COUNCIL MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING

Only Routine Matters are Transacted—Tenders for Horses are Rejected

A meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday evening in the Town offices, Water Street. His Worship Mayor Andrew presiding. Councillors present, Messrs. Evans, Alexander, McLean, Goss, Miller, Patterson and Quinn.

The minutes of the last regular special meetings were read and confirmed.

Communication read from Mr. Jos. Boudreau, asking permission to build a small wooden cover over his weighing scales to protect them from the frost. This was referred to Public Property and Streets Committee.

Account and statement read from W. A. Traeman, Coroner, which on motion was referred to the Town Solicitor for opinion.

The Tenders asked for with regard to the sale of the grey fire horse were then opened. Only two written tenders were received, in time, one being handed to the Town Clerk after 12 noon on the 18th. The tenders were:

Peter Jamieson	$126.00
W. H. Gray	$125.00

On motion it was resolved to reject the tenders, and later it was arranged to sell the horse by Auction Sale.

The agreement between the town and Mr. Jos. Boudreau relating to the gasoline tank on Water Street was read and held over for further consideration.

The following reports of committees recommending payment of accounts were presented and on motion adopted:

Public Charities	$52.00
Public Property and Streets	155.00
Fire Protection	20.70
Water and Sewerage	153.89
Electric Light	421.54
Police and License	108.60

Councillor Miller from a special committee appointed to settle the matter of cutting lumber on Mr. A. E. Chamberlains farm on Lily Lake road, reported that he had attended to that duty and after interviewing Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Miller, he would recommend that the said Mr. Chamberlain be offered the sum of thirty dollars in full settlement of alleged trespass and cutting of lumber and ties on his property. Report was received and adopted.

Councillor Patterson interjected a remark that part of this money should be refunded by Mrs. Nelson as she had been paid for all the lumber cut, and the committee will look into this later.

Councillor Goss read a communication from the Fire Chief A. E. O'Donnell giving a list of requirements for the department, and also notifying the Council that three buildings in town over the prescribed height, viz: Bank of Nova Scotia, McIntyre's Hotel and Brunswick Hotel were without ladders or fire escapes. After discussion the committee were authorized to purchase 500 feet of hose, 2 nozzles, 12 couplings, 16 rubber coats, 2 pairs rubber boots.

Councillor Miller asked a question regarding two of the owners of shacks or temporary buildings in Fire District No. 1. Councillor Miller was assured that all owners of shacks were being treated alike and no discrimination was being shown.

An informal discussion then took place on the matter of selling bonds. Councillor Miller stating that he had an offer of 89 1/2 for 5% Bonds. Nothing in the matter was done at this time.

Councillor Patterson reported progress from the committee appointed to look into the matter of procuring suitable town offices. Nothing would be done in this matter until the return of Mrs. Murray, who had gone West on a visit. Councillor Patterson felt however, that it was time the town was taking steps to procure or build a proper town hall. The amount of rental they were paying was amply sufficient to pay the interest on a suitable building. The town had plenty of ground, and the town was lagging behind the citizens who had built good houses. This project receives favorable comment from the Councillors, after which Council adjourned.

CHARGE OF LIBEL ENTERED AGAINST THE GRAPHIC

Arthur Culligan, M. P. P. Feels Aggrieved at Statements Made by Correspondent in Our Issue of August 26th.

The Manager of the Campbellton Graphic has been served with the following notice:

Campbellton, N. B.

TAKE NOTICE that I the undersigned do hereby complain of the statements as libelous on me which were contained in the issue of your paper, The Campbellton Graphic on Thursday, August 26th, 1915, in a letter directed to Editor of Graphic, Campbellton, signed by Ratepayer, which statement is as follows: "We will refer first to a bridge called the McGregor bridge, on the road leading this goods out of their store in payment, are not allowed work on the job. A short time ago some of the men working on the job wanted some advance, and applied to the boss for money or an order, and who agreed to give them orders on the Culligan, but the men refused to accept any order on the Culligan store, but said they would take orders on the Miss Utican's store or on Mr. Melanson's store. However, one man in particular (Campbellton), signed by Ratepayer, was put off the job just as soon as Arthur Culligan, M. L. A. heard of it. He went to see this particular man and told him that if he would accept orders on their store he could go back to work and work as long as he liked."

This Notice is given under the provisions of the Libel Act, Chapter 136, Consolidated Statutes of New Brunswick, 1903.

Dated this Thirtieth day of September, A. D. 1915.

(Signed) Arthur Culligan.

We were prepared for this some time ago when a personal demand was made upon us to divulge the name of the correspondent who was responsible for the publication of the above statements, which were claimed to be libelous. Needless to say we refused to give the name of the correspondent until such time as proper steps were taken by Mr. Culligan to oblige us to give this information.

However, as Mr. Culligan has now started his suit for libel we wish to publicly state that the article referred to came to us in the regular way from a reliable party and was published in the Graphic under our usual correspondence head which distinctly states "that opinions of correspondents are not necessarily those of the Graphic." We assume no responsibility for the statements as published.

The matter is now up to Mr. Culligan. If he thinks the article is a libel on him it is for him to proceed in the regular way. If the case should ever come up for trial interesting developments in the political arena are looked for and it is hinted that there will be some surprising developments.

ARTHUR CULLIGAN, M. P. P. The man who feels aggrieved at the statements made by "Ratepayer" in the Campbellton Graphic, published in the Beckettville Settlement, where a great amount of money is being spent this season. Any person who will not accept orders on the Culligans, where they are supposed to

RECRUITING MATTERS IN CAMPBELLTON

Probable That Recruits Now Enlisting Will be Billeted Here for the Winter

Recruiting Officer McDonald has had a quiet time during the past week, only three men enlisting for the 88th Battalion, these being David McLean, Sunnyside, Walter Letourneau, Campbellton, Alex. Elaiagar, Nash's Creek, and they will go to Sussex.

The Recruiting officer is in receipt of a communication stopping the enlisting for the Heavy Siege Battery, and four men who have enlisted for this unit will go to St. John tonight. Among these four are Thos. Clarke, Campbellton, Lyman Gilker, Campbellton.

General Rutherford passed through here on Tuesday morning and at his request Mr. A. McG. McDonald was at the train and met the officer. The General expressed his great pleasure at the work Mr. McDonald was doing, and said he wanted to meet Mr. McDonald to personally thank him for the recruiting he had done so well, especially when the work was done without pay. In further conversation General Rutherford stated that it was the intention of the Militia authorities to arrange for the billeting of all recruits in the centre in which they were enlisted, so that whenever arrangements are completed for suitable premises all the men enlisted here will billet for the winter in Campbellton.

