VI-COCOA

Mother will be well advised in giving Tommy a cup of Vi-Cocoa before he goes to school these winter mornings, and she will find that Tommy takes to it very readily. The "Vi-Cocoa" habit is of real value for growing children. Vi-Cocoa costs no more than ordinary Cocoa, and it is much more nutritious.

Irish Leaders Invited to Meet Prime Minister.

Labor Federation Gives Gompers Large Majority--Southern Parliament of Ireland Opens Tomorrow--Owners and Operatives to Confer.

PROPOSED IRISH CONFERENCE.

LONDON, June 26. Premier Lloyd George has sent a letter to both Edmond De Valera, Irish Republican Leader, and Sir James Craig, Ulster Premier, as follows:—"The British Government is deeply anxious that, as far as they are assured it, the King's appeal for reconciliation shall not have been made in vain. Rather than allow any opportunity for settlement to be cast aside, they feel it incumbent on them to make a final appeal in the spirit of the King's words for a conference here in London, in company with Sir James Craig, to explore to the utmost possibility of settlement; second, that you should bring with you for that purpose any colleagues whom you may select. The Government will, of course, give safe conduct to all who may be chosen to participate in the conference. We make this invitation with the fervent desire to end the serious conflict which for centuries has divided Ireland and embittered the relations of the people on these islands, who ought to live in neighborly harmony with each other, and whose co-operation would mean much, not only to the Empire, but to humanity. We wish that no party should be lacking on our part to realize the King's prayer, and we hope to meet you, as we will meet you in the spirit of reconciliation, for which His Majesty appeals. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, LOYD GEORGE."

Laid to Rest.
 The funeral of the late Mr. James Pollard, who passed away on Friday last, after a very short illness of pneumonia, took place yesterday (Sunday) afternoon, a very large concourse of citizens attending. Interest was in the General Protestant cemetery, the service at the home and graveside being conducted by Rev. Mr. Forbes, pastor of Gower Street Methodist Church, of which the deceased was a member. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, and testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The family has the sympathy of their many friends in their sad hour of bereavement.

Better and Cheaper Food

Perhaps there is nothing more interesting to the poorer people of Newfoundland to-day than that they should have better food at less price. Three facts are of interest in discussing this important matter:—

1. That there is an alarming increase of ber-beri and food deficiency diseases reported from various sections of the Colony.
2. That there is a marked difference in the ability of the average people to spend as much money in food during the last six months compared with previous years.
3. That habits have caused people to demand certain kinds of diet, which are really the most expensive ways of supplying the absolutely essential food which their bodies need. Indeed that the desire for expensive high proteid diets, such as meat and white flour, and for stimulants like tea, that carries no nourishment are so strong that, like intoxicants and tobacco and any other luxury, they actually prefer insufficient food, when if they wisely laid out their money they would obtain all they need, not only to sustain life, but to build up stronger and healthier bodies.

Careful and scientific studies made during war time and peace time, in the lives of those of leisure and those of strain, have shown that a man can be healthy on as low as 1500 calories a day, and that 2500 is a generous allowance. This can be obtained by knowing how to buy, how to cook and how to serve it, without any real sacrifice of pleasure whatever. The gastronomic instincts can be as easily trained as any other, and whole nations have learned to live and infinitely prefer a cheaper low proteid vegetable diet to a high meat one. One spends a dollar a day, the other plenty on twenty-five cents a day.

The climate and the life of Newfoundland with our British training, makes us like our roast beef, but roast beef is not necessary to health and a diet of it in these strenuous times is far beyond the reach of many of our people, yet even if they wished they could not avoid the semi-starvation of so many unnecessarily suffer from, because they have not been taught the rudiments of nutritional values.

The Committee of the King George Fifth Seamen's Institute are of the opinion that education in the schools is not complete if it does not teach the pupils how to adjust themselves to their environment. To teach arithmetic and grammar and to die of ber-beri while the means to prevent it is in the house, is a severe criticism on our educational system. To teach Latin and Greek, and to go forth in the world with only a vision of getting a bank account, owning a gawa, and how to make up with order and patches is a limited education. In Glovertown this spring a young Newfoundland fisherman of eighteen years died of ber-beri. They had a yeast plant growing in the house and cod liver oil in the store, which would have supplied the indispensable vitamins for want of which he was dying. His family admit, moreover, that to the bitter end they fed him on the "best white flour."

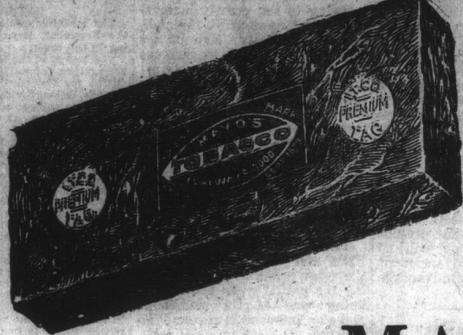

When war compelled our people to eat war flour in the North, where poverty and monotony of diet, cause in the children and even in the adults, the people may have protested that they were being fed dog food, but they markedly improved in muscular development and vitality. Still in Newfoundland the large amount of adult pauper relief is given entirely in white flour and the only reason given (that I know of) is that no Government would dare to risk the opposition of the people to such a paternal move. People who have not been instructed in the modern advances of medical knowledge cannot be expected to realize that Graham bread would be infinitely better for their minds by recognized authorities who have their well being at heart. We would point out that many efforts have been made in recent years to insist that all pauper relief should be given in poor wheat flour, cocoa and sugar or molasses, or corn meal, oatmeal and undermilled rice and other less expensive and more nutritious foods. At this crisis in our history we desire to bring before the people the colony the great need that exists for education in these matters in every school in the Colony, and to ask the co-operation of the Board of Education, through their school teachers, the clergy and all who love their country and fellow men, to unite in teaching by example and precept these important practical truths. In extensive graphic charts suited to the mental capacity of the most uneducated, and for children, are now published specially designed for teaching these truths. In England, United States and Canada these and other methods of teaching vital facts are largely in use, and for comparatively negligible outlay can be procured for our schools.

