NEW UNIVERSITY HEAD IN LONDON

Dr. E. E. Braithwaite Arrives for Informal Talk With Board of Governors.

HERE TO GET ACQUAINTED

takes His First Look at the City and Its Public Buildings.

Dr. E. E. Braithwaite, the new head of Western University arrived in London shortly after noon today, for his first glimpse of the institution over which he will have jurisdiction.

Dr. W. Vaughn took Dr. Braithwaite in charge, showing him the Institute of Public Health and other buildings in the city.

During the afternoon, Dr. Braithwaite visited the university and at 3 o'clock met the board of governors there, who informally discussed the plans for September with him.

"There is no special significance to my visit in London at this time," said Dr. Braithwaite to The Advertiser. "I have come here simply to look into the situation and get acquainted. I will have no statements to make until I have gone carefully over everything."

Dr. Braithwaite is the guest of Dr. Vaughn.

Chairman C. R. Somerville, of the board of governors, said the meeting arranged for Dr. Braithwaite was only for the informal discussion of plans for the fall opening.

STRIKES HEAD ON SUBMERGED ROCK

Waterloo Street Man Nearly Drowned While Diving in North Branch.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

But for Assistance of Boys
Edward Price Would Have Been Drowned.

Diving from a raft while swimming in the river at the rear of Sunshine Park, last night, Edward Price, 343 Waterloo street, struck his head on a submerged rock, and nearly drowned.

Price was on the raft with some small boys. He dove off and struck his head with great force on a large rock, only eight inches beneath the surface of the water. Price is a large heavy man. He sank unconscious to the bottom of the river, which is about six feet deep at this point.

The boys on the raft helped him to the shore when he had struggled to the surface. If he had been alone he would have drowned in all probability, as he relapsed into unconsciousness when he was brought to the shore.

Dr. W. J. Tillmann was called. He dressed the wound in Price's head. The latter at present is in a serious condition at his home.

POVERTY of mind is the greatest of misfortunes. The liquor traffic is a cancer in society, eating out the vitals and threatening destruction, and all attempts to regulate it will not only prove abortive, but will aggravate the evil. There must be no more attempts to regulate the cancer. It must be eradicated, not a root must be left behind; for, until this is done, all classes must continue in danger of becoming victims of strong drink. If it be a crime to make a counterfeit dollar, it is ten thousand times a worse crime to make a counterfeit man.

SLIGHT CHANCE FOR CIVIC COLLECTION

Board of Control Said To Be Opposed to Municipal Ownership of Garbage Horses.

CAN DEFEAT PROPOSAL

By Insisting on Six Months'
Notice, Controllers Can Send
It to 1915 Council.

There will be a special meeting of the city council tonight to discuss the contract for garbage collection which has been entered into between the city and Contractor W. J. Boss. Certain of the aldermen believe that this work should be done by the city, as the expenses run into quite an item each year. They believe that as the city already has its own incinerator plant it would not take much more to operate its own carts and do its own collecting.

The special meeting was called so that six months notice could be served on Mr. Boss to terminate his contract in case the council decided the city would make different arrangements for the collection of garbage.

Mayor Graham and the board of control defend the present contract with Mr. Boss and declare he took over the work when no one else would tender on it. The controllers agreed to the special meeting simply to pacify the aldermen.

THE SALOON BAR

A bar to Heaven, a door to Hell—
Whoever named it, named it well!

A bar to manliness and wealth,
A door to want and broken health,
A bar to honor, pride and fame,
A door to sin and grief and shame;
A bar to hope, a bar to prayer,
A door to darkness and despair,
A bar to honored, useful life,
A door to brawling, senseless strife;
A bar to all that's true and brave,
A door to every drunkard's grave,
A bar to joy that home imparts,
A door to tears and aching hearts,
A bar to Heaven, a door to Hell—
Whoever named it, named it well!

SYSTEM DEMORALIZED AS SIR ADAM TALKS

While Head of Power Commission Pays Respects to L. and L. E. Line, It Was Tied Up Through Hydro Breaks
—$5,000 Loss Last Year.

While Sir Adam Beck was paying his respects to the London and Lake Erie Railway and Transportation Company at Port Stanley yesterday, that radial line, which was the first in Ontario to install hydro-electric power, was suffering a demoralization of its service through breaks in the hydro system. The London Street Railway was also having its troubles.

The storm which visited London in the morning went east, and as the crowds started to board the cars the power started to go off. Seven times it was off during the day causing delays of from seven to nineteen minutes.

The delays in detail were as follows:

10:12 a.m.	8 minutes
3:30 p.m.	10 "
3:51 p.m.	8 "
4:15 p.m.	7 "
4:45 p.m.	15 "
4:57 p.m.	18 "
5:11 p.m.	19 "

The course of his speech Mr. Beck challenged anyone in the crowd connected with the London and Lake Erie to say how much they had saved through the installation of hydro-electric power.

General Manager Warburton stated this morning that last summer the company had suffered a loss of $5,000 as a result of having hydro-electric. A meeting is to be held tomorrow to consider the situation.

RECORD TIME FOR NEW PAVEMENT

Wortley Road Work, a Mile in Length, To Be Ready
by Sept. 1.

ENGINEER SO PREDICTS

New Tenders for Adelaide Street Storm Sewer To Be
In by July 3.

Despite the upheaval on Wortley road at present, City Engineer Ashplant predicted today that the storm sewer would be laid within three weeks and that the street would be paved with sheet asphalt by the latter part of August or the 1st of September. The work involves over a mile of pavement that will be laid in record time if the engineer's prediction comes true.

Friday July 3 the board of control will open new tenders for the completion of the storm sewer on Adelaide street commenced by the late F. H. Harding. Bidders on this job must figure on material ordered by Mr. Harding before he committed suicide. The material is needed in any event and if disposed of to the new contractor will be a protection to the widow of Mr. Harding.

The question of paving King street, where the Kentucky rock asphalt was reduced to dust in a few years, will doubtless come before the council at the special meeting tonight. The part of King street destroys more springs on all kinds of vehicles and causes more injury to horses and drivers than all other city streets combined. At least that is the complaint of property owners who want the street resurfaced.

FARM HELP VERY MUCH IN DEMAND

Immigrants Brought In by S.
D. Dawson Quickly Snapped
Up by Eager Farmers.

England, Ireland and Scotland were equally represented in the twelve men brought by S. D. Dawson, secretary of the Greater Middlesex Association from Montreal today to work on Middlesex farms.

The men were at Dominion Immigration Inspector Rigg's office at one o'clock and were quickly snapped up by the farmers present.

For the benefit of the farmers who were unable to secure help Mr. Dawson stated that eight men would arrive on Saturday morning and more were coming next week.

"There are scores of capable men walking the streets of Montreal unable to find work. I brought several along with me and paid their fares. Farmers should have no difficulty in procuring help if they will only go to a little trouble."

TUGS GO TO RESCUE OF HELPLESS BOAT

Gasoline Launch "Becalmed"
Off Port Stanley and White
Flag Raised by Party
Brings Help.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Port Stanley, June 25.—A party of Buffalo motorboat men had an exciting experience near Port Stanley yesterday, when their engine went dead, leaving the party helpless about a mile from shore. A white flag, hoisted on a boat hook, attracted attention, and the tug Hector, of the Hogan Dredging Company, and the fishing tug John R. Moore, put out to the rescue. The boat was rescued with some little difficulty and brought into port behind the Hector.

The lake was beginning to get a little choppy when the distress signal was hoisted, and the small gasoline launch made rather bad weather of it in the trough of the waves, lack of steering way preventing anything like proper handling of the craft.

Water in the engine is blamed for the stoppage.

The rescue seamer rather sensational, as the white flag attracted the attention of many summer cottagers as well as pluckers.

DEATH AND DISASTER FROM BARS; WIPE THEM FROM FOREST CITY

Murders Caused Through Liquor Have Startled Citizens
Time and Again—Fatal Accident at Sarnia Is the Result of Intoxicants.

The city of London shudders every time it hears of crime caused by drink.

More than 90 per cent. of offences in the London police court are traceable to drink. Almost every charge of murder or attempted murder has had its inception in the barroom. Tom Riley, drink maddened, recently took the life of George Blackburn in a hotel fight. There were at least two other shooting cases within a brief time, in which the bottle was blamed.

Intoxicated men have been killed time and time again, and this morning, papers contain the news of the killing of a man at Sarnia who was intoxicated. In another town, a man with a loaded revolver and a whisky bottle made himself a menace to life.

The Forest City has its first opportunity to be barless. Local option has never been tried in London, as it has not been believed to be possible to obtain the three-fifths vote required for its passing.

But undoubtedly there is a strong majority of the voters of London in favor of the abolition of the bar, and that is why the hope of electing Dr. Stevenson becomes brighter every day.

CONTACT ANGLE DISPUTED

Naval Architect Disagrees
With Percy Hillhouse Very Considerably.

[Canadian Press.]
Quebec, June 25.—Technical evidence from the point of view of the Storstad's owners was put in at this morning's session of the Empress of Ireland commission holding meetings in the courthouse here. It differed most materially from that submitted by Percy Hillhouse, of the Fairfield shipbuilding yards, where the Empress was constructed. The evidence was supplied by John Reid, a naval architect, with British experience, now practicing in Montreal, who put the angle of contact between the two vessels at 45 degrees and not 80, as deduced by Mr. Hillhouse.

Survivors' stories of how the water rushed into their cabins through the portholes was also submitted to substantiate the theory that these open apertures contributed to the sinking of the ship.

John Reid, a naval architect, formerly with Stearns & Sons, Glasgow; Cammell Laird, on the Mersey, and Armstrong, Whitworth & Co., on the Tyne, was put into the box by Mr. Haight, and gave his theory of the angle at which the Storstad struck the Empress. Illustrating his arguments with the model of the present condition of the Storstad's nose to port in the collision, he deduced that the Storstad must have hit the liner's side at an angle of 45 degrees, a point about fourteen feet from the bottom of the extreme edge of the stern making the first contact. The remainder of the blow being inflicted by the starboard side of the ship and its anchor, the flukes of the latter being driven up in a very ugly position. He said that the twisting of the Storstad's nose to port indicated this. He thought the hole made in the Empress' side would be about twelve feet in diameter. The damage to the Storstad extended back about fourteen feet from the starboard side, but a wound of this diameter would not be inflicted, as the Empress was not at right angles to the collision.

First Woman Witness.

The Empress wreck commission heard the first woman witness this morning, when Miss Townsend, an Australian lady, told of her experiences after the collision between the collier Storstad and the liner. Miss Townsend spoke of how, when towards the last, the Empress was over on her side, she and her aunt walked along her steel side, which was then a deck, over the portholes and into the water. She went down, and when she came up there were a number of men (Continued on Page Eleven.)

ZACATECAS FALLS AFTER FOUR DAYS TERRIBLE FIGHTING

Villa's Troops Capture City and Many Prisoners, Arms, Etc.

DEFENDERS' LOSS IS 4,000

Also 2,000 Wounded—Rebels
Lose About 500 Killed and 800 Wounded.

[Canadian Press.]
Zacatecas, Mexico, June 25.—After four days of preliminary fighting, the final assault of Zacatecas took place on Tuesday, resulting in the capture of the city by the Constitutionalists at 7:30 p.m.

The dead on the Federal side, according to official figures, numbered 4,000, and 2,000 wounded, while the losers to the attacking side were not stated definitely, though Gen. Villa estimates his casualties at 500 dead and 800 wounded. The battle was the most hotly contested during the present revolution in the belief of leaders here. Fourteen thousand Federalists were entrenched in seemingly impregnable positions.

Big Captures.

Gen. Villa himself gave the following account of the battle:

"After four days' hard attacks, today was the decisive one. The enemy, numbering 14,000, commanded by Medina Barron and five other generals, were defeated completely by my forces, which were aided effectively by Gen. Nateras' men. Up to this moment we have five thousand prisoners, twelve cannons, nine trains, two carloads of rifle ammunition and cannon shells, and nearly six thousand Mauser rifles, and a large quantity of provisions and other munitions of war."

"The enemy who escaped went in the direction of Aguas Calientes, after dynamiting the postoffice, the state treasurer's office and the stamp revenue office building. The explosions killed many of our men and destroyed part of the city. The dead of the enemy numbered about 4,000, and 2,000 wounded."

"On our part, we cannot tell the losses of the battle, which lasted for five consecutive days, but I think there are not more than 500 dead and 800 wounded."

LIQUOR INTERESTS POOL SUBSCRIPTIONS WITH CONSERVATIVES

Campaign Funds Are Merged
and Are Being Used in Every Riding.

It was stated today that in the present campaign the Conservative and liquor interests campaign funds were being pooled and used in every riding in the country.

More than one million dollars is said to have been subscribed by the liquor men and others who are co-operating with the Conservative party to defeat Rowell.

London liquor men and the affiliated trades have been assessed for large amounts. Every hotelkeeper in the city put up $250 as the first assessment and it is understood that since Dr. Stevenson's candidacy was announced another large subscription has been taken up.

BISHOP FALLON DENIES ANY INJURY TO FRENCH

Offers $25,000 for Proof to Contrary—Feeling High Round Tilbury.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
TILBURY, June 24.—Bishop Fallon, of London, attempted to pour oil on the troubled waters over the bilingual question here tonight, when at a confirmation service held in St. Francis church, he declared, with the greatest emphasis, that he is the friend of the French-Canadians, and denied that he had ever done anything in any way to injure them.

"I am a poor man," he said, "but I will give $25,000, even if I have to go around and beg it, to any man who can show that I have done anything derogatory to the French-Canadians."

Malicious Stories.
Bishop Fallon denounced as malicious the stories which have been circulated to the effect that he had forbidden the teaching of French.

He asked all those present to contradict any such reports wherever they heard them.

Just how warm a feeling exists in this district against Bishop Fallon is shown by the fact that there were few in the audience. It was stated to the Advertiser, that the men of the church are greatly aroused over Bishop Fallon's alleged attitude and that their absence tonight was prearranged.

"In discussing the situation, Bishop Fallon declared that he had never made many of the statements attributed to him. He denied the statements made by five priests recently, and said, that he wished to thank Father Parent for standing by him so loyally. Father Parent is the rector of the local church.

275 Were Confirmed.
There 275 presented for confirmation, by His Lordship, and in concluding his address to the boys and girls, Bishop Fallon asked them to pledge themselves never to touch liquor until they were 21 years old.

The visit of Bishop Fallon has been looked forward with eager interest by the French-Canadians of the district. It was expected that he would have something to say in regard to bilingualism, and there have been many keen discussions over the matter among the parishioners.

WRECK LOCATED BY PT. HURON FISHERMEN

Declare They Took Keys of Whiskey From Hull Near Goderich.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
SARNIA, June 24.—Goderich correspondents are either intentionally or unintentionally in error in regards to the finding of an overturned hull within a few miles from that port, as Port Huron fishermen have not only located the wreck, but brought away souvenirs in the shape of several kegs of whiskey.

The matter was at once reported to the Lynn reporting station in Port Huron, who later gave the story to the press.

It is felt here that the story has considerable truth in it.

It is rumored that the insurance companies are not overly anxious to locate the wrecks of the overturned steamers.

MR. ROWELL TO SPEAK AT HIGHGATE ON FRIDAY

Meeting to Be Held There at 4 o'clock in the Afternoon.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
HIGHGATE, June 24.—Mr. W. Rowell will speak at Highgate on Friday, at 4 p.m. The meeting at Thamesville will be opened, at 2 p.m. on the same day, by A. E. McColl, M.P., West Kent.

After his address, Mr. Rowell will leave for Highgate and open the meeting there at 4 p.m. Mr. Rowell will follow Mr. McColl at Thamesville.

