Communists Charged With Plot Against U. S. Government

COMMUNIST QUIET REIGNS IN SPAIN

Italy Extends Notice

U. M. W. MAKE STARTLING REVELATIONS

See Big Victory for Reds in Recognition of Russian Soviet

NAMES ARE CHANGED

Forty-five Organizations are Said to be Busy in Canada and U. S.

(Canadian Press.) New York, Sept. 15.—"No greater victory short of the overthrow of the Federal Government could be won by the Communists in this country than to bring about recognition of the Soviet regime in Russia by this Government," it is declared in the article of a series in which the United Mine Workers of America seeks to prove that a plot is afoot to bring about a revolution in this country and Canada, and establish a dictatorship of the Communist International from Moscow.

Use Him Spy System

The German espionage system which Communists in America are alleged to have taken over is described as an organization recruited by agents of the Kaiser from among the malcontents and disloyalists of the United States. Large numbers of anarchists, syndicalists, agitators, would-be revolutionists, enemies of the Government and individuals, who had been convicted of crime, were enlisted in this service. An underground as well as a surface organization is said to have been established. After the German espionage system was stopped during the war and the Soviet regime gained control of Russia, the German workers in America are said to have offered their services to Lenin and Trotsky.

Communists Hop

The Communists are said to be hopeful of controlling the next convention of the American Federation of Labor in October, and are carefully working now to control a majority of the delegates that attend it. They are hopeful that a nation-wide strike of the coal miners will take place next April which will afford them the opportunity to attempt again the seizure of the union through revolutionary methods as they attempted in the strike of 1922.

Win. Z. Foster, head of the Trade Union Educational League, is alleged to have declared at a Communist meeting at Pittsburgh last June that the One Big Union idea already had been adopted by 18 state federations of labor, and that federations in other states gave promise of doing likewise.

Legion's Hand Seen

Names of the 45 major Communist organizations in the United States and Canada are changed frequently, says the writer of the article. It is set forth as Lenin's idea that when the stigma of communism is definitely attached to a "surface" organization, it should be merged into a new group. Finally, the United Mine Workers charge that "More than $1,000,000 for the Communist movement was raised in this country under the guise of Russian famine relief. This money was deposited in banks in New York and Chicago in the name of relief committees and eventually found its way, after passing through various other bank accounts into the hands of the real Communist emissaries in the United States."

WOMAN'S BODY IS FOUND IN RIVER

Legs Bound Together—Believed Thrown From Vessel on Shore.

Detroit, Sept. 16.—The body of a woman, apparently 25 years of age, clad only in a nightgown and a bathrobe and with the legs tied together with cotton strips, was found in the Detroit River off Windsor, Ont., last night. Dr. H. Grassweller, coroner of Essex County, Ontario, said he believed the body was thrown from a passenger steamer or from the Detroit shore, possibly yesterday morning. No signs of violence were discovered on the body. The woman wore a gold wedding ring on one hand.

Grows Apples With Pictures in Them

Cape May, N. J., Sept. 15.—Professor Edward R. Brunyate, Superintendent of the Cape May County Public Schools, said that Cape May County, in the village of Cold Springs, has a rival of Luther Burbank. To prove his assertions Professor Brunyate displayed two big apples, under the peel of which were the initials J. C. E. and the initials of a pig. The initials are those of Joseph C. Elliott, the farmer who grows the fruit. Professor Brunyate said Elliott could grow apples reproducing any scene on his farm he chose. The method is being kept a secret.

ASKS GERMANY TO AVOID CIVIL WAR

Finance Minister Says Ruhr Account Expenditures Greatly Increased.

Berlin, Sept. 15.—Speaking in the Reichstag last night, Minister of Finance Hinfelberg, said the expenditures on the Ruhr account had increased enormously and that the population in the occupied region was being largely supplied from the Reich's exchequer, capital for trade and industry, in those regions, he asserted, must be provided to an ever-increasing extent; hence efforts must be made to solve the conflict by speedy negotiations. Sudden cessation of help for the Ruhr population was impossible, the minister continued, but in view of the emergency market, expenditures could not be continued on the present scale; although the curtailment would be so conducted that the population would not suffer.

LOOTERS ARE BUSY

Naval Detail Posted to Keep Vandals From Wrecked Destroyers.

Santabarbara, Calif., Sept. 15.—Sea vandals, the inevitable looters who have appeared on the scene of nearly all disasters in the past, have begun their work at Point Honda, where the hulks of seven naval destroyers are being beaten to pieces by the waves, following the catastrophe of last Saturday night. A naval detail stationed there has been armed with rifles with instructions to fire upon any unknown small boats near the wrecks. A dozen shots were fired last night at two fishing boats which attempted to send boarding parties to the hulks. Bodies Recovered.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 15.—A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, has declared emphatically that no United States experts had been employed in collecting data on the cost of living without the full knowledge and consent of the executive.

DANGER OF CONFLICT REMOVED

Italy's Notice to Jugo-Slavia in Fiume Crisis is Extended.

REPORTS WRONG

Belgrade Confirms Postponement of Decisive Action by Italy

(Canadian Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 15.—Italy's notice to Jugo-Slavia with respect to acceptance of a settlement of the Fiume problem, some times referred to as an "ultimatum" which was due to expire today, has been extended, according to official quarters here. It is stated that diplomatic negotiations regarding Porto Barro and the Delta there, immediately adjacent to Fiume, will continue on the basis of some new Italian proposals, the nature of which is as yet not known.

CAN'T ENFORCE DRY LAW IN MICHIGAN

Head of State Police Declares it is Impossible While the People Oppose It.

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 15.—"We could not enforce the prohibition law in Michigan if we had the United States Army," Colonel Roy C. Vandercreek, Commissioner of the Department of Public Safety and Commander of the State police, declared "So long as the people maintain their present attitude toward prohibition the law is not enforceable."

MATE OF LIQUOR VESSEL ARRESTED

Power Alleged to Have Left Captain in Boston and Sold Cargo.

Digby, N. S., Sept. 15.—James M. Power, mate of the schooner Lucille B., which arrived at Meteghan a week ago, reporting a piratical attack off the Massachusetts coast, in which 12,000 gallons of alcohol were said to have been taken off in the hands of 15 sea thugs, was arrested yesterday on information filed by the owners of the schooner and her skipper, Captain LeBlanc of Wedgeport. The story given out by the schooner reached Meteghan last Sunday morning was that the piratical attack occurred while the skipper was ashore in Boston, and that immediately after the outlaws departed Mate Powers set sail for home, not waiting for his captain. It is also said that another story was told to the effect that the cargo was jettisoned during a heavy storm. Captain LeBlanc stated in his information that the mate sailed for home leaving him in Boston, and that he was held aboard ship as material witness.

Thousands At Times' Office To Get Fight Returns

This picture shows a portion of the crowd, estimated at 5,000, which gathered at The Times building last night to receive returns of the fight between Jack Dempsey and Luis Elizo. The picture was taken by flashlight by Arthur Lugrin and Frank A. McKay, of Lugrin's Studio, at ten minutes to 10 o'clock. The plate was developed and a finished print made and delivered at The Times office at 10:30. Many of the fans saw the picture before they went home after getting the light returns.

The Evening Times thanks all those who helped to make the service last night so successful. Three services were used in case of a hold-up in transmission of the news from the ring-side. Holy Radio Co. and the Canadian Press both reported the result of the fight to The Times office as promptly as it was received, which was practically instantaneous.

James Power of St. John, was at the ring-side as special representative of The Times. He sent his story on the fight over the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Toth Plans Record For Channel Swim

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—What is believed to be a world's record for the triple bar jump, was made at the Central Canada Exhibition here yesterday when Baileyclough, an Irish bred hunter, owned by Miss E. Viau of Montreal, in clearing the three bars, jumped a distance of 31 feet 6 inches. The longest jump for a horse ever recorded here last year, and equalled at Calgary this spring when jumps measuring 28 feet in length were made.

REVOLT IS GENERALLY APPROVED

Report Says Rivera's Action Has Met With Widespread Sympathy.

LEADER CHEERED

King and Rebel Chieftain Greeted by Thousands at Madrid.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 15.—Messages from Spain received in London during the night contain no indication that any disturbances have occurred in connection with the military coup d'etat. However, it is recalled that a strict censorship prevails.

According to an untimed dispatch from Madrid, the second day of the revolt passed as quietly as the first. Although there has been no detailed news from the provinces, it is thought that the change was effected in the outlying districts in an orderly manner as in the capital.

All Spain Sympathetic.

Another report says that Rivera's action has been received with general sympathy as all Spain has become tired of the negative policy followed by the late Ministry.

The Socialist party has issued a manifesto protesting against the abandonment of civil administration.

The London stock exchange has shown a remarkable indifference to Rivera's coup. Spanish funds declined only 2 1/2 points to 67 1/2 with only a few dealings taking place.

Rivers and King Cheered

Madrid, Sept. 15.—The military directorate announced after a meeting last night that the names of the new cabinet ministers would be submitted today to Captain General Primo Rivera. All are said to be civilians with the exception of the Ministers of War and Marine.

Asked whether it was intended to reform the constitution of Spain, the general made an evasive reply. Captain General Primo Rivera arrived here on the Barcelona express late last night. He was greeted by the cheers of thousands of workers who acclaimed King Alfonso and the army.

Quiet prevails in Bilbao! It is expected that the 24 hour strike will end today as scheduled.

COSGRAVE CHEERED ON HIS RETURN

Thirty Hurt During Demonstration When Irish President Speaks.

Dublin, Sept. 15.—Thirty persons were slightly hurt last evening in the crowd that gathered in Sackville street to listen to an address by President Cosgrave, who has returned from the fourth assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva. The president was enthusiastically received.

Afterwards he will be entertained at a banquet at Metropole Restaurant, and will address the crowd from the balcony of the building.

Country's New Status. The admission of the Free State to the League of Nations has brought the country's new status home to the people more strongly than anything else could have done. President Cosgrave's reception at Geneva has exposed in the clearest possible way the fallacies of the Republicans' argument. It is generally recognized now that the Dominion status has conferred great benefits on the Free State, and in the light of the enthusiasm with which Ireland was greeted at Geneva by the nations of world, the shadowy illusions of the Republicans disappear completely.

In regard to the future policy of the League of Nations an interesting rumor is in circulation today. It is hinted that a deputation of disinterested outsiders proposes to interview the Government with the view of securing some modification in the oath of allegiance in order that the Republicans may be able to take their seats in the Dail Eireann next week. Naturally the Government has no power, even if it had the will, to change the form of the oath, but the fact that such a movement is on foot is significant.

$200,000,000 In Silk Is Destroyed By Fire During Japanese Earthquake

Aboard Admiral Oriental Liner President Jefferson, Sept. 14.—Silk worth four hundred million yen ($200,000,000) stored in the Yokohama custom house, was destroyed in the disaster of September 1, according to Ray Gehr, of the Wanger Company, New York, one of those who escaped.

Champion's Crown Was Tottering

Only Good Generalship, and Inexperience of Opponent Saved Title.

New York, Sept. 15.—Jack Dempsey still holds undisputed sway as heavyweight champion of the world but only after the crown he has worn for the last four years had come perilously close to being toppled from his scowling brow.

The champion stands out as a lightning figure than ever, one of the greatest tit-holders of all time as a result of his smashing, dramatic knock-out of Luis Angel Firpo last night at the Polo Grounds in the second round of a match that for savage fury of attack has no parallel in pugilistic annals.

