

HON. C. N. SKINNER DIED LAST NIGHT

Distinguished Career of Brilliant Jurist Ends After Brave Fight With Disease.

City Recorder and Prominent in Politics for Many Years—Many Society Connections.

Hon. C. N. Skinner, city recorder, passed away last evening at the family residence on Crown street.

THE LATE C. N. SKINNER.

C. P. R. PLANS ACROSS BAY

Vice-President's Visit To Digby Renews Speculation As To Future Of That Port—Better Service.

Special to The Standard. Digby, Sept. 22.—D. McNicol and G. M. Bosworth, vice-presidents of the C. P. R. stopped off here today and inspected the shipping facilities and the company's property including the field known as Battery Point situated at the head of the steamship pier and commanding an unobstructed view of Digby Bay, the basin and surrounding country.

On this property, it is understood, the big company will erect a hotel. Both Mr. McNicol and Mr. Bosworth were loud in their praises of Digby and its appropriateness as a location for one of the famous hostels of the company. In addition to passenger traffic the C. P. R. will arrange to do all its freight between Halifax and Montreal via Digby. To meet this additional traffic it will be necessary to provide a more expeditious means of transferring the freight at the docks here and C. P. R. engineers are at present looking into this feature.

After the complete absorption of the D. A. R. the direct steamship service between Digby and Boston is to be greatly improved and maintained throughout the year. General Manager Giffins, Marine Supt. McGregor and Roadmaster Murphy, of the D. A. R. were also here. Messrs. McNicol and Bosworth accompanied by Clarence Jamieson, M. P., and Mayor Jones, also took time to drive to various points about Digby.

MONTREAL TRAM CO. ENTER $100,000 SUIT

Star's Campaign For Fewer Street Railway Accidents Bring The Newspaper Publishers Into Court.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Sept. 22.—The Montreal Street Railway Company today entered an action for $100,000 damages against the Montreal Star. The newspaper has been conducting a campaign against the company, alleging that the number of people killed since the beginning of the present year constitutes proof that the management of the railway is careless and indifferent and in other ways condemning the company. The amount of damages sought is the largest ever asked in a local court.

TARIFF UNDER TREASURY BOARD

Washington, Sept. 22.—Plans were announced here today of a campaign to be conducted by the National Tariff Commission Association to have Congress enact legislation which will make of the tariff board a permanent body to be affiliated as a bureau with the treasury department.

METHODIST COLLEGE TO MEET.

Special to The Standard. Regina, Sept. 22.—The board of governors of the Saskatchewan Methodist college has approved of plans for two big buildings which are to be erected next year. It is expected buildings to the value of $250,000 will be completed by the fall of 1912.

$660,000 FIRE SUIT AGAINST C. P. R. BEGUN

Case Brought By Geo. Van Dyke Estate For $150,000—One Of Series To Be Heard At Portland, Me.

CHARGE BURNING OF TIMBER LANDS

Portland, Me., Sept. 22.—The first in a series of cases involving over $600,000 against the Canadian Pacific Railway, charged with setting fire to timberlands in northern Maine, was begun in the United States circuit court today. By request of counsel for both sides the case is being heard before Judge Clarence Hale as arbitrator. The suit opened this morning, was that brought against the railway by the estate of Geo. Van Dyke, of New Hampshire, which is for $150,000. The Van Dyke fire occurred in August 1908 when a tract of 8,908 acres was burned over. The property destroyed, included not only standing timber, but camps and bridges. The case was opened by D. W. Snow, counsel for the Van Dyke estate, who showed a map of the section burned and who said it would be proved that the property was destroyed by fires set by sparks from locomotives of the defendant company. Three witnesses were examined during the afternoon, each giving testimony to show that fires set in dry grass from the railroad locomotives, had spread into the timber lands. One of the largest suits to follow the one on trial has been brought by the Great Northern Paper Company which claims damages amounting to $250,000 from burned timber lands.

ALBERT CO. BOY SHOT WITHOUT PROVOCATION

Howard S. Tingley Got Bullet In His Arm While Riding a Bicycle—Pierce Boy Under Arrest.

DOCTORS UNSUCCESSFUL IN LOCATING BULLET

Special to The Standard. Hopewell Cape, Sept. 22.—There was a rather sensational shooting affray on the street last evening when Howard S. Tingley, the son of A. W. Tingley was shot and badly injured by Pierce Benjamin. The assailant had a revolver and discharged a number of shots on the street before young Tingley arrived on the scene. When Tingley rode up the street on his bicycle, Benjamin opened fire on him and one of the shots entered the arm near the elbow. The bullet lodged in the muscles. The injured boy was taken to the office of Dr. Kirby who probed for the bullet and was unable to locate it. Dr. Lewis was also called today at the instance of A. W. Bray, Crown prosecutor, but was unsuccessful in locating the bullet. Another attempt will be made to remove the lead. Information was laid today by the father of the injured boy and young Benjamin was arrested and charged with wounding and causing grievously bodily harm. The injured boy made a deposition that the assault was made on him without provocation. The prisoner was allowed out on $400 bail and two sureties of $200.

WHO WILL WIN SPECIAL PRIZES

Time Short Now For Extra Reward In Bermuda Trip Contest—A Little Hard Work Counts.

At 10 o'clock Saturday evening the ballot box will be closed to votes for the splendid prizes offered by The Standard and on Tuesday the winners will be published.

Who will be the first? The most strenuous efforts are being put forth to secure the diamond that its intrinsic value is at least always the same, with a fair interest on the investment year by year. A diamond worth $100 five years ago is now worth at least $125, so that an investment of that date in a good diamond will produce the cash actually paid and bank interest. That is one reason why diamonds are valuable, they not only are a fine ornament, but represent lasting value, good as any. We may say better than most investments on portable property. The majority of the leaders are bent. Continued on page 3.

MAYOR CENSURED FOR FLAG INCIDENT

French Aldermen Objected To Irish Flag Having Second Place To Union Jack—City Clerk In Charge.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Sept. 22.—The City Council today censured Mayor Guerin. At the time of the recent Eucharistic congress the British flag appeared as usual on the central tower of the City Hall, the next place of honor on the tower to the right being given to the Irish flag. The French aldermen took exception to this, claiming that the French tri-color should have been placed there. Today the City Council upheld this view, and after censuring the mayor placed the disposition of the flags in the future in the hands of the city clerk. The mayor is Irish.

ESCAPED CRIMINAL SOON RECAPTURED

Raymond B. Oliver, Who Assisted Jas. Strickland To Escape From Fort Preble, Caught At New Gloucester.

Portland, Me., Sept. 22.—Raymond B. Oliver, the private of the 107th company, coast artillery, stationed at Fort Preble, who was missing after the sentry, John Chevington was shot by James Strickland, was arrested at New Gloucester today and brought to the fort tonight. It is charged that Oliver was a prisoner under parole, was concerned in the plot with Strickland to shoot the sentry, and escape from the fort.

BISHOP FALLON MAKES STRONG ASSERTIONS

Story Of His Antipathy To French Canadians Falsehood On Its Face—Solicitous For Their Welfare.

NEWSPAPER MAN CREATED STORY

London, Ont., Sept. 22.—In regard to the assertions made by the press of the country and by some public men concerning his attitude towards the French language and the interests of the French Canadian people, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Fallon requests the publication of the following statement:— "This agitation, in as far as my name is concerned with it, was begun by the publication of a despatch in the Detroit Free Press on June 5th last, when I was not quite five weeks Bishop of London. This article was a falsehood on its face, for, while for evident reasons purporting to come from Ottawa, it was really concocted in Toronto by two gentlemen, one of whom occupies a position in the Ontario civil service, and the other is on the staff of a Toronto morning newspaper. The assertions in this article were not only false but malicious, and the treachery of its fabricators was discovered and privately exposed at the time. An equally false and libellous article appeared in a Toronto paper last Sunday morning, and a curious coincidence in thought and language led to the conclusion that it received its inspiration from the same source. Never Unfriendly. "I have never been, by word or deed by intent or desire, unfriendly to the interests of the French-Canadian people, and I never shall be unfriendly to them at any time or place, no matter what the provocation. A number of them live within the limits of my own diocese and I am as solicitous for their welfare, whether spiritual or temporal, as I am for that of any other portion of the flock confided to my care. "I have never issued, nor caused to be issued, directly or indirectly, verbally, by writing or in any other way, any order or mandate or even expression of opinion concerning the teaching of French or any other language in the separate schools or in any other schools in the diocese of London or any other place. "I have not and I never have had any objection to the teaching of French or any other language in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the regulations of the provincial department of education. "This whole agitation, therefore, so far as I am concerned, is not only utterly baseless, but is also supremely unjust. (Signed) M. F. FALLON, Bishop of London.

MRS. J. M. DODGE OUT ON BAIL

Vermont Woman Charged With Murder Of Painter In Her Home Waives Examination And Is Released.

Lunenburg, Vt., Sept. 22.—Arraigned in her home before Judge Kyle T. Brown, on the charge of murdering W. A. Heath, a painter, who was fatally shot, while at work in her bedroom Saturday afternoon, Mrs. J. M. Dodge, waived examination late today and was released in $5000 bonds. The bonds were furnished by Deputy Sheriff James N. Dodge, the woman's nephew, and John Bell, her son-in-law, after a conference between Attorney General John G. Sargent, State Attorney General Hunt and Harry Blodgett, of St. Johnsbury, counsel for Mrs. Dodge. Small bonds may be asked in a capital crime under a provision of the state laws which declare that if the state is unable to show premeditation or if the presumption of guilt is great but the proof is small, the prisoner can be admitted to bail. Mrs. Dodge who became ill yesterday, was considerably improved today and left tonight for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Julia Bell in South Lunenburg. She is to appear before the October grand jury of the supreme court.

GRAFT IN BOSTON BATH DEPARTMENT

Boston, Sept. 22.—City Auditor Mitchell reported to Mayor Fitzgerald today, on the investigation by expert accountants, into the city's bath department, showing a shortage in the accounts and pointing out the laxity in bookkeeping in addition to making a charge that receipt books and records had been destroyed. The examination of the department's books covered a period of 2-1/2 years, ending August 2nd of this year.

GAYNOR BOOMED FOR GOVERNOR

NEED 1500 MINISTERS IN NEXT 5 YEARS

Speaker At Closing Session Of Women's Missionary Convention At Moncton Makes This Statement.

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Sept. 22.—At this afternoon's session of the Presbyterian Women's Foreign Missionary Society the following report was given of the work in the different Presbyteries. Pictou, bands 45, membership 1160, amount raised $1081. St. John, bands 45, membership 995, amount raised $1087. Miramichi, bands 37, membership 742, amount raised $531. Truro, bands 28, membership 722, amount raised $567. P. E. Island, bands 23, membership 516, amount raised $297. Before closing Halifax, bands 17, membership 556, amount raised $365. Wallace, bands 17, membership 514, amount raised $475. Inverness, bands 14, membership 408, amount raised $291. Lunenburg and Yarmouth, bands 8, membership 190, amount raised $246-85. The total number of bands (Sydney Presbyterians' figures not included) is 225; membership, 5798; total amount raised for foreign and home missions $4848. The evening and closing session was in the nature of a public meeting at which Rev. J. W. McMillan, of Halifax, spoke on home missions, having special reference to the west. He said the church would require 1500 new ministers within the next five years and how to secure them was a problem to be dealt with. Before closing Mr. McMillan paid a high tribute to Rev. Dr. Pringle, of Yukon fame, and his work which he said, was not fully appreciated by the people of the east. The session closed with a discussion of the finances for the current year.

