ELECTION COURT WILL SIT DECEMBER 17th

Judge Johnstone Will Adjudicate on Appealed Ballots at Prince Albert--No Session Till After New Year--Appeal List

The election court will sit at Prince Albert on Dec. 17th. Mr. Justice Johnstone presiding. From the arrangements made it is presumed that the legislature will not meet till January. The learned judge will have many important points to decide, and some of them new in election annals. From the decision of Mr. Justice Johnstone there can be no appeal, but the public have implicit confidence in him and his verdict will be accepted accordingly.

Interesting Case
The West is enabled to publish below a full list of the votes appealed and on behalf of whom. It will be noted that on behalf of Mr. Turgeon, one appeal is made to have the vote of Stephen Sabo disallowed. This is a particular case that will interest the public.

The people of the province have heard a great deal about the interference with a list of applicants for naturalisation, and it was stated by the Scott press that when, on behalf of Mr. Bradshaw a request was made to Mr. Justice Prendergast to issue an order of the court enabling counsel to examine these applicants on their affidavits, the Provincial Righters had tried to "disfranchise forty-one Americans." This howl was made loud and long. The learned judge however would not grant the request with regard to the examination of these applicants whose names were handed in by a man in Mr. Turgeon's office. Many of the applications were rushed through, but a few of them were held over to a later date. Among those allowed was Stephen Sabo. When this young man learned that his papers had gone through he naturally wanted to get his certificate of naturalisation and he went to the Liberal committee rooms and asked for it. He was told that his papers would be given him next day by a man who could speak in his own language. The man referred to was a fellow brought in from Rosthern to work a little settlement behind the brewery and a few more near the Prince Albert Lumber Co.'s mill. The following day Mr. Sabo received his papers and by the time he got them he saw through the game that was being worked to corral his vote. As an American, he was open to conviction on the school question and many other issues and had finally decided not to support Mr. Turgeon. To this the coercionists got wise and they tied up his vote. At the court of revision Stephen Sabo's vote was allowed but an appeal was taken on behalf of Mr. Turgeon to have the judge disallow the vote.

Thus one of the men whom Judge Prendergast refused Mr. Doak to examine on his affidavit was naturalized, and was considered a good voter till it was found out that after all their trouble he was going to vote for Mr. Bradshaw, and then he was contested.

This is the way the Scott Liberals act towards an "American citizen" after they have naturalized him. If he will vote for them he will be allowed to vote, but if he attempts to use his God given American judgment he is disfranchised.

And the Scott organ says that Mr. Turgeon ran a clean election.

Additional Locals

The decisions handed down by the court en banc on Saturday last were Murray vs C.P.R. in which the latter won; Parkin vs Parkin in which case Mrs. Parkin won; Baker vs Public administrator, won by Baker; Kew vs Watt, won by Watt; Anticknap vs city of Regina, won by city.

The preliminary hearing of the charge of manslaughter against Conductor Alexander has resulted in his being sent up for trial. It was clearly shown in the evidence that what he said to the freight conductor about keeping quiet, was not an intimation that he wished to shield himself, but an admonition to keep cool in the face of conditions confronting them at the time.

A number of ministers and laymen were in the city Thursday last to attend the social reform meeting in the Presbyterian church during the afternoon, among them the right Rev.

Dr. Newnam, bishop of Saskatchewan; Archdeacon Lloyd of Lloydminster; the Revs. Dr. Shearer, Dr. Chown (respectively Presbyterian and Methodist secretaries of the denominational social reform movement); A. C. Strachan, Arcola; J. Leishman Fleming, ex-moderator of the Presbyterian synod; the present moderator, Rev. T. R. Scott, Oxbow; Rev. J. Chisholm, Rocanville; the Rev. D. Oliver, Moosomin; Messrs. Richardson, Grenfell and McGee, Wolseley.

There is a possibility that A. T. Hunter will be mayoralty candidate in the coming municipal contest. Mr. Hunter has been approached to allow his name to be placed in nomination but he has not yet decided whether he will agree to the wishes of his friends. A three cornered fight would change the complexion of things considerably, and it is urged upon Mr. Hunter that as a leading citizen he would poll a big vote.

C. W. Peters, C.P.R. freight agent was in the city yesterday.

HOW TIGHT MONEY SQUEEZES THE FARMER

Grain Trade on Fixed Credit Basis This Year-- Grainmen Claim That Rules of Car Supply Aggravates the Situation--Some Opinions

Winnipeg, Nov. 7.—A few days ago a well known grain firm wired the Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance at Ottawa, drawing his attention to the condition of the grain trade of the west, owing to the stringency of the money market, and the reported reluctance of the banks to advance money for the purchase of grain.

The firm in question suggested to the minister that the government should come to the assistance of the banks, with sufficient money to enable the grain crop to be moved out.

Minister Enquires
Last night a wire was received by C. C. Castles, warehouse commissioner, and Frank Fowler, secretary of the clearing house association, from Mr. Fielding, asking for particulars of the condition in the west, and for a general report.

It was learned today that a report will be sent by individuals members of the grain trade to the minister, but no official action will be taken by the Grain Exchange as a body.

A Tribune reporter this morning interviewed a number of grain men on the conditions that are supposed to exist in the Canadian grain trade and opinions secured differ materially as to whether the banks are doing their duty or not.

The opinion seemed to prevail that money up to a certain extent was available for the purchase of wheat, but after that point there was a scarcity.

Fixed Credit Basis
In past years firms purchasing wheat were rated on a certain basis by the banks for credit. The firms in question could get credit to this amount for their business, but when this credit was exhausted it was possible to get an additional amount of credit. This is that supposing a man was given credit up to $100,000, and exhausted it he could apply to his banker and he would probably be allowed another $25,000 or $50,000. This year the banks will not do this, is said, but as soon as the original credit is exhausted no more is advanced, and in consequence the grain dealer can only purchase to the extent of his credit.

