MAIL ORDERS

We solicit orders from towns, which receive personal attention. The length of time taking to fill orders is governed very largely by how soon we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place or-

by us in the relation in which they are received,

ICE RACING ON THE RESTIGOUCHE

Campbellton Sportsmen Hold
An Interesting Meet on Friday.

CLOSE RACING

Friday afternoon saw all the people making their way to the ice track on the river, under the impression that good racing would be seen.

Besides our own local pacers,
entries were received from Bathurst and New Mills, giving promise of some keen and exciting finishes and the large crowd
were not disappointed.

Mr. Asa Landry acted as starter, the judges being Geo. St. Onge,
A. T. Hinton and Allan R. Wheeler. Time keepers, Cameron Adams and H. P. Doyle.

Close finishes were seen in the Free for all, and 2.30 classes, the second heat of the latter being a dandy, J. R. McKenzie's Colonel being beaten by a short head after leading all the way.

Storm King Jr. was too good for the others in the 3 minute class, winning easily from the field opposed to him. From his perform-

TRADE POSSIBILITIES

Under an editorial heading of "A newly discovered country" the Aroostook Republican of Dec. 12th, speaking of the recent visit of Aroostook legislators says:—

Upon the Northern border of the State of Maine is a vast region now inhabited in part by the hardy woodsmen and in part, a very small part, by settlers, with unimagined resources and scenery unexcelled—a paradise for the hunter and fisherman, and all this within a very few hours' ride of our cities and towns, merely awaiting the building of a railroad bridge across the St. John river at Van Buren to bloom into a flowering development unexampled
and unprecedented.

To bring this important matter to the attention of our people and impress the value and seriousness of the matter to the United States in general and Maine in particular, A.
E. Hammond of Van Buren, the veteran lumberman, "who knows more things about more things" in relation to this matter than anyone else, invited the members of the Aroostook delegation to the legislature and others as his guests for a trip through this region and was on hand at the station of the B. & A. R.
R. yesterday forenoon and welcomed
the following gentlemen to his town,
the future outlet to unthinkable values in Canadian products to American markets.

Hon. A. A. Burleigh, Hon. Ira G.
Hersey, Hon. Aaron A. Putnam,
Chas. H. Fogg, J. S. Weiler, Houlton; Hon. George R. Umphrey, Washburn; Hon. August Peterson,
New Sweden; Hon. Cyrus W. Be. n,
Hodgdon; Hon. Delmont Emerson,
Island Falls; A. P. Libby, C. C.
Harvey, C. A. Powers, Fort Fair-
field; Hon. Irene Cyr, Fort Kent;
Hon. Geo. H. Moores, Ashland;
Hon. W. G. Bither, New Linerick;
Hon. Willis B. Hall, H. D. Collins,
Milo Whittier, Caribou; Charles L.
Cyr, St. Leonard.

This party was joined by Mr.
Hammond, J. W. Hammond, Felix
Cormier, Hon. Peter Charles Keeg-
an, H. K. Bradbury, Hon. N. L.
Violette, J. F. Theirault, W. F. Paradis at Van Buren and all were conducted to the inn de luxe, the Hotel Hammond, where a bountiful dinner of good things was disposed of,
when fleet horses carried the party
over the long bridge to the station
of the International Railroad at St.
Leonards.

Then commenced a trip of education, amazing and wonderful,
through the woods to the remarkably enterprising city of Campbellton on the Bay Chaleur, a city devastated less than two years ago by fire till but seven houses were left;
now a city, clean, bright, well built
and happy.

The first stop is made at Jardine Brook, where the lumber camps of our townsman, H. D. Collins, on the edge of the thickest forest in America face the train on the very edge of the railroad's right of way, and not three rods from the station building. Here is headquarters of Mr. Collins' men, more than 500 in number, who are busily at work cutting, loading and shipping to the Hammond mill at Van Buren, on the American side, from fifteen to eighteen million feet of logs, and over 150,000 ties for the railroad.

Lumber camps and loading platforms close to the rails are passed occasionally, for from this line of road, or section of the country,

PUBLIC HEALTH IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Medical Inspection of Schools is Strongly Advocated by Physician.

