CUT IN SALARIES.

London, May 30 .- During the debate on the estimates in the House of Commons today James G. Wier (Liberal) protested against the excessive salaries paid to officials of the House of Lords and proposed that a reduction be made in them. The Right Hon. Sir J. T. Hibbert, financial secretary to the 'Freasury, stated that in the case of the new appointments to office in the House of Lords the salaries were reduced so as to correspond with those paid to ofificials of the House of Commons. MORLEY CONFIDENT.

London, May 30 .- Speaking today at Newcastle, his Parliamentary district, John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, admitted that the Government was hard pressed. There may be sharp difficulties, he said, but while the House of Commons continues to support the Government, it would persist and persewere in the policy it had laid down. He added that the Government was thoroughly in earnest in its demands for reforms in the administration of Armenia. It would not be satisfied with mere paper stipulations. Home rule for Ireland was by no means the ghost of a departed hope, but was a substantial reality, as the Tories would find it if they should come into power. He was of the opinion that home rule must be the primary policy of the Liberals. BRITAIN'S FOREIGN POLICY.

London, May 30 .- In the House of Commons Sir Ellis Ashmeade-Bartlet (Con.) attacked the foreign policy of the Government. One of the grounds on which he based his attack was that the Government had abandoned Lord Salisbury's policy, which he declared was founded on an entente with Germany, Austria and Italy for co-operation with Russia and France. He especially attacked the Government for assailing the Porte, whose friendship might yet be of more enormous value to Great Britain, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, stated that the Government was acting cordially with Russia and France.

Sir Ellis Bartlett-Where? Sir Harcourt-Everywhere. The object of the Government is not to ally Great Britain with any group of powers, but rather to remain friendly with all European and American nations. In conclusion, Sir William declared that there was not the slightest foundation for the charge that the Government was repelling the friendship of Ger-

The Industrial Banner (London) says: "We have received several letters from correspondents for publication which are altogether too lengthy for insertion. Writers should remember that we have our space pretty well filled, and should endeavor to make their communications as short as possible, as well as to the point. One writer sends us twelve pages of closely written foolscap, advocating a union of organized labor with the Licensed Victuallers' Association.

We can tell our correspondent that whatever alliance labor in this city may make in the future, he can rest assured it will never join hands with the saloon. We hope our readers will remember that our space can always be easily filled, and we will not guarantee to publish letters taking up nearly half a page

THE QUESTION OF PRAYER At the Women's National Council-The

Discussion and Vote. As the subject of prayer in the Nation Women's Council is of much local interest, the discussion on Wednesday at the annual meeting in Toronto is given here: The question of silent versus audible prayer came up, and a rather prolonged discussion took place over it. The question was argued out fully, and it was finally resolved to adhere to the council's present system of using silent prayer. The Toronto Local Council sent up the main resolution, that the National Council open its meetings with silent prayer, followed audibly by the Lord's Prayer. From Montreal, Halifax, Ottawa, and East Kootenay came the amendment that silent prayer only should be used. Kingston Local Council suggested that "the Lord's Prayer only" should be used after the silent prayer, and this was adopted by the Toronto Local Council. Mrs. Boomer moved the original resolution, Mrs. Hodgins supporting this. Mrs. Boomer's address in support of the repeating of the Lord's Prayer was an exceedingly able one, she pleading in the most impressive manner for the use of the prayer which is common to all Christians. When she concluded, the council, at Mrs. Skinner's suggestion, bent their heads for a moment in silent prayer, asking for guidance in the settlement of the question.

Mrs. Drummond moved the amendment that silent prayer alone be used. She urged strongly the adoption of silent prayer, as showing most consideration for the feelings of some members, instancing the case of the many Jewish women who belong to the coun-cil. Mrs. Dickson followed this up with a speech, in which she reminded the members of the national character of the council, and urged that the greatest liberty should be given to people of all sects and creeds in the delicate matter of personal devotion.

Miss Tilley made a spirited plea for the original motion and the repeating of the Lord's Prayer. Parliament is a national institution, she said, and yet prayers are read there, while "God Save the Queen" is sung, not repeated inaudibly. Mrs. MacLean, Ottawa, was in favor of the amendment. Mrs. Tilley, London, advocated the use of the Lord's Prayer, remarking that its adoption would bring in many new federated societies. Mrs. Sutherland Taylor was in favor of silent prayer. Mrs. Hoodless suggested that the local councils could settle the matter for them. cils could settle the matter for them-Mrs. R. W. Scott, Ottawa, selves. ica are not onremarked that the posed to the use of the Lord's Prayer. Miss Machar was in favor of silent prayer, remarking that "God Save the Queen" is a song, not a prayer, which is a confession of need, not of faith. Mrs. Sherwood, of Canton, Ohio, said that the United States Council of Women do not use the Lord's Prayer. Miss Murray, of St. Johns, wished for the use of the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Avery, Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Fessenden were in favor of silent prayer. Lord Aberdeen, who occupied a seat on the platform during the morning, spoke briefly, urging that caution be exercised by the council, and saying that it was a misrepresentation to say that any portion of the council was trying to "vote down the Lord's Prayer." The argument that some societies would federate if the Lord's Prayer were retained he characterized as an appeal to expediency. He concluded by suggesting that a postponement for a year to take the sense of the local councils might be advisable. After some further discussion the amendment, in favor of the use of silent prayer, was put to the vote, and carried by a vote of 71 to 41. This terminated the discussion, which had gone on to 2 p.m.

Almede Chattelle Is Hanged for Jessie Keith's Murder.

He Met Death Firmly and Made No Statement

The Last Scenes-He Prayed With the Priest.