It is pointed out that in this way the grain movement is retarded as the banks have shut down on increased credit, and this year wheat is 25 to 50 per cent dearer in price than last year. The grain man is thus doubly handicapped as he has a fixed credit, and the purchasing value of his available money is reduced.

In grain circles the opinion seems to prevail that there is just about enough money available to carry on the ordinary turnover trade, but there is none for speculation in wheat. From enquiries made amongst the elevator people doing business in the west, money seems to be available to purchase wheat, but there is little or no money beyond a certain point for export wheat.

Plenty of Money
Mr. Reid, manager of the Western Elevator Co., in reply to a reporter, stated that so far as his company was concerned, the banks had given it all the money that was needed to buy wheat in this country, and so far the same applied to wheat for export. The company has secured the necessary money for its wants.

All Necessary Money
Mr. McWilliam, manager of the Canadian and Winnipeg elevator company, stated in reply to a Tribune reporter, that his company had secured the necessary money to purchase wheat at country points, and so far had not to close down any of his elevators for lack of funds. There may be some difficulty with exporters getting money owing to the fact that the banks did not care to have their money tied up for six or eight weeks in the export wheat. His company, he said did not even export wheat, and was not in a position to say what the condition was between the banks and the exporters.

Exporters Suffer
A well known grain man, an exporter was next called upon, and in reply said that owing to the limit of credit given by the banks, exporters were in some cases forced to stop buying wheat for export.

One case that came under his notice was where a certain firm had a credit of a fixed sum at a certain bank, and purchased during the early part of the month a quantity of wheat practically up to his credit limit at the bank. The refusal or probable refusal of the bank to allow this man to increase his credit meant that for the latter part of the month he was unable to buy any wheat for export as he had not the money.

The credit given by the bank was limited and owing to the high price of wheat, the available money had not the same purchasing power. In consequence when the grain merchant approached his credit balance, he purchased no more wheat and it was left in the country.

The Net Result
The net result of the banks refusing to increase credit for wheat is said to be that the farmer cannot find the grain merchant will buy so much and then stop. In consequence the farmer cannot get his wheat marketed, as there is no buyer for the commodity after a certain point is reached. This it is claimed, has a tendency to depress the prices of wheat and the farmer suffers.

The grain merchant will purchase so much wheat and get it at the lowest possible price, so that his capital may be made to go as far as possible, and in a number of cases, owing to the high price prevailing the grain merchants are holding off and won't purchase wheat at all. The farmer is compelled to hold his wheat, as the merchant cannot afford to buy.

Limited credit and no money for speculative purposes and a very limited supply of export wheat has, it is claimed, a decided tendency to depress the wheat situation and prove very injurious to the farmer in the long run.

The banks have it said, refused to lend money on any grain that there does not seem to be an immediate chance of getting out of the country, and turning over on wheat remaining in the elevators after the close of navigation, being tied up for some time and a ready market not being found for it, means that the money is not available for other purposes.

It is suggested as a remedy that the elevators should have a preference over platform wheat in getting cars, as a car to an elevator means that five or ten farmers may get money out of the wheat loaded from the elevator into the car supplied, while from a car of wheat shipped from a platform maybe only one farmer is benefited. In getting cars the elevator is in the same position as the farmer, and after getting a car has to wait its turn until the next one is available. A case is quoted where an elevator got one car and then had to wait while over one hundred farmers each got a car, which meant that the elevator could not purchase wheat as the wheat which was in it could not be shipped out, and the banks would not advance money on tied up wheat.

Mr. Reid, manager of the Western Elevator Co., in reply to a reporter, stated that so far as his company was concerned, the banks had given it all the money that was needed to buy wheat in this country, and so far the same applied to wheat for export. The company has secured the necessary money for its wants.

LUSITANIA BRINGS GOLD

Ten Millions of Outside Capital Brought from Europe to Relieve the Stringency—Fast Trip

New York, Nov. 8.—With ten million of dollars gold in her strong box and a new Atlantic record written in her log, the Cunard turbine Lusitania steamed past Sandy Hook lights at 1.40 this morning. In its grand performance the great vessel broke her own world's record and brought to the relief of the money market here $10,000,000 of gold in an unprecedented time.

The westbound trip was made in approximately four days, 19 hours and ten minutes. The exact time can only be known by the official reckoning. Her hourly average was a little better than 24 knots, and she has probably beaten the record by about 40 minutes. The Lusitania fought out the last lap of her race against time in the teeth of a southwesterly gale. She had been favored with ideal weather until yesterday when she ran into an off-coast storm that considerably bothered her so that when she swept by the lights this morning she cut her way through the turbulent sea.

SEVEN YEARS FOR SHOOTING

For Attempted Murder of Manitoba Doctor Young Man Gets Long Term

Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—As a sequel to the sensational shooting affair on the lonely Kildonan road, on the night of July 25th, when Dr. Clyn Smith nearly lost his life, the author of that dastardly attempt at murder, a 21 year old man named Robert M. Quigley, will spend the next seven years at hard labor in Stony Mountain penitentiary.

What motive Quigley had for murdering his friend may never be known, though he told the jury that he was so enraged at the doctor's immoral intentions towards a woman, whom prisoner did not know, that he bought a revolver and drove the doctor out of shooting to maim him, and thereby frustrate the doctor's immoral intentions. Quigley made no remarks but bought the revolver.

The jury took ten minutes to find him guilty of attempted murder, evidently disbelieving the whole story. Dr. Smith attributes the story to robbery, as he had a small sum of money which Quigley thought to be larger and two diamond rings on his person.

In answer to the judge's query, "had he anything to say why sentence should not be passed," prisoner, who seemed to be unmoved, said "I can only say that I thought I was justified in doing what I did. I never had any intention of murdering the man."