Cured of Piles and Eczema

By Using Three Boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Abram Buhr, Herbert, Sask., writes:—"I want to say that I was troubled with eczema and piles and suffered greatly from the itching, burning sensations caused by these annoying ailments. I sent for a free sample of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and this did me so much good that I bought three boxes more, and after using same was cured of both eczema and piles."

This is the kind of letters we receive daily from people who have been cured of these distressing skin diseases by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. No matter how skeptical you might be, you could not read these letters for many days without concluding that Dr. Chase's Ointment is undoubtedly the most prompt relief and certain cure for these ailments.

If you have doubts send for a free sample box and be convinced. It was Powell was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, when her Sunday school class of girls presented her with a beautiful silver bread tray.

FIRST RURAL SURVEY HELD IN HURON COUNTY

Interesting Papers Read Dealing With Education and Character Forming.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
EXETER, June 24.—A mass meeting held in the rink on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30, was addressed by the Hon. Mr. Hanna. A large crowd was in attendance and the Exeter band played.

After the political meeting at 4 o'clock, the Huron County first rural survey in Canada was held in the town hall. This survey has been undertaken by the joint boards of social service and evangelism of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches. It gives exhibits of Huron County by charts, diagrams and stereopticon views, showing actual comparisons of changes, failures and growth for forty years. Rev. James A. Ford, Goderich, president, Rev. S. F. Sharp, Exeter, secretary.

The meeting opened with Rev. Colin Fletcher, M.A., in the chair. After a few remarks by the chairman, the Rev. S. F. Sharp, B.A., B.D., read a thoughtful paper on "The Church and the Rural Community," in which he showed very clearly why the church interests itself in the rural districts, the rural problem, and how everything that is in the best interests of the country is of great importance to the church.

W. G. Medd, Winchelsea, spoke on "Huron From Within," calling attention to the fundamental need of a progressive spirit and mutual trust to insure progress. He then dealt with the question of co-operation, especially among farmers, in the manufacture of butter and cheese.

"Our Needs and Achievements," was the subject of John Rowcliffe's address. He distinguished between needs and wants, and showed that needs and achievements are most closely linked together, and that both reveal very largely the character of people.

In the absence of Mr. Hart, Prof. S. B. McCready, director of elementary agricultural education, for Ontario, emphasized the need of a special education for country life. After an interesting discussion, the meeting adjourned to meet at night.

Evening Session.
The evening session opened at 8 o'clock with an address and lantern views by Mr. McCready on the different types of schools in Ontario and on the schools of other countries that have been most efficient in giving an education suited to the needs of the country.

Taylor Statten, national boys' work secretary of Y. M. C. A., gave an inspiring address on the four-fold development of youth, necessary to the making of good character and efficient citizenship. He outlined a plan which will soon be sent to every minister and other educational work, for the promoting, by community effort, of this end.

A. J. W. Myers, Ph.D., gave lantern slide views showing some results of the Huron survey, and all were deeply interested and set thinking on the conditions of, and problems confronting Huron County, and were led to think of old questions in a new way.

It was the wish of the meeting that the full report of the survey be printed, and that later in the year other meetings be held to discuss further the many questions. The same program will be given in Clinton on Wednesday, and Auburn on Thursday.

There was a fairly large audience of representative people, and all were deeply interested and set thinking on the conditions of, and problems confronting Huron County, and were led to think of old questions in a new way.

Semi-Annual Remnant Day Friday

Tomorrow at 8:30, the Remnants will make their semi-annual move. Many who read this announcement will recall this event in January last, when we inaugurated this idea of clearing all remnants throughout the store in one day. Every department has been preparing for this for some time, and all remnants of pieces sold out during the season have been carefully laid aside and reserved for Remnant Day. These, together with all remnant lots and broken ranges in Ready-to-Wear Departments, will be priced tomorrow, and laid out for quick clearance. In most cases half-price will rule, but many lines will be found at even a fraction of half price, and it is safe to say that $5.00 spread around the different remnant sales Friday will bring at least double its value of merchandise in return. All briefly listed below.

WHERE REMNANTS WILL BE FOUND

All will be sold in the department to which they belong, as follows:

MRS. POWELL HONORED BY EXETER S. S. CLASS

[Special to The Advertiser.]
EXETER, June 24.—Mrs. E. P. Powell was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening, when her Sunday school class of girls presented her with a beautiful silver bread tray.

CLANDEBOYE.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
CLANDEBOYE, June 23.—The first which visited this section of the country did not do as much damage as was at first expected. The potatoes, corn and beans, which are just through the ground, suffered most, although from present indications will come on again. But in some localities the tomatoes were nipped so badly that they are totally destroyed, and it is reported that the barley that had shot into head will be a total loss.

Oscar Jones, a former resident of this place, is renewing old acquaintanceships at present. Mr. Jones is a large landholder in the West, and says that the crops, although very late, are looking well.

The annual strawberry festival of the Clandebye Methodist Church will be held on the church lawn on Thursday evening, June 25. Local talent will give the program.

ORANGE SENTINEL EDITOR RESIGNS TO FIGHT BAR

TORONTO, June 24.—W. R. Plewman, editor of the Orange Sentinel, has resigned his office.

He states that, as the paper came out in favor of the election of the Government candidates, thereby imperiling the success of the great moral issue, the abolition of the bar, he decided to obtain his freedom in order that he might devote his time to its furtherance.

He also takes issue with the Government on the bilingual school question.

DOWLER—PEARL

ST. THOMAS, June 24.—The marriage of R. H. Dowler, a well known business man of London, to Miss Margaret Katharine Pearl, daughter of J. V. Pearl, G.T.R. agent, was celebrated on Wednesday afternoon at her father's residence, 61 Pearl street.

Rev. Mr. McGillivray officiated. Mr. L. H. Dingman was groomsmen, and Miss Dorcas Pearl attended her sister.

A fashionable wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Geo. Ellison, Wellington street, when his daughter, Miss Clara Jane Ellison, was married to Mr. M. D. McCrimmon, a young St. Thomas barrister, son of County Crown Attorney A. McCrimmon. The Ven. Archdeacon Hill officiated. The happy couple left for Algonquin Park to spend their honeymoon.

LARGE AUDIENCES IN HURON COUNTY GREET LEADER N. W. ROWELL

Kilties' Band and Cheering Crowd of Citizens Escort Him to Exeter Hall—Speaker Gives Lie to Tory Reports.

"Hon. W. J. Hanna, speaking here on Tuesday, declared that bilingualism, not temperance, was the real issue in the present campaign. Why did Mr. Hanna make that statement? For the same reason that he sent Mr. Snider into Huron County, in an endeavor to keep the bars open."—Mr. Rowell, at Exeter.

"The things I have done in the Legislature concerning matters connected with Mackenzie & Mann was to vote against the extension of the $2,000,000 land grant the Government gave them in New Ontario."—Mr. Rowell, at Clinton.

(By Staff Reporter)

CLINTON, June 24.—(Continued) Wesley Rowell, leader of the Liberal party in Ontario, addressed a magnificent gathering in the town hall here this afternoon. Mr. Rowell had motored over from Exeter, where he addressed a meeting earlier in the day, and was met on the outskirts of the town by the kilties band and by an enormous crowd of cheering citizens, who escorted him to the hall, where he was given a rousing reception.

Mr. Rowell, in the opening remarks of his address, asked for support for Mr. Proudfoot, declaring that the latter was the warmest supporter he had in his fight to abolish the bar. He said he had been assured that in South Huron the Liberal candidate expressed the hope that the north riding also would return the Liberal candidate.

"Make Huron Solid"

"Make Huron solid this time," he said, "and by so doing you will be doing a great deal toward bringing about the abolition of the bars and the club licenses all over the province." "You did a great thing on January 29 when you voted to close your own bars, now, on June 29, do a greater thing still and vote to do away with all the bars. Be sufficient, patriotic and philanthropic to do for your neighbors what you have done for yourselves."

The Liberal leader said he had been told when he adopted his present policy that he was committing political suicide. In any case, he declared, he had not adopted the policy for the sake of securing victory. Moreover, he had more faith in his fellow Christian citizens than to believe they would forsake him after he had taken up their fight against the open bar and the club license.

A Campaign of Villification.

Mr. Rowell referred in a bantering tone to the campaign of villification being carried on against him by a London Conservative paper. From the beginning, he said, this paper had been cursing him, but as the campaign got warmer they were cursing harder than ever.

"The fact of the matter, he said, is that the paper is losing its temper. The reason is obvious: they are gradually losing ground, and when the tide is running against a man and he is feeling discouraged, he is apt to get irritable."

An Absurd Charge.

Referring to some of the latest charges made against him by the paper in question, Mr. Rowell pointed out their utter absurdity. One charge or statement was that he, Mr. Rowell, would destroy hydro-electric if he got into power. "That is a matter of fact," he said, "he had been as heartily in support of hydro-electric as the Government had. He was also charged that he was in the pay of Mackenzie and Mann. "That is news to me," he said. "The things I have done in the legislature concerning matters connected with Mackenzie and Mann was to vote against the extension of the $2,000,000 land grant the Government gave them in New Ontario."

WARM RECEPTION AT EXETER

(By Staff Reporter)

CLINTON, June 24.—The leader of the Liberal party in Ontario must have been gratified and encouraged by the warmth of the reception he received in Exeter this afternoon when, to an audience of over 700 people, many of them ladies who, in spite of the intense heat, gave him their undivided attention, he outlined the principles for which he and his followers were fighting.

Mr. Rowell, whose first visit to South Huron this was since he became leader of the Liberal party, referred to his report that Hon. W. J. Hanna, speaking here on Tuesday, had declared that bilingualism, not temperance, was the real issue in the present campaign.

Discovery of Game Laws.

"Mr. Hanna made the discovery very late," he said. "Sir James Whitney made no mention of it in his election address, and it seems a remarkable thing that the Prime Minister should have ignored this chief issue. Why did Mr. Hanna make that statement? For the same reason that he sent Mr. Snider into Huron County in an endeavor to keep the bars open."

Mr. Rowell also emphatically declared that Mr. Hanna was right in saying that he did not know what his (Mr. Rowell's) stand was upon bilingualism. "I am sure," he declared, "Mr. Hanna knows perfectly well where I stand in that question, for I have declared myself publicly in the House. I believe, and have so stated in Mr. Hanna's presence, that every boy and girl in this province should receive a thorough English education."

The Government's Claim.

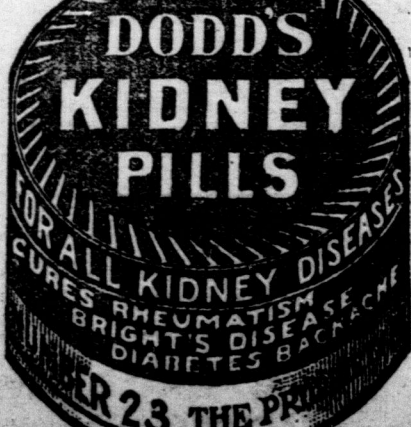

The Government, he pointed out, had taken credit for closing a great many bars by means of local option, whereas they had deliberately sent Mr. Snider into Huron and Peel and Welland to try to prevent local option from carrying. In any case, it was not the Government, but the people who had closed the bars in the districts now under local option by their vote, and the Government had put an unfair obstacle in the way in the iniquitous three-fifths clause.

At one point a member of the audience stood up and shouted, "What about the Ontario Club?"

To which Mr. Rowell replied: "You support it, and I will see that the license of the Ontario Club and of every other club in the province is wiped out."

A little later, when the speaker asked: "For whom are you going to vote on June 29?" someone called out: "For Harry Elber."

"My friend has a right to vote for whom he pleases," returned Mr. Rowell, "but if he does what he says he is going to do, he will be voting to sustain the open bar," and added, "I hope the cries of the children who are being ruined through strong drink will ring in all your ears from now until June 29."

WINGHAM HALL TOO SMALL FOR AUDIENCE AT ROWELL MEETING

Two Thousand Turn Out to Hear Liberal Leader—His Third Address of Day.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

WINGHAM, June 24.—By speaking in Wingham tonight, N. W. Rowell accomplished the feat of addressing audiences in all three ridings of Huron in the one day. In the skating rink, where tonight's meeting was held, nearly two thousand people were present to hear the Liberal leader, those who could not secure accommodation on the floor of the hall, finding vantage points in the galleries, on the window sills, and even on some of the rafters. As in every other place, where he has spoken during the present campaign, Mr. Rowell was given a splendid hearing, the great audience showing clearly by its applause of his almost very sentence their complete sympathy with his policy.

It was some time after he rose to speak before Mr. Rowell could make himself heard, for the crowd cheered and cheered again, until the very walls re-echoed to the sound of his voice. As usual, although he touched on other matters, Mr. Rowell devoted most of his attention to the question, which is nearest to his heart, the abolition of the bar.

Huron's Obligation.

One man in North Huron told him, he said, that the issue was not of much importance in the country, because already all the bars there were closed, or were about to close, as the result of the passage of the Scott Act last January.

"I told him," said Mr. Rowell, "that that was Cain's answer. You people of North Huron owe it to your fellows in the other parts of the province to do for them what you already have done for yourselves."

Government Afraid.

The Conservatives, he went on, were trying to evade the real issue in this campaign by producing all kinds of side issues. He took this as an indication that the Government was afraid that it never had been afraid before. It had come to realize that Ontario was against the bar, and that unless they could side-track the temperance issue, they were likely to go down to defeat with the bars, which they had done so much to keep open.

The Government had had a good deal to say about the benefits of local option, and so had the liquor interests. The latter had not thought so well of local option when it was being voted on. Mr. Rowell said, and the inference was that, like a man about to be hanged, they simply were endeavoring to stave off the evil day, from their point of view, as long as possible.

Liquor Men's Boast.

Mr. Hanna, the provincial secretary, had stated that within ten years every bar in Ontario would be closed under the Conservative policy. That result certainly would not be brought about by Mr. Hanna's being elected, he declared, and he went on to say that he had heard liquor men openly boast that if they could stave off province-wide prohibition for another ten years, they could count on such an influx of immigrants from European centres, who had not been educated along temperance lines as the people of Ontario had, that province-wide temperance legislation would be blocked for a generation. "We have been asked why don't you extend your abolition policy to include shops," he continued, "That is only another attempt on the part of the liquor interests to divert attention from the bars through which they make their money, and get in their deadly work among the youth of our province."

Plan to Close Shops.

He explained that the plan was to apply local option to the shops, giving to municipalities the power to abolish them on a bare majority vote. It was felt that to have included the shops in the plan of province-wide abolition would have been going rather farther than public opinion warranted at present. "It has been said that I am not sincere," Mr. Rowell continued. The liquor men do not believe that they if the liquor men were not putting up hundreds of thousands of dollars in an effort to defeat me, as they are doing.

There are two great forces fighting in this campaign—the forces of organized liquor traffic, and the forces of organized temperance and organized Christianity. On June 29 you have to vote for one of these two great forces. Which will you support?"

He appealed to the women to use their influence against the continuance of the open bar by getting their men-folk to send to Toronto the men who were pledged to support the abolition of all bars and club licenses.

Confidence in Mr. Rowell.

A high tribute was paid to Mr. Rowell by J. G. Anderson, formerly M.P.P. for South Bruce, and the present Liberal candidate in North Huron, who declared that Mr. Rowell had the confidence of his following to a great extent than the leader of any party in any Legislature in the country, and added that he fully deserved that confidence.

