POLICEMAN AND SAILOR FIGHT DUEL TO DEATH AT PORT McNICHOL

Wheelsman on Steamer Athabasca Is Killed by Bullet From Officer's Revolver—Constable Was Fired Upon by Sailor Who Tried To Escape and Was Shot While Running Away.

Port McNichol, Aug. 12.—After firing on and wounding C. P. R. Constable William Flaurey of Port McNichol, who was attempting to arrest him, Athime Hervieux, unmarried, of Montreal, wheelsman on the C. P. R. steamer Athabasca, was shot and instantly killed by the constable, at the docks here about 5 o'clock this morning. The wheelsman had been giving trouble on board ship, where apparently he had had some difference with one of his mates employed as lookout on the boat. When in the early hours this morning the wheelsman went after the lookout with a 32-calibre revolver and fired two shots through the latter's cabin door, the captain of the Athabasca sent for the constable to have Hervieux arrested and disarmed.

Fired at Fleeing Man.

Flaurey was approaching the wheelsman when suddenly the latter fired at him at close range. The bullet took effect in the policeman's shoulder, a little to the left of the breastbone, and just above the heart. Hervieux then turned and ran down the gangplank and through the freight sheds, Flaurey in pursuit. The constable, thinking to frighten the fugitive and cause him to stop, fired in his direction. The bullet, however, took effect in Hervieux's body, entering in the back between the shoulders and coming out through the chest. He died almost instantly.

Dr. J. D. McPhee, the coroner at the port, was called and gave attention to the wounded constable. He also made arrangements for an inquest on the body of the dead sailor.

The doctor stated tonight that Constable Flaurey was doing nicely and would recover unless complications develop. He, however, had a very close call owing to the fact that the bullet entered his body so near his heart.

The inquest on Hervieux's body was opened tonight before Coroner McPhee, but was adjourned until a later date after the jury had viewed the body.

Asked for details of the affair, Dr. McPhee said that he understood that the dead man had threatened to use his revolver on several members of the boat's crew, besides shooting through the door of the lookout's cabin. He could ascribe no reason for Hervieux's rash acts. It is understood, however, that the wheelsman was of a hot-headed nature.

The affair has caused much excitement here. While the actual shooting was in progress the few people in the neighborhood dashed for cover from the bullets. Alfred Moore of the C. P. R. investigation department arrived here tonight to look into the case.

GERMANY MUST RAISE TWENTY-FIVE BILLION MARKS A YEAR

Mathias Erzberger Promises Bill Will Be Introduced At Early Date.

MUST CREATE FLEET

Germans Abroad Must Be Aided With State Advances.

Berlin, Aug. 13.—"We must proceed immediately to create a mercantile fleet and help Germans abroad with state advances," said Mathias Erzberger, vice-premier and minister of finance of the German Government, speaking before the National Assembly at Weimar yesterday. He promised the assembly that a bill carrying out these projects would be presented in a few weeks.

Herr Erzberger added that the loan situation must be given consideration, declaring that the German nation must raise 25,000,000,000 marks yearly in taxes in order to regain a healthy condition.

SERBIA MADE A LAND OF ORPHANS BY WAR

Belgrade, Aug. 13.—The war has made Serbia a country of orphans. There are 200,000 persons who lost both their parents, and 300,000 more who lost one parent, according to statistics compiled by Red Cross workers from records in the Serbian educational department. Some towns of 10,000 inhabitants have between 2,000 and 3,000 orphans. The occupation of Serbia for three years by the enemy, and the subsequent deportations, combined with the great retreat in 1915, which carried half a million children in its wake, separated numberless children from their parents.

PRINCE SEES BIG REGATTA AT ST. JOHNS

Thousands Cheer Heir to British Throne When He Visits At Quidividi Lake.

SLEPT AT GOVT. HOUSE

Party Will Next Visit At St. John New Brunswick.

St. Johns, Nfld., Aug. 13.—The shores of Quidividi Lake, two miles from the city, where a few weeks ago crowds gathered to watch the start of the first successful non-stop transatlantic airplane flight, were again thronged with Newfoundlanders today when the Prince of Wales, on his official visit to this colony, went to the lake for the annual regatta. The crowds were in waiting long before the royal guest was due, and when he reached the lake every point of vantage was occupied. As he came into view a wave of cheering swept along the line, gathering force until thousands were yelling themselves hoarse.

Slept at Government House.

After a program of events, which kept him up until long after midnight yesterday, the prince slept at Government House in the room occupied in 1860 by his grandfather, the late King Edward VII, when as Prince of Wales he visited Newfoundland. Early this morning the prince went aboard the British cruiser Dragon for breakfast, and at 10 o'clock made his second official landing in this city. A crowd greeted him, repeating the enthusiastic welcome of yesterday, and all along the route to the lake he received an ovation.

Witnessed Regatta.

In witnessing the regatta, a feature of summer life here for nearly 70 years, the prince was once again following in the footsteps of his grandfather. Particularly appropriate was the presence of the Prince of Wales of today, for it marked the revival of the event, which had been abandoned during the period of hostilities.

Leaves for St. John.

The racing program occupied the entire day, but the prince was restricted to a two-hour visit, as he was scheduled to leave the city at noon to re-embark on the battle cruiser Renown, awaiting him at Conception Bay, and proceed to St. John, N. B., to begin his visit to Canada.

Sir Robert, after the St. John celebration, will go on board ship, and remain with the prince and his party until they reach Quebec. During the absence of the prime minister from Ottawa Sir George Foster will be the acting prime minister.

It is said that Premier Bratiano has instructed the Rumanian officers at Budapest to hold an immediate conference with the Allied generals there, and to make every effort to avoid complications.

VISCOUNT GREY AGREES TO ACT AS AMBASSADOR

Former British Secretary of State To Go To Washington.

London, Aug. 13.—Viscount Grey, former British secretary of state for foreign affairs, has agreed to represent the British Government at Washington, pending the appointment of a permanent ambassador.

Viscount Grey of Fallodon (Sir Edward Grey) comes to the United States to represent the British Government after a career as head of the British foreign office. For eleven years momentous in the political affairs of Europe, he was secretary of state for foreign affairs from December 11, 1905, to December 11, 1916. On several occasions during that period it was the initiative of Sir Edward Grey that caused the gathering clouds of war to disappear. It was he who made the last effort to prevent the European war when he urged the ambassadors of the leading powers to meet and discuss the situation in an attempt to put off hostilities. His effort failed through the attitude of the German Government and the German emperor.

Gladstone, under whom Sir Edward served in his youth, described him thus: "I never knew in a man such aptitude for political life, and such disinclination for it."

Since his retirement from the foreign office, Viscount Grey has been living in retirement in Northumberland. The new ambassador's eyes began to trouble him in 1918, and at one time it was reported he was totally blind. This report was exaggerated, but the viscount has difficulty in reading, although his eye trouble has improved somewhat.

GERMANS' TONNAGE LOSS WAS HEAVY

Four-Fifths of Foe's Cargo Space Taken or Destroyed.

Berlin, Aug. 12.—What Germany has lost in shipping through the war the Tages Zeitung expounds as follows:

"As is well known, we owned in January, 1913, a fleet of 4,850 ships of every size with a gross register tonnage of 4,935,909 tons. We have of ships up to 1,000 tons, 3,649 ships, with a total cargo space of 589,263 gross register tons, and of ships above 1,000 tons, 166,000 tons, and 106 ships with a total of 135,673 gross register tons. Altogether, therefore, Germany has 3,755 ships with 724,944 gross register tons.

"The net result is a loss of more than 4,000,000 gross register tons, that is more than four-fifths of our whole tonnage, which leaves us not quite enough to conduct our Baltic shipping with our own cargo space."

VINNITZA ABANDONED BY THE BOLSHEVIKI

City 125 Miles Southwest of Kiev Left by Russian Reds.

London, Aug. 13.—The city of Vinnitza, in the Ukraine, 125 miles southwest of Kiev, has been abandoned by the Bolsheviki, according to a wireless message from Moscow. In Volhynia anti-Bolsheviki forces have occupied the railway centre of Lutsk, southeast of Kovel.

The Bolshevik wireless message reads:

"In the direction of Zhemerinka we have abandoned Vinnitza. The enemy has occupied Lutsk."

Withdrawal of the Bolsheviki from Vinnitza indicates that the Rumanians and anti-Bolsheviki have forced the Bolsheviki to retire from the line of the River Dniester in Northeastern Besarabia.

The board was in session yesterday and considerable progress was made with the organization and the framing of the rules and regulations. The matter of the fixed prices to be paid the farmers at the time their grain is sold, had not been discussed up until today, and it is probable this may not be decided, until the end of the week.

SHOPMEN RETURNING TO WORK PENDING STRIKE'S SETTLEMENT

Railroad Officials Predict the Entire System Will Be Normal Soon.

TRAINS ARE RESTORED

Strikers in Chicago District Are Still Holding Out.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Calling off of the Federated Railway Shopmen's strike in the Atlanta, Ga., district, caused railroad officials today to predict that the entire rail system of the country would be operating at normal within a week. Reports from various parts of the country today showed that striking shopmen were returning to work pending settlement of their wage demands. In the Chicago district, however, there was no break in the ranks of the strikers.

Officers of the Chicago district council who called the strike against orders of the international officers claimed today they had been successful in breaking up meetings held by international leaders, who sought to induce the men to return to work pending a settlement of the dispute.

A number of trains which were cancelled several days ago on account of the strike on railroads centering here were restored today.

New York, Aug. 13.—Interior decorating, so essential to the renovating of hundreds of apartments being prepared for October leasing, came to a standstill today by the strike of 14,000 painters, decorators and paper hangers.

At a meeting yesterday, the strike committee of the New York district of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers decided to advance the date of the strike originally announced for Friday, and ordered the men to quit work last night and not return today.

The workers demand a five-day working week of 40 hours, with a wage of $1 an hour. They have been receiving $8 a day for a 44-hour week.

Farmers Adopt New Invention To Fight Pest

Tipton, Ind., Aug. 12.—Farmers in Tipton County are experimenting extensively with a machine which they hope will rid their clover fields of grasshoppers. The machine, which is the invention of County Agent Girard of Tipton County, is of simple construction and can easily be constructed with a few tools, according to the inventor. The hoppers are caught in sails attached to the machine and are dropped into a cage from which they can be emptied at will. The maching can be driven through the fields without damage to the crops. The hoppers when caught can be fed to chickens, being excellent poultry food.

RECENT VISITOR TO THIS CITY IS SLAIN BY CHICAGO HOLD-UP MEN

R. C. Wilson Shot to Death When He Bravely Resists Thieves.

The following account of a sensational murder in Chicago, as reported in a Chicago newspaper, tells of the tragic death of a young man who a few weeks ago was visiting relatives and friends in this city and Wyoming, Ont.:

Robert Charles Wilson, a student of Northwestern University, was murdered shortly before midnight last night while taking an auto ride with a young friend and two girls in Marquette Park.

The police of the Englewood station and detectives from the bureau are searching the south side for the murderers, but at an early hour this morning no trace of them had been found.

Girls Witness Tragedy.

Young Wilson, who was 21 years old and lived at 6807 Union avenue, was a junior at Northwestern. He was accompanied by Frederick White, an accountant of the International Harvester Company, living at 6422 Yale avenue. The young men had been driving with two girls, Miss Edna McAver, aged 22, of 7011 South Wabash avenue, and Miss Marie Kulak, aged 21, of 7341 Union avenue.

As they were going along the main road in Marquette Park, at what would be Sixty-Ninth street, just east of Kedzie avenue, the two hold-up men jumped from the bushes. Aiming their revolvers at the driver, they halted the automobile.

Relieved of Valuables.

"Get out, all of you."

The young men and women complied. The robbers lined them up along the side of the auto and went through their clothes for their valuables. When they had completed relieving them of their money and jewels the bandits commanded:

"Now, turn your backs and don't move for five minutes, or we shoot to kill."

Rebels: Pays With Life.

At this command young Wilson rebelled. He made a leap at one of the bandits. As he did so the other fired. One bullet lodged in Wilson's spine, another in his lungs. Wilson fell in a welter of blood.

The murderers, frightened at their

GIVES BULGARIA OUTLET

Inter-Allied Representative to Hungary Arrives in Budapest.

Paris, Aug. 13.—Consideration was given by the supreme council of the peace conference yesterday to the Thracian question, but no decision was reached. Apparently the plan urged by Capt. Andre Tardieu of the French delegation to internationalize three-fourths of Western Thrace, thus giving Bulgaria free access to the sea, is meeting with considerable favor.

Advices have been received of the arrival in Budapest of Gen. J. C. Graziani, French representative on the inter-allied military commission to Hungary, but no report has been received from the commission, nor has the council had any direct reply to its ultimatum from the Rumanian Government.

BULGARIA TO GET AN OPENING TO THE MEDITERRANEAN

Paris, Aug. 13.—The supreme council, the Echo de Paris says, is preparing to give Bulgaria an opening to the Mediterranean Sea through either Kavala or Dedeagatch. The territory surrounding the port selected would be neutralized and placed under a status similar to Danzig.

That portion of Thrace given Bulgaria at the close of the Balkan wars included Dedeagatch. The Bulgarians and Germans built a railroad from Central Bulgaria to Dedeagatch.

GENERAL MACDONNELL COMES TO DEFENCE OF SIR ARTHUR CURRIE

Declares He Was Present When Haig Gave Order to Canadian Commander.

OTHERS HAD FAILED

Canadians Suffered Lowest Percentage of [illegible] Made Highest.

Kingston, Aug. 13.—Speaking at the banquet tendered last night to the visiting delegates to the convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities, Gen. Sir Archibald MacDonnell, the new commandant of the Royal Military College, defended Gen. Sir Arthur Currie from the criticism levelled at him because of the losses suffered by the Canadians at Passchendaele. Gen. MacDonnell, "the man who took Hill 70," said he was present when Sir Douglas Haig told Gen. Currie to take Passchendaele, and the Canadians took it after the Australians, New Zealanders and Britishers had failed.

Casualties Were Low.

Referring to the Canadian casualties, the speaker said that according to figures recently published in England, the Canadians suffered the lowest percentage of losses and made the highest percentage of gains. Among other speakers was Mayor Hardie, Lethbridge, who declared for a middle course on the liquor question, neither too wet nor too dry.

Urges Greater Co-operation.

Dr. Edwards, M. P. for Frontenac urged greater co-operation among rural and urban municipalities, as it was only such co-operation that municipal problems common to city and country could be solved.

He attributed the high cost of living to the fact that for years the farmers received less than cost price of their produce. The result of this inadequate return was that the young men left the farms and went to the city and in consequence of the depopulation of the rural municipalities there was a scarcity of production and high cost of living.

AMERICAN STEAMER ENGLEWOOD STRIKES MINE OFF ENGLAND

Vessel Is Expected To Reach Sheerness, Where She Will Be Beached.

Dover, Eng., Aug. 13.—The American steamer Englewood struck a mine in the North Sea off the Thames River at 7:30 o'clock this morning and sent out a wireless message for help. The steamer, however, is in no immediate danger of sinking, and tugs are standing by. The Englewood is making for the Thames under her own steam. If she takes no more water the steamer probably will be beached at Sheerness.

The Englewood, a steamer of 5,133 tons, left New York on July 20 for Rotterdam. She was built on Staten Island in 1918 for the United States shipping board.

Blackdeep is off the mouth of the Thames River, and is about twenty miles east of Southend.

GRAND CHAMPION OF LITTLE ONES LEAVES OFFICE

Joseph Sanders Retires From Inspectorship of Children's Aid Society.

RECORD IS GRAND ONE

Esteem Shown by His Election To Honorary Vice-Presidency.

Joseph A. Sanders, for 25 years inspector for the Children's Aid Society, placed his resignation before the board of management at a meeting yesterday afternoon. The board accepted his withdrawal with regret, and in order that his services might not be entirely lost to the society, appointed him honorary vice-president.

Mr. Sanders' resignation was not entirely unexpected, members of the board stated, as he had frequently intimated to them lately that he intended to retire from the work. All the members testify to the high esteem in which Mr. Sanders is held and express regret that advancing years have made it impossible for him to continue the active part he has taken in the work of the society, practically ever since its inception. He has devoted the past 25 years of his life to the service of neglected and dependent children, and has become a familiar figure not only to the citizens of London but throughout the province.

Made Honorary Official.

After accepting the resignation, which goes into effect at the end of the month, the following resolution was unanimously adopted on the motion of J. I. A. Hunt, seconded by W. L. Walker.

"That in view of Mr. Sanders' long and untiring services and the desire of the board not to lose his presence in their counsels, he be appointed honorary vice-president of the society in order that the board might continue to have, in an advisory capacity, the benefit of his wide experience in the work; and further, that Mr. Sanders' salary be continued until the 30th of November, 1919, the end of the society's financial year, and that the secretary be instructed to convey to Mr. Sanders a copy of this resolution, together with an expression of the board's appreciation of his faithful services in the cause of neglected children during the past quarter of a century."