A strong recruiting campaign will soon be under way, and pressure is being brought to bear on the authorities to have our own local officers in charge of the recruits here. In connection with this the names of Lieuts. Dela Ferrelle, McLean and McKay are mentioned, but that no doubt is a matter which will be dealt with by the O. C. of the 88th.

A suitable place for billeting troops has been looked after and Mr. D. A. Stewart is at present in St. John using his influence to further the scheme.

transferred into the 10th, serving his time under Major Guthrie. He was through three battles, getting "his" as he said, at Festubert, where his left thigh was fractured by shrapnel and getting five shrapnel bullets in his right leg. Although having to lie out wounded for eight hours, he speaks highly of the hospital and ambulance arrangements, and said it is only when it is utterly impossible to bring in the wounded that they are left for any time.

What our boys are suffering for the cause of right-ousness and liberty can only be but slightly understood when one hears the stories of the battle from one who has been through it. One can hardly realize the grim spirit and the dogged determination which inspire our heroes to stand up to such frightful carnage, or the sublime spirit of self-sacrifice where they fight as Pte. Blue told us like the regiment in the hell around Ypres which went into the engagement 1145 men and 55 officers, and came out with 500 men and 4 officers.

Notwithstanding his severe wounds, Pte. Blue is cheerful and happy and looks forward to the time when he shall be able to return and once more "do his bit".

Campbellton is proud of Pte. Blue and those like him, who have shown that the spirit of Britain is still strong among us in all kinds of Patriotic endeavour.

INFORMAL RECEPTION HELD FOR RETURNED SOLDIER

Private Donald Blue of the 10th Battalion is Accorded Enthusiastic Reception on Monday Evening.

On Monday evening an informal reception in the Town Hall was accorded to Pte. Donald Blue, who is now home recuperating from wounds received at Festubert. Private Blue came down to Campbellton from St. Flavie on Saturday evening and on Monday, the Band marched to Mr. Harry Wheelhouse dwelling and serenaded Pte. Blue, who was staying there. A torchlight procession was formed and headed by the Band, accompanied him to the Council Chamber, where His Worship Mayor Andrew presided over a gathering which filled the hall. Mr. Blue was conveyed to the hall in Mr. Chas. A. Alexander's auto.

On Private Blue's arrival he was given a great ovation, and in a few words Mayor Andrew extended to him a civic welcome. Private Blue replied in a few quiet words, thanking the Mayor and the citizens for their kindness and how much he appreciated the warmth of his reception. When he closed his remarks a great demonstration was given him, the cheering being hearty and generous, led by Postmaster A. D. McKendrick.

Short speeches were delivered by Recruiting Officer A. McG. McDonald, M. A. Kelly, D. F. Graham and Dr. Murray. A small program was rendered, Mr. H. R. Smith delighting the crowd with his inimitable stories and reading, while Mr. G. A. Mesereau sang two songs, singing by request "Tupperary", the audience joining lustily in the chorus.

The gathering which was quite informal and not known about by a number of the people, was a most enthusiastic and splendid meeting, and was about the best recruiting meeting held here for some time. It will indeed be strange if there are no direct results from it in a number of recruits enlisting. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem, after which Private Blue was surrounded by a host of admirers, all anxious to shake his hand. In a short few minutes that with some of the leading citizens, Pte. Blue told a most interesting story of the work of the Canadians in the trenches. Of a retiring and modest demeanour, yet looking every inch a soldier, he told his story in a quiet and earnest way, and had many interesting things to say. After speaking of the treatment which could not be bettered he had received at the various hospitals, both in France and in England, it was with a grim sense of humour when he said he had the shell, with which bullet he had killed his first German.

Pte. Blue joined the 12th Battalion of the First Contingent and later

WM. ROBINSON, I.C.R. BRAKEMAN, KILLED Was Struck by No. 34, Maritime Express, at Beaver Brook. —The Evidence

Newcastle, N. B., Oct. 14.—A sad accident took place about four thirty this morning at Beaver Brook Station, when William Robinson, of Harcourt, a brakeman, on number thirty nine, north bound freight, was struck by south bound Maritime Express, and instantly killed. The freight was crossing the Maritime there, and Robinson had left his train to go and turn the switch when he accidentally stepped in front of the fast approaching express to his death.

He was unmarried and about thirty years of age.

A strange feature of the death of Brakeman Robinson was that he seemed to have a premonition of the fatality. He called on Dr. C. T. Purdy of Moncton and made an appointment to be examined within a few days for an increase in his life insurance, remarking on the uncertainty of life and the dangers of his employment.

It was recalled at his boarding house that, as he left to go out on his train he came back once or twice for things he was forgetting, and remarked that he felt as though something was going to happen.

The Coroner's Inquest. At the undertaking rooms of Tuttle Bros., Moncton, Dr. R. L. Botsford, Coroner, held an inquest into the death of Brakeman Robinson.

The following jury was empanelled.—Charles Bezanon, foreman, J. Pierce Delahunt, John Mahoney, Harry Fowles, William Rattray, A. B. Carroll, George Cormier.

John Stewart, driver of the Maritime Express, was the first witness (sworn). "I work on the Canadian Government railway, as driver. We were coming to Moncton from Campbellton No. 34, train this morning, and passing Beaver Brook, noticed a train on the siding. When approaching the van, I noticed a man with a light walking towards the rear switch. He was outside of the main track, and from where I could see I did not think he would be struck by the engine. When passing the switch, or shortly after, the fireman stepped across the cab, and said: "We have struck a man." I said: "I don't think it can be so." He said: "Yes, we have, as I saw the light go out." I immediately stopped the train. Whistled back—a signal we have for backing up—and backed up on signal from the rear, and stopped when we were in the position about the position when we struck the man. The fireman took a torch and went back to assist in finding the body. I was informed that we had hit Brakeman Robinson and they placed the body in the baggage car. We proceeded to Moncton. We gave the usual signals in approaching and passing the station.

Daniel McQuarrie, fireman on No. 34 train was sworn: "On approaching Beaver Brook Station there was a train on the passing track. After we passed the engine of that train, I noticed a man walking along the main track, on opposite side from passing track. I was informed after accident happened that William Robinson had gone back to turn the rear switch. By that time he would be walking with his back towards our engine. I noticed that he was close to the main track, but naturally supposed that at any instant he would step clear. I noticed his light went out, the one he carried. I could not swear we hit the man, because, when getting close to him, he would be out of the ray of our head-light. Noticing his light go out, I stepped across the cab, and told the engineer that I believed we killed a man. He said he didn't think it could be. I replied, "If I am not mistaken, we have, as I saw his light go out." He immediately applied the brake, stopped the train, gave the back up signal, and on getting the signal from the rear of the train we backed up to where I thought we had hit the man. I lit the torch, and went back and assisted in finding the body of William Robinson. I found the body. That was about 5.20 o'clock this morning. It was very dark. I called the rest of the trainment. We picked the body up and placed it in the baggage car.