DOCTOR'S STATEMENT

A splendid paper was read by Dr.
Murray McLaren of St. John on
"Public health in New Brunswick"
at the recent convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities. Touching upon the medical inspection of schools he said:—

The medical inspection of schools which has now been so generally adopted throughout the countries of the old and new world and in many provinces of the Dominion, has not yet been initiated in this province.
The Legislative Assembly added the following section to the School Act
in 1911:—

"126. Any Board of School Trustees may make such provision as shall be sanctioned by the Board of Education for the care of the health, cleanliness and physical well-being of the pupils attending the public schools under their jurisdiction, and may employ at their own charges
such medical officers as shall be necessary to give effect to the same,
and any expenditure incurred under this section, may be assessed for in addition to the sums otherwise authorized to be assessed for school purposes, notwithstanding any limitation to the contrary."

This is the first official step toward the introduction of medical inspection in this province and it is presumed it will be gradually acted upon, if we wish to keep abreast of the times.

The British Columbia Act is regarded as the most perfect on the subject in the Dominion.

The following appeared recently in the Canadian Medical Association Journal:—"The necessity for the medical inspection of schools is shown very strongly by the report of the Montreal medical officer, on the physical condition of 59,000 children attending schools in that city."

The report shows that of this large number 32,000 were physically sound while 27,000 had complaints of various kinds. 167 pupils were found to be suffering from adenitis, 1,789 had adenoids, 132 suffered from headache, 900 from debility, 12 spinal troubles, 67 from deformed limbs, 19, 864 from decayed teeth, 17 from heart trouble, 603 from throat affections, 195 from ear troubles, 957
from skin diseases, 903 from diseases of the eye, 229 from minor sores, 418 from bronchitis, 225 from measles, 6 from diphtheria, 84 from

THE PROPOSED BRIDGE OVER RIVER

Delegation to Ottawa Has Not Yet Made Public the Report
of Their Reception

THE POLICY

A meeting of the Board of Trade was called for Monday evening, but owing to Christmas festivities only a very few put in an appearance at the Council chambers, and nothing was done. This meeting was called to receive the report of the delegation to Ottawa who presented the memorials and petitions relative to the proposed bridge across the Restigouche.

Although this report has not yet been made public it is understood that the minister of public works
and other members of the cabinet are in favor of the scheme, which will receive their support. Present indications however do not show any immediate prospect of this project making much headway in the near future, as it is felt in unofficial quarters that the building of the bridge will be the climax of a railway policy which embraces the taking over of the International and the Quebec Oriental Railways. It is understood that the government is favorably disposed toward the purchase of these railroads provided the price is right. What incentive
if any was needed by the government, has been given by the popular request for a bridge over the St.
John river at St. Leonards, and it is felt that within a few years the I. C.
R. will control those lines spoken of when the bridge will thereupon become a necessity, and be built.

itch, 58 from impetigo, 174 from mumps, 2080 from vermin.

Pupils to the number of 1,416
were sent home for various causes of illness, etc., 2,140 had not been vaccinated and had to submit to the operation, 13,572 previously vaccinated were examined."

The paper shows that the authority exists for the establishment of a medical officer for the school and if this had been done here, we would not at this time be suffering from such an epidemic of measles as we have had.

It is a well-known fact that many children have been attending school while measles were in the home and the parents ought to know better that allow that.

The day is past when it was accepted that children JUST HAD to take measles, mumps, scarlet fever,
etc., yet it is wonderful how much ignorance still exists in the minds of some people with regard to infantile illnesses.

My Heartiest and Best Wishes for

A Merry Christmas and

a Happy New Year to all

or fires in the beautiful county of Restigouche

good policy from me. I have of the best in

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, Dec. 25.—As predicted by your correspondent last week, Christmas trade was a record breaker here this year. Nearly all the holiday business was done during Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. With such splendid weather prevailing and our good wine for trade with fine moonlight evenings, people flocked to town from the three center parishes and the stores did splendid trade. The larger ones it was a relief to the clerks when midnight arrived last night. Such a rush was never witnessed before in the shetown, during the holiday season.

The spirit of Christmas was heavily manifested yesterday in many of our business establishments in presentations to the staffs by their employers and some of our poor families fared well at the hands of the Meers. G. H. yard, manager of the Dalhousie Lumber Co.

