FOSS AND WALKER TO DO BATTLE

Nominations For Governor In Massachusetts Yesterday

NO PROGRESSIVES YET

They and the Prohibitionists Are Likely to Be Heard From Before Many Days—Foss Nearly Doubled the Vote Given Pelletier

(Canadian Press) Boston, Sept. 25.—The Democrats, Republicans and Socialists lined up today for the state campaign of 1912, having chosen their party leaders at yesterday's primaries.

Governor Eugene N. Foss, who won the primary contest over District-Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier, of Boston, by a margin of 56,818 votes, will head the Democratic ticket for the third time. Former speaker Joseph Walker, of Brookline, who defeated Col. Everett C. Benton, of Belmont, his opponent in the republican struggle, by 10,302 votes, will lead the Republicans.

Robt. D. Sawyer, of Ware, was nominated officially for governor by the Socialists, but the vote was so small that no record was made. Sawyer is a former return in yesterday's primary for governor follows:

Democratic Governor Foss, 63,818, Pelletier 36,404.

Republican Governor Foss, 63,818, Pelletier 36,404.

These two parties also chose candidates for other state offices, and made nominations in the sixteen congressional districts, the forty senatorial and nearly all the representative districts.

The progressive and prohibition parties did not figure in yesterday's primaries, but it was expected that before many days their candidates for state and congressional offices would have sufficient number of endorsements to obtain places on the list in November.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 25.—That Governor Wilson was sweeping victory in New Jersey primaries yesterday was a foregone conclusion, which he effected in the early hours of the day.

In his fight to prevent the nomination of former Senator James Smith Jr. from United States senate, Governor Wilson won the state by a plurality of nearly 20,000 votes, winning in every county, except Essex, the stronghold of the Smith forces.

The Morning Star, owned by Mr. Smith, succeeded the election of Hughes, the Wilson candidate.

IN THE COURTS

An Interesting Case Follows in Chubb's Corner Auction Transaction

The circuit court resumed its sitting this morning, but adjourned until tomorrow morning, when the case of McGowan Adams, vs. Warner, will come up for trial.

County Court. The case of Gertrude Porter vs. Wm. J. Mahoney, which was down for trial in the county court this morning, was stood over until the next sitting of the court on the fourth Tuesday of February. M. G. Todd, K. C., who appeared for the defendant, contended that the trial could not now go on as there is a suit in chancery pending, in connection with the same matter, and the postponement was made on these grounds.

This is quite an interesting case, the plaintiff through Messrs. Carter & Logan, offered a property in Lancaster for sale at auction at Chubb's Corner a few months ago, and the defendant, acting as Bartholomew Rogers, bid in the property, and gave his own check for about $20 in part payment. The client later suggested that the property was not the one wanted, and refused to accept the amount of the check, and the defendant was then brought in the county court to recover the amount of the check, and he suit in chancery, to obtain a decree or specific performance of the contract. Carter & Logan appeared for the plaintiff.

Fifteen Men Killed Manila, Sept. 25.—A band of Moros, who killed a Filipino, were pursued by a detachment of constabulary. A hand-to-hand encounter ensued and fifteen of the Moros were killed. Lieutenant Preuss and six men of the constabulary were wounded.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 25.—Since yesterday morning rain has fallen over the greater portion of Ontario. A few showers are reported in the west. A disturbance likely to cause westerly gales. Probabilities. Maritime—Easterly winds; fair today, becoming showery.

SAYS STONE WAS STOLEN.

Mr. Roake called at the police court this morning and laid information against several parties for stealing stone from a quarry at Drury Cove. The matter will come up in the police court on Friday morning.

MANY PROCESSIONS ON ULSTER DAY IN IRELAND

Elaborate Programme for Belfast—Demonstration Planned for Liverpool Also

(Canadian Press) New York, Sept. 25.—A London cable to the Tribune, morning edition, says that the Ulster day will reach its culmination with the signing of a solemn league and covenant. The official programme announces solemn services in many churches on Ulster Day, Doctor McKenna, former moderator of the Presbyterian church of Belfast, assisted by clergy nominated by the Bishop of Down, will conduct a service in Ulster Hall, which Sir Edward Carson and other leaders will attend, and they will subsequently proceed to the city hall in solemn procession for the signing of the covenant. They will be accompanied by members of public bodies and organized processions will march in later from the various districts.

The headquarters of the Ulster Unionist Council at Belfast, today, Belfast, presented a scene of unbroken activity. The staff is doing its best to meet the demand for books of the covenant and declaration forms, card texts of the covenant and parchment certificates. What the demand is may be estimated by the fact that the orders for the covenant are approximately 800,000 and for the declaration 20,000. The covenant is to be signed by Ulster men over sixteen years of age, and the declaration by Ulster women subject to the same age limit.

Belfast, Sept. 25.—From an oratorical viewpoint yesterday was comparatively quiet in the Ulster campaign, Sir Edward Carson and Frederick E. Smith the chief leaders, both resting and reserving themselves for the strenuous events in the coming few days.

Baron Willoughby de Broke, who was a strong supporter of the no surrender policy during the debate on the veto bill in the House of Lords, was the moving spirit in the Ulster campaign. He had all the features of previous campaigns, a guard of honor for the principal speakers, a formidable procession, and similar attractions. Meanwhile, the spirit of Ulster is displayed in the preparations for September 28, when the Ulster covenant to oppose home rule to the end.

The organizers resemble a military general staff. There is a council to give directions, and many staff and subordinate officers to execute them. There are general staffs of division and brigade commanders in the different districts. Tons of packages of covenants are being mailed to all parts of the province, entailing heavy work on a special staff at the post office.

In Liverpool, too. The signing of the covenant on Saturday will be an elaborate ceremony. After a solemn service in Ulster Hall Sir Edward Carson with his colleagues the Belfast corporation, the harbor commissioners and city magistrates, will march to the City Hall, escorted by guards of honor from the Orange Lodges. Additional guards numbering 2,000 men will be provided by the Ulster clubs in five shifts of 500 each to keep the precincts of the City Hall during the period of receiving signatures. All the guards of honor will wear dark clothes, red, white and blue armbands and carry five-foot staves surmounted by a small Union Jack.

After the ceremony the same guard will escort Sir Edward Carson to a steamer sailing for Liverpool in which a similar demonstration on Monday is projected. As the steamer proceeds down Belfast Lough, huge bonfires will be lighted on the hills. A regular army of signalers will be employed Saturday to transmit news of the day's doings to every corner of the province by heliograph and lamp signals from church spires and mountain tops.

