

DEMOCRATS PASS INTO CONTROL

RETURNS FROM CANADA TO GIVE HIMSELF UP

Rev. Norman Plass Held at Boston Police Headquarters on Charge of Using Mails for Fraud Scheme.

COMPANY DID BUSINESS IN B. C.

Boston, Nov. 8.—After journeying to Vancouver and back all the time under surveillance of federal officers, Rev. Norman Plass is held in $3,000 bonds on the charge of using the United States mails to defraud.

A small-sized man, dressed in dark clothes, walked into the office of U. S. Attorney French in the federal building just after two yesterday afternoon.

REV. NORMAN PLASS.

The district attorney was not in, but First Asst. Wm. Garland was there. When he entered Mr. French's office the stranger said:

"I am Mr. Plass. I understand you have a warrant for me."

Mr. Garland smiled and said that he guessed he knew about the matter. Then Mr. French produced a warrant sworn out on Oct. 15, which charged Rev. Norman Plass, who was president of the Redeemable Investment Company of 85 Devonshire st., with using the mails in a scheme to defraud.

U. S. Deputy Marshal Ruhl was called into the room and then the warrant was read. After that Deputy Ruhl took Mr. Plass to the federal building and arrested him.

The commissioner held Mr. Plass in $3,000 bonds. Suettes were furnished by Robert W. Bartlett of 15 Quincy street, Somerville, a real estate man.

JOSEPH CARR IN DAZED CONDITION

St. John Man Not Recovered Sufficiently to Tell Particulars of Accident—Insurance Reduction Not Complete

Special to The Standard.
Moncton, Nov. 8.—Baird and Peters, of St. John, are negotiating for a site in Moncton for the erection of a wholesale warehouse and office.

The statement in some of the papers that the fire insurance companies had taken off the 40 cents increase made some time ago, proves to be incorrect. There was a reduction of one-half the amount of the increase.

Engineer Edington reports the water pressure 46 pounds on Main street and 48 pounds on St. George street.

Joseph Carr, of St. John, injured by being struck by a train has not recovered sufficiently to explain how he came to neglect the signal of the locomotive. He is still at the hospital in a dazed condition.

CABINET CRISIS REACHED IN CUBA

Havana, Nov. 8.—President Gomez in a general message recommends a general revision of the tariff and especially looking to the protection of Cuban manufacturers of paper, soap, bottles, shoes and textiles. He takes occasion to point out that the health of the island was never better.

Postmaster General Nodarez has tendered his resignation because of the report that the president intends to appoint Brigadier Riva as secretary of government, which is equivalent to secretary of war, carrying as it does, control of all the armed forces. This precipitates a cabinet crisis, the result of which is awaited with interest.

GLOBE LAUNDRY DESTROYED IN MORNING FIRE

Blaze Discovered at 1.20 O'Clock Does Much Damage in Waterloo Street—Loss Estimated at $15,000.

VAILS, GIBBS AND GORMAN LOSERS

At twenty minutes after one o'clock this morning flames burst out of the Globe Laundry on the corner of Peter and Waterloo streets, and Policeman McNamee sent in an alarm from box 12. The fire department were quick to work and Chief Kere sent in a second alarm which brought more men and apparatus quickly to the scene.

There was good water pressure from all of the plugs but that on the corner of Waterloo and Peter streets. The engines were put to work and the fire was confined to the laundry building. Messrs Vail, who own the laundry have $8,000 insurance, but their loss will be very heavy. A great quantity of the laundry and books that could be saved by the salvage corps were removed, and Manager Arthur Munroe of the Ungar Laundry across the street gave a place for storage.

New machinery was recently installed in the Globe and this is ruined.

Loss $20,000.

It is estimated that the fire has caused a loss of about $20,000.

When the fire was discovered the flames were bursting through the windows and while the alarm was being sounded the sky was illuminated by the blaze.

The firemen worked well and were quick in getting about eight streams of water on the building.

Next to the laundry was the Gibbs barber shop. The salvage corps hurried the shop fixtures out and with rubber blankets covered the mirrors.

Mr. Gibbs' loss is covered by insurance. The shop was deluged with water and the loss is almost total.

Next to the barber shop is P. J. Gorman's butcher shop. Here the water commenced pouring in and the books and scales were removed and rubber covers were placed over some of the goods. The loss in the store however, will be heavy. There is some insurance.

Fear for Amland Bros.

The next building is that occupied by Amland Bros. There was considerable smoke in this building but the damage done in this respect is fully covered by insurance.

The fire was confined to the laundry building and the department does not praise for the able manner in which they conquered the conflagration. It was about four o'clock before the firemen got away from the scene.

The laundry building is a wreck.

Messrs Gibbs and Gorman may be enabled to get into business again in a few days.

Mr. Vail places his loss at $15,000.

The insurance is held with the Dominion, White & Calkin and T. B. & H. B. Robinson.

Amland Bros. announced a donation of $25 to the Firemen's Relief Fund and the same amount to No. 1 Salvage Corps.

STREET CAR STRIKE AGAIN

Philadelphia Carmen Contend Against Company Giving Men Who Remained Loyal the Preference for Jobs

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Philadelphia is threatened with another street car strike. The two meetings of the motormen and conductors of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, the second of which broke up early this morning, voted to go on strike at a certain hour today to be named by the men's executive committee unless arbitrators agree on one of the points still at issue between the car men and the company. The men, it is declared, wanted to go on strike immediately, but a strike was halted by the leaders.

The point upon which the two arbitrators are deadlocked is the interpretation to be placed upon the term "loyal men." When the last strike was settled the company reserved the right to give the preference in runs to men who had remained "loyal" to the company. The union claim that this means men who were with the company prior to the strike and who remained in its employ during the strike. The contention now is that the company insists upon recognizing as "loyal" men employees who were taken on during the strike. This, the men assert, means that strike breakers are given the preference in the assignments of runs over men who have been in the company's service for years.

ROOSEVELT FAILS TO CARRY NEW YORK OR NEW ENGLAND

THE FIRST CITIZEN—NO LONGER. Roosevelt Took Upon Himself After a Career With the Republican Leaders, the Conduct of the Campaign in New York, Stimson Was Beaten by 55,000.

Dix and Foss Both Elected With Large Majorities While W. Wilson Captures New Jersey and Prof. Baldwin Connecticut for Democrats—Prospect That Republican Majority of 43 in Congress Will be Reversed—Tener Claims Plurality in Pennsylvania—Harmon Choice of Buckeye State

Elections held throughout the United States yesterday resulted in a political convulsion of far-reaching extent, similar at many points to the famous tidal wave of 1882, and apparently more widespread in its effect. The indications toward midnight were that the national House of Representatives had been carried by the Democrats reversing the present Republican majority of 43. In New York State, John A. Dix, the Democratic candidate for governor was elected over Henry L. Stimson, Republican, by a plurality of about 55,000, reversing the previous Republican plurality of 16,000. In Ohio Governor Judson Harmon, Democratic candidate for re-election, appears to have carried the state by about 15,000 over Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate. In New Hampshire, Robert P. Bass, Republican for governor, is leading Charles E. Carr, Democratic candidate, by about 6,000.

In Massachusetts, Eugene N. Foss, Democratic candidate, has defeated Governor Eben S. Draper, Republican candidate for re-election, by about 30,000 plurality, reversing Governor Draper's former plurality of 8,000. In Connecticut, Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, Democratic candidate, is elected governor over Chas. A. Goodwin, Republican, by about 4,000 plurality, reversing the Republican plurality of 1908. In Wisconsin, the election of the Republican candidate for governor, Francis E. McGovern, is claimed by a reduced plurality, and the return of Senator La Follette to the U. S. Senate is assured. In Michigan, Chase S. Osborn, the Republican candidate for governor, appears to have a safe lead over L. T. Hiemans, Democrat.

New York.

New York, Nov. 8.—John A. Dix, a business man and the first Democratic nominee elected in 16 years, will be the next governor of New York. He was chosen today over Henry L.

Stimson, Republican, for whom Theodore Roosevelt stumped the state, by a plurality, based on nearly complete returns of from 55,000 to 65,000.

New York city gave him a plurality of more than 100,000, while Stimson came down to the Bronx with about 40,000, leaving a substantial lead for the Democratic nominee.

