BUILDINGS BURNED AT FAIRVILLE

Fire Station And Five Other Buildings Destroyed Tuesday Night.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 17.—Starting presumably in the fire station and wiping out the village's fire fighting apparatus, fire about four o'clock this morning destroyed six buildings, including three others at Fairville. For a time it looked as if the whole of Main Street would be swept to the ground. A rough estimate places the loss at $50,000. People were driven out of their homes into a street and snow storm. The city sent fire apparatus to fight the conflagration, but it meant a three mile run and the fire gained great headway before it was being well fought.

Narrow Escape.
Miss Gillis, who was living next door to the engine house, awoke to find her room filled with smoke. She alarmed the household and they saw the adjoining building wrapped in flames. Rushing upstairs to awaken one of his sons, Mr. Gillis found the flames breaking through the partition right over the boy's bed and all seized what clothes they could find and rushed out.
A night call boy of the C. P. R. making his rounds rang the fire alarm but the firemen were helpless to do anything as their fire equipment was in the burning building and when they broke open the door great volumes of smoke and flame drove them back.

CIRCUIT COURT AT DALHOUSIE

The only case before the Court was that of J. B. Swain of Toronto vs. The J. & D. A. Harquail Co., Ltd. Messrs. J. B. M. Baxter and H. A. Carr for the prosecution and A. T. LeBlanc for the defence. The trial occupied the attention of the Court all day Tuesday, and Court reserved decision.

MILLS CLOSED.
All the long lumber mills have closed down for the season. The Shives Shingle mill has enough logs piled to keep it in operation for about two months.

S., where she will take charge of a large class of pupils. Miss Rand during her residence in Campbellton has made many friends who will sincerely regret to learn of her departure.

ROBBERS MAILED

Treasure Car of Mail Train Robbed of One Million Dollars.

Omaha, Nov. 4.—What may prove to be the biggest haul by train robbers in the history of the United States mail service was made last night between Omaha and Council Bluffs when the treasure car of the through fast mail from San Francisco to New York was looted. While the exact amount stolen will not be known for perhaps a month, investigators say the loss may reach $1,000,000. It was first reported that the robbers had obtained a large gold shipment from the San Francisco Mint to the Treasury in Washington and that their plunder in gold, currency, bonds and jewels amounted to $10,000,000 or $12,000,000. Official denial was made, however, that the train carried a gold shipment.

GOVERNOR PUGSLEY.
(Fredericton Mail.)

The Province of New Brunswick should be proud of its Lieutenant Governor. As an orator and statesman he is in the front rank and has no superiors in the Dominion of Canada. His address delivered at the Armistice Day celebration at Fredericton Nov. 11th was a masterpiece and commanded the closest attention of the large and intelligent audience referring to the spirit of earnest which prevails through the country today his honor made an eloquent plea for tolerance and respect for the opinions of others and said "let us all strive together with a common purpose to develop the great agricultural and industrial resources of our country, so as to make it a land of happy homes and a contented and law abiding people." His honor in concluding his gallant New Brunswick boys who gave up their lives for the cause of liberty in the great war. The sentiment to which he gave expression elicited the hearty approval of the great audience.

R. R. OFFICIALS ON CARAQUET LINE

Find Facilities Far From Adequate to Handle Immense Traffic.

Mr. L. S. Brown, General Superintendent, Mr. Martin, Divisional Superintendent, Mr. Evans of the Engineering Department and Mr. C. G. Johnson, manager of the Caraquet branch, started on Wednesday accompanied by Mr. Angus McLean of the Bathurst Lumber Co., on an inspection trip of the Caraquet Branch. The party travelled in Mr. Brown's private car which was attached to the regular train, and so had an excellent opportunity to see the railway under working conditions.

They visited every station along the line to the eastern terminus at Tracadie, and were firmly convinced from what they observed that the facilities of the county demands the very best possible facilities. As a first result of the trip of inspection, new sidings were immediately ordered for practically every station.

Plans were also perfected for the adding of another engine to the operating equipment, and an extra train will at once be put on the line to handle the immense amount of way freight to be carried, so as to enable the regular passenger and express trains to keep more closely to their schedules. The inspecting party state that they found a great improvement in the railway from Grand Assise down, but could easily see that permanent improvement cannot be expected until heavier rails replace those now in use. Every effort is to be made to install these heavy rails at least as far as to Grand Assise from Gloucester this year, and it is expected that Mr. Brown will recommend that this work be proceeded with at once.

The amount of traffic which the country served by the Caraquet branch is capable of producing, was an eye opener to the officials, and with every needed improvement upon their attention, there is every reason to believe that the officials will be their utmost to get the railway in proper shape.

SERIOUSLY BURNED.

On Sunday morning Mr. E. G. Christie, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada here was seriously burned about the head, arms and chest through an explosion of coal gas from the furnace at his residence. Medical aid was at once summoned and Mr. Christie's burns dressed. Mr. Christie had put some coal on the furnace, and later went down to close off the drafts and before doing so noticed there was little or no flame opened the furnace door to see how the fire was progressing, when an explosion occurred, flame, gas and soot striking him in the face and breast. Fortunately Mr. Christie immediately closed his eyes, otherwise there is little doubt he would have lost the sight of these. As it was he was badly burned about face and breast as well as having one of his hands badly burned. The eye brows were completely burned off, hair from front of head to back badly singed. His forehead and one side of face were also badly burned. Mr. Christie's injuries are it is thought however not such as warrant any disfigurement. He will be confined to his home for a week or so.

EDITOR'S MAIL.

Editor of Graphic, Campbellton, N. B.

Dear Sir: It seems that putting up buildings in winter has become a chronic disease with some of our town officials.

After last winter's experience one would think that the Town of Campbellton would be through for all time with this permanent bane of putting up town buildings, but it seems that someone has taken a pledge to waste and squander as much of the ratepayer's hard-earned money as possible and for that purpose make us pay about double the value for our town buildings and other improvements.

The death of Mrs. Ann Enright took place at the home of her son Mr. F. A. Enright, here Tuesday evening, Nov. 11th. The deceased lady, who was in her 74th year was highly respected and much esteemed and her passing away will be deeply mourned by a large circle of friends, who formerly lived in Hopetown, P. The family will have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in the loss of their beloved and respected mother. The funeral services which were held on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 13th, were largely attended.