Wednesday evening's announcement that Dame Clara Butt will be heard in concert here shortly seemed to inspire almost unprecedented interest, judging by the inquiries that immediately began pouring into the box office.

GRAND OPENING OF BAND FAIR ON MONDAY EVENING. Combines a Musical Treat and Fascinating Games and Attractions.

Don't forget that the City Cornet Band "around the world fair" will open in St. Andrew's rink Monday evening. The most fascinating indoor games will be awaiting the pleasure seeker, while the musical programme in itself will be one of the feature attractions. The fair will give all a chance to spend a most enjoyable evening, so plan to attend this big fall classic.

WANT ANOTHER OF N. B. FACTORIES.—Moncton Times: A meeting of the directors of the Atlantic Underwear, Ltd., was held Thursday afternoon. Outside directors present were: Hon. O. T. Daniels and R. W. Elliott, Halifax; A. E. Trites, Salisbury, and E. R. McDonald of Shediac. The regular semi-annual dividend at the rate of seven per cent. on the preferred stock was declared, payable on October 15. A proposition from Quebec City for the removal of the plant to that province was presented to the directors and the advantages discussed. Action on the matter was deferred to a future meeting shortly to be held.

CAUSE TO BE ADJUSTED. MADE RIGHT. CHIROPRACTIC. CHIROPRACTIC is based on fundamental, natural laws of the human body. It corrects the motor, the nerves are power lines which carry vital energy or life to all parts of the body. Impingement or pinching of the nerves interferes with their life-carrying power and disease is the result. The Chiropractor adjusts with his hands the misaligned vertebrae and the impinged nerves are freed. The flow of life enters the part diseased, normal functions are resumed and health restored. The Chiropractic way is Nature's way.

OLD CANNON DAMAGES TOWN. Set Off to Rid It of Three Balls, It Hurts Them Through Waterloo, N. J.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Firing of a Civil War cannon in Lafayette Park at Waterloo to free the piece of three eight-pound balls that had been lodged in it, damaged two Waterloo residences, the Waterloo Hotel, and clipped several large limbs from intervening trees. School children and citizens on their way home for luncheon escaped injury only because the cannon was aimed above the street level.

For many months the cannon had been stuffed to its mouth with balls by mischievous boys, and the Park Commissioners have made several attempts to dislodge them. All were removed but three, and Charles Genung offered to do the job.

Pouring two ounces of powder into the hole, and using a fire cracker fuse, Mr. Genung touched off the piece. Ordinarily the amount of powder used would have been only sufficient to dislodge the balls, but evidently some powder remained in the gun from previous firing and the explosion was powerful enough to send the three balls soaring over the trees.

One ball plowed into the west side of the Genung home, cut through one of the upper rooms and lodged in a front wall. Another ball clipped several large limbs from tree in its path and ricocheted, landing in the yard of Charles Terwilliger. The third ball traveled nearly 5,000 feet and crashed through the second story of the Waterloo Hotel.

AFRICANS INDIFFERENT TO PURELY PHYSICAL BEAUTY

Natives Have No Word in Their Vocabulary Meaning Beautiful Exclusively.

The indifference of the African natives to human physical beauty, which practically amounts to its total elimination as a factor in the relations between the sexes, has often been commented upon, writes Hans Condenove in "The Atlantic Monthly."

A native whose attention you draw to the handsome features of another native—either woman or man—always responds vaguely, indifferently, never emphatically, rather giving the impression that he does not quite understand what you mean.

It is significant that there exists in the Swahili language no word which expresses handsome or beautiful, exclusively. The word suri, the only one used in this sense, means "good" as well as beautiful, the first idea conveyed, when it is applied to a person, being always that of moral, rather than physical, excellence.

The incongruity which often exists between parties forming a union almost suggests the absence of even individuality as a factor in these relations. And yet it probably would be incorrect and unjust to explain the phenomenon by the preponderance of mere brute sensuality over all finer feelings, for it cannot be denied that natives are by no means devoid of a sense of beauty.

They admire it in animals, in flowers, in pictures, landscapes and music; they have clever artists, and their perception of what is ridiculous in expression or appearance is perhaps keener than that of the average European, notwithstanding their passion for the odd and the baroque.

One might say that their indifference to beauty is confined exclusively to sex relations or that their esthetic sense is in default only where these relations come into play.

Paint this Fall

save repairs next Spring. Save the surface and you save all.

Do you feel the joy of autumn—"the year's last, loveliest smile"? The woods are scarlet and yellow, colors of action both!

Why not paint your own little world too—that world wherein lies the heart of every man—the home!

Do you know that you can actually make your house appear larger or smaller, nearer or farther from the street, by the choice of the color you paint it? Sounds incredible, but it's true. Red or yellow will make the house seem nearer, and blue or green will lend a sense of distance and will make it seem larger.

In interior decorating too, paint solves many problems, often taking the place of wall papers. It makes for cheerfulness, comfort, spotlessness, restfulness and sunshine.

Paint now—do not let this glorious autumn fade into winter with your home unprotected!

The mind-paints before the brush, so visualize YOUR HOME made spick and span, new and beautiful, through the practical application of the famous slogan—

"Save the Surface and You Save All."

The Evening Times-Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 15, 1923

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the New Brunswick Publishing Co., Ltd., J. D. McKenna, President.

READ THE RECORD.

What the people of the Maritime Provinces were led to believe and expect when they agreed to unite with Quebec and Ontario to form the Dominion of Canada is set forth in today's Times-Star in extracts from pre-conference speeches by Messrs. Cartier, Macdonald, Brown, Galt and Tilley.

THE CONFIDENT WEST.

Note this despatch from Victoria, B. C.— "Industrial development in Canada from now on will be concentrated on the coast of British Columbia, according to Major D. B. Martyn, Deputy Minister of Industries, who has returned after investigating the industrial situation in the highly industrialized areas of Eastern Canada."

Our friends in the west should read these pre-conference promises. It would help them to understand more fully the justice of Maritime claims for lower freight rates and the development of Canadian trade through the national ports of St. John and Halifax.

WHY NOT NEW BRUNSWICK?

The London, Ont. Advertiser makes a remark worth considering in New Brunswick. We quote: "When so many Septs are coming out here as immigrants would it not be a reasonable and sound investment for the Government to bring out the breeds of sheep which these men know so thoroughly, and which happen to be the same breeds that do well in the West? These men, or most of them, know sheep better than any other farm animal, except the Clydesdale. There's gold in sheep's wool, and there's a pay cheque in his carcass."

INFANTS AND IMMIGRANTS.

The New York Herald remarks that "perhaps the most remarkable achievement to be credited to the last few years is the prodigious reduction in the infant death rate." The reports show that out of every 1,000 babies born in the United States in 1921 only 76 died within twelve months, as compared with 101 in 1916.

DISCUSS RED CROSS MATTERS

Provincial Society Deals With Finances, Membership, etc.

The first meeting of the Provincial Red Cross Society since May was held at the depot yesterday afternoon, with R. T. Hayes, M. P. P., presiding. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $1,492.25. The monthly expenditures included: Nurses, $421; Junior Red Cross, $617.51; depot, $194; hospital committee, $600; C. B. Allan, as treasurer, reported the budget for the year amounted to $26,000, and all sources of income so far assured would produce only $25,000.

The report of the Junior Red Cross supervisors told of first year's work in which 42 branches were formed, 1923 members enrolled, fees paid by 1047 members and funds raised amounting to $214.83. A New Brunswick Junior Red Cross was formed in a dominion-wide essay competition.

OVER $300,000 TO PAY. The settlement of the strike in the anthracite mines will add over $300,000, to the coal bill for the next two years. Who will pay it? Gov. Pinchot flatters himself that it may be offset by lower freight rates and less profits for middlemen.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES. It was announced that the St. Stephen Exhibition, which closed yesterday, had brought in a surplus. The attendance was very large, and plans are already under way for improvements to the grounds for next year.

JAP RELIEF WORK ORGANIZATION

Executive Appointed Here at Meeting on Friday Afternoon. Sympathy for the cause of the relief of the Japanese disaster sufferers brought a large gathering of citizens to the general meeting called by the Red Cross Society yesterday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms.

The announcement that Mr. O. L. Barbour has assumed editorial charge of the Moncton Transcript is a guarantee that the Transcript will continue to be a well conducted newspaper. Mr. Barbour's long connection with St. John newspapers which began when he joined the staff of the Daily Sun under Mr. S. D. Scott, going later to the Standard, and thereafter to the editorial staff of the Daily Telegraph, has made him not only a trained as well as an accomplished newspaper man, but has given him a wide acquaintance among public men.

The Board of Health submits figures to show that infant mortality has been cut in half, and cases of typhoid reduced to a sixth or seventh of the number that occurred before pasteurization of milk was made universal in the city.

H. O. CLARK GETS HOME CONTRACT

H. O. Clark was the successful bidder for the new wing at the New Brunswick Protestant Orphans Home, his tender being the lowest submitted. The contract was awarded at a meeting of the permanent home committee yesterday afternoon at the office of L. P. D. Tilley.

W. T. RING DEAD IN STATES; RESULT OF ACCIDENT

St. John friends and relatives of W. T. Ring of Providence, R. I., were shocked to hear of his death as the result of a street car accident on Monday evening. Telegrams earlier in the week brought the news of the accident, which occurred at seven o'clock last evening.

It was announced that the St. Stephen Exhibition, which closed yesterday, had brought in a surplus. The attendance was very large, and plans are already under way for improvements to the grounds for next year.

An unknown man was killed at Oxford Junction last night, when he attempted to jump on the front end of the baggage car on the Maritime Express and slipped beneath the wheels. No money, tickets or means of identification were found on the body.

New York, Sept. 15—Miss Catherine Hensley of Texas, "Miss San Antonio," in the recent inter-city beauty pageant in Atlantic City, sat in the Astor Hotel lobby with her chaperone, Mrs. Clara C. Pancoast, society editor of the San Antonio Express and Evening News on Tuesday and talked with a reporter.

Miss Hensley has big eyes and an air of sophisticated decision, not unding with insouciance, which lends weight to her charming Westernness, without giving anything of the expected breeziness and "open-space-ness" usually attributed to the Western girl.

They are like huge parties. The boys want their sweethearts to win them so they can brag about it. We have reputations to uphold in each city, for the South is very insistent about its beautiful girls. And the whole thing is done with less press agentry and more congeniality. The boys want their sweethearts to win them so they can brag about it.

TAKES NIECE WHO WAS FARM SLAVE

Little Girl Who Slept in Hencoop Gets New Home With New York Uncle. Chicago, Sept. 14—Margaret Melton, an 11-year-old child, who was treated like a "slave," according to Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society Workers on a farm where she had been placed after her parents were divorced, will have a new home in New York city with her uncle, Daniel Coghlin. Mr. Coghlin, who had never seen his niece until he came here after reading newspaper stories of how the juvenile authorities had taken the little girl into their care, was given custody of the child today by Judge McEwen, who refused the girl's mother's plea for custody, declaring that the mother had forfeited all claim to her daughter.

Are You Ready for the Winter?

Do YOU remember last winter? Is the heating system in your home ready for the coming winter?

Thousands of Canadian home owners know now that this winter their homes will be warm and healthful. They have Clare Bros. furnaces—Hecla or Standard or Hilborn—pipe or pipeless. Their furnaces are guaranteed to heat their homes. Their furnaces use less fuel and give better heat. Their furnaces have exclusive feature found on no other furnaces. If you have had heating troubles, shouldn't you find out about these famous furnaces?

