SIX KILLED AT XMAS GATHERING

Part of School Building Collapses and Fire Adds to Horror of the Scene

Greenboro, N. C., Dec. 23.—Six persons were instantly injured and a score seriously hurt at Elkin last night, when a section of a school building in which the Christmas entertainment was being given, collapsed, throwing 200 persons twenty feet.

PARDON DUE TO THE EFFORTS OF HIS WIFE

Captain Van Schaick of the General Secum to Be Freed on Xmas Day

New York, Dec. 23.—Captain William H. Van Schaick, who commanded the steamer General Secum when she burned in the East River in 1904 with the loss of 1,000 lives and was sent to Sing Sing for ten years in 1906, owes his Christmas pardon to the president to his wife, who was one of the heroes of the boat.

WHITE SLAVE REVELATION IN MONTREAL CASE EXPECTED

Montreal, Dec. 23.—The beginning of a case which may produce some startling revelations of the working of the white slave traffic in Canada was heard in the recorder's court when a young man named Arthur Parent was charged before Mr. Recorder Geoffroy with assaulting Laurente Nadon, with whom he had been living in court with the accused man, who pleaded guilty to the charge.

SHOCKED AT THE RIGGING; DROWN

Helpless Comrades Of Florence Victims See Tragedy

(Canadian Press) St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 23.—Search was begun today for the bodies of Captain Barr and the twenty-one members of the crew of the Furness line steamer Florence, which was wrecked on Friday on the rocks near St. Shetta. The Florence had disappeared beneath the waves before Mate Healey and his little band left the cliffs upon which they had found refuge on Saturday morning.

MAKE NEW WHARVES HERE 1,000 FEET

The proposal to take steps to have the government berth at West St. John increased in length from 700 to 1,000 feet was discussed by the city commissioners this morning and the matter will come before the council in the form of a resolution by Commissioner Schofield.

MARITIME HOCKEY MATTERS

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 23.—Manager Gregory, of New Glasgow, at an interview, names Manager Innes, of the Halifax Sox, as the man who offered him $150 a game. Manager Innes characterizes the story as absurd, and says he never made such an offer or never asked Gregory to break from Moncton; that New Glasgow wanted their first game played at New Glasgow, as Gregory said they were not in the position to be as strong financially as some other clubs, and Mr. Innes had offered for the Soxals, to add them to the extent of $100 out of their own receipts.

You Should Care For Your Nails

Do not make the mistake of neglecting your fingernails, as a pretty woman simply must have pretty nails.

In order to have nails that will be a credit, you will be careful to manure them thoroughly twice a week in addition to cleaning and polishing them at least once a day.

There are ways and ways of manuring. When this time arrives, she must seize upon an orangewood stick and with its oval end push back the cuticle until the half-moon—that crowning proof of well-cared-for nails—shows plainly.

This delicate task accomplished to her satisfaction, she turns the orangewood stick about and uses its pointed end to clean underneath the nail, as they must be as spotless—as entirely beyond suspicion, as the character of Caesar's wife.

Next Miss M. must shape the nails with a sharp pair of scissors and clip off any stray hangings. If she be wise, she cuts her nails to suit the shape of her fingertips. If her fingers are square at the point, then her nails should be cut to match. If her fingertips are a pretty oval, the nails must follow suit.

This toilet of the nails can be pronounced finished after the "jewels of the hands" have been given a brisk polishing with a chamomile-scented nail buffer.

Two such manicuring each week will keep the nails as pretty as one would wish.

DELICATE THRED WOMEN

This is an unnatural condition—a little rest each day and Scott's Emulsion after every meal gives nature the material to restore strength.

Scott's Emulsion is a strength-building, curative food and tonic to overcome weakness and fatigue—contains no alcohol or drug.

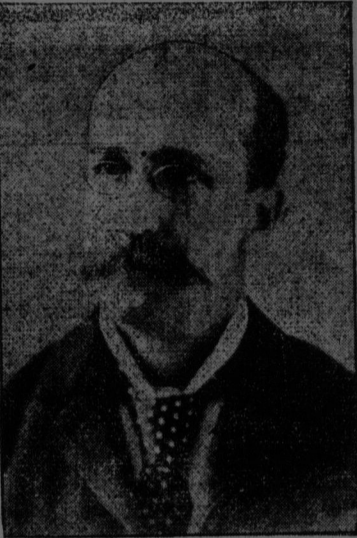

It doesn't stupefy the nerves, it feeds them.

Expectant and nursing mothers always need Scott's Emulsion.

DEATH OF DR. CURREY
Prominent Lawyer and River Steamboat Owner Found Dead in Bed on Sunday

Dr. L. A. Currey, K. C., was found dead in bed at his home, 138 Charlotte street, yesterday morning. The news spread rapidly over the city and his friends were shocked to hear of his sudden passing away. Dr. Currey had been in his usual good health and attending to the details of his practice up to Saturday. He retired

DR. L. A. CURREY, K. C.