(Special Cable to The Times) London, Sept. 25.—William O'Brien's message has been reproduced at length today in nearly every English newspaper and has aroused considerable discussion. The Daily News describes it as a striking suggestion, and a remarkable proposal. The Daily Chronicle, in a leading article, says "Tory and Liberal in Canada believe in the suggestion, but some Canadian statesmen are to be distinguished by the reports from Ulster."

(Special Cable to The Times) London, Sept. 25.—Pottor vs. O'Donnell, a civil case, is on today in the county court. Louis Young is attorney for the plaintiff, and Hon. W. P. Jones for the defendant. Attorney-General Grimmer's first view in his official capacity was marked by a rather unfortunate incident which has occasioned much criticism of his methods in conducting a case.

In the trial of a criminal matter yesterday, Mr. Grimmer, in his cross-examination of one of a prominent physician, asked the witness a question and said: "Now you can answer that if you know anything." The question was asked in a very insulting manner.

Hon. W. P. Jones, whose witness the doctor was, said with some heat to the court that he protested against the nominal leader of the bar of the province in asking a witness without anything in the paper to justify it. The doctor was merely called to give his opinion as to a case which he had attended and was not interested in the suit whatsoever. Mr. Jones thought Mr. Grimmer's expression was a disgrace to the administration of justice in the province.

Judge Cartton, in summing up to the jury, took occasion to say that he regretted very much that the attorney-general should have made use of any such expression, and that it was entirely uncalled for.

JEWISH FEAST OF THE TABERNACLES

The Feast of Succoth, or in English the Feast of the Tabernacles, will begin this evening with the Orthodox Jews throughout the world, and last for seven days. During that time special services will be held and the feast duly observed. In the synagogue at Cartton during the festival, it is probable that Rabbi B. L. Amur will officiate at the services, although he is at present confined to his bed with a touch of a gripe. Rabbi Herman Beumelle will conduct the services in the Hazen avenue synagogue.

The feast opening today is the anniversary of the Hebrew thanksgiving. During the feast the orthodox Jews eat their meals in temporarily constructed booths, decorated with the fruits of the season, and with garlands of flowers suspended from the ceiling. In the synagogue the prayers are observed with the song, the finest specimen of lime imported from Palestine, and the lulav, the branches of the palm and myrtle.

WILL LEAVE IT TO THE TOSS OF COIN

Decision as to Which City Will Have First of World Series

ALL ARRANGEMENTS TODAY

The National Baseball Commission, in Session in New York, May Have a Wrangle Over the Sale of the Tickets

(Canadian Press) New York, Sept. 25.—Members of the National Baseball Commission, with representatives of the Boston American and New York National League clubs gathered here today to fix dates for the world's championship series, to settle a disputed question as to how and by whom the sale of tickets to the game shall be conducted, and to fix the price for seats, formally announce the eligible players and dispose of any other business bearing upon arrangements for the big game.

Although New York is still in need of two games, to clinch the National League pennant, the commission will proceed on the supposition that the championship is secured and devote its main attention to arrangements for a world series between New York and Boston.

The schedule adopted, however, will be announced with a provision in defense to the Chicago Cubs, who have something like a 1,000 chance of displacing the Giants.

The decision upon the date the commission will invite Presidents Brush and McAleer of the New York and Boston clubs to see for the honor of starting the series in their cities. With the honor goes the advantage of home sympathy for the first two games, if the plan to stage two games in each city instead of alternating each day is carried out.

The desire the commission to have supervision over the sale of tickets, and the fact that the American League has adopted resolutions refusing to be represented in a world series unless accorded sole charge of the sale of tickets to games played on its grounds, may result in a wrangle today.

It appeared, however, that the commission would let the clubs handle the tickets as usual, but would assume sole supervision of the sale of tickets at the home of Messrs. Harman, Bench, and Johnson, and President McAleer and Secretary T. R. Kent, of St. George street, are gathering in the city this morning, probably to go to the home of John T. Brush, president of the New York club, at Palham Manor, a suburb, to hold a meeting there. It was said that no announcement would be made until the afternoon.

RICHMOND FIRES

Two in Kent County Town in Early Hours This Morning

(Special to Times) Richmond, N. B., Sept. 25.—Between last two and three o'clock this morning the citizens were aroused by fire in the residence of J. F. MacDonnell. The fire department was soon on work, and by the time the fire was extinguished, the town, but in spite of their efforts the house with store in front was burned to the ground; also the adjacent office of Geo. A. Hutchinson, barrister.

At the home of Mrs. J. M. O'Brien, an unsuccessful effort was required to keep from burning. About half an hour after midnight the fire was extinguished, and their homes they were again aroused by the alarm of fire, this time in the barn of Joseph Michael, which has caught from an ember. This also burned to the ground.

GREAT LAND SALES

British Peer Buys 24,000 Canadian Acres—Dutch Merchant May Take 50,000

London, Ont., Sept. 25.—One of the largest individual land sales ever effected in this country has just been completed here. The purchaser, Lord Joisey, a famous coal mine owner, and one of the wealthiest of the liberal peers of Great Britain.

His Lordship has purchased nearly 24,000 acres of mixed farm and dairy farming land in the vicinity of Fort George, for which he paid $450,000.

Captain Hulton, who was responsible for the Suberland and Desborough transactions, is negotiating for the sale of 50,000 acres in Saskatchewan to a Dutch merchant.

WELSH LAWYERS DECLINE TO WELCOME WOMEN TO THE PRACTICE OF LAW

Cardiff, Wales, Sept. 25.—The law society of Cardiff is opposed to women practicing law. A resolution in favor of the admission of women to the bar was defeated at the annual meeting of the society yesterday. The resolution also urged the council of the society to support a bill that is to be introduced in parliament, enabling women to practice.

The chief ground for this opposition, it was said, was that competition by women would be injurious to men who practice law.

RED HAT FOR ARCHBISHOP OF MONTREAL?

Report Says Mgr. Bruchesi Will Soon Be Cardinal

(Canadian Press) London, Sept. 25.—Canada is to be granted a cardinal at the next consistory in Rome, which will be held in November, according to the Milan correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, in the person of Mgr. Bruchesi, Archbishop of Montreal.

The Pope's decision, says the correspondent, is largely due to the circumstances which have reached the Vatican respecting the archbishop's mastery ability displayed in the organization and conduct of the Escharistic Congress, held in Montreal in the autumn of 1910.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—His Grace Paul Bruchesi, Archbishop of Montreal, was born in Montreal on October 23, 1855. He was educated at the Montreal College and Seminary and in Paris and Rome, and ordained a priest on December 21, 1878. On June 25, 1897, he was nominated Archbishop of Montreal. His consecration took place on August 8. He received the pallium on August 8, 1898.