We would also like the public to know that the Grenfell Association of Newfoundland has six highly trained nutritional teachers now at work in the North, holding clinics on these subjects. The workers are able by actual experiment to prove what the charts teach. It may be of interest to know that these workers are volunteers, paying all their own expenses, including their board and lodging, in order to obtain the opportunity of giving to their fellow men, what at present, so many of them cannot otherwise obtain.

To Mayor Gosling.

As citizens we bid you "An revoir" Your official post, full loyally you've held For seven long years, and now with courtesy and smile, You leave your post whilst critics all are quieted.

You've had misfortunes great and small, E'en criticized beyond recall. As a sturdy son of Britain's soil, you praise now we sing. Our best respects we pay to you. Ex-Mayor Gosling.

We wish you all in life that's best You missed, while at your civic desk. Peace and contentment, perfect rest From "councillors" and "public press" And may the coming years remove the rust. From off the eyes of those, who would bury in the dust. A FREE LANCE.

How the Money Went.

SNOW SHOVELLING AT HOLYROOD
 Appended herewith is a copy of one of the returns in connection with the Government's famous snow shovelling campaign in Harbor Main district just previous to the bye-election last March. This return sheet shows that the amount of $238.21 was allocated on account of special work, viz snow shovelling at Holyrood. The report is signed by C. R. Kennedy who received $11.11 cents, or 5% for commission. Mr. Michael Kennedy as foreman who evidently put in 4 hours more time than any other man received as his share $16.00 at a rate of 50 cents per hour. Whether the rate of pay which on other public roads was 25 cents per hour, was in this instance raised as an inducement in view of the election, the return sheet does not state. The discrepancy in the amount of work given would point to discrimination and readers may judge if it was used in favor of the Government candidates Messrs. Hawco and Pury.

Quarter Deck Vocabulary.

(From the New York Evening Post.)
 Something in the nature of an admiral conduces to strong language. It is doubtful if any scheme limiting naval armaments will ever succeed in limiting the vocabulary of a high naval officer at a public function. But after all, if an admiral must be indiscreet, the safest place for him to be indiscreet is on land. It was none of Rear Admiral Sims' business to analyze the American voting public for a British audience. But precisely because it was not his business to do so there is no very great harm done. The most vigorous manipulators of the British language have been regularly found in the ranks of the British Navy, whether active or retired. Jackie Fisher was unquestionably the most amusing letter writer the London Times could master. The late Charlie Bessford was greatly beloved for the temporary little amitties he made. All the bluster of the sea cannot be pencilled out of the speech of an admiral on vacation. The "Dams the torpedoes" spirit has its appeal to the popular mind, even when the torpedoes, as in the case of Admiral Sims, happen to be Secretary of the Navy Daniels or a congressman the admiral disapproves of. The earliest admiral we know of the man who commanded the associated navies of the world, would seem to have been a fair-spoken man on board ship; but even Noah got into trouble when he struck land. The point is that naval language, on leave, needs to be heavily discounted. Most admirals who say "Never, never," if the question were put to him would probably admit, like Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B., "Well, hardly ever."

DIAMOND DIST TO-DAYS MESSAGES.

NEXT GAME.

As Friday is a whole holiday a double-header has been ordered by the League. The morning clash will be between the B.L. and Cubs while in the afternoon the contestants will be the C.E.I. and Red Lions. To the stay-in-town fans this announcement of games will be hailed with delight.

THE A.A.A.

An unsigned communication addressed to the editor of this Column asks what has become of the A.A.A. It is hardly within the province of our Column to answer this enquiry but for the benefit of the enquirer and for the information of the public generally we would say that the Association requested the various Leagues to appoint two of its members to comprise the A.A.A. executive, but to date no reply has been received from either the Hockey or the Football Leagues. Messrs. Orr and Chesman have been chosen to represent the baseballers. In the meantime a request has been made to Mayor Goulding for the control of the Parade Ground, and the Council is now awaiting a report from their solicitors as to their powers in the matter. It is of course impossible to have a meeting unless the other delegates are appointed, and it is hoped that this will be done at once. A definite reply from the Council is expected this week.

SCOUT COMING.

We understand that a gentleman prominently identified with Baseball has received information that the scout from the Bridgeport Conn. team (who play in the Eastern League) is a passenger by the present "Rosalia". Since fancy deliveries such as the spit ball, the shine ball, etc., are strictly taboo in the big leagues, there is consequently a great dearth of pitchers with effective curves and good control. It is not unlikely therefore that some overtures will be made one or two of our local boys to try their luck in fast professional company.

THE JUNIORS.

"Babe Ruth Jr." wants to know if it is the intention of the League to promote the junior leagues again this season. Perhaps President Orr, or Messrs. Hartnett and French (the junior league officers) could answer.

Notice to Motorists and Cabmen.

Dear Sir—The attention of Motorists and Cabmen is particularly drawn to the fact that the Road Commission and Board of Works Department are making repairs to the Portugal Cove Road and all concerned are asked to approach sections of the road on which repairs are being effected, carefully. That section of the Portugal Cove Road beginning at St. John's Bridge and proceeding West is being repaired and at present does not permit pleasant driving. It is suggested, that when possible, motor drivers and cabmen proceed to or from the Cove via Robinson's Hill. Attention is also drawn to that section known as Bell's Turn or Rankin's Hill, as very considerable repairs are being effected and careful driving is necessary on this section, and a more particular attention is requested to that section beginning at Murray's Pond and proceeding into Portugal Cove. There are three teams employed and a considerable amount of blasting will be carried out beginning with to-day. It is therefore imperative that all drivers take particular note and be ready to stop when signalled.

TOPSAIL ROAD.