Saturday night as usual, but when his sister, who keeps house for him, went to call him yesterday morning, she found him dead in bed. Dr. T. D. Walker was summoned but he found life extinct. The cause of death was heart failure.

Dr. Currey was well known in eastern Canada and had been engaged in many important criminal cases in the province. He was regarded as an authority on criminal law, and was one of the ablest pleaders in Canada. He is survived by his wife and five children, William Child, Julia Catherine, Allan Robert, Marion Elizabeth and Jane Louise; also his mother and three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Gilbert, Mrs. Robert Davis and Miss Elizabeth Currey.

Leuel Allan Currey, K. C., M. A., D. C. L., was born at Gagetown, Queens county, on July 11, 1839. He received his early education in the Queens county Grammar school, and later attended the University of New Brunswick, where he was graduated in 1856, with honors in the first division and also won a special prize for general proficiency. He then entered as a student at law with his father, James Currey, at Gagetown, and continued there until 1860. During this period he taught for two and a half years in the Queen's county Grammar school. Previously he was principal of the High school in St. George, Charlotte county, for several terms.

In 1860 he entered Harvard Law School for a special course, which was completed in one year. He returned to St. John and opened law office of Silas Alward, K. C., D. C. L. He was admitted as attorney in 1862, and a year later was admitted as barrister. He became a King Counsel in 1884. He has practiced law here with a success that has rarely been equaled in the history of the province.

Dr. Currey, in politics, was a Conservative, and in religion was a member of the Anglican church. He was a member of the Union Club.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, 138 Charlotte street.

SERIOUS MONCTON FIRE

Fire which broke out on Saturday night in Moncton did damage amounting to about $15,000. H. G. Marr, milliner, of St. John, is probably the heaviest loser. The fire started in one of his buildings in Main street and soon spread. The building which was burned was occupied by Miss Bonnie Robinson, M. Roldeland, Howse & McDonald, James Legere and Samuel Gold. Mr. Marr's loss will be about $7,000 with $3,000 insurance on the main building. The roof of the Melanson building was damaged and Melanson & Co. jewelers, suffered somewhat but their stock is insured. Mr. Marr had $2,000 in the National, $1,000 in the Rimonski, and $500 in the Sun, on a small building in the rear.

Daily Hints For the Cook

RICE FRITTERS.
Mash 1 cupful of cold boiled rice thoroughly with 1/2 cupful of milk and 1 well-beaten egg, add 1/2 of sifted flour and 1 teaspoonful of baking powder and sweeten to taste. Mix thoroughly and cook in boiling lard. Serve hot.

POT ROAST.
Get two pounds thick shin beef and small bone, costing about 16 cents. Try out two sliced salt pork and put in meat rolled in flour and fry brown. Cut up a small onion and fry with meat. Pour on one cup of boiling water and simmer until tender. Take out meat on platter, add one tablespoon onion and thicken gravy. Roll one crust of string beans, also one quart of potatoes, mash the potatoes, adding butter and milk. To serve: A portion of potatoes, one of string beans, a slice of meat and gravy. With a cheap bread pudding you have a fine dinner.

AT SAND POINT

The Donaldson liner Athena, Captain James Black, arrived Saturday afternoon from Glasgow after an unusually stormy passage during which the steamer battled with strong head winds and mountainous seas and at times encountered gales which jarred giant waves against the steamer and put her to a test that showed again that the Athena is one of the sturdiest ships in the western ocean.

The Athena brought 300 passengers, 22 cabin and 285 steerage, and among the passengers who were all from Scotland, were three young ladies who have come to Canada to become brides.

The officers are: Surgeon, Dr. Scott; purser, J. H. Watt; assistant purser, R. B. MacMillan; chief officer, W. H. Warwick; chief steward, J. Delaney; stewardess, Miss Miller and Mrs. Paterson.

The C. P. R. liner Empress of Ireland, Captain Forsler, arrived in port on Sunday night after a rough passage from Liverpool. She had 600 passengers and a very heavy cargo, including 8,388 packages of mail. The express matter was the heaviest ever landed at this port.

FUNERALS.
The funeral of J. Lawrence Drake took place this afternoon from his late home in Water street, West End. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Sampson and Rev. G. P. Scovill. Mr. Drake was the youngest son of Uriah Drake, 77 Water street. He was 34 years of age, and was a commercial traveller in the whole sale grocery line. For many years he was connected with the 3rd Regiment of Artillery and had risen to the rank of major. He is survived by his wife, his father, one sister, Mrs. H. Shaw, of this city, and one brother, Alfred Drake, of Vancouver. The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Brown took place this afternoon from her late home in Elliott row. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. J. Conway in the cathedral, and interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of John Buckley took place yesterday afternoon from his late home in Duke street, West End. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. J. O'Donnell, and interment was in Sand Cove cemetery. The pall bearers were G. Collins, W. Miller, L. Brown, N. Allen, W. Allinson and E. Coleraine. The employes of Emerson & Fisher attended in a body. Among many handsome floral tributes was a cross of cream roses from the employes of Emerson & Fisher, and also one from the firm.