Work is still being carried on at our dam, water, under contract to Mr. Thos. F. Chas. team, of Ontario, with Mr. Bedford of St. John in charge. It is expected that the whole work will be completed in January. The job will be a great credit to the contractor and our harbor will be greatly improved.

On Friday evening 30th inst. Miss Jean McNeish was united in marriage to Mr. John Sablin, of Harbert, Saskatchewan. The ceremony was performed in the bride's home by Rev. J. H. Kirk. Miss Stella McKennie played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Sablin took the Saturday morning's Maritime Express for St. John on their way to Weymouth, N. S., the former home of the groom.

The popularity of the bride was evidenced here by the large number of gifts received. Before going to the west the happy couple will spend a few days in Restigouche, on their return trip from New Scotia.

Miss Sable Scott of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal is home spending a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos. G. Scott, on her return home last week, she was accompanied by her brother Charles Scott, who had been residing for sometime in Calgary. It is not probable that he will return again to the west.

Miss Stella B. Poirier, daughter of one of Bonaventure Co's most progressive citizens, Mr. Simon Poirier, of Bonaventure River, who has been occupying the position of stenographer with Mr. John Hall Kelly, M. P. P. during the recent session of the Quebec Legislature, was here on Sunday, the guest of her friends the Misses Allan. She returned home on Monday via Campbellton to be with her father on Christmas day.

Mr. H. McEvoy, of the Sydney Lumber Co., has returned from Nova Scotia, and is a guest at the Queen.

Mrs. D. Leger of Moncton, whose children are attending the Convent here was in town last week and stayed at the Queen.

Mr. G. R. Goudreau of Quebec, is here occupying a position at the new branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mrs. H. A. Hilyard, entertained a few friends to bridge whist on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson have gone to Gaspe to spend a few days.

Mrs. John McNeil left on Tuesday for New Carlisle, to spend the winter at her old home. Mr. and Mrs. James Reid of Charlott were in town yesterday. Mr. Reid seems to be very cheerful about the prospects of the liberal in the event of an early election.

The annual meeting of the Dalhousie Social Club will be held in the club rooms, on Wednesday evening, January 1st 1913.

The Campbellton Dramatic Club will repeat the Malodrama "Botany Bay" in our new Opera House on Thursday evening January 2nd.

Mr. Walter Amy who has been a guest at the Queen here has gone to Bathurst to visit friends.

Mr. H. S. Hosman of Buffalo, arrived here last week, to join his wife who has been spending the summer with her parents, Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Kirk. He is very much pleased with the town. After spending the holidays with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Hosman and their children will return to Buffalo.

A Grizzly's Strength

It is related that a grizzly bear that had had one of its fore paws so shot as to render it useless, employed the other to draw its weight of 1,000 pounds up an incline almost precipitous, a seemingly impossible feat.

A Californian asserts that while in the mountains, he observed a big grizzly in the act of carrying a dead cow home to her cub. From his position on the mountain side the observer could follow every movement of the bear in the sparsely timbered valley below. He contends that the big beast carried the cow in her forepaws for a distance of three miles, across jagged rocks several feet in height, over fallen logs around the rocky mountain side, where even a mule could not get a foot-hold, to a narrow trail up the steep mountain.

This bear, it appears, stopped not for a moment's rest, but proceeded straight on. The observer followed her, and about half a mile from her lair shot her.

MARKY OR MIGRATE

Bachelor Irishmen Claim They Were Driven From Home

Driven away from home because they positively refused to marry was the story told by a party of four Irish men upon their arrival at Montreal. Lloyd O'Brien, Harry Shannon and two brothers of the latter fell under the ban issued some months ago in their home town of Dunshaughlin in county Meath. Owing to the excessive number of bachelors in the neighborhood the Town Council resolved to give everyone a chance to marry and then, if they still remained obstinate, to get rid of them. It was claimed that the general prosperity and welfare of the community demanded a diminution in the abnormal number of single men. So seventy-nine glaring cases were especially named and given notice that they must marry inside of six months or depart for pastures new.

The six months passed and thirteen of the bachelors were still unmarried. Four of them were staunch women-haters and held out to the finish. The Council carried out its threat and expelled the unlucky thirteen, four of whom found their way to Canada.