And this is the time of year when men ask each other, "How is your wife going to vote?" And the men answer, "She's going to vote the same way I do." And the women ask each other, "Are you going to vote the way your husband does?" And they answer, "He thinks I am."

TOWN COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

Town Engineer and Manager Discussed Disposal of German Guns.

(Crowded out of last issue)

A meeting of the Town Council was held in the Town Clerk's office Friday evening, His Worship Mayor Murray presiding.

There were present Councillors Currie, Bisset, Devereaux and Matthews.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A letter from Engineer F. W. Holt, re clearing land about Smith Lake in preparation for increasing holding capacity was read and referred to the Town Engineer.

Robt. Gray asked for license to conduct a second hand goods store. Referred to Police and License Committee.

A number of departmental reports were adopted and accounts ordered paid.

Coun. Devereaux of the Police and License Com. reported that during the absence of a policeman through illness another officer had been sworn in. He also stated that the police had been given strict orders to spare no pains to effect the arrest of the man known as "Jack the Huger," who is frightening ladies and girls about town.

The item of some $200 for insurance on the electric light plant and buildings brought up the matter of a sprinkler system for the Electric Light and Fire Station.

Coun. Devereaux moved that the Electric Light and Fire Committees take up the matter of installing sprinkler systems in their respective stations.—Carried.

The Town Clerk stated that the first payment due the government would be due in a few days. The amount was $1,644.97. Of this amount there had been paid in the fund by the parties to whom loans were made $125.58, but the balance would be paid when payments were due. There were no arrears. All had paid their instalments.

On motion the amount $1644.97 was ordered paid.

Coun. Devereaux asked if it was permissible to block the streets with fire wood etc. A citizen on Roseberry St. had used the street nearly all summer in building, now he had piled his fire wood on it.

His Worship read by covering the matter and Coun. Currie of the Streets department said he would have the wood removed.

Coun. Currie asked what was going to be done in regard to engaging an engineer for the town.

A considerable discussion took place upon the advisability of engaging an engineer and making him general superintendent or town manager.

During this discussion the fact that Coun. Dickie and Coun. Jamieson were both out of town and would be for some months, was brought out and it was decided to elect two new councillors if the two old ones were willing to resign.

Coun. Matthews asked what had been done with the German guns.

His Worship said the big gun had been stored at the old fire station and the machine guns were at present at the four drug stores. No permanent place had yet been selected for them.

Coun. Currie suggested that the big gun be placed at the school grounds and the machine guns in the assembly hall of the schools because of their historic value.

The matter of disposing of the extra building tiles was left in the hands of the Fire Protection Committee.

Coun. Devereaux moved that the Council advertise for a Town Engineer.—Carried.

Coun. Devereaux said that the matter of increased salaries for the Clerk and Treasurer should be taken up. All other town employees had been given an increase except them.

His Worship said that the Finance Committee should hold a meeting and make a recommendation.

Coun. Devereaux asked if Duncan Street was to be put in shape this fall.

Coun. Currie said that the street department was very busy preparing for winter, but he would endeavor to have scraper sent up there to level off the street.

The Council then adjourned.

KENT-YOUNG.

At Bathurst, on Wednesday, Miss Marjorie Young, Caracquet, daughter of F. T. B. Young, was married to Harold Kent, son of W. J. Kent, by Rev. A. D. Archibald.

The bride wore a tailored costume of African brown velvet. With this was worn a fur beaver hat of blue boxers draped with brown. The bouquet carried was bride's roses. Miss Helen Young attended her sister and was gowned in blue georgette crepe with trimmings of jet beads. She carried pale pink roses, wore furs of ermine and close fitting hat of rust-colored satin.

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES LOST THEIR LIVES

Were Walking on Track When Train Swept Down on Them.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 14.—On Sunday, two C. N. R. employees, George Geddes and Robert Gamble were struck and instantly killed by the Westbound Ocean Limited at Humphrey's a suburb two miles east of Moncton. Gamble and Geddes were walking along the railway track when they met an eastbound freight special. The C. N. R. is double tracked between Moncton and Paines Junction. When they met the special, Gamble and Geddes stepped on the track used by the westbound train. The Ocean Limited from Halifax just then came along and killed them.

UNEMPLOYED IN TORONTO Toronto, Nov. 9.—"It is practically certain that at least 9,000 men are at present looking for work in this city," said Rev. F. A. Miller, superintendent of the Provincial Employment Bureau here today. Miller stated that he could place 2,000 men at once if they were willing to go to the woods, where they would receive from $65 to $75 a month with board.

PRICE FALLING. One of the largest dealers in pulp wood, operating in Eastern Canada informed the Canadian Press recently that a big slump in pulp wood prices may be expected in another season. Those who have contracted for 1921 delivery at the present prices may consider themselves fortunate, he said. On account of the stringency in the money market, and the uncertainty of prices for 1922 delivery, he predicted operations in the pulp woods another season will be greatly curtailed.

MORE TYPHOID AT DALHOUSIE

Serious State of Affairs At Shiretown—Who is Responsible.

Dalhousie, N. B., Nov. 12th, 1920.

Editor of Graphic.

For six months Dalhousie has been having an epidemic of Typhoid fever. Up to the present, about one case, to every fifth dwelling—a heavy percentage.

I am continually asked, "what is the cause of this?" The answer is very simple—it is of great interest and I shall publish my reply, where all may see it.

Up till the year 1914, at which time our water system had been in operation six years, during the whole history of the town of Dalhousie, a case of typhoid had never originated there. In that year, a so-called well which drained more than a dozen cesspools, was connected with, and their contents pumped into our town water mains. A very short time after and ever since, we have had much typhoid, reaching a climax at present as above stated.

The two men most in the public eye and active in this matter were Wm. Montgomery and Alex. J. LeBlanc, respectively Mayor and Town Clerk at the time—also president and secretary of the company that owned this well.

The reason of its purchase, was to secure $2000.00 for this company and they did receive it—with the assistance of the Aldermen of the day, who voted for the deal.