Judson Black, baggage master, sworn, said:—We were coming down on No. 34, after passing Beaver Brook. I felt the brakes go on, and I looked out to see where we were. They stopped the train and gave signals to back up. I stepped to the door, and asked the brakeman what he thought was wrong. He said he couldn't see anything wrong and didn't know what we were backing up for. After we stopped, the fireman came back and said they had struck a man. The fireman found the body. I helped take him in the baggage car. It was William Robinson.

H. J. Ulician, brakeman (sworn):—"Coming down on No. 34 train this morning, while passing Beaver Brook, I noticed a train standing on the passing track. Just as we went by this train, I felt the brakes go on our train. After coming to a stop, the engineer whistled 'back signal.' I gave him the signal with my lamp to back up. We backed up the south switch at Beaver Brook, and stopped. I started to go ahead to the engine to find out what the trouble was. I met Fireman McQuarrie coming back, and he informed me that we had struck a man. We went to look for him and Fireman McQuarrie found him about twenty feet down a slight embankment, from the track. We immediately picked up Brakeman Robinson and put him in our baggage car. He was dead. He is a railway man. He was on No. 39, Conductor Sweeney's train. I was informed that Brakeman Robinson was going to turn the switch for his train to back out of the siding after we had passed. I believe Brakeman Robinson did not think our train was so handy. We used an electric headlight. It can be seen a long distance. It is hard to judge the distance on seeing an electric headlight."

To one of the jurors—I think we were running about forty miles an hour when we struck him. That is about our usual rate of speed there." This completed the evidence. The jury rendered the following verdict:—"We the jury empanelled to inquire into the cause of William Robinson's death, find that the said William Robinson came to his death by being struck by No. 34 train, through his own carelessness, and we attach no blame to any of the crew of No. 34 train."

A fresh westerly breeze was blowing at the time, and it took a very short time for the flames to reduce the building to ashes. An alarm was sounded on the mill whistles of the Nepisiguit and the pulp mills, but the fire had almost completed its work by the time the Fire Department reached the scene. There was practically no danger to the surrounding property, but no chances were taken by the department and water speedily drenched out what was left of the burned building.

A small house owned by Sifroid Doucet, and occupied by him and Mrs. Jos. Roy and their families, and situated near the eastern end of the Bathurst Lumber Co's Nepisiguit mill property, was totally destroyed with its contents on Sunday morning by fire.

AUTO VANDALS

The other morning a well-known business man was astonished to get a phone message from a town merchant that his car was at the merchant's back door, presumably looking for a drink of gasoline. On examination it was found the owner's garage had been broken open, and someone had apparently used the car for a night joy-ride. The same thing happened to another man's car last week, so auto-owners had better beware.

DIRTY MILK

An Inland Revenue Bulletin shows that the samples of Nova Scotia milk that were analyzed—ten—were dirty, and that four out of ten New Brunswick samples were dirty. "This dirt consists," says the Chief Analyst, "of dust, hairs, and cow-dung, and is most offensive and objectionable, as well as dangerous to health." Three of the samples from Quebec city were dirty, and every other sample from the whole Dominion was clean. New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Quebec city furnished all the samples of dirty milk.

THE EMPIRE'S SECURITY

Sir George Reid, High Commissioner for Australia in London, told his audience at a Red Cross meeting at Puley why the British Empire will last. It was a sublime thing, he said, to see men from the Indian Empire, those of the colored races of Africa, and from the South Seas standing side by side with our own race and fighting for our old flag. People talked of our empires having passed away, but there was a difference between those empires and the British Empire. Empires that had gone left no children behind them, but this mighty Empire of ours had many young stalwarts, giant children in different parts of the world to offer the noblest of lives to help the race from which they sprang. And it is because of the freedom which these "giant children" enjoy that the future of the Empire is secure, for freedom breeds loyalty.

THE LION'S SHARE

There has been a disposition, we are told, on the part of some speakers who are appealing for recruits to belittle the part which has been played by the Mother Country in this great war. It is difficult to understand how any man, gifted with average intelligence, could make a suggestion of this kind. There have been persistent attempts on the part of the enemy to foment friction between the Allies by representing that Great Britain is not doing her full share; but if there has been any lingering doubt in this or other countries, as to the great and unexampled contribution which Britain is making, it should be settled forever by the speech of the Financial Secretary of the Treasury, in reply to the criticisms of the Budget in the House of Commons. Mr. Montagu pointed out that in addition to maintaining a navy which has swept the enemy's ships from the seas, has wiped out German overseas commerce, and has bottled up the German fleet in the Kiel Canal, Britain is maintaining an army which in little more than a year has increased from a force of a few thousands, to a force of three or four millions of men. In addition, Britain is financing the military expenditures of the Dominions Overseas and of India, and she has advanced to her Allies a sum sufficient to equip and maintain in the field a force of three million men. On the financial side alone, Britain is more than doing her share. She is the backbone of the Allied campaign. She has supplied the silver bullets which keep the armies in the field. After this statement by Mr. Montagu, we do not think that it will be necessary to ask the question, least of all in any British country,—what is Great Britain doing? Great Britain is bearing the lion's share of the financial burden of this world-shaking conflict.

MR. THOMAS, OPTIMIST.

The statement on Friday of Mr. D. A. Thomas, the Welsh captain of industry, who is in America as the representative of Mr. Lloyd George, respecting Canada's economic condition, might well have been incorporated in the recent "Prosperity Edition" of The

ENGLISH NURSE EXECUTED IN BELGIUM

One of the Most Dastardly Things in the War Says Belgian People

London, Oct. 20.—A wave of intense anger, as well as a feeling of horror, has swept over Great Britain as a result of the execution in Brussels of Miss Edith Cavell, an English nurse, daughter of the late Rev. Frederick Cavell, former Vicar of Swardston, Norfolk.

Miss Cavell was a woman of conspicuous ability, according to the statements of many persons associated with her in the past.

The Foreign Office has been notified by the American Embassy that Miss Cavell, who was lately the head of a large training school in Brussels, was arrested August 5th, by the German authorities in Brussels, and was executed on October 12th, after sentence of death had been passed upon her.

