BRITISH WIN FIGHT IN ARM OF NORTH SEA; GERMAN VESSELS SUNK

Enemy Raider and Five Armed Trawlers Victims by British Destroyers—Raider a New Ship of Nearly 1,000 Tons

Copenhagen, Nov. 3.—A German commerce raider and five armed trawlers have been sunk by British destroyers in Scandinavian waters. Copenhagen, Nov. 3.—The sinking of a German raider named Crocodile, and of five German armed trawlers in flames and later saw them sink. The commerce raider, which was disguised, and the trawlers were sunk yesterday in the Skagerrak, an arm of the North Sea, between Norway and Denmark. The British destroyers thus effected another clean up of German naval forces in Scandinavian waters. The Crocodile was a new ship of nearly a thousand tons and carried a crew of 100 men. Elsinore, Denmark, Nov. 3.—Wounded men from a German auxiliary cruiser sunk in the North Sea were landed here today. BRITISH ANNOUNCEMENT London, Nov. 3.—The admiralty announces that certain British forces have been engaged in the Cattagat, an arm of the North Sea between Sweden and Denmark, and that prisoners are being brought in. No further information is yet at hand. London, Nov. 3.—The statement issued by the admiralty says: "Further reports from our forces operating in the Cattagat have been received. We destroyed a German auxiliary cruiser armed with 6-inch guns and also destroyed ten armed patrol craft. Sixty-four prisoners have been rescued by our forces. No British losses have been reported. Further details will be published on the return of our force to their base."

AMERICAN PICKET BOAT GOES DOWN; 12 MEN ARE MISSING

Washington, Nov. 3.—The navy department has been advised that a picket boat of an American battleship in home waters has foundered and its crew of 12 men are missing. It is believed the men are lost. The navy department statement follows: "The navy department announces that on October 30, the picket boat of the U. S. S. Michigan foundered. Apparently the entire crew were lost. The finding of the bodies of three of the crew and the failure to find any other trace of the boat or its occupants leads the department to believe all were lost."

SUSPICIOUS VESSEL, BELIEVED GERMAN RAIDER, REPORTED 300 MILES OFF HALIFAX

Schooner Flying American Flag—Three Masts and Funnel, Latter Probably False—Warning to Shipping Sent Out Boston, Nov. 3.—A possible German commerce raider, flying the American flag, has been sighted off the coast of the Canadian provinces. She is reported as a suspicious looking schooner, 300 feet long, painted black or brown and flying the United States colors. She has been reported to naval authorities by incoming liners during the last few days. The location of the boat is given as about 300 miles off Halifax and in a straight line 1,000 miles east of Nantucket. Rear-Admiral Schroeder, of the hydrographic office, said in a statement yesterday: "Steamers and sailing vessels should maintain a sharp lookout for a large schooner of uncertain identity, which has been sighted off the north Atlantic coast, flying the American flag. Her location on October 26, when last seen, was latitude 40 degrees 22 minutes north of longitude 50 degrees 15 minutes west. The vessel has three masts and one funnel forward. It is believed that the funnel is false."

ENEMY PRESSES LEFT WING OF THE ITALIANS

Effort to Cut Cadorna Force in Two Now Proves Failure ITALIANS KEEN TO FIGHT Great Rush to Arms—Trouble Makers of Two Weeks Ago Now See How The Germans Have Deceived Them Rome, Nov. 3.—Austro-German pressure was more noticeable yesterday on the left wing of the Italian armies on the front line, says today's official statement. Attempts made by the Austrians to reach the right bank of the river had been checked by the Italian troops. New York, Nov. 3.—A special cable to the Herald from Rome says: "The Italian army can now be considered a complete failure. The most acute period of the crisis was passed yesterday when the movement collapsed at its essential point. True, the strategic key to the Julian front is now threatened, but the army is in a battle manoeuvre, reorganizing its work and obedient to commands. "Animated by fighting ardor and fired by the incipient failure, it has now a thirst for victory and revenge. "The concentration of the Italian army on the Venetian plains shows it has been completely changed in character and is forming itself into two groups. Facing two adversaries, strategic lines. The Austrians are preparing to fight on this battlefield where on many occasions during the centuries have been decided the destinies of Europe."

DISLOYALISTS AT HOME SCATHINGLY DENOUNCED

Manster Mass Meeting in New York Calls for Expulsion of Senator LaFollette New York, Nov. 3.—Disloyalists within the labor movement were scathingly denounced at a mass meeting in Madison Square Garden last night under the auspices of the American Defense Society, at which Dr. David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, were the principal speakers. The meeting ended in a patriotic frenzy when Dr. Hill declared that "the forces of loyalty must prevail over the cohorts of sedition." Resolutions were passed proclaiming that the American people have expressed their irrevocable determination to prosecute the war against Germany to a victorious conclusion, and denouncing Senator Robert LaFollette as "an enemy of the republic and a traitor to his country's cause," and calling on the United States senate to expel him.

TORONTO WORLD CALLS FOR INVESTIGATION OF SUGAR SITUATION Toronto, Nov. 3.—Investigate the sugar famine, demands the World editorially today. "The government," the paper says, "should make an investigation and then take action. They might find things almost as surprising as they found in the bacon inquiry."

TAKING "WIN THE WAR" NAME A POLITICAL TRICK, SAYS FISHER

Sutton, Que., Nov. 3.—"Sir Robert Laird Borden and his colleagues have resorted to quite a trick, in calling themselves the win-the-war party," said Hon. Sydney Fisher, addressing a political meeting here last night. "There were two parties in Canada, the reformers and the Tories," said Mr. Fisher. "The old Tory party became so discredited before the people, that it decided to take the name of Conservative. Later the Conservative party became so discredited that it had, in turn, to change its name to that of Liberal-Conservative. Now we have the adoption of a name which reflects the opinion and will of all the electors." Mr. Fisher said everybody wanted to win the war. He warned his hearers against a Borden government conspiracy to rob the electors of their votes. Back of the conspiracy, he said, were the war profiteers. Enumerators. Ottawa, Nov. 3.—An appointment of enumerators will be left in the hands of returning officers. The prime minister issued an appeal for the selection of men who will command "the confidence of the community and that just representation in the making such appointments. The Veterans. Ottawa, Nov. 3.—Acting President Sheahan, of the Great War Veterans' Association yesterday, in a letter to the secretary of that organization, calls upon all members to unite on win-the-war candidate in the city's war front. Ottawa, Nov. 3.—Bower Henry, receiver of Hebert, a supporter of union government, announces himself as Conservative candidate for Carleton county. Soldier Candidate. London, Ont., Nov. 3.—The Great War Veterans' Association yesterday tendered Lieut.-Colonel William Cole, returned, the nomination as soldiers' representative and win-the-war candidate. He accepted. For Union Candidate. Victoria, B. C., Nov. 3.—At a special meeting of the Liberal Association, a committee of five members was appointed to meet with a similar number of representatives from Conservative win-the-war and Great War Veterans' organizations for the purpose of discussing the choice of a union candidate in Victoria. HEAVY LOSS IN TORONTO FIRE TODAY Toronto, Nov. 3.—Spontaneous combustion is held responsible for a disastrous fire which gutted the one-story building of the Cluff Ammunition Company here this morning. The loss is estimated at $200,000. About 600 employees are thrown out of work temporarily. PHOTIC ARE PHOTIC WEATHER REPORT Issued by Authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service. Synopsis.—Since yesterday morning a few local showers have occurred in the Ottawa valley, St. Lawrence valley, otherwise the weather has been fair over the dominion except in the British Columbia coast, where rain has fallen heavily. Forecasts. Ottawa Valley and Upper and Lower St. Lawrence.—Moderate to fresh west to northwest winds, fair today and on Sunday, not much change in temperature. Gulf and North Shore.—Fresh winds, shifting to west and north, light falls of rain or snow today; Sunday fair and cool. May Be Snow. Maritime.—Fresh southwest to north-west winds, a few light falls of rain or snow, Sunday, fair and cool. Washington, Nov. 3.—New England fair tonight and Sunday; moderate west winds, becoming variable.

FRENCH ARE ON THE ADVANCE; GERMANS BACK UP FARTHER

Enemy Retreat To North Bank of Ailette River HAVE LOST MANY GUNS Petain Captures 422 Large Ones Besides 720 Machine Guns—Many Airplanes Brought Down—Only Artillery Work On British Front Paris, Nov. 3.—The French are advancing between the Oise Canal and the region of Corbeny, and have reached the south bank of the Ailette river. The war office so announces. The Germans have retreated to the north bank of the river. The bridges across the Ailette were destroyed by the Germans. Since October 26, the French have captured 200 heavy and field guns, 222 trench cannons and 720 machine guns. In the period between October 21 and 31, twenty-three German airplanes were brought down. Of these twenty-one were destroyed by French pilots after combat and two by special cannon. Furthermore, twenty-eight enemy machines were damaged seriously and descended within the German lines. On British Front. London, Nov. 3.—Artillery activity continues in the Ypres sector, but otherwise there is nothing special to report from Flanders. The war office announced so last night. Yesterday very little flying was possible owing to the low lying clouds and rain. One of our pilots flew through the clouds, which were at the height of 200 feet, to the Gontroud airdrome and dropped two heavy bombs. On Wednesday our anti-aircraft guns shot down one of the enemy's bombing machines. This was in addition to seven hostile machines already recorded as having been downed that day. SEE SIGNS OF A GERMAN OFFENSIVE AGAINST RUSSIA Petrograd, Nov. 3.—General Tchermishev, commander-in-chief on the northern front, who has just made a trip to Petrograd, said the Germans were planning operations on a large scale, including landing of troops on the shores of the Gulf of Bothnia under the protection of their fleet. He also said he expected a vigorous action on the Riga front. The newspapers say a German offensive is expected in Moldavia, with the object of invading Ukraine. Prominent Maine Man Dead Cyrus W. Davis, surveyor of the Portland customs district and former secretary of state under Governor Plaisted's administration, died on Thursday of pneumonia. Mr. Davis was the Democratic candidate for governor against Governor William T. Cobb, of Rockland in 1904 and 1906, and had served in the legislature as representative from Waterville, of which city he was mayor in 1903-4. He was one of the organizers and owners of the Waterville Sentinel. Mr. Davis was born in Buxton in 1856. RUSSIANS AGAIN FRATERNIZING WITH THE ENEMY TROOPS Petrograd, Nov. 3.—Russian troops in the Vistuleff sector yesterday fraternized with the German troops. This was announced today by the Russian war office. Will Become Nun Paris, Nov. 3.—Mademoiselle Eve Lavalliere, for years one of the famous figures of Parisian life and long favorite at the Theatre des Varieties, has left the stage to take the veil.