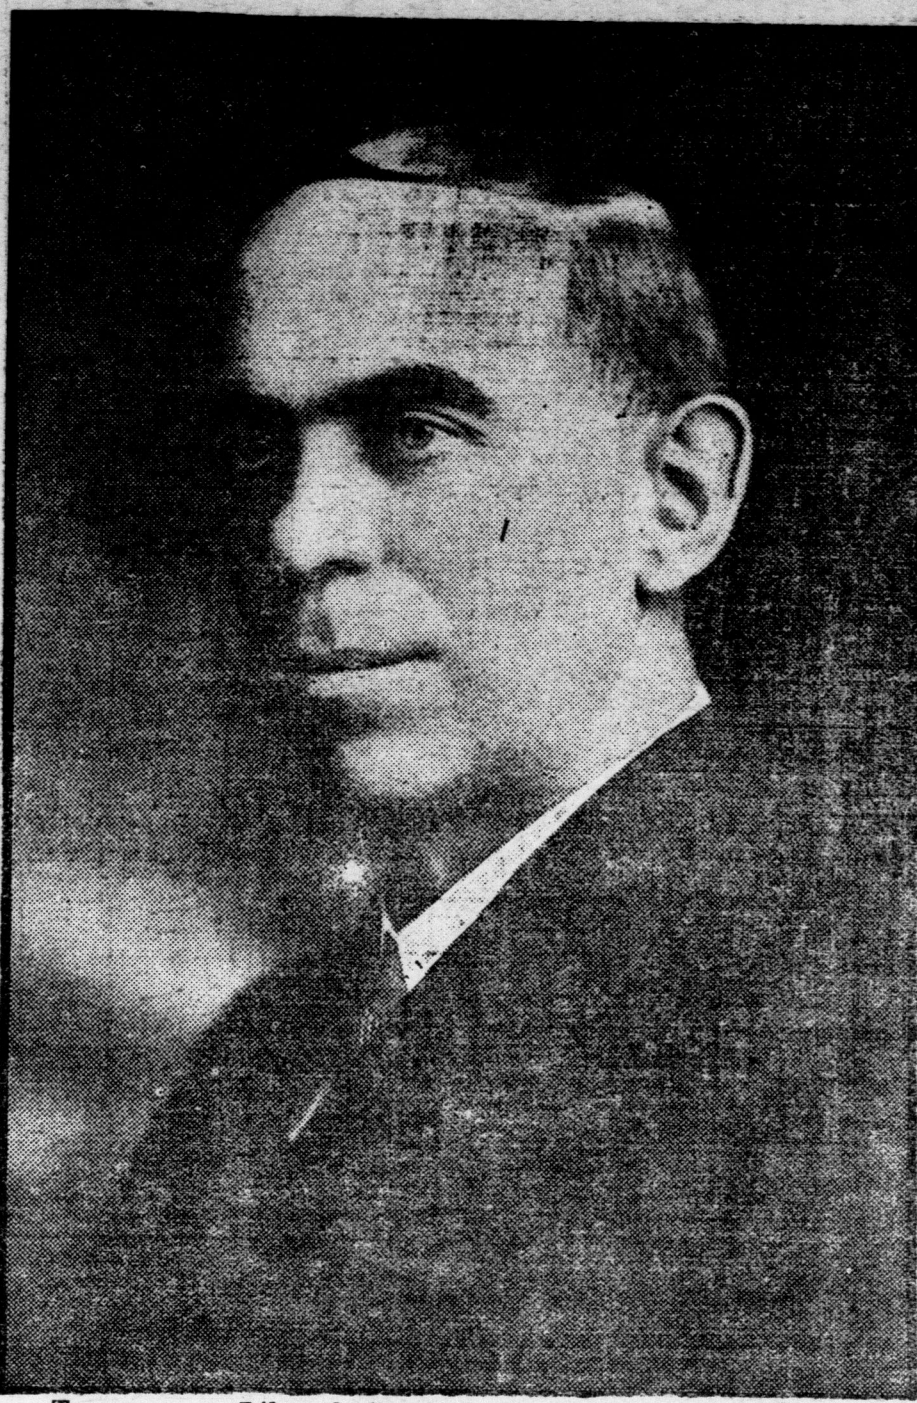

Mr. Anderson said his opponent, Mr. Musgrove, had made the statement that he, Mr. Anderson, could not have secured the Liberal nomination in either the old South Bruce riding or the South Bruce riding as it was after the redistribution. In refutation of Mr. Musgrove's statement, he read a resolution passed by the South Bruce Liberal Association unanimously approving of their president's action in tendering Mr. Anderson the nomination and regretting that he had not found himself able to accept.

The speaker accused the Whitney administration of inconsistency, citing evidence that the fact that the Government which had committed itself to a policy of abolishing treating had not fulfilled its obligation in the respect. Mr. Rowell, on the other hand, had committed himself to abolition of the bar, and had never swerved from his course. Mr. Rowell declared that, in his opinion, Mr. Musgrove, if he were returned to power, would make the best Prime Minister the province ever had.

A Difference.

In the course of a comparison of the stand taken by the Government and that taken by matters with respect to temperance in the House, Mr. Anderson said that Mr. Musgrove had voted against the Scott Act, and had voted for local option, while he had voted for it. Later, the Government did amend the license law along that line, but the Liberals had taken the initiative in the matter. In 1913 he (Mr. Anderson) had moved an amendment to the liquor license act looking to the deletion of the three-fifths clause. Mr. Musgrove also voted against that, as did the proposal to extend local option to include county boundaries, and another one to have the bars closed from 9 o'clock at night until 5 o'clock in the morning.

A. E. BUCHANAN

Temperance-Liberal Candidate in South Waterloo.

o'clock in the morning. He, Mr. Anderson, had supported both of these proposals.

Mr. Rowell's Sincerity.

The absolute sincerity of the Liberal leader was extolled in an eloquent address by Thomas McMillan, a prominent Hullett Township farmer, who asked, "Are you, who have striven so long for advanced temperance legislation, equally sincere?" and added, "If you are, give your vote on June 29 to the man who has pledged himself to abolish the bar-room and every club license in Ontario, and who will keep his promise."

$40,000 DAMAGE IN WINDSOR FIRE

Curling Rink Destroyed, Odd-fellows' Temple Damaged and Many Homeless.

CHILD'S NARROW ESCAPE

Mother Had Barely Time to Get It Safely Out of House.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

WINDSOR, June 24.—Twenty people were homeless and damage which will total $40,000 was caused in Dufferin Place by a fire which broke out at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the big Windsor curling rink.

The rink was a big frame structure, located among a lot of frame houses and barns. The party who first noticed the flames telephoned that the skating rink was on fire, and as a result, the department went there and lost ten minutes in getting back to where the fire was.

When the brigade arrived the big frame rink was a sheet of flames, and the intense heat and showers of sparks started fifty fires. The situation was so serious that help was called from Walkerville.

Temple in Danger.

Backing up against the rink is the new Oddfellows' temple, which cost $50,000, and is just being finished. It is already caught fire, and damage which will run into about $3,000 was caused in the interior and the rear wall may have to be taken down. Only the hardest kind of work saved this fine structure.

The curling rink, which is 200x60, was soon a mass of embers, and before the fire was gotten under control the homes of Mose Lesperance, 10 Dufferin Place, the big barn of the Cadwalland and Gravel Company, a double house owned by Chris Marquette and occupied by Reginald Ingram and John Armitage, and half a dozen small barns were in ashes, and the homes of Albert Langlois, Ernest Goyeau and Christie Sorel were badly damaged.

Mr. Ingram's child was ill, and so quickly did the flames spread that his wife had barely time to wrap the baby up and get it out before the place caught. In a few seconds it was so hot in the vicinity that all efforts to get the furniture were unavailing.

Firemen Shook.

While the fire was at its height, Assistant Chief Clarence de Fields, and two other firemen were directing a stream from the big new auto truck. The water struck a live wire, and the current ran back to the nozzle, and all the fire-fighters were thrown on their backs. They were unhurt, and once resumed the fight. Fireman Wilfrid Reame had his hand badly lacerated by a hose hook.

Little Insurance.

The losses in the fire will total $40,000, and only a very small insurance is carried.

On the rink there is $3,800, but the curling association places its loss at $10,000. Very small insurance was carried on the burned homes.

A boy smoking in the building is believed to have caused the fire.

PREACHER IMPRISONED AS PASSIVE RESISTER

Montreal, June 25.—A London cable says: Dr. W. W. Wemyss, a leading Methodist minister, has just served two days in prison as a passive resister against the act of 1902, but previously only his goods were seized.

DRUNK MANGROUND TO DEATH BY WHEELS OF FREIGHT TRAIN

Just Out of Sarnia Jail a Week After Serving a Long Term for Drunkenness—Run Down by Cars Being Pushed Into Siding.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

SARNIA, June 24.—Another victim of the bar and liquor went to his death today on the tracks of the Grand Trunk Railway, in the person of Patrick Hamill, of this city, who was run down and ground to death beneath the wheels of several freight cars, which were being pushed into the siding near the plant of the Sarnia Fence Company.

The man was under the influence of liquor at the time, and had in his possession another full bottle. Death was instantaneous. Hamill's chest being crushed in, and his head injured in many places.

Dr. Logie, of the Grand Trunk, was summoned to the scene of the accident, but Hamill was dead before he arrived. Deceased was unmarried, and has been a resident of the city for a long time. He was let out from the local jail only a week ago, where he had been serving a term for drunkenness.

Dr. Bradley will empanel a jury to look into the death.

A WHISKEY-MADDENED MAN AIMS GUN AT HIS EMPLOYER

Charge Against Kinloss Farm Laborer, Accused of Threatening to Kill Adam McQueen—Companion Was Also Arrested.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

LUCKNOW, June 24.—William Harris, a farm laborer, was arrested tonight with a revolver, fifty cartridges and a big bottle of whiskey in his pockets. He was charged with carrying firearms and threatening to kill his employer, Adam McQueen, one of the best known farmers of Kinloss.

According to the statements made by the police tonight, a murder was barely averted this afternoon when Harris, alleged to have been maddened through the effects of whiskey, quarrelled with McQueen.

It is alleged that he chased his employer into the house, and threatened to shoot him, pointing the gun at him. It was stated to The Advertiser tonight that the quarrel arose over McQueen's sister, to whom Harris wished to pay his attentions.

A friend of Harris, Daniel McKensie, who was with him when the police went to the farm, was also arrested.

The man will appear before Magistrate Murdoch on Thursday.

WANT BATTLEFIELD FOR A RESERVATION

Government To Be Asked For A Park At Beaver Dam.

[Canadian Press.]

ST. CATHARINES, June 24.—The reservation of forty acres of Beaver Dam's battlefield, by the Dominion Government, and its establishment as a battlefield park, with fitting appointments, together with further recognition of the Six Nations, were keynotes of expression of opinion which were crystallized into resolutions and unanimously carried by representatives of patriotic societies and citizens who assembled today to honor the memory of the heroes who fell at Beaver Dam 101 years ago. The chief ceremony took place about a plain stone monument, which was erected by some citizens of Thorold.

The Twelfth York Rangers, four hundred strong, under Lieut.-Col. Nichol, fired a feu de joie and marched past with Miss Laura Ryerson, of Toronto, standard-bearer of the United Empire Loyalist Association, supporting the flag.

Memorial to Thorold Pioneer.

A warm address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Joseph Battle, of Thorold, followed by F. E. Keefer, grandson of George E. Keefer, founder and first reeve of the village of Thorold, to whose memory the monument was erected by some citizens of Thorold.

TWO PRETTY WEDDINGS IN INGERSOLL CHURCH

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INGERSOLL, June 24.—The rectors, Rev. R. J. M. Perkins, officiated at a quiet wedding in St. James' Church today, the contracting parties being Edna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. B. Fellows, of West Oxford, to Mr. W. J. A. Easlea, of Beachville. Only immediate relatives and friends were present, and the bride and groom were unattended. The happy couple left for points east and, following a short honeymoon, will return to the home of the bride's parents. About the middle of July they will sail for England, where they will reside.

Rev. Dr. Farquharson officiated at a quiet wedding today when he united in marriage Miss Bessie McDonald, daughter of Mr. John McDonald, and Mr. Charles Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Pearson.

Both the bride and groom have been prominently connected with the choir and Young People's Society of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and a host of friends will extend congratulations. They will reside in Ingersoll.

A SAMSON.

The Philistines made merry over Samson toiling, with darkened eyes, in their prison. He was a Nazirite who drank no wine, and that was one of the jokes on the day of Dagon, we may be sure. Mr. Rowell has been toiling along in the darkness of opposition and of a pitiful minority, and when he declared for abolition of the bar, offering to help the Government in that work, Mr. Hanna held his sides, and said it was hard on a tough heart. Ha, ha, he laughed, and the liquor men laughed, too.

"And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, call for Rowell, that he may make us sport," give a temperance lecture, for instance. So they called an election, and "set him between the pillars," the two big props of their system, the public bar and the private bar, one standing for the debauchery of the poor, the other for the rich in their clubs. And now, then, show us what you can do, they cried.

And Rowell said, suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them. And he called unto the sons of temperance, and said, remember me I pray, and strengthen me, this once, with the strength of your votes as formerly of your prayers.

What happened will be told next Tuesday. The one difference between Rowell and Samson is that to pull the pillars down, "the Canadian Lloyd George" must himself survive the action of the 29th. But perish the Philistines.

A KEYNOTE ARTICLE.

AS THE Ottawa Citizen (Con.) says, "If Rowell is defeated, it will simply mean that a majority of the temperance electors of Ontario put party before principle. It would mean also that no further advance in the crusade against the drink evil would be made during the present generation. No political leader would, in the face of Rowell's sacrifice, extend a hand in support of the temperance cause. The liquor interests realize this, and will make every effort, regardless of present cost, to insure the return of the Conservative party. The issue is clear and rests on the shoulders of the temperance electors of the province."

This is a brilliantly lucid statement of a plain truth. If Mr. Rowell should be turned down, it would be by the very men who have said they wanted what he offers them. He would be giving them, at the cost of his high-priced time and of the calamity that is flung at the disinterested statesman, just what they have been asking for so long, and their reply would be a buffet in the face. The champion of temperance would be struck down, not by the liquor men so much as by the professed friends of temperance reform. It is almost inconceivable if there were not such men about as Mr. Doughty, of Riverdale. It is certainly not probable.

Here in London, there are men who say, "Yes, I am opposed to the bar and want to see it wiped out, but Sir Adam Beck has done a lot for London, etc. I have voted for him before, etc." But, men, face the present issue, which is clear and simple. Don't leave it to other constituents to do your work for you. If the bar is to be abolished, we want to do it here in London, in East Middlesex, in Elgin and Kent, everywhere in one undistinguished rout of the liquor host. The victory should not be close, but overwhelming, province-wide. We want to see the cabinet ministers as well as their followers who hold up the bar rolled down with it in a spectacular overthrow. Then Sir Adam Beck or any others who may appear to have done something for their county or country will realize that it is no ingratitude that has hurried them down, but a signal public condemnation of their sympathy or worse on the most vital question that concerns us as a people today. Let the beaten men come back another time if they may later so deserve, but hit them hard next Monday for a manifest reason. If you are a Conservative, join the Conservative Ottawa Citizen and get behind Mr. Rowell in his great purpose. If you think Sir Adam Beck or others have done good work, don't let them prevent Mr. Rowell from a greater and crowning work for the betterment of Ontario.

CONSISTENCY THOU ART.

MR. ROWELL has made his offer to the temperance people of Ontario, and it is up to them to say by their ballots on Monday next whether or not they are consistent. For years the friends of temperance have been crying for a Moses to lead them into the Israel of a barless Ontario. A Moses has offered himself, and that Moses is Newton Wesley Rowell. If the temperance people of Ontario are consistent, if they are sincere in the expressions that they have made use of during the past twenty years, the bar-room will be ridden out of this province on the ballot next Monday.

