GREAT SUFFRAGIST PARADE IN STREETS OF NEW YORK

A Mighty Demonstration for Woman's Vote at American Metropolis.

New York, May 5.—The weatherman provided a warm sun and a cloudless sky yesterday for the biggest woman's suffrage demonstration in the history of New York city. For nearly a year preparations for the great parade have been under way, and there was little for Mrs. Harriot Stanton Blatch and her assistants to do today, except to marshal the various divisions of their forces for the big parade at 6 o'clock, and the mass meeting in Carnegie Hall at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Blatch thought might reach 3,000 in numbers, were disappointed to learn that Col. Roosevelt had declined the invitation to lead their division. The colonel explained that he had several important engagements in Maryland, and therefore would not be able to accept. His secretary, the Men's League for Woman's Suffrage.

The parade was made up of eleven divisions led by an aristocratic squad of 100 riders, a band, and a company of outdoor suffragette orators, each carrying her little green platform slung like a knapsack across her shoulder.

The eleventh division, bringing up the rear of the parade, was assigned to Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont's organization of department store clerks preceded by the newly-organized baby carriage brigade.

ANGLICAN CONVENTION TO BE HELD AT CLINTON

Sunday School and Rural Deanery Matters To Be Discussed.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Clinton, May 4.—The annual Sunday school convention and rural deanery meeting of the Rural-Deanery Chapter of the Diocese of Ontario will be held at St. Paul's Church here on Wednesday next. Ven. Archdeacon Richardson, of London, will preside, and the programme includes a paper by Rev. C. E. Jenkins, the president; a paper on "The Preparation and Attitude of the Teacher in the Primary Department," by Miss C. E. Jenkins; a paper on "The Ideal Result of a Skillfully Taught Lesson," by Mrs. J. McLeod, of Clinton; a conference on "The Elementary Work of the Sunday School," led by Rev. T. B. Howard, of Woodstock; addresses by Rev. R. A. Hiltz, of Toronto; Dr. Gould and Rev. E. Ryerson, of the evening, addresses will be given by Rev. T. B. Howard, Rev. R. A. Hiltz, Rev. E. Ryerson and Canon Gould.

SWAT THE FLY

Ingersoll Health Officer Urges People to Destroy Every One.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ingersoll, May 4.—"Don't let one escape that it is possible to destroy," is in substance the advice of Medical Health Officer Dr. Neff to the citizens of the town in regard to the housefly nuisance. He has just issued a warning in which he emphasizes the danger from permitting the housefly to live and propagate in the house, and urges citizens to unite in an endeavor to kill all every fly that you find in your houses or on your premises, because for every female fly left alive now there will be millions during the months of July, August and September. The medical health officer also points out the importance of keeping premises in a sanitary condition, thereby destroying the breeding places of the flies.

ANNA HAILES BURIED.

Toronto, May 4.—The funeral of Anna Hailes, who took her own life in Detroit, following an elopement with A. D. Richards, a Toronto businessman, took place this afternoon from the residence of her parents, 174 Robert street.

Piles Not Taken Seriously

"Annoying, but not dangerous," seems to be the way many think of piles in the early stages. But gradually they become worse, until they prevent sleep, undermine the nervous system and make a wreck of life. When the doctor is finally consulted he considers the case so serious that he recommends the surgeon's knife as the only means of cure. It may cure it or it may kill. The risk is yours. But there is an easier and surer way to relieve and cure piles. That is by applying Dr. Chase's Ointment. The earlier you begin the use of this ointment the quicker the cure. But you need not be discouraged because you have suffered for ten or fifteen years. It would be difficult to imagine worse cases than have been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. Relief comes at once and cure is just as certain if you persist in the use of this great ointment.

LIST OF RECOVERED BODIES ON THE MINIA

The Second Funeral Ship Is Expected to Reach Halifax on Monday.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, May 4.—A wireless message from the steamship Minia, sent to the White Star agent at Halifax, and telegraphed to the officers in this city, today gives a complete list of those picked up by the second morgue ship sent out to recover bodies of the Titanic victims. The list follows:
C. M. Hays, Sigurd H. Olson, A. H. P. (probably English), Italo Donatti (welder), A. Stanbrooke (fireman), Edward Elliott (fireman), C. Howell (steward), T. W. King (assistant purser), Y. Orles or Fernan Potos (third class passenger), man, unidentified, initials H. R., evening dress, cuff links gold (second class); Joseph Alfred Wickham; A. Finn (third class passenger); Joseph Finney (second class of Finney & Co., Liverpool); Thos. A. Mullin (steward, boarded at 12 Onslow Road, Woolston, Southampton).
"Purloined a diamond, no identification, brown hair, blue eyes, smooth face."
"Expect arrive Halifax Monday afternoon."
The message was signed by Captain Decker. It was wirelessed by P. V. G. Mitchell, Halifax agent, who sent an additional note:
"Owing to difficulties with excavation, burials today totaled fifteen. Suitable service with one large wreath each demonstration, reading 'In Memoriam, White Star Line.'"

LACK OF HARMONY IN GUELPH FIRE BRIGADE

Investigating Into Trouble Closes and Report Will Be Made.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Guelph, May 5.—The investigation into the fire brigade was practically closed last night. For three nights previously, the enquiry had been going on hearing the allegations which members of the brigade had made against the chief to prove that he was the cause of the lack of harmony in the brigade. This was done notwithstanding the protest of Mr. N. Jeffery, counsel for Chief Finch, who at the outset pleaded that the fire and light department was not the proper tribunal to hear the case and that the investigation should be judicial. In this he was supported at first by Mr. C. L. Dunbar, counsel for the firemen. The investigation, however, the objections, however, and the men's side of the case was put in. The chief's side was to have been heard last night, but as soon as the inquiry opened Mr. Jeffery arose and declared that he again demanded a judicial inquiry and would refuse to go on with the inquiry before a committee. The evidence of the firemen, which, had prejudged the case to the extent of two months ago coming to the conclusion that they wanted the chief's resignation, and that, too, without hearing his side at all. Chief Finch declined to give testimony. Mayor Thorp announced that the inquiry was closed and the committee would meet to prepare a report to council on Monday night.

OLYMPIC SEAMEN FREED

Magistrate Lenient to the Mutineers in Consideration of Circumstances.

Portsmouth, England, May 5.—The seamen of the White Star liner Olympic, who quit that vessel after the strike of the firemen, were allowed to go yesterday by the magistrates sitting in the police court here, where the men were tried on a charge of mutiny. The magistrates decided that the charges were proved against the 54 mutineers, but expressed the opinion that it would be inexpedient to imprison or fine the defendants under the circumstances, which had arisen prior to their refusal to obey orders. The magistrates discharged the defendants, and said they hoped the men would return to duty.

SAW TITANIC WRECKAGE

Tank Steamer Reports Passing Bodies of Three Men and Woman.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, May 4.—The bodies of three men and a woman, believed to be victims of the Titanic disaster, were passed in April 29 by the tank steamer Oilfield from Shields, Lat. 41.18, Long. 49.09, and a quantity where the men were seen near the same spot, according to officers of the vessel, which reached New York today. The officers said that the bodies were in life belts, and were seen close alongside the vessel. The wreckage, they say, consisted principally of chairs, life belts, small boards painted white and room fittings. The wreckage passed through the water from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until darkness.

AXE FALLS AGAIN

Collector of Customs and Landing
Waiter Lose Their Positions.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Windsor, May 6.—James I. Cousins, customs landing waiter at the port of Amherstburg, has been relieved of his position for alleged offensive partisanship. Marwood Barrett, collector of customs at Amherstburg for the past fifteen years, has resigned. Neither of the vacancies has yet been filled.

VICE-REGAL PLANS.

Ottawa, May 4.—Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, who are expected to arrive in Montreal on Monday for Montreal, where they will occupy the residence of Lord Strathcona until the 13th inst., when they are returning to Ottawa to attend the opening night of the horse show on Tuesday, the 14th inst. They are leaving the following day for Toronto to attend the races. While in Toronto they will occupy the residence of Sir Henry Pellatt.

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS.

Quebec, May 5.—Arrived: Devona, from Middleboro; Montezuma, from Antwerp; Griffiths, from Antwerp; Eschism, from Bristol; English, from Bristol; Rotterdam, from Bremen; St. John, from Rotterdam; Rodensme, from Swans. New York—Arrived: Minnehaha, from London; Cranium, from Rotterdam; Queenstown, from London; Liverpool, from Liverpool; Victoria, from St. John. Plymouth—Called: President Lincoln, from New York.

WILL HELP YOU GAIN SUCCESS

Ignorance Is a Fandicap

Seventy-five per cent of the big businessmen of London declare that the chief educational need of their employees is a better knowledge of English, including spelling, grammar and punctuation and the use of words in general. Stenographers crowd to answer an advertisement announcing a position not paying $4 a week, because the holder is qualified to demand higher wages. Thousands of stenographers and typewriters trained in the art of making "pot-hooks," and tapping the typed keys, are clinging out an existence on meagre wages.

These statements have a direct bearing upon the proposition that The London Advertiser is offering you a Webster's New Illustrated Dictionary free of charge, and give the reason for the popularity of the distribution.