Just arrived today—Xmas, toys, games, teddy bears, large dressed sleeping dolls, with natural eye-balls, which have to be sold by Christmas eve, everything at half price—577 Main street, next door to Wasco's drug store. 1286-12-23.

ACCIDENT AT SAND POINT

A steward, named Besford, on the steamer Empress of Ireland, was badly injured about the head this morning in a fall down the companionway aboard the steamer. He fell about twelve feet. It is possible that concussion of the brain resulted, and it is said to tell how seriously he may be injured. He was taken to the General Public Hospital.

BAPTIST MINISTERS SUPPORT THE ACT

At the meeting of the Baptist ministers this morning Revs. Drs. McIlroy and Hutchinson, and Messrs. Camp, Archibald, Porter, Wentworth and McCutcheon attended. The matter of the passage and enforcement of a child's protective act was discussed and the following resolution passed unanimously: "Whereas, the experience gained by members of this conference during their period of service has convinced them of the great need of a child's protective act for this city; therefore, "Resolved, that this Baptist conference strongly endorses the action being taken to urge the municipal council to ask for such an act, and to appeal to the legislature for its passage at the next session, and to stand ready to cooperate in such a movement."

It has become somewhat the fashion among members of one political party in Canada to nourish and encourage a spirit of antagonism against the United States.

The member of congress who would not submit the Panama canal dispute to arbitration, because he believes his country would lose, is not even a good sport.

The Christmas spirit has not yet found lodgement in the bosoms of the London suffragettes. They would even destroy the joyous messages sent through the mails to absent friends.

LIGHTER VEIN

OWED TO CHRISTMAS.

When you've elbowed through the scurry,

When your eyes get kind o' blurry;

When your heels begin to lag,

When your heart begins to lag,

When you're worn to a wisp,

When your fangs begin to hiss;

When your mind begins to fail,

When you've raked the rummage sale;

When if told your beds are laid;

When you're getting pale and lanky,

When you're getting cross and cranky;

When you're getting tired and lame,

When you can't recall your name,

When you're lying and bruted and sore,

When you've pestered every store,

When the shop girls weary when

"There comes that old fuss again,"

Heaven be praised; there's one way out,

Settle it and end the bout—

"Why don't you buy a handkerchief?"

They're always nice." —Herbert Randall, in Hartford Courant.

C. P. R. BANQUET GUESTS

HEAR STRIKING FIGURES

Montreal, Dec. 22.—Last year 30,000,000 meals were served on our ocean and lake steamers, railway dining cars, and hotels, an average of considerably over 30,000 meals a day.

Equipment and supplies cost $85,000,000 and the pay rolls amounted to $5,000,000 a month.

We had a regular staff of 90,000 men to pay, and at times there were 2,000 more men employed.

Fortunately our credit is excellent, so we can secure the capital required with ease, and ordinary working expenses are more than covered by revenue.

In these words, Sir Thomas Shaugnessy gave an idea of the magnitude of the C. P. R. Company's operations while replying to the toast, "The Company," at the second annual banquet of C. P. R. officials and employees held at the Place Viger hotel on Saturday night.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

A boat from the mining steamer Morita was picked up yesterday off Laforce Point, N. S., but it contained nothing. The ropes had been cut and this is taken to mean that the crew had to leave the ship in a hurry.

Laura Miller, of Windsor, N. S., who was so terribly burned by mistaking benzine for turpentine, succumbed to her injuries. She was blacking a stove on Saturday, was found guilty of murder in the second degree. He is charged with having killed Joseph Joseph, aged seven years.

The sentence of death imposed on three brothers named Graves at Halifax for the murder of an Englishman, Kenneth Lee, three months ago, will stand, according to a decision in the supreme court on Saturday. Three judges stood for a new trial and three for confirming the conviction.

His Grace Archbishop McNeill was officially installed in office yesterday by the Apostolic Delegate in Toronto. Distinguished clergymen were present.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 21.—Fifteen fishing boats have been lost in a storm on the Caspian Sea. Forty fishermen are missing.

"What success have you had with the portrait of your mother-in-law?" "Tremendous! It is such a speaking likeness that my brother, when he came to look at it, instinctively put his cigar behind his back."—Exchange.