Thomas F. Conway, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant-Governor, appears to have been swept into office only slightly behind Dix. Returns were lacking tonight conclusively to show who takes the lesser state offices, but indications pointed to Democrats.

The normal Republican majority was greatly reduced.

Both the assembly and senate returns ran strongly Democratic, and there were notable upsets in even the congressional districts.

New York, Nov. 8.—Returns at ten o'clock tonight indicate that John A. Dix, Democrat, has been elected governor of New York over Henry L. Stimson, Republican, by between 55,000 and 65,000 plurality.

New York city gives Dix a plurality of at least 100,000. Below Mr. Dix on the ticket the result is uncertain at this hour, although tending toward Democratic success. In New York city Herbert Parsons (R) was defeated for re-election as a representative to congress, by M. Levy (D) as was Wm. S. Bennett (R) by Henry George, Jr. Theodore Roosevelt's home district in Oyster Bay gave Mr. Dix a plurality of 214 as against a plurality of 793 for Hughes in 1908.

In Utica Chas. A. Talcott (D) defeated Millington, vice-president Sherman's nominee for Congress by 3,768.

At 9.20 o'clock Mr. Stimson sent the following telegram to Mr. Dix: "The present returns clearly indicate your election. I congratulate you and send you my good wishes for success of your administration."

Frank Patterson of the Democratic executive committee called John A. Dix on the long distance, from state headquarters at 7.30 to inform him that he and the whole Democratic state ticket had been elected beyond question.

Early Returns.

Rome, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The city of Rome completely gives Stimson 1,718; Dix 1,996. Dix's plurality 278.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Rochester City complete gives Stimson 19,065; Dix 15,987; Hopper (Ind.) 482.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Troy complete, gives Dix plurality of 1,311.

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 8.—City of Schenectady complete, Stimson 5,501; Dix 5,394.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Dix carried the city of Plattsburg by 300.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—James S. Simmons (R) 34th New York congressional district, elected.

Chas. V. Furness, Democratic, 11th New York congressional district, elected. Michael Conry (Dem) 12th congressional district, elected. Henry M. Goldfogel (Dem) 9th congressional district, elected. Wm. Sulzer (Dem) 10th congressional district, elected.

Parsons Defeated.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—The defeat of Representative Herbert Parsons, Republican in the 18th New York district was the first loss of a sitting member of the house reported up to 9 p. m.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Henry E. DeForest, Republican, 23rd New York congressional district, elected. Michael E. Drysdale (R) 29th New York congressional district, elected. Sernie Payne (R) 31st New York congressional district, elected.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Stimson was beaten in Roosevelt's own election district. The vote was, Stimson, 158; Dix, 218.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Cyrus Durcy (R) 25th New York congressional district, elected. Geo. R. Malby (R) 26th New York congressional district, elected. Luther W. Mott (R) 28th New York congressional district, elected.

John W. Dwight (R) 30th New York congressional district, elected.

New York, Nov. 8.—At 11 o'clock the returns from 48 out of 158 assembly districts showed that the Democrats had gained 13 seats. If this ratio were maintained the Democrats would have eighty-six seats out of 150 in the lower house, a majority of eight. Out of 51 senate districts, with 12 heard from, the Democrats had gained but one.

Returns at a late hour indicate the election of Martin W. Littleton in the first New York congressional district which includes Oyster Bay.

Albany.—The issue which was intended to be foremost, direct primaries, was sent to the background by the fight on Roosevelt after he had defeated bosses at state convention, and put over a platform endorsing Taft's administration from A to Z.

Many local issues, such as Tammany Hall, bossism, Wall street interference and the labor record of Dix, the democratic nominee against Stimson for governor, helped dictate the result. The legislature just elected will choose Senator Depeux's successor, Taft's plurality (1908) 202,602.

Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 8.—Congressman Eugene N. Foss, a Vermontor by birth, a successful Massachusetts business man, until three years ago a staunch Republican, but since then an ardent Democratic leader, was today elected governor of the state by a plurality of 25,000 over Gov. Eben S. Draper, the Republican candidate for a third term. High cost of living, the tariff bill and several labor measures figured prominently in the election and compassed the Republican defeat. The Democratic wave has not run.

TWO DROWNED FROM RAFT AT PORT GREVILLE

Geo. Dorsay and Everett Allen Met Death When Raft of Piling Broke Up in Bay and They Attempted to Escape.

BOAT CAPSIZED ON SAND BAR

Special to The Standard.
Parrishboro, N. S., Nov. 8.—A double drowning accident occurred near Port Greville last night. Geo. Dorsay and Everett Allen left Fraserville for Port Greville yesterday afternoon with a boat and a raft of piling. This morning the body of Dorsay was found at the mouth of the Ratchford River at Port Greville near his overturned and broken boat. Allen's body has not been found.

Piling the body of Dorsay was scattered along the shore above Fraserville. It is supposed that when the raft broke up the men tried to reach Port Greville and that their boat struck a sand bar near the river mouth and capsized.

Dorsay who was a strong swimmer evidently tried to reach the shore and nearly succeeded. Allen probably sank at once, and was swept away by the strong current.

Both men were married and Dorsay leaves a large family. A young son of John H. Cameron fell into the river here last night and remained unconscious a long time after being rescued by his father.

DUTCH BUTTER FOR ENGLAND

Committee Sent to Holland to Investigate Dairying Conditions With View to Increasing Import of Products

The Hague, Nov. 8.—A committee from England has been making a thorough inspection of Holland dairying, with a special view to ascertaining the first hand facts as regards the cleanliness of cheese and butter making, and if their findings are satisfactory, to start an official propaganda in the British Isles to increase the importation of such products from the Netherlands. Their investigation has special reference to cheese and butter making.

The Dutch people assisted by the energetic government at The Hague are leaving no stone unturned to raise the standard of their dairy products to meet the most rigid requirements of other nations. Intensive farming, in the way of dairy and vegetable lines has received wonderful impetus of late years, the exports in those lines running up to almost record breaking figures. There is still more legislation contemplated along lines of assisting home agriculture in the present States General, which it is believed will not only appropriate considerable sums of money for agricultural colleges and experimental stations but even subsidize various articles of the soil.

MINE WRECKED BY EXPLOSION

Trinidad, Nov. 8.—Mine No. 3 of the Victor American Fuel Company at Delagua, 22 miles northwest of here, was wrecked by a terrific explosion this afternoon. The mine usually employs 200 men, but many were off today on account of the election. Fire is said to have broken out.

RIVER GLADE PROPERTY IS A FINE ONE

Farm Offered to Provincial Government for Sanitarium Site by Mrs. Jordan Said to be Very Desirable.

MRS. McNAUGHT DEAD AT CHATHAM

Special to The Standard.
Chatham, Nov. 8.—In speaking of the River Glade property, which Mrs. J. C. Jordan proposes to give to the New Brunswick government as a tuberculosis hospital, B. W. Kay, of River Glade, who is the nearest neighbor to the Jordans, and is now in Chatham for a few days, said the property consisted of six hundred to seven hundred acres with a very large three-story house. On the house furnishings and grounds the sum of $20,000 had been spent by the late Mr. Jordan. It is beautifully situated on the banks of the Poller River and is four miles from River Glade Station on the I. C. R.

Mr. Kay states Premier Hazen and others were expected there Saturday to look over the property. Medical men who have seen it are enthusiastic over its fine situation and appointments for the purpose outlined and there seems little doubt that the government will consider the generous offer. On the farm is a herd of Jersey cattle said to be the finest in the province, and the equal of any even in the Dominion.

Death Of Mrs. McNaught.

The death took place this afternoon at five o'clock of Mrs. Mary McNaught, widow of the late Jos. McNaught, aged 71 years, after an illness of some weeks. Mrs. McNaught was a daughter of the late William Stohart, and is survived by four children, two sons, William of Chatham, and Frank of Woodstock; and two daughters, Mrs. Frank McCullum, of Campbellton, and Mrs. John Grey, Vancouver. Two brothers, George and Robert, of Chatham, and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Bridges and Mrs. Frank Carruthers, also survive.