PUSH YOURSELF HIGHER

WITH DICTIONARY'S HELP

Get out of the 4th class. Or, if you are not so poorly paid as that, at least demand a salary upon which you have regarded as a disadvantage of the opportunity which is bringing hundreds to the Dictionary Department every day. Six coupons clipped from consecutive issues of The London Advertiser, and the small expense bonus specified in the display advertisement on another page of this issue, do the trick, and permit you to turn a table upon your employer. The Dictionary Department of the London Advertiser, when it was only your own ignorance weighing upon you, and the limitations of your vocabulary binding you down. Good and true, the Dictionary is a demand of education. It is Director Edward Ryerson, of the Public High Schools, when reorganizing the commercial department of high schools and the Department of the City of London, wrote to most of the representative businessmen of Pittsburgh, asking them to co-operate by suggestions as to what subjects of instruction should be included in the best education. This is what he reports:

English Most Needed by

Applicants for Position.

"Of those replying, 75 per cent consider English (including spelling) essential, 58 per cent bookkeeping, 45 per cent penmanship, 28 per cent shorthand, etc., showing that the lamentable lack of English was considered to be deserving of first attention."

HAVANA PORT TIED UP.

Havana, May 4.—A general strike of all the lighterage and longshoremen, which was the result of the longshoremen's strike, has been put into full operation this morning, and the traffic of the port is completely tied up.

The principal cause of the strike is the demand of the longshoremen, which is made annually by them at the beginning of the pineapple shipping season, to be paid piecework rates instead of day wages.

The lightermen demand uniformity of pay, which is now variable. No violence has yet been reported from any quarter, and attempts to settle the strike are being renewed today.

THE FLOOD SUFFERERS.

Vicksburg, Miss., May 4.—There has been great amount of suffering among the flood refugees of the Black River district in Louisiana. Reports reaching here say that of the hundreds of persons from the Black River country who have sought refuge in the camps which arrived in great numbers, were on the point of starvation, and many were almost naked. Up to this time there has been comparatively little disaster in the concentration camps. At night there was a row in a white refugee camp here. Four white men

SUMMONED TO ROME.

Montreal, May 5.—Brother Romuald, head of the Order of Christian Brothers in this province, has been summoned to Europe by the supreme head of the order. For some time there has been friction and strife among the representatives in Quebec, and the summons to Brother Romuald is a result of the discord. The cause of the trouble is said to be due to the preference given to old country French members of the order over the French-Canadian members.

The Order of Christian Brothers was expelled from France a few years ago, according to local officials in the order, have usurped the chief places of authority, with the result that the whole body is in a state of revolt.

LONDON, MONDAY, MAY 6.

ANOTHER RAILWAY FOR LONDON

The great railways do not disclose their plans before these are ripe, so that it may be taken for granted the Canadian Northern, in throwing its cards on the table, has the game well in hand, so far as London and this part of Western Ontario is concerned.

For some time its agents have been bonding property in the city and vicinity. The work is now evidently completed. The mayor announces that the C. N. R. will shortly make a bid for the London and Port Stanley Railway as a link in the system to be built through Western Ontario, and to solve the problem of a right-of-way and terminal facilities in the city. The company will seek to enter London over the L. and P. S. R. tracks, from the east, and will continue the line westward to the American boundary, touching Lambeth and Delaware. Sir William Mackenzie led the mayor to infer that the company would use steam, not electricity, as the motive power for the road through London. This would simplify the question of operating the London and Port Stanley.

The extension of another transcontinental railway to this city will be a matter for congratulation. It would bring many municipalities in Western Ontario into direct touch with London, an object which the city is willing to subsidize electric railways. The company's proposals are not yet before citizens in detail, but they will receive a sympathetic consideration. Subject to safeguards as to rates and service, the lines of the London and Port Stanley Railway to the Canadian Northern as a condition of the latter's extension to London would have much to commend it. A prior application for the lease of the L. and P. S. R., from the Lake Erie Coal Company, and alternative proposals which have not yet been reduced to practical shape, will, of course, be carefully weighed in conjunction with the Canadian Northern's offer.

THE SEIZURE OF RHODES.

The Italian seizure of Rhodes seems to be part of a plan to wrest from Turkey's grasp the islands of the Aegean. If Greece herself has not the strength to take back "the isles of Greece," Italy, whose ancient fortunes were so closely knit with the Hellenic world, may aspire to win those historic places for herself. Are Patmos, Samos with its wine, Lemnos and Lesbos, Rhodes, famed for its lovely climate no less than for ancient greatness, to remain forever in the grip of the Moslem? In the Middle Ages Rhodes was a post of the Knights of St. John, from whom the Turks captured it in 1522, after suffering immense losses. Of late the commerce of the island has been increasing at a rapid rate. The population is three-fourths Christian, possessed in large measure of the business ability of the Greeks. Will not the Christians of Rhodes and other Aegean islands rejoice at the planting of the Italian flag with its cross? It may not suit the Hellenic ideal, but there will be few tears for the departure of the Turk.

It is a strange history to reflect upon, that of the lands about the east and south of the Mediterranean Sea. Once all lay quiet in the fused civilization of Greece and Rome, safe under the mighty rule of the Caesars. Christianity obtained full possession of these Asiatic and African shores and kept up the Graeco-Roman culture for centuries after Rome fell. Egypt was the original home of monasticism, a great centre of Christian activity. But in the seventh and eighth centuries of our era the conquests of Islam overspread these regions, from Damascus and Jerusalem to the Pyrenees. Coptic Christianity in the southeast, and Latin culture in Tripoli, Tunis and westward were mostly cut down by the storm. The crescent replaced the cross. This movement had its progressions and retrogressions until in 1453 the Turks won Constantinople, thence pressing into Hungary, conquering the islands one after another, Rhodes in 1522, Cyprus in 1582, and finally, about 1700 the mainland of Greece itself.

After 1769 the story began to change. The Turkish power broke up. In the nineteenth century the African provinces began to fall away, and it has been the Latin powers of modern Europe who have "reclaimed" the lost dominions of Rome. Spain has her share of Morocco; France has now a vast empire among the Muslems of Africa, and almost got a half in Egypt; and Italy claiming Tripoli, now reaches out her hand towards "the sprinkled isles

Lily on Lily, that o'erlace the sea,

And laugh their pride when the light wave hisps, "Greece,"
as Browning not very obscurely called them.

Slowly but surely the Ottoman empire, built by blood and iron, crumbles away. It will be a serious matter for the Ottoman Government if Italy establishes herself in the thousand islands over against Asia Minor. The commerce of Smyrna is the life-blood of Turkey. The Moslem will begin to feel the thrust of the Latin very near home. Have the Franks begun the last crusade?

PROGRESS OF DAIRY INDUSTRY.

The great Canadian cow is in the class of the country's great industries. The census and statistics office includes in its monthly bulletin a summary of information in regard to the country's dairy output in 1910 gathered during the census of last year. And the facts are only half a story of her new ambitions and increased capabilities. For the figures deal with the products only of factories, and creameries. The quantity consumed in domestic use on the farms and distributed by individual farmers in the cities and towns cannot be estimated. In butter, cheese and condensed milk, under which three headings the tables are given, the increases in ten years may all be measured by millions. The table is as follows:

	Butter, Quantity, lbs.	Value.
1900	59,755,000	$15,882,000
1910	36,956,000	$15,440,000
Increase, 1910.	22,819,000	$8,441,000
1910	231,012,000	$21,020,000
1900	229,883,000	22,221,000

Increase or decrease, 1910. (d) $600,000
Condensed Milk.
1910 $1,339,000
1900 269,000
Increase in 1910 $1,070,000
In values the output has advanced by almost ten millions of dollars. In 1900 the total amount received was $29,731,000, and in 1910, $39,143,000. This increase was at the rate of nearly a million dollars a year. Changes in pound prices have had large influence. For instance, in 1900 butter sold for 20 cents a pound on an average, and in 1910 the price was 26 cents. For cheese there has been a decrease from 10 cents to 9 cents in the decade. The production of butter increased at the rate of 64 per cent, which is twice the growth of population. The reason for this is probably the decrease in the sale from farm dairies, for which, as noted, figures are unavailable.

Ontario and Quebec vie with one another for honors as the banner dairy province. Ontario leads in cheese production, and Quebec in butter. Ontario received $13,327,000 through the industry and Quebec, $15,047,000.

In butter production the provinces rank as follows:

	Quantity, lbs.	Value.
Quebec	37,316,000	$9,826,000
Ontario	15,859,000	3,482,000
Alberta	2,149,000	333,000
Manitoba	2,050,000	511,000
Saskatchewan	1,848,000	331,000
British Columbia	1,206,000	420,000
New Brunswick	819,000	212,000
P. E. Island	671,000	158,000
Nova Scotia	354,000	88,000

Totals 59,755,000 $15,882,000
The comparative statement for cheese is as follows:

	Quantity, lbs.	Value.
Ontario	157,851,000	$14,845,000
Quebec	67,741,000	6,152,000
P. E. Island	2,293,000	325,000
New Brunswick	1,168,000	129,000
Manitoba	694,000	81,000
Nova Scotia	264,000	39,000
P. E. Island	193,000	23,000
Saskatchewan	26,000	5,300

Totals 231,012,000 $21,020,000
Not all the provinces make butter of either cheese or butter to supply their own needs, and an advance in dairying will come with settlement. Production is being increased generally, however, and the industry is only in its infancy in many portions of the country.

It is not surprising that the Rough Rider has swept the Texas primaries.

Choosing the hydro-electric commission to arbitrate the dispute between the city council and water commissioners is like making counsel for the defence the judge in the case.
Boys should not be allowed, except under the spur of absolute necessity, to enter casual employments when they leave school. It is the duty of their parents to see that they take advantage of the new facilities for industrial education.

They do not sing the old songs now. The Orange drum beats soft and low.

THE CALL OF THE SEA.
[John Macfield.]
I must go down to the sea again, for the call of the running tide Is a wild call and a clear call that may be heard when the sea is near,
And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying,
And the flung spray and the blown spume and the seagulls crying.

