Demand That Fiume Be Made Italian City

Resolution Adopted by Italian Chamber of Deputies

Debate Marked by Free Fight and Duels Will Follow—American Sailors Gain Foothold on Dalmatian Coast

Paris, Sept. 29.—A resolution demanding that Fiume be made an Italian city has been passed by the Italian chamber of deputies, according to information received by the Italian delegation here.

Rome, Sept. 28.—Debate in the chamber of deputies was interrupted today by a free fight which lasted ten minutes and in which about 100 deputies participated.

The opinion is expressed in some quarters that the cabinet, as a result of the riotous incident, may decide to resign rather than plunge the country into a struggle during the general election. It is asserted the fight in the chamber indicates what would occur in the country.

The correct figures for the vote of confidence given the cabinet was 206 to 148 instead of 208 to 140, as at first reported.

The chamber adjourned tonight until Wednesday, when it will decide whether a vote shall be taken on the question of discussing the peace.

In consequence of the fight in the chamber several duels were announced between deputies and journalists, and between deputies.

Premier Nitti, who had left the government benches, returned to his place when the disturbance had somewhat subsided. He was greeted with warm applause.

Paris, Sept. 29.—(Havas)—During the session of the Italian chamber of deputies in Rome yesterday a considerable number of troops was concentrated around the centre of the city and on the main streets leading to the railway station.

Washington, Sept. 27.—A force of American sailors from the cruiser Olympia sailed at Trau, on the lower Dalmatian coast, on Sept. 26, according to cables announced today.

Without bloodshed, the Americans gained possession of the city which previously had been occupied by a force of Italians.

SWEET-BYRES. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Byers, Lorneville, on Saturday afternoon a pretty wedding took place, when the bride, Miss Edith R. Byers, was united in marriage to Arthur Jarvis Sweet, son of Mrs. C. A. Sweet of Manville.

The ceremony in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride and groom stood beneath an arch of maple leaves and lilies of the valley.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily attired in blue with white trimmings and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

Following the ceremony, supper was served, after which the bridal party motored to the city in the car of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mawhinney of Mac's Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Sweet left on a wedding trip to the New England coast.

Mr. Sweet's costume was navy blue with hat to match, and fox fur. Many valuable wedding gifts were received. Among the out of town affiliates were Mrs. E. T. Clark of Dipper Harbor.

ACCITYLENE PLANTS. Peter Campbell, of P. Campbell & Co., interviewed this morning with regard to the dangers from acetylene plants, such as that which destroyed the home of Father O'Brien in Norton yesterday, said that he had a knowledge of the plant which Father O'Brien had been using.

A short time ago the priest wrote to him to say that the generator was out of order, the cylinder allowing the carbide to flow too freely into the water and he was sending the cylinder for repairs.

REPUBLIC NOT GOD'S COURSE FOR SOUTH AFRICA

Premier Smuts Appeal For Abandonment of Movement

WOULD BE FATAL TO BOERS

Free in the British Empire—Could Not Change the Constitution Without Blood and Tears—An Eloquent Speech

Cape Town, Sept. 29.—(Reuters)—Speaking at Carnarvon, Premier Smuts strongly appealed for the abandonment of the republican movement. He pointed out that he had fought to the bitter end for the Transvaal republic, but at Vereeniging he and other Boer leaders recognized that the course of a republic was not God's course for South Africa.

He must result in the tearing asunder of various sections of the white population. He was deeply convinced that a republic in the future, however glorious it might appear to be, would be equally as fatal as in the past, when no single nation put a hand to help the Boer republic.

General Smuts said his view of the British Empire was an alliance of which the king was the bond. Under this alliance we keep together, protect and help each other, financially, with advice and otherwise, each according to his own light.

That is the right conception and the one which triumphed in the councils at Paris. You do not need to have a republic to be free. You are free in the British Empire. (Cheers.)

"It was said if we are a free people we are allowed to secede," but General Smuts maintained that the constitution which was framed by their wisest leaders did not allow them to secede.

More-over, General Smuts said he felt they could not change the constitution without blood and tears. They could only change the king for a republic by revolution.

South Africa would then be a republic in name, but not in fact. The African people must again come off worst. "Do not let us run after delusions," he appealed, saying it seemed to him that the nationalist leaders were still animated by the spirit which he deplored.

But that did not deter him from doing his utmost to revive the spirit which had brought about the union.

CANON CARNEGIE ON CHURCH IN POLITICS. (Special to Times) Boston, Sept. 29.—Rev. W. H. Carnegie, canon of Westminster Abbey and rector of St. Margaret's church, London, preaching at Trinity church yesterday morning urged a more active participation by the church in politics and declared that if those connected with the church did more to build up a righteous spirit in the community much of the present day political and social unrest would be done away with.

Mr. Carnegie is in the country and endeavoring to bring the religious factions of England and America into relationship.

Mr. Carnegie, who accompanies him is the widow of Joseph Chamberlain, who was leader of the Unionist party in England, and is a daughter of the late William C. Endicott of Salem, who was secretary of war in the cabinet of President Cleveland.

PROMINENT MASON IS DEAD IN BOSTON. (Special to Times) Boston, Sept. 29.—By the death of Hon. Charles T. Gallagher of Roxbury last night only three active members from Massachusetts are left in the supreme council 38rd degree northern jurisdiction Scottish Rite. He was known to prominent Masons in New Brunswick and had often visited in summer. He was Grand Master of Grand Lodge three terms and a member of St. George's Commandery, R. T., 1851. He was born in this city, was a Dartmouth graduate and was formerly in the state senate. He was connected with several leading social clubs served for twelve years on the school board, was twice nominated for congress as a republican and was organized the mayoralty nomination by both parties and was counsel for many organizations.

STRIKE HAS LITTLE EFFECT. New York, Sept. 29.—(Wall street)—The critical period in the steel strike exerted little adverse effect on industrial shares at the opening of today's stock market, aside from a moderate decline in United States Steel, the general list showing marked strength.

Crucible Steel was again the leader, advancing three points to the new high record of 218, from which it soon reacted four points, followed by a partial rally. Bethlehem Steel yielded three points at the opening but rebounded almost immediately.

Shipments, rails, motors, tobacco, and sugars were higher by one to six points. Profit taking caused the usual irregularity before the end of the first half hour.

MEMORIAL TO THE HONORED DEAD

Splendid Monument Erected by I. O. D. E. in Fernhill Cemetery to be Unveiled Tomorrow by Lt.-Gov. Pugsley

Tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley will unveil in Fernhill cemetery the monument which has been erected in the Field of Honor plot by the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., in memory of the sailors and soldiers who lie buried there.

The monument is a splendid piece of work all done locally, and will be a fitting memorial to the men over whose heads it stands. It consists of three bases and die placed on a sub-base of concrete. The monument itself is of grey granite from the Spoon Island quarries, finished in the rough with the letters in the inscription polished.

The sub-base is seven feet deep, the top face being twelve by nine feet. The inscription on the face of the die reads:—

Our Honored Dead, Erected by the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, St. John. In Memory of The Sailors and Soldiers Buried in This Plot.

For King and Country. On the head of the die is a bronze panel bearing the crest of the I. O. D. E. in bold relief; on the right front of the die is a bronze panel showing a battle cruiser and a similar plate on the left front depicts a battle scene with a soldier firing from the cover of a trench parapet, while in the distance is seen a field gun in action. In the centre of the same base is a bronze panel with two sprays of laurel leaves. The die is supported on each side by a buttress.

MAY CUT LUMBER ON CITY LOTS. The common council met this morning in committee with the mayor and all the commissioners, except Mr. Thornton, present.

Proposals for 10,000 feet of granite curbing were opened. B. Mooney & Sons quoted $188 per lineal foot for straight curbing and $270 for curved; S. H. and $210 delivered. Figures submitted by the Granite Street Paving and Construction Co. were $90 and $120 and the tenders were referred to the commissioner of public works who observed that the figures were higher than those of the last contract awarded. The tenders were referred to the commissioner of public works.

On motion of Mr. Bullock, it was decided to sell the lot known as Lot 4, block six, in Mawganawag road to W. C. R. Bullock also moved that the government be indemnified against damage done while dredging at the city wharves in the harbor. This was carried.

Mr. Bullock said there was some property at Grand Bay owned by the city on which all the lumber and material had been moved that the land be cruised to ascertain what lumber would be available.

Mr. Jones said that there was also a lot of land in the eastern end of the county belonging to the city on which their was considerable lumber still standing but he was not prepared to recommend the expense of crusing it at present.

Mr. Bullock's motion was carried.

CONDENSED NEWS. It is rumored in Coblenz that an independent republic has been declared in Alsace. Nothing has been heard in Paris of the rumor.

The famous Skoda arms and ammunition works near Pilsen, have been nationalized. A new council has been named to conduct the works comprised of the strike of railway workers there.

Romanian troops have seized a big German biplane carrying three hundred million paper notes and a miniature, but complete, printing press at Hotin, Besarabia. The biplane was enroute to Moscow. It was manned by four German officers.

A Russian general, who had made his way out of the country into Finland, reports that Germans are playing an important part in the Bolshevik operations in the regions of Petrograd and Moscow, which cities, he says, are in direct communication with Berlin.

The note sent by the Allied powers to the German government concerning the evacuation of the Baltic provinces, says the evacuation must begin immediately and continue uninterrupted.

ONE MILLION WOMEN HAVE REGISTERED

Time is Short But Booths in All Parts of City Will Give Every Woman Opportunity to Secure Ballot Before End of Week

Up to noon today only a thousand registration cards had been received at city hall by the board of revisors. When it is considered that there is in the vicinity of 6,000 or 7,000 women in the city who are eligible for registration, and the time for carrying out this duty expires on Saturday, it was pointed out that this was a fairly slow start.

It is expected that the various booths will be kept busy for the next few days and the revisors are looking for a rush tomorrow and the next day.

It was announced today that the following places will be available for registration:—

Lancaster—H. B. Tippetts, chairman of the board revisors; the stores of J. J. Hennessy and G. H. Allan in Fairville; Besant's—At the residence of Mrs. J. J. Long and of Mrs. L. O'Reilly in Woodville road.

Some of the booths in the city were open this morning and were visited by a few.

On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evening of this week women who wish to have their names put on the voters list may do so at Ludlow street Baptist church, W. E., where a justice of the peace will be on duty. However, it is not confined to the members of the church, but any women of the West Side may register there.

St. David's Presbyterian church, King street, east, will be open on Wednesday evening for the same purpose.

Returned soldiers who have called at city hall have been advised that there was no necessity for them to register in order to be allowed to vote. The production of them at the polls, however, in any election held within a year after the date of the signing of the peace of credentials to show that they were in service during the war will be sufficient to warrant their vote being taken.

LOCAL NEWS. TO OPEN BRANCH. A branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia is to be opened in the near future at Havelock, N. B. Preliminary work has been secured for the purpose. The appointment of a manager for the new branch has not yet been made.

MAKING GOOD PROGRESS. R. W. Lee, who has the contract for the removal of the flooring and stringers on the cross wharf at the head of Hook, is making good progress. He has already removed all the covering of the wharf, and a number of new stringers. The job will be completed in about two weeks.

MISSION FOR MEN. In St. Peter's church last evening a renewal of the mission for men given a year ago was opened with services conducted by Rev. Father O'Brien, C.S.R., and an eloquent sermon by Rev. A. McBratney, C.S.R., a former North End young man who served for men only will continue all week.

ST. JOHN BOWLERS WON. A quintet of bowlers representing Black's played a pickle team in Frederick Street yesterday evening and vanquished them by a total of 1368 to 1360. The game was played on the Palace alley. Considering that it was the first of the season the scores were creditable and if they continue to improve it augurs well for a very successful season.

PLANNING NEW DWELLINGS. Armstrong & Bruce, who are planning the building of three double row cottages in Mount Pleasant court, situated on the southern side of Mount Pleasant avenue, have applied to the city for the extension of water and sewerage mains to that point. They say that the creation of buildings depends on the extension.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS. In the coming elections in the county much interest is being evinced in the different parishes. In St. Martins it is regarded as likely that ex-Councillors Jas. Black and Edward Howard will run again, while of the present councillors Mr. Beadle and Mr. Bowland are uncertain, but probably will run, and Mr. Howard has announced his willingness to offer again.

A POPULAR SPOT. A barn off Charlotte street seems to be a popular rendezvous for victims of bootleggers to dispose of their costly purchases of this kind. About nine o'clock Inspector Merryfield and Policeman Dykeman picked up three men drunk and with liquor in their possession in this barn, and at two o'clock this morning, in company with Policeman Godwin they picked up two more in the same place, who also had liquor in their possession. No charges were laid yet against these men for having liquor illegally, but they were before the court this morning charged with drunkenness.

