LABORITE RESOLUTION CONDEMNS KING'S PROPOSAL TO ACT AS MEDIATOR VANCOUVER REGIMENTS CALLED TO ARMS AGAINST HINDUS

METHODISTS MAY IGNORE CHURCH UNION IDEA

Action of Presbyterians in Postponing Ballot for Two Years Does Not Commend Itself to Officers of General Conference.

Church union will be treated as a dead issue at the coming Methodist conference according to a high church dignitary, who sized up the situation in the World as being now clear cut. He pointed out that the request of the Presbyterian general assembly to the Methodist Church to keep up negotiating for another two years to enable the Presbyterians to take a second ballot did not commend itself favorably to the general conference officers, who as a matter of courtesy, and with a view to the attainment of other ends it would probably be concurred in.

"No Surrender" Did It. The death blow to organic union of the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches in Canada was, he considered, struck when so many leading heavyweights left the general assembly at the Massey Hall to organize a "no surrender" league at new St. Andrew's Church. The upshot of that movement had been the organization of the anti-union sentiment in the Presbyterian body on a basis which rendered the task of uniting the churches impossible. It had led one of the Methodist general superintendents to frankly admit that the Methodists had no desire to join with a part of the Presbyterian denomination. With 117 members of the Presbyterian General Assembly voting against union and the organization of the opposing vote going on vigorously the issue had become as stated by the anti-unionists "neither practical nor advisable."

Too Stubborn Opposition. The prominent Methodist interviewed said that he had been an earnest supporter of church union, but with so strong a minority against it in the Presbyterian Church it was no more attainable than the inclusion of the whole of Ulster under a Dublin parliament. The Canadian Presbyterian anti-unionists were animated by similar feelings as the Ulster diehards.

There were two alternatives to forcing the church union. One was a church council similar to that in the United States, and the council of the nonconformist churches in England, the other, and probably the one which would prevail would be a consolidation of the efforts by committees to promote cooperation along mission lines by preventing overlapping in new home mission territory and in the foreign fields. The only action in church union likely to be taken would be the reappointment of a church union committee with the difference that its appointment four years ago was with the belief that it would bring to a successful consummation the previous eight years of negotiations, while the appointment this time will be merely that it may be in a position to make a report to the succeeding quadrennial meeting of the general conference on the wisest action to be taken on the outcome in the second Presbyterian membership ballot.

WILL NOT RESIGN SEAT IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, July 20.—Paul Lamarche, M. P. for Nicolet, who has been employed as a city attorney, says he will not resign his seat in the commons because of his position at the city hall. He cites the cases of Mayor Martin, who is also a member of parliament, and City Clerk David, who is a senator, as examples in the holding of dual positions.

HUERTA AND FAMILY ARE OFF TO JAMAICA

Canadian Press Despatch. PUERTO RICO, July 20.—The German cruiser Dresden, with former President Huerta and his family and former War Minister Blanquet, Senor Blanquet and their daughter aboard, sailed at 7:30 o'clock this evening for Jamaica. The departure of the former president was without incident, there not being even any shouts of "good by" from the dock.

HOME RULE CONFERENCE PLAN IS REGARDED WITH DISTRUST BY UNIONISTS AND LABORITES

Bonar Law's Followers Scent Wily Tactics by Asquith to Delay Ulster's Provisional Government—Labor Resolution Alleges Undue Interference by Crown Calculated to Override Parliamentary Authority.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, July 20.—There was some extremely heated criticism today in Unionist clubs of the contemplated conference at Buckingham Palace between King George and the leaders of the Liberal, Unionist, Nationalist and Ulsterite parties on the Irish home rule bill. Members of the Unionist party expressed the view that their party again had been out-manoeuvred by Premier Asquith and at the moment when thru the house of lords' reconstruction of the amendment to the home rule bill, they were in a better position than for a long time.

Suspect Asquith's Motives. The initiative for the conference was taken by Premier Asquith and not by King George, according to the Unionists, and the premier's one and only object was to gain time and prevent a provisional government in Ulster being constituted until after parliament had adjourned, thus avoiding criticism of his followers, and possible defeat on division. If the premier can carry out this plan, a prominent Unionist said today, he probably can safely weather the political storm until parliament is dissolved in its natural course in 1915. The Ulsterites, it was said, were running short of money, the organization of the volunteers having cost a tremendous sum, and the Ulster business men, whose trade had been badly disorganized thru the crisis were unable to subscribe any more.

Law on Guard. "But he won't succeed," added this Unionist, "Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition in the house of commons, has been given to understand that he must brook no delay in the negotiations and he will tell the conferees that the conference must not last more than a week." Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulsterites, took the calling of a conference quite calmly. He told his colleagues that it could make no difference in his attitude.

Unionist friends of Sir Edward believe, however, that he will accept the exclusion of the Protestant counties of Ulster and Tyrone when the moment comes. It is thought that in Tyrone the greatest tussle may be expected. While it contains a Catholic majority, the Protestant minority is very determined, and one of the best Ulster volunteer corps have organized there.

It is believed that a majority of the Nationalist party are ready to offer some concessions to Ulster, but are held back by the section of the party led by John Devlin, who as members of Ulster constituencies cannot look on with equanimity when there is a prospect of their constituents being left out of a home rule parliament.

Laborites Disapprove. The parliamentary labor party strongly disapproves King George's intervention in a political controversy, even with the laudable object of settling the Irish question, and have asked Premier Asquith to inform the King what they think of his action. The Laborites held a private meeting in the house of commons tonight at which they passed the following resolution concerning the conference: "The members of the Labor party having heard the king has considered it right to summon a conference of representatives of the British and Irish parties to discuss the outstanding points in the problem of Irish government, and having been unable to express their opinion in the house of commons, owing to the way in which the statement was made, do strongly protest against a permanent settlement, protesting against such a command having been issued regarding any matter of political collection as being undue interference on the part of the crown and calculated to defeat the purposes of a parliament act.

Might is Right. "They further put on record their surprise that two of the representatives are practically rebels under arms against the constituted authority, and regret this indication that in the future the organization of force is to be officially considered as most effective in industrial as well as political disputes." It was decided that a copy of the resolution be sent to Premier Asquith with a request that he communicate it to King George. It was, of course, Sir Edward Carson and Captain James Craig to whom the resolution referred as "practically rebels under arms."

SEND PRISONERS' PHOTOS TO TWENTY-FIVE CITIES

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, July 20.—Twenty-five pictures of each of the ten men arrested in an alleged fake poolroom on Dorchester street last Friday night are being sent out tonight by the police department to the chief cities of the continent with a view to finding out something about the suspects.

HYDRO CONCEDES BOARD'S AWARD TO WORKERS

Strike Will Be Averted as Result of Yesterday's Action—Private Agreement Does Not Affect Mechanics, Linemen or Wiremen—Increases Are Granted.

The Toronto Hydro-Electric Commission yesterday decided to accept the award upon wages and conditions of its employees, as given last June by the board of arbitration appointed by the department of labor, on which Judge Snider of Hamilton presided. Notice to this effect has been sent to Ottawa, and the men will receive official notice at their meeting tomorrow night, as well as the award of the board which reported on the differences between the T. E. Co. and its employees.

Some confusion has arisen over the existence of a private agreement signed by staff employees who work on a monthly basis. The employer in such cases is said to relinquish his right to ownership of inventions, compensation for injuries, the right to appeal against dismissal, and other claims, but as was stated to The World yesterday, the government award does not affect the same class of employees as the private agreement, and the mechanics, linemen and wiremen will not be asked to sign it—the private agreement.

The award gives the men an increase in wages ranging from 3 to 50 cents to hourly and many improvements in working conditions. The A. B. C. classes are abolished and workers are rated as mechanics, helpers and apprentices, with a wage scale according to skill and experience.