THE BALM OF ABDUL.
[Chicago Tribune.]
We have with us at present Abdul Baha Abbas, son of Baha'u'Uah, Glory of God, third prophet of the Bahadists, on a mission. As missions go it is not an old one, in the specific form in which Abdul Baha brings it to us. It was declared first by Mirza Ali Mohammad, who was born in Shiraz, Persia, in 1819, and who was shot at Ta-briz six years after he had become a prophet. It was carried on by Baha'u'Uah, Glory of God, who passed most of a hard life in prison or in exile.

The mission (thus tempestuously born is one of universal brotherhood and peace, a universal religion of inter-racial amity. From Baha'u'Uah the torch was passed to Abdul Baha, his son, and then it comes to Chicago, the prophet being on a tour which has carried him to the Bahadists in Europe and America.

It is a noble mission, even if one which will not progress according to its merits. The prophet finds us given over to wrath and contention, suspicious of our neighbors and vexed with ourselves. The mind is not slow to anger, nor are cruises and provocations lacking. It is moving time, the Mexicans rage to the south, and politics bubbles as it were in a cauldron over a hot fire. Possibly there will be a lull in Abdul Baha to soothe sore disturbed minds and iron out the kinks in tempers. That as it may be, but Abdul Baha is welcome to our midst with the mission declared by Mirza Ali Mohammad.

MENTAL ARITHMETIC.
[Judge.]
Teacher—"Why, Willie, these problems are all wrong! What is the trouble?"
Willie—"I don't know. I worked awful hard before I could even get 'em wrong."

AT AN AFTERNOON TEA.
[Washington Herald.]
"Speaking of roses, that fellow over yonder is evidently a poet."
"I've seen him at a good many receptions, but I never heard him utter any poetry."
"Maybe not, but just look at him cat."

UNUSUAL LUXURIES.
[Boston Transcript.]

gie?"
Maggie—"Goin' ter de butcher fer a cent's worth o' ketchup." Urchin—"Cheer! Yer goin' ter have company fer dinner, ain't yer?"

WATERSON'S ATTACK ON ROOSE-VELT.
[Henry Watterson.]
The man is a maniac. He knows not clearly what he does or says. Never an utterance of his will bear discussion or dissection. Never an act of his can be defended.

"That he should cast friendship to the winds, intellectual dignity to the dogs, his own antecedents to the donkeys, were proof enough that he is mad; as mad as Hamlet."
"That a few self-seeking politicians and traitorous newspaper editors should follow him in spite of that, and that he should still be recounted with in public life, that outside of these he gets any votes at all is proof of the adage that a fool is born every minute

THE WRECK OF THE TITANIC.
[Andrew R. Simpson.]
How into the mists she sailed away.
For a port on the great, gray sea—
To dock—where all craft must dock some day.

At the wharf of Eternity!
How out from the blackness of the night,
Steering slowly athwart her prow,
There loomed the Destroyer's ghostly
height,
When the Charon fell foul her bow!

Trusting her weak to the arms of Fate,
While the strong stood firm on her deck,
She slowly sank with her precious freight,
A shattered and dismantled wreck!

With a list to port and lights ablaze,
While the icy waves apt higher,
She sank to her rest, while through the haze
Came strains from Eternity's lyre.

How from the mists she never came in,
But somewhere on the great, gray
sea,
She heaved to her dock, while kith and kin Partied by Eternity's quay.

Thus, when my frail bark is wrecked
at last,
And her rudder is lashed also,
She'll soundly sleep, when the floods
are past,
On the breast of Eternity!

BACKWARD SCHOLARS.
[Brantford Expositor.]
The board of education of Toronto has decided to close four classes it has been conducting for backward children on the ground that the rooms are needed for regular classwork and that it is the duty of the state to care for the defective. This decision is open to adverse criticism. It is as much the duty of the city of Toronto to provide for children whose mentality is not normal as it is for those who have normal mentality, and it certainly has no justification for abandoning the backward children before some provision has been made for them.

THE LAND OF LETTERS

[By Special Arrangement With the Winnipeg Telegram.]

The death of Justin McCarthy has removed from this world one of the most distinguished of Irish historians, novelists and politicians. Mr. Mc-Carthy was eighty-two years of age, but he retained his splendid memory until very near the last. His last volume, entitled "Recollections," was published only a few months ago by Hodder & Stoughton. It is a remarkably attractive book, full of interesting reminiscences of the Ireland of the early Victorian period. McCarthy was a gay young Irishman of Cork in the days when Moore was sounding his harp, and when Macaulay and Dickens and Thackeray were beginning to astonish the literary world. The young men of that day, living in attitude, in some respects, was troubled enough, still found time to cultivate the muses. Mr. McCarthy says that his father, who was city clerk of Cork, was an adept in versifying, and his son, and other sons of intelligent citizens, considered it one of the delights of life to be literary. They read all the standard authors, including Chaucer, Spenser and Milton, and whenever a new writer appeared in London they were anxious to get a copy of the new work as soon as possible, and exchange views about him in their debating society. With such an environment it is not at all strange that Justin McCarthy took to journalism as a duck takes to water. Nor was it surprising that he should have drifted into politics; for like all his companions he had most decided opinions on absentee landlordism and all the evils of the British regime in the Emerald Isle.

The career of Mr. McCarthy as a parliamentarian is too well known to require extended notice in this article.
I should like to point out, however, that he became the author of that valuable work, the greatest of all his literary efforts, his "History of Our Own Times," partly because he came into personal contact with the men who were making history. A member of the British House of Commons,
if he be observant and clear-sighted, as McCarthy certainly was, has an admirable opportunity to record the events of his own day and generation.
Although the Irish historian was in the thick of the fray, he had the ability and the grace to discern the true points in the characters of his political antagonists. Hence, we find that he is able to appreciate the sincerity of purpose, the unselfishness and the humor of Lord Salisbury himself, the arch high Tory of his time.

It is in Mr. McCarthy's volume "British Political Portraits" that we find the late historian in his happiest vein.
I read these good-natured, yet shrewd and brilliant essays, several years ago, but have been turning over their pages
once more to refresh my memory regarding Mr. McCarthy's style. He is able to pack a large quantity of fact, anecdote and observation within the short limits of each essay, and everything is set down with absolute clearness and candor. He is specially good in the pen portraits which he draws of his illustrious contemporaries. Here is his picture of Salisbury: "Everyone knew the tall, broad, stooping figure and the thick head of hair, the bent brows, and the careless, shabby costume. No statesman of his time was more indifferent than Lord Salisbury to the dictates of fashion as regarded dress and deportment. He was undoubtedly one of the worst dressed men of his order in London."

There is something pathetic in the fact that Mr. McCarthy was spared to live even to the introduction of the home rule bill, but was not spared to witness its passing in the present Parliament. He was enabled to see the promised land, but not allowed to enter it. In this connection it is interesting to turn to his essay on John Redmond, the present leader of the Irish forces. Although the letter was written nine years ago, it is still possessed of living interest. He declares that Mr. Redmond and Mr. Lloyd-George are the two most eloquent speakers in the House of Commons.
But Mr. Redmond has not gained leadership simply on the strength of eloquence. Mr. McCarthy shows very clearly that Mr. Redmond won his way to his position of command more by faithful work as a party whip in the troublous days of Parnell. He was an invaluable aid to his party when obstructionist tactics were considered necessary, being able to make as many as sixteen speeches in one day, besides doing infinite committee work.
"He was always on duty in the House," says Mr. McCarthy, "unless when he had to be on duty at some public meeting outside its precinct:
he was ever in good spirits; could always give his chief the faintest and most exact information as to the conditions of each debate and the best methods of getting full use of the number, and the debating strength of the Irish party at any given moment."
From this essay, and indeed from all of these engaging sketches, we learn that the upward path of the British statesman is encompassed with difficulty and marked by assiduous toil and devotion to duty. The life of Justin McCarthy itself is a splendid record of honest and noble effort, and now he sleeps secure of lasting fame.

7TH COMPANIES WILL HOLD A SHAM BATTLE TONIGHT

Field of Carnage Will Be in the Heart of the City.

Arrangements have been made by the officers of the Seventh Regiment to conduct the regular weekly manoeuvres this evening in the form of a sham battle, the mock warfare being carried on in the district bounded by Waterloo street, Park avenue,
Princess avenue and Dundas street.
The regiment is to be divided into two sections, the blues, composed of Companies A, B, D, F, and H, and the reds, of C, E, G, and I.

The understanding is to be that the reds were this morning compelled to retire to the fortifications represented by the bandstand at Queen's Park. The blues, who are the attacking force, marching north from St. Thomas, come in contact with the rear guard of the reds at a point north of the Armories. Both sides will conceal themselves as much as possible, and a scout upon being fired upon by the opposing force, will immediately report the fact to his commander. The reds are to hold their ground until outnumbered two to one, when they will retire. All troops must be careful to avoid flower beds, and ornamental shrubbery. When the bugle sounds cease firing, all will halt, and upon being signalled will form and will be escorted to the Armories by the regiment band.

Further operating orders will be issued by the commanders of the blues and the reds at the Armories tonight.

Church on Sunday Night.

Rev. R. Fulton, of Harrow, occupied the pulpit at the morning and evening services at Empress Avenue Methodist Church Sunday, the occasion being the anniversary of the Sunday school. In the afternoon he addressed the school on "The Importance and Difficulties of Sunday School Work." The musical part of the service was led by the Young Ladies' Adult Bible Class, assisted by an orchestra of twenty-eight pieces.

