Kingston, Aug. 16.—Asked by the Canadian Press today con-cerning Judge Denton's decision that the Ontario betting act is ultra vires, Hon. W. F. Nickle, atorney-general, said he most cer-tainly would appeal the decision.

Special to The Advertiser. Toronto, Aug. 16 .- Judge Denton gave his decision today in the cases easily again. For the past week the of Samuel and Minnie Lichtman, charged with publishing race track betting information contrary to the Ontario act. His Honor declared he could come to no other conclusion than that the Ontario legislation had no jurisdiction to pass the act.

The cases against Lichtman were therefore dismissed, the crown stated that the summonses against 10 other news agents would be withdrawn. 'Are you going to appeal?" The Advertiser asked crown attorney Mc-"That depends upon instructions from the attorney general," he replied. With the seizure of several cases of liquor at the freight sheds, ru-mors became current to the effect that the liquor had been sent here under a false bill of lading, for transshipment to the United States by means of aeroplanes. Rumor even went so far as to claim that the machine was even now on the way here. Several reasons were advanced by the men spoken to as to London's unsuitability as a smuggling center, the first being that there were many places much nearer the border than this city which would offer many more inducements, both in the way of safety and hiding places.

gation was started as to its business. London is not a city that would be picked out for merely pleasure or egitimate commercial flying, and the result of a machine making daily or even weekly flights from this city in a westerly direction, would be a search for the location of its hangar and the men interested.

"The Whisper of Death."

The opinion comes from Ottawa that the series of erticles appearing in the Montreal Star under the caption quoted above find inspiration in a desire politically to destroy Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, former prime minister, and now leader of the Conservative opposition, and supplant him in party affections by another who may be more acceptable to the interests of Quebec.

Primarily it is supposed the Star's rooted objection to Mr. Meighen is based on the latter's staunch advocacy of public ownership. But the animosity strikes more sincerely revered or has a larger following than deeper than that. Lord Atholstan, proprietor of the the great god Speed. From the time we first toddle on Montreal daily, apparently attributes the present low ebb of Conservative destinies to the personality of the thing near us, and falling and rising with a grim Conservative leader. Mr. Meighen has few, if any, determination to reach our goal, to the end of our real friends and his sense of humor is nil. Open charges of autocracy have been made against him and

Obviously Quebec cannot be won over so long as Mr. line political parties. This, apparently, is what Mon-

But one quality for fession. leadership is a certain geniality and good fellowship calculated to endear the leader to the hearts of his sup- experiment and delving into problems that never porters. The Conservative chief is plainly lacking in occurred to the older generation, or if they did, as somethis requisite. His greatest enemy is his own bitterness and inability to see a human side to state questions. His tongue is too warm and his heart is too cold.

Whether correct or not, the Ottawa opinion will come as a distinct relief, for the Star's mystery has fight with nearly all the diseases. The eager mind puzzled many of its readers until they wonder whether and courageous spirit of men who are still physically the articles may have been inspired by a desire to play young goes on to still more daring conquests. The reader of "The Whisper of Death" cannot but wonder what it all means. An attack upon the C. P. R. may be popular with a proportion of the Star's readers, but the editor of that newspaper seems to have forgotten his history. The lands of which he complains constituted a concession granted by a grateful government to the Canadian Pacific Railway as an inducement to build the original road, and it is difficult to see how these can now be commandeered without substantial recompense to the owners. Canada is not Russia, and it must not be forgotten that in the days of the Russian czars a similar condition existed, yet the seizure of private undeveloped lands at that time was roundly condemned by every civilized government and newspaper, including

It is obvious that the shrewd directors of the Canandian Pacific are not without knowledge of the Star's activities, but to date they have made no attempt publicly to justify themselves against the editorial inference that their action in holding their properly granted lands is directly against the best interests of the country. Is it possible that the present owners would not be averse to government confiscation of their western holdings, thus paving the way for a huge claim for compensation, ridding themselves of a burden at a considerable profit, and passing the liability to the people? Or is the Star honestly desirous of working for the public good without the proverbial lurking Ethiopian in the underbrush?

If the Star is honestly earnest, there is a solution. If the lands of the West which are causing that paper such concern are really needed for settlement they can be obtained without the trouble of commandeering. All that is necessary is to tax them at the same rate as developed lands, and their owners will be forced either to develop or sell, for not even the Canadian Pacific Railway can afford to hold millions of acres under a system whereby accumulating tax costs will speedily consume values. The Star seems to be tilting at windmills at the expenditure of much newspaper space.

Mr. Larkin Can Help.

