EXTENSION OF LIGHT SERVICE

Residents of Centrelea and Tupperville Getting Power From Bridgetown.

Citizens of Tupperville and Centrelea have made arrangements with the Bridgetown branch of the Maritime Electric Light, Heat and Power Company for the extension of service to take in Tupperville and Centrelea and steps are rapidly going forward towards having lights put into the various houses and other properties. In all about forty-two householders will be taking current and the work of assembling poles is now pretty well completed. It is expected that the service will be fully in operation by the last of October or at latest the first week in November. Nearly all the citizens in the region of country indicated are taking the light which will thus be extended four miles west of Bridgetown.

Last year the light service was extended East to take in West Paradise and intervening country. It is expected that Paradise will be the next to take itself of current though no definite arrangements have yet been reported on the North side of the river. With this gap filled in the light service would be continuous from the West end of Bridgetown to the East end of Lawrenceton, a distance of over ten miles. On the South side between Bridgetown and Lawrenceton there is now a gap of about two miles. The day is evidently not so far distant when practically all the houses on the main thoroughfares throughout the Valley will be enjoying the conveniences of electricity in its various forms.

Roses are the favorite flower of Mrs. Lloyd George. At her home she has hundreds of varieties.

MR. BROWN RESIGNS AS POSTMASTER

Ill Health Hastens Retiral of a Most Popular and Esteemed Official.

Mr. A. D. Brown, Postmaster for the past nineteen years, has resigned his position, resignation to take effect on Oct. 31st. Advancing years and ill health have led Mr. Brown to relinquish a public office which he has held with signal success and general public acceptance. He and Mrs. Brown expect to spend the winter in Florida where it is hoped by their many friends that the change and rest will prove beneficial to his health. Mr. Brown has long occupied a prominent position in local affairs of church and state and previous to his appointment as postmaster was for over 17 years Principal of the Bridgetown High School, a position which he held with distinction. He has for many years been a deacon in the Baptist Church, a teacher in the Sunday School and active in all good works, religious and secular for the advancement of the interests of the town. Applications for his position are being received till the 15th of October and from indications these are not likely to be few.

INSPIRING ADDRESS BY MISS MABEL ARCHIBALD

Miss Mabel Archibald, who has labored for twenty-five years in the Mission fields of India, among the Telugu, was the speaker at the Baptist Church on Sunday evening. Miss Archibald was robed in the former dress of an Indian Princess which made for a striking and unique appearance. Her address was instructive and entertaining and she held the closest attention of the large audience, while she described conditions in India, improvements made through the British rule and the splendid work being done for the emancipation of women. Among other things she mentioned the fact that there were now four women's colleges established in the country. She described graphically the sacrifices made by natives who renounced their false Gods and accepted the Christian religion, the enforced severance of family ties and the many things which made this earthly life most dear. Her message was one of hope and inspiration, a call to renewed and further effort to win the millions of India to the cause of Christ.

The monthly pay roll was passed and the usual routine business put through. It was decided to bill the Dominion Atlantic Railway for water connections made at the new tank. Elias Messenger was appointed Deputy Stipendiary Magistrate for the town.

The Sanitary Inspector was instructed to look into the matter of complaints made about a certain pig sty in the West end of the town as it was alleged that conditions there were causing annoyance to some residents in that locality.

MR. ARTHUR CHESLEY REVISITS OLD SCENES IN NOVA SCOTIA

A welcome visitor for a brief period last week in Bridgetown and vicinity was Mr. Arthur C. Chesley, or New York, who first left N. S. forty-three years ago. Mr. Chesley is one of the many Nova Scotians who have made good in the U. S. Landing in the U. S. with $2.50 in his pocket an ambitious boy with no pull of any kind, he is today the head of the A. C. Chesley Company, of New York City, manufacturers of Standardized Fire-proof Doors, auto accessories and a variety of steel products and his assessment runs well over the hundred thousand dollar mark.

He has been active in the Bronx in other ways, as member of Board of Trade, a Grand Jurymen, an office more esteemed in New York than in Nova Scotia, a prominent friend and supporter of the Y. M. C. A. and all other movements for the general good.

His grand father on his mother's side was the late Hon. David C. Landers of Middleton, and he was a nephew of the late Mrs. Amy Ansley, who, with his mother, is revered in his memory and during his visit he took occasion to visit their last resting places.

Mr. Chesley returned to New York sooner than he anticipated in connection with details concerning the construction of a new factory which will add over 25,000 additional feet of floor space to his manufacturing plant. He expects to visit Nova Scotia next Summer and remain for a longer period.

CHILD DROWNED IN BUCKET OF WATER

Annapolis.—A sad accident took place Monday afternoon when the eighteen month old daughter of Edward Morgan was drowned in a bucket of water. The mother left the child asleep and went to hang out clothes. On returning she found the child head first in the bucket which was standing beside the tub. A doctor was hurriedly summoned, but life was extinct before he arrived.

FINE EXHIBITION AT KENTVILLE

Display of Fruit Was Splendid—Good Racing Programme—Other Features.

The Three Counties Exhibition held this year at Kentville was a decided success in most particulars, though attendance was smaller than might have been reasonably expected. The fruit exhibit was splendid and though the season is much later this year than usual the exhibit created most favorable comment. There were over 600 plates of apples, 100 plates of pears and plums, 200 barrels of apples, 300 boxes of apples and in house-keeping and fancy work exhibits there were three hundred entries.

The School Exhibits were the most extensive yet shown, those of Wolfville Schools being particularly good. There were also very excellent exhibits from Kentville, Grand Pre, Port Williams, Lower Wolfville and Church St. The exhibits in Manual Training work from the schools in which this is carried on were very good indeed.

In the main building were the exhibits from the Dominion Experimental Farm and the Dominion Entomological Laboratory.

M. W. Graves and Co., of this town, had a fine exhibit of their bottled products.

The exhibit of Elson Graham, of Wolfville, of hand tinted photographs received warm praise.

The exhibits of Horses and Cattle and Swine were distinctly creditable to an agricultural region of country and were the poorest features in the whole show.

Horse racing was a feature of the programme and some good contests were witnessed. Grey Bird, owned by Mr. Norman Dargie, of this town, took second money in the 227 trot. The officials on Tuesday's races were: Starter, N. Marshall, Bridgetown; Judges, F. J. Porter, Kentville, R. E. Feltus, Lawrenceton; Timers, J. R. Hiltz, Kentville, W. P. Wheaton, Centreville, W. M. Crabb, Aylesford.

The midway flourished on the ground. We think it a good suggestion that in future exhibitions the "fakers" should all be compelled to operate on the grounds or leave town.

The Lloyd's Mfg. Co., of Kentville, had a fine exhibit of "Business Dusters," also potato dusters, capable of operating over forty acres per day. It is impossible to more than refer to a few items in this fine exhibition which, on the whole, was a distinct credit to the Valley. Next week we hope to give the names of some of the prize winners particularly Annapolis County exhibitors.