Mgr. Bruchesi, besides discharging the duties of his ecclesiastical office with zeal and industry, has taken active interest in the temperance movement and other movements designed to promote the welfare of the city. It was recognized generally that the noble success of the Escharistic congress in Montreal two years ago, was due in large part to his work.

While the dispatch is not official, it comes from a source that has in the past been found trustworthy, and is in agreement with other reports that have been circulated. Its confirmation will be in the order of things expected.

I. C. R. INQUIRY IS RESUMED TODAY

Evidence About Matter of Passes Mr. Brady's Position

(Special to Times) Montreal, N. B., Sept. 25.—The I. C. R. case enquiry was resumed this morning in the city hall before Hazen Adair of Sussex, commissioner. George W. Fowler of Sussex, again appeared as counsel.

Frederick Lewis of Salisbury, farmer and contractor, said he had worked for the I. C. R. for some time. He was asked by the president of the company, Mr. N. B. Wire Fence Company, and asked the president of the company, Mr. Murray, two or three times for passes. "He turned me down," said the witness. The witness kept on asking Dr. Murray for passes and got on some point north. Dr. Murray charged him nothing for it. In 1908 the witness got a pass from Sydney to St. John. He did not get that pass from Dr. Murray. He declined to give the name, except privately, as he promised not to tell. The man is now dead. He was a railway official. The witness got no other passes.

George W. Taylor, Salisbury, farmer and subcontractor for the N. B. Wire Fence Company, said he got one pass from Dr. Murray, president of the company. He himself and four or five men. They were working on the I. C. R. at Coldbrook and the man is now dead. He was a railway official. The witness got no other passes.

J. F. Rodgers and E. T. Nichol, clerks in the I. C. R. audit department, told of the system in vogue in the audit office regarding checking conductors' returns.

Mr. Fowler said he had seen F. P. Brady of the I. C. R. board of management, this morning and Mr. Brady said that while he was perfectly willing to go on the stand there was no evidence that he had except hearsay. Mr. Brady said that a newspaper report which stated that he wondered why he had not been called as a witness was absolutely untrue. It was a matter of wonder to him that he would be called as he knew nothing about passes, except hearsay. Mr. Fowler said Mr. Brady was very busy and he did not think it was necessary to call him. The enquiry adjourned till this afternoon.

CONSISTORY IN NOVEMBER

Accepted in Montreal as Coming From Good News Source and Likely to Prove Correct—His Grace Prominent in Church Work

AN ECONOMIC LESSON FROM AFRICA

There is a lesson for lands that pride themselves to be highly civilized, in Lord Kitchener's report of conditions in the Sudan. The rewards of productive toil have been secured to the laborer and the Sudan has been made so prosperous that there is hardly a poor man to be found there. He brings this out in a paragraph which we quote: "When we conquered the Sudan there was hardly a single inhabitant who possessed any money, and with the exception of the fighting men the whole population was practically starving. Nothing, I think, strikes one more in revisiting the Sudan today than the great increase which has taken place in the individual prosperity of its inhabitants. The increased prosperity, which is the result of careful administration, has been so equally divided throughout the entire population that it is not too much to say that there is now hardly a poor man in the Sudan. Unlike the Egyptian fellahs, the Sudan cultivators are not bound down by debts, and have not, therefore, to struggle to meet the exorbitant interest of the usurers who prey upon this class in Egypt."

Mr. R. L. Richardson, the Liberal candidate in MacDonald, Manitoba, advocates a gradual increase in the British Preference "until free trade exists between the mother and her Canadian daughter." He also advocates the removal of the duties on agricultural implements and a steady tariff reduction on all the necessities of life. That platform is one on which the Liberal party could win throughout Canada if it were taken up courageously and adhered to steadily from now until the next general election.

The Borden government would do Canada a service if it would investigate the conditions which enable the people of the United Kingdom to buy Canadian wheat and sell bread made from it at a much lower price than such bread can be obtained for in Canada. The Canadian miller complains that his profits are too small. The retailer makes a similar complaint. So do the bakers. So, also, do the farmers. Yet, in some manner, the price of bread is kept indefinitely high. This may not be so picturesque a subject as Breadthought, but it touches the average citizen much more directly. With cheaper bread Canadians could better afford the cost of Imperial naval defence. Being a great wheat growing country with a large surplus for export, Canada should be a cheap country to live in. It is a dear country to live in. It is the business of the government to find a remedy if one is possible.

The president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association says that Canada does not need wider markets "but an equipment and a service that will enable us better to supply the demands of the home market." In other words, the tariff should be high enough to keep out foreign made goods, and even goods manufactured in Great Britain, in order that the Canadian industrial leaders should be enabled to make the Canadian consumer pay whatever the Canadian manufacturer cares to charge. Industrial Canada, the official organ of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, recently asked whether, upon the completion of the Panama Canal, it would not be necessary to repeal the British preference, wholly or in part, in order to give the Canadian manufacturer a better control of the home market. There we have the true Tory protectionist view. It is the view of men who have the old flag at election time, and after an election try to deprive Great Britain of a preference in this loyal market.

TEMPERANCE WORKERS

The gentlemen of the United States Brewers' Association have a fine sense of humor. At the opening of their annual meeting in Boston last week the president said: "I feel that we are the main rational and practical temperance." "Order, no doubt, to prove that he and fellow members had just cause for their 'grateful conviction,'" President Ruppert admitted some figures, as follows: "In 1874 the total output of the United States was 9,000,897 barrels of beer. In 1892 it had grown to 31,817,888 barrels, and last year was in excess of 63,000,000. Between 1870 and 1910 the population has increased 300 per cent, while the consumption of beer increased 700 per cent." "It must be quite clear to the most casual observer that the more beer they drink the more temperate the people become, and it is no doubt a source of regret to the eager temperance reformers in the United States Brewers' Association that the consumption had not increased 20,000 instead of merely 700 per cent. It appears that the people of the United

JUST ABOUT OUR FLAT

There's always something odd around about our flat. And we're never really lonesome, you can bet your money on that. Of course, it's sort of quiet in the last hours of the night. But when the daylight hours come it's loud enough all right. For then the door begins to slam and bunkers start to yell. And there ain't much chance of sleeping, and I feel like saying "Hi—!"

Each night about the time I feel right ready for a snooze. I hear the man who lives next door discussing with his shoes. Related to that, I hear about going tramping down the stairs. And neighbors back from theatre come in quite carelessly they talk and laugh and doors begin to slam. And there ain't much chance of sleeping, and I feel like saying "Hi—!"