Stratford, May 31.—The hanging of Amede Chattelle, the murderer of Jessie Keith, near Listowel, last fall, took place today at 8:03 in the west jail yard in the presence of about 40 spectators. At 7 o'clock Father Downey, his spir-itual adviser, drove to the jail and engaged in prayer with the condemned man for nearly three-quarters of an hour, after which the necessary preparations were made for his execution. His arms were pinioned in the cell, and headed by Sheriff Hossie the procession of jail officials marched to the scaffold with Chattelle and Father Downey following the jail surgeon, Dr. Dunsmore, and Jailer Nichol, Father Downey reading the litany for soul departure. Chattelle went to his doom with

A FIRM AND ELASTIC STEP. Never once did he falter nor show the least sign of nervousness, although his face exhibited an ashen paleness that was, if anything, rendered more deathlike by his jet-black beard of two months' growth. His countenance exhibited traces of the worry and mental anguish that he did so much to conceal. Arriving at the scaffold, Radcliffe, the executioner, tied his legs. At 7:55 he partook of the sacrament. At 8 the black cap was adjusted, he not being asked, as is customary at executions, if he had anything to say. Everything being in readiness, Father Downey commenced repeating the Lord's Prayer, and when he had reached that part, "Thy will be done," at a signal from the sheriff,

THE DROP FELL at 8:03, and Chattelle was launched into eternity. Eleven minutes afterwards the body was cut down, and life was pronounced extinct by the jail surgeon. The customary inquest was held. THE CRIME.

The crime for which Amede Chattelle this morning paid the death penalty was one of the most atrocious in the history of Canada. On the afternoon of Oct. 19, 1894, the nude and terribly mutilated body of Jessie Keith, the 14year-old daughter of a respectable farmer living some three miles from Listowel, was found in the bush on her father's farm. On Oct. 23, three days after the murder, Chattelle was arrested at Cataract, about 50 miles from the scene of the tragedy, with the clothing of the murdered girl in his possession. After a short trial at the March Assizes Chattelle was found guilty of the murder of the girl and sentenced to hang. After sentence had been passed upon him A FULL CONFESSION of the murder, but declined to give any reason for having committed it. He was a French-Canadian of about 60 years of age, and had led a roving life from his youth. His counsel made strenuous efforts to have the sentence commuted to imprisonment for life on the ground that Chattelle was not morally responsible for the deed, owing to mental disability, but the Minister of Justice declined to interfere. UNITED IN DEATH.

The request was left to the engineer and chairman. Bids for fixing old "Jumbo" were re-ceived from Messrs. George White & Sons and the London Machine Tool Company. The Machine Tool Company wanted $350 to put the costly machine in firstclass condition. Ald. Parnell was opposed to laying out any more of the people's money on "Jumbo." He favored making the machine do this year and letting next year's committee purchase a new one. Insanity Among Women.

The large increase in mental trouble among women is directly traceable to a diseased state of their peculiar and delicate organism. Much of this is brought about by carelessness, late hours, thin shoes, tight corsets, overwork, anxiety, and sometimes by excesses. When her delicate mechanism is disabled or deranged, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in restoring it to order.

hero, modestly. 'Ah, boys, why didn't you keep on? There was a man for every one of you there! "And so I say to you, my dear young Christian soldiers," continued the assistant pastor fervently, "there is a man for every one of you in this world.

THE SITUATION TO DATE.

Recent bye-elections for the Dominion House of Commons have shown that the tide has turned against trade restriction, against unnecessary taxation, against a prodigal waste of the money of the people.

Since Sir John Abbott gave up the reins to the late Sir John Thompson, the trade restrictionists, now in power at Ottawa, have not gained a seat, whereas Hon. Wilfrid Laurier has captured pivotal constituencies held by his opponents as soon as they have been opened.

The winning of Winnipeg by the Liberals, upon the withdrawal from public life of Sir John Macdonald's son, Hugh John, was no mere snatch victory. It was accentuated by a majority away up in the hundreds, and was succeeded by the capture of Vaudreuil, Que., by a Liberal, who took the seat vacated by an unseated Conservative. And within the past couple of months, the most signal triumph over the trade restrictionists of allthe winning by a leading Nova Scotia Liberal of the seat occupied for years by Sir John Thompson-was chronicled side by side with the announcement of the fact that in Vercheres, Que., neither the persistent coaxing of many Ministers, Local and Dominion, nor a big expenditure of bribery money, could win the constituency over to the trade restrictionists. It is well known that not only in $1,000 cash and call it square. Thus the majority of 46 chronicled as supporting the men now in power Cartwright was voted down cannot be taken as representing public opinion, 56 recorded for the same men on a simtlar occasion last year, be held to represent the views of the electorate in the present condition of affairs.

If, instead of voting down the common-sense resolution submitted by Sir Richard Cartwright, Parliament had ain, and even she has had a good deal supported it unanimously, and with one accord had begun to act up to it, how much more patriotic its conduct would every independent, self-supporting Canadian. The statement of facts, as set forth in the resolution voted down, was as follows: That the estimates for the fiscal year 1894-95 amount to the sum of $38,-517,152, independently of any further supplementary estimates which may be brought down.

'That the said sum of $38,517,152 is in excess of the amount expended in 1893-94 by the sum of $922,127.

That the deficit for the year 1893-94 amouted to $1,210,322. That the deficit for the present year is estimated by the Minister of Finance at $4,500,000. That from statements made by the Ministers of the Crown in this House it appears that our existing obligations for railway subsidies and for public works now in progress will involve a further outlay of $20,000,000, computed

"For railway subsidies now voted, $8,729,000.

"For the Intercolonial Railway and minor works, $1,000,000. "Total, $20,729,000.

"The interest on which sum, together with the subsidy provided by the statute to be paid on account of a fast Atlantic service, will entail an addition to our already very heavy annual fixed charges of $1,400,000.

"That inasmuch as enormous sums of money are exacted from the people of Canada which are not paid into the treasury, and inasmuch as the burthens of the people are thereby greater and unnecessarily increased, and it is of the most importance to the well-being of the community that not only should the present extravagant expenditure be diminished, but that the said burthens should be reduced as largely and speedily as possible, it is expedient that in making provision to restore the equilibrium between revenue and expenditure, as recommended in the speech from the throne, the existing tariff be so modified that it may be made a tariff for revenue only."

Since Sir Richard submitted this statement of Canada's present financial condition-at least, so far as the men now in power have deemed it wise to reveal it-the Finance Minister has handed in supplementary estimates, to meet which he demanded and will get another $1,143,206, making in all $39,and heavy pensions resulting therefrom to meet.

cent bye-elections have decreed. The majority in Parliament no longer represents public sentiment. The Ministers effectively proved this when they first made every preparation to hold an election in the spring of this year, and then, after they had thrown the country into a turmoil, and had discovered that the large majority of the electors were against them, they finally backed out, and without a legitimate excuse for their conduct, called a summer session of Parliament.

