each of his men should be, as individuals, superior to the Hun, etc., etc., enemy. Athletics and athletic contests were therefore provided for the men, and on Aug. 10th were placed under the care of Capt. Biggs.

The Y.M.C.A. did yeoman service in this respect, while from the Sportsmen's League the Battalion received athletic outfits for Quoits, Baseball, Football, etc., in ample supply. We gladly pay our tribute to them and wish every success to the Sportsmen's Battalion, 180th, in its splendid endeavour to raise another—distinctive—unit for service in the C.E.F.

Every afternoon as soon as "Dismiss" was sounded, hurrying figures, in athletic attire, could be seen dashing to the "Theatre de Combat," in close proximity to the Y.M.C.A. home, and "sprints" or "dashes," middle distances races, or longer tests of endurance were all indulged in, the 76th winning its share of laurels.

Inter-battalion leagues were instituted in Baseball and Football, and though we may have covered ourselves more with glory than in the former, yet in the latter we brought honour to the Battalion, so that in Daily Orders No. 367, of Sept. 8, 1915, we read with pride the following announcement:

"The C.O. and Officers of the 76th Battalion hear with much pleasure and interest that the Regimental team has won the Championship, and extend heartiest congratulations to the team."

All this was well for the outdoor life of the Battalion, but the second part of that trinity, which the O.C. was so well guarding, must be cared for. And so to while away the hours between supper and "first post," concerts were arranged and proved a wondrous incentive to better—if not greater—effort, on the part of individual performers, quartettes, and Band. May we here be permitted to speak of the Band? With the men who, in the enthusiasm of the moment, had valiantly stepped forward to be enrolled as Musicians, when on the 30th July the Colonel began the organization of his Battalion, Bandmaster Hughes had worked from a little before Reveille until (with words "horribile dictu") long after "Retreat." Yet day by day we all felt that a brighter tone, a more lilting tune, a snappier cadence was given us by "Our Band," and after several "overtures," "marches," "selections," had been given at the Concerts, at last the chrysalis of immaturity was broken and in fuller life and more splendid vigour, with harmony regnant and interpretation—to a layman—perfect, Our Band played and the Battalion burst itself in cheering, as it realized what a Band means to a Battalion.

But success always invites competition, and as Thanksgiving Day drew near, with all its splendid opportunities for sinking rank in the glory of a common rejoicing, the officers felt that insufficient recognition had been paid to their talents when Bandmaster Hughes was forming his band. To remove any possible probable doubt whatever as to the loss he had sustained, the Junior Major rallied his forces, called for and insisted on strenuous practice, and at length when the great Dominion Thanksgiving Day came and the Battalion were to "sit at meat" together, lead a parade around the camp, both before and after meat, which so aroused the musical talent deeply hidden in the twists of cornets, and valves of tenors, that the Regimental Band perforce followed The Band and tried, in vain, to play its wandering harmonies, while the Drum Major wielded his Boxing Glove Staff in wondrous time and measure.

On August 16th, there was held a function which appeals especially to every "Duke's son, Cook's son, son of a Belted Earl," or in Canada's parlance Bloomin' officer or Tommy.

A Red Cross Fête was to held and among the minor, very minor, attractions—because they were only spectacular not speculative monetarily—were exhibitions of drill, tug of war by Battalion teams, etc.

We entered a team—heavy weights, but untrained—and though we passed through the preliminary stages, we met our match in the final with the 35th—trained to a hair—who, thanks to that long (!) period of training, beat our boys.

When it became known that the Camp would shortly change its venue arrangements were made to hold a Battalion Athletic meeting. Once more the Sportsmen's League came to our help and donated medals for the contests.

In order that every man might play his part, it was arranged to hold Company contests on October 23rd, and Final Battalion contests on October 30th.

Great interest was taken in the Sports, the following events being arranged:

- 100 yards Dash.
- 220 yards Race.

AT BARRIE

The welcome given to the Half-Battalion when it marched into Barrie augured well for the social life of the men during their stay in Winter Quarters. But the first movement in that direction was made by the Colonel, who immediately set about organizing the recreations of the men.

While the open weather continued baseball was indulged in on the Park, to give way at last to the winter sport of Hockey. The 76th Battalion was entered in the O.H.A. both in the Intermediates and Juniors, a strong organization being elected as follows:

Up to Christmas, Concerts were given in the Town Hall by the Battalion, a special effort being made on Thursday, December 16th, when a splendid programme was prepared, Miss M. Boasi of Toronto coming up to assist us.

The attendance at the Battalion Concerts was excellent, but most disappointly meagre at the special concert. A Patriotic Euchre was arranged by Mrs. Ballantine assisted by the Officers wives on December 14th, and was fairly well patronized.