By none will Mr. Sanders' resignation be so much regretted as by his former wards. Throughout his many years of office he has kept up a correspondence with the boys and girls who were under his care and who are now men and women living in all parts of the world.

A Proud Record.

The war record of the society's wards is a proud one, and all through the long four years of war Mr. Sanders showed his pride and interest in the boys who had enlisted by keeping up a continuous correspondence with them, although this entailed a great amount of work.

His interest in the military career of some of his former wards was no doubt due to his own service as a soldier in the Imperial army. He served as a sergeant instructor in England during the Crimean war.

At its conclusion he came to America, and after spending some time in the southern states, settled in Canada. He took up the work of the Children's Aid Society when a middle-aged man, but his constant energy has resulted in its steady growth.

When he took charge of the work, the society had no shelter for orphan children, the wards being housed with the Protestant Orphans' Home and the Mount Hope Orphanage. A bequest of $10,000 from Thomas Alway Hall resulted in the present shelter being erected.

Mr. [illegible]'s duties became particularly [illegible] the war. In 1914, the [illegible] of children in the [illegible] There are now 32.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO STAGE STUPENDOUS OUTING DOWN RIVER

Planning For Entertainment of Close to Thousand.

In spite of the numerous similar events this season, the third annual picnic of the board of works employees, which will be held at Springbank Saturday, promises to be one of the outstanding celebrations of the picnic season. The success of the two previous outings has aided in arousing a keen interest in the coming one, and all city employees are looking forward to the day.

It is likely that all the 300 employees of the engineering department will be present and that their relatives and members of other city departments will bring the attendance close to the thousand mark.

Mayor Somerville is honorary president of the picnic committee, and Ald. O. G. Keene is first vice-president and Ald. E. S. Little is second vice-president. City Engineer Brazier is general chairman of the picnic committee. Charles Maker is chairman of the refreshment committee; W. B. Walker, chairman of sports; E. O'Connor, chairman of printing and invitations; M. Brady, treasurer; J. Moffatt, secretary; Miss Olive White, assistant secretary.

There will be 56 events. The principal one, as usual, promises to be the baby show. City Engineer Brazier has been selected to pick out the best-looking baby of the city employees who enter the event.

POLICE ON TRAIL OF BADLY WANTED JOY-RIDING FIEND

Arrest in Sensational Mystery Is Expected Soon.

Police believe that in Howard C. Patterson, for whom a provincial-wide search has been started since he disappeared in Harry C. Greenberg's motor car Saturday night, after leaving another stolen machine at a local garage, that they are on the trail of a "joy-riding addict." Patterson's arrest is expected shortly, and Helen Murray, whom he met Saturday evening in Victoria Park with another girl and a male companion, is being held at the county jail on a charge of theft to appear as a witness. Police learned today that the McLaughlin machine, which is almost a new car, and exactly similar to Greenberg's, carries license numbers stolen from a machine in Galt.

Police received word today from the motor car owner in Galt, who is listed as owner of the license tags, explaining that while tags were taken from his machine on Saturday, it was not otherwise molested. The ownership of the machine abandoned here is still unknown. Greenberg's car, valued at $1,800, is still missing.

"To some young men, a joy-ride seems to be as necessary as dope to a drug fiend," a detective declared today. "There are motor car fiends of this kind to whom excessive driving is the breath of life, and when they are not able to own their own machines, they appropriate others." He believes that this mania is the reason for so many motor car thefts. Most of the machines are abandoned either in garages or on roadsides when the driver tires of the excitement.

IRISH PICNIC AT PORT STANLEY WILL BE SEASON'S EVENT

Representatives from Erin's Isle will be headed for Port Stanley Thursday by the thousands to enjoy the forty-third annual famous Irishmen's picnic, which this year is scheduled to be bigger, better, grander than ever.

Arrangements for the outing of outtings have been completed and a lengthy and novel program of events will be run off at the lakeside resort.

Irish and Scotch dancing, board walk carnival, band concerts, racing, Cortese Orchestra and an open-air vocal concert are among a few of the features of the program prepared by the picnic committee.

A special car service will be especially inaugurated for the day.

HOTELS OF THE CITY DOING BIG BUSINESS

Local hotels have been filled in the past week to such an extent by the unusually large number of visitors that accommodation has been exceedingly scarce. In addition to the returning soldiers and their relatives, many motorists from the United States and other cities of Western Ontario have been besieging the hotels. Managers of the leading establishments state that their accommodations are generally entirely booked at an early hour each evening, and they have had to send people to the smaller hotels. These, too, have been filled to capacity several times by 11 or 12 o'clock in the evening, and it is said that a number of visitors have been advised to go to the Knights of Columbus Hut on Richmond street.

It is expected, however, that conditions will return to the normal again during the autumn months. By that time all of the soldiers will have arrived from overseas, and those who have been living at various hotels, using their gratuity money for subsistence, will have moved to other lodgings.

LOCAL BUILDING IS ON THE BOOM; RECORD FIGURES

Best For This Time of Year Since Opening of War.

Although the prevailing opinion is that the high prices of building material have brought construction work to a standstill figure at the office of the building inspector tells a different story. By August 31 building figures will be well past the million mark, which has not been the case at thos time of year since the outbreak of war in 1914. The war years saw a steady decline in building, but with the signing of the armistice there has been a gradual improvement, which has now developed into a boom.

At the end of August, 1914, the amount of building completed or under way totalled $1,582,210. Already this month $328,630 worth of building is under way, bringing the total for the year to $1,047,865. It is expected that permits for the two new theatres to be built here will be taken out this month, and this, with other buildings, will place the figures for the month well above those of August, 1914.

New Permits.

Two new permits were made out today. Peter Webster will build a one and a half story brick veneer dwelling on St. George street, at a cost of $3,225. W. B. Bradshaw will build a $2,400 brick veneer house on Windsor avenue.

Five houses will soon be constructed under the direction of the London Housing Commission. Final arrangements will be made at the meeting of the commission Thursday night. Three of the citizens who will build have looked over the plans with Building Inspector Piper and have approved of them.

The tenders of R. J. Kelly for the building of a story and a half house, No. 7 in the city's plans, and two one-story houses, No. 2 in the city's schedule, have been accepted. Joseph Creighton's tender for building two houses of type No. 7, one-story frame dwellings, has been accepted also. The tender for James Henry for building a one and a half story house, No. 3 type, has been accepted.

500 WAR TROPHIES WILL BE EXHIBITED AT WESTERN FAIR

Army and Navy Veterans To Greet Prince of Wales on Visit Here.

"We intend to exhibit a collection of about 500 war trophies collected by our members on all of the fronts—everything from an Iron Cross to a machine gun," said one of the officials of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association at the weekly meeting last evening in the Dundas street club rooms, in referring to the proposed war trophy exhibition to be made during the session of the Western Fair. With the assistance of Secretary A. H. Hunter, of the Fair board, the veterans have completed the arrangements for the show, which will be presented with the object of raising money for the "Last Post Fund." This fund was originated for the purpose of giving the proper attention to fallen heroes' graves. A percentage of the proceeds obtained through the exhibition will be devoted to the association's organization fund, the body being entirely self-sustaining. In addition to the war trophies, an exhibition of first aid to the injured will also be made at the Veterans' building in the Fair grounds.

The Army and Navy Veterans decided to take part in the procession to be held on the day the Prince of Wales is welcomed to the city, and being the senior veterans' organization in the district, the members agreed that the first place in the parade should be given their party. It is expected that this party will be augmented by many hundreds of returned soldiers on the day of the parade.

Included in the number of new members accepted last evening, which totalled 23, were the names of several returned nursing sisters. These were formally accepted by the president, who expressed his pleasure and the hope that many more applications would follow.

LABOR SHORTAGE AT THE COUNTY JAIL

Many Guests, But Few Can Be Used for Chores.

Once more there is a labor shortage at the county jail here, and Governor Carter states that despite this fact the list of guests on his nominal roll is heavy. However, there are but three prisoners in the county bastille available to perform the chores, and one of the above men is nursing a sore hand. Consequently the other two are kept busy by the guards, and their sojourn at Castle Carter is not as enjoyable as it might be. They work on time, and there is no union.

On the other hand, there are twenty prisoners in the free hostel on remand or awaiting trial, and they are not permitted to work. A few hours' exercise in the yard daily is their limit, although several have expressed the desire to work, and their services could be utilized by the prison staff.

There is no caretaker or janitor employed in the county buildings here, local offenders usually filling the bill, but bootleggers must be successfully plying their trade these days or the old nose paint has lost its conventional kick, as the ten-day sentences are becoming extinct at the Carling street mill.

However, those who know are of the opinion that there is always a calm before a storm, and an influx of summer boarders is expected in the near future at the Hotel Carter. Lots of work is promised prospective visitors, and if these do not reserve their suites soon, extra inducements may be announced, such as a free view of the baseball game at Tecumseh Park from the watch tower on the hill.

WILL TEST TRACTORS AT WORK OF GRADING

Further tests of tractors, which may replace horses in the city's construction work, were made today. A new phase of the work will be entered upon either Thursday or Friday, when the machines are to be used for grading work. So far they have been used in hauling asphalt, and as there was a cement base to the roads it was not difficult for them to haul three loads of material at one time. It yet remains to be seen whether they can haul this amount on soft, ungraded roads. To equal the efficiency of teams the tractors must pull at least two loads of material at one time. If they are only able to haul one the expense will prove much greater than for a single team of horses.

The majority of teamsters who left the city's employment, demanding $1 an hour, are still out. City Engineer Brazier stated today that the strike had had practically no effect on the construction work except that the gangs had been transferred from pavement laying to sewer digging and similar occupations. Concrete bases were already laid on three streets, so that with the aid of the tractors and the teams which have returned to work it has been possible to continue this work without interruption. No grading has been done.

An Appeal

To the Hospitality of Port Stanley Cottagers.

During the week beginning Aug. 26 the sons of members of the Cleveland Yacht Club will camp at Port Stanley. They are organized on a naval cadet basis and bring a magnificent marine band.

Their parents, numbering 100, wish to spend the week at Port Stanley, but the extraordinary expansion of the summer population has reduced available accommodation to a minimum. These intended guests are the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Cleveland. They are willing and anxious to make proper compensation. A united manifestation of a hospitable community spirit will solve this problem.

You are probably not operating a summer boarding house, but waive the fact. How many of these mothers and fathers can you accommodate for a week, as an evidence of Canadian courtesy?

Kindly report immediately the number you are able to accommodate, and the terms to the Bridge Street Restaurant, opposite Port Stanley Village depot.

LODGE STATES NATIONS LEAGUE FETTERS U. S.

Senator Thinks Country Can Be of Greater Service Independently.

FRITTER INFLUENCE

By Meddling With World Differences Which May Arise.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—America, independent, can be of greater service to the world than America "fettered" by the league of nations, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader of the Senate, asserted today in a Senate speech on the league.

"By meddling in all the differences which may arise among mankind, we simply fritter away our influence and injure ourselves to no good purpose," said Lodge.

"We shall be of far more value to the world and its peace by occupying, so far as possible, the situation we have occupied for the last twenty years and by adhering to the policy of Washington and Monroe."

Lodge denied this means a policy of American isolation. That, he said, is no longer possible, because the United States became a world power at the time of the war with Spain.

Wide Difference.

"Nobody," said Lodge, "expects to isolate the United States or to make it a hermit nation. But there is a wide difference between taking a suitable part in world responsibilities and plunging our country into every controversy and conflict on the face of the globe. One great element of our strength in the war just closed, was that we had held aloof and had not thrust ourselves into European quarrels; that we had no selfish interest."

Lodge declared that the league covenant, instead of providing for perpetual and universal peace, as it advocates declare, really sets up an alliance, dominated by three to five great powers, and that it is an alliance the principal provisions of which are for war, and not for peace.

If the league were a peace league, it should have given more attention to the establishment of an international court and less to providing for war in case of violation of its orders, Lodge declared.

Political Control.

"The conditions for which this league provides are political, not judicial," said Lodge. "Such being its machinery, the control being in the hands of political appointees whose votes will be controlled by interest and expediency, exhibits the most marked characteristics of an alliance—that its decisions are to be carried out by force. The development of international law is neglected. The court which is to decide disputes fills but a small space. This league to enforce peace does a great deal for enforcement, and very little for peace."

Lodge declared that so long as Article 10 remains in its present form and provisions covering withdrawal, Monroe doctrine and control of domestic questions unaltered, he will not vote for the treaty.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT IS CRITICIZED FOR WAR EXTRAVAGANCES

Churchill, Secretary of War, Promises Retrenchment in This Direction.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—In the House of Commons tonight, the members had to listen to a deal of strong criticism of the extravagance of the Government in the matter of armaments, but Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of war, in a general defence of the Government, said he was able to promise considerable retrenchment in this direction. His speech betrayed that the Government was endeavoring as far as possible to meet the popular demands for greater economy.

Major-General J. E. B. Seely, undersecretary for air, in the course of his speech, made the effective point that the efficiency of the air force had saved the country millions in money and thousands in lives this year in connection with the troubles in Afghanistan and Egypt, where campaigns were carried out at slight cost as compared to the aforetime heavy cost in money and life in similar campaigns conducted by Lord Roberts and Wolseley.

The Right Hon. Sir Frederick Banbury, Unionist, argued that the people would never economize while seeing ministers riding about in expensive automobiles at the nation's expense.

The Right Hon. George Lambert, Liberal, challenged the Government to say what it considered the peace time strength of the air force likely to be, and when the colossal expenditure on military adventures abroad would cease. He declared the Government had lost the confidence of the country by the huge expenditure in every government department.

TWO BOLSHEVIK REGIMENTS DRIVEN BACK BY DENEKINE

Anti-Bolshevik Front Established Along East and South Russian Border.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—General Denikine's advance is continuing along the greater part of the Southern Russian front against considerable Bolshevik resistance, the war office announced tonight.

Kamishin, which was taken on July 28, yielded 11,000 prisoners, 60 guns, 150 machine guns and an immense amount of war material, it was added.

"Two crack Bolshevik regiments were completely shattered. Denikine's cavalry, pushing out toward the Urbach-Astrakhan railroad, have effected a junction with the Ural Cossacks, who formed the left wing of the Kolchak army near Lake Elton," says the statement.

"There is now a united anti-Bolshevik front along the whole of east and south Russia from the northern Urals to the northwest corner of the Black Sea and only fifty miles separate Denikine from the Rumanian army there.

"Farther south, along the middle Dnieper, a Bolshevik force has been routed east of Kremenchug with the loss of a thousand prisoners. When Poltava was taken the Bolsheviki lost 130 railroad engines, two ormored trains, 1,200 cars, twenty guns and much ammunition. The population of the liberated cities display the greatest enthusiasm over the Bolshevik defeat."

Business Is Almost at Standstill at Sault Ste. Marie

Forest Fires Cut Telephone and Telegraph Lines and Tie Up Traffic.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Aug. 12.—With only limited wire communication with other points and with interlake navigation practically suspended, business has been very nearly brought to a standstill here because of the fiercest fire situation in the eastern portion of the upper peninsula of Michigan.

Telegraph and telephone wires were cut by the fires near Soo Junction Sunday night, but service was partially restored late yesterday. None of the villages reported menaced is in imminent danger. One Soo Junction residence was destroyed yesterday.

Navigation through St. Marys River and the government locks here has been halted because of the smoke pall, and three large freight carriers are reported aground. Federal and state fire wardens are expected to visit the district today.

DENIES THAT CREW OF LOST SUB HAS REACHED BREMEN

BERLIN, Aug. 12. — (Associated Press).—Denial was made in official circles today of the statement printed in the Vossische Zeitung yesterday that the entire crew of the German submarine Bremen, which disappeared three years ago, had arrived in Bremen.

THE IDEAL WOMAN

The great Napoleon once said: "My ideal woman is not the beautiful-featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, but the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation, — that woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health." To attain such health in middle life a woman must guard against those ills which drag her down and produce nervousness, headache, backaches, sleeplessness and "the blues." The standard remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for forty-five years has been restoring women to health and strength.

RETAIL MERCHANTS SPOILED ATTEMPT TO REDUCE PRICES

OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—Dr. McFall, cost of living commissioner, today stated that "among other cases which will be handed over to the new board of commerce by the cost of living commissioner are those pertaining to certain activities of the Retail Merchants' Association, in destroying the efforts of co-operative associations in Canada to reduce the cost of living."

Skin Without Wrinkles Now Easy to Have

There's no excuse for any woman having wrinkles now. It has been found that a simple mixture of saxolite and witch hazel has a remarkable action upon the deepest wrinkles, no matter what their nature, whether caused by weather, worry, habitual frowning, a debilitated condition or the ravages of Father Time. This harmless remedy, which anyone can easily make and use at home, acts both as an astringent and a tonic. The combined effect of tightening the skin and heightening its vitality is to immediately affect every line and wrinkle, keeping the cuticle smooth and firm as in youth.