RAPID PROGRESS MADE ON GUELPH RADIAL LINE

Special to The Toronto World. GUELPH, July 20.—The Canadian Northern electric line from Toronto to Guelph is, according to reliable reports, likely to be running by this autumn. Chief Engineer White and two assistants were in the city, and from what they said it is apparent that from now on greater activity may be expected in the construction of the line to Guelph. It is learned that steel rails are now laid as far as Georgetown, and at the rapid rate the work is proceeding it will not be long before gangs are working in this vicinity. The roadbed is already graded, with ties and steel supplies on hand for most of the distance.

LAD SEVERELY INJURED WHILE PLAYING IN BARN

Special to The Toronto World. GUELPH, July 20.—Gordon Dennis, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dennis, Paisley road, while playing in a neighbor's barn with some other boys, jumping from beams to the hay, lost his balance and toppled over backwards. In falling he made a grab for the beam and had a slice of his arm torn out. His face and forehead hit the hay with terrible force. Medical examination showed that he had been badly cut around the face, his lips were severely slashed and his forehead cut open. The lad has since been simpsonous and his condition is critical.

WILL MUSTER VOLUNTEER TROOPS TO GO FULLY ARMED ON RAINBOW HINDUS ARE BARRICADING VESSEL

Volunteer Regiments Called Out By Special Order Issued at Vancouver Last Night—Hindus Show Intention To Resist Deportation Vigorously, and Bloodshed Is Expected—Japanese Crew Taken From Vessel.

Canadian Press Despatch. VANCOUVER, B.C., July 20.—Upwards of two hundred men, comprising the sixth regiment, Duke of Connaught's Own Rifles, and the newly formed Irish Fusiliers, were called out tonight by a special order signed by Col. Duff-Stewart and Col. George C. McSpadden. They will parade Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, fully armed, and expect at that hour to go on board the Rainbow, which is due from Victoria. More than four hundred men should be on the war vessel when she goes out early tomorrow forenoon to take possession of the Komagata Maru. Unless the Hindus suffer a violent change of mind during the night, they will show a stubborn resistance and a bloody fight may result.

Japanese Crew Removed

Japanese Consul Horii received cabled instructions from his government this morning to see that the Japanese crew of the Komagata Maru was not mixed up in any battle. To this end the whole Japanese crew was this evening taken off the ship, and will remain off until such time as the Rainbow blue-jackets have the matter under control. Gardner Johnson, agent for the owners, and Sir Charles H. Tupper, counsel for the owners, had a mid-day conference, and the lawyer had addressed another letter to the Hindu committee of the Komagata Maru, pointing out that the ship had all the water she needs, and assuring them that plenty of provisions will be put on board for the trip across the Pacific. The letter goes on to point out the fact that the Hindus will have to return, and that therefore, they might as well go peacefully.

Hindus Belligerent

The Hindus are not preparing for peace, however; they are preparing for war. Today the forward and aft well decks on the vessel are short wooden barricades, backed up with coal, and it looks as if they are prepared to make a vigorous defence. With a message from the governor-general, H. H. Stevens, M.P., and Immigration Inspector Hopkinson, with a party, went out to the ship at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The wire was from the Duke of Connaught to the Hindu passengers on board the steamer. No one appears to know just what was contained in the message to the passengers on the Komagata Maru in reply to their message of a day or two ago, but it is quite definite that it was nothing definitely satisfactory to the passengers. The probability suggested is that the governor-general simply said that the question was being taken up by the departments concerned. It at all events would seem to be the reply which might be expected.

Kopkinson as Envoy. Mr. Hopkinson had quite an interesting conversation with Geldit Singh this morning. Geldit Singh is Gurdi's secretary and no doubt officially represented the passengers on the boat at the conference with the immigration man. Mr. Hopkinson talked on the Maru itself, apparently having no fear of the Hindus, who made the object of such a deadly attack during the night affray.

Underwriting C.N.R. Issue

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, July 20.—The underwriting is proceeding of the issue of $15,000,000 guaranteed four per cent. stock on the part of the Canadian Northern Railway. The principal and interest are guaranteed by the Dominion Government. The stock is redeemable in 1944 and the price is $4.

G. N. R. SECURITY IS NOT REDUCED

Trust Mortgage Given by Railroad in Favor of Manitoba, Not Objected to by Government.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, July 20.—The trust mortgage of the C. N. R. in favor of the Province of Manitoba, which has just been filed at the secretary of state's office, does not reduce the security of the Dominion Government for the $45,000,000 guarantee.

As a matter of fact, trust mortgages such as this one are expressly provided for by the C. N. R. bill passed here in June. It was stipulated that the C. N. R. could mortgage any of its lines up to $15,000 per mile ahead of the Dominion Government's claim. That is what the C. N. R. has just been doing in connection with some of its lines in Manitoba. In the case of new lines it can put on the whole mortgage of $15,000 a mile, or with lines already pledged for, say, $10,000, it can mortgage them for an additional $5,000 per mile. The object of leaving the company with this power was to enable it to make extensions and improvements.

YOU WON'T NEED TO TELL WHAT CHURCH YOU GO TO

The police will not ask the citizens what their religion is, or their nationality, when the police census is taken. Such was the ruling of the city council last night, when they adopted the recommendation to take a police census, and eliminated the questions of creed and nationality.

RAINBOW MADE READY

Canadian Press Despatch. VICTORIA, July 20.—The cruiser Rainbow is preparing to leave at midnight for Vancouver, after taking aboard her new crew. Because of the present state of the hull of the Rainbow there was some doubt expressed at the navy yard in Esquimalt this morning that the vessel will be able to sail for Vancouver to take a hand in the quieting of the angry Hindus on board the Komagata Maru.

Following the receipt of orders from the Naval Department at Ottawa, to have the cruiser Rainbow provisioned and made ready to proceed to Vancouver at a moment's notice, the coaling wharf at Esquimalt this morning was a scene of much animation. Blue jackets and yard hands were working hard placing stores aboard and getting the ship ready.

Needs Repair. Early this morning several divers dived their suits and went below to look over the bottom of the cruiser. She has been riding at her buoy for some months and her hull is very dirty and a slight leak was discovered. The submarine workers removed some of the sea-growth and repaired the hull in good shape. Upon her return from Vancouver the Rainbow, if she survives the fight with the Hindus, will be placed in drydock for repairs and a thorough overhauling made, and will then proceed to Behring Sea to execute the patrol in compliance with the international sealing treaty. Fifty naval volunteers will join her for the northern cruise.

TIMBER CHARGES NOT DISPOSED OF

Return of Berry Desired by Investigators—Premier Fleming Completes Evidence.

ST. JOHN, N.B., July 20.—The evidence of Premier Fleming in the timber land charges was concluded this afternoon and the Valley Railway charges will be taken up tomorrow morning.

The timber land charges will be left open till every means is exhausted to secure the attendance of W. H. Berry, the government scaler who refuses to return from the United States and testify.

"I still think that the government should make some effort to secure the attendance of W. H. Berry before this commission. Personally I would be very sorry to see the enquiry ended without his testimony. Although Acting Premier Clark has said that he knows of legal means to compel Mr. Berry to return, he also said he had not asked him to do so. I think Mr. Clark might at least write Mr. Berry a letter asking him to return to give evidence."

These were the remarks which Commissioner F. S. Fisher greeted Mr. Carvell's statement that he is still using every effort to secure Mr. Berry's attendance, although his hopes of success were not as strong as they were three weeks ago.

Mr. Fowler opposed this, but the commission finally decided to leave the crown lands matter open while the railway inquiry proceeds, and to resume the railway inquiry tomorrow at ten o'clock.