ABBIE WOOD AT AMHERST

Upper Canadian Runner Arrives To Meet Cameron In Latter's First Professional Race—Given Reception.

Special to The Standard. Amherst, N. S., Sept. 22.—Abbie Wood, the fast Upper Canadian distance runner, arrived on the Ocean Limited this afternoon, and was met at the depot by members of the Ramblers' Club and other friends, with whom she will try conclusions in a ten mile professional race Saturday afternoon. To The Standard Mr. Wood stated that he was in prime condition and was here to win. He certainly looks like a winner and our own Cameron, who also is in fine condition, will be called upon to show speed. Wood's latest victory was over Tom Longboat, a few weeks ago. His best time was in Toronto last winter when he covered the ten miles in 55 minutes on a 12 lap inside track. He is like Cameron, a gentleman and a clean sport, and while in Amherst will be made to feel that he is among friends. The advance sale for Saturday's race indicates that an unusually large crowd will be in attendance.

CROP NOT AFFECTED BY LADING BILLS

Cotton Bull Leader From New Orleans Cables Home From Europe That Much Agitated Question Is Immaterial.

New Orleans, Sept. 22.—Inquiry made of Frank B. Hayne, the bull leader in the cotton futures market, brought the following cablegram to spot cotton members of the New Orleans cotton exchange today: Bills of lading immaterial. Mr. Hayne is now in Liverpool, where he has been looking into the bills of lading question. Many spot dealers say that arrangements have already been perfected for the movement of a large part of the crop, but assert that the character of the exporters will be a much greater factor in purchasing cotton and in honoring drafts than it has been heretofore.

NOTHING TO SAY ON "DEAR MARTHAS"

Archbishop Ireland Refused To Receive Reporters If They Asked Him About Roosevelt—Storer Case.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 22.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., who is accompanying Cardinal Vannutelli, refused today to receive newspaper reporters at the residence of Bishop Sonnell until assured that they did not wish him to talk on the Roosevelt-Storer dispute which was revived by the publication this morning of certain letters given out by Mrs. Belle Amy Storer. "I have nothing to say on that subject," he said.

New York's Wounded Mayor Now Popular Hero in Eyes of Common People.

Tammany Leader Admits His Strength—Thought to be Willing to Accept Nomination.

New York, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Gaynor sentiment took form and assumed direction in Democratic circles here today, more rapidly than at any other time since his name came to the front as a possible candidate for governor. State Chairman John A. Dix, had brought word of how large the figure of the mayor bulged from a distance but until today New York leaders had been reticent. Partly they were restrained by the continued alliance of the mayor himself, and partly by hesitation as to how they would fare with Mayor Gaynor at Albany and John Purroy Mitchell, now acting mayor in his chair. But today there were two developments of interest. In the first place there was much open talk for Gaynor among district leaders who gathered at Tammany Hall and those who heard it could only account for it on the assumption that it had warrant from those higher in the councils of the society. In the second place Chas. F. Murphy, the tactful leader of Tammany publicly admitted the strength of the movement toward Gaynor while carefully reserving any declaration of his own attitude. Mr. Murphy said: "The sentiment of the state seems to favor the nomination of Mayor Gaynor for governor." By many Tammany men this declaration was taken to mean that Murphy brought away from his recent visits to the mayor at St. James some intimation of his attitude toward a nomination and some idea that the mayor's permitting the publication of his long letter to his sister in Utica relating his recollections of the attempt to assassinate him had been correctly interpreted as equivalent to an announcement of his willingness to run. It was announced at the Democratic headquarters today that the temporary chairman of the Rochester convention will be Alton B. Parker, former chief justice of the state court of appeals and Democratic candidate for President in 1904. For permanent chairman, Edward M. Shepard and D. Cady Herrick are most prominently mentioned. Neither chairman Woodruff of the Republican state committee nor the "progressive" leader Griscom of the New York County committee, attached importance to the suggestion today of a movement to compromise on the temporary chairman of the Saratoga convention by dropping both Vice-president Sherman and Col. Roosevelt and selecting Senator Root. Both declared they entertained no thought of compromise. Both will leave for Saratoga tomorrow afternoon.

TRURO PASTOR CALLED TO CORNWALL, ONT.

Rev. A. B. McLeod Chosen By St. John Presbyterian Church As Successor To Rev. N. H. McGillivray.

Special to The Standard. Cornwall, Sept. 22.—Rev. A. B. McLeod, of Truro, N. S., brother of Rev. J. B. McLeod, of Martinville, has been chosen by the congregation of St. John's Presbyterian church as a successor to Rev. N. H. McGillivray, now of Taylor church, Montreal. The call will be forwarded by the Presbytery of Glengarry. It carries a salary of $1800, a free manse and four weeks holidays.

ROOSEVELT CLAIMS MAJORITY OF 100

Ex-President Jubilant After Conference With Lieutenants—Predicts Bad Trouncing For Old Guard.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 22.—The utter rout of the old guard by Theodore Roosevelt at the republican state convention in Saratoga was predicted today by Col. Roosevelt himself. At the conclusion of a long conference at Sagamore Hill today with half a dozen of his lieutenants, Col. Roosevelt said: "I think I may be reasonably safe in saying that we shall have 100 majority."

SURPLUS FOR BIG FAIR IS PROMISED

Informal Meeting Of Directors Hear Comprehensive Report From Manager Good—Local Government Contributed.

That the Dominion exhibition would result in a surplus for the association was made clear at an informal meeting of the directors and officials last evening at which H. J. P. Good, Manager, presented his report.

After the reading of the minutes Mr. Good was called upon to read his report, which followed:

After having had experience with five out of the seven Dominion exhibitions that have been held, I can conscientiously say that which recently took place in St. John will compare favorably with the majority.

IN THE SUPREME COURT King's Bench Division.

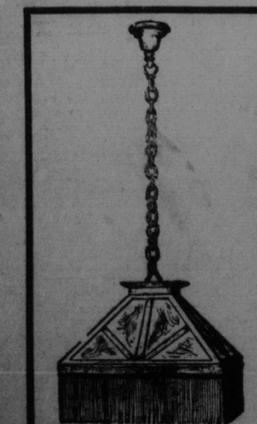

In the Matter of The D'Israeli Asbestos Company, and its winding up under The Winding up Act of the Dominion of Canada and amending acts.

NOTICE is hereby given that this Court hath this day on the petition and application of Andrew H. Marquis, a shareholder of the above named Company, made an order for the winding up of the said D'Israeli Asbestos Company under the Winding up Act, so far as it relates to its property, business, assets and affairs in Canada, and hath appointed T. Sherman Peters, of Gagetown, in the Province of New Brunswick, Farmer, Provisional Liquidator thereof.

AND THIS COURT DOTH FURTHER APPOINT Monday the tenth day of October, A. D. 1910, at the hour of three o'clock in the afternoon at the Admiralty Court Chambers in the Pugsley Building, in the City of Saint John, in the Province of New Brunswick, as the time and place for the appointment of a liquidator of the said D'Israeli Asbestos Company under the said Winding-up Act.

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that notice of the time and place for appointment of said liquidator shall be served upon the creditors, shareholders, members and contributors of the said D'Israeli Asbestos Company by publication of this order in six issues of a daily newspaper published in the City of Saint John, and in six issues of a daily newspaper published at Sherbrooke, in the Province of Quebec.

Dated the Twenty-first day of September, A. D. 1910. (Signed) E. McLEOD Justice Supreme Court.

LIQUIDATION OF D'ISRAEL CO. IS EXECUTED

On Application Of A. H. Marquis, Judge McLeod Issued Order Yesterday Appointing Liquidator.

A new turn was given to the affairs of the D'Israeli Asbestos Company yesterday when Judge McLeod in the Supreme Court, King's Bench Division, issued an order placing the company in liquidation, and appointing T. Sherman Peters of Gagetown provisional liquidator.

The petition declares also that between 20 or 30 judgments have been issued against the company in the province of Quebec, and specifies the amounts of indebtedness in nine cases, aggregating about $2,500.

Accounts Confused. Owing to the confused state of the books, the petitioner claims that it is impossible to ascertain the amount of shares actually paid up, but there has been to the best of the knowledge of the petitioner, at least $150,000 paid in to the company for stock by the shareholders.

Continuing, the petition declares: "That your petitioner is not fully informed as to the facts relating to subscriptions or payments, and desire the same to be investigated."

That in June 16 it appeared that affairs were in a very unsatisfactory state, and that a large amount of stock and assets were unaccounted for and that the directors who controlled affairs up to that time had never made a proper accounting of the affairs of the company.

Board of Directors. The present board of directors, which was elected on June 16, is composed of the following: Sidney Wood, Digby, N. S.; T. Sherman Peters, Gagetown, N. B.; F. R. Beckwith, Bridgetown, N. S.; L. D. Morton, Digby, N. S.; A. A. Marquis, Chatham, N. B.; L. A. Codere, Sherbrooke, Que.; R. Gagne, D'Israeli, Que., and Alex. Warrel, of Sherbrooke, Que. There are 400 shareholders. In June last Emile C. Gattler, of Quebec, secured a judgment against the company for $99.10 seizing the furniture of the office at Sherbrooke. The furniture was sold and realized something over $200, but the judgment was not executed as other creditors promptly secured judgments against the amount realized from the sale.

The petition for the appointment of a liquidator cites the following judgments: Foreman Campbell and Arthur Gendron for $988.50; Joseph Boucher, $137.40; C. Cote, $185; L. A. Codere and Co., $298; Moses O'Bready, $194.25; Jas. Smith, $612.23; J. Wolf, $231; J. H. Parent, $141.87; Hanington and Hanington, of St. John are solicitors for the company. A member of the firm stated yesterday that a meeting of the directors would probably be called in a few days to consider what action may be taken in regard to the new turn of affairs.

STIFF SENTENCES FOR TWO BROTHERS

Anthony and Basil Vautour of Northumberland Given Five Years in Dorchester—Lumberman Injured.

Newcastle, Sept. 22.—Severe sentences were meted out here this morning by Magistrate Malby. Two brothers, Anthony and Basil Vautour, were charged with theft from A. D. Farrah's store at Rogersville. The magistrate sentenced each to five years in Dorchester.

A Frenchman named Maxine Gagneau was quite badly injured by the falling of a tree at Ritchie's lumber camp, several miles from Red Bank. Gagneau received a glancing blow, inflicting injuries on the arm and foot. Dr. Desmond was summoned and the man was driven here. He is now resting easily.

One of the oldest Miramichi residents was laid at rest today in the person of Mrs. Amelia Elizabeth Nutt. The deceased was 92 years of age and her death resulted from a fall. She was one of the now few survivors of the Miramichi fire of 1825. The blaze at Campbellton served to recall that great fire to her memory. The funeral service was conducted here this morning by Rev. W. J. Dean and interment took place at Chatham.

Rev. J. J. Ryan of St. Mary's, is here today accompanied by his mother. With C. J. Morrissy they left on an inspection tour of Indian schools at Eel Ground and tomorrow will visit Burnt Church.

Mrs. Catherine Baird. Mrs. Catherine Baird, widow of Francis Baird, died at Chipman, Q. Co., on the 12th inst. She is survived by four sons, Robert and Harry, of Fredericton; Charles, of Chipman and Samuel, of Nelson, B. C., and two daughters, Mrs. Perley Flewelling, of Chipman and Mrs. Murray Starkey, of Coles Island. Three sisters, Mrs. Eleanor Fowler, Mrs. John Darrach, of Chipman and Mrs. H. P. Sandall, of St. John and one brother, Henry Fowler, of Chipman, also survive.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE PROVED RETICENT

Celebrated English Journalist Spent Few Minutes in City Yesterday—St. John and the German Menace.