At the time, these men were publicly warned by the Chairman of the Board of Health for Restigouche County, that their conduct would imperil the lives and health of the people of Dalhousie. The writer, as a citizen, who desired to protect his family and himself from poisoning by these men also publicly warned them, "that their conduct would cause deaths from typhoid poisoning and intestinal disease and that their victims would carry tickets to the next world counterigned by Alex. J. LeBlanc, Town Clerk."

So far we have had three deaths, one widow, five orphans and the misery, anxiety and expense of numerous cases of typhoid poisoning—the result, I believe, of this misconduct.

The most horrible side of this matter was our perfect helplessness in these men's hands. By petition, personal interview, pleading and every means in our power we besought these men, not to poison our water system and families by this fifth, but without avail. Wm. Montgomery said, "I've got the power and I'm going to use it." Alex. J. LeBlanc said, "We are going to do it any way." And they did. When a mad dog threatens your life, you may shoot it. What would be the proper treatment for all those concerned in this outrage?

A law existed at this time to prevent men of this kind, from poisoning and polluting a public water supply. Those concerned in this matter brushed this law aside, ignored it, lawlessly seized our property—that is our water system and worked their will with it.

The Town money for the purchase of this cesspool and for connecting it with the town system, some $3000.00 was taken lawlessly and dishonestly. Those concerned in this affair, were so conscious of this, that eight months after this whole outrage was completed they secured special legislation to authorize it.

What an ideal state of society it would be if the murderer, burglar, highwayman, etc. could carry on their gentle callings, get away with the swag, and then secure absolution by special act of legislature.

The only parallel case I can recall is a former political boss of Brooklyn, who received ten years in Sing Sing.

This whole scheme was a gamble, which I believe has turned out rather badly. Alex. J. LeBlanc bears the reputation of being, an habitual thorn gambler. Well he gambled this time with the typhoid germ and lost.

The end is not yet here, year after year the death list from typhoid poisoning will be added to, and the toll of misery increased. Were I in the remotest way connected with this matter, I would sleep badly at nights, with the ghosts of the victims hopping in my pillow, and whispering in my ear—"you poisoned me!" I warned those people what would occur—it has happened.

I have seen all the horror of this poisoning, in the work of my profession among my patients. I invite the men who were prominent in this matter, to come with me and see the ravages typhoid poisoning has wrought on four of Neil McNeill's innocent children.

How far does personal responsibility go in a matter of this kind? In a small town, a certain man, not wilfully, only carelessly, and not knowing it, allowed a little sewerage to escape into a small brook from which a village took its water supply. Several deaths from typhoid poisoning occurred, he was sued for damages and had to pay $25,000.00. This only occurred last year.

Ignorance cannot be pleaded in this case. Ample warning was given of the consequences that would flow from this misconduct. The whole affair shows a lawless, reckless, deliberate and callous indifference to human life and health. All for $2000.00 "blood money."

The above in my opinion, is the cause of typhoid poisoning in Dalhousie! I have also tried to show whom I believe to be responsible for it.

A Yours truly,
A. G. FERGUSON.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast! A little Dandruff tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knedon's Dandruff from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little. Save your hair! Try it.

TIME FOR ACTION.

Mr. F. M. Anderson has taken a further step to call Hon. C. H. LaBille's bluff. In another column he publishes a copy of his affidavit making certain charges against Hon. Mr. LaBille and offers one hundred dollars towards paying the expenses of a libel action against himself. Mr. Anderson is sure of his ground and in this he is backed up by Messrs. John Quinn and John Haquell.

It will take more than a simple denial from Hon. Mr. LaBille to convince his friends throughout Restigouche that he did not make the proposition to these gentlemen as stated. In justice to his friends he must take some action. What will it be?

Canada has proved she can pay the heavy interest charges on her debt and meet all other calls. Can she also meet all her war obligations as they come due without further loans? In October $9,000,000 more revenue was collected than in October of a year ago. For the same month the expenditure was $9,000,000 less. There was, however, only a surplus of revenue over expenditures of $5,000,000 after all expenditures, including interest were paid, that would meet next year's payments on war loans easily, but if the total debt is to be met as it comes due, without further financing, the surplus each month must be brought to about $11,000,000 after paying the interest, as interest charges, which

He was a beginner—a recruit—and it was the first time he had held a service rifle. A scorching sun, shone down on the ranges and the bare white targets—really only 100 yards away—seemed like ladies' pocket handkerchiefs on the skyline. With chattering teeth and perspiration pouring down his brow, the recruit crooked his finger round the trigger, then shut his eyes and waited for that terrible thud with which the rifle kicks back into the shoulder. Disgustedly the sergeant behind him watched the performance.

"No need to wait for that shot to be signalled," he growled when at last the rifle spoke.

But to the sergeant and the fire's amazement, a bull's-eye was signalled. The sergeant hid his amazement at once, and in a perfectly social manner muttered:

"No wonder you got it. You covered the whole target."

FOREST SITUATION IS SPLENDID

Montreal, Nov. 15.—Addressing the Canadian Club today, Ellwood Wilson, manager of the forestry division of the Laurentide Company, Limited, on "conservation of our forests," stated that much progress had been made in the last ten years by the Govin administration, more than had ever been hoped for.

The situation in New Brunswick is splendid, he said, whilst that in the province of Ontario has very far behind. The province of British Columbia is right up in the van. The Dominion government is still engaged in administering forest lands and doing very little else.

One aeroplane, he pointed out, did more for survey work in one day than four parties of ten men could do in a month under the old system.

now amount to nearly $10,000,000 monthly, decrease with the paying off of principal amounts, less revenue will be needed to get this surplus.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

The outlook for the present winter is not the best, and many fear that there will be much suffering throughout the Dominion.

The latest bulletin of the employment service of Canada, Department of Labor, referring to New Brunswick says:—"For the week ending October 23 employment reports were tabulated from 412 firms in the maritime provinces with a combined pay-roll of 68,510 employees, showing that as compared with their returns for the preceding week, they had reduced their staffs by 1,544 persons, or two and two-tenths per cent."

For the same week the net decrease so far as tabulated for all Canada was 7,854, and it was added that further declines, though not as great, were anticipated for the next week in half a dozen great industries.