The proportions are one ounce saxolite (powdered) to one-half pint witch hazel, ingredients which are found in every drug store. The solution should be used as a wash lotion. It is equally effective in disposing of flabbiness of cheek and neck, as well as sagging below the eyes. —Advt.

"DRY" WORKERS ARE MOBILIZED FOR REFERENDUM

City's Prohibition Forces Open Campaign For Their Cause.

ARE WELL ORGANIZED

Enumerators' List Is To Be Checked Up As Soon As Published.

"I have only talked to one returned man who wants to see conditions regarding liquor which he has seen in the older lands reproduced in Canada," was the statement made today by Capt. (Rev.) "Mac" Omond, director of the London referendum committee operations, who has opened headquarters for the committee in a part of the Social Service Council offices in the Bank of Toronto Building.

Well Organized.

The city has been thoroughly organized to the last subdivision, and the workers mobilized to be prepared to check up the enumerators' lists as soon as they are published, to see that no one entitled to a vote on prohibition is omitted. "We want the fullest expression of opinion possible of the people," states Capt. Omond.

Already some of the groups of enthusiastic workers are carrying on educational work in their own sub-divisions, explaining to those who are in doubt the intricate form in which the ballot is being submitted, and showing that only four "Noes" will represents a vote for prohibition.

Beer and Wine.

Concerning the subject of the beer and wine licenses, Capt. Omond drew attention to what he termed "significant figures" from the Michigan referendums.

"On November 7, 1916," he said, "Michigan carried prohibition by a comparatively small majority of 68,624.

"Prohibition must have proved a convincing argument in favor of prohibition. In April of this year, Michigan defeated beer and wine licenses by a vote of 322,603 for beer and wine licenses, and a vote against of 530,123; that is, a majority for prohibition, and rejecting beer and wine of 207,520.

"With regard to the argument that beer is not injurious and that the workingman should have his beer, I lived in Germany, the greatest beer-drinking country in the world, for a whole year before the war. I believe experts regard German beer as the finest in the world. In any case, the beers most widely advertised in the United States have German names. There isn't a doubt in my mind that the beer drinking habits of the German people were largely responsible for their brutal habits in the war."

Gratification was expressed over a report that had reached the headquarters that the Great War Veterans at a meeting held last night had decided to leave absolutely to the individual soldiers the question of voting on the referendum, and not interfere with them in any way as an association.

Prominent manufacturers, merchants, doctors and lawyers are taking the leading part in the activities of the local referendum campaign committee.

Capt. Omond is well known in this city, having spent his boyhood days here, graduating from the London Collegiate Institute. He entered the ministry of the Presbyterian Church, enlisting for overseas service early in the war. He arrived back in Canada in June after three years' of chaplain service with the 5th Field Artillery Brigade in England and France.

CANADIAN RAILWA... BOARD CONFIRM... C.P.R. ARRANGEMENT

Dismissals On C. N. R. Are Justified, Declares Board Members.

EXPRESS COMPANY AWARD

Assures That Rates Shown On Dec. 1, 1917, Schedule Effective Jan. 1, 1918.

Montreal, Aug. 13.—The Canadian railway board handed down awards yesterday in cases between companies and employees. An arrangement that was arrived at between the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and their sleeping car conductors was confirmed by the board. This provided for salary on the basis of a flat monthly rate and the award was $150 per month for the first year's service and $160 per month thereafter. These monthly rates are to include mileage, and work and conditions as at present established. The conductors had objected to acceptance of the rate determined by the United States railroad administration, because it was based on conductors on Pullman cars, whereas their runs on sleeping cars were different both as regards duties, runs, climatic and territorial conditions.

Another award is in regard to the dismissal of an engineer and fireman by the Canadian National Railway (eastern lines). The board finds the dismissals justified, but in view of all circumstances and acts in the evidence, recommends a reconsideration of the discipline of the two men.

Another case is that of the Canadian Express Company and its employees. There was a question as to the interpretation of the word "position" in regard to the rule which provided that "to the monthly rate of pay of position as of January 1, 1918, add $25 per month."

The decision of the board was that it assumes that the rates shown in schedule of December 1, 1917, were in effect on January 1, 1918, and therefore, decided that $25 per month be added to the rates of such schedule.

WILL SUE BRANTFORD MAYOR AND PAPERS FOR ALLEGED LIBEL

Head of Westrumite Paving Company Instructs Lawyer To Proceed With Suit.

Brantford, Aug. 13.—Notice was received in the city this morning from L. S. Van Westrum, managing director of the Dutch Chamber of Commerce, Zurich, Switzerland, that he had issued instructions to his lawyer to commence an action for malicious libel against Mayor McBride and against local papers, such action being based on the declaration by Mayor McBride in council that "pavements in question (pavements which are in bad shape here) were a legacy from Count Van Westrum, the German spy, who had been put in jail in London. My only regret is that he was not put in jail here, and all those associated with him." Mr. Van Westrum denies that he was ever in jail or that he was blacklisted. He was born in Holland, and his ancestors were Dutch since 1227. All his interests are in allied countries.

The discussion which brought about the mayor's comment was over the conditions of the Westrumite pavements in this city, which pavements were laid by Westrumite, Limited of this city, of which L. S. Van Westrum was the head. They had not lasted as guaranteed, and have cost considerable to keep in repair.

...REST CITY PLACED ON ROUTE OF GREAT MEMORIAL HIGHWAY

Canadian Part of Roosevelt Road To Pass Through Here.

BIG THING FOR LONDON

Sarnia Named As Entrance Point To Ontario From States.

Organizer John Bridge of the local Chamber of Commerce has returned to this city after a tour in New York and Michigan states, in the interests of the Canadian portion of the Theodore Roosevelt memorial highway from Portland, Oregon, to Portland, Maine. On his return from Buffalo, Mr. Bridge proceeded to Detroit, where he was in conference with Vice-President F. A. Allen of the Theodore Roosevelt highway commission. He was informed that the highway will proceed from Flint, Mich., where Allen resides, through Canada into New York State via the Niagara peninsula.

London on the Route.

London will be included on the route of the transcontinental highway, the road crossing the border at Port Huron and Sarnia, and continuing to the Forest City. From this city eastward the provincial highway will be followed by the memorial road through Brantford and Hamilton to Niagara Falls. It is likely that markers will be placed on the Ontario portion of the road by the Roosevelt highway commission this fall, and the route as far as Port Huron will be completed by that time, according to present plans.

Through the efforts of Charles Hasensel, secretary of the Port Huron Chamber of Commerce, the point of entrance of the highway through Canada was designated as Sarnia. Mr. Haensel in his successful appeal to the commission acted jointly for Sarnia and Port Huron, and emphasized that both cities were working hand in hand for their dual welfare. The Roosevelt Memorial Highway will not necessarily be paved throughout its entire length, but it is expected that the portion in Ontario will be of modern construction.

Mr. Bridge today informed The Advertiser that the State of New York authorities have awakened to the necessity of good roads, due to the increase of truck freight traffic for short hauls to overcome increased railway freight rates. He stated that while the Michigan authorities were not as far advanced in good roads as the New Yorkers, they already have 1,000 miles of paved highways constructed, with a further program of 500 miles mapped out. Bridges, culverts, subways are now in course of construction on this 500-mile course.

The report of Organizer Bridge is very encouraging for London and district, as it includes the Forest City on the transcontinental highway, and in addition to assuring good roads for Western Ontario it will bring commerce to merchants of the district by means of the very large number of tourists who will travel over the Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Highway when completed.

TWO STREET CARS JUMP THE TRACK AT THE SAME POINT

Residents in Neighborhood Talk of Taking Action in Matter.

Residents along Richmond street, between Hyman street and Central avenue are organizing to register a strong complaint against what they term is negligence on the part of the London Street Railway Company, declaring that the street car tracks are so badly laid that lives of residents and pedestrians in that vicinity are endangered in addition to passengers in the street cars running over the track section.

Two street cars within twelve hours have jumped the tracks, and what might have been serious accidents were narrowly averted.

Ran Into Curbing.

North Belt car No. 112, while on its northward trip, jumped the tracks on Richmond street, just north of Central avenue, and ran into the curbing. At the time of the accident the car was crowded with passengers, but only one was injured, and that was Mrs. Smith, 193 College avenue. She received a bad shaking up. The injured lady was attended to by Dr. W. J. Tillmann, who lives within a few feet of where the accident occurred.

Officials of the street railway are unable to account for the accident, other than that cars bob up and down at this portion of the track, and this is probably what happened to this one.

At the time of the accident the car was in charge of Motorman W. Rigney and Conductor J. Henderson.

A peculiar incident of the accident was that the car just cleared the track enough to allow other cars to pass.

At noon today another street car left the tracks, and almost collided with a street car approaching from the opposite direction. Nobody was hurt.

"The vibration from the bumping cars is so great that it is difficult for residents along Richmond street to get any sleep until after the car service stops at night," Dr. W. J. Tillmann told The Advertiser today. He lives almost exactly opposite the worst section of the track, where the two cars were derailed last night and today. He described the tracks at that section as highly dangerous, and in a bad state of repair. Those who live near that point declare that they shun the roadway because the probability of cars jumping the tracks is so great. Frequent occurrences similar to those of yesterday and today have happened recently.

Officials of the street railway stated this afternoon that the trouble will be remedied at once. It is due to the wear on the tracks at a point where there is a slight grade, causing them to buckle and jostle the cars as they pass over them, they said.

OTTAWA EXPERT ON TOWN PLANS, HOUSES, WILL ADVISE LONDON

Thomas Adams Invited To Visit City by Chamber of Commerce.

Thomas Adams, town planning and housing advisor of the commission of conservation, Ottawa, has been invited by the chamber of commerce to visit London at an early date to confer with the town planning committee in regard to plans which have been prepared for London along the lines of its logical development, and also to look into the local housing situation. Mr. Adams' advice at this time is considered of greatest importance, in view of the fact that the local housing commission proposes to buy land and build a number of houses in the immediate future.

One Difficulty.

So far as the building of the houses is concerned, a difficulty is encountered in that in several instances those requiring houses are not satisfied to buy from the plans.

Some solution must, therefore, be evolved to meet the situation.

Attention is drawn by a prominent member of the chamber of commerce to the fact that the town council of Edinburgh, Scotland, has made provision for the building of 2,000 houses in the next two years, and purposes anticipating requirements which will doubtless present themselves with the establishment of new industries.

Ottawa Is Busy.

The city of Ottawa, it is stated, has purchased 22 acres of land on the outskirts, and is building 168 houses, the plan of the plot allowing for a park and wading pool for the children. Ottawa will have the first garden suburb in Canada.

It is expected that Mr. Adams will be here in the course of a few days and such is the confidence of the local commission on town planning in the soundness of his judgment, that it is believed that he can offer solution for existing difficulties and clear the way for immediate steps to add to London's housing accommodation.

ADMITS TO FORGERY; BLAMES IT ON "DOPE"

Admitting in police court today that he was a dope fiend and that he forged a check yesterday for $10, with which he attempted to buy a pair of shoes at Johnston & Murray's, 198 Dundas street, Victor Midland, 851 Queen's avenue, was remanded to jail for examination by a physician.

Midland appeared to be feebleminded, but named a man named Harris, whom he met yesterday, who urged him to write a check for $10 on the Dominion Bank over the signature of William A. Walker, proprietor of a bicycle store at 757 Dundas street.

The prisoner denied that he was "Jack the Peeper" when questioned by the crown attorney today. Complaints from East London have been received frequently in the last few weeks of a peeper, whose description tallies with Midland's. The same man, it has been reported, has often frightened little girls in streets in the same neighborhood by his attentions. Midland denied that he had ever done anything of the sort. He will be sentenced in one week.

FOUND WITH IRON BAR IN REAR OF JEWELER'S

Arrested early this morning in a lane at the rear of Green's jewelry store at 374½ Richmond street after an attempt had been made by somebody to jimmy open the rear door of the store, William J. McCauley, in police court today, was remanded for one week until further information is secured by the police. McCauley is charged with vagrancy, and pleaded not guilty in court.

Policeman Tom Noonon testified that when he flashed his light on McCauley early this morning the prisoner dropped an iron bar and crouched behind a tin can near the door of the jewelry store. The door jamb was scarred from an instrument which detectives said was used in an attempt to pry open the door. McCauley told police when he was arrested that he was an absentee from a Toronto military barracks, and that he had only 5 cents, and was looking for a place to sleep.

More than $3 in five and ten cent pieces was in his pockets when he was searched at police headquarters.

CHANGES PLEA TO GUILTY OF BIGAMY AND TRIAL BY COURT

Hicks-Lyne Case Is Before Senior Judge Macbeth.

James F. Hicks-Lyne, who appeared before Judge Talbot Macbeth on July 19 and pleaded not guilty, appeared before the senior judge of the county court today and changed his plea to guilty. On his last appearance he elected to be tried by jury, but this morning changed his election, choosing to be tried by judge. After the case was heard it was reserved for a week.

During the examination of the prisoner it was learned that his first wife was supposed to be living in England, but that he had not heard of her for almost seven years. He did not know whether she was alive or dead.

In pleading for his client, W. R. Meredith, of the firm of Meredith & Meredith, declared that it was a criminal act to allow Miss England, the girl in the case, to marry Hicks-Lyne without inquiry. He was twenty years older than she, and was sure to have a past. He was 46 years of age, Mr. Meredith said that if certain of Hicks-Lyne's relations were not brought into the case as witnesses, that the crown would have a difficult task to prove the case. Even if these witnesses were put in the box the case would be a hard one, as they had not seen the first wife.

"I left it to Hicks-Lyne," said Mr. Meredith.

Has Been Punished.

"He has been punished," the accused's counsel continued. "He has been in jail since the 2nd of May, and has been at work.'

"He needn't have worked," commented the judge. The accused admitted that he had asked to work.

"There were undoubtedly rumors that he was a married man," said Mr. Meredith, adding that the family was partly to blame for the offence.

"Why, my goodness," exclaimed the judge, "there was a girl sixteen years of age out in the country who married a married man who had five children in this city, and her parents did not make any inquiry."

"There are some people who would not allow their pigs with strangers, and yet they would allow their daughters. I think it is a disgrace," said the counsel for the defence.

"All the disgrace is not on them," remarked Judge Macbeth. "I think bigamy is worse than rape," he continued.

"With all due respect, I think that you differ in opinion from the lawmakers in Ottawa," said the counsel.

"Yes, I do," responded the judge. "Something may be said for the man who in a moment of passion loses control of himself, but not for a cold-blooded, deliberate bigamist. Hicks-Lyne deceived the girl by allowing her to think that he was not married."

"I thought I was safe, your honor," said the prisoner in broken voice. "I hadn't heard from my wife for seven years."

"Oh, nonsense," said Judge Macbeth.

Hicks-Lyne then proceeded to explain that his latest wife was not on the farm all her life, but had worked in the city and in Chicago, and was an expert stenographer.

"This is really absurd, you know. All the man had to do was to say that he was not sure that his wife was not living," said the court.

Judge Macbeth, Mr. Meredith and Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop then discussed past cases.

The judge declared that he had sentenced one man, who lived on the Proof Line road, to four years in penitentiary for bigamy. A doctor in the county had been given fifteen months for a similar offence, but leniency had been shown him because of his ill-health.

Hicks-Lyne appeared worn and haggard. This, the prisoner said, was due to the agony that he had suffered during the past few months. During his lifetime, he said, he had had several kinds of fever, besides other diseases.

LOST CANADIAN ACE'S AIRPLANE REPORTED FOUND ON MOUNTAIN

Search for Capt. Mansell R. Jones of Watford Continues.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Investigation of reports of finding the airplane driven by Capt. Mansell R. James, lost Canadian ace, was transferred today to Sissing Mountain, near Pine Plains. It was stated that the airplane had been found on that mountain, but thus far no confirmation had been possible.

Girls Scream; Call Help.

When the slayers and Wilson began their struggle which ended in the murder, the girls started to scream. Their cries and the shots which immediately followed were heard by passing autoists, and one of these stopped and assisted in placing the victim in his car, which then hurried to the Englewood Hospital. But before they arrived young Wilson had died.

The party which preceded the fatal occurrence had been held at the home of Miss McAver, who is the daughter of Fred McAver, and with Miss Kulak is a comptometer operating at Carson, Pierie, Scott & Co.'s store. Wilson had been a friend of Miss McAver, but there was no engagement between them, it was said last night.

Wilson was the son of George Graham Wilson, a real estate dealer, who for a long time was connected with John M. Smyth & Co.

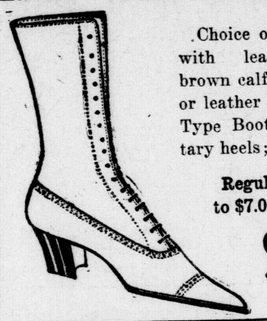

Climax of Six Holdups.

The murder was the climax to a series of six or more holdups which curred in various parts of the city last night.