These men ordered that the statement of fact should be voted down, because of its truthfulness. When the electors are given the opportunity they in turn will be voted down and out.

HOW PUBLIC MONEY IS SQUAN-DERED.

As illustrating the manner in which the tax burdens of the Canadian public are piled on by the men now in power at Ottawa, the "Advertiser" has already given numerous facts and figures, proving that in recent years millions of dollars have been squandered. Here is an illustration in a new field.

To solace his wounded feelings, when Clarke Wallace was taken and he was left, Mr. Cockburn was sent to Chicago as Canadian commissioner at the recent exhibition. His receipted bills for personal expenses have now been presented to Parliament. They form a striking object lesson. Once in Chicago, Mr. Cockburn was no longer the simple educator of youth. No knight, no baron, no prince, could have spent public money with greater freedom than this Toronto M. P. (Specially telegraphed by our own Representative.)

Ottawa, Ont., May 30.-Today Mr. Foster moved the introduction of his bill to amend the Civil Service Superannuation Act, but was not in a position to inform the House of his reason for its introduction, the explanation he gave being too obscure to enable the House to deal with the bill intelligently or to say whether or not it should pass its first reading.

Mr. Laurier protested against its first reading until the Minister of Finance gave the House further information.

Mr. McMullin said the Minister of Finance had probably found the superannuating of efficient Government officials profitable, where places were required for relations of the Minister. Mr. Foster admitted that by the bill the Government were taking power to discriminate whether the full or part of the superannuation should be paid to any retiring official.

Mr. Landerkin failed to secure an answer to his question as to whether the Governor-General makes any recommendations to the Imperial Government with respect to the conferring of Imperial honors on Canadians, or, if not, do such recommendations emanate from his Excellency personally? Mr. Foster referred him to some British blue book, but persisted in his

Mr. Lister drew attention to the infrequency of meetings of the Public Accounts Committee, where some of the most important work of the session is transacted. He had no doubt the inquisitorial nature of this committee did not tend to popularize it among honorable genlemen opposite, and an emphasis of this fact was found in the manner in which they burked the committee. There had been but three meetings of the committee this session, and he thought that at least the committee should sit twice a week. The disclosure in connection with the Curran Bridge scandal, and the developing of a score of other scandals, was the result of the inquiry held before this committee into the relationship between the Government and Contractor St. Louis. If the Government were sure of the ground they stood on, they would not be afraid of having a little light let in upon their record, and the refusal or delay to call the committee together would justify the belief that they find it better to let well enough alone without facilitating or courting investigation.

Hon, David Mills called attention to the delay in bringing down the returns regarding the census of the city of London he had moved for three years ago. Every year he had been promised that the returns would be laid on the table of the House shortly, but it was still kept back. It was evident the Government had no intention of bringing it down if they could help it. The census had been framed to meet the Government's purpose, for which they were now being used, and as the Government were aware that the returns he asked for would dispel many of the pleasant theories set up for campaign purposes by the Government and its supporters, it was not difficult to account for the withholding of the information. It was practically saying: "We know the use to which you wish to apply these census returns, and we will hold them back." It was treating the House with contempt and a disgrace to Parliament. Mr. Davin (Conservative) sustained the point taken by Mr. Mills, and the principle of delaying to furnish the House with information moved for he

Several other members called the Government's attention to the contemptuous way in which they had been treated in the matter of bringing down information ordered by the House.

The House then went into committee on the bill for the better observance of Sunday. Mr. Charlton said he would be content with the adoption of those clauses prohibiting Sunday newspapers and the opening of canals. The bill met with the usual opposition. Finally the two clauses were amended agreeably to Mr. Charlton, but yet the bill was not reported. The committee rose and reported progress.

Mr. Davin's resolution in favor of Women Suffrage was further debated. Mr. Laurier had moved an amendment against the resolution on the ground that the Provinces should in favor of the resolution.

SENATE. The Senate Divorce Committee met under the chairmanship of Senator Kirchhoffer. The application of Julia Ethel Chute to be allowed to proceed for a divorce in forma pauperis was considered. Mr. Gemmill appeared for the petitioner, and gave evidence of her inability to pay the crown fee of $200. The committee decided to report in favor of remitting the fees.

In the application of Mr. Loop Sewell O'Dell for a divorce from his wife, Mr. Hogg, Q.C., appeared for the petitioner, and Mr. Pelletier and Mr. Gemmill for the defense. Defendant asked that the application for the divorce here be not proceeded with until an action for separation, now pending in the Quebec courts, had been determined.

The committee took up the case of Mrs. Faulding, of Ottawa, for a divorce from her husband, who, by the evidence, appeared to have been living in New York and other places with another woman as his wife. Mr. Gemmill and Mr. Lewis, of Toronto, for the petitioner. The committee determined upon reporting in favor of petitioner, Faulding, lived in Ottawa, Montreal

Before entering upon the evidence, Mr. Skimmer, of Kingston, as counsel for the wife, asked that the petitioner furnish moneys for the payment of his wife's counsel and witnesses in order to defend the application. Mr. Gemmill and Mr. May appeared for the petitioner. The evidence in the case will be heard tomorrow. NOTES. The banking and commerce committee this morning agreed to report a bill amending the act relating to the Manitoba and Northwest Loan Company. The bill incorporating the Bankers' Life Association of Canada was taken up, but not passed. Col. O'Brien said to your correspondent this afternoon that he had never voted with the Opposition on their financial policy, but he did not intend his vote with the Government last night to imply approval of the National Policy or of protection, to both of which he is opposed. In the Senate Mr. Boulton asked if the Hudson Bay Railway was acting within the law in fixing the point of the commencement of its line at Winnipeg, thence northerly. Premier Bowell said the Government did not know whether the company was acting within the law or not, nor whether it intended building the road at all. In reply to Mr. Davies, the Minister of Railways stated that a new timetable would be issued for the Intercolonial and Prince Edward Railways on Tuesday next.