In the lumber industry there is a great curtailment, but on the other hand there is great activity in the pulpwood lines.

Johnny paid his first visit to a farm the other day. All his life he had lived in the heart of a great city and when he came suddenly in sight of a haystack he stopped and gazed earnestly at what appeared to him as a brand of architecture.

"Say, Mr. Smith," he remarked to the farmer, pointing to the haystack, "why don't they have doors and windows in it?"

"Doors and windows!" smiled the farmer. "That ain't a house, Johnny; that's hay!"

Don't try to josh me, Mr. Smith," was the scornful rejoinder. "Don't you suppose I know that hay don't grow in humps like that?"

He was a beginner—a recruit—and it was the first time he had held a service rifle. A scorching sun, shone down on the ranges and the bare white targets—really only 100 yards away—seemed like ladies' pocket handkerchiefs on the skyline.

CANON SCOTTON THE ROSS RIFLE

Toronto, Nov. 13.—Rev. Canon Scott of Quebec, a chaplain with the Canadian forces overseas, in an address to the Women's Canadian Club here yesterday vigorously condemned the Ross rifle and the furnishing of the Ross rifle to the Canadian soldiers. He characterized it as "the crime of crimes." He severely criticized the dominion government for having paid Sir Charles Ross three million dollars for his rifle factory. He declared that the Ross rifle matter was one of the things Canada should clear up.

A negro was an important witness in a trial in the Court-house of a little town in the south, and he was carefully coached by his lawyer and told exactly what to say.

When Mr. Brown, the lawyer, left the negro, just before the trial commenced, Abe knew his evidence off by heart, but when he entered the crowded court room and saw the sea of faces all around him he suffered from a severe attack of "wind-up."

His lawyer stood up, and, gently and kindly, and with a winning smile, said:

"Now, Abe, tell the judge and jury everything you know about the case."

Abe looked startled and glanced fearfully around the court, then he gasped:

"When I started for the Court-house this mornin' dey was only two people in the world dat knew what I wuz to say—me and Massa Brown. Now Massa Brown am de only one dat knows."

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS

Medical reports show men are more subject to appendicitis, although many sudden cases occur among women. It can be guarded against by preventing intestinal infection. The intestinal antiseptic, Adler's-Ika, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing all food, decaying matter which might cause infection. It brings out mucus you never thought was in your system and which may have been poisoning you for months. Adler's-Ika is EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach.

F. M. ANDERSON SAYS IT IS TRUE

Willing to Pay Over Money to Get Legal Proceedings Started.

Mr. F. M. Anderson has handed the following statement for publication: PROVINCE OF NEW BRUNSWICK, COUNTY OF RESTIGOUCHE.

I, Fred M. Anderson, of the town of Campbellton, in the County of Restigouche and province of New Brunswick, Lumberman, make oath and say:

1. That on the 18th of July 1916 I went to Dalhousie in company with John Hargrave and John Quinn and met Charles R. Labilliot at his house.

2. In conversation with Mr. Labilliot concerning a conversation he had with Mr. John Hargrave some days before in connection with his becoming a candidate or running in opposition to Arthur T. LeBlanc and William Currie, Mr. Labilliot told us that for the sum of $2500.00 he would not become a candidate in the then coming provincial elections but would canvass and do all he could in support of Arthur T. LeBlanc and William Currie.

3. He stated he had mortgages on his property to Messrs. Hayes and McDennell which mortgages he wanted to pay off.

4. He told him that we had no authority to make any such arrangement, that the whole executive would have to be consulted. We talked the same day with some of the members of the executive of the Liberal Association and one and all declared that they would not pay Mr. Labilliot one cent, and no money was paid him nor was promised him.

A. McE. McDONALD, A commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the Supreme Court.

I will deposit with Mr. John G. ORPINGTON

MUCH CHANGED

Soldiers' Wife Visits Famous Old Canadian Hotel—But Times Have Changed.

Helena Thomas, wife of a Canadian soldier, writes: "It's just twelve months since I was down at Orpington, in Kent. I was long from Canada, and was feeling homesick for a Canadian greeting and a Canadian atmosphere. I got them both at Orpington in 1918. With Canada at the station, the 'real maple-leaf' smiles, the friendly sentry at the hospital gate, the unconventional greetings from the 'boys' in blue along the lanes, all made a little corner of Canada nestling there among the hills of Kent.

"It was the spring, 1920, and I've been down to visit Orpington again. I was feeling very Canadian; I had my Star Weekly (three weeks old to be sure; good things have happened) and some jolly Canadian letters to read in the train and I was feeling just as I did when I first got to Orpington.

"What strikes one first is the quietness and stillness. No lively Canadians making the place ring with fun and laughter. Only 'who gives the visitor—Canada—along the lanes, all made a little corner of Canada nestling there among the hills of Kent.

"The hospital is now occupied by the British Ministry of Pensions as a hospital for men requiring further treatment, and also as a training centre for teaching manual trades to disabled men, and there are a number of shell-shock cases under treatment. At present there are only about three hundred patients, but the whole hospital will soon be in operation. There are still a few C. A. M. C. men on the staff: Staff-Sergeant 'Archie' Ray, and Corp. Thomas, of Epsom; Sgt. Physiotherapist, better known as 'Pit' of the O. B. C. team.

"But there is one sacred corner of Canada here in Orpington, for all time. Up to the hill, past the quiet Angle, and so to the quiet God's Acre overlooking the hills of Kent. . . . Pause here with me in thought; this is holy ground, where among the daffodils and primroses they've laid to rest those boys who never went home to their heart's desire, Canada. For them no more meetings and partings, no more letters sent or welcomed, and for their folk crowded memories and thoughts that bruise and pain.

UNKNOWN SOLDIER BURIED IN ABBEY

Impressive Service At London on Armistice Day, November 11, 1926.

(London Mail.)

On Armistice Day, Nov. 11, London will witness one of the greatest spectacles in its history: in the presence of tens of thousands of people the King will unveil the Cenotaph erected in Whitehall "To the memory of the Glorious Dead." Afterwards the body of an unknown British soldier will be buried with the highest of honors which it is possible to pay a soldier of any rank, in Westminster Abbey.