At the morning service, as theme at the morning service was
"The Drawing Power of Christ," and was illustrated by reference to a tag-net. In the evening he spoke on "The Modern House," as the character-building in a family. The modern house is not so much a building of brick and mortar as it is of family character building.

Tonight the Young Ladies' and Young Men's Adult Bible Classes will give a concert in Empress Avenue Church, and tomorrow night the church will give the annual supper to the Sunday school.

Ten New Members.
The services at Memorial Methodist Church were largely attended yesterday, and at the morning service ten additional members were received into full membership. The sacrament was administered to the largest number of members in the history of the church. At the evening service Rev. Mr. Drew gave an address on "The Need of Christ's Presence and

A SCHOOL OF COURTSHIP

[By Winnifred Black.]

[Copyright: 1912.]

"The art of courtship should be taken up as one of the regular branches of study in our public schools," says the Rev. J. H. Hunter, of Chicago. "The time has now arrived when there will be a department of this kind in our educational systems."

You don't say so, dear doctor? You don't say so in serious earnest and expect us to agree with you, honestly and truly now, doctor? Since when, pray tell us, pretty teacher—are there any more at home like—I mean, since when has courtship become an art and how long is it since an attractive boy has had to go to school to learn how to tell the girl he loves that he loves her and that he'll die in her tracks if she doesn't tell him that minute she loves him, too?

What kind of girls do you know, doctor? Do tell us. Where do they come from, what do they look like, what is their manner and mode of life? I never saw a girl in my life who had to be taught what to do when the man she loves tells her she's the sweetest thing on earth. Did you, honest doctor, professor, did you?

The art of courtship, forsooth—the art of breathing, the art of sleep, the art of being alive! Why, it's as natural to love and be loved as it is to laugh when you see anything funny.

And who would you get to give those precious lessons, dear sir? Some dry-as-dust professor who has forgotten everything he learned in a book, or some forlorn old lady who never had a sweetheart in her life? I knew a man once who knew the art of courtship—he'd learned it in a book. He practiced that art of every girl he met. The third or fourth time he saw some girl he took her into some dark corner alone and said in an earnest manner, "Miss Blank, you must have observed that I seek you out, and I feel that the time has come for me to declare to you that I have a great admiration and respect for you—a respect that I think will some day ripen into love. May I—dare I—hope that you will encourage my suit?"

Yes, he did say those very words, syllable by syllable. We all knew them by heart—and used to say them over to each other whenever we saw the educated suitor bring a girl to sit out the dances with him somewhere where there were flowers or a moon or something. Oh, he'd learned about all those things in his book, too.

Married? He? Why, there wasn't a girl in the country who would look at him—and he more than fairly well to do. Married? A man who had to learn the art of courtship before he knew what to say when he wanted to tell a girl that he thought she was pretty? No, no! Nature knows a thing or two, and nature intends that all such freaks as that shall stay freaks, alone, and she arranges it so they won't have much trouble doing it either.

The art of courtship—in a class! I shouldn't be surprised if some absurd board of education somewhere would start some such thing. They are getting us into classes and telling us how to be mothers and what to do when little Mary says she won't and little Tommy says he shan't, and what to do when baby is lonesome and wants to be cuddled, taught, instructed, educated, enlightened. Isn't there a single natural human being left in this over-intelligent world?

In the name of all that's every-day and comfy and common sense, are we all perfect idiots nowadays? Can't we play ring-around-a-rosy or drop the handkerchief without some solemn prig standing around with a measuring ribbon telling us the right way to hold hands and the only scientific method of kissing?

The art of courtship! If that ever gets to be a regular branch of the curriculum of the public schools I am going to gather up my tykes in a shawlstrap and migrate to the Cannibal Islands, where a man knows enough to pick out his sweetheart—if he can't read or write.

Why don't you open a school and teach the frogs how to swim, professor? And, hearken, how would it do to start a great academy, where larks can learn how to sing and where the swallows can be taught to twitter—almost as well as a professor?

The Stripe Used Effectively

Although plain in outline this suit is very desirable, owing to the way in which the striped material is used. Both materials are blue serge, the stripe being a coarse thread of white. The wide lapels extend to the waist line in the back, where they are fastened by buttons and loops. These buttons are of white pearl with loops made of white satin cord. The cord also passes through the buttons to fasten them in place. The skirt is of the envelope variety and closes at the side front.

FIVE RECIPES.

Risotto.
Parboil for ten minutes one cup of rice. Drain, blanch with water and let drain again. Put two tablespoons of butter in a frying pan, turn in the rice, add two tablespoons of chopped onion, one cup of thick tomatoes, one and one-half cups of salt, a little paprika and two and one-half cups of water. Cover and let cook slowly until the rice is tender and the water absorbed. Take up on a hot serving dish, sprinkle over one-half cup of grated cheese, stir with fork and serve very hot.

Asparagus Tips Salad.
Twelve tender asparagus tips (canned may be used), one firm tomato, one onion, one head lettuce.
The asparagus in halves of three and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Remove the string. Arrange on crisp lettuce or individual plates. Cut the tomato into four rings and slip a bundle of the cooked asparagus through each ring, place on lettuce and sprinkle with finely chopped pimento over the whole. Serve with French dressing.

Marconi Risolles.
Take one teaspoonful of buttered beans, which have been boiled till they are quite soft, half a teaspoon of hotted macaroni, half a teaspoon of cold mashed potatoes, the yolks of two eggs, pepper and salt, half a teaspoonful of bread crumbs—that is to say, brown bread, dry them a deep golden brown, and serve very hot. They are very nice with the bacon at breakfast, or they will take the place of a vegetable at lunch-time.

Feather Cake.
One cup sugar, one tablespoon butter, one egg, one cup milk, two cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder, a little salt. Bake in layers.

Chili Con Carne Recipe.
Cut in small squares one and a half pounds of round steak, sprinkle with salt and set aside for a few minutes. Put two tablespoons of butter or dripping in a pot and let it brown. Add the meat, brown on all sides. Add one cup of water, one cup of tomatoes, one cup of chili powder, stir in well and let it simmer for one hour. Add a can of beans and a can of corn, and lastly add a can of starch. Serves six.

HOUSECLEANING DETAILS

Use insect powder or borax freely in the kitchen pantry, on the shelves and in drawers.
Fill the wash boiler with good solution of soda, and wash, rinse and wring. Thoroughly dry.

Dust, fling day.
Thoroughly spread rugs or carpets until the floors are perfectly dry.
Wipe off fly-specked chandeliers or picture frames with a cloth dipped in kerosene.

Take down every picture, thoroughly brush the back, wipe the frame and wash the glass.
Wash the washing windows with kerosene and polish each pane as soon as cleaned.

Never use any strong alkali soap or scouring powder on paint or varnish.
Never use kerosene on cut glass.
Wash in ammonia water—not so hot as to crack the glass—scrub with a fine brush in the facets, rinse in fresh ammonia water, and dry for an hour or more in clean, fine sawdust. This brushes out quickly and your pieces shine like new.

When cleaning the china closet do not content yourself with just dusting off unused sets with a damp cloth. China should be well scrubbed at least once a year or it may stain. Soak for half an hour in lukewarm soap and water, then in clear water, not too hot, or it will crack delicate porcelain.

Stains on china can be removed with a little dry oil or by rubbing with wood ashes moistened with kerosene.
If you do not superintend the washing of your own fine china, insist upon the maid using a rubber pad in bottom of dishpan and not putting in too many pieces at a time.

The Playgrounds Movement

Supervised Recreation for Children Civic Benefit

[By "The Nomad."]

The movement to institute public recreation grounds for children is being met with increasing favor in many of the big cities of the United States. Civic clubs and bodies, women's organizations, and many individual citizens are taking a practical interest in the purchase and equipment of playgrounds. In different parts of the world, where previously the children have often had no place for play and exercise, excepting the streets. Wherever the scheme has been adopted, it has produced most gratifying results. If a director is placed on every playground to supervise the play, the children enjoy it more, and parents can rest assured that their boys and girls are in reasonably safe hands. Moreover, the children are under control to a considerable degree, and bad language is eliminated almost entirely.

American Playgrounds.
Down in Houston, Texas, a playground and recreation association has been formed, with power to establish properly supervised playgrounds for the children of that city, and also to provide recreation centres for athletic, swimming and other forms of physical and social recreation for the community. Little Rock, Arkansas, is another city whose people are taking a keen interest in the providing of proper playgrounds and equipment, and some $4,000 has been raised for the purpose by school and civic bodies. In Hazelton, Pa., the ladies have been the leaders in the movement, but now a healthy organization, composed of both men and women, has been formed, and three plots of land have been donated.

Lesson for Londoners.
These illustrations come to Londoners as an object lesson, and when Dr. Curtis, the playground expert, organizes here the matter part of the movement, it is hoped that the city will respond to his efforts to establish a recreation field that will enable the children of our city to be guided in their play along the lines of better work when they arrive at manhood and womanhood. The property now set apart on Park's Flats is an ideal situation, and with proper equipment, and live interest on the part of parents and others, the project should be made a thorough success this season.

CYNTHIA GREY'S CORRESPONDENCE

Remodelling a Dress.

Dear Miss Grey: I would like you to tell me how you would freshen up and make a good black silk dress—a peau de soie silk. The wrong side is as good as new. I was made with tucks all around the skirt, running to near the bottom from the band. How can I erase or hide the machine stitches now that it is ripped. I am about 38 and rather tall and thin. What kind of a skirt pattern would be most suitable and stylish? There is heaps of goods to work on. What kind of a sleeve pattern would you suggest? Please answer soon and greatly oblige. Yours, etc.