The charge against Mr. Farrow, acting accountant of the Department of Customs, of retaining in his possession funds which should have gone to the credit of the Receiver-General is of the same nature as that preferred against Watters, who is now serving a term in prison. The amount involved is over $4,000. The case is in the hands of the Department of Justice.

The French Chamber of Deputies has voted urgency upon the Government demands for a credit of 250,000 francs to erect a monument to the memory of the French soldiers killed in the Franco-Prussian war in 1870.

Every Bone

In my body ached with the dreadful Rheuma tism which followed a severe cold. My sufferings were awful. I could not dress myself or comb my hair. My husband had to carry me up and down stairs. I was scarcely able to nurse my little one. Within two weeks after I began taking Hood's Sarsa. parilla, I felt better. Shortly I was able to walk up and down stairs without heip and finally I was cured. My friends thought I was Mrs. J. Blackburn going to be a cripple, but thanks to God for his blessing on Hood's Sarsa-parilla, I now enjoy good health. Mrs. John Blackburn, Lower Five Islands, Nova Scotia.

THE WHEEL. THE MARTIN ROAD RACE. Buffalo, May 30.—The Martin road race—the cycling event of Western New York and Pennsylvania and a portion of Ontario-was run today over tion of Ontario—was run today over the old course, terminating at the Par-ade House. There were 223 entries. Forty thousand people saw the finish at the Parade House, lining the last mile and a half of the course. The day was ideal—a warm sun with a cooling breeze. The men started at 3 o'clock. The course was in superb condition, as the fast time proved. The scratch men were Linneman, Steimal, Goehler, Ruse, Leonart, L. A. Callahan, C. H. Oallahan, of Buffalo; Hamilton, of Syracuse; Blake, of Tonawonda, and F. F. Radway, of London, Ont. Several of the scratch men were disabled before the 25 miles were run. W. M. Peckham, of the Press Cycling Club, with 8 1-2 minutes start, finished first in 1 hour, 16 minutes and 27 seconds. He was just ahead of D. Horton, a one-armed rider of Oswego, N. Y., who led the way into the last mile by two lengths. Peckham beat him out on the short-stretch of asphalt. Horton was a 9-minute man. The third man in was H. F. Huehn, of the Press Cycling Club, a 6-minute man, whose time was 1:14:06. The first scratch man was E. F. Leonert, who was the 31st man to cross the tape, winning the time prize in 1:10:30, thus breaking the 25-mile American competition road race record by seven seconds. L. A. Callahan held the record, which he made in the same race last year. Goehler and Callahan were the next scratch men in, but neither made records. The prize for the winner was a horse and buggy. One hundred prizes in all were distributed to the winners.

MORE THAN 50 CYCLISTS HURT. Chicago, May 30 .- The biggest road race ever run will probably be awarded to Homer Fairmon, who finished third in today's event. J. M. Dworak crossed the line first, and E. W. Fry, of Milwaukee, was about 200 years behind him. Close to Fry came Fairmon, and Geo. Emerson was not far off. Neither Dworak nor Fry rode the full course, and they were disqualified. Fairmon. who had a handicap of 5 minutes and 45 seconds, made the distance, which is estimated to be 19 3-4 miles, in 54 minutes and 30 seconds. Last year's time was 57:10. J. B. Woolas holds the record, which it was predicted would be broken this year, of 53:40. More than 50 men were hurt in one way or another, and at least that many failed to keep up pluck enough to go the entire 20 miles. A. P. Peck's collar bone was broken. J. D. Skelton's back was seriously strained. John Swarthout was knocked senseless by a collision with a pedestrian just after he had crossed the tane. and several others had to be carried home in carriages.

RECORD SMASHED. Newark, N. J., May 30 .- The Irving-Milburn 25-mile road race was won by F. W. Richt, of the Brooklyn Bicycle Club, with a handicap allowance of two minutes, in 1:04:03. This beats the recurrence on their way to Chicago from Monord made by A. H. Barnett, of the Crescent Wheelmen, in 1:11:08 last year. FAST TANDEM TIME.

London, May 30.-In a tandem safety bicycle race against time yesterday to beat the road record Holbein and Stocks did 100 miles in 4 hours, 46 minutes and 48 seconds, and covered the 220 1-2 miles from Hitchin to Peterboro in 12 hours.

SPOKES. At Millburn, N. J., 15,000 persons lined the course of the Irvington-Millburn handicap road race Thursday morning. THE TURF.

LORD ROSEBERY'S LUCK. London, May 30.—The race for the great Surrey Breeders' Foal Plate was won by Lord Rosebery's chestnut filly Avilian. Mr. Douglas Baird's bay colt Symington finished second, and Mr. A. W. Cox's chestnut filly Radiata was third.

DESPERATE THIEVES.

What Three Young Men Proved Themselves to Be.

County and City Residents Were Losers-Stole in Broad Daylight-Police Court Briefs.

Ever since they were nipped by the law at Kilworth on Saturday last, Geo. Howard, John Millick, and Albert Milton have hardly spent a day without being arraigned before magistrate or judge. By their own admissions they have proven themselves desperate thieves, and men who for the safety of the public are better behind prison bars. They have not entered houses in the country only, They struck the city on the morning of May 24, and ere they crossed the western boundary they had some of the contents of three houses. Here is a list of the places the gang entered and the goods stolen:

1. Farmer Clapperton's Nissouri township—Alarm clock and some minor

2. David Girvin's, Pottersburg-Gold watches, chains, bracelets, rings, brooches, lockets, and three suits of Mr. Girvin's Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes.

3. Mr. Lee's, Kilworth—Pair of trousers and other articles of clothing.

4. Henry St. George's, corner of Talbot and Bathurst street—Three pairs of trousers, one vest and $1 in cash. 5. Mrs. Musgrove's, York street—Pair of trousers, valued at $3. Howard, Millick and Milton were in the police court this morning, and pleadthe police court this morning, and pleaded guilty to robbing St. George's place.

Millick and Howard only were charged with stealing from Mrs. Musgrove's, and both confessed. Millick alone was accused of entering Mrs. McConnell's, 383 Colborne street, and taking two pairs of trousers, vest skate wrench.

pairs of trousers, vest, skate wrench, $3 in money, diamond pin, handkerchiefs, towels, etc.
"I don't know anything whatever about this case," said Millick, as he pleaded not guilty. "I remember all the other places.' The only articles found on the gang that were supposed to belong to Mrs. McConnell were a towel, three handkerchiefs and the skate wrench. These were positively identified by Mr. John Fortner, a boarder in the house.