Where everything's so quiet it wouldn't scare a mouse. Where, when I'm very tired, I could go to sleep at seven. But what's the use? There's no such place as a jolly job, I'll tell it to you at that. As I'm quite a jolly job, I'll tell it to you at that. As I'm quite a jolly job, I'll tell it to you at that.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The Ulster secret commission met yesterday in private session but there was nothing forthcoming after the meeting. It is believed the draft of the anti-home ruler of a provisional constitution for Ulster was framed.

Hundreds of members of the United Irish League of America are in session in Philadelphia this week. More than $21,000 was donated to help home rule.

Alex. MacDonald, a farmer, has been chosen as the Conservative candidate for the by-election in Bramwell Booth, who became general on the death of his father. In Woodstock yesterday John Cassidy was sentenced to serve six months in jail for assaulting Herbert McLaughlin with intent to do bodily harm. In the case of The King vs Crabbe, the grand jury found no bill.

MORNING LOCALS

John J. Stacey of Halifax, employed on the tug F. W. Roebing here, was injured on board the boat yesterday. A steam valve opened suddenly and the escaping steam scalded him quite severely. Dr. M. L. Macfarland of Charlottetown attended him. The provincial government has published a revised and enlarged edition of the booklet entitled The Province of New Brunswick. The Land of Comfortable Homes, and has made arrangements for a large distribution in Great Britain and Ireland.

The city commissioners were in conference yesterday afternoon with the chairman of the board of assessors regarding the assessment for the coming year. It is possible that the city's revenue will be increased by adding to the assessed value of real estate.

The exchequer court met yesterday afternoon and adjourned until December 4. The only cases on the docket were the King vs The New Brunswick Railway Co., Ltd., and Co., the question involved in each being damages to the defendant's lands in connection with obtaining the right of way for the N. T. R. The claims amount to $200,000.

George P. Allan, A. A. Chaisson, and T. McElroy returned yesterday from Canaan Forks where they were on a hunting trip. Each was successful in bagging a moose, a deer was also brought down as well as several birds.

Skowhegan, Me., boasts that its streets are the cleanest in Maine and it's all due to the activity of Joseph Lashon, superintendent of the street cleaning department, and in fact, the "whole push." Lashon is 75 years old and a veteran of the Civil War, but he pushes his cart over the streets, fifteen miles a day, six days in the week, as actively as a man half his age. He has been doing this for the last six years so he may be said to have 24,000 miles of cleaned streets to his credit.

TOWN MAKES FORTUNE WITH CANARY BIRDS

More Than $100,000 a Year in Norwich—Recent Floods Hit Industry Hard Blow

(Times' Special Correspondent) London, Sept. 14—There is one result of the floods that recently came near drowning out the inhabitants of Norwich that does not seem to have been mentioned before, and that is the practical ruin, for the present at any rate, of the unwise canary breeding industry that, for many years, has flourished there.

Probably in no other place in the world is the rearing of these birds carried on so big a scale as it is at Norwich—more than 3,000 people being engaged in it there. Most of these, moreover, are poor working men who make a bit of money on the side by raising canaries for sale, and most of their avianaries are or were—in their back-yards. The majority of these were totally destroyed by the floods, thousands of birds being drowned and many famous breeds being

YOUNG ADMIRAL IS IN LINE FOR ANOTHER STEP

Winston Churchill is Great Admirer of Rear Admiral Beatty

DAINTY MENU CARDS

So Well Done That They Attract Attention of Queen Mary—Social News of London and Chat About Canadians There

(Times' Special Correspondence) London, Sept. 14.—Admiral David and Mrs. Beatty have had a succession of more or less famous folk staying with them at Invercard, the Scottish shooting estate which they have taken for the season.

The latest guest is none other than Hon. Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty. He and Admiral Beatty are fast friends and form a sort of mutual admiration society. Admiral Beatty thinks Winston is about the most wonderful statesman now drawing the air of old England into his lungs, while Winston thinks the young admiral is the most promising naval officer in the British service.

But with all his success and honors Admiral Beatty remains one of the most modest, shy and retiring men in England. He delights in his wife's social activities and takes a certain amount of pleasure in seeing a gay crowd about her, but he mixes little with the purely social element in English society. Mrs. Beatty is ambitious and realizes perhaps more fully than does her husband, that one of the indispensable steps to every man's success, no matter how clever he may be, is a certain measure of social pre-eminence.

Guests at Invercard have carried away with them some of the unique menu cards which Mrs. Beatty, with her unflinching taste, placed before them. The cards are simple in shape and are adorned on one side with a representative of one of the little birds now being hunted so assiduously on northern moors. The head of the pheasant, partridge, grouse or black game is painted in colors and the body and wings are formed of tiny natural feathers. On the request of the queen, Mrs. Beatty sent a packet of the cards to Baldwin, for inspection and it is probable that they, or similar ones, will adorn the royal table. Friends of mine who have just returned from Marienbad, the "cure" resort so beloved of the late King Edward, are in nice temper when I ask them how they enjoyed their vacation. Raising both hands and closing their eyes they give me the "Never Again" verdict. "I don't know," says the good tradespeople and hotel keepers of Marienbad, have foolishly decided that the "cure" is not for them. They are, however, the steady stream of foreign visitors who followed the late King Edward to the resort. Such a procedure would appear to be very poor policy on the part of the town. It is a remarkable thing that prices were never raised when the late King Edward was a regular visitor and when the place had a very good reputation for its "cure" resort. It is a pity that the "cure" resort so beloved of the late King Edward, are in nice temper when I ask them how they enjoyed their vacation.

Inquisitive people are beginning to wonder what goes on at night behind the closed doors of the "International Club for Psychological Research" which was recently established in the heart of London. The club is open to members of both sexes but it is almost impossible to get in unless you possess a name of the first social class.

Lord and Lady Kinnaird held open house at Rosie Priory and the treasures of the house, famous pictures, Sevres and other china, minerals and Roman mosaics attracted much attention.

Engagements of interest to Canadians are those of Miss Helen Shackleton, explorer, to Edmund Henry Bristowe of Montreal, son of the late Bristowe, R. C. S., of Miss Helen Mildred Sikes, man, younger daughter of Henry Sikes, son of the late Sikes, of the late Sikes of Hatfield, Gloucestershire, and of Miss Dorothy Catherine, daughter of Sir Henry Grey of Exbury, Hampshire, to John Eric Lloyd, third son of John Lloyd of Seighford Ranch, Midnapore, Alberta.

ORGAN PLAYS IN THREE PLACES AT ONCE.

An American firm of organ builders has recently completed, in Zion City, Ill., a pipe organ which is even larger than the famous one in the Salt Lake City tabernacle, and which possesses many new features in its construction, says the October Popular Mechanics Magazine, in an illustrated article. This great musical instrument is really three distinct organs controlled, if desired, from the main console or keyboard. Two hundred feet from the choir organ, in the gallery at the entrance, is an echo organ operated from the main keyboard during processions. The second echo organ, in the prayer room at the other end of the tabernacle, can be played independently of the other organ or by the organist at the main console. The organist can also sit at the prayer room organ and operate the main organ.

