3. The Hon. Secretary shall keep the books, collect subscriptions, etc., under the directions of the Master.

4. The Committee shall assist the other officers of the Hunt with their advice and co-operation.

5. Should the Master or Hon. Secretary be unable to attend to their duties, any member of the Committee can act for them.

6. Sales, contracts, etc., must be laid before the Committee.

7. The Committee may from time to time make such rules as they may find

8. If any member of the Committee should resign, or should a death vacancy occur, the Committee shall have power to fill such vacancy.

ARTICLE IV.

1. The Annual General Meeting shall be held on the last Wednesday in January of each year, at which seven members shall form a quorum, when the officers for the ensuing year shall be elected by ballot, the accounts received, and the usual business transacted.

2. Special general meetings may at any time be called by the Master, or by any five members forwarding to the Master a demand in writing stating the object thereof; the Master shall then call a general meeting, stating the object thereof, and the day of said meeting shall be within ten days of receipt of requisition, and seven members shall form a quorum.

A privileged member is relieved of payment of the entrance fee, but is subject to payment of $25.00 for each period of six months dated from the 1st of January and 1st of July, and is subject to the Constitution and Regulations of the Club.

A privileged member shall enjoy all the privileges of the Club, except voting, holding office, introducing strangers as fortnightly guests, or having an interest in the property of the Club.

Any privileged member desiring to become an ordinary member of the Club must be balloted for again, under the provisions required for ordinary members.

ARTICLE VI.

1. The name of every member failing to pay his annual subscription shall be exhibited on the first of April, and if the subscription be not paid on or before the first of July, the Hon. Secretary shall report accordingly to the Committee, who may cause his name to be erased from the list of members ; but he may be readmitted by the Committee upon assigning to them reasons which they may consider satisfactory for his failure of payment. Any member whose dues are all paid shall be at liberty to withdraw from the Hunt on his written application to that effect, sent to the Secretary before the Annual General Meeting of the Hunt.

2. Any member ceasing to belong to the Hunt, by resignation or otherwise, shall have no claim on any of the effects or property belonging to the Hunt.

3. No member shall be entitled to vote on any occasion or enjoy any privileges until he shall have paid whatever fees may be due by him to the Hunt.

ARTICLE VII.

Honorary Members may be elected at any General Meeting of the Hunt upon receiving a two-thirds vote of the members present at said meeting, and they will enjoy all privileges of Ordinary Members with the exception of voting.

ARTICLE VIII.

If any member be guilty of conduct which, in the opinion of the Committee, is detrimental to the character or interests of the Hunt, the Committee shall summon such member to appear before them to explain his conduct, and if he neglect to appear, or, having appeared, shall fail to satisfy them, the Committee may suspend such member from the privileges of the Hunt for a period not exceeding two months, or they may call an extraordinary meeting of the Hunt to consider the matter, and it shall be competent for such meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present thereat, to suspend or expel such member from the Hunt.

ARTICLE IX.