INSTITUTE MOVE TOWARD SECURITY, O. N. NURSE FOR BRIDGETOWN

On Thursday afternoon the Women's Institute held a largely attended meeting and among other matters brought up was the question of securing for Bridgetown the services of a nurse of the Victorian Order. The matter was discussed at some length and it was decided to take steps in this direction and have the matter carried through provided suitable arrangements can be made.

A need of clothing was reported for a number of families in town and persons willing to contribute can have same sent to Magee & Charlton's store or to Miss Hamilton, and it will be delivered to parties in need.

At the close of the business part of the programme tea was served, the hostesses being Mrs. E. R. Orlando, Miss Melbourne Wentzell and Mrs. E. A. Hicks.

CHARLES WILSON SENT TO PRISON

Chauveur Who Caused the Death of Digny Woman Must Serve Nine Months in Jail.

Annapolis, N. S.—On Saturday Chief Justice Harris sentenced Charles Wilson, found guilty of manslaughter in causing the death of Mrs. Harry Warren, of Digby, in an automobile accident on June 3rd. His Lordship said it was a great responsibility to pronounce sentence. The jury had recommended clemency in finding Wilson guilty, and taking into consideration his youth, the fact that he had a young family, and the thought that causing the death of a human being would be considerable punishment of itself, he would therefore be lenient, and sentenced him to nine months in the common jail. At the end of that period he is to pay six hundred dollars or spend six months longer in jail.

The rest of the morning was taken up with the Riley vs. Robar assault case, in which the defendant paid damages of one dollar, each party to pay his own costs. The Court then adjourned till October 17th.

LARGE OUTPUT AT

C. B. COLLIERIES

Over Seventeen Thousand Tons of Coal Raised in One Day.

Glace Bay, N. S.—The largest output in the past nine years was obtained at the collieries of the Dominion Coal Company Tuesday.

A total of 17,074 tons were raised and at some of the mines the largest output in recent years were produced.

Tuesday's output has not been equalled since the pre-war days of 1914. The largest output ever made at the Dominion Coal Company collieries was 20,668 tons on June 10th, 1914.

When the war came on and large numbers of miners enlisted the outputs at the mines fell off considerably.

By a coincidence Tuesday's output was raised on the day the new directors visited the collieries. No. 2 colliery, the big producer, had the best output in recent years with 3842 tons.

The original record for "The Big Deuce" is in the vicinity of 4400 tons.

ASSAULTED AFTER SECURING CONTROL OF HUNTING AREA

Fredericton, N. B.—Theodore Estabrooks, of St. John, nationally known as a tea importer, manufacturer and distributor, is the storm centre of a feud which has developed with the commencement of the hunting season as a result of his having secured

CULLING THE FLOCK

(Experimental Farms Note.)

By the use of the trapnet the flock may be accurately culled so that only those birds which have given a profitable production need be retained; but for the vast majority of farmers and poultry keepers this method is not practicable in that trapping takes more time than they are able to devote to it. Therefore it becomes necessary for those who do not use trapnets to use the less certain, but still practicable, method of culling by visual evidence.

The heavy-laying hens will be sprightly and active in appearance, will have a clean-cut head, lean face and prominent eyes, a large moist vent and a full abdomen which will be soft and pliable. After she has laid heavily for a time, if she is of the yellow-skinned variety, the color will have faded from her vent, eye-rings, beak and shanks, and her plumage will look the worse for wear, the feathers of the tail in all probability being badly broken from rubbing against the sides of the nest box.

It is safe to cull all birds that show decidedly weak constitutions; those that show great age; and those that are coarse in the head, thick in the skin and show heavy internal deposits of fat. This last condition is evidenced by a full hard abdomen. Besides these indications there are others—the opposite of what is expected in a good layer—that, taken collectively, are fairly sure.

A dry puffed vent, or a dry shrivelled comb, indicate that the hen is not laying at the time; rich yellow legs and beak usually indicate either that the hen has laid very few eggs or that she has taken a sufficiently long rest to allow the color time to return; smooth lustrous plumage indicates that there has probably been no great drain on the system and unbroken plumage indicates that she has probably not spent much time in the nest.

While it takes experience to cull accurately where close culling is desired, the wise poultry keeper will not hesitate to make a start, as the rank wasters may be readily recognized even by the inexperienced. With increased experience close culling may be practised.

A GREAT HARVEST

Mr. E. W. Kneeland, Vice-President of the Canadian National Elevator Company, declares that the estimate of 492,000,000 bushels as this year's wheat crop in the West, is not over the mark. In addition, there is about as much more of coarse grain, such as oats and barley. At present the Prairie grain is moving eastward in a golden flood, and Mr. Kneeland makes the prediction that it will take a year to move the entire crop.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has revised its previous estimates regarding the wheat yield and now says that 470,335,000 bushels is a conservative figure when the Western wheat yield reached 393,542,600 bushels in 1915. It was regarded as almost a miracle. Two years before that, the yield was 231,717,000 bushels—a record. It was not long, however, before the 1915 level was raised. The figures for ten years in bushels are as follows:

1914	151,280,250
1915	393,542,600
1916	262,781,000
1917	233,742,850
1918	189,075,350
1919	193,260,400
1920	263,189,300
1921	300,858,100
1922	399,786,400
1923	470,335,000

It is pointed out that the per capita consumption in this country is about six bushels and the requirements for seed about 50,000,000 bushels. On the basis of this year's estimate this will leave a surplus of more than 370,000,000 bushels to be sold elsewhere. And the quantity of wheat grown is by no means so great as the quantity of coarser grain. This year's yield of oats, barley and rye is expected to be nearer 600,000,000 bushels than 500,000,000.

THE MASSACHUSETTS WAY

(Carlton Place (Ont.) Canadian)

We do not hear of many automobile licenses revoked in Ontario for drunken driving. But in Massachusetts! Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles of that state, announces the cancellation last month of 421 licenses for driving under the influence of liquor. Mr. Goodwin recalls that in August, 1919, only thirty-one licenses were lost for the same offense. "When," he asks, "is prohibition going to begin?"

Apparently the motor law is more strictly enforced than the Volstead Act in Massachusetts. Some Dominion Provinces might well exact the penalty that is dealt out so plentifully to drivers who get "over the bay" in the Bay State. If 421 persons went on highway sprees in August and were caught in the Puritan Commonwealth, how many must there have been in similar case within Ontario's imperial borders? It speaks well for one phase of Massachusetts' policing that such a big haul was made of a most pestiferous class of motor culprits.

Registrar Goodwin remarks that last month's fatal accidents mostly happened in the night time and were due to a combination of failure to obey the headlight law and drunken riding from beaches and camps. For bad brakes eighty-eight registrations were taken away and sixty-one for improper lighting equipment. The motor law in Massachusetts evidently has strong teeth.

OLD COUNTRY CROP FAILURE

Reports Indicate Demand is Causd For Canadian Apples And Pears.