A Constant Reader of Your Column.
A—I am afraid there is no way of effectively hiding the stitching. Brush the silk thoroughly, dipping the brush from time to time in a little weak ammonia water. See that all threads are entirely removed. Would suggest a plain skirt pattern, with panel effect in front and back, and a trimming of black fringe about four inches from the bottom of the skirt. For the waist, run two tucks over each shoulder, and insert a V of the black silk tucked finely, with a tiny square yolk and high collar of cream lace. The fringe in a slightly narrower width would make an effective trimming for the waist also. Cut the sleeves fairly plain, and just long enough to reach below the elbow, finishing with a cuff, deep or narrow as you prefer, of the cream lace. If you do not wish to go to the expense of purchasing fringe, a few rows of small black buttons could be used as trimming.

Blue Eyes' Dilemma.

Dear Miss Grey: I am deeply in love with a young man of eighteen. He is very nice. My parents and friends dislike him and say things about him that make me feel bad. To forget is a thing I can't do. What shall I do? 2. When a girl is going with a fellow, is it right to get cards from other boys? Thanking you for your trouble, for me and my friend, BLUE EYES.

wishes. As to forgetting, I think if you really try, Blue Eyes, it will not be so hard as you imagine. 2. Yes, if she is not engaged.

More Love Problems.

Dear Miss Grey: I have been a reader of your correspondence, and please answer my questions promptly: 1. Do you think girls of fifteen and sixteen should wear their hair down their backs in a braid? 2. Have been going with a boy for some time. I did sure. He foolish to try to compel attention or affection from anyone—man or woman, and I would urge you not to do so.

A—I. Yes, it is a nice, simple style. 2. Will you believe me when I say that you are quite too young to understand or comprehend what love is, and please sense you speak. Of course you will have preferences among your boy friends, but do get this "love" idea out of your head for several years, and you will be much happier. I am sure. It is foolish to try to compel attention or affection from anyone—man or woman, and I would urge you not to do so.

CATCHER HAGERTY AND FIELDER NEALE REPORT TO THE LOCAL MANAGEMENT

Three More Players Let Go By Bowerman

Pitcher Merritt, Shortstop Conway and First Baseman White Given Releases—Catcher Hagerty and Outfielder Neale Arrive.

(BY JINX.)

As a direct result of Saturday's game, Manager Bowerman handed Shortstop Conway and Pitcher Merritt their releases on Saturday evening, and First Baseman White was released this morning. Conway and Merritt were released on Saturday that they were not fast enough for the team, the former's playing being very indifferent, while the latter needs much more experience before he will be fit for fast company. White had the making of a good first baseman, but as the team has a surplus of good first basemen at present in Bierbauer and Bowerman, there was no place for him. The men left for their homes this morning.

On Saturday evening two more players reported to Manager Bowerman. Both are likely-looking players. Hagerty comes from Boston, and Neale's home is in Altoona, where he played last season. If appearance counts for anything, both players should land a place with the Tecumsehs, for they look like ball players.

FRANK AFTER A THIRD BASEMAN.

Manager Bowerman went to Detroit Saturday evening and arrived back this morning. He is on the lookout for a good third baseman, and will likely have a man signed up before the end of the week. If Hagerty makes good, it is not unlikely that Bierbauer will be removed to left field, and Bowerman will play first base, leaving Reske and Hagerty to do the catching. Powell will be shifted to right as soon as a third baseman is landed.

The local management received a telegram from the Niagara University team late this morning announcing that the team will play in London on Tuesday. They defeated Hamilton on Saturday, and the local management was to have played in St. Thomas today, but they have been forced to cancel that date. They defeated Hamilton on Saturday, and the local management was to have played in St. Thomas today, but they have been forced to cancel that date.

Manager Bowerman did not take the loss of Saturday's game to heart. His main idea was to get a line on the doubtful material, and he could have easily won the game by taking Merritt out when the "Stars" began to hit in the seventh. However, he was able to get a line on Merritt by giving him a chance, and the pitcher demonstrated that he was not quite good enough.

HANS HOLMER WINS BERLIN MARATHON

Johnny Hayes, of New York, finishes second.

Berlin, May 4. — Hans Holmer, formerly of Halifax, N. S., today won the International Marathon race. Johnny Hayes, the former American Marathon champion finished second, eleven hours behind. No other prominent runners were entered. The race was held in a skating rink, and the prizes aggregated $5,000.

INJURIES TO ALLEN'S EYES WILL NOT PREVENT MATCH

Ottawa Man Is Training Hard to Meet Bayley for Canadian Honors.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Calgary, May 4. Despatches from Ottawa during the past week stated that Allen is suffering from injuries received to his eyes in his last fight. Tommy Burns has been assured by the Canadian champion that although he went under an operation, he has thoroughly recovered from the effects, and his bout with Bayley is assured.

The site for the bout at Bassano has been selected by those interested and plans arranged for the erection of seats to seat thousands of people.

The ring will be situated in the centre of the arena, built high enough that every person in the house will be able to see every movement of the boxers throughout the engagement. Ring seats, reserved seats, back seats and general admission seats have been so arranged to make it possible for the management to seat as many people as possible in as small an area as possible. The bout will probably take place early in the evening before dark, and the use of electric light will be cancelled. This will mean that the boxers will have natural light during the contest.

Already Tommy Burns has arranged to run special trains from Calgary and other points in Alberta to Bassano on the day of the bout. Two baseball games, between Calgary and Bassano, Western League teams, will be played during the day, before the bout, and an early special train will be supplied to carry passengers from Calgary wishing to take in the contest. It may be possible that special trains from the coast and cities in the East may also be arranged for the day of the contest.

Both Bayley and Allen have started to train in real earnest for the bout, and during May preliminary training, after which both will come to Bassano to finish.

We Fixed His Face

Once there was a man whose liver was not working right. When dressing one morning he had trouble with his collar. Then he lost the collar-button. Then he said something.

By the time he got to breakfast he was so irritated that he had no appetite and quarrelled with his wife. He went to the office with a headache, and when he had some important business to transact he bungled it. Then he tore his trousers on a nail—old suit, anyway—needed a new one—dropped into this Live Man's Store—met one of our pleasant hustlers—bought a Sovereign Brand Suit for fifteen plunks and went out with "THE SMILE THAT WE PUT ON."

His wife thanked us—we told her, that "if they were not good we'd make them good, for nothing."

CANADIAN LEAGUE EXECUTIVE WILL PASS SCHEDULE TUESDAY

Meeting Will Be Held at Hamilton—St. Thomas Players Get the Axe—Peterboro Recruits Are Showing Up Well, and Templin Is Satisfied So Far.

Hamilton, May 5.—One more player was added to the Hamilton squad yesterday, when O'Brien, the Birmingham twirler, put in an appearance, coming along after Manager Lee had given up hope of having him report. O'Brien is a big lanky chap, almost as tall as Red Fisher, and rounds out a pretty big-looking squad for the Colts this year are all on the tall side, the few that are short making up for what they lack in height by their width, Keenan and Garlow in particular.

Two strenuous practices were indulged in at the ball park yesterday, the players taking advantage of the good weather to get down to hard work. Tommy Hess made his appearance in a uniform after a week's idleness and expects to be in the game regularly from now on.

Meeting on Tuesday.

There will be a meeting of the Canadian League executive here next Tuesday afternoon, when the schedule will be adopted. Secretary Robinson was in Toronto yesterday going over league matters with President Fitzgerald, and the meeting on Tuesday will clean up all the league affairs preparatory to the opening a week later. Some slight changes have been made to the schedule as drawn up a month ago, and it is practically certain that it will be adopted as it now stands.

The four Canadian League umpires, Brichter, Pearson, Johnson and Yerkes, will report to Hamilton on May 11, when they will meet President Fitzgerald and Secretary Robinson, receiving their instructions for the season. Yerkes will be given the task of handling the opening game in Hamilton. He is the only one of the four who is a stranger to the league officials, and as President Fitzgerald will attend the opening game in Hamilton, he is sending the old veteran here in order that he can look him over.

The strenuous work of the past week has had its effect on several of the players. Billy Rose, Echow and Lloyd are all on the shelf with sore arms, while several others are just beginning to get rid of the kinks and pains which naturally followed their initial performances. The other week of warm weather, however, will bring them to nicely.

AXE FALLS AT ST. THOMAS.

St. Thomas, May 5.—The first exhibition game of the season was played at the Athletic Grounds Saturday afternoon. Manager Stewart sent the Regulars against the Yanmigans, the former winning by a score of 17 to 3. Howick and Zache pitched for the Regulars, and Neale and Turner for the Yanmigans. Wilde and Kopp's hitting featured the contest. The manager started the weeding-out process tonight, and released Catchers Craig and Tyler, Pitchers Irwin and Neale, and the Indian infielder, Holland. Manager Stewart was reluctant to let Craig go, he showing in practice to be a heady catcher, possessed of an excellent throwing arm, but Powers, the new catcher retained on the roster, had more experience, and got the call. The club's ability will be put to the test tomorrow, when they stack up against the Niagara University nine in an exhibition game here. The local management have also booked a game for next Saturday with Abbie Johnston's Stratford club.

"PETES" ARE BUSY.

Peterboro Examiner: The hot sun suited Manager Templin and his White Caps very much yesterday, and the workout at the exhibition grounds in the afternoon was the best session yet. The warm weather put some "pep" into the squad and they loosened up all along the line. The pitchers especially felt the influence of the bright sun and took more liberties with their salary whips than in the other practices. They felt like putting something on the ball and Manager Templin told them to go to it if they felt right. Most of them took advantage of the opportunity to let loose some slants and as a result they had a little on the batters, most of whom had not faced a curve ball this season. Baver, Schaeffer, Davis and Bartlett took their turn on the mound and all of them opened up some. Baver had his curve ball working nicely and showed good control. Schaeffer had lots of stuff on his offerings and occasionally used a "cross-fire" that was puzzling. It is a good addition to any pitcher's repertoire. Davis and Bartlett employed some bewildering kinks and the latter slipped in some beautiful drops that broke nicely. Altogether the heavers had the better of the argument. The curves looked very funny to the batters and will do until they get their eye on the breaks.