It is understood that the charge against Miss Cavell was that she harbored fugitive British and French soldiers and Belgians of military age and had assisted them to escape from Belgium in order to join their colors.

Thus far the Foreign Office is not aware that a charge of espionage had been brought against Miss Cavell.

The Daily Mail's Amsterdam correspondent gives the following details of the execution:—

"She was blindfolded with a black scarf and was deathly pallid, but stepped bravely forward until passing the firing party. Then her strength failed and she dropped in a swoon thirty yards from the wall where she was to have been shot.

"The officer commanding the soldiers, took a large revolver from his belt, aimed steadily and then shot the woman through the head as she lay quietly on the ground.

"The officer then replaced his revolver and ordered the soldiers to carry the body into the house, where it was taken in charge by Belgian women, who were acting on instructions from the Spanish Minister, who undertook to care for the body pending burial.

"The execution was a shock to the Belgian people, who described it as the bloodiest thing of the war."

To clean the inside of bottles a Frenchman has invented a brush that can be adjusted to any angle from its handle by a screw running inside the latter.

Free Press, as it agrees with all the arguments there used.

Mr. Thomas declared that Canada's economic condition was "much better than it has been for a year, since $250,000,000 worth of orders of various sorts for war supplies had been placed in this country" from abroad.

As to the conditions following the declaration of peace, Mr. Thomas was also most optimistic. Within a year or two after the war, as after the Franco-Prussian conflict, he thought there would come the greatest trade boom of several generations.

In Canada with the cessation of munition manufacture and war orders, there might be a year of depression, to be followed by great prosperity, since the Dominion would be called upon to supply Europe, while her trade, especially with Great Britain and Russia, was certain to greatly increase. In addition to this the heavy taxation caused by war expenses would cause emigration to Canada, and within fifteen years or so would possibly double the population.

Even the chronic optimism of The Free Press will not take it quite that far, but we believe that, just as it adjusted itself to the new conditions set up by the war, Canada will adjust itself to the situation that will arise when the war is over. Even now Canada should be making arrangements for an immigration programme similar to that arranged by Clifford Sifton under the Laurier Government, in order that, when the right moment arrives, the machinery might be set in full motion without the slightest delay.

SUNDAY CLOSING OF SALOONS IN CHICAGO

Reasons for Adoption of New Law.

From statistics printed in Chicago newspapers in connection with the Sunday closing of saloons, it is learned that there are usually two or three week-end suicides in the city, with twenty murders or criminal homicides a month and that the average number of auto killings a month is eighteen. While one day's trial will not show much as to the ultimate effect of the new order, it is worth noting that Sunday week was an off-day for at least some classes of offenders. Among the other things noted was that when the sale of intoxicants was suppressed, every downtown theatre was packed, the movie theatres were filled to their capacity, and the church attendance was considerably increased.

The appeal for recruits in Great Britain issued by the authorized representatives of the national committee of trades unions contains this significant sentence: "Responsibility for victory or defeat rests on those who have not yet responded to the call."

CIRCUIT COURT AT WOODSTOCK TUESDAY
Chief Justice Landry Becomes Convert to Conscription

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 20.—The circuit court met here yesterday, Chief Justice Landry presiding.

The case of the King vs. Charles Smith and Stephen Darrach, charged with the murder of Fran Green at Florenceville on the night of May 7 last, was taken up. The judge charged the grand jury at length, reviewing the facts, as contained in his opinion there were grounds upon which the jury might find a true bill against each of these men. At 5 o'clock the jury returned, finding a true bill in each case.

The chief justice referred briefly but earnestly to the subject most strongly in coming around to this view. While what he had to say to them was purely his own opinion, and while he spoke as representing no one but himself, he felt that on an occasion like this, it was his duty to tell them that according to his view, the most effective and the fairest means both to the volunteers who had gone to the front and to the young men yet unenlisted, after recruiting was conscription. Also he believed that public opinion was rapidly coming around to this view. He himself was a man, of peace and had not favored conscription in the past, but after giving the subject the most careful attention and thought, of which he was capable, he had changed his mind, and was confident that in a great world struggle like this, when it was no use to go to it in a half-hearted way, every resource in men and other means capable of being drawn out, should be at the service of the state. For himself, he said it in no boasting spirit, he had two sons at the front. If a third was needed he would rather that the authorities said, we have come for him, than that they should ask him to use persuasion to get him to go.

The apt and timely remarks of the chief justice were listened to most attentively and made a strong impression of the representative body of grand jurors and others present in the court house.

SHAM CAESAR WILL NOT CROSS CHANNEL

Secretary for Ireland Says the Western Success Presages Better Things

Mr. Birrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, addressing a recruiting meeting at the Chelsea Palace in connection with the London Irish Rifles, said that although Julius Caesar crossed the Channel at Chelsea, the Roman Eagle never crossed the Irish Channel, and that the real Caesar did not attempt to do 2,000 years ago the sham Caesar will never do to-day—(cheers)—thanks to the Irish soldiers and volunteers. But we needed all the men we could get, and everybody at this moment was asking himself, "Shall we get them?" For his part he was certain we should. (Cheers). He sometimes read in the newspapers that certain men were uphilarious, and those were as a rule things which everybody was thinking about. (Laughter.)

"I do not say," proceeded Mr. Birrell, "that failure in this war on our part is unthinkable, but I do say it will be unbearable. And it is just because the whole Empire would find it unbearable that it won't happen." All talk at this time about the origin of the war was just as futile as to discuss the terms of peace. There would be a time—and he hoped it might come soon—when the terms of peace would be included in a treaty. "But the end is not yet," he added. "The unworked-out sum is still, as it were, on the slate." The terms of peace depended upon the upshot of the war, and the upshot of the war depended upon the valor, endurance, and determination of all the population who composed the nations who were engaged in this terrible and as yet undecided conflict. Indomitable Russia, whose very retreats were some of the most majestic aspects of victory, beloved France, outraged Belgium, Italy, the British Isles, and the Dominions beyond the seas—was their cause to perish, or their blood to be shed in vain, all because of lack of men here at home?

