Town and County News.

REMEMBER the sale of Property belonging to the estate of the late John C. Crowe to-morrow at noon, on the premises. See advertisement.

DASTARDLY ACT.—Some malicious person, late on Saturday night, broke the globe lamp at the entrance to Knox Church. We only regret that the scoundrel who did it cannot be found out and punished.

We learn from the Orangeville Sun that building operations have already commenced there; and that the building prospects this year are excellent. The Orangeville Building Society, but lately organized, seems in a very flourishing condition, and will doubtless aid considerably in extending the building operations in the town.

DR. MCGUIRE THROWN OUT OF HIS BUGGY.—We regret to learn that this (Monday) forenoon, about 12 o'clock, Dr. McGuire was driving up the Elora road, and when near the new Baptist Church, his horse ran off, when he was thrown out, and received, it is thought, severe injuries, the nature of which are not yet known. The buggy was badly damaged.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT IN HENSLER.—The children attending the Sunday School and Band of Hope of the M. N. C. Church in Hensler, will give an entertainment on Monday evening, 28th inst., in the church, when there will be singing, recitations, dialogues, addresses, &c. A very pleasant time is expected. To commence at half past 7 p. m. Admission 10 cents.

GRACE EGERTON.—Our readers will remember that this popular artist, with Mr. George Case, makes her reappearance this evening; and from what we can learn, she will have a very large house. More than 100 reserved seats have been already engaged, and those wishing to secure seats had better do so immediately, as but few remain. Call at Day's and engage seats at once.

POLICE COURT. Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., P. M. Monday, April 21.

James Robb, for being drunk on Norfolk Street, on the 19th inst., was fined $2 and costs, or 20 days in jail. Got till Saturday to pay up.

News From Ottawa. (Special to The Evening Mercury.)

OTTAWA, April 21, 2 p. m. Sickness is still very prevalent here, notwithstanding the magnificent spring weather.

Melley Wright, member for Pontiac's 3rd, and David Mills, member for Rothwell, is but just recovering from a severe attack, which has confined him to his bed for some days.

It is now definitely stated that the new Cabinet Minister will be the Hon. James McDonald, member for Pictou, Nova Scotia. Personally Mr. McDonald is popular and has in the House already taken a first rank among the new members. This will still leave one office vacant, that of President of the Council, which will probably not be filled this Session.

Business is in a forward state, and the 10th of May is spoken of as the date of prorogation.

It is highly probable that the Grand Trunk arrangements bill will not be carried through, from the persistent action of Cauchon, who seems determined to talk it out every day that it comes up. As it can only come up on certain days of the week during the hours allotted to private bills this will not be a very difficult matter for the ex-Speaker of the Senate, but the result will be highly prejudicial to other private bills, which will thus be kept back whenever the promoter of the Grand Trunk Bill, Mr. John Hilliard Cameron, moves its second reading.

The Public Accounts Committee this morning finished taking the evidence in the Intercolonial Railway matter. No conclusion was arrived at, and the Committee adjourned till Thursday.

Mr. M. LERSON is about to erect a steam saw-mill near Caledon Lakes. The boiler and engine have already arrived, and the building is under construction.

A DEFAULTER.—The St. Catharines Times says that the Hamilton post-master is a defaulter to a considerable amount.

BARON LIEBIG, the celebrated chemist, died at Munich, Germany, on Friday. He was 70 years of age.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH.

THE OPENING SERVICES.

The formal opening of the above church took place, according to announcement, on Sunday last. We have already described the building at full length; and need not, therefore, more particularly allude to it on the present occasion. For many years to come it will be one of the architectural beauties of the town, and a proud monument of the union, zeal and liberality of the congregation for whom it has been erected.