HECLA FEATURES Fused Joints Circular Waterpan Steel Ribbed Firepot Separate Grate-Bars Large Fire Door

HECLA The Hecla is the furnace with the Steel-Ribbed Firepot—a fuel-saver to the tune of one ton in seven. It has Fused Joints that we guarantee to be proof against leaks of gas or dust. It supplies mellow, healthful air. It lasts a lifetime, and costs no more than other good furnaces. Pipe or pipeless.

STANDARD An all cast-iron furnace of the most modern type—especially adapted for soft coal. Has many of the famous Hecla features. Special provision for consuming smoke and gases. Saves coal. Heavy construction throughout gives long life. Made in both pipe and pipeless.

HILBORN Built only for wood—and burns wood better than any "coal and wood" furnace could. Burns any kind of wood—boards, slabs, knots, stumps. Saves its price by using waste wood. Low-priced and a wonderful heater. Pipe and pipeless.

"There is too much stagnation, too much painting and posing and carrying on with it all. The fact that it is a beauty contest and not a fashion show or a summer edition of a musical revue at the beach, is almost forgotten. And yet, after all, I never have seen so many pretty girls from so many different cities together before in one place. It was worth coming any distance to see. With this material to work with, and with the added element of nearness to New York, such contests should be much more artistic and beautiful than this one was."

MISS ROSS SENDS IN RESIGNATION

Police Matron Does Not Like
Matter of Pay While on Leave.

After nine years of service as police matron and stenographer at police headquarters, Miss M. Christine Ross has resigned her position. Her resignation was to have taken effect today, but at the earnest request of the Chief of Police, Miss Ross has consented to remain on duty until the end of the month.

It is because of a matter of leave of absence that Miss Ross sent in her resignation. Her work is said to be of a very trying nature. She is liable to be called upon at any hour of the day or night on week-days and on Sundays and she has often very difficult cases to deal with. Her assistance has been so necessary to the chief department that in nine years she has only on one occasion previous to this year taken her two weeks' vacation all at once. She has taken a week at a time due to her as vacation for this year and one week remained of her vacation period last year. The extra five weeks she asked for because she needed rest.

The Commissioner of Public Safety, Miss Ross says, undertook to bring the matter of salary before the City Council and she took the six weeks' vacation. On her return the Commissioner said that he would not be responsible for paying her salary during the extra five weeks. It was a matter of about $110, but Miss Ross felt that she was not being fairly treated in the matter and she sent in her resignation.

Miss Ross has given valuable assistance to the department and is thoroughly efficient and competent in her work. It would be exceedingly difficult to replace her, and she has the sincere regard and respect of every member of the force. Should she adhere to her intention of resigning she will be very greatly missed.

RECENT DEATHS

Miss Marguerite Flagg.
The death of Miss Marguerite Flagg occurred on Wednesday morning. She was 19 years of age and was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Flagg. She is survived by her parents, two sisters, Mrs. Small, of Big Duck Island, and Mrs. Lorang, of Perry, Me., and two brothers, Wellington, at home, and Harry, of Boston.

The barns of Walter and Eugene Estey, at Millville, York County, were destroyed by fire on Thursday when a large meteor fell to earth, striking them in its fall.

PRINCESSES WILL TRY AMERICA

Moscow, Aug. 29.—(By Mail.)—Russia soon will be poorer by 24 young women, for this is the number of brides who are, or soon will be, on their way to the United States with their American husbands, men who came out to Russia with the American Relief Administration. Many of the marriages were precipitated by the withdrawal of the ARA from the Russian field. Most of the brides speak English. With two or three exceptions they come from old and well known Russian families, reduced to meagre circumstances by the revolution, and have enjoyed exceptional educational advantages. They include two princesses and several countesses.

A Matter of Economy

Few men or women realize the economy as well as the effectiveness and comfort of possessing several pairs of wearable shoes at one time.

A change is as good as a rest, and this applies to the feet as to everything else. It is wonderful what a relief to the feet and therefore the feelings, results from putting on a pair of fresh shoes.

A change of shoes twice or three times a day will refresh and build up vitality amazingly, as those who follow the practice can testify.

A rest is good for the shoes themselves. They recuperate as well as the wearer, and speak their appreciation in retaining their shape and appearance longer.

Smart shoes have their psychological effect upon both wearer and observer. A man maintains his self respect and his reputation for neatness by keeping his shoes up to the mark.

An extra pair of shoes is today as logical as an extra pair of trousers. There is more sense in keeping wrinkles out of the shoes than out of the trouser knees.

SHOES FOR THE FAMILY

MEN! DO IT NOW!

Why put off buying your Fall Shoes till you get wet feet and contract a cold? It's easier to catch a cold than to get rid of one.

DEMPSEY BEATS FIRPO IN TWO WHIRLWIND ROUNDS

Retains Championship in One of Fiercest Fights in Ring History.

Jack Dempsey is still heavyweight champion of the world as a result of his victory over Luis Angel Firpo at the Povo grounds, New York, last evening. While the bout did not go two full rounds it was conceded to be one of the fiercest and most spectacular ever recorded in ring history. In the first round the champion floored the Argentine challenger five times and had him so groggy that he had little ability in putting him away in the second. However, the challenger proved to be a dangerous contender, for he had Dempsey battered to his knees on one occasion and on another drove him through the ropes into one of the press boxes. It was Dempsey's great strength alone that saved him and he came back strong, determined to end the bout as quickly as possible. Hammer and Tong.

From the tap of the gong the two human giants rushed at each other, and Firpo was the first to land a blow, but Dempsey quickly shot in a right to the body and a left to the chin, which sent his opponent crashing to the floor. When he regained his feet he again rushed the champion, but was driven off with a terrific bombardment of rights and lefts and again went to the canvas. Twice more he went down and he appeared stunned. After taking the count of nine in his fifth knockdown, he launched himself at the champion and taking him by surprise sent him reeling. A right to the side of the head sent him to his knees and as he arose another swing knocked him through the ropes. When he climbed back into the ring Dempsey clinched to save himself. The bell

SHOES TO SUIT THE SUIT

Women are more enterprising and thoughtful than men in the matter of Shoe Styles and yet there is still a great deal of incongruity to be noticed amongst them in the selection and use of Shoe apparel.

You will find, for instance, a woman in a handsome street costume with a pair of Slippers only fit for the boudoir or the ball room. You will often see a lady in a ravishing evening gown wearing a pair of Shoes that are only fit for traveling or a tennis tournament.

It is still a more common thing these days when variety encourages considerable license to see a woman on the street wearing a pair of Shoes that clashes loudly with the rest of her make-up.

The really dressy woman has SHOES for various occasions, and those who stick to the old system of one or two pairs of Shoes at a time are certainly at a disadvantage.

A woman does not stop to think that she can buy half a dozen pairs of Shoes for the price of a single fashionable hat, or modern priced gown. Ladies do not fully realize that they are not well dressed unless their Shoes match their surroundings. But the schoolmaster is abroad.

ENDED THE ROUND BEFORE FIRPO COULD FOLLOW UP THIS ADVANTAGE.

In the second round they again rushed at each other, but Dempsey proved to be quicker on the attack and Firpo went down under crushing blows to the jaw. He gamely arose, but the end was not far off, for a left to the body and a right to the jaw sent him down and out, thus ending one of the most sensational bouts ever recorded in heavyweight annals.

Dempsey Gets $500,000.

As a result of his victory Dempsey not only retains his championship title but will receive close to $500,000 as his share of the gate receipts, estimated at $1,270,000. Firpo will receive $100,000. Manager Jack Kearns was in charge of Dempsey's corner and was assisted by Joe Benjamin, Pacific Coast lightweight, and Jerry Lavadin, his trainer. Hughy Garland, Horation Lavalle and G. Widmer were in charge of the challenger's corner. Both the champion and the challenger were given tremendous orations as they entered the ring.

Johnny Gallagher was named referee, and at 10:04 ordered the men to the centre of the ring for instructions. The gong then sounded and they started. Fight By Rounds.

TO THE FLOOR. FIRPO, BLEEDING AND GROGGY, STAGGERED INTO THE CENTRE OF THE RING.

Dempsey hit him with a left hook to the chin and a right to the same spot, knocking him flat. He rolled over on his back with blood trickling from his mouth, remaining in this position while the referee swung the count over him. Dempsey, nervous, rushed over and helped pick up his fallen foe and then trotted to his corner.

Preliminaries.

The first preliminary was over before either fighter had had a chance to warm up. Dan Bright, English heavyweight, knocking out Leo Brown, of Australia, in fifty-eight seconds, the first round. A right swing to the jaw sent Brown sprawling for the count. Brown weighed 207 and Bright 208.

Charley Nashert, Jersey City, light heavyweight, received the judges' decision over Frank Koebel, of Brooklyn, one of Firpo's sparring mates, in the second preliminary, a four-round added attraction. Koebel, battered badly about the head and body, was dropped for counts in the first and second rounds and was barely hanging on at the final bell. Both weighed 172.

Mike Burke, of Greenwich Village, battered Al Roberts, of Staten Island, into defeat in the third preliminary of six rounds. Roberts absorbed terrific punishment about the head and was barely able to keep his feet in the last round, as bloody and groggy, he RECEIVED ABOUT THE RING UNDER A FURILLADE OF BLOWS.

Burke weighed 173½ and Roberts, 188.

Leo Gales, of Harlem, and Bartley Madden, of the West Side, weighing 189 and 192 pounds, respectively, engaged in the fourth preliminary, a 12-round affair. Neither appeared able to inflict much damage and the crowd grew restless as they pawed at each other in the earlier rounds.

Round two—Firpo swung a right to Dempsey's jaw. Dempsey hooked a left to the chin. Jack drove both fists to the body and Firpo fell and Dempsey came back groggy. Firpo floored Dempsey on the jaw with a left hammer right, bringing blood from his mouth. Firpo also was bleeding when he went to his corner.

DEMPSEY'S FIRST AMBITION WAS JOB IN BEAUTY PARLOR

Hairdresser of Salt Lake City Bares Real Secret of Jack's Life.

(New York Herald.)

The truth about Jack Dempsey leaked out yesterday at the Hotel Pennsylvania, where the National Association of Hairdressers is holding its convention. Instead of being "the snarling demon of the coal pits," the champion is simply a quiet young man whose natural inclination is hairdressing. In fact, he started out as a hairdresser.

A. J. Auerbach, a hairdressing impresario of Salt Lake City, Dempsey's home town, made the revelation about the heavy-weight champion. Like most of the middle aged men of his profession, Mr. Auerbach suffers considerably from alopecia areata (baldness) and Jargon for plain baldness.

"It was back in 1914," began Mr. Auerbach, stroking his bald spot reflectively, "that Dempsey, then just a kid who didn't know what he wanted to do, came into my shop in Salt Lake City to visit his sister who worked there—and still does. Well, it seems that this kid had a mania for dressing his hair and shampooing and massaging and manicuring and all that stuff. Every time I'd turn my back he'd begin practicing on a customer. I'd throw him out and he'd come back again."

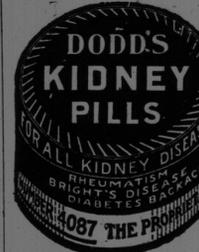

"Now I've always been a great devotee of what I like to call the manly art, and I kept two pairs of gloves in my beauty shop. One day when Jack came in I put on the gloves with him. I found that he showed promise. I started practicing with him every day after fixing the ladies' hair, and pretty soon I put him in the ring. I managed him in his first fights, boosted him, and then turned him over to Jack Kearns. Of course, I didn't know he was going to be champion, or I might have stuck with him. Hairdressing is darned hard work compared to prize fighting, and Jack did the wise thing."