BREAD UPON THE WATER

Christmas Meal to a Beggar Brings $1,000 After Nine Years

The New York Herald of recent date says: Nine years ago John McNulty befriended a homeless beggar in the streets, and yesterday the long forgotten act of kindness brought its reward. There came a letter from that same beggar and enclosed was a $1,000 bill.

On Christmas eve, 1898, McNulty walked homeward in a blinding snow storm with his arms filled with packages for the day's gift-giving. It was after midnight and there were few persons on the streets. As he passed under a light he saw a man leaning against a lamp-post. The man's clothing was thin and ragged. His attitude as he clung to the post was hopeless and he was shivering with the cold. He held out a thin hand to McNulty and asked for alms.

McNulty took the beggar to a place where there was warmth and food. When the man had eaten McNulty paid the bill, gave him his last twenty-five cent piece, and shook him heartily by the hand, and wished him a merry Christmas.

"I'll never forget this," said the man. "Tell me your name and address and perhaps I can make this right with you some day. I'm a beggar now, but I may strike it rich some day."

"If you do," McNulty laughed, "do as much for some poor fellow as I have done for you."

But the other insisted, and McNulty gave him his name and address. When McNulty returned home from work yesterday his wife handed him a registered letter that had been forwarded from his former address. Inside was a $1,000 bill and this letter:

"Dear Sir—Enclosed you will find $1,000 in payment of your kindness and your merry Christmas gift to me nine years ago when I was broke and wanted a meal. I have traveled considerably in many places since but I have always remembered your kindness. Take this and use it. Believe me, yours, P.F."

What "P.F." may indicate McNulty does not know. The paper of the note was heavy express bond, and the postmark was station A, which is the Wall Street district. Beyond these clues and a vague remembrance of the man's face, he has nothing to lead to the identity of his grateful "beggar."

C.N.R. TO CALGARY

Edmonton, Nov. 7.—Although no public announcement of plans has been made it is likely that the line now being graded southwest from Saskatoon will be the one to enter Calgary.

A grading outfit has been working for some time in the survey around Dundurn, a few miles out from Saskatoon. This line is graded now as far as the Goose Lake district and will be carried on in the spring.

W. A. Brown, the superintendent of the Edmonton Kamsack division of the C.N.R. has no connection with the construction department and he states that he cannot give a very definite statement as to the company's plans regarding the line. It is believed here that the road is expected to reach Calgary in the fall of 1908 or early summer of 1909.

TWENTYFIVE AN ACRE

Mr. Duncan Wilkie, Sr., has disposed of his fine farm in the Glen valley district to a Mr. Wm. C. Davis, recently out from England. The farm consists of 960 acres, four hundred of which are under cultivation. The price paid for the entire property was something like $25 an acre. Mr. Wilkie will give up possession about the beginning of the year. He has been in the west since 1883, when he took up a homestead. Since then he has added a section and a quarter at different times—Lumsden News Record.

DR. McINNIS' FAREWELL MRS. REID PASSES AWAY

After being advised by his physicians that he could not live, Hon. S. W. McInnis, of Brandon, called his stenographer, and dictated the following dying message:

"Brandon, Nov. 4. '07. 'Good People of Brandon: 'I take this last opportunity, on my death bed, of addressing a few farewell words to you, and I may say that, as I shall hereafter have no selfish interest to serve, I certainly can be charged with no motives except the best. What little I have done to assist in promoting the best interests of the city commercially and socially has been done with the desire to be useful, and its doing have given me pleasure. I love Brandon, and all its streets and all its people. I would suggest, however, that there are certain improvements which the city should undertake. I have publicly advocated, and now repeat, with reference to the management of hospitals, that the government should be induced to provide such legislation as will make these general hospitals self supporting, without being obliged to make application for general charity. Hospitals are now a necessary and the city of Brandon should have corporations to collect the cost of keeping each patient, each day, from the municipality from which that patient comes, not an arbitrary sum, but the full amount of the cost. The money should be handled through the municipal commissioner's office and no money should be paid out for general maintenance of hospitals from consolidated revenue.

"The establishment of a Rutlandian school in this city to prepare the young Ruthenians to go back among their people with helpful knowledge, the teaching of the English language to them, and the proper conduct of this school should meet with your interests and sympathy. This, I believe to be an important step, and I do hope the citizens of Brandon will take sufficient interest in the institution when established to give it that consideration, and its members that attention it deserves. I would also submit that the city should have more money to devote to parks and works of art. A small amount expended each year, for a town with such a naturally beautiful situation as Brandon should be in time one of the most beautiful cities upon the continent. The waterworks system in the hands of the city is a good thing but it would be much better if you had your own lighting system, and street car system.

"That heaven prosper the fair city of Brandon, and all the kind friends in it, is my parting wish.

"STANLEY W. McINNIS."

SYNOD FOR PROHIBITION

Government Ownership of Liquor Traffic the First Step—Big Moral Reform Movement

Moose Jay, Nov. 8.—The second annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of Saskatchewan came to an end last night after six sessions of a very successful nature. Chief among the resolutions was that on the subject of temperance, the Synod, largely owing to the influence of Dr. Shearer, the temperance and moral reform secretary declaring for state ownership of the sale of intoxicants, and a municipal right to veto, as a tentative measure on the way to total prohibition. The resolution submitted by the committee is, as can readily be seen, of a very radical nature, and, indeed, marks a new departure for an ecclesiastical body.

The resolution occasioned quite a debate, for many, while sincere advocates of prohibition, did not look favorably on the proposal to make the state a retailer of evil, which, to them was the substance of the resolution. However the resolution found an able and vigorous champion in Dr. Shearer. He pointed out that it was merely a tentative measure, which while much short of prohibition, was preferable to the present condition of affairs by which the sale of intoxicants was carried on under a system of private ownership. He pointed out that it was a common ground on which all Protestant churches could stand; that it would probably receive the endorsement of the Roman Catholic church; and certainly the endorsement of organized labor.