Lord Northcliffe, with his wife and a party of friends passed through St. John last evening in a private car, and incidentally gave a two minutes' interview in which he touched on, if he did not illuminate such important questions as Imperialism, the Canadian navy, the German war scare, and St. John's chances of being captured by the ships of Emperor William.

When the reporters boarded the private car, they were informed that His Lordship had gone outside for a walk. "What does he look like?" the reporters asked.

"A rather boyish looking personage with a green hat, inclined to stoutness," said His Lordship's secretary. "Not that chap who looked like a youthful lumberman on a holiday?" "That's him," said the secretary.

Failing to locate the gentleman wanted, the reporters returned to the car. His Lordship, who had also got back by that time, sent out word that he had nothing to say, but Her Ladyship, seeing the reporters on the car, graciously instructed the secretary to admit them.

Located At Last. His Lordship then received the interviewers.

"What's the news from the Old Country?" was the first question. "Here's one of my papers," said His Lordship. "It contains all the news that's fit to print."

"What do you think of Imperialism?" "My papers are full of it," said His Lordship. "I've nothing more to add."

"Do you think Canada should contribute to the upkeep of the British Navy, or build her own?" "I believe Canada should do what she pleases about it."

"How is the German boogey?" "There's always a possibility of war."

"Is there a probability?" "I haven't been in England for a month."

"Are you thinking of starting a pulp mill in New Brunswick?" "I've all the mills I need."

"But St. John is mightily interested in the possibility of war with Germany?" "Well—it ought to be. What's to stop the Germans taking your city? The Canadian navy doesn't amount to much yet. However you can't build one in a day."

This concluded the interview.

OBITUARY.

Robert P. Hamilton. Hampton, Sept. 22.—This morning Robert P. Hamilton, a commercial traveller, seventy-two years of age, of Belleville, Ontario, in the employ of Messrs. Simmers & Co., of Toronto, who has been taking a week's rest at the Riverview Hotel, opposite Hampton village, passed away as the result of an attack of hemorrhage of the brain last night. Dr. J. N. Smith, who had attended him, communicated with his family, consisting of his wife and a stepdaughter, and also with the lodge of Foresters to which he belonged. This afternoon a telegram was received to prepare the body and send it to Belleville, which will be done.

Henry Brennan. Henry Brennan, one of the best known men in St. John, died about three o'clock yesterday morning after a brief illness of gastritis. On Saturday evening, the 10th inst., Mr. Brennan and his wife attended the Exhibition and soon after his return home was taken ill. Medical aid was summoned, and while Mr. Brennan had been since confined to his room, his condition was not considered serious. Wednesday evening he took a turn for the worse and passed away early yesterday morning. Mr. Brennan, who was about sixty years of age, was a native of St. John and is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Jane Warrack, and four children, three daughters, Mrs. J. W. Brown, of Newark, N. J., who arrived home on Monday; Mrs. Broderick, wife of Dr. W. P. Broderick, of this city, and Miss Annabelle, at home; also one son, Henry A. Brennan, claims agent for the C. P. R. He also leaves three brothers, Thomas in Boston, Peter in New York and Martin in this city; also one sister, Miss Anne, in this city. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, 26 Water street.

Arthur Estabrooks. The death of Arthur L. Estabrooks of West St. John, which occurred yesterday morning, will be heard of with sincere regret by a large circle of friends with whom he was very popular. The deceased, who was in his twenty-third year, was a son of Capt. and Mrs. W. Estabrooks. He leaves, besides his parents, two brothers, Messrs. Harold and George, of this city, and two sisters, Miss Florence of Nappawa, Man., and Miss Stella, who is now at Gagetown. Mr. Estabrooks has not been well for some time, but his illness only became serious on Monday. Death was due to heart failure.

The deceased was well known in athletic circles as a football and baseball player. The funeral service will be held at his father's residence, 182 Winslow street at eight o'clock on Friday evening. The remains will be conveyed by river boat on Saturday to Upper Gagetown, where the interment will be made.

HON. C. N. SKINNER DIED LAST NIGHT

Continued from page 1. For several years Mr. Skinner was also a member of the common council and while occupying that position took a keen interest in the welfare of the city.

When he subsequently became the city's legal advisor in succession to the late I. Allen Jack his long and varied experience in his profession made him well fitted for the duties of his office. His mind was of the judicial cast and his opinions were the result of much careful study and preparations. In his own practice Mr. Skinner numbered his clients in all walks of life. His handling of court cases and kindness to all with whom he came in contact were strongly marked features of his character. As a speaker he was fluent, clear and logical, and had few if any superiors in his day as an orator. In June, 1896 he received the honorary degree of doctor of civil law from Kings College, Windsor, N. S. In religious belief he was a Baptist and contributed generously towards the funds of that denomination.

In later life he rented a pew in the St. John (Stone) church, one of the Anglican churches of the city, and was a frequent attendant at the services.

Oddfellowship. Mr. Skinner had been a member of the Independent Order of Oddfellows for the past 30 years and was one of the most prominent members of that organization in the Maritime Provinces. He was some time ago presented with a veteran's jewel which is only given to those who have been in the order for 25 years in good standing. He was a member of Pioneer Lodge No. 9 and has held about all the offices in the order, with the exception of grand representative of the sovereign grand lodge. It was expected that in the coming year he would be elected to that position.

There was probably no man in the provinces or in Canada, who had held such high offices in the order as the late recorder. He was a clever and masterly speaker and in public functions in which he took part was always conspicuous for the eloquence of his address. He took a great interest in the order and was an attendant at almost every meeting of his lodge. Every year it was his custom to give a dinner at his home to the members of the lodge and the grand lodge officers.

For many years he was a prominent member of the Sons of Temperance and was a consistent worker. The older members of that organization remember him as a great strength to the order. He was also a member of the provincial grand lodge of the Loyal Orange Association and was prominently connected with the Masonic body, the Foresters and various other societies.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon, but no definite arrangements have yet been made. It is expected the members of the common council and the various fraternal organizations with which Mr. Skinner was connected will pay their last respects to his memory by taking part in the obsequies.

REX BEACH'S GREAT STORY AT NICKEL.

One of the highest paid motion picture playrights is Rex Beach of the United States, who has been conceiving rich high-class film dramas issued by Thos. A. Edison Co. Today and Saturday at the reliable Nickel Mr. Beach's story of grit and perseverance will be shown in "With Bridges Burned," a tale of a New York young man who with his wife's plucky aid secured a monstrous South African contract in the face of wrongful discharge and apparent dishonor. Another story of fine conception and replete with dramatic situations all leading to a moral finale is "The Road to Richmond," an incident in the American civil war. "The Runaway Monkey" is pure fun and "A Good Lesson" is what its title implies.

Mr. J. W. Meyers will sing his late hit "Out of the Ideal of My Dreams" and the MacBrady children will do their dainty dances and songs as so acceptably performed yesterday. Monday and two additional days next week the great dramatic Conquest at Montreal will be shown in motion picture at the Nickel.

DR. CORBET BUYS SMITH PROPERTY.

The handsome residence of the late G. Sidney Smith, 37 Dorchester street, on the corner of Carleton street, has been purchased by Dr. George G. Corbet. It is understood that the price was in the vicinity of $6,000. Dr. Corbet will secure possession on the 1st of October, and will move in before winter. He may make some alterations to the house, but has not yet decided what is needed.

The taking of evidence in the de Forest case was completed in the Chancery Court yesterday morning and adjournment made until October 14th for argument of counsel.

BOY BURGLAR IN NOVA SCOTIA Paul Boyce Took in Exhibition and Proceeded to Make His Way to Annapolis by Stealing.

(Digby Courier.) Paul Boyce, the 13 year old burglar, whom Mr. C. F. Chase conveyed to Boston and who escaped from an officer in the North Station in that city on the 1st inst., soon returned to the provinces.

It appears that he reached St. John via one of the Eastern S. S. Co's steamers. After taking in the exhibition for a few days and having a good time generally he left that city via I. C. R., reaching Annapolis via Saturday's late train on the D. A. R. He registered at the Clifton as Fred Cousins, of Digby. When the Moto arrived there with a number of passengers Sunday afternoon young Boyce paid his bill in full and left the hotel saying that he was going home on the Moto. But he did not board the boat. He visited another part of the town. Later in the evening he was arrested.

It is said that young Boyce admitted that even during his short stay in Nova Scotia this trip, he robbed three D. A. R. stations. At Newport he took $22 in cash and a number of railway tickets. At Bridgetown he also took tickets and at Annapolis $4 in cents and a number of tickets. Chief of Police Bowles says the little fellow had about 60 railway tickets on him when arrested.

His father arrived here via direct boat from Boston Wednesday morning and proceeded to Annapolis, accompanied by Chief of Police Bowles. Mr. Boyce paid all claims against the boy, including the D. A. R. losses. Paul was handed over to his father by the authorities in Annapolis. They arrived here via the Bluenose and sailed Wednesday afternoon to return to Boston.

Quite a number were on the government pier to get a glimpse of this 13 year old lad who has given both his parents and the officers in the United States and Nova Scotia so much trouble during the past few weeks.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT. Sussex, Sept. 22.—On Wednesday evening the Misses deMille very pleasantly entertained 30 of their friends in honor of their guest, Miss Ferguson, Rexton, N. B. The house presented a very pretty appearance being trimmed with maple leaves and cut flowers. An interesting feature of the evening was a musical guessing contest in which Miss Florence Markham got the prize and Samuel Hannah the consolation prize. Games and music were much enjoyed. At the close of the evening refreshments were served and after singing Auld Lang Syne, the party dispersed all expressing themselves as having thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

BIG GAME ON NORTH SHORE New Jersey Hunter Believes New Brunswick is Ahead of Maine as Home of Big Game. (Newcastle Advocate.) The game is unusually plentiful this fall, especially moose and partridge. A day or two ago three moose were seen on the road together at Hartibogue and several have been shot there since the 15th.

H. J. Ward of New York, who was here three years ago and has hunted since in Maine, arrived Saturday at Hotel Miramichi and along with J. D. Hall of Warrington, Virginia, has gone with Edward Menzies as guide, to hunt on Bald Mountain. Mr. Ward says that New Brunswick, rather than Maine, is the home of big game. He is delighted with hunter's opportunities on the Miramichi.

A. Woods of New York has gone to Tabusintac after moose. A. St. G. Hammersley, M.P., and son of Oxford, Eng., came on Saturday and have gone up the Little South West Miramichi, with David Manderville as guide. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Kleinjung of Ridgewood, N.J., and Mr. Kleinjung's brother, Emil Kleinjung of Wilkan, Germany, has gone to Renous with Norris Manderville, as guide. The distinguished German is loud in his praises of New Brunswick scenery and people.

Chief Game Warden D. Doyle, has returned from Bathurst. Mr. Doyle reports game to be plentiful in that direction. WATERBOROUGH. Moose is Slighted Sauntering Along The Highway—Personal News. Waterborough, Q. C., Sept. 22.—A very large moose was seen on the highway by a number of people this morning. Game Warden James B. SAINT JOHN, FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 23, 1910

A "TOY" RIFLE.

According to a table compiled by the Montreal Gazette, the Laurier government paid out between 1903 and March 1909, the sum of $1,682,580 for the purchase of the Ross rifle—a weapon which on nearly every occasion on which it has been used, has conspicuously failed to demonstrate its efficiency as a practical fire-arm. The latest evidence that it is little better than a toy is supplied by correspondents of the Toronto papers who are attached to the Queen's Own Rifles, now in Great Britain. The regiment is armed with the Ross rifle. The correspondents have declared that as a service weapon it is useless.

