The Good Works Of Leon Joseph

Leon Joseph of Toronto, Canada, lay-delegate from the Fifteenth Dist. to the A.M.E. General Conference, 1924, Louisville, Ky., was born in 1878. He was converted in St. James A.M.E. Church, New Orleans, La., and served it as class-leader and vice-president of the Allen League for a number of years. He is also a founder of the New Orleans Colored Y.M.C.A.

Mr. Joseph's Canadian activities are a source of inspiration to young men. He is a member of Grant A.M.E. Church of Toronto, which establishment he serves as class-leader, steward and trustee. A few notable incidents in his life may be noted.

A few years ago when the unemployment situation was acute, he inaugurated a concert in behalf of the unemployed which netted a tidy sum; he also promoted a series of free suppers which were held in the basement of Grant Church.

In 1921 he was elected Financial Agent for his church, which was burdened with a mortgage of $5,000; being a firm believer in prayer, and trusting God for strength he conceived a capital idea, mparting it only to his pastor, the result of which in April of this year the mortgage-burning will be celebrated. Since the first of the year Mr. Joseph has paid off current expenses of his church to the amount of $186.00

During his travels about Ontario, Mr. Joseph has been instrumental in preventing many unpleasant incidents which would have reflected serious discredit upon the race. Last August he actually prevented a riot by settling a gambling debt in which were concerned parties who were total strangers to him, and who were about to settle the debt by means of fire arms.

A thorough race man, Mr. Joseph is Manager of the Occidental Clothing Co., member of the Negro Business League, West Indies Trading Association, Home Service Association, Odd Fellows and Scottish Mechanics; he is also a trustee of the U.N.I.A. of which organization he was a charter member and its first treasurer. His friends are tendering him a testimonial and tea on Thursday evening, February 21st at U.N.I.A. Hall, at which time Mr. E. L. Cross LL.B., will be the speaker of the evening.

DEATH

(By S. E. G. Allen)

Say, what is death? ye that have felt its power,
Its blighting touch may come at any hour.

'Tis but a folding of the hands in sleep,
A smoothing down with tearful tenderness

The brow o'er which we cannot now but weep,

Regrets for which there can be no redress.

Tears come unbidden, and we cannot stay

The tides of sorrow that will overflow.
We feel as if we could but ween away

For dear lost ones, because we loved them so.

But not forever does this parting come,

'Tis but "a little while" and we shall meet,

Where no such severance is known, in some

Bright home we will again our loved ones greet.

'Tis in our Father's love, the heart made pure,

"That where I am, there ye may also be"

Where partings are unknown, the promise sure,

We will again our dearest loved ones see.

Peel County Farmer Passes Away

The funeral of the late Alexander Lawson, of Lawson Bros., Alex. and Reuben of the 3rd line of Peel took place Jan. 25th, 1924, at his late residence, and though it was a very stormy day there was a very large attendance of relatives, friends and neighbors in general. Out of town relatives from Detroit, Sarnia, Guelph, Palmerston, Listowel, Drayton, Wallace, Lebnannon and Windfield were there.

Alex. Lawson, farmer, passed away quietly into the great beyond on the 23rd. He leaves to mourn his loss his mother, seven sisters and six brothers. He was an expert in his line and one of Peel's wealthiest farmers. After his father's death, which occurred in Jan. of 1899 he worked his mother's farm for some time, after which he moved to the town line of Peel and Marlborough, where he farmed for 3 years, following which he purchased the present homestead farm. He was a member of the Methodist Church of Peel.

Reuben Lawson, his mother and the whole family wish to extend many thanks to the friends and neighbors for so kindly assisting in conveyance to and from the cemetery and so kindly assisting in the accommodation of the relatives and friends.

Hunt for the good in the other fellow; he has to do the same in your case.

W. V. Franklin Given Damages

Damages were awarded W. V. Franklin, of Kitchener, in his suit against Alfred Evans at the Middlesex assizes last Saturday before Justice Haughton Lenox. It is alleged that the defendant refused to serve him food on account of his (Franklin's) color. It took the jury only 20 minutes to decide that Mr. Franklin should be awarded damages.