SUSPICIOUS VESSEL, BELIEVED GERMAN RAIDER, REPORTED 300 MILES OFF HALIFAX

C. P. R. APPEALS BELIEVE SMALLPOX WILL BE CHECKED

Says Material Losses Should Share in Proceeds of Sale of Steamer Situation in Northern New Brunswick—Precautions That Are Being Taken (Special to Times) Fredericton, Nov. 3.—The smallpox situation in New Brunswick is considered fairly serious but the health authorities have taken extra precautions and believe that spread of the disease will be checked. Northern Maine is the source of the cases which are giving trouble in New Brunswick. Several cases of smallpox in Northern Maine were diagnosed as pneumonia and allowed to leave the country. York county received two of them in that way. The frontier between New Brunswick and Maine is guarded now and traffic of all kinds is under control. The federal authorities at Ottawa acted so soon as their attention was drawn to the matter. Dr. R. H. McGrath, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health accompanied by John Hall of East Orange, N.J., who is in New Brunswick at the request of Hon. W. F. Roberts to make a general health survey, went to Burt's Corner yesterday on account of suspected cases being reported at Allen's Hotel. The proprietor, Harry Allen and his two sons were found to be ill, but the disease was not pronounced to be smallpox. They were isolated and under observation. The case of Roy Hawkins, son of Henry Hawkins of Douglas, is a very severe one and on account of the disease not being reported to a physician until well advanced, several persons were exposed to contact. One student of the Fredericton business college is under quarantine at his home in this city and another house is also under quarantine here. Today the business college is closed for the purpose of fumigation. BEN TILLET WINS BRITISH BY-ELECTION London, Nov. 3.—Ben Tillett, Labor leader, running as an independent candidate, defeated Sir Charles Mallet, coalition candidate, in a by-election for parliament at North Salford yesterday. Tillett's majority was 1,277. Tillett is a vigorous supporter of the war. MANY LIVES THAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN SAVED CAPTAIN PAPINEAU OF PRINCESS PATS KILLED; ONE OF THE ORIGINALS Montreal, Nov. 3.—Private advice received here announces the death in action of Captain Talbot M. Papineau of the original Princess Pats. He was a grandson of Louis Joseph Papineau, who took a prominent part in the disturbances in Quebec of 1837. MORGAN'S ALLEY READY The reconstruction of the wooden steps in Morgan's alley will be completed and the alley opened again for traffic by this evening. Battle News From Within Canadian Lines The Stiff Fighting of Last Few Days—Germans for Time Stood up Better Before Bayonet—The Work of the Aeroplanes—The Wounded and The Handling of Them (Times' Special Cable by F. A. McKenzie, Copyright.) With the Canadians in the field, via London, Nov. 1.—The second stage of the great battle for Passchendaele ridge ended in another glorious, bloody and hard-won victory in which Canada had a great part. We have taken all our objectives and at points have gone beyond them. We remain masters of the line despite a furious German counter-attack from the neighborhood of Vapour Farm to that of Vienna Cottage. Our men are entrenched on the outskirts of Passchendaele Village—a village in name only for it is now nothing but one great ruin. Our advance since Friday morning is one mile at the widest point, tapering somewhat on either flank. This may sound little for the tremendous effort necessary to reach only from St. John's House to the One Mile House, with a front of little more than 3,000 yards, but anyone who has witnessed the nature of the German defence knows how hitherto they have resisted attempt after attempt to pierce them with an accomplishment rarely equaled in this war. (Continued on page 7, fourth column.)

NINE CASES IN DIVORCE COURT, THREE CONTESTED

Fredericton, Nov. 3.—The divorce court will sit here on next Tuesday. There are nine cases entered since the last sitting. In five of the cases suit is brought by the husband and in four by the wife. Of the nine cases one is that of Phillips vs. Phillips which was entered before but which was withdrawn for an amendment of the libel. This case will not come to trial at this time as a commission has been issued for the taking of evidence in Vancouver where the plaintiff husband and his wife once resided. A commission for the taking of evidence in England was issued some time ago. The plaintiff was a lieutenant in the 55th Infantry and since being transferred from that unit has been serving in France. The defendant is in England. Another case in which commission will not return in time also is included in the nine cases. It leaves five cases that will come to trial next week. A contempt to the late Sergt. A. H. Boddington has been erected in the rural cemetery by his widow. It is the first to be erected in this vicinity for any soldier in the present war. Sergt. Boddington left Fredericton in the 20th Field Battery. After winning the military medal in France he was killed in action.

ELEVATOR READY ABOUT DECEMBER 1

Work on the new elevator in Water street is progressing and the complete structural framework has been erected. So speedily have the workmen done their work that it is hoped that the elevator will be completed by December 1 or thereabouts. The inside frame is completed, as is the lower half of the structure and the work of installing the machinery and of fixing on the corrugated siding is now under way. The building now stands at 205 feet, its full height, and has a very imposing appearance, besides adding greatly to the general contour of the city's water front.

SHIP LUMBER NOW COSTS GOVERNMENT $40 PER M.

A general increase of $5 a thousand in prices of the U. S. government is paying for shipbuilding lumber, was announced Thursday by the shipping board. The new price will average about $40 a thousand. Officials of the southern pine emergency bureau at a conference with Chairman Hurley of the shipping board and Chairman Harris of the federal trade commission gave assurance that the government will have no more difficulty in obtaining deliveries of ship timbers. To make available more timber for shipbuilding, the war trade board has just placed an embargo on the export of timber of large sizes. RED CROSS CONTRIBUTIONS IN PROVINCE LIKELY $50,000 It is expected that, when all the returns are in and additional contributions which still are being received are credited, that the total contributions from New Brunswick for the British Red Cross fund will reach the $50,000 mark. The money received by the treasurer of the local fund now totals $37,350, and the provincial treasurer has received from other parts of the province some $10,257. Additional contributions of about $2,300 are in sight which would bring the total to the vicinity of $50,000. While this amount is not large compared with the contributions from some of the other provinces, it is a vast improvement on the contributions of other years. A late casualty list reports A. Horne of Enfield, N. S., gassed.

Good Things Coming to Theatres of St. John

SEEING THE BRAT BEHIND THE CURTAIN

Delightful Star Positively Charming When Met as Miss Rhea Martin

(By Tena Jordan in Thursday's Portland (Me.) Argus.

When Miss Rhea Martin, who appears in the title role in "The Brat," which opened at the Jefferson Theatre last evening, says "I'm the guy," the whole audience realizes that she is, for whose would that piece be without this charming, red-haired girl, who the minute she makes her appearance captures the heart of everyone in the house.

It was in the first act of the play, her beauty hidden in the shabby, dirty costume of the girl who had no home and who had just been taken from the night police court, that I first saw Miss Martin. That she was pretty was unquestionable, and that she had talent was assured from the moment she began to speak her opening lines, but behind the scenes she is positively fascinating.

She was just changing from her unattractive costume of the first act to the charming blue frock which she wears in the second, when I entered her dressing room for a chat. She is very young—exceedingly young, in fact a mere child. She is dainty, full of vivacity, a magnificence that holds one and with all she is a sweet, simple child. Her hair is the shade of red that artists most admire, and her eyes are blue—the color of the sky. A smile that is bewitching is one of her chief assets; this with a most cordial manner makes it very easy to enter a chat with the star of "The Brat."

Miss Martin has been in pictures. She has been featured in Biography and "Woman" pictures, but she hates them. "I call a picture studio the factory," she says, "and I am around all day waiting for work. Perhaps at six o'clock you are told that they will not begin the picture until the next day, and then again you may have to work all night. I certainly didn't like it," said the dainty miss.

Most everyone in this city has seen Miss Martin in pictures, for she was very near as popular as Mary Pickford in the silent dramas. When theatre-goers see this production they will immediately recognize her as the star of several great pictures.

Miss Martin loves the role she has in "The Brat," and she acts so naturally that you are convinced that she is fascinated with the part. She is simply captivated in the role, giving the characterization just the right touch and never overdoing it in the least.

YOU'LL LIKE GEM'S BILL

The Gem offers another worth-while programme for tonight, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. "The Final Payment" is seen in an inviting live picture story of picturesque Sicily. The vaudeville acts are of the highest quality. See particulars on amusement page and come tonight.

TWO LOVE AFFAIRS IN "THE BRAT"

There is a double love affair in "The Brat," Maud Fulton's exquisite comedy to be shown in the Imperial next Wednesday and Thursday. In the first place Angela Smythe is enamored of the stirring novelist, MacMillan Forrester, but in that conventional and stilted manner characteristic of the upper classes. Then again there is a love that springs up between the Brat herself—a rank outsider from the underworld—and the younger brother of the aristocratic family, Stephen Forrester, who has long since been considered a disgrace to the home because of his weak nature and drunken spells. There is much thoughtful people to study in these two cases and upon the outcome of both heart affairs much of the whole play depends.

FIGHT IN TANK OVER WATER POLO MATCH

Montreal, Nov. 2.—A free-for-all fight, in which practically every player on both teams took part, marked a water polo match last night between the M.A.A.A. and McGill in the Central Y.M.C.A. tank. The match was a much more strenuous checking and numerous heavy penalties. The players were in the shallow end and stood up to a fierce encounter. One by one all drifted into a battle which the officials were for some time powerless to stop.

MARY PICKFORD IN GRIP OF THE HUNS

The Great Aircraft Picture "The Little American" at Imperial Monday

As an attraction extraordinary, the Imperial Theatre announces the engagement of the new Mary Pickford picture, "The Little American," conceded to be the greatest patriotic message ever seen on the motion picture screen. Staged on conditions across the ocean, have captured the attention of the nation.

Popularly known as "America's Sweetheart," Miss Pickford presents a fitting characterisation in the title role of this new Aircraft picture. Presenting a story of timely theme by Mr. DeMille and Jeanie Macpherson, this production will bring home most effectively, conditions involving the present great war. Stirring views of spectacular war scenes on land and sea, are pictured in modern manner of photoplay technique.