CATHOLIC ORPHANS AND THEIR MAINTENANCE

Detailed Statement Read by Bishop LeBlanc—His Lordship's First Sermon as Bishop

In the cathedral at the nine o'clock mass on Sunday, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc read a statement of the number of orphans in St. Vincent's and St. Patrick's, respectively girls and boys, and a detailed list of sums raised and donated during 1912 for their maintenance. At the opening of this year there were sixty-two girls and 104 boys in the institutions. There had been nineteen girls and thirty boys admitted during the year, twenty-one girls and twenty-two boys had gone to homes of relatives or others, and there was one death, leaving 171 in care of the Sisters of Charity—sixty girls and 111 boys. Of those under care during the year, thirty-three were from the Cathedral parish, seven from St. John Baptist, three from Holy Trinity, thirty-two from St. Peter's, four each from the Church of the Assumption and St. Rose's, and seventeen from other parishes.

The sum of $8,222.44 came from all sources for their support. Included in the items were:

- Xmas collection, Cathedral . . . $845.02
- Xmas collection, St. Peter's . . . 275.71
- Xmas collection, St. John Baptist . . . 152.21
- Xmas collection, Holy Trinity . . . 225.41
- St. Patrick's Day collection, Cathedral . . . 684.53

This total, His Lordship said, was the largest yet received for this great work, the care of the orphans, and he hoped for continued generosity. At the mass on Christmas day the annual collection for the orphans will be taken up.

Bishop LeBlanc, on the occasion of his first celebration of the parish mass since his consecration to express his thanks for all that had been done here since his appointment as bishop. He thanked the vicar-general, Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, who had done so much to make his reception and consecration so great a success; he thanked Rev. Dr. Meahan and the other priests who had labored so faithfully and well since his coming, and he thanked the people, one and all, for all their kindness to him. In speaking of the epistle of the day, His Lordship referred to the loyalty of the Catholics of St. John to the church and her pastor, as so strongly exemplified in connection with his coming to this diocese. Bishop LeBlanc impressed the large congregation most favorably by the master and manner of his first sermon and his grace of diction.

"THE THIEF" AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Those who can spare this evening from Christmas preparations will have an opportunity to enjoy a rare dramatic treat, when Sidney Toler and associate players will be heard in their initial performance of "The Thief." It is not often that local theatre goes has the privilege of enjoying the class of acting talent and plays at moderate prices that is being placed at their disposal during the present week, when, at much expense, the stock company which has made such a success in Halifax is being brought here with its three best productions.

The holiday bill, matinee and evening, "Avenue South," a thrilling detective story, while for Friday and Saturday, with special matinee, has been reserved the play which made Margaret Anglin famous. Those who have seen the company say that Toler and Mahoney do not fall much behind Miller and Anglin. Patrons may judge of this when the time comes.

FORMERLY OF HAMPTON.
 News of the death of Mrs. W. J. Edwards at her home in Malden, Mass., after a short illness, has been received in this city, where she had many friends. Mrs. Edwards was formerly Miss Hannah Desmond, daughter of Timothy Desmond, of Hampton Village. The burial will take place in Malden on Tuesday afternoon.

Furness Steamer Florence Wrecked on Newfoundland Coast on Way From Halifax to Liverpool

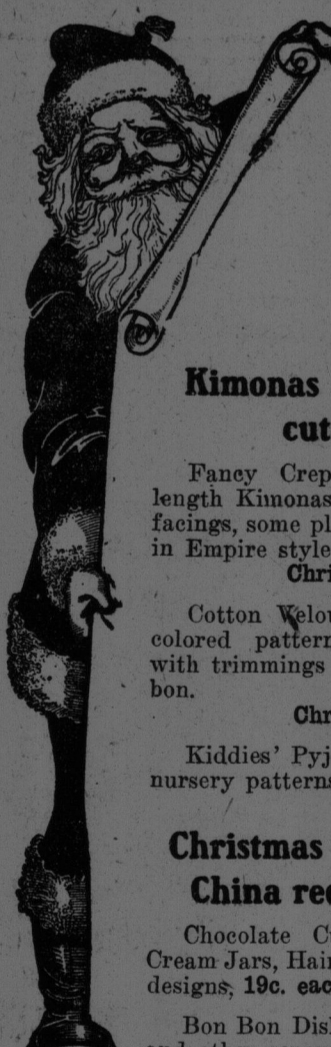

St. John's, Nfld., Dec. 23.—In one of the worst disasters on the Atlantic coast in recent years the Furness line steamer Florence, bound from Halifax for Liverpool, via St. John, was wrecked on Friday night on the ledge west of St. Shotts, and Captain Barr and twenty-one of his crew were lost. Five men escaped. They were Second Mate Hedley and Seamen W. Wright, C. Mannquist, E. Taylor and T. Smolting.

When the vessel struck all hands took to the boats and reached shore in safety, but the inaccessible cliffs made it impossible for them to land and they were forced to put back to the steamer. The second officer volunteered to take to a boat and seek a landing place and set off with a boat crew of four men. After a hazardous voyage they found an opening in the cliffs and managed to effect a landing. In the darkness they were unable to find a path over the cliffs and took shelter in a fisherman's abandoned hut. In the morning they made their way to the top of the cliffs but could see nothing of the steamer but some floating wreckage and cargo.