"Your Honor," said Howard, with a very broad English accent, in defense of his pal, "I might say that the towel has been in our possession seven weeks." Millick was found not guilty on the charge, and the trio were remanded for sentence. Before being removed to the jail, the crowd were "mugged" in two different positions by the photographer of the police department, Detective Nickle. The pictures will adorn the rogues' gallery. The prisoners are all under 25, Milton apparently being about

THE ORDINARY GRIST. John Turner, blacksmith, was in the cage, and he had a badly bloated appearance. He went into Marcel Hoehn's store on Richmond street yesterday af-ternoon and told a tale of woe about his wife and three children being at the station and in very destitute circumstances. They were west-bound, and Turner wanted assistance. Turner was so sincere that Hoehn's treasury was reduced, but when Marcel saw he had been gulled he had Turner run in. John pleaded for leniency and got one month. Joseph Barrett, Larn Jarvis and Ade-treal, and were allowed to go. George Showler, for driving a horse with very sore shoulders, was fined $1. James Rowe, con. 13, Nissouri, would not have been in the city only that his aunt had sent him in to the city hospital to see his friend, Jack Gray, who was very liable to have his leg amputated. En route, however, James indulged and was arrested. His appeals for dismissal were futile—$2 or ten

Stephen Corbett, vagrancy, was allowed to go; a Michigan Central clerk rode on a path in Victoria Park, but was not fined; and breech of the bylaw cases against Draymen Jones, Williams, Twitchen and McKenzie were adjourned until Wednesday.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

Annual Meeting of the Ontario Cooperation

In the Christian Church, East End-The Ontario Christian Women's Board Also in Eighth Annual Conference.

The annual meeting or conference of the Disciples of Christ in Ontario began yesterday afternoon in the Christian Church at the corner of Dundas and Elizabeth streets. The attendance at the opening meeting was small, but an influx of delegates is expected today. It is believed that there will be at least 150 Disciples present at today's

The conference will last until noon on Monday. Today and tomorrow will see the Disciples in session from 9 a.m. until after 9 p.m., as three meetings will be held each day. On Sunday there will be a sunrise prayer meeting, morning worship, the Lord's Supper at 3 p.m., and preaching service again at night. In event of the church being too small to seat the congregation and the delegates, permission has been obtained to hold services on Sunday in the agricultural hall at the fair grounds.

The body is called "The Co-operation of Disciples of Christ in Ontario," and the following comprise the existing board of managers: President, Hugh Black, Rockwood; vice-president, John Campbell, Erie Mills, St. Thomas; recording secretary, J. W. Kilgour, Guelph; corresponding secretary, T. L. Fowler, London; treasurer, John Mc-Kinnon, Everton; J. H. H. Jury, Bowmanville; Thomas Whitehead, Walkerton; John Black, Rockwood; A. J. Thomson, Hillsburg; S. F. McKee, Erin;

George Munro, Hamilton. To the vice-president, Mr. John Campbell, St. Thomas, devolved the task of opening the meeting yesterday afternoon. The president, Mr. Hugh Black, of Rockwood, Ont., is absent under more than ordinarily sad circumstances. He is at Cook's Mills, Algoma, endeavoring to recover the body of his son, who taught school there, and who was drowned on Wednesday last. The meeting opened with devotional exercises. Then the minutes of the last annual meeting were read and confirmed. After that several comittees were appointed, and then the proceedings took the form of a social meeting, adjourning at 5 o'clock.

The church was well filled in the evening, when Rev. W. D. Cunningham, pastor of the Church of Christ, St. Thomas, preached. He based his remarks on the following verse from saiah, xl., 1: "Arise, shine, for thy night has come, and the glory of the Lord is upon them," and this verse from Ephesians, v., 14: "Wherefore he sayeth, Awake them that sleepest and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

The preacher expressed his pleasure at meeting so many who worshiped Christ in the same manner as himself, and went on to dwell of the majesty of the sun and all the powers deriv-able from the sun's rays. Well might Jesus Christ, then, be called the Sun of Righteousness. As the earthly sun was the source of earthly life and light, so the Sun of Righteousness awoke to spiritual and eternal life those who slept. He urged his hearers to live high, noble, grand lives, such as the Master would have them live. How could they live idly and contemplate the destruction of souls and not be moved to save them? God set them as watchmen on the hills, and bade them to be thoroughly alive to the condition of their own and other souls. Christ died for all, and how could they slumber while others died? The sermon was an earnest appeal to all to awake from lethargy and make an effort to save sinners. A liberal collection was taken up.

NOTES.

Each contributing church is entitled to two delegates. Each Sunday school to one delegate, and each Young People's Society to one delegate.

Rev. George Munro, Hamilton, editor of the Disciple of Christ, the organ of the Co-operation, is present at the meeting.

A correct list of delegates will not be obtainable until the enrollment committee prepares its report. The eighth annual convention of the Ontario Christian Woman's Board of Missions commences in the school room of the church at 9 o'clock this morning. The officers are: President, Mrs W. B. Malcolm, 620 Church street, To-roto; corresponding secretary, Miss L. V. Rioch, 225 Maria street, Hamilton treasurer, Miss Jennie Fleming, Kil-

Two papers, one by Mrs. Lhamon, on 'Woman's Work in the Church," the other by Miss M. A. Sinclair, on 'The Work of the O. C. W. B. M. and Its Possibilities," will be read during the convention.

ANOTHER RESOLUTION. To the Editor:

The quarterly board of the Colborne Street Methodist Church at its last meeting put the following resolution:
"Whereas, the license commissioners of the city have seen fit to limit the hours of sale for licensed liquor establishments to 10 p.m., and whereas, the Ontario Government have decided that standard time shall regulate in all places, thus settling the technicality raised by the liquor dealers; and whereas, no good reason has been given for the extension of time one hour, as the said commissioners have seen fit to do; therefore, as a board, we desire to express our strong disapproval of the action of these officials, believing it to be contrary to the wish of the majority, as shown by the vote in this city and elsewhere, and contrary to the expressed promise of the Ontario Government to do all they can legally to hinder and not help this traffic in intoxicating drinks.