For years the churches, the moral reform associations, the temperance associations, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, scores of other organizations of a similar nature, and individuals, have been crying for the abolition of the bar. They have appealed to the governments, they have circulated petitions and they have voted, through plebiscites, for the elimination of Ontario's curse, for the removal of Ontario's social cancer. Mr. Rowell has offered them the opportunity to attain that which they have been seeking these long years; it is up to them to avail themselves of this opportunity regardless of political affiliations.

Without fear of successful contradiction, The Advertiser unhesitatingly makes the statement, and wishes to make it as strongly as possible, that a consistent temperance man cannot vote for a Whitney-Whiskey candidate on Monday next. There are plenty of good men, personally, who will seek the public favor on election day on the Conservative ticket, but they are not temperance candidates. Rather, they are pledged to support the government of Sir James Whitney, the government that is backed to the last ditch by the liquor interests of this country, and even, it is said, by the big British distillers, who, like Othello, see, at least, a part of their occupation vanishing in the event of Ontario becoming dry. If the record of every Whitney candidate was absolutely without a blemish, which, unfortunately, is not the case, can the temperance people of this province—Liberals and Conservatives alike—consistently support them?

In London and throughout the province men have been nominated—many of them not Liberals, either—who are pledged to support the platform of Abolish the Bar. The Whitney candidates are not so pledged, but offer themselves to the kind mercies of the people on an oratorical and newspaper glorification of the so-called magnificent deeds of the Whitney administration in the past, an administration that has done nothing for temperance but put obstacles in the way of the temperance workers. The Whitney-Whiskey organs and the Whitney-Whiskey spell-binders may shout until they are black of face concerning the great strides that have been made in increasing the number of local option municipalities throughout the province during the Whitney regime, but the fact remains that THE WHITNEY GOVERNMENT DID NOT ACCOMPLISH THESE REFORMS. The work was accomplished by the temperance people, despite the handicap placed upon their efforts by the iniquitous three-fifths clause.

There is only one real issue in this campaign, and that issue is the reception or rejection of Mr. Rowell's pledged proposal to cut off every bar and club license in the province of Ontario. The issue is clear-cut; it needs little explanation. The city of London was represented in the last Legislature by a member of the provincial cabinet. On general principles the public may be willing to accept him, BUT HE IS NOT A TEMPERANCE MAN, for the reason that he stands with the liquor party, the party that seeks to keep open those social cesspools which threaten to undermine the very life of the nation.

Mr. Rowell has made his offer. If the temperance people of London and the temperance people of all Ontario are consistent; if they believe in the policy which they themselves have so long advocated, the Liberal leader will be given the reins of power on Monday next, and the bars of Ontario will go out of business.

THE HEALTH OF SIR JAMES.

THE appearance of Sir James Whitney on a public platform in Toronto in the last days of the campaign was a final effort to awaken some enthusiasm in his party, and an appeal for sympathy from the people. During his long and serious illness, there has been the kindest feeling toward him from Liberals as well as Conservatives. The desire expressed for his recovery was general and sincere. His restoration to some degree of health was gratifying to all, irrespective of politics. By the Liberals he has been treated with all courtesy, and while they have condemned his Government for its reactionary policy, there has been little personal criticism. Under ordinary circumstances he would not have been expected to take any active part in the campaign. But in their alarm over the approaching disaster, his party felt compelled to see if there was any magic left in his name and voice.

Sir James thinks it a very sad thing for Mr. Rowell to gamble on his health. But the Liberal leader is not doing the gambling. That has been done by the colleagues of Sir James himself. Mr. Rowell did not bring on the election nearly two years before it was due. The Government did that. And why? Sir James says in his Massey Hall address: "Apart from the issue of the abolition of the bar, there was no question before the province at the present time on which the people could be asked to put the Government out." If there was, in the opinion of the Government, no question admitting an adverse decision by the people, why was an election called before it was due? The Government had a large majority in the Assembly. On its most important legislation, such as the workingman's compensation act, it had the assistance of the Opposition—in fact, had been persistently urged on by the Opposition. The call to "banish the bar," we have been told, was only the despairing effort of a weak and harmless party. If all that were true, there was certainly no need for an election until the full term of the Legislature had expired. But while the members of the Government may have thought their course had been approved by the people,

---and the Worst Is Yet to Come

they were squabbling over the succession to the premiership. They believed that Sir James would soon be out of active service, and they wanted to get another lease of power before he left them. That was the only reason for the election; and Mr. Rowell is not to blame for it. If he referred at all to the unlikelihood of Sir James continuing in public life, he was only admitting in public what everybody thought, and what the ministers themselves believed. The gambling on the health of Sir James was done by his own colleagues, not by the Liberal leader.

Sir James declares that he is still at the helm, that as long as health and strength are left him he proposes to remain there. The Liberals are not objecting. They would as soon have the present Premier for an opponent as any of his colleagues. They are not desiring a change in premiers unless it involves a change in government. Their policy was adopted and is maintained without reference to the health of Sir James. Since his illness they have not attacked him personally, but if he is strong enough to lead his party he must be strong enough to bear the attacks on his party. He tells us he is "an unreconstructed Conservative, and an impenitent one to boot."

There is no doubt of that. But the people are tired of a government of unreconstructed and impenitent Conservatives. They are not fighting Sir James personally. They are fighting for social reform. They are fighting to save people young and old from the curse of the age. They are fighting to abolish the bar. And if Sir James or anybody else prefers to remain with the unreconstructed and impenitent they must suffer the consequences. It is their misfortune. It is not the fault of the Liberals.

The good wishes of Liberals go out to Sir James for continued health. Personally they have no animosity towards him. But as the head of unreconstructed and impenitent Toryism he is in an unfortunate position, and sympathy will not be allowed to interfere with principle.

NO OTHER ISSUE.

"A PART from the issue of the abolition of the bar, there was no question before the province at the present time in which the people could be asked to put the Government out."

—Sir James Whitney.

VILENESS AND DECEPTION.

WE HAVE all heard some habitual drinker tell with great glee of how on occasions when he has gone home "gloriously drunk," he has quieted his wife's or mother's suspicions by practicing what he considers clever deception. That he has lied, been untruthful, to put it mildly, doesn't seem a dishonorable thing to him, although in business he would lose heavily before resorting to falsehood. But falsehood is just one of the many mean, unmanly minor vices that invariably follow in the wake of habitual drinking. The salacious story, vile language, vulgarity generally, thrive in the atmosphere of the bar-room. If you wish to hear woman referred to in a manner to make a decent man sick, visit the average bar. This doesn't mean that every man who takes a drink contributes to or approves of villainy, but the whole tendency of the bar is to debase, and the man who frequents it, no matter how clean of mind and tongue, is certain to be contaminated. Banish the bar, and with it will disappear a world of nastiness.

SELF-SACRIFICE.

THE South Porcupine Conservative candidate, who was fined $600 for keeping a "blind pig" is a signal case of disinterestedness. The call of duty was stronger than any voice of selfish advantage with him. Personal interest summoned him to the ranks of the bar-abolitionists, but the needs of his country forced him to bear the standard for the Government and whiskey.

Fined $600, he might have been expected to be the implacable enemy of Sir James and Hanna. And how much was he called upon to put up with the campaign barrel? But no, he would never, never desert those stern lawgivers. He licks the hand that punished, for the good of his country.

Our Conservative friends maintain most dogmatically that bar-abolition means a golden age for "blind pigs." But the South Porcupine "pig"-keeper declines to help Mr. Rowell against the licensed bar, pushes away from him profits far beyond the dreams of avarice, and takes up his cross with resignation as a soldier of Hanna and licensed whiskey. It is self-oblivion.

THE ISSUE—WHAT IS IT?

MR. HANNA says, bilingualism is the issue. He discovered it Tuesday night.

Sir James Whitney says his ill-health is the issue. Sir Adam Beck says hydro, which was first promoted by the Liberals, and always supported by them, is the issue. The other cabinet ministers have not yet discovered an issue.

Mr. Rowell says the platform of the temperance party, the abolition of the bar, is the issue.

WHILE Beck was berating a radial line that was the first to show its faith in hydro power, that radial line's service was demoralized by the interruption to the hydro power system. The London street railway was in the same straits.

Swat the bar!
Save your boy!
Hanna's Highballs!
Rowell will Rout Rum!
Stevenson and Sobriety!

Regret for the solar plexus on the 29th!
Whiskey is at the last ditch in Ontario.

Weather prediction for Monday, June 29: Torrential rain of abolish the bar balloons.

The elector who listens to his consciences has but one choice, and that is to vote for Rowell.

The Conservatives are trying to drum up enthusiasm. The Liberal enthusiasm doesn't need any Dutch courage.

Few people consider drinking respectable. Why should the country be tied up to a business that is not respectable.

The eleventh inning battle rally by Whitney, Lucas Hanna and Beck came too late. The game was won in the early stages.

Local option may in time abolish the bars in the rural district. Mr. Rowell's policy is the only hope for the large cities of Ontario.

Defenders of the rum traffic have yet to tell us how much the traffic contributes towards the stability and prosperity of the community.

There is now no question but that the great heart of the province is favorable to abolishing the bar, and a big triumph for temperance and moral reform will be recorded next Monday.

Liberal policy built the Guelph Agricultural Farm, the pride of the province, and Liberal policy will make unnecessary that other Guelph farm, the pride of Mr. Hanna.

Is it quite cricket, Sir Adam, to claim your government banished the bars, when you know the votes of temperance people accomplished the thing, even under a heavy handicap inflicted by your government?

O TENDER EYES.
[Alfred H. Hyatt.]
O tender eyes! so kind and true,
You lead me with your light of blue;
I'd tread the dearest road with you,
O tender eyes!

O trustful hands! in them I lay
Mine own, because so brave are they

O trustful hands!

O loving heart! Love's blest abode,
To share my joy, to bear grief's load;
I need no light else along life's road,
O loving heart!

THE HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1914.

According to astrology this is not a lucky day. While Venus and Mercury are in benefic aspect, Saturn and Uranus are adverse.

Women are subject to uncertain influences, where their emotions are concerned, for while the sign is encouraging for love affairs, the evil influence of Uranus may cause serious mistakes in judgment, bringing about friendships with undesirable men.

Under this rule social assemblies of every sort should be very successful. Dances, banquets and receptions give promise of great enjoyment.

There is a lucky omen for the wearing of new clothing, for dealings with dress-makers and for personal popularity.

Artists, singers and actors should benefit from the government of the planets today. It is an auspicious time for first appearances and may provide for future prosperity.

Uranus gives warning of danger in travel, especially in electrically-propelled conveyances.

Peril from thunderstorms is foretold. Those late in the afternoon may be most dangerous to human life.

The signs are held by astrological rules to warn all who are inimical to women's best interests. The rule is believed to be powerful in regard to enemies who try to seduce women or to wield tyrannical power over them.

Old persons are subject to rather unfavorable influences. They should guard against possible accidents and should avoid exposure to bad weather, as colds contracted under today's conditions may be serious.

As Mars was in a place giving warning of warlike tendencies, crime and outrage, at the time of the last lunation, the prognostication of a month marked by startling events should be heeded, and in many instances may have reason to be extremely cautious.

Persons whose birthdate it is should not make any changes in occupation, place of residence. Men should be extra-ordinarily diligent in business. The young probably will become engaged or will marry within the year.

Children born on this day may be too much inclined to indulge in pleasure and amusement. They should have bright, quick minds. Their magnetic centre is the Sun in Cancer and the Moon is their principal ruler.

DIARY OF AN ANTI-SUFFRAGIST

"Woman's Place Is Home."

April 20.—This has been a busy week. Our public anti-suffrage meeting was a fair success, but it has meant a lot of work. An secretary I have been in a whirl of sending out letters and cards, taking minutes and attending executive meetings. The speaker, Mrs. Hennessy, was fine, and proved conclusively to the audience, I think, that women should remain in the home and be a helpmeet to man, and not waste her time in voting and wanting to enter man's sphere. Mrs. Hennessy has been travelling and lecturing now for over three months. It must be a most interesting experience. Her mother is taking care of her family.

April 21.—Mrs. Colbeck-Stoppit tells me that she is sure I have talent as a public speaker. My voice carries a beautiful when I read the minutes, she says. She went to a meeting of the Home to Be Kept Club, and I am going to take a few lessons on public speaking.

April 23.—I took my first lesson today. It is so inspiring to feel that I can use my influence to remain quietly in their places they meant to occupy in the world. I don't know what is the matter with John. He is acting very queerly, especially when any talk of the Society for the Suppression of Votes for Women comes up. He does not openly object to my learning how to be a platform speaker, but I know he does not approve of it.

April 25.—I meant to stay at home yesterday and draw a few bits. John's dressmaker draws are in a fearful state. I had just nicely started when Mr. Colbeck-Stoppit and the first vice-president of the S.S.V.W. came and carried me off to a meeting of the Home to Be Kept Club, a sister society in the next town. Mrs. C.S. spoke beautifully on the aims of the S.S.V.W. and how women should use their influence to support the modern trend of our sex towards appearing in the public eye. Coming home the car broke down and we were delayed four hours. John was nearly frantic and to make it worse, the morning papers today have a full account of it, with our photographs.

Songs We Used to Whistle and Sing

THE WHISTLING THIEF.

When Pat came over the hill,
 His colleen fair to see,
 His whistle both loud and shrill,
 The signal was to be:
 (Pat outside gives a shrill whistle.)
 "Oh, Mary," the mother cried,
 "There's somebody whistling, sure!"
 "But, mother, it is the wind,
 That's whistling through the door."

(Pat outside whistles a short air.)

"I've lived a long time, Mary,
 In this wide world, my dear,
 But the wind to whistle like that,
 I never yet did hear."
 "But, mother, you know the fiddle
 Hangs just behind the chink,
 And the wind upon the strings
 Is playing a tune, I think."

(Pat outside barks as a dog.)

"Oh, the dog is barking now,
 And the fiddle can't play a tune!"
 "But, mother, you know they say
 That dogs will bark at the moon."
 "But, Mary, that cannot be,
 For the dog is old and blind,
 Blind dogs do not bark at the moon,
 And fiddles ain't played by the wind."

(Pat outside squeals as a pig.)

"Oh, now then, there is the pig,
 And is he in his mind?"
 "But, mother, you know they say
 That pigs can see the wind."
 "Oh, that's very well in the day,
 But just let me remark,
 That a pig no more than a man
 Can see anything in the dark."

"Now, Mary, it's all of no use;
 I know very well it is Pat,
 Be off, ye whistlin' thafe,
 And get along home out o' that!
 And, Mary, be off to your bed,
 And don't bother me here with your
 For if I have lost my eyes,
 I have not lost my ears."

Moral:
 Young man, don't courtin' go
 Too nigh the house, do you mind,
 Unless you're certain sure
 The old woman's both deaf and blind;
 For the days when they were young,
 Forget they never can;
 They're sure to know the difference 'twixt
 A fiddle, a dog, or a man.

MAKE SIMPLE "COOKER."

To make at home the simplest kind of a fireless cooker, line a large candy pail with two or three thicknesses of paper or of asbestos, if that is not too expensive. Pack to a depth of two and one-half inches with clean hay; then set a tin pail with straight sides in the centre.

This should cover four inches below the top, and leave a space of two and a half inches between the inner pail and the outside for packing. Then pack in all the hay that can be crowded in and a tin higher on the top of the tin and a tin it even with the top of the tin and a tin cushion to fit snugly inside of the candy pail, and fill with hay.