High Cost of Farming

An interesting article on the high cost of farming appears in the "World's Work" from the pen of President B. F. Yaskum of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway. In his article he points out that there are four real causes which enter into the high cost of living. These are: 1.—The excessive burden of interest charges on agricultural producers because of inadequate money lending facilities. 2.—The excessive cost of selling and delivering products of the soil from the farm to the consumer's table. 3.—The excessive cost of carrying products of the soil from the farm to the railroad. 4.—Urgent need for more and better railroads.

PROFIT IN CANARIES

Some Advice as to Raising the Household Songsters

Keep canaries, and they will keep you. Canary-raising will prove a pleasant and profitable pastime for women if they follow carefully the directions herein given. Select your color to suit your own fancy. Color has nothing to do with the strength. Choose a bird, male, which stands erect, one which sings with a free, easy, graceful motion, apparently without effort. Do not select a nervous, flighty bird, which sings loud and clear, but which chirps or cuts his song. Buy a healthy, well-formed female. Hang your birds in separate rooms, if possible, where they can hear each other for eight or ten days.

Feed them canary and rape seed only for drinking and washing, cuttle-bone, or egg-shells, should be supplied. Solid color birds generally produce solid color offspring. Mottled colors produce either solid or mottled colors. A solid green or solid yellow, mated to an opposite color, will produce as a rule solid colors, of each kind. The top knot has a tufted crown, and is admitted for its peculiar appearance. Never breed two top-knots together, as they will produce bald youngsters. A top-knot mated with a plain male gives the greatest percentage of top-knot young birds.

Buy a breeding cage, then place both your birds together. Hang them in a quiet place. They require air, light, seed, water, cuttle-bone, to sharpen their bills, a basket or a box to build their nest. Please remember this: Don't hang your birds where they will get the fumes of smoke, steam, or the least draught. The male sings a different song during the mating season, which is from January to June, than at any other time. Sometimes this is called the Love Song. He sings to the female, which at first does not pay the slightest attention to either his note or his song. Nevertheless, he continues with apparently untiring effort, generally dancing about the floor of the cage. He looks up at her, as she sits on the perch, to all appearances deaf to his words of endearment. She may listen, mouth open, wings outstretched, in open defiance. He will fly up to her in full song, when they fly about the cage together, but as a rule with out any harm to each other.

Finally she will call him up to her, when they will mate and are mated one with the other. The male carries the material. The female is the real builder. She often builds and rebuilds her nest several times before she lays her first egg. She lays an egg each morning till all are laid. The number varies from two to eight, although four is the usual number. The female begins to sit on the second egg and continues till they are hatched, which usually takes fourteen days. He also feeds the young birds, therefore, he should never be taken from the cage after the female begins to lay, as is often done by careless breeders. Vermin and lice are the breeders' and the birds' worst enemy. Keep after them continually. Dust the nest before and after the eggs are laid. Dust the young birds at any and all times. Use any good vermin destroyer for this purpose. I prefer helio, it being cheap, also effective. I can assure you that helio will not injure the birds or eggs. Remember, use it at any and all times, everywhere. The female will not tolerate vermin, and will leave her eggs, or young, whenever they are present. Your time will be well spent looking for lice. Dust the corners of the cage with helio.

In the present phase of progressive activity which Fairville and its vicinity are experiencing it is but fitting that the churches should feel the benefit of such a movement, in the form of improvement of equipment and especially in that which ministers to the artistic sense and gratifies the desire for the beautiful in music.

GOVERNMENT WAS AGAINST THIS LOAN

Britain Thought it Unwise to Have Private Negotiations With China

London, Sept. 25.—A statement published here to the effect that nothing was said by the British government to the negotiators of the new Chinese loan in the bed. It is learned that on the first intimation the foreign office as to the negotiations bearing on this loan the promoters were informed that if they proceeded with it they would be acting in direct opposition to the wishes and policy of the government, which would be compelled to protest to the Chinese government against the transaction.

A statement on this subject given out by the foreign office speaks reference to the negotiations which were being conducted recently gave to the British minister at Peking, Sir John N. Jordan, to oppose the loan. The United States government has co-operated in the opposition, objection to the loan being based on the belief that foreign supervision was necessary over the expenditure of loans granted to China.

An interesting event took place at Chance Harbor yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock when Rev. C. F. Clark, son of Dr. C. Clark of West St. John, was united in marriage to Miss Louise Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson of Chance Harbor, in the presence of immediate friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. MacDonald, pastor of the Brunswick street Baptist church, Fredericton, assisted by Rev. Samuel Johnson, pastor of Chance Harbor United Baptist church. The bride was gown in ivory silk and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left by auto for St. John to catch the Boston boat. After touring the large New England cities, they will spend some time visiting in New Brunswick. They will reside in Yarmouth where the groom is pastor of Temple Baptist church in Yarmouth, a graduate of the U. S. N. S. and received his M. A. from Acadia. Mr. Clark prepared for the ministry at the Newton Theological Seminary and his bride is a graduate of Acadia Seminary in the latter case. Many handsome and useful presents were received by the happy couple.

The wedding of Albert Parker of Minto, to Mrs. Bertha M. Hallett, of Boston, Westinghouse Electric, was celebrated in Chipman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. J. Plint, assisted by Rev. W. K. Knox, of Lunenburg, and the Rev. Father Sullivan. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Parker left for Minto where they will reside.

A fashionable wedding took place last evening in Holy Trinity church, Fredericton, when Frank C. Dickie, formerly of Truro, and Miss Kathleen Chandler, daughter of R. W. Hewson, K. RECENT DEATHS
C. F. Sanford received news yesterday morning of the death of his home in Weston, Kings county, Nova Scotia, of Mrs. C. F. Sanford, who had been in delicate health for some time and Mr. Sanford saw her only a few days before her death. She was formerly Miss Skinner, a member of a well known Nova Scotia family, and a near relative of the branch in this province. Mrs. Sanford was well known here and her many friends will regret to learn of her death. She is survived by her husband, three sons and four daughters. One son is at home and in Kingston, and the daughters all reside in Nova Scotia. Mr. Sanford will leave this morning to attend the funeral.

HAVE TROUBLE TO MAN AND OFFICER THE FRENCH FLEET

Paris, Sept. 25.—At the very time when the French fleet is concentrated in the Mediterranean and an early increase in naval armaments is thought necessary, the public has realized with alarm the crisis that has come about in the recruiting of the navy.