Beginning this morning several teams will be working in conjunction with road making machinery along that section from Mt. Pearl Road to Gibbet's or Coward's farm, and the co-operation of all interested is asked so that the work of the teams employed will not be disturbed any more than is absolutely necessary. It is suggested that the Old Placerville Road and Wireless Road be used during this week.

TOPSAIL HILL.

The middle section of this hill near Arthur Duff's has been recently repaired and has not yet had time to set in. Please drive slowly over new road. Particular attention is drawn to that section near Peter Duff's residence as teams and men are working and considerable amount of blasting is taking place. Please be prepared to obey all signals to stop. Attention is also drawn to the fact that a considerable amount of repairs has now been completed along the Chamberlain's section and motorists are asked to drive carefully over new work, and also be prepared to stop at signals when approaching that section near Mahan's Bridge, as it is anticipated workmen will have to blast out a few boulders along this section.

TORBAY AND POUCH COVER ROADS.

This road has been temporarily repaired and owing to recent wet weather is likely to give some little trouble and drivers are asked to be careful until the roadbed has had sufficient time to set in.

PETTY HARBOUR ROAD.

It is also anticipated that several teams will be placed on Petty Har. Road and the same co-operation is asked for teams work on this section. By paying attention to these matters the work of the Commission and Public Works Dept. to improve our roads will be helped considerably. Yours truly, THOS. SOPER.

THE BIG MILL.

Dear Peegee—Should Carpenter defeat Dempsey when they meet for the championship of the world on July 2nd, will the Frenchmen become the champions of America? Please give us an answer as soon as possible so as to decide a bet. Yours, MALTER MILK.

NO. I DON'T THINK SO.

No, I don't think so. If Carpenter wins he will become the heavy-weight champion of the world, the heavy-weight champion of Europe, and the heavy-weight champion of France, but Dempsey would still retain the title of heavy-weight champion of America. According to Spalding's Guide the feat of a boxer in a world's bout does not deprive him of his national title.

JUNETIME.

The birds are chirping in the trees. Our garden has a dairy. It's warm enough for B.V.D.'s. The feeling doesn't last. The summer feeling's in the air—What's this I was saying?—I'll blither and blither. To where the Baseball game are playing. Let others have their springtime lark amid green woods and bowers. Some players at the baseball park are green enough for ours.

While others trip out to the woods, And browse among the clover, We'll see if Donnelly's still the goods And watch Churchill burn 'em over. It's nice to climb a woodland knob As is the Junetime custom; It's also nice to watch this Rob Step up to bat and bust 'em. And while I like to hear the call Of robins sweetly trilling, When Canning leans against the ball, Oh! Agnes, ain't it thrilling.

The call of June is in the air, Dame Nature's heart is thumping. The flowers blooming everywhere. The ungs are gently rustling. In shady dell and rippling rill, The Junetime urge is skipping. Callahan's pitching on the hill; The Cubs are simply ripling. The motor bikes and old Ford cars Again are blithely scolding. So let us go a-browsing, kid, Out where we'll hear some rooting.

Supreme Court.

(Before Chief Justice.) In the matter of the petition of William George of Bell Island, labourer, alleging that he is insolvent and praying that he be declared bankrupt, Richard T. McGrath for petitioner, is heard and asks for leave to withdraw petition. J. G. Higgins for all creditors, consents. It is ordered accordingly.

Sable I's Passengers.

S.S. Sable I arrived in port at 8 a.m. to-day, bringing the following passengers:—Mrs. A. Williams, C. Squire, E. H. McKenney, Mrs. E. Squire, Miss M. Benson, H. Ellis, S. Ellis, D. Cook, N. Rice, Miss May Rice, Miss F. Rice, R. W. Arintage, P. Doyle.

Shipping Notes.

S.S. Rosalind arrived at Halifax this morning and leaves for here at 1 p.m. to-morrow. Schr. Winnifred has arrived in port 4 days from North Sydney with a cargo of coal to Laidlaw's. Schr. Kinsman, 4 days from North Sydney, with a cargo of coal, has arrived to A. R. Hickman & Co. Schr. General Plumer has sailed from Marystown with 2,920 tons codfish and 606 haddock for Oporto. Schr. Gladiator (American) is loading salt bulk codfish at Channel from E. Pike, Ltd., for T. Nicholson, Bucksport, Maine. S.S. Wren arrived at Pool's Cove, at 10.45 p.m. yesterday on the Fortune Bay route.

Accused of Larceny.

Two former employees of the Reid Nfd. Co. were charged before Judge Morris this morning with larceny and were remanded for eight days on bail. Mr. W. J. Higgins, K.C., appeared for the men. Early yesterday morning the two were seen by ex-Constable O'Neil, now with N. Co. employee, forcing open one of the loaded cars in the freight shed and taking goods stored there for shipment. O'Neil telephoned the police and the men were arrested without any trouble.

Six Months for Burglary.

A man, charged with entering the shop of M. Walsh, Waterford Bridge Road, and attempting to get away with money and cigarettes, was sentenced to six months imprisonment by Judge Morris this morning. The proprietor of the store heard the thief moving about late Saturday night and captured him. He then telephoned the police and Sergeant Cosette drove out in a cab and made the arrest.

Personal.

Masters Heppura and Sclater Ellis, sons of Mr. W. A. Ellis, returned by the Sable I this morning from Canada where they have been attending St. Andrew's College, Toronto.

FINED AND MURDERED. DUBLIN, June 26. Inspector Gould stationed at Northwall, was shot dead, and second Lieut. White of the auxiliaries quartered at Northwall, was seriously wounded last night. The shooting occurred while the men were dining with their wives in a hotel in Dublin. On Saturday a big mob of men called at the home of Mrs. Trainer, outside the town of Monaghan, and informed his wife that he had been fined $10 by the Republican Court. She paid the fine. The men returned two hours later, took Trainer out and shot him dead. They attached a label of "sp" to his body.