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 85 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise, no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent. air and 6 per cent. common kerosene (coal oil). The inventor, O. K. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 DAYS' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $200 to $300 per month.

Times' Representative Tells Of Blows That Laid Low Dempsey Challenger

James Power's Story of Championship Fight in New York.

By JAMES POWER (Special Representative of The Times.)

Polo Grounds, New York, Sept. 14.—Jack Dempsey put Firpo out tonight with a left to the body and a right to the jaw. The fight began with fury and the shattering pace never slackened. Dempsey stepped right in and started to slug the big Argentinian. Firpo must be given credit for his splendid game, getting to the feet of his opponent a minute of the fight but he was out of it in the second round and dropped Luis for the count of seven.

It looked as if the first round would tell the whole story of the fight but the surprise that came on top of this was tremendous. Dempsey underestimated the recuperative powers of his opponent and started to slug him for the final count.

Instead he met a solid right swing to the jaw that sent him through the ropes. Jack was up instantly and back in the ring, but he was shaky. Firpo sent over three rights to Jack's face that sent the champion down again. He tried to use his left, but although he landed, he did no damage.

The Shattered Blow.

As Firpo thought his chances for the championship were best Dempsey began to play left and right to his head and had him to the canvas again. The minute's rest found the champion ready to end matters so soon as he could. It was the terrific right to the jaw that sent the pride of the Argentine down for the final count.

He tried gamely to rise to his feet but the count of ten he was almost hat on his back. The champion assisted him to his corner amid the outbursts of applause of the big crowd.

Dempsey was given a great ovation and it was several minutes before the clearing subsided.

Although the fight ended quickly the huge crowd seems most pleased with what they had seen. Sporting men at the ring side were unanimous in their opinion that it was one of the fiercest encounters in the history of the game. Many Are There.

The sporting world was well represented. John McGraw, Miller Hug-

HUNTER'S ADVANCE IN TENNIS HAS BEEN STEADY SINCE 1915

Philadelphia, Sept. 15—Francis T. Hunter, who defeated Vincent Richards in the national lawn tennis championship here, is the ninth ranked player in the country. He was born in New York City and has lived in New Rochelle most of his life. He played his first series tournament in 1915, when he reached the fifth round of the national championship, where he was put out by Maurice McLoughlin. In 1916 he was captain of the Cornell tennis team. He served in the navy during the war and gained prominence as one of the ablest tennis players in the world.

In 1921 he went to Wimbledon and reached the semi-finals, where he was defeated by Norton in a five-set match. He was selected for the "first ten" in the 1922 rating, and is rated third on the metropolitan list. Last year at Sabrigh he defeated Gerald Paterson of Australia, holder of the world's title, and this year he was a finalist with Johnson at Wimbledon.

High School vs. Trojans.

High School and the Trojans will meet this afternoon at three o'clock on the old Shamrock grounds for the first game of the rugby season. Although the match will be only a practice game, some good football should be shown as both teams have been practicing for about two weeks. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the teams concerned. On account of the earliness of the game, substitutes will be allowed and each team will be kept at top speed by the introduction of fresh blood at frequent intervals.

Fathers of Confederation Saw Importance of Maritimes

PORTS AND RAILWAYS IN POWER PROVINCES BOND OF UNION FOR AND MOTHERLAND

Speeches Quoted in Connection With Maritime Board of Trade Meeting are in Line With Contentions of the Present Day Here.

In order that the public of Canada, and particularly our new and younger citizens, might be well informed as to the vital bearing that the construction of the Intercolonial Railway had upon both the Maritime Provinces and Upper Canada, when consideration was being given to the adoption of Confederation by these provinces, several extracts were presented at the Maritime Board of Trade Convention at Halifax recently from public addresses delivered by the leading statesmen who gave thought to this vitally important subject.

Hon. Geo. E. Cartier. Among these extracts were the following:— Extract from address by Hon. George E. Cartier at Halifax on Sept. 12, 1864:—"I have heard since I have been in Halifax the objection thrown out that you will be absorbed. It will be very easy for me to dispel such fears. I answer them by a question, have you any objection to being absorbed by commerce? Halifax, through the Intercolonial Railway, will be the recipient of trade which benefits Portland, Boston and New York. If you are unwilling to do all in your power to bring to a satisfactory consummation this great question, will you force us to send all this trade, which you ought to have, through American channels? Will the people of Nova Scotia or Brunswick be better off because they are not absorbed by commerce or prosperity? It is as evident as the sun shines at noon that when the R. is built—and it must necessarily be built if that Confederation takes place—the consequence will be that between Halifax and Liverpool there will be steamships almost daily leaving and arriving at the former. In fact, it will be a ferry between Halifax and Liverpool. I don't tell you to go back with all our offers of no avail. Let me assure you the promises we made in sincerity and good faith. In urging union upon you we are doing that which will be for your happiness and prosperity."

Sir John A. Macdonald. John A. Macdonald (afterwards Sir John, Premier of Canada) at the same meeting stated:—"I do not hesitate to say that with respect to the Intercolonial Railway it is understood by the people of Canada that it can only be built as a means of political union of the colonies. It cannot be denied, as a commercial enterprise, it would be of comparatively little commercial advantage to the people of Ontario and Quebec. Whilst we have the St. Lawrence in summer, and the American ports in time of peace, we have all the requirements of our commerce. We recognize, however, the fact that peace will not always exist and that we must have some other means of outlet for our goods than by cut off from the ocean for some months of the year. We wish to feel greater security, to know that we can have assistance readily in the time of danger. In case of a union, this railway must be a national work, and Canada must cheerfully contribute to the utmost extent in order to make that important link without which no political connection can be complete."

Hon. Geo. Brown. Hon. George Brown, at the Halifax meeting above referred to, said, among other statements:—"But far in advance of all other advantages would be this, that union of all the provinces would break down all the trade barriers between us and throw open at once to all a combined market of 10,000,000 of people. You in the East would send us your fish and your coal, and your West India produce, while we would send you the flour and grain and the meats you now buy in Boston and New York."

Hon. A. T. Galt. Hon. A. T. Galt, one of the ablest of the delegates, who was specially charged with working out the financial features of the proposed union, in his address at the Halifax meeting, said:—"If we are united we must have an Intercolonial Railway. I am an advocate of this great work, and it is an absolute necessity, if a union of these provinces is to take place at all—absolutely necessary because if a province were attacked the others could not come to its rescue unless so united. It also, all could assist the Motherland at any point in either winter or summer. The first years of the late war confirmed this assurance in a

Ford Surplus Rises $1,000 Each Minute

Assets More Than Doubled in Two Years—Car Output Up to 135,000.

Detroit, Sept. 15.—The steady growth of the Ford Motor Company is again being revealed in its recent financial statement for the twelve months ended June 30, 1923. Total assets are given as $697,329,293, as compared with $400,820,132 on June 30, 1922, an increase of $187,519,161. Compared with the corresponding period for 1921, when the assets totaled $283,088,189, the company more than doubled its assets within two years.

This is, however, by no means the only striking feature of Ford's business for the last fiscal year. Sales were so tremendous and profitable that the company was able to add $124,198,862 to its surplus, the total now being $414,129,168, as compared with $289,930,286 in 1922. In 1921 the surplus was $156,686,672.

Four Generations on Bench In Rockwood Gardens

SOUTH BAY MAN'S REUNION WITH HIS DESCENDANTS

David McPherson at Age of 77, Good Yet at Highland Fling

Following the lead given by the story of Isaac and Thomas E. Smith, brothers who met last week for the first time in 54 years, The Times has come across another interesting family tale. It is that of David McPherson of South Bay and descendants through several generations. The accompanying picture was taken in the public gardens at Rockwood Park a few days ago. It shows one of the sons, a grandson and a great-granddaughter.

David McPherson, well and vigorous at seventy-seven years of age, they crossed on the steamship Castalia of the Anchor Line, and were fourteen days on the voyage. Taking up residence here the sturdy qualities of their race in fact, David and his wife and three young children came to St. John from Kinross-shire, Scotland, fifty years ago on May 8. Taking up residence here the sturdy qualities of their race in fact, David and his wife and three young children came to St. John from Kinross-shire, Scotland, fifty years ago on May 8.

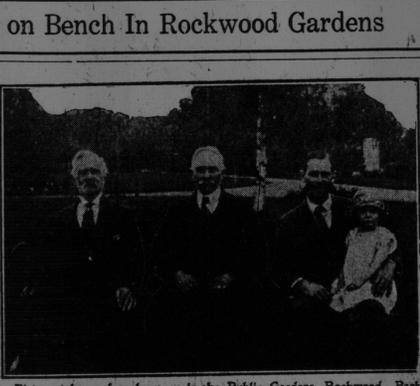

For fourteen years Mr. McPherson was caretaker of the gates at the Silver Falls water works; then he purchased a farm at South Bay and has since been engaged in agriculture. Some six years ago Mrs. McPherson died after they had been happy companions for 51 years.

MURDER DISCLOSED AFTER FIFTY YEARS

Note Near Slayer's Skeleton in Nevada Contains Painful Confession.

Baltimore, Sept. 15.—Stained and brittle from perhaps forty years resting in its niche, subject to the elements, the confession of a murderer, Lee Singleton, native of Crisfield, Md., a former resident of Hagerstown, Md., some fifty years ago, was found in a crevice between the logs of a cabin in Culver Canyon, near Eureka, Nev., by James Thornton, a surveyor, according to word received in Hagerstown. In the cabin bunk was a man's skeleton, a gold watch engraved with the initials "L. R. S." and a watch chain which hung a large silver nugget fob.

Following are such portions of the confession as could be deciphered:—"After fourteen years of wandering I am back in the cabin which I built six years ago. Surely those six years of hell should go toward the final reckoning. I wonder if any one will ever read this or will it rot beside me? "Seems as if I could lie down easier if I write out what I did. My name is Lee Singleton, born in Crisfield, Md., enlisted in the southern army, was wounded twice and served until the close of the war, when my parents died.

Each Won a Game; Strenuous for Umpire in One Session.

The Rhondda Party under the gifted and energetic captaincy of Tom Morgan, Perth, appeared before a Cardiff audience in a return engagement at the Olympia on Good Friday last. The spacious edifice was well packed, and the vast audience, enveloped in waves of beautiful melodies, lavishly expressed their admiration and appreciation of the musical feast provided them by spontaneous and untried outbursts of applause. The programme presented at the above concert was both rare and delightfully new, such that reflected the sterling qualities of this superb combination and which revealed the keen sense of conception and the interpretative ability of his genial and able conductor. The first item, "To Arms" (Mauder), rendered with soul-inspiring effect, instantly found a responsive chord in the heart of the audience, as evidenced by their insistent clamors for an encore, which had to be responded to. The same marked enthusiasm was maintained right throughout the programme.

LIFE SAVING

Pupils Become Proficient Under the Direction of Mark Burns.

It is expected that in another week or two the city swimming scoops at the foot of Kennedy street will be closed for the season. They were opened early in June and since that time have been well patronized, providing not only a source of pleasure to hundreds of children and adults but also a centre of athletic education for the rising generation. The scoops and bathing houses are in charge of Mark Burns who has always manifested a keen interest in his work and through whose efforts hundreds of children and many adults were in attendance daily. The majority were able to swim and expressed a desire to improve their style. As a result Mr. Burns organized classes and daily gave demonstrations of difficult but popular, speed strokes such as the side stroke with the scissor kick and the crawl. He also gave instructions in floating and diving and as a result many of his pupils are now accomplished aquatic performers.