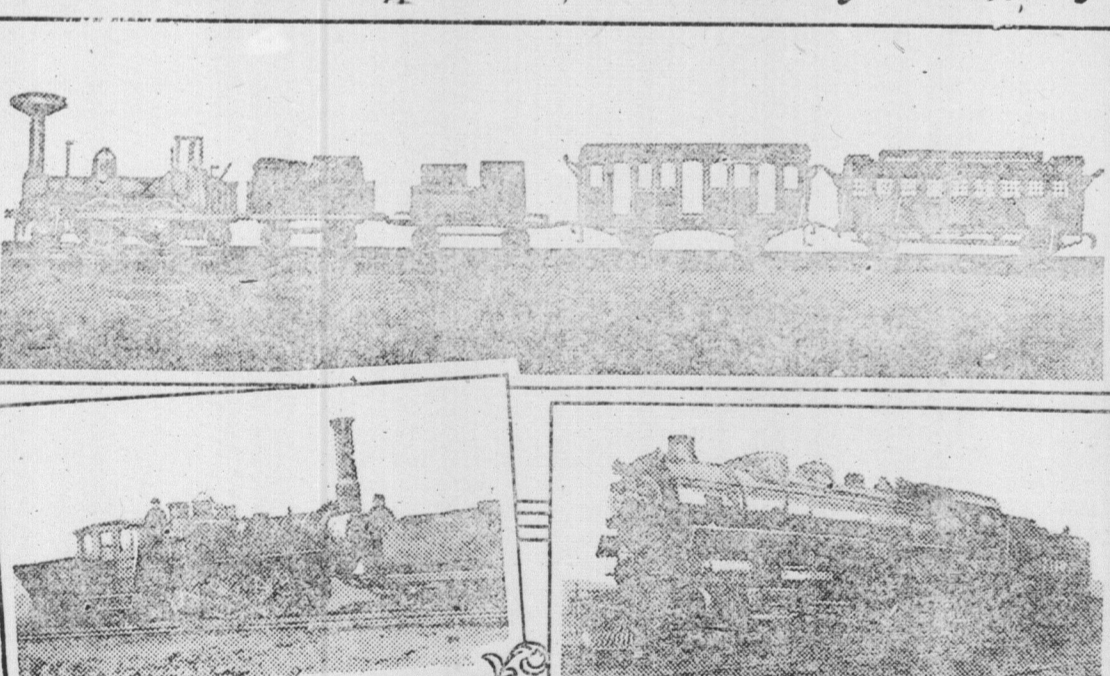

The English apple crop promises to be a light one this year. What promised to be a fairly good yield was reported on August 1st to have suffered severely from drought conditions.

A report received by the Fruit Commissioner at Ottawa says that the crop is very patchy, and not more than half the average. Early Victoria, Lord Grosvenor, Stirling Castle and Lane's Prince Albert appear to be the best of the culinary, and Worcester, Pearmain, Cox's Orange and Allington of the dessert varieties; but all varieties vary greatly in different districts.

Pears are practically a failure, and plums are generally very poor. Such early blossoming varieties as Prince of Wales, Gollath and Monarch are reported to be bearing fair crops. These reports indicate a satisfactory season for the export of Canadian apples and pears to Great Britain.

A party including Mr. Nimrod Rowter, Miss Ada Rowter and two children, recently motored from Matilda and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Rowter.

An Interesting Bit of Railway History.

THERE has been considerable speculation as to what the first railway train to be run in Canada really looked like. People have exercised their imagination considerably in drawing what they thought it looked like but the most authentic and reliable picture that has been preserved is the one reproduced above. The original is the property of Mrs. A. J. Wright, of St. Johns, Que., who has kindly permitted it to be photographed and reproduced. It was drawn from careful sketches of the original engine and cars, and can be depended upon as giving an exact outline of Canada's first train.

Interest centres in the engine which was named "The Dorchester." It is described as follows in Wishaw's "Railways of Great Britain and Ireland": "Cylinders, 9 in. in diameter, 14 in. stroke. Drive wheels, two pair coupled, 48 ins. diameter. Length of boiler, 78 ins., and 37 ins. in diameter. Length of fire-box 18 1/2 ins., width 43 ins., depth 28 ins. Total weight of machine in working order, 12,544 lbs. The cost of the engine was $1,500."

The Dorchester was built in Stephenson's works, Newcastle-on-Tyne, and came to her destination via New York City, the Hudson River, Lake Champlain and the Richelieu River, being transported on a barge. In after years she was rebuilt, fitted out with a funnel, a cab, a bogey truck and a cow-catcher. She finished her days in the service of the Lanorale and Industry R.R., running between Lanorale and Joliette, Que., and when this railroad was absorbed by another the Dorchester was ruthlessly broken up for scrap.

With this engine the first railway in Canada, the Champlain and St. Lawrence Railway, running between St. Johns and Laprairie, Que., a distance of 14 1/2 miles, began operations on July 21st, 1836, which was formally opened by His Excellency the Earl of Gosford. Owing to an accident to the engine a few days prior to the opening, it was thought safest to attach only two cars to it for the opening run. In these the more distinguished guests rode while

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR
Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).
The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money, make $250 to $500 per month.

WHAT MAKES A LIVE TOWN

How Every Citizen Can Help To Make It More Prosperous.

Stay away from that town. It's a dead one.
Do you want that to be said of your town? Of course you don't, for you wish, as a matter of local pride, if for no other reason, to have your town stand high in the estimation of the world.
But are you sure that you are doing everything in your power to place your town in that position which you wish it to occupy? That is the question that every person should ask himself or herself at frequent intervals.
When things are running smoothly, when times are good, and when it is fairly easy to make a good living for the wife and kiddies, it is so easy for a man to forget that these things do not come to a town as a matter of course, but are the results of the citizens of the community.
It is so easy for a man to grow careless and think that, because this condition existed, it will continue to exist without any effort on his part or that of the other residents of the community.
That is why it is important for every one to stop and think seriously once in a while about what it would mean to him if the prosperity that makes life worth living for him should take wing and fly away.
Nobody likes to live in a dead town. No one even likes to visit a dead town. That is why you sometimes hear that warning: "Stay away from that town. It's a dead one." The town which has the reputation of being a dead one suffers as if from a pestilence. Business men seeking new locations will have none of it. The live travelling salesman, even, will give it a wide berth. Those who live in it will get away if they can.
When a town is live and prosperous, local business is good, real estate values are high and stable, labor is in demand, and wages are good; the streets are well lighted, the residents and their property are protected from robbery and fire, and good schools are maintained for the education of the children.
When a town is dead, there is little money in circulation, store buildings stand empty with "For Sale" signs hanging on the front door; there is little employment for the laboring man, the streets are dark the schools are crippled.
What sort of town do you want to live in? There is only one answer to that question. You want to live in a live town and enjoy all the good things that come to the residents of such a community.
The only question then is as to how these prosperous conditions can be created or maintained and it is the easiest thing in the world to find the answer to that question.
If the people of a community will keep their money at home and keep it in circulation among themselves, they need have no fear of ever being compelled to live in a dead town. If the people will patronize their own business men instead of sending their dollars to the mail order houses the prosperity of the community will take care of itself.
The local stores to a very large extent, make every town. The taxes paid by the business men of the community are the principal support of the schools and public institutions.
It is the taxes paid by the store keepers, to a large extent, that make possible the public improvements, the fire protection, the street lighting and the many other things which make a town worth living in. The mail order house does not pay any taxes in the town from which it gets its money.
It does not help to support the schools or the churches. It does not help light the streets or maintain the fire department. It is the aim of the mail order houses to drive small town merchants out of business, so that the people will be compelled to send to the cities for their merchandise, and they are spending thousands of dollars every month to accomplish this purpose.
If they should succeed, who would pay the taxes that are now paid by the local merchants? It's a certainty that the mail order house would not pay them.
Every dollar spent at home helps to make the town a live one.
Every dollar spent away from home to the mail order house helps to make the town a dead one.
The issue is a cut one and is squarely up to every resident of the town itself or of the country surrounding it.
The man who does not care whether he lives in a live or a dead town, if there is such a man, need waste no thought on the subject, but the man who wants to live in a live town cannot get away from it. It is up to him to make his town a live one or a dead one.