W. RIGSBY, Chairman. J. NICHOLSON, Secretary.

-Mr. John Law has been interesting himself to get a good collection of geological Spring 6 3 6 5 6 3 6 specimens for London. He wrote to Sir John Carling, now in Ottawa, on the sub- ada. ject. Sir John handed the letter over to Mr. Burgess, Deputy Minister of the Interior, who saw Dr. Dawson. The chief of the geological survey informed the Deputy Minister that no specimens were now available, but that Mr. Law's application on behalf of the geological section of the Entomological Society of Lon-don was filed, and would likely be filled in the fall when the geological staff returns from the field. Mr. Law believes Victoria Park to be the best place in which to exhibit the specimens, but he would not object to have the collection at Springbank. -"See here," said Mr. Patrick Tynan, of the second ward, yesterday, as he walked into the "Advertiser" editorial room, "I have been a citizen here for 25 years, and I can do as good a day's work as any man in the city. I served in the Burmese campaign; I was through the Indian mutiny, and wounded in the defense of my country. Then, should I not have some consideration from city officials? Resterlay I asked Richard Okes, a foreman in charge of a ward, for a job on the streets, but he told me he could not put me on without the authority of the city engineer, and was informed that they had enough men without me. Why should I not get my share of work as well as other men? I have to get a living, and surely I should receive fair consideration at the ban's of city officials." The address will be printed in the paper of the body. Rev. P. Baker, Everton, presented the report of the committee on statistics. is pointed out that if a congregation of the body of the church does not care to report it doesn't need to. Therefore, the figures presented were not as com-plete as they might otherwise be. There are now 64 congregations of Disciples in Ontario, with an estimated total membership of 4,000. There were 300 additions by baptism to the church body during the year, and total contributions amounting to $21,864 77. The contributions to home and foreign missions were most encouraging. The report was discussed and ad-

J. Lediard, Owen Sound, presented the report of the committee on Sunday schools, and stated that the committee was looking forward to greater things. Their growth as a people would be largely from Sunday school ranks, and kee, and Frank, of this city, brothers of it called for their very best work. There was no other field so rich in results as that field. The report urged that teachers make special effort to visit the homes of their pupils. The committee were also especially anxious to see the schools take a larger interest in their home missions.

The church in St. Thomas reported 60 additions to the membership of the church by way of the Sunday school.

This report was also adopted. The report of the committee on educational work was prepared by Mr. John Munro, Toronto. As Mr. Munro was charged $6. On the lawn he could use as read by Mr. James Lediard, of Owen

HEART-BEATS.

The Reason Why the Heart Flutters, Palpitates and is Oppressed, and How to Relieve It.

The heart has a hard old time of it, and within itself does not excite much disease, but is very often called upon to display the troubling symptoms of palpitation, fluttering, labored breathing, oppression, etc., on account of diseased Kidneys offering increased resistance to the passage of the blood through their defective secretive structures, causing a morbid change in the blood unsuited to nourish the tissues and noxious to them. The minute arteries resist the passage of this foul blood, resulting in the muscular walls of the arteries and the ventricles of the heart becoming partially paralyzed, and from this cause results much of the so-called heart disease, which is owing to wasting Kidneys not being able to perform their functions. In order to relieve heart trouble remove the cause in the Kidneys with Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They relieve the blood of poisonous deposits, it goes on its way a stream of health, relieving the heart and imparting strength to every tissue of the body. When your heart is in trouble Chase's Pills quickly remove the causing condition, no matter whether it exists on account of disorder of the kidneys, liver, stomach, or of nervous affection. Searching for Bodies From the Wrecked Colima.

The Death List Placed at 184-Good Will of the People.

San Francisco, May 30.-A special from the City of Mexico says: Only a meager telegram has been received here from the Colima wreck. At 10 o'clock last night a message was received from the Pacific mail agency at Manzanillo saying that the number of lost is 160 and the saved 21.

New York, May 31.—The Herald's special from Manzanillo, Mexico, says: The latest advices from the scene of the wreck of the Pacific mail steamship Colima, which was lost on Monday last, near Cuyutlan, state that of the seamen and passengers on board only 29 were saved. This, if correct means that about 184 lives were lost. This reckoning may be altered in a few hours, when news is received from some of the searching parties scouring the coast. It is now known that the Colima was driven upon the reef which sent her to the bottom by a furious hurricane, which had rendered her unmanageable long before she struck, and during which her captain, J. F. Taylor, her first officer and chief engineer were killed by flying spars.

Every craft for miles along the coast is out looking for survivors and bringing in the many bodies which are being washed ashore. In this perhaps the frantic good-will of the people here is shown best. Not a body has been found that was not instantly surrounded by natives, who toiled for hours in the hope of resuscitating, no matter how hopeless the task.

The Norman sank carrying down with her the steward's wife, a watchman, and a deck hand. The Jack was affoat at last accounts, but in a badly damaged condition. Her captain, mates and engineer refused to leave her and are still on the boat. The survivors of the Norman took to life boats and were picked up.

A Lost Gem

Molly listened to his story, smiled at his harmless vanity, and promised, almost with her old galety, to take tea with him some afternoon at his lodgings. She made a careful note of the address; but as the weeks wore on, Bertie found that she made no exertion to come to see him. She looked white and more worn than ever, and once even burst into tears as he kissed her, and begged him not to visit her again. John did not like it.

"He is a perfect brute," said Bertie, recounting this incident to Captain Rutherford ome evening-without any thought of breach of confidence, for by this time he was in the habit of pouring out all his thoughts quite freely to his friend. "I wish we had never seen him." Rutherford did not speak, but he mentally re-echoed the wish. "It's impossible for her to be happy with him," Bertie went on, vehemently. 'Why, he is away from her more than half of his time. I don't think London suits her, either. I wish we could get her back to Torresmuir and pension him off, somehow."