The success of the cooker depends upon the kettle or pail in which the food is cooked. It must be air-tight. An aluminum kettle with a cover that clamps on is the best for meats, beans, and boiled dinners, although an enameled kettle will do with a tightly-fitting cover. Have the cooker near the stove, so that the kettle may be set into it the second it leaves the fire. Cover with the cushion and put the board cover over that, or if it will not fit, use a board or a piece of tin.

This cooker is useful in summer for keeping frozen desserts cool, as well as for cooking.

It's of White Irish Lace, Lined With Black; Black Gloves and Black Satin Hat Are Worn With It.

REAL FRENCH FASHIONS ON REAL FRENCH WOMEN PHOTOGRAPHED IN PARIS.

BY MAYBELLE MORTIMER.

The transparent white lace gown has taken to itself a tinted lining and the color is usually dark.

One seen at the Paris races was of white Irish lace, which is being worn again. It was made with a narrow skirt which showed a panel of black satin in front and back. The black satin under the lace brings out the pattern as no other color will.

DOC. YATES' HAMILTON ATHLETICS BEAT LOCALS IN FINAL CONTEST

Hams Were Out in Front From the Start and, With the Exception of the Ninth Inning, When Snyder Banged Out a Three-Bagger, Were Never in Danger—Indians Outthit the Athletics.

HAMILTON, June 24.—Hamilton Athletics had three errors and fewer hits than London Canadian League. The locals took the last of the series this afternoon by a score of 5 to 2.

The locals were out in front from the start, and never in danger, except in the last inning, when the visitors crowded two runs across the plate. In this session Dolan, who had pitched good ball for the locals, were derided in favor of Shears, who retired London in short order. But it was good game to watch, and the holiday afternoon crowd were well satisfied.

The Hams made their first run in the first inning, when Dudley opened the game with a nice two-bagger, Cunningham sacrificed him to third, and Baldwin's sacrifice fly gave the chance to score.

London tied up the game in the third, when Mullin singled, was sacrificed to second by Beebe, and to third by Linneborn, and scored on a long fly by Bierbauer. The home team came right back in the fourth. Baldwin got a base on balls, and Corus poked a three-bagger. Three hits in the sixth gave the home team three more runs. Dudley again opening up with a two-bagger, and Cunningham got on because of Beebe's error.

Baldwin bunted a short fly to Beebe, but Corus singled, and a single by Mullins scored him. Steiger went out, but Linneborn was safe on Baldwin's error. A single by Bierbauer scored Mullins, and Dolan was taken out for Shears.

BRANTS WON SNAPPY GAME FROM PETES

Scored Three Runs in the Eighth Inning.

STARK HURLED FOR PETES Blountmen Had One Run That Looked Good Until the Eighth Frame.

PETERBORO, June 24.—Brantford won a snappy game from the Petes today by a 2 to 1 score. The decision, when it looked as if the Petes' one-run lead was big enough to last. Stark, the ex-Hamilton, left-hander, was in the line with men on bases. Welsh's bare-handed running catch of Forgue's drive was the deciding factor. The score:

FRENCHMAN WITH A KNOCKOUT RECORD IS AFTER BANTAM CHAMP

Charles Ledoux

The French are hep, hep, hepping to the front in boxing, and the premier bantamweight of their bunch is Charles Ledoux, who is now after a match with Kid Williams, champion of the world. The last time they met, Williams won by the knockout route, but Ledoux thinks he will turn the tables this time. He has a wonderful record—54 knockouts in six months.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 25.—Kid Williams, of Baltimore, American bantamweight champion, and Charles Ledoux, French champion, were matched today to box twenty rounds here on the night of August 18 for the world's title. In their previous contest Ledoux was knocked out in fifteen rounds.

CORNISH-VENNING

PICNIC BIG SUCCESS

One Hundred and Thirty Present at Enjoyable Affair at Harrietsville.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Belmont, June 24.—The Cornish-Venning annual picnic was held at the home of J. W. Cornish, Harrietsville, on Wednesday, June 23, with a record attendance of 130 representatives from Monro, Mich., Cleveland, O., Toronto, Stratford, London, Thamesford, St. Thomas,
Belmont, Verschoyle, Mossley, Crampton,
Avon, Harrietsville.

The oldest person present was Mrs. T.
J. Cornish, while the youngest was Wilbert Leaman. Dinner was served at 12 o'clock on the spacious lawn, after which the afternoon was spent in races, which were keenly contested by the children, and baseball between the married and single men, resulting in favor of the former. Batteries: For married men, E.
Rouse, M. Morris and W. Scott; single men, H. Morris, A. Barons and B. Campbell.

After the sports, all partook of supper with ice cream, banana and lemonade.
The next picnic will be held at the home of A. W. Venning, Belmont.

GAS PROSPECTS ARE NOW NOT SO BRIGHT

Oil Springs "Natural" Field,
According to Experts, Will Peter Out.

Prospects for London and other Western Ontario cities securing a supply of natural gas from the Oil Springs field do not appear to be as bright as previously, according to information received by The Advertiser. In the Oil Springs field a number of wells have been drilled, but only two of them have been of any great consequence.

When these two wells were discovered, they gave great promise of being more than ordinary capacity, but it is now stated that their rock pressure has dropped from 10 to 325 pounds. A gas expert who visited the field recently went so far as to predict that the field would not last thirty days after the gas had been turned into a pipe line for transmission to other parts of the district.

Drilling operations are being continued,
however, and gas in sufficient quantities to warrant the expenditure of large sums in the construction of pipe lines may yet be discovered.

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

CALLS ON MEMBERS TO ABOLISH THE BAR

Says Rowell Has Shouldered
Responsibility for Action
Long Advocated by the Temperance People.

The Society of Friends favored, without a dissenting voice, the abolishing of the bar at its annual meeting held at Bloomfield, Ontario, from the 15th to the 18th inst.

The following resolution was unanimously passed:
"In view of the demoralizing results of the licensed bar, the poverty-producing and home-destroying effects of the treatment system, which the open bar is the father of, we, the Society of Friends, in this our annual conference, do most earnestly desire our members wherever located in the province to vote and use all their legitimate influence to banish the bar in Ontario, including the sale of liquor in clubs as now advocated."

"No political leader in our province has gone so far in his advocacy of the temperance cause as N. W. Rowell. Churches and temperance societies have for years been advocating the banishment of the bar in Ontario. We sincerely hope that Christian and temperance men will now support the cause, irrespective of party alliances, as we have a leader who has shouldered the responsibility of the proposition."

COLLEGE COMMISSIONER APPOINTED A RECTOR

Rev. A. A. Bice Is Given
Parish of All Saints to Succeed
Rev. T. B. Clarke.

Rev. Albert A. Bice, B.A., commissioner of Huron College, has been appointed rector of All Saints' Church, succeeding Rev. T. B. Clarke. The induction will take place August 2, and will be in charge of Archdeacon Richardson.

Mr. Bice is a graduate of Western University, and Huron College. He was ordained by Bishop Baldwin in 1902, and in 1903 was appointed to Bervie Parish, in Bruce, where he remained for three years.

During his parish he had experience in church building. While at Bervie, he built a church at Bervie and another at Kilmough. He built another at Dug-ham, in which parish he has resided since in 1905 and where he spent five years.
Since 1910 Mr. Bice has been commissioner of Huron College, where he recently received nearly $25,000 for the college jubilee fund.

Besides his administrative ability as a strong, vigorous preacher, Mr. Bice is well-known as an athlete. He played rugby here "when it was played right," a number of years ago.

FIRE COMPANY ISOLATED

No. 3 Station Crew Marooned in South
London Because of Roads.

No. 3 fire company, South London, is marooned. For several weeks now it has been unable to come down town in response to any alarms, and from present indications it will be several months before it does. Storm sewers and road improvement are responsible for the maroon-ing.

Ridout street is blocked by a new pavement on the north side of the bridge and by storm sewer work on the south. Work on the street railway tracks turn up, and storm sewers, gas mains, water mains and a few other incidentals to block traffic. Wharncliffe road has a storm sewer also, although it might be possible for the apparatus to get through. However, Fire Chief Aitken figures that the run to Wharncliffe road is too long, so the company remains across the river and answers South London calls only.

DEBATES THAT CHINA IS IN STATE OF ANARCHY

English Adviser to President
Says Country Is Better
Settled Than Ever.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, June 25.—A London cable says: Dr. Morrison, political adviser to the President of the Chinese Republic, who has arrived in England, will in a few weeks return to China, going via British Columbia, with the intention of investigating the immigration question in that province on the spot.

Interviewed yesterday evening, he corrected the misapprehension as to the present conditions in China. He gathered that China was supposed to be in a state of anarchy, whereas it was in an incomparably more settled condition than it had ever been since the revolution, or for some time before. The best and most progressive politicians of the Manchu regime had returned to public life, and were working in harmony with the pickets of the Young China party. Although

COURT ADMITS DISCRIMINATION

Advises Appeal to Prove Indiscriminate Increases in the Assessments.

REFUSES TO APPEAL

Ratepayer Who Showed Unfairness in Assessment Declines to Take Action.

Practically admitting that there were indiscriminate increases in the tax assessments levied this year, the court of revision last night directed James Fiddis to appeal the assessment of John White, on Piccadilly street, and it would investigate the assessment.

Mr. Fiddis lives near Mr. White, on Piccadilly street, and he told the revision court that the property, for which he paid $4,000, was assessed at $3,500, while Mr. White's property, for which he paid the sum of $9,000, and which was improved in the sum of $2,000 more, was only assessed for $6,500.

While members of the court admitted that was a serious discrepancy, and not a relatively fair assessment, it declared it could do nothing unless Mr. Fiddis himself appealed the case of Mr. White. This Mr. Fiddis refused to do. He, however, took occasion to tell Assessment Commissioner Grant that property ought to be assessed on the equal terms and a regard for the value of the house, rather than the value of the land.

PAPER BY PRISONER IS READ TO ADMEN

Although in Penitentiary L. V. Eyttinge Makes Money From Advertising—Condemns Poor Letters of Today.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, June 25.—A paper on "Giving the Letter Life and Decent Dress," written by Louis Victor Eyttinge, a prisoner in Arizona state prison at Florence, serving a life term for murder, was read at the Ad Club convention this morning. Eyttinge is 34 years of age, and has already served seven years. While in the prison at Yuma, before being transferred to Florence he contracted consumption and was faced to face with the necessity of making money. He took up advertising, and last year cleared $900. He sent word to the convention that he believes he can make $5,000 this year.

In his paper he likened the majority of business letters to tramps. "It is about time that businessmen were awakened to the danger that threatens their most modern method of merchandising because of the ragged hordes of letter hordes that are produced in so many letters through the American mails. So many letters beg for business in stammering speech and halting gait that makes one hanker for a good letter into being by foolish fathers, who neither planned nor prepared the way for their coming."

Despite the success of Chicago yesterday in getting the next convention for the Wisconsin City, it is rumored that the convention this morning may upset the verdict of the executive and give it to San Francisco.

M'CORMICK COMPANY IS MOVING INTO NEW PLANT

Will Be Making Candy This Week in Dundas Street East Building.

The McCormick Manufacturing Company will start for the first time this week the making of its products in its new plant on Dundas street east. Preparations for moving out of its present quarters opposite the Spencer block have been going on for the past few weeks, although actual removal did not start until this week, when the candy department was shifted from the old building to the new.

The moving will be by departments, it was said at the plant today, so that the employees would not lose time nor the company get behind in its orders. As far as the candy department is concerned, it is dismantled in the old building, the work of establishing it will be completed in the new building.

Out by September 1. It was said today that the departments would be out by September 1, and the company would be running everything at the new plant. The building vacated at that time will be dismantled and torn down, and the preliminary steps taken toward the federal square.

Crippled With Rheumatism

And Skeptical After Trying Many Medicines—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Cured Him.

When the kidneys fail to purify the blood, the poison left in the system causes pain and suffering, such as backache, lumbago and rheumatism. Read how this skeptic was cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. F. W. Brown, Kingsbury, Que., writes: "I have been completely cured of headache and lame back by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I also recommended the pills to a man who was a cripple from rheumatism. He was skeptical, as he said that he had tried nearly everything on earth. Finally he consented to try them, and to his surprise was greatly benefited in the first week, and the pain left his legs until he was so supple he could walk without pain or difficulty. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have worked wonders in this place, and we think there is no medicine like them."

STRIKING TESTIMONY TO HON. S. H. BLAKE SHOWN AT FUNERAL

Representatives of Government, Bench, Bar and the Church at Simple Funeral.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, June 25.—A remarkable testimony to the place Hon. S. H. Blake filled in the community was the large and representative concourse that filled St. Paul's Church, Bloor street, at the public funeral service this afternoon. Members of the bench and bar, men eminent in the church, civic dignitaries and representatives of the Ontario Government, joined in a tribute to his worth.

A private service was held at the home, 46 Maple avenue, at 10 o'clock.

At this service, only a few immediate members of the family were present. This was followed by the public service at St. Paul's.

Obedient to the wishes of deceased, there was no sermon or address. The congregation joined feelingly in two hymns; that were favorites of Mr. Blake: "Just as I Am," and "Rock of Ages."

The service was conducted by Archbishop Cody, and the Bishop of Toronto also officiated.

There was no funeral procession, either to the church or from the church to St. James' Cemetery. The remains were laid in the vault beside those of his distinguished brother, Edward.

Survivors of Empress

around her in the water with lifeboats. One of them promptly pushed her away. Coming up again, she was assisted by a man named Burt, who had a lifeboat and a suitcase. He gave her the latter and assisted her to get her overcoat off.

Though hampered by her shoes, she swam 50 yards, until picked up by a boat from the collier. Miss Townsend was called by C. S. Haigh, of counsel for the Storstad's owners, to answer questions in regard to the ladies who heard the Empress blow.

She said in this connection that just before the crash, she distinctly heard three short and two long blasts. She heard other whistles earlier, and they woke her up. She had laid out on deck from her cabin and had seen that it was quite foggy.

To Mr. Aspinall, of the C. P. R. lawyers, she said she thought some of the earlier whistles came from a third boat ahead of them.

Boats Parallel. Charles Burns, an assistant stevedore on the Empress, said that he ran up from his cabin, where he was sleeping, after the collision, and then saw the Storstad drawing away towards the stern of the Empress.

George McConkey, junior engineer of the Empress, testified that he had just gone off duty before the ramming, and heard fog signals from his ship. He then noticed that she was going astern by the vibration.

The court gave most of the Empress witnesses permission to go home today, ordering Capt. Kendall, First Officer Jones and Engineer Brennan only to remain.

Mr. Newcombe, who is conducting the case for the federal authorities, desired to call Capt. Murray, harbor master here, to the witness stand. He desired to ask him to prove the route of the passenger ships in putting out from Father Point to sea. Lord Mersey did not think it was necessary, as he said he was not a modern type, it was desirable or practicable to close the water-tight doors and portholes when the vessel entered into any fog.

Asked by Lord Mersey to give his present time, Mr. Newcombe said he got away from the Empress and what caused the vessel to sink. Mr. Reid said the collier's nose was hooked into the liner's side and locked, she swung round to her stern and the water rushed in.

Then got clear, the Empress moving forward. He said indications on the bow of the collier convinced him that an emergency bulkhead was only slightly hit, and that the collier was not damaged enough to render it useless. He thought that the Storstad only damaged one compartment at the boilers, and that any water that entered the collier would be pumped out.