JOHN SMITH DEAD. The many friends of John Smith in Hampton and vicinity will regret to hear of his death at the age of seventy-one years, which occurred at his home in Hampton suddenly on Saturday. Mr. Smith was a foreman on the construction work during the building of the Western Union Telegraph line between St. John, Halifax and Sydney, and was superannuated ten years ago, since then making his home in Hampton. He was well known in this city and had a host of friends here who will be very sorry to hear of his death. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. Griffin, and Miss Alice Smith, and one brother, Sylvester, all who lived with him at his home, and one brother, Thomas, also of Hampton. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning from St. Alphonsus' church, where requiem high mass will be celebrated.

Situation in Britain Shows Improvement

Distribution of Food Being Carried Out Without Friction, With Volunteer Help—Motor Busses Bring Food to London—Cabinet Members in Conference Today

London, Sept. 29.—Improvement in the situation created by the general strike on the British railways was announced in official quarters this morning.

The distribution of food was being carried out without friction and volunteer help was being freely offered, it was stated. The official statement from Downing street reads:—

"The general strike situation is improving, the government measures are working satisfactorily. Food distribution is proceeding smoothly and offers of voluntary assistance are still pouring in."

Premier Lloyd George, Sir Auckland Geddes, the minister of national service and reconstruction, and Sir Robert Horne, the minister of labor, were in conference throughout the forenoon today, while the strike committees were also in constant session.

James Henry Thomas, the secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, declared at noon there were no new features in the situation.

100,000 Miners Idle. London, Sept. 29.—One hundred thousand miners are idle in the South West coal fields as a result of the railroad strike. Many collieries are closing down, and the Swansea Harbor trade is paralyzed.

Railroads running out of London will attempt to operate trains on skeleton schedules today, according to an announcement. It is hoped thus to cope with the strike situation which brought about an almost total suspension of traffic yesterday in this city and which has virtually paralyzed all English roads.

Ninety per cent of the railway workers in Scotland are idle, but a few trains were running there on Sunday for the carrying of passengers and perishable goods. Reports state these trains were operated by union men who were desirous of getting to their homes, and that these men have nearly all joined those who obeyed the first call from the National Union of Railwaymen. Irish roads are not as yet involved in the strike, but the men there have been instructed by union leaders to hold themselves in readiness to walk out at any moment.

Concern is felt over the possibility of the strike spreading to the miners and transport workers' unions, which are affiliated with the National Union of Railwaymen.

James Henry Thomas, leader of the railroad workers, said yesterday he would ask the assistance of the "triple alliance" only in case he "cannot fight the railroad situation alone."

Miners Out Automatically. Robert Sullie, leader of the miners' union, speaking at Glasgow last night, said that, because of the fact that the mines and railroads are so closely related, ninety per cent of the coal diggers of the country would be idle in a days. This could automatically bring about strike conditions without an actual order being sent out. Mr. Sullie advised members of the union to be calm and to conduct a "passive campaign."

London is being fed by means of motor lorries, which bring milk and other foodstuffs to the city. The government has appealed to the people to economize as much as possible in petrol, fuel and food.

Miss Eleanor Hopwood has been placed in charge of food distribution in this city.

Air Craft Missing. Havre, Sept. 29.—A British hydro-aeroplane, with three passengers who missed the Channel boat on account of the strike in England, became separated from the two other machines in a snow squall over the channel last night and arrived here this morning. The fate of the other machines is unknown.

Aerial Mail Service. Paris, Sept. 29.—Commencing at noon today a daily aerial mail service will be operated between Paris and London. This will be inaugurated because of the British railway strike, which has interrupted mail to and from the continent. Airplane mail service has been operated between the two cities three times per week up to the present.

Say Strike Doomed to Failure. London, Sept. 29.—Some of the morning papers today express great confidence that the railway strike is doomed to failure. The Daily Mail is one of these. It justifies its prediction by saying that the strike leaders have greatly underrated the magnitude of the government's preparations to maintain the food supply. It adds that the rank and file of the railway men have not got their heart in the strike, while another factor of decisive importance is that "the public is dead against the strike."

NO SIGN OF WEAKENING ON EITHER SIDE

Second Week of Steel Workers Strike Opens BOTH CLAIM ADVANTAGE

Employers Trying to Operate Plants Full-Handed While Strike Leaders Seek Additional Recruits—Bethlehem Plant Little Affected

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 29.—The opening of the second week of the steel workers' strike in the Pittsburg district was marked today by efforts of employers to operate plants full handed, and an intensive campaign by a large force of union organizers to extend the walk-out to include the men who have remained at work.

While early reports did not indicate to what degree of success either side met, it is known that many workers voted last week to return to work today and resume their duties, and the employers viewed the situation with optimism.

From strike headquarters came the statement that with the additional organizers brought into the field during the last few days there would be very few desertions and a large number of additions of the strikers ranks.

Strike leaders watched with interest developments in the walk-out of Bethlehem Steel Company employees which went into effect today. They expected that this strike would tie up all Bethlehem plants.

Meetings of strikers were held throughout Allegheny county yesterday under supervision of the sheriff. Deputies attended the gatherings. No outbreaks were reported. The success of the Sunday meetings prompted strike leaders to announce that many such gatherings would be held in the county this week.

A Test of Strength. Chicago, Sept. 29.—A test of strength between steel mills and striking workmen was expected to develop today throughout the Chicago district, following an announcement that an attempt would be made to put in operation the number of plants which were closed.

Union leaders put out many additional pickets early in the day with instructions to endeavor to prevent the return of men to the mills.

Chiefs of police and sheriffs in districts where steel mills are located ordered out reserve officers and placed them at points where they believed clashes might take place between strikers and men who attempted to return to the mills.

Mill officials stated they looked for a considerable number of men to return to work today, and that they expected their forces would gradually be increased. On the other hand, union leaders said their ranks were not only unbroken but that they had made gains.

Meetings were held Sunday by strikers at several points in the district, and leaders said that many men had joined the union.

John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the National Committee for Organization of the steel workers, who was at his desk here today, said he believed that the strike was "as good as won."

No serious disorders were reported anywhere in the district during the first week of the strike, and union leaders said instructions to strikers were to observe the law.

At Bethlehem. Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 29.—The Bethlehem steel workers' strike has been called from Pittsburg and there was no semblance of disorder at the entrances to the various plants, when the shifts changed at six o'clock and again at 7:30 o'clock.

Ore Carriers Tied Up. Detroit, Mich., Sept. 29.—Twenty-two ore carriers, including many of the largest ships on the Great Lakes, were anchored in the Detroit river last night because of the congestion of low lake water by the closing of the steel mills by the strike of steel and iron workers.

Mill dockage work at Cleveland, Ar. tabula and other Lake Erie ports is reported occupied, while it is also understood the strike has prevented removal of ore from the docks. The anchored ship-ore awaiting orders from their owners.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis.—A moderate disturbance is passing over the lake region causing showers in western and northern Ontario. The weather has been mostly fair with moderate temperature from the Ottawa Valley eastward and quite cool with local snow flurries in the west.

Fair. Maritime.—Moderate winds, fair today and most of Tuesday, not much change in temperature. New England.—Cloudy tonight and Tuesday, probably rain; warmer tonight, increasing southwest winds.

AIRPLANE FLIGHT TO SOUTH POLE

British Expedition to Start Next June; Will Use Air Route For Last 750 Miles of Journey

London, Sept. 1.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—John L. Cope, leader of the expedition to the South Pole to start next June, says his airplane flight to the Pole will be about 750 miles. The base from which the airplane will start is about that distance from the Pole. The airplane will be heavily loaded.

"We shall be compelled to take a sledge with us and extra provisions to enable us to return in case the airplane breaks down," said Mr. Cope. "Because of this additional weight it will be necessary to cut down our fuel to the minimum for taking off will be very difficult and it will be impossible to lift the machine for crossing the mountain ranges.

"We propose to set off with as much petrol as we can and then, half way on the outward journey just before we get to a range of mountains that we have to cross, to dump half of it and pick it up on the way back."

Practically no stocks of merchandise were moved. The railway machine shops were left intact as were factories of all sorts, no effort having been made to destroy them as would probably have been the case if evacuating to a foreign foe.

Suspect Firebug.
Brantford, Sept. 29.—For the tenth consecutive night, the Brantford Fire Department was called out here early this evening. An incipient fire was found in the Heyd Block, a three storey building. The fire was started by someone pouring gasoline on the partition in the top story and then touching a match to the partition. It was caught just in time, owing to the fact that several lodges were in session and noticed the smoke. Late last night stacks of oats and hay on the water works farm property were touched off. At the time of the alarm the arrest of a vagrant on a back street attracted a crowd of two thousand persons around the police depot, it being thought that the firebug had been caught. The vagrant was let go in the Police Court this morning.

G. W. V. A. LEADER WHO OPPOSES GRATUITY

Pertinent Queries by Branch President Who Does Not Regard $2,000 For All as Equitable

Toronto newspapers are filled with letters on "soldiers' gratuities" these days. The following is an interview from the Toronto Telegram with a veteran's branch president, opposed to the $2,000 grant.

"The G. W. V. A. is not half through with the government, or failing the government, with the public," said Parkdale President A. T. Hunter, K. C., when approached by the Telegram as to his opinion of the latest decision on returned soldiers' war gratuities. "The trouble has been that the crude stuff about $2,000 has embarrassed our efforts," he continued. "The government was the last person who should have been handed such a proposition because the government knows better than any of us what a splendid cohort of crusty fellows were at some time or another in France. It was a poor inmate of Argyll House that could not hop over to Boulogne to qualify for the French ribbon."

People who cry "Great is Diana of the Ephesians" do not ultimately assist any cause. When we have tried to talk to any business man about the question of further aid to the returned soldier he has fastened on that proposition for $2,000 for every man that was in France." Then he asks some questions: "$2,000 for the man that was in France four years? $2,000 for the man that was in France four days? $2,000 for the colonel who took a seven days' Cook's tour? $2,000 for the chap who stayed at Havre or Etaples? $2,000 for the chap who stayed in the third Echelon? $2,000 for the traitor that came after the armistice? And so forth.

"At Vancouver the G. W. V. A. grew up and discarded the $2,000 stuff as you are aided. This War Gratuity League chum has picked up our milk tooth and tried to bite with it. Result, a sore gum.

SAVED ROLLING STOCK FROM THE BOLSHIEVIKI

General Jack Tells of Evacuation of Perm and Adjacent Districts as Soviet Forces Advanced

Omsk, July 20, via Vladivostok, Aug. 12.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Ninety per cent of the railroad rolling stock in the Perm, Ekaterinburg and Shelabinsk districts was pulled out before the territory was given over to the Bolshievi, according to General Jack of the Inter-Allied technical committee, who assisted in the evacuation. Over 80,000 freight cars and approximately 600 locomotives were saved.

The railroad bridge over the Kama at Perm, 970 yards long, was put out of commission by the Siberian military before leaving. It is not so seriously damaged however, that it cannot be easily repaired. One complete span was dumped into the river.

The Kama fleet, thirty-nine vessels, several of which had been converted into gunboats, but later dismantled, was accidentally burned.

General Jack left Perm four hours before the Bolshievi shells began to fall in the town. With him came Otto T. Glaman, American vice consul, who had been asked by the Russian authorities to remain at his post as late as possible for the moral effect of his presence on the population during the days of evacuation. General Jack was loud in his praises of Glaman for valuable assistance rendered him in keeping trains moving.

The peasant population as well as the bourgeoisie fled before the Bolshievi ad-

TENDER GUMS

—A WARNING

Beware of gum tenderness that warns of Porrhoea. Four out of five people over forty have Porrhoea—many under forty also. Loosening teeth indicate Porrhoea. Bleeding gums, too. Remember—these inflamed, bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—inflicting the joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Forhan's positively prevents Porrhoea, if used in time and used consistently. As it hardens the gums the teeth become firmer.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's. It cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean.

If gum shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 29, 1919.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

The Times has the largest circulation in the Maritime Provinces. Special Advertising Representatives—NEW YORK, Frank R. Northrup, 303 Fifth Ave.—CHICAGO, E. J. Power, Manager, Association Bldg., The Audit Bureau of Circulation audits the circulation of The Evening Times.

EVERY WOMAN, MARRIED OR SINGLE, WHO HAS ATTAINED THE AGE OF TWENTY-ONE YEARS, IS A BRITISH SUBJECT, AND HAS BEEN A RESIDENT OF THE CITY OF ST. JOHN FOR SIX MONTHS, SHOULD GET HER NAME ON THE VOTERS LIST BEFORE OCT. 5. IT IS A DUTY AS WELL AS A RIGHT.

GETTING AND SPENDING

The great trouble in regard to reducing the high cost of living is that the individual is practically helpless. If all the people in St. John ceased to eat butter for a month the price of butter would still be high, and it would not cost the farmer one cent less to produce the butter. If there were a universal decline in the use of any article it would soon be plentiful, but its production would not be one cent cheaper.

It is one thing to deal with the producer and reduce prices by cutting off unfair profits, and quite another to lower prices by cheapening production. How can production be cheapened and wages continually advanced? That is the problem of the hour. If it could be solved the economic atmosphere would clear at once.