"No, I am certain that it is not so, and all that is required of us in these grim and yet glorious days—for these is good news to-day—(cheers)—which I trust is a presage of still better things—all that is required of us is that we should face the facts." Nervousness, fidgetiness, recrimination, vanity of newspaper proprietors grown rich beyond the dreams of avarice—(laughter)—by the sale of the Home Chat—(renewed laughter)—not an unnatural dialke and suspicion, entertained of politicians and lawyers—these things were irrelevant. They were even criminal, and certainly childish, when the one plain duty is to concentrate upon victory (cheers). Differences of opinion were said to rule in the Cabinet. They did not get rid of differences of opinion even by calling a Cabinet a Council of War. Wherever there were men or women—(laughter)—they might expect differences of opinion. In all great world conflicts it was the spirit that won. We knew some of our weaknesses, and we suspected a great many others, but the weaknesses and necessities of Germany were greater than our own. Her knavish tricks, even if not confounded, had been hopelessly frustrated.

"Rapid and continued recruiting and getting down to business at this moment is the one and only answer we can give to the critics at home or the enemy abroad." (Cheers). Mr. Birrell mentioned that he had just returned from France, and had seen devastated villages and ruined homesteads. Thanks to the navy, we had never known, and he hoped we never should know, the hell of invasion. He felt no anxiety so long as we neither failed nor lagged.

Only a few weeks ago at a recruiting meeting, Rudyard Kipling declared "We must continue to see our children drawn through this fire to Moloch, till this war is won." And now the tragic prophecy is realized in the death of Kipling's son at the Dardanelles.

SHAM CAESAR WILL NOT CROSS CHANNEL

Secretary for Ireland Says the Western Success Presages Better Things

Mr. Birrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, addressing a recruiting meeting at the Chelsea Palace in connection with the London Irish Rifles, said that although Julius Caesar crossed the Channel at Chelsea, the Roman Eagle never crossed the Irish Channel, and that the real Caesar did not attempt to do 2,000 years ago the sham Caesar will never do to-day—(cheers)—thanks to the Irish soldiers and volunteers. But we needed all the men we could get, and everybody at this moment was asking himself, "Shall we get them?" For his part he was certain we should. (Cheers). He sometimes read in the newspapers that certain men were uphilarious, and those were as a rule things which everybody was thinking about. (Laughter.)

"I do not say," proceeded Mr. Birrell, "that failure in this war on our part is unthinkable, but I do say it will be unbearable. And it is just because the whole Empire would find it unbearable that it won't happen." All talk at this time about the origin of the war was just as futile as to discuss the terms of peace. There would be a time—and he hoped it might come soon—when the terms of peace would be included in a treaty. "But

ELEVEN THOUSAND TOTAL CASUALTIES

In Canadian Overseas Forces Since the War Began

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 20.—Upwards of four hundred casualties among the Canadian troops at the front, have been reported to Ottawa since the big offensive movement was initiated. The lists are steadily growing but there is no indication of the Canadians having been in any serious engagement, the casualties instead have been sustained not in terrific hand-to-hand fighting, like that of St. Julien, last spring, but as it were, in the ordinary routine of daily warfare, the bursting of enemy shells and continuous sniping in addition a dozen lives have been lost by the Zeppelin night raids over the sleeping Canadian camp at Oterpool. One more name was added to the list by the overnight report. The second division looms large in the latter casualties and it is apparent that practically all of its battalions are getting their baptism of fire, which the first division battalions are renewing their previous experiences.

The total casualties among the Canadians since the war began, is in round numbers, eleven thousand, comprising 3,500 killed, 6,500 wounded and a thousand missing or prisoners.

FEAR DEPLETION OF PATRIOTIC FUND

Instructions Sent to all Branches to Curtail Expenditures.—Some Comparisons

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—A statement prepared by the officials of the Canadian Patriotic Fund Association, showing what some of the cities and towns have contributed to the national fund during the first year of the war, gives the decidedly interesting information that some of the Ontario towns, where the citizens of German descent predominate, have contributed relatively the largest amount per capita. Berlin, for instance, has contributed during the past twelve months $50,000, or $2.50 per capita; Baden, with a population of 1,000, has contributed $2,577, or $2.57 per capita; Hespeler has given $9,350, or $3.95 per capita; Wallaceburg has contributed $15,375, or $5.34 per capita; Waterloo, $19,565, or $4.50 per capita; Walkerville, $36,791, or $11.18 per capita; Almonte, $14,488, or $4.80 per capita. As compared with these, Toronto has given $639,304, or $1.28 per capita; Hamilton, $120,629, or $1.15 per capita, and Ottawa, $275,561, or $2.58 per capita.

It may be of interest to our readers to state that Campbellton's standing would be about $1.15 per capita. This is much too small in comparison with our standard in recruiting and we must better it.

The association which is now starting on a campaign to raise $7,500,000 for the second year of the war, is finding that an extra effort will have to be made to stimulate contributions or otherwise the demand upon the fund will deplete it. The total amount to the credit of the fund in the bank at the end of September was $2,978,133. Instructions have been sent out to branches of the association, with a view to preventing any unnecessary, or undesired payments from the fund to applicants. These instructions state that families in which the father is alive, able-bodied, and under 65 years of age, or where there are other males over fifteen years of age, capable of assuming its support, should receive no assistance from the fund. Families of men on garrison or "ticket" duty in Canada, must not hereafter receive assistance from the fund. Wives of Canadian volunteers, in receipt of separation allowance and assigned pay, should not receive more than $5 per month from the fund, and in any case families of soldiers at the front should not receive more than $50 per month. As soon as a widow receives the first of her pension checks, and as soon as a disabled man accepts the pension fixed by the militia department, no further payments legally be paid to the family from the fund.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT MONCTON BUILDING

Workman at Central Methodist Church Electrocuted Yesterday Morning

Moncton, Oct. 20th.—While working on the new Central Methodist Church which is being built by Mr. James Reid, contractor, Elkeno Ivanoff, a Bulgarian, was electrocuted this morning. The accident occurred shortly before ten o'clock. According to the statement of eye witnesses, a large steel truss was being removed by a steel cable and derrick from a wagon belonging to Abrams Brothers. The vehicle was standing on Queen Street. The cable had been attached to the truss, which was still on the wagon. The men then began connecting the "guy" ropes, with which they were to guide the truss as it was hauled up by the cable. One of these ropes had been attached to the cable and truss, and the Bulgarian went to tie the rope on the other end of the truss. Just before the Bulgarian reached the truss, apparently the steel cable became tightened, or was in some way connected with the electric light wiring overhead. The current was sent through the cable and truss, and when the Bulgarian took hold of the truss he got the full force of the shock. Mr. Colborn says that he merely touched the truss with a part of his hand, and, feeling the shock, drew back quickly, but the Bulgarian unfortunately had gotten hold of the charged truss and was unable to let go. Ivanoff cried for help and fellow-workmen rushed to his assistance, but before they could remove him he succumbed to the shock. The body was then taken to the office of Dr. C. T. Purdy, who pronounced life extinct. The ambulance was called, and the body was removed to Tuttle Bros' undertaking rooms. The body was later examined by Dr. Botsford, coroner, and he decided to hold an inquest, beginning this afternoon at two o'clock. An official of the Moncton Tramways, Electricity and Gas Company today claimed that the exposed part of the live wire at the scene of the accident was in the wearing against it of the steel cable used in hoisting material.