Lieut. Michael Crane of the Englewood station and a squad of his men, as well as the bandit squad of the detective bureau, are among the police who are hunting for the murderers of young Wilson.

GRAIN.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Uncertainty due to agitation over the high cost of living and to railroad strike troubles has brought the corn market nearly to a halt. Business today was mainly confined to pit traders, and price changes were narrow and erratic. Scantiness of receipts tended somewhat to strengthen values, especially for September delivery. Opening quotations, which ranged from ⅞ off to a like advance, with September $1.91½ to $1.92, and December $1.52 to $1.53, were followed by a slight general decline, and then by moderate upturns to above yesterday's finish all around. Oats were dull and about steady. After opening at ⅛c decline to ¼c advance, with September 75¼c, the market sagged somewhat, and later scored a fair advance. Provisions were slightly firmer with hogs. Trading, however, lacked volume.

Equipments were strengthened by a 6-point gain in New York Air Brake, and the demand for oils broadened, tobacco, leather and paper issues also gaining in better inquiry. American Car's 2-point decline increased heaviness of American Telephone, and neglect of Standard rails were the negative features.

1:30 p.m.—Baldwin Locomotive reacted 2 points on denial that the company contemplates recapitalization, and American Telephone weakened again on persistent selling. Among obscure equipments and specialties, however, overnight advances ran from 1 to 3 points; oils also extending their gains.

HOW TO HEAL SORE, BLEEDING GUMS, TIGHTEN LOOSE TEETH

BEFORE THEY FALL OUT—DENTIST'S HOME PRESCRIPTION WORKS LIKE MAGIC.

If your teeth are loosening or if your gums are receding and are sore, tender or inflamed, if they bleed when you brush your teeth, are spongy, flabby or colorless or if they discharge pus or develop gum boils, it is a warning of dangerous Pyorrhoea or Riggs disease of the gums and prompt and careful treatment is necessary if you want to save your teeth from falling out.

A prominent New York State dentist has discovered a new prescription—Epithol—for promptly correcting these troubles and it surely seems to work like magic. A few days' use and teeth tighten, the gums grow sound and healthy and the bleeding, poisonous pus discharge soon stops. An ounce jar of Epithol will last for weeks and costs little at any good drugstore and all leading druggists will refund the full purchase price if, in any case, it fails to bring relief. No one really wants false teeth. So if you have any of the above symptoms, you should by all means give this treatment a trial.—Advt.

The Prince Coming

This is a year of holidays, not to speak of strikes. One of the most interesting events of even this "annus mirabilis" will be the visit of the Prince of Wales in London next October.

He has just landed in Newfoundland and started on his grand tour of inspection. He has already made good acquaintance with our army in France. Let us line up and show him our best smiling duty here at home.

Elder London has pleasant memories of the prince's grandfather who was here nearly sixty years ago. In 1901 his father, then not yet Prince of Wales, drew a crowd from the city and its environs that had hardly standing room down town. Many an eager youth, now a sedate paterfamilias, grabbed a perch in the trees or on fences in the vicinity of Victoria Park. The present prince has advantages over his father of that time in his boyish youth and surrounded with the afterglow of the great war in which he played his part with readiness and spirit. He comes with the warmest feeling to a people whose devotion to the empire has been tested in the fire, and the Canadian people welcomes in him not only himself, but a symbol of the unity of our race which has been more solidly cemented by the dangers we have fought through.

The prince purposes to see the wilds as well as the people of this Dominion. He will have a spell of hunting and fishing up north, being, like his father, an expert with the gun. From all accounts the prince has had a thorough and many-sided education, in college, court and camp, for the exalted functions that in due course he will be called on to perform.

In this he has, again, some slight advantage over the youth of his father. George was a younger brother and was not trained in a direct and explicit way for the sovereign's position. Not until the death of his brother in 1892 did George at the age of 27 come into the line of succession to the throne of his grandmother. The present prince undergoes from the start the most intensive training for the kingship.

Canada opens her doors and her heart wide to the royal visitor. His father before him has shown himself a true democrat, both in his general bearing and particularly in his action on the critical situation in 1911, when the Government of Mr. Asquith declared the king's intention to create enough peers to override the threatened veto of the Parliament bill by the House of Lords. It was rather hoped by some British reactionaries at the time that the king would refuse the request of his ministers, but he bore himself as a constitutional sovereign, and since the war, in changing his family name to Windsor he has shown his genuine British spirit and fine tact. The son of such a father has had good constitutional training and will find the breezy, democratic air of Canada congenial to his disposition.

A Good Pantry Policy

When the tariff policy of a government makes possible the filling of the cupboard for old Mother Hubbard and adding a bone for poor Dog Tray, then it isn't any longer an isolated, nebulous thing known as the "fiscal policy" of the country, but a first aid to home-making and the good fairy of the family hearth. The tariff policy of the Liberal party, as enunciated and unanimously adopted at the great Liberal convention held in Ottawa last week, has as its primary aim "diminishing the very high cost of living which presses so severely on the masses of the people."

It looks to the placing within reach of everybody the necessaries of life and making a better and more abundant standard of living possible for the masses of the people. This tariff policy is, therefore, the relief for which the country has been crying out for years, the policy for which the housewife of small or moderate income has sighed as she has endeavored to set before her family substantial fare, while taxing her resources to outwit the constantly diminishing value of the dollar bill. Few households have been able to afford the luxury of a Dog Tray in recent years, because of the necessity to extract the last particle of nourishment from the traditional bone for soup for the human units of the family.

To the end of reducing the cost of living and putting an end to piracy where the necessities of life are concerned, the Liberal party pledges itself when returned to power to legislate to reduce the cost of instruments of production used for the development of the natural resources of the country, such as agriculture, fisheries, lumbering and mining. In order to achieve this, it is proposed to free from customs duties the principal articles of food, farm, mining, sawmill and our machinery and fishermen's equipment, and to revise the tariff downward whereby substantial reductions may be effected in the duties on wearing apparel and foot-wear, and on other articles of general consumption other than luxuries, as well as the raw materials entering into the manufacture of the same.

Carried into effect, such a tariff policy would mean a well-filled market basket without necessity for increase of income; the possibility for the workingman and woman and the underpaid professional person of a home that was more than a castle in the air, and perchance, an occasional chicken to deck the festive board. People and things are only mysterious until you get acquainted with them. Women delegates to the national Liberal convention last week were candid enough to admit at the beginning that they had come with open minds and more or less blank comprehensions to try to learn from the wise men, who talked so glibly thereof, concerning the intricacies of the wonderful and awe-inspiring question known as "the tariff." During the course of debate, they discovered to their delight that it wasn't a thing apart from their own lives and experience at all, but a pressing, every-day "making-ends-meet" problem. They hailed with delight the tariff pledge of their party which has as its objective the transformation of the present "family skeleton" tariff of the country to a "household good fairy" tariff, the friend of Every Housewife, of Old Mother Hubbard and of Dog Tray.

Middle Class Unrest in Britain

A British correspondent of the New York Evening Post reports that the middle classes in Great Britain are showing a good deal of discontent with economic conditions. Industrial unrest is not the only trouble agitating the old country; there is also professional, clerkly, small gentry, and storekeeper unrest. It is unorganized and far less open as yet than the rebellious stir of the "working classes," and it is hard for the middle class people to break away from their ancient tradition of conservatism or from their pride of reticence in regard to any financial straits. They hate to organize on the trade union plan, still possessed with some snobbish superiority to the vulgar. All the more they writhe under the changed conditions since 1914, the high prices and the heavy taxation.

Once the strongest class in the nation, especially since the reform bill of 1832, strong in education, health, prestige, often a "small independence," and sometimes third or fourth cousinship to "upper class" families, the middle class has grown comparatively weaker and feels keenly its decline. The landlord and millionaire element can endure the 50 or 60 per cent taxation without suffering any more than turning off some of their more useless or inefficient servants to selling a place or two; the workingmen strongly unionized, earning greatly increased wages, educated more solidly than many of the middle class, learning in the board schools even how to pronounce "lady" and get their h's in the right place, putting off subservience for self-respect, and politically powerful in Parliament, are no longer below the level of polite but slender-salaried clerks and professional workers. Those of the middle class who have no special training for a vocation are particularly ill off, those living on modest investments. They are, in themselves, the weakest, most helpless section of the nation, including many widows and spinsters, people too old to learn how to make a living, but seeing their "independence" washed away by the tide of rising prices. Old age pensions will be the universal lot if investments and savings continue to be destroyed in this way, and not only in Great Britain. The British middle class must view such a prospect with especial chagrin, because of its traditions of proud self-help.

So it sets itself in that same old spirit to help itself. A number of politicians have been busily organizing a "middle classes union" to protect their interests from either legislative or industrial oppression. A large number of members have been enrolled and crowded meetings held in several cities. But a difficulty is the very breadth of the union and the miscellaneous variety of its elements. For example the business clerk has not much in common with a professional man who charges fees, nor a mere "consumer" with the middleman who chooses to profiteer. "Middle classes union" sounds large, too large. Better surely would be the formation of a number of unions organized precisely on the model of the trades unions. Such is the "national union of scientific workers" which has decided to apply for registration as a trade union. Its qualification for membership is to have had a university education or a full equivalent. There is also the "Medico-Political Union." This sort of limited association will probably spread until the middle classes have thoroughly organized themselves for economic and political purposes.

In Ontario we hear of the struggles of teachers to form a union. Newspaper men have in some cities succeeded in this. The consumers in America no less than in Great Britain are face to face with the choice between privation or organization on the union plan. But the main thing after all is to stabilize living costs for all classes of the population and as nearly as possible to equalize the distribution of the good things of life.

SARAH, CONSERVATIONIST.
By Dora Mollan.

"Come, Sarah, put the rods together and we'll go down and try the hole." Dr. Canfield spoke from the couch hammock, where he had been pretending to doze.

"But you said we hadn't any bait, dad." Sarah did not cease for a moment her incessant rocking, nor unfold the hands tightly clasped in her laps.

"There are just three good worms, and I'll take along some chugs."

"But the chugs are only an experiment. For my part I don't think the trout will touch salt water bait fish." Sarah's tone was decided.

"Well, you use the worms, my dear," mildly suggested the doctor.

"What! And let you catch all the trout!" retorted the girl crossly.

Dr. Canfield looked at his daughter sharply. "Calomel for you before bed; indicated by the unselfishly consistency of that remark," he said.

"Now, dad, there's nothing wrong with my liver, and you know it. It's being dragged away from my work, just when I was beginning to get results, and brought to this God-forsaken place, where it's a question of 'What will you do or go fishing?' I'm wasting so much time!"

"You mean I dragged you away from nervous collapse," growled the doctor. "Take an intelligent interest in your surroundings, child," he continued in a more kindly tone. "You've chosen food conservation for your life work. Well, I don't know that there's any better place to learn something new on that subject than in a fishing village."

Two hours later Sarah, somewhat mollified by having made three worms account for two good-sized trout, as well as the flat failure of her father's experiment with the chubs, strolled restlessly down the shore road. Out of tune with her surroundings as she was, a weather-beaten house standing close to the shore, looking as much at home as a mushroom in a meadow, drew from the girl a reluctant admiration. A garden separated the house from the road and at a small wharf behind lay a fishing smack. A man was working in the garden. His back was turned. But what on earth was he doing? Sarah pressed close to the fence. Apparently unsuspecting her presence, the man continued at his task of planting—fish—in long furrows. As he picked the fish out of a keg they shone like silver and wriggled.

"Are you using those live fish for fertilizer?"

At Sarah's question the man turned quickly. He saw a young woman regarding him severely through large grey eyes. Of whom did she remind him? Searching his memory, he absent-mindedly answered, "Yes; they are very good for that purpose."

"Are they edible fish?"

He had it now—the girl reminded him of his mother; she had worn her hair the same way, showing the ears. Most women nowadays had no ears. He liked the mother fashion.

Sarah repeated her question.

"I'm going to have some for my supper," the man answered.

"Then why don't you take them to market?" Sarah's expression was stern. She was right on her own ground now. "Don't you know that this country needs to conserve resources now as never before? Are you holding the fish back for a high price? There are plenty of unedible fish to use for fertilizer—menhaden, for instance."

The man smiled tolerantly, showing even teeth, their whiteness accentuated by his bronze skin. "But that's just what these are," he explained; "'bony fish,' they call them in these parts. Their name queers them. People won't buy them—suggests fertilizer, like clouds suggest rain."

"How ridiculous! The name could be manipulated." Sarah eyed the young man thoughtfully. "Would you give me some, and tell me how to cook them?"

"As many as you want. I'll dress them for you—it's rather a particular job." The man took a knife from his pocket, picked up a shingle from a pile near the house and began the operation. Sarah drew a business-like notebook from her bag, opened the gate and walked in. "I'll write down the directions for cleaning them," she remarked, "and perhaps your wife won't mind my watching her cook some. It's easier to learn just how that way; and," she added importantly, "I'll write an article about them."

The man looked properly impressed. "Sorry I haven't any wife, Miss——" he hesitated.

"Canfield," supplied the girl.

"Mine's Hazard," explained the m

"It's a mighty comfortable house for a lonely man to be living in," Dr. Canfield remarked as they were leaving. "Do well with your boat?"

"Not so badly, on the whole. Sometimes quite well. Last week I cleared $160. This week I shan't make more than expenses. But in the long run I imagine it'll pay about as well as the profession my folks educated me for."

"You see," explained Hazard, realizing that he had committed himself to an explanation, "I was to have been a lawyer. But I came to the conclusion that a man who helps feed the world is doing more good in it than one who just asks the world to feed him. I love the water—so here I am, a fisherman."

No point of view could have been so alluring to Sarah Canfield as that one. She looked at the young man with more interest than her father had ever seen her manifest in any mere man before.

The doctor cordially seconded his daughter's earnest invitation to Hazard to come and see them; and on the way home he remarked, with a sidewise glance at the girl, "Fine type—mighty fine type of man, that fisher fellow."

"Father! The idea of speaking of Mr. Hazard like that—I think it's perfectly splendid of him!" And, unobserved by his daughter, the doctor grinned.

Sarah's article on the food value of menhaden appeared that fall. But it was not signed "Sarah Canfield." It was signed "Sarah Hazard."

SIMPLY ARROGANCE.

[New York World.]

In the last three years the railroad employees have received hundreds of millions of dollars in wage increases for which the general public is paying. As a reward for its generosity the country is to be taken by the throat and choked into submission if the most complicated economic issues that have ever confronted it are not settled forthwith. If there is any difference between that kind of arrogance and the arrogance of the German general staff in July, 1914, we should like to know what it is.

WILL GOVERNMENT STRIKE?

[Montreal Gazette.]

A general strike of all employees of the Quebec Government is hinted at in the ancient capital. Such an event would not be a surprise to the public, which has seen Dominion Government employees desert the posts they have sworn to stand by in all circumstances. The only startling thing of the kind that remains is a walkout of legislators, headed by the premier. Then the work would all fall on the shoulders of the lieutenant-governors. Anything is possible nowadays.

WINIFRED BLACK

Writes About "Servant Scarcity Blessings."

Copyright, 1919, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Good gracious, Caroline is learning to cook! Not at cooking school either—She's learning at home.

Winifred Black

No, her mother isn't teaching her. Mother doesn't know a thing about cooking, how should she? She went to boarding school at 14, graduated at 17, married at 18 and took the old family cook along with her.

Since then mother has had a succession of cooks. But she doesn't know a saucepan from a fryingpan, and she couldn't make an omelet or stir up a pan of biscuits to save her life. She couldn't really!

And now there is no cook for Mother to get.

Everything costs so much and Father's business isn't what it was and cooks want three times what they used to want and you can't get one at that.

When Caroline came home from the Motor Corps she found Father a dyspeptic, Mother a nervous wreck, and little Sister Susie's complexion fairly ruined.

The family had acquired the paper bag habit. Saratoga chips and delicatessen cottage cheese and the sort of sausages that are wrapped up in tinfoil, and bakery pie—that's what they'd been living on.

And Caroline, being a practical young woman, wouldn't stand it.

So she went downtown and bought an old-fashioned cook book and started in.

Joys Unknown Before.

I had luncheon at the house the other day and there was a baked potato completely done, not either burned nor raw; there was a little chop and there were some homemade biscuits as light as a feather.

Mother and Susie cleared the table, we all helped wash the dishes and Caroline shook the tablecloth and swept up the crumbs, and we had a perfectly good, human time of it. Furthermore, Father is remembering how to laugh, Mother is forgetting her nerves, and Sister Susie is beginning to bloom like a rose again.

All because Caroline has learned to cook and is making a business of it, just as she made a business of driving a motor in France.

The other night I went to dinner at the Happyhearts.

The Happyhearts are youngish, prosperous-ish and they've always been very modern.

Mary Happyheart is a college girl. She met John at a settlement house, where they were both trying to uplift the world.

Mary married John because she loved him, and John married Mary because he loved her. But neither of them thought it was goo form to pay much attention to the love part of it.