SETTLEMENT IN SIGHT. LONDON, June 26. There was great expectation that a big move will be made towards the settlement of the miners strike at a meeting to-day, arranged by Premier Lloyd George, of owners and miners leaders in London. The miners have abandoned their demand for a national wage board and pool of earnings, and are only asking that a wage scale be arranged, which they can possibly recommend the man to accept. This probably means that something in the nature of the offer made by owners, three weeks ago, will pave the way to peace. Efforts will be made to induce the Government to renew its offer of ten million pounds to tide the industry over the present depression. The leaders will be obliged to consult the miners before signing any agreement, but it is certain that their recommendations, if at all reasonable, will be accepted.

NO CONDITIONS IMPOSED. LONDON, June 26. Pleasurable surprise was expressed by Sunday morning papers over Lloyd George's invitation to Eamon De Valera and Sir James Craig to De Valera and Sir James Craig with representatives of the Government. It is pointed out that this Peace Movement by Government made thus far in view of the fact that no conditions are imposed for the meeting. The conference is regarded as opportune owing to the presence in London of Dominion Premiers.

GOING TOO FAR. LONDON, June 26. A warning has been issued by the Admiralty that the fox signals on Fastnet, Bullock and Skellig, off the Southwest coast of Ireland, are unlit, owing to Sir James Craig's lighthouses, which have endangered the lives of sea voyagers.

SMUTS REFUSES. LONDON, June 26. General Jan Christian Smuts, Premier of South Africa, yesterday refused to accept a deputation of Dominion Premiers to receive a deputation of Irish women, including Mrs. P. Sheehy-Skillington, whose husband was executed in Dublin in 1916. In his reply to the deputation, General Smuts said that Dominion Premiers will doubtless, when the opportunity presents itself, render such service to His Majesty's Government as they think fitting.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION. DUBLIN, June 26. Eamonn De Valera to-day was in consultation with his colleagues with regard to Mr. Lloyd George's letter. The letter was in issue, and he here, and one high Sinn Féiner said he thought it an insult, and as implying acceptance of partition. Other political leaders saw in the letter an abandonment by the Prime Minister of his repeated war against certain Sinn Féiners, as De Valera, they said, would be free to choose any colleague he pleased, even men under sentence by court martial.

PREGNANT WITH POSSIBILITIES. LONDON, June 27. (By Gratton O'Leary, Staff Correspondent Canadian Press)—In the particular case now in issue, Mr. Premier Lloyd George's invitation to visit London for a peace conference, it is altogether probable that the Dominion Premier in London will be invited by the British Premier to participate in the negotiations. If Mr. De Valera accepts the invitation, the route he will take to London will be one of the most momentous in a century of British history. With miners and employers called to confer to-day, the Irish question present, and with the Anglo-Japanese alliance and all that it involves under consideration, number ten Downing Street will be big with possibilities for the future of the world.

AN UNUSUAL STRIKE.

By a joint strike of the employees of the Quebec Police and Fire Departments at midnight on Saturday, the city has since been without police or fire protection. Thirty-eight new policemen have been sworn in, and the Royal 22nd Battalion are ready to act if needed. There were some disorders during the night.

Fined for Netting.

Since the Wards have been removed, netting on the salmon rivers has been reported. Last week of the Game and Inland Fisheries Board had a man convicted and fined for netting on the various rivers are reported plentiful. So far some 30 foreign sportsmen have taken out licenses mostly for the West Coast pools.

Wonderful Values in Two Departments

Ladies' Hats

We have just received a clearing line in Ladies' Straw Hats in newest American styles, and despite increased duties can offer you Hats At Half the Price at the opening of the season. All other Hats at present in stock are also reduced. You can add greatly to your dress by having a greater variety of Hats. Our Hat Pricing now, and at other times, enables you to do so, for here you can always buy a good hat in the very latest style for very little money. It is our opinion that many ladies expend too much money on Hats and get very little for their money. They sometimes put too much money into one hat. We want to emphasize that they never do that in this store, though our Hats are of the finest quality and right-up-to-the-minute styles.

Boys' Suits

We have been fortunate in picking up a line of Boys' Suits much under manufacturer's costs. We are giving our customers the fullest advantage of this purchase by making Extra Special Prices During this Sale which can not be repeated later. We offer: Boys' Norfolk (2-Piece) Tweed Suits, sizes 1 to 7, only $4.95 for all sizes. Boys' Rugby (3-Piece) Tweed Suits, sizes 1 to 12, only $5.95 for all sizes. These prices represent very little more than the cost of making without figuring the materials. If you are making up clothes for boys or men we offer: Striped Cotton Tweeds at only 49c. yard. Extra Heavy Striped Cotton Tweeds (1920 price $1.20 yard) for only 65c. yard. Navy Fine Checked Worsted Suiting, 54 inches wide (1920 price $5.00 yard) for only $2.00 yard.

Household Notes.

Umbrellas should be washed occasionally. Stand them, open, in a bathtub, scrub with a small hand brush and rinse with a bath spray. When iodine has been spilled on clothing thoroughly, soap the spots with a good white laundry soap and let it remain in cold water for a few hours. For apple snow bake 7 large apples, rub through a sieve, add 1/2 pound of sugar, a little essence of vanilla and the well-beaten whites of 2 eggs. Perfectly clear cold coffee will renovate black silk nicely. Apply it to the right side of the silk, which should be ironed on the wrong side when half dry. To make apple and custard pudding, put some stewed apples in a pie dish and when cold pour over them some cold boiled custard. Cover with meringue and brown in oven. Lamp chimneys can be quickly cleaned by holding the head over one end and putting the other end over the spout of a simmering teakettle. Rub at once with tissue paper. When mixing a sponge cake, do not stir the batter after the whites of the eggs are added, but carefully fold the batter over and over, enveloping as much air as possible into the batter.