The deceased was about thirty-five years of age. A brother, Alexander Ivanoff, is also employed on the building. Mr. James Reid, contractor, expressed deep regret over the accident. In all his experience, and he has constructed many buildings this is the first accident that has occurred among his employees.

"POOR LITTLE CHILD"

Is that what neighbors think of your child? Do you ever over-hear them wonder what she or the poor little thing? Listen, Mothers, that heartache and despair isn't necessary. When you've built up that child of yours into the rosiest-cheeked, roundest, hardest little tot in the neighborhood you'll look back to these trying days as a nightmare. "How to do it?" Easy! Regulate the diet, have lots of pure air in the bedroom. Keep him outdoors—and feed his poor starved nerve-cells and under-nourished tissues with Zoetic—the Greek Tonic and Re-Constructor. Puny, ill-nurtured children will absorb Zoetic and thrive on it, like a plant that has been starved for water responds to rain and sunshine. It will benefit the child the same as the tired, nervous mother and over-worked father. Start giving Zoetic to-day—follow faithfully the directions and if in two weeks' time you can't report real progress toward natural health, return the unused portion of the bottle of Zoetic and we will refund your money without question. Everywhere in Canada at the same price. One Dollar for a Generous Bottle Compound from food and tonic essences by The Zoetic Company, Montreal.

WOMAN IS LOST IN WOODS OVERNIGHT

Thrilling Experience of Mrs. Fred Steeves.—Chased by Large Bull Moose

A thrilling experience was the lot of Mrs. Fred Steeves of this town last week when she spent Thursday night wandering about the woods near Seventeen Mile on the I. N. R. Mrs. Steeves had gone out alone hunting and on Thursday was up on a stand watching for deer. She was rewarded by a good specimen coming within range and firing wounded the animal. Coming down from the stand she started after the game but got astray in the woods, and was out all night Thursday. When darkness fell she started to build a shelter of boughs for herself, but a large bull moose resented her intrusion of his domain, and chased her away. On Friday Engineer Milton Doherty was requested to sound his whistle when passing the place and by this means Mrs. Steeves was able to find her way out. She was none the worse of her experience after getting out of the woods, but was greatly frightened when tackled by the moose. Better for Bulgaria to keep the faith to live with honor, than to die in dishonor, for surely does she commit national suicide—win or lose—if she is false to the friends who make her a nation. "And their seed shall be dust in that day." "And their seed without power."

BODY IS FOUND IN GASPE HARBOUR

Believed to be Member of Crew of Missing Steamer Kron Prinz Olav

Quebec, Que., Oct. 18.—The discovery in Gaspé harbor of the body of an unidentified sailor leads to the belief that the first substantial proof of the loss of the steamer Kron Prinz Olav is at last found; after the vessel has been missing three weeks to-day. The body was found last Friday floating at the entrance of the harbor and Coroner Joncas, of Gaspé Basin, established that the body must have been in the water about three weeks, which would co-ordinate with the loss of the ship, she being now exactly three weeks overdue. Nothing was found on the remains to aid in identification. The clothes, however, are those of a seaman and the man appears to be a Nova Scotian or a Swede, being fair haired.

WESTERN POTATOES SHIPPED TO ONTARIO

A Surplus of Two Million Bushels Reported in the Province of Alberta

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 19.—Owing to the failure of the Ontario potato crop this year certain dealers expressed the opinion that prices would reach two dollars a bag for that commodity before spring. Some of the large wholesalers along Front Street, however, when asked about the market situation, for potatoes, stated that there was no ground for such opinions.

Although the New Brunswick acreage of that crop was increased this season owing to former poor prices the market for potatoes has been limited. British Columbia, which was formerly supplied from there to the Province, is amply provided for by the west. Thus it will be seen that New Brunswick will still have a considerable surplus for Ontario.

Another important factor to be considered is the large crop in Alberta. That Province produced a surplus of over 200,000 bushels. Potatoes can be shipped profitably from there to the east. It is stated that several carloads are already on the way. The farmers can be bought, shipped in refrigerated cars, and laid down in Toronto for 95 cents a bag. As wholesalers' and retailers' commission amounts to about 40 cents it means that should potatoes go much beyond the present price ($1.50) shipments from the west will be made to Ontario in large quantities.

This is the first time the west has been able to export potatoes which is owing to the increased production particularly in and around the towns and cities. The latter fact also accounts for the low price at which they may be bought, for the nearness of the crop to the railroad aids in cutting down transportation expenses. Those produced on heavy land will not, however, and must be used locally. As a great deal of the soil is light however, the bulk of the crop is in excellent condition for exporting.—Toronto Globe.

SERENT ENQUIRY ABOUT ZAM-BUK

Some Sensational Revelations. A party, both interested and curious, recently set afoot a secret inquiry from a number of persons who had been reported as giving testimonials to the value of Zam-Buk. The Rev. A. D. McLeod, of Harcourt, N. B., was asked his candid opinion of the preparation. This is what he said: "As to my personal opinion of Zam-Buk, I think it is simply wonderful. I know of nothing like it. Having charge of an extensive mission and travelling among my people, I have lots of opportunity for observation; and I find that for old sores, ulcers, eczema, abscesses, skin diseases and the like—not only occurring in young and middle-aged people, but in the aged—Zam-Buk is really marvellous. It works cures at a trivial cost, and if Zam-Buk were in every home, I know it would save many a doctor's bill."

J. E. Arsenault, the well-known Station Master at Wellington, P.E.I. (a magistrate for the district, too), who was heard to have spoken highly of Zam-Buk, was also approached and asked his opinion. "Certainly I will tell you," he replied. "Some years ago I began to suffer from eczema on my legs. I went to a doctor, but the disease persisted. Another doctor failed to cure me, and I then turned to various advertised remedies. I got no relief, and the disease persisted for years, sometimes very bad, sometimes a little better. Then Zam-Buk was recommended. I tried it. I persevered with it, and the result is that today I am free from every trace of eczema. Believe me, Zam-Buk does what is claimed for it, and I, for one, have proved it."