Realizing the importance of an education in life saving Mr. Burns formed a class and as time went by he had the satisfaction of seeing his efforts bear fruit. Many of his pupils were quite timid at first but by careful coaching and encouragement they were able to overcome their fears and were sent into the water after a companion and at last were able to rescue a drowning one to the scow.

Teaching plain and fancy diving was also one of his scores of boys and girls were taken in hand and have now become expert exponents of difficult athletic maneuvers. Mr. Burns to the work of Miss Constance Carney, who has mastered some of the most difficult dives and he considers the management of Mr. Burns and the care he has at all times exercised while patrons or pupils were enjoying a swim. On one occasion last season one of the swimmers went under and, falling to appear in a few seconds Mr. Burns dove without removing any of his clothing and brought her safely to the surface. Pupils in hand had taken a dive and then apparently lost her head and instead of making the required motions to bring her to the surface she allowed herself to sink. On other occasions Mr. Burns went to the assistance of pupils, but on the whole his instructions have been carefully followed and accidents have been avoided. He has "do not" lists posted in the houses and the instructions given thereon are valued as well as in prevention.

There are 92 rooms at the wharf and scoops, 31 or girls and 20 boys. In addition, a good spring-bath and a slide is arranged from the top of one of the houses. The latter gave many opportunity for amusement, and it is a common sight to see many a "stunt" pulled off while going down the slide. Some go down feet first and then dive as they start to shoot into the water, while others go down in other positions.

The opportunity afforded at this swimming centre for bathing, swimming and instruction has been a source of satisfaction to hundreds, and the hope is expressed that it will be opened again in 1924.

CHAMBERLAIN'S APPOINTMENT SAID TO BE BEST UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES

His Promotion to High Post Rapid; Topics of Empire Capital.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
London, August 30.—Mr. Neville Chamberlain is to be the new Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Sir William Joynson Hicks succeeds him at the Ministry of Health with Mr. Davidson, the Chancellor of the Duchy, giving such parliamentary assistance as may be necessary to the treasury. Efforts to accommodate Mr. McKenna or Sir Robert Horne alike failed for different reasons. Mr. Chamberlain's appointment is accepted as the best possible in the circumstances, although the more long-sighted with Party unity at heart would have preferred his brother. The new Chancellor of the Exchequer has been in parliament less than five years, so that his promotion in times other than those of war is altogether noteworthy. But, apart from parliament, he has had a tremendous experience in public affairs, and there is no doubting his exceptional ability. Parliamentary savoir faire will come with experience.

A British Telegraph Rate.
To Lord Blyth in his campaign for restoring the penny post may a humble but interested spectator suggest that he should join with it a campaign for a universal British penny telegram.

I mean that it should be made possible to send a telegram to any part of the British Empire at a cost of a penny per word. This may startle those who have paid three shillings a word to telegraph to Australia, but after all if the dominions and possessions are given the penny halfpenny rate of the old country for postage (with a lessened weight) why should they not be given also the old country's telegraph rate (it may be with an increased minimum)? If we recognize a common telegraph rate for the man at John O'Groats, and in Whitechapel, it is not illogical to ask one also for all Britishers overseas. This has long been a cherished project of Imperialists who recognize what it means to Imperial sentiment and trade. The war interfered with the progress of the movement, but now that we are on the eve of the conference of Dominion prime ministers is the time for Lord Blyth or some one else.

A Trade Opportunity.
In these days when we so badly want trade, every hint or suggestion is helpful. A friend has just returned after a twelve months' commercial tour in South America. He offers what seems to be two valuable points for consideration. The first is the opportunity offered to British merchants in view of the new U.S. tariff. This, by gradually increasing the cost of living, and is already compelling the Yankees to revise their tariff on goods from the United States. A friend has just returned after a twelve months' commercial tour in South America. He offers what seems to be two valuable points for consideration. The first is the opportunity offered to British merchants in view of the new U.S. tariff. This, by gradually increasing the cost of living, and is already compelling the Yankees to revise their tariff on goods from the United States.

The second point is the desirability, even necessity, of improving our commercial representation. At present British merchants are too apt to entrust their representation to casual commission agents, paying them a few pounds towards expenses and for the rest leaving them to recoup themselves out of a percentage on sales. Unfortunately these men are seldom of the right stamp. They are not the sort of people usually made welcome at the clubs, the legations, or the residences. In his town my friend met only four representatives whom he would class as the right kind. One was the managing director of a Manchester cotton concern, the others represented an aerated water firm, a tobacco firm, and a firm of shipbuilders. The expense of proper representation is, of course, very considerable. Travel and living and entertainment expenses alone may amount to £1,500 a year without any suggestion of extravagance. In the other hand this might be met by the combination of traders into groups, such as a hardware group, a soft goods group, a food group and so on, reducing the individual cost to a few hundreds per annum and, with the right men chosen, multiplying the volume of trade many times over.

A 2 1/2 mile walking match with full army kit and without the regulation army stops is a bit stiff, as there are now hundreds of thousands in this country to testify by personal experience. Mr. Gray, the member for Oxford, and Captain Ainsworth, the member for Bury, who performed this feat this week, may be congratulated on their stamina, but scarcely on their good sense. Mr. Gray, who ultimately won, is 42, and Captain Ainsworth, 48 years of age, so that they were upholding the flag of the veterans against the younger generation. But Captain Ainsworth had to be put to bed and Mr. Gray fainted, otherwise the youngsters might have been more impressed. The two M. P.'s however have the satisfaction of securing many votes among sporting enthusiasts, and obviously need not fear any walking the division lobbies may entail. Mr. Gray is a solicitor who made his modest fortune while still a young man. Captain Ainsworth is the head of a well-known Lancashire firm of dyers and bleachers. One is a Liberal and the other a Unionist, but both are Free Traders.

No New Machinery.
One of the many disturbing factors in the present industrial depression would seem to be the non-renewal of machinery. In pre-war days a big firm as a matter of sound policy would automatically set aside six to eight per cent. of its machinery costs for renewals and additions. Up to this amount went old machines, no matter how serviceable, and in came the latest inventions. The machinery was kept up to date and British manufacturers could face the most modern competitors.

A big industrialist assures me that this allocation has disappeared, and that British industry is now working almost wholly on old machines. Taxation being what it is, he says that there is simply no money available for the old machinery replacements and additions, and manufacturers are simply compelled to abandon the old sound policy although they recognize that it is equivalent to living on capital. A pertinent comment on this is contained in three half-yearly industrial company reports published yesterday. Not one of them declares a dividend.

Ingenuous American Manufacturers.
American manufacturers are expressing great surprise that their British rivals are not properly grateful of the recent proposals of the latter should "take over" the surplus orders which the Americans find themselves unable to fill. In particular steel and locomotive manufacturers in the U.S. have accepted orders greatly in excess of their capacity to deliver, and they thought they would be conferring a favor on British manufacturers by offering to pass on the surplus. British manufacturers, however, fully realized that if they fell in with the arrangement they would be merely helping America to keep customers who ought to come to England for their goods, and they knew that these customers would ultimately have to come here.

The American industrialist is now finding a new line, and is declaring that it is a "world necessity" that the British workmen should receive as high a wage and live as well as the American. This is hardly the warm-hearted philanthropy it might appear. It is merely that the American industrialist is beginning to realize that the astonishing increase in the cost of living caused in great part by the country's own protective tariffs has meant high wages, which must be brought down if he is to compete in the foreign market.

Wireless in Crime.
Scotland Yard admits that it is adding a wireless motorvan to its installation, but denies that it is providing its detectives with portable wireless sets. That, however, is only a matter of time, and the discovery of a set that will be less evident than the usual plain-clothes man's boots. The van will be useful in communicating with spots where the telephone is not readily accessible, and when time may be the essence of the matter. But its great work will be in helping to regulate traffic from the air. Its value in this respect was proved at the last Derby, and the success achieved then has encouraged the organization of a permanent installation. Scotland Yard is never behindhand in calling for the aid of science. It already possesses or has at its command a laboratory equipment which a university would not despise. There are many things other than lost umbrellas behind its barred windows on the Thames embankment.

French Canadians In Louisiana Have Fine School System

Great Progress Marks Developments of the Last Twenty Years.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Descendants of the French Canadians, who still form a large part of the population of LaFayette Parish, Louisiana, on the rich bottom lands of the Mississippi River, have developed a system of schools which is the most progressive in that state, according to a Rural School Leaflet, published by the Department of the Interior through the Bureau of Education.

Twenty years ago, the leaflet points out, 26 one-teacher schools constituted the entire educational system of the parish. Up to that time French was the principal language taught in the rural public schools. If fruits of these conditions may be judged by the 1921 census, they are the illiteracy of approximately a third of the white people of the parish, and almost three-fourths of the negroes. Interspersed among the Acadians, are settlers of Spanish descent from the days of the Spanish domination of Louisiana. In the western part of the parish is an Dollars are supposed to be well made. But they won't last. You must keep making new ones.

What some merchants give you for a dollar indicates they think the dollar is silver plated.

Many Improvements.
Changed educational conditions are marked, the leaflet continues, by the use of English as the teaching medium in the schools, and the reduction of one-room schools of the parish to 19. Nineteen up-to-date consolidated schools now furnish 147 trained teachers for the parish enrollment of 4,460 within reach of all these children, for six of the consolidated schools provide four years of high school while three others supply two years. Daily transportation by motor bus or horse wagonette is furnished at a cost of 10 cents each per day to 1,400 children. Very few of the children have to be transported more than six miles.

Ports And Railways In Lower Provinces

At a banquet given the delegates at Toronto, on November 3, 1884, he said that the delegates had unanimously resolved that the united provinces of British America shall be placed at the earliest moment possible in a thorough state of defence. Referring specially to the Intercolonial Railway, he stated: "I now approach a very delicate question—delicate as regards the people of the West. We have agreed, I announce it frankly, to build the Intercolonial Railway. I have not been in favor of that scheme situated as we have been. But at the same time I have been quite willing to admit—and I repeat it heartily today—that without the Intercolonial Railway there could be no union of these provinces and after a careful consideration of the question in all its bearings, and after counting the full cost, I am prepared to advocate the building of that road, in order to accomplish the great object we have in view in the scheme of Confederation. . . . In agreeing to build the Intercolonial Railway it should also be stated that due regard was had to the interest of the West. I am happy to be able to say that with the unanimous consent of the members of the Conference we have resolved on an extension of our canal system."

Ontario, it was pointed out at the Montreal Board of Trade meeting, still has her canals and is obtaining their extension. These canals, the use of which required the payment of tolls years ago, are now absolutely free. The cost of maintenance of these canals came out of the revenues of Canada, the Maritime Provinces contributing their share, while so far as the Intercolonial Railway is concerned, we have been told that it must pay all the cost of operation.

Hon. Mr. Rose, in discussing the Intercolonial Railway matter at one of these Confederation meetings, asked these questions:—"Are we to be for all time to come dependent on the fish it to come to this, that in the winter season, the Upper Canada farmer shall have no means whereby he can send a barrel of flour or the lower Canada merchant a bale of goods to the seaboard without the leave of the United States? Are we to be left in this condition of commercial dependency forever? Under what conditions shall the expense of constructing the Intercolonial Railway be incurred? I believe that that work is a great and grave undertaking and one that will involve a serious charge on the wealth of the country. But then it is one that we cannot avoid. It is a necessity. We must have it."