Church union was heartily endorsed.

ARE MODEST NOW

How strange it is that the three Liberal conventions recently held in this province to nominate federal candidates, the cry, "peace, progress and prosperity" has not been paraded before the people?

Now, however, when the farmer has time to reflect on the Laurier boast of government control of the elements it is opportune to ask what has happened this superhuman Laurierism?

The candidates are coming before the people asking for a new lease of power and the electors will have an opportunity of asking a few questions on the side.

There should be no hesitation in telling the farmer why it was not good policy to reduce the tariff and lessen the taxation on the people and why when they adhered to the old tariff they did not prepare in times of prosperity for a dull day and have something saved up.

claims is so popular with the farmer. The government candidates never had a better chance to answer many questions affecting the farmers' interests, and they will be expected to come prepared.

THE TWO MOTHERWELLS

The Free Press correspondent reported Hon. W. R. Motherwell at the recent board of trade banquet at Canon as follows:

Hon. W. R. Motherwell referred to the coal and car shortage, and stated that both were problems that were too great to be speedily solved.

The above words are as comforting to the people as the famous letter last winter by Mr. Motherwell when the coal famine was at its worst.

It is evident that this is not Mr. Motherwell the farmer from Abernethy. The people should note that it is not the same Motherwell who talked before the grain growers about the car shortage and the remedy to be applied, for that man had opinions, but the minister of agriculture is not at all pronounced.

During last winter Mr. Motherwell of Regina was investigating the question of government ownership of a coal mine and Mr. Scott later said that he was taking steps to acquire a portion of the coal area which he had previously handed over to the Dominion, but he must have meant that he was helping some friends acquire it, for now his Mr. Motherwell says:

"It has been suggested that the government should control the mines for establish themselves in the coal business. He did not think that any government should engage in business that interfered with business of private individuals."

The above of course means that the government has decided to adhere to the letter writing policy, and they will not provide a remedy for a coal famine.

That statement from Mr. Motherwell of Regina, also takes issue with Mr. Scott's telephone policy or what the people have thought was his policy. If Mr. Scott and his Mr. Motherwell are in accord on the government policy the statement quoted above indicates that the government will not disturb the private telephone monopoly.

Mr. BOURASSA'S DEFEAT

The only sympathy the people who have been fighting Provincial Rights battles in this province can have for Mr. Bourassa, is admiration for a man who has the courage of his convictions. Mr. Bourassa is, we believe an honest and sincere politician, but if the political policy which he would at present dictate were to dominate Canadian politics the country would be at the mercy of even a greater co-ercionist than Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Of course his retirement from the federal parliament to fight for clean administration in provincial affairs changed his position from a western standpoint, but he is such a cleric politician that he is dangerous at the present stage of life when he is in a position to dominate any sphere.

It is contended that the first split between Mr. Bourassa and Sir Wilfrid began when the prime minister backed down on the sending of the Canadian troops to South Africa, and their differences have been widening ever since. Mr. Bourassa was afraid that Sir Wilfrid would weaken on the school question and he was thankful as he afterwards expressed himself, when Mr. Lamont brought in his binding amendment.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

When ordering ask for Dr. Price's by name, else the grocer may forget the kind you are accustomed to.

The new provinces have nothing to thank Mr. Bourassa for and what we have to fight is Quebec rule whether it is headed by a Bourassa or a Laurier.

Editorial Notes

The Tribune says that the banks do not own the country, but it forgets that what they do not own, they hold as collateral.

Notwithstanding the crop report sent out by the local government, the farmers know that with regard to the actual conditions, the worst is yet to come.

PRESS COMMENTS

Death in the hour of triumph, death on the summit of the conquered slope—there is in this something of glory, but more of inexpressible tragedy; nor is there any symbol of death more poignant than the broken column, with all that it implies of unmet ambitions and unfulfilled desires.

Hon. S. W. McInnis, whose tragic end has evoked the sympathies of the whole province, was in the first flush of mature manhood. He had just won a position of assured leadership in the political party which engaged his interests.

There is nothing so common as death, unless it be birth, yet in all the centuries the adequate word to express its terror and its pathos when it falls like an eagle from its eyrie has never yet been said. We use the old formula, the old words of regret, the time-honored expressions of sorrow and sympathy—but behind them are feelings which transcend expression.

BY ACCLAMATION

St. John, N.B., Nov. 8.—Hon. H. A. McKeown, attorney general, in succession to Hon. Wm. Pugsley, has today elected to the legislature for St. John without opposition. Dr. Riddock resigned to give him the seat.

Restore the Lands

I can only say that so far as the public domain is concerned, not only in Manitoba, but in Saskatchewan and Alberta, that we believe that the public domain should be under the control and ownership of those provinces. That is one of the obligations to those provinces that the Conservative party assumes when it takes the reins of power after the next election.

The government at Ottawa is acting the dog in the manger in the matter of Manitoba's boundaries. Manitoba is denied even what the other provinces don't want. In doing justice to Manitoba it could do no injury to any other province.—R. L. Borden in his speech before 5,000 people in Brandon.

GRAFT PERMEATES HIGH TARIFFS

President H. E. Miles Address to Annual Meeting of Manufacturers--Tarriff Committee Report an Exposition of Deep thought and Research

The West has received from President H. E. Miles of the National Association of Agricultural Implement and Vehicle Manufacturers of the United States, a copy of his speech before the 14th annual convention which recently met at Jamestown, Va. The movement of the American manufacturers for tariff revision is of great interest to the Canadian people.