The correspondent of the Toronto Star, a paper distinctly friendly to the government says of the weapon:—
"There was one serious disappointment about the manoeuvres, that being the Ross rifle. For active service it didn't make good for a minute. Apparently it is an excellent arm for target shooting, but it has made a bad impression as a service rifle. The breech is not protected sufficiently to keep the sand from getting in, and several doubts were cast on the rifles as to whether it was safe to fire them off. This proved a useless fear, but they are undoubtedly little less than toys. Even the officers say it, or at least some of them do.

"Be careful of those rifles; it wouldn't do to bring those toys too sharply on the ground for fear they would get broken."

"They are little less than toys and have been cussed more heartily than anything in camp. Several of them were put out of commission before the manoeuvres began."

"There is one obvious error in this statement," remarks the Gazette. "The correspondent says:—'Apparently it is an excellent arm for target shooting.' It is not. The militiaman who desires to attend a rifle meet generally chooses either to fall back on the old Lee-Enfield or pay $45 out of his own pocket for the special Ross rifle, which has been masqueraded as the weapon with which the Canadian militia is armed, and which is a really good target rifle, and not to be classed with the rifle for which the country had up to the end of the last year spent $1,628,580."

This special rifle to which the Gazette refers, is the weapon with which the Canadian militiamen were armed at Bisley, and known as the Mark II. Ross rifle. It costs more than twice as much as the British or United States service rifles. If the Mark II rifle were issued to the Canadian armed forces, the cost to the pockets of the Canadian people would be a couple of million dollars, as contrasted with the fact that the same number of troops could be supplied with British or American or German or French service rifles—splendid rifles—at a cost of less than half the money. Canadian marksmen did well at Bisley with this particular brand of Ross rifle; nevertheless British marksmen beat them and their rifle with the British service rifle of less than one half the cost.

"The country," concludes the Gazette, "is now spending several millions a year on a militia force armed with what is described as a 'toy.' What would the situation be if Canada was threatened with invasion tomorrow? What would happen to the helpless Canadians sent to the front armed with 'toys'? They would be chicken-feed for the enemy. Not even the be-feathered brigade of war experts who sit in offices in Ottawa surrounded by a small army of military and civil servants, could save them."

EXPORTERS MAKE INDIGNANT PROTEST.

Among the orders recently issued by the United States government to its consular agents abroad is a regulation with regard to goods exported from foreign countries which is raising a storm of protest from British exporters. This regulation sets forth that "as many specimens of samples (for export) must be deposited as there are cities in the United States in which the goods are to be placed on sale." If enforced, the regulation will mean that the exporter, who might have business with a hundred cities in the United States, will be required to supply one hundred sets of samples of every textile exported, whether it is cotton, woolen, silk, lace or embroidery.

The Yorkshire Factory Times says that "amongst large exporters dealing with all branches of the textile trade this inquisitorial and menacing document is regarded with great indignation. One prominent manufacturer pointed out that his firm issues yearly some hundreds of novelties in design for each of which now, under this order, a specimen would have to be forwarded. What this would mean in the long run he would not care to contemplate. Certainly at the start it spelled chaos of the most complete description."

Several large British exporters have declared that the regulation will mean ruin to their trade, and the trade of French exporters of textiles will, it is said, be similarly affected. In England, the new regulation is interpreted as an indication of the intention of the Washington government to shut out foreign textiles. In some quarters, however, a more sinister meaning is given to it. It is suspected that the end sought to be served by the depositing of samples is to afford facilities to domestic manufacturers for pirating the patterns and colors of their foreign competitors.

France and Germany and other protectionist countries will probably not suffer long from this new regulation, and will retaliate upon the United States in kind, to force the removal of the restriction so far as their exports are concerned. Great Britain with her system of free trade is without this weapon of defence.

A WORD TO THE CANADIAN MANUFACTURER.

"The Canadian Manufacturers' Vulnerable Spot," is the subject of an interesting article by Mr. W. L. Edmonds in the current number of the Busy Man's Magazine. The writer advocates more aggressive advertising, and a better selling organization as the weapons with which the Canadian manufacturer can most effectively meet outside competition.

"A tariff as high as Haman's Gallows," says Mr. Edmonds, "might keep out imported goods, but it won't keep out the enterprising foreign manufacturer who desires to establish a branch factory in Canada. It hasn't in the past, and it certainly will not in the future. The inducements are too alluring to be ignored by the enterprising manufacturers and capitalists of Great Britain, the United States and other countries. Nothing that outside influences can do will, permanently, at any rate, protect the Canadian-established manufacturer from the competition of his foreign confreres. If the tariff or distance handicaps them they will, as they are doing, start branch factories here.

"The only thing that will 'save his face' is the employment of up-to-date selling methods. And in this must be included an aggressive advertising campaign. There are already some Canadian manufacturers who are doing this, but they are, as I have already pointed out, few and far between. Competition, either home or foreign, cannot permanently be eliminated. That is a fact which every manufacturer in Canada should clearly understand. The most effective permanent modifier of foreign or any other competition is advertising plus a good selling organization. And the better the advertising the greater its effectiveness.

"Well-advertised goods bring better prices because the demand keeps the supply moving. It is the goods that are comatose or dead that lie on the shelves or in the warehouse or factory. Advertising not only moves goods; it imparts stability to values. Advertising, like fuel under the boiler, gets up steam. And the better the fuel the better the results. Advertising imparts value to the good will of a business. Advertising may, in fact, be said to be the creator of the good-will. Reputation is the concomitant of the good will. If the reputation is bad the good-will certainly cannot possess value. Quality is the chief foundation of reputation, but as long as quality is hid under a bushel it may just as well not have an existence. Lift off the bushel and turn on the light of publicity.

"Then comes reputation and good-will; and the better the light, and the more continuously its rays are focussed on the firm and its products the more will reputation be enhanced and the value of the good-will appreciated. It is only the man who wants to 'gold brick' the public who can afford to do fraudulent advertising. He who is in business for tomorrow and the next day and the next, cannot afford to endanger his reputation by fraudulent practices, and especially when he trade marks his goods. A trade mark, therefore, whether a design or a name, is a guarantee of merit. It is only he who is an imbecile who would trade mark an article that had not merit; and the average business man is by no means an imbecile."

SMUGGLING AS A FINE ART.

The most remarkable chapter in the current history of manners and (especially) customs in the United States has just been written by a wealthy family of Poughkeepsie, who made an effort to bring in a string of pearls in the delicate architecture of a woman's bonnet.

After the written and the supplementary oral declaration that there had nothing dutiable of the kind, a goldmesh purse was discovered by the women inspectors. The colored comic supplements of the newspapers are full of the sayings and doings of the enfant terrible, who can be relied upon for the embarrassing word or deed at the crucial moment. In this case, 18-year-old Helen tipped up sweetly:—"Oh, mother, why don't you tell them we got it in Lucerne? I wanted you to do that at first." The daughter has been very popular with her mother ever since.

But the most dramatic scene was to come. The lady—as she thought, surreptitiously—tore up a piece of paper, which the sleuth hounds of Uncle Sam put together again. The mosaic offered incriminating evidence that there was a secreted pearl necklace, and besides, all unbeknownst, they had a telegram from Florence putting them on the qui vive against the day of the arrival of the aforesaid jewelry. The lady was presently found in her cabin furtively extracting pearls from the lining of her big straw hat, and there were more pearls pricelessly rolling about on the floor.

It is very evident that these "society smugglers" learned nothing from the lesson severely taught other arriving travellers, as in the case of ex-Governor Rollins, of New Hampshire, several months ago. Apparently it is almost as hard for rich persons to get through the United States customs without paying duty as it is for them to get to Heaven.

CURRENT COMMENT

(Philadelphia Record.)

The Massachusetts manufacturers complain that they are at a disadvantage with their competitors because they pay higher wages. But one of the largest St. Louis manufacturers has just decided to have his fine shoes made in Brockton. He found it impossible to compete with the New England made shoes. The highest priced labor is the cheapest labor, because it is the best labor, and higher wages do not involve higher costs of production.

(London Free Press.)

British ports are an example to the world in enterprise and to this is due, in part, the first place that Britain holds in the carrying trade of the world. Liverpool is at present building a new dock costing $2,500,000 that will be capable of accommodating ships 1,000 feet long. And this is but one part of improvements that will cost in the aggregate $18,750,000.

(Ottawa Journal.)

Toronto is talking of having a Great White Way with civic power. The thing is worth while in any city. It would be particularly worth while and particularly short, easy and cheap on Sparks street, Ottawa. The business portions of Bank and Rideau could be added later.

(Kingston Whig.)

The osteopaths have been put out of business in New York State, the supreme court having decided that they are not qualified to determine the cause of illness and death. They are, therefore, forbidden to issue death certificates.

We have been trying to avoid a petty dispute over flags, but it is being forced on public notice. The French flag has, as the mayor plainly says, no right or place in this country. It is nothing but a decoration.

Burglary is a hazardous business. A Philadelphia woman, aroused by a crying baby in the early hours of the morning, discovered a burglar and made him walk the baby while she telephoned for the police.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Sept. 22.—There was a dearth of influential news at the opening this morning excepting the continuation of comparatively light receipts at interior points and a further reduction in the local certificated stock to 3,600 bales. There were, nevertheless further signs of uneasiness on the part of the miscellaneous short interest, and when representatives of the bull clique again began the accumulation of December and January options, there was a smart short covering movement which materially assisted the marking up of prices about 12 points. It was the comparative strength of the latter months which kept even pace with the spot option, which chiefly impressed the street. The prestige of former successful operations in the spot months and the confidence with which the bull contingent has switched their activity to the more distant options, has led to the inference that the clique feels no concern about the September and October deal and is now accumulating later months in expectation of ultimately higher prices. Without there has been a decided reversal of sentiment to the bull side in spite of the belief that no unwieldy short interest is outstanding in the maturing options.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Sept. 22.—The desultory character of current operations in the stock market was emphasized by an early collapse of the strength which characterized yesterday's dealings, following the announcement of the Minn. decision. Professionals who thought to take profits in expectation of a strong opening this morning found lack of support from any quarter and no increase of outside interests. As day wore on however, it became apparent that there had been no change of technical conditions, for after the selling referred to had run its course, the market gradually hardened and virtually regained all of its early losses. Cable advices to the effect that the conference of European bankers called to reconsider the cotton bill of lading question had decided to adhere to their original position excited nothing more than academic interest. Inasmuch as the belief prevailed that some satisfactory compromise will be effected, this decision if adhered to means that after October 1st next foreign bankers will accept no American bill of lading on cotton without a bankers guarantee. When it is considered that Europe must have our cotton and that the planters must dispose of this cotton the assumption that this trouble must of necessity be patched up seems well founded. There was little news or no interesting news and the market, as a whole, gave promise of no immediate decided change from the lethargic speculative conditions which have prevailed for some weeks past.

Are Your Glasses Right

It's not enough that you should wear glasses—you should be sure they are right—that they properly correct the irregularities in the shape of the eyes and that they fit the face properly.

There's one final test in regard to glasses—do they show results.

If you've been troubled with headaches, do your glasses stop them?

If your sight has been poor do your glasses give you good vision?

If the answer to these questions is "yes," you may be satisfied with your glasses; if not, better let us help you get the right kind.