The declarations herein made by the statesmen of Canada who were responsible for bringing about Confederation and for providing the "bond of union" of the Dominion by the establishment of the Intercolonial Railway, are of a vital character, and should be carefully studied by all Canadians who are interested in the promotion of their country's interests and in the building up of Canada as a nation within the British Empire. These declarations also impress the value of the ports of the Maritime Provinces and the responsibility which rests upon all Canadians to see that these ports are fully developed and utilized. They justify all the claims that have been made by the Boards of Trade, the people and the press of the Maritimes.

MAINE LEADER IN NON-CHURCHGOERS

Losing Ground Rapidly to Spirit of Materialism, is Report.

Boston, Sept. 15.—Protestant churches in northeastern United States are losing ground rapidly to a spirit of materialism fostered by Sunday golf, auto excursions, war reactions, immigration increases and money worship, delegates from six New England states told 300 clergymen assembled at the second day's session of the New England conference on Evangelism here today. The conference is being conducted under the auspices of the American Baptist Home Missions Society.

Maine, with the largest rural population of New England, is the highest in percentage of non-church members, statistics submitted by the investigators revealed. According to statistics compiled by the Rev. George H. Hamlin, D. D., delegate from Maine, 65 out of every 100 persons in that state are admittedly out of the church. Vermont and New Hampshire, next in rural population, are also second and third highest in non-church goers. Fifty-six per cent. of the population of Vermont was reported non-church going and 83 per cent. in New Hampshire. Rhode Island, whose population is nearly 98 per cent. urban, was credited with all but 88 per cent. of its citizens church members.

Rev. Mr. Hamlin declared that post-war restlessness and increasing foreign population are the principal menaces to church progress in Maine. Rev. E. B. Dolan, Massachusetts statistician, reported conditions more favorable in Massachusetts than in the three northern states. Baptist congregations have been steadily increasing in Massachusetts for half a century, he stated.

SONG WRITER, WED AFTER BRIEF COURTSHIP, SUED FOR DIVORCE

New York, Sept. 15.—Eugene Kahn, a song writer, known professionally as Eugene West, was made defendant in a divorce action brought by Mrs. Eloise Kahn, of Brightwaters, L. I., before Supreme Court Justice Hagarly in Brooklyn. The Kahns were married June 1, 1921, after a brief courtship. The complaint charges misconduct with an unnamed woman in a downtown hotel.

One of the best known songs written by Kahn is "You know you belong to somebody else, so why don't you leave me alone."

Miss Herington, organizing secretary for the Girl Guides in Canada, is expected to arrive this evening and will be the guest of Miss Dorothy Purdy, at Robesay, tonight. On Sunday she will go to St. Stephen in connection with girl guide work there and will return to St. John to address a meeting here on Monday afternoon.

Military Hair Dress of Hundred Years Ago

(Naval Military Record)

In these days of khaki uniforms and webbing equipment it is impossible to comprehend quite all it meant to be a soldier 100 years ago. Hair dressing for officers and men today is a simple procedure, but what it must have been in 1863 is indicated in the following extracts from the standing orders in the Garrison of Gibraltar for that time as reproduced in the current number of "The Journal of the Society of Army Historical Research."

"The hair of the officers to be at all times cut, in the course of the first week of every month, and no officer, by one established regimental hair dresser, who is to be responsible to do it according to this simple rule, viz.—The top to be cut as close as possible being left no longer than is necessary to admit of its being turned with curling irons of the smallest size, the back line of the top to not exceed a line formed by passing a packthread from the back of one ear to that of the other vertically over the crown of the head; the hind hair to be parted from that of the top in the shape of a horse shoe which will occasion the sides to extend to half an inch behind the ear, and which, therefore, forms the extreme breadth of the top; the remaining hair so parted off behind the string, is to be combed back, to grow down in one even length, from the crown and the back of the ear, so that the whole of it may tie into the queue; no part of the hind hair so parted off from the front, or brush top, is to be thinned off, and none of the short hair in the neck to be cut away.

"When the hair is cut in this manner, it is then to be dressed as follows: The top and sides to be turned with irons, and combed from the ear upwards to the crown, the hind hair to be tied exactly level with the stocks, which, when the officer has his coat on should bring the top of the queue even with the bottom seam of the collar. The hair above the tie to be moderately filled and mixed with powder, and pomatum, well combed into the roots so as to look white, and prevent powder from falling out on the clothes, but not so as to appear stiff and constrained. The regulation queue, which is made so as to receive this hair, is to be at all times worn, excepting by the Grenadier and Fusilier officers when they are ordered to appear in the bearskin caps, at which time they are to have plaits, which are to be formed according to the following direction. The hair, in the first place, is to be tied with a string close to the head, then filled with powder and pomatum well mixed, and next, to be divided into three strands, which are to be braided as flat as possible, without appearing stiff, the plait to be turned up level with the bottom of the collar, and fixed with a comb two inches in width, which is to be placed at the top of the crown exactly where the hind hair is turned back from the top, and forms the centre of the horse shoe, the plait is to cover the whole of the comb, and at the bottom to be half an inch wider than at the top; the string with which the hair is tied, previous to its being plaited, is to be covered with a piece of inch wide black ribbon (as that is found to be sufficient to cover the string with which the hair is tied) and the fall down, consisting of two double and two single parts, to be five inches deep and no more.

In a Few Minutes

Have you ever noticed a well-dressed man, or stylishly gowned woman walking along the street with solid shoes? What impression did you form when you met that man or woman? Did you not think they were very untidy and careless? There is no excuse for having dirty, soiled, unpolished shoes. In a few minutes' time by the use of Black-O, you can have a beautiful polish. If the weather is fine a polish every second or third day is all that is necessary. Besides giving your shoes a wonderful polish Black-O preserves and softens the leather, makes them waterproof and wears longer. Be sure you get Black-O.

major and pioneers, but the beard to be always shaved up to the top of the ear, where the side hair is to be left perfectly square and level with the corner of the eye. No part of the beard below the top of the ear, or in the neck, to be permitted to grow, as that always gives an appearance of uncleanness. N. B.—The top hair is to be regularly cut in the first week of every month, by one established hairdresser.

Dressing the Hair.

"In order to prepare the hair to receive the queue, it is first to be moderately thickened with powder and grease, both well-combed into the roots; a small pad or cushion covered with bran, about two inches and a half in length, and of thickness proportionable to the man's hair (known by soldiers under the appellation of a mouse) is next to be placed, withinside, above the tie, so as to make it appear full and round, without spreading it too much, and in order to prevent it from splitting; but this is on no account to be placed so high as to touch the head, as that would occasion the queue to stand off from it, or make it bag at the tie, which are the two greatest faults that can be found in any soldier's head-dress. After this, the hair is to be tied exactly level with the bottom of the stock, and particular care must be taken that the tie sets close to the neck; the top hair is then to be well rubbed with soap, lard, and grease, and combed from the ear straight upwards, so as to have the appearance as if turned with curling irons, the back hair is next to be covered with soap lather, well beat up with flour in a box, until it becomes a stiff paste, which is to be laid on with a small brush (commonly called by house painters, a sash tool), and then combed and neatly marked with a comb, the teeth of which should be about ten to the inch, each mark coming directly down from the crown, where the hind hair is parted off from the top, to the tie, after which the whole hair is to be lightly powdered with a thread or cotton puff, until it is perfectly white; but not so as to fill up the marks of the comb.

"When this is done, all loose powder, that has not attached itself to the paste, where it is directed to be laid on the hind hair, is to be blown off, so that none may by chance fall on the clothes. The queue, which is to be made to receive the whole of the man's hair, and to cover the string with which it is tied, is to be fixed on, so that, when the man has his coat on, the queue may be even with the lower row of lace on the collar, and lastly the hair is to be fixed on so as to cover the top of the queue.

"For the address, the hair is to be done according to the foregoing directions, except that the soap lather and powder are to be altogether omitted, and no part to shew at all; while the marks of the comb which is used for being smoothed down, although the marking comb is not to be used."

THE STUDEBAKER LIGHT-SIX FIVE-PASSENGER TOURING CAR $1395

130,000 Owners Know the Value of this Studebaker

Every unit in the new 1924 Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car has proved its dependability in public use.

There are refinements and improvements of course, but the underlying principles of design and construction which have made enthusiasts of 130,000 purchasers of this model in three years' time, are not radically changed.

The 1924 Light-Six is practically free from vibration. Studebaker accomplishes this largely by machining the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces. This is an exclusive Studebaker practice on cars at this price—and is found only on a few other cars—and they're priced above $3500.

Absence of vibration prolongs car life, causes slower depreciation, reduces the cost of operation and adds to the enjoyment of driving.

Aside from its mechanical excellence, the Light-Six is handsome in design, extremely comfortable, sturdy and economical to operate. It is powerful, speedy, has a pick-up range that is seldom taxed and never exhausted, is easy to handle, and convenient to park.

Its enameled all-steel body, one-piece, rain-proof windshield, ten-inch cushions upholstered in genuine leather, and cowl lamps are among many features heretofore to be had only in higher priced cars.

For 71 years the name Studebaker has stood for unflinching integrity, quality and value.

New all-steel body of striking beauty. One-piece, rain-proof windshield with attractive cowl lights set in base. Quick-action cowl ventilator. Door curtains, based on three sides by steel rods, open with doors. Removable upholstery in tan. Door pocket flaps with weights hold them in shape. Upholstered in genuine leather. Large rectangular window in rear curtain. Third-gear transmission lock. Standard non-skid cord tires, front and rear.

to their farms while the ruins still lie for describing his motives change. His action seldom varies. Whether disaster is before or behind, whether the enemies are without or within, of his own tribe or from across the sea, he fights on. Man, the earth, our universe, may some day be snuffed out in some vast cataclysm beyond our foresight or comprehension. In that sense man may be destroyed. But since he possesses this will to do, this eagerness to go forward whatever the cost, it is as certain as anything we know that he will never be conquered. The trust within him, whether it be by plan or not, will hold to the end; and if it is written that he is to die he will die fighting.

Lay Vulcanite Hexagon Slabs Right Over the Old Shingles

Try These Tests on the Sample We'll Send You

These tests are more severe than your roof will undergo. You'll want to see the shingles which withstand them. Simply fill in and mail the coupon below and a sample of Vulcanite Hexagon Slab, together with booklet, will be sent you.

1. Lay the sample on a hot radiator for 12 hours—see if it will melt or dry out.
2. Lay the sample on ice for 12 hours—then pour boiling water on it. See if the sudden extremes of temperature affect it in any way.
3. Soak the sample in water for 12 hours—see if its weight shows any absorption.
4. Immerse the sample in nitric, sulphuric, muriatic or other ordinary acid—see if it is affected.
5. Lay a glowing hot coal of fire on the sample—see if it sets fire to the sample.

No need to rip off the old roof when you decide to re-roof for the last time by laying Vulcanite Hexagon Slab Shingles. Re-roof right over the old shingles. You'll save money and time and litter, and you'll have a better job.

Due to their extra width and patented design, Vulcanite Hexagon Slabs are easier and more economical to lay—give double protection everywhere—seal the roof against the weather. Better shingles—because every yard of felt is extra tough, long fibre, pure rag felt. Because this felt is super-saturated with coating after coating of asphalt. Vulcanite Hexagon Slabs do resist fire better and do last longer. Surfaced with jade green or Indian red crushed slate.

Vulcanite Roofing of the same high quality also comes in individual shingles, four-in-one slab shingles, and in rolls, both slate surface and smooth finish—for home, farm, and industrial buildings. You can identify the genuine by the Vulcanite name and the Beaver trademark.

MAN THE UNCONQUERABLE.