All the regular squad had their turn at the bat, while all three catchers handled the offerings of the pitching department. Pitchers Quinlan, Crosswell and Scull spent the afternoon chasing flies with the outfielders.

The Afternoon Stunts.

A half hour's fielding practice wound up the afternoon. Catchers Trout and Mooney worked at the plate. Dolan and Connolly had a turn at first. Templin and Elmer cavorted around second, Tully was at short and Beazle and Hartman alternated at third. The squad shot the ball around the bases in lively fashion and ate up ground balls with remarkable accuracy considering the bad ground. The outfielders worked out at the same time, pulling off some pretty catches.

The weeding out process commenced this morning, when Connolly, the first base candidate from Newburgh, N. Y., was given his release. Dolan, the Wilmington boy, has displayed such form in covering the bag and at the bat, to say nothing of his experience and record, that there was no room for Connolly, and he was let go this morning.

However, the size of the squad has not altered, as Pitcher Johnnie Derr the good left-hander from the Haverhill Club, arrived last night and was out in uniform today. Templin knows what Derr can do, and is delighted to have this boy with the White Caps. He has been a battery mate of Brode's and the Tananqua boy will probably handle his offerings this season.

Ottawas Going Good.

Chatham News: The Ottawa baseball team had the best workout since its arrival in the city on Friday afternoon. The team is rapidly rounding into form, and will be in excellent condition for their first games in Adrian, Mich., on Sunday and Monday. Manager Cook is pleased with the showing of his players.

Joe Lockhart, the Wallaceburg first baseman, who joined the team on Thursday, was handed his release yesterday. He was found wanting. O'Brien, who was released at the same time, has left the city, but has made no plans for the future. Gallino, the Detroit pitcher, who played with Lansing in the South Michigan League last summer until injuries put him out of the game in August, joined the squad Friday afternoon. He did not practice and left in the evening for his home. He will join the Ottawas at Detroit on their way to Adrian. Gallino has visited in Chatham as a baseball player and caught over last year with Paddy McGraw, on the occasion that the team got stuck on a sand bar when crossing Lake St. Clair and did not arrive in Chatham till late in the day. He has a good record and will undoubtedly make good.

With the arrival of Gallino, 14 players are now on the pay roll. It is probable that no further weeding out will be done till the middle of next week, when the line-up of the opening game will be definitely decided upon.

The following players are now with the club: Catchers, Rowe and Hooper; pitchers, Herbert, Kubat, Draper, Gallino; first base, Champene, Hopewell; second, Cook; third, Robertson; outfield, Weise, Burke, Blake and Callahan.

WOOD ESTABLISHES NEW WORLD'S RECORD

Runs Fifteen Miles in New York in 78 Minutes and 15 Seconds.

New York, May 5.—From a field of twelve professionals in an international fifteen-mile race at Cattle Park today, A. E. Wood, the English ten-mile champion, won and made a new world's record of 78 minutes, 15 seconds. He and William Queal, of Alexandria Bay, made the pace for twelve miles, and then Queal weakened, but finished second, about 700 yards behind Wood. Alf Shrubbs, of England, was third, and Ted Crooks, of Fall River, fourth. Henri St. Yves, of France, quit at 10 miles, and among the others who did not finish were: John Veenberg, Sweden; Carl Nieminen, Finland; H. Bruce, Pittsburgh; J. Lee, Boston; and Harvey Cohn, New York.

The former record, 80 minutes and 45 seconds, was made by Charles Appleton at Glasgow, Scotland, several years ago.

With the Candidates at the Woodbine

Yesterday morning's work of the Dymond platers, the three-year-olds Trocaolium and Hersey, was the best so far shown by any of the candidates. It was a really meritorious performance, a mile in 1:45, and a mile and one-eighth in two minutes flat. The first half was run in 50 4-5, and both colts finished strong. Trocaolium led practically all the way, although in other trials Hersey has been in front.

Amberite, the Crew candidate for the Guinness, was sent a mile in 1:49, the first half in 50 1-5. The performance was disappointing, disappointing to admirers of the filly, but there are other days when the daughter of Martinmas and Lydette may show to better advantage.

The rail birds at the track on Saturday saw the Seagrass horseracing first real workout since their arrival, and they were well pleased at the showing of the Plate candidates. Havrock and Rustling were sent a mile in 1:48, and Head Sea, Longus and Purple China the same distance in 1:51 2-5.

HORSE TALK

Lady Willow has been bred to Anvil, but will be raced this year, and given a last record. Her present mark is 2:14.

Akar, the Geers reliance for the Chamber of Commerce stake, injured a shoulder a short time ago and is laid up, but will be out in a short time.

Maymack, formerly Dardel, is said to have been a mile in 2:24 at Pleasanton. She is one of the Mackenzie entries in the M. and M. and the Michigan stake. Junior Magowan thinks that with the rest of the year which will mend his bad leg Mahleaf should come out in 1913 and trot things around a lot of the 2:09 class mags.

The 2:17 trot at the Fort Erie meeting has 50 entries, which shows that Secretary Nealey has been on the job. The smallest of the entries is 22 in the 2:07 pace, in itself unusual.

The Canadian season opens a month hence. Weather cuts no figure with the trainers in the Dominion, now with the horses, for they always race fast at the early and late meetings.

Reports from Memphis are to the effect that the Michigan owned mare, Eleanor G., is working to the satisfaction of Geers. As she could beat 2:08 last year she should be among the fast things this year.

The Mackenzie horses are not to leave Pleasanton until two weeks hence. The weather and conditions there are the best and James Edey not rare to get into the breezes at Libertyville until they are tempered.

Just as some folks thought—John E. Madden sold Belwin because he believes that the colt Magowan (formerly Madden) is the better of the pair. Magowan is out of the famous Fanella that recently foaled to Barongale at Dro-more, Mich.

The programme for the Pittsburg Grand Circuit meeting calls for the distribution of about $50,000 among the winners. The track on Bruno's Island will be in good shape and 200 stalls will be built to accommodate the big stables. The stable to North Randall will get ready for the half-mile tracks.

GO WITH THE BOYS TO THE NATIONAL POOL ROOMS

London, one of Ed Geers' entries in the M. and M., is a bay horse by Strong-wood, 2:12½, dam Elani (dam of Viron, 2:18½), by Patron, 2:10½, second dam Je-tine (dam of Ed Geers), by Kentucky Prince, third dam Susan, 2:18½ (dam of two), by Electioneer, 1:25. He is owned by Robert Harrison, and he worked a mile as a two-year-old in 2:12½.

Online Patch (3:2), entered in the Chamber of Commerce by Ed Geers, is an own brother of the sensation Dazdle Patch (3:2), 2:24½, and Roma Patch, 2:06½, owned by the International Stock Food Farm.

The entry for the Grand Circuit races in Fort Erie is ahead of anything in the past, averaging 25 to the race. Buffalo has come back.

SOUTH MICHIGAN TEAMS BEAT CANADIAN LEAGUERS

Ottawa and Berlin Both Meet Defeat On Saturday
In Michigan.

ADRIAN, Mich., May 5.—After being shut out for seven innings by the good hurling of Kubat and Herbert, Ottawa pitchers, Adrian rallied in the ninth and this afternoon, and in a Garrison finish scored the four runs needed to win. The final score was: Ottawa 3, Adrian 4.

All four pitchers, Hinkle and Jones for Adrian, and Kubat and Herbert for Ottawa, were going nicely. Allowing but nine hits for both teams. Burke scored a homer without the ball leaving the park, making the circuit on poor relay. The score:

THE LAST VOYAGE
BY RANDALL PARRISH
CHAPTER XX.
In Which We Fight Shadows.
In the gray of the morning, many of that illusion of the night before, I was thoroughly ashamed of the terror which had overwhelmed my nerves, and I was determined to prove how little superstition could affect my conduct. I even told the story of my adventure to Lady Huntington at the breakfast-table, dwelling on the humor of it, and amused myself in nothing but the mental picture drawn by the tale. I was, in truth, I failed completely to leave the impression desired, and the pale, cold face, the pleading in her eyes, remained with me even after I had mounted to the deck. I had, inadvertently, brought to her ladyship a new cause of worry, a new fear, and I despised myself heartily for such thoughtlessness. Yet even this knowledge served to stiffen my own resolve. De Nova met me at the foot of the steps leading to the bridge, his face careworn, his eyes heavy from long hours on watch.
"Fortune still appears to favor us," I remarked, sweeping my hand around the horizon. "If the wind will only continue to hold in that quarter for another twenty-four hours we will learn the truth of what Tuttle says. You are still heading east of south."
"Ay, ay, monsieur," and the mate clung to the rail as the Sea Queen leaned overboard a sudden puff. "We are making way all right, viz. we're drifting faster as we travel. Zet was good, but I not like very much what happen on board—by gar, non."
"Why, what is that?"
"I sink maybe we be in for a hell of a time viz. we crew; it was get bad 'nough already."
"The crew? Come, speak out plainly what you mean, De Nova. The fellows are well fed and well housed, they are having everything their own way, and against my judgment. Now, what's the trouble?"
"The trouble? Well, back his muffer, brushing off the icicles clinging to his mustaches. He glanced toward me almost shamefacedly, and off across the tumbling water.
"Well, ze trouble was viz. ze ship, monsieur, he confessed finally. "Ze dam ship was haunted."
I felt my heart leap upward into my throat, yet only continued to stare at him in silence. The mate's eyes, as if something in his throat choked him.
"By gar, monsieur, I donno nothing about it, but zat is ze fact, for, Johnson, he tol' me first when he come to ze wheel. I thought maybe it was a sailor yarn, an' so I ask him, and he say he see ze spook viz his own eyes at four bells, an' he say he tell about it make ze flesh creep. Sarc, it do zat! I sink maybe we have much troubles pretty soon—somebody sure die before zat ghost leave. Wat you sink, monsieur?"
I now had myself well in hand, and all fear of ghostly visitants had disappeared, swept from me by the return of daylight and this call to combat the terror of others. I knew sailors, and how their superstitions overcame all courage. I comprehended also that it would never do for me to yield to this crew again; another surrender would rob me completely of all semblance of authority on board. This was a time for exercising the strong hand. I must either command now, or else the mate and Sea Queen would be ruled by the mob. If Anderson and his mates found they could do as they pleased, could dictate, then discipline would be over with.
"What do I think?" I echoed, laughing in the mate's trouble. "I think, that those fellows are a parcel of fools frightened at a night shadow. Come, De Nova, have done with that sort of truck, and stand by to clap a stopper on such talk. Go below now, get some sleep, and clear the fog out of your head."
"You sink you laugh it away, but may-