Mr. Miles in his address said in part: Meeting as we do here at Jamestown, where our forefathers first found a home upon this continent, it is well for us to remember that, old as is the country, old indeed as is civilization itself, our calling is older still. That first sweat that came to Adam's brow came, it may be presumed, from the use of an agricultural implement. The misshapen stick or stone upon which he first laid hold marked as well as anything could, the helplessness of man at that time, and no implement or tool better marks the advancement of man from that condition than do the implements made by ourselves today.

We meet here, proud of our calling, wishing for no other and only desirous by co-operative and individual effort, to advance it as in the past. We are informed by the department of agriculture that last year's crop was produced at a saving of $685,000,000 from the cost of harvesting a like crop fifty years ago. This vast sum of money--almost equal to the national debt--was saved by the substitution for manual labor of the machines made by ourselves. Under the evidence the success of our efforts, equally with those of the farmer, determines the price of food, and the quantity. The department of agriculture assists also in its researches and experiments. Even great areas of our country which a short time ago were thought incapable of cultivation, are now among the richest of our agricultural possessions.

After dealing with the financial situation and the necessity for a revision of the terms of sale to consumers, Mr. Miles said: The great money reserves of the country are no longer in New York, nor in the other great cities. The wealth is in the country, where our customers live. It is the money from the towns--where our customers live that fills the banks of the cities when ever those banks are full. Our country banks send to the cities for investments. It is only by force of habit that they do this, instead of financing at home, our customers, our great relief. There is no one at fault for this situation but ourselves and we are greatly at fault.

This association is larger than any other to the agricultural population of 39 million people, being one-half our total population. The welfare of our country is so vitally concerned in the success of these our customers, whose success is our success, that we ought to help our country and ourselves by helping in such national and economic movements as are for the betterment of the agricultural interests.

Tariff Committee Report
Mr. Miles is also chairman of the tariff committee which reported as follows: Members of the Association--

We little anticipated at our convention a year ago the extent to which the demand for tariff revision would grow during the year now ending. To a considerable extent we looked at the revision only as it concerned ourselves and our customers. It has been found, however that the old man "Graft" sat at the tariff table when the last schedules were made and was no more unfair in his handling of those schedules which immediately concern than in substantially each and every other schedule.

Our members are thoroughgoing Protectionists and Republicans almost to a man but protection with us does not spell Graft and Deception, neither is protection prohibi-

IT'S ALL ROT SAYS WILKIE

Imperial Bank Manager Says There is no Scarcity of Money for Grain Trade--Byron Walker of Commerce Banks Says They Will not Stand for Speculation

Toronto, Nov. 7.--Despatches from Winnipeg say that wheat cannot be sold because of the present scarcity of money and the Canadian banks are arranged because they are unable to finance the farmers' output. To unearthen this peculiar state of affairs a Toronto World man sought to prove or refute the assertion.

D. R. Wilkie, president of the Imperial Bank, an institution which has many branches in the Canadian west, and which has paid particular attention to this part of Canada, was first after. He was asked whether the Canadian banks were unable to finance the western crops.

was not available for handling the crops. "We are looking after all our customers, but we certainly don't intend to loan on wheat to men who want to carry it over for speculation." The statement that Canadian banks would not release wheat for shipment to Duluth from Fort William, was shown to Mr. Bethune of am not surprised at this," he remarked. "The state of the financial market in the United States is quite enough to account for this. The bank which held the loan for the grain was quite justified under present conditions in demanding the cash before releasing it for shipment."

Blame the Millers
In Toronto grain circles the squeeze has been expected. A big speculation has been built up in Winnipeg in grain options, owing to the short crop, but the grumbling has been overstated in Winnipeg, the Toronto traders having followed the speculation very cautiously.

A Toronto grain broker in discussing the matter said: "I think the whole thing is in the hands of the two big milling concerns, the Ogilvie Milling Co., and the Lake of the Woods Milling Co. They are in control of the whole western crop. They have sold large quantities of flour by keeping up Winnipeg wheat option and now the wheat is moving from the farmers' hands, they are only taking the supplies at their own prices. There is a good European demand for our northwestern wheat, however, and unless the cheaper prices go to pieces, the Chicago quotations will not fall very much."

Badly Run Down

The life of any constant traveler is always a hard one, but those whose work compels them to take long, tire-some drives, over rough roads, exposed to all conditions of weather, are in constant danger of losing their health. The extreme heat of summer and the piercing winds of winter sap their strength, the kidneys become diseased or rheumatism sets in. What is needed to withstand this rich red blood--the pure blood that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills alone can make. These pills are the travelers' never-failing friend. Concerning them Mr. George Dalpe, of St. Eloi, Que., says: "I am a grain dealer and am obliged to make frequent trips, sometimes very tiring. I returned home from one of these trips last winter very much fatigued. I was overworked and tried to cool myself by lounging on the veranda till late at night. I caught cold and the next day I did not feel at all well. I had a headache, pains in my stomach, and was very weak. I went to see a doctor, but he said I would be all right in a day or two, so I started on another trip. I had not gone far when I felt very ill and had to return home and go to bed. I had chills, headache, pains in my stomach and kidneys. The doctor came to see me and he said I was overworked. He treated me for several months, but instead of getting better I gradually grew worse. I was fed away almost to a skeleton and really thought I was going to die. One day my wife returned from the village with a supply of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She urged me to take them as she said they had been 'highly recommended to her. I did so and by the time I had taken four boxes I felt enough benefit to decide me to continue them and I took about a dozen boxes. They fully cured me, and today I am able to go about my work without feeling fatigued."