As nearly as possible at the same moment the whole of the Empire will pay tribute to the heroic dead by suspending every activity for the space of two minutes. As last year, men and women will stop whatever they may be doing, great factories will be still, ships at sea will stop their engines. This will happen at eleven o'clock Greenwich time, when the King will draw aside the flags covering the Cenotaph.

The plans for the dual ceremony of the unveiling of the Cenotaph and the burial of the unknown soldier have been announced by Lord Cusson.

The military authorities, he said, will bring from France, probably on the evening of November 10, the body of an unknown British warrior who died in the early days of the war.

FUNERAL PROCESSION.

The body will be placed in a special coffin of simple design and laid on a gun carriage. There will be a funeral procession from Hyde Park to the Cenotaph. The King will be the chief mourner and the pall-bearers will be composed of Field Marshals, Admirals of the fleet, and the one Marshal of the Air (Sir H. M. Trenchard).

The route of the procession from the park will be: Constitution Hill, Admiralty, Chancery, and Whitehall. Massed bands will precede it, playing continually. Behind the body will march representative detachments of the three services, land, naval and air.

On arriving at the Cenotaph the procession will halt. The coffin will be placed immediately north of the Cenotaph and the second part of the ceremony, the unveiling of the monument, will begin.

The King will be accompanied by the Royal Princes, members of the Royal household and leading representatives of every department of the national life and of the Dominions will be grouped around the Cenotaph.

Massed choir will sing some well-known hymn. On the stroke of 11 the King will pull the chord releasing the flags dropping the Cenotaph, and the vast assembly will stand in absolute silence in honor of the dead. Then the Last Post will sound.

Earth from France.

The procession will reform and move slowly to the north door of the Abbey. The King, as the chief mourner will go on foot immediately behind the coffin. At the entrance the proceedings will be short and simple. A curtained bier service will be read, and as the coffin is lowered into the grave a field-marshal's salute of 19 guns will be fired on the Horse Guards Parade. Then the soil of the soldier's last battlefield will be thrown on the coffin.

To enable the large numbers of relatives of the fallen to pay their tributes to the dead, arrangements will be made for them to assemble on the Horse Guards' Parade and on the Embankment. It is proposed that those names begin with the letters of the first half of the alphabet shall meet at the Horse Guards and the remainder at the Embankment. Then when Whitehall and the space in front of the Abbey have been cleared they will be admitted to Whitehall and will walk past the Cenotaph. Those wishing to deposit wreaths will be able to do so as they pass.

A stream of people will be able to file past the grave of the unknown warrior in the Abbey. In the evening there will be a Requiem Service to which only relatives of the dead will be admitted.

AT THE ABBEY GATE.

What friend—Whence come you?

From a dark cave beneath a ruined street.

Oh friend, where fare you?

Why wouldst thou pass further?

To lay my heart down at our Mother's feet.

Whom call you Mother?

England—Nelson; thine;

Here where we bravely serve, in life, in death.

Her do I guard, friend—

Canst thou also serve her?

Aye, where they fall who do yet draw breath.

Who art thou, friend, then?

No name is mine—An unknown host am I.

Pass on, brave spirit.

Oh, 'tis I, the unknown warrior.

Dear lonely folk, know that their graves are tended and cared for. And after all, they served life to the full, tremendous moments that were the portals to the greatest thing of all.

THOUGHT SHE'D HAVE TO GIVE UP

Mrs. Kenny Had Suffered Eight Years Before Taking Tanlac—Is Now Well and Happy.

I'll never stop praising Tanlac since it's helped me so much, and I feel like going out and telling everybody about it," said Mrs. O. B. Kenny, of 75 Dresden Bow, Halifax, N. S.

For the past eight years I suffered dreadfully with stomach trouble and chronic indigestion. My appetite was poor, and for years I don't think I ate a good meal. The little I ate soured on my stomach and caused gas to press up into my chest and throat until I could hardly breathe. I had awful headaches that kept me confined to my beds for days at a time and left me in a terribly weakened condition. At night I was so nervous and restless I could scarcely sleep. I had no energy to do my housework, and I thought I would have to give up altogether, as I was getting worse all the time.

"I got a bottle of Tanlac one day and it gave me so much relief I kept on taking it until I had finished my seventh bottle, and all my troubles disappeared. My appetite is just splendid and I no longer suffer from indigestion or gas on my stomach. My washing is done as usual and I never have a sign of a headache. I sleep like a child and have regained all my strength and energy so that my housework is a real pleasure. I've also gained ten pounds in weight, and am feeling just fine in every way."

Tanlac is sold in Campbellton, by THOMAS WRAN, Druggist, in Archibald Settlement, by M. SNEARER, in Jacques River by S. McALLISTER, in River Charles by W. H. GLENDEENING, in Chandler by ARTHUR NADEAU, and by the RICHARDS MFG. CO. LTD., edgwick, N. B.

EDITOR'S MAIL.

THAT WORTHY COUNCILLOR.

In the Tribune of Oct. 27th, we find Mr. John Dickie, of Point La Poudre, spreading all over the paper. Everything he said could have been condensed to three lines. Evidently he was delirious that day. Description does upset the mind. The old fellow was not appointed road supervisor, hence his embittered fury. Who can name a poor fish when out of the water?

Mr. Dickie says his "hobby" is highway making. No doubt he meant his "dream," for he clearly shows his hobby to be highway making. One morning and found that his hope of being road supervisor "was but a dream."

Modesty is certainly not one of Mr. Dickie's virtues. From his most extravagant spill of ink in the Tribune, one might have thought he was the most important man in the county. He has a high opinion of himself, and this is shown in his "hobby" of highway making. He has a high opinion of himself, and this is shown in his "hobby" of highway making.

Mr. Dickie's famous resolution against colonization on the I. N. R. To his narrow judgment, the population of the County must not increase. The motion was lost and no wonder. The letter he wrote in the Graphic on the subject was deemed too ridiculous to deserve an answer. The above mentioned resolution can be found on page 80, in the "Report of the Municipality of Restigouche for 1919-20."