Charlie smiled at his boyish simplicity. "She might not approve," he said,

"I should think that she would be very glad. How the wind blows to-night! Is it raining, or freezing, or "Raining, I think. It is warmer than usual for the end of November." He started a little as he spoke, for at that moment a loud knock was heard at the front door. "Christmas will be here directly," said Bertie, with the air of one who makes a wise remark. "Now, if I can get my father to ask Molly to spend Christmas with us-"What's that?" said Rutherford, suddenly. There was a startled look in his eyes. Bertie listened. Voices were heard in the passage, and steps, and opening doors. Something unexpected had evidently happened in the house. Bertie's landlady now presented herself, with a puzzled face. "There's a lady wanting to see you, sir," she said, doubtfully, and before she could explain a wild-looking, wet. bedraggled figure had stumbled rather than walked into the room. Both young men sprang to their feet with an exclamation of dismay. For it was Molly who stood before them, and who, after moment's pause, threw herself into Bertie's arms and burst out sobbing

'I've come to you; I had nowhere else to go," she panted. "He's turned me out-turned me out into the street!"

"Molly! not your husband?" "Yes, my husband," she said, with passionate emphasis, lifting her head and showing her flushed wet face: "the husband for whom I deceived my father and left my home. Oh, they can't say that I have not been punished now!"

She had no hat or bonnet on her head, and her hair was darkened and straightened by the rain drops that had fallen upon it; but, dropping loosely from her shoulders, it showed that she was in evening dress-a soft, primrosecolored silk, which left her white neck and arms bare, save for some softlyclustering laces and pearl ornaments. "But you have not come like this? You have not walked?" cried Bertle. "Yes; I had no money."

"But I could have paid a cabman at the door! To think of your walking through the streets at this time of night like this-

"Oh, it's nothing; I did not mind that," said Molly, wearily. She disen-gaged her arms from her brother's neck and sank into the nearest chair. Then, for the first time, she became aware of Captain Rutherford's presence. But nothing seemed to startle her. She looked at him with a passionately pleading expression which struck him dumb. "I can't help it!" she broke out. "You need ot condemn me a second time! It is ot my fault.

"Molly, Molly, hush! Why should Charlie Rutherford condemn you?" said Bertie, in bewilderment. "He is only sorry for you-as I am-as we all-" "Are you sorry for me?" said the girl.

"Oh, that is perhaps the worst of it! That you should all have to be sorry for me-and I was once so proud and so light-hearted and so sure of my own good fortune. And what am I to do

"Is there nothing that we can do for you?" said Rutherford, in a choked "If you could only make me useful-if you could send me anywhere, or tell me to do anything for you-" "There's that fellow to be punished!" Bertie burst out, in a fury. "I'll go myself-I'll telegraph to father-he de-erves a thorough horse-whipping." Charlie Rutherford wished that the boy had held his tongue. He agreed with the sentiment, but thought it would have been better to leave it unexpressed until punishment had been inflicted. He was afraid of the effect on Molly's mind. John Hannington would have had a very poor chance indeed if he had been just then at the mercy of these two indignant, hotblooded young men. And the knowledge of this was suddenly revealed to Molly in her newly-purchased wisdom of womanhood; the knowledge of the harm and the scandal and the disgrace which were impending, and which she, and she only, could avert. She looked from one to the other, and then, moved by a sudden impulse, she gave her hand first to her brother for a moment and then to Rutherford.

"You are both kind-both my friends," she said; "and I shall trust you both. But there is nothing for you to do. Neither of you must lay a finger on my husband. If you do, I will never speak to you again."

Charlie flushed up; Bertie gave & quick, sharp exclamation of disgust. "That's a woman's view—a girl's view," he said. "We cannot—I cannot promise to sit down and do nothing."

"You are only a boy," said Molly, with a little gasp, which was perhaps meant for a sort of laugh; "and you cannot do anything yourself. And it is not Captain Rutherford's business. I shall leave everything to my father. I shall tell him all. He will know what must be

"Shall I telegraph to him for you?"

said Charlie, quickly. "Thank you. Yes—directly. Wait a moment. You must not think things worse than they are. I provoked him and he had taken too much wine." She began to tremble as she spoke. "I reproached him with—with one or two things that he had told me, and he grew very angry; and then I told him of one wicked, foolish thing that I had done took some letters of his once and sent them away to a person who-oh, I can't tell it you all, but I acted very badly, and in my own anger I told him of it for the first time. You see, he had some right to be angry. He did not know what he was doing-I am sure he did not-for he had never struck me be-

"Struck you? Molly, Molly!" As if involuntarily, she glanced at her arm, from which the cloak had slipped down. There was a bruise upon the slender wrist. She drew her draperies over it, and held them there while she went on.

"He did not know; he was never unkind in that way before. But he was mad with anger and with what he had drunk, and he took me by the shoulders and put me out at the door, and said that I should never darken his house again. I snatched up this cloak as I went through the outer hall. I believe he meant to take me in again, for when I had gone down the road a little way I heard him open the door again and call me. But I was frightened-so frightened that I ran on and on; and I asked my way of a policeman, and at last I got here.'

Charlie Rutherford's face was white with rage. "Look here," he said to Bertie abruptly, "I am going. Your sister should not sit in her wet things. Get your landlady to attend to her. I'll telegraph to your father in your name."

"Wait, please," said Molly. It was strange to hear the decision that had come into her fresh young voice, "Come here for one minute, Captain Rutherford. You say you will be my friend."

"Always." "Then, please, go to the telegraph office and send a message from me, not from Bertie. 'I have no home now; may I come to you tomorrow?' That is all that I want to say in a telegram. I do not think that my father will refuse to take me in."

"No. No, indeed." "And then, Captain Rutherford, you will go straight home, will you not? And you will see me off with Bertle to-morrow morning? I shall start at 10 o'clock, whether I hear from my father or not. And you will do nothing else?" He was obliged to promise that he would do nothing else. He saw that she was afraid lest he might try to precipitate matters-see John Hanningon, perhaps, and be unable to control his indignation. And her look of relief and gratitude was the more pronouned because she suffered a moment's fear when she saw his stern, set face. It was not very late, and he was able to telegraph at once. He knew that the message would not reach Torresmuir until the morning, as the house was some distance form the telegraph office; nevertheless, he felt a sense of having accomplished something when it was dispatched. And then he wondered restlessly whether Bertie was looking well after his sister-whether the landlady would give her dry clothes and warm drinks and a comfortable room; and he wished with all his heart that his mother had been in London then. so that he might send her to Molly's aid. For Lady Rutherford was a kindhearted woman, and would have come at a moment's notice to the daughter of her old friend, Alan Moncrieff.