(New York Tribune)

The warning of the Tokio earthquake is for all men, whether they happen to be perched on one of the weak and faulty lines of the earth's surface or not. Just because man can ride the wind like an eagle and travel beneath the ocean like a whale does not mean that he is really the monarch of all he surveys.

It is always within the powers of the earth to bury him beneath molten lava, or shake him and his house as a terrier shakes a rat. The huge enemies of the old jungle have been sent to their corner; the microscopic enemies of that new jungle wherein dwell the bacteria are still putting up a winning fight. Heilman And Hornsby Lead Majors' Batters

Averages Up To Wednesday For Players in 80 Games or More.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Rogers Hornsby, St. Louis star, is leading the National League in batting with an average of .384, and bids fair to hold the advantage to the end of the season, not so much through improving his own average as through the tendency on the part of his nearest competitors to slump.

Other leading batters: Rousch, Cincinnati, .333; Fritch, New York, 301; Fournier, Brooklyn, .341; Hargrave, Cincinnati, .348; Young, New York, .341; Traynor, Pittsburgh, .341; Grimm, Pittsburgh, .333.

Manush, Detroit, .344; Cobb, Detroit, .339; Stephenson, Cleveland, .336. Harris of Boston dropped out of the charmed circle of the first ten when he slumped ten points on the week. He is eleventh with .334.

PACIFIC SHIPPING INCREASED BY 100 PERCENT IN TEN YEARS. Honolulu, Aug. 19.—(A. P. by Mail)—The growth of commerce and shipping on the Pacific in the past ten years is shown by the fact that the tonnage of ships arriving here increased in the fiscal year 1923 by more than 100 per cent, over the total of 1913, according to the annual report of the harbor master.

The total tonnage for 1913 was 2,724,434, and the aggregate for 1923 was 5,292,275, an advance of 3,567,842 in the decade. The number of ships also was much larger, 478 entering in 1913 and 716 making this port in 1923.

The harbor master's report recommended that better and larger facilities be provided here for handling the vessels, in view of the increase and anticipation of a further growth.

RUNNING OF 1923 ST. LEGER IS 149TH IN HIS HISTORY

The St. Leger Stakes won by Lord Derby's tranquil was the 149th running of the third of the great classics of the English turf which constitute the "triple crown." The race was instituted at Doncaster in 1776, in which year Lord Rockingham's Alabacula was the winner. It is for three-year-old colts and fillies—as are the Two Thousand Guineas Stakes and the Derby Stakes—but fillies seldom win these great classics. Colts have won all three, the last being Sir J. Miller's Rock Sand in 1903.

Cholera Infantum A FATAL DISEASE OF CHILDREN. Cholera Infantum or summer complaint of children is one of the most dangerous bowel complaints during the summer months.

It begins with profuse diarrhoea, the stomach becomes irritated, very often accompanied by vomiting and purging and the matter excreted from the stomach has a bilious appearance. The child rapidly loses flesh, is soon reduced to languor and prostration, and in a great many cases death ensues.

Mothers, if any of your children become sick with cholera infantum do not endanger their health, perhaps their life, by experimenting with some new and untried remedy; get one that has stood the test of time; one that will quickly offset the vomiting, purging and the diarrhoea. This you will find in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, a remedy that has been on the market for the past 78 years.

Mrs. W. A. Harrison, 10 Elevator Court, Halifax, N. S., writes: "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry saved the lives of three of my children when all other remedies failed. It stopped the vomiting and terrible diarrhoea with which they were troubled. I always keep a bottle of it on hand in case of emergency."

"Dr. Fowler's" is 50 c. a bottle; put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Nelson Leads The South End Batters

Earl Nelson is the winner of the R. J. Sproule cup for the batter with the highest average in the South End League. Nelson, in addition to leading the league in batting, developed the reputation of being one of the fastest infielders in the city and also pitched several good games, both with his own team, the Royals, and as a member of the senior Trojans in the City Amateur League. The cup will be presented to him at the opening of the South End Boys' Club on Nov. 1, and the Spaulding trophy, won by his team as leaders of the league, will be presented at the same time.

ST. PETER'S AND MILLTOWN MEET THIS AFTERNOON

St. Peter's and Milltown will be the attraction at St. Peter's Park this afternoon. The game will start at 8 o'clock. Groves, one of the leading pitchers of the St. Croix League, will perform for Milltown. As the St. Peter's boys were not due home until after press time, it was not known what their line-up would be.

J. W. Brankley, general manager of the Miramichi Lumber Co., who was in the city yesterday, said he did not think the lumber cut this year would be anything near the figures estimated by the Department of Lands and Mines, as under present conditions it did not pay the lumbermen to go in for big cuts. His own firm intended to curtail their cut and this he believed was true of many of the larger operators.

Many Million Dollars Hidden Away In France

Paris, Aug. 26.—(A. P. by Mail)—All over France men and women for years have been hoarding American currency. It became available in large quantities with the coming of American soldiers during the war, and the French were quick to see its value. Today people are wondering how many dollars are concealed in the "woolen socks" of the republic. The estimates run from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000. Recently a Frenchman living in Chaumont, who kept a candy store during the war, disclosed to a friend a strong-box containing over $12,500 in American bills of various denominations, which he said he would sell when the franc reached 20 for one in this town alone who have more than 1, this man declared. The exact amount of American currency left in France by American soldiers and officers will probably never be known, but many believe that if a thorough canvass of Brest, Saint Nazair, Bordeaux, Le Mans, Tours, Chaumont, Aix-les-Bains, Vichy, Dinard and the surrounding localities were made, the total would be nearly $5,000,000.

WHEN WAR OF 1812
CAME TO AN END

How the News was Received in Halifax and Boston.

The treaty of peace between England and the United States was concluded at Ghent on Dec. 24, 1814. The news did not reach American in time to save the British forces from disaster at New Orleans. "Occasional," in the Halifax Recorder, gives the following historical review—

All was now peace at Ghent, and the plenipotentiaries were shaking friendly hands, but the war was still raging with great fury in America, and the enemy was becoming greatly intensified. Up the Mississippi the British fleet, with great bodies of troops had passed early in December, with a view to entering the southern country and destroying the chief cities. On the 8th of January, 1815, an attack was made on the Americans, about 12,000 in number, who were entrenched near New Orleans. The British were repulsed with terrible loss, and Sir Edward Packenham, the Commanding General, was killed. In the same issue of the Recorder in which is published full details of this serious repulse of the British forces—being the official communication of General Andrew Jackson, Major-General commanding the U. S., to the Secretary of War at Washington—the first linking of the important fact that the terms of Peace had been agreed upon, was conveyed to what must then have been in Halifax a somewhat distracted community. These few lines appeared under the "Ship News" heading:

"Thursday, Feb. 23, arrived H. M. brig 'Charlybids,' Capt. Clephane, from New Orleans, last from New London. The 'Charlybids' left the squadron off New London on the 18th inst. Intelligence of the treaty between Great Britain and the United States had just been received from the shore. It is said to have been signed at Ghent Dec. 24th.

The "Charlybids" likewise brought the calamitous news that the British less near New Orleans amounted to about 1800 men killed, wounded and prisoners, and that a reinforcement of 1,000 men arrived the day after the action!

The morning following the arrival of the "Charlybids" at this port, Boston papers were received in the town announcing the mail packet "Favorite" at New York with the text of the Treaty. The editor of the Recorder had a whole day, previous to his regular issue to review the situation, and to take in fully the significance of the New Orleans disaster before giving utterance to his views on the important intelligence from Europe. He dealt with the matter in this wise:

"A natural anxiety prevails to know the conditions of Peace in the Treaty brought by the 'Favorite.' We hoped in the first instance, the demands made by the Commissioners at Ghent would have been persisted in, and on the 'Favorite's' arrival were apprehensive that too much might have been conceded, but subsequent disasters have convinced us that any peace is preferable to a blundering warfare. If our plans were judicious, which we been deplorably bad; half the number of troops which have been sent here in dribbles, and cut up in detail, had they arrived together, or not acted until a junction was formed, would have enforced all our demands, and we should not now be lamenting the loss of British blood, and what is, if possible, worse, the loss of character as far as relates to our commanders. The Americans will exult—will boast—that with troops that are a satire on soldiers, they have baffled the skill and discipline of as brave men as ever marched to the field of battle, and in proportion to their exultation must be our humiliation. Under these circumstances we cannot but wish the President may ratify the Treaty. Hitherto, we have not profited by experience, nor do we see any prospect that we ever shall."

The Americans were seemingly, none the less gratified that a Treaty had been executed. The "Centinel," the Boston newspaper from which the news was gleaned, conveyed the facts to its readers in this manner: "We have this instant received, in 22 hours from New York, the following great and glorious news:

New York, Feb. 5, 1815, Saturday eve, 10 o'clock. Sir,—I hasten to acquaint you, for the information of the public, of the arrival this afternoon of His Britannic Majesty's sloop-of-war "Favorite," in which has come passenger Mr. Carroll, American Messenger, having in his possession a treaty of peace between this country and Great Britain, signed on 28th December last.

Mr. Baker also is on board, as agent for the British Government; the same who was formerly Charge des Affaires here. Mr. Carroll reached town at 8 o'clock this evening. He showed to a friend of mine, who is acquainted with him, the packet containing the Treaty, and a London newspaper of the last date of December, announcing the signing of the treaty. It depends, however, as my friend observes, upon the act of the President to suspend hostilities on this side. The gentleman left London on the 2nd of January. The "Transit" had sailed previously from a port on the Continent. This city is in a perfect state of joy, shouts, illumination, etc.

I have undertaken to send you this by express—the rider engaging to deliver it by 5 o'clock on Monday morning. The expense will be $225. If you can collect so much to indemnify me, I will thank you to do so.

B. Russell, Esq., "Centinel" Office. The "Centinel" added: "We most heartily felicitate our country on this auspicious news, which may be relied on as wholly authentic."

It is wholly impossible, continued the editor of this influential Boston paper in a leading article, to do justice to him on hearing the news about the Treaty. In a few minutes after the promulgation, all the bells announced the receipt of happy tidings, and express posted off to all parts to diffuse them. Business of every kind was immediately suspended, and the whole population of the town devoted itself to expressions of joy. A holiday was directed in all the schools; the stores and shops were closed; and the thronged streets—where nothing was heard but the cheering sounds of gratulations and loud huzzas—were decorated with the ensigns of all the commercial nations, and the American and British flags were seen waving together united by wreaths of olive and laurel. The forlorn ships at the wharves and docks once more displayed their colors, and yesterday the busy hum of the implements of the mechanic was heard in many of them, in fitting them again for sea. Orders were given for the immediate parade of the military, and in a very short time the Ancient and Honorable Artillery, Independent Cadets, Boston Light Infantry, Winslow Blues, Fusiliers, Washington Light Infantry and Rangers were under arms, and made a brilliant Feu De Jolie in State St. The town (Boston was called a town then) was alive with excitement, and the Artillery "made the welkin ring with their salutes."

FACTS TO KEEP IN MIND.

The British Empire Exhibition will be open from April to October, 1924. The British Empire Exhibition covers an area of 216 acres. In both its educational features and amusements it will be the most comprehensive exhibition ever planned. When it opens its gates in April, 1924, there will have been spent for the instruction and amusement of its visitors a sum of at least £10,000,000. There will be comfortable transport facilities and accommodation for up to half-a-million visitors per day at the British Empire Exhibition.

The site, Wembley Park, though set in woodlands and green fields, is only ten minutes' distance from two London railway stations, and is within half an hour of almost any part of the Metropolis.