THE MORNING SERVICE was attended by upwards of 1000 persons, many of whom came long distances specially for the occasion. Punctually at 10:30 a. m., the doors were thrown open, and in less than ten minutes the entire church was completely filled to overflowing, large numbers being unable to obtain admission.—Morning prayers were read by the Ven. Archdeacon Palmer; and the Litany, by Rev. F. Alexander; the first lesson, Rev. F. Bethune, of Port Hope the second. The ante-communion service was read by the Rev. Provost of Trinity College—Epistole Rev. F. Bethune; Gospel, Rev. J. G. Geddes.

The sermon was preached by the Lord Bishop of Toronto, who took as his text Ezekiel 43, 12.—"This is the law of the house: Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit round about shall be most holy." In the course of his sermon he remarked that the prophet Ezekiel could scarcely have had any personal knowledge of the temple, or of Jerusalem. His recollection of them must have been more like a dream, or as the remembrances of his boyish days. But the great mass of his countrymen must have known them, remembered them, and wept over them in their bitter weal and captivity, which must have given additional force and power to the prophet's words. He then went on to allude to the manner in which the church should always endeavor to rear God's house; and congratulated the people upon the noble result of the pious and holy feelings which had actuated them in the erection of the magnificent building in which they were assembled. He directed attention to the manner in which the service of the church should be conducted, and particularly alluded to the necessity of union among the members of the church, no matter what their rank or station in life might be. He knew the toil and trouble and anxiety which such an undertaking must have entailed upon the congregation; and it was a matter of congratulation that they had been enabled to bring it to such a successful and glorious result; and, in concluding an earnest and eloquent sermon, he prayed that the church now opened might for many generations remain a monument of their piety and zeal, and prove the birth place of many souls.

Upon the conclusion of morning service, the office of the Holy Communion was administered, for which a large number of the congregation remained; and at which his Lordship the Bishop officiated as celebrant.

THE EVENING SERVICE was quite as largely attended as the morning service, and was distinguished by the brilliant and beautiful appearance of the church, when fully lighted up, was the subject of much comment. Prayers were read by Rev. J. G. Geddes and Rev. F. Bethune. The latter also read the first lesson, the Rev. F. Alexander reading the second. The Green, preached by the Rev. Provost of Trinity College from the words (Haggai, 2—9) "The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of Hosts: and in this place will I give peace saith the Lord of Hosts."

Upon the peace of God which passeth all understanding." The preacher directed attention to the various kinds of peace—the longing after rest peace which even the most worldly souls occasionally felt;—alluding to the manner in which after, and how it was to be retained, impressing upon his hearers the importance and necessity of seeking after, obtaining and retaining, through God's grace, this peace of which the world knows nothing, and was powerless to give. In concluding his sermon the preacher alluded to the special services which had been held there that day, congratulating the congregation on the successful result of their labors, and called upon them to bring forward their thank-offerings as God had blessed them, in token of their gratitude to Him for His many mercies vouchsafed unto them.

The musical portions of both services were under the direction of Mrs. Palmer, who presided at the organ. At both services collections were taken up in aid of the building fund, amounting to, in the morning, between $300 and $400, and in the evening to about $75.

During this week service will be held each evening, except Saturday, at 7:30 p. m. This evening the Rev. H. Holland, of St. Catharines will preach. To-morrow (Tuesday) morning, at 11 a. m., the very Rev. the Dean of Huron will preach.

On Saturday morning, at 10 a. m., the church wardens will be in attendance at the church to arrange with those persons desirous of securing pews or sittings in the church.

FEARFUL TRAGEDY.—The Russian Gazette, of Moscow, contains an account of a horrible tragedy at the town of Alexandroff, Government of Vladimir. A young forester, named Ivanoff, was among the guests at a ball, and as a young lady named Zonoff passed before him, conducted by her partner, to take their places in a quadrille, he fired a revolver at her, and then discharged a second barrel at himself, and fell to the ground.

Miss Zonoff, feeling herself wounded, fled into another room. Ivanoff, seeing that she was still alive, rose to his feet, and picking up the firearm which he had dropped from his hand, staggered to the place where the young lady had taken refuge, again fired at her, and this time killed her on the spot. The murderer is not dead, and he has been removed to prison. He appears to have been passionately in love with his victim, whose parents had refused to accord him her hand in marriage.