The body of Rev. L. N. Parker, who died in the St. John hospital, is expected on tomorrow afternoon's express. On the arrival of the train, the body will be taken to the old Methodist burying ground, where it will be interred alongside that of his first wife. Rev. G. F. Dawson will conduct the services. Rev. Mr. Parker's first wife was Miss McMillan, of Miramichi, and it was Mr. Parker's dying wish that his body should lie beside hers in the lot in the old Methodist cemetery here.

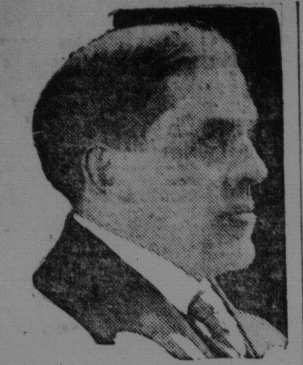

JAP-BRITISH FAIR CLOSED

Great Attraction at Shepherd's Bush Now Being Taken Away—Some Models Remain in Great Britain.

London, Nov. 8.—The Japan-British exhibition, which has formed a great attraction at the White City, Shepherd's Bush, during the period it has been open, is now closed. A large body of men are now busy in packing up and removing the numerous exhibits, many of which are priceless treasures from Japan and which are to be returned to the palace of the emperor and to the numerous private houses whence they came. All the exhibits will not, however, be returned to Japan, for a considerable number will remain in this country. One is to find a home in Buckingham Palace, and another, the model of the city of Tokio, has been presented to the city of London, while the London county council will find a home for the miniature gardens.

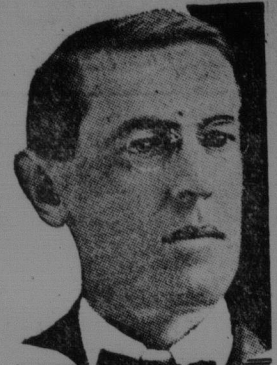

The model of the postoffice, an exhibit shown by the Japanese department of communication, will be given to the general postoffice, and will find a permanent home in the museum belonging to that public office. To the fishery museum at Hull will be presented all the exhibits of the fishery bureau. Among the most interesting of the exhibits which are to remain in this country must be included the model of the historic Kyoto gate, which will eventually be erected in Kew gardens.

High enough up to a late hour tonight to sweep the remainder of the Democratic state ticket into office behind Mr. Foss, but it did reach several congressional districts and was decidedly in both branches of the legislature although not sufficiently to endanger the re-election of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. Up to a late hour tonight it looked as if the Republican candidate would be elected in the first, second, fifth, sixth, eighth, twelfth and thirteenth districts and that the Democrats had been successful in third, fourth, ninth, tenth and eleventh districts, leaving the seventh and fourteenth districts in doubt.

Governor Draper early acknowledged his defeat, while the Democrats in this city held a jollification victory in the city hall. Foss was elected as vigorously as did the turbulent convention that threatened party disruption four weeks ago. The day was without particularly incident, but the weather encouraged voting, and 400,000 exercised the right of franchise.

Adams, Mass., Nov. 8.—When informed of the gubernatorial victory in Massachusetts, Thomas F. Cassidy, the defeated candidate for lieutenant governor, gave out the following statement at his home here tonight: "An awakened citizenship has arisen in its might, determined to put an end to the abuses in the state and nation. The verdict is manifested and our duty is clear. We must keep faith with the people and prove true to our pledges."

Boston, Nov. 8.—With the high cost of living and the Aldrich-Payne tariff bill and certain labor measures as the principal issues, the Democrats would the state election today, and placed Congressman Eugene N. Foss, a former Republican, in the chair occupied by Governor Draper for the past two years. Early returns showed that the Democrats came very nearly carrying their victory along to well into several congressional districts.

These early returns, however, did not materially jeopardize the chance of the return of the United States senator Henry Cabot Lodge. It was a decisive victory for the Democrats, for they aimed their heaviest shots at Governor Draper, and based their grounds for his defeat on the plea that while he might not have been directly responsible for the increased cost of necessities or the tariff bill, his retirement to private life will show the sentiment of Massachusetts on these issues. The while not as heavy as in the last presidential year, ranged close to that in 1906, but fell considerably behind the total vote in 1904, the last time that the Democrats won the state election. It was the fourth time in the history of the state that the vote total for governor ran over 400,000.

Three Weeks' Campaign.
The Democrats gained success today after an uphill fight, but because of a bitter wrangle at the state convention, which delayed for twelve days the selection of a party candidate for governor. Election day was less than three weeks away when Congressman Foss, who had already gained party honors by a hard fight for lieutenant governor last year, and who overthrew the incumbent, Governor Draper, in March, started off again to gain the highest political seat in the state.

Governor Draper's margin last year was only 7,934 compared with his plurality of 69,000 at his first election. Mr. Foss, however, carried the issues into nearly every corner of the state and travelled night and day from Chatham to Williamstown, criticizing the Republicans and holding them responsible for the rise in the cost of living. Governor Draper denied the responsibility for the advance, and defended his two administrations and especially the business of the state which, he said, had been conducted honestly and economically.

Cost of Living Told.
But the people's pockets proved too sensitive to keep the Republicans in office and the overthrow which began in Maine two months ago continued in Massachusetts today. It was not a landslide, but it was a sound thrashing for the Republicans. The day was ideal for voting, the weather being cool and crisp.

It is many years since Massachusetts has seen so many congressional districts in doubt, and it was well toward midnight before over the complexion of the delegation to the sixty-second congress could be determined. Returns for governor from 732 of 1908 election districts gave: Draper (R) 121,357; Foss (D) 158,193. Same last year (1906) gave: Draper (R) 127,702; Vahey (D) 129,092. These returns show a Republican gain of 3 per cent, and a Democratic loss of 22 per cent. If the same per centage is maintained in the rest of the state, Foss' election is indicated by 30,000 plurality.

Statements Issued.
Eugene N. Foss, Democratic candidate for governor, had the following to say at 7 o'clock tonight: "The returns are highly gratifying and would seem to indicate that the Republican party has been given its rebuke and the powers at Washington a significant warning. I understand I carried Boston by over 27,000, and the returns from cities and towns outside show a uniform gain for the Democratic ticket."

Charles E. Hatfield, chairman of the Republican state committee, issued the following statement: "The returns show a gain for the Democrats in the state, but we are not yet in a position to say whether the party has gained or lost. We will wait until the final count is in."

The Republican state committee issued the following statement shortly before 9 o'clock tonight: "I simply bow to the will of the people. I am the best man that ever ran for the office. I believe from the returns that I have been elected. The rest of our ticket are safe."

"Roosevelt epithets made Republican epithets," was the epigram E. Gerry Brown, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor four years ago contributed tonight as the returns indicated the election of Eugene N. Foss as governor.

Foss carried Boston completely by a plurality of 27,265. Last year Vahey had a plurality over Draper of 19,086. The largest majority ever given was accorded Douglas, (Dem.) who carried the city by 38,000.

The Democrats carried seven out of the eight representative districts in Berkshire county, a gain of two over last year. The early returns showed no change in the complexion of the state senate. The Republicans took a seat from the Democrats in the 13th Middlesex district.

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 8.—John Alden Thayer, Democrat, defeated Congressman Chas. C. Washburn, Republican, in the third district today.

Boston, Nov. 8.—Congressmen elected: Sixth Mass., Augustus P. Gardner (R.); seventh district, Ernest W. Roberts (R.); eighth district, W. L. McCall (R).

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 8.—Congressman Elliott (R.) was elected by 630 plurality in the fifth district. Brockton, Mass., Nov. 8.—Judge Robert C. Harris (R.) was elected to congress in the 14th congressional district today by approximately 300 votes. The election of Judge Harris is a Republican gain.

Boston—Issue was high tariff and high cost of living, and was forced by Democrats—Republican insurgency was rife in many localities—and was represented by Congressman Gardner, and Butler Ames, candidate for senate against Lodge. The Republican state ticket was standard all the way through—Foss, Democratic candidate for governor, is a low tariff Republican. Taft's plurality (1908) 110,423.

Alabama.
Ernest O'Neill, local optionist, elected governor by 50,000.

Montgomery.—The big issue was prohibition—Republicans split into two factions, "progressives" and "regulars." Democratic plurality (1908) 49,065.

Arkansas.