Those who follow the proceedings of our Municipal Council will recall this other fact. During the small-pox epidemic, a house belonging to a certain Dickie in Black Lands, was destroyed by fire, while Dr. N. Doucet, of Dalhousie, was disinfecting it. The proprietor of the house presented his account to the Council. A committee was appointed to make enquiries about the facts. Mr. John Dickie, of Point La Poudre, was a member of said committee, and without consulting the members of the Committee, held an inquest after his own fashion, and directed the Council to pay cost of said house. The Council then asked their legal adviser, Mr. Arthur T. LeBlanc of Campbellton if the Municipality was responsible to pay. On being informed that it was not, the majority of the Council rejected the account, Mr. John Dickie voting against the majority. The old man took advantage of a momentary absence from the room of a majority of the Councilors against the question, and against all regulations, brought back the matter before the Council. The bill was then passed and paid $1000.00 of the County.

And here is the man who poses as the Reformer of the Liberal Government. If he were not too old to learn a lesson, he might begin by reforming himself. He lost, not only his vote, but the respect of those he is vainly trying to enlighten. Had he more influence, he might be a dangerous tool. But he is as harmless as Potts of the "one language" fame.

A TRUE LIBERAL.

COUN. DICKIE HAS RESIGNED

Resignation Read At Council Meeting And Accepted—Other Business.

A meeting of the Town Council was called for Friday evening for the purpose of considering the resignation of John Dickie, which had been received. His Worship, Mayor Murray presiding.

There were present: Coun. Currie, Belle Isle, Devereaux, Ingram, Jamieson and Bisset.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

The clerk read the resignation of Coun. Thos. N. Dickie.

Coun. Devereaux moved that the resignation be accepted—Carried.

J. K. Pollock wrote in reference to his assessment. Referred to Assessment and Appeals Committee.

The departmental accounts were ordered paid.

In discussing the Public Charities accounts Coun. Currie said that he thought that the matter of a poor farm should be taken up. The need of it was more apparent every year. He mentioned the Dube family of five or six small children with neither mother or father fit to care for them. He thought an effort should be made to find homes for the smaller children of this family.

The matter was left in the hands of Coun. Jamieson.

Coun. Ingram brought up the matter of increased salaries for the Clerk and Treasurer. He proposed that the Clerk be given $150.00 per month and the Treasurer $175.00 dating from last May.

It was decided that the Finance Committee should hold a meeting and bring in a report on this matter at the next meeting.

The matter of filling Coun. Dickie's seat was taken up and the Clerk instructed to issue notices of election. Nomination day to be Tuesday, Nov. 23rd.

Coun. Devereaux moved that the Treasurer be authorized to pay grant, $1000.00 to Hotel Dieu Hospital—Carried.

The clerk reported that he had placed advertisements in two engineering magazines and the Star.

Mr. Thos. McDevitt was named returning officer in the election to fill vacancy in Ward II with authority to engage his own clerk and constable.

The solicitor read a lengthy report of his findings re the road up to the Doherty mill pond. This showed that the town had every right to use this road and place any improvement thereon.

The report was received and placed on file, and it was decided that this street should be dealt with in the same manner as any other street in the town.

The Council then adjourned.

CHAS. CYR KILLED SATURDAY

Was Struck By Train on Transcontinental Railway Near Summit.

ST. LEONARDS, N. B., Nov. 15.—Charles L. Cyr, former M. L. A. for Madawaska, and a man widely known throughout the upper St. John, was killed on the Canadian Government Railways yesterday afternoon, near Summit Station, sixty miles southeast of St. Leonard's, and a companion named Michael sustained a fracture of one of his arms. Cyr and Michael had been on a hunting trip, travelling on the rails of the Transcontinental road, using a gasoline spotter, a curve this side of Summit station.

Both men attempted to jump but the locomotive struck them before they could clear their machine. Cyr was practically cut in two, meeting instant death.

Deceased was the proprietor of the Cyr Hotel of St. Leonard's and was well known in Campbellton.

The louder the old fellow howls, the stronger become Mr. LeBlanc's friends. For three and a half years, the Liberal government had reasons to be proud of Restigouche's representative. A man of his ability is a credit to any county. His enemies have been hard at work and have launched a most unfair battle against him. It took four men to beat him, which is no honor to the winners. But Mr. LeBlanc is not defeated and has lost neither the respect nor the confidence of the true liberals of Restigouche.

Mr. Dickie made reference to the interruption at the nomination in Dalhousie. It is nothing for Mr. LeBlanc's political enemies to be proud against a bunch of rude men, under the influence of liquor have shown their vulgarity and lack of common sense taken illegally and against every advantage of the law. The matter before the Council. The bill was then passed and paid $1000.00 of the County.

And here is the man who poses as the Reformer of the Liberal Government. If he were not too old to learn a lesson, he might begin by reforming himself. He lost, not only his vote, but the respect of those he is vainly trying to enlighten. Had he more influence, he might be a dangerous tool. But he is as harmless as Potts of the "one language" fame.

BUTTER PRICES DROP.
The Fredericton Gleaner says: "Butter took a drop today and sold at 58 to 60 cents per pound. This drop in price is due to the fact that large importations of butter have been made from Ontario during the past few weeks and has been retelling in the stores at 60 cents a pound." We understand that choice creamery butter is being offered wholesale at around fifty-five cents per pound.

NEW RAIL SERVICE TO PACIFIC COAST

Canadian National Railways inaugurate New East Fast Daily Service Between Montreal and Vancouver—Luxurious Trains in Operation.

From all points in the Maritime Provinces there is the finest of through rail service to the Pacific Coast, via Canadian National Railways.

All that travel comfort can suggest, convey, or devise, is here for the traveler. The most modern of steel equipment—first class coaches, standard sleepers, tourist cars, and luxurious compartment cars, are on the through trains between Montreal and Vancouver. The excellence of the connecting train from Eastern points, the "Ocean Limited," is known to all travelers. The new service from coast to coast is the best that any railway offers anywhere.