The Wreck of the "Atlantic."

Result of the Investigation.

The Collector of Customs on Saturday delivered his decision, the result of the investigation into the cause of the wreck of the "Atlantic." It is as follows:—

"I feel compelled to state my belief that the conduct of Captain Williams in the management of the ship during the twelve or fourteen hours preceding the disaster was gravely at variance with what it ought to have been. The conduct of a man placed in his responsible position calls for severe censure, and justifies me in saying that his certificate as extra master might be cancelled; but in consideration of the praiseworthy and energetic efforts made by him to save life after the ship struck, the mitigated penalty of suspension of certificate for two years—could be imposed. I also feel it my duty to state that the conduct of Mr. Brown, the fourth officer, in preventing the crew from calling Captain Williams at twenty minutes to three, as ordered, was, under the circumstances, an improper violation of the Captain's order; and further, in the fact that as one of the officers of the watch after 12 o'clock he ought to have seen the light ahead by the Minister of Marine, which he saw the land and did not see it, there is an implied culpable neglect and want of attention to the safety of the vessel which should be marked by censure and moderate punishment. I therefore judge that the certificate of the fourth officer, as a master, should be suspended for three months.

Captain Williams, though he evidently felt keenly his position, received the decision as a matter of course, having, as he admitted to a reporter some days before, expected such a result. Unless overruled by the Minister of Marine, which it is not likely to be, the decision is final, and has all the force of law of a British Board of Trade decision.

A PROPHECY ABOUT THE STEAMER ATLANTIC.—The Boston Times relates the following incident of the lost Atlantic:—When about mid-ocean a curious incident occurred, which, if true, as related to our reporter, is very unaccountable. The steamer passengers say, that at about that point on the voyage two or three of the passengers declared, as if gifted with the gift of prophecy, that the ship and all on board would be lost. They kept repeating the prediction, packed their carpet-bags and went on deck to watch for chance passing vessels, saying that they were going to leave her, as they were sure she was doomed to destruction. The captain then intervened, and looked them up as mad men, and when the prediction they had made in their supposed insanity received its fulfillment, they, it is said, perished in confinement.

Breach of Promise Case. Yorkville, it appears, is about to have another breach of promise case of more than usual interest. Some time in the year 1869, a certain rather sedate old gentleman, on the wrong side of fifty, married the second daughter of a retired merchant, then resident at Yorkville. In 1871 the old gentleman bade farewell to his affectionate wife, and went to "that bourne from which no traveller returns," leaving behind him a will bequeathing his widow $3,000 per annum—$6 each if she married again. For eleven weary months the young widow lived a lonely and solitary life, after which she decided to appear once more upon the gay and festive scene of life, and in the month of July, 1872, at a friend's house she met with a certain commercial traveller for one of the largest Toronto dry goods houses. He came—he saw—he conquered; and from that moment the charming young March gave up all thought of the $3,000 per annum, and appeared determined to disobey her dead spouse's wishes. Her lover neglected his business to attend on her, and had to leave his employers' service, upon which he went to Montreal, and got a position there as agent for the sale of goods in west-Whitney, after a short sojourn in Toronto he proceeded. While away, however, one of Byron's "d-d good-natured friends" hinted to him the little item amounting to $3,000 per annum, which seems to have had the effect of cooling him down considerably. However, explanations followed to everyone's satisfaction, and the marriage was arranged to come off on last 17th of March. But, in the meantime, our G. T. found a young lady with an ample fortune and no conditions attached; and he the married man first there that day, congratulated the congregation on the successful result of their labors, and called upon them to bring forward their thank-offerings as God had blessed them, in token of their gratitude to Him for His many mercies vouchsafed unto them.