Premier Fleming was on the stand again for the entire session today while Mr. Carvell finished his cross-examination, and Mr. Todd his re-examination. One of the premier's admissions on the stand was that he had received a letter from W. H. Berry soon after the missing official had reached Boston. He denied that he had communicated with Mr. Berry in any way, that he had been in communication with G. C. Cutler or that he knew Mr. Berry had waited upon Mr. Cutler.

NEW LEASE FOR GRAIN GROWERS

Their Company Will Probably Continue to Operate Manitoba Government Elevators.

Canadian Press Despatch. WINNIPEG, Man., July 20.—As a result of negotiations which have been proceeding between the Manitoba Government and the Grain Growers' Grain Company, there is every probability that the company will continue to operate under lease the Manitoba elevators belonging to the government. The present contract expires on August 31, and it is understood that the Grain Growers' Company is willing to renew the franchise under certain conditions. An offer has been made to the government, and the matter will now remain in abeyance until an answer is given by the provincial government. This answer is expected to be transmitted to the Grain Growers' Company within the next few days and an arrangement arrived at.

TOWNSHIP COUNCIL AWARDS CONTRACTS

Sewer on Lauder Avenue and Sidewalks on Appleton and Barrie

FAIRBANK DEPUTATION

School Trustees Receive Loan Pending Sale of Debentures.

A deputation consisting of Messrs. Watt, Lacey and Wilcox, representing the trustees of the York Township Council yesterday to urge that the council help them secure a loan of $4,000 with which to proceed with the four-roomed addition to their school. They stated that $6,000 of debentures for the addition had been issued, but had not yet been sold as the time limit had not expired. As the work was nearing completion they required the money to settle the accounts with the contractors. The banks had refused to lend them the money, but told them to make application thru the council.

The council awarded a contract for a sewer 1,627 feet long on Lauder avenue to the Lewis Contracting Company for $6,154, and a sidewalk contract on Appleton avenue to the Grant Construction Company for $2,000, and a sidewalk on Barrie avenue to J. H. Richardson for $250. Contracts for two other sidewalks on Ribbina avenue and Holland Park were left over. The contract for the reconstruction of Schmidt's bridge was also left over. The engineer was instructed to report on the construction of a sewer 2,600 feet long on Glenholme avenue and one 800 feet long on Burncliffe road to Glenholme avenue, also the construction of a four-foot-six sidewalk on Main street. The application for a sewer on Woodville avenue was referred to the assessment commissioner.

Eglinton Avenue Sidewalk. If the results of the Eglinton avenue sewer are satisfactory, the council will be willing to pay for the construction of a concrete sidewalk as a local improvement the council will have to lay down. In regard to the application of J. McDonald for a board sidewalk, Mr. McDonald will interview the residents at the next meeting.

F. Lyonde, photographer, notified the council that he intended to hold the township picnic on July 26, at his automobile, caused by his car skidding on the oiled part of the Kingston road.

General purposes accounts amounting to $4,847 were passed.

TODMORDEN

A good deal of interest is taken in the annexation proposal of Todmorden. Mark Maynard has called a meeting for the corner of Page and Woodville avenues for Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. The mayor, council members and aldermen are invited to attend; perhaps Acting Mayor McCarty will accept. A handbill dealing with the question. It was said yesterday afternoon that this handbill would probably be the subject of discussion on Wednesday night.

WILL PROTECT BATHERS FROM CANOE HOODLUMS

Parks Commissioner Chambers will stop the youthful canoeists who have been enjoying great fun at the expense of bathers at Kew Beach by paddling thru the throng of bathers and tooting horns and other annoyances for the purpose of making the swimmers or paddlers jump out of their way. Several bathers have complained and the bathing section will be roped off and canoeists will not be permitted amongst the swimmers. A diving board and small pier will be constructed during the next few days and more accommodations for bathers to dress will be given. The bathhouses will be open until 9 p.m., instead of 8, as formerly.

PORT CREDIT—ST. MARY'S CHURCH GARDEN PARTY

The annual event eagerly anticipated in Port Credit is the garden party under the auspices of St. Mary's R. C. Church. It will be held this year on Civic Holiday, Aug. 3, and arrangements have already been made for a concert program of quality. Games and dancing will also add to the pleasure of the occasion. Rev. Father McCaffrey, the pastor of St. Mary's, and M. J. Haney, chairman of the committee, hope that the members of the congregation will join with them in making this year's party even more successful than the last.

BIRCH CLIFF RESIDENTS WANT BETTER SERVICE

Residents in the Birchcliffe district intend to petition the York Radial Co. for a better car service. The petition, which has already been largely signed, asks for a 15-minute service from the Woodbine to Stop 21, from 5 to 8 a.m., and 5 to 7 p.m., so that the fare in future be six tickets for a quarter. Another request is that a more suitable shelter be erected at Stop 20.

NEWMARKET

The council gave the waterworks by-law the third reading at last night's meeting and adjourned early after passing a few accounts and transacting other routine business. Newmarket, Keswick and Union St. Sunday schools will hold their annual picnic tomorrow to Centre Island Park, Toronto. St. John's Church annual garden party will be held in the separate school grounds tomorrow evening. Tea will be served from 8 to 8.30 and the Oddfellows' Banquet will render selections during the evening.

TYRRELL PROPERTY BEING SUBDIVIDED

Plans Passed at Meeting of Weston Council Last Night.

TAKE TRAFFIC CENSUS

Dr. Wilson Has Issued Writ Against Village for Fifteen Thousand.

The Weston Council last night approved the plan of a Toronto syndicate for the subdivision of the Tyrrell property, in which part of the Tyrrell King street to the fifth concession is shown as 32 feet in width. The approval is subject to the deed of a one-foot strip to the municipality, next to Mr. Smith's property, to the municipality, and is conditional also on the satisfaction of the village engineer.

The plan was presented by Wm. Marks, Esq., of Hamilton. He explained that an offer had been made for Mr. Smith's property, but that it had not been accepted. He therefore proposed that the situation being controlled by the municipality by means of the one-foot strip, the land necessary for the widening of the street to 66 feet, should be expropriated from Mr. Smith, and the cost increased taxes will be levied. His Honor Judge Coatsworth will hear the appeal of Joseph Nason and others against the decision of the court of revision, on Thursday, 30th inst., at 10 a.m., in the town hall at Weston.

Communications from the Provincial Board of Health were read concerning permission to the municipality to close the sanitary sewers of the Humber River and of its west branch, for a distance of four miles above the board of health, in order pasturing, with direct access to the stream, within the first two miles, and many people have been injured by the water. It is found later that jurisdiction over four miles proves inadequate. Dr. Bell will recommend that the village be extended as far as Woodville—seven miles—which village, he feared, was a greater source of danger than the farm.

Writ Issued. Solicitor G. H. Gray reported that Dr. Wilson has issued a writ against the village for $1500, in consideration of injury done by the water to the property of the village, and costs incurred thru an automobile accident on Main street.

The Weston Volunteer Fire Brigade was authorized to accept a prize to be drawn on the fire reel and hose from the central station to the station on the central station by day prize will be $3, and by night $5.

Not Local Improvement. Joseph Macdonald complained also that the total of $7,500 to be spent on paving of Main street, would be charged against the property fronting on the street. On the ground that the heavy traffic to be carried by the street, while a general benefit to the village, was no real benefit to the property owners affected. He asked that the smaller amount be assessed against the property abutting on the street.

A communication from E. A. James stated that the highway commission had passed a resolution that a census be taken of the Dominion Railway Board at Ottawa. It was recommended that July 26, this including two Saturdays and two Sundays.

Dr. Irwin reported that Irwin vanantyne had undertaken the duty between the hours of 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. and Norman Burke between 6 a.m. and 3 p.m. The fees also said that York Township representative in the stock of the traffic.