If prices are to decline materially there must not only be an end to all undue profits of either manufacturer, middleman or retail dealer, but a cheapening of production. To take a familiar example, house rents will not come down while the high cost of material and high wages keep up the cost of constructing houses.

THE RAILWAY STRIKE

Organized labor, represented by the railway men, has thrown down the gauntlet to the government of England. This is not a strike against a corporation making huge profits, since the railways are operated by the government itself.

The starting news comes from the United States that if the demands of the United Mine Workers are allowed the cost of coal to the consumer will be doubled. It will be said that this is the estimate of the National Coal Association. It would not lose anything in the making, but a six hour day and a sixty per cent increase in wages would certainly cause a large advance in prices.

Canada's imports in the twelve months ending August 1917 were valued at $165,168,067. For the year ending August 1919, the value was $156,477,446. The exports for the first mentioned year were valued at $1,896,502,476 and for the last $1,992,688,968. Thus there has been a decline of over $100,000,000 in exports and nearly $10,000,000 in imports.

Both sides are asserting that they will win in the great steel strike, but the strikers must be a good deal disappointed that the men in the Bethlehem steel plant this morning did not obey the strike order from Pittsburgh. Both sides are putting forth great efforts and the issue is still undecided.

There is some personal risk in being a member of parliament in Italy. We are told that about a hundred members engaged in a free fight in the chamber on Saturday. Imagine such a scene at Ottawa.

Premier Smuts:—You do not need a republic to be free. You are free in the British Empire.

that "it is not the public with whom the strikers are at war, but the people who are for the moment in the position of directing the affairs of the country."

This sounds very much like Soviet doctrine, and will not improve the situation. The war is on, however, train service is paralyzed, and great industries will soon be compelled to close if the struggle is prolonged. Secretary Thomas of the Union says that trouble is brewing that "may lead to bloodshed," and the government practically says that if this must follow the action of the men there will be no yielding on its part.

Mr. Thomas Adams, town planning expert of the Commission of Conservation, made his fame as manager of the garden city of Letchworth, in England. A recent statement showing the relation of good housing and sanitation to the infant mortality rate. We quote:—

"It is an interesting fact to record that during the eventful and difficult year of 1918 the infant mortality rate in Letchworth was 30 per 1,000 births. This is the lowest figure it has ever reached (in 1917 it was 36), and is not by any means due to a low birth rate. In fact the birthrate has not fallen so much as in the rest of the country. The experts in these matters distinguish between preventable and non-preventable deaths, and say that, so far as our present knowledge goes, when all the preventable deaths are eliminated, the death rate will be at about 30. The Letchworth figures tend to confirm this, for there was only one death from a preventable cause, i. e., pneumonia, the other deaths being due to causes over which we seem to have no control."

At last the Valley Railway service is to be begun. It may not suit the people at the outset, but once it is started there will be something to work on. The provincial government was handicapped by the fact that the National Railway authorities and C. P. R. could not come to terms in regard to the use of the line from Westfield to St. John, but that difficulty has at last been overcome, and the Valley Railway will be operated as a part of the government system. The next thing will be to get not only a satisfactory local service, but the full benefit of the McGivney connection for the port of St. John.

The Allies have at last woken up to the fact that Germany is intriguing to extend her influence eastward. They have issued a note to the German government ordering that the Germans evacuate the Baltic provinces; that German officers and soldiers in the Russian army be recalled; and that rigorous measures be taken to prevent further enlistments. The aim of Germany, facing a solid wall in the west, is to extend her influence eastward. Therein lies danger for Europe and the world.

Admiral Lord Jellicoe urges New Zealand to aid in keeping the British navy supreme. He will bring the same message to Canada. The world knows what the British navy did in the war. Premier Clemenceau was reminded of it by Premier Lloyd George, and when the latter asked if it would not be well to keep that navy in such shape that it could do the same over again the great Frenchman could not but reply in the affirmative.

The startling news comes from the United States that if the demands of the United Mine Workers are allowed the cost of coal to the consumer will be doubled. It will be said that this is the estimate of the National Coal Association. It would not lose anything in the making, but a six hour day and a sixty per cent increase in wages would certainly cause a large advance in prices.

EATING.
I have just come back from dinner, and I ate an hour or so; and that dinner was a winner, taking it as dinners go. First there was a roast of mutton and I chewed away with zest, till there wasn't left a button on the north side of my vest. There were beets and sweet potatoes, and some prune juice, extra dry, macaroni with tomato, and I finished up with pie. Now I have the indigestion, and my works ferce ructions raise, and with me it is a question whether eating truly pays. If we just would cut out in the safe deposit box, we would prosper like the chickens, put all kinds of wealth away, if we'd cut out veal and chickens and be satisfied with hay. But so few of us are able to accumulate a bone! On the ample dinner, beneath the victuals left, and the doctor comes a-docking, and he takes what coin is left. Oh, the druggists round me frolic, pouring nostrums into me, for I have spasmodic colic, and I am a sight to see. So it scarcely is surprising that a pain-tormented dud feels so much life moralizing on the vanity of grub.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Domestic Happenings of Other Days

BEFORE THE RAILWAYS CAME.
Canadians of the present generation find it hard to imagine days when there were no railways connecting all parts of the dominion. The hardships of that time are unknown to the present dwellers in Canada; they are unknown now except to the few who live in the remote parts of the land.

Even the almost boundless west is accessible in almost every part. Not so however in the days when the dominion sent its first expedition to Winnipeg because of the breakdown among the Indians in Manitoba. Winnipeg was Fort Garry then—mere hamlet of the fur traders. For several months there had been rumors current in what is now Ontario and Quebec, that the Indians were assuming a very threatening attitude in the west but, however, little attention was paid to the warnings. But at last the storm broke and in the early summer of 1870 it became necessary to send an armed force to Fort Garry. Colonel afterwards Lord Wolseley was given command of the little force sent to quell the disturbance. He moved it comparatively easily as far west as Fort Arthur; three all the way to the prairie end. On May 29, the little force sent to quell the disturbance on its back, the troop of Canadian soldiers set off on the long overland march to Fort Garry. Every inch of the way was new; the trails were deep with mud in places and led over the bare rock in others. The army was compelled to carry its food and full supply and as the end of the long, long trail was nearer greater care had to be exercised to guard both men and equipment from the prowling Indians.

So difficult was the route that it was not until Sept. 29 that the weary regiments marched to the prairie end. It was before the day of the commercial telegraph, too, so they did not know the enemy had dispersed until they had arrived at their destination. The little rebellion had collapsed. Nevertheless the presence of the soldiers was a very valuable object lesson for those who might still harbor thoughts of revolt.

HAIL AND FAREWELL!

Like ships that pass upon the mighty ocean, And speak each other—then to pass away— Into the vastness of the endless waters— So did we meet on one fair Summer's day.

A handshake, an embrace, a walk at length, and a fond farewell. A quiet sojourn, by a leafy dell Where the bright glow-worm sheds its brilliant splendor—then a fond farewell.

So is it ever in this world of shadows: Love wakes—and sleeps again—but never dies; And in my dreams I'll see the winding That flows for ever 'neath the Bridge of Slighs.

Though far apart the road of life must lead us, I shall be ever present at your side, In spirit we shall wander through the places Together, where true love and hope abide.

Hail and farewell, companion of the twilight, Love will endure when earth has passed away; The sweetness of its memory passes ever Into the dawn of everlasting day.—John Light, Toronto.

Where Ignorance is Bliss
A laundryman laughed when he saw a Philadelphia society girl wearing a most individual frock, rather uniquely embroidered in Chinese motifs. "I wonder," he said, "if she knows that the trimming on her gown spells 'Good morning, I live with my mother-in-law. Good night!'"

Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "you were talking about a twenty-one shot when I came into your office to-day."
"Was I?"
"Yes, and I was very much pleased. I hope you will cultivate enough interest in marksmanship to take your mind off horse-racing."

TRANS-PACIFIC FLIGHT.

(Philadelphia Public Ledger.)
George D. White of Los Angeles, is pushing the construction of a giant monoplane equipped with three motors for the purpose of a transpacific flight of 7,000 miles to Shanghai, China.

The monoplane is costing $50,000 to build. Three motors, two side engines of 180 horse-power each and a central motor of 300 horse-power, will drive the machine. The plane, including her crew and fuel, weighs around 8,000 lbs. It is of a seaplane type, having twin floats, and the largest monoplane in the world. The route of the transpacific trip is mapped and the flight is scheduled for early September. A northern route has been chosen.

Full co-operation along the route is assured by the Pacific Aero Club and the Aerial League of Canada. From Los Angeles the first jump will be to San Francisco, a distance of 460 miles. From there to Victoria, B. C., 750 miles. From Victoria to Sitka, Alaska, is a jump of only 650 miles. From Sitka to Unalaska, on the Aleutian Islands, will be a 1,200 mile flight, and one of the longest to be made, and although some of it is within sight of the islands the greater part is across the Pacific Ocean. Technically the transpacific flight would end here, but the monoplane will make another hop to Yokohama, Japan, another 1,000 miles, but one of comparative ease. The final jump will be to Shanghai, the end of the 7,000-mile trip.

HOPE OF RELIEF.

(Halifax Chronicle.)
There is hope and encouragement for Canadians in the results which have attended the operations of the fair price committees in the United States. Reports from twelve states to the department of justice at Washington indicate that there has been a decline of 10 to 15 per cent in food prices since the time the fair price committees began their work. From four states have come reports on wholesale prices, indicating a decline of 2 to 5 per cent. Virtually no reduction in clothing prices has been noted.

The reports on retail food prices were from cities and counties well distributed throughout the United States, and the information believed to be a fair indication of what is going on everywhere. They think that results now becoming evident are, particularly, becoming evident in the foodstuffs, new declines in wholesale advances, new declines in wholesale prices being reflected in retail prices and additional reductions coming from the campaign against hoarding and profiteering.

As the Board of Commerce in Canada appears to be proceeding upon the lines adopted in the United States, we may expect similar declines in prices on this side of the line. At all events, there is reason to hope that the "peak" has been reached, and if vigorous action is pursued, that a measure of relief will be afforded to the long-suffering consumer.

TRIBUTE TO LABOR MEN.

(Toronto News.)
"The amazing ability of both sides, particularly the labor men," says Sir John Wilson, who has just returned from the conference between manufacturers and labor leaders at Ottawa, was what mainly impressed him.

"The labor men," he said further, "were particularly handled their case with great skill." In addition the good feeling shown by the conference was far more cordial than at the start. "I was also impressed with the good effects of the manufacturers and labor leaders' meeting face to face. While the manufacturers would not agree to the absolute recognition of the unions, they looked to discriminate or oppose them."

Sir John thought that this was not surprising in view of the fact that this country was not nearly so strongly or fully organized as in Great Britain. He thought the conference forecasted a better feeling between employers and employees.

ANY RAGS ANY BONES.

(London Daily Telegraph)—As for the itinerant rag and bone dealer, and the man with the barrow who used to shout "O' iron!" they seem to have gone out of the business almost entirely; rumour indeed says that they have all turned "antique dealers," keep shops, and are doing well. There is a clear course, therefore, for the municipalities, which proper lines. The amount of stuff thrown away is enormous. Even if there were no prodigally and wastefully the amount of legitimate waste in every household would still be very large. A few bottles, a few papers, a few bones and scraps of fishes are worth nothing. But there is wealth in the mass, and what remains is fuel for the destructor, and often turns if not to sweetness, at any rate to light. With organization the municipalities will yet work wonders with their waste.

THIRD VICTIM OF HUNTING ACCIDENTS

Harold Hovey, a seventeen-year-old young man who resides in Pokioke, was brought to the city on Saturday in the ambulance with nasty gun-shot wounds in his right hand and right leg, the result of an accident.

The young man was shooting small game near MacDonald's Corner, and was carrying a shot-gun loaded with buck shot. Stopping to get a drink of water he put the gun stock first, it is supposed, into a clump of alders. Returning he grasped the muzzle and pulled the gun out of the bushes, but it is thought that a twig had become entangled in the trigger with the result that the gun went off, the charge passing through the fleshy part of his hand and into the right leg just below the hip. Fortunately the shot was small and no very serious wound was inflicted. He was said to be resting easily at the hospital yesterday.

VALLEY RAILWAY OPENS WEDNESDAY

Premier Foster announced last evening that he had received definite assurance in a telegram from D. B. Hanna, chairman of the Canadian National Railway board, that the service on the valley railroad, from Centreville to St. John, would commence on Wednesday, October 1, and that all final arrangements have been made.

So far as can be learned the service which will be inaugurated will consist, for the time being, of a tri-weekly passenger train service with mixed trains on alternate days. It is said that the equipment including the heavier locomotives and sleeping cars are now available.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The explosion of an acetylene tank in the residence of Rev. M. O'Brien, pastor of the Sacred Heart church at Norton, N. B., yesterday, did serious damage to the parsonage, while it also wrecked valuable memorabilia in the church. Rev. Father O'Brien and his housekeeper narrowly escaped injury.