The present visit to Canada of Hon. P. C. Larkin, outstanding Canadian, who now occupies the position of Canadian High Commissioner in London. should afford an excellent opportunity for the people at large to obtain much valuable information upon several Important phases of Canada's relation with the Mother Country, not in the political or economic sense, but in the more utilitarian fields of settlers and trade.

Of most importance to Canada is the obtaining of the right class of settlers, and the best in the world are to be found in the agricultural classes of Great Britain and Ireland. No country in the British Empire can shocked the world a year or so ago? offer a better future for the newcomer willing to work than is to be found in Canada, and yet it is surprising to learn that while the influx of new blood to this country is not large, Australia is acquiring men and women at a rate far surpassing the arrivals in the average Canadian year. Hon. Mr. Larkin, from his firsthand knowledge and his wealth of business experience, will doubtless have valuable suggestions to offer as to a emody for this. Unquestionably he is aware of the Australian situation and of Canada's need, and if he feels that the immigration policy pursued by this country is not suited to meet present conditions he career in Canada he has given abundant evidence of terday contains the frank admission of a big-minded

This settlement question is one which does not apply alone to the West, although the need of people to fill the prairie spaces there is certainly pressing. At the same time there is no better field in all Canada than The Advertiser was established in 1863 and is published four times daily by The London Advertiser Company, Limited. The subscription rates are: London, 15 cents weekly. As a man of many interests, there will, no doubt, be many demands upon the all too brief time Mr. Larkin will be able to spend in the Dominion, but it will be decidedly to the profit of the country if he can find time and opportunity to disseminate the information he must have and of which Canadians are in need. His visit should afford a golden opportunity for Canada to learn.

Speed's the Thing.

Of all the numerous gods that this hurrying age has erected to receive its homage and adoration none is unsteady legs, holding on with prehensile grip to anyworldly tether, it is speed that we seek.

Schools and the Home.

Ever since nationalization first gained prominence in politics and in the sphere of sociology it has been the subject of bitter attack or enthusiastic support from the Paint from her shoes all over the two parties affected by it. A smaller field of action is found in the ever-increasing ownership of various departments of child welfare by municipalities. All the public schools that are being built now are supplied with auditoriums. Without this adjunct to the attractiveness of the building the modern Canadian school would seem strangely lacking in equipment. There are, nevertheless, many parents and guardians of children in London who look askance at this invasion, car they think it can lick a loco as they see it, of the rights of the home. They complain with a modicum of truth and a vivid memory of their own school days that after all the basis of education lies in the home, and that if children seldom have time to stay at home the root of personal, and in the long run national, character is being insidiously undermined.

There is, too, another side of the question from the point of view of the parents. They themselves suffer by loss of contact with their children—a state of affairs almost as serious as the former. They see on all sides the invitation of the streets growing by leaps and hounds. The picture houses claim their share of young children, many of whom go straight from the afternoon classes to see their favorite in somé new picture.

So parents resent, rightly or wrongly, the fact that the schools extend their sphere of influence into the evenings, when the home tie should be strongest and when the father and mother have most time to get to "Am reading a book in which the author refers to 'sea-legs." What are sea-legs?"—Subscriber. Have you ever been to Port Stanley Beach? know their family and to get to grips with the problem that confronts the eager minds of youth.

Every step taken by the progress of our civilization in the last two centuries has either directly or indirectly reply, "This is so sudden!" tended to lessen the bond of the fireside and to bring the education of children, not only in the matter of books, but also in the way of character building, into the highways and byways. Perhaps some of the problems that educationalists face in the lack of interest in schools and school life, would be very much simplified if training in the virtues that are best learned from a mother's knee and from the lips of a real Dad, who has You left me disheartened, abandoned time to understand the needs of his children mentally. morally and physically, was sounder and based on a stronger home foundation.

TO THE EDITOR.

to further the interests and maintain The Editor of The Advertiser:
The church unionists of the Presbyterian Church must be hard put to the standards of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, or in the world or arguments that justify their present course of action in seeking legistion to do what they acknowledge by that action the General Assembly annot do, because it is not united. The article which is to appear in the Presbyterian Witness on Aug. 16. out which already has appeared in the daily press in synopsis, reveals that the campaign for effecting church union is from now on to be a campaign of deception. Not content with telling Presbyterians to follow no divisive course to retain their church; to remain quiescent or asleep until the legislation is passe been robbed of their church, now they are to be told that church union will make no difference. For example: St. James Presbyterian, and if so, then, to be logical, any other Presbyterian church, will remain Presbyterian. If that is so, then why all the bother and the enormous expense, and why split the church But everyone who has studied the basis of union and the proposed legislation, knows very well that this is not so; that the so-called "Model United Church" is not Presbyterian. for, if it were, no Methodist or Congregationalist would give up his own ch for that substitute. Let the church unionists be fair and rank with the people. Let them tell the people that a new era has dawn ed, and that we have done with the their day and generation, and we have a new united church 'national indigenous church." cause this is not either the Dark or Middle Ages, but an age in which the people are enlightened, and are only oo quick to discern the camouflages in a campaign of deception.