NEWS OF WARD SEVEN—LITTLE GIRL INJURED

While playing with some other little girls on the avenue yesterday afternoon little Nellie Tornansky of 501 Perth avenue met with a painful and serious accident. The child was engaged in a game of running across the road stepped on a broken bottle lying in the gutter. The sharp glass entered her foot and inflicted a deep gash. Dr. MacNamara of Davenport road was summoned and succeeded in stopping the flow of blood, and the child was rushed in the police ambulance to the Hospital for Sick Children. There it was found that one of the principal ligaments of the lower leg had been severed, and the little girl will lose the use of her foot. It is thought that the limb will be saved however.

Funeral Today. The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Kersey of 119 Grenadier road, who succumbed to a year's illness at her home on Sunday evening, will take place this afternoon to Brampton Cemetery. The late Mrs. Kersey was born in Ireland near Belfast in 1840, coming to Canada after the death of her husband ten years ago, and has resided in West Toronto ever since. Her only surviving son is the Hon. L. J. Kersey, minister of finance for India.

The West Toronto customs port and post office, situated at the corner of the Keele and Dundas streets, is undergoing long-needed alterations and redecoration. There was a record attendance at last night's meeting of Dukes of York Loyal True Blues in St. James' Hall, and arrangements were made for the annual picnic which is to be held shortly. The congregation of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Mount Dennis, are holding their second annual Old English Fair in aid of the building fund on Wednesday, July 22nd.

ASSOCIATION FORMED IN WEST FAIRBANK

Will Build Hall on Site Lent by the Honorary President.

STRONG ORGANIZATION

Refused to Co-Operate With B. I. A.—Will Paddle Own Canoe.

The following officers were elected at the inaugural meeting of the West Fairbank Ratepayers' Association, held at corner of Fife and Caledonia avenues, last night. Hon. President, Cecil Roy; President, J. Culliffe; secretary, Clifford Windsor; Treasurer, Fred Shilvers; Executive committee, J. C. Ryder, J. Ward, A. Swan, William Newton, George Mullen and Fred Bartley.

The matter of a permanent place of meeting was discussed at some length, and various suggestions offered, such as renting a room, and requesting the use of Hughes Public School. Hall Site Offered. Cecil Roy, hon. president, offered the use of a lot in the district, which a three years' notice to give up possession and a donation of $10 towards the purchase of material to build a hall. The offer was accepted, and fees were fixed at 25 cents entrance and 10 cents per month for each member. The executive fixed a date to meet for the formation of rules and regulations. H. Farrey, president of the B.I.A., asked the association to join the organization.

The meeting decided that the West Fairbank Ratepayers' Association could look after its own business without the aid of the B.I.A. Chairman in Closing. The chairman in closing the meeting said that they had now a strong organization to look after the affairs of the district, and if the York Township Council would now rise to a sense of their duty to the district, West Fairbank would be one of the finest sections in the county. "But if they do not," said the speaker, "if they bring my association of 100 men down to the council chamber and demand that our wants be attended to."

TODMORDEN BOY HAS DISAPPEARED

George Rummy Has Been Missing Four Days—Parents Anxious.

Fifteen-year-old George Rummy has been missing for four days and his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Campbell avenue, are much perturbed at his disappearance. The assistance of the police has been enlisted, but so far all efforts to trace the wanderer have been unavailing. He was last seen on Thursday at work on Thursday of last week, but when he did not come home that night steps were taken to find out his whereabouts, and it was learned that he had completely disappeared. He had not been seen by his employers, and his parents fear that he had planned to escape from home.

Subject to Fits. The only reason which can be assigned for the boy leaving home at night was the victim of an epileptic fit on the night of June 29. When people were going home after learning the election returns they found the boy stretched out on the sidewalk in an unconscious condition, frothing at the mouth. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital on the occasion and he remained there until the 10th of July. Since that time he has given evidences of being still under the effects of that attack, and it is supposed that he may have something to do with the disappearance. Although the police have been notified nothing has been yet learned about the boy's whereabouts.

TODMORDEN VIEWS RE ANNEXATION

Geo. W. Crosby Has Favored It for Five Years—And Does Now.

SEWERS ARE NEEDED

Claims Last Anti-Petition Was Full of Spurious Signatures.

Better sanitary conditions, city water supply, drainage and adequate fire protection, are among the reasons given by residents of Todmorden, when questioned by the city council, why they were in favor of having their district annexed to Toronto. There were many signatures to the anti-petition being joined to the city, and they outweighed many times the possible drawbacks which could be brought forward.

George W. Crosby, who is a prominent ratepayer in the district, declares that he had been in favor of annexation for the whole five years of his residence in that locality. There were many chronic bleachers who were opposed to the scheme, he declared, who were content to let the local conditions remain as they were, but he believed that he must live at the north pole. He was not particularly in favor of the scheme, but he believed that it was better to have the city water supply, drainage and fire protection, than to have the local conditions remain as they were. He stated that the anti-petition on Wednesday night would likely be the occasion for the signing of a petition against the scheme. The anti-petition had been full of spurious signatures, he declared, and was only a tenant, had signed the petition no less than six times, merely altering his initials and the order of his names.

Don't Like Conditions. J. A. Macdonald, a prominent ratepayer of the district, was opposed to the scheme as now offered by the city council. He stated that he had signed the anti-petition which was circulated several months ago. One of the drawbacks he said, was the fact that the residents of Todmorden would have to pay their share of the burden entailed by the enormous cost of the improvements. There was also the complaint voiced that certain individuals, and who were not particularly in favor of the scheme, were being paid for their own local improvements. There was also the complaint voiced that certain individuals, and who were not particularly in favor of the scheme, were being paid for their own local improvements.

FRENCH EXPERT IS STUDYING CANADA

Gen. Jean Lejeaux, French Government Official, to Observe Farming Methods.

General Jean Lejeaux, special representative of the French Government in Toronto yesterday afternoon, is studying the conditions of the farming industry in Canada. He is expected to collect considerable valuable data here. "Your country is fitted admirably for the production of good crops," he said, "and Canada can only produce one crop to the two or more of warmer countries, the conditions are better and the quality far superior. I am going to Winnipeg and thence to the west coast. I expect to return when the apple season is at its height and collect information on your remarkable crop." "From what information I have obtained on my way here, I find that your wheat crop this year promises to be a good one. Farmers that I have seen seem pleased with the outlook, although the general production will not be much of any above the average. The climate here is delightful, and I am sure I shall be pleased to visit Canada again."

The Light That Did Not Fail

A near-riot was averted at Union Station yesterday morning upon the arrival of the startling x-ray gown. The cause of all the trouble was a modestly clad young woman who arrived in the G. R. Express from New York. Ignorant or conscious of the stir she was creating the "x-ray" figure was analyzed business for the minute. As she stepped gaily from the train a crowd gathered around her, and she was the lower victim, when she called a taxi and departed uptown.

WORMS EAT CROPS IN NEW DISTRICTS

Ravages of Pest Reported in Various Parts of Oxford County.

Special to The Toronto World. WOODSTOCK, July 20.—Several districts have now been added to the list of those already infested by the dreaded army worm. An outbreak of the worm has developed on the Epietopic Hospital farm on the 12th line in the city limits. The worms have attacked the grass along the barley field and have started on the march into the field operations will be started at once to cut the grass and the usual precautions of plowing furrows and using Paris green will be made in the effort to exterminate the worms there.

Spread to New Districts. Word has come from a number of farms in both West and North Oxford that the pest has commenced its ravages in these districts.

The most serious case, however, is reported from the farm of George Fur, near Thomaford, in the northwest corner of the county, and many miles from where the first discovery of the worm was made early last week. Many men are busily engaged there now, assisting Mr. Fur in his endeavor to save his crops. The worms have also appeared three and a half miles west of this city, near Beachville, and the latest report was that the scourges are spreading to the farms of Dunn farms, just outside Woodstock.