Printers' War in Toronto

Employers Train Stenographers to Take Place of Strikers. TORONTO, June 10.—In connection with the strike of union 1-5 printers, pressmen and bookbinders in this city, the Toronto Typothetical to-day began to train men and women to take the places of the strikers as has been done in some cities in the United States. Stenographers are being taught to operate type setting machines, and it is claimed that they can learn to operate the keyboard with skill in three months. Secretary Sutherland, of the Typothetical claimed that there was an increase to-day in the number of compositors, pressmen and bookbinders at work. The strike committee of the Toronto typographical union announced to-day that it was prepared to fight the employers, having perfected plans to this end. Intimidation was given that union printers in other towns and cities would refuse to do work sent from Toronto shops. The bookbinders union claims that there has been no defection from the ranks of the striking bookbinders. The Toronto public library board to-day conceded the 44 hour week to its bookbinders. The question of wages was left in abeyance.

A Working Program for Prohibitionists.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I said yesterday that I would to-day outline what I considered to be a good working program for prohibition forces. With your permission I will do so as briefly as possible. We saw yesterday that Prohibition had passed through three reasons: the act itself was faultily constructed, was made law on a sentiment which was temporary, and when that sentiment died out as a result of Prohibitionists trying down on the job, was not carried out. Now, if Prohibitionists are wise, and not rendered impotent by reason of over-zeal and an impaired sense of perspective, they will learn from their mistakes. If ostrich-like, they stick their heads in the sand and refuse persistently to see the true situation in this matter, they not only will not save Prohibition, but will ruin it. A moderate, dispassionate stock-taking is needed. It is not wise to dismiss the demands and exhortations of our Moderate friends with accusations of "drunkenness," "selfishness," etc. We must recognize that many sensible men are numbered among the Moderates—and sensible men may always be reached by argument and logic, never by rhetoric and catch-cries.

First, of course, we Prohibitionists are unanimous in believing that the use of alcohol as a beverage is harmful—physically, mentally and morally. We have science on our side; we have the highest type of morality on our side. We are prepared to demonstrate irrefragably that a state of non-consumption of alcohol would be a good state; hence we have as our highest ideal a bone-dry state.

But, sufficient is not enough. It is not enough that we professional prohibitionists believe that. A law must be based on the good will of the people, and succeed above all when the law is one which would change the personal habits of a large number of people. That is the first cue: the people—a majority of the people, the more the better—must be shown that alcohol is harmful physically, mentally and morally. The people must be shown that abstention from alcohol is good and desirable. Get a majority of the people believing that, (because, having been shown by scientists and moralists, they must perforce believe it) and make the necessary change in their environment, and the thing is done. That is to get the people to favor, to want and to demand prohibition of alcohol, and the actual law-making would be a matter of form only.

Look around you, then, and take stock first of your own forces. Get them together with a common understanding. Get your organization and machinery ready. Then spend a year in an intense, educational campaign against the use of alcoholic poison, wage war on it. Then have a plebiscite—one that would require a majority of the voters of the country. Don't overlook that essential point. Minorities rule in of barbarism. This is the twentieth century and the people rule—a majority of the people. A law that is based on the good will of the people—that has public opinion back of it—cannot help succeeding. Also, see that a good act is drawn up. Then see that it is properly administered. The scheme is extremely simple—but don't discard it because of that.

Some prohibitionists want to make the same mistake which was made in the beginning—they kick against a plebiscite and want something done without one. Let us see. Are these gentlemen afraid that if there is a plebiscite the people will destroy prohibition? Is that, and not the matter of expense, the reason for their strenuous opposition to a new mandate? Let us suppose for the sake of argument that this is indeed the case. There is no plebiscite—but instead some changes are made in the law. The people of the country immediately cry: "They're doing something over our heads," or words to that effect. Whatever it is, that is done, is bound to fail for identically the same reason that Prohibition proper failed. Prohibition will go steadily on, losing ground, until the thing is altogether a ghastly mockery. Then Prohibitionists will see that they will have to begin all over again—just as I am persuading them to do now—and fight the battle anew. If they wait till then, they will not win that battle, for the people will be irrevocably against prohibition, whereas they are not now. If that battle is fought now it will be won—if it is put off it will be lost. As I have pointed out, this is the psychological moment. Let us have the wisdom and good sense to recognize it. Let us admit frankly that Prohibition has failed, and let us understand why. Let us begin all over again, profiting by our mistakes. Let us fight the battle in true democratic style, and put the matter to the people—appealing to their common sense, their sense of morality and right, and the love of decency and clean-living that is in them. With the battle fought on such straight lines, who can doubt success?

Morality vs. Vice.
Civilization vs. Bestiality.
Cleanliness vs. Filth.
Health vs. Disease.
or Decency versus Boozing.—with these the issue, must not the overwhelming majority of clean-living Newfoundlanders take the side of decency and civilization?

Yours sincerely,
J. R. SMALLWOOD.

Road Badly in Need of Repair.

The attention of the Municipal Council is directed to the bad condition of that section of the South Side Road extending from Long Bridge in to Syme's Bridge and even further. South Side Road has in the last couple of years been used more and more by automobilists, so that by now there are as many using it as are traversing Waterford Bridge Road. South Side Road is not only in poor condition for motor cars—it is in a dangerous condition. Ruts and large holes, several feet in diameter cover the section mentioned; and when these fill with rain water the ordeal through which motorists have to pass—crossed by water—can be easily imagined. See what can be done, Municipal authorities!

MARJORIE.

The house is as it was when she was here. There's nothing changed at all about the place; The books she loved to read are waiting near. As if tomorrow they would see her face; Her room remains the way it used to be. Here are the puzzles that she pondered on; Yet since the angels called for Marjorie The joyous spirit of the house has gone.