They had two children, a boy and a girl. But Mary kept right on with her club work and John belonged to a downtown organization, a country club and two regular every-day men's clubs.

He dined downtown two or three times a week, lunched at the smart restaurants every day, and wasn't home very much in the evening.

Mary went to uplift teas and intellectual afternoons and musical mornings. She had a cook and a nurse and a beautiful apartment where they had to pay extra to make up for the handicap of bringing children into the house.

John's just come back from the war, and, what do you think? He found Mary moved from the apartment to the funniest little cottage in the suburbs, and there's no cook and no nurse—only just Mary.

New Home Happiness.

I never saw the children so gay and so rosy. The 6-year-old helped set the table and the 8-year-old brought in the vegetables; and after dinner, when we had all done the dishes, John took the children upstairs and put them to bed, and we could hear them laughing and frolicking and having a regular circus over it.

I haven't seen John at dinner with that interesting blonde I observed him with at the theatre before he went to the war—not once since he's come back. I wonder if she found a new victim while he was gone—or does John really like his real home and his real wife and his real children better than any cafe on earth?

This sort of thing is going on all over the country today. The scarcity of servants may not be entirely a calamity, after all.

I wonder if it isn't helping to bring a few of us to our senses.

KITCHEN ECONOMIES

Five Shellfish Recipes Well Worth Preserving.

Five Shellfish Recipes Well Worth Preserving.

Use plenty of shellfish while they're in season, and if you can't get them fresh they are still obtainable by the can in good quality. Lobsters, crabs, clams, oysters are very wholesome and nourishing, and they're not an expensive food for all things considered. Also they may be prepared in many ways, some of them forming a complete meal in a single dish.

Casserole of Oysters.

1 dozen oysters
½ cupful of rice
2 cupfuls of tomatoes
1 green pepper
½ teaspoonful of salt
⅛ teaspoonful of pepper
1 tablespoonful of butter

Chop the pepper and onion and cook in the butter. The rice is added and placed in the casserole with pepper and onion and cooked until the rice is tender. Add the oysters and bake in a moderate oven ten minutes. If desired, a few slices of bacon may be laid on top of the dish and will give an additional flavor.

Oyster and Potato Pudding.

1 dozen oysters
3 potatoes
1 tablespoonful of butter
1 teaspoonful of salt
1-8 teaspoonful of pepper.
1 teaspoonful of chopped parsley

Boil and mash the potatoes, moistening with butter and liquor from the oysters. Place a layer of mashed potatoes in a buttered dish, then a layer of oysters, season with salt, pepper and parsley, and repeat the layers until all the ingredients are used up. The top layer should be potatoes, and may be sprinkled with grated cheese. Bake until the cheese is melted.

Clam Croquettes.

12 large clams
2 eggs
1 onion
½ lemon
½ teaspoonful of dry mustard
1 tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce
1 saltspoonful each of cayenne, grated nutmeg
½ cupful of flour
2 tablespoonfuls of butter

Boil the clams in their own liquor and one cupful of cold water for five minutes. Drain the clams and chop. Heat the butter and fry in it the finely-chopped onion. Add the flour and stir, adding about one cupful of clam liquor, mix and allow to boil two minutes. Add the clams and seasonings and cook slowly for about ten minutes. Add the egg yolks and lemon juice, cook two minutes and set aside to cool. Roll out on slightly floured board in small parts, form into balls, dip into beaten egg and breadcrumbs and fry in deep fat.

Here is a simple dish that can be made with either crabmeat, lobster meat or shrimps, and which is really a complete one-piece meal.

2 cupfuls of lobster or crabmeat or shrimps
2 tablespoonfuls of butter
2 tablespoonfuls of flour
1 can of peas (or 2 cupfuls of cooked peas)
1½ cupfuls of milk

Blend the flour with the melted butter, gradually add the milk, stirring constantly as it cooks. As soon as it begins to boil add the meat, seasonings and peas and let it come to a boil. Serve on toast points garnished with parsley.

Picnic Oysters.

This paste can be made easily and is excellent for a sandwich spread:

12 chopped oysters
1 egg white
¼ cupful of melted butter
¾ cupful of thick cream
Cracker dust

Beat the egg white stiff, add to other ingredients and cook until a smooth paste is formed. Set aside to cool. It can then be cut and spread between thin slices of unbuttered bread.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

DESERVE THE BEST.

Dear Miss Grey,—During my vacation this summer I have been very much interested in reading the letters written to your mail box. I cannot see why there is not a page full of it every day, for it is both beneficial and sociable.

Re Lonely ex-Soldier's letter, I have heard several city boys say the same thing. It is little wonder the boys say they prefer French girls because they are so free. Of course, there are exceptions, but the majority of these single men who are coming back deserve the best welcome which we can tender to them.

Hoping I have not stayed too long and that I may see my letter in print, I will sign myself, OPAL.

P.S.—What is the meaning of Muriel?

Ans.: You are doing your share towards the enlarging of this Mail Box, and we'll hope that others who would like to see it grow will also contribute letters. Perhaps you will feel tempted to write again, too. The meaning of Muriel is "clear visioned" or "pure of vision," according to the only interpretation I can find.

Fixing Teacher's Salary.

Dear Miss Grey,—As we have been seeing so many ads for teachers in the papers with the words "state salary," it seems to me it would be more in order for the trustees to state what salary is given by the section, as they know better than those applying the average attendance, location of school, etc. A teacher sometimes states less salary than they should if all the circumstances were known, and a few dollars more is not felt as much by a whole section as it is for a teacher to accept too little for the sake of securing a school. I know of cases where the county is not even mentioned, and if it is a small place not on the map a teacher would have no idea where the school advertised was.. A teacher going away out in the country should be well paid, as it takes so long for them to get their education, besides the year spent at Normal School. You will excuse me for specializing on one subject, will you not, Miss Grey.

I am interested in the recipes sent in by others, but will refrain from saying any more this time. Perhaps next time I shall be able to say something more interesting. Yours sincerely,

MOLLY MAGUIRE.

Ans.—I am very glad to have you write upon this subject, for it is variety we need to make and keep our Mail-Box interesting. Your presentation of the subject of fixing teachers' salaries is well given, and I should also welcome other ideas on the same topic.

Was Shock Too Much?

Dear Cynthia,—I am another newcomer to your helpful page. I quite agree with the one who said that Cynthia should have a whole page of letters every day.

Why doesn't Ura Kidd write any more? I hope the shock the potato bug gave her wasn't so serious.

Could you please send me the ever-famous stocking-foot pattern?

The next time I write I'll try to help someone out of their difficulties.

THE KANDY KID.

Ans.—A whole page of letters daily? Dear me, what do you think "the Boss" would say to that? Afraid I'd need a private secretary to keep matters straight. But as that day has not yet arrived, it's with pleasure I send you a foot pattern. Now, go play with Ura and the rest of the "Kidds."

A Good Comic One.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have not seen many letters in the Mail-Box lately. Has Ura Kidd and the rest of them forsaken you, or are they too busy to write?

Say, Miss Grey, have you or any of our Mail-Box readers a good comic recitation that would be suitable for a garden party or social gathering? If so, would you please let me know throw the Mail-Box, and I will send a stamped and addressed envelope for it.

Here is a helpful hint for housekeepers: When cutting new bread, dip knife in hot water, then cut. You can cut the bread thinner and much nicer.

Has any reader got a tatted doily for sale? ROBINA.

Ans.—Queries referred to readers. Just now I seem to have no comic recitations at hand, so cannot supply Robina's need.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Drop Freezone on a touchy corn, then lift that corn off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! No humbug!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn or corn between the toes, and the callouses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy, Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisurated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia which you can obtain froun practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisurated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and, moreover, the continued use of the bisurated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion. —Advt.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advt.

Benson's CORN STARCH
For Tomorrow's Dessert

The question of variety in summer desserts never troubles the woman who knows the possibilities of Benson's Corn Starch, the choicest product of the corn.

Benson's Corn Starch is equally fine for crisp, delicate pastries as it is for simple puddings; it is good for cakes and for pie fillings to say nothing of Blanc Mange, Custards and Ice Cream.

Try one of these recipes for tomorrow's dessert—

Blanc Mange

Four tablespoonfuls of Benson's Corn Starch and one quart of milk. Mix the Corn Starch with a little of the milk; heat the remainder of the milk and when boiling add the dissolved Corn Starch; boil for 15 minutes, stirring constantly; sweeten if desired and flavour to taste. Allow to cool in a mould and serve with cream and sugar, jelly or preserves.

Mock Cream Pie

Beat the yolks of three eggs, one cup of sugar and four tablespoonfuls of Benson's Corn Starch well mixed. Stir in one pint of hot milk slowly and add a pinch of salt and a teaspoon of butter. Turn into a crust already baked, grate nutmeg on top. Bake till firm. Cover with meringue and brown.

Coffee Custard

Heat 1 pint of milk and ½ cup of Lily White Corn Syrup to boiling point. Add two eggs, well beaten, 1 cup hot strong coffee and 1 tablespoonful of Benson's Corn Starch mixed till smooth with a little cold milk. Stir till it thickens. Pour into glasses. When very cold serve with cream.

Tecumsehs Push Aces Off the League Top

Okrie Has Edge of Pitching Battle With Schwartje, Saginaw Losing Second in a Row to London by Score of 4 to 2.

(BY BERT B. PERRY.)

By beating Saginaw 4 to 2 at Tecumseh Park last night, the local Mint Leaguers pushed the Aces from the proud position of league leaders, a position they have held ever since the season started. Today they are in second place with Frank Shaughnessy's Tigers a game and a half ahead of them. Yesterday's victory was the second straight the Tecumsehs took from the Aces. In fact, Stewart's crowd have trimmed Wetzel's former leaders on their last four appearances at Tecumseh Park.

Frankie Okrie was assigned the task of crowding the Aces from the top rung. Okrie was equal to the occasion, although he did not turn in as good a pitching performance as did Johnny Schmidt on the previous day. Okrie struck out fourteen visiting batters, and his chief strength lay in his ability to turn them back in the tight corners. They produced hits off Okrie, but in only one inning where they were able to send any runs over.

Errors Help London.

Big Herman Schwartje was opposed to Okrie. He was treated rougher than Okrie, and his support wobbled more in the pinches. Schwartje was guilty of two costly pegs himself, all four of the visitors' errors figuring in London's scoring. In the sixth inning, he forced over what proved to be the winning run when he plugged Emery in the chest with the bases full. He was lucky that more runs were not made off him, but the Tecumsehs helped him out considerably, throwing away chances by poor base running.

Two Hits Without a Score.

The Aces started on Okrie in the first frame, the first two batters singling to left field. One of them was nailed at third on Allen's roller to Okrie, and the next two batters were thrown out. The Tecumsehs did not make a serious attempt on Schwartje until the second inning, when Shay beat out a roller to Fletcher, and took second when the third baseman pegged wildly to Weinberg. Pittenger bunted to Allen for a clean hit, Shay stopping at third. Emery's grounder to Pike enabled Shay to score while Emery was thrown out. Pittenger was nailed trying to take third on a passed ball, and Milligan flied out.

One More in the Third.

In the third, Fearnley led off with a single to right. Okrie bunted to Schwartje, who threw wild to first, Fearnley going to third and Okrie to second. The Saginaw players protested the play, claiming that Okrie had run off the line in front of the peg, but Fyfe chased them back to their positions. Fearnley was late starting on Witry's bunt, and he was nailed at the home plate. Had Fearnley held third, Witry would have been credited with a hit, as Schwartje did not get the ball in time to throw him out. Newman knocked a single to left and scored Okrie, but Witry and he died on the cushions when Command and Shay succumbed on batted balls.

Aces Tie the Score.

The Aces, who had been retired on strikes in the second, and who could not get Schwartje past second base in the third after the big pitcher had led off with a double to right, provided the excitement in the third. McDaniel drew a pass after Weinberg had fanned. A wild pitch put McDaniel on second, and he scored when Wright drove a hot one through Pittenger to Emery. Emery's throw to the plate went over Milligan's head, and Wright drew up at third. Fletcher fanned, but Pike dropped a short fly over Okrie's head and beat Shay's throw to first, Wright scoring. Shay made a bad boot on Schwartje's grounder, but Cameron went out on strikes.

Tecumsehs Take Lead Again.

Command started London's sixth with a single to left and Shay bunted. Schwartje had plenty of time to nail Command at second, but he threw wildly and both runners were safe. Pittenger again bunted cleanly to shortstop for a safe hit. It was a pretty play, the ball being just out of Schwartje's reach and too slow for Allen to field in time to make a play. With the bases full, Emery worked Schwartje for a pass, and with two and two on him, a close one bounced off his chest, Command being forced in. Milligan struck out, but Shay was forced out at the plate on Fearnley's grounder to Fletcher. McDaniel caught Pittenger leading too far off third, and returned the ball to Fletcher for a double play.

Another in Seventh.

Witry singled to left to open the seventh, and he went to second when Gleich let the ball trickle through his legs. He scored on Newman's single to centre. Command lined out to centre, and Newman was doubled at second.

The visitors got a man as far as second in the seventh after two were out, Gleich singling and taking the keystone sack on a passed ball. Allen, a good hitter, was unequal to the occasion, and fanned for the third successive time. In the ninth, Shay made a high heave to first on Fletcher's grounder, and Fletcher took second. Wetzel put Harrison in to bat for Pike, but Okrie fanned him. He also fanned Schwartje and Cameron's long fly to Command ended the game.

The Feature Play.

Neither team fielded very brilliantly. The best play of the afternoon came in the fifth inning. Gleich beat out a bunt to first, stole second and after Allen and Weinberg fanned he took third on McDaniel's infield hit. The two runners tried to work a double steal. Milligan whipped the ball to Okrie, who snapped to Pittenger, catching Gleich off third by a yard for the third out. The play abruptly ended a rather dangerous situation.

One of the biggest week-day crowds of the season saw the game, and got its money's worth in excitement.

Brantford Owner Tries Strong Methods on Battle Creek Club

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BRANTFORD, Aug. 12.—President Brown of the Brantford Baseball Club announced tonight, following the fiasco at the park, when Battle Creek forfeited the game, that Brantford would not keep their engagements in Battle Creek unless the guarantee was paid in advance. The Brantford club tonight withheld the percentage of the receipts here on account of the game being forfeited. It was pointed out that certain players got away from Manager Jenkins and deliberately caused the forfeiture. No kick was made on the strike decision until after a hit had been made that tied the score.

TO FRANK SHAUGHNESSY'S HAMS.
We put you where you are today,
We hope you're satisfied,
We pushed the Aces down and down
The old toboggan slide,
But don't forget, we meet you yet
And i fthe race is close,
Make no mistake, you'll have to take
The same old bitter dose.

* * *

Guess Hamilton fans feel well repaid for presenting "Dad" Stewart with that club bag.

* * *

"Hank" Down will serve 'em up for Bay City today. The Tecumsehs will be down on "Hank."

* * *

The Saginaw Aces left London last night. Guess they didn't carry away many picture post cards of this old burg.

* * *

The Saginaw club may have a hard time getting back into first place again unless the Hams slump. Shaughnessy's team has a lot of home games and with Battle Creek and Bay City transferring dates to the Ambitious City, the Tigers should get a good lead on the Aces.

* * *

"Buzz" Wetzel's team is a good ball club yet, and one worthy of making a hard fight in the remaining games. The Aces are well liked here. They are gentlemanly ball players on and off the field. Their appearances at Tecumseh Park have resulted in good baseball, and some of the other clubs in the league could well take them for an example of how to behave. Wetzel is a good manager and not of the "crab" type. He gets the work out of his players without having to ride them unduly. He is not an umpire "baiter." He will protest decisions, but not by using rowdy methods. He believes in winning his games on merit on the field, and every game won from the Aces is only taken after a hard fight.

* * *

Personally, we don't believe the Aces are out of the pennant race yet by a long shot. Shaughnessy has some hard games ahead and the Hams are not the team on the road that they are at home. Many things can still happen to upset the race.

* * *

In going to Sarnia today to play an exhibition game, the Saginaw club is filling up an open date and also giving Sarnia fans an opportunity to look over a Mint League club. Sarnia is strongly mentioned in connection with a baseball franchise next season. The border town is a good one for baseball and patronizes the City League splendidly. There are several big men in the town who are willing to put up all the money necessary to run a professional team in Sarnia next season in the Mint League or in the Canadian League if the old circuit is reorganized. Sarnia has a big summer population, and passengers going up and down the lakes often have two or three idle hours there, during which many of them would welcome seeing a ball game. In addition, Port Huron is only ten minutes away by ferry, and there is no doubt that fans from that city would attend many of the games.

Sarnia is as good a baseball prospect as Guelph, St. Thomas or Kitchener, if not better.

* * *

Local fans are much interested in the pennant races in the major leagues, and the majority of fans here are anxious to see Detroit capture the American League championship. Cincinnati is a big favorite in this city, owing to Earle Neale, former London player, being a member of the Reds. Neale was speaking to a London fan who saw the Reds play recently, and he wished to be remembered to all his old friends here. He still has a warm spot in his heart for this city, because it was here he got his start in professional baseball.