MANAGER GOOD'S REPORT TELLS OF SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITION

commodated, but by rearrangement and the appropriation of ground floor of the new addition to the main building, space was provided for all. Some few dropped out as the time approached but the spaces thus made vacant speedily found tenants. Of course, the absence of some that we hoped to have with us was to be regretted, but the recruits abundantly made up for any deficiency in this respect.

All Exhibits Good.
Although some of the exhibits were especially high class, it would perhaps be unwise to particularize in this report. Suffice it therefore, to say that considerable ingenuity was displayed and much time, money and labor expended. A pleasant characteristic was the thorough harmony which prevailed throughout; every exhibitor as well as every worker, seemingly being possessed of no other idea than to contribute to success. Personally, I may say that it has never been my good fortune to work with any other exhibition at which so much good feeling and general desire for the benefit of all was manifested. Of course there were complaints, but these were comparatively few and easily righted by explanation or action.

It would not be fair to overlook the splendid exhibit shown through the influence of the board of trade of St. John. In fact, members of the board worked assiduously and energetically towards making the exhibition a worthy one for the city and the Maritime Provinces, but of the whole country. That they succeeded in their efforts was abundantly proven by results. Unfortunately it was impossible to give up so large a space as was required by this particular exhibit in the main building, but the promoters cheerfully accepted the conditions with the result that the drill shed, which would otherwise have been a place of ordinary attraction, received a great impetus and attracted universal attention.

The province also made a most worthy exhibit of minerals, forestry and game. In this connection I would like to say a word of praise for Professor Bailey and Harry Allen, chief guide of the province, both of whom were present during the whole period of the exhibition and gave it their undivided attention. Primarily the interest displayed and the results achieved are due to the efforts of the surveyor general, the Hon. W. V. Pender, and the Hon. W. G. Grimmer, who personally superintended the arrangements.

There were continued complaints about the lighting but these were speedily remedied with the final result apparently general satisfaction. It was impossible to give each exhibitor either the exact space or the location required and consequently one or two felt that justice had not been done. However, they that most cases finally accepted the conditions and went away pleased.

Machinery Hall.
While the display of machinery in motion was not as general as might have been desired, and indeed was hoped for, there were many interesting process exhibits. One of the best of these was the glass cutting by Messrs. Geo. Phillips & Co., of Montreal. This exhibit in fact was genuine and original to the Dominion Exhibition. Other exhibits of an excellent character were shown in the hall, and I shall be pardoned, perhaps, for suggesting that in view of the expense for transportation and care and attendance required more attention might advantageously be given to this department. Another interesting project was the nail making of Messrs. Pender & Co. and the woolen making of the Hewson Woolen Mills, the latter of which found space on the main floor. Many recent developments in machinery were exhibited for the first time, and together the hall presented an aspect in keeping with the general excellence of the entire industrial section of the exhibition.

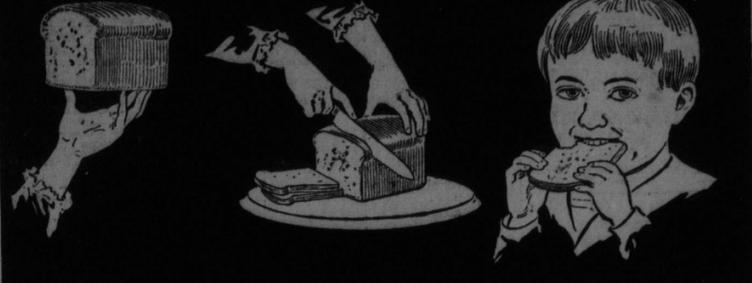

Instead of using the drill shed, as at former exhibitions, and as originally intended, as a transportation building for the exhibit of carriages and automobiles, it was finally decided to use the old agricultural hall. At first this place with its many posts and comparatively low ceiling appeared hardly appropriate, but when the arrangements came to be made it lent itself very nicely to the objects intended. At the start there was a little grumbling among the parties interested at the change but it is pleasant to be able to say that the exhibition several of the exhibitors have expressed themselves satisfied, and stated that they had succeeded in selling the whole of their exhibits and of receiving orders for more. And this suggests a remark as to the general result, from a business point of view, of the exhibition. It has been my privilege of talking with a number of the exhibitors and without exception each and every one has expressed himself delighted with the amount of orders received. Thus the exhibition in the first instance has achieved its results in encouraging trade.

All Exhibits.
Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the Art Club of St. John and its officers for the unselfish interest that they took in the management and arrangement of the art gallery. M. V. Paddock generously undertook the entire superintendence, free of charge and all that can be said is that his achievement is deserving of the limit of praise. Speaking from what I know, I feel justified in saying that the exhibition of pictures was the best ever held at any exhibition outside of only one in the Dominion. The space allotted was lent itself splendidly to the objects in view. The pictures were well placed upon the walls, admirably arranged, and the lighting was excellent.

Many good judges expressed themselves surprised at the excellence of what it was their privilege to see. Had the original intentions been carried out and a fire-proof building been supplied by the Boston firm who made the suggestion, it is possible that a few more valuable paintings might have been had, but as it was artists from distant points generously lent of their works and the exhibit proved in every respect a worthy and creditable one.

On the same floor as the art gallery, the Forestry exhibit was given under the control and superintendence of Prof. R. N. Miller, of the U. N. B., who was indefatigable in his efforts, both during and prior to the exhibition. It is possible to say that there never has been made in Canada a better display of specimens of the

As a result of this engagement the stand on several afternoons and evenings was crowded to excess. Sergeant-Major LeBlanc proved himself most obliging and kept the men well up to their work. Major Nelles, the commanding officer, it is pleasant to be able to say, took sufficient interest in the engagement to be present in person. Altogether the executive have the greatest reason to congratulate themselves upon securing the musical ride. Coming from New Brunswick, it is generally acknowledged that they were the best ever seen in eastern Canada and that Messrs. Hand & Co., the contractors, were deserving of the utmost credit.

Pike Never Better.
This report would hardly be complete without a reference to the "Pike" or "Midway" and the amusements which were under the control of Mr. F. G. Spencer. Again speaking from experience, I feel justified in saying that better attractions and superior arrangements and better order never marked this department of an exhibition than recently in St. John. Mr. Spencer showed liberality as well as wisdom in his engagements and it seems to me that the executive have good cause to be pleased that they were successful in entering into an arrangement with him.

A word of thanks is due to the various railway and steamship managements for their aid, encouragement and regulations, all of which tended to the success accomplished. Advantages were made from all points east of Fort William in Canada and Chicago in the United States. That these were made use of to a liberal extent is proven by the large number of visitors who seized this opportunity either to see St. John or to return to their old homes as well as to view the attractions offered by the exhibition.

A Few Bouquets.
It will perhaps be thought that this report is too eulogistic in its nature, but where one and all worked so generously and enthusiastically for the common good it was impossible to achieve anything else but success. In this connection, I shall perhaps be pardoned for being a little personal and saying that I have never known a better executive or a more worthy staff of employees. Your president will forgive me for saying that he and Mr. Burditt, chairman of the building committee, were so efficient and far-seeing in their labors that they rendered my task almost an ornamental one. From Messrs. Emerson, O'Brien, Allan, Frink and all the other members of the executive valuable aid was also received and too much cannot be said in recognition of their efforts, either individually or collectively.

Referring to the staff I wish to place particular stress upon the splendid and untiring work of your secretary, Mr. Porter, who not only prior to the exhibition was ever diligent and wise in his duties, but during the exhibition itself was several times at his post up to the early hours of the morning. I never knew a man more earnest and painstaking in his work than Mr. Porter and his strenuous services are well worthy of special recognition.

The same can be safely said of Mr. Walter H. Golding, your publicity agent, who proved himself on all occasions bright, clever and far-seeing. Than Mr. Taylor, the superintendent of buildings, you could not possibly have anybody more efficient, ever careful and obliging. In short I came to regard him as a perfect wonder for his untiring energy and patient industry. There are others for whom I should like to say a word but where all did so well it would be prolonging this report to make any further special mention.

An Orderly Crowd.
As to the orderliness that prevailed throughout, those in authority must best judge, but it is probable that Chief Clark and Mr. Taylor will testify that the absence of anything of a disrupting nature was marvellous. The fatality to the poor boy Brundage

St. Johns to Try Again Miss Thomson Out of Running The Harvester In 2.01 Flat

THE HARVESTER MAKES IT 2.01

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 22.—To the track that for 9 years held the stallion trotting championship because of the 2.02 1/4 mile made by Crescenzo, came back the title today when the Harvester won a mile in 2.01 flat, and thereby took a quarter of a second of the time he made last week at Syracuse.

champion was sent away rushing and went the first quarter in 29 1/2 seconds. Over on the back stretch one runner became a trailer. The second quarter was stepped in 30 seconds, in the third there was but slight slackening and the time for it was 30 1/4 seconds. A final quarter in 31 1/4 seconds made the mile a winning time for The Harvester had started to beat 2.01 1/4. Bervald, Major Brino and Manuella won the regular events of the card. Bervald was favorite over all the other 2.12 trotters but dropped the first heat to George Todd. May Day, the first choice in the 2.05 pace, was distanced by Major Brin in the second heat when she made a stand-still break going away. Maconda was expected to win the special pace but was second three times to Manuella.

WANDERER IS KILLED ON HIS WAY HOME

Arlington Boy Found Dead Under Car After Long Absence from Home-Pathetic Story of Wandering.

South Weymouth, Sept. 21.—The insatiable wanderer that drove 17-year-old Leo F. Ford from his home and parents last December. They brought him to an untimely end in Hartford yesterday morning, when his body was pulled out from underneath a pile of lumber in a freight car, the skull crushed.

On the body was found a letter from Attorney Walter Cronin of 101 Milk street, Boston, containing this message: "Men on your track will never stop till they get you, unless somebody interferes in your behalf." This mysterious message went on to advise the boy to come to the lawyer's office, where help was awaiting him.

Feared Foul Play.

When the Hartford police read the note they feared the boy was the victim of foul play and immediately set to work to unravel the mystery.

Attorney Cronin, who is one of the general counsel of the Boston Elevated Railway, when asked to explain the hidden threat in the message, declared he was a neighbor of the boy's grandmother, and to assuage her grief over her wandering grandson had tried to frighten the boy to return home.

"There is no charge of any sort against the boy as the report might indicate," said Attorney Cronin. "As the boy was only 17 years old his mother wished him to live at home, and my letter was sent simply to bring about that result."

He regretted the ambiguous meaning of the letter which advised the boy to return to his office before he went home, and it was this seeming contradiction which set the Hartford police inquiring as to the boy's habits and wanderings.

Was On Way Home.

From the position of the body found and the condition of the clothes, it was inferred that the boy had traveled as a tramp to escape the pursuit he evidently thought was being made for him. He had crawled into the freight car somewhere on his way home to his mother and found a sheltered space beneath a pile of lumber and the walls of the car.

But somewhere on the road the jolting of the train had loosened the lumber and pinned the boy helpless where he slept.

He was found in a corner of the car with a pile of lumber above him, his skull crushed in such a manner that death must have been instantaneous.

Leo Ford's mother was informed of her son's death last yesterday afternoon and is prostrated. The boy's father immediately left for Hartford to bring back the body to South Weymouth.

Started to See the World.

Young Ford in company with Frank Healy, another local lad, left home last December day to see the world. They journeyed as far as Boston together, where Healy remained.

Ford had set his heart on making Richmond, Va., and tried to get Healy to accompany him, even going so far as to buy two tickets. But Healy returned to his home and Ford went on alone.

During his wanderings he wrote to his mother continually and kept her posted on his whereabouts. She received a letter from him two months ago. At that time he wrote he was about to come home.