All the nations flying the Union Jack will take part in the British Empire Exhibition. Every continent and every important group of islands of the globe will be represented. Every aspect of civilized and uncivilized life will be shown.

Ingersoll — Reliable Watches at Low Prices

The Value of a Guarantee

lies not so much in its protective penalty as in its satisfying assurance. No firm selling goods with a guarantee attached, expects to be called upon to pay the penalty.

For it is naturally the intention to so carefully guard the quality that dissatisfaction will be impossible.

Throughout its many years of service "King Cole" Tea has consistently been sold with a guarantee—a guarantee definite and substantial. It is printed on every "King Cole" package.

It carries to the buyer an evidence of good faith—a confidence in ability to serve—a determination to serve well.

"You'll Like the Flavor."

A Century of Royal Patronage

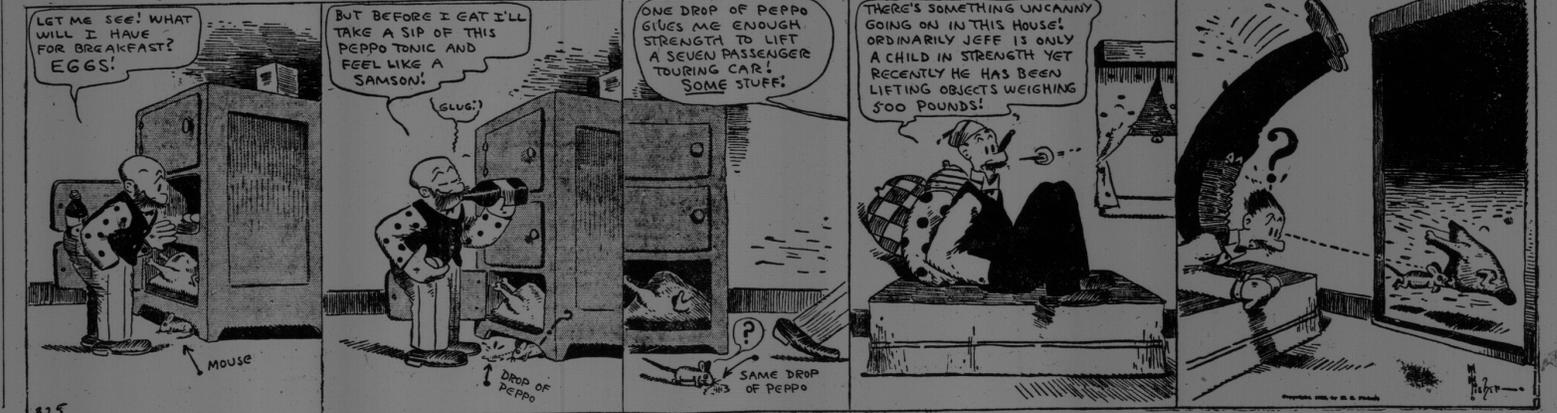

The beautiful finish and distinctive designs of Brown's Shamrock Linen have held Royal patronage for over a century, and have won world-wide supremacy over all other household linens.

Ask your dealer to show you this famous line.

Papering now costs less

YOU know that time means money in paper-hanging—that time, in fact, is the most expensive part of the job. But do you know that the cost of papering has now been considerably reduced by the production of Staunton Semi-Trimmed Wallpaper—that this new paper simplifies the job throughout.

It eliminates all trimming! Its selvage is cut in course of manufacture. All you have to do is rap the ends of the roll on table or floor and the selvage falls off. You can realize what a big saving in time that means.

But Staunton Semi-Trimmed Wallpaper is also quicker to hang. Being perfectly trimmed, it is easily matched. Being 22 inches in width, it takes less rolls of this paper to cover your walls and consequently less time to hang. "Semi-Trimmed" saves you money—it saves all the muss and disorder too.

Ask your dealer to show you the patterns.

NEVER has a policyholder suffered loss through the failure of a regular life assurance company operating under charter from the Dominion of Canada. Can as much be said of any other class of business?

The soundness of each Canadian life company is rigorously tested, and the renewal of its license each year depends upon the result of an examination into its affairs by inspectors from the Government Insurance Department. Where else are trust funds so carefully guarded?

To guarantee the fulfilment of policy contracts, the Dominion Government has fixed a minimum standard of reserves to which every company is obliged to conform. The Imperial Life maintains reserves greatly in excess of the Government standard.

Every regular life assurance company in Canada must at all times provide security of an amount at least equal to its liabilities to policyholders. The Imperial Life provides security of more than $130 for every $100 of liability to its policyholders.

A deposit is required to be made with the Receiver-General by each regular life assurance company doing business in Canada. The Government deposit maintained by The Imperial Life is more than four times the amount required by law.

Just write your name and address on the coupon below and mail it to us. Then we'll send you a free copy of our booklet, "A Few Facts." This booklet may distinguish features of The Imperial Life—features which ensure absolute security and liberal profits for Imperial policyholders.

BRAIN WORK POORLY PAID, GERMAN YOUTH'S SPURN IT
Geneva, Aug. 28—(A. P. by Mail)—Intellectual occupations in low-earning countries like Germany seem destined to extinction, and the younger generation is turning to more remunerative manual work, according to evidence before a League of Nations Commission, now investigating this question. Teachers, writers and journalists are so poorly paid, no new recruits can be found. The commission, in which John Henry Wigmore, Dean of North Western University, is active, may ask American colleges for aid.

In the scoring of points the Wanderers led with 23, followed by St. John with 28.

The morning opened cloudy, but the sun soon shone out, but at noon rain came in torrents, soon spilling the track. During the progress of the events not a drop of rain fell, but the air became very chilly. The track was a fifth mile in circuit.

"Well," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "I s'pose you fellers won't know what to do with yourselves next week—now that there prize fight is over—what?"

"We are open for suggestions," invitingly remarked the reporter. "Oh,—you wouldn't listen to me," said Hiram. "What I'd hev to offer 'ud be too mild. I might want you to come out an' write up 'The Settlement'—or print a sermon—or somethin' like that."

"We might do worse," said the reporter. "Well," said Hiram, "I don't know as it 'ud do much good to people that goes crazy over a prize fight. I couldn't git a word over the telephone last night. The wire was busy all the time. I know what was the matter. People was callin' up to find out who won the prize fight. I s'pose they'd been bettin' on it. Beats all what fool folks is."

"I hope your message was not urgent," said the reporter. "It was so urgent I nearly had a fit because I couldn't git it through," said Hiram. "Dear me!" said the reporter. "Was somebody ill?" "That's what I wanted to find out," said Hiram. "I wanted to know who got licked."

He heard a man ask for how much was he selling the apples and then heard him order a half peck and saw him pay for them. The defendant did not deny this but said that he had endeavored to get a license at City Hall, but had been turned away without receiving a satisfactory answer. Magistrate Henderson gave him another opportunity to apply for a license and ordered him to report back to court on next Tuesday morning.

SCHOOL CASE IN COUNTY COURT

Reverdy Steeves on Stand in Appeal Comments on Police Court Decision.

That the judgment of Magistrate Ritchie had resulted in encouraging scholars to defy teachers was a statement made this morning by Reverdy Steeves in the County Court while giving evidence in his appeal from the Police Court decision in the case of Jeffrey Meddler vs. Steeves, in which the defendant was fined $20 for assault on the boy at school.

About half a dozen school teachers were present watching the progress of the case. Mr. Steeves, principal of Aberdeen school, had punished the Meddler boy and the father of the boy had taken the matter to the Police Court, contending that undue violence had been used and the boy severely hurt. After hearing the evidence Magistrate Ritchie had fined the principal $20 on the charge of assault, and the case had been appealed. It came up this morning before Judge Barry, in the County Court. Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., and A. N. Carter appeared for Mr. Steeves, and C. H. Ferguson appeared for the defence.

The first witness examined was Jeffrey Meddler, who told practically the same story as at the police court hearing. Dr. Dunlop was not in court, and as Dr. Baxter wished to question him on some points, it was decided to proceed with the appellant's case and hear Dr. Dunlop later.

Mr. Steeves was then placed on the stand and gave the same evidence as at the hearing before the magistrate. In answer to Mr. Ferguson he said he had never made a practice of punishing pupils, and if a teacher was to be haled before the magistrate and fined, he thought they would go careful about administering needed punishment. There had been some instances which in his judgment required punishment, in his own school. Since the judgment and only the other day one of the boys had called a teacher "a dirty meanie" which he believed was a direct result of the judgment given.

The next witness was Miss Marion Shea, teacher of grade 4 in the Aberdeen school, who gave the same evidence as at the previous hearing.

The case was proceeding at time of going to press.

SUNK ON VOYAGE FROM ST. GEORGE

Schr. Frederick J. Lovatt Run Down Off Vineyard Haven.

A despatch from Vineyard Haven to an American newspaper, dated September 13, said that the wreck of the schooner Frederick J. Lovatt, of Machiasport, Me., would be commenced at once. The schooner, a three-masted schooner of 448 tons, was on her way from St. George, N. B., to Norfolk, Conn., with a full cargo of pulp. When off Vineyard Haven on Sunday she was run down and sunk by the steamer Everett, which cut through the schooner's hull and nearly down to her keel. This will be patched before the work of raising her will be commenced.

The schooner is owned by Captain Clarence A. Small, of Machiasport, and was in charge of Captain John Latta, of the same place. She was at St. John on February and, previous to that time had carried a cargo of shooks from here to Bermuda.

START ON MONDAY. Work will be started Monday morning tearing up the old street car rails in Main street between Portland street and the Douglas Avenue and replacing them with a much heavier type, and also installing a six inch concrete base under the ties. The ties to be used will be steel. They are enroute here from Ontario. It will be the first time that steel ties were used by the New Brunswick Power Company.

BOARD OF HEALTH FIGURES. There were seven deaths recorded at the office of the Board of Health this week. They were from the following causes:—Cancer of breast, acute enteritis, ruptured ectopic rheumatic arthritis, pernicious anaemia, acute and chronic alcoholism and injuries received from scalding. Twelve marriages were recorded and thirty births, seventeen boys and thirteen girls.

THE NAVAL VISIT. R. E. Armstrong, president of the Navy League, took up with Mayor Fisher the matter of co-operation by the League in the welcome to the Admiral of the fleet, who is expected to be in St. John soon. His Worship said he had not received any notification of the coming visit. Mr. Armstrong has taken the matter up with His Honor Lieutenant Governor Todd and asked for information regarding the coming of the admiral.

REMEMBER WHEN—

The barque Curier, which was badly damaged when she went ashore at Herring Cove, later floated and brought to St. John for examination and consignment by the underwriters, was sold by public auction on Hillyard's blocks, Tuesday, August 21, 1894, and was bid in by her builder, J. K. Dunlop, for $17,230. A. G. Crawford murdered John Banton with an axe in Crawford's home, Paddy's Flats, Fairville, on Monday morning, October 5, 1894. Crawford was found not guilty by the jury on account of insanity, and was sent to the Provincial Hospital for life on Saturday, October 13, 1894.

A.B.C. Electric Washer

This last word in wash-day equipment should find space in every home in St. John. At best, wash-day is a burden. Wringing clothes the old way harks back to pre-historic times. The A. B. C. has so many points of superiority, it is such a peer in its field that space here is wholly inadequate to attempt a satisfactory and just description of the machine.

Come in person. See it work for yourself. See how easy and economical it is to operate. You'll eventually get one You'll have to inspect it some time. Do it now. No obligation entailed in the least by your call.