BRITISH NOTE IS NOT SYMPATHETIC TO U. S. PROPOSALS

Washington's Plan For Year on Rum Runners Not Warmly Welcomed.

Washington.—The British reply to Secretary Hughes' proposal for a reciprocal agreement on ship liquor and liquor smuggling, was received at the State Department and was described by officials as "in general not sympathetic to the proposals."
The British Government plans, however, to present the question to the British Imperial Conference, which meets in London next month.
State Department officials view the British communication as leaving open the possibility of negotiating a double-barrelled treaty to curb rum running and also to facilitate legitimate liquor shipments in foreign bottoms.
There was no attempt, however, to disguise the fact that the British Government had indicated general disapproval of the plan and raised objections against it.

CANADIANIZE SCHOOL READERS

The St. John, N.B., "Globe" draws attention to the fact that a long extract from a jungle story, "Instinct or Reason," by W. A. Fraser, the well-known Canadian writer, has been incorporated in New York school readers. It suggests that readers should be periodically revised in order to keep the pupil in touch with the best that is being produced in his own country, while insisting on the prime factor that the child should be familiarized with great passages from English literature. Here is a suggestion for the Canadian Authors' Association.
Though some of its members do not write well enough to produce work of permanent value a recognition of modern Canadian authorship in the school readers of the various provinces might well be advocated.
There is one flagrant example of an utterance by a Canadian, which has received recognition in other countries, but is almost unknown in Canada. Those who have heard General Sir Arthur Currie speak are aware of the dignity of his oratory. Perhaps his greatest utterance was a brief address he made to the Canadian Army, after the Battle of Vimy, (if we are not mistaken) This address so profoundly impressed French educationists that it has been translated and incorporated in French school books, and it is also said to have been utilized in certain American readers. It is high time Canadian youth also was made familiar with it.—Saturday Night.

THE NEW DOMINION LOAN

The Finance Minister has announced the terms of the new loan to retire that falling due on November 1st next, and amounting to $172,471,000. The pending issue will be of bonds bearing 5 per cent. interest, subject to taxation, and will have a currency of five years and of twenty years, the price of the former being 99 and of the latter 98 1/4. The new bonds will be dated October 15th; and, as the maturing issue does not fall in until November 1st, holders who convert will receive a premium of two weeks' interest. The Finance Minister has enlisted the services of the agencies which handled the Victory loans with signal success, and through these a Dominion-wide appeal will be made to holders of the maturing issue to convert into the new bonds, and to others to purchase for investment. The appeal is potent on both pecuniary and patriotic grounds. No safer security can be had, and while the interest rate is lower than that carried by war issues, it is to be considered that rates of interest, or the price of money, have fallen in the last year or two.

THE MARITIMES MUST HELP THEMSELVES

While it is generally admitted that the Maritime Provinces have not during the past forty or fifty years made the progress that they were expected to make and led to believe they would make by the promoters of Confederation, there is, after all, too much of a dwelling on the dead past, and too little looking forward and using constructive effort to make the best of what is undoubtedly a bad situation. While it is not well to overlook the grievances and disabilities which do exist it is extremely unwise to dwell on these to the exclusion of other things. Hence it is decidedly refreshing to read the views of Senator J. A. McDonald on the situation. The Senator, through dint of enterprise, hard work, and business acumen has built up an industry in which the Province may justly take pride. He knows the situation right down to the ground and speaks with authority and with the voice of reason. It is all right to take up and discuss our grievances and many would be pleased to see our members of Parliament or the majority of them, show more backbone and exert themselves when occasions are opportune to seek redress of these grievances, but after all there is too much dependence on governments and representatives and too little real initiative by past masters in the art of growing.

Then, too, the people of the Maritimes have some considerable responsibility as well. The old tale of "far away fields look green" applies here. If the people of the Maritimes as a whole wish to see their industries flourish and grow, it is up to them to give them a decent share of support and not fall into the idea that because certain articles are manufactured a few thousand miles away they must therefore be far better than those in similar lines which are made at home. There is too much knocking and too little boosting. We have a number of industries in this Province which have made for themselves a name all over Canada and farther. Such, for example, as Moir's of Halifax, Stanfield's, of Truro, and several others. In spite of positional disadvantages these industries have abundantly made good, and we believe that there are many industries in these Provinces which would increase and grow most satisfactorily if they had even a reasonable amount of confidence and support placed in them by the people of the Province themselves, and less of the idea prevailing that everything which we manufacture is made very much better elsewhere.

Co-operation by our own people is the first step. After that is secured our industries are then in a position to reach out after wider markets and will be in a position to secure them. What has been done by some of our industries can be done by others. The biggest knockers of these industries have abundantly made good, and we believe that there are many industries in these Provinces which would increase and grow most satisfactorily if they had even a reasonable amount of confidence and support placed in them by the people of the Province themselves, and less of the idea prevailing that everything which we manufacture is made very much better elsewhere.

KEEP ROADS IN BEST OF REPAIR

The progress made during the past few years in improving the main highways of our Province is a matter of satisfaction and pride. Of course it costs money to do these things, but money wisely spent in these regards is not an expenditure but an investment.

Some are perhaps a little too much inclined to look upon the building of good roads as the only consideration, overlooking the fact, that to keep the roads in good repair comes only second to the actual construction. Any person who has done a fair amount of travelling over the roads of the Province or, to bring it nearer home, through the Valley itself, must have noticed how decidedly many a good stretch of roadway has deteriorated during a season. There is little use in spending large sums of money on our road building if no adequate provision is made to keep them in the best of repair. It is the old case of the "stitch in time saving nine". If, as the suggestion has been made before, roads were regularly patrolled by competent and qualified persons in sufficient numbers to give prompt attention to repairs when they are first needed, these roads would always be in good shape and the ultimate roadway cost most materially diminished. There is no doubt that cars driven at a high rate of speed are responsible for much of damage done but the car is a good round tax into the Provincial treasury. We think that a fair way of applying this would be, as is the case in a number of States, and also we believe now in British Columbia, to tax cars according to the amount of use they make of the roads. In other words have an upkeep tax from gasoline but so adjusted that the actual tax, and that alone, would come out of the consumer, and not a tax starting at say 2 or 3 cents a gallon and working up to perhaps 5 or 6 from the owner of a car.