A somewhat misleading statement was recently issued by the committee on church union appointed by the last General Assembly, which calls for some attention. We are informed that the Presbyterian Church is now iefinitely committed to union; that the question of union is now settled finally; that applicatio to parliament forthwith for enabling legislation. Congregations are warni against divisive efforts which might upset the deeply-conceived and well-laid plans of the union leaders to bring the magnificent history of the Presbyterian Church to an abrupt end by the obliteration of its name and standard.

The Presbyterian Church Association wishes to state emphatically that the action of the majority in the last General Assembly does not commit the church to union as her policy. The assembly is not the church, and the people have not been consulted on this policy of the assembly.

Old Mr. Toad Scolds the Young Chuck For His Impertinence

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Old Mr. Toad was so angry over being laughed at by the runaway young Chuck, who had discovered him changing his clothes, that he swelled up until the young Chuck really became afraid he would burst.
"Hasn't your mother taught you any manners?" demanded Old Mr. Toad. "Don't you know that it isn't polite to laugh at people even when there is something to laugh at, and worse still to laugh at them when there is nothing to laugh at? You ought to be taught a lesson in politeness, young fellow."

At this the young Chuck laughed harder than ever. "Do what again?" demanded Old

"Take your suit off and swallow t," replied the young Chuck.
This was too much for Old Mr. Toad. Of course he couldn't have taken off that new suit and swallowed it if he had wanted to. But

2 RUNS, 3 HITS, 0 ERRORS. The crowd that jammed its way into the west-end ball yard brought back memories of the days when Bill Morrisette was trying to get the edge on the London Minters, and all London wanted to be present when he fell down on the job. Yesterday afternoon's attendance didn't all get out of the line-up and into the park until along about the fourth or fifth. Then they couldn't all find seats.

The game was London's—had they chosen to hold what they had. Four big runs off the invincible Danny in the first seemed too good to be true, but when "Hank" Down and company added another in the third it seemed as if the skids had been well greased St. Thomas — Herb Smith playing right field for London. Coleman made a sensational running catch of Billings' foul fly. Riseboro's scratched to Mulhall. Cabot doubled to center scoring Riseboro and went to third on the throw. Meredith popped out to Reilly. McWaine took McPhee's pop in as if the skids had been well greased under Danny.

The Saints tripped into the dugout, wheel off the surplus perspiration, selected their trusty bats, and, in unison, the St. Thomas section of the stands took up the war-cry. It was unintelligible to anyone not in the know, was this tumultuous din, but evidently the Saints were well versed. Binns started it with a bullet-like foul off third that grazed his coacher's ears. His next swing was better, and went for a clean single. Arlein walked, and a wild pitch advanced the pair a base. Billings and Riseboro singled before Cabot altered things with three straight swings. Binns had scored on Billings' wallop, and now McWaine obligingly dropped Meredith's high pop-fly, allowings Billings and Riseboro to count. McPhee fanned before Meredith was thrown out stealing.

The Saints tripped into the dugout, ing Riseboro and went to third on the throw. Meredith popped out to Reiling. McWaine took McPhee's pop in left.

Two hits and three errors gave the Saints a pair in the eighth, but London came back with surprising strength and daring in the last of the ninth tieing it all up. Isaacs smacked one of Danny's pet offerings to the scoreboard for three cushions, just when Danny had three strike-outs all counted out

Cabot in right, and, deciding that he was playing to close in, hammered another triple over his head to the gate, scoring Isaacs. Reilly laid a timely single in left, scoring Mulhall. Doherty sacrificed him, but he was out on Down's choice a moment later.

The wjnning run resulted from Riseboro's scratch to Mulhall in the tenth.
Cabot's double to deep center did the damage. And McPhee took all three London batters in the tenth by the strike-out route.