Fatigue, or the least exertion is a sign that the blood is poor. Replace the bad blood with pure blood and labor will be pleasure. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make pure red blood. That is why they cure anemia, rickets, kidney, trouble, indigestion, heart palpitation and the nerve--all ills of girlhood and womanhood. Sold by all medicine dealers, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Liberal Steal

Let us look at the Crow's Nest Pass railway deal which took millions of dollars from the treasury of the middlemen. Then there is the Drummond County railway deal, the purchase of a railway between Lewis and Montreal for a million more than it was worth. The senate rejected that motion, however, and saved the country a half million dollars, according to the acknowledgement of more than one Liberal senator. The proposal of the Liberals was just to place a million dollars in the pockets of their friends. See what they have done with the public revenues. They have not failed to build public works where public works were not required. For instance, in one place in Quebec over $50,000 was spent in the fashion of a man who had handed over to their camp followers hundreds of thousands of dollars.

In 1903 they brought down an order in council to the house of commons to consider the question of transportation in this country. It was an ably drawn document drawn by outside assistance and I can point to the drawer thereof. It pointed out the needs of Canada. The commission on the same deliberated at great cost for over two years and a half years. We asked for the report of that commission. Finally it came down. It contained many recommendations which should have been carried out. They have failed to carry out a

Indian Head, Sask., Nov. 8.--The medical association continued its sessions here today, commencing with a visit to the hospital, where Dr. Kemp performed an operation. Afterwards the delegates were given an automobile ride out to the experimental farm and vicinity. In the afternoon Dr. Seymour, the provincial medical health officer, who has made special study of typhoid fever during the last few years, gave a very interesting paper on typhoid, its causes and preventatives. Dr. Thomson, health officer of Regina city also contributed a paper.

In the evening a banquet was given the visitors in the Imperial hotel, at which his lordship, Bishop Grisdale, presided. Toasts were drunk to the King, the medicine and surgery of today, our guests, and the medical profession, all of which were responded to by the doctors present. Mayor Donely responded to the health of the town, proposed by the health of Songs by Messrs. WHAT IS MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN MOTHER LOVE?

A mother's worries are many, she sometimes forgets her own bodily discomforts because of her overpowering love for the child. She becomes broken down, sleepless, nervous, irritable and feels tired from morning until night. Many mothers of experience can tell you that at such a time they have been relieved, benefited and strengthened and put into proper health by taking a prescription which their mothers had told them was the only woman's tonic to be taken at such times. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has enjoyed an enviable reputation for over a third of a century. In all that time it has sold more largely in the United States than any other tonic for woman's needs, and today its sales are greater than ever.

In favor of Dr. Pierce's medicine is the fact, confirmed, open, honest statement of their full composition, giving every ingredient in plain English, without fear of successful criticism and with confidence that the good sense of the afflicted will lead them to appreciate this honorable manner of confiding to them what they are taking into their stomachs when making use of these medicines.

ALCOHOLIC TONICS.
A great many women feeling the need of a tonic take a cocktail whiskey, which is just as bad, some widely advertised compound, containing a large percentage of alcohol. Doctors and chemists are guaranteed to be entirely free from alcohol or narcotics--made of roots which cannot harm the most delicate system but have a wholesome, life-giving, tonic effect upon the system. Tonics made largely of alcohol interfere with the digestion of certain foods, and as does increase the alcohol absorbed goes to the head and drives the red blood corpuscles. As the blood feeds the nerves the nerves get improper nourishment, and the mother becomes nervous. As the nerves suffer so does the skin.

Best stick is health-giving tonic that has in the past half of a century sold more widely than any other.

OPEN AS THE DAY.
What Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of its ingredients are Golden Seal root, Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root, Chemically Pure Glysterin, Hobart A. Hays, M. D., University of Pa., says of Golden Seal--"Good in all catarrhal conditions, as uterine catarrh, leucorrhoea, etc." Prof. John King in the American Dispensatory says of Black Cohosh root--"another important ingredient in 'Favorite Prescription.' By its special affinity for the female organs, it is an efficient agent in suppression, in dysmenorrhoea it is surpassed by no other drug, being of greatest utility in irritable and congestive conditions of the appendages, characterized by dragging pains, etc."

Prof. King says of Unicorn root, "have found this plant to possess a decidedly beneficial influence in cases of leucorrhoea with weakness or dull pain in the renal or lumbo-sacral (small of the back) region. It is one of our most valuable agents, acting as a uterine tonic, and gradually removing abnormal conditions, while at the same time it imparts tone and vigor to the reproductive organs. Hence, it is such used in leucorrhoea, emmenorrhoea, dysmenorrhoea."

A PARTICULAR PLEASANT
removed by it is the irritability and despondency that often attends these troubles. In those cases in which there is pelvic fullness, the aching, bearing-down organs feel as if they would fall out of the body. Its action here is very decided."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure Biliousness, indigestion, constipation, the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belching, heartburn, pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Persons subjected to any of these troubles should never be without a box of "Pleasant Pellets" at hand. In proof of their superior excellence it can truthfully be said that they are everywhere adopted as a household remedy after the first trial.

One Little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. As a "dinner pill" to promote digestion, take one each day. To relieve the distress arising from overeating, nothing equals one of these Little "Pellets." They're tiny, sugar-coated, anti-bilious granules, scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps. Over 1000 pages and illustrated. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

OUR NORTH HERITAGE WILL BE HOME OF MILLIONS

Explorers Return From Great Hinterland Which is Rich in Agricultural Possibilities--Herds of Buffalo--Other Big game Plentiful--Will Tell the World Says Thompson-Seaton

Winnipeg, Nov. 7.—Ernest Thompson-Seaton, who arrived back in Winnipeg yesterday from the far north, has realized his dream. Twenty-four years ago he lay in a buffalo wallow while the sun was rising. Sleep, as refreshing as the early morning prairie air, had left his faculties clear, but there was no occasion for rising. Lying in his blanket, his eye taking in the long grass-covered wallow, his imagination went back to the days when myraid monster herds wore down the ancient trail that now afforded a shelter bed for the traveller. His view was focused between the delicately tinted bells of the crocus and the wish came to him that he could see a herd of buffalo running wild on the prairie.