The Ocean Limited, leaving Newcastle at 4:45 p.m. daily, arrives in Montreal at 9:30 a.m. the day following. This train, with its splendid train operating under Canadian National and Grand Trunk management, leaving Bonaventure station at 5:00 p.m. This train, with its equipment of compartment cars, standard sleepers, standard diner, tourist and colonist cars, arrives at Ottawa at 8:00 p.m., and leaving at 9:20 p.m., is at North Bay early the following morning. Port Arthur and Fort William are reached the morning of the day following and Winnipeg that evening. Leaving at 9:40 p.m. the journey to the coast is continued via Saskatoon, Edmonton, Jasper, Mount Robson and New Westminster and the train arrives at Vancouver at 9:00 a.m., the third day after leaving Winnipeg.

Leaving Halifax on Monday morning for instance the traveler arrives in Vancouver on Sunday morning, just six days and a night of travelling under the finest of travelling conditions. Particulars of this new thorough service can be now supplied by all Canadian National Railway ticket agents. Rates can be quoted and reservations made. It is a new era in Transcontinental travel that is but the beginning of a greater railway development under the Canadian National system—Nov. 15-2 wks.

SOAP IS NEXT.
A break in soap prices has at last taken place. Yesterday the announcement was made the laundry soaps had been reduced in price by fifty cents a box—Mail.

BREAD CHEAPER.
Bread dropped one cent, wholesale, on Monday, with a like drop in price by retailers. The wholesale price is now fourteen cents, while the retailers sell at from 15 to 16 cents. The difference in retail prices is due to the fact that while some retailers are willing to sell at one cent over the wholesale price, others believe that a two cent gross profit is a fair margin—St. John Globe.

SERIOUS SITUATION.
Severe weather in the near future would bring a serious fuel situation in Campbellton. According to local dealers, the movement of coal to this locality from the mines, has been very slow for several months, and the town's present reserves, which is practically nil, would not be adequate for a long cold spell.

NEW NOVEL BY ROBERT STEAD

Brilliant Canadian Writer Publishes Another Gripping Novel.

The Canadian public have learned to look forward to a new novel by Robert Stead, "The Homesteaders" and "The Cow Puncher" created for this Canadian author a host of friends who are always interested in his new productions.

Mr. Stead's new novel, "Dennison Grant" ($1.75), just published by the Munson Book Company, Limited, Toronto, is in many respects his most mature literary offering. Like his other novels, its action centres largely in the West, but there is also a distinctly Eastern aspect to "Dennison Grant," and its appeal is as broad as the sympathies of red-blooded men and women.

Dennison Grant, the principal character in the story, is a wealthy young Easterner who, disinherited by his father on account of his radical notions about money, finds happiness and love on an Alberta ranch. Fate, however, insists upon making him a millionaire, and brings him back to the East as manager of a successful business. But his heart remains in the West, and more particularly in keeping of Zen of the Y.D., a rancher's daughter who marries a contractor in a moment of weakness and against her better judgment. Of course Denny and Zen meet again, and their fortunes sway back and forth through a dozen thrilling chapters. There is much more in "Dennison Grant" which cannot be outlined here, but which the reader will enjoy for himself. It is undoubtedly the big novel of the season.

GERMAN ACCOUNT OF ARMISTICE

Official Description From Pen of Head of Armistice Commission.

The first official German description of the signing of the Armistice is from the pen of Matthias Erzberger, head of the German Armistice Commission. Erzberger is at present in private life, but as he is only 45 years old and has already played a big part in German affairs, there is reason to believe that he plans a return and is likely to be influential in the years of German reconstruction.

He said that it was made known by Germany on November 6, that an armistice must be signed, "whatever the kind of armistice it was. For some time previous all thought of a German victory had been abandoned. No body who was in a position to survey the whole field of operations had any illusions remaining. Germany was beaten, and Erzberger with three associates was sent to meet the victors and get the best terms they could. Curiously enough, more than two dozen German officers wanted to go along, but Erzberger says that he felt that "such a large group of officers would create an ill-gotten impression in France." Before the three plenipotentiaries left Hindenburg said: "It is the first time in the history of the world that politicians and not soldiers have signed a truce; but go in God's name, and do the best you can for the fatherland."

French Soldiers' Fare.
The party left in German automobiles and when they approached the front they were held up for some little time by a German general, who told them it was unsafe to proceed, but at 9.30 on the evening of Nov. 7 they passed the German front and a couple of hundred yards further on fell in with the first French troops. French officers were then attached to them, a Prisoner of War Commission was set up, and at one o'clock the next morning they reached St. Quentin, where they had the same kind of dinner that every French soldier had general had, as a general told them: soup, salted meat, and peas. They were transferred to a train and supplied with cognac. At seven the following morning their train stopped in the Compiègne forest, and they observed another private train nearby. It was the train of Marshal Foch and the Allied representatives.

Peace Was Bound.
The first session took place the following morning, and lasted three-quarters of an hour. It consisted of the German and French plenipotentiaries, who had been invited to the signing of the armistice, and the Allied plenipotentiaries. Erzberger asked permission to send them to the high command by radio. Each plenipotentiary had a radio which could be transmitted by cipher or courier. He explained that in all things, he was bound by the Allied command and the Allied plenipotentiaries. Then the Germans asked that the time limit be extended from 72 hours to 96. This also was refused. On November 10, the day before the Allied ultimatum expired, the German counter-proposals were received, and that evening the Armistice Commission was informed by radio that the Kaiser had abdicated and that the crown prince had renounced his claim to the throne.

Sign Anyhow?
Then the British delegates, Admiral Hope and Lord Weymss wished to know whether the next Government would be in a position to carry out the terms when agreed upon. Erzberger said that whatever Government had the power to have the armistice signed would have also the power to execute it. On that same evening Erzberger received a telegram from Hindenburg asking him to beg for a few little changes in the terms, and adding, "but if you cannot get these, sign anyhow." The German counter-proposals having been rejected the final session of the commission began at 2.15 a. m. November 11. The debate lasted until 5.12 a. m. that concerning the blockade taking up most of the time. Foch agreed to call it 5 a. m. in order that a full six hours should elapse from the time of the signing of the armistice to the time when the fighting was carried on needlessly on that memorable day.