A WESTERN DRY-DOCK

Vessels of Largest Size to be Handled at Prince Rupert

The construction of the big dry dock at Prince Rupert is destined in the opinion of experts to have an important effect upon the shipping trade of the Pacific coast. Many coast steamers which are at present forced to go elsewhere for repairs and overhauling will tie up in future at Prince Rupert, where the new plant will eclipse anything of its kind upon the Pacific coast; being capable of handling 20,000-ton vessels. A 300-foot pier forms part of the equipment.

CANADA BIGGER THAN THE UNITED STATES

Latest returns give Canada's area as 3,745,574 square miles. The United States, not including Alaska and dependencies, covers 3,026,759 square miles, so that if the United States without Alaska, were placed upon Canada, British Columbia, Alberta, and one-third of Saskatchewan would be left uncovered. Including Alaska, the Philippines, Hawaii, Porto Rico, and a few scattered islands in the Pacific Ocean, statistics give the United States an area of 3,743,844 square miles, still less than the area of Canada. Strictly speaking the United States lays claim to about 3,642,122 square miles, as against Canada's 3,745,574.

Canada is, therefore, much larger than the United States, fifteen times as large as France, twenty times as large as Spain, more than sixteen times the size of the German Empire, and more than twenty-five times larger than the British Isles.—Guelph Herald.

Use Your Influence for Concrete Roads

There's no need to point out the advantages of good roads.

The kind of good road, however, is another matter.

It used to be that there was little choice. Macadam for the country and smaller cities was the only material used. Then, twenty years ago concrete was introduced. And for these twenty years concrete has been proving itself.

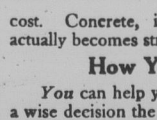

It is now acknowledged to be one of the best known materials for roads or for street pavements—to be as far superior to ordinary macadam as macadam is superior to sand.

Estimating the Cost. It is not the first cost of a road that determines its real cost; nor is it the first six months of service that determines whether it's a good road or a poor one.

The only sure way to find out what a road has cost, is to add to the first cost all that is spent for repairs in fifteen or twenty years.

Now, that's where concrete roads win every argument—their first cost is practically their only cost; they require little or no upkeep.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Campbellton, N. B.
Dec. 26th, 1912

Editor of the Graphic

Dear Sir:

As your paper is very largely read by our towns people, would you kindly allow me a small space to discuss the temperance question with my temperance friends. I do not want to resort to mud slinging, but the general facts brought out.

I am of the opinion that there has been more liquor sold since local option was enacted, and I believe it would be in the best interest of all, to have six good bars, owned by reliable and respectable people in town. Also one at Athol and another at Richardsville. The town and county would receive a good revenue as license would be placed at no small sum. I am told that our trade has fallen off since the local option law has been in force, and that Bathurst is growing under the license system and improving. The sooner the ratepayers have their eyes opened the better for all concerned.

Yours,

THIS JANUARY SALE IS NOW ON

Ferguson Brothers our go ahead young merchants who are constantly in the van, are advertising their annual January sale. To many this is always looked forward to, as being a sale for genuine bargains, the prices being sacrificed to clear out the remainder of winter stocks. The class of goods handled by this firm are well-known, the name Ferguson being a household word, and the patrons are always satisfied that in this January sale they are always certain of securing exceptional bargains.

Just look over the advertisement on page two. It is worth it.

ANARCHIST PLOT TO KILL KING VICTOR

ROME, Dec. 24.—The examination of Henry Dal Ferro, a young Anarchist, who recently attempted to commit suicide rather than carry out a mission imposed upon him by the Anarchists to assassinate King Victor Emmanuel, was held today. It revealed the existence of a deep-laid plot to kill the King.

Five other Anarchists have been arrested for alleged complicity in the plot.

MILLER-SHARP

A very pretty and quiet wedding took place on Dec. 25th 1912 at nine o'clock p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father attired in a dress of cream satin Pailette de Soie with chiffon overdress and pearl and lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of white carnations and fern. The wedding march was played by Miss Carrie A. Sharp, sister of the bride.