All things grew lovely underneath her touch. The room was bright because it knew her smile. From her the tiniest trinket gathered much. The cheapest toy became a thing worth while; Yet here are her possessions as they were. No longer joys to set the eyes aglow; To-day, as we, they seem to mourn for her.

And share the sadness that is ours to know. Half sobbing now, we put her games away. Because, dumb things, they cannot understand. Why never more shall Marjorie come to play. And we have faith in God at our command. These toys we smiled at once, now start with tears. They seem to wonder why they lie so still. They call her name, and will throughout the years, God strengthen us to bow unto Thy will.

A Royal Romance.

On June 27, 1889, Britons generally were gladdened by the announcement of the engagement of Princess Louise of Wales to the Earl of Fife. Society had suspected nothing more than a friendship between the couple, and the engagement came as a surprise. The attachment had, however, lasted some three years, but Queen Victoria's consent to the marriage could not be obtained. In this instance she showed to the full the old time prejudice against unequal marriages; and it was only after much argument and determination that the young Princess succeeded in persuading her grandmother to withdraw her opposition. Before the celebration of the marriage Lord Fife made some curious stipulations. He consented to accept a Dukedom from the hands of his Sovereign, but he refused to take the title of Inverness, which had been suggested as having semi-Royal associations, and elected to retain his own name. He was married as Earl of Fife, and it was only after the ceremony that the Queen made the announcement regarding the Dukedom. For the first time in the history of Royal marriages it was arranged that the Princess, as Duchess of Fife, should have no lady-in-waiting. This, of course, was unconventional and created a precedent, but the pair did not let this trouble them. The marriage service on June 23, 1889, was simpler than usual, and for the first time on record the bridegroom was attended by a commoner as best man, in Mr. Horace, afterwards Lord Farquhar. Not the least valued of the innumerable wedding presents was the set of "Gleanings of Past Years" inscribed: "Humbly offered on the auspicious occasion—W. E. Gladstone." After marriage the two lived the simple life as far as possible. Although the servants attended Lord Fife with great state and were standing bareheaded in all weathers in his presence, he did not go about in the princely style of the days before his Royal alliance. He was a typical country gentleman. The Duchess herself seldom came into the limelight, and in the intimacy of the Royal circle was jestingly called "Her Royal Shyness." When children came to them, she was never so happy as when she could find time to run into the nursery, put on an apron, wash the babies, and see them asleep in their little beds. Excepting frequent visits to the theatre, the Duke and Duchess seldom left the seclusion of their home. Occasionally they journeyed to Brighton and to Scotland, with less frequent visits to their house in Portman Square. Occasionally, too, dinner parties were given, and at these the

Moderate Prohibitionists Meet

At the meeting of the Moderate Prohibitionists, held in the Casino Theatre last night, Mr. J. J. St. John was elected Chairman, and Mr. G. C. Baird, appointed Secretary. The Chairman in a brief speech outlined the object of the meeting, and called for a general discussion as to the steps to be taken with regard to the Plebiscite, which takes place on November 15th next, when the country will be called upon to decide for the Royal Commission's report of a bottle every three months for householders only, or the Moderate recommendation of a bottle a week. Speeches were made by Messrs. S. Merrill, F. Goff, Wm. French, A. E. Barle and W. C. Wainwright, the trend of whose remarks were that the present system was a complete failure and to safeguard the rights of citizens and save the law from being broken an act that would meet with the approval of the masses was absolutely necessary. Mr. Warwick Smith also spoke on the matter. A resolution was carried unanimously and with the exception of Messrs. Warwick Smith and J. E. Baird who have resigned from any official capacity, the old Executive decided to retain office, until the Legislature had taken action. At 11 p.m. the meeting adjourned with the singing the National Anthem.

Popular Captain Honored by Passengers

The following address of appreciation was presented to Capt. Field of S.S. Prospero on the present trip of that ship, the presentation taking place on Saturday last, just prior to the arrival of the ship at St. John's, though taken somewhat by surprise, made an appropriate and touching reply.

ADDRESS.
We, the undersigned saloon passengers of the S.S. Prospero, have much pleasure in presenting Capt. Field with this address for his unflinching kindness and attention to them during the voyage from St. John's to Quirpon and return; also to his Officers and crew in charge of the ship, and we sincerely hope and trust that He who holds the ocean in the hollow of his hand will watch over them and protect them and guide them over the sea of life.

Presentation to Popular Official.

A presentation was made on Saturday afternoon by the employees of the G.P.O. to Mr. Hubert Parsons, of the Parcel Post Department, who is shortly to join the army of Benedicto. The presentation was made on behalf of the staff by Mr. J. W. Kimball, Superintendent of the Parcel Post Department, who also read a happy address to which Mr. Parsons made an appropriate reply.

Obituary.

MRS. ANNA COOK.
It is with regret that many will learn of the passing of Mrs. Anna Cook, which sad event took place on Saturday night, at 11 o'clock, at the residence of her daughter, Waterford Bridge Road. Mrs. Cook was the widow of the late Wm. Cook, who for a long time conducted the business of victualer and ship chandler. The deceased lady, who was of a quiet and unassuming manner, was beloved by all those with whom she came in contact, and her demise will be regretted by a large circle of friends. Three sons, Hon. Tasker, William of H.M. Customs, Bath, Columbia, James D., butcher; and three daughters, Mrs. Nicholas Worsley, Mrs. Geo. R. Cakes and Mrs. Geo. F. Snow are left to mourn the loss of their kind and loving mother, and to them the Telegram extends sincere sympathy. The funeral takes place on Tuesday at 2.30 p.m. from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. R. Cakes, Waterford Bridge Road.

THE CENTRAL DISTRICT COURT

Between Caleb Robins, W. J. Higgins, C. J. Fox and N. J. Vincombe, Plaintiffs, and W. G. Gosling, Mayor of St. John's, Defendant.