The survivors made their way with difficulty to St. Shotts, where two of them were left to recuperate and the others pressed on to Trapansey, where they sent word of the disaster to St. John's.

LECTURE BY PROFESSOR COX

In St. Peter's Y. M. A. rooms yesterday afternoon an educational and interesting lecture was given by Prof. Philip Cox of the staff of the U. N. B. on "Our Celestial Neighbors" before a large gathering of the members of the association who greatly appreciated the discourse. Dr. Cox is a speaker of ability and he is well known in TAKING CHANCES.

"Do you think you can support my daughter in the style to which she has been accustomed?" asked Mr. Cumrox. "I hadn't thought of the matter in exactly the light you suggest," replied the nervous youth. "You see, I'll be leaving a pretty good home myself."—From the Washington Star.

EVERY DAY CLUB HEARS ADDRESSES OF INTEREST

In simple language and yet with dramatic force Rev. J. A. MacKiegan told at the Every Day Club last evening Maurice MacKiegan's story of the Blue Bird, or the quest for happiness. It was sought for in memory, in the world, and in the future, only to be found at last in the humble home of the woodworker, whence the children had fared forth to seek it elsewhere. Mr. MacKiegan emphasized the lesson that we find our greatest happiness in doing our duty, and in following the example of Him the story of whose birth and life are this week in the minds of all. Happiness of a sort is found in other ways, but it does not stand the test. The speaker dwelt especially upon the home and its influence, and the memories which with a real home cling around the place that was a real home in earlier life. The male quartette of St. David's church sang a selection, and hymns were sung under the direction of Walter Brindle. In the afternoon the men present in the club room were briefly addressed by Mr. Brindle, George Scott and the president, Mr. Brindle making an impressive reference to the significance of the Christmas season and the life which the world now pauses to commemorate.

REV. DR. HUTCHINSON WILL NOT GO TO WEST

Main Street Pastor Announces Decision - Sunday in City Protestant Churches

In Main street Baptist church last evening Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, the pastor, announced in regard to the call extended to him from Vancouver, that he would remain in St. John. The announcement was received with satisfaction and pleasure by the large congregation. As he announced that he would stay Dr. Hutchinson's words were interrupted by the singing of "Blessed be the One Who Has Done This" by the members of the choir. Rev. W. H. Robinson delivered a temperance lecture in the Seaman's Institute Saturday night. Last night Rev. W. Galt conducted the services and was assisted by Rev. H. T. Gorman, the choir of the Queen Square Methodist church also sang.

MR. PAGE'S GENEROSITY

Joe Page brought from Montreal yesterday several sets of apparatus for a new indoor game, which is the nearest approach to baseball of anything yet turned out. This game is known as Eureka baseball and is not one of pure chance but in playing it one must use his judgment and baseball knowledge. The apparatus is not at all bulky and may easily be played on any table. Mr. Page will present sets of the new game to the two orphan institutions in the city.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Rowing
The Midgets defeated the Bulgarians 127 to 120 in the game in the U. S. C. A. Bowling League on Saturday night. Carleton led for the winners with an average of 82.5, and Stoum for the Bulgarians with 84.

Hockey
The Wanderers defeated the Canadiens in Toronto on Saturday night, 4 to 3. The game was marked by a fight between "Newy" Lalonde and the two Cleghorn boys. Syracuse Cleghorn was arrested, but was allowed to return to Montreal on condition that he appear in Toronto when wanted. According to reports Lalonde was the instigator.

Acquatic
Ottawa, Dec. 22.—Herb Smith, an Ottawa boy, who won a Rhodes scholarship at Queen's University, was in the crew which won the championship of the university and stands a fair chance of rowing in the famous Oxford-Cambridge boat race next year. He has been picked for a position in the boat, and will be tried out with the crew in the spring.

The Ring
Challenges Allen.
Billy Parsons of Halifax has issued a challenge to Billy Allen of Ottawa to meet him in a bout in Halifax in the near future.

His Price Too High.
New York boxing promoters are still singing for the Paddy McFarland-Jack Mattson match. These men were recently reported to have signed articles of agreement for a meeting in Madison Square Garden during the first part of February. It now seems that Dan Morgan, manager of Britton, agreed to all the terms in the articles but that Pacey did not.

The Stock Yard
The stock yard wizard realizes that a match between Britton and himself would be one of the biggest drawing cards of the year. He is also well aware of the fact that he is one of the most popular boxers that ever appeared in a New York ring. He has engaged in some memorable battles in the big city and has always left the ring carrying away the lion's share of the glory.

Therefore McFarland demands $100,000 as his end of the purse for a bout with Britton, Billy Gibson, manager of Madison Square Garden says that he cannot afford to give McFarland this sum.