The latter was the recipient of many handsome gifts of silver and cut glass among which was a silver cake plate from the Methodist Sabbath School. The grooms present to the bride was a gold hoop bracelet. The brides travelling costume was of Copenhagen blue cheviot with beaver hat to match. The happy couple left on the Maritime express to visit the groom's former home in Port Daniel, P. Q., after which they will return to Campbellton before departing for their future home in the West.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

AIRMAN KILLED: FIFTEEN THIS YEAR

Edward Petre Overpowered by Gale on Flight to Edinburgh

London, Dec. 24.—Airman Edward Petre was killed today attempting a non stop flight from Weybridge to Edinburgh, a distance of 420 miles. He had covered two-thirds of the journey and reached a Yorkshire sea-side resort, when he was overtaken by a gale, which overpowered the machine and brought it to the ground, smashing it into pieces. The airman's neck was broken.

Petre is the twenty-second British air victim, and the fifteenth during the present year.

AEROPLANE TO SIGHT SUBMARINES

Washington, Dec. 26.—The navy department is bowing to the signal corps, which has announced that aeroplanes can be used for discovering the whereabouts and movements of submarines. It is said that experiments have developed that the operators in the aircraft can discover the presence of the underwater terrors without glasses, although they may be at a considerable depth. This, in the opinion of naval officers may advance the plans of having aeroplanes in the equipment of all the fighting craft in the navy.

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25. OR MORE WEEKLY

We will Show You How!

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near New York City. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers our Sales Department has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as Vitagraph, Edison, Essanay, Lubin, Solax, Imp, Rex, Reliance, Champion, Comet, Melies, etc., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and will gladly teach you the secret of success.

We are selling Photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure.

You Will Earn $100 Monthly For Spare Time Work.

CHRISTMAS TRADE

TO TOWN SUBSCRIBERS

A post card from "Three Subscribers" has been received as follows:—We would like to know how it is that the non subscribers can buy the Graphic about four or five o'clock on Friday evening, while we the subscribers have to wait until Saturday morning? The above is not correct as regards the time the Graphic is on sale on the streets. When the Graphic goes to press before 5.30 the papers for the town subscribers are sent to the post office before the news boys are out. When the paper goes to press too late to catch the post office before the local mail arrives the boys are allowed to go out. Last week the Graphic was ready to go to press at 6.20 and one boy being waiting, 25 papers were completed and he went out at 6.30. The delay in issuing the Graphic at the proper time, 4 o'clock has been caused by the extraordinary amount of advertising handled during the past three or four weeks.

SERBIA'S CAPITAL

Bright Colors Seen on Every Side But Little Civic Enterprise

An interesting glimpse of Belgrade, the capital of Serbia, is given by Lady Jephson, who in the "Evening Standard" wrote that she found the capital of a "young, rough, river, mountain, of the Balkans not unlike Scotland." In Serbia's chief city Lady Jephson put up at what proved to be a "tenth-rate hotel," where sleep was impossible.

"A wash and breakfast in the courtyard somewhat restored our spirits. The bread and butter and fruit were excellent and the 'scenes' about us novel and amusing. Pacing our hotel lay the market place, and under stumpy trees sat the market folk surrounded by their wares. Tomatoes, cabbages, horseradish, pumpkins, melons, pears, and apples lay in tempting heaps—a pathetic contrast to their freshness and beauty of coloring to the wrinkled old women who sold them!—meat and bread were on wooden stands, and Serbian ladies bargained and bought in captivating costumes of velvet jackets with wide hanging sleeves over muslin chemises, and little scarlet cloth caps fastened to the backs of their heads by a braid of hair.

But not only ladies in Serbia dress well; the clothes of peasants are picturesque in the extreme, and women young and old wear beautifully worked aprons of scarlet, yellow, and blue, whilst gay handkerchiefs blind their heads. Men look their best—and the Serbian is a handsome creature—in cream-colored bloomers and shirts, souvise jackets, leggings, and sandals; whilst the ash knotted at one side gives a finishing touch to what is a charming dress.

"Streets in Belgrade are paved with stones and very ill-kept. The abnormally heavy rains carry off before them, uprooting stones and washing away pavements. Nothing, in fact, can stand against their force. Most of the houses are yellow-washed and severely plain. Shops carry outward and visible signs of their trades on their shutters, rows of hanging boots marking the abode of a shoemaker, and bright colored rugs adorning a carpet seller's shop. Belgrade streets, indeed, present a wealth of color, to be found in few other capital cities.

