profit to her owners, as the following extract was abew:—

Profits of the Pacific Steamers.—A correspondent of the New York Sun says, that the Steamships running between Panama and San Francisce, carry, ou an average, 150 Cabbin Passengers each way, at $300 each, and 250 Steerage Passengers at $150 each, thus realizing $165,000. The expenses do not exceed $55,700, so that the profits of the voyage, on passengers alone, is $109,300. Add to this the Freight—say $3,000, and the total profit amounts to $117,300.

THE GENTINE BALK OF COLUMBIA FOR RESTORING THE HAIR.

"Leng har is a giver to woman," says Paul, And all feet the truth of the picus quotation; Preserve it them, indice—your giver may fail, Unless you protect it with this preparation. If you wish a rich, inxuriant head of hair, free from dimerion fan eaure, do not full to procure the genuiue Bain of Columbia. In cases of baidness, it will more than excessly your expectations. Many who have best their hair for twenty years, have had a restored to its original perfection by the use of this baim. Age, state, or condition, appears to be no obstacle whatever; it also causes the field to flow with which the delicate hair these is filted, by which means theusends (whose hair was gray as the Astalic engle) have had their hair restored to its natural color by this invaluable remedy. In all cases of fever it will be found the most plousant wash that can be used,—the found in the found the most plousant wash that can be used,—the interest of the properties of the properties of the particular to the properties, and as a perfuse for the toilet it is integunised. It holds three times as much as other miscailed hair restoratives, and is more effectual.