The Chances Against You

"Oh, I will be alright in a few days," says the person who is tired out and has to drag himself to his daily work because the nervous system is exhausted. Unfortunately nervous diseases do not right themselves, and the wasting process which has brought you to this condition keeps right on until there is a complete breakdown. You must get the building-up process started, so that, instead of being a little weaker at the end of each day, you will find the balance on the other side and know that you are gradually getting strong and well. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help you wonderfully if you only give it a reasonable chance. As the system is built up you will find such symptoms as headache, sleeplessness and indigestion leaving you. You will find the old energy coming back. The mind and body will better serve you, and you will see a new pleasure in life.

LINER ULTONIA BREAKS PROPELLER

Big Cunarder Creeps Into Halifax in a Crippled Condition.

FIRST CANADIAN TRIP

Told of Her Condition by Wireless, But Did Not Ask for Assistance.

Halifax, N. S., May 5.—The Cunarder steamer Ultonia is at anchor in quarantine in Halifax harbor, with her starboard propeller broken and 1,928 passengers aboard. The Ultonia came in under her own steam, using one propeller, at the rate of nine miles an hour. On Saturday night at 10:30 o'clock a wireless message was received by the Cunard agents at Halifax, informing them that the Ultonia, from Southampton, for Quebec and Montreal, was 88 miles southeast of Sable Island, with one of her propellers damaged, and that she was making nine miles an hour on her way to Halifax. Nothing was done to send her assistance, as it was decided no help was required, and she was asked for. The ship at 4 o'clock was reported approaching the harbor, and two steam tugs went out, coming up with her four miles east-southeast of Halifax. On the way they placed a hawser aboard, and the other went alongside her quarter to assist her in steering to the quarantine grounds, where she came to anchor. No one boarded her, the health officers postponing their visit till tomorrow morning, the rules forbidding anyone to board her prior to the medical inspection. The captain made no report regarding the accident, further than what he sent in his wireless message. The passengers will be disembarked tomorrow and forwarded by rail to Quebec. The Ultonia will proceed to Montreal. It was the maiden voyage of the Cunard Line's new Canadian service. The ship is 10,402 tons and was built in 1888.

TRAFFIC BYLAW MEETS WITH GOOD RECEPTION

Auto Owners of London Readily Fall in With the New Rules.

Excellent results are being obtained in the enforcing of the new traffic bylaw by the police department, but while Chief Williams states that power-propelled vehicles are behaving very well some of the bicyclists will have to be dealt with severely unless they mend their ways. Drivers of horse-drawn and motor vehicles cause little or no trouble, the police state, but especially around the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets bicyclists persist in cutting the corners, and proceed in any direction they desire. As a result traffic "cops" are kept jumping with the wheels that swarm around like insects. Today in order to keep the farmers in accord with the regulations, additional officers were placed on duty at the corner of King and Richmond streets, and Talbot and King streets, as well as about the market.

SEEK ALONG EDGE OF THE GULF STREAM

Government Steamer To Take Up Search for Bodies of Titanic's Lost.

Halifax, N. S., May 5.—The search for "Titanic" bodies by the Government steamer Montmagny will sail tomorrow afternoon, relieving the Minia, which is expected to arrive with less than 20 bodies tomorrow. The White Star officials tried hard to get another steamer, but failed. The Montmagny will be ready to sail tomorrow afternoon. She is about four knots faster than the other ship, and is well adapted for the job. The Dominion Government steamer in prosecuting her search will cruise along the edge of the Gulf Stream, and it is expected that bodies will be found in cold water far north perhaps as 100 miles from the place where the Titanic went down.

JUDGE MABEE IMPROVED

But Condition Is Still Very Critical, Say His Physicians.

Toronto, May 6.—The following bulletin was issued at St. Michael's Hospital by Dr. Herbert A. Bruce and Dr. J. E. Elliott: "At midnight Judge Mabey's condition was somewhat improved, and the outlook is slightly more hopeful. A consultation was held with Dr. Bruce, Dr. W. P. Caven and Dr. Elliott at 4 o'clock today, and the following bulletin was issued: "Judge Mabey has held his own for the past twenty-four hours. His condition is still very critical."

MARCONI SURPRISED

At Senator Smith's Mystery Making of Wireless Message.

New York, May 4.—Mr. J. B. Bottemy, general manager of the American Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company, expresses great surprise today that the mystery of the "Titanic" should be made a mystery of a certain wireless message which Mr. J. Bruce Ismay sent to Vice-President Franklin, of the White Star Line, on the night of the Titanic disaster, and which took 48 hours to reach its destination. Mr. Bottemy said that so far as the Marconi Company was concerned, it stood ready at all times to render any assistance within its power, and that if Senator Smith would take the trouble to furnish him either the original or a copy of such a dispatch he would be very glad to trace it as speedily as possible and determine the reason for any delay in transmission.

SANDWICH PIONEER

Windor, May 5.—The death occurred yesterday of Mrs. Theresa Montreuil, wife of ex-Reeve Louis Montreuil, of Sandwich East Township. Mrs. Montreuil was 81 years of age. She was born in Windsor and had resided in Essex County her entire life.

Lowering the Cost

REDUCED to its simplest terms, the price of an article is the cost of material, labor of manufacture, transportation, distribution, sale, and delivery—plus a profit on each of these.

Let us take the case of a fountain pen to show what price is.

First, the materials must be produced—the rubber in Para—the gold in South Africa or the Yukon—iridium in Siberia.

Then all these must be transported to the factory. There the rubber is vulcanized into holders; the gold refined and stamped into points; the iridium tipped on to the gold; and so on.

The labor operations on a fountain pen run well over the hundred mark, and expensive machinery is required for almost every one of them.

Manufacturing completed, the pens are sold to jobbers and retailers—transported hundreds and thousands of miles. And profits are taken at every step, remember that.

After the wholesale distribution, the retail sale is made—delivery completed, and the pen at last put to its destined use.

Suppose you have paid $2.50 for one of the standard well-known fountain pens. Do you begin to realize what an imposing number of things that $2.50 has paid for? Haven't you a pretty clear idea that, if these operations were applied to the making of one single pen, it would break an oil magnate to buy it?

Is it not perfectly plain that Quantity controls price by one of the simplest of natural laws?

Para rubber by the shipload—gold and iridium by pounds instead of milligrammes—labor of thousands organized and directed—transportation in car lots—and sales by the million—to every schoolboy, stenographer, business man—to every one who writes.

It is all this gigantic expenditure, divided by the countless units of millions of sales, that makes it possible to buy a fountain pen for $2.50. The more sales, the smaller becomes the cost of the unit.

We know that Advertising has raised Quality. We know it has standardized prices.

And now we see that Advertising increases sales, shortens the road between producer and consumer—and lowers prices.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or through the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

Homeseekers' and Cottlers' Special

Trains to Western Canada. Via Chicago and St. Paul, April 16, 23 and 30, and every second Tuesday thereafter until June 17. Inclusive, tickets will be on sale on certain dates via Sarnia and Northern Navigation Company. Special train will leave Toronto 10:30 p.m. on above dates for Edmonton and points in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, stopping at all points on Grand Trunk Pacific Railway west of Winnipeg. Through coaches and Pullman tourist sleepers will be carried, fully equipped with bedding and porter in-charge. Berths will be secured in sleepers at a low rate. This is an exceptional opportunity for those wishing to take advantage of the remarkably low one-way settlers' rates, or round-trip tourist excursion rates through the American cities. No change of cars. Secure tickets and berth reservations at all points on Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, or at the nearest passenger agent. Union Station, Toronto.

KNOW NOTHING OF IT

MISS P. ALLEN, Beaconsfield street, suffering from shock and bruises.

Toronto, May 6.—Two persons were crushed to death and twelve others injured by the collapse on Saturday morning of the south wall (120 feet in length) of the five-story factory of William Neilson, Limited, ice cream and chocolate manufacturers, 277-307 Gladstone avenue. The disaster occurred at half-past 10 o'clock, when the factory was in full blast. One hundred and sixty employees were in the building at the time, and only the fact that the majority of them were occupied in the north part of the factory prevented the casualty list from being much more serious. The three upper stories were unoccupied, being an addition to the original two-story structure, and just nearing completion.