Tillsonburg. Aug. 15.—About two hours before today's decisive O. B. A a game with Ingersoll, the local cub officials received a solar plexus blow from the executive at Toronto, informing them that Moyer. Stillwell and Frains, three of the strongest men on the line-up, had been suspended on complaint from another team in the Oxford-Elgin League, and both Ingersoll and Tillsonburg received this latest tactic as a hit below the belt. Nevertheless, the Tillsonburg team went into the game thus weakened and covered itself with glory, winning the game 12 to 5, giving them the right to meet the Guelph Outfit here on Saturday afternoon in the semi-finals. It was the largest crowd in the history of local baseball, hundreds coming from Ingersoll and the surrounding district. Wood went the entire game for Tillsonburg, while Kelly for the visitors was batted out of the box in the seventh Inning. Bunched hits, including doubles in the first and fourth, netted seven runs in each frame. The odd counter came in the third. Six St. Marys' errors aided the scoring landslide. W. Miles was given airtight support, the only slip-up on his team being credited to himself.

FLINT BEATS KAZOO

Special to The Advertiser.

Bay City, Mich., Aug. 15.—Saginaw by virtue of a double success over Bay City here today by scores of 8 to 6 and 3 to 1, the first contest going twelve innings and the latter seven frames, crept up close to the Knollmen.

Inability of the league leaders to hit when hits meant runs cost the Wolves the first game, after Jeanes' home run in the ninth with a man on base had tied the score at six all. In the second contest, a pitcher's battle, a glaring error by Harris and a bad peg to third base by Heitzman gave the Aces their scoring chances, which they grabbed.

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 15. — The golden fleece of lawn tennis of 1923 will be before the eyes of tennis players who have travelled thousands of miles to battle tomorrow for Davis Cup laurels on the neutral courts of the Longwood Cricket Club at Chestnut Hill in the first of the final round matches.

At 3 o'clock Rene Lacoste, 19-year-old Continental sensation, will carry the tricolor of France against James O. Anderson, veteran leader of the Australian forces, in the opening match of the final tie. Immediately after their encounter Jacques Brugnon, oldest of the French invaders, will oppose John B. Hawkes, the Melbourne left-hander, in another singles contest. On Friday the same players probably will figure in the doubles, and the order of Thursday's singles will be reversed for the wind-up of the series in the last two matches Saturday Associated Press Despatch.

BELIEVE TIPLITZ STRUCK FILIPINO BELOW BELT

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Aug. 15.—Joe Tiplitz of Philadelphia knocked out Elimo Flores of the Philippines in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-battle tonight. Flores claimed a foul, but the referee declared the knockout was fair. Flores weighed 127 and Tiplitz 138.

Flores was floored by a left that appeared to be low, and was carried from the ring apparently writhing in pain. The referee ruled that the finishing blow was fair, although a majority of the newspapermen at the ringside thought it was low.

A bout between Benny Valgar of New York and Freddy Jacks of England was stopped by the referee after a minute of fighting in the first round. Jacks, who appeared as a substitute for Ever Hammer of Chicago, falled to land a blow, and was made helpless by Valgar's punches. Associated Press Despatch.

GRAHAM ON MOUND

Special to The Advertiser.

Guelph, Aug. 15.—Galt Terriers, Ontario senior, amateur baseball champions of 1922, took the jump on the Guelph Maple Leafs in the first of home and home games to decide intercounty supremacy of 1923 here this afternoon, the Terriers taking the long end of a 3 to 2 count that was always in doubt until the last of the ninth inning. To Friendy Graham, Galt's little right-hand twirler, in a large measure goes credit for the victory. He turned in probably the best game of his career, holding the heavy-hitting Leafs to four safe hits, two of which came in the fourth when Pequegnat hammered out a circuit clout to deep right after Little had got on with a clean single. Kress, playing right field for the Terriers, misjudged Pequegnat's high or it would have been a sure putout. The fourth was the only time during the game that Graham was in trouble, his hurling throughout being masterly. In addition, he was given superb support, he himself being responsible for the Terrier's only miscue, a throw to second hitting Brown, who was on the path and bounced to centre, the base runner advancing.

MISFORTUNE STRIKES

Mrs. Beamish, Through Illness, Forced To Default in Singles.

Associated Press Despatch.
Forest Hills, Aug. 15.—Five United States and three British stars remained in the running for the national women's singles championship today when the third round was completed on the turf courts of the West Side Tennis Club. Competition for the national doubles title was narrowed down to one British and seven United States pairs at the end of the second round.

Misfortune struck the ranks of the British invaders when the illness of Mrs. Geraldine Beamish obliged her to default to Miss Helen Hooker of Greenwich. Conn., in the singles, and also contributed later to her defeat in the doubles, partnered with Mrs. R. C. Clayton, by two youthful United States players, Miss Ceres Baker of Orange, N. J., and Miss Lillian Scharman of New York.

The default of Mrs. Beamish in the singles prevented fhifillment of prospects for an all-international line-up tomorrow in the fourth round.

Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, campaigning for her eighth national title, won a decisive victory over Miss Mayme MacDonald of Seattle.

All three of the remaining Britishers in the singles played convincingly in gaining their, fourth-round brackets, particularly Miss Kathleen McKane, ranking star of the invading team. She quickly disposed of Mrs. W. M. Shedden of Boston, 6—1, 6—1, and tomorrow faces Miss Helen Wills, Berkley, Cal., school girl.

Mrs. Covell and Mrs. Clayton were the other English women to advance.

If Giants and Yankees Maintain Ratio, Traveling Will Be Easy.

wood. Then you are sure of SIX WEEKS TO GO

Special to The Advertiser. Copyright. New York, Aug. 15. - With the finish of the major league season just six weeks away, the two front runners, the New York clubs, appear to have a big advantage over the other clubs to retain their position right down to the finish. If the Glants win 28 more games and the Yankees 32, which would simply be maintaining the ratio at which they have been traveling to this date, they are almost certain to be winners.

Here is the simplest way to figure on the chances of the two New York teams. Take it on the morning of August 15, because that is as good as any other day. Have 72 Victories.

The Giants have 72 victories and W. 38 defeats. To continue winning at the same ratio, which is not an impossible one, they must finish the season with 28 more victories. That would give them an exactly even 100 away from the percentage train on which they are traveling now. From now until the finish of the season, by winning 28 games and losing 16, they are as reasonably sure of the championship as the sun is of shining. They may have an awful break and drop ten or eleven games in a row, but it does not look that way. That, too, is the only way in which Pass on next to the Yanks. Take They have 70 victories and 36 defeats That gives them 48 games to play. If they win 32 and lose 16 they will be playing about the same quality of baseball they have played all season. That will give them 102 victories and 52 defeats; not far from the total of the Giants. As both teams have played to some extent identithe Giants have just a trifle the harder fight. It would be logical to expect them to finish with the Yanks perhaps a little better off than their

The foregoing is absolutely a perfect index to the finish of the cham-pionship, barring the collapse of either New York team, or both, and, of course, you can't demonstrate figures until it takes place. Furthermore, both leaders seem to have gone by the stage of

There was a time when Cincinnati threatened the Giants prospects. While New York stood still, the Reds came on with a rush, gaining nearly 100 points. Since the Giants went out to Cincinnati and spanked the out to Cincinnati and spanked the Reds, the parlor lamp has gone out It was suggested when the season began that 95 games would win the championship of 1923. None of First 30 Connaught Marksmen Fall Below 92 Points.

Canadian Press Despatch Connaught Ranges, Aug. 15 .- Despite poorer shooting weather, the average scores at the shoot for the governor general's match, shot here today, are much higher than last year. Pte. B. W. Beaumont of Vancouver led the score with 100 points out of a possible 105, with 100 points out of a possible 105, despite the wind and mirage, which made shooting difficult. None of the first 30 marksmen shot scores below 92, which was the highest score of the first series of the match at last year's meeting of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association. Beaumont was very consistent in his shooting. On the 200-yard range he made a possible of 35, dropping to 31 out of a possible of 35, dropping to 31 out of a possible 35 on the 500-yard range and gaining again on the 600 yards when he made 34. Corporal J. A. Bowen, Edmonton, and Lieut. A. Skinner, Fort William, both made possibles on the low ranges, but fell down slightly on the long shooting.

Second Series Friday.

The second series of the governorgeneral's match, open to the highest 150 competitors in the first stage, shot today, will be held on Friday morning on the 300 and 600 yard ranges. This match is one of the biggest events of the meeting, and bears heavily on the aggregates for the picking of the Bisley team. Three team trophies were shot for in conjunction with the governor-general's match, but the average scores will not be compiled until tomorrow. These are the Gordon Highlander trophy, the Jubilee trophy and the Bostock Memorial trophy.

The first stage of the MacDonald* "Brier" match was fired here this morning under ideal shooting conditions. Although only a short range—200 yards—no spectacular shooting was

Corsets That Give You Comfort and Modish Lines

It is decidedly an achievement to be well corseted on the lines demanded by one's frock and one's figure, and yet to feel so supple and unrestrained that dancing and general sports are a sheer pleasure. That these Corsets achieve this result commends them to your critical observation. Clasp around, wrap around, front lace or back laced they come—so, surely, whatever your choice, it will be satisfied here. No matter what the natural deficiencies of your figure may be, they can be overcome by wearing a correctly fitted Corset.

MAYOR ASSERTS HIS CRITICS ARE OBSTRUCTIONISTS

Says He Was Unfairly Removed From Special Committee in His Absence.