As Angela Moore, the little American girl who braves the dangers of the war zone, Mary appears in what is really thought to be the dramatic effort of her career. In scenes that demand much histrionic finesse she offers a portrayal that is unlike anything hitherto given to the screen by this famous little actress.

In the production of "The Little American," various well known authorities on conditions across the ocean, have collaborated with Mr. DeMille, with the result that the most minute detail has been pronounced perfect. Again the combined arts of Mary Pickford and Cecil B. DeMille have been linked together in the cause of the photoplay and, judging from advance reports, this production will go down in motion-picture history as one of its great works of art, one of its most powerful appeals.

GERALDINE FARRAR AS JOAN OF ARC TO BE SEEN HERE SOON

One of the big events in theatrical history this season will take place at the Lyric Theatre on the twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth of this month when Jesse L. Lasky will present the magnificent Geraldine Farrar in a magnificent motion picture production based on the life of Joan of Arc and entitled, "Joan the Woman."

The magnificent portrayal of this immortal subject in eleven acts and represents one of the big productions of the year, in fact many critics have placed it in the same category as "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance." More particulars will be given later.

MELLOWES FREED ON BAIL

New York, Nov. 3.—General Liam Mellowes, a Sinn Fein leader, said to have commanded a force of 700 men in the Irish rebellion of 1916, and recently arrested here on a charge of conspiring to defraud the government, was released from prison yesterday on $7,500 bail. Mellowes, who is being held for the grand jury, is accused of having represented himself as an American citizen in order to obtain a seaman's certificate under the name of Patrick Donnelly.

WHISKEY STOLEN FROM POLICE CHIEF'S OFFICE

These Fall Cases, Retrieved From Big Seizure by Lewiston's Thirty Cops

Following a big haul made by Chief Keegan of the Lewiston police department and his squad on Monday, comes the recovery of three full cases of whiskey from the chief's office on Tuesday evening.

According to the way the chief sizes things up, the cases were passed out of the unlocked window of his office. He states that the chief is peeved, would be an extremely mild way of denoting the real condition of his mind, for, far from being a joke, it appears that he will have to pay for the missing liquor unless (which is very unlikely), it is recovered before the time of libel (12 days), is up.

WAR NOTES

It is reported that Arab troops of the King of Mecca retold the Hedjaz railway recently, killing or capturing the Turkish garrisons and destroying a considerable portion of the railway.

The proposed appeal in Montreal on behalf of the British Red Cross Society has been postponed until after the victory loan has been subscribed.

PROGRESS OF WHARF WORK
Mayor Hayes accompanied Commissioner Russell on a trip of inspection around the wharves in West St. John to see the repairs which have been made and which are in progress. On his return, His Worship said he was well satisfied with the progress of the work, so far as he could judge it. He believes that everything will be in readiness in good time for the winter season. Regarding the work of Kane & King who are re-building No. 2 wharf and warehouse, he said that it looked to him like exceptionally substantial work. He was assured by disinterested persons who were familiar with wharf construction that the new structure will be the most solidly built in the port.

DEATH OF M. O'BRIEN

Michael O'Brien, aged fifty, single, died in the St. John Infirmary this morning as a result of laryngitis. Mr. O'Brien had been ill for about two weeks. His brother, James O'Brien, is president of the city and conducts a pool-room in Charlotte street.

ITALIAN GENERAL 11 TIMES WOUNDED

All Staff Officers Killed or Wounded—Grim Scenes in Exodus of People

Rome, Nov. 3.—Describing the events of the Italian retreat of October 27 and later, a correspondent of the Associated Press says General Gonzaga was transported to Udina, suffering from eleven wounds. All his staff officers were killed or wounded, and only three of his fifty horsemen escort remained alive. General Badoglio, with his Bersaglieri, stood on Matujur, the new Thermopyles of the Austrian offensive, commanding the task from Caporetto to Cividale, fighting without hope, but also without the idea of surrender. Of three regiments of Bersaglieri only one lieutenant remained alive, and he was wounded. The correspondent describing the exhausted of the fugitives, says they comprised people of all classes—in autos, in vehicles of all epochs and oxen drawn. They were women with half naked children in their arms and others crying or beating their breasts because they had lost their children in the confusion. There were wounded and maimed children in their arms, carried by relatives. A heavy rain added to the miseries of the refugees.

WATERWORKS PLANT AT SPRUCE LAKE DAMAGED IN STORM

Several days after the storm occurred, it has been found that the waterworks plant at Spruce Lake was seriously damaged. It is convincing evidence of the strength of the gale that it could create sufficient disturbance in a lake to wash away the heavy crib-work which supports the intake pipe and the screens. The pipe working loose also caused considerable damage to the concrete of the gate house. A crew of men was at work all night making repairs and the work is being continued today. So far it has not been necessary to cut off the water supply, although this may be necessary before the work is completed. A diver will be sent down next week to see what repairs for the crib-work are needed.

BEHEVED GOVERNOR WILL SOON BE NAMED

Since the death of Lieutenant-Governor Ganong on Tuesday the province has been without an official head and so far no announcement has been made regarding the appointment of an administrator to act until his successor is appointed. It has been the subject of much speculation. Political developments of the last few weeks have made guesswork more difficult and the names of several prominent gentlemen are mentioned for the office. However it is believed that it will be a St. John man who next will fill the office of lieutenant-governor.

C. P. R. INCREASES LOCAL FARES IN MAINE STATE

(Special Correspondence of Bangor Commercial.)
Augusta, Me., Nov. 3.—Public Utilities Commission on Friday rendered a decision revoking and annulling the order of suspension of passenger rates on the Canadian Pacific Railway in Maine. The C. P. R. Co. filed a schedule of passenger rates to be operative Sept. 1, increasing the local fares from five to twenty-five cents from Brownville Junction to Vanboro. The Maine Central Railway was intended to keep the charges uniform.

The passenger trains of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company run over a considerable portion of the tracks of the Maine Central Railroad Company in some territories. The Maine Central Railroad Company has filed new passenger tariffs showing increases applicable to the same points, and the proposed rates of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company were intended to keep the charges uniform.

The Maine Central increased rates were under investigation, their operation having been suspended. This latter investigation has now been completed, and the rates involved have been permitted to become effective. The same general principles which controlled our decision in the Maine Central case apply to the present case, with the additional argument in favor of lifting the suspension order that the same traffic, between the same points, over the same railroad, ought to be subject to the same rates and regulations, whether handled by one company or the other.

Waterworks Plant at Spruce Lake Damaged in Storm

Several days after the storm occurred, it has been found that the waterworks plant at Spruce Lake was seriously damaged. It is convincing evidence of the strength of the gale that it could create sufficient disturbance in a lake to wash away the heavy crib-work which supports the intake pipe and the screens. The pipe working loose also caused considerable damage to the concrete of the gate house. A crew of men was at work all night making repairs and the work is being continued today. So far it has not been necessary to cut off the water supply, although this may be necessary before the work is completed. A diver will be sent down next week to see what repairs for the crib-work are needed.

SECOND ELECTRIC WELDER FOR WORK ON STREET RAILWAY

The new Lincoln Arc welder ordered by the New Brunswick Power Company, to speed up the work of welding the joints and ends of the street car rails, arrived in the city on Thursday. The machine was somewhat damaged on reaching here and it is supposed that the car in which it was shipped had been given some rather rough jolts on the trip to St. John. The damage, however, is not to any of the essential parts and the machine will be in readiness for use the first of the week.

The company has been fortunate in securing a machine of this type so promptly. It is of the very latest type, and is much more powerful than any other machine of its kind. It has been possible to weld and joint fifteen joints per night. With the new machine at work this rate will be more than doubled, and, as a result, the rough spots and the rough going will be eliminated all the more rapidly from the company's lines.

This work is now being done in Main street, this side of Douglas avenue. Each night, after the service has been shut down, the machine has been put to work and welding and smoothing operations carried on until the car service is completed the next day. It involves a lot of labor, for the concrete, at each rail joint, has to be chopped away so as to permit the work to be done on the rail joint and the smoothing down of the rough or cupped rail edges is done at the same time. These small excavations are then temporarily filled in so as not to interfere with street traffic on the following day. Another gang of men follows up the welders and once again cleans the rail joints in their concrete bedding after which the paving stones are replaced.

It was feared, at first, that it would be necessary to rip up a considerable portion of the street to do this work, but this has been overcome by digging just at the point where the rails join. The work is thus being carried on quickly and without any delay.

It is unhampered whether night or day. With the second welding machine in operation the work will go ahead with leaps and bounds.

When the Kidneys Fail

Poisons Remain in the Blood, Which Cause Pains and Aches—Read here of the Surest Way of Setting the Kidneys Right.

Brookville, Oct. 26. — If you have headaches, backaches and rheumatic pains you are caused to suspect the kidneys. Pain is caused by poisons in the blood when the kidneys are defective and fail to do their work.

That Brookville lady who reported her case because she believes that a great many people are suffering as she did without knowing the cause or cure.

Mrs. Frank Noyes, 9 Stuart street, Brookville (Ont.), writes: "For years I was afflicted with rheumatism, and I became very nervous, was easily worried and had frequent headaches and neuralgic pains. My doctor prescribed a bag. I had indigestion, poor circulation of the blood and often was bothered with weak spells. I commenced using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and in only two boxes when I felt greatly relieved. I continued the treatment, however, until I was completely cured. The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 3, 1917.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE WAR SITUATION

It was pointed out by the Times yesterday that if President Kennedy were correctly reported his statement forecasted the practical withdrawal of Russia from the war, and the hope was expressed that he had been misunderstood.

It is now suggested that there may be heavy fighting all winter on the Italian front, where the winter weather conditions are more favorable than in France and Flanders.

Meanwhile Dr. Michaelis is down and out, and Count Von Hertling, described as the most bitter of all German halts of England, is the new chancellor.

Reviewing the war situation at some points on the western front. On the Italian front preparations are in progress for what may be tremendous battles for supremacy.

The Canadian correspondent at the front writes that information gathered from prisoners indicates increasing uneasiness in Germany.

THE ELECTION ACT

Referring to the "infamous" war-time election act, the Halifax Chronicle describes it as "without parallel in the political history of the Dominion, and adds: "But the new government can do something to mitigate the iniquity of it by seeing that the act shall be operated as fairly and equitably as its provisions will permit."