There is, for example, the soft green of the pepper trees, the red, yellow and blue of the peasant, ecclesiastical, and military dress, the cream of the bullocks, the grey and black of the goats, and the yellow washed walls on either hand.

"Outside Belgrade lies a glorious avenue of trees, and not far off the King's park, and country seat. Serbian country is undulating, well wooded, and beautiful—extremely like English scenery in character."

Death of Naval Hero

Stoker Brown, a Navy man, who had an eventful career, died at Aberdeen. One incident in his life has been enshrined in standard history books as a type of the valor of the British Navy. Brown was one of the crew of the ill-starred transport-boat Mageria. When off the island of St. Paul, in the Southern Ocean, the Mageria sprung a leak. All hope of saving either crew or vessel was given up, when Brown crawled down into the hold of the vessel, found the leak, and successfully fixed an iron plate over it. The vessel had to be run ashore at this island, where she lay a derelict for three months. The crew had very little to eat, and were on the verge of starvation, when Brown went down to the disabled vessel, here and there threatened by the tumbling river of many rapids which suddenly divers for 30 or 40 miles to the northward, and was the means of refloating the boat.

WEALTH OF MINERALS

New Section of British Columbia Rich in Scenery and Possibilities

Mr. G. L. McDowell, a prospector returned to Edmonton from British Columbia where he was sent by an English syndicate to report upon the mining possibilities of the new country opened up by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. He walked from Mile 140 to Mile 85 over the grade of the main line and reported that silver and lead are plentiful also that copper showed signs of being abundant. Mr. McDowell stated that between 4,000 and 5,000 men were working in the Fraser Valley on the new line. "The Fraser Valley," Mr. McDowell observed, "is wider and more expansive than the panorama in the Kicking Horse Pass. On the southern side of the river the mountains are some distance off, their snow-capped peaks silhouetting the sky and shutting out the Cariboo country beyond. On the other side of the stream, here and there threatened by the tumbling river of many rapids which suddenly divers for 30 or 40 miles to the northward, and was the means of refloating the boat."

Effect of Cold on Gas Fur
A remarkable transformation of a cat's fur by temperature has been reported. A black cat was accidentally shot in the refrigerator chamber of a meat steamer in Sydney harbor and was not discovered until about thirty-two days later, when the ship was off Aden.

The cat was severely recognizable, but its fur had turned white. The black cat was brought out into the intense heat of the Red Sea, the heavy white coat rapidly fell out and the normal coat was restored.

CURED OF THIS HORRIBLE DISEASE

Edmonton Girl saved By "Fruit-a-Lives"

EDMONTON, ALTA., Nov. 20th 1912. "I had been a sufferer from babyhood with that terrible complaint, Constipation. CANADIAN FLEAS QUEST OF HUNTERS

They are Wanted to be Added to One of the World's Most Unique Collections

Mr. F. J. Davis of London, England, who came to Canada on a most peculiar mission looks on his specimens with disdain. Mr. Davis is a flea hunter. He is manager and "chief scout" for the famous flea menagerie of Hon. Charles Rothchild in Herfordshire. The Hon. Charles is the wealthiest and most eccentric member of the great aristocratic family. His particular fondness for the collection of rare species of fleas is a large portion of his thought and time.

"I have been searching for fleas for fifteen years," said Mr. Davis in an interview at Montreal, "and in the course of that time I have gathered 227 different kinds from as many different parts of the globe. Altogether Mr. Rothchild has 437 distinct varieties, so you can imagine how difficult it is not to get any new ones. The object of my trip is to organize an expedition to visit the Northern Hudson's Bay country for the purpose of capturing some Flea-masters fleas, of which Mr. Rothchild was told by Captain Scott."

Mr. Davis recounted some extraordinary tales of the means whereby Mr. Rothchild secured his large assortment of fleas. Special expeditions were sent into the heart of India and Africa. Great expeditions had been undertaken in order to secure rare fleas such as those which haunt the hippopotamus and the kangaroo in their native environment. Prison had been offered for flea contributions and for months the mails to Mr. Rothchild were filled with letters bearing fleas of all sizes and all degrees of viciousness.