Destructive at Guelph. GUELPH, July 20.—The army worms are increasing in activity in this section, the many have been destroyed by iron. This scheme was found to be very effective in saving a big field of corn, but it was discovered today that the invaders had turned their attention to a field of barley and were eating the heads of the grain off. Men were immediately started cutting the grain, which is about ripe, in hopes of saving at least a part of it. Reports have been received in the past few days at the O. A. College, from various points in the province, showing the spread of these little pests. The outlook at the college is not nearly so serious as at other places, and they are sanguine of coping with the pest and preventing them spreading.

In and around Admiral Storey's farm and farms in that vicinity, the farmers are comprehending the gravity of the pest and have united in their efforts to stamp it out. A battalion of the army worms got into the Admiral's cucumber field, but they were soon stopped in their course of crop destruction by men digging a two-foot trench. The general opinion is that if no more come the pests will be wiped out in a few days.

SEEK TO CHECK IMMIGRATION BY ENFORCING LAW STRICTLY

New Arrivals Who Can Be Debarred Under Restrictive Clauses, Will Be Shut Out of Canada—Warning Issued to Other Than Agriculturists and Domestic Servants.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, July 20.—The immigration department has issued a circular stating its intention to not only warn all agriculturists and domestic servants against coming to Canada now, but also to reject them if they happen to come under any of the restrictive clauses of the immigration law. The intention is to apply the law very rigidly, to as to prevent the present state of unemployment in the country from becoming worse. If an immigrant is liable to rejection for any reason he will not be admitted because he has a promise of employment, "because," the circular adds, "it secures it, it is taking a position which otherwise might have been filled by some of our recent unemployed, amongst whom every trade and occupation is already represented."

The immigration officials have arranged to take to Montreal tomorrow, for deportation, the first 25 of the two score of foreigners who are being sent back to their own countries because they cannot find work.

FIGARO IMPLACABLE AGAINST CAILLAUX

Wife of French Ex-Premier Tells of Circumstances Leading to Murder.

Canadian Press Despatch. PARIS, July 20.—Mme. Caillaux, the wife of Jose Caillaux, once premier of France, and former minister of finance, occupied the prisoners' enclosure in the assize court of justice today and recited in a dramatic manner the circumstances leading up to the shooting of Gaston Calmette, editor of The Figaro, with whose murder, on March 31, she is charged. When the court clerk, reading the indictment, reached the words "willful murder," she began to weep. Shaking with sobs, she placed a handkerchief over her face.

She said, when questioned by Judge Albaladejo, that she was married to Leo Clarette at 19, and they had two daughters, one of whom died, and the other is 13. She obtained a divorce in 1908. She was married to M. Caillaux, who was then premier. "I found complete happiness, but my life began to be poisoned by calumnies." The campaign of the Figaro against her husband then began and all the people in the salons received her with scorn. "The attacks of M. Caillaux," she said, "were personal. I suffered. I lost my head."

The attacks of The Figaro, she said, had nothing to do with politics. They were personal. "I suffered. I lost my head." She explained that the Figaro's attack on her husband was a personal one. NO ASSENT TO HOME RULE BILL WITHOUT AMENDING MEASURE

King, It is Said, Holds Ministry Has Violated Parliament Act in Introducing Amendments to Measure—Grave Situation Arises From Democratic Viewpoint.

LONDON, Tuesday Morning, July 21.—The King intends to withhold his assent to the home rule bill unless the amending bill is presented along with it," says A. P. Nicholson in the "Daily News" to day. He says that it may seem incredible to Liberals that the King should refuse to sign the home rule bill despite the advice of his ministry, but the explanation apparently is this: The view, expressed in court circles, is first, that the government has violated the parliament act procedure in the third session by the introduction of the amending bill to a bill designed to pass unchanged under the parliament act, secondly, that since the parliament act procedure has not, as it is suggested, been complied with, the King is not bound by the provisions of the parliament act in the case of the home rule bill.

Situation is Serious. Regarded from a constitutional point of view this is a very serious situation, since it would bring the King into direct conflict with the democracy. A feeling of dislike to the measure was expressed very strongly by many Liberal back-benchers last night. Unionists, too, of different shades of opinion, pronounced unfavorably upon it.

There are, however, many Unionist members who do not take a hostile view of the conference because they hope it will lead to a settlement, although they do not see how the leaders who will enter the conference room with their hands tied can arrive at a settlement. Nationalists Angry. A stormy meeting of the Nationalist party followed the premier's announcement. Vigorous protests were made against any further concessions. In particular the suggested dropping of the amending bill was denounced. "You are sending thousands of soldiers with us if you wish," declared Gledits Singh, dramatically. "We would sooner die here than go to sea, unless you get our soldiers right now. See our shore fires and have our sick attended to."

CONFERENCE WILL STUDY COMPROMISE

Premier Asquith Announces That King Has Requested Party Leaders to Meet.

IRISH ARE NOT PLEASED

Both Parties Ignore Irruptions of Nationalists — First Meeting Maybe Today.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, July 20. — Premier Asquith at the opening of the house of commons today announced that King George in view of the grave political situation has considered it right to summon a conference of the representatives of the political parties, both British and Irish, to discuss the outstanding points of the problem of Irish government.

The premier added that the Right Hon. James Lowther, speaker of the house of commons would, at his Majesty's request, preside over the conference. In view of this development of the situation Premier Asquith said he would not ask the house to discuss today the bill to amend the Irish Home Rule Bill.

The invitations to the conference have been accepted by two representatives each of the regular opposition of the United Kingdom, the Irish Nationalists and of the government. Premier Asquith said he hoped the meetings of the conference would begin tomorrow.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, on his behalf remarked that it had "loavely accepted the command" of his Majesty.

Redmond Not Pleased. John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, scarcely appeared to regard the proposed conference as attractive. He said: "My colleagues and myself take no responsibility for the policy of calling this conference. I do not think it called upon to express an opinion as to whether the result will prove useful or the contrary. The invitation came to John Dillon and myself in the form of a command from the King, and as such we at once obeyed it."

Laurence Ginnell, a Nationalist member interjected a warning note into the otherwise peaceful interlude by asking if there was any precedent for the premier advising parliament to "place himself at the head of a conspiracy to defeat the wishes of the King."

The question was ignored and the house then proceeded with other business.

INVESTIGATING THE ALLEGED COAL TRUST

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Charges that the Pennsylvania Railroad System and its allied lines have bottled up southern coal fields in the interest of the "Coal Trust" were up for investigation by a sub-committee of the Senate Naval Affairs Committee today. Benjamin J. Dulaney, of Bristol, Tenn., who made the charges, was among the witnesses summoned to testify.

F. C. Wright, a rate expert, appeared to make analysis of coal rates in the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which charges that North Atlantic ports between Norfolk and New York get shipments which should properly reach tidewater at Charleston, Jacksonville, Fernandina and other ports.

Representatives of the railroads affected including the Pennsylvania, B. & O., Norfolk and Western, Chesapeake & Ohio, and Southern Railway, have also been summoned to testify.

PART OF BOULEVARD OPEN NEXT MONTH

The western section of the 42 mile boulevard driven about Toronto will be completed by August 1. The boulevard will be open from Bathurst street through the Exhibition grounds along the Lake Shore road to Dundas street as soon as the work of paving the Lake Shore road is done.

THESE LITTLE PRIVILEGES DO COME SO HIGH

It may be a sailor's right to have a wife every port, but it is also his duty to support them. Arthur Neenan, who has done some sailing in his time, being more interested in a lady in Niagara Falls, omitted to provide for Mrs. Neenan in Toronto, who had him charged with non-support in the police court yesterday.

COMMISSION SUSPENDS CANCELING ALLOWANCES

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today further suspended until Jan. 30, 1915, tariffs cancelling allowances by railroads to a number of short lines serving industries. Following the decision of the commission some months ago in the industrial railways case the carriers fled the schedule to go into effect on April 1, but the commission suspended until July 30 all except those affecting the United States Steel Corporation and other iron and steel companies.