The record of every coal strike since coal strikes became fashionable discloses that after each of these ceremonies, whether an increase in wages is granted or not, the operator cuts another large piece of pie for himself.—(Detroit News.)

In each of its many departments, catering to all classes and all ages, the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, has continued to improve each year over the last until now it would seem perfection were reached. Yet for the coming season that remarkable farm and family journal again promises—still further improvements in all departments. It is a profound mystery to publishers the world over how the Family Herald and Weekly Star can continue to publish a 72-page weekly paper containing such a wealth and variety of reading matter for a subscription price of only $2.00 per year.

If this were not enough, we hear that, added to the amazing value of the paper itself, each subscriber this season who remits in time will receive free a most beautiful picture in colors of a lovely and heroic woman, whose remarkable life story has been published in booklet form and can be obtained without charge from the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal.

For pounding each other for three minutes and fifty-seven seconds, Mr. Jack Dempsey gets $480,000, and Mr. Luis Angel Firpo $160,000. They are no doubt congratulating themselves that they are ring gladiators instead of college presidents.—(Moncton Transcript.)

Liberty is in no danger, so long as our public schools tell the great purpose for which they were established. Ignorance, tyranny, oppression of all sorts vanish before the light of education, and that land is greatest where schools are freest.—(Omaha Bee.)

OBITUARIES

Mrs. William F. Gilliat.

On Wednesday afternoon Sept. 21st, at her home, Granville Centre, the death occurred of Maria Ellis, wife of William F. Gilliat. Deceased had been ill many months, and patiently endured the suffering she was called to bear. She was born in Sheffield Mills, King's Co., seventy-two years ago, was a daughter of the late John Ellis, of that place. Forty-four years ago she came to Granville a bride, and has since resided here. For many years her health has not been good, and her activities have necessarily been confined to her home and family. She made many friends who will always remember her as a kind neighbor and friend. In her home she was bright and entertaining, being a great reader and possessing a retentive memory, made her a pleasant companion. She was deeply interested in missions, being a member of the W.A. of the Anglican Church and the W.M.A.S. of the Baptist Church.

The funeral took place on Saturday, 29th. Services were conducted at her home by Rev. Archdeacon Watson, Rector of All Saints Church, interment in Wadeville cemetery.

She leaves beside her husband, one daughter, Mrs. A. E. McCormick, of Granville Centre, and three sons: J. Burton Elliott, Civil Engineer, Wabana, Newfoundland; Frederik C. of the Entomological Laboratory, Annapolis, and Clyde A., of the Royal Bank of Canada Inspectorial staff in Port of Spain, British West Indies. Also one sister, Mrs. Annie Beckwith, Wolfville, and two brothers, Rupert Ellis, of Centreville, King's Co., and Fenwick, of Sheffield Mills. A profusion of beautiful flowers adorned the casket. Noticeable among them was a pillow from the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church and a broken circle from All Saints Sewing Circle.

The sympathy of the entire neighborhood is extended to the bereaved husband and family.

Mr. Jacob I. Beals.

There passed away at South Wiltamont on Sep. 10th, one of the oldest residents of the place, Mr. Jacob I. Beals, at the advanced age of 88 years.

Mr. Beals had been a life long resident of the place, a farmer by occupation, and had many relatives and friends. He was twice married, his first wife was Miss Sarah Miller, of Mt. Hanley, who died over 40 years ago. His second wife was Miss Margaret Warwick, of Lawrenceton who predeceased him over 30 years. By the first marriage there were two daughters, Ada M., who faithfully and tenderly cared for her father in his declining years, and Mrs. Gesner Lonsbury, of St. John, N. B. By the second marriage there is one daughter, Susie M., who also assisted in caring for her father, and one son, Lewis, who died a few years ago, leaving a widow and six children, who reside in the old homestead. The children and grandchildren will ever cherish the memory of one who was deeply interested in their welfare.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. H. Whitman, pastor of the Lawrenceton Baptist Church, of which Mr. Beals was a charter member. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The pall bearers were: F. L. Bishop, H. T. Bishop, F. C. Bishop and Paul Durling. Burial at the Valley West Cemetery.

Alfred Farnsworth.

The many friends of Alfred Farnsworth will hear with regret of his illness and death which took place at Lynn, Mass., Oct. 1st.

The deceased was very highly esteemed and respected in Lower Granville and had made many warm friends in Lynn where he had resided for the last year.

His body arrived on Wednesday, 3rd inst., accompanied by Miss Blanche Parrott, his brother, Harold and wife, and sister, Mrs. Reuben Conley.

The funeral which was largely attended, took place at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Farnsworth on Thursday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. W. R. Thomas, interment taking place at Stoney Beach cemetery. Hymns sung were: "Abide With Me", "Some sunset We'll Understand".

He leaves to mourn their loss, his parents, one brother, three sisters, Mrs. Harry Delap in Lower Granville, Harold and Mrs. Reuben Conley of Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Geo. Robinson who with her children have been spending the Summer with her parents. His friends have the sympathy of the entire community.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, as follows: Basket of Flowers—Alfred; Miss B. Parrott; "Our Boys"; Pillow—father and mother; "Brother"; Wreath—brother and sisters; Spray—Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Parrott; Spray—Mrs. Peterson; Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. H. Richardson; Mr. and Mrs. E. Pihkam; Spray

NEIGHBORHOOD CORRESPONDENCE

(The Fiction Gazette)

I have before me as I write a letter written to the Editor of this paper from a far off town in Saskatchewan. The writer is speaking not only for herself but on behalf of that great number who once made this county their home. They are scattered to the four corners of this continent but they still think of us as the home folk, and the part of the paper which possesses the greatest interest for them is the local news, sent in week by week by our staff of faithful correspondents from the different parts of the country. These patient, untiring, often much abused news gatherers are building better than they know. They are like the ancient prophets "not without honor save in their own neighborhood." It seems so trifling to say that Mrs. A. called on Mrs. B. or Mr. W. is killing hogs or threshing his clover, or that Mr. and Mrs. N. have gone to town.

But now look at it from the viewpoint of the readers of this paper living in different parts of the country. They have gone away for various reasons but they are building for themselves homes as their fathers did, faced with the same conditions, perplexed by the same problems, and they are anxious to keep the old-time ideals in the new places to which they have gone. The hope of our great new land which is opening up is in many things—the church, the schools, the class of settlers which they are getting. But not the least among the influences which will make this land an ideal place to live in, is the preservation and transplanting of the home ideals which the boys and girls who have left the older portions have had instilled into their youth. Anything then which keeps the spark of the memory of the old home from going out, anything which binds them to the things of the past, is playing a big part in keeping Canada a land of the best ideals.

Now for some years after these people went away the weekly or monthly letter followed them. No one can estimate the inspiration or restraining forces of these letters, but one by one the writers laid aside the pen or their eyes became dim and their fingers cramped with age, and the letters grew less frequent and finally ceased altogether. Hosts of the boys and girls who have been absent from this country for twenty, thirty or forty years have not had a written letter from the place of their birth for years. Is the inspiration of this sacred memory to be allowed to die out?