According to facts just made known by the ministry of marine, the career of a naval officer is now regarded with dislike by young Frenchmen entering life.

Twenty years ago an average of ten candidates offered themselves for every postulant. The number had dropped in 1900 to between four and five, and is today less than two. The number of junior officers is however, now that also is again supplied with food, water and oil.

The fishing schooner sent men with water, gasoline and provisions to the barkentine, which asked to be reported. The Hancock hailed from Shelburne, N. S., and is bound from New York to Yarmouth. They returned home today, but more than two weeks out of New York. She will continue on towards Yarmouth, however, now that she is again supplied with food, water and oil.

LARGER MARKETS STILL THE LIBERAL POLICY

"It is one of the first duties in our political economy to extend trade in all directions. We are a young nation, and we believe in expanding our trade. By that policy we shall continue to stand. This is the policy which will bring us back into power. Upon what lines shall that policy be developed? By trade between province and province; that was the reason we sought to develop and create new lines of communication. By trade with the old Mother country; that was the reason we increased the British Preference. The cause of one must be the cause of all. I ask you Canadians of the East to examine the Western grievance, and see that the people of the West are given that justice which they are entitled from their country."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Sturgeon Falls.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

Forbes-Robertson, who is now making his farewell tour of the English provinces, has finally decided upon the repertoire during his farewell tour of America, opening in New York early in the autumn of 1912. He will present the same pieces which he is now using, including "Hamlet," "The Merchant of Venice," "The Light That Failed," "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" and Bernard Shaw's latest revised version of "Caesar and Cleopatra."

B. F. Keith has instituted a rigid system of five drills and uniform inspection in his New York houses. Klav & Erlanger have engaged Gustav von Seifertitz to stage "The Apple Cart," a new detective play in which Robert Hilliard is to star this season, and to create the strong character role of a German scientist who turns counterfeiter.

Jane Wheadley, recently of the Boston forces, has been engaged by William Fox for his production of "Julius Caesar." The cast now includes Tyrone Power, Frank Keenan, Felix Malin and Julie Opp.

The tour of the world which William A. Brady has arranged to begin early in April with four of his successful American plays, is being laid out with as much exactness as if it were a real tour, and the preliminary details are about disposed of, and all that remains is to map the route together and complete the company. The people will stop for a week in Honolulu and a week in the Philippines, eight weeks in Sydney, eight weeks in Melbourne, and then eight weeks in New Zealand.

"These we shall make close connections for China, Japan, India and South Africa. The tour will occupy nearly three years, perhaps longer, dependent on how it works out after the company reaches South Africa, where there is an immense appreciation for anything the people really like."

Alice Lloyd, an English comedienne who will be next week in the pretty musical production, "Little-Miss-Fixing," is playing this week at His Majesty's Theatre, Montreal, and is making her usual big hit.

Harold J. Rehill, a dashing young actor who played the title role in the production of "The Mummy" when it was presented here, is playing in New York this week having a pleasing part in "The Count of Luxembourg," a new comic opera in two acts which is going to have a long run.

Because of her great admiration for Captain A. H. Rooster of the S. S. Carpathia, which rescued the Titanic survivors, Miss Connie Magness, one of the dancers in "The Passing Show of 1912," at the Winter Garden, last week disguised herself as a boy and boarded the vessel at the pier in New York just before sailing time. She was discovered in an unoccupied stateroom taken before the captain and after a lecture lowered into a passing tug. Miss Magness, who was very attractive in male attire, explained that it was not for her to serve under Captain Rooster as a cabin boy.

Alicyn Arbellie has gone back to her first love, or rather the public's first great love for him, The Roundup, in which she may be seen in London. As with David Warfield and his Music Master, James O'Neill and his Monte Cristo, and the Red Rose which played so successfully in his Rip Van Winkle and Charles Warner and Drink, the success of the finding it hard to live down his success. The message of the one play man hanging over him is that he is a long sunnier of farming at Roundup Ranch at Washington, N. Y., to make him forget it. There he drops all cases, but not once of overdrift.

Virginia Harrel in a new playlet of her own authorship, has begun a fifteen week engagement ending for Greater New York in the Colonial this week, after which she goes on tour. The new star which she has the clearest of her former vehicle, also written by herself, The Idol of the Hour. The Red Rose which played so successfully here with Zee Zarkoff under J. C. Fisher's direction, is touring in Upper Canada, and has been playing to big houses. The company will continue through to the Pacific Coast.

Amherst, Sept. 24.—The quiet town of Wallace was thrown into a high state of excitement by the shooting of two men on the night of Sept. 23. The news spread that two of its most prominent and well known citizens had been shot and seriously injured by being carried with buckshot on the previous evening.

Flynn, the superintendent of the Wallace telephone quarry, accompanied by Henry Gray, the engineer in the quarry, were on their way to the head of Wallace Bay in a boat on Saturday evening last. They were on their way to the quarry when they were suddenly surprised by being fired upon by parties hidden behind the rocks.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS AT CONVENTION OF THE MANUFACTURERS

Nathaniel Curry Wants to See Prompt Action in Naval Defence—Trade Questions

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Ottawa never had a more important assembly than the forty-first annual convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, which opened in the Chateau Laurier this morning. The association has a membership of 3,000 manufacturers in all parts of the Dominion, representing a capital of $400,000,000.

The address of President Nathaniel Curry, presented at the afternoon session was distinctive in the feature of the opening day of the convention. He dealt in a masterly way with such important matters as trade, labor and compensation, transportation, reciprocity and imperial defence and reviewed the growth of Canada's industrial side, as shown by the returns of the last census. In his address the president stated to note that our government has opened the way for a free movement of goods between Canada and the British West Indies. If the treaty of mutual preferential trade, that has been concluded, is not put into effect, it will be, by the inauguration of a steamship service adequate to the needs, I look for material benefits to the Dominion as a whole, but more particularly to Ontario, Quebec and the maritime provinces.

"It is a pleasure to note that our government has opened the way for a free movement of goods between Canada and the British West Indies. If the treaty of mutual preferential trade, that has been concluded, is not put into effect, it will be, by the inauguration of a steamship service adequate to the needs, I look for material benefits to the Dominion as a whole, but more particularly to Ontario, Quebec and the maritime provinces."

"Let us hope that the negotiations now under way with Australia for a similar treaty of preferential trade will come to a successful conclusion."

THE NAVAL QUESTION.
"Let me say just a few words on the naval question that is now so prominently before us. As business men, we are naturally not inclined to face business issues in a businesslike way. The protection of our coast for the nation as a whole is a question, comparable in all respects, with the business of building up our municipalities and our country's proper police protection. We do not look at the matter from the point of view of the latter, nor should we continue to leave ourselves entirely dependent upon the government for the latter. The fact that circumstances have compelled us to accept her protection in the past, is all the more reason why we should endeavor to relieve her of that responsibility now that we are in a position to do so."