When Mr. Franklin was called to the witness box for the defence counsel, "Have you any ground for damages?" Mr. Franklin's eloquent and polished reply was: "Not in dollars and cents, but in humiliation and inhuman treatment at the hands of this fellow man, yes. Because I am a dark man, a condition over which I have no control, I did not receive the treatment I was entitled to as a fellow human being. God chose to bring me into the world a colored man, and on this account, defendant placed me on a lower level than he is."

Although Mr. Evens, the defendant, appeared in his own defence, denying the charges in full, the jury saw fit to award damages to Mr. Franklin.

Popular Toronto Young Man Dies

Toronto—The death of Eric Stafford Murdock, one of the most prominent and popular young men of this city occurred last Saturday evening, at the home of his parents, 88 Lippincott St.

Mr. Murdock, who was born 24 years ago, was a valued employee of the F. W. Woolworth Co., Ltd., having been in their service for the last five years. He also attended the night-classes at the Dominion Business College, and would shortly have graduated.

He was a strong Christian and served his church as a steward and class-leader, and was also a member of the choir. He was buried last Tuesday afternoon from Grant A.M.E. Church where the service was conducted by Dr. Wm. E. Guy.

Mr. Murdock, who was an only son, leaves to mourn his loss a faithful mother and father and three sisters, as well as hosts of friends.

Mother: "No, Bobby, for the third time I tell you, you can't have another chocolate."

Bobby (in despair): "I don't see where father gets the idea that you are always changing pou mind."

MR. W. V. FRANKLIN'S VICTORY

British Justice has again asserted itself and has again placed itself on record as knowing no person or persons by the color of their skin.

Last summer one, W. V. Franklin, a watch-maker of Kitchener, Ont., a well educated and highly respected citizen of the Dominion was visiting in our city. It so happened that at noon hour Mr. Franklin became hungry (it is too bad that he should become hungry in a strange city). Thereupon he went into The Cave restaurant and asked to be served with dinner. He was refused. Franklin acted as any other Britisher with the British spirit would have acted. He instituted a suit for damages. He maintained from the first, as he stated in the witness box at the trial, that he was not seeking a judgement in which there would be a great sum of money involved but rather he was seeking to ascertain whether the laws of this country would allow The Cave restaurant or any restaurant to refuse to serve a British subject because of his color. "I am not fighting" said he, "to soothe my own injured feelings. I am taking this stand for the benefit of all peoples of color, for generations of colored children yet unborn. Again, I want to prove to Mr. Evens ans to all the world that the majesty of the British law will book no prejudice."

Mr. Franklin's statement was correct for on the 10th day of February, the Middlesex assizes awarded him damages against A. Evens for refusing to serve him (Franklin) a meal.

We have always had the profoundest respect for British laws, and the outcome of Mr. Franklin's suit serves to emphasize the difference between the laws of our own country and those of iertain other countries.

In a recent article in our paper we stated that the colored people of London stood solidly behind Mr. Franklin. On the whole we did stand behind him but a few there were who doubted the wisdom of his procedore, believing, as they expressed it, that his case would cause ill feeling between the races. May we here state that some of London's foremost citizens (white) have called us over the telephone to congratulate Mr. Franklin and the entire race, stating that the results of the trial were gratifying to them.

May I also state that nothing in respect is ever gained by cringing or by showing that we believe ourselves to be less than men. Nothing will ever be gained by submitting to treatment which is less than that due to any British subject. "Manliness without defiance, forbearance without surrendering our rights," should be our motto. Instead of lowering us in the estimation of our neighbors, I am convinced that the Franklin case has raised us a few notches higher in the estimation of our neighbors.

CONTRIBUTIONS SOLICITED

In view of the fact that the expense of the Franklin Evens' case was borne by Mr. Franklin alone, that the monetary damages awarded him by the courts is far below the actual cost to him, that he is a poor man with a large family to support, that his cause was the common cause of all who believe in justice and especially the cause of all dark people, we the undersigned do subscribe the following amount in order to assist Mr. Franklin to defray the cost of the court:

- F. O. Stewart $1.00
- Fred Ball $1.00
- Rev. E. M. Woods $1.00
- Wm. Berry $1.00
- J. F. Jenkins $1.00

We respectfully solicit the aid of anyone who feels inclined to assist.