California.
Sacramento.—The big issue was progressiveism—Hiram Johnson, insurgent-republican candidate for governor, and Wm. Kent, insurgent-republican nominee for congress, led fight against standpatism. Hard fight on Kahn, standpat Republican congressman from San Francisco. Legislature will choose successor to Senator Flint, standpat Republican. Socialists put up big figure on labor issues. Taft's plurality (1908) 86,906.

Colorado.
Denver—Issue was progressiveism, with Democrats as progressives—Gov. Shafroth's proposition to redeem Democratic pledges for the initiative and referendum centered attacks of standpatism on Foss. Democratic plurality (1908) 2,944.

Connecticut.
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 8.—85 towns give Goodwin (R) for governor 35,264; Baldwin (D) 35,934.

Hartford—Issues were high tariff, high cost of living and standpatism of Senator Bulkeley and state Republican organization—Judge Baldwin, "conservative-progressive" Democrat candidate for governor—next legislature will choose successor to Bulkeley. Taft's plurality (1908) 44,660.

Delaware.
Washington, Del., Nov. 8.—9:30 p. m. returns from the state indicate that the Republicans have carried the state including the legislature. If this is borne out by the later returns, it will mean the re-election of Senator Dupont (R).

Dover.—The big issue was the Taft administration. Local option and DuPont's senatorial record were local issues. The legislature will choose DuPont's successor. Taft's plurality (1908) 2,943.

Florida.
Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—All Democrats elected.

Jacksonville—Leading issue was statewide prohibition. Democratic plurality (1908) 20,450.

Georgia.
Atlanta—At October elections progressive state officers, including Hoke Smith for governor, were chosen, and at the primaries two Cannon Democrats were defeated, and another Lee, was fought at the polls because of his Cannonism.

Idaho.
Boise, Idaho, Nov. 8.—Scattering returns from the state indicate a Republican victory.

Boise—Issue was progressiveism in congressional elections. Taft's plurality (1908) 16,450.

Illinois.
Danville, Ills., Nov. 8.—Joe G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, was re-elected to congress today from the 18th Illinois congressional district by a slightly reduced plurality.

Springfield—Graft legislature which elected Senator Lorimer main issue; reform measures sought through the medium of the "little ballot" affected the result; Cannon and Cannonism in congressional districts were big issues. Taft's plurality (1908) 179,122.

Indiana.
Indianapolis—Leading issue was high tariff and high cost of living, and the big fight centered on Senator Cannonism. Cannonism was an issue in congressional elections; county option was also an issue. The newly elected legislature will choose Beveridge's successor. If Democratic, it is pledged to elect John Kern. Taft's plurality (1908) 10,721.

Iowa.
Des Moines, Nov. 8.—Early indications are that Iowa cities, containing half the vote, have inclined in a Democratic landslide. Claude Porter Democrat for governor claims the election by ten thousand.

Des Moines—Issue was high tariff and high cost of living, and the big fight centered on Senator Cannonism. Cannonism was an issue in congressional elections; county option was also an issue. The newly elected legislature will choose Beveridge's successor. If Democratic, it is pledged to elect John Kern. Taft's plurality (1908) 10,721.

Kansas.
Topeka—The issue was progressiveism. Stubbs, progressive Republican state ticket was standard all the way through—Foss, Democratic candidate for governor, is a low tariff Republican. Taft's plurality (1908) 37,007.

Kentucky.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—Congressional elections. Third district, R. Y. Thomas (D.); tenth, Wm. J. Field (D).

Frankfort—Issue was "progressiveism"—Democrats progressive against Republican standpatism. In every district now represented in congress by a Republican, Democrat plurality (1908) 83,81.

Louisiana.
Baton Rouge.—The main issue was the issuing of Panama exposition bonds, and was nonpartisan. Democrat plurality (1908) 54,610.

Maine.
Augusta—Elections were held in September, turning the state over to Democrats, including two of the four congressmen and a senator to succeed Standpat Hale.

Maryland.
Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—At 9 o'clock, without complete returns from any of the six congressional districts, the indications are that the Democrats will hold the three districts they had and gain two from the Republicans.

Annapolis—Tariff leading issue. The legislature will choose successor to Senator Rayner, one of the five Democratic senators who consistently voted for the low tariff in the last congress. Taft's plurality (1908) 605.

Michigan.
Detroit, Mich., Nov. 8.—At 10 p. m. Chase S. Osborn, Republican for governor appeared to have a safe lead over Lawton T. Hemans, Democrat.

Lansing—The issue in Congressional election was standpatism, every Republican seeking election being a standpat. Legislature will elect successor to standpat United States Senator Burrows. Taft's plurality (1908) 159,809.

Minnesota.
St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8.—Scattered returns from the state, including Minneapolis and St. Paul, indicate that Eberhart (R) is elected governor by over 30,000 majority.

St. Paul—Big issue was progressiveism in both congressional and senatorial campaigns. County option was local issue. Sydney Anderson, who defeated Congressman Tawney at the primaries, had to stand the knifing of the Tawney returns. Legislature will choose a successor to Senator Clapp, progressive Republican. Taft's plurality (1908) 36,442.

Mississippi.
Jackson, Miss., Nov. 8.—All Democratic congressional elected today.

Jackson—Only congressmen elected, little opposition to Democrats. Legislature has already chosen John Sharp Williams to succeed Senator Money. Next March, Democrat plurality (1908) 55,824.

Missouri.
Jefferson City—Leading issue was Taft administration, high tariff and Cannonism. Little progressiveism in g. o. p. Interest centered in Francis Hend contest for Democrat nomination as senator to succeed Senator Warner, standpat Republican. Taft's plurality (1908) 629.

Montana.
Helena—The big issue was the senatorial seat of Tom Carter, arch standpat. Democratic standpaters made this their one big fight to land the togs for ex-Senator William A. Clark or some other good "interests" man. Taft's plurality (1908) 3,007.

Nebraska.
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 8.—Complete returns from South Omaha give incumbent for governor, 2861; Aldrich (R) 1221.

Hitchcock, Dem., for United States senator, under the Oregon plan, ran ahead of Dahlman and prominent Republicans conceded that he had defeated Senator Burkett (R) in Douglas county by more than 10,000.

Lincoln—The issue in congressional contests was progressiveism. County option was the big issue in election of state ticket. Dahlman (Dem) was "wet" candidate and Aldrich (Rep) led the "dry" forces. Factional fights included senatorial campaign between Senator Burkett (Rep.) and Congressman Gilbert Hitchcock, (Dem.). Democrats plurality (1908) 4102.

Nevada.
Carson City.—The leading issue is progressiveism. The republican candidate for governor made the fight on insurgent grounds against Gov. Dick. Nov. 8.—Legislature will choose standpat Senator Nixon's successor. That has been the big fight, Democrat plurality (1908) 437.

New Hampshire.
Concord, N. H., Nov. 8.—The election as governor of Robert P. Bass, of Peterboro, who won the republican nomination on a progressive platform and for whom Gov. Roosevelt spoke three times, was indicated tonight by returns from about one half the towns and wards of the state. These early figures, if borne out, will give Bass a majority of six thousand votes over his democratic opponent, Clarence E. Carr, of Andover.

From the same returns, it appeared tonight that Congressman Cyrus A. Sulloway, of Manchester, in the first district, and Frank D. Currier, of Canaan, in the second district, both republicans, will be returned to congress by margins somewhat reduced over their 9,000 votes each of two years ago.

A republican majority of 150 on joint ballot in the legislature was indicated by the early returns. The election of all five members of the executive council also appeared probable from the early figures.

Concord—Progressiveism was the issue. Insurgent-republican candidate for governor, fought by g. o. p. standpaters. Standpat republican congressmen issue in districts. Taft's plurality (1908) 19,494.

New Jersey.
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—Returns from 145 out of the 1393 districts in New Jersey, a trifle more than one-tenth, give: Lewis (R) 19,107; Wilson (D) 18,157. These returns indicate a net gain of 71 to the district for Wilson on the basis of the 1908 vote, and would indicate his election by a plurality of about 15,000.

Trenton.—The issues were along straight party lines. Woodrow Wilson, democrat nominee for governor, assailed high tariff and g. o. p. standpatism—republicans endorsed Taft's administration and the Aldrich tariff bill. New legislature will choose successor to Senator Keen, arch standpat. Taft's plurality (1908) 82,759.