It is gratifying to note that in New Brunswick Hon. Mr. Carvell has pursued the course advocated by the Chronicle. It is clear that if under the union government any attempt were made to introduce partisanship into the machinery of the election act it would be resented by every Liberal in the country.

The Halifax Echo hands this one to the food controller—"In the tenders for supplies to the City Home there were a number of interesting quotations, one of which was the tender of a firm for fish for the Home, to be supplied "as required."

Philadelphia Press—"If the people of this town want efficient municipal government; if they want police clubs and tuggery kept out of politics; if they want elections without murder; if they want to stop fee-grubbing; if they want retrenchment and economy in the public departments, they will just have to vote for these things."

There is naturally a degree of sympathy for the Standard and Globe in these troublesome days in the political arena. Both of them are vexed and worried, and more or less apprehensive. And they have also the rather sad and gloomy consciousness that there is no relief in prospect.

China has agreed to charter to England nine German vessels now in Chinese ports and aggregating 29,984 tons. This will only help to offset part of one week's loss by submarine, but every little bit helps at such a time as the present.

Italians are making trouble in southern Brazil. It will not last long, for the Brazilians have learned the true character of the disturbers, and will take prompt measures to maintain order.

Hopes To Defer Operation of Military Act For Five Years

Montreal, Nov. 3.—Paul E. Mongeau, an anti-conscriptionist, under arrest on a charge of violating the Military Service Act, who has applied for a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge St. Cyr from giving judgment in his case, addressed a meeting last night at St. Mary's Labor Club.

He expressed the hope, gathered from his lawyer's view of the case, that the proceedings he has taken will lead to a delay of five years in the operation of the Military Service Act.

No Furlough For 1st Contingent

An official statement, issued at Ottawa, announces that no action is being taken to bring back for a long furlough the men of the first contingent and that this cannot be hoped for as the exigencies of military service make it impossible.

Casualties
One hundred and fifty-seven thousand men have registered under the terms of the military service act. Exemption claims total 144,028 and reports for service, 12,975.

Registrations
Mr. and Mrs. William Irvine have been advised that their son, Private Richard Irvine, a member of the 29th battalion, has been killed in action. He was a popular North Shore young man.

Alexander Macdrea of Campbellton, has been advised that his son, Private Ernest Macdrea, had died while a prisoner in Germany.

Samuel M. Crawford of Leaside, has been advised that his son, Sergeant W. Percy Crawford, who was wounded in the Somme engagement, is soon to sail for Canada.

For Flying Corps
A. Vernon Hatch, of this city, who was on the staff of the C.P.R. in Toronto, has enlisted in the Royal Flying Corps as a cadet.

The five young men who went to Halifax to take the tests for the Royal Flying Corps were all successful. They were Frederick Power, Guy Scovil, Balguy Peterson, Lieut. Cuthbert and Joseph Brennan.

Tablet Unveiled
On Thursday morning at early communion service in St. Paul's church, a tablet in memory of Reginald Heber Hamilton Daniel, only son of Canon A. W. Daniel, rector of the parish, was unveiled. Private Daniel was killed in action on August 16, 1915.

Norman A. Dobbin Wounded
Word was received yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. John Dobbin, of Rothesay, that their son, Norman A. Dobbin, had been admitted to hospital in England suffering with wound in the shoulder.

Ottawa List
The Ottawa list for the maritime provinces last night contained the names of three St. John men, Sapper J. A. McDonald, wounded; Gunner S. H. Penny, of 78 St. Patrick street, wounded, and Lieut. W. Walsley, gunner. Gunner Penny has another brother, Herbert J. Penny, also overseas. Among the list of missing is that of Captain Daniel Owen, of Annapolis (N. S.). Captain Owen is a newspaper man of renown having written many articles that attracted widespread attention, dealing with his native province of Nova Scotia.

Comfortables and Blankets

It is now the season for heavier Bedclothing if one cares anything about sleeping comfort

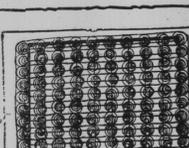

Our showing of Down Quilts is most extensive and attractive, a splendid combination of utility and beauty. Our Blankets comprise the best known makes. They are soft and warm, some in pretty shades of grey and fawn. All are the most desirable quality.

DOWN QUILTS—In the new designs and colorings, covered with figured downproof satins and sateen, with borders and panels of plain material to match, ventilated and filled with the best quality of down. Now is the time to purchase, as you have choice of best patterns $7.75 to $20.00

COMFORTABLES—Our own make, silkline covered, extra large size, 6 ft. x 6 ft. 9 in. $3.50 each
Extra large size, sateen covered $4.50 each

BLANKETS—Best grades of Scotch, American and Domestic make. Pink, blue or yellow borders $4.00 to $13.00
Also Plaid Blankets in pink, blue, grey and fawn $3.75 to $6.50 pair

THE "BANNER" Bed Spring

For many years the "Banner" has been the most widely known and popular Bed Spring on the market. It has remained buoyant and comfortable under every condition of use—often when other Springs have become saggy and uncomfortable. The rigid frame of flat Steel Bands are turned on edge and riveted to heavy angle steel sides, and the 100 coils of high-grade Oil-tempered Spring Steel are secured by patented top cross wires, which hold coils in place, and are so interlaced and fastened that each spiral is held upright, and cannot become loose, although it still has individual freedom of action.

The heavy edge wires are made of Tempered Spring Steel, that yield to pressure, but will not kink or break. As a result, the "Banner" has a level yielding surface that gives at hips and shoulders, the points of most pressure, thus maintaining the spinal column in a straight line, and restful sleep under all conditions. It will never sag, and is guaranteed for twenty years. The price is but $10.00, and as the construction is exactly the same as the interior of an Upholstered Box Spring costing nearly twelve times the price, we consider it an excellent investment for a life-time of comfort.

NO COMPROMISE ON NIGHT 'PHONE RATES

The hearing of the application of the New Brunswick Telephone Company for permission to make their night rates effective only after 11 o'clock instead of at 6 as at present was concluded last evening.

Before closing, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter for the company, made a suggestion to the commission that the company would be satisfied to have the schedule changed from 6 o'clock p. m. to 8.30 p. m. instead of 11, but R. W. McLellan opposed this.

The evidence taken at the hearing during the afternoon session was largely of a technical nature and was given by Traffic Manager H. C. Gay.

H. W. Rising and J. A. Marvin spoke of the disadvantage which the new schedule would be to commercial travelers.

Ald. McLellan, after asking for a few minutes to discuss the case with those opposed to the new schedule, said he had no evidence to offer.

Tired Nervous Mothers

A mother who is overworked, tired, nervous, irritable—on the verge of hysteria makes an unhappy home. The very thing she does not want to do.

Such a condition often develops a serious derangement of the feminine organs, causing irritability, despondency, sleepless nights and nervous prostration. At such times remember there is a tried and true remedy,

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

For forty years this famous Vegetable Medicine has been conquering the ills of women and the very best proof of this is such letters as these:

Northport, N.Y.—"I suffered from a female trouble and doctored for a time, using all kinds of treatments. The doctor said I would have nervous prostration. I was so nervous and had such bearing down feelings and headaches, and my housework kept me on my feet so much that I had to do something, and I was persuaded against my will to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I found the first bottle helped me and I continued its use so I am able to do all my work. A year ago I was miserable. I again bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, taking it regularly, and I now consider myself a well woman. I have told lots of women about it. Some would rather pay a doctor, but some have tried it and found it helped them as I said it would."—Mrs. JOHN ALEXANDER, Northport, N.Y.

Denison, Texas.—"After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would ache most of the time. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get your medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after using the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and have never had any female trouble since."—Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Montrose Street, Denison, Texas.

Bridgeton, N.J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and felt a change for the better after the second day. I took it until I was in a good healthy condition. I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with good results."—Mrs. MILFORD T. CUMMINGS, 24 New St., Bridgeton, N.J.

For many years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

TESTING IN THE DAIRY (Office of the Dairy Commissioner, Ottawa)

your herd test at the factory runs perhaps 8.9 or 8.5 as a rule, but supposing you took a sample from one or two cows separately, would you be surprised to find one milk testing 2.6 and another testing 4.3? Some samples of milk from three individual cows that had been sent in for a special test at one factory run up last month over six per cent, but on enquiry it was found that a new hand on the farm had not understood it is necessary to get a representative sample of all the milk, not the strappings only.

To get results that will be of benefit, the person who takes the samples should be careful to get an accurate sample of the whole milk. Don't "monkey" with the test. Information that is of vital importance to the man intent on building up a good herd, cows giving an abundance of milk of good quality, is obtained from careful sampling and accurate testing.

Of course, milk varies in composition.

STOP HEADACHES BEFOREHAND You never had a headache when you were well.

To keep well is to keep clean, inside. To relieve headache, and to prevent it, keep the liver active and industrious and the bowels as regular as a clock.

Two generations of healthy, vigorous people have done this by taking one pill at bedtime, regularly—a large dose when nature gives the warning.

the dairy cow is of a nervous temperament; if it did not vary there would be little need to test. But the very fact that the test may be up one day and down another, within certain reasonable limitations, makes it advisable to test composite samples occasionally. Your testing can be done by yourself or at the factory; by joining a cow testing association composite samples of each cow's milk may be tested monthly free of charge. If there is no association in your locality, persuade some neighbors to join with you and write to the Dairy Division, Ottawa, for milk record forms. C. F. W.

WOMEN IN LUMBER MILLS Spokane, Wash., Nov. 2.—Invasion of lumber mills by women workers is the latest war development in Spokane. Thirty women are employed at the plant of the White Pine Sash Company in Union Park. The "lumberettes" come from Union Park and North Side laundries and down-town offices and stores. They receive $2 an eight-hour day.

All over the mill the girls are doing the work formerly done by men and boys. Most of them wear rough skirts, heavy shoes and heavy gloves. Here a place a wife "falls down" at a machine which her husband tends. Here a girl is sandwiched between two burly lumber heavers and there a couple of "burles" are surrounded by a bevy of girls—all doing their work as if it had ever been thus. The condition was brought about when some girls volunteered to do the work for which men could not be obtained.

"We can't get male help," says Henry G. Klopp, president of the company, "and when the girls asked for a chance at the work we gave it to them. Of course, they are getting none of the heavy work, but what they are doing they can handle as well as a man. They'll tell me they are getting better pay than they can elsewhere."