But the next letter was from Texas where he had come with the money he had written he was saving for the trip home.

Sang in the Choir.

Mrs. Ford was expecting her son home any day.

Ford always bore the best of reputations about his home town. He was a choir boy in one of the local churches until two years ago. He was not wanted by any of the authorities for any crime, the only people who wanted him were his father, mother and grandmother, and they have been making every effort to get the boy to give up his wanderings and return home.

GAYNOR TELLS OF SHOOTING

New York's Mayor Felt Terrible Metallic Roar in Head and Choking Sensation--Not Afraid to Die.

New York, Sept. 21.—In a copy-written article, the Evening Post prints a letter sent by Mayor William J. Gaynor to his sister, Miss Mary E. Gaynor of Utica, telling of his impressions at the time he was shot on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. The mayor says that he has not read a line of what has been published of the shooting, nor does he now remember the name of the man who shot him. Going over the incidents of the shooting, Mayor Gaynor wrote:

I was standing on the deck talking with Commissioners Thompson, Lederle, Edwards, Corporation Counsel Watson, my secretary, Robert Adams, son, and several friends, who had come to see me off. Mr. Montt, president of Chile, and Mrs. Montt, had just passed by, and I had spoken a few words with them. Mr. Thompson picked out the ship that was dressed with flags for me, but I said that I did not think it could be for me. My next consciousness was of a terrible metallic roar in my head. It filled my head, which seemed as though it would burst open.

It swelled to the highest pitch and then fell, and then rose again, and so alternated until it subsided into a continuous buzz. It was sickening but my stomach did not give way. I was meanwhile entirely sightless.

I do not think I fell, for when I became conscious I was on my feet. I suppose they saved me from falling, and they were supporting me. My sight gradually returned so that after a while I could see the deck and the outlines of the crowd around me. I became conscious that I was choking. Blood was coming from my mouth and I tried all I could to swallow, and then knew my throat was hurt. It seemed as though it were dislocated. I struggled to breathe through my mouth but could not and thought I was dying of strangulation. I kept thinking all the time the best thing to do.

Not Afraid to Die.

I was not a bit afraid to die if that was God's will for me. I was not my usual self as well as a few years. I had ceased walking over the Brooklyn Bridge.

Mayor Gaynor, in the letter, scored certain newspapers for the manner in which they had attacked him, saying: "Such journalism, in of course, in absolute defiance of the criminal law, and it did not enter my mind to publicly call on the grand jury and the district attorney to protect me from it, but I was weak and fearsome people would say I was thin-skinned. But the time is at hand when these journalistic scoundrels have got to stop or get out, and I am ready now to do my share in that end. They are absolutely without souls. If decent people would refuse to look at such newspapers the thing would right itself at once. The journalism of New York city has been dragged to the lowest level of journalism. The grossest vailleries and libels, instead of honest statements and fair discussion, have gone on unchecked. One cannot help sympathizing with the decent newspapers from now. No one who contemplates the immensity of Almighty God, and of His universe and His works, and realizes what an atom he is in it all, can fear to die in this flesh, yes, even though I were true that he is to be dissolved forever into the infinity of matter and mind from which he came. In some way I happened to close my mouth tight, and found I breathed perfectly through my nose. I then believed I could keep from smothering. But I kept choking and my mouth kept opening to cast out the blood.

Though the thing had not entered my head that morning, I was not surprised when I realized that I was shot. I had had a feeling for some weeks that I might be assaulted on account of the anonymous threats I was getting by mail. I had not received so many nor so regularly since I was opposing the ring corruptions and the McKane conditions in Brooklyn and Gravesend when I was a young man.

MASONIC FUNERAL FOR R. HUTCHINSON

Kent County Barrister Laid to Rest Monday Afternoon-- Marriage of A. D. Irving of Buctouche.

Corsets

Hygienic and Comfortable, Supporting the Figure Perfectly and Imparting a Modish Swing to the Gown.

Outside the difference in material, trimmings and hose supporters, all corsets look pretty much alike.

But there is a vital reason for all things in corset construction, otherwise corset making would not be the science it is today—evidenced by the fact that the corset designer can and does absolutely change the physical appearance of a woman's figure.

That our corsets are decidedly out of the ordinary is plainly evident by the comfort they give, the way they wear, the hygienic support they give the figure, and the modish swing they give to the gown.

SUCCEED IN FLOATING

SCHR. J. M. HARLOW

Wakefield, R. I. Sept. 21.—The three masted schooner J. M. Harlow lumber laden from Tremont, Me. for New York, which went ashore last night on Watch Hill Reef, was floated at high tide tonight and proceeded to New London in tow of the two tugs which hauled her off. The Harlow's cargo of lumber had been jettisoned during the day. While she is leaking somewhat as the result from the strain of grounding, it is believed the schooner sustained no serious damage.

BLOOD WILL TELL!

The Complexion Faithfully Mirrors Its Purity or Impurity

Massage, cosmetics and the like sometimes improve a good complexion, and occasionally mitigate the badness of a bad one. But there is only one way to get that clear, satin skin, with the rosy tint of health glowing through, and that is by keeping the blood pure.

Impure blood will show itself. It makes the skin "muddy" or sallow, with pimples, blackheads or boils breaking out. It takes away the clearness from the eye, coats the tongue, makes the breath bad. It saps the energies and brings on headaches. It is fatal to good health or to the highest happiness or usefulness.

Purifying the blood is simply a question of keeping the four great eliminating organs—bowels, kidneys, the pores of the skin and the lungs—in good working order. These organs should throw off all the worn-out tissue and other impurities which the blood is continually gathering up throughout the body, and all the waste matter from the food.

The failure of any or all of them to perform these functions should be remedied at once, and it can be, quickly and certainly, by the use of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. One of the ingredients of these splendid Pills open up the pores of the skin, another regulates the bowels, a third gives ease and strength to the kidneys and a fourth clears the mucus membrane of the lungs so that the gaseous impurities in the blood can pass freely through into the air.

Thus whatever may be the cause of the impure blood, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills remove it, and soon the veins are filled with pure, red, life-giving fluid.

Then, and only then, will you have a clear eye, a clean tongue, a sweet breath and a perfect complexion.

Mr. Richard Wilson, of Middlesex Co., Ont., writes:

"For some time I have been in a low and depressed condition. My appetite left me and I soon began to suffer from indigestion. Quite a number of small sores and blotches formed all over my skin. I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointment, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood. At last Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was purified in a very short time, sores healed up, my indigestion vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy."

The Commuters' Refreshing Comedy

By W. G. Shepherd.

"The Commuters," four months old, reached the Criterion theatre via Chicago, Boston, Washington and Saratoga, and immediately was a hit. Of course it would be; James Forbes, its author, is the man who wrote "The Chorus Lady" and "The Travelling Salesman," and he always misses, by a mile or more, the shilly-shally stagey effects of the school of Broadway loungers who have lately been furnishing many of the plays to America. Maybe one reason is that Forbes isn't a Broadway lounge; another reason is that he can draw human beings as they really are.

The play is about folks in a suburban district, who worry about cooks, cherish their lawns more highly than their parlors, read garden magazines, study bulbs, go to church and kick on train service. You see husbands who rush for the trains, match samples for their wives in the city, bring home garden tools, sometimes miss a train, stay in town all night and boast to their friends of the funny sayings of their children. You see wives who have a Minerva club and talk woman's independence, but leave a matinee in its midst to get home in time to have dinner ready; who tell each other about the virtues and failings of their husbands, and who are altogether homey and natural.

Sammy Fletcher, a bachelor from the city, is brought out to this neighborhood one night by some of the married men. In their attempt to get Sammy drunk they stay out late and get themselves drunk, but the wives blame Sammy. Sammy, to shield the husbands, takes the blame on himself and after the tangles between husbands and wives, which last two days, are straightened out, Sammy, just as the church bells are ringing and the husbands and wives are coming forth from their various homes in the neighborhood to go to church, makes a dash for the 10.10 Sunday morning train, shouting:

"Oh, you Broadway!"
Taylor Holmes, as "Sammy," makes his first hit as a comedian. May De Sousa, as the wife of the commuter who brings "Sammy" to his home, helps the piece greatly. Some others who do good work are Lowell Sherman, George Laurence, Mrs. Pauline Duffield, George Soule Spencer, John Cumberland, E. Y. Backus, Madge Knowlton, Amy Lesser, Isabelle Fen-ton, Adelyn Wesley and Lillian Thurgate.

WEDDINGS.

Fairweather-Seely.
Hampton, Kings County, Sept. 22.—Last evening at Lower Norton English church, the rector, Rev. Canon C. P. Hamilton officiated at the marriage of Miss Charlotte Ella Seely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Seely of Lower Norton, to Mr. Leonard Fairweather, of Central Norton. The church was tastefully decorated with a golden rod, maiden hair ferns, and autumn foliage. The wedding, although intended to be a strictly family affair, was attended by a large number of interested friends, who were ushered to seats by Carl Seely and Norman Fairweather.

The bride was costumed in white silk with bridal veil and carried a handsome bouquet of white sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Seely, bridesmaid, and her niece, Miss Marion Jeffrey, acted as flower girl. The groom was attended by Harold Fairweather as groomsmen. At the close of the ceremony the organist, Miss Hanington, played the bridal march from Lohengrin. The party retired to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held and refreshments were served. The newly wedded couple left for St. John by the 8.30 train, and this morning crossed the bay to Nova Scotia, for a tour of a week or ten days, when they will return and take up their residence at Central Norton.

Gunter Colwell.
A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. B. R. Colwell, 125 Victoria street, when Andrew L. Gunter of White's Cove, Queens Co., was united in marriage to Stella Maud, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Colwell of Lower Cambridge, N. B. The bride was charmingly attired in a dress of cream silk voile with net bodice and sleeves, with silk embroidered trimmings. There were no attendants. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Townsend, a former pastor, and close friend of the contracting parties.

Afterwards the numerous guests sat down to a dainty banquet repast. The wedding trip will comprise an extended tour in Upper Canada. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue broad cloth, with hat to match. Among the many costly and beautiful presents were checks from the bridegroom and the bride's parents.

Corbett—Scribner.
The residence of R. P. Scribner, Dan's Road, Queens Co., was the scene of a very pretty house wedding on Wednesday, Sept. 21st, when his daughter, Margaret, was united in holy wedlock by the Rev. R. W. Colston, rector of the parish to Mr. John S. Corbett of St. John. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents. The happy couple intend spending a honeymoon among their many friends in Peterborough.

Fleming—Magone.
At the Sacred Heart Church, Norton, on Wednesday, Sept. 14, Mr. James Fleming, of Norton, was united in marriage to Miss Lena Magone, of St. John. Miss Mary Carle, of St. John, was bridesmaid, and a brother of the bride was best man.

Stewart—Lavender.
Albert T. Stewart and Miss Soper Lavender were married Tuesday evening by Rev. G. D. Milberry at the home of the minister. The couple will live at 70 City road.

Preserving Grapes for next Winter

By Cynthia Grey.

This old way to keep grapes fresh for winter use is said to be one of the best, and it surely is easily done. The bunches should be picked only on a warm day, and laid in a cool, dark place for at least three days. Then place in pasteboard boxes. Between each layer place a single thickness of newspaper. Do not put more than three layers in each box. Then place in a cool, dry place—not the cellar, for the dampness will cause mold and decay.