* * *

With the Tigers and the Reds in the world series London fans would be present in large numbers at Navin Field when the games were played there. Detroit is going strong at present, and there are many who expect to see them win out from the White Sox, who are not getting the good pitching that put them in front earlier in the season. The Tigers have an option on Okrie and Glasier, the two best pitchers in the Mint League.

BUFFALO RINK PLAYS WONDERFULLY WELL IN WALKER CUP GAMES

A. Oliver's Rink Comes From Behind on Two Occasions to Reach Semi-Finals.

TORONTO, Aug. 12.—With the semi-finals of the Walker trophy scheduled for tomorrow morning, it can be easily seen that the second day's play in the huge Dominion lawn bowling tournament provided some tidy battles with such a galaxy of stars still in the running as were left at the conclusion of the first-round play. Progress in the Ontario and Toronto trophies, emblematic of the association, and consolation series was also well carried out, but they still have another big day ahead of them before the end in these fixtures is in sight. Rain threatened to stop the play about 6 o'clock, but the officials proved hard masters, and drove the bowlers back to the greens when the sprinkling abated, so that the majority of the games were concluded before dark.

By long odds, the feature of the play was the remarkable finish made by A. Oliver, the lone Buffalo survivor in the Walker trophy. Apparently outclassed in the early stages of his match with J. Newsome of Brantford in the fourth round, and eight down with three ends to go, he rallied strongly and won in an extra end by two shots. Oliver then tackled the veteran Charlie Boyd of the Toronto Thistles in the fifth round, and again won by coming from behind.

The semi-finals finds practically all the favorites and past winners missing, the last of the former winners to go down being J. A. Burt of Balmy Beach, victor in 1917, before John Brooks of Lawrence Park, the surprise of the tournament, who only permitted the Balmy Beach rink to score on two ends and defeated them, 16 to 3. Brooks and Oliver will clash in the semi-finals, so that Toronto has two chances of having a contender in the final, Dr. F. J. Gallanough of Victorias being another local entry to come through by defeating H. G. Salisbury of St. Matthews.

Confidence is felt that the locals will give the leaguers a contest and a win would not shock the fans.

W. L. Talbot	011 010 201 013—10

Flint and Saginaw Clubs Will Not Transfer Dates

Will Play Out Scheduled Games on Their Home Lot, Owners Declare, So As To Give Square Deal To Home Fans.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

DETROIT, Aug. 12.—Two of the American clubs of the Michigan-Ontario League have announced they will not join in the move to transfer the games to the Canadian side. The shifts are favored by all of Ontario clubs and by some of the Michigan clubs, because of the way in which the game is drawing across the border.

President Halligan of Flint requested a denial of reports that his team would transfer.

"We will not do it," he said, "for the reason that Flint fans, by their attendance, have shown appreciation of the way in which I have been trying to give them a ball club. We will play the string out as scheduled, and will be on deck again next year."

"Saginaw will play all its home scheduled dates on its own lot. It is fighting for the pennant, and for this reason, and because it believes its home fans should see the finish, will not shift."

GRACE DIRECT WINS EASY VICTORY IN 2:06 PACING STAKE

Hollyrood Kate Wins the A. B. Matthews Cup by Taking Two Heats.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Grace Direct, the speedy daughter of Walter Direct, won a hollow victory in the $3,000 stake 2:06 pace, the feature of the opening day of the third annual grand circuit meeting at Belmont Driving Club's track at Narberth, Penna., today. The race had only three starters, and was decided in straight heats.

The races were decided on the three-heat plan, every heat a race, and the money was well split up.

The 2:13 pace went four heats and furnished the best competition of the day. Ed. Geers' Come Fast, driven by Ben Walker, won the opening heat, Prince Pepper the second, and Harper the third. The three heat winners met in the fourth heat, which Harper won easily in 2:13½.

The 2:08 trot for the A. B. Mathews cup and a purse of $1,000 furnished good racing. Oscar Watts took the first heat from Hollyrood Kate, which got off to a bad start, but Dodge's mare easily outclassed the field and captured the next two in close finishes.

BATTLE CREEK FORFEITS GAME TO BRANTFORD

Horn and Newton Are Batted Hard—Sox Errors Give Custers Three Runs.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 12.—Battle Creek forfeited tonight's game to Brantford, when the Custers disobeyed the time limit of five minutes given them by Umpire Minnes to get back on the field and play ball. The row started after Carrol hit a double, driving in the tieing run, and the visitors claimed he should have been struck out. They failed to kick until the double was made by Carroll and then raised a howl. Umpire Minnes pulled his watch and called the game over when the time expired, the Red Sox winning by 9 to 0.

Horn and Newton were both batted freely, the Sox booting three runs over. The score:

SHAG'S TIGERS WIN TWO FROM FLINT AND TAKE LEAD

Morrissette and Behan Win Their Games—Orme and Hagel Stage Fight.

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 12.—Hamilton Tigers took two games from Flint here today, the first by a score of 6 to 2 and the second 4 to 0. The patrons today were given a side attraction in the way of a pitched battle between Orme and Hagel, of the Flint team, immediately after the first game. The Flint players had been wrangling all through the game trying to place the blame for some bad baseball on each other, and it ended by Orme and Hagel indulging in a fistic battle, in which Hagel came out second best, his face being badly cut and four stitches were necessary to repair his lip.

Morrissette added another victory to his clean sheet, while Pete Behan allowed but two hits in the second game. The scores:

BEAVERS GIVE BAY CITY WOLVES BAD TROUNCING

Chaput Makes Longest Hit of the Game—Eckstein's Playing Featured.

KITCHENER, Aug. 12.—Kitchener blanked the Bay City Wolves here today, Chaput only allowing five scattered hits, while the Beavers found Dodson for double the number. Both teams gave their pitchers good support, but the Beavers were in a winning mood, bunching the hits when they were most effective. Eckstein showed up well, pulling down a couple of hard ones in the left field and pounding out three good hits. Chaput helped out his own game with the longest hit of the game, a three-bagger.

LOOKING THEM OVER

Looks like the pennant is as good as nailed to the mast at Hamilton. The Aces have a much harder row to hoe now than the Hams, although there's lots of time for another upset.

Men on bases never worry Okrie. He just opens out a little, puts on a little more speed, hooks 'em across and fans 'em out.

Schwartje doesn't seem to have any hooks. He didn't use any, yesterday, or at least none you could notice from the press box.

Mitchell went to his home in Flint Monday night. He will rejoin the team at Saginaw. Mitchell is a married man with a boy, 10 years old.

Witry looks good any place you put him. He came running in and made a nice catch off Wright in the eighth.

The heavy hitters on the Saginaw club looked like hitless wonders in this series. Allen didn't see first base in eight trips to the plate. Weinberg and Pike only reached there once. The former got a pass and the later a hit.

Pittenger is hitting in fine form. In the last seven games he has hit safely, making 13 hits for 22 times at bat for an average of .591.

Cy Pieh kidded Schwartje when the big fellow came to bat for the first time in the third inning. Cy told him he wouldn't see the ball let alone hit it. Schwartje responded with a two-bagger to right, and when he settled down on second, he yelled over to the London bench, 'Oh, Cy, how about that?"

"Dad" Stewart kept urging Fyfe to make Schwartje deliver the ball properly when men were on bases. The London manager claimed Schwartje was making balks. Fyfe paid little attention. The London players were trying to ride Schwartje all through the game in an effort to get him worried.

Pitcher Shriver of the Aces hurt himself in Monday's game in the fifth inning. This was the reason that Wetzel took him out. He strained a tendon in delivering a ball and may be laid up for a few days.

The Aces will play an exhibition game in Sarnia today.

Fearnley likes slow ones. When Schwartje handed him up a teaser in the third inning, he promptly dropped it into right field for a clean single.

PRESTON RINK WINS CUP FROM GALT BOWLERS

GALT, Aug. 12.—After local bowlers had successfully defended the cup donated by the Galt Club for Scotch doubles competition among the clubs of Waterloo County League since the beginning of the season, they lost in a close game with two rinks of Preston by two shots. Possession of the cup was decided on the last end, when the Preston pair scored four shots. The score:

Joe Jackson's Umps Again Cause Trouble

They Claim His Schedule Looks Like Laundry Ticket of Chinese Origin.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 12.—President Jackson of the "Mint League" would have an easy job but for the way his umpires are running out on him. The umpire schedule has been revised so many times it resembles a Chinese laundry ticket, and the end is not yet.

However, as the other minor leagues are experiencing similar difficulties, the league head dopes to get by, by changing a few dates. Instructions were sent out by wire last night to the four "umpires," giving them their schedule for the next ten days, and unless someone breaks a leg or strains a few more tendons, President Jackson is hopeful that he has ironed out his umpire troubles for a week at least.

Barnes Won Game For New York in Pitching Duel

Equals Season's Record Held by Shawkey of New York.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 12.—Jesse Barnes won his tenth straight game for New York today, equaling the season's record, held by Bob Shawkey, also of New York. Barnes had a pitching duel with Mitchell, the Giants beating Brooklyn by the score of 2 to 1. The score:

FIFTEEN-MILE CANOE MARATHON LABOR DAY

Montreal, Aug. 13.—The Canadian Canoe Association have officially sanctioned the fifteen-mile canoe marathon to be held from Ste. Rose to the Ste. Eustace bridge on Labor Day for the "Riley Horn" Trophy.

There is a strong possibility that some of the old-time paddlers will be on hand for this race. Men whose names five or six years ago were a byword in aquatic circles have signified their intention of entering the competition.

FIVE EVENTS ON CARD OF GRAND CIRCUIT TODAY

Philadelphia, Aug. 13.—A card of five events was offered for the second day of the Grand Circuit meeting at Belmont track today. The feature was the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel Stake, of $3,000, with a splendid entry. Including Busy Lassie, Peter June, Prince Loree, Royal Mack, The Toddler, and Wilkes Brewer.

The William Penn Stake, for 2-year-old trotters, purse $2,000, and the 2:13 trot for $2,000 each had eight entries. The free-for-all pace, in which the horses are paced at each quarter of the mile in each heat, was one of the features.

There was to have been a match race between the trotters Ante Guy and Lu Princeton, but this was postponed owing to a slight accident to Ante Guy.

MONTREAL HUNT CLUB TO ENTER STEEPLECHASE

Montreal, Aug. 13.—It is now practically assured that entries for the Roderick Pringle Memorial steeplechase cup, the feature of the Cobourg Horse Show, will be made by members of the Montreal Hunt Club.

REDS AND GIANTS MEET TODAY IN BIG SERIES

New York, Aug. 13.—The most important series of the National League pennant race thus far this season began here today, when Cincinnati, leading New York by 4½ games, met the Giants in the first of three successive double-headers. The two teams have alternated in the lead almost from the start of the season, when Brooklyn set the pace for a short time.

Moran's men, who have not encountered a losing streak, have been more successful than their eastern rivals during the past few weeks, gradually widening the gap between first and second place. To wipe out the Reds' lead, McGraw's men must win five of the six contests, while a severe setback would be difficult to overcome in the remaining 36 games of the season. The Reds and Giants have broken even in twelve games.

"Direct Action" Referendum Is To Be Postponed

LONDON, Aug. 12. — Executives of British labor's triple alliance decided today to postpone its "direct action" referendum on political demands. The referendum movement is said today by the Evening News to have been killed by the refusal of the transport workers' federation to take part in it. The newspaper said the federation had decided to have nothing to do with the movement, and that its district branches had refused to issue ballots for the referendum.

The triple alliance is composed of the railway men, transport workers and miners. The alliance on July 23 decided to take a vote of its members on labor's political demands, including conscription, Russian investigation, the release of conscientious objectors and the use of the military in labor disputes.

POSSIBILITY OF CHEAPER SHOES NOW IN SIGHT

Cost Commissioner Says Export Embargo Has Had Good Results.

OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—The price of hides for the manufacture of boots and shoes is rapidly falling in Canada, since the Government placed an embargo on exports of hides, skins and leather, at the advice of the cost of living commissioner. The embargo was announced on August 4. By August 6 country hides had fallen five cents a pound and advices received state that the price on hides dropped ten cents and on calf skins twenty cents on the Montreal market yesterday.

As a result of recent advance in the price of hides and leather the boot and shoe manufacturers had given warning that the price of footwear would soon rise to extremely high levels, although it was admitted that the increased cost of leather did not amount to more than $2 a pair of shoes.

"This decline in the price of raw material following the Government's action should, if it continues," said the cost of living commissioner, "obviate the necessity for advancing prices of boots and shoes, and, if continued far enough, should cause an actual decline in these prices."

APPEALS TO ALLIES TO CONTINUE SUPPORT IN ARCHANGEL AREA

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The anti-Bolshevik Government of the Archangel region in Russia today appealed to the Allies not to withdraw their support. The note was made public by the state department. Military, financial and railway support is urgently needed if the northern part of Russia is to be saved from the Bolsheviki, the provisional Archangel Government said. The note concludes:

The Provisional Government is responsible for the fate of the region which has confided in it, and which has so far borne, with patience, all the war's burdens and is moreover bound before its own conscience and before its own native land to contribute its utmost to the reconstruction of Russia. Therefore, the Provisional Government of the northern region begs the Allied powers to weigh all the consequences and again to examine the advisability of abandoning North Russia, and leaving it without financial and military support."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12. — Charges that eighteen representative railroads operating in all parts of the United States gave away stock bonuses aggregating $450,414,000 from 1900 to 1910, and have paid millions in dividends on these bonuses, were made before the House interstate commerce committee by Glenn E. Plumb of Chicago, author of the Plumb plan for tri-partite control of the roads. He demanded a thorough investigation by Congress.

Mr. Plumb charged further that "these railroads which have so increased their property investment account at the expense of the public are now controlled in whole or in part by the Morgan interests, the Rockefeller interests and the Gould interests."

Austrian Delegates Notified To Stop Use of Term German-Austria.

PARIS, Aug. 12.—The supreme council of the peace conference, it was announced today, has advised the Austrian delegation that the Allied and associated powers have decided that the new Austrian Government must be called the "Republic of Austria." This decision was taken as a result of notes from the Austrian delegation in which they referred to their government as "German-Austria."

These notes related to proposed changes in the Austrian peace treaty. In some cases the only alteration in the clauses was the change of the Austrian's Government name to German-Austria.

TWO KILLED BY 40-FOOT FALL INTO DRY DOCK

Two Others Dying and Eighteen Others Seriously Injured.

GANGWAY COLLAPSED

Men Were in Hurry To Get Home From Ship Repair Job.

QUEBEC, Aug. 12.—Two men are dead, two are dying, and eighteen others are suffering from grievous injuries, while many more received minor casualties as a result of the collapse of a gangway at the new Champlain drydock at Lauzon at closing time this afternoon.

Large gangs of men were engaged in repairing two C. P. R. vessels, and as the whistle sounded at quitting time there was a rush for the gangway leading from another vessel to the side of the dock. The gangway bridged a space of about thirty feet between the ship and the side of the dock.

In their anxiety to reach the wall of the dock and get to their homes about fifty men rushed onto the gangway, and as they reached the centre it snapped, precipitating them to the bottom of the dock, forty feet below.

MINIATURE WAR ON WITH CITY FATHERS OVER GAS PLANT

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 12.—There is a miniature war on between the city auditor and Ald. Handford. Ald. Handford told the gas committee this afternoon that after he had suggested the other night that an outside auditor be called in to go over the statement made by Manager Caughell on the standing of the gas plant, he had been called on the telephone and given a very insulting calling down by City Auditor Gough. Among other things the auditor called him a "dirty coward." "I won't stand for that from any man and I don't intend to do so," stated the chairman.

He still insists, however, that an outside auditor be called in and in order that some definite action be taken it was decided to obtain the cost of an audit of the books by an outside man. Chairman Handford stated that he did not intend to cast any reflection on anyone, but he said that he had been appointed on a committee to go over the books and as he had no time to devote to such an arduous task he would prefer to have an auditor paid for the work. It is likely that an apology will be asked from City Auditor Gough.

UNION OF CANADIAN MUNICIPALITIES IS IN ANNUAL SESSION

Retiring Secretary Calls Revision of Railway Act Absurd.

KINGSTON, Aug. 12.—The convention of the union of Canadian municipalities opened this morning. Mayor Newman extended a cordial welcome to the visiting delegates. Mayor Bouchard of St.Hyacinthe, Que., delivered the presidential addresses, and W. D. Lighthall, K. C., ex-mayor of Westmount, Que., the retiring honorary secretary-treasurer, presented his report with valedictory. He said that of the special incidents of the year the last events connected with the revised railway act stood out prominently. He said:

"The Senate has seen fit to arbitrarily mutilate some of the clauses protecting municipalities and take up and push to the limit an extreme, absurd and unconstitutional position on the so-called 'vested rights.'"

More Concentration.