The Man In The Street

German retirement on the western front may have been voluntary, but Field Marshal Haig supplied the reasons for the voluntary retreat.

The Telephone company believes not only that talk is cheap, but that it is too cheap—at the present night rates.

The Standard is not yet reconciled to the fact that a union government party must include some Liberals.

There would be no trouble in getting that 100,000 of the military, as yet untried, to the front, if the necessary regulations were issued.

Advocates of the change in highway regulations cannot see why an argument is necessary to prove that the right side of the road on which to drive is the right side.

Morning paper includes automobiles among "animals using the highways." Does this give S. P. C. A. jurisdiction over the much abused Ford?

Dr. Muck quits his job as conductor of the symphony orchestra, because he believes the Star Spangled Banner has no place in a musical programme. Did they try him on the Hyman of Hater?

The scalps of a few profiteers would make a valuable addition to the war trophy exhibition which is to be held here next week.

Granting that handsome is as handsome does, we venture to predict that the new German chancellor will win no beauty prize on either count.

Amended reports of Kerensky's speech indicate that he does not want to drop the war load; he merely wants a chance to spit on his hands before taking a fresh grip.

The world is not seriously concerned about the question whether it is mutiny or accidental explosions at Kiel—so long as the net result is dead Germans.

The local concern which is importing coal at a cost of ten dollars per ton, might be able to give the common council coal committee some pointers.

Who Laughs Last

It was Halloween and some young chaps returning from a dance in the early hours of the morning decided to have some fun with a well known citizen. Calling from the phone in the home of one of the boys, they informed the merchant that a householder living opposite his store was speaking and that he had to complain of the noise made by a lot of cats in the store of the aforesaid merchant. The latter, after apologizing for the disturbance, hurriedly dressed and made his way to the store, only to find everything quiet, and a glance across the street reminded him of the fact that there are no dwellings in that neighborhood. He may have been sleepy when he was called out of bed, but he was quite wide awake then and a conversation with central informed him of the telephone number from which the call had come. The next morning the wires burned at the house of the young man's father and the incident threatened action unless apologies were received. Negotiations still are in progress.

A Bit Too Frank

Talking of apologies—we owe one to the food controller who, in a recent issue was described, through a typographical error, as the "fool controller." We would hate to be so unpleasantly truthful.

One More Reason

"Why," asked the housekeeper, "do you charge thirty cents a pound for mutton meat? You can't say that the high cost of living affects them?" The butcher looked worried. "No, ma'am, No'm," he is stammered. Then his face brightened. "But the cost of bullets is something fierce this year."

A West India Product

The little chap had been interested in the West India boats and the stories his mother had told him of what they brought to this port. Just to test his memory she asked him to repeat what she had told him.

"What do the boats bring for us to eat?" she asked.

"Sugar, an' oranges an' coconuts an'—"

"And what else?" asked his mother, adding, as a reminder of molasses, "Something brown and sweet."

"Colored folks" was his best guess.

A New Combination

Jocular comparisons with Mutt and Jeff have been common when visitors to the military headquarters commented on the difference in height and general build of the chief of staff and the former officer commanding. The appointment of a new general officer commanding has done away with this standing joke. While the chief of staff stands six feet one inch in height, the new commanding officer tops him by two inches. As a title for the new combination, "The Heavenly Twins" has been suggested.

In the Neck

Would-be-Councillor Harding, of Rousesay parish, came from a district called "The Neck"—that's where he got his votes.

NOT YET SEPARATE MILITARY DISTRICT

Major-General Benson, general officer commanding military district No. 6, and Major A. N. Jones, staff officer of the district, who have been in the city in connection with the forming of New Brunswick into a separate military district, will leave tonight for Halifax.

There has been nothing definite done in the matter, but several changes have been talked of but as yet the military officials here are not in the position to divulge these. It was learned that it will be a few weeks yet before New Brunswick will be known as military district No. 7.

HALF IN CLASS A

Twenty-six men were examined this morning by the standing medical board. Thirteen were put in Class A, one in Class B, five in Class C, one in Class D and six in Class E.

ST. JOHN OFFICER IN HIGH POSITION

Lieut. Col. G. G. Corbet, M.D., Actr. Assistant Director of M. a. services, Fifth Division

Lieutenant-Colonel G. G. Corbet, M.D., of this city is now filling the important office of assistant director of medical services for the fifth division of the C. E. F. He has been acting in this capacity for the last two months, during the absence of Colonel Drummond, who is engaged in inspection work in France. The reasons of a promotion for Colonel Drummond which would afford the opportunity for making Doctor Corbet's appointment permanent includes more than 30,000 troops at present, the position is a most important one, entailing heavy responsibility, and the fact that Doctor Corbet has been selected to fill this office is a high tribute to his ability. Soon after war was declared Doctor Corbet offered his services and went overseas with the C.A.M.C. After a period of arduous service at the front, he returned, with the rank of major, and organized the overseas field ambulance corps which was recruited and trained he again crossed in command, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel. While he is occupying his present post, Major Stewart Skinner, M.D., is acting lieutenant-colonel of the 16th field ambulance.

REVOLVER SHOTS FIRED BY POLICE

Patrolman Stinson of Fairville, Arrests Two Soldiers and They Break Away

Considerable excitement was caused this morning in Fairville about a break when two men in khaki escaped from Patrolman Stinson at noon. They were reported still at large.

It appears the men were out the road early this morning and asked admittance at Mr. Duncanson's house and were refused. The men then opened fire with stones and broke several windows.

Mr. Duncanson telephoned to Patrolman Stinson, who in plain clothes, met the trio coming into Fairville. They were placed under arrest but escaped, one man going out the road again while the other made down Station street and hid among the railroad cars. The policeman fired a shot or two to bring him out but the soldier remained concealed.

LOCAL NEWS

MARRIAGES AND BIRTHS Four marriages and fifteen babies, nine boys and six girls, were reported to the registrar during the week.

NAVIGATION SCHOOL HERE An Ottawa despatch says that the appointment of A. P. Owen, master mariner, as instructor in the navigation school at St. John, N. B., instead of Captain Rufus C. Cole, is gazetted.

PRESENTATION TO SOLDIER A very pleasant time was spent on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon J. Tutten, 16 Summer street, when relatives and friends gathered in honor of Private Totten of the 8th Field Ambulance. Games and music were enjoyed and refreshments were served. John McElhiney presented a wrist watch to Private Totten. The soldier is to leave soon with a draft and his friends took this opportunity to bid him God-speed and a safe return home.

NOVEMBER RASPBERRIES The Times has received its annual contribution of November raspberries and plums, with a large cucumber added. They were picked this morning in the garden of Mrs. Sarah Senior, Manawagony road. The raspberries were large and ripe and of good flavor, and there were also green ones and blossoms on the bushes from which they were plucked. The plums, though small, were deep purple and fully ripe. The cucumber was of unusually large size and had not been affected by frost. Mr. Senior will send a small box of plums to an officer in France, as a reminder of St. John and its capabilities as a fruit growing centre.

MADILL-JOHNSTON A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnston, Golden Grove, when their daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, was united in marriage to William Blake Madill of French Village. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. N. Somers. The bride was becomingly dressed in white with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. She entered the parlor with her father as the wedding march was played by her sister Gladys. Following the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The dining room was prettily decorated with cut flowers. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful wedding gifts of cut glass and silver, including a remembrance from her Sunday school class. Mr. and Mrs. Madill will reside at French Village.

THE POLICE COURT The case of Robert Orr, charged with striking Mrs. Cosman on the head with a hammer and injuring her severely, was brought up before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning and the prisoner remained until Wednesday, as the woman still is in hospital. Wednesday, Orr says, Mrs. Cosman called him an insulting name and that he, being quick-tempered, chased her. In the chase she had tripped and fallen on her head. The matter will be threshed out fully on Wednesday.

A man was found lying drunk in Gilbert's Lane last night by Police Constables Donahue and Duffy. He was brought before the magistrate and after a hearing sent below.

BLOW AT SINN FEIN

Prominent Members of Catholic Clergy Denounce Armed Rebellion

London, Nov. 3.—The Sinn Fein movement has suffered during the last few days a serious check in consequence of the denunciation of any sort of armed rebellion by some prominent members of the Catholic clergy, according to the Dublin correspondent of the Daily Mail. The correspondent refers especially to a sermon by the Rev. Thomas Gilmerin, bishop of Confert, on the eve of the recent visit of Professor De Valera, one of the prominent Sinn Fein leaders, to Loughrea. Bishop Gilmerin declared that a recourse to armed force under the present circumstances would be morally unlawful. When Professor De Valera spoke at Loughrea he showed himself, according to the correspondent, very apprehensive of ecclesiastical influence, and his language was much more pacific than at the Sinn Fein conference. An important newspaper, the Irish Catholic, denounces strongly Sinn Fein physical force methods. "If," adds the correspondent of the Daily Mail, "the Sinn Feiners continue to preach a hot gospel of revolution they will be denounced by the Church." London, Nov. 3.—The Daily Mail, in its second edition today says: "There is reason to believe that a feeling of disquietude developed in Dublin and some country districts over the Sinn Fein situation. Prof. De Valera's meetings, fixed for Sunday at Newbridge and Kildare, have been prohibited."

PLAYGROUNDS EXECUTIVE

The Playgrounds executive met last evening in the Y. M. C. A. with the president, Mrs. W. C. Good, in the chair. A very satisfactory report of the attendance and interest at the Boys' Club was received, and Mrs. J. H. Doody and Mrs. H. C. Groat were appointed a committee to look after some Wednesday evening entertainments during November. The Girls' Club committee was authorized to make any necessary changes in connection with its work. A card from Mrs. Richard J. Walsh thanked the board for its expression of sympathy with the family in their recent great bereavement. Mr. Walsh was an active and valued member of the board. Several matters of interest were passed over to the annual meeting soon to be held. On the whole, the association has had a successful year. The secretary reported on what is being done to put if possible a part of the Rockwood playgrounds in condition for baseball next year.

Modern Economy.

In some localities, among certain classes of people, the old method of using cream of tartar and soda instead of baking powder for baking is still in vogue, without any apparent reason other than that mother used it. The use of baking powder at the present time is as much an improvement in its way as the modern swift going motor is an improvement over the ox team of former years, and it is hard to understand why some people will adopt modern ideas in some respects and not in others. The use of cream of tartar and soda for baking is now practically obsolete. Previous to the war cream tartar was a comparatively cheap commodity, but at present time retails for eighty to ninety cents a pound, and baking soda from ten to twelve cents a pound, while a first class baking powder may be purchased for 25c a pound.