Mrs. George Rafterford, colored, died in Halifax yesterday after jumping from an automobile in which she and her husband were driving. The husband has been held by the police.

Era Libby, treasurer for Eaton's mill, St. Stephen, N. B., was badly injured Saturday by falling under the wheels of his wagon. Arthur Smith, also of St. Stephen, had his leg broken when an electric light pole which he was helping to erect knocked against it heavily.

A riot occurred in Ontario on Saturday evening following an attempt to lynch a negro, Wm. Brown, after he had attempted an assault on a white girl, Agnes Lobeck. The crowd tried to lynch the mayor when he appeared to them for order.

The house and outbuildings of Oran Fries of Indian Mountain, N. B., about ten miles from Moncton, were destroyed by fire on Saturday night at a loss of about $6,000.

A DAIRYMAN'S CHALLENGE.

(Toronto Star)
If anybody wants to try the milk business here is an excellent opportunity. E. A. Orr, vice-president of the Milk Producers' Association, made the following offer this morning: "I have thirteen cows, which I will allow free to any person who will keep them in the same condition as they are kept at present, and feed them the rations mentioned by Mr. Hood in the inquiry before Major Duncan from the first of November to the first of April. He can have all the milk and all I ask is that he leave the manure. I am also authorized, on behalf of Mr. Sanderson of Malton, who has a stable with accommodation for thirty-five cows, to allow its use to anybody who wishes to put in cows and produce milk. There is a milking machine on the premises. The person accepting this offer will then be able to reap a double profit on the milk sold and on the sale of the cattle in the spring."

Cook-Cochrane.
At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace P. Butterfield on September 20, Miss Grace M. Cochrane, sister of Mrs. Butterfield, was united in marriage to Harry A. Cook, of Edmonton (Alta.), formerly of Fredericton (N. B.). The groom is a member of the Linenard Lumber Co., with headquarters at Edmonton. The bride is a daughter of the late George K. Cochrane, of this city. Since graduating from Fredericton High and Normal schools she has been teaching in Tyngsboro and Quincy (Mass.). Mr. and Mrs. Cook left for their home in Edmonton, visiting the principal Canadian cities en route.

Furlong-McKay.
At the Anglican church, Pennfield, Charlotte county, former Lieut. Charles Furlong, of St. John, and Miss Lillian H., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McKay, were married on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. Spencer, of St. George, was the officiating clergyman. The bride was aided by her sister, Miss Beatrice, and the groom had the support of his brother, Barry, Robert T. Mahoney, of St. John, sang O Perfect Love, and his wife officiated at the organ. There was a large attendance at the ceremony and supper, also from the outside districts. Among those from St. John were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Vanwart, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Christopher, W. F. Smith, Louis H. Martineau, Robert F. Duncan, W. V. Lingley, George P. Black and Roy Davidson.

Rev. J. E. Witham of Cape Wolfe, P. E. I., was married in Toronto on Sept. 18 to Miss Florence May Moore of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. M. Kanneau, assisted by Rev. P. H. Wallace. The groomsmen were Rev. Wilbert Brown of Montreal, who appeared in khaki, wearing two wound stripes and the ribbon of the M. M.

RALLY DAY WAS OBSERVED IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

At the Sunday school rallies in the city churches yesterday large gatherings attended and the services were held to make the opening of the winter programme.

In the German street Baptist church, in addition to the part taken by the teachers and pupils, Captain Rev. F. S. Porter, the former pastor, spoke eloquently on the subject, "What Our Home Means to Us." In speaking on this subject he referred to the special pleasure it was to again be among his former parishioners. Miss Maud March and S. H. Davis took part in the service. W. F. Nobles moved that a vote of thanks be extended to R. G. Haley for his work in the Sunday school. The motion was seconded by Rev. S. S. Poole and passed by a standing vote.

Rally day was observed in the First Presbyterian church, West St. John, yesterday afternoon and the service prepared by the board, with the subject "The Home," was used. The associate superintendent, Leonard Wilson, presided and was supported by Honorary Superintendent J. H. Cameron and Superintendent A. W. Fraser. Miss Edith McLean presided at the piano and the singing was under the leadership of Percy Cruikshank. Rev. D. Morrison, pastor of the church, gave an address on the subject, "What Our Home Means to Us." The school regrets the loss of Mrs. J. L. Duval, who is moving to Montreal.

Yesterday in the Exmouth street church the Sunday school commenced the celebration of its sixtieth anniversary, which will be continued during the week with a banquet and concluded next Sunday with the rally day services, and the portrait of Harry Macdonald, who was killed in action, will be unveiled.

The Sunday school service yesterday was an open one and was addressed by the former superintendents. The present superintendent, E. E. Thomas, presided and read the historical account of the school. Those who spoke were all listened to with great interest. They were William Baxter, W. A. Adams, George N. Green, J. King Kelley, Hon. H. A. McKown and James Myles. The pastor, Rev. G. F. Dawson, opened the meeting with prayer.

In the auditorium of the church, St. David's Sunday school held its twenty-fourth annual rally yesterday. The service prepared by the Sabbath school committee of the general assembly, entitled "Home," was carried out. Rev. Mr. Farquhar gave the address on the Sunday school and the hymn "O Happy Home," while Miss Gladys Fowler presided at the piano and F. J. Punter led the singing. A message, the minister, Rev. J. A. MacKegan, was read by Robert Reid, the superintendent, in which was expressed the deepest regret that he was not able to attend the services and also conveyed his heartfelt greetings to the teachers, officers and scholars of the school. The associate superintendent, D. W. Magee, made a few remarks. A feature of the service was the presentation of a diploma to Jean McPhee for reciting verses of Scripture and the shorter catechisms.

Yesterday was rally day in St. Mary's Sunday school and most successful services were conducted by Rev. B. Taylor McKim, the rector. A keen membership campaign has been recently carried on and over fifty new members added to the attendance roll of the school. The leaders of the two campaigns were Miss E. B. Mitchell and Miss McPhee. The rally was held yesterday afternoon, at 8 o'clock and a fine programme of hymns, songs, recitations and exercises carried out by the members of the school, from primary to senior classes. Mr. A. M. Gregg, boys' work secretary for the M.C.C.A. in the maritime provinces, gave a stirring address and the St. Mary's orchestra rendered accompaniments for the hymns and songs.

At St. Bartholomew's church, Glen Falls, a thanksgiving service was held last evening. The church was beautifully decorated by the ladies of the congregation with the fruits of the harvest. In connection with the evening service a new Bible, a hymn board and a lectern were dedicated by J. N. Rogers. St. Mary's orchestra was in attendance, and Miss Edith Morrison officiated at the organ.

Knox Presbyterian church and Sunday school held their annual rally day yesterday. Capt. Rev. Thomas Harrison preached both services at the church and addressed the Sunday school rally in the afternoon. His sermons, morning and evening, were heard with great pleasure by large congregations. In the morning he spoke on Christian growth explaining in his own peculiarly interesting way the ideal and growth of a human soul to Christian perfection.

In the afternoon he addressed the Sunday school, basing his remarks on the rally text, "What our home means to us." In a helpful and inspiring address he said that the home means to us safety, rest, companionship and development or education.

Big Advance in Furs.
Prices obtained for furs at the Faunsten auction fur sale in New York show big advances over the bids obtained in April. Alaska seal skins, for instance, were 90 per cent higher, blue fox 135 per cent, ermine 40 per cent, silver fox 75 per cent, lynx 20 per cent, muskrat 70 per cent, marmoset 75 per cent, Australian rabbit from 50 to 125 per cent, chinchilla 100 per cent, beaver 40 per cent, and, in fact, almost every kind of skin sold at substantial advances over the spring auction. This was the largest sale in the history of the fur auction in New York and comprised skins from practically all the fur-producing countries, the total value of which amounted to $15,334,550.

The Season of New Fashions is Fully Launched

Our Exhibition of Fashions for Fall and Winter Received the Enthusiastic Praise and Applause of Its Two Great Censors—the audience and the Fashion Critics Consensus of Opinion Was That the Fashions This Year Are the Loveliest That Have Been Reviewed for Many Seasons

Suits are at their best and show great charm of line and style, with or without fur trimming, in models of conspicuous "correctness."

There are many beautiful Coats from tailored to luxurious fur trimmed Wraps, and a delightful variety of Frocks for street, afternoon and evening wear.

SUITS FROM THE FRONT RANKS OF FASHION or Fall Suits are the observed of all observers, as they display their charm and distinction in "Our Women and Misses' Apparel Shop"—Second Floor.

Fastidious women, who give their intelligence to questions of dress, find that their ideals of style, suitability and service are realized here.

Our great assortments give unlimited scope to individualism and the expression of personality in the choice of a Suit while every new variation of the Silhouette receives its due attention.

BEWITCHING DRESSES FOR STREET, AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Individuality in Dresses, no fixed Silhouette, is the keynote of the new models, so here one may find gowns artistically draped—frocks gay with bouffant ruffles, and dresses neither tight nor full, but in straight lines, yet all of them distinctly new. The materials featured are Tricotines, Charmeuse, Georgette, Tricolette and Serges.

WERNER HORNE ADMITS BLOWING UP BRIDGE
Jersey City, N.J., Sept. 28.—Werner Horne admitted before United States Commissioner Carpenter here today that he blew up the Canadian Pacific railway bridge over the St. Croix River at McAdam (N.B.) on February 25, 1915, but insisted that it was a military act committed in a hostile country during war time.
"Yes, I did it," said Horne to the commissioner. "I did it in behalf of my country, my fatherland, as an officer of the German army in war time. I caused the explosion that blew up the bridge."
The admission was made at a hearing on a petition of the Canadian government for Horne's extradition to Canada.
Horne, who came into the courtroom smiling and with the expectation of being released, was visibly affected when the Canadian law showing that he was liable to life imprisonment if extradited to that country was read.
He knew the game.
"Now we'll play zoo," said Willie, "and I'll be the elephant."
"That will be fine," said Aunt Mabel. "But what shall I be?"
"Oh, you can be the nice lady who feeds the elephant with buns and sugar," explained Willie.

BRITISH AGAIN WARN RHINE SEPARATISTS
Will Allow No Change in German Government in Occupied Territory.
The decided stand against the renewal of the Separatist agitation in the occupied territory in the Rhineland taken by the British military authorities is again illustrated by the following official notice printed at the top of the front page of the Kolnische Zeitung on Aug. 22.
"It is hereby announced that so long as the British military authorities exercise control over the district occupied by British troops no change in the form of the German government of this district will be allowed and that no new authority will be recognized without the previous approval of the British military authorities.
"Any person opposing, or helping to oppose, the sense of this announcement makes himself liable to imprisonment or expulsion from the occupied territory, or both."
"G. S. CLIVE, Major General, British Military Governor, Occupied German Territory."
The Frankfurter Zeitung recently printed a dispatch from Ludwigshafen, one of the cities occupied by the French from which the movement for the semi-independence of the Rhineland is being promoted, purporting to show that several of the agitators were very undesirable citizens. The dispatch read:
"The real agitators in the movement for a buffer state in the Palatinate, the promoters paid with French money, are the managing editor of the Freie Pfalz, a man named Emrich, who is said to have been discharged from the army because of mental weakness, and an alleged German-American, called Eggersdorf. The latter recently had the assurance to call a meeting in Ludwigshafen under French protection which resulted in such a violent expression of opposition as to give him a physical reminder as good as the one given to the near-revolters in Speyer on June 1.
"But that didn't hinder the valiant man from asserting in his newspaper that the meeting was a brilliant success. But this Eggersdorf is really accustomed to other experiences. It has been established that he is a common criminal who has served time for various thefts and frauds and who was reduced to the status of second-class soldier while in the army for stealing from his comrades. His real name is not Eggersdorf, but Alvens, and he has taken part as a leader in several Spartacide near-revolts, including the one at Darmstadt."
"So General Gerard, who was sent to London by the French government for the purpose of preventing the spread of Bolshevist-Spartacide influences to the occupied territory, is in the very painful position of nourishing in his bosom a Spartacide serpent and the French government has been most actively supporting anything that desires nothing more than to carry the torch of Bolshevism into the occupied territory and from there into France. It is even proposed that this Eggersdorf the criminal and Spartacide whom even the Darmstadt Independent Socialists expelled from their ranks, become the minister finance of the neard republic of the Palatinate."