Unfermented Grape Juice.
Take one quart ripe Concord grapes and pick from stems, wash, add one quart of water and cook till very soft. Then mash and press through a strainer covered with a double thickness of cheese-cloth. Allow one cup white sugar to each quart of juice. Let this boil up once on the fire, after the sugar has dissolved, and bottle at once. Have bottles hot when you pour in the boiling juice.

Leaves Money for Aged Women's Home
Portland, Maine, Sept. 21.—By the will of the late Mary T. Stetson, filed for probate today, the residue of her estate after some small bequests, to relatives is left for the purpose of establishing a home for aged women in Brunswick. No inventory of her estate was filed and it is not known how much the bequest will amount to.

Spiced Grapes.
Squeeze pulps from skins of 11 pounds of grapes. Scald pulps until seeds separate from them, then put through colander, and throw away seeds. Place pulp and skins in a porcelain kettle with one quart strong vinegar, six pounds sugar, two table-spoonfuls ground cinnamon, one table-spoonful each cloves and allspice. Boil one and one-half hours, stirring frequently to prevent burning. This quantity will make a gallon when done and is good with cold meats. Place in a stone jar with cloth and paper tied over.

Grape Jelly.
Use grapes that are not quite ripe. Remove the stems and wash and drain. Mash until they are all broken, then boil ten minutes. Drain through a cheesecloth and flannel, but do not squeeze if you want jelly clear. Measure juice and put in a granite kettle. Put the same measure of sugar into a large bowl. Boil juice ten minutes, remove scum as fast as it forms, then pour the boiling juice into the sugar, stir quickly remove the froth and as soon as the sugar is dissolved pour it into the glasses.

Raisins.
Take an equal weight of pears and grapes. Cook grapes in a little water until soft, then press through a colander to remove seeds. Add pears, cor-ded and sliced, and simmer until thick, stirring almost constantly. When thick sweeten to taste, scald after the sugar is in, then strain through a colander, reheat, and can.

Wild Grape Jelly.
Pick over grapes, stem and wash. Put into kettle, heat, mash, and boil 20 minutes. Strain through jelly bag, measure, bring to boiling point, and boil five minutes. Add an equal measure of heated sugar, boil three minutes, skin and pour into glasses.

Catsup.
Wash sour grapes, stem and put into kettle with very little water. Stir often and cook until soft. Put through colander. Measure pulp, and to three pints fruit add a pound of brown sugar, a cup white vinegar, a teaspoon each of ground cinnamon, allspice, mace, salt and white pepper, and one-half teaspoon ground cloves. Boil until reduced to less than half. When cold, bottle and seal.

CONCERNING HEALTH AND BEAUTY

By MRS. HENRY SYMES

"WHAT in the world are the children going to do with the drums, guns and caps which are given them at Christmas?" I hear you ask. And I make haste to answer, before those very toys will be destroyed in careless play.

Make these toys the pleasurable instruments of nursery drills. It will not require very much of your holiday time to "discipline" your little troops, and there is great satisfaction in the knowledge that, while playing, the soldiers are exercising their muscles, and are learning a precision and absolute obedience which will help long after these toys are no more.

I have never yet met children who will not enter into this drill with astonishing enthusiasm, and little girls are just as good soldier boys as their brothers.

To drum beat let the company march into line. With heels together, chests high and heads erect, give the first command. "Order—arms!" should be obeyed on the minute. They must drop the butt end of the rifle immediately after the last word is called.

"Right shoulder—arms!" brings into play the arm muscles, as does the command, "Port—arms!" Each little one must learn the exact angle of the stock when this is given. The rifle crosses diagonally, pointing to the left. A quickness of the wrist muscles can be tested in a change from one of these former positions to "Present—arms!" As the correct carrying of the gun is secured, the body must be faced by a pivot turning of the feet.

The bayonet exercise is a forward lunge and a raising of the rifle. The best of muscle strength is given in the increased amount of time that the children can keep this position. You will notice the difference in five or six lessons.

To bring the chest and back into play a "firing line" may be imagined. The soldiers flatten out on the ground and raise their rifles as if to shoot. This is great fun.

As a final exercise, the salute is extremely good. In marching the knees must be raised about to the waist line. This is an excellent step for waist and thigh muscles.

The best part about this drill is that it is played in a most beneficial form. Ten minutes each day will give great results, and after a few days of drilling you will bless Uncle Bob for giving the warlike weapons to the little ones.

A Bayonet Exercise

proves unsatisfactory. You had better go to a first-class hairdresser, for she will be thoroughly acquainted with the process, and can change your hair to the color you desire.

Ecema

Answers to Beauty Queries

OWING to the great amount of mail received and the limited space given this department, it is absolutely impossible to answer letters in the Sunday issue following their receipt. The letters must be answered in turn, and this oftentimes requires three or four weeks.

All correspondents who desire an immediate answer must inclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. This rule must also be complied with in regard to personal letters.

Correct Measurements
Dear Mrs. Symes: Are my measurements correct? I am 14 years old, height 5 feet 3 inches, weight 105 pounds, bust 34 inches, waist 24 inches, and hips 34 inches.

Your measurements are not correct, for your bust should be larger and your weight heavier. However, you are very young, and your body has not had time to develop properly.

Physician's Advice Necessary
To Anxious Mother—It is impossible for me to print your letter, owing to the nature of the trouble you mention, but let me say that you should take the subject before your family physician.

To Develop the Legs
Dear Mrs. Symes: My advanced exercise to develop the calves of the legs. I could never understand why mine do not properly respond. I am 24 years old and otherwise healthy. Can you tell me what to do? Probably a massage with cocoa butter or some other good skin food is necessary in connection with the exercise to build up the tissues of the legs.

Blackheads
Dear Mrs. Symes: I have been noted for my clear skin, and you know what it was to have pimples or blackheads, but I have been using a cream which I have seen advertised in a magazine. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using it for some time, but it does not seem to help. PAULINE P.

Using Peroxide
Dear Mrs. Symes: Can you tell me what to use with peroxide to make the hair a light or golden color? I never like to advise any one to bleach her hair, for the results usually every night before retiring, wash your face with lukewarm water, using a pure soap to thoroughly cleanse the pores. Thoroughly dry the skin and apply the lotion made according to the following formula:

Headaches and Quinsy
Dear Mrs. Symes: I am a boy 15 years of age, and am bothered with headaches very much. Would you help me find relief? Also, can you tell me anything for quinsy? H. A. R.

Massage for Bust and Arms
Dear Mrs. Symes: Can you give me a massage for the bust and arms and small bust. How massaging the bust? Massage your bust and arms every day with cocoa butter. If the bust is not massaged carefully and gently, there will be no cancer growth. Any exercise which brings the arms into play will help to develop them.

Green Soap Treatment for Blackheads
Dear Mrs. Symes: I have a great deal of blackheads on my face. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using a cream which I have seen advertised in a magazine. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using it for some time, but it does not seem to help. PAULINE P.

Correct Proportions
Dear Mrs. Symes: I would like to know if my proportions are correct. My height is 5 feet 3 inches, bust 34 inches, waist 24 inches, and hips 34 inches. I wear my dress about an inch below my waistline. Is that length all right? Will you please tell me what color you think I might wear? I have very dark brown eyes, black hair, and quite a little complexion. I have always worn a great deal of navy blue and maroon. I dislike brown or tan very much. MILDRED L.

A Nursery Drill with Christmas

Dear Mrs. Symes: I have a great deal of blackheads on my face. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using a cream which I have seen advertised in a magazine. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using it for some time, but it does not seem to help. PAULINE P.

Present Arms!
shades of pink should be becoming to you.

Eyebrow and Eyelash Stain
Dear Mrs. Symes: I kindly give me the recipe for an eyebrow and eyelash stain. Have heard of the Chinese stain and would like you to tell me how to apply it. If any of it gets around the eyebrows, will soap and water take it off. How often is it to be applied?

Expenses Incurred
Dear Mrs. Symes: Please tell me what would be charged to my bill, seven large moles removed by electrolysis. I do not know what the charge would be, as each operator has his own price.

Superfluous Hair
Dear Mrs. Symes: I am troubled with superfluous hair on my face. Would the use ofcelandine leaves remove them permanently, or would it cause the hair to grow thicker? My hair has also grown too far down on my forehead, and seems to be getting closer to my eyebrows. Could I apply the same recipe for the hair?

To Reduce Flesh
Dear Mrs. Symes: I tell me a way to get rid of flesh? I hate to be fat. ANXIOUS.

Too Thin
Dear Mrs. Symes: I am in distress and think you can help me. I am so thin that people call me "willow." I would like something that would build me up.

For Whitening the Skin—A Liquid Powder
Dear Mrs. Symes: I have a great deal of blackheads on my face. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using a cream which I have seen advertised in a magazine. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using it for some time, but it does not seem to help. PAULINE P.

Orange-Flower Cream
Dear Mrs. Symes: I have a great deal of blackheads on my face. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using a cream which I have seen advertised in a magazine. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using it for some time, but it does not seem to help. PAULINE P.

To Gain a Pretty Throat
Dear Mrs. Symes: Is there anything which will make my throat pretty? It is thin and has a very ugly outline. Whenever I speak, there are so many little wrinkles. I have a very nice complexion, but I am a little thin. I am 18 years old, height 5 feet 3 inches, bust 34 inches, waist 24 inches, and hips 34 inches.

Correct Proportions
Dear Mrs. Symes: I would like to know if my proportions are correct. My height is 5 feet 3 inches, bust 34 inches, waist 24 inches, and hips 34 inches. I wear my dress about an inch below my waistline. Is that length all right? Will you please tell me what color you think I might wear? Dear Mrs. Symes: I have a great deal of blackheads on my face. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using a cream which I have seen advertised in a magazine. Can you tell me what to do? I have been using it for some time, but it does not seem to help. PAULINE P.

Correct Proportions
Dear Mrs. Symes: I would like to know if my proportions are correct. My height is 5 feet 3 inches, bust 34 inches, waist 24 inches, and hips 34 inches. I wear my dress about an inch below my waistline. Is that length all right? Will you please tell me what color you think I might wear? I have very dark brown eyes, black hair, and quite a little complexion. I have always worn a great deal of navy blue and maroon. I dislike brown or tan very much. MILDRED L.

Order Arms!

dantly, but never to excess. Before each meal take one tablespoonful of olive oil. Following is the recipe for curling iron, which will not hurt the hair if used in the proper way.

To Make the Hair Curl
Potassium carbonate ..... 10 grains
Ammonia water ..... 1 fluid dram
Alcohol ..... 1 fluid dram
In using, moisten the hair, adjust it loosely, and it will curl upon drying.

To Increase the Height
Dear Mrs. Symes: Please tell me an exercise to take that will make me taller. I am 21 years old and am only 5 feet tall. Will vaseline make the eyelashes grow? Stretching exercises taken two or three times a day will increase your height. Rise on your toes and stretch the tips of your fingers as far toward the ceiling as they will go, then bring your hands down so that the tips of the fingers will touch the floor. Keep both knees straight all the while. Vaseline will increase the growth of eyelashes, but be sure you get the very best brand, so that if any should accidentally get into the eyes no harm will be done.

ADVICE ON SOCIAL CUSTOMS

Miss Chester Adams
"most cordially invited her friends" to bring her their Social Problems and perplexities by letter, any time.

THE WEDDING GUEST
IN THE capacity of a guest at a wedding there are certain things which are expected of you.

When you have dressed in suitable attire, plan your arrival at either home or church so that at least five minutes will elapse before the ceremony.

During a church wedding never let ill-bred curiosity rob you of a dignity and repose of manner. All ill-bred whispering or foolish changing of places to secure a better view very quickly places a guest beyond the pale of good manners.

After the ceremony no guest should attempt to leave his place until every one of the bridal party has passed down the aisle. The guests should slowly pass out as from any church service. At the conclusion of the ceremony those who are invited to the reception should proceed directly to the home of the bride's parents.

Women lay aside their wraps and should greet the bride and groom. Good wishes for her future happiness should be extended to the bride; congratulations should be offered to the groom on his good fortune. It is the latter who receives congratulations, not the bride.

A few clever, well-turned words are necessary; do not monopolize the couple, whose duty it is to receive many others.

To the true hostess of the occasion, the mother of the bride, a word of greeting should be given. It is not necessary for guests to remain any length of time at the reception.

Before departing cards should be left, one for your host and one for your hostess.

The thought that each guest can contribute to an enjoyable time and relieve the bride of any thought of the affairs of the day should always guide the actions of wedding guests. There is an excellent opportunity for displaying good breeding or the lack of it at the wedding reception. Bear in mind the fact, my friends, when you attend this enjoyable function.

happiness follow their advice, for I am sure they will ask you to be better able to think about such a serious subject.

THE WEATHER.

MARITIME—Moderate winds, fine and cool. Toronto, Ont., Sept. 22.—Showers have occurred today in the vicinity of Lake Superior, but elsewhere in Canada the weather has been fair and for the most part cooler.

Table with 2 columns: City, Min. Max. Rows include Winnipeg, Port Arthur, Parry Sound, London, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, Halifax.

Boston, Sept. 22.—Forecast for Boston and vicinity: Friday fair; Saturday unsettled, probably followed by showers, cooler Saturday; light variable winds.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Weather forecast: The western disturbance is steadily advancing eastward, but east of the Mississippi with the exception of the western lake region, clear weather now prevails.

AROUND THE CITY

Delayed Traffic. Yesterday afternoon a wagon loaded with lumber broke down on Union street and the traffic on the street was delayed for some time.

Concert at Fairville. Lodge No. 20 L. O. A. held a concert in Fairville last night, and there was a large attendance. An excellent literary and musical programme was provided and the affair was greatly enjoyed.

Pay Night at the Army. Non-commissioned officers and men of E. Company, 62d Sault Ste. Marie, (Capt. Peters), will meet at their armory this evening, 23rd inst., at eight o'clock, for the return of uniforms and equipment and receive drill pay.

Getting Better. Wallace Parks, the young man who had an arm amputated in a Sussex mill a few days ago, was resting easily at the General Public Hospital last night. Mrs. Kenneth Kerr, the woman who was thrown from the third story window by her insane husband, one night last week, was able to leave the hospital yesterday.

Beer Violation Case. Yesterday afternoon in the police court Mrs. James McLaughlin, the proprietress of the Do Drop in restaurant on Market Square, was charged by Policeman Silas Perry with selling beer in her shop on Sunday contrary to the law. The defendant pleaded not guilty and was defended by E. S. Ritchie. The case was adjourned until next Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Charles Diggs Overcome. Yesterday afternoon the police were called to Duke street to look after a man who had all the appearance of being dead. Policeman Ross answered the call and found the man to be Charles Diggs, the well known colored man who travels about the city selling matches, shoe blacking and other commodities. Diggs was dead drunk and with the assistance of a young man the policeman dragged the weary traveller to the Water street lockup.

W. E. McIntyre Home. William E. McIntyre has returned from a two months' trip through Western Canada, which he made in the interests of McCallum's Perfection Scotch. He was accompanied by Mr. C. E. Willis, export manager for D. & J. McCallum. The two went right through to the coast and Mr. McIntyre was deeply impressed with the rapid development and the brilliant prospects of the west. He was also impressed with the business possibilities, but although his trip was a most successful one he has no intention of forsaking St. John.

New Theatre. The Bijou theatre on Union street near the corner of Union and Charlotte streets, will be re-opened by Robert W. Carson, on Monday next, and will in the future be known as the Cecil theatre. Mr. Carson has had a gang of carpenters and painters at work on the theatre and the place has been thoroughly renovated. When opened to the public it should be one of the brightest and most cozy places of amusement in the city. The staff in charge of the theatre have been especially selected to look after the comfort of its patrons. Mr. Carson intends putting on the best pictures the film manufacturers produce.

Recovered $90.00. Yesterday afternoon in the police court there was a civil suit where George Carvill brought suit against John Bartley for a sum owing for carpets and linoleum. Mr. Carvill gave evidence that he had sold the goods to Bartley and had made a reduction in their value. Daniel Mullin, K.C., gave evidence that he had written to Bartley regarding the claim and had received no answer and later on Bartley had told him that he was unable to pay the claim. The defendant went on the stand and stated that he had never purchased or offered to pay for the articles in question. The plaintiff gave evidence of having sold the goods to Bartley and having never received the amount due. Judge Ritchie took up the matter of credibility and gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $90. As Mr. Mullin was a witness Dr. L. A. Murray conducted the case for the plaintiff.

A new line of G. B. hand made creams, just opened at White's, King street.

G. C. COSSAR PLANS GREATER THINGS FOR SCOTCH BOYS

Young Scotch Philanthropist Will Spend Some Time in New Brunswick Looking After Farm on Which Boys are Trained—Aims to Build Up Big Stock Farm at Gagetown.

G. A. Cossar, the young Scotchman, who has started a movement to bring out unattached and homeless boys in the Old Country, and train them to become useful citizens of Canada, was in the city yesterday.

"Altogether, I have brought out about 40 boys so far," he said to the Standard. "About 20 are now on the farm at Gagetown and the rest have been placed with farmers in various parts of the country. So far the experiment has proceeded fairly satisfactory, though there is some difficulty in placing the boys for the winter months. The farmers are glad enough to get the boys in summer, but I'm afraid they are rather loathe to pay them anything in winter—not what the boys are worth, at any rate. That is one great drawback at present."

Plans Live Stock Farm. "The farm at Gagetown, I hope, will be made to pay before long. My idea is to develop a first class stock farm. On the farm in Scotland, I have a lot of thoroughbred stock, and I planned on bringing out some good breeders this year, but owing to the cattle embargo I was unable to do so. "As yet we haven't much of a farm at Gagetown, but the manager whom I engaged recently—a man from Ontario—tells me that it can be made as productive as any place in Ontario. I intend to stop out here a while and try to get things in shape.

"Scotch people are showing great interest in Canada, and I am glad to learn that many are locating in Eastern Canada. The West has been so well advertised that it is the goal of nearly everybody—even my boys want to go west. But I think the chances are as good here for a poor man. Some of my boys have already picked out the farms they intend to buy when they save money enough."

There are hundreds of thousands of boys in the Old Country who don't fit in anywhere, who would make a success of life in this country. The waste of life there is awful. One man can't do much, but a little systematic organization would enable thousands of boys to be rescued from the unfair conditions of the Old Land, and trained to become useful citizens of Canada.

SUICIDE CAUSE OF TRAPPER'S DEATH

Coroner Berryman Makes This Decision After Viewing Body Yesterday—Sight Most Horrible One to Witness.

Coroner D. E. Berryman went to the Gilles Crossing on the Lepreau road yesterday morning and viewed the remains of the trapper, John Simms, who committed suicide by shooting himself. When the coroner returned about noon he stated to a Standard reporter that in all his life he never witnessed a more terrible sight than when he entered the hut that the trapper had occupied.

The trapper was seated on a bench between his feet which were covered with moccasins was a double barreled shot gun, which had been the cause of his death. The coroner said that he had no doubt but that Simms had committed suicide and it appeared that he had placed the barrel of the gun under his chin and had pulled the trigger with his foot. The charge had entered under the chin and the entire face had been blown off. The brains and the flesh from the face had been scattered about the walls of the hut and the sight was a most horrible one to witness.

The hut in which the hermit had lived was only about twelve feet square, and was in a filthy condition. Simms had very little to do with any person and for the past five or six years has made his living with shooting and trapping game.

Communication has been made with some relatives in Nova Scotia and Coroner Berryman has decided that an inquest is unnecessary. He has given permission to the special constable to take charge of the body and notified the Alms House commissioners to arrange for the burial.

CATCH SUSPECT IN FARE BOX ROBBERY

Policeman Semple Arrested Bert Higgins on Warrant Last Evening—Charged With Stealing Box from Car.

A daring robbery took place at Indiantown on Wednesday evening when the fare box was stolen from a street car. The car had only stopped at Indiantown and the fare box was hanging on a hook on one end of the car, when the thief entered the car and stole the box with its contents.

When the car started the conductor was unable to find his box and suspicion rested on Bert Higgins who was seen about the car on its arrival. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Higgins and Policeman Semple found the man on Main street last evening. The case will be commenced in the police court this morning.

PROGRESS MADE WITH T. AND L. CONGRESS

Central Committee Chosen at Enthusiastic Meeting Held Last Evening—Labor as Factor in Politics Discussed.

At a meeting of representatives of the local labor unions held in the Old Longshoremen's Hall last evening, the question of forming a trades and labor council was discussed at length and a motion to report to the local unions in favor of this movement was adopted unanimously. About 30 delegates representing more than 1500 organized workmen were present and the meeting was very enthusiastic.

All the delegates expressed themselves strongly in favor of the formation of a central body, agreeing that since the old council had lapsed nearly two years ago, the labor movement had made no progress. Some discussion took place along the line of independent political action on the part of the workers, and the opinion was freely expressed that by bringing the influence of labor to bear upon the city council many reforms could be secured calculated to promote the interests of the workers.

Unfortunately the president of the old council was not present and the delegates were without some information as to the status of the old charter received from the trades and labor congress of Canada. Chas. Jones, of the carpenters' union was elected temporary chairman, and A. Dever, of the pressmen, secretary. The old longshoremen, the carpenters and joiners, bricklayers and masons, printers, pressmen, painters, sheet metal workers and other unions were represented. Some discussion took place on the question of seating delegates from the unions affiliated with the Canadian Federation of Labor so-called, but the matter was not definitely decided.

Another meeting will be held on Thursday evening, Oct. 6, when the delegates will present credentials from their unions and select officers.

MAY ASK SERVICES OF CITY FORESTER

Arboricultural Society Plans Active Campaign at Meeting Held Last Evening—To Plant 75 Trees This Fall.

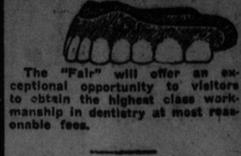

A meeting of the Arboricultural Society was held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon with Col. Geo. West Jones in the chair. It was decided to plant from 75 to 100 trees this fall. The dead trees in various sections of the city will be replaced, and new trees planted in Haymarket Square, at the foot of Garden street, and around the Square in Indiantown. Col. Jones stated that quite a number of citizens had signified their intention of planting trees in front of their residences, and helping in other ways to beautify the city.

Communications have been sent to the Hospital authorities requesting them to plant trees on Hospital Hill, and to the I. C. R. pointing out that trees planted in front of the station would effect a decided improvement. Next year the society plans to plant between 600 and 700 trees. If possible, it will secure the services of a city forester to supervise the work of planting and caring for the trees. Elms and maples will be planted this fall.

A movement will be inaugurated to induce proprietors to tear down all fences and railings in front of their residences, and where there are no lawns or gardens to give a touch of color to the street, to induce householders to introduce window gardens. The membership fee of the society is $2.

Return of Miss Knight. Miss Nora Knight, who was taken ill while in Europe and spent several weeks in the hospital at Copenhagen, reached the city today, coming via New York. She has not entirely recovered from the effects of the fever, but is rapidly regaining her usual health. Her sister, Miss Marjorie, who accompanied her on the trip, returned with her.