Fifteen workmen, bricklayers and carpenters, were employed on the roof; there were 105 operators on the second floor, 45 operators on the first floor, and about ten in the basement.

No Warning.
There was no warning—just a dull boom as the big mass of brick and mortar crumbled earthward. Several workmen were fortunate enough to step out of the danger zone in the nick of time, but those in the path of the wreckage were crushed down to the basement and completely buried in the piles of debris that fell on their heads.

The Wall Buckled.
The first intimation of the calamity was received by George R. Burns, an employee, who was working in the stable yard at the southeast corner of the factory. He said he heard a grating rumble as of something tumbling, and, looking round, he saw several bricks, dislodged from the coping at the southwest corner of the wall, flying to the ground. Then suddenly the wall buckled in the centre and fell outwards with a tremendous roar. Impenetrable clouds of dust rose from the ruins, and it was impossible for some minutes to see what had happened. Ralph Flint, the foreman carpenter, was near the supply house in the yard, just south of the wall, and narrated a similar account of the affair.

Firemen to the Rescue.
Meantime P. C. Collins, who was standing at the corner of Dundas street and Gladstone avenue, heard the noise and saw the wall fall. Immediately he pulled the alarm and then rushed to the factory. Alarms were sent in also from other places, and in a very few minutes there were over fifty firemen on the scene. They came from upper Dundas street, lower Dundas street, Parkdale, Ossington avenue, Perth avenue, Howland avenue, College street, Portland street and Toronto Junction stations. Their numbers were swollen by as many citizens in the vicinity, and carpenters, bricklayers and a gang of telephone men. All of them, with no thought for clothing or themselves, started digging away with their hands at the awful mass of entangled wreckage that covered the victims. Nobody knew how many had been swept down with the wreckage, and the rescuers worked frantically. Every man toiled like a Trojan. The place where the people were buried was covered with heavy beams and twisted steel pipes and piles of debris.

Found Two Dead.
It was not long before the rescuers heard a woman moaning, and finally they found Mrs. Annie Thompson. She was pinned down by molds and kettles. She appeared to be very seriously injured. Then Mrs. Anderson was found buried completely. She was quite dead. In a similar condition they found the body of Luege Scenna, near his wheelbarrow, he having been carried down from the roof. Further down they came across Charles Ferguson. He was blinded by dust, but was quite uninjured. Mike Tersy, an Italian laborer, was found pinned against the foundation wall. A heavy piece of board had fallen over his head, and it was likely this protection that saved his life.

An emergency call had been sent in to the Western Hospital, and many ambulances were soon on the scene. Dr. J. Spence, Jamieson avenue, was the first medical man on the ground, and he rendered first aid, being reinforced a few minutes after his arrival by Drs. T. D. Archibald and Williams, from the Western Hospital. A group of doctors was in waiting at the hospital, including Dr. A. H. Perfect, Dr. T. S. Webster, Dr. T. J. Page, Dr. H. E. Clutterbuck, Dr. S. M. Hay, Dr. R. Wesley and Dr. H. M. Clements. They were quite ample to meet the emergency, and the injured received immediate attention.

Panic Among Employees.
When the employees in other parts of the factory heard the terrible noise, they became panic-stricken and fled wildly to the north side of the building. The operators on the second floor rushed through a large door which leads from the big factory into the adjoining two-story structure. On the second floor the girls stampeded at a little door which passes from the north side of the building into the driving shed. The door was locked, but in their fury they swept it clean off its hinges as though it were paper and fled crazy with flight into the streets. In the office there were about 25 clerks. They too, heard the awful thunder and rushed pell-mell over the desks and railings so frantically that they became wedged in the main entrance.

Strathroy, May 4.—The Mission Band of the Presbyterian Church held their talent tea and sale of fancy work in the basement of St. Andrew's Church yesterday afternoon and evening. A fair crowd attended. The band cleared about $40.

ROOSEVELT WINS IN TEXAS
AT PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES

Indications Are That the Rough Rider Has Made a Solid Sweep

While For the Democrats Wilson Has a Good Lead

Over Clark.

Austin, Texas, May 5.—It is now definitely known that Roosevelt practically swept the state in the presidential primaries held yesterday, although the early reports indicated that Taft was in the lead. Col. Cecil Lyon, the Roosevelt manager, claims a solid Roosevelt delegation of forty voters will be sent to the national convention. Quite a number of districts did not instruct, but their delegations are said to be favorable to Roosevelt.

Washington, May 5.—Governor Wilson's friends have taken fresh hope as the result of news from Texas. The best information that can be obtained from Washington tonight from Texas Democratic leaders is that Governor Wilson swept the precinct conventions held yesterday. His campaign in Texas votes that Governor Wilson secured more than three times as many delegates to the state convention as all of the opposition combined. Texas will have 40 votes in the Baltimore convention. Governor Wilson's managers say tonight that this puts him in the lead with 208 votes in sight.

CARPATIA CAPATIN
DEFENDS MR. ISMAY

Declares That His Behavior

When Aboard the Cunarder

Was Irreproachable.

London, May 6.—Capt. Rostron, of the steamship Carpathia, interviewed at Gibraltar by the correspondent of the Daily Mail, said:

"The allegation that I was using the wireless to my own advantage after the wreck of the Titanic is a wicked lie."

Capt. Rostron warmly defended J. Bruce Ismay, declaring that he behaved irreproachably on board the Carpathia. He concluded by saying that he remembered seeing distinctly two mast-head lights at 3 o'clock Monday morning, which appeared to be nearer the Titanic than the Carpathia was, and at daybreak he saw two other ships about eight miles away to the north, while the Carpathia was picking up survivors.

WINGHAM EXECUTIVE
DRAWS UP SCHEDULE

Baseball Will Boom in Northern Town

This Season as Never Before.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Wingham, May 4.—The executive of the Town Baseball League met at the Brunswick Hotel last evening, and the schedule for the first half of the coming season was drawn up.

The most important resolution of the evening was that if an outsider should come into the town, no matter how good a player he may be, he will be classed as an independent, and before any of the teams can choose this player it was agreed that he should be turned over to the executive committee which will weigh the matter carefully and allow him to play with the weakest team, or whatever the committee thinks best. This was carried.

Another resolution was that if any of the teams now appointed had a player on hand and had any men absent, it may pick out of the other teams any needed without action being taken by the executive committee. Carried.

Will Choose Captains.

Owing to the absence of some of the members, the captains of the teams were not chosen, but will be picked out later on, before the heavy work starts. Light practice was held by some of the players last evening on the ground.

Mr. A. J. Alderson stated that he was surprised to see how well many newcomers were showing up.

The executive committee was elected as follows: President, F. Sturt, Bankers; J. Phalen, Western Foundry; W. Neely, Clerks; J. Allen, High School; J. Kier, Factory.

Managers were elected as follows: C. McLean, High School; W. O. Neely, Clerks; R. Currie, Bankers; J. Phalen, Western Foundry, and J. Pearson, factory.

The schedule is as follows:

May 10—High School vs. Banker Brunswick.

May 15—Foundry vs. Factory.

May 17—Clerks vs. High School.

May 22—Factory vs. Banker Brunswick.

May 24—Foundry vs. Banker Brunswick.

May 29—Banker Brunswick vs. High School.

May 31—High School vs. Factory.

June 5—Clerks vs. Banker Brunswick.

June 7—Factory vs. Foundry.

June 12—Foundry vs. Clerks.

June 14—High School vs. Clerks.

June 19—Banker Brunswick vs. Foundry.

June 21—Clerks vs. Factory.

June 26—Factory vs. High School.

June 28—Foundry vs. Banker Brunswick.

July 3—High School vs. Banker Brunswick.

July 5—Banker Brunswick vs. Clerks.

July 10—Clerks vs. Foundry.

July 12—Factory vs. Banker Brunswick.

July 17—Foundry vs. Factory.

July 19—High School vs. Foundry.

WAS A CONFIRMED DYSPPEPTIC

Now Finds it a Pleasure to Enjoy Meals

Here is a case which seemed as bad and as hopeless as yours can possibly be. This is the experience of Mr. H. J. Brown, 384 Bathurst St., Toronto, in his own words:

"Gentlemen—I have much pleasure in mentioning to you the benefits received from your Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and can cheerfully recommend them. I am a confirmed dyspeptic, and tried about all the advertised cures with no success. You have in Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets the best curative agent I could find. It is now such a pleasure to enjoy meals with their consequent nourishment that I want to mention this for the benefit of others."

The fact that a lot of prescriptions or so-called "cures" have failed to help you is no sign that you have got to go on suffering. Try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and see how quickly this sterling remedy will give you relief and start your stomach working properly. If it doesn't help you, you get your money back, 50c a box at your druggist's. Compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal. 141

Cattle and Produce Markets

For Other Markets See Page Eleven

WINNIPEG, May 4.—On the wheat market this morning trading was active, and a fair volume of business was transacted in options. The opening prices were 1½c to 1¾c higher, and with Continental and Liverpool cables strong, American markets higher, and continued unfavorable crop reports, there was a further advance of ½c to ¾c, with the underdone firm, finally closing 1½c to 1¾c higher. The cash demand was good, while offerings were not heavy, and port trade more active now that navigation is open. Oats and flax steady, with little change. Receipts were heavy, 420 cars being in sight for inspection. cast down from that high eminence on which the Creator had enthroned her on the morning of creation. She found her sunk to the deepest depths of degradation. And she elevated her once more to her rightful place in the world. She has proclaimed and maintained her equality with man in origin and in destiny.