Please send donations to The Dawn of Tomorrow, London, Ont.

ANONYMOUS HAS A WORD TO SAY

I have followed with pleasure the Unknown Knight, And his babblings with rapture I've enjoyed, But surely the things that he says are a fright; And our interest in them soon destroyed.

His ravings have been to many of us A very deplorable sight. Until we've decided it was better thus That he be given a brief respite.

Now this fellow Seely, we liked his style; And thought him a real good chap. But when we discovered his cunning smile, With caution we dodged a mishap.

Talk about your ancient poets, of a hundred years ago; They gave us lullabys and sonnets too, But the ravings of friend Seely and this Unknown Knight will show What the wise men of our twentieth century do.

And then Old Timer comes along and says a word or two In a very decided and emphatic way, What he says we have no doubt at all tht every word is true; But his sayings cause wory and dismay.

The travels of Old Timer seem extensive and so grand And his experiences thru life are much lamented But his feastings on that alkali, garnished with the sand, Gives sufficient proof that Old Timer was contented.

Au revoir! my dear friend Seely, Unknown Knight, Old Timer too: We shall not exhaust our wits in this refrain,

MONTREAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson of Verdun had as their guest on Sunday the 10th Mrs. Mabel L. Ashe of the public school teaching staff of Windsor or N. S.

But in your feeble efforts, what e'er you try to do, Remove the little tempting frills and make the things more plain. ANONYMOUS

This column has attracted a great deal of attention ever since its inception, and we have had many favorable reports from our readers. We are especially indebted to Messrs Seely and Unknown Knight for their entertaining verse. There is now on sale at all music stores, a new song entitled "Ivan" of which the words and music have been written by Seely himself. We heartily recommend this song to all lovers of popular music.

COLLINGWOOD NOTES

Quite a number turned out to the first meeting of the Loyal Progressive Literary Society of the B.M.E. Church on Monday evening.

There was a splendid turn out on Sunday to the Sabbath School and the Superintendent and teachers were delighted to see how well the little folks braved the storms to be at their post of duty.

Mr. John Bigg spoke at the evening service and a goodly number greeted him. The choir made a splendid showing and was at its best.

Miss Marguerite Sheffield is sufficiently recovered to be able to attend Sunday School. We are pleased to see her out again.

Maurice Garbett was able to be out to Sunday School on Sunday.

Miss Minnie Sheffield is able to return to her duties again. We are pleased to see all the sick improving.

OAKVILLE NOTES

Services were very well attended on Sunday, Feb. 10th and the spiritual tide ran high.

On Thursday evening several of the good people surprised Rev. and Mrs. Nelson in honor of their marriage anniversary, and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Everyone was pleased to see Mrs. Eliza Adams in church on Sunday morning after being indisposed for several weeks.

Mr. E. Munro of Sarnia was a week end visitor, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Amon Duncan entertained Rev. and Mrs. Nelson and M. E. Munro to dinner on Sunday.

At 6 p.m. M.M.E. Munro, Rev. and Mrs. Nelson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Budd. Covers were laid for six.

Mrs. Nelson entertained to tea after church on Sunday evening and a very pleasant hour was spent.

All auxiliaries of the church are very busy and the outlook is that the success of the future will be great, God being willing.

The music rendered by the senior choir on Sunday evening was excellent and most heartily enjoyed by all.

Everyone was glad to see sisters Aggie Laform and Ida Johnson back in the choir Sunday evening after being indisposed for several weeks.

CHATHAM NOTES

Mrs. Nathaniel Murray is visiting relatives in Toledo.

Mr. Gordon Currie is ill at his home on Cambell Ave.

The Queen contest held in A.M.E. Church on Friday, Feb. 8 was a grand success. Mr. Geo Smith spent Sunday in Buffalo.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson is spending several weeks at her home in New Bedford, Mass.

We are glad to report that the condition of Mr. B. Anderson and Mr. J. A. Smith is much improved at this writing.