Last June from a spot similarly located, between the graceful fronds of a patch of flowering crocus, his dream was realized and he saw a herd grazing within fifty yards of him. So similar was the environment that it was easy for him to imagine himself on the Souris coteau and twenty-four years younger.

"Any man would give a year of his life to turn the wheels of progress back for a day, so that he could see the prairies as they were fifty years ago, the prairies that we are too late to see with the buffalo, the Indians and the sturdy pioneers, with all their picturesque," said the author, as he enthusiastically talked of the region which he had just left.

"When I organized the expedition it was the dream of twenty-four years ago that spurred me on, and it was not until after I had been there that I appreciated that I had realized my dream. I had turned back the lost fifty years ago. I was with Indians that did not understand the English language, whose only knowledge of the white man had been gained by the casual reports of missionaries, who still carried and used the bow and arrow. I saw the buffalo, the Indian, and the countless numbers of game animals. All I had to do was to strike out Missouri and Mississippi and insert in their place Peace and Mackenzie rivers. All the rest was the same."

His report on their numbers was brief and to the point. "Although they are more numerous than is commonly supposed, they are in danger of extermination." From what cause was asked? "Butchers," was the one word that answered the interrogation, and it was given in a tone of regret full of the author's hatred for the vandals, who he says, have carried the name.

"Major Jarvis, he said, 'is a first class man and I am glad to pay a tribute to his ability. He has a gentle saure personality, and his suaveness was mistaken by some of the people for weakness, a quality he does not possess. He sized up the situation and picked out the mischief makers with wonderful instinct. The butchers were able to pull the wool over the eyes of the local police but he saw the remedy at once. We were all over the buffalo range and there was no indication that the animals were being killed by wolves."

"I was there primarily for zoological purposes, but I am interested in the country and am convinced that all that great region is suitable for agriculture. That country there—all Alberta and Saskatchewan—is suitable for agriculture and the region beyond is suitable for stock raising."

"I want it clearly understood that I am not in the employ of any government, and that I am not an immigration agent. My intentions are altruistic and I am going as a free lance to England to show and to lecture on the white man's last heritage. I am going to tell them that there is a great region waiting to be broken by the plow. I am going to tell them because they want to know. I don't want to see the Chinamen and other foreign peoples enjoy the gardens of the west. My reward will be in their joy in being told what they want to know. I am going to tell them all, that the mosquitoes are a nuisance and the bull-dog flies a plague, that there is a summer frost but that this latter will vanish before the plow as it has done elsewhere, and if must naturally do for proved scientific reasons. I am going to tell them that the same energy that is expended in making a bare living will make them wealthy men out here."

"We travelled into the barren grounds, but there was never a more unhappy misnomer, as I never before saw a more beautiful spot. There are flowers, vines, shrubs birds, grass waist-high, and game wherever you look; there is not an hour of daylight when caribou cannot be seen. I counted twenty-three walking by the camp in one day. This was in the season before the great herds, the animals walking about in small groups, the greatest of which numbered approximately 1,000 head. When the autumn comes with snow, they will come into the woods in millions. There are just as many as ever, and it is the general opinion of the traders that the rifle instead of tending to their destruction has tended to save them. A shot costs an Indian five cents and this is a consideration. With the spear they would be driven into the water, and in canoes a man could kill a hundred head easily, and this was done in the case of buffalo. On the whole the caribou has not suffered."

"I want to testify to the broad benevolence of the Hudson's Bay Co. This company has, more than any other commercial corporation in the world has realized the moral responsibility of its power. No traveller has ever gone into that country and made a successful expedition, except under the aegis of the company. It does not try to keep the people out. When I asked Lord Strathcona regarding my trip, he said that he would help, and he did everything in his power. Without the company I could have done nothing. It is all powerful and is willing to exercise its power for the benefit of science and the traveller."

"We discovered rivers as great as the Red, which had never been mapped, and we always had the company back of us simply because we were doing scientific work. We found the flora and fauna of the country much farther north than we suspected. The climate, vegetation and flowers peculiar to Manitoba reach to the Great Slave lake, and this indicates an unchangeable and continuous nature in the soil. The far northern latitude is offset by the low altitude. All those who have seen it are confident that the country will be opened up, settled and support an agricultural population. There are now some wonderful crops raised in certain parts of the region. Up at Resolution they had potatoes that would win prizes in any agricultural fair."

R. SINTON HAS BIG SALE
The department of agriculture has sent out the following bulletin:
The president of the Saskatchewan Stock Breeders' Association, Robert Sinton, of Regina completed by delivery yesterday an important sale of Herefords. This transaction consisted in the transfer to Graham Bros., of Regina, of the breeding herd of Herefords, comprising 50 cows with calves at foot, seven young females and one bull, 108 animals in all. The price realized was the tidy sum of $8,500. Graham Bros. have sent these cattle to their ranch in the Qu'Appelle valley, where they propose to breed pure bred Herefords in future instead of rearing grade cattle for the ordinary commercial markets.

The sale of so large a herd might seem to imply that Mr. Sinton is going out of the breeding industry. This, however, is not the case. Mr. Sinton still has on hand 30 young females and 21 yearling bulls. The latter are being fitted and will be offered for sale at the forthcoming association sale to be held in Regina in March next.

It is Mr. Sinton's intention to go to the old country next spring for the purpose of securing at the fountain head of the breed a number of the choicest Herefords that money can buy. He also contemplates the importation of a number of choice Clydesdales for the purpose of supplementing the excellent foundation he has already laid for a breeding stud.