Prof. O. D. Skelton, head of the department of political and economic science in Queen's University, urged the necessity of more concentration and less division in municipal government and called on the big men of the community to serve the municipality. He said departments of municipal affairs were doing good work.

"Value of Provincial Union" was discussed by A. Roberts, K.C., secretary of the Union of Nova Scotia Municipalities. He told of the work done by that union. This union was organized in 1906 with twelve municipalities and now there were fifty-five in the union. It had saved for the municipalities of Nova Scotia the control of their streets.

Francis King of the board of trade and counsel for the Dominion Marine Association, submitted a resolution suggesting that the Government use the idle elevator at Kingston to take the place of the one destroyed by an explosion at Port Colborne. The resolution was referred to the committee on resolutions.

At the conclusion of the afternoon session the visitors were given an automobile drive about the city, returning to the Randolph Hotel, where they were tendered a banquet by Mayor Newman, the city council and citizens of Kingston.

BULGARIAN ELECTIONS TO BE HELD AUGUST 17

PARIS, Aug. 12.—(Associated Press). —Parliamentary elections will be held in Bulgaria Aug. 17. It appears probable that the Agrarian party, of which M. Stambuliwski, a member of the Bulgarian peace delegation, is the leader, will win a majority of seats.

The socialists, it is expected, will elect a considerable number of members.

PORTLAND MAN HAS GAINED 30 POUNDS

Collins Says Everybody Who Knows Him Is Talking About His Improvement Since Taking Tanlac.

"Tanlac has made such a big improvement in my condition that I feel as well in every way now, as I ever did in my life, and I have actually gained thirty pounds since I commenced taking it," said F. T. Collins, who lives at 572 Bortwicth street, Portland, Ore., a few days ago.

"I began to have indigestion about three years ago," continued Mr. Collins, "and this condition just kept on getting worse all the time until it finally became chronic. My stomach was in such bad condition that everything I ate disagreed with me and caused me to suffer afterwards. Gas often formed on my stomach, and I would be so nauseated that I could not retain what I ate. I also suffered with pains in the small of my back, and if I stooped over I could hardly straighten up again. I was badly constipated all the time, and would often have headaches that would last for nearly a week at a time. I finally got so weak and rundown that I had to give up my job. Then my nerves went back on me, and I never got a good night's sleep after that. I tell you, I had just about reached the point where I was a complete nervous wreck.

"I didn't think any medicine would do me any good, but I thought I would try Tanlac any way, and, to my surprise, I began to improve by the time I had finished my first bottle. Well, from that time on I just kept getting better right along until I am now as well and strong as I ever was. I never had a better appetite, and can eat just anything I want without suffering afterwards. I honestly believe my stomach is in as good condition as it ever was. The pain has left my back, too. I am never constipated now, and those awful headaches are a thing of the past. My nerves are as steady as a clock, and I get in eight or nine hours' good, restful sleep every night. I have regained all my strength, and have gained so much in weight that everybody who knows me is talking about it. I never lose a chance to say a good word for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why Those Who Long to Fly Need Not Fear Airsickness

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG,
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins University).

DR. HIRSHBERG

With Read's successful trans-atlantic voyage through atmospheric space there is now the prospect that aerial voyages to Europe will soon be a commonplace event for civilians in the United States. Frequently persons who are poor sailors have the fear that they will experience the same sensation in the air that they have when afloat, but these are not altogether analagous situations.

It is a mistaken impression that flying makes you airsick. The sensations are quite the contrary under ordinary flying conditions and those who anticipate a trip through the air may rest assured that they will not be given a "nose-dive" unless they ask for it.

For it is only during aerial acrobatics that the nervous system is so affected that airsickness ensues. It can be safely said that anyone, no matter how sensitive he may be, can go up in an airplane and be perfectly free from any tendency to nausea.

Little Organic Danger.

The aircraft used for pleasure trips will be designed with stability especially in view. There will be a complete absence of rocking or dipping that might upset the stomach. Nearly all of the pleasure flying will be done at comparatively low altitudes; that is, from 2,000 to 4,000 feet, and practically any one, even those troubled with valvular heart ailments, can go up to 4,000 feet and not feel even shortness of breath. There is a great danger for some in going above 4,000 feet, which has been discovered by many pilots training for combat work who have fainted or lost their sense of hearing and sight after they got above that altitude. At higher altitudes even men blest with strong constitutions suffered from dulled faculties and were inclined to do the wrong thing at the wrong time. These dangers, of course, are eliminated in the low-flying pleasure ships.

"If the sensation of the first flight can be described at all," says Eddie Rickenbacker, America's famous ace, "it would be as the absence of all sensation, even the sensation of speed, for it is only when the plane is landing that the passenger has any idea of the terrific speed. The ascent is rapid, but very gradual, so that even when the passengers are watching the ground there will not be any sickening sensation of the ground dropping away. In the older type of planes there was always the fumes of gasoline coming from the exhaust pipes, but in the newer types this has been eliminated.

Sickness in "Stunts."

"Those venturesome persons who want to go beyond the sensation of straight flying and find out what it means to 'stunt' must expect to be made violently airsick. It is the common experience of men in training in aviation to become ill during the early part of their course in acrobatics. Some of them find it impossible to overcome this sickness, and when they are ordered to perform any acrobatics they deliberately 'rock the ship' until they have made themselves sick, and after the spasm is over they continue with their gyrations.

"Of all the sickening sensations of flying, the worst is probably found in what is known as the 'tight spiral.' The airplane is tipped over in a vertical bank, controls are pulled back, and the plane goes round in a sidewise, loop, losing a little altitude on each turn. Because the passenger's head is on the inside of this loop all the blood rushes up into the ears and affects the little channels and nerve centres, with the result that the stomach is upset. In this whirling downward course there is a terrifying roar in the ears and a sense of dizziness that few can survive without an inward revolt."

Another "stunt" that is bad for delicate constitutions is known as the "zoom." The nose of the airplane is headed straight toward the sky. Then the control is shoved forward, the tail of the ship flips up until the nose points straight earthward. After a short downward course it is again headed toward the heavens, the operation being repeated as long as its effects can be enjoyed, which for the novice isn't very long.

Answers to Health Questions

W. R. Y.: G.—What can I do for bad breath?

A.—Your nose, teeth, tonsils or throat may be the causes of this foul breath. You may find relief by taking half a dozen five-grain charcoal tablets two or three times a day.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 14.

The stellar influences for this day assist to pronounced activity with gratifying successes and financial increase, Jupiter and Mars being in splendid Lunar aspect, fortified by other strong planetary places. Some change or journey is forecast for some, and these should result to advantage. In all dealings, however, it would be well to be on guard against deception or fraud. In traveling a due amount of caution should be observed. Benefits of a sudden or surprising nature may arise under the friendly position of Uranus with the Moon. Guard the domestic interests and cherish all affectional and social affairs lest unhappiness or disappointment accrue from Venus opposed by Lunar.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a successful year, with increase of money, but should protect their domestic affairs. A child born on this day will be enterprising and energetic, succeeding in business, and though kind and affectionate it may be untidy and careless.

A really good sapphire should appear blue by artificial light as well as daylight; some stones have a trace of black, and some red, the latter making them resemble amethyst by lamplight.

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND
ADELE GARRISON'S NEW PHASE OF
REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

What Mrs. Stockbridge Told Madge Over the Phone.

Who is this at the phone?" Milly Stockbridge's voice, choking with rage, fairly sobbed out the inquiry. I caught my breath as I realized that something fresh must have happened to arouse her hysterical anger, and braced myself to answer her calmly.

"This is Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Stockbridge. What can I do for you?"

"You can get off the earth, you—" Then followed a string of explosive, insulting epithets which made me quiver with rage and fright lest some one should overhear her.

It was small comfort to remember that both the Stockbridge telephone and the one at the school were unlimited lines, with no possibility of an inquisitive party subscriber "listening in." The telephone operators were to be considered. O, course, I knew that it was against the rules for them to listen to conversations, but Ialso knew that it would be a remarkably well controller girl who could refrain from listening to this conversation if she caught any word of it while performing the necessary duty of assuring herself that we had secured our connections.

I would have hung up the receiver as soon as I heard her first words had I not felt that it was imperative for me to find ont what she meant to do. She might be planning to come to the schoolhouse. If she were I decided swiftly that I would be somewhere else when she arrived, preferably as far away as possible.

To the Point.

Under the stimulus of this possible danger my wits worked swiftly. One necessity was imminent. She must be made to think there was no one else in the schoolhouse, and that I was leaving at once. I shivered at the possibility of glum, suspicious Miss Wines or prim Miss Pratt coming into the office—as they were apt to do at any moment. Milly Stockbridge's words were distinctly audible in the room, she was screaming so violently into the plone, and I was thankful, indeed, that the janitor was busy in another wing, and that the pupils had long been gone.

"Mrs. Stockbridge!" I made by voice as peremptory and sharp as possible, "I must rush to get my train. Besides the janitor is waiting to lock up the school. So if you have anything you wish to me to do, tell me quickly."

"Where's that other red-headed snake?" she demanded.

"Gone." I did not pretend to misunderstand her allusion to Alice Holcombe. It was no time for unnecessary words.

"Where? Home?"

"No, somewhere on business."

"Business!" she gave a short, raucous laugh. "She'll have business enough to attend to in a day or two and so will you. Look in the paper day after tomorrow, and see if there isn't something in it that will interest you strangely."

Strangely Interrupted.

She laughed hysterically at her own quip, then her tone became frenzied again.

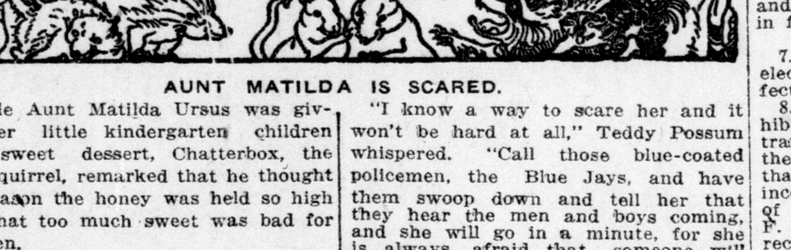

"No, I'll not let you wait for the papers. I'll just give myself the pleasure of 'telling you now. I'm going to sue for divorce tomorrow, and name both you and that other slimy snake—Ah-h!"

Her voice trailed off into a startled scream. The next instant it had sounded another note of distinct terror.

"Don't! Oh-h-h!"

Then there was a sudden severance of the telephone connection. But there had been no click of the telephone receiver being replaced upon the hook, no slight noise such as I have sometimes heard when central has severed a connection suddenly.

With a sudden unaccountable feeling of mysterious terror I shivered as with the ague.

AUNT MATILDA IS SCARED.

While Aunt Matilda Ursus was giving her little kindergarten children their sweet dessert, Chatterbox, the Red Squirrel, remarked that he thought the reason the honey was held so high was that too much sweet was bad for children.

Cousin Bruin's mouth was watering all this time, and he said: "Now Jimmy Coon, I don't know about how much those little Bears should eat, but I do know that Aunt Matilda is eating too much honey for her own good health, and she will have rheumatism if she indulges herself in too much honey. I am too fond of my dear cousin to see her do it, and yet I don't want her to see us watching her, for she doesn't want any one to know how she teaches and what methods she uses. She thinks she knows the best way to teach and she doesn't want any one to copy her ways. She has a regular patent on her way of teaching."

"Well, we must just scare her off," said Jimmy Coon, "and how will we do it?"

"I know a way to scare her and it won't be hard at all," Teddy Possum whispered. "Call those blue-coated policemen, the Blue Jays, and have them swoop down and tell her that they hear the men and boys coming, and she will go in a minute, for she is always afraid that someone will get her cubs. She thinks everyone wants her dear children just as much as she does. Tell Peter Rabbit to go and find those Bluejays—he hasn't a thing on earth to do."

Peter Rabbit was off in no time and found the Bluejays digging worms in the big meadow.

Chatterbox, the red squirrel, began breaking twigs, and the other little animals made as much noise as they could, and Drummer, the woodpecker, drummed as loud as he could, and so all together you would have thought a man or boy was coming through the woods, and the Captain of the Bluejays flew down on to the branch of a nearby tree and called out, "Hurry, Aunt Matilda and hide your dear children, for men and boys are coming with guns."

Of course this was a big fib, but Aunt Matilda didn't know it and so she listened. And in a minute she had pushed both those cubs down onto their four feet, and shambled into the forest, pushing them ahead of her, with her nose and head, the honey dripping from her jaws.

CANADA DRUNK WITH DELIRIOUS SPENDING; $20,000,000 DEFICIT

Huge Yearly Shortage, Says G. L. Lamb at S. Bruce U. F. O. Convention—Funeral-Knell of Union Government Rung — Gideon Ruttle Is Nominated.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

KINCARDINE, Aug. 12.—G. L. Lamb, Colborne Township, at the U. F. O. convention said: "My country, Canada, is drunk, and our good neighbor is putting out her hand to steady us." Mr. Lamb's address was a keen analysis of the going behind of the Dominion Government during the war period. Aside from her war debt, the Government had gone behind $20,000,000 a year, with business booming as never before.

"Canada has revelled in borrowed money until we don't know the difference between borrowing and earning. Our good Canadian dollar is down to 6½ per cent discount in the United States. That may not appeal to you, but it is a fact nevertheless. The New York Sun comes out and says: 'We must steady Canada.' That is the spectacle we are making in the eyes of our neighbors to the south of us. Because we are drunk, the steadying hand is being put out to us. How long can this spending last?

No Sign of Stop.

"There seems to be no inclination to stop it. The farmers have at last taken this up. Farmers have revelled in this borrowing. I do not give them credit for any more intelligence than the rest of the community. If they do not make ends meet this year they break up a little more land and work a few hours longer to make it up. Laborers are crying for shorter hours and more pay. They go to headquarters and ask for a license to charge more wages. There must be an end to this.

"The farmers' platform is, first, retrenchment in unnecessary things. We needn't talk of better roads. We needn't talk of subsidies. We needn't talk of better education and bigger schools. It is absolutely essential to make ends meet, and this platform of the U. F. O. is the first step.

Population Depleted.

He dwelt on the fact that the rural population was depleted and 70 per cent of the people were living on the 30 per cent, who were on the farms. The pity of it was that their hands were against those of their own children who had deserted the farms. He said that the farmers of themselves could do nothing unless they could make a strong enough case that would appeal to the better classes of the people in the populated centres. However, they had something that had never been tried before and he was positive it would not fail. They must not think of cleaning up Toronto or Ottawa until they had cleaned up their own door yard. Good men who knew the muck heap at Toronto or Ottawa refuse to go there and run a chance of besmirching their reputation. They would only go when they had the strong moral support of their constituents.

A. A. Powers of Durham chanted the funeral knell of the present administration at Ottawa. He dwelt on the national debt, and if there was anything the Government was not guilty of Mr. Powers just happened to forget it. He then read the platform of the U. F. O. which was for the first time presented at this meeting, as follows:

Platform of the U. F. O.

"Whereas the rural population of Ontario has been declining for many years, being now 139,000 less than it was in 1881, and this in spite of natural increase in population, immigration, and the extension of settlement;

"And whereas rural life has been rendered difficult and trying and farm production has been checked;

"And whereas the present condition in the rural districts is justly attributable to the unequal rewards of farm and town industry, owing to the dominance in Parliament and the Legislature of privileged urban interests;

"And whereas the provincial public debt has increased at an alarming rate (now exceeding $100,000,000), and the annual expenditure of the province has increased almost five-fold in the last fifteen years;

"And whereas both of the old parties are responsible for this state of affairs;

Seek Representation.

"We, the United Farmers of Ontario, therefore deem it our duty to ourselves and the province to seek independent representation in the Legislature, with the following objects:

1. To cut out all expenditures that are not absolutely essential.
2. To abolish the system of party patronage.
3. To limit governmental activity respecting commercial co-operation to legislation facilitating co-operative effort to the keeping of accurate records and to the general education along co-operative lines.
4. To provide equal educational opportunities for all the children of all the people by greatly extending and improving educational facilities in the rural districts.
5. To substitute for the policy of expensive provincial highways a policy of organized continuous road maintenance and of making good roads for all, rather than high-grade roads for a few; the cost of road construction and maintenance being equitably distributed between city and country.
6. To promote a system of forestry which will maintain and increase the public revenues from this source, protect and perpetuate our forest resources, reforest the waste places of old Ontario, and encourage municipalities to engage in forestation enterprises.

Cheapen Hydro-Electricity.

7. To encourage and cheapen hydro-electric development and maintain effective public control over it.
8. To enact and enforce such prohibitory legislation against the liquor traffic as the people may sanction in the approaching referendum and all that lies within the power of the province. Prohibition is an integral part of the farmers' platform and the U. F. O. will use its influence in that direction.
9. To extend the policy and practice of direct legislation through the initiative and the referendum.
10. To apply the principle of proportional representation to our electoral methods."

Rural Child Life.