North Carolina.
Raleigh—Straight party fight. Negro an issue. Democrat plurality (1908) 22,958.

North Dakota.
Fargo, N. D., Nov. 8.—Early returns give Johnson, Republican, a lead over Governor Burke for governor.

Bismarck—Issue was progressiveism. Chief interest lay in fight for Gronna, insurgent republican for United States senator to succeed standpat Senator Sutherland's plurality (1908) 24,735.

Oklahoma.
Oklahoma City—Issue was progressiveism—democrat progressives against standpat republicans. Democrat plurality (1908) 11,899.

Ohio.
Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Fifty rural precincts out of the 4526 in Ohio, give Harmon (D) for governor, 3301 and Harding (R) 2922. Harmon's gain over 1908 is 22 to precinct which with the incomplete returns from the larger cities would indicate his election by approximately 75,000 votes.

Columbus—Real issue was Taft's administration in president's state. Charges of graft by former republican state officials made by Judson Harmon, democrat candidate for governor, and the anti-bribe issue in the administration in president's state.

Richmond—Straight party fight, Democrat plurality (1908) 30,373.

Washington.
Olympia—The issue was progressiveism, lead by Miles Poindexter, insurgent Republican candidate for the senate. Standpatism of Congressman Humphrey was big issue in his district. Taft's plurality (1908) 47,371.

West Virginia.
Charleston—The issue was the standpatism of the Scott-Elkins machine, Democrats and insurgent Republicans opposing. Legislature will choose successor to Senator Scott, standpat Republican. Taft's plurality (1908) 26,451.

Wisconsin.
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—Estimates on early returns from the city

Pittsburg, Nov. 8.—Early returns from precincts in the 14th congressional district outside of the city of Pittsburg, indicate the return of John Dalzell (R) to congress by an increased majority over previous elections.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—The Republicans met with an unexpected defeat in the congressional fight in Philadelphia, Wm. W. Foulkner (R) being defeated for re-election by Michael Donohue, a Democrat, who was also on the independent ticket in the fifth congressional district.

Harrisburg.—The issue was progressiveism—the keystone party representing insurgency and the republican-democrat tickets standing for standpat bipartisan gang rule. The issue in the legislative campaign was the standpat record of Senator Oliver, who sought re-election, and in Dalzell's district it was insurgency against his Cannonism. Taft's plurality (1908) 29,701.

Rhode Island.
Providence, R. I., Nov. 8.—Returns from 48 election districts out of 184 give: Pothier (R) 6,725; Waterman (D) 4,855. Last year same gave: Pothier (R) 6,884; Arnold (D) 3,422. The election of former Gov. Geo. H. Titter (R) of Westerly as one of the two congressmen from Rhode Island assumed.

Providence—Leading issue was high cost of living, especially in Providence, where a mild form of insurgency was evident. Chief interest centered in the fight for the legislature which will elect Aldrich's successor. Republican nominees made standpatism their watchword. Taft's plurality (1908) 19,236.

South Carolina.
Columbia, S. C., Nov. 8.—Democratic state and congressional tickets were elected by the usual majority.

Columbia—Leading issue was prohibition. Democratic plurality (1908) 53,326.

South Dakota.
Pierre—Issues were county option, woman suffrage and Republican standpatism. Taft's plurality (1908) 27,270.

Tennessee.
Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Partial returns up to 9:30 indicate the election of Hooper (R) for governor by at least 15,000 majority.

Nashville.—The issues were local in governorship contest—Democrats were split into two factions, one supporting the Republican candidate. This legislature will choose Frazier's successor. Democrat plurality (1908) 17,284.

Texas.
Austin, Tex., Nov. 8.—The entire Democratic ticket for state offices has been elected by majorities larger than those given Governor Campbell two years ago. All Democratic congressional nominees were elected.

Austin—Nothing doing in progressive line in either party. New legislature will choose Senator Culberson's successor. Democrat plurality (1908) 151,636.

Utah.
Salt Lake City—Leading issues were local option and Mormon church. New legislature will choose Republican standpat Senator Sutherland's successor. Taft's plurality (1908) 18,414.

Vermont.
Montpelier—Election held in September. Republican ticket won out by greatly decreased majorities. Senator Page, standpat, will be returned.

Virginia.

PUGSLEY CASE

IS UP TODAY

Hearing of Appeal by Supreme Court in Famous Central

Railway Case—Four New

Barristers Sworn In.

Frederickton, Nov. 8.—The November sittings of the Supreme Court had not a large docket to take up when it opened this morning. All the members of the bench were present, and M. C. Teed, K. C. of St. John, president of the Barristers' Society, moved for the admission of four students who had duly qualified to be attorneys. These were E. Gene Richard, John Coles Bolyard, George Hazen Adair and Wm. Albert Wilson. The first mentioned had taken the regular examination of the course, and the others had qualified by successful degree examinations at the law school at St. John. All were admitted and sworn.

The appeal of F. P. Shaw in the chancery case decided by the Chief Justice, in which coal lands in Queens county have been in dispute between the appellant and A. G. Robinson of Marysville, was, upon motion of Mr. Teed, counsel for appellant, set down for hearing on Wednesday, Nov. 16th. Solicitor General McLeod and Watson Allen, K. C., will argue against the appeal.

The remaining chancery appeal, that of William Pugsley vs. The New Brunswick Coal and Railway Co., will be heard tomorrow, W. B. Wallace, K. C., supporting the appeal, and Mr. Teed, K. C., contra.

The Scott Act case in which the defendant, Wm. Campbell of this city, was convicted of keeping for sale, was also up for appeal at this morning's session in the common motion paper, Peter Hughes applying for a certiorari on the ground, among others, that the wife of the appellant had already been convicted of selling the liquor in question. The court refused to grant the rule and the conviction stands.

W. H. Harrison moved to extend time for filing grounds of appeal in the case of Palmer vs. Arlington Lumber Co., which had been decided by Mr. Justice Landry in favor of plaintiff. The court granted leave till Dec. 1st, the hearing upon these grounds to take place at the next sittings of the court.

The only remaining cases upon the docket are two County Court appeals, namely: Jolens, plaintiff, appellant, and Lockhart, defendant, respondent. D. Mullin, K. C., to support appeal from the St. John County Court, and Culbert, defendant, appellant, and McCall Company, plaintiff, respondent. F. B. Carvell, K. C., to support appeal from the Kings County Court.

McGovern and state at large give McGovern (R) for governor, a plurality of 30,000 over Schmidt (Dem.). Madison—The big fight was for the re-election of LaFollette to the senate. State progressive, Socialists made a hard campaign. Taft's plurality (1908) $1,115.

Wyoming.
Cheyenne—The Democrat nominee for governor is an insurgent republican, and the Republican a standpat Democrat. The new legislature will choose the successor to Senator Clark, standpat Republican. Taft's plurality (1908) 5928.

Agents Sent to Vancouver.
There was a warrant in existence in Boston at the time of the publication of the interview and the United States authorities got busy.

Agents of the Department of Justice at Washington were sent to Vancouver and Mr. Plasse was practically under surveillance from the time he left Vancouver until he walked into the office of the U. S. Atty. French in the Federal Building yesterday afternoon.

The authorities did not wish to arrest him on Canadian territory. It was explained, for fear of complications over the extradition law. To determine whether or not the offence alleged was extraditable might take some time to argue and Mr. Plasse had signified his willingness to return to Boston.

The Redeemable Investment Company did a stock business which failed to satisfy the investors, and the United States authorities were appealed to, with the result that the handsome apartments of the company were raided and the arrest of the manager, Mr. Brooks, was made. He was charged with using the mails in a scheme to defraud.

The cases of Rev. Mr. Plasse and Charles H. Brooks have been set down by U. S. Commissioner Hayes for Nov. 17th for a hearing.

Messrs. Feeney and Carroll will represent the defendants.

And that is because women do not go

they are only patronized by men.
American women live the cleanest

COUNCIL WORK FOR WOMEN

Object of Toronto Convention is to Stir Art Impulses in Canada—Grateful Acknowledgement of Gift.