The summons in this case was issued at the suit of Caleb Robins claiming for four days wage at $3.30 per day. On motion of Mr. Ayre, Counsel for Plaintiff, Mr. Higgins, Mr. Fox and Mr. Vincombe were added as Plaintiffs, with a new statement of claim setting forth as follows:—
By an agreement made verbally in past, W. J. Higgins, C. J. Fox and N. J. Vincombe, Members of the House of Assembly for the District of St. John's East, and the City Commissioners agreed for the purpose of providing work for the unemployed workers at St. John's, to construct a road called the New Line, in the East of St. John's. The Members agreed to contribute the sum of Ten thousand Dollars, and the Council agreed to furnish the balance and agreed to pay the said unemployed workers at the rate of Twenty Dollars per week, the sum of Twenty Dollars was expended in payment of four on said road. In accordance with the said agreement the Council Members paid the Council the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars. The said Council did not complete the road nor pay the said unemployed workers the sum of $3.30 per day, from the 28th May reduced the rate to $2.50 per day. The said Caleb Robins is one of the said unemployed workers. The said Caleb Robins worked on the said road on the 28th, 30th and 31st days of May and the 1st day of June instant. The said Caleb Robins was paid $2.50 per day which was accepted under protest.
Mr. E. L. Carter, B.L., filed the following defence:—
"To paragraph (1) of the amended statement of claim the Defendant admits that he did not agree with the Plaintiffs, W. J. Higgins, C. J. Fox, N. J. Vincombe and Caleb Robins, to employ unemployed workers at the rate of $3.30 until the sum of Twenty thousand Dollars was spent in payment of labour on the said road, nor any defined period. The Defendant did not agree with the Plaintiffs to employ Caleb Robins at the rate of $3.30 a day until the said road was completed, nor for any time. The Defendant employed the Plaintiff, Caleb Robins, as a daily labourer by the day. The Defendant's notice dated 23rd May, terminated the agreement wherein he agreed to pay $3.30, and contracted with the Plaintiff, Caleb Robins, as a daily labourer at $2.50 a day or 25c. an hour. The Plaintiffs, Messrs. Higgins, Fox and Vincombe, had no authority to make any agreement. As an alternative the Defendant claims the sum of $20,000 has already been expended in connection with the said road."

The evidence of Messrs. Higgins, Fox and Vincombe goes to show that owing to the great number of unemployed workers in the city, and the necessity of providing immediate work for them, arrangements were made between the Parliamentary Representatives of the East End and the City Commissioners to open up a new road along the water line from Portugal Cove Road to the Higher Levelling. The work started on the 28th day of May under the management of the City Engineer, and the rate of pay would be $3.30 a day, the current rate paid Municipal employees. There was no agreement as to how long the work was to continue. The sum of Ten Thousand Dollars allocated from the District's Special Road Grant was paid over by the Minister of Public Works to the Council for this purpose.
The Plaintiffs further state that owing to this contribution of Ten Thousand Dollars the Council agreed to put up a corresponding amount for this work, but Commissioners Ayre, Morris and Peet, witnesses for the defence, say that no definite amount was named by the Council as its contribution. The work started on the 28th day of May under the management of the City Engineer, and a number of unemployed workers were put on at $3.30 a day.
On May 23rd, the following communication was addressed to the Plaintiff, Caleb Robins:—
"Dear Sir.—I am directed to inform you the order recently made by the Municipal Council, with regard to the employment of labour, has, within the past week, been disregarded, and men have been taken on to work without the approval of the City Engineer. I am directed to notify you that, should such occur again, the men so employed will not be paid.
"I am further directed to notify you that, beginning Thursday next, 26th inst., the pay for this work will be at the rate of $2.50 per day of ten hours.
"Yours very truly,
(Sgd.) J. MAHONEY,
"Secretary-Treasurer."

"P.S.—Pay rolls must be at the City Engineer's Office on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock."
In my opinion the Plaintiffs cannot succeed in this action, even though the evidence submitted proved the verbal agreement set out in their statement of claim. Whilst it was highly proper and very necessary that arrangements should be made between the Representatives of St. John's and the City Commissioners to provide immediate work for the unemployed of the city, neither party to this suit had authority to make such an agreement. It has certainly been a long standing custom for Parliamentary Representatives to recommend allocations from their District Road Grant for Public Works, but it is the province of the Minister of Public Works to make contracts. The road proposed to be constructed, being outside the Municipal limits, the Council could have no jurisdiction over it, and without the express sanction of the Legislature, had not the power or authority to incur or contract for any expenditure upon it.

The Plaintiff, Caleb Robins, was employed at $3.30 per day to work as foreman on the New Road. There was no agreement as to the period of time this wage was to continue. At a special meeting the Council decided that beginning Thursday, 26th May, the pay for this work would be at the rate of $2.50 for a ten hour day. The Plaintiff received the notice before referred to. The Council was within its rights in reducing the rate of wages paid employees. The notice terminated the original hiring. I therefore dismiss the Plaintiff's claim.
Dated at St. John's this 24th day of June, A.D. 1921.

(Sgd.) F. J. MORRIS, Judge.
Mr. G. W. B. Ayre, B.L., for Plaintiffs.

From Evening Telegram of August 28rd, 1914.

Only a common, an eyesore maybe. If one looked at your barrenness, no flower, no tree. Only brown stony earth, and a cold iron fence. Overlooking the narrow and the lone sea.

Modest and quiet, peaceful at even. When the sunlight danced back thro' the gates of Heaven. And the twilight crept slowly over the earth. Softening the places so rough and uneven.

Lonely at dawn and deserted until. The bells ring out from the church on the hill.

The chapel chimes that we love to hear—
Mettins—calling the Nuns to prayer.

We never can call thee "common ground" again.
Never view thee as a sterile barren plain.

An eyesore to our city by the sea. Planning to make of thee a park, a garden fair, Adorned with fairest flower, shrub and tree.