FEAR ARMY WORM WILL INVADE FRUIT DISTRICTS

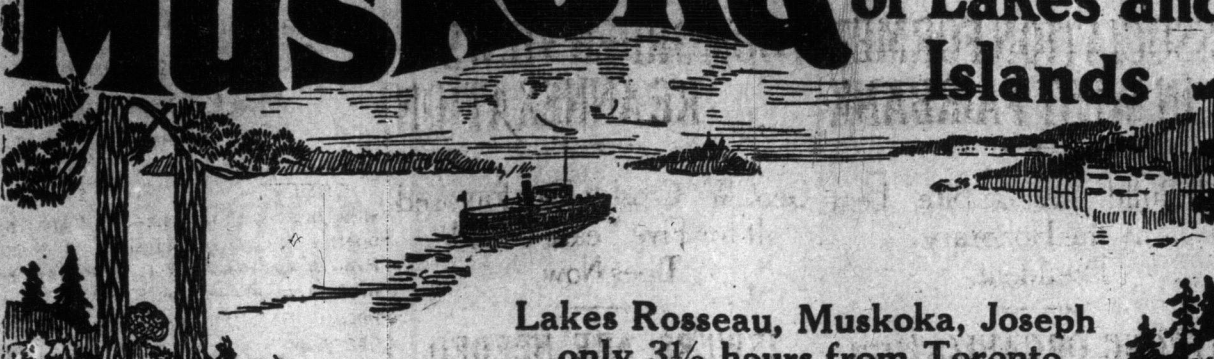

HAMILTON, Ont., July 20.—Fearful of an army worm which has been marching through the Niagara district, fruit growers and farmers are greatly alarmed. They also appeared in the east end of Hamilton, and are doing much damage. The farmers are cutting furrows and digging pits, burning the pests with oil when they fall in the traps.

What Kind of a Castle Are You Making Today?

By WINIFRED BLACK

Copyright, 1914, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Winifred Black

THE little boy ran in, his face aflame with joy. He had in his left hand a tall white fleur-de-lis—white flags, we used to call them when I was a little boy's age—and in the other hand he carried a real flag—red, white and blue.

The fleur-de-lis dropped a little, and the real flag was a bit creased and wrinkly—the little boy's hands weren't hands at all, but grubby little paws—and his face was grimy, and the nice clean white he had put on in the morning was now ragged and had torn a hole, a great big jagged one at that, right in the knee of his trousers.

"Well," said I, "little boy, whatever is the matter, have you been to the wars?"

And some one, who loves the little boy very dearly—but he does not quite understand him—said, "Little boy, how dreadfully you look. Your hands and your face—I should think you would be afraid the rag man would get you and carry you off in his wagon."

Little Boy's Castle.

And the one who loves the little boy very dearly, but who does not understand him very well, and I went out into the garden to see the castle—and a fine, brave castle it turned out to be.

"I didn't think I could make it at first," said the little boy, "but I got mixed up, but I worked and worked. I carried the water in my tin cup with the dirt, and I found the stones over there by the garden wall. Some of them was real heavy, too—that's how I tired my clothes, carrying the stones—and now I've got a splendid castle!"

And it was quite splendid—and we told him so, and he was very proud and set down to look at it with his grubby hands on his knees, and an air of great pride and contentment.

I knew a man once who started out to build him a castle. A fair castle of proud proportions—and the name of the castle was to be Success.

He was a fine young fellow when he went out into the garden of the world to build the castle—proud, brave, self-reliant, frank, kind and generous.

We were all very proud of him, in the house where he lived, and we loved him and were very anxious to see what he was going to do, when he left us behind and went out into the garden to do his chosen work. And one day when it was very quiet at home the man I used to know came back—and he wasn't the same man at all.

His frank eyes were veiled, his high look was fallen, his kind smile was hard, and, oh, his whole face was as if some rough hand had passed over it rudely, and smoothed away everything that was beautiful and fine—and left nothing there but the smutch of cruelty, and selfishness and evil ambition.

But he had built his castle, so he told me, and a sorry, sorry castle it was—made of nothing but money. No tall trees flowered by the gate—no flag floated from the battlements: it was just a dirty, sordid, crooked pile of dirty, sordid, crooked money. And the man who had built it had looked at it so long that he thought it was beautiful, and he could not understand when we, who loved him and wanted to be proud of him, tried to get him to talk about something else.

But a Crumbled Pile.

He showed us the dirt on his hands, he showed us the scars on his face—ugly scars that stood for ugly things—and he was proud of them.

And we were all very sad and didn't know what to say, and the man we all wanted to love and be proud of jingled the money in his pockets so loud that he didn't hear the sweet old song that somebody tried to sing for him—the song his mother sang when she held him in her arms years and years ago. And we, who loved him, were all at once very glad when the man we wanted to be proud of got up and went away—forever—from our lives.

He died the other day. There was a great horde of people around his death bed, relatives most of them, and persons who call themselves his friends.

HERE'S THE LATEST FROM PARIS

A Lounging
(and Smoking)
House Costume,
Chinese Style,
With Just a Dash
of Turkish
in the Skirt.

White Cotton Crepe.

FROM Paris you always expect the novel, and, when Paul Poirer is the artist, the startling. And Poirer does not disappoint us in this lounging robe.

It is of white cotton crepe, lined with white china silk and trimmed with black hand embroidery. The coat is pure Chinese style, like a mandarin pockeet, showing even the pockets of the oriental coat. The neckband is straight, finished with a standing ruche of white tulle, and is very becoming to a slender throat.

The costume may be worn loose or with a girdle. If the girdle is worn, it should be bound close around the body to make a bandage for the hips, leaving the rest of the figure quite free.

The skirt is Turkish, divided style, and is tailored in effect. The feet, clad in Turkish slippers, pass through openings that are trimmed to match, "peeping in and out like little playing mice," as the poet sang so long ago.

Startling as is this very latest lounging robe, it will be noticed that it achieves its effect by lines and not by colors. Black and white are the austere shades, although my lady herself may add the spectrum's gamut with the girdle.

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony

By LEONA DALRYMPLE

Author of the new novel, "Diane of the Green Van," awarded a prize of $10,000 by Ida M. Tarbell and S. S. McClure as judges.

The truth about "the girl in the case" distinguishes this new series by Miss Dalrymple. Her character studies will not appear unfamiliar to the majority of readers, who will follow the fortunes of "Peter" with interest.

No. 127

Mrs. Penfield's Hysterics.

MRS. PENFIELD was sitting by the open fire in the library when I went in. My father-in-law had not arrived home. Mrs. Penfield glanced up, met my eyes and looked uncomfortable.

"Mrs. Penfield," I began, for I have never called my mother-in-law "mother," and probably never shall, deeming it a profanation of a holy word, "I positively will not have you lending money to Mary!"

I suppose I spoke a little heatedly, for she bristled.

"I'm not likely to forget it," I said, angered by her manner.

"Mary," went on Mrs. Penfield, "poor child! had scarcely a cent all month, and she had to have some money. If I did lend her a few dollars it's a thing for which you ought to thank me instead of glaring at me in such a vulgar way."

I flushed and removed my hat. She had me there. It made me doubly furious, however, that I had been so remiss, and the storm burst. I had been longing for an accounting with my mother-in-law. We had it then and there.

"And why," I burst forth, "did she have so little money left? Simply because you never taught her the value of a dollar, and she's extravagant. Why are we steadily running behind in expenses? Because you tempted her into living in a fashionable apartment that I simply cannot afford, and she gave me absolutely no rest until I consented."

