THE OLD VIOLINIST.

When the old man times the swing of his bow

To the flow of his favorite tune,

And he hears the voice of the long ago

In the ripples of sweet "Bonnie Doon,"

And his pale cheeks flush with a rosy glow

Like the clouds of a fall afternoon

There's a plaintive wail to the rhythmic flow

Of the dear, old songs that our mothers know

Like the loving cress when the sun is low

Of a dew in the month of June.

When the fingers drum the forgotten strings

For the times his grandfather played,

Till the poor old violinist stings

The strains of the "White Cockade,"

And the song that float on the bluebird's

Wings

In his dead ear warble and fade,

There's a thrill in the graybeard's touch that brings

The clasp of the waist in the waltz that flings

The blue to his heart the kiss that clings

To the lips of an amorous maid.

When he tips the bridge to his listening ear

For the chords that swing there,

And he feels a kiss on his white hair,

For his "Jo John Anderson,"

That floats to a tremulous sigh,

There's a tender dream in the sweet old air

Of a rash of lips when cheeks were fair,

Like the dew of rain when fields are bare

And parched in the autumn sun.

When his tale old frame sways to and fro

Like the trunk of a weeping pine,

And the friends of his boyhood come and go

To the notes of "Auld Lang Syne,"

And his comrades' call is a weak halo

That floats to a tremulous sigh,

There's a touch on the strings as soft as snow

In the sighing pines where the shadows grow

When to dying ears the night winds blow

The music of the silvering hair.

ONLY A MUSIC TEACHER.

By Mrs. A. C. VABIN.

Caroline Hunter was a faithful attendant of the church of St. Stephen's. No one spoke to her or even noticed her.

Sunday after Sunday she would return to her seat in the gallery, and humbly gather up and treasure the words of round and round the world from which they came, and forget all about it, but Caroline Hunter would listen with beating heart and throbbing pulses, and after receiving the blessing with bowed head, would go forth strong to fight the battle of life.

Caroline had wandered through the crowd with the unconscious simplicity of a country girl that first lonely

Sunday after her arrival in the city, and the impassioned eloquence of the preacher, the sweet thrilling voice of the high-priest had brought her back, until now it had grown into a necessary habit

—the feast of her soul from week to week, the refreshing shower that fell upon her young life, causing it to blossom

into a young life, causing it to blossom

into a young life, causing it to blossom

into a young life, causing it to blossom

into a young life, causing it to blossom

into a young life, causing it to blossom

into a young life, causing it to blossom

and then the boy had gone out into the storm, vowing never to return. Since then, two years ago, no tidings had reached them. The motherless girls—their young faces prematurely sad—met their father morning after morning with brave cheerfulness. They noticed

"We always fry ours in Cottolene."

Our Meat, Fish, Oysters, Saratoga Chips, Eggs, Doughnuts, Vegetables, etc.

Like most other people, our folks formerly used lard for all such purposes. When it disagreed with any of the family (which it often did) we said it was "too rich." We finally tried and not one of us has had an attack of "richness" since. We further found that, unlike lard, Cottolene had no unpleasant odor when cooking, and lastly Mother's favorite and conservative cooking authority came out and gave it a big recommendation which clinched the matter. So that's why we always fry ours in Cottolene.

Sold in 5 and 10 lb. tins, by all grocers. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Wellington and Main Streets, MONTREAL.

A TALE TOLD THE EDITOR.

MR. THOS. STRANG SPEAKS THAT SUFFERERS MAY READ AND LIVE.

Attacked with La Grippe, the After Effects Developing Heart Trouble—His Friends Thought Him Near Death's Door—After Many Failures He Has Once More Regained the Blessing of Perfect Health.

From the Omaha Herald.

Strangfield is a post office corner about six miles from Omaha. It was named after the highly respected and well known family of Strangs. The neighborhood is a quiet one, being inhabited by a church-going, sober, industrious people. Among the people of the neighborhood there is better or more favorably known than Mr. Thos. Strang. Mr. Strang is a man of middle age and a bachelor. A few days ago he related to the Herald the story of his recovery from an illness which he believes would have resulted fatally but for the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The origin of Mr. Strang's trouble was a grippé which developed into heart disease. He laid for months with every nerve in his frail body unstrung. He tried many medicines, but none seemed to materially benefit him. He would rally at times and endeavor to walk, but his system being reduced and weakened he would frequently fall prostrate to the ground, and his friends had to carry him into the house. This terrible state of things lasted for months and all the while he was getting weaker, and even the most hopeful of his friends feared the worst. Mr. Strang was strongly urged to try the world renowned Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and consented to do so. A neighbor was dispatched to the Conner drug store for a supply. In a few days, after beginning their use he began to improve. In a couple of weeks he was able to walk around, and to-day Mr. Strang is rejecting and telling the same old story that hundreds of others are telling in this fair Dominion—the story of renewed strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Strang is now a sound man. Quite frequently he walks to Conner, a distance of five miles, to attend church. He informed the Herald that he was only too glad to give his experience to that suffering humanity may also reap the benefit and thus be released from the thrall of disease and pain. To his benefactors—for such they are—Mr. Strang feels that he owes a debt of gratitude. With him the days when beads of agony stood on his brow have passed away, and his body has been regenerated anew by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The after effects of a grippé and all troubles due to poor blood or shattered nerves, speedily yield to a fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They cure when other medicines fail, and no one should suffer for an hour without giving this great remedy a trial. Sold by dealers or sent by mail postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. Refuse all imitations and substitutes.