ALD. JUDD REPLIES MAYOR'S STATEMENT

"It's just the old game of obstruc tion, as played by the two supreme obstructionists in this year's council," said the mayor today in reference to the action of No. 1 committee yesterday when they appointed Ald. Greer to succeed the mayor on a committee to see the chief of po-lice on the question of the Ison re-

"Why," continued the mayor, "that question was all settled long ago in the ordinary way. The settlement was left in the mayor's hands. I consulted with the police commission and after knowing their decision, stated that the money would be given to Sergeant O'Connor. You had the story in The Advertiser and both Ald. Greer and Ald. Judd must have known that quite well.

"As regards the satary question, it was Ald. Judd himself at one of the council meetings who proposed that it be left over until the report of the citizens research institute was rendered. It shows the childishness of this member, that he is so eager to oppose me that he even proposes to veto his own suggestion made before the whole council. Mayor Aggrieved. The mayor was distinctly ag-grieved at the action of No. 1 com-mittee yesterday and continued with some heat: "If the idea of increasing salaries is all that some aldermen have to think about it is high time they retired from a share in the gov-ernment of the city. My idea is that the profits most who serves best and I believe that salaries are earned when the service of the official is complete. "It's just a proof of the old saving that when the cat's away the mice will play. The men who criticised me yesterday did so because I was not there, but they can't get away with it just the same." Ald. Judd has an entirely different view of the situation. "If the mayor says that the question of the Ison reward is settled and that the police commission have finally agreed to give the money to the sergeant, all I can say is that this is the first that No. 1 committee or myself have heard of it. Then as to the salary problem. 1 moved that the whole question be postponed until the report of the sur-vey was brought in, on the distinct

The news that the South Brant member had headed a local delegation, which interviewed Premier Ferguson and At-torney-General Nickle in Toronto, and had asked that he be again appointed magistrate for Brantford set the city by the ears yesterday and is the only topic of conversation in Brantford today. When seeh after he meeting, Premier Ferguson said that he was informed that the city council of Brantford was a unit in the move to reinstate the magistrate Your correspondent interviewed thirteen of the sixteen members of the council, the other three, Messrs W. H. Freeborn, W. H. Ballantyne and J. J. Fisher, being out of town. Two members, Alderman J. F. Mc-Cann and E. Cannally and the council of the coun Cann and E. Campbell, came out flatfooted as favoring the reinstatement, while a few did not commit themselves, but the majority are opposed to the move. Aldermen McCann and Campbell, while personally in favor of the idea, both admitted that they did not think that the council as a whole was behind the suggestion. Premier Ferguson also stated that the city is asking to be allowed to pay Mr. Livingstone's salary and that he had promised to take the matter under consideration and to inquire into it thoroughly. Nearly all the aldermen remarked that the first they had heard of the idea was when they read the papers yesterday Mayor Billo stated that the personnel of the delegation was unknown to him. As for the statements that had been made, that the city council was a unit in asking for his reinstatement, he pointed out that no one had the authority to make any such declaration. As for

Your Home and You

NAMING THE HOME.

How often do we hear this sort of directions for reaching the homes of our friends, whether in the city or the country!

"Well, you turn in the first road after leaving the main Stockport road. Our place is just past a little red stone cottage, and you can tell it by the clump of birches at the left of the entrance." Or "Cherry-street is right after Williams, you know, the third street after you cross Main. There isn't on the country as they do throughout England and especially in Bermuda? Two or three years ago I visited these lovely coral islands, and one of the things that impressed me most was the fact that even the houses along the streets had their names on their gate posts. As for the places out on the country roads, where the houses were completely hidden from sight, the name on the entrance gates guided the visitor unerringly. With roads clearly marked with signs, and private

"Tanlae helped me the very day I commenced taking it, over a year ago, and I regained all my health and strength and fourteen pounds in weight, declared Mrs. Alice Ogglesby, 132 Maitland street, London, Cnt.

"At the time I got Tanlac my nealth had been poor for four years. Sometimes I would go all day and eat nothing but tea and toast. I couldn't walk more than a hundred yards without becoming so short of breath my heart palpitated until I thought sure it would stop beating I just dreaded to see night come, for I was so nervous I couldn't sleep.

"Well, I feel fine now, although it's been fully a year since Tanlac restored my health and built me up so wonderfully. I can walk for miles with no discomfort. My appetite is wonderfully. I can walk for miles with no discomfort. My appetite is better than ever, and it's a pleasure to retire, for I sleep like a child every night. I am the happiest wone of us has gone in at least three door all isn't a name more personal and describing the condition of the bounder. There's, a wistaria on the front porch."