NORTH BUXTON NOTES

The North Buxton Brotherhood held a very interesting meeting at the Oddfellows Hall on Thursday evening, the 31st. Some very timely speeches were made. At the close they served an oyster supper. Great interest seems to be taken in this order here.

At high noon, Monday, Feb. 4th, Miss Verna Prince and Garrison Shadd ere quietly united in holy matrimony, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prince. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. D. Wright. Miss Julia Shadd was bridesmaid. Mr. Elbert Shreve was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Edythe Chase. The bride was very prettily dressed and carried white carnations. After the wedding an elaborate dinner was served. Rev. Wright led the toast to the bride and groom, wishing them health, wealth and prosperity. The bride received many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burns of Detroit, Mich., attended the wedding of their niece Miss Verna Prince and will visit here a few days.

Miss Edith Chase is visiting in Dresden.

Mrs. John Pierman, who was very sick the past week is improving.

Mr. Allan is able to take her place in the choir once more after suffering with throat trouble.

Mr. Audrey Duncan has been admitted to hospital suffering with throat trouble.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Alligood's brother, Mr. Chas. Alligood. He has the heart felt sympathy of members of St. Pauls.

The silent workers will give a grand Concert on Feb. 28th at which time Mr. Jones of Brantford will render several selections. Look for full notice later.

The first Sunday in March will be silent workers day. Mr. Jenkins, of London will be the speaker.

The Trustee Aid held an Apron Social which was a howling success, realizing $53.00. One lady alone sold $18.00 worth of aprons. All the members worked faithfully.

Mr. J. C. Holland is spending four weeks in California on the private car of which he is chef. We wish him God's speed and a safe return.

We were pleased to see Mr. Jenkins, Editor of the Dawn of Tomorrow in the city last Friday.

Mr. Black, Mr. F. Workman and Mr. Roy attend divine services Sunday evening.

Mrs. May Brown entertained the choir Friday evening after practice. A dainty lunch was served and the members indulged in music and games. A good time was reported by all present.

Mrs. J. C. Holland will call on you some time in the near future for yearly subscriptions for The Dawn of Tomorrow. Kindly be ready to talk to her as we want to make this paper the best in the Dominion and we can do nothing without your co-operation. Thank you.

A pleasant Sunday programme was given by the Trustee Aid. The programme was enjoyed by all. Some new talent was discovered in the person of Miss Emma Roy who sang her first solo in public. Miss Vera Alligood gave a reading which was her first time in public. The other numbers were beautifully rendered.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen expect to move into the new parsonage very soon.

ST. CATHARINES NOTES

The Silver Shield Club gave a house party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dorsey. Everyone reported a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Mary Leggar had the misfortune to fall and sustain very serious injuries.

The Brotherhood had charge of the evening services. A very good and well prepared programme was rendered to a large and attentive audience.

EDMONTON NOTES

The Lantern Slide lecture last Wednesday night, given by Rev. Slater was well attended and thoroughly appreciated.

Mrs. Simon Cowan, who had a very severe spell of la grippe last week is much improved.

Little Louise Barzy who was quite severely burned this week with hot tea is resting easily now.

Miss Leota Carter sang most beautifully last Sunday night. Miss Carter has a lovely contralto voice.

Mrs. Golden expects to go to Jenkins next Sunday to preach and will remain a few days among the people going from their to Pine Creek for a season.

The Friend's Club of the Church will give a grand Valentine Party and programme at the church on Valentine night.

Mrs. Mary E. Tucker is entertaining friends and the public Saturday night at the parsonage in the honor of Mrs. Bob Walker of Campsie, who is in the city for a short visit.

Two colored men stood on the outskirts of a crowd, listening in awe to a politician who was making a campaign speech. After a while, one asked his companion: "Who am dat man, Sam?"

"Ah doan' know what his name ie," Sam replied, "but he certainly do recommen' hissself most highly."

In loving memory of our darling baby who died Feb. 21st, 1923.

Our Father in His wisdom called
The boon His love had given;
And, though in earth the body lies,
The soul is safe in heaven.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jenkins

In loving memory of Mrs. Rosa Comsey (nee Groat) who departed this life Feb. 3rd, 1920.

One precious to our hearts has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
The place made vacant in our home
Can never more be filled.