A MERE DROP IN THE BUCKET

Economists profess to be staggered because Canada is adding $150,000,000 more to its debt through the Victory Loan. They forget that Canada has added an amount to its national wealth this season that makes $150,000,000 look very small. The rise in the price of wheat, oats, barley and other grains has alone involved more than $400,000,000 and the amount of money Canada has received in payment for exports of munitions and products of the farms apart from grain reaches a staggering total. James Cerruthers made the statement to the Victory Loan committee that the value of the grain crops this year in the three northwest provinces would reach the huge total of $750,000,000, while Ontario alone raised $150,000,000 worth of wheat, oats and barley, or an amount equal to the present Victory Loan. One billion dollars would hardly cover the value of crops of all kinds in the whole of Canada.

REVIVAL SERVICES

The spirit was excellent in the Coburg street Christian church last night. There was a good attendance. The devotional service was good. The junior choir sang nicely. The revivalist took for his theme: "What Seek Ye?" A young man made the good confession at the close of the service.

NOVEMBER 10th. Last Day for Reporting for Service or Claiming Exemption.

Only one week remains for the men in Class One to respond to the call under the Military Service Act. In order that every man may fully understand and fulfil his obligations, the following questions and answers are given.

Who is in Class One? All Male British subjects, ordinarily or at any time since the 4th day of August, 1914, resident in Canada, who had on the 13th October 1917, attained the age of 20 years, who were born not earlier than the year 1883, and were on the 6th day of July, 1917, unmarried, or are widowers, but have no child, etc.

What is the next step? The man who has reported for service will be advised by Registered Letter as to anything thereafter required of him. He will not be required to report for duty or be placed on active service earlier than the 10th day of December, 1917.

How should claim for exemption be made? Claim for exemption may be made by any man in Class One, by his employer, business associate or near relative, but it is desirable that not more than one claim be made for any one man.

Forms of claim for exemption will be found in all Post Offices and will be transmitted free by the postmaster to the Registrar.

What are the grounds for Exemption? (a) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in military service, be engaged in other work in which he is habitually engaged;

(b) That it is expedient in the national interest that, instead of being employed in military service, he should continue to be educated or trained; or work for which he is then being educated or trained;

(c) That serious hardship would ensue, if the man were placed on active service, owing to his exceptional financial or business obligations or domestic position;

(d) Ill health or infirmity;

(e) That he conscientiously objects to the undertaking of combatant service and is prohibited from so doing by the tenets and articles of faith, in effect on the sixth day of July, 1917, of any organized religious denomination existing and well recognized in Canada at such date, and to which he in good faith belongs.

(f) That he is exempt from combatant service because disfranchised under the War Times Election Act.

How should Report for Service be made? Men who do not desire to claim exemption will report for service either by mail or in person.

Forms of report will be found in all post offices, and will be transmitted free of postage.

What is the last day for reporting for service or claiming Exemption? NOVEMBER 10th, 1917.

Issued by The Military Service Council.

"Touching this economic question, it might be of interest to those who are horrified at the destruction of the present war and who make light of the ravages of the drink traffic, to contemplate the following facts:

"Canadians killed by the Huns in Flanders since the beginning of the war up to June, 1916—2,000.

"Canadians killed by King Alcohol during the same time—8,000.

"Cost of the war to date—about $180,000,000.

"Cost of strong drink to Canada, directly or indirectly, $800,000,000.

"Foodstuffs, including corn, barley, rye, wheat and molasses, wasted in the manufacture of intoxicating liquors during 1914—274,632,997 lbs. (Inland revenue report). This would provide 1,100 lbs. per annum for each of our 250,000 soldiers at the front and in training.

What a fine donation it would make to the Patriotic Fund or to the starving Belgians!

"Give us prohibition and we can continue the war indefinitely and be better off at the end than we are at present."

"Doubtless some will regard the above statements as almost beyond belief, but a little honest investigation will convince the most skeptical. The vital statistics in the Canadian Year Book for 1914 show a remarkable relationship between the number of insane and the amount of drink consumed."

GERMANY'S LAST HOPE IS IN INTRIGUE

Desperate Efforts For Dissension Among Allies

Von Buelow's Boast Relative To Italy Made Good—Efforts in France and Ireland—Time For Allies to Hold Firmly Together

(Toronto Mail and Empire)

A short time ago Prince von Buelow, formerly Germany's representative in Italy, remarked that he had prominent friends there at work. We now can gaze at some of the fruits of their work, which certainly will enhance Buelow's reputation in his own country and may speed his ambition to play a great part on the world's stage. Writing from Bern, a fortnight or so ago, Julius Grande gave to the New York Times an inkling of what might be expected. At the time he wrote there was no indication of a great Austro-German advance, and the information upon which Mr. Grande based his conclusions was acquired by him at a much earlier date, in fact before the German reply to the Pope's note was issued. It appears there was a conference in Berlin attended by prominent public men, some of them representatives in the Reichstag, some not. The purpose of the gathering was to express opinions as to what form the forthcoming reply should take. That the conference made a change in the reply that had been decided upon is officially denied in Bern, but it has not been denied that there was a conference.

The Socialists' Scheme

The Socialists, it is said, insisted that the German reply should be defined with regard to Belgium, Serbia and Poland and some other matters. They said that Belgium should be evacuated and partially restored; that Serbia should be evacuated and partially restored; that Roumania should be evacuated, but that no indemnity should be paid to her; that Poland should be left an independent state, while Courland should be evacuated and left to settle her own affairs. In return Germany would demand that some of her colonies be returned to her.

Such a statement, while leaving much to be desired from the Allies' point of view, would have an excellent effect upon public opinion in France and England, and particularly in the United States. It would give the elements opposed to war in all those countries, and probably the German agents, a chance to raise their voices in favor of an international conference, with a truce, while certain points were being threshed out. If in the end the German terms were rejected Germany would at least have benefited by the delay and be better able to resume hostilities.

Opposed to this position were members of the Junker party, the pan-Germans and many of the Germany's. They contended that Germany had held out for three years, and that if she could hold out only a few months longer she would be able to impose her own terms of peace. All who spoke laid emphasis on their expectations of dissensions among the allies. One member of the Junker party assured his hearers that before long Italy would be as much disorganized as Russia, and that Germany had thousands of friends in the United States who would be busy making trouble. This view finally prevailed, and it is said that because of the high hopes aroused by the Junker speakers the conference approved of a change in the answer to the Pope's note which made it the nonsense it is, and a production which the Germans themselves do not pretend to understand. The Junker who made the promises about Italy evidently spoke by the book, although there is no reason to suppose that Italy will ever be reduced to the present status of Russia.

"Divide and Conquer"

Germany's original plans have been sadly disarranged by the progress of the war, but they remain essentially the same as ever, and of late appear to have been working out more satisfactorily for her than at any other time. She has all along counted upon defeating her enemies one by one. France was to be the first victim; then she was to turn to Russia. Circumstances have obliged her to alter Russia's position in the batting order, and now we see that Russia stands first among the great powers to be rendered virtually helpless. What she was unable to accomplish by force of arms in Russia she has already achieved by means of her secret agents and her anarchist dupes. Of late we have had sensational revelations of the part her spies tried to accomplish in France. It was announced the other day that Bernstorff was backing another rising in Ireland. It is too early yet to say that all her activities in the United States have been brought to nothing.

New "Talking Points"

Germany's hopes must recently have revived. What she has achieved may not amount to much in a military way. It the whole Italian army were captured her great problem on the western front would be left unsolved, but Germany has secured, in the collapse of Russia and in the disaster to Italy, what salesmen call "talking points." She has them to use as texts from which to exhort her people to continue to hold out, and to encourage her allies. She has removed from Austria the menace of a Russian invasion; she has guided Austria to her greatest victory of the war. If she can provoke another Irish rebellion the whole German population will cheerfully take another hole in its belt. If she can hold on long enough her rulers believe that anything may happen to help them. They are gambling now, and are throwing for the big stake of disorganization among their foes. The point is that Germany's foes cannot be disorganized unless they disorganize themselves.

mad son of alcohol, that idleness is its driving daughter, and that suicide is its despairing child. They claim that the economic waste of the liquor traffic is twice that of the present war to this country.

"Touching this economic question, it might be of interest to those who are horrified at the destruction of the present war and who make light of the ravages of the drink traffic, to contemplate the following facts:

"Canadians killed by the Huns in Flanders since the beginning of the war up to June, 1916—2,000.

"Canadians killed by King Alcohol during the same time—8,000.

"Cost of the war to date—about $180,000,000.

What a fine donation it would make to the Patriotic Fund or to the starving Belgians!

"Give us prohibition and we can continue the war indefinitely and be better off at the end than we are at present."

"Doubtless some will regard the above statements as almost beyond belief, but a little honest investigation will convince the most skeptical. The vital statistics in the Canadian Year Book for 1914 show a remarkable relationship between the number of insane and the amount of drink consumed."

In both Canada and the United States, the investigator will find a remarkably direct relationship between insanity, crime, and pauperism, and the amount of alcoholic liquors consumed. As to the economic question, he will find that drink costs the Dominion eleven times as much as the revenue received, and that in most municipalities the direct cost for poverty and crime alone amounts to five times the revenue received. He will find further that the tax rate in wet towns is sometimes double that in dry towns. It does seem incredible that any intelligent race of people would license men to deal out poverty, crime, insanity, and death and more incredible still that any educated person could be found willing to defend it on the platform and in the public places.

H. ARNOTT, M. B., M. C. P. S., Social Service Board.

Not His Fault.

It was the first case ever tried in Stone Gulch, and the jury had sat for hours arguing and disputing.

At last they struggled back, and the foreman, a tall mountaineer, expressed the general opinion. "We don't think he did it," he said slowly, "for we allowed he wa'n't there; but we think he would of ef he'd had the chaw."

These nine words clearly, and neatly, so in case of ties, both writing and speaking will be considered factors in this contest.