Mr. Reid said that the area of the Empress rudder was not enough. She had 1.58 per cent of rudder after it was enlarged in 1909, to the submerged plane of the ship. This was not enough, he thought, to make her a good steering ship. She should have had 2 per cent. Vessels being built with cruiser effect sterns now had 2.4 per cent of rudder area.

Mr. Reid said the Empress' stern effect was new when she was built. The extra fulcrum of the stern was made to accommodate the steering machinery. The same effect was now secured, but in a different way.

Mr. Aspinall had just begun his cross-examination of Mr. Reid when court adjourned for lunch.

HANNA-BECK SPLIT WIDER THAN EVER

Even Conservatives Comment on Absence of Former From Picnic Yesterday.

REGARDED AS OMINOUS

Gathering Was Regarded as Love Feast for Warring Cabinet Ministers.

Even Conservatives this morning are commenting on the absence of Hon. W. J. Hanna from the Conservative picnic at Port Stanley yesterday. Billed to appear as one of the principal speakers, the absence of the provincial secretary is taken as a further indication of the breach between the Beck and Hanna interests of the Conservative party.

No mention was made of the Provincial secretary's absence, nor was an explanation given as to why he had not appeared. The picnic itself, despite its most glowing advance notices, failed to stir any enthusiasm in the breasts of the Conservatives of Middlesex and Elgin, and according to members of the Tory party, was not a complete success.

When the picnic was first considered as the fact advertised that Hanna and Beck were to speak from the same platform, it was hailed by Conservatives as an indication that the hydro man and the provincial secretary, who is the short odds favorite in the next leadership of the Conservative party in Ontario, had patched up their differences and would be "friends" for election purposes at least. When, however, the squat figure of the secretary failed to appear, some of the "insiders" of the Tory party drew long faces, apparently realizing that a reconciliation between the two cabinet ministers is as far away as ever.

JUNE WEDDINGS

COURTNEY—HOOVER.

Spruce Lawn, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoover, Kingsmill, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday, June 23, when their only daughter, Essie, was united in marriage to Arthur H. Courtney, of Brigidon.

Promptly at twelve o'clock, the bride entered on the arm of her father, and the bridal party took their places beneath a canopy of roses and ferns. The bride wore a gown of white tulle, and was played by Miss Melvin Woodward, of St. Thomas, a cousin of the bride. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. John Veale, of Dorchester, assisted by the bride's grandfather, Rev. H. Wood, of Springfield.

The bride, carrying a bouquet of carnations and ferns, looked charming in a dress of white silk crepe, trimmed with chiffon and pearls, and wearing a bridal veil adorned with lilies of the valley. During the signing of the register, Miss Stella MacGregor, charming manner, immediately after the ceremony, was the bride's maid.

The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue cloth with hat to match, and the young couple left, amid a shower of rice and confetti, in an automobile for St. Thomas where they took the train for Detroit.

After a short honeymoon they will take up their residence near Brigidon, where Mr. Courtney is a prosperous young farmer.

Guests were present to the number of sixty including relatives from Tilbury, Nanticoke and Sarnia. The many and costly presents received through the post in which the young couple were held.

HENSHAW—DAY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Monday at Christ Church, when Miss Nellie Day became the bride of Frederick Henshaw, both of this city. Many friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Canon C. R. Gunne. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, W. Yates, looked charming in a dress of white silk, trimmed with heavy gold lace, and wore a very pretty hat of white chiffon and deep pointed lace, and carried a bouquet of white lilies and carnations.

The groom was assisted by G. Brooks, of this city. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the house of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. Day. The bridesmaids' gifts were a gold brooch and necklace of pearls, while the best man received an amethyst stickpin.

Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw left during the evening on a week's trip, after which they will reside in this city.

MCRAE—SHOWLER.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Showler and Albert McRae, of Glenora, was quietly solemnized on Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, 27 The Ridge, way. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Percy King, the sweet young bride entered, leaning on the arm of her father, who looked charming in white crepe and white pearls, and carrying a bouquet of white roses and lily-of-the-valley. Rev. W. H. Harvey, of Ashcroft, officiated, and dainty little Miss Margaret Showler, of Toronto, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl.

During the signing of the register Percy King sang "Oh, Promise Me." Only relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom were present.

After the serving of the wedding breakfast, the happy couple left on the noon train for Detroit, where they will take up their residence at 997½ Forest avenue east.

MANN—MARSH.

Miss Vera Grace Marsh, of Arcona, and Percival Ernest Mann, of this city, were last evening at seven o'clock married by Rev. H. H. Bingham in the Talbot street Baptist parsonage. They were unattended in marriage by Rev. H. H. Bingham. They will reside at 105 Chesley avenue.

ELLIS—NORTH.

At the Talbot street Baptist Parsonage last night at nine o'clock, Walter R. Ellis, of Toronto, and Miss Charlotte A. North, of Detroit, were united in marriage by Rev. H. H. Bingham. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will leave the end of the week for Toronto, where they will reside.

MAY END STRIKE DURING NEXT WEEK

Carpenters Expect President Here to Patch Up Differences With Contractors.

Carpenters' strike will probably culminate next week.

In an effort to arrive at some definite understanding with the contractors, carpenters are bringing D. Kirby, president of the International Brotherhood of Carpenters, Indianapolis, to London.

Just when Mr. Kirby will arrive carpenters decline to say. It is thought, however, that an attempt will be made to reach a decision before the council meets in Chatham on Tuesday.

At the Chatham conference, representatives from all Ontario unions of the craft will be in attendance. They will decide on an increase in the regular strike pay for the men out in this city.

It is rumored that at the conclusion of the Chatham conference, which Mr. Kirby will attend, he will attempt to open negotiations with contractors here. Should he be successful, the strike will be called off almost immediately, it is thought.

As the situation now stands, carpenters show no disposition to hurry. Since 38 more men were called out Tuesday there has been no further developments on either side.

Organizer Tom Moore is in Toronto today. Whether his absence has any bearing on the strike carpenters do not say.

SPEAK NOW, SIR JAMES

[Toronto Globe.]

These letters should be of great interest at the present time, and, in view of them, it is surely remarkable to find Hon. W. H. Hearst, knowing the transaction, and the settlement of the Gamey as a Government candidate.

The first document is a copy of a letter sent by Mr. Gamey a year ago to a number of his constituents who are business men in Hamilton, and whose business is entirely at the mercy of Government regulations. The disavowal of the "member" is to them as terrible a thing as the frown of a feudal landlord to an English farm laborer.

To eight such men it is alleged by Mr. Gamey's opponents this letter was sent, and three at least, C. Lowe and James Kocque, Killarney, and John Haastie, of Sheslay, accepted and paid the drafts.

The letter follows: "R. R. Gamey, M. P., Broader, 'Office: Traders Bank Building, 'Phone 7233. 'Toronto, Ont., May 23, 1913. 'Dear Sir, I am selling some stocks of Elizabeth Gold Mining Co. Ltd. of 100 shares per share. I am president of the company, and we have done a great deal of development work and have an extensive plant in operation. I have a patent to make now, and wish to sell you five hundred shares of the company, which I will draw on you three drafts for one hundred dollars in thirty, sixty and ninety days each. Some time early in June I will call on you and explain fully the property and discuss matters with you. The drafts will go through the Merchants Bank, and they will notify you, and be good enough to accept them to assist me. Yours truly, 'R. R. Gamey, M. P. (Signed) R. R. Gamey."

When this transaction reached the ears of Rev. W. E. Wilson, who is now Mr. Gamey's opponent, he wrote to Sir James Whitney, directing his attention to the matter. Here is a copy of the Premier's answer:

"Office of the Prime Minister and President of the Council, Ottawa. 'Toronto, Ont., July 23, 1913. 'My Dear Sir, I have your letter of the 15th instant with inclosures. I am sorry to find the situation to be what it is, and, of course, it is impossible to deal with it by means of correspondence. 'Yours very truly, 'J. P. Whitney."

"(Signed) J. P. Whitney. 'In the face of these letters, why does Sir James Whitney permit R. R. Gamey to represent him in this election? DARE HE NOT DENOUNCE HIMSELF AS A YEAH FOR CONDUCT HE WROTE A YEAR AGO? AM I SORRY TO FIND THE SITUATION TO BE WHAT IT IS? What explanation has Sir James to make of these letters? Mr. Gamey called the Rev. Mr. Wilson a scoundrel and a skunk; the other day because he had shown some electors the letters. Is that to be the reward of the man who tries to keep politics clean? Speak, now, Sir James!"

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Death of Mrs. Moorhouse.

The death of Mrs. Mina G. Moorhouse, wife of Rev. J. C. Moorhouse, Trowbridge, Ont., and daughter of J. E. Threlkeld, of this city, occurred in Victoria Hospital Wednesday morning following an operation. Mrs. Moorhouse had been ill for six weeks. Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by four children and one brother, H. E. Boomer, of this city.

FUNERAL AT BRIGDEN.

The funeral of the late Hugh Black, aged 75, who died in London on Monday, was held from the residence of his son, Geo. D. Black, Boswell street, Brigidon, Ont., on Thursday afternoon to Boswell cemetery.

Mr. Black was a carriage builder, and at one time a partner of Mr. Tudhope of the Tudhope Carriage Co., of Orillia. A widow, two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Woodward of Sarnia, Miss Mamie, teacher, at Theodora, and four sons, Hugh, Hector, of North Carolina, Fred, of Detroit, and George of Brigidon, survive.

dermen, whom they say, can only be appeased after nine hours of continuous discussion.

In the language of one of the controllers, the aldermen can talk their heads off tonight, and when they get through Mayor Graham will rise up and tell them that if they give Contractor Boomer six months notice, the notice won't elapse until December, and when it does elapse council will have to refer the whole matter to the board of control again, as it involves an expenditure of money and by the time the board of control is ready to report there will be a new body of aldermen in the council.

A report of the board of control will come up at the meeting and some interesting recommendations are expected to come up.

AMERICAN STATES NOW ANXIOUS FOR CANADIAN EXHIBITS

Those Who Formerly Refused Them Now Ask for Them—American Immigrants of Good Class.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, June 25.—Canadian exhibits are wanted at the American fairs this year. W. J. White, who looks after American immigration for the Canadian Government, reports that there has been a change of sentiment across the line in regard to displays by Canada.

Several years there had been a growing antagonism to the attractive displays made by the Canadian immigration department at state exhibitions. They attracted attention and took people from the United States to Canada. The American real estate men raised objections, and the result was that in several states, including New York, Illinois and Minnesota, such displays were refused.

But the people missed the Canadian show, and the management of the fairs have come to the conclusion that they cannot do without this attraction. Therefore, they have removed the embargo and have invited Canada to make display this year. In addition there have been invitations from an unusually large number of local fairs. Mr. White says that there has been a falling off in arrivals from the United States this year, those who have come brought more wealth with them than any arrived in the past. He also says that there are practically no people moving from Western Canada to the United States.

The opening up for settlement of a big Montana Indian reservation this summer is likely to check the movement of immigration from the south for some time.

RECOVERIES SIGHT.

Percy Aldridge, Chelsea Green, who was struck by lightning last night, and who was temporarily blinded, has recovered his sight. He was removed to his home yesterday afternoon.

Italian Better.—Joseph Scudere, Italian, 110 Bathurst street, who was injured on the Hamilton street, yesterday, when a trench in which he was working collapsed, is reported by Victoria Hospital authorities to be greatly improved.

Engagement Announced.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson, of Wyoming, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Munro, to Mr. Thos. Simpson, of Stratford, the marriage to take place early in July.

Inquest Tonight.—Dr. Robert Ferguson will conduct an inquest into the death of William Wright today, via the death that resulted in his death, at the Grand Trunk car shops, East London. The inquest will be held at police headquarters.

Grass Fire.—A grass fire near the factory of the Sherlock-Manning Piano and Organ Company on Elm street, gave the fire department a busy time, and the central hall a run at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. It was quickly extinguished.

Boating Popular.—The placing of an extra splash board on the Springbank dam has raised the level of the river so that motorboats experience less danger of going aground. This is the best reason for this kind of sport, the dam has witnessed. It has also increased the sport of canoeing.

Tendered Farewell.—The executive staff of St. George's Mothers' Club tendered a farewell reception to Mrs. Grant-Harris and her little son Cliff as they leave for a three months' vacation in England, sailing from Montreal on the Cunard liner Ascania.

Lambeth Picnic Popular.—The Lambeth Holiday excursion of Lambeth village to Port Stanley today, via the London and Lake Erie Railway and Transportation Company, proved more than a success. Hundreds of villagers and their friends spent the day at the picnic, and enjoyed a real old-fashioned picnic holiday.

Is Let Go.—Frederick A. Berry, late of Ailsa Craig, and later still of Governor Carter's boarding house, was let go this morning by Superior Court. He has been working round the jail for three weeks, being remanded from time to time. He was found begging near Ailsa Craig at the beginning of June.

Condition Improved.—Russell Sage and Gilbert Hall, who fell from a scaffolding while painting the house of J. Whitaker, 551 King street, yesterday afternoon, sustaining severe bruises, were reported to be improved this afternoon. It is expected that both men will be around in a few days.

Fire Chief Back.—Fire Chief John Aitken and Controller G. E. Ross returned this morning after making an inspection of auto fire apparatus in some of the big American factories. The trip was made to investigate the various types of tractors recommended by the fire chief to do away with the present three-horse hitch on the hook and ladder truck at fire headquarters.

No Trace of Horse.—The police, both county and city have been unable to locate any trace of the big black horse and rig stolen from the Maple street barn of the Hunter & Son's Livery. Circulars have been issued containing a description of the man and the rig which he obtained from the livery on the pretext that he wanted to drive to Evelyn.

PERSONAL MENTION.

CODY'S CORNERS.

[Special to The Advertiser.] CODY'S CORNERS, June 23.—Miss Eva Hoggar spent last week in Ingersoll.

Miss Florence Greenfield is visiting with relatives near Tillsonburg.

We are pleased to report that Miss Nellie Tagney, who has been quite ill, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jacques spent part of the week with Leamington friends.

Mr. Winters, of Woodstock, spent the week-end with his daughter, Mrs. James Ward.

CAN MARRY NOW.

[Canadian Press.] Paris, June 25.—The French Senate today adopted without debate a law allowing brother-in-law and sister-in-law to marry. The measure previously had been passed in the Chamber of Deputies.

THE DOMINION BANK

The Business of Farming—like the business of Manufacturing—should be done in a practical business way. Proceeds should be put in a bank. Payments should be made by Cheque. A certain percentage of the profits should be put in a Savings Account as an emergency fund. The man who has a cash surplus in a bank, is protected against bad seasons and hard times.

ANOTHER PAYMENT COMING TO ONTARIO BANK SHAREHOLDERS

Successful Realization of Assets Enables Liquidator to Hand Back Another 15 Per Cent, Making 35 Per Cent Total.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, June 25.—Ontario bank shareholders on July 15 will receive back from the liquidator fifteen per cent dividend on the amount paid up by them under the double liability.

When the liquidator got the bank's affairs straightened out, it was found that there was a shortage of about $300,000. The assets were sold, and the liquidator was thought that a 95 per cent double liability call would have to be made to meet this deficit, and that call was made.

The assets, however, have been realized upon so successfully that the time ago a dividends of 20 per cent was repaid to the 450 contributors who had been plied by the collapse of the bank.

The additional 15 per cent will bring the total repaid to 35 per cent, and there will probably be still another dividend before the books of the bank are entirely closed, just what it will be cannot be stated.

FAILURE OF GREAT DRYGOODS HOUSE

H. B. Claffin Company's Liabilities Placed at $35,000,000, With Assets of $40,000,000.

[Canadian Press.] New York, June 25.—The great drygoods house of H. B. Claffin Company failed today with liabilities estimated at $35,000,000. The assets are estimated at $40,000,000.