Several other persons were interviewed. One lady said Zam-Buk had cured her of ulcers which had troubled her for four years. Another lady—the mother of a large family—said her children had so often proved the value of Zam-Buk that whenever they got a cut or a bruise they never bothered her, but went and got the Zam-Buk box.

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in St. Andrew's Church Hall, Tuesday, October 26th at 8.30 p. m.

Donations recently received by Women's Institute—6 doz. cheese cloth handkerchiefs by Miss Joudry's Sunday School Class; 6 1/2 lbs. yarn by Mrs. H. B. Kendrick and Mrs. J. T. White; $2.00 cash by Judge Bodkin; $1.00 by Mrs. B. Lutz.

Since Miss Winter's visit to the Campbellton Women's Institute in September 1914, our efforts have been devoted exclusively to Patriotic work. The taking up of this work by the Women's Institute secured the hearty support of the people of Campbellton and vicinity.

Money was raised during the year in the following ways, viz: three teas, a bean guessing contest; sale of flag pins, three patriotic concerts, a May day sale at Marquis & Co's store, 10% being the share for the Institute on all cash sales, flowers, tea, cake, and candy being also sold in the store that day, lastly a garden party held in Mrs. Patterson's grounds.

The collection for the Hospital Ship Fund was taken up early in August, when $479.85 was realized.

The total amount of cash raised during the year was $1397.46. This includes cash donations received and acknowledged through the Press from time to time.

This money was distributed among the following worthy objects, viz: Hospital Ship Fund, $479.85. Five coats in La Tiquette Hospital, France, at $50 each.

One of these being furnished by fourteen school girls. Women's Institute Motor Ambulance, $50.00.

Hospital Supplies, $25.00. Band Instruments for 55 Batt. at Valcartier, $20.

Campbellton Brass Band, $24.18. Campbellton Boy Scouts, $5.00. Campbellton Town Council for trees, $75.00.

The sum of $377.29 was used in paying current expenses and buying materials for the work from which the following shipments were made: 530 pairs of socks, 30 scarfs, 25 belts, 1 suit of pajamas, 242 wash cloths, 101 night shirts, 43 wristlets, 11 pairs mitts, 25 nightgates, 32 flannel shirts, 6 scarfs, 36 caps, 7 pillow cases, 1 bolster, 4 pillows, 2 sheets, 69 trousers, 50 hosiery, 21 packages of absorbent cotton, 1 package of old linen.

POTATOES AND APPLES '50 P. C. SHORT THIS YEAR

Prices Better and Shortage More Than Made Up—Good Year For Oats in New Brunswick

J. B. Daggett, the secretary of agriculture, has furnished the board of trade with the following review of the crop conditions in New Brunswick:

"With the exception of the turnip crop, the harvest in the province has been pretty well gathered. On the whole it is a very satisfactory one. The season has been somewhat difficult for the farmers, because of the excessive wet weather and unusual frosts.

"The hay crop throughout the province is over the average of the last several years. In the county of Carleton in some localities it is short, owing to the extreme cold in the month of May, but in York, Sunbury, Kings, Kent and Westmorland counties the shortage is more than made up. There will be sufficient for local consumption and the usual quantity for export.

"The oat crop is a very satisfactory one, the acreage being twenty-five per cent larger than last year, and the yield per acre fully ten per cent greater, with the exception of the North Shore counties, where it is below the average.

"In wheat, there was an increase of twenty-five per cent sown over the previous year, and the yield is excellent.

"The acreage in turnips is about equal to previous years and the harvest will be a splendid one.

"Barley and peas are not generally raised in the province, but the acreage is about the same as usual, with good returns.

"The potato crop is about fifty per cent short of last year. This is accounted for by the fact that the fertilizer used this year was not up to the standard in potash and the potatoes are not as large as usual. There was a considerable decrease in acreage planted. The very showery weather in the month of August, followed by extreme heat, caused the plants to blight, with the result that there is considerable rot. The outlook is that the prices will be good for clean stock and the sum total of receipts from the potato crop will be much in excess of last year and much more profitable even with the small harvest.

"There was an increased acreage sown to buckwheat, but the frosts of August damaged the crop seriously and there will be considerable shortage.

"Apples are fully fifty per cent short of last year. This is accounted for by the cold weather during the period when the fruit was setting, which caused weakness, resulting in a large number of drops.

The reply was, "My brother and I were out in India. I was attacked by a tiger and my brother came to the rescue, saving my life, and in the fight the tiger killed him. This is the skin of my brother's blood upon this skin. It makes it precious to me."

The Lord Jesus Christ not only risked His life, but gave His life to rescue us from death. That death, that blood, makes Him precious to us.

UNCALCULATING COURTESY "Why did you do that?" a passenger on a street car asked a conductor, who—at cost of some inconvenience—had left his station at the door to carry a valise for a mother who held a baby in her arms. "If there were some officer of the company here to see your act, there would have been reason for it, but as I'm the only passenger, you have had your trouble for your pains."

"No, indeed!" was the reply. "If I hadn't helped her I would have felt mean the rest of the day."

"You mean to tell me he treats every customer like that?" a man said to an employer, whom he had been congratulating on a clerk whose general ways had attracted him. "Then he is worth the twenty-five dollars a month extra you pay him."

One reason the young man was worth the extra twenty-five dollars was that he would have been just as courteous if he had not received a cent for it.—Adult B. C.

INTERESTING NEW PLANT AT GASPE, P. Q.

Shepard & Morse Lumber Co. Operating in New Field.—Excellent Equipment

In the Canadian Lumberman and Woodworker for October, there appears an illustrated article with reference to the new plant of the Shepard & Morse Lumber Co. at Gaspé, which will be of interest to our readers in this district. The Canada Lumberman and Woodworker says:—

"The accompanying illustration will give readers of the Canada Lumberman an idea of the appearance of the plant which has been completed at Gaspé, P. Q. this year, by the Shepard & Morse Lumber Company, Boston, Mass. The construction of a sawmill plant in Gaspé was not so easy as it would be in most other parts of Canada. In the first place, the winter in Gaspé is about two months longer than in almost any other part of Canada. One may gather two some idea of the length and rigor of the winter from the fact that, early in the month of May, the Shepard & Morse Company were teaming across the ice. In fact, it was only a short time previous to the first week in May of this year that the company teamed their last 11-ton boiler across the ice from the railroad to the mill.

The plant which the company has erected at Gaspé is equipped for sawing deals of any thickness. During the present year they have been sawing almost entirely the English market. If, in the future, the company wish to enter the South American trade, their equipment is such that they can easily do so.