The Women's Art Association recently held their annual meeting at their beautiful rooms in Jarvis street, Toronto. This society of women, in collaboration with the N. C. W., and it is felt heartily they are to be congratulated on their splendid year's work. Mrs.
Duggan, their enthusiastic president, has just returned from a delightful trip to the art centres of Europe and is anxious to stir the art impulse of Canada into definite action. Through this association the housewives and other handicrafts of the country are being given the prominent place they deserve and the industries of the home will have a permanent place by this timely encouragement.

Another society in federation, holds its annual meeting in Toronto on Nov.
17, namely the women's institute of Ontario. Their published programme shows an earnest effort to do the best meetings they have ever had. Addresses will be given by Mrs. Huestis, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, D. C. L.,
C. C. James, Mrs. Ross, Miss M. E.
Watson, of Macdonald Hall, Guelph; Dr. Helen MacLurey and others on subjects which affect the home, the child and its education.

Autumn Executive.

The autumn executive committee of the National Council of Women will be held in Brantford, Ont., on Friday, Nov. 18, 1910. In addition to the usual routine business some questions of an interesting nature will come up for discussion. In the evening there will be a public meeting at which Mrs. Huestis, the president of the Toronto Local Council will speak.

The quarterly meeting of the Hamilton Local Council will be held in this city the last week in October. Lady Taylor presided and there was a very large attendance. As this was the first of the business meetings at Halifax, much of the business arose out of the able reports presented at that convention which they all felt had been a period of very strenuous effort.

The subject of playgrounds for children also came under discussion, and a report of work done in the local area was presented. In addition to this, Mrs. Taylor paid a great tribute to the Women's Institute for the work they were doing for women and more effective work for women than other women's organizations.

Mrs. Boomer, the much loved president of the London Local Council, after an extended stay in Britain last month, gave an address on the subject of the work of the institute. She visited Lord and Lady Aberdein and had the pleasure of renewing acquaintances with many of the friends of the work.

At the Hamilton meeting, the annual report of the work of the Women's Institute was read. The following letter she has sent out to the officers and members of the Federated Associations:

44 Devon Street, Toronto.

Dear Fellow-workers—I have waited until the meetings will be beginning in the autumn before writing to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the loving address and for the magnificent gift, which I received from the Council when I resigned my office as its secretary. I do indeed thank you all most sincerely, not only for these generous gifts, but also for all the happiness and the good that came to me in connection with my work in the Council.

My pleasure in being able to tell you that I hope that as one of your vice-presidents I may still be able to work for those great interests for which the Council stands.

It was a great pleasure to me to be able to devote part of your gift to the Council by making myself a life patron, an honor that I have long coveted, but which I had no hope of ever attaining.

With all good wishes, individually,
and on behalf of our work.

I remain sincerely yours,
(Signed) EMILY CUMMINGS.

The beautiful historic city of Lincoln, England was the scene of the annual conference of the National Council of Women Workers of Great Britain which last month the president, Lady Laura Ridding, in the chair. For the first time in twenty-years Miss James was unable to attend. The main thought of the gathering seemed to be the Problem of Child Life and Educational Ideals.

From the point of the parent, the teacher, the home and the school and from the point of view of the child these subjects were viewed. At no time in the world's history has the good of the child been of such paramount importance.

Mrs. Sandford of Hamilton was present and was made the recipient

"I Honestly Believe It,"
Says Mr. Mills

Knowlton, P. Q., Oct. 12, 1909.

For many years I suffered from severe Rheumatism and the attacks were very distressing and prevented me from doing my ordinary work.

I tried many remedies and physicians' treatments, but nothing seemed to do me much good, and I was becoming very anxious for fear I would become a permanent cripple from Rheumatism.

I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and this medicine has entirely cured me, and I honestly believe that "Fruit-a-tives" is the greatest Rheumatism Cure in the world.

"Fruit-a-tives" not only strengthens

MARGARET ANGLIN

HAS LOST HER VOICE

Great Canadian Actress Obliged to Abandon Stage—
To Undergo Operation—May Never Act Again.

New York, Nov. 8.—The World, in a special this morning from Chicago, says that Margaret Anglin, the distinguished Canadian actress, has lost her voice and is in a retreat at Glencoe, near Chicago, and may never act again.
The report goes on to say: Dr. George W. Whitfield, who is attending Miss Anglin, is quoted as saying: "Miss Anglin's condition is very grave indeed. Her vocal chords are in a trifling condition. In all my experience I have never seen a case where the nose and vocal organs have become in such a dreadful state. An operation will be necessary, but this cannot be performed at the immediate present, for she is in too nervous and undignified condition. I have ordered that not even her most intimate friends be allowed to see her. The operation may possibly be performed Thursday or Friday of this week."
Margaret Anglin at present is the star in "The Awakening of Helena Richie."

WEEK OF DEMONSTRATION

FOR SUFFRAGETTES

Women to Make Effort in Favor of Bill Granting Sex
Parliamentary Vote—in Albert Hall Saturday.

London, Nov. 7.—The suffragettes have again become active, their immediate object being to obtain the passage at the autumn session of the conciliation bill, bestowing the parliamentary vote on those women who now have a vote at municipal elections. The bill passed through the initial stages at the spring session.

The women have been very busy in recent by-elections and have been carrying on a general campaign against the government throughout the country. As a climax a suffrage demonstration week, beginning today, has been arranged for London, with a view of trying to convince the government and members of parliament of the earnestness of all suffragettes in their determination that the bill shall be allowed to go through its further stages.

All societies which advocate women's suffrage have been invited to co-operate, and each will hold a public meeting leading up to a joint demonstration in Albert Hall on Saturday, Nov. 12.

When parliament reassembles on November 15, the women will become even more active, and have threatened unless the premier changes his mind, and gives facilities for the bill, to make a number of their specu-lar attacks on the houses of parliament.

In solo by Miss Dorothy Harrington, Acadia Seminary, and a reading by Miss Dorris Crosby, also of the Seminary.

Miss Harrington rendered her difficult selection most acceptably.

Miss Crosby's interesting and humorous reading delighted the guests, and she was loudly applauded.

SAINT JOHN, WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 9th, 1910

DRUMMOND-ARTHBASKA.

From the smoke and din of the conflict in Drummond-Arthabaska there are some points which stand out with tolerable clearness. In the first place it was not a contest which was initiated or carried on by the Conservative party. It was absolutely and entirely a matter among Liberals themselves. Beginning in a family jar some years ago, it later developed into a bitter family quarrel, and has ended in a hot family fight with probably fatal injuries to the head of the family. Bourassa, who stands as the leader of the dissent faction, was, and is, a Liberal by descent and practice. He entered parliament as the disciple and devoted worshipper of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, lay in his bosom, basked in his smiles, and was loved and trusted in turn even as he himself loved and trusted. But he had in him the substance of old Liberal doctrine, and an honest hatred of graft and crookedness. To his surprise he soon found the hero of his early worship very human in regard to vital matters of administration, and he began to remonstrate, at first more in sorrow than in anger, and then, finding no response, in public criticism and denunciation of the evil practices. In the end Sir Wilfrid took, as he always has done, the part of the political grafter and, wearying of the protests of his disciple, cast him and his co-actor Lavergne into outer darkness. There he hoped it would end. But Bourassa was made of better fighting stuff than many of Sir Wilfrid's one time friends and colleagues, whose mouths have been shut by rough treatment and threats, or by the softer methods of patronage and hope, and he refused to be either bought or bullied at the expense of his convictions.