The musical portions of both services were under the direction of Mrs. Palmer, who presided at the organ. At both services collections were taken up in aid of the building fund, amounting to, in the morning, between $300 and $400, and in the evening to about $75.

FOUND GUILTY OF WIFE MURDER.—The trial of Carruthers for the murder of his wife took place at Barrie last week. It will be remembered that on the 4th of December last this man, who lived in Try, in the Township of Innes, went home, struck her on the temple with a whip-stock, felling her to the ground. The brute, not satisfied with this, continued his onslaught, and ultimately fell her for dead. The poor woman lingered on till next day, when death ended her sufferings. Family brags and drink are said to have been the cause of the murder. At the trial prisoner's counsel endeavored to prove that he was insane, but failed to do so. During the trial the court house was crammed to suffocation. Many females were present, whose interest did not appear to flag during the whole day. A little after six o'clock on Friday the jury retired, and about three hours after returned a verdict of guilty. The Judge sentenced him to be hanged on the 11th of June next.

BOY KILLED AT DUNDAS.—An accident occurred at Dundas, in the cotton factory, on Saturday evening, about five o'clock, by which a young lad named Storrick was instantly killed. While fixing some thing in the engine-house his foot slipped, and he fell and caught the strap to save himself, but was drawn under and instantly killed. His arms and legs were broken.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

The Modoc War.

Cutting them off from the Springs.

The Trouble at Colfax.

Destructive Fire—Loss $85,000.

Honolulu and Reciprocity.

YREKA, April 20.—Frank Merritt has just arrived from the front, having left there at 2 p. m. on Friday, and reports that the Indians are still in the Lava Bed, some Modocs having been seen when young Harvey was shot, evidently keeping open communication with the lake for the purpose of procuring water. Col. Ferry, with a hundred men, left at 6 a. m. on Friday for the south side of the Lava Bed to cut Indians off from the springs.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.—The steamer Haton sailed last evening with United States troops for Colfax. The impression is gaining ground that the presence of troops will be required in every parish in the State to enforce obedience to the Kellogg Government.

UTICA, N. Y., April 20.—A destructive fire visited the village of Canastota last night, destroying a large portion of the business place. Loss about $85,000; insured $32,000.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Arrived steamship City of Liverpool from Liverpool.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—Honolulu advises to April 2nd received. The question of reciprocity is agitating all circles. The Press suggests that the United States agree to the treaty never to encroach upon the independence of the Kingdom.

Leprosy is spreading among the native population of Honolulu and other places to an alarming extent.

The British Commissioner gave a grand ball, which was attended by Queen Emma and the United States Minister.

THE HEALTH OF THE POPE HIS CONVALESCENCE

NEW YORK, April 19.—No cable despatches have been received here confirming the report of the death of the Pope. No credence is placed in the report from Toronto.

ROME, April 20.—The Pope rose at half-past seven this morning and said mass in his private chapel. He subsequently gave audience to a deputation bringing Peter's Pence.

The Railway Accident near Stonington

FURTHER PARTICULARS. Providence, April 19.—Nine bodies have been recovered from the wrecked train, so far. The engineer, W. Guile, of Providence, and the fireman, Geo. Eldridge, of Kingston, both died at their posts, and their charred remains have been taken from the wrecked engine. The killed, as far as recognized, are Albert Allen, Providence; Jerry Cameron, Boston; John Callahan, N. Y., and the engineer and fireman, as before telegraphed.

Boston, Mass., April 19.—None of the wounded from the railroad accident, who have arrived here, appear seriously hurt, but the broken men, seven sailors, residents of East Boston, are among the wounded.

Providence, April 19.—There were probably but seven persons killed—namely, Messrs. Allen, Cameron, Guile, Eldridge, Callahan, and two unknown persons whose limbs were hurled off, leaving their trunks only. No inquest is deemed necessary by the coroner. The bodies have been brought to this city.

Local and Other Items.