POLICE CHIEF OF NEW YORK DEAD

Schmittberger a Veteran Of 43 Years Service

Survivor of Lexow Fight — Won Enmity of Tammany When He Revealed Police Graft in 1894 — Excelled in Handling Mobs

Max F. Schmittberger, chief inspector of the police department of the city of New York since 1909 and the principal survivor of Lexow's fight against Tammany to end graft twenty-three years ago, died on last Wednesday night of pneumonia at his home, 297 East Sixty-first street, in his sixty-seventh year.

His six sons and his daughters were at his bedside when he died. He had an illness about the middle of August which pulled him down, and he received six months' leave of absence from police headquarters to recover his health.

Max P. Schmittberger was born in Germany, and went to the United States with his parents when he was 4 years old. He was educated in the public schools, and after trying his hand at two or three employments he joined the police department on Jan. 28, 1874, became roundsman on April 2, 1890; sergeant on March 24, 1893, and was made an inspector by Commissioner Greene on May 2, 1908.

A Terror to Criminals Schmittberger was six feet two inches in height and broad across the chest in proportion, with strong, shrewd arms and a wrist that had a vice-like grip which was the terror of burglars and other criminals when he was a young patrolman on the west side in the vicinity of the Thirtieth street station.

In the fall of 1879 he fought in the cellar of an old saloon in Sixth avenue with a dozen notorious crooks, who tried to beat the young policeman to death in their efforts to rescue a prisoner from his clutches, but he held on and was rescued by reserves from the station.

During his forty-three years' connection with the New York police Schmittberger retained his quiet demeanor and dislike for publicity, which were his characteristics as a patrolman walking the streets of New York, and at the last as chief inspector, which is the highest rank in the department that a policeman can rise to today.

Told Lexow of Police Graft When he turned state's evidence during the Lexow investigations in 1894 he neither saved himself nor others in his testimony before the committee. In the report of the Lexow committee, Captain Schmittberger, as he was then, tells of collecting from $150 to $200 a month from his wardmen, as head of the steamboat squad, and in other places in the report there are free confessions of the graft collected by him in the days before the Lexow committee started its investigations.

He was called a "squealer" by members of the police force for his evidence at the investigation and incurred the enmity of Tammany Hall for giving away the secrets of the graft collecting that had been going on in the city for years without interruption.

When Commissioner Greene announced his intention to make Schmittberger an inspector in April, 1903, his evidence before the Lexow committee was remembered, and many protests were sent to the commissioner to prevent him making the appointment. Among the protesters were President Roosevelt and District Attorney Jerome D. Charles H. Pankhurst was the only champion that Captain Schmittberger had, and he proclaimed his right to be made inspector, and Commissioner Greene appointed him in spite of all opposition. At that time he was the best hated man in the police department, and told his friends that he would live down the reputation of the "pre-Lexow" days, and he did.

Police Commissioner Theodore Bingham had Inspector Schmittberger up on charges in 1907 on a complaint about failure to close certain gambling houses in the Fenderson District and quashed them when the facts were presented to him. Two years later he made Schmittberger chief inspector of the New York police.

Excelled in Handling Big Crowds The late technical head of the police department was seen at his best in handling big crowds and commanding large bodies of men. He was very strict, but was always just enough to listen in a case where punishment had been meted out undeserved. One of his favorite stunts was to visit the stations quietly when the patrolmen were going out on duty to see if they saluted the officer at the desk, and also to note whether he returned it in the proper manner. If they were slack in their methods Schmittberger would say: "Come back here men and salute the desk. Now then officers" and the ceremony would be performed in smart military fashion to his satisfaction.

He was always ready for an emergency in case of riots in the city, and kept the plans he had drafted for handling the mobs in a drawer in his office where it could be easily found.

Under the regime of Commissioner Waldo the chief inspector did not have much to do, but since 1914, when Arthur Woods was made commissioner of police, the veteran was in control of the force and was personally in charge on any important occasion, like the visit of the allied commissions last summer. According to his request, the news of his death was telephoned immediately to headquarters and sent out to every precinct and detective bureau in New York and to Commissioner Woods and the deputy commissioners.

Inspectors Crawford and Barrett made a raid on the express office at Coldbrook yesterday afternoon and seized two cases of liquor consigned under alleged fictitious names.

SATISFIED MOTHERS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else. The satisfaction she derives from their use is wonderful. They are easy to give the baby; their action is prompt and thorough and above all they are absolutely harmless. Concerning them Mrs. Jean DeChateau, Lacordaire, Sask., writes: "I am well satisfied with Baby's Own Tablets. I had no trouble in giving them to my baby and they have promptly cured her of constipation." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A tale of two Trade Marks

For over 59 years Turnbills have been making good knitted underwear in Canada—and underwear exclusively. They came from the Old Country with the knowledge of how to make good underwear bred in them. They brought out expert workers from the Old Country from time to time as their business grew—thus have always kept their products up to the highest standard, being made with that thoroughness and care for which the Old Country workers are famous.

The reason for this tremendous growth and popularity can be summed up in one word "Quality" first and all the time.

You cannot get away from the fact that Canadians appreciate "Quality" more than anything else—Turnbill's two brands are

Necessary to Good Teeth

WILL BUILD MORE SHIPS AND FASTER

Conference at Washington Lays Plans to Increase Supply of Labor

Washington, Nov. 3.—A general quickening of shipbuilding operations on the Atlantic coast was promised at a conference of builders and labor leaders with officials of government departments. The meeting was called by Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board, to work out means of co-ordinating the efforts of all having to do with the shipbuilding programme.

The difficulty of obtaining sufficient labor is the chief obstacle in the way of speeding up tonnage production. Through draft exemption for ship workers the Shipping Board hopes to overcome this difficulty in large measure. At the same time it will give consideration to other plans for inducing trained workers in other lines to enter the employment of ships.

Builders at the conference agreed with government officials that measures should be taken to prevent yards from hiring each other's workers, and a general standardized wage system was proposed as a means of accomplishing this. Shipping Board officials have suggested that legislation may be asked to prevent the practice.

A general readjustment of contracts for ships commandeered on the ways by the government, it was said after the conference, will be made soon by the Shipping Board. Such builders, it is contended, are losing money on contracts commandeered, as material costs and workers wages have risen sharply since the vessels were taken over. The Shipping Board, it was declared, will see that every yard reaps a reasonable profit.

Committee of Builders.

A committee of builders named today will co-operate with the government in obtaining materials and in dealing with the labor shortage. One member of the committee will serve as an aide to the board, giving all his time to the work. The committee comprises H. L. Ferguson of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, J. W. Powell, vice president at the Bethlehem Steel Company, and an official of the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, J. H. Hand of the William Cramp & Sons Company, and A. M. Neeland, of the New York Shipbuilding Company.

Greater consideration of the wooden shipbuilding industry was urged on the Shipping Board today by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon. Labor and materials are available on the Pacific Coast, he declared, for twice the amount of wood on ship construction under way in that district. An additional 600,000 tons of shipping easily could be built. Senator Chamberlain set forth, if the board would take advantage of the men and materials offered.

American shipyards will complete 1,000,000 tons of ships by March 1, Chairman Hurley told the conference.

"In the whole of 1916," he said, "we turned out a little over 750,000 tons. We shall achieve in the next four months far more than we achieved in twelve months. The new goal of our expectations is ten times the production of 1916. But we can't achieve this by ordinary methods, by normal energy, or by average initiative. This is an extraordinary period in the country's history. We are confronted with an abnormal task and must apply abnormal methods. Every ounce of our energy and initiative must be directed toward the achievement of the greatest task ever imposed upon a nation in war."

"The government alone," continued Mr. Hurley, "no matter how willing and anxious it is to do its part, cannot bring a production of ships to the maximum capacity of the country. Nor can the shipyards alone do it. The labor of the country, no matter how intelligent, skillful, and patriotic, cannot accomplish it by itself. But working together, determined to forget everything but the national welfare, we can achieve the goal we have set for ourselves. Working even as we are we have accomplished remarkable results.

Trieste to Labor's Patriotism.

"I want to pay a tribute to the patriotism of labor in this situation. Shipyard owners probably do not understand the obstacles which the patriotic labor of the country has had to overcome. Nor does labor probably understand the obstacles faced by the shipyard owners. It is that we may all understand each other better, pull together, and speed up that Admiral Capps and I called this meeting.

"We will build 6,000 deadweight tons of ships in 1918. I say we are going to do it, rather than that we are going to try to do it, because anything America sets out to do she does. As a fighting nation we have a clean record for victory. We have the men, we have the money, and we have a cause that is cutting out red tape. Whatever help is in striving for this new goal, we labor needs we shall give to labor.

Whatever help the shipyards need we shall give to the shipyards. We want the labor representatives who are here to tell us the best way to speed up and augment the labor supply. We want the shipyard representatives to tell us what they think will facilitate the work of production.

"The young Americans in the trenches are offering the supreme sacrifice of their lives. Their safety and their success depend on us. Much less is required of us than of them, and I am confident that everything we have to give will be given in the same spirit of unselfishness."

THE LAST NIGHT OF LEGAL LIQUOR SALE IN THE U.S. CAPITAL

The "lid" was battered down on the United States capital on Wednesday night at the stroke of 12, when the Sheppard anti-liquor law, passed by congress last winter, went into effect. After more than 100 years of open libation, Washington became at midnight a "dry" town, and whoever gets his "nip" today does it in his own way.

Washington will not be entirely a desert, for the Sheppard law allows the entry of wet goods into the town. It may be done by import from neighborhood communities, accompanied by an affidavit that the liquor is not to be used for an illegal purpose, or it may already have been provided for stockpiling in the city. To say that Washington took the new order of events in the ordinary sedate way would be an exaggeration. While the nation's capital was prepared for it and looked for the final stroke of the hour when the drought set in, the town was more alert, perhaps, than at any other time, even on election nights.

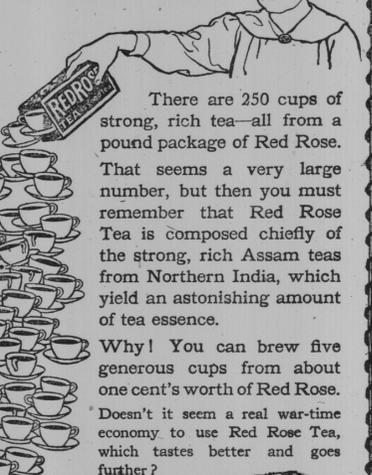

Confetti was sprayed upon the streets in what might be called the White Light district, and throngs crowded the thoroughfares—although they were not the crowds of New York's Gay White Way—to give the last farewell to the night life of the capital. It might be called a sedate, but nevertheless whole-hearted farewell to the old dumpy days. Taxi parties were numerous and in many respects hilarious, but not in any sense out of touch with the grave undertone of the war that has made Washington so serious in the last seven months. No one could say that Washington made its last night one of high life and gaiety.