Here is where the home paper comes in. It comes as a weekly letter freighted with the fragrance of the memories of bygone days. The first bit of news they look for is the news of their old neighborhood. There they see that Mrs. A. is visiting Mrs. B. and they smile and say "Well, she is still on her rounds, is she?" Mr. D. has just cut his clover, and they see again the field where as boys they picked berries from the fence corners, and the hollow rails where they had many a losing fight trying to rob the bumble bee. They read that Mr. W. is dead. "Well, well, he seemed an old man when they were still young." They remembered his rugged, honest and the homely advice which from his desk as superintendent of the Sunday School he gave them. And so he is dead, but his words and influence which can they live over again their Sunday School days, but now realizing what they did not as boys and girls, how necessary, how important, the need of a character built upon the ideal of the Holy Word. So we could go on. The weekly paper with its neighborhood news has brought before the people the doings of the home folks, their work, their play, their social joys, their sorrows—little unimportant happenings to those who live in the neighborhood, but to those absent a link that binds them to the best in the past. A drink of cold water to a thirsty heart, like a drink from the old spring at the foot of the hill at home where as boys we were wont to refresh ourselves. And in the strength of that refreshment they can go on to do continually better work—and so they are thankful for the home paper and the neighborhood correspondents, who, by much sacrifice constitute themselves a link which binds them to all the best in the past.

This week we saw a remarkable floral freak, seven sweet pea blossoms on one stem. The flowers were of the Spencer variety and grown in the garden of Dr. Armstrong.

SYMPTOMS OF ANAEMIA

An Inherited Tendency to Anaemia May Be Overcome.

Some people have a tendency to become thin-blooded just as others have an inherited tendency to rheumatism, or to nervous disorders. The condition in which the blood becomes so thin that the whole body suffers comes on so gradually and stealthily that anyone with a natural disposition in that direction should watch the symptoms carefully. Bloodlessness, or anaemia, as the medical term is, can be corrected much more easily in the earlier stages than later. It begins with a tired feeling that rest does not overcome, the complexion becomes pale, and breathlessness on slight exertion, such as going up stairs, is noticed.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a home remedy that has been most successful in the treatment of diseases caused by thin blood. With pure air and wholesome food these blood-making pills afford the correct treatment when the symptoms described are noticed.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, postpaid, at 50c a box, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

TO OFFSET CATALOGUE HOUSES

To offset the catalogue houses today, the merchant must tell the people what he's got, argues the Renfrew Mercury, which goes on to say: "There is one way, we believe, by which business in Renfrew could be very much improved, and that is by consistent co-operative advertising on the part of our merchants in their local paper. Whenever such a suggestion is put forward by a party it is very apt to be lightly dismissed with some remark about the Editor trying to drum up his own business. For that reason, he is sure to be what to advance it, but it is true, nevertheless. The Mercury would not have put it forward at this time, however, had the suggestion not been made to the Editor by a young man prominently connected with the selling end of the one of Renfrew's industries. Discussing the business situation the other night with a small group, he declared that he travelled around the country quite a bit and thought Renfrew was holding its own during this trying period as well as most towns, but, said he, I believe the merchants of Renfrew would do far more business if they did more advertising. "If a large number of merchants would each offer a headliner in The Mercury every Friday for Saturday's business," he said, "they would be surprised at the volume of trade they could bring to this town." He explained the amount of advertising industries had to do today to market their products, and he claimed the same thing was true of every other line. "If a merchant wants to offset the highly specialized catalogue houses," he concluded, "he has got to tell the people what he's got and invite them to come to his store and share some real values."

We are hearing a lot these days about the progress and prosperity of Pembroke. The large volume of local display advertising carried in the paper each week by the merchants without a doubt contributes very largely to the business prosperity. At the present time the Renfrew stores carry less advertising than the stores of any town in the Valley.

The Editor of the Elmira Signal, in speaking of the progressive spirit of the town of St. Mary's dwells on the comprehensive advertising policy of its merchants, to which he attributes the success which they have over many other towns in holding their home town business from the catalogue trade of the big Department Houses.—Ex.

WORTHY COUPLE HONORED

Presentation to Rev. A. R. Reynolds and Wife of Berwick on Their Wedding Anniversary.

Berwick.—The parsonage of the Berwick United Church was the scene of a very happy gathering, the occasion being the fifteenth wedding anniversary of Rev. A. R. and Mrs. Reynolds. A large number of the members of the congregation, and others of the town, met to celebrate the event but had kept intentions in this respect from the knowledge of the pastor and his wife, to whom the gathering was a complete surprise.

The evening was spent in games and social intercourse. Rev. A. N. Gillis of the Waterville Union Church on behalf of the company presented Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds with a substantial gift of money, and in a happy address, conveyed the felicitations of the congregation of the United Church. Mayor S. C. Parker, expressed the good wishes of the town. J. N. Chute, President of the King's Memorial Hospital Association, the executive of which Mr. Reynolds is a member, extended the congratulations of that organization, and R. S. Spicer and S. H. Parker as officials of the United Church, spoke briefly. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

The United Church, of which Mr. Reynolds is pastor, was formed about three years ago through the union of the Presbyterians and Methodists of Berwick, and the nearby communities, a union that works very satisfactorily. Mr. Reynolds has been pastor for a little over two years. Before coming here he was pastor of the Lunenburg Methodist Church.

SIR HARRY LAUDER TELLS THIS ONE

Sir Harry Lauder, on his recent arrival in New York, was congratulated on the enormous tips he had given to the ship's stewards at the end of his voyage.

"Well, you see," he said, "I always have to show the world what a real Scot is like. The Scot of fiction you know, is like the old fellow who said to his hotel porter at the railroad station:

"Varra sorry, laddie, but I've given a'ma sma change to the pretty chambermaid back at the hotel.

"Excuse me, sir," said the porter, "but she told me you didn't give her nothink."

"A weel," laughed the old fellow, "if I dinna gie nothink tae sic a bonny lass, what chance do ye think ye've got?"

Relieved Rheumatism Too, Says Contractor

Thousands of people everywhere have learned of Tanlac through the statements of others and have taken the treatment with such splendid results that they in turn deem it only fair to relate their experience for the benefit of suffering humanity. Such is the case with L. Desormeaux, well known Electrical Contractor, living at 1068 Berrill St., Montreal, who says: "I couldn't do otherwise than publicly endorse Tanlac for I am lucky to find out about the medicine the same way myself. For nearly a year I suffered from indigestion and also rheumatism in my legs. About a month ago I was laid up in bed for two weeks with this rheumatism and a bad case of grippe. I lost about eight pounds and felt miserable. Three bottles of the Tanlac treatment, besides greatly improving my rheumatism, has made my eating and digestion better than they ever were. I have regained my lost weight, and am feeling extremely well. Tanlac is great." Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 27 million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills.