Matters came to a crisis in 1910. Bourassa was campaigning the French constituencies, and availing himself of the crude, ill-considered, expensive and comparatively useless naval proposals of the government to rouse the electors against his old time chief. Sir Wilfrid, on his return from his summer Western tour, determined to crush Bourassa, and laid his plans accordingly. He so laid them, that, as he thought, his success would be certain, and Bourassa's killing swift and complete. To that end he called the spectacular Montreal meeting, the one and only purpose of which was to warn Quebec that Bourassa was a pestilent member of the family, that must be done for, once for all, and to taunt and madden him to show fight and accept battle. Then with cold calculating cunning he proceeded to select the battle ground, which of all others would be most favorable to himself, and most impossible for Bourassa. He chose Drummond-Arthabaska, which was his native county, where he has long had his home, which, supposedly, contained many personal friends, and which, best of all, at the last contested election, gave a Liberal majority of 2,400, and whose average majority for a series of elections was over 1,200. The fussy little gentleman of very mediocre ability, who represented it was lifted to the reformed Senate, and pensioned for life with $2,500 per year, plus travelling expenses, plus the yearly stationery trunk, with a French clock or an electric vibrator thrown in; and all at the country's expense. This done, the live was opened and the knightly leader of the great Liberal party with fine courage, dared the young fledgling to come on. It wasn't very brave or very chivalrous in Sir Wilfrid, but it would prove, so he hoped, efficacious. Either Bourassa would refuse the unfair fight and his prestige would be ruined, or he would fight and be utterly crushed. Bourassa did not refuse and he was not crushed, but he wilyly knighted himself, to his infinite surprise, was ignominiously stricken from his saddle, and sent to earth. Of all political jousts ever held in Canada this has been the most dramatic and startling. But it was all a Liberal family scrimmage. The Conservative party occupied seats in the gallery and watched the progress and moves of the contestants with keen interest; but they were only spectators, with possibly something up on the game.

In the second place as to the issues and tactics they were mixed and various. An attempt will be made to pose Sir Wilfrid as a victim to his Imperial loyalty, slain in the house of his friends by Imperial disloyalty. The difference between Laurier and Bourassa as regards real and hearty assistance in the naval defence of the British Empire is the difference between tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee. Both are in principle opposed to it. Of the two Bourassa is more definite and outspoken in the position he takes, Laurier is evasive and double-faced. Both exalt autonomy and denounce Imperialism. Both seek to break the weight of criticism by the English and predominating section of Canada by asserting their loyalty to the Union. Neither brings forth the practical fruits of this assertion. Bourassa calls for a submission to the people of the naval policy, and the plain intimation by this call is that, if the majority of the Canadian people speak their approval, the policy goes. Laurier brings forth the dead fruits of a sham navy, which cannot fight if it were allowed to, but which is not to be allowed to fight if it could—for Britain's wars and at the Empire's call. And for such an abortion he proposes to spend $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 of the people's money, without asking the people's views thereon. The true Imperialist finds little to choose between these plans, but of the two Bourassa's has the elements of popular consideration and approval and of consequent permanency and stability.

Judging by the speeches of the candidates and their friends, there is little to choose from. The government's candidate declared that Canada's fleet was not to fight in Imperial wars, but was a step towards independence. The Lord High Admiral, Minister Brodeur, declared that it was to punish thieves and pirates who might want to rob our out-going steamers. Sir Wilfrid represented himself as the valiant defender of Canada against the twice repeated demands of the British Government for contributions and aid towards Imperial naval defence, and boasted of defeating arrangements, which were favored by all the rest of the Empire. The "vortex of European militarism" was fittingly and eloquently exoriated. Bourassa and Monk denounced the actual proposals as useless, ineffective, and very expensive, and demanded popular approval before they were finally saddled upon the country. Both were personally opposed to aid or assistance in Empire wars, until Canada had some part in the deliberation and declaration of the same. Neither intimated his intention of contravening the will of Canada if, on opportunity being given, that will was pronounced in favor of cooperation. Whatever else may be kept in reserve by these two gentlemen as to national or Imperial matters, on the naval question the above outlines their position, and though we may differ from it in some particulars, the position cannot be characterized as unreasonable.

But there were other influences than the naval question which contributed to the striking defeat of Sir Wilfrid. He had grown autocratic to a degree. No man in Canada is more susceptible to flattery than Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and never did interested and self-seeking followers pour forth more fulsome and highly flavored adulation. Honest and candid friends were not encouraged, and were gradually thrust into the background. In Quebec it became disloyal to criticize, and treason to condemn any of his actions. Public policy arguments, reasons, were denied a hearing, the elector was to vote for Laurier because he was Laurier, and represented the French race. If he did not he was branded as a traitor to his kind, a friend of the "Orangistes" and an ally of the enemies of Quebec. An interested ring worked this rich vein for all it was worth, grew haughty and domineering, as they increased their gains, and dispensed their patronage. Dissensions inevitably succeeded, and dissatisfaction followed the dissensions. All this bred disgust in honorable men, and discontent in disappointed ones. The overthrow of Laurier on November 4th, was due in no inconsiderable degree to the revolt against this overgrown and intolerable one-man power, based on an appeal to name and race, which over-rode reason and denied all independentness of judgment. If this dangerous and degrading one-man power, based not on reason but on race, has received a death blow, or even a decided check in Canada, there are few sensible and patriotic people who will not be grateful to Drummond-Arthabaska.

A NEW REVELATION.

Press dispatches from Salt Lake City, the seat of the Mormon church, says the Winnipeg Telegram, bring advices that the officials of the sect founded by Joseph Smith have issued definite and positive orders that the faithful shall henceforth regard plural marriages as contrary to the word of God as revealed by His prophet and his successors. The Latter Day Saint who yields to a yearning for another soul-mate is warned that such lapse from observance of the law and the gospel "will call down the wrath of the church." The Mormon hierarchy, in issuing the order, continues:—

"In giving the manifesto to the churches, President Wilford Woodruff presented the will of God. It was as binding on the churches as any written revelation, and we are bound by it. It is as if God said it himself. Some of our brethren who were not satisfied with the manifesto have gone outside and over the law, and they have offended God in doing so. "There is not a man on earth today possessing the authority to perform plural marriages. We want every one of you to clearly understand this, the sisters particularly. Plural marriages are unrighteous and unlawful now. We doubted the constitutionality of laws, but they have been tested and sustained in the courts and we must obey them." It will be remembered that Brigham Young, he of the some score of wives, multiplied his helpmeets—if not his domestic difficulties—in pursuance of what he declared to be a positive order from On High. But Brigham Young has long since passed from the stage of earthly activities. Since which time the courts of the United States, from Utah to Washington, have interpreted affairs to square with somewhat old-fashioned notions regarding marriage. At any rate, plural marriages have been interdicted since the passage of the Edmunds act. It is not now possible for a Mormon who owns to more than a single boss in the domestic circle to hold a federal office. Moreover, the American government makes it a crime for any man to have more than one wife at the same time.

But this is a digression. What is of interest is the fact that somebody in Mormon authority in Salt Lake City has had a new inspiration either from a close study of statutes and the attitude of the federal authorities or from an admitted misunderstanding of Divine purposes as revealed by Brothers Brigham and others. At any rate, polygamous marriages are to be tabooed in Utah. And after all, that is of more interest than any curious inquiry into the real reason for this latest revelation.

The Countess of Aberdeen is the chief director in the fight being made in Ireland against the "white plague." She has organized lecturing trips, sending vans with nurses and doctors through parts of Ireland where there is no railroad. She seized upon the idea of utilizing abandoned coastguard stations and turning them into preventorium where persons who have been exposed to the disease might get plenty of fresh air and good food while they grew in strength. She has dotted Ireland with sanitariums for the treatment of persons who have the disease.

An Ottawa paper in a headline describing a "didn't-know-it-was-loaded" accident, relates how the gun went off, "without the slightest warning." Apparently some people are accustomed to a gun that blows a whistle and waves a red flag and then gives five minutes' notice, before deciding to send someone to the Kingdom Come.

REV. I. N. PARKER DIED YESTERDAY

Methodist Clergyman Had Served Faithfully in Many Fields—Helped to Build Ten Churches—Strong Character

Rev. I. N. Parker, one of the best known ministers of the Methodist church in New Brunswick, died yesterday morning at the General Public Hospital after a short illness. Rev. Mr. Parker on Friday evening, October 28, was tendered a farewell by the people of Sussex, and presented with a purse of gold preliminary to his removal to Boston, where he and Mrs. Parker intended making their home with a son who holds a responsible position in that city. A day or two later Mr. and Mrs. Parker came to this city en route to Boston. They registered at the Clifton House, and while there Rev. Mr. Parker was taken ill. After several days it was seen that his condition was serious, and his removal to the General Public Hospital was decided on. His condition gradually became worse and for the last couple of days it was apparent the end was near. The news of his death yesterday morning was heard with regret by many friends in the city and it will be learned with sorrow in the different districts in which he has labored.