Meanwhile the various Churches, Fraternal Societies, etc., had vied with one another in entertaining the men at Oyster suppers, etc., while the Townspeople gave a Complimentary Dance to the Colonel and Officers of the Battalion. Under the auspices of the Military Committee of the Y.M.C.A. a branch for the men was opened under Messrs C. N. Palmer and J. Clarke, which proved of great usefulness to the men. The most important event in the social life of the Battalion was the inauguration of a Battalion Newspaper under the title of "The Barrack Bugle." The editorial chair was filled by Capt. G. M. Smythe, while Lieut. Quinn looked after the advertising and business department. That the venture has been a success in every way is acknowledged on all sides. The weekly issue is eagerly looked forward to, and its pages have proved a medium for the record of events which would be omitted in a formal history, yet which are often of equal importance to the welfare of the Battalion as those which are found in Battalion orders.

CAMP AFTER ORDER—

By BRIGADIER-GENERAL W. A. LOGIE, Commanding.
Administrative Staff.

The following message has been issued by His Majesty, the King who has given instructions that it be published in orders on December 25th:—

NO. 1—MESSAGE FROM HIS MAJESTY, THE KING:

“Another Christmas finds all the resources of the Empire still engaged in war, and I desire to convey on my own and on behalf of the Queen, a heartfelt Christmas greeting and our good wishes for the New Year to all who on sea and land, are upholding the honor of the British name.

“In the Officers and men of the Navy on whom the security of the Empire depends, I repose in common with all my subjects a trust that is absolute. On the Officers and men of my armies, whether now in France, in the East, or in the fields, I rely with an equal faith, confident that their devotion their valour, and their self sacrifice will, under God’s guidance, lead to victory, and an honourable peace.

“There are many of their comrades now, alas, in hospital and to those brave men also I desire, with the Queen, to express our deep gratitude and our earnest prayers for their recovery.

“Officers and men of the Navy and Army, another year is drawing to a close as it began in toil, bloodshed and suffering, but I rejoice to know that the goal to which you are striving draws nearer in sight.”

“May God bless you and all your undertakings.”

(Signed) GEORGE R.I.

APPENDIX I.

THE "SEVENTY-SIXTH"

It appears that the old "His Majesty's 76th Foot Regiment" was at Niagara in 1815, which knits us in a very marked manner to that old Line Battalion.

It is now the 2nd Battalion of the Duke of Wellington (West Riding Regiment), the 1st Battalion being 33rd Foot.

The crest is that of the late Duke of Wellington, with the motto in anescroll above, "Virtutis fortuna comes," (Success the companion of Valour) and the badge an Elephant, superscribed "Hindostan."

The honors on the colours are:—

"Dettingen," "Mysore," "Seringsapatam," "Ally Ghur," "Delhi, 1803," "Leswarree," "Deig," "Nive," "Peninsula," "Waterloo," "Alma," "Inkerman," "Sevastopol," "Abyssinnia."

The 76th Foot, nicknamed "The Immortals," in 1806, most of its men having been wounded or died in the ten or twelve years previously.