NO REASON WHATSOEVER

Declaring that the views of a certain Montreal newspaper are not its views with regard to Canadian export trade, the Quebec Chronicle, after voicing a hope that Quebec itself may some day become a Winter port, continues:

In the meantime there is no reason whatever why Winter shipments of Western Canadian grain and other freight should be routed via the ports of an alien country that has enacted hostile tariffs for the express purpose of killing our export trade. The same reason that should operate to secure for Quebec a large share of the summer shipments of grain are applicable to similar shipments in the Winter months by the ports of Halifax and St. John. Their favorable consideration is demanded alike by the just claims of our sister Maritime Provinces and by those of the intercolonial railway, whose financial interests are those of every taxpayer in the Dominion of Canada.

DO IT SOON

Sooner or later we shall have to take up again a practice which has been very much neglected in this country for many years, namely, that of watching small expenditures. That was a very common practice in Nova Scotia at one time; but the easy money of the last ten years or so, has almost put it out of existence. It may hurt for a while to go back to counting in ten cent pieces; but it will save to be done.—(The Casket.)

A MARITIME DELEGATION

(From the Toronto Globe) The Montreal Transcript approves of a suggestion made by Mr. Matthew Lodge, first of the Maritime Board of Trade, to organize a strong delegation to visit the Central and Western Provinces in order to explain fully to shippers the advantage of routing exports and imports through Canadian ports. It points out that the people of Portland, Me., have taken this course, a large Portland delegation being touring Western Canada, explaining what that seaport has to offer, and making a strong bid for new business. That their mission was by no means unproductive is shown by the reports of speeches delivered at various points in the Maritime Provinces, who were enthusiastically received and greatly encouraged by assurances of future support. It is more than a little telling to read of this sort of thing at a time when the Maritime Provinces are pressing for a better recognition of their claims and for equipment of our own seaports so that they may be able to handle our own Canadian business.

One of the tariff changes made last session was intended to give a preference to imports through the ports of the Maritime, and some of our largest importers availed themselves of this provision. We hope the Maritime delegation will be organized and we are sure that it will be warmly received. Besides the specific object mentioned, it will promote good understanding and good will between the Eastern, Central and Western parts of Canada.

COWS "PETROL" ONTARIO ROAD SAYS ANONYMUS LETTER WRITER

Rural Slogan May Soon Be "Grow Your Own Petrol and Flivver at First Cost"

(From the Durham, Ont., Chronicle.) Over the non de plume of Mr. A. Traveller, somebody has written the local Provincial Highway Department complaining that cows are allowed to "petrol" the highway south of Durham all the time, and threatening that if the matter is not looked after he will have to take it up with some one higher in authority.

Ever since the day that Adam and Eve were fired off the job in the Garden of Eden Dame Trouble has had more than her share of the stage, and now that we thought we had just about got things pretty well fixed up in this part of Old Ontario along comes these "petrol" cows and their "petrol" and raise more disturbance.

Some three or four years ago we had quite a discussion about Henry Ford and his tin milk-making machine, but the "petrol" spilling cow is a new one on us and has been sprung without any advance notices at all, so to speak.

Just think what an army of these "petrol" fiends would mean to a man with a small income, a large family and a second-hand car! It is possible that the rural slogan may soon be "Grow Your Own Petrol and Flivver at First Cost!" This, we predict, will do more for the "Back to the Land" movement than all the political bunk in the last five years, for, like other bosses, we presume the "petrol" cow must have pasture just the same as the other kind. So far, the local Provincial Highway staff has been very reticent on the matter, and while they may possibly have gotten in on the ground floor in this new game, we notice that they still buy their "petrol" from the iron machines at the local garages, and are doubtless awaiting developments before getting in too deep on this new gas-saving device.

But all jokes aside! All of us have heard at one time or other, and more especially at a church anniversary, that "the Lord loveth a cheerful giver," but we doubt very much if

CAMPAIGN FOR BETTER ENGLISH

Miss Rosamond Archibald Lectures in King's English Drill to Appreciative Audience.

Lawrenceport.—An event of unusual interest took place in the Demonstration Building, Lawrenceport, on the evening of Sept. 25th, when Miss Rosamond Archibald, of Wolfville, lectured on her "Kings English Drill."

Mrs. J. B. Hall, President of the Women's Institute, in her usual pleasant manner, introduced the speaker. Miss Archibald held the closest attention of her very large audience throughout the evening as she delivered her lecture in faultless English, and with a pleasing, well modulated voice. This audience consisted of pupils from a number of schools, teachers, and parents, many driving from a distance and the commodious building was taxed to its utmost.

Miss Blackadder and Dr. L. R. Morse, of Lawrenceport; Miss Pitt-Randolph and Dr. F. S. Messenger, of Middleton, expressed appreciation and extended thanks.

The musical part of the evening was a pleasing and educative feature. Six of Mrs. Corkum's youngest pupils led in the singing of the opening chorus "O Canada," and also sang "The Reckless" and "How Lovely Are The Words." Mrs. Corkum is giving her children unusual training in sight singing without the aid of an instrument, and she deserves the sincerest thanks of the parents and town.

Miss Jessie Phinney played a piano solo "Godard's Mazurka," and as usual this clever young pianist merited great praise.

Mrs. W. F. Porter and Miss Ethel St. John closed the wonderfully successful evening with a piano duet which was brilliantly and well executed. This was followed by the National Anthem.

Wonderful Tea!

Users of KING COLE Orange Pekoe are frequently heard to remark: "It's really wonderful tea." This is not particularly in reference to its outstanding quality although that is necessarily included, but is due to the wonderful way it "spends." For KING COLE Orange Pekoe is a rich liquoring tea as well as a deliciously flavorful one. Skillful blending combines these two great tea qualities for your enjoyment.

"The Extra in Choice Tea."

Criminal Fools and Canadian Forests

A beautiful stand in the Nipigon district, near which a Canadian Pacific Bangalow Camp has been erected. Imagine the result if this camp fire should be neglected. Below—Canadian Pacific tank car unit on the road. Left—Showing the pumps and how they throw a stream high over a 90 foot tower.

LOOK at the boards at your feet, the walls which surround you, the roof over your head, the chair in which you sit, and your furniture. All are products of the Canadian forests, and practically everything you come into contact with in the day depends on the forest for one or more of its component parts. They take the foods you eat, the paper you read by the wood fire at night; the food is produced by Canadian farmers who depend on the forest for a regular supply of moisture, the paper is composed largely of wood pulp. It is almost beyond comprehension—the amount of lumber used in construction and in the development of the country each year. Canada's prosperity, her whole future, is one with that of her forests.

Ontario alone gives employment to 17,000 men in the bush; pulp and paper mills in the same province employ 8,000 men, and the amount of capital invested in the two industries amounts to over $150,000,000. Yet, for every tree that is felled, for every log that helps to keep the wheels of industry moving, for every board that is used in construction, twice as many are consumed by fire. This means that forest fires consume twelve times the amount of the lumber which is the life of Canadian industries, and that each year fire is depleting the forests which should hold back the rain fall so as to ensure throughout the year the moisture which is the life of the farm. Five hundred thousand acres of forest are burned over in Ontario each year, and the government of this province is burdened with a forest fire protection organization which costs $3,000 a day.