Cynthia Grey's MAIL BOX

HASTY.

Dear Cynthia Grey: Your prompt answer to the follow-ing questions will be greatly appre-At an informal wedding where the bride is unattended does she wear self in the absence of a bridesmaid -or does the groom struggle with it correct to lay them aside when her glove should be removed, or in what way should they be held?

HASTY.

Does she remove the left one her-

I think I should wear the gloves, "Hasty," if I were you. Not because they are absolutely necessary, but be cause you want to be as nice as pos stble on your wedding day, don't you' And after all, gloves are the correct thing. But by no means let the poor groom struggle over the left one, when all he can think about is getting that ring on good and tight.

After all the man has the worst of it on the wedding day. Whatever he may have afterwards, so don't make things too hard for him. It's quite simple for you to remove your own glove, but be sure you have tried it on several times wedding, so that it is loose, and will not stick at the important moment. Better still, leave it unbuttoned, and so cause no delay in the ceremony. If you are wearing a wedding gown, you will carry flowers, of course. I don't think I'd lay them down. It might be difficult finding a place and have to resort to the floor, wouldn't it? A pretty way would be to hand them to some girl friend who is standing near, even though she is not an attendant at the wedding. A child, old enough not to drop the wearing a suit or tailored gown, how-ever, the proper thing is to wear ever, the proper thing is to wear corsage bouquet of flowers. And that presents no difficulty whatever during the ring ceremony. I do hope everything will go smoothly and here's the best of wishes from the Mail Box

Two Women You Know

HERE'S the one who puts 'on her street costume, dabs a bit of powder on her nose, and sallies forth to shop. She looks here, there and everywhere. She hunts and hunts and h-u-n-t-s. When she arrives back home she is jazzy and jaded-all mussed up, mentally and physically.

There's the other who really has learned the shopping art. She reads the advertisements before she starts out. She finds out exactly what she wants and where to get it. Then she goes straight downtown and right to the store that has it. In this way she saves time, money and effort. She comes home fresh as a daisy, and ready to get the family a good dinner, instead of wishing they could go to a cafeteria.

And the moral is: "A Straight Line Is the Shortest Distance Between Two Points."

Special to the Advertiser.
Wall Street. New York, Aug 16.
The upward tendency predominated again on the Stock Exchange today.
No efforts were made to force the pace. The impression given was that of an extended short interest endeavoring to cover without bidding up prices too much. Prices changed very little at first, then buying was resumed, carrying the leaders to the best they have reached in the recovcrossed 22 for the first time this year.

Inasmuch as bear operations have recently been particularly active in the Northwestern Railway issues, it

Can Aspelli was not surprising to see stocks like St. Paul's and Great Northern Preferred feel the effect of the short covering movement. There was also active buying for short account in New Hayen, following the reply by New Haven, following the reply by the directors of the company to the strictures of the New England Railway committee. This reply did not clear away the main difference of the New Haven position but it did on the later of the New Haven position, but it did exports confidence that the 1925 loan Invincible Oil could be extended if necessary, and it stated the willingness of the board to consider a recapitalization plan which would cut down existing fixed

LONDON BANK CLEARINGS

Bank clearings at London for the week ending Thursday, Aug. 16, totaled $2,772,144 For the corresponding week in 1922 the figures were $2,265,047, an increase for the current week of $507,097.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Aug. 15.—The raw sugar market was quiet early today. No additional sales were reported, and prices were unchanged, at 4½c for Cubas, cost and freight, equal to $6.03 for centrifugal. The raw sugar futures market was easier at the outset under scattered liquidation, prompted by the light inquiry, with prices at one time showing declines of 5 to 13 points. Later the market rallied on covering and trade buying, and at midday was 3 points higher to 8 points lower. The demand for refined sugar continued light, and prices were unchanged, at $7.90 for fine granulated. It was reported that second-hand sugars were available below this quotation. Refined futures were nominal.

Montreal, Aug. 16.—The undertone of the local market shows distinct sign of improvement. Brokers report a good number of inquiries from the public as The most active stock of the forenoon was Brazilian Traction, with a turnover of more than 1,000 shares.
Judging from the action of the market the activity would seem to be the result of liquidation, probably due to the break in Brazilian Milreis in New York and Montreal. From an opening of 44½ the price declined to 44. Bell Telephone improved fractionally to 122½.
Montreal Power remained firm at 120 and Quebec Railway attracted considerable attention at the advance price of 18% to 19.