Wrestling
Polish Champion, Zyzako.
New York, Dec. 22.—Zyzako, the Polish wrestling champion, arrived here last week on the steamship Kraman for another tour of America. His first match will be with Charles Cutler of Chicago in Boston on Christmas Day.
He is booked for several matches in the principal cities in the United States and Canada, but says that he will cancel any or all of his engagements at any time that Frank Gotch shows a willingness to meet him for the heavyweight championship of the world.

Baseball
The Real Story of Frank Chance.
New York, December, 22.—Many stories have been told as to the reason why Chance was released by C. W. Murphy, of the Cubs, but it remains for the Sun to make public the real cause of the now famous split. When Charles P. Taft put up $100,000 to enable Murphy to buy the Chicago Club, the latter received forty per cent of the stock, while 10 per cent was sold to Chance at par. The capital stock was $100 shares at $1,000 a share, and Mr. Taft under this arrangement held a half interest, which enabled him to control the club. Whether Murphy ever bought out Mr. Taft's holdings nobody has been able to learn, for there are conflicting statements.

When Murphy bought the Chicago stock last summer for $2,000,000 it is said that the Peerless League balked. Several of Chance's friends in that city told him that they knew a man in Pittsburg who would take the stock off his hands at a fancy price. They introduced Chance to Harry Ackerman forthwith, and the latter after negotiations that didn't last long, paid $60,000 to Chance for his ten shares. Incidentally Chance assured Ackerman that he would remain manager of the Cubs for at least two years more.

Hughie's Prediction.
Detroit, Mich., Dec. 22.—Manager Hughie Jennings believes that the new world's champion and the team they de-throned last summer, the Athletics, will fight it out for the next American League pennant. He says:
"Being a winner one season should aid the Red Sox the coming year. They will have more confidence, and this in itself will give them a slight edge on the other teams."
"Mack's Athletics played in poor form last season. They did not realize, until too late, that a pennant was slipping through their fingers."
"I believe that next year Coombs and Bender will be better, and with a couple of youngsters in the outfield, and the same great infield, the Mackmen will be distinctly troublesome."

To Manage from Bench.
New York, Dec. 20.—Frank L. Chance, in a letter to a friend in this city, stated that if he was engaged as manager of the Yankees next season he would manage the club from the bench, as he did the Cubs last season and part of the season before. Chance intimates that he is through as a first-baseman and does not want to play any more.

Chance also stated in the message that he had no definite communication with President Farrell about the position of manager, but this is taken to mean that he has an understanding with Mr. Farrell

As soon as the sale of Chance's stock became known, Murphy announced that he would not sanction it. In fact, he refused to make a transfer in the club's books. Ackerman with his lawyer, visited Murphy in Chicago, and soon convinced the Cubs' supposed owner that the sale would stand. Then, it is said, Murphy decided to get square with Chance, and he started a crusade of anti-fundling. When Chance was undergoing an operation Murphy was present, and told Chance that there would be no decision in the Peerless League case until it was certain that Chance had recovered. Murphy went to Chicago and gave out the statement that the Cubs had lost the pennant on account of misconduct of the field. Chance resented this alleged insult, and Murphy quickly notified him that his services were no longer required.

Chance's closest friends insist that if he had sold his stock in the Chicago Club to Murphy there would not have been any breach. They say that Chance admitted this before he gave up his position and left for California. Murphy has refused to be interviewed on the subject, but it is known that he does not relish Ackerman's minority ownership. Murphy, by the way, has not denied the broad assertion that Mr. Taft is the real owner of West Side Park in Chicago, although he declared a year ago that he was the actual owner of the property.

IMPORTANT LAW FOR CHILDREN ON WRONG ROAD

Quebec House Gives Third Reading to Bill of Special St. John Interest at Present

Quebec, Dec. 22.—The house has given a third reading to an important bill extending the powers of the juvenile court of Montreal to deal with cases of boys who are unruly and who refuse to attend school.
The effect of the bill is that any rate-payer of a municipality may cause to be brought before a magistrate or sheriff, any child who, in consequence of the neglect of his parents, or his guardian or the person with whom he resides, is brought up without education, or without wholesome control, or under circumstances which expose him to lead an idle and disorderly life; or any child who is a vagrant or is found at large at improper hours, or who is without shelter and appears to be deserted or abandoned; or any child who is habitually delinquent or cruelly treated by his parents, or by the person with whom he resides; or any child who, owing to his being infirm or without a tutor or without any relative in the direct line in a position to take care of him or worthy of doing so, is liable to become a vagrant or starve to death.

The following clause refers to the boy who is acquiring bad habits and late hours:
When the father or mother, step-father or step-mother, tutor or relative of a child or the person who has the charge or care of him, represents on oath to any two justices of the peace or to a magistrate, that such child is deserting or abandoning the home of the person who is in charge of him without permission or sufficient reason, or that he habitually disobeys or that he is habitually idle; or that he is unmanageable or incorrigible; or that he habitually makes use of obscene or indecent language; or that he is guilty of immoral conduct; and that such person so desires that the child be sent to a certified industrial school, the magistrate shall inquire into such facts, and if he is satisfied that it is necessary that the child should be placed in an industrial school he may send him there for such time as he may think necessary.