THE SHOOTING CASE IN TORONTO.—An immense crowd gathered on Saturday at the Police Court to hear the preliminary trial of the woman Armstrong, charged with shooting the woman she found in illicit intercourse with her husband. The case was, however, remanded for one week and she was admitted to bail.

THE NEW UNION STATION, TORONTO.—The track is now being laid within the new Union Station, Toronto. The internal appearance of the building is very beautiful, and it is elegantly finished and decorated. The various departments are well arranged for the convenience of the officials who are to occupy them. The building will be heated by steam. It will be ready for occupation in a few days.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Fred. Hamilton, lately a local reporter for the Toronto Sun, on his return trip from Hamilton, was walking along the railway, in company with a friend, on Saturday, when they were approached, in the vicinity of Waterdown station, by a train. On stepping to one side to allow the train to pass, something projecting struck his arm, tearing his coat-sleeve away, and lacerating his arm, which he supposed to be broken.

SUSPECTED SUICIDE.—On Friday a respectable lady named Ward procured strychnine at Maclean & Co's drug store, Kingston. Whether she took it or not is unknown, but in three hours she was dead. She tried at the drug store but was refused the poison. She only got it at Maclean's on a medical certificate. The inquest was opened on Saturday morning, and adjourned to allow post mortem examination. Her friends deny the assumption of suicide.

HON. MR. CHRISTIE has given notice that he will move the appointment of a committee to take into consideration all matters relative to the contract for the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway, granted to Hugh Allan and his associates prior and subsequent to his being signed, with power to send for persons, papers, and records.

The Government and Mr. Anglin.

The general feeling in political circles seems to be that the Government have not helped their cause, or improved the feeling of their supporters by their attempt, through the agency of Mr. Macdonald, to persecute Mr. Anglin—a political opponent—for his comments in his paper—the Freeman—on the conduct of the too subservient majority which voted down Mr. Huntington's motion for a committee of inquiry into the Pacific Railway contract.

We notice that Mr. Cunningham, member for Marquette, and a member of the press, has given notice of his intention to move, in the interests of the press of the Dominion, and in consequence of the vote on the matter of the libellous publication in Mr. Anglin's newspaper, for a definite expression of opinion of the House upon the subject of newspaper criticism. Mr. Cunningham and other newspaper men regard the action of the House in the rejection of Mr. Mills' amendment, and the adoption of Mr. Macdonald's motion as aggressive and offensive towards the press.

Mr. Howe's Retirement.—The Hon. Mr. Howe has left Ottawa per Nova Scotia, to enter upon his duties as Lieut.-Governor of that Province. His retirement from the Government will in no way affect its position, as Mr. Howe brought no strength to it, and on several occasions was rather a source of weakness. At one time he stood high in the ranks of Provincial statesmen, but his fierce anti-Confederation, followed by his dishonourable repudiation of the views he so strongly advocated, and his acceptance of a seat in the Dominion Cabinet as the reward of his subservience, destroyed his influence, and deprived him of the respect formerly entertained for his talents and consistency.

The Appleton Sewing Machine. Yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting a few friends who had always taken a deep interest in the property of this and kindred enterprises in this city, and we are delighted to be able to place on record the very gratifying progress this Company have made to the present time, and to add that the prospects before this new and valuable public recognition and honors are most brilliant, being based on the solid assurance that have been received from all quarters, of the great merits of their sewing machine.

Believing that the day of cheap machines, and necessarily imperfect work, has gone by, and that the public now require and demand a sewing machine first-class in every respect, combining every possible excellence acquired after years of experience, the Appleton Manufacturing Company, acting on that belief and guided by the opinion universally expressed throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion, having constructed a sewing machine to meet the requirements of an enlightened public.

They claim for their machine all the excellence attained by the most eminent American manufacturers, viz: in capacity, in durability, in finish, in style, in convenience, in simplicity, and in elegance, and, at the same time, the price is very much less.