"The so-called German peril may be a reality or it may not. I do not know, nor do I care to know. We sincerely hope it is not for war of any kind is a calamity to be avoided at all costs. But if it is, however far, instead of temporizing with vain promises we should rather heed to the actions of those who are charged with the responsibility for providing for our defence."

WAGES ACTION.
"If criticism can be obtained and taking heed suggested by the government parties in confidence the leader of the opposition, Mr. Mackenzie, and his cabinet, better. But all means let such a conference be held, and quickly. But in the meantime, let us have a general strike of individual likes and dislikes to the end that something may be accomplished, subject to the action of the world as a whole, and we are a nation."

"Referring to matters more directly concerning the labor situation, I would like to say a few words on the friendly relations that are to be maintained with those in their employ."

"The great need of Canada today, as it is not wider markets, but as equipment and a service that will enable us better to supply the demands of the market, and to do so in a way that we want a transportation, more transportation and better transportation."

"The railway, which is so important to meet the situation, millions upon millions are being poured into improvements that are being made to give them credit. But credit cannot be had in a day. Canadian ports will never enjoy a development commensurate with the growth and prosperity of the rest of the Dominion so long as they are saddled with the insurance incubus. Already they have suffered irreparable injury because of business that may be permanently diverted to United States ports, and if the remedy is much longer delayed it may give our competitors an advantage from which we can never recover."

FIND REMAINS OF THE FIRST SCULPTOR

Paris, Sept. 23.—Doctor Capitan, professor at the College of France, has had the good fortune to discover the remains of the first sculptor in the world, buried at the foot of his masterpiece, executed some 30,000 years ago.

Last year the archaeological world was stirred by the unearthing under the pick of Doctor Lalanne, of Bordeaux, of a prehistoric Venus, carved in the native rock of a grotto near Lausselle. The rocky pocket in which this momentous discovery was made, was filled with archaeological deposits, bones of animals, especially reindeer, which were common game for the hunters of the Magdalenian epoch in Bordeaux. Many utensils of the hunter in bronze, and the artist were also found: delicate chisels, scrapers, harpoons and spears of bone.

Most of these, evidently, could have served only for the hunt, but there were others mingled with them, exceptionally big and heavy whose use remained unexplained until the dust of ages having been cleared from the wall of the grotto, five bleached horses, cut in the fire and living workmanship were revealed. The excavations were continued and soon a spade struck on the skull of the author. The old artist lay crouched on his left side, something in the attitude of Rodin's statue, "The Thinker," which stands outside the Pantheon in Paris.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; AT HOME AND ABROAD

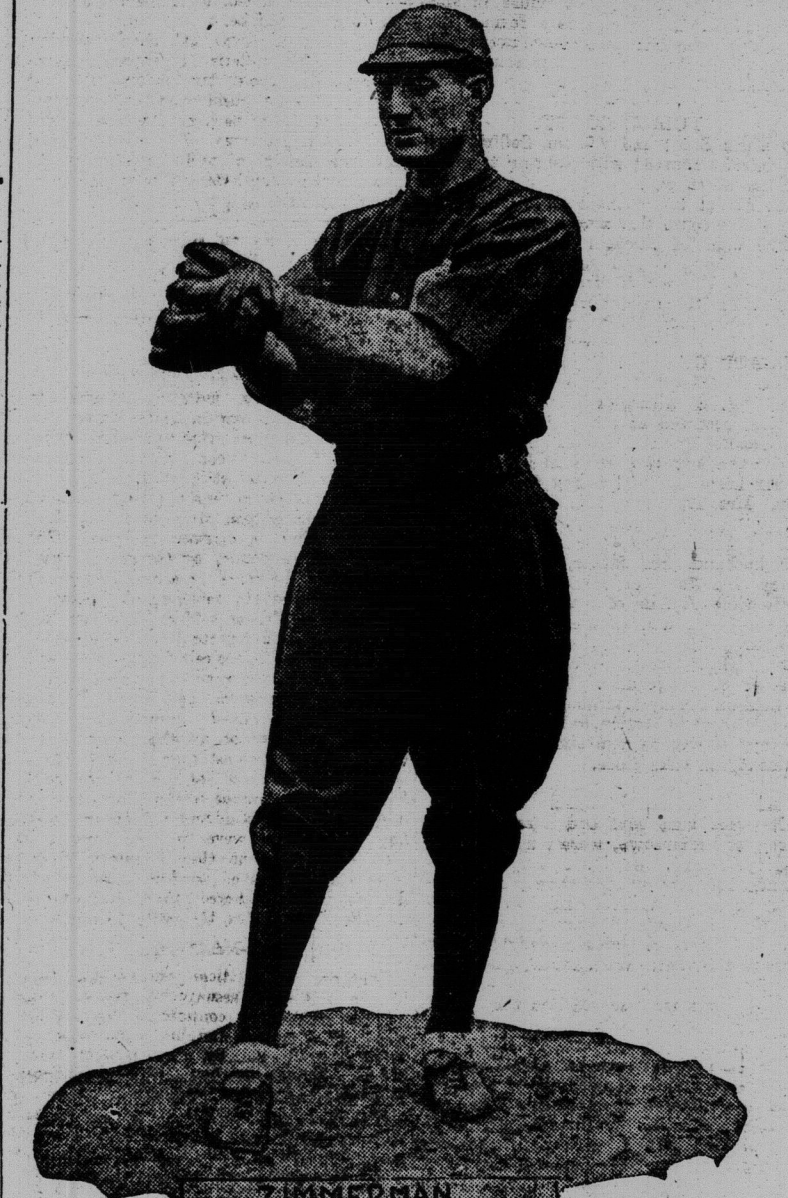

Baseball American League. New York 5, Boston 2. New York 1, Boston 3. Cleveland 7, Detroit 3. Chicago 6, St. Louis 2. Chicago 2, St. Louis 2. All the games in the National League were postponed on account of rain. Philadelphia, Sept. 24—Harry Davis, captain of the world's champion Athletics, and ex-manager of the Cleveland team, is now in correspondence with baseball men commissioned to engage baseball coaches for foreign countries. Baseball is a flourishing pastime in Australia and is played seriously in many European countries. "I have information that there are fat jobs waiting for competent baseball coaches in these countries," said Davis. "Baseball is certain to travel around the world. The statement recently made that baseball games among the four corners of the earth would promote world peace through bringing the nations into closer understanding with each other, may not be a dream."