"If you could not afford to keep my daughter in the way she lived at home," said Mrs. Penfield, looking very stout and puffed, "you ought never have married her. I insist that my child live in a reputable quarter of town; I insist that she wear decent clothing, and I insist that she have at least some money to spend so that she may not be humiliated in the presence of her friends."

"And you insisted upon her having more furniture than we need," I said.

"When I married your daughter I thought I had married a sweet, pretty, lovable girl that at least knew something of the essentials of housekeeping. My salary is more than sufficient for two people of modest tastes. It isn't sufficient to make a mighty splash, and I won't be drawn into the social whirlpool. Mary doesn't know the first thing about money, she doesn't know the first thing about a house—or at least she didn't."

"I can thank you for her lack of training, and I certainly will do well to encourage her in her new extravagant notions and spoiling my life. That's what you are doing. You're dominating Mary and leading her on to all sorts of foolishness. Why should she take an art course with Casetti? Why should she want to be a social climber? Why should she be so vain? Why should she quarrel—and in every quarrel! I can trace your influence."

Mrs. Penfield, white and shaking, held up her hand to stem the tide, but I raved fiercely on. I don't remember what else I said, but clear and cold, I laid the facts before her. I spared her nothing. My temper guided my tongue to hopeless indiscretion. I only remembered that at the end Mrs. Penfield gave a wild shriek and went into hysterics. I went home and left her in a state by the fire with the maid telephoning for the doctor.

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Why Aeroplaning Is Like Aerophagia (Air Gulping)

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins)

HAVE you a stomach? If you are aware that you possess this ubiquitous and soul-stirring organ, something is wrong. Some sophisticated persons worry because they cannot feel their food digest. This is a curious opinion, as prevalent among longshoremen as among the wealthy and elect.

Opinion, however, as Pericles said, is but a fool that makes you see the outward habit for the inward man. If you begin to learn by any of the myriad, wireless signals of your own ego that there is a Pandora's box of evils in your tummy and gizzard department; if, by any devices known to your tissues, you, yourself, your "I," are made aware that deeds of derring-do are a-brewing in your gastric sac, then something is truly amiss.

Gas in the stomach and flatulency has been the source, since time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, of more despair and melancholia than all financial and domestic calamities known. Other than the habit of aerophagia, or air swallowing, which—like aero-planing—is a voluntary thing, there are all sorts of causes for gastro-gastric troubles from a Greek word which means stomach, not "gas"—flatulency.

High blood pressure, the tango heart—due to any kind of muscular excess and athletics—heart and kidney inflammations, dilated stomach, indoor life, a few of the three-score-and-ten ways to be a chronic Zeppelin dirigible.

Asafoetida has a worse name than it has odor among pharmacologists. Until very recently no scientific physician ever again dared look his fellow-savant in the eye if he prescribed it. But like the turban hat, the poke bonnet, the Medici collar, and the girle tunic, it has come into medical vogue once more. Ginger, gentian, quinine, magnesia,

Study Your Mirror For Wrinkle Reasons

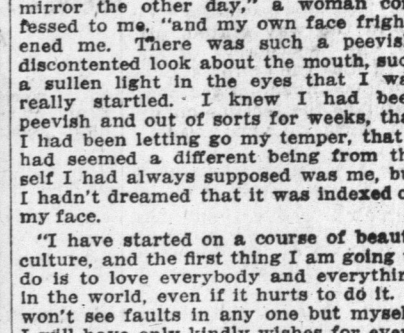

By LUCREZIA BORI

Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

Special arrangements have been made with Senorita Lucrezia Bori, the famous prima donna soprano, who has created a wonderful impression in Europe and New York on account of her remarkable beauty and artistic attainment, to write for this paper a series of articles on beauty. There is probably no authority her equal in giving the newest and most approved methods of attaining and preserving "the divine right of woman."

WOMEN don't look in their mirrors often enough!

Isn't that a surprising statement to make? Perhaps I had better amend it, and say they don't look with sharp enough eyes. The mirror is the greatest friend a woman has. If she wants it to show her how she really looks to an unprejudiced world it will do so. Most women look at themselves with blinded eyes. They want to find out what is really there. Mirrors are truthful, but the eyes that see cannot read a-right.

LUCREZIA BORI

Every woman who wants to improve her personal appearance will do well to take it where the light is strongest and whole—as a general assemblage of line and color. Then, she can pick it to pieces later. The tout ensemble is what strikes the ordinary observer. The more intimate acquaintance notices details.

What about the expression of the eyes and mouth? What is the story it tells? Does it tell a tale of selfishness, greed, deceit, conceit, superficiality? Or does it show the idea of kindness, love, generosity, good sense, intelligence, friendliness? Or is there a queer intermingling of good and bad expressions? And, in that case, which is the most enduring, and which flashes across the face more often?

Just sit down with an open mind before your mirror and ask questions. You will learn a whole lot about yourself in a half-hour. And if you are as wise as woman ought to be, you can map out a campaign of beauty culture right in your own mind, and put it into effect with no one but yourself being the wiser, and gain results that will make all your friends compliment you.

"I caught a glimpse of myself in a mirror the other day," a woman confessed to me, "and my own face frightened me. There was such a peevish, discontented look about the mouth, such a sullen light in the eyes that I was really startled. I knew I had been peevish and out of sorts for weeks, that I had been letting go my temper, that I had seemed a different being from the self I had always supposed was me, but I hadn't dreamed that it was indexed on my face."

"I have started on a course of beauty culture, and the first thing I am going to do is to love everybody and everything in the world, even if it hurts to do it. I don't see faults in any one but myself. I will have only kindly wishes for every one—even my dearest enemies. And I'll even try to make friends of them. Something is wrong in my innermost being when my face can carry an expression like that."

Her work is worth copying. We can make expressions for ourselves, and we are the only ones who can make them. Others can electrically induce, and revivify, complexions, and iron out wrinkles and arch eyebrows, but when it comes to changing the expression which is the reflection of the mind and the nature, no one in the world has the power to do it but the individual who owns it.

Sit down, sisters mine, and get out the most exacting mirror you can find. Pull the shades up, and let the strongest and most truthful and glaring light of day shine upon you.

Purify your mind and vision of prejudice. Then work, according to the result. There's a reason behind every frown, and every little curl of the lip may soon mean a fixed sneer. It is up to you to find out the reason, and to right the fault.

Three Minute Journeys

Where "A Life for a Life" Still Rules

By TEMPLE MANNING

FAR in the mountain fastnesses of New Guinea our party came upon a little huddle of huts that appeared deserted. Experience had taught us caution, so we advanced with one of patience led me to experience with one of our behemoths. Instantly an amazing thing happened. From the nearest hut three natives emerged, crawling on their hands and knees, stopping every few feet to knock their heads upon the ground. I soon discovered the reason. I was the first white man they had ever seen.

For days they would not permit us to leave. At last, when we insisted on departing, six of them joined our party to accompany us to the coast.

Everything went smoothly until one of them fell into a stream and was drowned. His tribesmen approached us threateningly; they held us responsible for the man's death. They wanted and demanded payment. We offered them blankets, colored dyes and cloths, but they would not be appeased. They wanted a life for a life.

As quickly as we could we made the nearest coast settlement, embarked upon a "prau" and went back to civilization. Later I learned that, after the inevitable custom of their race, the dead man's brother hung about the coast until he had killed a white man. His brother's death was avenged—a trader had paid the price.

The Trader Paid.

Advice to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie: I am in love with a young fellow with whom I have been going for over two years. He never goes with any one else, and he thinks lots of me. He wants me to marry him, and I am willing to, as we can't stay away from each other.

But my mother doesn't want me to marry. There are six girls of us at home, and I am next to the oldest. Do you think she will give in to my marriage, as there will be five girls left?

I'm sure we are both old enough, as he is 21 and I am 19. I hope you won't think this too young, as we think so much of each other. My mother hasn't any reason for us not to marry, only she wants the rest of us girls to stay at home.