AGAINST STRICTLY FRESH AIR IN SCHOOL ROOMS
New York, Sept. 27.—Fresh air is not as beneficial as "semi-fresh" air and children who have suffered more from malnutrition through war conditions than poor children, were statements made today at the international conference of women physicians. The attack on fresh air was made by Dr. W. A. McCall of the New York Teachers' College, and the question of nutrition was dealt with by Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of Albany.
Dr. McCall based his conclusion on recent elaborate experiments by the New York State Commission on ventilation. He said that the attacks on fresh air were made by those who are slightly less efficient and make slightly less improvement in psychological, educational and physical measurements when under strictly fresh air than when under air that is semi-fresh.
Dr. Shaw urged better physical and medical care of children, advising frequent examinations for them.
Urging a campaign for health instruction in schools, Dr. Frederick Peterson, said that in Kansas last year the death rate of children was 100 per cent higher and rearing of pigs and $4000 for the loss of children.

WHO GETS BIG APPLE BAKE-OFF?

Enormous Difference Between Prices Consumers Pay and Amount Farmer Receives For His Fruit

(Montreal Herald) "Who is making the rake-off on apples? enquired a farmer, who came into The Herald office yesterday.

How Prices are Justified. If you ask a wholesale fruit merchant about the large profits that are being made on apples, he will tell you the high prices by instancing his large expenses in the matter of staff and will tell you that he has to pay from seventy-five to eighty cents for empty barrels.

TOO FEW POTATOES IN PECK MEASURE (Montreal Herald) Fourteen storekeepers and one pedler will have to appear before a police court within the next few days to answer to charges of selling potatoes under weight.

United States has a very direct interest in the Canadian steel, iron and machinery trade. Stocks in the warehouses of this country are fairly well filled, but warehouse stocks are not plentiful in Ontario and Quebec.

AN ARGUMENT FOR "COST-PLUS" PLAN IN CONSTRUCTING

Results in Lower Costs to the Man Who Pays the Bills, is the Statement of Construction Man

"The cost-plus form of contract brings a lower cost to the owner," was the assertion made by J. P. H. Perry, vice-president of the American Construction Co. at a recent meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

These contractors are as honest as are his fellow business men, for it is to his interests to be so. The crook does not stay in business, for he will be shunned as soon as his underhandness is discovered.

THE HOUSING QUESTION IN THE CITY OF HALIFAX

Three Different Companies Wish to Take up Proposition-City to Give Water and Sewerage (Halifax Recorder)

The Housing Committee of the City Council held a meeting at Mayor Park's office yesterday afternoon when those present were the Mayor, Aldermen Thompson (chairman), Colwell, Kelly and Gullford and W. B. MacCoy.

They had secured a big piece of land in Halifax, and all the city would have to do would be to guarantee the taking over of streets and laying water pipes which refuses to take a contract on any other basis.

Not only on a large work is a saving possible by means of the cost-plus form of contract, but on small work also. In Newark, N. J., an owner who called this form of contract an investment naturally desires to know how much his building is going to cost him in order to be sure that the income will be commensurate with the investment.

Mr. MacCoy stated that he understood a company would take over the housing problem. A company had taken over a scheme in Wolfville, Kentville and other places in the province.

URGENT CAMPAIGN TO CHRISTIANIZE JEWS

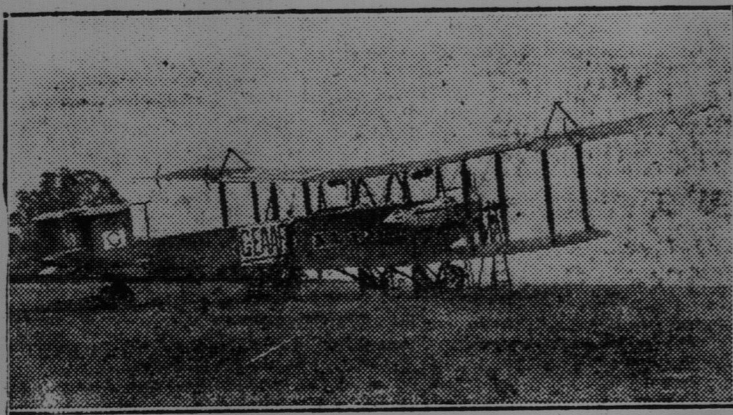

New York, Sept. 27—Christianization of the Jews of the United States as part of a $1,000,000 Americanization programme planned by the Episcopal Board of Missions, was advocated here today at a board conference.

Suggestion by Bishop Rogers Israel of the Erie, Penn., diocese that any action along these lines should be deferred until after the Episcopal General Conference at Detroit in October, brought prompt answer from Rev. John I. Zacker, superintendent of Jewish work for the diocese of Philadelphia.

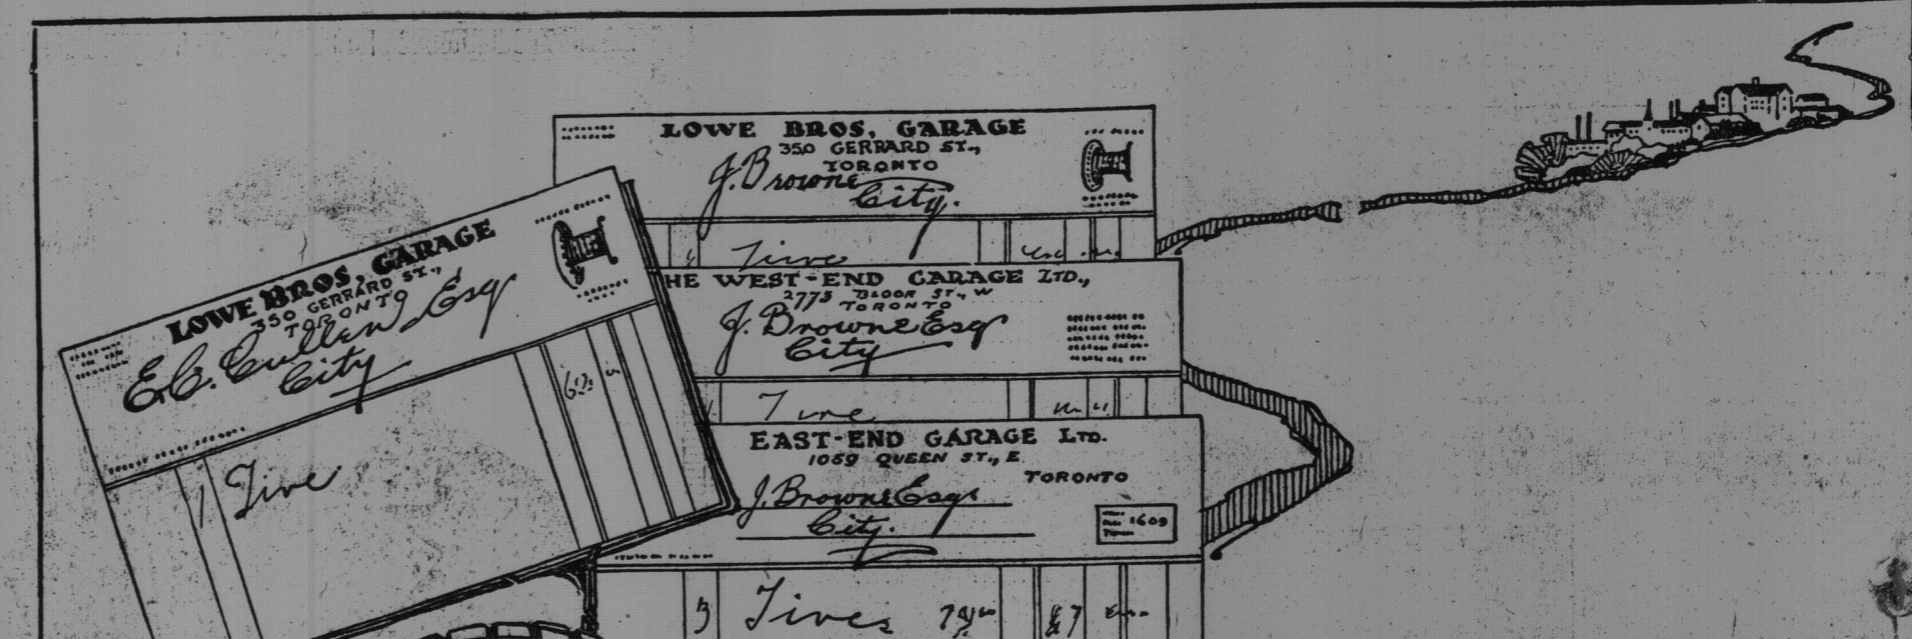

The state department is also stocking the inland waters with game fish and this year took from Lake Erie 167,000 mature fish and placed them in the inland lakes and streams.

Mr. Stuber is very enthusiastic as to the results from the working of the migratory birds convention between the United States and Canada.

Fewer Tire Bills

When you buy tires, you buy mileage. You want to travel as many miles as possible on those tires.

You can buy mileage in small quantities—in low-mileage tires at low prices.

Or you can buy it in big quantities—wholesale quantities—as in Goodyear Cord Tires.

And in Goodyear Cords you really get mileage at wholesale price.

You pay more in the first place, but you get a much larger quantity of mileage.

You pay a higher price, but you pay it less often.

You can test this among your friends. Ask the Goodyear Cord Tire user how often he buys tires.

Ask the low-priced tire user the same question. You will probably find that one man is buying one Goodyear Cord Tire at, say, $58.00 while the other man is buying three tires at $30.00 or more.

The Goodyear Service Station Dealer will tell you of other just such cases when you ask him about tires. (Ask him about the Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tube—a better, thicker tube, very much worth its extra price.)

PLAN PAY INCREASE FOR BAPTIST CLERGY

Many Now in Debt, Says Dr. McAlpine—'Lord Will Provide' Attitude Forced by Poverty

New York, Sept. 27—Poorly paid Baptist ministers who have been compelled to spend their life savings to pay necessities or forced to go into debt for them in the hope that "the Lord will provide,"

were given a message of cheer today by Rev. Dr. Charles A. McAlpine of the National Committee of Northern Baptist Laymen when he announced that the General Board of Promotion had taken steps to increase their pay.

Dr. McAlpine, who recently expressed the opinion that unless the salaries of clergymen were raised he would not blame them for organizing a union and calling a country-wide strike, said that it had "been officially brought to the attention of the board of promotion that ministers are not so easy to produce as before the war," because their "low salaries" have forced them to seek out occupations.

"It is with regret that I admit many pastors today are in debt," said Dr. McAlpine. "They are honest and mean to pay their bills, but have been led into charging things in the hope that the Lord will provide."

ANCIENT AZTECS WERE SKILLED DENTISTS; WORE GEMS IN THEIR TEETH
Chicago, Sept. 27—Lady Thackersey, a high-caste Hindu woman, who on her recent visit to the United States created a sensation by wearing a $6,000 diamond set in the side of her nose, had nothing on ancient Aztec dandies in Mexico. An antiquarian recently has discovered that the Aztecs had perfected dentistry long before Cortez conquered Mexico and the fashionable men of Montezuma's days not only had their dental cavities filled with gold, but wore in holes drilled in their front teeth sapphires, garnets, opals and other gems indigenous to the country.

The dentistry work of these ancient aboriginal people, shut off from the civilization of the eastern world across the sea, is still to be seen in the mummies and skulls that have been preserved from that far off time. It is said to show as great and meticulous skill as that of the modern dentist. Their records even prove that they used coca, from which coca is extracted, as a local anaesthetic. The work of their gemsmiths, on the other hand, was inferior to that of today. The native American gems they wore are still fashionable among modern men and women and under modern methods of cutting and polishing have acquired a beauty and brilliance of which the Aztecs never dreamed.

PLEA FOR AMNESTY FOR ALL CANADIANS

Ottawa, Sept. 28—The rights of Canadian soldiers imprisoned in England as a result of the Rhyll, Seaford, Witley and other riots will, in all probability, make the chief topic of discussion when the House discusses Colonel Currie's motion that "A general amnesty should be granted to soldiers undergoing terms of imprisonment for military offences committed during the war." In addition to those imprisoned as a result of the riots there are cases of soldiers imprisoned since the armistice for minor breaches of discipline, which would deserve severe punishment if committed in the face of the enemy, but which, it is stated, would seem rather trivial in civil life. There are others charged with more serious crimes but who, nevertheless, did good service while actual fighting was going on.

Sir Edward Kemp lately made a statement to the effect that at the end of this year he hopes there will be no Canadian military prisoners in England. Some Canadian soldiers here state that Australia insisted that every Australian prisoner should be offered the right to a civil trial in Australia if he were displeased with the martial decision. A similar demand may be made here ere long.

REGISTRATION PLANS

The four city members, Dr. Roberts, Dr. J. Roy Campbell, L. P. D. Tilley and F. L. Potts are co-operating in the arrangements for the registration of women to make them thoroughly successful. The movement was inaugurated by them and not by the revisors' court and it is entirely non-political. The women are now entitled to vote and the local member of both parties are assisting in every way possible so that all women qualified may have their names placed on the voter's list.

The women are asked to register as early in the week as they can conveniently as the justices of the peace are giving their services voluntarily and may not be able to be at the places set towards the end of the week.