The purchase of the Harris residence on Brant avenue, Brantford, by the Young Women's Christian Association is nearly completed. The purchase price was $3,900, and the sum has been raised by the women interested in the work. The treasurer's estimates for the county of Kent for 1895 have been drawn up. They amount to $36,258 58. The group municipality bonus for the Erie and Huron Railway is $6,693 42.

These figures are somewhat larger than for last year. A simple means of destroying curculio on plum trees is this: Procure a sheet of sticky fly paper, wrap it tightly around the trunk of the tree, sticky side out, and tie at top with a cord to hold it in place. Constable Dyson, of Guelph, has resigned. He was sick of his job, and claims that for a long time the chief of police and a sergeant had been anxious to get rid of him. One constable is now under suspension, and further trouble in the force is expected. At a meeting of the West Elgin Re-formers held in Dutton these officers were chosen: President, A. D. McGugan; vice-president, W. A. Galbraith; secretary-treasurer, C. S. Leitch. The chairmen for the various municipalities in 1894 were reappointed. Frank Elliott, an employe at Chrystal's boiler works, Goderich, was considerably injured by the explosion of lead that he was pouring into a clay mould. Elliott's eyes are injured, but though one of them is rather badly burnt inside and around the lid it is unlikely that he will lose the sight of either. A very bold attempt was made on Monday night to burn the old foundry on Charles street, Ingersoll, but it was discovered in time to prevent what certainly would have been a very serious blaze. David McGuire, a passer-by, discovered the blaze, and on breaking open the engine room door, found a coat, saturated with coal oil, on fire. John W. Garvey died at his home, 60

Lytle street, Chicago, aged 53 years. Mr. Garvy was president of the West Park Board for a year, and was a member of the Chicago Board of Education for six years previous to 1888. He was born in Goderich, Canada, and spent his early years on a farm, but during his 30 years' residence in the Windy City was engaged in contracting. He left a widow, seven children and a fortune. Mrs. Walter West, Guelph township, an old and esteemed resident of that section, is dead. She was born in Shabwick, near Bridgewater, Somersetshire, England, and came to this country in 1850, shortly after her marriage with Mr. West. They settled in Eramosa, about two miles from the present homestead in Guelph township, on which they have resided for the past 25 years. Wm. J. Hooper died at his father's residence, Port Stanley road, Yarresult of paralysis, aged 31 years. Mr. E. A. Hanies, of Aylmer, has filed for probate the will of Leonard Cine, Aylmer, who died May 17, in the 80th year of his age. The deceased left an estate valued at about $150,000, of which $71,596 91 is in Ontario. The estate is left to relatives, with the exception of $300 to Aylmer Baptist Church and $200 to Aylmer Baptist Church Sunday

The assessment roll of the township of Ekfrid for 1895 was confirmed at the last meeting of the council. There were no appeals. The following are the figures: Acres, 53,444.42; acres cleared, 33,-525.86; value of real property, $2,003,040; personal property, $29,360; taxable income, $300; statute labor, 2,404 days; number of dogs, 244; female dogs, 11 number of residents, 2,664; births, 53; deaths, 24; cattle, 6,084; sheep, 2,353; hogs, 3,223; horses, 1,979; acres under fall wheat, 5,223; steam engines, 19; acres of orchard and garden, 791; acres of woodland, 18,687; acres of swamp or waste land, 1.231.

Instructor Millar, of the Western Dairymen's Association, held a meeting for instruction at Lucan on Monday and Tuesday.

Owing to their craving appetites for spring lambs, the dogs owned by Councilor Morton, of Ailsa Craig, and Mr. A. Stewart, con. 7, McGillivray, were disposed of.

Government drain No. 1, in the town-ships of Ekfrid, Caradoc and Metcalfe, is about to be enlarged and straightened at a cost of $9,900. The high school senior leaving and university honor matriculation examinations begin on July 11. Fred. Curtz has purchased Mrs. Clark's 50-acre farm on con. 9, McGilli-George Scates, reeve of Ekfrid, was unfortunately caught in a harrow on Friday last, but on Monday he was enabled to attend the council with the aid of a crutch. The second anniversary of the North Ekfrid Presbyterian Church will be celebrated on Sunday and Monday, June 9 and 10. On Sunday Rev. A. Henderson, of Appin, will preach at 11 a.m., Rev. R. W. Ross, of Glencoe, at 3 p.m., and Rev. A. Miller, of Mosa, at 7 p.m. On Monday evening there will be the usual tea meeting and musical and literary entertainment. Glencoe bakers have raised the price of bread to 7 cents a loaf. BABIES

LACTATED FOOD

During the last few months scores of Infants have been saved in Canada. Mothers have written about the won ders accomplished by Lactated Food, and assert that it saved the lives of their darlings. The saved babies, before using Lactated Food, were puny, weak and sickly, and some had been given up to die. Lactated Food is doing this grand work every day. When the mother can-not nurse her babe, when the little one's stomach is so weak that it cannot retain other foods, Lactated Food is always retained and relished.

Song of the Washboard. Endless rubbing-tiresome, ruinous, backbreaking; wear and tear on things rubbed;

wear and tear on temper and health; wear and tear on everything—even the washboard itself. It's all done away with, if you use Pearline. There is no washboard; no rubbing; there's no wear, and there's little work. It's the only sensible way of washing-easy, economical, and, above all things, absolutely safe. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers tell you "this is as the same as Pearlit's FALSE—IT'S FALSE—and if your grocer sends ou something in place of Pearline, be honest—and it back. 413 JAMPS PYLE, N. Y.

OTHERS, Do You Know that Paregorie, an's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are experying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons? Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is vegetable preparation, and that a liet of of all other remedies for children combined? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word

"Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense! Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35

A New Remedy in General Use in Manitoba and the Northwest. Winnipeg, May 27 .- The effects of the regular waves of sickness which sweep over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggists' sales. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the Province and