The final clause in the bill declares that the jurisdiction of the juvenile court of Montreal may be extended to any territory in the Island of Montreal subject to arrangements by the interested municipalities.
Premier Gonin declared that the bill had the support of Judge Choquet, of Montreal, the presiding judge of the juvenile court.
Mr. Cousineau attacked what he called the radical nature of the bill with the remark that children who disobey their parents should not be put in jail sufficient time to make them good citizens some restraint was required, subject, of course, to the decision of the magistrate.

A MODEST ORDER.
Mr. Martin—Now, then, Bennie, what part of the children would you protect? Bennie (who has been invited to Sunday dinner)—"Why, I'll take a drum stick, a little while meat off the breast, the sizzard, a wing, the neck and a spoonful of stuff." Mom made me promise not to ask for a second helping."

when playing it, and this, in itself, is a consideration.
"It's the same condition with baseball men in vaudeville. I have heard it said that ball players had no more business on the stage than actors had on the diamond. That may be true, but the fact remains that the ball players who are on the stage are drawing considerably more than even the good actors.
"The ball player may make a fizzle of his performance—but he gets the money just the same."

LOCAL NEWS

REPORTED.
John Coyle has been reported for driving his horse and team on the right hand side of Main street contrary to law.

WEDDED TODAY.
The wedding of Charles Ernest McFadden and Miss Isabel Adelia Coy took place in St. John's church, Ormoco, at 9 o'clock this morning. Rev. C. K. Walsh performed the ceremony.

SPECIAL THROUGH.
A special train of five cars with immigrants from the steamer Hesperian at Halifax, passed through the city this morning on the way west. The passengers were chiefly Finns and Russians.

DIED IN ENGLAND.
News has been received from England of the death of Mrs. Susan Harrington in her 89th year. She was the mother of Mrs. M. J. Driscoll and Mrs. John Flint, of this city, and she survived by two sons and two daughters at home.

SMALLER LUMBER CUT.
John Kilburn, veteran lumberman, arrived in the city this morning and at the Royal Hotel. Mr. Kilburn says that the mild fall with so much rain and the lack of snow has been a serious hindrance to lumbering operations and the result will be a noticeable curtailment of the cut.

WINTER MOTOR TRIP.
Charles Wood, R. A. and Harry Snowball started Saturday morning for St. John via Richibucto and Moncton, by motor car. They will make good time unless there should be a heavy fall of snow, as the roads are ideal for motoring with chains on the wheels to prevent slipping.

BROTHERHOOD OF MAN.
The members of Thorne Lodge yesterday afternoon listened to a helpful and inspiring address at the gospel temperance meeting which they conducted. Rev. W. Camp spoke on "The Brotherhood of Man." A large audience was present. Songs were sung by Miss Bertie Campbell and Charles McEachern.

PRESENTATION IN TABERNACLE.
In the school room of Tabernacle church yesterday afternoon members of the Brotherhood class presented to Rev. J. D. Wetmore, pastor, a handsome Bible and to Mrs. Wetmore a very nice hand bag. The presentations were made by W. U. Hatfield. The members of the young ladies class presented a Bible to their teacher, Arthur B. Keirstead.

JOE PAGE'S PLANS.
Joe Page arrived in the city yesterday morning and will return home to Montreal this evening. He intends making a holiday trip to the States after Christmas and will go as far as Chicago, where he will confer with Manager Conkley, of the White Sox in regard to some baseball prospects for the coming season. Joe is the most popular Sox in this district and is responsible for quite a few players signing with that team.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN P. ALLEN.
Moncton, Dec. 23—The death of Mrs. John P. Allen occurred yesterday at her home, Leg's Corner, in the 64th year of her age. She had been ill about a year. She is survived by her husband, four sons and daughter, Austin A. Allen, barrister of this city; Walter, a son; man D. of Belle Verte; Fletcher, of Amherst; and McCurdy S., at home, at other sons. The funeral will be held at Leg's Corner. Mrs. Allen was a native of Bayfield.

HEAVY TRAVEL.
All trains coming to the city today were behind their scheduled time in arriving owing to the heavy travel east and west, and partly to the fact that the engines were not steaming well, as often happens in the winter. The Montreal train was two hours late, the Boston an hour and twenty minutes, and the Maritime an hour and a quarter. All had a great number of passengers aboard bound to their homes for the holidays. Large numbers from the surrounding county districts came to the city today on local trains for shopping purposes.