The registration cards will be received at the offices of the three revisors, Commissioners Thornton and Fisher and H. A. Porter. Envelopes in which the cards may be forwarded will be found at each of the booths. Women may either mail their cards to the revisors' offices or

Shirriff's ORANGE Marmalade

WHY are Seville oranges brought thousands of miles from Spain to make Shirriff's Marmalade? The reason is that only Seville oranges can give that exquisite flavor so characteristic of true marmalade. Shirriff's has a wealth of zestful tang brought out by many years of specializing on marmalade.

Union and Coburg streets; Silas McDiarmid, 47 King street; Struan Robertson of A. Chip Smith, 41 Charlotte street; George A. Cameron, 141 Charlotte street; Keith Barbour, Customs House; Stanley Wetmore, 123-127 Queen street; H. Colby Smith of A. C. Smith & Co., West St. John; W. E. Scully, Union Ice Co. The lobby of the Standard Publishing Company, Prince William street, will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

DISCUSS CO-OPERATION WITH THE METHODIST CHURCH

Newcastle, Sept. 27—A special meeting of the Miramichi presbytery was held yesterday, the moderator, Rev. Mr. Gardiner in the chair.

The resignation of Rev. J. M. Fraser, of Blackville, was accepted with deep regret. Mr. Fraser and family leave immediately for the Presbyterian mission at Harrington Harbor, Labrador.

Co-operation with Methodists in circuits, where either, or both are too weak to properly maintain themselves was discussed, and the matter further referred to the synod which meets on the first Tuesday of next month at Fredericton.

U. S. Retains Imperator.

Washington, Sept. 27—The eight former German liners allocated to the United States after the armistice, including the former Hamburg American steamer Imperator, the second largest ship afloat, are to be turned over to the shipping board by the war department as soon as necessary surveys can be made.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

To have the clerk come 'round in front to find out the name of the style, spend five minutes looking for the size you want and then announce in a discouraged voice: "We don't seem to have that size?"

Of course you have—and, equally, of course, it did not occur in the Milwaukee store of Browning, King & Co., for this organization has worked out a system whereby customers can purchase their collars in pretty close to "nothing flat."

Here's the answer: On the back of each collar in the glass sample case is pasted a tag, containing the style-name and some cryptic figures. Suppose, for example, that the customer asks for a Talbot 153—merely pointing to the collar. From his position behind the counter, the clerk can see and easily read the tag which carries the information: "Talbot—24—19½ to 17-4½ and below a large figure '36."

This tells at a glance the name of the style, its height (in the event that a similar height may be desired in another style), the range of sizes in stock, the fact that the collar comes in quarter sizes, and, most important of all, the number of the compartment in which that collar will be found.

This compartment-arrangement is a Browning-King specialty. Instead of keeping collars in their original boxes and thus eating up lots of valuable shelf space, they are taken out of their containers and placed in deep drawers with separate compartments for each size. Each drawer bears a number, corresponding to the one on the back of the sample collar.

"If Kelly Can't Fix It, Throw It Away"

About every one in Highland Park, Cal., knows just whom to see when the door lock gets out of order, the baby carriage refuses to work easily, the gas range won't breathe naturally or the sink faucet refuses to turn off.

"Why, Handy Andy, over on Fifty-eighth street, of course."

This isn't because they see very much of Handy Andy, for he's out much of the time. But it is because the business of callers who find him out is not lost. His workshop door may be closed, but the customers can scribble a note and drop it into the mail slot. Or, if they wish to see him personally, the clock dial shows when he will return to headquarters.

His sign, like that of the quick, inspires hope in the breast of the most dejected article; for it reads:

"If Kelly can't fix it, throw it away."

Simple 'Phone Order Blank Ends Errors.

Most of the difficulties and handicaps incident to sales soliciting over the telephone are eliminated by a form of order blank used by Ames and Doppie of Cincinnati, O.

The blank is of generous size, and is arranged as follows:

Name Address
 Phone No. Date Received
 Time Goods
 Filled by Time Sent

These blanks are of different colors from other store forms. In each instance the customer's telephone number is entered in the store. If the customer calls, she is asked for it, just as for her name and address. This entry of the telephone number serves a double purpose. It is a convenience for the store if it must be notified that the goods are not in stock, or if prices have changed. Likewise, it helps to identify the customer taking of the name or address.

So far as is possible each customer is assigned to a particular clerk. The clerks soon get to know their telephone customers, their tastes and preferences. This also helps on days which are dull at the store, when the clerks busy themselves calling up their lists and suggesting the purchase of certain goods it is agreed on before hand to push.

With the inauguration of this telephone system a few years ago the store won a great deal of good-will and attracted the attention of its prospects to the new service by calling up on New Year's Day and wishing its customers the compliments of the season, coupled with the simple announcement that in the future it intended to make a feature of its telephone service. On that occasion customers were not asked to buy anything.

Electric Map Tells Sales Story Quickly.

Graphically to illustrate the phrase, "Say It With Flowers," Frank M. Ross, florist of Philadelphia, Pa., has made good use of his window to install an ingenious electric map of the United States, upon which are portrayed the principal cities of every state, connected by wires strung from telegraph poles and reaching all over the country.

A small red electric bulb indicates every large city, and by means of an automatic device, the "message" is flashed from place to place, the bulb lighting up here and there every second or two.

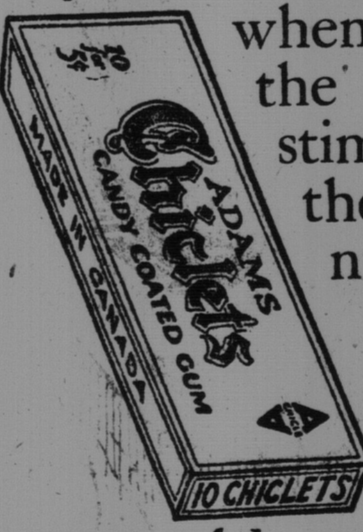

The idea to be conveyed to the public is that flowers may be sent to any city in the United States and Canada at any time through the Florist's Telegraph Delivery Association. By merely giving the local florist an order for flowers to be delivered in Chicago, for instance, at a certain hour, insures that the friend or relative at a distance will receive the flowers at the proper time. There is no extra charge expense attached to this service, the telegraph tolls being borne by the association's members.

Although the map cost Mr. Ross something like $400, the expense was amply justified by the attention it attracted as well as by its value in calling the public's notice to the telegraphic feature of the service. An interesting point brought out by the display was its attraction for children, who, on their way to school, stopped to figure out in advance the day's lesson in geography and to compare notes with each other.

No One Refuses Chiclets!

FOR the man who spends hours in the workshop under the strain of whirring machinery—the Chiclet habit is a good habit. Especially when a man can't use tobacco to relieve the tension. A Chiclet refreshes and stimulates, shortens the hours, makes the work seem lighter. To the man on night-shift, Chiclets are a god-send.

Get a packet while you're waiting for the car in the morning, when you buy smokes, or when you go out at lunch-hour.

Almost every store sells Chiclets, ten for 5c. And there's a family-size packet, just the thing for week-ends—25c.

NEWS OF GREAT BRITAIN

Employers and Disbanded Soldiers—Housing Problem Acute—Want German Indemnity Paid Before German Goods Get New Foothold

(A letter from London from our own Correspondent.)
London, Sept. 11.—Colonel John Ward, the burly Labor member for Stoke on Trent, has brought back from the Russian front some gruesome stories of Bolshevik excesses. Some of his theoretical revolutionaries, who were working hard in munition factories when others were fighting, have developed a mild affection for Bolsheviks. They should hear John Ward talk about their friends, and he is not the man to be bamboozled by fairy tales. Lenin and Trotsky have, in fact, created the most scientific form of terrorism the world has ever known. Most revolutions have been based, professionally at any rate, upon the championship of "the rights of man." The Russian system is founded on the executioner's rule. Each man lives under the terror of being denounced by a colleague as lukewarm or anti-Bolshevik. Their ferocity is kept up to standard in this war, and woe to anyone who gives even a colorable excuse for the suspicion that he signs for other rule than Lenin's.

Work By Royal Proclamation.

Employers do not object to find work for disarmed soldiers and sailors. They are anxious to assist them in any way they can, but they naturally look with amazement at a fresh intervention on the part of the government in regard to the conduct of their business. They have had to accept. Often for the sake of other people, but now the government coolly issues a royal proclamation ordering employers to find work for disarmed ex-service men in the proportion of five per cent of their staff, an arbitrary limit which might actually lead to the reduction of such men employed by a firm. What next? One wonders. Shall we be told in another proclamation that five per cent of women must be engaged in every business or workshop? If this proclamation is not withdrawn or modified, employers will continue to employ the most capable of casual workers, disarmed soldiers and sailors. Should this not reach the required five per cent must those with little or no knowledge of the work be taken out of the proportion of this kind are an astonishing departure. A better plan could be devised.

In the Hop Gardens.

Hop picking, the poor man's way of getting a summer holiday, has just begun in the Kentish fields. The air is heavy and drowsy with the scent of hops, and the vines are heavily laden. For the next few weeks camped-out men, women and countless small children filling the hop growers' bags with the valuable crop. Hop growers are always practically live in the open air; men, women and countless small children filling the hop growers' bags with the valuable crop. Hop growers are always practically live in the open air; men, women and countless small children filling the hop growers' bags with the valuable crop.

The Anzac Touch.

This week I met an old friend, formerly an actor, now a killed demander, come to stick to the army so long as the army would stick to him. The call of the footlights, once very strong within him, has not survived the thunder of the guns. He looks the picture of open-air vigor and soldierly bearing, and the last anyone would guess is that he ever remained on the London stage. I ironically rebuked him for having one tunic pocket button undone—in my best C. S. M. manner—but he excused the lapse on the ground that twice that day he had been "saluted by Australians." He was still rather overcast by the time he knew it was "done," and there followed a good army tale that was new, at any rate to me. A tall thin, somewhat looking Anzac was leaning up against the side of something in the approved manner of down-under, chewing the cud of thought and tobacco. He complained of the passage of a little jock off his back—a very small hero, but well be-ribboned with fighting honors. "Why don't you salute me?" angrily demanded the killed officer. The Anzac languidly expectorated sideways, and in accents more of sorrow than of anger, ejaculated, "Op it kid!" The ex-actor swore it was

They Work While You Sleep—Cost Only a Quarter—and Really Bring Lasting Results

It only takes one night to prove the wonder-working power of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They are the smoothest, easiest acting laxative yet devised, the kind that a child or delicate woman can use with comfort. You can eat heartily and sleep peacefully, and wake up refreshed and ready for the day. The blood is enriched and redened, in consequence you are given new strength and vitality. Pains who are half sick, sort of run down, lacking in spirits and energy, those who find a day's toil exhausting and find the body aching, and those who can be restored by Hamilton's Pills to vigorous health that will outlast old age. Housing Embarrassments.

I am told that one reason why the housing problem does not seem to be solved quite so hopefully as most social vexations are wont to do is because there is no prospect of furnishing a house when you get one. At many of our most popular east coast resorts the congestion has this summer been "summat awful." And the fact that so many people found it difficult, if not impossible, to get reasonable accommodation was not sugar-coated by the other fact that there are so many houses standing empty. When the east coast became an unhealthy area during the war, there was a general exodus. Only the veteran seaside boardinghouse keeper in most cases gallantly "stuck it out." And there are now at most of the east coast resorts big houses for which there would be a great and eager demand, but for the fact that none of the people who would gladly take them over could hope to make the investment pay at present prices for furnishings. The same applies to many big houses in the west end, which have been vacated by their former tenants, who have helped incidentally to make congested areas by going into small houses in the suburbs or into a flat in town. Once we can burst the bubble of inflated prices anywhere, the rest will follow.

Where is the Indemnity?

Now that trade is beginning to flow from Germany it is extremely urgent that the question of the German indemnity should be settled. When the bill begins to be paid Germany's excessive "cheapness" will not last long. The French are becoming seriously disturbed at the absence of any sign in Germany that the gigantic debt owing to the Allies is to be liquidated. When the position was reversed France devoted all her energies to paying off the indemnity, and complaints were heard from Germany that the payment was being made too quickly. Now we cannot see the smallest trace of a contribution. Allied war costs, and goods are being exported as though no such thing as an indemnity existed. The Germans must not be allowed to slip out of their obligations, and there is no time to lose in fixing the dates and methods by which the first instalments shall be made.

Sadness Among the Flappers.

Sad times have befallen the Whitehall "flappers." My duties have taken me a good deal to government departments, and I could not but be struck with the change which had come over the social atmosphere of the government offices. Instead of gloomy, dry-as-dust offices, one entered a bright and animated social centre. Each office might have been the annex of a tennis club or a smart restaurant. Certainly the only thing done in most of the offices between three and five was the consumption of a delicately served tea, graciously served by berries of pretty girls. Curiously enough, good looks seemed to predominate among the staffs—perhaps an example of the survival of the fittest? But now Whitehall as a social centre has been completely spoiled. Sir Auckland Geddes has "put the lid on" as these vivacious young ladies would say, by banning low neck blouses and flashy dresses, and gossip in the corridors. These unbecoming regulations and the dread of dismissal are tending to make the government service quite "dowdy." Soon good looks will meet competition at all, and the best of competence at work may be restored.