Jarline & Co., the oldest wholesale grocery house in St. John, is in financial difficulties, and has been compelled to suspend with liabilities, it is said, well up to $50,000. The firm has had an honorable record. It is likely an effort will be made to compromise and carry on the wholesale business, but the retail business will be closed.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOLS.

The Resolutions Moved in the Matter by a Manitoba Protestant.

In the Manitoba Legislature on the 27th of February, Mr. James Fisher, Member for Russell, and a Presbyterian, moved the following resolutions as regards the Manitoba Schools. The dispatch from Winnipeg says that many Protestant members of the House supported him.

"1. While this House is determined at all times to maintain to the fullest extent that the constitution warrants its exclusive power to make laws with respect to education, yet it recognizes that the highest judicial tribunal in the realm has recently decided that 'such exclusive power is not absolute but limited,' and that the limitation was embodied in the constitution as a 'parliamentary compact' between the Dominion and the people resident in the province at the union for the protection, amongst other things, of the rights and privileges of the Roman Catholic minority in relation to education, including rights and privileges that were acquired by them since the union.

2. The same tribunal has further decided that in the event which is now foreshadowed of this Legislature being called upon to remove the grievance in the judgment referred to, and in the further event of the Legislature declining to do so, a case will have arisen where 'the Parliament of Canada is authorized to legislate on the same subject.'

3. That this House is always prepared to abide by the constitution, which is the safeguard of our provincial rights, and will not be a party to its violation, nor will it seek to impair the efficiency of its provisions for protecting the rights and privileges of Her Majesty's subjects. At the same time, the House would deplore the occurrence of anything calling for the exercise by the Parliament of Canada of its authority to legislate on the subject of education, the ultimate effect of which it is impossible to foresee.

4. Having regard to the suggestions of the tribunal referred to that 'all legislative grounds of complaint would be removed if the present system were supplemented by the provisions which would remove the grievance upon which the appeal is founded and were modified so far as might be necessary to give effect to these provisions, without a repeal of the present law, this House is ready to consider the grievances referred to, with a view to providing reasonable relief, while maintaining, as far as possible consistent with that object, the principles of the present Act in their general application.'

These resolutions are valuable as showing how the matter is viewed by many prominent men in the Province of Manitoba.

The English System for which Mr. Laurier fights.

"Whatever may be the case in specially favored areas, it cannot be seriously questioned that, as far as the overwhelming bulk of the cultivable land in this country is concerned, it cannot be profitably devoted to any purpose except the production of corn and meat. Having regard to these conditions it is obvious that the main grievance under which the agricultural interest labors is to be found in the introduction into this country of foreign produce free from any contribution whatever towards the imperial or local taxation, while at the same time the food of the people produced at home is taxed under the guise of rates and taxes upon the land which produces it, subject to ruinous taxation."—Speech of St. Hon. James Lowther, M.P., Liberal.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOLS.

A Baptist Paper on the Grounds Discussed Them Under the Heading of "This Horrible School Question."

The organ of the Baptists in Manitoba at the Territories is The Northwest Baptist, published in Winnipeg, and that paper in its issue of Feb. 15th, says as follows:

"The position of The Northwest Baptist on the school question, all along, has been that our legislation is not on such an adamant basis of righteousness and ungainable principle that it can turn its teeth to the storms until they blow their cheeks empty. When rights are conceded, we are not to suppose that the rights of a legal sort have been possibly enjoyed for a term of years, sufficient generally in civil affairs to quiet titles and give undisturbed possession, it is impossible to ally feeling and heat wounds, when such rights are conceded, by the presence of reverting to fundamental principles. Had the clean straight thing been done in 1890, eliminating from our public school system every vestige of so-called religious instruction the unnecessary presence of which has confirmed Roman Catholics in the opinion that it was not common schools we were after but Protestant schools, no doubt our legislation would have outridden the storm, although it is to be doubted that there would have been anything like the storm that has been experienced, during these last three years. But now where are we? Politics aside, what should be done? He is no friend of Canada or Manitoba who says, 'Oh! it is not our funeral; let the Dominion Government settle it!' In all soberness we ask, can politics ever settle this question? We believe not. Neither Courts nor Cabinets can the right place to adjudicate this matter. The Privy Council, without determining what rights of the Roman Catholics have been invaded, clearly indicates that there is a case for intervention on the part of the Dominion. Let Manitoba recognize this decision. We are a part of the Empire. We cannot antagonize Great Britain or even the Dominion, when the Dominion's authority is such a matter is established by the highest court in Great Britain. There ought to be a readiness on the part of Manitoba—we mean the Provincial Government—to be a party in discovering where our legislation has wronged our Roman Catholic fellow citizens, and upon discovering, willingly make every endeavor to do them justice."

The Baptist is an uncompromising Protestant sheet but does not desire injustice done.

The following dispatch appeared in the daily press, dated Windsor, Feb. 25, 1895: "Victor Moron, who left Essex County with his wife and family at 11 o'clock this morning, returned this morning and, according to his own statement, is a poorer but a much wiser man.