Rev. I. N. Parker was born in Wilford, Annapolis county, N. S., and was educated first in the common school at his home and then at Mount Allison, and for a time taught school. He united with the church under the ministry of the Rev. Samuel Avery, and was made a local preacher. In 1862 he began his ministerial career as chairman of the district on the old Shofield and Salmon River field. The following year he began his probation for the ministry in the regular way and was sent to Dalhousie. Here he spent three years preceding his ordination in 1866. The field was an immense one and the difficulties many, but he succeeded. Leaving this field, with its reach of fifty miles in Quebec, he more than seven years in New Brunswick, he served Hillsboro, Petticoat, Jerusalem, Kingston, Gagetown, Richibucto, Bathurst, Dorchester, Courtenay Bay, Nashua, Grand Lake, Gagetown, Hillsboro. In 1907 he became a supernumerary, but has taken vacant fields since and done effective work and fields at which he officiated was very great. He secured the erection and dedication of ten churches and one parsonage, besides the renovation of others. Mr. Parker was a man of strong convictions and possessed the ability to present them. He was a successful pastor and did good work.

Rev. Mr. Parker was twice married. His first wife was Miss Maggie McMillan of Boiestown, and they had three children. His second wife, who survives, Miss Dora Williams of Gagetown, was also the mother of three children. The members of his family surviving are: Mrs. C. Price, Moncton; Mrs. George H. Davidson, Hampton; and Miss Bessie, at home, and W. I. Parker in Boston. The deceased was seventy-three years of age.

NEWSY NOTES FROM ALBERT COUNTY TOWNS

Albert, N. B., Nov. 7.—Rev. Mr. Love commenced his pastorate with the Hopewell United Baptist church on Sunday last. His first service was in the Riverside Public Hall at 11 a. m. The reverend gentleman, with his family, will occupy the rooms over the "Riverside Drug Store" lately vacated by Dr. Carnwath.

Dr. Paul M. Atkinson has returned to his home here and is residing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Atkinson. Dr. Atkinson is warmly welcomed to his native village, and after his successful graduation from McGill followed by a year's work in the general hospital, connected with that institution, and another year spent in a New York maternity hospital, takes up the practice of his profession here. Dr. Atkinson's office is in the Central Telephone Building.

Dr. Ernest A. Baxter, brother of Dr. George O. Baxter, of St. John, has located at Albert. He has commodious offices and rooms in the Waverly Hotel.

Mrs. I. C. Prescott is visiting relatives and friends in Boston. Mr. Prescott, with his daughter, Kathleen, left this morning to accompany her home. On the way they will visit relatives in St. George, St. John, and Sussex.

George D. Prescott, M. P. P., and Mrs. Prescott, are in St. John for a short visit. Mr. Prescott has exchanged his auto for a much larger car.

The many friends of Harvey Graves will be sorry to hear of his serious illness at his home at Sherman Brook. His son Xenophon, and his daughter, Bessie, have returned from Vancouver, and are watching at their father's bedside.

Mr. Graves has been suffering for some two years with an affection of one of his feet, but hopes were entertained that no immediately serious result would follow. But while on a business visit to Hopewell Cape about a week ago, Mr. Graves was stricken with paralysis, not serious at first, but it has gradually become general, until he is entirely helpless and speechless.

It is understood that the large new law library of the late C. A. Peck, K. C., has been purchased by G. H. Adair, a rising young attorney-at-law. Mr. Peck lost his father's library in the big fire at Albert some six years ago, and about a year later he purchased a new and entirely up-to-date collection of law books. Arthur Fowler, for-man for I. C. Prescott, shot a fine black bear a few days ago, while on his rounds of the lumber camps. The skin is a handsome one, and was purchased by J. N. Wetmore.

An unusually large acreage of ploughing is being done in this county this fall owing to the open weather, and the undeviated faith in the country stimulated by the good showing of the farmers at the local exhibitions.

Several sales of horses at good figures are reported this last week, among which was the exchange of a six months colt for the tidy sum of eighty dollars.

Civil Service Exams.

The civil service examinations in the preliminary class were finished yesterday and the results were sent to Ottawa. The results will not be known for some days. Ten candidates took the examinations. The qualifying examinations start today. In this class there are 19 candidates for the outside service, four for third division clerkships in the inside service and 6 for entrance to the naval college. The examinations will be completed on Friday.

A Correction.

In John Sime's letter referring to the lawsuit between Albert J. Taylor and himself, published yesterday in The Standard, he was represented as saying that it was manifestly unfair "for" Magistrate Allingham to interfere with the examination of the press, which he knew nothing when he gave his decision. This should have read: "It was manifestly unfair to the magistrate to interfere with the examination of the press," etc. Mr. Sime casts no reflections on Mr. Allingham.

Toronto Writer Here.

S. T. Wood of the editorial staff of the Toronto Globe, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Wood is making a tour of Eastern Canada and Newfoundland for the purpose of getting some information about the natives of these regions. He will tell the good people of the Queen City about us, and no doubt persuade them to send some missionaries this way. Tomorrow he will interview the Duke of the Wagon Port and get some pointers about the harbor, and later will accompany the Time's New Reporter on a trip to Courtenay Bay and find out what the minister of public works proposes to do in that neighborhood.

Water Test Result.

A test of the water pressure was conducted yesterday afternoon by Chief Kerr, who was accompanied by Aldermen Vanwart and Lely and Messrs. Peter Clinch, H. B. Robinson, R. W. Frink and George Moberly, representative of the Northern Insurance Company. The party went out the Marsh bridge way and tested the pressure at the Erin street plug, getting 82 pounds. The last test revealed the same pressure. At the City Road near the abattoir they got 85 pounds, last previous test 83 pounds; corner of Erin and Brussels streets 81 pounds, last previous test 79 pounds; corner of Erin and Hanover streets 80 pounds, previous test 81 pounds; corner of King and Wentworth streets 32 pounds, previous test 26 pounds, and corner of Union and Brussels streets 37 pounds, previous test 37 pounds. This drop of 20 pounds is thought to be caused by a leak in the neighborhood. Charlotte street, corner Union, 39 pounds, same as before; King street, corner Canterbury, 45 pounds; 58 before; Market Square, corner Water, 45 pounds, 58 before; Simms factory gauge, inside, 58 pounds.

BUILDING GUTTED
IN WEST SIDE FIRE

Winter Port Restaurant Flooded Out in Effort to Extinguish Blaze in the Second Story.

What looked like a serious fire broke out last night in the building near the corner of Rodney and Union streets, West End, owned by Mrs. John Rhea, and occupied by the Winter Port restaurant and other tenants. The fire was confined to the upper story, but much damage was done by water. The upper flat was occupied by Mrs. Reid and she and her daughter were away from home when the fire started. The exact cause of the fire is not known but it is believed to have started from the stove. The fire department from both the West End houses was quickly extinguished. So much water was used however, that the building was pretty badly gutted and the restaurant was flooded. The loss is probably covered by insurance.

to Seamen's Mission Unveiled With Ceremony—Financial Statement

The harvest supper in the Seamen's Institute building last night was a pronounced success. President L. P. D. Tilley gave an address speaking of the work that is being done and the success of the institute.

A statue of Lord Nelson donated to the institute by Mr. Mitchell, of Rotherham, was unveiled by Mrs. Archibald, president of the ladies' auxiliary.

In the course of Mr. Tilley's address he gave the following financial statement:

	Expenditure
Ground	$1,800
Building and furniture	13,200
Total	$15,000

Owing:

On mortgage	$4,000
Accs. unpaid	500

The speaker said that the institute was in fairly good shape as at the present time they only owed about $200. It required about $2600 to pay the running expenses of the institute and there was no positive regular income to meet this.

Conduit Will Begin Friday
and Last Two Days—Little River Supply.

The city engineer stated last night that arrangements were in progress to repair the leak in the water conduit at O'Connor's farm, and that the water from Loch Lomond would be turned off on Friday morning. Residents on the high levels who were without water the last time the supply was drawn from Little River, are advised to lay in a two days' supply as it will require that length of time to make the repairs.

The leak at O'Connor's farm is not new. It has been growing worse for some time, and the engineer decided to have it repaired before the winter sets in.

A meeting of St. John Council, Royal Arcanum, was held in the Foresters' hall, on Charlotte street last evening, for the purpose of extending a welcome to Supreme Regent Clovis H. Mayor Frink attended and welcomed the visitors to the city.