The Claffin Company controls or is affiliated with some thirty retail stores throughout the United States, and it was the indorsement of their paper, held by more than 3,000 banks here, and in interior cities, that caused the crash.

The United Drygoods Companies and the Associated Merchants' Company, though affiliated with the Claffin Company through stock control, were in no way involved in the failure. Their chain of stores, it was stated in the financial district, would remain intact. Hope so-called banks here, and in interior cities, that caused the crash.

Unless blocked by creditors, a reorganization of the failed firm is contemplated, according to a statement issued by John Claffin, the president. Stores Closed.

Announcement made this afternoon that all of the so-called Claffin stores, strictly speaking, would be closed, pending adjustment of the company's affairs.

One Hamilton Store.

According to the best reads available here the Claffin stores include Thomas C. Watkins, Limited, Hamilton, Ont.

GRAND TRUNK INAUGURATES IMPORTANT NEW TRAIN SERVICES THIS MONTH

The International Limited, Eastbound Is Established With Regularity. Will Use Famous Dundas Valley and Burlington Bay Route on Way From Chicago to Toronto—Chicago, 9:25 p.m.—Three Hours—Many Other New Trains.

When the summer timetables of the Grand Trunk Railway system take effect on June 28th, very important improvements will be made in the main line between Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London, Detroit and Chicago.

Double Track All The Way.

The Grand Trunk having double-tracked the line between Montreal and Chicago have arranged their new services to take full advantage of this fact. The International Limited west-bound from Montreal will leave each day at Toronto 3:30 p.m., Detroit 9:55 p.m. same day and Chicago, next morning at 8 a.m., is to have a sister service in the opposite direction—The International Limited—eastbound. This daily train will leave Chicago at 5:45 p.m., arrive Toronto at 9:25 p.m., reach Detroit 11 p.m., Toronto 9 a.m. and arrive Montreal 5:45 p.m. The departure from Chicago will be two hours earlier than the present service and passengers will reach Montreal fifteen minutes earlier than at present, thus reducing the travel taken on the journey to one hour.

Observation-Library-Drawing-Room

Compartment cars will be operated on the International Limited from Chicago to Montreal, over the famous Dundas Valley and Burlington Bay, near Hamilton. New and most attractive panoramic views of these scenic and exclusive features of the Grand Trunk route have been secured and will be used extensively in the illustrated literature of the Grand Trunk to attract tourists from the United States for a trip through the Grand Trunk to the International Limited, west-bound from Montreal, a similar type of observation car will be attached at Toronto running through to Chicago. These observation cars will be known as the "Dundas Valley" and "Burlington Bay" respectively.

Great Improvement on Night Service.

The night Limited train now leaving Montreal at 10:00 p.m. via the Junction Cut and Burlington Bay, just west of Hamilton, reaching Detroit 1:45 p.m. and Chicago 8:40 p.m. will now leave Montreal half an hour later than at present and reaching Chicago forty-five minutes earlier, will save the traveller one hour and a quarter between Montreal and Chicago, the metropolis of the western United States.

For the special accommodation of passengers from Montreal to Hamilton, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, and other stations to the south and Wharf and Huntsville, will this summer be continued through to the "Highland Inn" at the Algonquin Park station. The office of the Grand Trunk, which comprises 1,500,000 acres, Algonquin Park will be reached in the early evening and a corresponding return service will leave the park for Toronto at 4 p.m. and Buffalo about 8 p.m., with direct connection for Pittsburgh via the Pennsylvania Railroad, for Cleveland, and for New York and New York, Philadelphia, etc., in connection with the Lehigh Valley system. A sleeping car service will also be maintained, leaving Toronto at night, reaching the park early next morning and returning from the park in the evening, arriving in Toronto in the morning. This service will give splendid connections to and from the log cabin camps which the Grand Trunk are providing a short distance from the park. The new sleeping car camp has opened last summer and much appreciated, particularly by visitors from the United States. The new camp known as "Camp Minnesota" (named after the "Minnesota" language) will be opened about July 1st.

New trains will also be inaugurated from Toronto to the other resort regions of the Thousand Islands of the Georgian Bay, Muskoka Lakes, Lake of Bays and Timagami, the latter being in the centre of a great Ontario Lake country. The new service will only a short distance from the famous Cobalt Mines.

A Parlor-Library-Buffer service.

will be inaugurated between Montreal, Ottawa, Kingston Park and the Georgian Bay at Depot Harbor (Parry Sound.)

A new summer service, was inaugurated on June 22nd, between Montreal and seaside resorts at and reached through New England, Conn., via the Central Vermont lines.

New summer services will also be established on June 28th via the Delaware Hudson Railway and the steamers of that line on Lakes Champlain and George, thence to Albany, New York City and New Haven, Conn.

A new high-class service has just been inaugurated between Toronto and Sarnia Wharf, three times a week, connecting with the Georgian Bay and "Huronic" of the Northern Navigation Company. This constitutes the Grand Trunk rail and lake route between Eastern and Western Canada linking Montreal, Toronto and the service of the Grand Trunk Pacific between Fort William, Winnipeg, and beyond.

A new sleeping car service was also put into operation on June 22nd, between Toronto and Kingston Wharf, making direct connections with the Richelieu & Ontario steamers. From June 28th this service will connect at Kingston Wharf in the morning with the steamers that left Toronto at 6 p.m. the previous evening, thus enabling tourists who arrive from Chicago, Detroit, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, etc., to spend the entire day and evening in Toronto and without any loss of time enjoy all of the trip through the Thousand Islands and the rapids of the St. Lawrence River on their way to Montreal.

For the accommodation of tourists using the Grand Trunk service between Chicago, Montreal and Quebec on the way to the Atlantic Coast resorts, a summer sleeping car service will commence on June 28th, leaving Toronto at 10:00 p.m. for Portland, Maine, for breakfast on the following morning. A similar service will be operated in the evening from Portland to Montreal, enabling tourists from New England, who will be enabled to reach Quebec in the morning ready for an inspection of the Citadel City and its most interesting environment.

MAN DIES OF INJURY; WOMAN FRIEND ARRESTED

Stamford, Conn., June 24.—Waldo R. Ballou, a well-known citizen, died early today at the local hospital of a fracture of the skull. Helen Angel, with whom he was acquainted, is under arrest by order of the coroner, pending investigation of the death.

Ballou was found unconscious on the sidewalk of his home. His hat was found in one of Mrs. Angel's rooms today and she has admitted to the police that Ballou was at her apartments last night. She denied, however, that she had any unpleasantness between them.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Weak and Dizzy Spells.

Heart Would Beat Something Awful.

Those feelings of weakness, those dizzy spells which come over people from time to time, are warnings that must not go unheeded.

They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nerves. One dizzy spell may pass off, but eventually they will come frequently, and at the same time more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Mibner's Heart and Nerve Pills before their case becomes hopeless, for they have no equal for restoring the heart to its usual strength, and making the nervous firm and steady.

Mrs. Len Kinney, Moose Mountain, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with weak and dizzy spells, and my head would go giddy and sick. I never had those spells every day. I got on room sleeping car will be attached to the 11 p.m. train from Montreal and this will go forward from Toronto at 8:10 a.m. immediately following the Chicago train.

Later Departure From Toronto.

The train at present leaving Toronto for Detroit and Chicago at 11 p.m. via Stratford, will, under the new service, leave Toronto at 11:45 a.m. daily and run via Hamilton, reaching Detroit at 8 a.m. and Chicago at 3 p.m. next day. This is designed to give the passengers the entire evening in Toronto, yet allowing them to reach Detroit in time for breakfast and Chicago at an hour that will assure connections with all principal trains for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Winnipeg and Western Canada, Colorado, California and other Pacific Coast destinations. The railways west of Chicago operate their finest trains from that city between five and seven p.m. This train from Toronto will also have very desirable connections from stations in Eastern, Northeastern and Northern Ontario.

Another later departure will be the night Limited from Toronto which will leave at 11 p.m. instead of 10:45 p.m. and will arrive in Montreal at 7:30 a.m. instead of 7:40 a.m.

For Summer Resorts.

Extra summer trains will be inaugurated from Toronto to the resorts in the "Highlands of Ontario," the most important improvement will be made in the service to and from the Algonquin Provincial Park of Ontario. The express train from Buffalo, 8:05 a.m., heretofore operated via the Erie and Lake Erie routes, will be changed to Toronto via the

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

DOLLY: I use a plain quinzoin tonic to give my scalp the health that insures hair beauty. I simply pour 1 ounce quinzoin into $\frac{1}{2}$ pint alcohol, then add $\frac{1}{2}$ pint water. Rub a little well into your scalp twice a week for a little while and the itching, dandruff and excess oil will disappear. I find this quinzoin tonic cannot be equaled for restoring the silky softness and rich, even color to brittle hair. Its use will encourage a long, luxuriant growth.

MRS. O. B.: Your surplus weight can be safely reduced with no ill after-effects by the simple treatment, which costs little and can be made at home: Into 1½ pints hot water put 4 ounces parnosin. Strain when cool and take a tablespoonful before meals. This dissolves fat rapidly without disturbing the system. The parnosin treatment also leaves the flesh firm and the skin free from wrinkles.

GLADYS: Instead of pore-clogging powder I use a plain surmax lotion, because one application is sufficient for an entire day. I do not use so much as adhere so closely to the skin that it seems part of it, so cannot be detected, and it gives it a very velvet appearance. To prepare, just mix one ounce surmax into 2 pint hot water or witch hazel and add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. The use of this lotion keeps the skin clear, free of blotches and sallowness. It is particularly good for tan, freckles and oiliness.

MISS B. R.: For a small sum you can make a full quart of the very best blood-purifier and system builder. Dissolve one ounce karden in $\frac{1}{2}$ pint alcohol (not whiskey) then add one cupful sugar and hot water to make a full quart. Take a tablespoonful before meals. This rids the skin of pimples, blotches and "muddiness".

define a moral issue as was ever placed before our electorate. Indeed, the "referendums" votes were not any more clear cut than is the present one. We know beyond question on the one side was a definite wish for the retention of the bar and their "trade" and this, without the slightest thought of a definite political affiliation; or on the other side, a definite wish for one single man in all Ontario in the liquor trade and desirous of its perpetuation. I know that the bar and although Dean Davis and myself have evidently in previous years voted straight Conservative, I dare not say that we were not a curse and a blot on the community, and I know there is no other issue before the electorate at this present time comparable to this. Mr. Davis, I am sure, was present at Stratford last evening. "I say to the man who believes the bar is a curse and yet who for the sake of a few votes to retain the bar, that he must carry on his conscience to his dying day his share of responsibility—for every home blighted by the effects of the bar is very truly ruled by the continued existence of the open bar."

Conspiracy or Silence. Now, I think you must, to a man, be opposed to this unquestionable evil, the open bar, then why this conspiracy of silence. It is to me much akin to the tactics of the fugitive slave. He dares not work in the open, but silently pursues his chosen courses. Surely our clergy need to pray the prayer voiced in Acts 4:19, "We are not wise to contend with the threatenings and grant unto Thy servants that with all boldness they may speak Thy word." We do thank God that there are some men of fearless, courageous ministers led on by a Bingham, a Flanders, a Knox, but at present it seems to be somewhat of a conspiracy of silence. I think, God grant that to pulpit and people alike may come a vision of their respective duties at this great crisis and transcending opportunity.

SCHILLEY—McCORMICK.
(Special to the Advertiser.)

WINGHAM, June 24.—A pretty wedding took place here today when Miss Maggie Schilley became the bride of John McCormick. The ceremony was performed by Father Clapp. Following a honeymoon trip to eastern points Mr. and Mrs. McCormick will reside on the groom's fine farm near here. Over 150 guests were present at the luncheon which followed the ceremony.

of youthful health. This karene to is particularly recommended for kidney and bladder troubles and for rheumatic and gouty conditions, because it gently eliminates these poisons from the system and restores the sufferer to complete health.

MRS. A.: I have made my face look years younger by using this wrinkle removing cream-jelly, which I make home by putting 4 tablespoons glycerine into $\frac{1}{2}$ pint cold water and stirring in 1 ounce almoizin, after which I stand several hours before using. I apply the cream-jelly thickly on retiring and the morning wash off, dry the skin and apply more cream as the skin requires. The treatment rapidly eliminates wrinkles and lines and restores the clear, velvety smoothness to the skin and dispels the oily, "muddy," shiny look.

BRIGHT EYES: Replying to your second letter, just dissolve 1 ounce of crystals in a pint clear water and you will have a harmless and very beneficial eye-tonic. Two or three drops in each eye occasionally relieves the smarting, soothes the aching, tired muscles. The crystals eye tonic is excellent for greasy eyelids and its use frequently obviates the need for glasses.

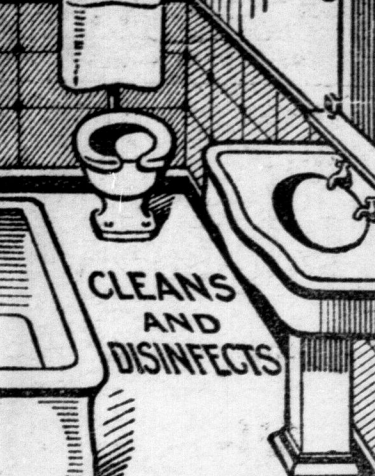

NANCY: For a long time I have claimed that the best way to cleanse the hair is to just dissolve a teaspoonful of the shampoo in a cup of water. This method stores in a cup of hot water. This method stimulates the scalp and restores hair and beauty to dull, straggly hair; it will find canthorx shampoos are especially fine for faded or brittle hair; and occasionally shampooing in this manner makes the hair soft, fluffy, and induces a bountiful growth.

MEXICANS HAVE THE SECURING OF PEACE IN OWN HANDS NOW

To Warring Factions Is Left the Choice of Suitable President.

MEDIATORS STAND ASIDE

Protocols Signed and All Interest Is Fixed on Man To Be Named.

[Canadian Press.]

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 25.—Peace between the United States and Mexico rests today on a single condition—the establishment of a new provisional government along lines which will justify the world in according it recognition. Mexican factions have given guaranty that they will exert every effort to accomplish this.

Five weeks of incessant labor by the mediators resulted in the completion last night of protocols, agreeing that the diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico shall be restored, and all other international difficulties considered settled, when a new provisional government succeeds the Huerta administration.

Mexicans To Decide.
Upon the representatives of the two warring factions in Mexico devolves the task of selecting a provisional president and his cabinet, to serve in the interim, while the country is being pacified and made ready for a general presidential election.

Mediation does not adjourn. The diplomats and the American delegates will lend their counsel and advice, wherever possible, to the delegates of the two factions, as they meet in informal conferences. The meeting place has not been decided, but as Niagara Falls, Ont., is neutral soil, and the Huerta delegation, mediators and American delegates are comfortably fixed here, this is most likely to be continued as the place of conference.

Definite assurance that the meeting will be held has been given the mediators by Constitutional representatives in Washington and the Huerta delegates.

United States Forces To Go.
The incentive to the participants in the informal conference for a quick agreement is that the United States stands ready to withdraw her forces from Mexico soil after an agreement is reached. The mediation conference has discreetly left to the Mexican factions the work of settling the internal problem of their country. There has been no loss of dignity, no humbling of sovereignty. The two factions will be put to the supreme test of patriotism. Upon the results of their task, the world will pass judgment, and they have been given an opportunity to demonstrate that Mexico is capable of settling her own affairs.