The Company have now got in their full quota of machinery, requisite to build three hundred machines per week, and hope soon to reach that number and have them turned out and shipped weekly. Arrangements for their foreign business are now being perfected, which will ex-

THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XIV.

DICK MATTOCKS IS BROUGHT TO BAY.
Richard Mattocks was now in search of the intended instrument for carrying out the new and daring plot of Mrs. Langton. He had no ready means of opening negotiations with him as he had of conferring with Sam Lorton. His previous knowledge of Sam made that business a comparatively easy one; but he had no professional acquaintance with the abandoned brother of Ellen, who probably had sunk to a lower state of vice and criminality. He required, therefore, first to discover his whereabouts, then to obtain a private interview with him, and finally to put the hook in his jaws by which he was to be led and guided to do the work they had assigned him.

The lawyer did not disguise from himself that this last was a matter of supreme difficulty and danger. If Mattocks was found to be obstinate or impracticable, not only would the promising scheme miscarry, but a power would be put into this man's hands which might prove highly dangerous to them. The matter therefore demanded the most wary procedure, and Richard Mattocks threw aside all else that he might concentrate his subtle mind upon it, view it in all its bearings, and make himself perfect in the various points of strategy by which he was to approach and carry the citadel of Dick Mattocks' individual independence.

Difficult as the matter obviously was, the lawyer did by no means despair of accomplishing the object in view. It is said that knowledge is power, and the knowledge he possessed of a certain crime which Mattocks had committed gave him an anticipatory power over the latter, which he thought would go a long way to subdue him into ready and devoted compliance.

By the evening of the second day after Mrs. Langton's visit he had so far prepared himself that he resolved to make an effort to obtain an interview with Dick that very night, or at least to learn if he was still in Liverpool, and where he was to be met. Hayes had not failed to make use of the one item of information on this head which his sister had been able to communicate, and he had learned where Mother Crimp's lodging-house was situated. It was in one of the lowest and vilest slums of the city, betokening at once its character and that of those who frequented it. To enter it in his usual dress would be at once to raise the suspicion and hostility of its inmates; but, as we have already seen, the lawyer could disguise himself thoroughly, and adopt a character very different from his natural one. So on this occasion he attired himself to look like a disreputable tramp, and made his way after dark to the low neighbourhood in which Mother Crimp's house of entertainment was located.

It required a considerable exercise of courage on the part of Hayes to plan to enter the gloom and blackness of the unlighted street, and tortuous alley to which he was directed. Though dark it was not noiseless, for many discordant sounds came from the dark houses—sounds of anger, or wild revelry, the wailing of children, the laughter of hoarse-voiced women, the oaths of brutal men, and occasional shouts and snatches of songs which evidently came from drunken lips.

The motive power which moved him on was strong enough to conquer Richard Mattocks' hesitation, and forward he went into the alley, groping his way through the fetid odours, and stumbling over sundry utensils which had been carelessly left on the miry footway.

Enquiring at a dimly-lighted, cellar-looking place, the door of which stood wide open, he was directed to the opposite doorway as that leading to Mother Crimp's lodging-house, and going along the passage the noises within guided him to the door of a large, low-roofed room, where a huge fire blazed under rows of pots and crilions, whose contents hissed and sputtered and sent forth savoury smells.

Influence of Music on Animals.
We have just been reading a very interesting essay regarding the influence of music on animals. The writer shows how various animals, and even insects, are influenced by a concert of sweet sounds. We have noticed the same thing, but thought nothing particular about until we stumbled on this article.

We remember how we have seen horses influenced by music. One of the most enjoyable runaways we ever experienced can be directly traced to the influence of music on a horse.

We were driving past where a band was playing, and the music had more influence on the horse than we had. He didn't keep time though. In fact he didn't keep anything, harness, bridle, or anything else. He only kept running. I never thought music could have such influence on a horse.

He beat time, too. That is to say, he beat any time we ever saw him make before, even before a sulky. We would have kept that horse to run against time, if he hadn't run against a lamp-post and ruined himself. Music influences a horse's Guess not!