"A remarkable point in connection with a tour of Canada which I made six years ago," continued Mr. Davis, "was the fact that I got a very good number of fleas in Toronto, where I was able to add no less than seventy-three distinct types to my Canadian collection."

Mr. Davis has some very clever trapping devices by which he catches his prey. His favorite bait is fresh blood of a young pig.

ARTIFICIAL LUNGS

Apparatus for Restoring Life to Persons Asphyxiated

It is an astonishing fact that until quite recently, only the crudest methods of resuscitation, such as gas poisoning, electric shock, immersion in water, or other accidents of a like nature, were evolved. The modern ready method of bringing back the vital spark in persons who have been under water are successful only in a few cases. They are extremely delicate and intricate. In the case of electric shock, the chances for the victim are even less. In both cases the victim may be unable to breathe, and the only way to save life is to supply this very need.

To the unconscious victim, the invalid of low vitality, it supplies not only the needed quantity of oxygen but it actually breathes for him, infusing and directing the air into his lungs exactly as may be needed. The infant can be treated as safely as the adult.

The field of usefulness of the pulmotor is extremely wide and varied. It is being used in all kinds of mines in Europe and America. Fire departments, hospitals, and municipalities have purchased it for use in a score of ways it can be used in emergencies.

Another apparatus, evolved more recently, is a self-contained supply of oxygen, and requires no connection with the surface. An amateur ventriloquist can play under water for half an hour at a time.

The pulmotor is in use in Cobalt, in several Canadian collieries, and at the Government rescue stations.

NOT NEAR RELATIVES

Sword Fish and Saw Fish Belong to Different Families

Related to the sharks are the odd saw fishes of the tropics, which are common in the lagoons, bayous and sounds of the West Indies. These fish grow to a length of twenty to twenty-five feet and as they are of no real value, are never fished or hunted to any extent.

In fact, the fishermen dread these creatures, for they often become entangled in their nets and rip and tear them to pieces by lateral jerks and sweeps of the huge heads on the nose. This "saw" is a bony elongation of the nose and is armed on either side with large, sharp, strong teeth, and in the largest fish these "saws" grow to five or six feet long and nearly a foot wide.

Very different from the saw fish is the sword fish, which is related to the mackerels and is of great value for food and is widely and assiduously hunted or fished on the southern New England coast as well as in the Gulf of Mexico and in the West Indies. The sword fish is a splendid creature, often weighs as much as six hundred pounds and has a brilliant green, clean, speedy form, and a long, horny snout or "sword" with which it can impale another fish or even pierce the strongest wooden timber of a boat.

SAINT NICHOLAS

"Kit" in December CANADA MONTHLY

People say that it was Charles Dickens who invented Christmas. He assuredly left us the happiest thoughts about it, but long before that kindly and loving pen of his gave us the beautiful Christmas Carol, there was one called Saint Nicholas taking care of Tiny Tins and little Cratchitts generally, about Christmas time. Ever since he lived, the world has been taking advantage of a casual circumstance in the life of the Saints, to strap a pack on his back and send him poking his glorious way down chimneys on Christmas Eve.

It appears that Saint Nicholas happened once to rescue three little children about to be sold as slaves, and fed and clothed them, having first put them into a tub and scrubbed them well. He did not do this on any particular eve of any day—just did it out of hand as an example for all good nurses to follow, but it was enough to make him the patron of all children from that day to this.

The real Saint Nicholas—he lives in France—pays all the children a visit about three weeks before Christmas—and a very good custom it is—exhibits his wares, and drops a tiny gift—fore-taste of greater things—into the stocking the small rogue hangs up on St. Nicholas Eve. Then he slips away—not to reappear till Christmas or the New Year. In days long before Tiny Tim was born the children used to scoff at St. Nicholas, just as they do now at poor, over-dressed Santa Claus. It was all "stuffed and nonsense" the older children told the younger.

"There is no St. Nicholas at all only Daddy or Mother." You see, the world was very much the same, one century with another, and there is everywhere a doubting Thomas. St. Nicholas has a sharp ear, and detects this sort of incredulity. So he leaves the stocking of doubting little boys and girls empty whether he is known under the name of Nicholas or Santa.