TODAY'S OPENING PRICES. Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, Aug. 16.—With the government report indicating 15.5 per cent reduction of winter wheat seeding this fall, wheat prices had an upward tendency today in the early dealings. Higher quotations at Liverpool counted also as a bullish factor, and so too did lilinois and Iowa rains, likely to delay threshing. On the upturns in prices filinois and lowa rains, likely to dealy threshing. On the upturns in prices here, however, offerings increased, and temporary reactions took place. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures of ½c higher, was followed by a moderate setback from the initial top level, and then by a material advance all around.

to his hand; see with what zest he flings it!

Most of us get a two weeks' holiday just about now. What is your holiday going to do for you?

Do you, as a rule, get two weeks' benefit out of your precious fortnight? You don't. You go away to different surroundings, breathe different air, eat different food. All these should be beneficial. But you know that often after a week you feel little benefit, perhaps

The familiar feeling of tiredness, the lack of physical strength and energy to get full enjoyment from your holiday, is due to your internal system being first of all tired and then more or less upset by the sudden change. What you need is Kruschen Salts now to tone up the system, to set your liver and kidneys they restore sluggish liver and kidneys to full activity so that every impurity is cleansed from the body, every ounce of good is derived from your food. New, clear blood tingles all over you, to refresh every fibre of the system.

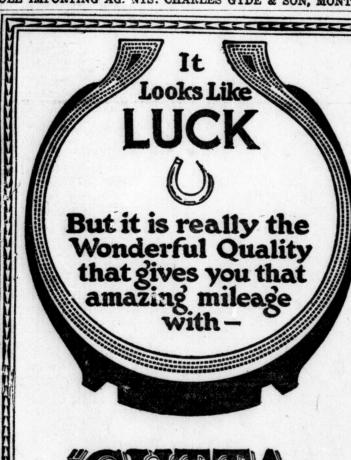

Fere's the dear old boy at no benefit at all; that the his best and breeziest, making second week sets you up and MUTT AND JEFF.

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day

A 75c bottle of Kruschen Salts contains daily use is "as much as will lie on a 16 160 doses—enough for three months—which means bounding health for less than half of coffee or tea. Every druggist sells a cent a day. The dose prescribed for Kruschen. Get a 75c bottle to-day. SOLE IMPORTING AG. NTS: CHARLES GYDE & SON, MONTREAL

Patrick Riley, However, Gets Chance To Carry On To Wingham.

Patrick Riley was fortunate this morning. Appearing in police court charged with being intoxicated, Pat with no preliminary excuses pleaded guilty. But there were extenuating circum stances, and Deputy Magistrate Glad-man took them into consideration. Pat is a peddler, and was ready to start for Wingham yesterday afternoon when he lapsed from the straight and narrow. At noon today he again started for Wingham, but this time he will get "I get drunk once in a while, your worship," said Pat. "It is my only fault, and sure it is a bad one. I don't know what it is, but it only hap-

"Till give you the chance to carry on to Wingham," stated the court. "Thank you, sir," replied Pat, as he left the courtroom. Twenty minutes later he was seen walking along Talbot street with his grip in his hand, on the way to the station.

William Quan, Chinaman, Clarence street, was fined $5 and costs allowing a dog in his possession to run at large, although warned that into of three workmen on Richmond street several days ago, received an order this morning for the return of his car. Davidson and his brother-in-law are ut on bail, and will appear for trial on Aug. 31.

COURT SITTING CANCELLED.

The special sitting of the county court, called by His Honor Judge Talbot Macbeth for Sept. 12, has been canceled, it was stated this morning. The sitting was to deal with non-jury civil actions.

FIRST DIVISION COURT.

Only one sitting of first division > powder and paint. This was made evident in police court this morning when four persons appeared charged with violating the Lord's Day act. Salvinto Pagalaiai, together with his three partners, Naila and Mary Pagalaiai and Phillipo Nicolai, Ita-lians, woke from their slumbers last Sunday morning with the horrible thought that they must complete the toilettes of several score of the inocent little beauties.

Taking into consideration the fact that every woman is permitted to use her powder, etc., on the Sabbath, Sla-vinto et al visited his warehouse on Richmond street, where the dolls had been born the day before, and taking brushes in hand, set out to make the inanimate bits of plaster-of-paris them were decked out in the love-liest bloom ever seen on the cheeks of any daughter of Mother Eve. Engrossed in their labor, the four partners did not know that they were being watched by the unsenti-mental eyes of the policeman. Without a thought of anything but their dolls they continued to labor, and one

Then, tragedy of tragedies, the arm of the law stepped in and told them they must answer to a breach of the Lord's Day act. This morning a plea of guilty was entered and Deputy Magistrate Glad-man assessed the four $3 and costs. It was paid, but in future kewpies must go without their Sunday primping.