Mr. Sinton has in the past shown himself to be on of the most successful and enterprising breeders of pure bred stock in the west, and his many

LORD'S DAY ACT RESTRICTIONS

Amendment of This Legislation Will be Necessary Says Report of Railway Department—Intercolonial Business

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—The annual report of the minister of railways for the nine months fiscal period ending March 31st was issued on Saturday. Canada has so far expended on railways $229,260,947. Over thirteen millions of this amount was spent prior to confederation. There was charged to capital account $162,650,056, which included twenty-five millions to the Canadian Pacific, and $167,210,490, which includes over thirty-five million paid as railway subsidies charged to consolidated fund. The total revenue from confederation received on the government railways was $118,819,364.

For the nine months fiscal period the gross earnings of the government roads were $8,509,186. The Intercolonial railway earned $6,328,311, the Windsor branch $45,000, and the Prince Edward Island railway $215,874. The gross working expenditure on the Intercolonial was $6,030,171, leaving a surplus of $218,139. There was a profit of $30,000 on the Windsor branch and a deficit of $67,713 on the Prince Edward Island railway.

The national transcontinental railway expended during the fiscal year $5,537,867. The previous expenditure amounted to $2,609,627. The subsidies to railways during the fiscal period amounted to $1,324,889. Of this amount $188,600 was paid the Atlantic and Northwest railways and $420,908 to the James Bay railways.

In reference to the effect of the amendment to the Lord's Day Alliance act upon the operation of railways Mr. Butler states that on the Intercolonial, the effect of the enactment regarding Sunday traffic has been to reduce the capacity of locomotives, and rolling stock by about one-eighth through enforced idleness, and further to increase by a proportional amount the demands on the service during week days. As a consequence a very large addition must be made to the locomotive and car supply solely to cover this additional strain.

"The question," he adds, "is one of considerable complication and will some day as the difficulty becomes more accentuated demand a modification of restriction."

The deputy minister after referring to the need of increasing the transportation facilities in Canada, and the plans projected in the United States, England and Canada for expending large sums on canal development, concludes his report as follows: "I venture to submit that before any action is taken with reference with the Georgian Bay ship canal, or the enlargement of the Welland Canal, it would be advisable that a commission should be appointed for the purpose of studying the economic problems involved, and of reporting thereon for the benefit of the government and the country. This commission should consist of not more than three persons, one of whom should be a business man of large experience, one to represent the marine interests of the country, familiar with the size of ships and various problems involved in the actual conduct of lake navigation, and third, an engineer, of wide experience, familiar with both railroad and water transportation."

FIRST LOAD SHIPPED
Port Arthur, Nov. 7.—The Algoma Central steamer Paliki is loading a cargo of pig iron at the Atikokan Iron Co.'s docks. The iron is for the steel rails at Sault Ste. Marie and is the first cargo of that material ever taken from here to the Soo. It is also the first time the Algoma Central Steamship Co.'s ocean type of boat has come to Port Arthur.

BIG DEFICIT
Northak, Vt., Nov. 7.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Jamestown exposition company last night a financial statement was read showing the total liabilities to be $2,400,000. The committee will consider the feasibility and practicability of re-opening the exposition next year and will report at a special meeting of the directors, before Nov. 15th.

SMALL POX
Toronto, Nov. 8.—There are several cases of small pox in York county.

In township 3 the houses are under quarantine. Aurora, Newmarket, Holland, Landing and Sutton have cases, all of which are progressing favorably.

A tickling cough from any cause is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards called this shrub which the doctor uses "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's Talc no other. The Regina Pharmacy Stores.

LAKE RATE IS REDUCED
Wheat Tariff Goes Down Half Cent More Boats in Commission Than Last Season

Port Arthur, Nov. 8.—The shipment of the western grain crop from the head of the Great Lakes to the eastern elevators has this year developed a peculiar condition of affairs. Although the crop was late in being harvested, so that the natural expectation would be a great rush in the closing weeks of navigation causing a higher rate than usual, the rates are less than prevailed last year.

A year ago the vessel owners were getting two and one-half cents a bushel for transporting grain and this season they are taking it down the lakes at two cents.

It has also been show that whatever fears there might have been a few weeks ago that boats would not be available, are not being realized. All the boats needed are obtainable. This is resultant not from a scarcity of other years, but from the activity of the navigation companies in adding to their fleets, so as to be ready to meet the demand which is growing all the time.

The fleets operating between Canadian ports are constantly being added to by large and up-to-date vessels to meet the requirements of the trade. Owners recognize the fact that must keep pace with the progress in the wheat growing fields.

The grain shipments this year have been much more steady than in past years. Many vessels have been engaged in the trade, all through the season and not so much in the ore and coal carrying business as formerly. This is the result of the conditions which developed from the cold winter of last year. The grain did not come out as fast during the winter months as usual and when summer opened there was a larger amount ready for lake shipment.

HITS ROSTHERN
Rosthern, Nov. 8.—The C. C. Turner Elevator here stopped buying wheat today, giving as a reason the stagnancy of the Winnipeg market. Another local elevator may quit buying also. The others are still making bids, but the prices are so low that many farmers are taking their grain home again. This coming at the time when the farmers' paper is due at the banks, is the latest phase of the wheat situation, and at Rosthern it is a most serious one.

FEDERAL BUSINESS COLLEGE

Bank of Ottawa Bldg., Regina

One month's salary pays the entire cost

It is not necessary, nor is it wise for young people to spend years of the best portion of their lives in preparing for professions which are not so remunerative as is the work for which they may prepare in a few months. The majority of our graduates receive as much for their services in one month as would pay the total amount of their college fees. Our courses form a short cut to business success. During the last six months the Regina Federal Business College has placed more than sixty students in excellent situations; with initial salaries ranging from $50 to $60 per month. Every capable student is guaranteed a good situation upon graduation. The Federal Schools are open the year round and students may enter for instruction at any time. Free catalogue. Write today