BOMB WRECKED HOUSE; 3 DEAD

Suspect Black Handers Responsible—House Blown to Pieces

Batavia, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Black-handers are believed to be responsible for the wrecking by a bomb of the two-story dwelling of Carl Trimarchi, in this city early today, killing three persons and injuring four.
The house was literally blown to pieces and one of the Trimarchi children was thrown into the street by the force of the explosion. The Battaghi family lived upstairs and the Trimarchi family down stairs.
The bodies of the former were found in the debris in the cellar. The neighbors claim that they heard two revolver shots. A man was seen running away from the scene shortly after the shots were heard. Trimarchi is a restaurant keeper. He recently has received three black hand letters.

WATCH CLOTHING MEN

Washington, Sept. 29.—Reports of excessive profits by manufacturers and wholesale dealers of clothing are being investigated by the Department of Justice. Attorney General Palmer said today that prosecutions would be instituted wherever just amendments requested by President Wilson, making the Food Control act applicable to clothing and providing a criminal penalty for hoarding and profiteering.
Mr. Palmer will meet a committee representing the Association of State Attorneys General here on Oct. 1 to decide how the law enforcement agencies of the Federal and State Governments can cooperate in punishing hoarders and profiteers.

High Heels and Health.

High heels prevail in spite of the promise of something wiser in building into popular favor, says an Exchange. Yet, we quote a well-known doctor: "No woman pretends that she is comfortable wearing high heels nor can she hope to be graceful when wearing them, for the body is thrown out of poise, and the action of the feet is restricted. More serious than her awkwardness is the eventual injury to her health. For in the effort to preserve her equilibrium the shoulders are thrown forward, depressing the chest; breathing is interfered with, and that means poorer blood and a final decrease in vitality. This comes gradually, but it is inevitable when a woman persists in wearing very high heels. Her heels should conform to the arch of her instep."

WAR HERO NOW GAINS 24 POUNDS

After the Strain of Service at Front, Came Home Almost a Nervous Wreck—Praises Tanlac.

Here is another instance of the remarkable reconstructive powers of Tanlac. William J. McCullum of 114 Broad street, St. John, N. B., who spent three and a half years at the front in Franco and Belgium, wounded five times, gassed and shell-shocked and finally invalided home, states that Tanlac has put him in shape to where he is not only beginning to feel like himself again, but that he has also gained twenty-four pounds in weight, besides.
Mr. McCullum is a veteran of two wars. He holds a medal for service in the great European war and also a four bar medal for gallantry in the Boer war. "I can hardly realize just what Tanlac has been worth to me," said Mr. McCullum, in an interview, recently, "in restoring my health and putting me on my feet. When I got home from the war I was simply a nervous wreck and neither food or medicines seemed to do me any good. I was so nervous and shaky I could hardly hold a cup of tea to my mouth and if my wife happened to drop a fork or knife at the table I would nearly jump out of my chair. In this excited condition my food could not digest, but would sour and form gas on my stomach adding more misery to my already desperate condition. I would toss and roll most of the night, getting only about two hours restful sleep, and would sometimes have to get out of bed and walk the floor. My condition was distressing in the extreme and seemed to be getting worse all the time. Finally someone suggested that I try Tanlac and I got a bottle, having little idea it would do me any good, but it has not only helped me, it has made me feel like a new man. I now have an appetite like a bear and just anything set before me without the least effect from it. I have been built up and strengthened until by nervousness is practically gone. I can sleep all night long like a log and my wife has a job waking me up in the mornings. I am now able to do a full day's work and Tanlac gets the credit for me being on my feet. My nerves have steadied down until I can stand all sorts of noise and sudden jars. When I first began taking Tanlac I could hold my head steady enough to take a drink of water, but now I can shave myself. I am praising Tanlac to all the boys, especially those suffering like I was, take a 'tip' from me—get Tanlac, for I fully believe I would still be a nervous wreck if I had not taken it myself."
Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv't.)

FOR WEATHER SHARPS

A sign of continued rain is when the smoke from the chimney hovers low around the housetops. When it ascends straight in the air this indicates clearing weather.
A foggy morning is usually the forerunner of a clear afternoon.
A thunderstorm in winter (usually in January or February) is always followed by clear cold weather. It is not, as many think, the breaking up of winter.
People living near the seashore say a storm is "brewing" when the air is salty, caused by the wind blowing from the east.
The old Indian sign of a dry moon was when the ends of the new moon were nearly horizontal, and one of them resembled a hook on which the Indian could hang his powder horn.
And the advice of the old weather sage is "never go out during April month without being accompanied by your umbrella."
And then, for the special benefit of those who never can remember anything they read in prose, but do have a faculty for retaining verses, the following important formulas are set out in verse:—
"Red in the morning the sailor's warning,
Red at night the sailor's delight.
"When you see a mackerel sky,
"I'll not be many hours dry.
"When the seagulls inland fly
Know ye that a storm is nigh.
"A ring around the moon
Means a storm is coming soon.
"When it rains before seven
"I'll clear before eleven."

HOW TO BEAT OUR OLD ENEMY SPANISH 'FLU

Dr. Boucher, The City Health Officer of Boston, Issues a List of Instructions to Follow
Although Dr. Boucher, the Medical Officer of Health assures the people that there is no evidence of serious danger regarding the Spanish influenza in the city, the Department of Health issued the following information this morning regarding the precautions to be taken against influenza.
Influenza is a contagious disease which is transmitted from one person to another by the secretions of the respiratory tract. Infection by the atmosphere is not to be feared, but projected bubbles of saliva and dust may carry it.
Persons who are slightly sick as well as those who are seriously ill may transmit the disease; it is therefore necessary to prevent them from coming in contact with others without necessity.
Persons apparently in good health may infect other; it is therefore necessary to prevent as much as possible dissemination of infecting matter by spitting, coughing and sneezing.
Avoid spitting on floors or sneezing or coughing towards others without covering the nose or mouth.
Avoid using common towels, drinking cups or other utensils.
Public offices should provide cuspidors placed in conspicuous places filled with Javel water every morning and emptied every evening, then cleaned with a fresh solution and filled again for the following day.
Houses and public offices should be kept dry and warm to a temperature of sixty degrees while in use.
Floors should be kept always cleaned; in public offices they should be cleaned every business hours.
All public offices should be thoroughly aired at night and early in the morning before business hours.
Persons employed in public buildings who feel sick or who present symptoms of cold should get from their employers leave to stay at home; if the permission is refused they should take the above mentioned precautions in order to avoid infecting their neighbors.
Avoid all kinds of abuses, especially of tobacco, which, through the irritation of the mucous membrane, open a door to infection.
Persons feeling sick should stay at home and call a doctor.
Gargles and nasal douches may be very useful but should not be used without a prescription and under the direction of a physician.
Sick persons should be placed in a room well exposed to sun-light, where members of the family should not enter without necessity; soiled linen and clothes should be disinfected with Javel water.
Physicians should regularly report their cases of influenza to avoid being liable to legal constraints from the part of the department of health; it is also their duty as good citizens.
The following precautions should be taken:
Drink much water.
Eat easily digestible meals.
Wash your hands with soap before meals and after having attended a sick person.
Avoid putting your fingers or any other object in your mouth.
Avoid going without necessity where there is a case of disease.
Keep your mouth shut.
Avoid overwork and go to bed early.

MRS. SANFORD'S MESSAGE TO WORKING WOMEN

Laurel, Miss.—"Eight years ago I was suffering with pains and weakness caused by a female trouble. I had fever, aches, chills and fevers, and was unable to do my work part of the time. Lydia E. JUNGLES ARE ALWAYS TEEMING WITH LIFE.

One may as well try to describe with justice the creature drag along from Asia to describe the jungle of Malaya. From without one sees a dense forest of very irregular height and of the most vivid green imaginable. Here and there towering above the others one sees immense trees 100 feet high or more. From without the jungle looks impenetrable, and so it is, except by well-defined tracks or by hacking one's way through, as I have done, for 150 miles.
Within the jungle all is green, except overhead where one can see a misty light that filters up through the delicate foliage. All the trees shoot straight up, there being practically no horizontal branches from them. In fact, there are in The Virtuous Model

He was an idealist so far as women were concerned. He met her in a gay Parisian Cabaret and saw in her beautiful face and form the "inspiration" for his classic Venus—for this idealist was a noted sculptor. But she would not pose in the nude, as her modesty rendered this impossible. After they were married the "Other Woman" appeared and tried to besmirch the model-wife's reputation, and taunted her with having been "Dragged From the Cutter."

of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada took place Saturday afternoon at Lansdowne Park, being held under the auspices of the newly organized Ottawa Federation of Amateur Athletes.

One Canadian record was broken during an afternoon of the finest track and field sport that has ever been witnessed in the capital. John Cameron, a husky police officer from Vancouver, carried off the all-round championship with thirteen points, while second honors went to W. H. Kennel of Montreal A. A. A., who scored ten.

The team championship was carried off by the M. A. A., which had little or no opposition, and the only championship to remain in Ottawa was the half mile title, which went to Reid Tubman, his only rival in this race being his brother Ray. The championship meeting passed off without a hitch. Competent officials handled the long programme of events in good style and though there were one or two delays, these proved unavoidable. Less than two thousands people attended the games.

FOOTBALL

Inter-Scholastic Squads.

The High school football squad had a good workout on the Shamrock grounds on Saturday morning. Under coach "Sandy" Thorne they are rounding into good shape and will have a fast team of good weight. The inter-scholastic football schedule was arranged at a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday afternoon and the games will be played as follows:

October 8—St. John vs. Collegiate vs. St. John High at Rothesay.

October 18—Fredericton vs. St. John at Fredericton.

October 24—Rothesay vs. Fredericton at Rothesay.

October 25—St. John vs. Fredericton at St. John.

November 1—St. John vs. Rothesay at St. John.

November 8—Fredericton vs. Rothesay at Fredericton.

THE TURF

New Record at Charlottetown.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Sept. 27.—A new trotting record was established for the Charlottetown track at today's races, the second time the track record was broken during this week's meet which closed today. Yesterday Brage reduced it from 2.15 1/2 to 2.15. Today Colorado L. in the first heat of the 2.22 trot brought it down to 2.13. In the next two heats Colorado finished fifth. This did not satisfy the grand stand and it clamored for Kelly's removal. He was replaced by Boutiller in the fourth heat, but the crowd remembering their disapproval of the Halifax driver, last year, protested against him also.

The free-for-all was won by Bob Mac, whose best time was 2.13 1/2.

Final Card at Columbus.

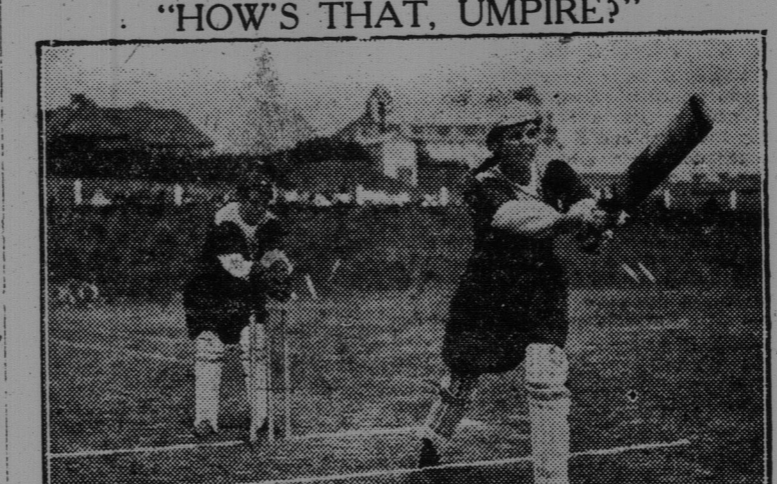

Columbus, O., Sept. 27.—Grand Circuit racing for Ohio was closed for the year this afternoon when a small programme, consisting of three class trotting races, was completed and in two of the three events very keen competition was shown. The meeting today was carried on minus Cox, Valentine, Murphy and one or two other leading drivers, whose stables at ready were on the way to Lexington. Harry Stokes drove Jersey for Walter Cox and created considerable excitement when he won the 2.13 trot with her and

ACCOMMODATION FOR 33,000 FANS AT CINCINNATI

Permanent Seats 22,000; Temporary Seats For 5,000 More and Rest Can Stand

Cincinnati, Sept. 29.—The home grounds of the Cincinnati Nationals, winners of the National League pennant, which is known as Redland Field, will seat approximately 27,000 persons, and accommodate about 33,000 when the local team plays the Chicago White Sox winners of the American League race for the series championship tonight.