ANXIOUS.

WELCOME to our department, oh mother of six daughters, who wants every one of them to stay at home with her. I wish I was one of the daughters, don't you, little girl with the matchmaking mamma? Don't you, little sister with the managing aunt? That mother of yours must be worth going a mile or so to see. I wish I had her address. I'd come and give her a bouquet of roses, a rose for every year of her happy life and one for each of Harper was drawn against Jones (poor old Bill he never does have any fun), and was beaten by six shots. Heighton met Irvine, who started out in a hurry, but slowed up, and Jack won going away. Charlie Bonnick met Walter Black, the latter made a good run, but Bonnick always had the game in hand. ROSEDALE UNDEFEATED. Lacrosse in the N.L.U. and D.L.A. looks top-heavy, judging from the race up to date. The Rosedale team have finished the first half of their schedule and have won all their games with comparative ease. No team in the league seems to be able to give them an argument. The Rosedale team have declared themselves that they will go after the Minto Cup. Four Canadian boys had disappointed at the showing made by the M. A. A. team against Rosedale on Saturday last. The Toronto boys had all the luck, and looks for a much closer game here next Saturday. The scores were: Toronto on Saturday, between Montreal and Rosedale, will commence at 3.30 p.m.

Excelsiors Welcomed Just Like Champions

BRAMPTON, July 19.—The homecoming of the Excelsior Senior Lacrosse Club from their trip to the Pacific Coast in quest of the Mann Cup was fittingly celebrated last night by a monster parade and demonstration in the town park. The players dressed in the club's C.R. and the reception accorded them could not have been more enthusiastic had they brought the coveted trophy with them. Dr. Roberts, president of the club, started the good wishes of the townspeople by asking for three cheers and a tiger, which was nobly responded to. The procession then moved with the citizens' band and the local firemen in uniform in the lead. Fifty automobiles then formed up behind the players and all the members of their families, the mayor and town council and the officers of the club. The Old Councilmen's Club, 75 strong, the Excelsiors Junior in uniform, and the Boy Scouts then followed. Music was furnished by the citizens' band, Salvation Army band, fire and drum band, bugle band and Jas. Auld's calliope band. The procession was a mile long and traversed the principal streets of the town park. After Mayor Mara had publicly welcomed the boys he called on Mr. W. J. Fenton, principal of the high school, and Samuel Charters, registrar of the county, to address the waiting throngs. The residences and business places along the line of march were appropriately decorated while the trees in the park were festooned in red and white bunting.

ROSEDALES WIN SIXTH STRAIGHT

MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—The Rosedale lacrosse twelve had an excellent workout with the M.A.A.A. twelve at the Westmount grounds on Saturday afternoon, and had little trouble winning their sixth straight game in the N.L.U. by eleven goals to 3. A crowd of about fifteen hundred spectators attended, and while they were no doubt disappointed at the showing of the local players, the clever stick-handling of the Quebec City all the luck, and looks for a much closer game here next Saturday.

Lonely!

Billy Hay Says: "The big twice-a-year 'Lonely' Sale of genuine Semi-ready Tailored Clothes started yesterday. 'Now, unlike many stores that hold marvelous sales, this store was not jammed, and we didn't sell a thousand suits. 'No, siree! When I want to tell a good, big, fat lie I go fishing and let the 30 pounder get away with the hook. 'But I had a nice crowd of the boys in, and some of them bought and others said: 'Hold that suit for me.' 'These are real, live, all-wool-and-a-yard-wide bargains, men, and I just want you to come in and see them.' Semi-ready Wardrobe 143 Yonge Street

Senators Found White Caps Easy

PETERBORO, July 20.—In taking the long end of the 9-to-2 score today, the Senators won pretty much as they pleased. Once started, the visitors broke down the opposition of Crosswell and Seiting, and the Peterboro did little for Rogers, who succeeded Lill when the wild man started to go bad. The Peterboro hit the Senators along with three errors, while the enemy fielded faultlessly. Mitchell the new shortstop, showed the form.

BAN JOHNSON WILL FIGHT TO LAST

American League Will Close Parks if Players Go on Strike.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The decision to call a baseball players' strike as a result of the Kraft case was arrived at at a secret meeting of the Fraternity leaders here last night. Several prominent players signed the ultimatum which Fratt sent to the National Commission. B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, and one of the members of the National Commission, declared that the strike will be fought to the finish. "The American League is ready to meet the issue with a sword," he declared. "Our club-owners are a unit for war. It's about time that this Fraternity nonsense should end. We have been very patient with Mr. Fratt and his associates, but they have gone a little too far. We intend to call their bluff in a way that will make them show their hand."

REISLING'S HIT GIVES COCKNEYS WIN

ST. THOMAS, July 20.—Manager Reisling's hit with two men on bases in today's game decided today's pitching battle between Beebe and Howick, thereby providing the runs sufficient to overcome the Saints, who got but one in the first inning. Beebe had the better of the argument, as he was extremely strong with men on bases, pulling himself out of several dangerous holes, due to his own wildness, as he walked six men, but his allowing but three well-scattered batters accounts for his victory.

The first cost is the biggest cost of the Ford—and the smallest cost of any other car because of the after-expense. The Ford is the one car you can drive at less than "horse-and-buggy" rates. Thousands drive the Ford at less than two cents a mile. It's the "cost-to-keep" that counts.

What the Grain Brokers Say

Finley Barrell & Co.: Any rally from these prices should be met with sales of wheat.

Thomson & McKinnon: Our wheat market is likely to turn on news, weather and otherwise from the northwest...

Harris Winthrop & Co.: Without damage northwest of a serious nature there seems but one side to the wheat market.

Shearson Hammell & Co.: The winter wheat movement is on in earnest. Stocks are accumulating and a large visible supply will no doubt be the result.

NUMBERS DISAPPOINTING. LONDON, July 20.—In a circular issued by the Standard Oil Company of Canada, shareholders are advised that the number of those who had expressed their willingness to exchange their holdings in the proposed new company are not sufficient to justify the cost of registration.

CLIMAX OIL COMPANY LIMITED

Authorized Capital, $500,000 Shares, $1.00 Each

MONEY MAKES MONEY

Oil is better than gold to the speculator—the returns are immediate when you strike oil. Gushers will doubtless be struck during the next few weeks, and the man who has invested will see his stock soar.

Those who bought Monarch Oil Stock have reaped their harvest. Why not you? Mind you, it is speculative, but mighty good speculation.

CLIMAX OIL COMPANY, LIMITED holds leases for 1920 acres of valuable oil lands within three miles from the proven Monarch well. This is on the same anticline as the Monarch, and should, according to expert advice of famous geologists, yield the real crude oil.

HOW VALUES INCREASED

The following figures, taken from the Calgary Oil Exchange of June 22nd, show how rapidly dollars increase in number in Oil:

Table with 2 columns: Shares in Dingman, Shares in Monarch, Shares in United Oils, Shares in Southern Alberta, Shares in Western Canada, Shares in Black Diamond No. 1, Shares in Western Pacific, Shares in Ottawa Petroleum, Shares in Prudential. Values range from 160.00 to 4,000.00.

Most of these stocks sold originally for not more than $1 per share.

REASONS FOR BUYING CLIMAX SHARES:

- 1. Because a firm offer of $150,000 cash was made for the Company's holdings, the night of the "Monarch" strike.
2. Because if they are worth that much to others, they are worth many times more to our shareholders for development purposes.
3. Because results prove that the Company's holdings are right on the exact spot in the best proven districts in Alberta—NOT NEAR.

The Company are employing the highest skill to superintend the development of their properties and drilling will commence immediately. Shares will rise in value before many days. The time to buy is right now. Do not wait. This is your golden opportunity.