Mrs. B. O. Allen, Fort William, a woman speaker of marked ability, dwelt on the necessity of the rural child life having the same healthful and sanitary conditions as the children of towns and villages.

Stewart Robinson of Paramount thought the convention was all wrong in not inviting the workingmen to this gathering. His plea was good, but got no support.

The attendance at the convention was exceptionally large and Gideon Ruttle of Huron was chosen candidate. All present were not members of the organization. Many Liberals and Conservatives were present as spectators. The gathering met without any prearranged plan of action and the first thing taken was the organization. The officers elected were: James Johnston, Bruce Township, president; J. R. Reid, Huron, vice-president; Wm. McCullough, Bruce Township, secretary. The various vice-presidents were named for the different townships.

Several Proposed.

When it came to the nominating of a candidate the following were named: J. H. Reid, Huron Township; James Johnston, Bruce Township; John Shiells, Huron Township; Gid Ruttle, Huron Township; Archie McLean, Bruce Township. All retired but Mr. McLean, and he finally pulled out and the convention made it unanimous for Mr. Ruttle, who was not present. It is understood he has accepted the nomination conditionally. He is the present reeve of Huron.

IT WAS SUICIDE, SAYS JURY AT PORT STANLEY

Identity of Man Found in River Is Still a Mystery.

PORT STANLEY, Aug. 12.—A verdict of death by suicide was returned by a coroner's jury here tonight at the inquest into the death of the unknown man whose body was found in the harbor here on Saturday morning last.

The jury were out about half an hour. There was not much evidence to be heard. The body had been found and had not been claimed by anyone. The identity of the man will likely remain a mystery, although some light was thrown on this vital question by a couple of witnesses tonight.

Basil Parker, a local fisherman, saw him on Fraser Heights on Tuesday, August 7, late at night. He talked to him and learned that the old man was from Strathroy. He had at one time worked on a farm there and in London. Parcell Goodhue, another fisherman, saw him that night on the bridge over the river. He talked to him and learned that the unknown was tired of life. He discussed the possibility of Port Stanley harbor as a means of suicide. He left Goodhue then and went along the dock towards the lake. The man was despondent and stated that he was crippled and tired of life. The description given by Mr. Goodhue corresponded with that of the dead body found.

Coroner Dr. Jackson of Union presided at the inquest and Crown Attorney McCrimmon acted for the crown.

SIR HERBERT AMES TO BE ON STAFF OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Offered and Has Accepted Office as Financial Director of Secretariat.

OTTAWA, Aug. 12.—The creation of the League of Nations involves the establishment at the seat of the league, which will probably be Geneva, Switzerland, of a permanent secretariat and Canada, being one of the signatory parties to the treaty of peace, has been invited to nominate a Canadian as financial director to that organization. It is announced at Ottawa that the prime minister has offered this important position to Sir Herbert Ames, M.P. for St. Antoine division of Montreal, and that he has accepted the appointment.

The duties attached to the position appear to be those of a sort of finance minister of internal economy. He is to prepare the budget, present the estimates at the annual meeting of the league council, arrange collection of assessments, supervise the expenditure of the secretariat and bring into operation a pension system for the league staff, all of which duties Sir Herbert, from his experience in the House and with the patriotic fund, it is believed, should be able to perform satisfactorily. A knowledge of the French language, which is the general medium of communication in diplomatic circles, will also be in the case of Sir Herbert a great advantage.

IMPROVING CENTRAL PARK AT INGERSOLL

INGERSOLL, Aug. 12.—The work at the new Central Park will include a cement wall along the north end from where there is a curve in the water course to a small bridge that crosses it. This wall will strengthen the bank and also serve an important purpose in the beautification plans of the park committee.

Work on the concrete paving on the south end of Thames street has been temporarily interrupted because of difficulties which developed. These were mainly in regard to surface drainage. New levels are now being taken and new devices employed for crowning.

It is expected the obstacles will soon be overcome and the work continued in accordance with the original plans.

IRON FOR STRENGTH

You need iron in the blood! Every healthy man or woman should have about as much iron in his or her body as there is in an ordinary railroad spike. To gain this iron, the best way is to take Tonal-Iron Capsules, a combination of iron in its most soluble form, recently discovered, and now having a marvelous sale. Tonal-Iron Capsules are a form of iron readily taken up by the blood. The blood cells get round, rich red in color, the cheeks are pink, the appetite improves, and one feels full of "snap"—"pep"—"vigor"—instead of tired before the day is half done. The eyes take on a lustre and the body feels that tingle which one gets from a cold bath.

For sale and guaranteed by all good druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of $1. Tonal-Iron Laboratories, Box 184, London, Ont. zxv

FUN AND ACTION IN DOROTHY GISH'S NEW PLAY, "NUGGET NELL"

Humor of Lively Little Star Is Irresistible in Photoplay at Majestic.

Dorothy Gish invariably is delightful in any screen characterization, but in "Nugget Nell," her latest Paramount picture which is being shown at the Majestic Theatre for the last time today, she is irresistible. This is a humorous travesty upon the wild and movie West which all alike will enjoy for its kindly satirical qualities. Miss Gish has a role which she handles with all the chic that won her fame in previous screen productions. She is well supported by capable players and in every respect "Nugget Nell" is vastly enjoyable.

BIG BLACKTON PRODUCTION AT THE MAJESTIC.

"A House Divided," which will be shown at the Majestic on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, was adapted by Anthony P. Kelly from Ruth Holt Boucicault's novel "The Substance of His House."

In "A House Divided" Sylvia Breamer and Herbert Rawlinson, the Blackton co-stars, have the leading roles, with Mr. Grossmith promising to give them a close race for stellar honors. Lieutenant Grossmith is an Englishman, born in London, where much of the action of "A House Divided" takes place. He is a son of George Grossmith, actor and entertainer, a nephew of Weedon Grossmith, and brother of George Grossmith, Jun., all well-known in the theatrical world of England, America and Canada. Associated with the leading players in "A House Divided" are the Blackton "kiddies," William Humphrey, Eric Mayne, Callie Crute, Marie Burke and Shirley Huxley.

An extra added attraction will be Montgomery Flagg's new satirical comedy "The Con in Economy; or the Follies of a Midnight Frolic."

GLADYS BROCKWELL IN BIG PHOTODRAMA AT THE PATRICIA

"The Divorce Trap" Showing For the Last Time Today.

Have you a bad temper?

If you have, and are married, you had better not live in Florida or Kentucky, or the divorce courts may get you. In these two states a bad temper is considered valid ground on which to annul a marriage.

"The Divorce Trap," the William Fox photoplay at the Patricia Theatre, will be shown today for the last time. It is a sure cure for bad temper. Gladys Brockwell has charmed audiences for the past week by her wonderful portrayal of the heroine.

ALICE BRADY IN "THE INDESTRUCTIBLE WIFE" AT THE GRAND TODAY

Feature Program Includes Vaudeville and Comedy Film.

"The Indestructible Wife," the newest Alice Brady feature, which will be shown at the Grand again today, is a comedy of rare fascination, which should not be missed by anyone. The story deals with Charlotte Ordway and her husband, Jimmy, who have just returned from their honeymoon. Charlotte is as fresh as a daisy, while her husband is completely exhausted from the endless round of strenuous athletic activities in which he has been forced to participate in order to keep up with his tireless wife. Jimmy decides that something must be done to tire out his wife. He meets Brandy, a professional athlete, and an old friend of his. In him he sees just the man to tire her out. Brandy monopolizes Charlotte, and Jimmy, left alone, starts a flirtation with Julia Cleves. Brandy tells Charlotte of the growing intimacy he has noticed between her husband and Julia, and suggests that she secure a divorce and marry him. Charlotte does not believe it until she sees Jimmy and Julia together. Jim loves Charlotte more than ever, but realizes that he has forfeited her respect. He decides to tame her as Petruchio did the Shrew. He kidnaps her and makes her a prisoner in a boathouse with him as her only companion. Charlotte rather enjoys the situation. Brandy tries to deliver her. He insults her and Charlotte throws him down the stairs. Jimmy sees Brandy descend to earth and is once more made happy.

In vaudeville on this bill today, Mme. Pozor, soprano, and Ernest Light, tenor, at the piano, present a refined offering, consisting of songs and piano selections.

SIX FIREMEN ESCAPE DEATH WHEN FIRE TRUCK HITS CURB

Speeding to Blaze, Motor Skids on Pavement and Is Badly Damaged.

Six firemen on Number 2 motor truck narrowly escaped death last night, when the truck skidded on the pavement at the corner of Adelaide and Simcoe streets and struck the curbing, smashing a front wheel, bending the axle and doing other minor damages while responding to a call at Forristall's cooper shop on Simcoe street.

The accident was unavoidable, and only for the quick action of Fireman George Milliken, who was driving the truck more serious damage might have resulted.

The fire at the cooper shop started in a shaving shed from a spark from the company's boiler, but only minor damage was done.

Owing to the accident to the fire truck it will be out of commission for at least a week, as repairs have to be sent from Toronto.

This accident adds another one to the already long list of smashups which have occurred to the city's fire trucks. Two have been completely demolished on account of railroad accidents on level crossings, while others have skidded on the pavements and done minor damage.

Firemen report that many times they have narrowly missed trains, while on level crossings and because of the high speed and power of the machine, the level crossings have to be closely watched by the drivers as they are approaching.

Number 1 truck stationed at the east end hall is the only truck that has not been damaged to any great extent. It is now the oldest truck in the service.

RESULTS OF ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS TO MODEL AND THE NORMAL SCHOOL

The candidates named below, under counties, have passed the lower school examination for entrance into the normal schools and faculties of education. In addition to the above they require to pass the middle school examination before they can be admitted to the normal schools, and the upper school examination before they can be admitted to the faculties of education. Those who have already passed either of these examinations are reminded that the normal schools open on Tuesday, September 16, at 9 a.m., and that application therefor must be made to the deputy minister of education not later than Wednesday, August 20. Application should be made at an early date. If applicants will state clearly on the forms when and where they passed the lower and middle school examinations for entrance into Normal School, they need not delay mailing such applications on account of not having received their certificates. For information concerning the faculties of education, applicants are referred to the registrar of the University of Toronto or of Queen's University, Kingston.

The answer papers of each candidate whose marks would appear to justify an appeal have been already re-read by the appeal examiners. Where such a candidate has still failed, the statement of marks will be stamped as re-read and no further appeal will be allowed. In all other cases of failure appeals will not be refused if made before September 1, and accompanied by the fee of $2. If made after September 1, the fee is $5. No appeal received after September 10 will be entertained.

Certificates and statements of the marks obtained by unsuccessful candidates are in the course of preparation, and will be mailed in due course to the principals, to whom all candidates are referred for further information.

The total number of successful candidates at the lower school examination this year is 2,514, compared with 1,492 in 1918, an increase of 1,022, or 68.9 per cent.

This year 56.8 per cent of those who wrote were successful as against 44.3 per cent last year.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND VETERANS EXPECTED TO ASSEMBLE HERE

Guard of Honor For Prince To Be Chosen From Returned Men.

Fifteen thousand veterans are expected to assemble in this city when H. R. H. the Prince of Wales makes a visit here on October 22 and 23. Col. W. G. Coles, president of the G. W. A. A., told the members of that organization at a general meeting held in the Masonic Temple Tuesday night. The Great War Veterans were going to have a great part in the celebration, he told them.

Men who wished to be placed on the guard of honor were asked to send in their names. From those submitted, 100 men and four sergeants will be chosen. They will be outfitted with new uniforms, chevrons and other details. A returned officer will be selected by the 7th Fusiliers to command the guard. The War Veterans are urging that he be taken from among them.

Comrade Woodward was elected as secretary of a committee of twelve which was nominated to act in conjunction with the executive committee in connection with the preparation for the festivities to be arranged for the royal visit.

Sergt. John Wilson of the Dominion police took exception to a recommendation of the executive committee which was to the effect that Inspector W. S. Duncan be replaced by a returned soldier, as head of the police. He thought that the inspector's name should not be mentioned specifically, but if such a recommendation was to be made that it apply to all inspectors of Dominion police in Canada. Mr. Duncan had had 30 years' experience as a detective, and he (Sergt. Wilson) had not heard of a returned man who could fill the position as well as him. The other veterans thought otherwise, and were in favor of the recommendation standing.

Comrade Maguire received first prize in the membership contest, he having enlisted 162 members. Comrade Murphy was second was 113, and Comrade Manella third, with 112.

Another membership drive will be made by the organization. This time four captains, Comrades Maguire, Pocock, Pugh and Foster, were elected to head four teams of 25 men each, to bring new members into the association. Prizes will be given for the best showing.

Comrade E. A. Pocock resigned from the executive committee because of the fact that the constitution prohibits associate members from being on that body.

No stand was taken on the temperance question because clause F. of the constitution of the association prevents the men from interfering in questions of this kind. The recommendation of the executive committee, namely, that no stand be taken, was accepted by the general meeting.

BOARD OF HEALTH WILL INVESTIGATE SLINK VEAL CASES

Question To Be Taken Up at Subsequent Meeting of That Body.

The board of health laid over the request of the city council to reconsider its recommendation of James Young as plumbing inspector for London at its meeting yesterday afternoon. The board's original recommendation was referred back at the last council meeting, some of the aldermen suggesting that a returned soldier be appointed. There was not a quorum of the board to deal with the matter yesterday.

Sergt. Fred Young of the trades and labor council and delegates from the plumbers' union appeared before the board, and urged that it reaffirm its first recommendation, claiming that the soldier suggested for the position had not even seen service in France.

J. H. Saunders, chairman of the committee, said he had received many anonymous letters in connection with the affair. He was in favor of letting the board's recommendation stand.

The question of slink veal will also come up at a subsequent meeting.

A letter was received from Chief Officer of Health John W. McCullough stating that the act in connection with this had been amended in 1916, permitting the sale of animals two weeks old instead of four weeks as formerly. "This was done after consultation with members of the Legislature, who are conversant with the meat business," he stated. Chairman Saunders thought the members were more than conversant with the business; they were greatly interested in it, and had suggested a change greatly to their own advantage.

No cases of typhoid originated in the city during the month, Dr. W. S. Downham, medical officer of health, stated. There are at present three cases, one of which came from the United States, another from Port Stanley, and the third being of a railroad man, who travels between some points some distance from London.

Inspector J. M. Scott reported a number of complaints regarding maggotty meat. The meat in each instance, he said, had come from the market, and had been due to flyblows. He suggested that the butchers be required to cover the meats with glass and netting. Some of the stalls already have glass covers over the tops of the counters, but there is nothing to prevent flies getting in at the back. The matter was laid over.

Mosquitoes are finding excellent breeding places in ponds on Adelaide street north, residents of that section reported. The ponds are formed in hollows, from which clay has been excavated for road work. They suggested that a layer of oil be placed on the water, or that the ponds be drained. The matter was referred to the city engineer.

Inspector Scott stated that in his monthly inspection he had found one small barber shop which he thought insanitary. He recommended that it be closed, and the board will consider action along this line.

The report on contagious diseases for the month showed ten cases of diphtheria, but no deaths. There were three diphtheria suspects, and one case of acute influenzal pneumonia. There were three deaths, in which it was not stated whether they were due to influenzal or primal pneumonia.

AUTOIST HAS NARROW ESCAPE ON C.P.R. LEVEL CROSSING AT MELROSE

Motorists do not like the C. P. R. level crossing at Melrose.

A local motorist while trying to pass a team on this crossing yesterday was very nearly forced down a ten-foot bank. The crossing is built of loose sand and cinders, and is not wide enough for two vehicles to pass on, as the road gives way when a heavy weight gets within a foot and a half of the side. The only thing that saved this man from having a ruined car was a stout fence which held up the road and the car.

After using a great deal of language and some planks off the C. P. R. fences in the vicinity the car was extricated without any damage being done. It is too bad to think that a rich company like the Canadian Pacific should leave dangerous crossings on a main road. Autoists are advised to watch their step on this crossing.

JOINT EXCURSION TO CLEVELAND BY COMMERCE CHAMBER

An excursion to Cleveland will be made on the "Theodore Roosevelt" on Wednesday, August 27, under the joint auspices of the London Chamber of Commerce and the St. Thomas Board of Trade. Arrangements were made yesterday afternoon in the Tecumseh House by a committee representing the two organizations. A splendid schedule of entertainment was formed, which will greatly assist in making the outing a notable success. The boat will leave Port Stanley at 8:30 on the morning of August 27, and the lake will be crossed in four hours, giving the passengers the whole afternoon in Cleveland, as the return voyage will not start until 7 o'clock. The return trip rates from London will be $2.30 and from St. Thomas $2.10.

The committee which made the final arrangements yesterday consisted of the following members of the St. Thomas Board of Trade: Mayor Horton, Treasurer W. G. Whiteside, Secretary J. L. Lodge, C. Montgomery, C. S. Butler and W. A. McIntyre. The London and Port Stanley Railway was represented by Philip Pocock and Messrs. Richards and Copeland, and the steamship company by Messrs. Oliver and Forman.
