The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Gallery of Canada,
Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Remarks . . .

THE collecting of Works of Art is playing an ever-increasing part in the lives of many of our citizens, not only of large, but even moderate means, and with this fact in mind, and knowing also that there is a genuine appreciation of really fine works on the part of Toronto's art-loving public, we have much pleasure in presenting for your inspection this, our annual collection of paintings by standard British and Foreign artists, knowing it to be superior to any we have yet had the honor of offering.

We have made a departure this year from our usual course, and considerably increased the time for exhibiting the pictures previous to the sale, believing that a better opportunity will thus be afforded intending purchasers of becoming thoroughly acquainted with the merits of the various works beforehand.

All the pictures will be offered to the highest bidder, without reserve, and we respectfully solicit the honor of your attendance at the Exhibition and Sale.

ROBERTS & SON.

Terms of Sale.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and resold.
2. All bills must be paid in cash before delivery, and the purchases removed at expense of buyer within twenty-four hours after the conclusion of sale.
3. The sale of any painting is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. All works are exposed for public exhibition before the sale, and are sold just as they are, without recourse.
4. We will not be responsible for goods damaged in delivery.

OLIVER RHYS.

The work of this gifted artist reminds one at first sight forcibly of Alma Tadema, and even upon examination the difference is not very perceptible, the same fine draught-manship and strength of coloring being apparent in each. Mr. Rhys' artistic career has been a varied one, and passed for the most part in Paris and Italy. He was intimately acquainted and worked with many celebrated painters, including Meissonier, Van Haanen, Luke Fildes, Fiith and Lord Leighton. The example herein represents the artist at his best, and it is hoped will meet with generous competition at the hands of the public.