Horses are excellent musical performers themselves, sometimes. We have known a hungry horse to go through all the bars of an out-field correctly and never miss a nut, although the owner of the oats missed all his.

Dogs are singularly affected by music. We whistled after a strange dog, once we remember. The dog stopped, listened attentively, looked a moment sad, as though the notes awoke some tender memories within him, and then came bounding towards us and embraced the calf of our leg in the most affectionate manner. He could hardly tear himself away, and wouldn't if his owner hadn't come up and choked him off.

There is a power of music in a tin kettle, when properly brought out. We saw one brought out the other day by some boy's who attached it to a dog's tail. Talk about the influence of music on animals! We never saw a dog so moved in all our life.

Cats are strangely influenced by the music of a violin. It seems to affect their entire system, and if there could be no violins without doing violins to the cats. Even a very young kitten, who don't realize what he has got to come to, mews plaintively when the fiddle-bow is drawn across the string. It seems to vibrate a sympathetic chord within its abdominal inclosure. It is peculiar to the mews of a young kitten, or to see the young kitten maw.—Musical World.

Within the whole range of tonic and alternative medicines known, none is entitled to more consideration than the Peruvian Syrup. In all cases of enfeebled and debilitated constitution it is the very remedy needed. The most positive proof of this can be adduced.

GEO. MURTON

The Flood at Montreal.—A general shove of ice in the river took place on Saturday night, and the water immediately commenced to rise. It is still falling, and all danger of a high flood is over. Large quantities of ice still remain in the harbour. During the shove an immense body of ice jammed against the upper side of the Victoria bridge embankment, and a vast quantity was thrown across the railway track, and though a gang of men were soon at work clearing it away, it was not till after several hours that the Quebec express train could leave. A heap fully twenty feet high rises alongside the track.

A New Paper.—We have received the prospectus of a new paper—The Parry Sound Settler—which is to make its appearance early in May. It will be conducted on Liberal Reform principles; and we heartily wish the projector success in his undertaking.

LITTLE'S LIVING AGE.—Three serials are now in course of publication in The Living Age, one by Mrs. Oliphant, one by the author of that charming story "Dorothy Fox," and one by Lord Lytton, author of "The Last Days of Pompeii," "My Novel," "The Caxtons," etc. The numbers for April 1873 are published, and contain the following noteworthy articles: Natural Theology, Contemporary Review; The Two Fredericks, Quarterly Review; Lord Lytton, Edinburgh's Magazine; The First Arctic Expedition to the North-West, Contemporary Review; Ultramontanism at Home and Abroad, Westminster; The Church of Rome, Pall Mall Gazette; Dr. Francis Lieber, Review de Droit International; The Liberation of France, Spectator; with poetry and miscellany. The subscription price of this 64 page weekly magazine is $8 a year, or $10 any one of the American $4 magazines is sent with The Living Age for a year. LITTLE & GAY, Boston, Publishers.

Breakfast—Epps' Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with Boiling Water or Milk. Each packet is labelled—"James Epps & Co., Homeopathic Chemist, London."

A late number of the St. John Morning News thus concludes a lengthy article on the "Fellow's Syrup of Hypophosphites": "Mr. Fellow's is certainly entitled to high credit for his energy and enterprise in working up his valuable discovery so successfully, and the presence of such gentlemen in any community is a matter on which that community should congratulate itself."

The St. John Telegraph and Journal says: "The invention of Fellow's Hypophosphites has become one of the valuable industries of the country, unique of its kind, and a credit to the Dominion of Canada."

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Purifying and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood penetrates every part of the body, purifying, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of its non-failing success of its remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bolls, Nervous Affections, and Fevers, Humors, and Constitutional Vigor, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being Food in Alcohol, in any form, its purifying effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and restoring up to the normal condition.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and it is the most remarkably successful remedy to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERU-AN CYRUP in the glass.