Didst dream of greater things, oh little plot of earth. Did winged ambitions in thy soul have birth. Wert eager to achieve immortal fame, And see on honour's scroll thy humble name?

Well all thy hopes are realized, thy dreams come true. A noble work was given thee to do. A "training ground" of Empire hast become. The-echoing tramp of feet and beat of drum.

We evermore shall call thee "holy ground."
Remembering whose the feet that o'er thee trod.

Dear footsteps that we'll never hear again.
Till in that day we gather round the Throne of God.
J. M. COOPER.

King's Cove Notes.

Codfish was very scarce the past week or so, but there was a better sign the last two days, traps having from two to five qts. a haul.

Hook and liners are doing very little with the fish, owing to scarcity of bait.

The weather was very warm and dry the last two weeks and the young plants were in great danger of being "burnt up." But after the heavy rain of Sunday last, the gardens are looking quite refreshed.

A branch of the "Sons of Rest" has been formed at King's Cove lately, and a goodly number of members enrolled. They hold their meetings in the place which was formerly called the "House of Parliament." Always open—and free to all.

Mr. Stephen Hancock returned from a business visit to St. John's Saturday past.

Miss Veta M. Brown returned from St. John's by Prospero. She was attending school there all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan returned from St. John's last Prospero. Mrs. Sullivan resided at St. John's all winter, whilst Mr. Sullivan was down south boatswain on schooner "Miriam H." They are well.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Devine and family who were living at Joe Batt's Arm the past five years, returned to King's Cove last week.

This being the anniversary of "Coronation Day" is a public holiday, and is observed as such by the Postal Telegraphs in any way in the schools in the place.

I heard, and still hear many people of King's Cove, remarking that "Freckles" can be. But don't worry, "Freckles" does not intend to injure any one by (her or his) notes from King's Cove.
FRECKLES.

King's Cove, June 22, 1921.

NOTE OF THANKS.—The family of Mr. George Gardner desires to express their sincere thanks to the kind people of New Harbour, who with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bursay and other friends, assisted in any way in preparing the body of their dear father who died suddenly in New Harbour Church on Sunday last; also the following for wreaths:—Horwood Lumber Co., Mr. and Mrs. Fynn, Halifax, Mr. and Mrs. Rees, Miss Andrews, Mrs. Pardy, Mr. and Mrs. T. Mander, Messrs. Colton, Egan, Bert, Miss Daisy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fynn, Staff Captain and Mrs. Billy, Mrs. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cooks also the following for kind letters of sympathy:—Dudley Lodge, S.O.E., S.U.F. Club, St. Mary's Sanctuary Guild, Mr. and Mrs. Manning, Mr. H. Bartlett, Mrs. Dicks and all other kind friends who in any way helped to lighten their burden of sorrow which they had to bear in their recent and sudden bereavement.

Side Talks by Ruth Cameron

A SURE WAY TO GET HAPPINESS.

During the spring vacation I passed one day two children sailing some little home-made boats in a brook which run through their back-yard.
Do you wonder why I emphasize that simple statement?

Because the sight of them brought back so vividly to my mind what a marvelous time one could have on an April morning sailing home-made craft in a jolly little brook; and what a perfectly wonderful gift of the gods it seemed to be a child who had a brook in one's own yard.

There was one youngster in school who was crowned with that honor and I remember how anxiously I used to regard him.

Can you imagine anything in the world that would afford more solid satisfaction than to have a half dozen children and the ability to give them just the things that you thought most wonderful when you were a child?

Which Had You "Rather?"
First of all, my half dozen would have a pony to be ridden or driven in the game of London Bridges when "so fair my lady" was carried off and asked in hushed whisper which she rather have—a gold watch with diamonds in (for a pony and cart) never once did I waver toward the gold watch. How anyone could was a miracle to me, and I looked with the pitying glance we always keep for those who differ from us in tastes at the youngsters lined up on the gold watch side.

Next, I think would come a yard with a barn, and a brook in it, and a whole orchard of climbable trees, and a wood pile. If I didn't think the ecstasy produced thereby would be too great to be safe, I think I should have the brook widened at one part to make a good wading and swimming pool.

A Real Gain
to health and comfort is often found by turning from tea or coffee to
INSTANT POSTUM
—and the taste is fully satisfied. Postum has charm without harm.
"There's a Reason"

A Real Swing.
On top of all these natural riches I would pile a tilt, a great big swing—no small affair hung from some low bough but a real swing slung from the top of two tall pine trees and affording scope for such flights as Maxfield Parish's boy is taking. Aeronautics may bring some greater thrill than some of those swoops into the blue, but I almost doubt it.
Then, of course, there should be circus tickets whenever the circus came to town, with trips into every side-show. (I shall never forget, should I outlive Methuselah, the circus I didn't go to), a balloon every time the balloon man comes to town, merry-go-round rides whenever the chance presents. Or perhaps I might have a private merry-go-round!

Doesn't That Suggest an Idea?
Don't you think that those six children would be so happy with all that that they would have enough happiness left over to furnish half a dozen folks with?
And doesn't that suggest an idea? The things you do for a child are pretty sure to give enough happiness so that some of it spills over into the heart of the grown-up giver. Maybe you can't have six children or give them a swimming pool or a pony, but you can surely give some child something you wanted once and didn't get, and take your reward in the overflow of happiness that will surely come.

Margin Trading!

Many investors have a mistaken idea of marginal trading.
When an investor buys a stock on margin a certain portion of the cost, usually one quarter to one third, is immediately deposited, the broker carrying the balance on account. Should the stock drop in value the investor is required to maintain his proportion by a further payment, which payment, however, reduces the debit balance so that under no circumstances, no matter how often margin is called for, a client cannot pay in more than the original cost, and when a client is prepared to do that, it is physically impossible to lose the account. Marginal trading is a simple and capable method of investing if investors do not overbuy.