Football Fairville Team. The followers of Rugby football will be pleased to learn that Fairville is to have a senior team again this year. Practice has been held two evenings and the enthusiasm shown by the candidates for places on the team make it appear that Fairville will be contenders for the football honors of the lower part of the province. An organization meeting will take place Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in Sears' barber shop, Fairville, and it is expected that arrangements will then be completed for the backing of the team. The material available looks very good, and the firm's park has been secured for practice, and it may be arranged to play some games there. Among the players who have already turned out for practice are: Sears, Campbell, Murray, Campbell, Congle, Reid, Kelly, Keefe, Mullins, Driscoll, Fox, Freeman, Baker and Durden. It is the intention to arrange games with the Company A team for the championship of the city. The U. N. B. Team. Frederick Gleener—It is now definitely known that the U. N. B. football team this year will be without six or perhaps as many as seven of last year's team. This means a big job in building up a new team. The scrimmage last year was the best working part of the team, but it has been badly wrecked by the loss of several of the best men. It is not believed that either of last year's regular quarters will be on hand, but there are some promising material in Bender, Morrison and Edgington. The Moncton freshman, who looks like a real football player. Coach "Babe" Church has the U. N. B. squad out at College Field daily for upwards of an hour's work, and they have shown themselves interested by the way they have turned out and worked with the weather feeling more like baseball than picnic chasing. Yesterday's turn was not so large as on Saturday and it was said that the hour for the daily workout would be changed from 3 until 4 o'clock so as not to interfere with the "day" work of many of the students. Arrangements are being made for the erection of a new grandstand at College Field. It will be upwards of 65 feet long and will have a seating capacity of 300 and may be so constructed as to hold an even larger number. The contract for the new stand will be awarded in a few days, so as to have it in readiness for the season's first football game. The plans call for a stand which will give opportunity for building dressing rooms underneath. Permanent dressing rooms fitted with shower baths have been badly needed at College Field for years and would be a great boon to athletes at U. N. B. Frederick Mall—Next week the U. N. B. Rugby squad is expected to be strengthened by the return to college of several of last year's players who have been working during the summer and who were unable to get away from their positions when the college opened last week. Frank McFibbin, Melrose and Marchum are included in the number. "Babe" Church had the squad at work again yesterday and a satisfactory practice was held.

DEFINITION OF A BALK IN BASEBALL

There is nothing in baseball more mystifying to the average fan than the balk. That is nothing to the fan's discredit. Umpires, players, rule-makers, and all the alleged authorities are more or less at sea over the balk. In spite of the infrequency of its appearance in the box score, the balk is an extremely important part of a ball game. Unless a pitcher has what is called "motion," he cannot hope to succeed in the major leagues. This "motion" is designed to keep within the limits generally imposed on balking. Unless a pitcher can violate the spirit of the balk rule without transgressing the common interpretation of their wording, he has a lot to learn. Let any team figure out a pitcher's "motion" so that its players can guess with any degree of certainty when he is going to pitch and when he intends to throw to a base, and the men on that team will steal bases with comparative impunity. Sidestepping all the delicate points and shades of points on which good authority differ, there is a great deal of prearranged mystery regarding the balk, which can be dispelled. To begin with, there are nine kinds of balks. Probably you thought a balk was simply a ball pitched or thrown to a base without going through with it. Sometimes a bluff to throw to a base is a balk, and sometimes it is not; sometimes a bluff to pitch to a balk, and sometimes it is not. Sometimes to throw to a base is a balk, and sometimes a ball pitched squarely over the plate without any pause in the motion is both a balk and a ball for the batsman. A balk is not a balk unless there is a base runner, but some balks are called balks if the bases are empty. Here are the nine ways of making a balk: (1) The pitcher starts to deliver the ball to the batsman or to throw to first base when there is a runner on first base, and does not complete the pitch or throw unhesitatingly. (2) If the pitcher throws the ball to any base occupied by a runner and does not step directly toward that base in making the throw. (3) If the pitcher delivers the ball to the batsman while either foot is back of his hip. (4) If he pitches the ball without facing the batsman. (5) If he pitches the ball without keeping one foot on the slab. (6) If the pitcher holds the ball so long that, in the umpire's opinion, he is doing it to delay the game. (7) If the pitcher gets into position to pitch without having the ball in his possession. (8) If the pitcher makes any of the motions habitually used in the game, and the batsman does not go through with the delivery to the plate. (9) What the catcher steps outside the lines of his position preparatory to receiving a pitched ball.

ZIMMERMAN IS KING PIN BATTER OF NATIONAL LEAGUE THIS SEASON

Chicago, Sept. 25—Although the baseball season will not be over until Oct. 6, the experts concede the individual batting championship of the National League to Heinie Zimmerman, the Cubs' brilliant young third baseman. Zimmerman is the only National League man to make 200 hits this season. His batting average for 130 games is .380. Not alone has the Cub's third sacker done some great batting, but his fielding has been of the sensational order all season.

Friends of Ours Stanley Bates won the championship of the Quincy City League on Saturday for the South Quincy team by his fine pitching. He allowed only one hit, struck out sixteen, and did not give a pass. The score was 3 to 1 in favor of the South Quincy team. Bill Gantzel, who was with the Marshalls early in the season, played first for South Quincy, and had two hits, one of them a triple, and also is credited with a stolen base. The South Quincy team made six hits off T. McCarthy, the West Quincy pitcher, and Bates made one of the six, also having a stolen base to his credit. The Lynn tourists have been winning without much trouble from the teams through Maine. On Sunday they defeated the Fort McKinley team at Portland by a score of 10 to 3. Stormwashed did the pitching for Lynn, while O'Brien and O'Donnell, late of the Marshalls, played third and second base respectively, and Joe Neptune was at shortstop. O'Brien had two hits and O'Donnell and Neptune one each. Outfielder Lee D. Callahan, of Elmira, in the New York State League, and last year with the St. Johns in the N. B. and Maine League, has reported to the Brooklyn club.

Wolgang and McFarland. Jimmy Coffroth is now making an effort to match Champion Ad Wolgang and Packey McFarland, while he is also dicker for a Jim Driscoll-Johnny Kilbane match and several other bouts. If McFarland and Wolgang meet on the coast, they will fight twenty rounds to a decision. Of course, there is a big possibility that one of the men would win by a knockout inside of the limit. Wolgang may refuse to clash with Packey on the coast unless the Chicago wizard agrees to make 135 pounds several hours before the battle. McFarland now weighs close to 135 pounds and experiences difficulty in making even 135 pounds. A matter of a pound or two may prevent two of the greatest battlers the ring has ever introduced from ever meeting within twenty-four hour rings.