The permanent stands seat 22,000, but the time the first game of the world's series is begun, new seats for 5,000 more persons will have been erected. In addition fans who are not fortunate enough to obtain coupon tickets for seats will find space for about 6,000 persons.

Early in August when Cincinnati played the New York Giants in what was considered by many baseball followers as the crucial games in the pennant race, slightly more than 31,000 persons were on the ball grounds. From this it can be seen that there will be no difficulty for at least 33,000 finding vantage places to view the games.

New seats in left and centre fields extend over the sidewalk on Western avenue and along York street and the new box seats are along the first and third base lines. Cincinnati city council elected over the Reds winning the pennant, gave the club management permission to erect seats over the sidewalks of Western avenue and York street for forty days. The playing field will be encroached upon in left and centre field to the extent of possibly eighteen feet on each side of the same distance behind the catcher's position and along the first and third base lines. This will contract the playing field somewhat, but it will be possible to drive out legitimate three base hits in left field and home runs in right.

Redland Field is considered the last word in baseball parks. It is situated in the western section of the city. The permanent stands are of concrete and steel and the property is owned by the Cincinnati club. The building of the structure was started in September, 1911, and completed in April, 1912, the total cost running to $895,000.

The grand stand proper has a double deck, and on its left and right are stands with roofs over them. The seats

DOG SHOW

Fredericton, Sept. 28.—At the meeting of the U. N. B. students yesterday Clarence Burden of this city was appointed captain of the football team while Ernest G. Saunders was appointed vice-captain. A good number of students turned out to football practice yesterday and very good practice was held.

Veteran Dog a Winner.

The smooth fox terrier, Warren Rascol, went to winners, topping his breed at the Ladies' Kennel Club dog show in Montreal last week. This dog is owned by Robert B. Leaky of this city and took several specials at the recent dog show in St. Andrew's rink, winning best of his breed. He also won the stud dog award, being the best of any breed over five years old. It is said that this was the oldest dog in the show, yet fit enough to win out in fast company this year.

Levinisky to Meet Greb.

Battling Levinisky and Harry Greb of Dayton, Ohio, last Friday night but the bout was called off, have just been matched by Joe Levy, the fight promoter of Cincinnati, to meet in a ten-round bout, no decision at the Cincinnati Baseball Park on the night of the opening world series game in that city between the Reds and the White Sox.

Herman to Get $15,000.

For agreeing to defend his title in a twenty-round bout at New Orleans on the night of Thanksgiving Day, Pete Herman, the legitimate bantamweight champion, is to receive a guarantee of $15,000 with an option of accepting 50 per cent of the gross receipts. Sam Goldman, manager of Herman, has just informed the writer in a letter of the above terms which he has signed his name for, and that Dominick Torricelli, the promoter, has the privilege of selecting whatever opponent he cares to put against Herman. Joe Lynch will most likely be named to go against Herman.

Boxing is flourishing.

That the boxing game is in a flourishing condition all over the country was demonstrated last Saturday afternoon when the bout between Eddie Fitzsimmons of Buffalo, and Young Kloby, the game welter-weight of Lawrence, Mass., drew a gate of $24,050, at the O'Sullivan Baseball Park at Lawrence, Mass. Fitzsimmons fought for 25 per cent of the receipts, which made his end cost running to $895,000.

The grand stand proper has a double deck, and on its left and right are stands with roofs over them. The seats

Rev. D. S. O'Keefe, pastor at St. Andrews, preached at all the masses in the Cathedral yesterday. Father O'Keefe is on his way home from the dedication of the Charlottetown cathedral.

Members of the choir of Queen square Methodist church were the guests of J. Willard Smith at an enjoyable outing at his home in Westfield on Saturday. A motor trip was included in the afternoon enjoyment.

Murray Long, the bandmaster of the Great War Veterans' Association, has been appointed choir leader of the Lutheran Baptist church. A reorganization of the choir is taking place this week.

The Marlborough, Portland and New Brunswick lodges of the Sons of England Society, headed by St. Mary's Band, attended the service in St. Luke's church yesterday morning at which an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. R. F. McKim.

The close of the season on Saturday evening was marked by members of the Westfield Outing Association with a dance at the new clubhouse there. Through the kindness of F. G. Spencer, music was supplied by the Arlington orchestra.

Some slight damage was done by a fire in the cellar of A. B. McIntosh's three-story house Saturday, and the fire department responded. They were called out on Saturday evening also and pulled a horse owned by Alex. Day from an open sewer in Douglas avenue.

F. Gordon Green, son of Fred Green of the Western Union, left by last evening's Montreal train for Moscow on his way to continue his engineering studies. He was accompanied by Harold Simpson, M.M., of Springfield (N. S.), who goes to the same university to former students of Mount Allison University where they had brilliant records as students and college men generally. They were comrades overseas being members of the No. 6 Canadian Siege battery, recruited here by Major Laurence Allan.

NEW COAL CRISIS IN VIENNA; STREET CAR SERVICE STOPPED

Vienna, Sept. 29.—No coal has arrived in Vienna since Saturday, and more drastic fuel retrenchments are impending. The situation, owing to the suspension of street car service, has become serious, and cold and rain have added to the discomforts. No public conveyances are operating, and few private vehicles.

The holding of funerals has been made virtually impossible, and physicians are compelled to walk their rounds.

ROYAL OAK TIRES

are Favored by Exactng Motorists

All materials used in the construction of Royal Oak Tires are selected with the utmost care, and only highest-grade materials are employed.

The fabric used in the carcass is seventeen ounce Sea Island Duck, and it is the best that money can buy.

In the tread is as much pure rubber as it is possible to put in the tread of any tire. The tire, as regards looks and service in miles, is equal to any and surpassed by none.

AFTERMATH OF THE WAR IN FRANCE

V. A. D. Girl Writes of Scenes Still Desolate and of Odd Lots of Patients in The Hospitals

An interesting letter has been received by a friend in the city from a member of the V. A. D. now serving with the British hospitals in France and Flanders. The letter comes from Agnes-Les-Duisans, a place that is well known to the members of the Canadian corps. She writes:

"We are at Agnes-Les-Duisans, a few miles out of Arras. Last Sunday a few of us motored over to a garden party which was held in the grounds of an old chateau near Douai—a tiny village named Montigny. On the way, an R. A. S. C. officer was explaining the very mutilated look of the place. The Hun had evidently looted everything of value when he evacuated and the Canadians to take possession. All the wood from the doors and windows and even the fine oak panelling are nearly all gone, leaving but a mere shell.

"The hospital is now full of Chinese, Indians and Huns from the various labor gangs working in the devastated area. The Chinese are very unobtrusive and the Huns are all returned to their units so that they can be collected to commence on the long march back through France to the Rhine for repatriation.

"On our way up here we had an interesting day of sight-seeing in Boulogne. The quaint fishing boats, the even quarter fishing folks in their blouses and the bourgeois men taking their dogs for a morning stroll over it all the sun glinting and shimmering gloriously, caught and reflected in the piles of gleaming fish on the quay-side and making us feel like bottles of champagne. At 12:15 we climbed into a very dirty first-class carriage—aren't the French trains high up—and left Boulogne behind us. It felt like the end of nowhere when we arrived at Maroeuil station, which consists of one shanty and the R. T. O. hut.

"The night we were moonlight—we went in an R. A. F. tender to see Arras. It is most pathetically ruined in places and it made big lumps come in my throat. I picture what the place must have been like—and outside the great dead trees and the mutilated ground—what tales they could tell! Nearly all the trenches are filled in now but one can easily trace their significant outlines.

ORDINATION OF FIVE PRIESTS

Impressive Ceremony in The Cathedral Witnessed by Large Congregation—Celebrate First Masses Tomorrow

In the Cathedral this morning five young men took their final vows and were ordained by Rev. Dr. Guertin of Memramcook, as arch-priest, and Rev. Dr. A. W. Meahan and Rev. Father Allan, as chaplains. Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies. Rev. J. J. Walsh, V. G., was sponsor for Rev. Father Oram, Rev. C. P. Carleton for Rev. Father Carroll, Rev. D. O'Keefe for St. Andrews for Rev. Father McCarthy, Rev. John Gaudet of St. Anne's, N. B., for Rev. Father Robichaud, and Rev. F. Robichaud for his nephew, Rev. Father LeBlanc. The four young priests first named are graduates of St. Joseph's University, Memramcook, and Rev. St. B. Rev. Hector Bellevue, Moncton; Rev. Father Finnegan, Boston; Rev. Father Flacet, St. Joseph's, and Rev. Father Allan, Moncton.

Following the ceremony, the newly ordained clerics had breakfast in the Bishop's Palace. Tomorrow they will celebrate their first mass, Rev. Father Oram at 7:30, old time, in Holy Trinity church, Rev. Father Carroll at Silver Falls, Rev. Father LeBlanc at Fox Creek, Rev. Father Robichaud at Buctouche, and Rev. Father McCarthy at St. Andrews. They are receiving hearty congratulations upon their ordination today from numerous friends who are extending best wishes for the success of their career in the priesthood.

NIGHT SCHOOLS FOR BOYS AND MEN WILL OPEN THIS EVENING

The free evening schools for boys and men will open at 7 o'clock this evening in the King Edward school, corner of St. James and Wentworth streets, and in the Centennial school, Brussels street. Arithmetic, reading, writing and spelling will be taught in the King Edward building, and mechanical drawing in the Centennial. The instructors, Rev. B. Cormier and A. G. Gantier, will be busy from 7 until 9 o'clock enrolling pupils and completing organization. Several pupils have already applied for admission to the various classes, and no doubt a large number will call and enroll this evening. An enrollment fee of $2 is collected from each pupil. This, however, is refundable on the basis of attendance. The full fee is returned if the pupil attends three evenings a week. He gets back about one-half his fee if he attends at least half the time. All boys and men who are interested are urged to enroll this evening. Returned soldiers will be given a hearty welcome.

THE NIGHT SCHOOLS.

To the Editor of the Times-Star:—
Sir,—I notice that night schools are about to commence for winter. That is all right for those people who live in the city proper, but take the case of the boys who live on the West Side, who go to work. It is impossible for them to attend because they cannot reach the present night schools in time. So that the boys living in West St. John should have a chance to participate in the benefits of a night school, why cannot one be opened on the West Side, as it is impossible for them to get to the city in time.

Some boys have tried the experiment of attending night school in the city, but find it is too much for them. A night school in West St. John is the only solution. So give our boys a chance.

MISS E. FERRIS FOUND DROWNED IN THE HARBOR

Had Been Missing Since Early Sunday Morning

A PATHETIC STORY

Grieving Over Loss of Her Mother Miss Ferris Left Home to Visit The Grave and Did Not Return—Had Been Despondent

To see the body of a woman lying face on the sand and mud at the foot of Sydney street this morning was the sad and gruesome sight which greeted John McLachey, of Sheffield street, as he was walking along the Ballast wharf. He immediately notified the police, and Sergeant Detective John T. Power and Patrolman John H. Saunders hurried to the scene. After receiving permission from Coroner Kenney, they took the body to the morgue in Water street, where it was later identified by John Ferris as that of his sister, Miss Elizabeth.

Miss Ferris was thirty-eight years of age and was a daughter of William J. Ferris of 78 Moore street. After the death of her mother, which occurred some time ago, Miss Ferris frequently became despondent and her condition worsened on a nervous collapse. She frequently went out at night and would go to the cemetery where she would remain for hours. The loss sustained in the death of her mother is thought to have been the cause of her sad ending.

Yesterday morning she left her home and said she was going to the Church of St. Ignace burying ground to visit her mother's grave. She said she would be back by dinner hour, but failed to appear and her relatives later in the day became anxious and diligently searched for her. It was while communicating with the police this morning about her disappearance that her brother learned the sad news that a young woman's body had been found near the Ballast wharf and he hurried to the morgue, arriving there shortly after the body was brought in. He immediately identified the body as that of his sister, Miss Elizabeth.

After learning the particulars Coroner Kenney decided that no inquest be held. A woman answering Miss Ferris' description was seen sitting on the Ballast wharf last evening.

Miss Ferris is survived by her father, four brothers John, James, Alexander and Joseph of this city and four sisters Mrs. James Wood of Auburn, Me., Mrs. Edna Smith of Hampton, Mrs. William Vail and Mrs. James Steen both of this city.

These Fall Days Make Apple-Cheeked Babies--The Carriage's Part!

Bursting with health and good nature, full of red blood and fresh air, the modern baby has much advantage over the erstwhile kiddos that were just glorified dolls for doting mammas to decorate and pamper and pet.

And his SENSIBLE MODERN COACH suits this wholesome, modern baby's self.

In the nearly endless array of Baby Cabs we show, there is not one but looks and is solid comfort for the baby—their beauty and distinctiveness are merely incidental.

Bearing in mind that each and every one is fundamentally comfortable, gives your fancy full play and you have only to choose the style and finish that pleases you most.

The prices vary with every style, with each price invariably less than you'd find them other places. Just the natural effect of the better "buying power" we enjoy.