BIG SWEDS WEDS. SQUAW PRISONER.

Cupid Turned a Jail Sentence Into Marriage in a Western Town

Mary Crosby, an Indian girl, was arrested for vagrancy at Prince Rupert, B. C., and sentenced to six months in jail at Westminster. On the day following her sentence a big Swede called at the lock-up and wanted to marry the girl. After some pleading the caller was taken to the cell by the chief of police, and after shaking hands, he bluntly asked Mary for her hand.

The squaw looked the visitor over, and after a few minutes' thought, and shyly looking towards the floor, said: "Yes, it might be best." A truly discreet maidenly reply.

In court next day, Mary's counsel asked if a marriage would not serve the end of justice. The judge was well filled and Mary was there smiling.

Victor Ores, the Swede, who had edged his chair close to where she was sitting, kept twirling his hat, and gazing thoughtfully at Judge Young.

"Are you the man?" asked the court. "Yes, sir, I'll marry her." So court was adjourned for an hour and the happy couple, with a constable, hid them to the Methodist parsonage, where the knot was tied. After the wedding the bride party re-entered court and it was not long till the legal point involving the six months' sentence was settled.

"Well," remarked Judge Young, addressing the bride, "seeing that you have just entered into the holy state of matrimony, I suppose the most decent thing for me to do is make you a wedding present by permitting you to go on suspended sentence. Now you have a chance to live a good honest life."

So instead of going to Westminster jail Mary went with her big Swede lover to a shack on the Skeena.

STORING FIELD ROOTS

How to Ventilate Cellars—Method of Pitting Outside

The principle of ventilating the root cellar is the same as that required to cause a draught in the stove. There should be shafts made down outside the wall to enter at the level of the floor below, with large openings directly through the roof. The outside doors and windows should be kept open every day in winter, if there is danger of frost. To keep out the frost have the root cellar at least three thirds below the surface of the earth. Then about December 15 it may be necessary to bank up the roof with stable manure.

Where there is no root cellar, or insufficient root cellar, it may be successfully selected a high, dry spot convenient to the buildings. Mark out a pit the required length and about five feet wide, and excavate two or three feet deep, but if there is danger of water, excavate only three or four inches. The earth should be piled along the shaft for covering. Build the roots up to a point three or four feet high, then cover with straw about four inches and with earth about eight inches. This covering may be sufficient until about the middle of November. Then cover with four to six inches of stable manure and 12 inches of earth. To make provision against excessive frost it is advisable to cover the pit the last of December with long stable manure. To ventilate the pit, take two boards one inch by six inches at each end, and run good strong strips of wood crosswise up three feet, the other five feet to be boarded solid, leaving the top open until severe frost sets in. Then run a bunch of straw in to keep the frost out. These shafts should be eight to ten feet apart along the pit, the shafts to extend through the roots to the bottom of the pit. It is desirable to keep an even temperature in the pit. To ascertain the temperature an extra shaft may be put in to allow a thermometer to be raised and lowered, and temperature noted, as heat and frost have to be guarded against.

The greatest success in growing roots will be obtained when the following are observed: Systematic care of crops; roots to follow a fresh clover sod; manure once in a rotation; thorough cultivation in preparation for the crop, and after the roots are sown.—John Ficker, Ottawa.

Canada's Sealing Profits

The United States sealing steamer, "Homer," returned to San Francisco with 3,764 sealskins taken from the Erbriloff Island Rookeries. Under the terms of the sealing treaty enacted between the United States, Canada, Russia and Japan, fifteen per cent of the value of the sealskins taken from the island rookeries in Behring Sea goes to the Canadian government. The value of Canada's share in the Homer's cargo per skin would be about $23.87.

Bulgars Good Savers

In one week the Coclfrane branch of the Bank of Ottawa paid out to Bulgarian laborers over $3,000, to be used by these men in paying their passage to the old country and equipping themselves for fighting the Turk. Many of them were in the habit of depositing almost their entire wage each week and leaving it untouched for months at a time.

Nothing Really New

As far back as 1840 a patent was granted for a combined carpet sweeper and vacuum cleaner, very similar to one of the most modern of such machines.