Why is the country put to such a loss? Because there are no means of segregating the criminal fools and careless! Take the fire which in October last took forty-four lives, rendered thousands homeless, and destroyed property valued at eight million dollars in the vicinity of Halleybury, the terrible fires in 1916 around Matheson, and in 1911 around Cochrane. These, like the majority of other fires, were the result of criminal carelessness. Settlers allow their slash fires to grow beyond control, the sportsman builds his camp fire in a mossy place and forgets to extinguish it, a lighted cigarette or match is thrown away carelessly and originates a small blaze which may soon develop into a holocaust beyond control of man.

Years ago the railways were, perhaps, responsible for many conflagrations, but not so today. Although one half of the Canadian Pacific Railway right-of-way lies in forest areas in the east and is flanked by forests for hundreds of miles in both Ontario and British Columbia, this railway has long since ceased to be a factor in the destruction of the forests. In order to eliminate the possibility of fires being started by passing trains, all Canadian Pacific locomotives are examined at the end of each trip and great care is taken to see that ash pans and front ends are in perfect condition. Engineers and firemen are given explicit instructions not to dump live coals or to throw waste upon the right of way, and should an engine crew notice a blaze, by a series of whistles the section men and fire patrol are notified, and the nearest despatcher takes steps to secure whatever additional men are required.

The Canadian Pacific maintains a regular and efficient force which patrols the right of way in forest areas after the passing of trains and which cooperates with the Dominion, Provincial and other fire prevention organizations to the fullest extent. Also at various points along the line are kept a number of fire tank units, each unit consisting of two tank cars, each of 7,000-gallon capacity, equipped with powerful pumps, and approximately one mile of hose. This equipment has proved valuable not only in fighting forest fires but in fighting fires which have occurred in forest and rail side towns.

CANADA'S LOAN OVERSUBSCRIBED Bank of Commerce Reads the List With Five Million Subscriptions.

Toronto.—With two further special subscriptions announced, aggregating $5,239,000 it is apparent that the Dominion of Canada refunding loan is oversubscribed, for accumulation of smaller week-end orders was heavy, and the total was within $12,000,000 of the $172,000,000 objective on Saturday.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce headed the list of special subscriptions, taking a $5,000,000 block, a subscription which has only been exceeded once in the whole campaign. The rumor is current in financial circles that Ottawa is considering increasing the total beyond the $172,000,000 objective originally set.

Ottawa.—The Finance Department had no comment to make on a rumor that the new loan, Dominion refunding, will be increased beyond $172,000,000. The original sale was $55,000,000 only but the Department has steadily declined to put any limit on the amount which would be accepted.

Local Happenings

Attention is called to the notice in another column referring to unwarranted trespass by some parties making a thoroughfare of the old English Church cemetery. The committee in charge of improvements are going to put down this practice with a firm hand.

Stur, Valinda is making two trips this week to take care of big rush of fruit, etc. going to St. John.

The service in St. Mary's Church, Belleisle, next Sunday afternoon, will commence at 2 o'clock instead of 3.

Not often is a bear track seen within the town limits, but a few nights ago Big Bruin wandered into town and his footprints were clearly defined on the sidewalk near the office of the Windsor Furniture Co. A heavy rain that night had so softened the surface of the ground that the imprint was clearly made and was unquestionably that of a bear.—Harris Journal.

Mr. John Spurr secured a nice moose near Perotte last week.

M. W. Graves & Co. commenced operations in their evaporator for the season on Tuesday and will probably operate for the usual period this Fall.

Why is it that in some places you never get a good cup of tea—that is, not as good as it should be? The answer is, careless making. MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE is the best tea in the world, but unless it is brewed properly, it will not give the best results. Be careful then when using it to follow directions, which are plainly printed on the wrapper.

X. W. A. Chute, the old commodore building mover, has finished moving the store of A. W. Beals, South Wilmamston, business being carried on as usual. The building was placed over a cellar and we are informed that the clock did not stop nor even a lamp chimney get broken. Mr. Beals states that the old commodore knows his business from A to Z.

Last week the largest shipment of silver black foxes ever made from Nova Scotia passed through here one day last week from Wolfville en route to Portland, Maine, accompanied by the owner, Mr. A. T. McConnell. There were fifty in all valued at $500 each. Duty alone on this lot would be $5000.

Hikes are becoming popular among a number of our young ladies. Two of them on Sunday made the round to Paradise up the North side of the river, returning by the South side and refused en route many an offer of a car drive. While walks of this length and much greater are frequently taken by young ladies in England hiking to even this extent is not very frequently undertaken by young ladies in our Province of Nova Scotia.

Although some fairly optimistic reports have come from Annapolis on the moose hunting question Bridgetown Nimrods have thus far been playing in hard luck and at time of writing none of the local hunters have appeared to meet with any success. Last year at this time ye Editor had luxuriated in wild meat on several occasions but this year his hopes are slim. There is little doubt that moose are very scarce in at least most of the back country. Various reasons are assigned for the greater scarcity of this season of these monarchs of the wilds but it is generally believed that a large number of these animals were slaughtered last Winter when snow in the woods was so deep that they were unable to escape from hunters. Some confute this view of the matter and allege disease, inability to obtain nourishment, etc. etc. The fact remains that all game appears to be unusually scarce this season.

Sewing Circle Gossip.

There was some discussion at the Circle this week as to the time of day when a cup of coffee tastes best. Some said one time and some said another, but we were all agreed that a good strong cup of LUXOR coffee was more than acceptable at any time. LUXOR seems to be growing in favor among "circle" members every day. We circle members do love our coffee.

The death occurred at the County Hospital last week of Miss Rosina Lunn, aged 30. She had been ill for some five years past, was a daughter of Edward Lunn, of Falmouth, to which place the remains were forwarded for burial.

The following unique happening was related to The Monitor by Mr. Avard Beeler and being of so unusual an occurrence we take the liberty of passing it on to our readers.

Mr. Beeler some days ago was driving from Dalhousie to Annapolis along the road which leads to Lequille and while proceeding at a fair pace some three or four miles from Annapolis captured a partridge in a most unusual manner. The bird, possibly startled by the approach of the car, flew across the road but in its flight struck one of the bows of the car, broke its neck and fell dead in the hind seat between Mrs. Beeler and her daughter Miss Mammie. Good hunter as Mr. Beeler undoubtedly is, it is very doubtful if he will ever be able to duplicate this unusual stunt in hunting without intention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Austin and Mrs. W. H. Tupper motored from Halifax Thursday to Upper Granville, bringing with them Mrs. A. E. Phinney, who had been their guest for several weeks.

Chevrolet now rated as Class "A" Insurance Risk

Less than a dozen motor cars—all much higher in price—have similar insurance rating, which is the lowest possible.

The sound construction of Chevrolet Superior Models has again been proved by the fact that the Underwriters have given to Chevrolet Class "A" Insurance Rating. This means that the Chevrolet owner gets the lowest possible rate of insurance on his car.

Less than a dozen other cars so low, and they are all cars of much higher price.

This new ruling is further evidence of the attention to detail which Chevrolet engineers have given to the design and production of the Chevrolet Car.