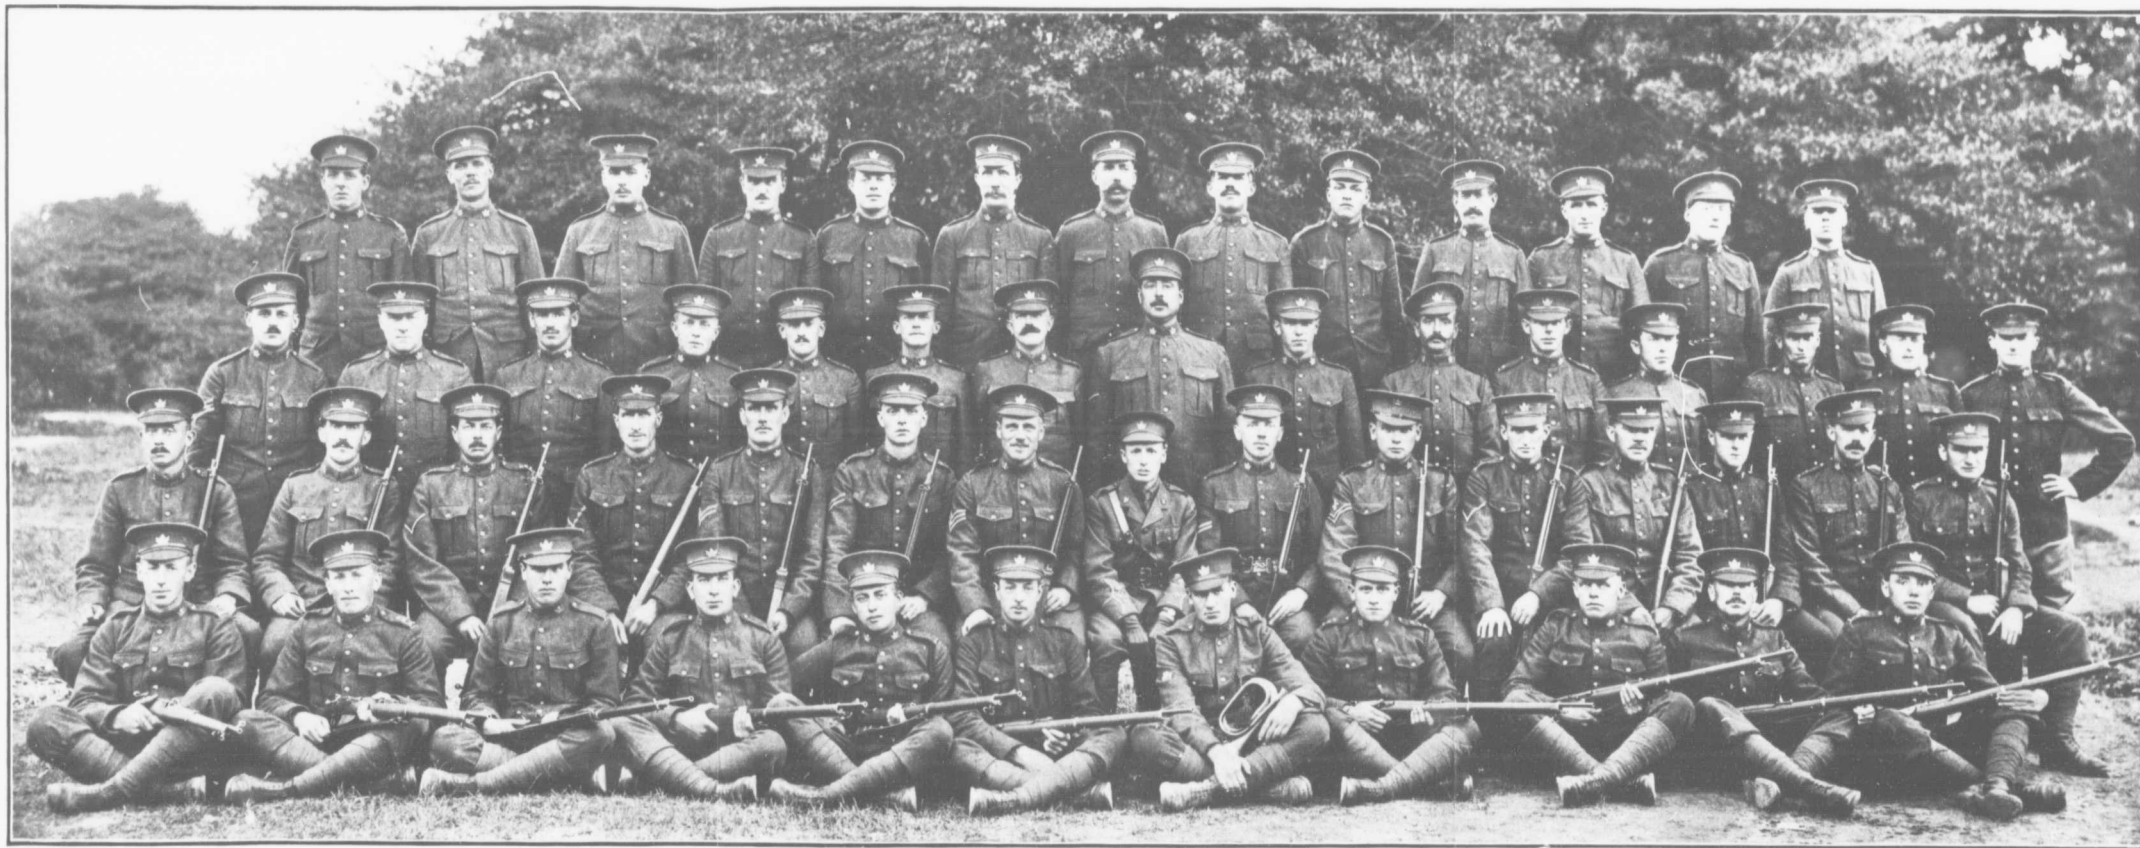

"The pigs" from its badge (an elephant).

"The Old Seven-and-sixpennies," from its number and a lieutenant's pay.

APPENDIX II.

THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER

The Distinguished Service Order, an order of military merit, without the titular appellation "Knight," was founded on the 6th September, 1886, by Queen Victoria, its object being to recognize the special services of officers in the army and navy. It is awarded only to officers (and naval military officials of officer rank, not including Indian native officers) for services in war. Often it is the reward of actual conspicuous gallantry under fire, but its purpose, as defined in the Royal Warrant instituting the order, is to reward "individual instances of meritorious or distinguished service in war;" and the same document declared that only those shall be eligible who have been mentioned "in despatches for meritorious or distinguished service in the field, or before the enemy."

The numbers of the order are unlimited, and its designation the letters D.S.O. It consists of one class only, who take precedence immediately after the 4th Class of the Royal Victorian Order.

The badge is a white and gold cross with a red centre bearing the imperial crown surrounded by a laurel wreath.

The ribbon is red edged with blue.