The situation was brought to its present status only after mediation many times had seemed ready to collapse. The exclusion of Constitutionalists from a voice in proceedings not only had alienated their interest, but the American Government firmly announced that it would be useless to make any agreement on the internal problem of Mexico—its pro- or anti-constitutionalism—until the Constitutionalists approved. Late last night the signatures of the two sets of delegates and the mediating plenipotentiaries were affixed to the protocols. In effect, they provide:

The Provisions.
First, that a provisional government shall be set up on a certain date, which shall be recognized by the nationals of Mexico.

Second, the provisional government shall be constituted by agreement of delegates representing the parties to Mexico's internal struggle.

Third, diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico shall be resumed and recognition accorded the new provisional government.

Fourth, no war indemnity shall be paid to the United States, or "other international satisfaction claimed." Absolute amnesty to foreigners for any and all political offences shall be proclaimed. Fifth, Argentina, Brazil and Chile agree to recognize the new provisional government.

The mediators and delegates were happy today. They felt that a long stride toward internal peace in Mexico had been taken through from practical settlement of the international differences.

Twenty Aeroplanes Guard of Honor at Austrian Burial

VIENNA, June 24.—An escort of twenty aeroplanes, flying mourning flags and manned by aviators from several nations, formed a flying guard of honor at the burial today of the nine Austrian officers and men killed in the tragic air catastrophe a few miles from Vienna on Saturday. The presence of this aerial fleet created a vivid impression. An enormous concourse of people, including several archdukes, members of the Austrian cabinet and foreign military attaches, was present at the graveside to testify the general sorrow felt for the aviators, who had died doing their duty during the army manoeuvres.

While the funeral service was in progress, the small air craft circled round and round the cemetery, and then flew off in company.

SWIMMER DROWNED IN SIGHT OF FRIENDS

W. Willis, Former St. Thomas Man, Seized With Cramps—Body Recovered.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

PORT ALMA, June 24. Evidently seized with cramp, as he was enjoying a swim after his day's work, Walter Willis, a young Englishman, sank in the lake this evening, and drowned in sight of several people fishing off the dock.

Mr. Willis was employed by the Glenwood Natural Gas Company, and about eight o'clock decided to seek relief from the heat in a swim. He went in alone, and after a few minutes swimming round, was seen to sink. One of the men fishing off the dock, none of whom could swim, threw a life-preserver to him, but he never came up.

The authorities were notified, and after a search, lasting over an hour, the body was recovered.

So far as has been learned, Willis had no relatives in Canada. His home address was 27 Union road, Leytonstone, London, England, and a relative, E. C. Willis, still lives there. Prior to coming here, the unfortunate young man was with the M. C. R. at St. Thomas, his address there being 12 John street.

It has been decided that an inquest is unnecessary, as it was evidently a case of accidental drowning.

Walter Willis was a popular fellow, aged about 24, and his sudden death is a distinct loss to the Port.

Lightning Strikes Between Trees Where Hearse Stood—House Set on Fire.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

BELMONT, June 24.—During a terrific electrical storm here early this afternoon Undertaker W. Hunt and his driver, R. Copeman, had a remarkable escape from being killed by lightning.

They were on their way to the funeral of John McKellar, who was found dead in bed on Monday, and seeing the storm coming up, drove the hearse and team in between two large trees to escape the shower.

There was a vivid display of lightning, and within three minutes bolts struck both trees beside the hearse. Both horses were thrown to the ground and considerably shocked, and Mr. Hunt and his driver were slightly shocked. Both, while badly frightened, escaped serious injury. They were able to get the horses up again, after some minutes, and as soon as possible proceeded on their way to the funeral.

LIGHTNING FIRED HOUSE.

(Special to The Advertiser.)
WINGHAM, June 24.—During a heavy storm here today lightning struck and splintered a telephone pole in front of the home of Angus McKinnon in Turnberry Township, and then ran along the telephone wire into the house, where Mrs. McKinnon was busy with her work.

The phone was hurled from the wall and a hole torn in the side which at once commenced to blaze. Mrs. McKinnon, though terrified, was unhurt. Neighbors seeing the fire, at once came to her help and soon had it under control.

COW WAS KILLED.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
INGERSOLL, June 24.—In West Oxford during the thunderstorm today a cow was killed by lightning on the farm of Mr. Chas. Emery. The storm was severe for a short time, but no further destruction has been reported.

EDISON AND SARNIA MAN PERFECT NEW PROCESS

SARNIA, June 24.—Thomas Edison and W. B. Robeson, of Port Huron, have invented a process for the utilization of waste metal for industrial purposes. Mr. Edison has been working on this for the past 25 years, and Mr. Robeson has been experimenting along the same line for about 10 years. Mr. Robeson has a laboratory in Sarnia, in which he has done most of his experimenting, and also a manufacturing plant at Point Edward. The Thomas Edison in the case is the great inventor.

ARREST ALLEGED BURGLARS.
MONTREAL, June 24.—With the arrest of four men here today, the police believe they have members of an international gang of burglars, who for the past few months have been terrorizing the city, and who are believed to have committed thirty-seven extensive burglaries in the last two weeks.

FALL 21 FEET AS SCAFFOLD COLLAPSES

Two Painters Have Close Call From Serious Injury While at Work.

An accident which would have proved much more serious had it happened earlier in the day, occurred at the residence of J. Whittaker, 551 King street, yesterday afternoon at 5:30, when two painters—Russell Sage, 570 King street, and Gilbert Hall, 710 York street—who were painting Mr. Whittaker's house, fell 21 feet off the scaffolding.

Hall wrenched his back and was badly shaken up, while Sage's hip was wrenched severely. Both men will be laid up for several days.

Had the accident occurred a few minutes earlier the men might have been killed, as the scaffolding had just been lowered.

The accident occurred when a rung in one of the ladders supporting the plank they were standing on broke.

A call was sent in for the police ambulance, but before it arrived Dr. Norman Beal, who had been hurriedly summoned, had Hall removed to his home, the latter's injuries proving more serious.

Hall had only started to work for Sage at noon yesterday.

TANGOING MISS MERCURY PUTS IT OVER LONDON

Wilted Collars and "All Gone" Feeling Mark Heat Wave That Hits City Hard.

That skittish, elusive young thing known as Miss Mercury, figuratively speaking is winding London around her finger. Yesterday, early, the tangoing started afresh. Since that what the "quick stuff" has done in the way of heat to this fair city is a shame.

Limp collars, coats off, that "all gone" feeling—all are the marks that are left in the wake of one of the hottest days, that the city has experienced. Early yesterday, the mercury climbed to 85. By two o'clock it was steadily mounting and by 2:30 the thermometer in front of the Advertiser registered 90. During the afternoon it even beat that mark by a few points.

Sunset found little change, although a slight breeze about six o'clock helped somewhat to ease the close situation. As is usual on hot nights parks claimed thousands of tired and hot citizens. Every bench in Victoria Park, was claimed early in the evening. The grass was a welcome couch for many who stroled into the "oasis" later.

Springbank drew its favorites, the ride to the park in swift cars being about the coolest way of spending the evening. Nearly every motor car in the city was out. Most of them struck for the open country to beat up a bit of breeze. Those made by cars there were none to spare.

Canoes and launches were much in evidence on the Thames. Bobbing lightly of every part of the river between Springbank and the foot of Dundas street showed the popularity of the pastime this year. More than ever trips down the river are getting hold of Londoners.

The clouds rolled up in the west, were watched with considerable interest. They were disappointing, however, for they refused to come any nearer to the heat-tortured city.

No prostrations were reported through the heat.

ALGONQUIN PARK.

Now is the time to make your reservations for accommodation at Algonquin Park, the most delightful and most attractive summer resort in Canada. Two thousand feet above the sea level assures you of pure air—a place where you can sleep at night, and where you will find in a short time the rejuvenating effects of a stay in this high altitude. Splendid trails service the river and splendid accommodation when you get there. The Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Nipmigan Camp, Smoke Lake and Camp Minessing, Island Lake, offer most comfortable accommodation. Write to the manager of any of the above for handsome illustrated descriptive literature, or apply to any Grand Trunk agent.

Now is the time to prepare for spraying. Sharnan & Baker can supply you with materials at lowest prices. Lime Sulphur, Soluble Sulphur, Arsenate of Lead, etc. Sharnan & Baker, London R. R. No. 4. Office, corner King and Talbot.

TEMPERANCE GETS "GO-BY" AT TORY PICNIC AT PORT

Sir Adam Beck Declines to Favor the Abolition of the Bar.

BARS WERE VERY BUSY

Six Bartenders Necessary to Supply the Crowd That Kept Shuffling In.

(By Staff Reporter)

PORT STANLEY, June 24.—Is Sir Adam Beck and the Conservative party afraid of the "Abolish the Bar" issue? Are the Conservatives being divided on this issue? It is not a misstatement of fact to say that many Conservatives were disappointed here this afternoon over Sir Adam's explanation of his stand on the temperance question.

Sir Adam Beck was the principal speaker in the Invererie Grove before a gathering of Conservatives from parts of Middlesex and Essex. That the crowd did not number over 1,000 was attributed to a thunderstorm early in the day. There were many farmers among those present.

Why Abolish the Bars?

In his opening remarks Sir Adam used the Conservative party's text book figures on what the Whitney Government has done for the cause of temperance. He described the curse of drink, and called it an evil, but did not declare himself in favor of abolishing the bars. He rather asked the question: "Why Abolish the Bars?"

Most of his statements could not be understood in any sense as clear, manly, forceful espousals of temperance or prohibition in part or in whole.

He supplemented his argument on this issue by declaring: "Why take away the glass and leave the bottle?" He attempted to infer that there wasn't a question which the Whitney Government was not capable of solving, while there wasn't a question the Opposition could solve.

Not Coherent.

For a long time after Sir Adam Beck left the Grove old-timers discussed his arguments and dissected them, only to find that Sir Adam really had no real opinion on the Government to anything coherent or definite on abolishing the bar, the shop, the bottle or the glass. His argument, stripped of all its qualifying adjectives, revealed the nude fact that temperance is really not an issue at all with the Whitney Government.

The milk in their cocoanut is for a continuance of power to spend more millions.

To Spend It All.

"We spent $10,000,000 on hydro-electric, I am sorry it wasn't more," said Mr. Beck, in defence of the hydro policy.

"But we will spend more if you send us back to power. Before he did Sir James Whitney wants to see Ontario cobwebbed with radial railways."

Mr. Beck's remarks were principally for the farmers, as he said that hydro would go far toward helping the farmers to overcome the drought of farm help.

While he was speaking hydro power was off in Western Ontario, and the London and Lake Erie Railway had to start its auxiliary station to keep its cars in operation, so the Conservatives could get to and from the port.

Attack Advertiser.

Mr. Beck made a personal attack on the London Advertiser showing quite plainly that he has resented this paper's efforts to pry into the star chamber sessions of the London and Port Stanley railway commission, which has the spending of $670,000 of the people's money for the electrification of the Port Stanley road.

"This paper has been a consistent opponent of hydro and radial railways, as you well know. They were for the London and Lake Erie Railway, and opposed the electrification of the Port Stanley road. He took occasion, however, to explain that the London and Lake Erie was a good customer of hydro electric.

One Bar in Evidence.

The speakers' platform was in earshot of the bar, and behind which four men sat with heading piles of money before them making change while six bartenders supplied a large crowd of shuffling Conservatives, who moved at regular intervals to and from the outer circle of the throng around the platform. The cash registers had been silenced together with the music of the merry-go-round, so there would be no noise in the grove to mar the speaking. Bartenders said they expected a bigger turnout, and had laid in an extra supply of liquor, but the rousing number of Conservatives was lacking. A St. Thomas man, who purchased a lot of his Conservative badges found that everyone was adverse to wearing badges.

Guest Presides.

Dr. Fred Guest, of St. Thomas, presided at the meeting, and predicted a Conservative victory each time before he introduced the next speaker. C. A. Brower, candidate for East Elgin, was the first speaker. Mr. Brower denied what he called a canard in the report that Port Stanley fishermen were once threatened with a revocation of their licenses if they did not vote against local option.

Asked For Temperance Views.

Finley McDermid, candidate for West Elgin, indorsed much of what Mr. Beck said for hydro power, and when he sat down without any reference to the "Abolish the Bar" issue, several voices called out, "What are your views on the temperance question?" But before these questions could be repeated, Dr. Guest called for three cheers for the King.

Major Beattie, of London, occupied a seat on the platform, where were also the Conservative nominees in the Middlesex ridings.

LONDON TOWNSHIP WOMAN CELEBRATES HER 91ST BIRTHDAY

Mrs. James Salmon, Reader of Advertiser Since Beginning, Is Still Hale and Hearty.

Mrs. James Salmon, of concession 10, London Township, celebrated her 91st birthday on the 20th inst. Her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, to the number of 60, gathered at her home and assisted in celebrating the event. Mrs. Salmon is still very active, helping in the work of the home, and can see and hear perfectly. She has spent all her married life on the farm where she now resides. Her husband, the late James Salmon, died seven years ago at the age of 92.

Mrs. Salmon was born in this country, her mother being of New England origin and her father of German descent. She has been a constant reader of The London Advertiser since its first issue. She was the recipient of many beautiful presents, including an upholstered chair.

Her sons and daughters were all present on her birthday. They are: James D., of Lambeth; William, of Thorncliffe; Albert, of Bruce County; John, of Nissouri; and Levi, on the homestead; Mrs. Fred Jolly, of this city, and Miss Hannah, at home.

CHARACTERIZES DRINK AS "MORPHIA BOTTLE"

Socialistic Speaker Would Abolish the Bar, But Says Labor Is More Important.

"Drink is the morphia bottle held to the nose of the working classes to prevent them using their brains," said John Thompson, addressing an open-air rally on the market square last night in the interest of John D. Jacobs, Socialist and Labor candidate in the local contest.

Mr. Thompson said he was quite aware of the evils of the barroom and the liquor traffic. Intemperance he believed to be one of the world's greatest curses. "If I were king in Canada," he said, "I would wipe it out at once." He held, however, that it was of greater importance to secure Labor representatives in the Legislature. The abolition of the bar, while removing a great and terrible evil, would not relieve all the poverty of the working class, he said.

REVISION COURT HEAR ASSESSMENT APPEALS

$200 Reduction on Account of Smoke Nuisance—City Hydro Dept. Protests.

Nearly all appeals against increased assessments made in the court of revision last night, from ward 4, were confirmed. The assessment on property owned by E. L. Liddick, near the C. P. R., was reduced $200 on account of the smoke nuisance and noise, which, he claimed, was a detriment to his property.

The garbage tax appeal will come before the court later in the week.

Philip Pocock thought there was something wrong in the assessment on the hydro power station. While it is only assessed for $8,000, the taxes are estimated on the whole system, or about $251,000. This was the largest property in complaint. There were several appeals against poll-taxes in cases where there was also a property tax. In such cases, property taxes were made exempt.

PRAYER MEETING TO HELP ABOLISH BAR

The Dundas Centre Methodists Hear Fine Address on Rowell's Policy.

A prayer meeting for the success of the "banish the bar" policy at the polls next Monday, was held in Dundas Centre Methodist Church last night. In an address on "Abolish the Bar," Prof. James H. Bowman emphasized the responsibility of Christians in the present election, and urged them to avail themselves of the opportunity to vote the bar-room out of business. Three thousand Canadian boys are annually sacrificed to the drink evil. If these boys were pig iron they would be valuable from the world's standpoint, and such waste would not be tolerated, but they are only boys, and the sacrifice has been so far permitted to continue. Now a crisis had been reached, and the church should seize the opportunity to support the abolition of the bar.

Special prayers were made for the success of the temperance issue, and addresses were given by C. E. Beal, J. F. Kern and Wesley Harrison.