In the hotels there were gay parties, as one might see in Broadway, and champagne flowed freely, up to the hour of 12, but no longer. The hotel managers knew what to do and there was no use running against the stern edict of the law. Some hotels had closed their bars several days ago, but most of them kept open to the last minute. When the hour of 12 struck in the hotels and restaurants every light was doused and the crowded rooms were quickly emptied.

In expectation of a demonstration there was opened, for the first time in the history of the capital, a night police court to take care of the extreme cases that might appear. But as an evidence of how really philosophical Washingtonians were over the new order of things, it is said that only a few cases found their way to the court. It was really a dismal night in police court circles.

Under the Sheppard law there is no prohibition against any one carrying home his having conveyed to his domicile all the liquor he wants. This enabled as many Washingtonians as wished to have their own parties at home, and there is no law against their keeping them up. The Shoreman Hotel, the Willard, the Raleigh, and some other large hotels shut down their bars in the afternoon. At the famous Shomskers only straight whisky was dispensed in the last hours, and the patrons continued to do business as a soft-drink place.

Don't Stop To Count Them

There are 250 cups of strong, rich tea—all from a pound package of Red Rose. That seems a very large number, but then you must remember that Red Rose Tea is composed chiefly of the strong, rich Assam teas from Northern India, which yield an astonishing amount of tea essence.

Why! You can brew five generous cups from about one cent's worth of Red Rose. Doesn't it seem a real war-time economy to use Red Rose Tea, which tastes better and goes further?

NEWS GLEANED FROM PRISONERS

They Tell of Increasing Unrest in Ge-many-Enemy Losses Heavy in Fighting with Dominion Troops - Bavarian Morale Weakening

Canadian Headquarters in France, Nov. 2.-(By W. A. Wilson, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press.)-The Canadians have closed in further toward Passchendaele. Following great battle on the left wing, when our troops on the extreme left proved their marked superiority over the enemy while our right outposts ventured into Passchendaele itself, the fighting has been intermittent all along the line.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or absorbent cotton with this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

SYMPATHY FOR RUSSIA; NOT SUSPICION

One Who Knows Writes of Kerenky Statement

LONDON TIMES' PETROGRAD MAN

Russia's Share in War Under Estimated-"What She Had She Has Given"-Views on Criticism of British Fleet

London, Nov. 3.-Most of the morning newspapers print Premier Kerenky's interview conspicuously, but the comment is not general. The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, who is now in London, writes: "Premier Kerenky's statement seems to have been taken a little too seriously in some quarters. It has been construed as a hint that Russia is trying with the idea of a separate peace. This theory should not be allowed to establish itself.

THE DOUBLE GUARANTEE

TWO reputations guard your investment when you purchase a Gray-Dort.

Two liabilities are your assurance of doubly-satisfactory use and service.

Two institutions striving in united effort to maintain the foundation on which they have been built—full value to you, the purchaser.

In Chatham, Ontario, the Wm. Gray & Sons Company and Gray-Dort Motors Limited—the one hale and solid at sixty-two, the other strong and lusty in two years.

In Flint, Michigan since 1885, the Durant-Dort Carriage Company, since 1915, the Dort Motor Car Company.

Gray—the Industry and its Builder

Our fathers and grandfathers rode in Gray carriages—and found them built on honor and character.

In 1855, William Gray built the first of them—built them so well that Gray quality became proverbial.

Growing up in this atmosphere of big business, of successful enterprise, of worthy endeavour, was Robert Gray.

Under his guiding hand the Gray institution has been builded solidly on its original foundation—value and service to the purchaser.

When others rushed into the motor car industry, Robert Gray bided his time.

Others experimented—on the motorist.

Others gained the reputation of a day—and lost it.

Robert Gray knew that the car bearing his name must have the same underlying qualifications as the Gray Carriage—so he waited.

Dort—at the Same Time in Flint

Paralleling the growth of Gray in Canada, was a similar institution in the United States.

Blue Ribbon Buggies were to Americans what Gray Buggies were to Canadians.

J. D. Dort, too, was building in Flint, as Robert Gray was building in Chatham.

J. D. Dort, too, was analyzing the motor car industry.

In 1915, Robert Gray decided that a good motor car could be built and sold at a reasonable price.

In 1915, J. D. Dort, studying the situation from the same angle, came to the same conclusion.

The two men met. Their identical views and aspirations inevitably attracted them to one another.

They chose as the engineering groundwork for their organization, Etienne Planche, designer of the world-famed Peugeot motor. They surrounded him with men of equal calibre, who round out an institution unique in its man-power.

After Such Preparation—

With two institutions so solidly founded the first Gray-Dort was built.

Is it any wonder that in three days the entire 1916 output was sold?

It was to be expected that a doubled output for 1917 was heavily oversold.

The output for 1918 is double again—and may be inadequate.

Note the Car for 1918

WILL NOT AFFECT RESULT OF WAR

Lord Robert Cecil Speaks of Italian Reverse — Economic Side of Conflict to Count Largely

London, Nov. 2.—Lord Robert Cecil, minister of blockade, in his weekly talk with the Associated Press declared yesterday that there was not the least reason to suppose that the Italian reverses will affect the result of the war.

"What has happened may affect the duration of the war or it may not," Lord Robert said. "Sooner or later, the economic side of the war is as likely as anything else to produce the desired effect, according to the extent of the resources of the allied powers and the enemy to carry on an economic offensive."

In this connection Lord Robert pointed out the great preponderance of the Entente Allies resources. He added: "The Central Powers already are in a very precarious condition. I see nothing but greater economic ruin for them after the war, the longer it lasts."

He declared that the allies were doing, and will do, all possible for Italy and would regard the battle fronts in all the war theatres as one comprehensive front.

"What has happened only means that we and the other governments must make stronger exertions," he added in conclusion. "We cannot afford to neglect any chance. Our information is that the spirit of Italy is untouched and that there is no sign of disagreement or panic at the reverse, but only a strengthened determination to finish the fight."

5 months on an Ice Floe

Bovril saves life of Shackleton's Men

SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON writes:—

"When the Endurance sank in the Weddell Sea, we had to seek refuge on the shifting ice. Most of the stores had to be scrapped, as the avoidance of weight was of great importance. It was then that the Bovril rations were of such splendid help. During our five and a-half months' drift on the floe, the Bovril rations formed one of the staple diets; and after the ice broke up, and we took to the boats, they were our mainstay. I think it is not too much to say that without them, few, if any of us, would have survived."

In spite of the increase in the cost of Beef (the raw material of Bovril) there has been no increase in the price of Bovril during the War.

Body-building power of Bovril proved to be from 10 to 20 times the amount taken

GERMAN SUBMARINE FROM U. S. PATENTS

Theft of Plans Revealed on Examination of Captured Boat Aiding Liberty Loan

New York, Nov. 2.—Following an intensive study of the German submarine mine layer U-C-5, now in Central Park, and renamed U-Buy-a-Bond, experts have reached the conclusion that Germany had deliberately stolen American brains and ingenuity to further its undersea campaign against belligerents and neutrals. The U-C-5, which early in the year was captured with its crew by the British naval forces, was brought to New York to stimulate interest in the sale of Liberty Bonds.

Important, however, as its function was in arousing public interest in the bond sale, that service, it was declared today, had been far transcended by the discovery that to the minutest detail the German mine layer was constructed along lines originating in this country. In brief, the design of the German mine layer almost duplicated that of the Holland type of submarine, built for the United States navy by the Electric Boat Company, even down to the characteristic spindle-shape and non-water-tight superstructure.

It developed that so soon as the U-C-5, which had come across the Atlantic in three sections on the deck of a big steamship had been set up, the Submarine Boat Corporation, the present owner of the Holland patents, started an investigation aboard the craft to learn its secrets of construction. With this end in view the corporation employed patent lawyers to make a minute examination of the undersea vessel with a view to determining whether American-owned patents had been infringed. The submarine boat officials who had previously made a casual examination of the hull and mechanism of the Teutonic craft were struck with the similarity between the construction and equipment of the German vessel and that followed by their own company in turning out submarines for the United States navy.

Who Should Buy Canada's Victory Bonds, and Why

WHO wants to help win the war? Who wants to give our soldiers all the support which their bravery and self-sacrifice and imperative needs demand of our gratitude and our patriotism? Who wants Canada to do her full part in producing food, metals, ships, munitions and clothing for our fighting men; her full part in winning the war? Who wants to help Britain to buy in Canada all she wants to buy of the products of Canada's fields and industries and labor? From the mighty heart of Canada hear the full-throated answer roll from the Atlantic to the Pacific, echo back and up from the southern frontier, far and away into the frosty wastes of the Arctic circle:

"Every Canadian Loves His Country and will do His Full Duty"

AND every woman whose son or husband, or brother or father is fighting in France, because it means support and comfort and victory to him, sends up a prayer that Canada will provide the money to help him win the war for home and freedom.

Every boy and girl, because they want to have a part in winning the war, and in writing Canada's name into a glorious chapter of the world's history, will help Canada to raise the money by buying Victory Bonds.

THEN from the business point of view: The farmer will buy Victory Bonds because it will enable him to continue to supply the armies and the people of Great Britain with live stock, grain and the other products of his fields. The farmer must have a market for his produce and it is essential to Canada that Britain shall be enabled to pay cash for that produce with money provided by Canada's Victory Bonds.

Canada's Victory Bonds make it possible for Canada and her farmers to continue doing business with Great Britain and our allies and it is supremely necessary that the farmer shall continue to produce, and that Britain shall continue to buy his products.

Every man in Canada who works for his living or operates a business of any kind can help himself and help Canada to win the war by buying Victory Bonds. When he buys Victory Bonds he helps to maintain that general prosperity which is essential to his own.

And the prosperity of each individual is indispensable to the nation, because it is from individuals that the nation must get the money to win the war.

It is both Good Business and True Patriotism for every Canadian to buy Canada's Victory Bonds to the utmost of his or her ability

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada
