

BRUTAL MURDER HALIFAX WOMAN

Mrs. Margaret Brown's Skull Crushed in by Sledge Hammer.

YOUNG SCOTCHMAN CHARGED WITH DEED

Victim Found Unconscious by Her Son, With Skull Horribly
Battered — Lived For Fifteen Hours.

Halifax, Mar. 8.—Mrs. Margaret Brown, a widow, aged fifty years, was murderously attacked with a sledge hammer in her home, 25 Billy street, early this morning and died of her injuries at the Victoria General Hospital last night. The woman's skull was frightfully crushed, but despite the terrible injuries, she lived about fifteen hours after being attacked. James Murphy, a young Scotchman, was arrested by the police and tomorrow morning he will have to face a charge of murder in the police court. Family troubles are alleged to be the cause of the crime. Murphy is said to have been married to a daughter of the dead woman.

Found With Skull Crashed in

About three o'clock on Sunday morning Geo. Brown, a son of the victim, who was in another room, heard strange sounds coming from the apartment in which his mother was. He went to the door and found his mother lying unconscious on a sofa with her skull crushed in several places. He at once called for assistance and medical aid and the police were at once summoned. The first physician who arrived bandaged the woman, and ordered her immediately removed to the hospital. She never regained consciousness, passing away at 3.30 o'clock tonight.

THE MAJORITY WILL BE CUT TO NINETEEN

By Death of Sir Geo. Ross and Senator Cox, With Appointment of Successors, Liberal Lead in Senate Reduced.

Ottawa, March 8.—It seems well assured that the Liberals will be able to retain a majority in the Senate during the whole of the present parliament. The standing in the Upper Chamber at present is—Liberals 13; Conservatives 22; vacancies 2. The two vacancies are caused by the death of Senator Cox and Sir George Ross. When the vacancies are filled the Liberal majority will be reduced to 10. However, there is a rumor in the lobby that the Senate will reject Mr. Borden's bill to give the writ of habeas corpus to the new members to which it is entitled.

When Mr. Borden became premier the composition of the Senate was: Liberals 6; Conservatives 19; vacancies 2; the Liberal majority being 47. Mr. Borden filled the two vacancies with Conservatives, leaving the Liberal majority 45. During the past two years 17 Senators have died, and thirteen of them being Liberals and four Conservatives, the Liberal majority is now reduced to 31. Their successors will make the majority 19.

THE SPRING RUSH OF NEW SETTLERS IS ON

Party of Sixty Children Sailed on Saturday For Canada.

ONTARIO ON THE LOOKOUT FOR MORE

Immigration Agents Are Looking More Particularly For People Who Will Settle on the Farms.

London, Mar. 8.—The spring emigration season opened on Saturday when a party of sixty-two children from Toronto, now in London has arranged for the steamer Canada in charge of Rev. Carroll Myers for Hamilton, Ont. The director explained that the children were mostly from good but unfortunate families, all of whom would be followed up on a systematic plan wherever placed.

Want The Farness

The Province of Quebec now has a man travelling throughout the island procuring men for the Eastern Townships farmers. All emigration agents emphasize the fact that they are not encouraging any but those who will settle on the land. Thomas Howell, commissioner of immigration for the Canadian Northern, said that he was confining his attention to agricultural and domestic workers. He is also organizing a party to attend the Buffalo Brotherhood Convention at Buffalo, which may, he thinks, mean that the 150 delegates will take good stock of Canada on their return.

Adam Scott, secretary of emigration for the National Council of the Y. M. C. A., states that the association is not acting as agents but is confining its attention to the welfare of emigrants by means of general advice. A new feature of the association's work will be an experiment in having trans-oceanic secretaries travel with the emigrants to organize sports, moving picture entertainments, lectures and language lessons for them. The scheme has succeeded on South American steamers.

Mr. Scott explained that a broad policy was adopted with regard to the religion of emigrants by encouraging them to keep in touch with their own church, whether Catholic, Protestant or Jew.

SIR CHARLES FITZPATRICK REPRESENTS BRITAIN

Great Britain Has Claims For Damages for Dewey's Action in Cutting Cable in Manila Bay.

Washington, Mar. 8.—Numerous cases of importance, involving questions of international law, are to be decided by the international tribunal of arbitration which begins its second session in Washington tomorrow at the Carnegie Institute. The commission, created by treaty to adjust all outstanding pecuniary claims between the United States and Great Britain is expected to hear argument on 26 cases, 10 American and 16 British, involving damages aggregating nearly $8,000,000.

Echo of Spanish-American War

Both America and Britain leaders have a number of claims growing out of the seizure of their vessels in Beating Sea and Canadian waters.

Dating back to the strenuous days of Paul Kruger, the claim of the American R. B. Brown for several million dollars worth of property in the Transvaal of which he is alleged to have been deprived by the last of the Boer presidents by the arbitrary method of altering the composition of the Supreme Court of the Republic, is held to have inherited its obligations as well as its possession. This question of state succession is one of much importance internationally.

Another fireman and two companions were lucky to escape the serious injury that befell the others when the auto, going down hill along Upper Laschme Road, averaged and crashed into a telephone pole. The chauffeur, A. Martin, has a broken leg and internal injuries; E. Desautels, all ribs on right side crushed in; and P. Hubert, a broken arm and internal injuries. DISCUSS THE CASE

Held Meeting at Hawkesbury
But Friends Refuse Invitation to Discuss the Matter
With Him.

Vankleek Hill, Ont., March 8.—Condemned by the leaders of the Liberal party in his native county of Prescott in a strongly worded resolution, and received coldly by the rank and file on account of his action in writing to use his influence in their behalf, Gustave Eventurel accepted the inevitable here Saturday afternoon and announced that he would resign his seat in the legislature on Tuesday, and decline so vociferously to stand for statement of the situation to the House.

There are thirty members on the Liberal Association executive of Prescott county, and there were twenty-two of them present at the meeting which sat in judgment on their provincial representative, and unanimously endorsed the action of the ruling powers at Toronto in ostracising him. Prior to adopting this resolution, the executive held a conference in private with Mr. Eventurel in the Vankleek Town Hall, when the M. L. A. announced his intention to resign. It was suggested that Mr. Eventurel might desire to make some public statement, and he at once went forward to the platform.

Leader Announces She Will

Gain Audience With King—
Request Refused.

London, March 8.—Militant suffragettes again engaged in a battle with the police today on their favorite field, Trafalgar Square, an din a pouring rain. The early this morning Sylvia Pankhurst for the sixth time under the "cat and mouse" law precipitated the conflict in addition to Miss Pankhurst seven women and three men were arrested. Among those taken into custody was Miss Emerson of Jackson, Mich.

Start for Government House.

The militants then surged toward the government buildings in White Hall with the suffrage banner borne aloft, but a cordon of mounted police barred their way. Some of the women assailed the police with short sticks, but the marchers were soon dispersed. Having received a refusal of an audience with King George in which it was proposed that a deputation from the Women's Social and Political Union should lay before him their claim for the vote and their complaint of "the medieval and barbarous methods of torture whereby your Majesty's ministers are seeking to oppress the women's revolt against their deprivation of citizens' rights," Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, has addressed another letter to the monarch. In this letter she declares her intention to lead a deputation to Buckingham Palace to see the King.

In reply to Mrs. Pankhurst's first letter to King George requesting an audience, the home office wrote her as follows: "The Secretary of State has laid your petition before the King, but he reports he has not been able to advise His Majesty to comply with the prayer contained in it." In her last letter to the King, Mrs. Pankhurst said: "We utterly deny the constitutional right of ministers, who have not been elected by women and are not responsible to them, to stand between ourselves and the throne to prevent us having an audience with your Majesty. I have the honor, therefore, respectfully to inform you that in pursuance of our undoubted constitutional right to petition the Sovereign person, I and other representatives of the Women's Social and Political Union will present ourselves at Buckingham Palace for the purpose of claiming an audience."

QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER

Most Successful Book Play Ever Written, at Opera House Tonight

There was much discussion in regard to dramatizing "Quincy Adams Sawyer" between the publishers and both those who did and those who did not the dramatization.

The results since the play has been before the public have proved the wisdom of their holding to their views.

Next to Consumption.

There Are No More Deaths From PNEUMONIA Than Any Other Lung Trouble.

Pneumonia is nothing more or less than what used to be called "inflammation of the lungs."

Consumption may be contracted from others, but as a rule pneumonia is caused by exposure to cold and wet, and there is only one way to prevent pneumonia and that is to cure one cold on its first appearance.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will do this for you if you will only take it in time.

Mrs. Wm. M. Steeves, River Glade, N.B., writes:—"Please allow me to express my gratitude for the presence of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in the house, for I believe it saved our little boy's life. Three years this fall we were in the lumber woods, and it was very hard to get a doctor to us, and our little boy got pneumonia, and was very ill. The only relief he could get was to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and with the combined use of the Syrup, and your British Troop Oil Liniment, he soon got better, and was around in a couple of weeks. It certainly is a great remedy."

Price, 25 and 50 cents. Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Five Roses Flour

At six a child-slave in a Manchester cotton mill; at twenty a sailor before the mast; at thirty a tramp and common laborer in the United States and Canada; and subsequently actor, singer, Indian-fighter, Klondike gold miner, wanderer and Jack-of-all-trades, until he "drifted into writing" and won fame as an author and lecturer—such is the life story of Bart Kennedy, who was born in Leeds, England, of Irish parents, fifty-three years ago today. Mr. Kennedy's son, Darab, named after the hero of his father's first novel, has attracted wide attention by his ability as a sculptor, although only fourteen.

WRIGHT POLITICAL CORRUPTION

Centenary Men's Brotherhood Passes Resolution to this Effect — Urge Adoption of Legislation.

A ringing challenge to good men and women to join in a crusade against political and social corruption was made by R. G. Murray at the meeting of the Centenary Men's Brotherhood held in Centenary church yesterday afternoon; and following Mr. Murray's address the members of the Brotherhood in attendance unanimously passed the following resolution:

"This Brotherhood resolves that the time has come in Canada when all good men and women should unite in a demand for purity in politics, and the elimination of bribery at elections, and, as a first step in the achievement of this purpose, urge the adoption of legislation against bribery, similar to, and as effective as, that which obtains in Great Britain and Ireland."

Mr. Murray said that while in the United States the people had become so cynical that political corruption was carried on openly, in Canada we were disinclined to admit that we were politically corrupt, though everybody who took an active interest in public affairs was aware that graft in various forms was altogether too prevalent. He thought perhaps the Canadian attitude to graft was not much of an improvement on the American attitude, since men who were known as great grafters by one generation of Canadians were liable to have a monument erected to their memory by the next generation.

In a constituency like St. John what were considered legitimate expenses of an election amounted to about $15,000, not counting money which was spent to buy votes. Those who put up the great sums necessary to run elections demanded a quid pro quo. They were granted exceptional privileges and the power to exploit in wasteful ways the natural heritage of the people. Everybody knew the grafter lived comfortably and easily. Most of the politicians had their own axes to grind and looked out for themselves and big business corporations wanting special privileges at the expense of the people. The effect of political corruption was to demoralize the private as well as the public conscience.

In England they had stopped direct bribery of voters. But even there they had some forms of graft, such for instance as the contemptible practice of selling public honors. One result of stringent legislation against direct bribery of voters had been to stimulate a wholesome interest in politics on the part of the masses of the people. In England the working class took a keen and active interest in politics.

Mr. Murray advocated the adoption of legislation against bribery such as they have in England, as one means of combating political corruption. Also he urged the importance of giving women the suffrage, so that their moral influence could be brought to bear upon the problem. He thought, too, the church should try to rouse the working class to the evils of political corruption, since the grafters great and small flourish at the expense of the people who did the work of a country.

Mr. Murray then moved the resolution given above and he was seconded by R. Morton Smith, Joshua Clawson and others.

One speaker said that while he admitted that Mr. Murray might have made his statements a good deal stronger, he thought that politics were probably no worse than the people of Canada. There were many forms of graft of which the average citizen would take advantage if he got a chance.

It was suggested that the Men's Brotherhood of Canada be asked to pass similar resolutions and forward them to members of parliament.

John D. Goes to His Old Church for Last Time

This is the latest photograph of John D. Rockefeller. It was taken as he was leaving his own church, the Fifth avenue Baptist. The Sunday church services were held in it for the last time. Hereafter the world's richest man will worship at the Calvary church when in New York city. The old building is to be torn down.

Walking with Rockefeller is a woman member of the congregation, and back of him is his son, John D. Jr., who moves with his famous Bible class to the church.

SHOULD APPLY GOLDEN RULE

Evangelist Lowell C. McPherson in Strong Sermon — Right Relation of Man with Men.

"The Socialism God Would Have" was the subject last evening of the sermon preached by Evangelist Lowell C. McPherson in the Coburg street Christian church. Mr. McPherson took the Golden Rule, Matt. 7:12 and Titus 1:15, as texts. In part the evangelist said:

"When Jesus was in this world He proclaimed a religion different from that of His predecessors in that it was to supersede all other religions by being seated in the hearts of mankind, first and, in its activities, hold forth the sympathy and fellowship and help of disinterested love to those of all nations, climes, stations and colors. He taught that God affords sufficient for all mankind, everywhere, of heaven, mind and spirit. He taught that our Heavenly Father is no respecter of persons and that it is a sin for one part of humanity to appropriate and monopolize any blessing of Heaven in withholds you; to those who honestly follow Him. Some use this world as an arena for selfishness. To another it is a place of noble deeds and self-forgetfulness. If Jesus had His way among us all, our hearts would be with Him, and there would be no poverty, no drunkenness, no brawls, no saloons, no manufacture of drunks, no oppression by capital nor dishonesty to the employer, no need of police forces to coerce law breakers."

Edgar Kenney, son of John Kenney factory inspector, is now connected with the Huntington gymnasium in California, as assistant instructor. He has also been engaged with the Universal Film Co. and is one of the actors working for moving pictures. Recently August Busch, the well known millionaire, was shown over the film company's premises by Mr. Kenney.

Sentenced At Brookville.
John Martin was fined $200 and two months in jail without the option of a fine before Magistrate Adams at Brookville on Saturday. He was charged with being the landlord of a house that was being rented for disorderly purposes.

Magistrate—"I understand that you overheard the quarrel between this defendant and his wife."
Witness—"Yes, sir."
Magistrate—"Tell the court, if you can, what he seemed to be doing."
Witness—"He seemed to be doing the listening."

EXPLODES "FREE FOOD"

Moses Baritz in Interesting Address before Socialists — Free Food Means Cheap Labor.

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier will go back to power if the working class of Canada are the Mutts the right honorable gentleman evidently believes they are, when he promises them free food, and eloquently talks a lot of jargon intelligible to nobody," said Moses Baritz of Manchester, England, addressing a large meeting of Socialists in the Oddfellows' building last evening. "Of course if he would give you free food it would be fine. But what he probably means, if he means anything, is cheap food. And cheap food means what? Cheap labor, and badly nourished labor. They have cheap food in India and China, also cheap labor."

Mr. Baritz has been on a year's trip through Canada and the United States, delivering lectures, and latterly acting as press agent of the Quinlan Opera Co.

In his lecture last evening he said that the development of the means of production was culminated in a struggle for power between the capitalist class and the working class, which must be fought out on the political field, and that the tactics of organizations like the Industrial Workers of the World which sought to carry on the conflict on the industrial field were anarchistic, and destined to prove futile. At the same time from the point of view of the working class movement strikes even when unsuccessful were not without value in developing class consciousness among the workers.

According to the materialistic conception of history first developed by Marx and Engels the capitalist system was bound to break down, but it did not follow that socialism was inevitable. Some people believed a plutocracy might establish itself upon the wreck of capitalism, and hold the workers in forcible subjection. Only through the conscious action of the workers could socialism be established and the forms and forces of modern production be utilized for the benefit of the whole people.

Child Had Bronchitis

Once people get acquainted with the wonderful control which Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine exerts over bronchitis, whooping cough, croup and colds it is not easy to persuade them that anything else is "just as good." This is why the imitations never get very far.

In 1905 Mrs. Eugene Iler, King street, Truro, N. B., wrote as follows: "From an infant one of my children was troubled with bronchitis, and the least cold would aggravate the trouble. We could not get anything to help him, and were often greatly alarmed. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a treatment for bronchitis, we used it, and are glad to state that it effected a complete cure. If any of the children take a cold or cough I give this medicine, and have never known it to fail to bring relief."

Mrs. Iler now writes that she has since proven this medicine to be a cure for whooping cough, and would not be without it in the house.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

Mr. Carter adds: "From the above it will be seen that the amount paid by the province, the municipalities and local school boards for the direct support of the public schools for the year was approximately $1,000,000. The total approximately cost of public education in the province for the year would be found by the addition to the above of the provincial grants to the University of New Brunswick, provincial and county fund grants to the schools for the deaf and the blind, and the cost of printing for educational purposes paid by the province."

Despite the fact that the Normal School graduated one of the largest classes in its history in June, 1913, the supply of teachers has not been equal to the demand, and Mr. Carter is convinced that if there had been a sufficient number of teachers to meet all requirements, a very substantial increase would have been shown in attendance, number of schools in operation and regularity.

ANOTHER BIG STANDARD SCOOP

Giving to Moving Picture Fans Something Never Before Attempted by Any Newspaper

In giving to the Public Harold MacGrath's thrilling new story, "THE ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN," at the same time that its dramatized version is being shown at the leading moving picture theatres, THE STANDARD is doing something which no St. John newspaper has ever done before. It is giving you an experience entirely new. It is enabling you to READ THE STORY ITSELF from which the pictures were taken, at practically the same time that you view the wonderful drama at the moving picture theatre.

This remarkable series of pictures depicting "THE ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN," is undoubtedly the most fascinating and most elaborate series ever shown on the motion picture stage. It will require 13 separate "shows," with two full length reels at each show, to present the whole story. Two new reels in the "KATHLYN" series will appear at the IMPERIAL THEATRE every two weeks and the "Adventures" shown in each reel will be covered by a chapter of the story published in THE SATURDAY STANDARD at approximately the same time.

This is the first time you have ever been able to read a great novel and at the same time see its leading characters true to life in one of the greatest scenic productions ever attempted on the moving picture stage. And it is also the first time you have ever been able to view a thrilling moving picture series and at the same time follow the story in serial form from week to week—a story written by one of the most famous and popular novelists.

THE SHADOW

By ARTHUR STRINGER

Chap. 2.—He had hurried back the last of the strikers trying to storm his den.

reached quietly down and opened her pocket-book, rummaging through its contents for a moment or two. There she handed Blake a folded envelope. "You know his writing?" she asked. "I've seen enough of it," he retorted, as he examined the typewritten envelope postmarked "Montreal, Que." Then he drew out the inner sheet. On it, written by pen, he read the message: "Come to 381 King Edward when the coast is clear, and below this the initials 'C.B.'"

Blake, with the writing still before his eyes, opened a desk drawer and took out a large rectangular envelope. Through the lens of this he again studied the inscription, word by word. Then he turned to the office phone on his desk. "Nolan," he said into the receiver, "I want to know if there's a King Edward Avenue in Montreal. He said there were waiting, still regarding the handwriting with stolidly approving eyes. There was no doubt of its authenticity. He would have known it at a glance in clear, and below this the initials 'C.B.'" of Marone, Swedish or Catalan, from that daily line of over two hundred men who, in the past, have been associated with that arm of constituted authority known as the police.

CHAPTER II. It was on a Milwaukee newboy, at the age of twelve, that "Jim" Blake first found himself in any way associated with that arm of constituted authority known as the police.

"MEN WANTED." Being twenty-six and adventures and out of a job, he had drifted in with the rest of earth's undesirables and asked for work. After a few minutes of private coaching in the mysteries of railway signals, he had been "passed" by the desk examining him, and he had gone out as a green hand, but he had come back as a hero, with a Tribune reporter posing him against a furniture car for a two-column picture. The strikers had stoned his train, half killed the "scab" fireman, stilled him in the yards and cut off two thirds of his ears and shot out his eye when he was taken to the hospital.

That had been the first train to get out of the yards in seven days. Through a godlike regard for signals, it is true, they had run into an open switch, some twenty-eight miles up the line, but they had moved their freight and won their point. Blake, two weeks later, had made himself further valuable to that hiring agency, not above subornation of perjury, by testifying in a court of law to the sobriety of a passenger crew who had been carried drunk from their scab-manned train. So naively dogged was he in his stand, so quick was his wit, and so energetic the agency, when the strike ended by a compromise ten days later, took him on as one of their own operatives.