OFFICERS ELECTED.
The members of Alexandra Section, T. of H., have resumed activities for the winter and the reorganization has taken place with the election of officers as follows: Carey Black, worthy governor; D. Mullin, worthy archon; C. Lee, vice; H. Gault, financial recorder; W. Buchanan, assistant recorder; G. McLennan, recorder; H. Weycott, assistant secretary; R. Cowan, usher; D. VanWart, assistant usher; M. Flowers, inside watch; L. VanWart, outside watch. The initiation was conducted by C. Black, superintendent of the junior sections of the province, in the rooms, Temple building, Main street.

DIED IN SUSSEX.
News of the death of James R. Smith in Sussex, which was received in the city this morning, caused much regret amongst friends. He was well known about the city as well as elsewhere through the province. He was for some time in the service of Scovil Bros. as a commercial traveller and after having been in business for himself at one time, Mr. Smith was in his 62nd year and was a son of the late William and Sarah Smith. One sister survives, Mrs. B. Borden, of Moncton. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 3 p. m. from his late home in Sussex.

IN THE PROBATE COURT.
In the matter of the estate of Ellen Foley there was an adjourned hearing of a citation to pass the accounts. A sworn claim against this estate amounting to $1,767 having been filed. It was left to the adjudication of the court. It appears that the first item of the bill was in 1878, and the last in 1897. The administrator at the request of some of those interested, pleaded the statute and thereupon the statute was allowed and the bill disallowed. Evidence was also given concerning a claim for board of the Mater Misericordiae Hospital and Home in which institution died. An order for distribution is to be made. Dr. Quigley, K. C., is proctor for the administrator and some of the next of kin; William J. Mahoney for the Hospital, and Heber S. Keith for some of the next of kin.

In the matter of the estate of Mary A. Pope, there was a return of citation to pass the accounts of Theophilus Marshall, the executor. They were gone into an adjournment was made until this afternoon for further evidence; Francis Kerr is proctor.

THE POLICE COURT BENCH FILLED

Twelve Prisoners There This Morning; Half of Them on Drunkenness Charge

Twelve prisoners were arraigned before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning, six charged with drunkenness. Charles Diggs was the first man to be arraigned. He was charged with drunkenness. Sergeant Baxter also laid a charge of vagrancy against him. Diggs denied being drunk, and said that when he fell in Princess street it was not on account of liquor, but the fall of the slippery pavement. He was remanded.

Three other prisoners charged with drunkenness were fined $8 or two months in jail, and two others, charged with a like offence were fined $8 or thirty days in jail.

John Mahoney, charged with indecency in Pond street, was remanded.

Thomas Holly, charged with lying and hindering an aid shed belonging to the Dominion Coal Company of Smythe street between two o'clock on Sunday morning, pleaded guilty and was remanded.

Bert McDermott and William Roche, two young lads, charged with fighting in Prince William street on Sunday afternoon, pleaded guilty and were remanded. They asked for a chance to get back to their steamer at Sand Point.

William Lavigne, charged with being drunk and also with assaulting Samuel Boone, pleaded guilty to being drunk, but denied the assault. Boone said he was standing in Smythe street on Saturday afternoon when the prisoner ran up to him and struck him in the face. Lavigne was remanded.

Daniel Littlejohn was before the court on the complaint of Robert Watters who said that Littlejohn had used insulting language to him. Arthur Boston gave evidence and the case was adjourned until Thursday at twelve o'clock.

Charles O'Brien, a C. P. R. employe, charged with stealing four cut glass carver rests, the property of the C. P. R., pleaded not guilty. E. C. Weyman appeared for the prosecution and E. S. Ritchie for the defence. Robert Thompson, George Maynard, Deputy Chief Justice, and Police man Dykeman gave evidence. The contention was that a box containing a shipment of glassware on the S. S. Montreal had been broken open and fifteen rests stolen. The robbery was supposed to have been committed on Dec. 19. The prisoner was arrested about a week ago on the charge of drunkenness and four rests, answering the description of the stolen goods, were found in his pocket. On Dec. 20 the robbery was discovered, and the prisoner was arrested and charged with the robbery.

In court this morning he pleaded not guilty and said that on the day of the alleged robbery he had been drunk all day, and could not account for the goods being found in his pocket. He was remanded, and later admitted to bail.

TRAVELING BAG GIFT TO BIBLE CLASS TEACHER

On Sunday afternoon, at the close of the Sunday school session, members of the young men's Bible class of Kilmouth street church, presented to their teacher, W. A. Adams, a traveling bag, accompanied by the following address:

Mr. W. A. Adams—Another year has passed and we are again on the threshold of celebrating the most important event in all the years—the birth of our Saviour. Coupled with this celebration is the bringing of gifts, and so we, the members of your class, wish to present you with this traveling bag as a small token of our appreciation of the kindness shown us during the year and also for the divine instruction we have received from you as teacher, together with our best wishes for a happy Christmas and a bright and prosperous New Year.

Signed on behalf of the class,
FRED HASTINGS,
JAS. MOORE,
THEO. WOOD,
Committee.