The illustration shows how well the company is equipped for water shipment. Their dock is about 600 feet long and will accommodate two ocean steamers at one time. The steamer shown lying at the dock, is the Eagle Point, 3307 tons. She was engaged to carry troops and supplies to England and was loaded with about 700,000 feet of lumber from the Lawrence River. It will be seen that a schooner was also loading at the same time. The illustration does not show the shingle mill. Close to the dock the company have 35 acres of level land, on which they stick a large quantity of lumber. An important feature in connection with the securing of supplies for the company's operations is the fact that they have built a large warehouse upon the dock and can land supplies direct from the steamers that come down the St. Lawrence River from Montreal. The importance of this will be realized readily when one takes into consideration the fact that the country in the neighborhood of Gaspé is very thinly settled, and the company therefore have to take care of practically all their men. In order to make the men comfortable the company have erected a commodious bunk house and a cook house. They expect that in the near future they will find it necessary to increase this accommodation.

During the present year the output of this mill will be in the neighborhood of 16,000,000 feet. Although the timber at Gaspé is not large, it is very conveniently located. The company's limits contain from 200,000,000 to 300,000,000 feet, which can be readily logged. The drive is a short one and only occupies a few weeks. Next year, if conditions are favorable, the company expect to take out a much larger cut. This year they had their output practically all sold before starting the mill.

In order to furnish material for the local trade the company have erected a planing mill, the equipment of which includes a planing mill resaw and a modern fast feed planing machine, including profiling attachment, on which they can dress almost any kind of lumber or turn out moulding. They have also put up a shingle mill, and so are in an exceptionally good position to take care of the local coasting trade in dressed lumber and shingles.

One of the chief considerations that induced the company to locate at Gaspé is the excellent port which is there available. This is a most important matter because many of the other ports on the Gaspé Peninsula have very bad reputations, their roads being open, with very little shelter for vessels. Nowadays, when it is so difficult to secure sufficient tonnage to move lumber abroad, the good harbor at Gaspé is a great advantage, as vessels will load there when they will not load at any of the other ports. The station is also a good one in connection with the St. Lawrence river trade, as Gaspé is almost in a direct line on route from Montreal to Great Britain. Nearly all steamers on this route must pass near by. Last year, when the Shepard & Morse Company had only a small operation at Gaspé, steamers were frequently chartered which took on part of their load up the St. Lawrence and completed at Gaspé.

The sawmill at Gaspé cuts spruce logs only, and has a capacity of 90,000 feet per day of ten hours. The main building is 30 feet wide by 204 feet long and is of wood construction. Logs are carried into the mill on an endless steel chain haul-up and kicked onto the log deck by a steam kicker.

URGES PEOPLE OF INDIA TO GIVE DREADNOUGHT

Rajah on Active Service Writes to Press in Bombay.

Bombay, Oct. 19.—The Rajah Ratham, in active service in France, writes to the local press suggesting that the Princes and people of India present one Dreadnought to the British navy in recognition of the protection afforded by the navy to India's coast and commerce.

The Rajah asks whether India is content to permit "the little islands of Britain to find money for all."

The deck is equipped with a steam deck stop and loader and a steam nigger. The hand is a double cutting mill with 8-foot wheels and takes a saw 14 in. wide, 14 gauge. The carriage is all of steel construction and is operated by a twin engine rope feed rig. The resaw is a 7-foot Clark horizontal machine with several unique features in its design, which enable it to turn out a large amount of lumber at a minimum labor cost. It is expected that 90 per cent of the output of the mill will be made on the resaw. It has a double table, so that both sides of the table can be worked entirely separately, and stock can be sawed by steam networks that regulate the thickness, lowering and raising the table to make the required thickness instantly. This machine is almost a sawmill in itself. After one slab has been taken off the log it can be handled entirely on the horizontal resaw and sawed into any desired thickness.

The edger is of the large double table type. The slabs and edgings are cut into 48 in. lengths on a 5 saw slasher. The trimmer is of the two saw "Canadian" type. Two men can trim any length wanted from 6 to 20 feet. The lumber drops from the trimmer onto a set of assorting chains 100 feet long, where it is placed onto the yard tracks according to size and grade. The mill throughout is equipped with all necessary rolls and transfers to handle stock quickly and economically. The filling room is located overhead, so that the band mill and resaw can be hoisted into it from the machines.

The plant was designed by Clark Bros. Company of Olean, N. Y., who furnished all the machinery except the engines and boilers. The Calhoun Bros., who are managers of the Shepard & Morse Gaspé properties, superintended the construction of the mill last winter and have succeeded in producing one of the most economical mills in Canada in regard to the number of men employed per thousand feet of lumber manufactured.

The plant is furnished with power by 4 boilers, 72 in. x 16 ft., which were furnished by the Waterous Engine Works Company Ltd., Brantford, Ont.

DECISION DEFERRED The congregation of the Charlotte street Baptist church in West St. John are still in doubt as to whether or not Rev. J. H. Jenner will accept the call to their church. He spoke at both services Sunday and made a profound impression. After the evening service a general meeting was held and the visiting clergyman was asked if he had decided to accept the call. He said that he would have to consider before he would give a definite answer. The congregation of his church in Campbellton had treated him so well, he said, that he was loath to leave them and although he was receiving the offer of a larger field, and the inducement of being able to meet other clergymen of his own denomination, he would not immediately give his decision.

STEAMER ASHORE The steamship Lady of Gaspe, of the Gaspe Steamship Company, which went ashore on Wednesday in a dense fog about half a mile below the Quebec Bridge site, is still fast aground and is taking considerable water in the engine room and number two compartment.

Being the same caste as the "Lucille Love" serial, patrons are assured of a splendid entertainment.

COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT Salem, Mass., People Getting Tired. Salem, Mass., is one of the cities that is not satisfied with the commission form of municipal government that it adopted four years ago. The new-fangled style has not proven satisfactory and a few months ago an improvement was sought by recalling the mayor, a new chief executive being elected. This step has not proven the remedy that was hoped and the people of Salem are now arriving at the opinion that it is the form of government, not the personnel of the officials that is at fault. So a new move is being made and Salem desires now to try a mayor and council board, the members of the latter to be selected partly by wards and partly at large. A similar movement is reported from Lynn, which also has the commission form. These are increasing evidence that the voters of Bangor made a wise decision when they so emphatically turned down the commission fallacy last month.

PLAY AT TIDE HEAD The young people of Tide Head are purposing putting on a play in the hall at Tide Head on Wednesday evening, October 27th.