When the War Stopped.
"Just outside Mons," writes Philip Gibbs of the first day of the Armistice, "at one minute to eleven o'clock, there was a little desultory firing. Then a huge blow, somewhere in a distant field, one long note. That blow had blown the 'Cease Fire' of a strife which had filled the world with agony and massacre, destroyed millions of men, broken millions of lives, ruined many great cities and thousands of hamlets, and left a wide belt of country across Europe where there was no more life and all the earth was ravaged; crowded the world with maimed men, blinded men, mad men, diseased men; flung empires into anarchy where hunger killed the children and women had no milk to feed their babies, and bequeathed to all fighting nations a heritage of debts, sickness which many would die of, and a world which many would starve to death. It was the Cease Fire of all that reign of death, but sounded very faintly across the fields of France."

IMMODESTY IN WOMAN'S DRESS

Is Condemned At Session of Ontario Women's Institutes.

"Some of the fashionably dressed women of Toronto should be arrested for indecent exposure," declared Dr. Margaret Patterson, of this city at a convention of the Ontario Women's Institutes.

The consensus of opinion of the delegates to the annual convention was that the styles prevalent at the present time were attributable to lack of home training of the young people and generally relaxed discipline in the home.

KEPT HIS WHISKEY IN CAFE SAFE

A spectacle of a 250-pound policeman seated on the safe of one of Montreal's most popular town cafes excited considerable comment among the brokers and lawyers who frequent the Hoffman cafe, on Notre Dame street west, yesterday afternoon when the place was raided in a search for liquor by the police. None was found, though the smell of it in the sink was strong. However the proprietor refused to open a small safe. The police left one of their number in charge of it while they went in search of instruments to break it open. The constable sat on it to make it doubly sure.

When the police returned with an expert from a safe company, the proprietor opened the safe, and in it there were found twelve bottles of Scotch.

OLD FRENCH CAN. CHANSONS

Quaint and Attractive Volume Revives Melodies of Colonist Times.

From picturesque Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, has come a book with the title "Chansons of Old French Canada," to intrigue those who delight in regattations of music left forgotten in the byways of other centuries. It is a quaint and attractively printed volume of paper covers. The title page explains that accompaniments are by Margaret Gossigne, script by James Kennedy, and illustrations—with dashes of red supplementing black and white—by Ethel Seath. There is a preface by C. Marquis Barbeau, who rejoices that "in the desert of American uniformity the ancient rural districts of Quebec form a quaint oasis where industrialism and cupidity have not yet withered all local colour, and individual bits of char. Leisure and gaiety have not altogether vanished. Singing and story-telling in the old style still are casually indulged in."

An interesting introduction it is and increases the interest with which the reader will turn to the songs of love, of story, of labor, and of course, the canoing songs for which the early French Canadians were so famous, which follow. Here are the titles of the airs, all harmonized with the utmost simplicity: "En Roulant ma Boule," "A la Claire Fontaine," "Sur le Pont d'Avignon," "Mariane's va-t-au Moulin," "La Fille du Roi d'Espagne," "Hier, sur le Pont d'Avignon," "Sur le Pont de Nantes," "Doux Vieux-temps Bergeres," "Dance des Prisonniers de Nantes," "L'abbaye de Promesse," "Sainte Marguerite." The copyright for the book is in the name of the Canadian Pacific Railway—New York Musical Association.

Very Candid.

Bishop of Norwich Says

More Care in Marriages

Would Cure Divorce Evil

WE are hearing much on the subject of divorce. Divorce, however, is only an attempt to remedy the failures of married life and it is usually considered better to deal with causes than effects, says Rt. Rev. Bertram Pollock, Bishop of Norwich. This is not to say that it is not wise to try to improve our divorce law. To give only two examples, there are many who would agree that in this matter men should stand on an equality with women, and the rich with the poor.

There are what we require most of all is to encourage those happy marriages from which husbands and wives will not desire to escape later on, marriages that will lead to happy homes and to happy, healthy families of children.

To reach this end persons who are to be married should know more of one another than in many cases they do at present. They should be firm friends, and each must be able to look the other in the face with perfect candor.

No marriage is likely to be successful if one of the partners has some secret disqualification, such as a wife living somewhere else, or a previous attack of lunacy, or conviction for drunkenness, which if it had become known by a longer previous association or by other means, would have deterred the other partner.

Now our preliminaries to marriage offer no real security in regard to questions of this kind, or even more easily ascertained matters. No third party is required in all cases to identify bride and bridegroom or to verify their statements about themselves.

Even when the clergy try to do this before publishing the banns the most careful inquiry in a large town may fail to detect some fraudulent statement.

Bishops' marriage licenses are open to the same kind of objection. A girl may make the necessary affidavit, which she believes to be true, while all the time the man may be deceiving her.

Similar objections make the preliminaries of a civil marriage unsatisfactory. We want real publicity and caution and verified statements.

The plan may sound rather Frisian in its character, but if everyone had to possess a registration or identification card on which some particulars of his or her origin, marital state, occupation and career were written, it would at least remove those false ideas about one another which induce some parties to marry, and prevent many irregular, clandestine and undesirable unions.

Registration cards of a limited character, it will be remembered, were in use during the war, and they would be useful in other ways besides the protection of marriage.

The fuller the statements that were required on the identification card, the more would be known about the persons concerned before their marriage, by one another, by their parents and friends and by the clergyman or the registrar.

An obvious defence against marriage failure and divorce lies in guarding the original marriage, as far as possible, from the risks which at present surround it.

Old Dances.

The Dean of Durham, Bishop Wellington, after watching displays of country and Morris dances by the Durham Folk Dance Society, at Durham, said that he greatly regretted certain changes which had come over the character of dancing. "Even my memory," he said, "carries me back to the time when the mazurka, the schottische, and Sir Roger de Coverley were habitual in recent days, dancing has almost degenerated to the waltz alone, and that has been to some extent supplemented by the jazz. I would welcome any revival of old dances. There is a physical benefit which belongs to dancing and nobody who watches the conduct of young children in the slums as soon as music is heard can doubt that dancing is the instinctive motion of human nature."—London Mail.

Spiders.

Spinning webs is second nature with spiders. After they are hatched from the eggs in a cocoon, they drift together for about a week. Then they separate, but their legs do not carry them very far. Facing the wind, and standing on the tips of their legs, the baby spiders raise their abdomens and emit a silken thread. The faintest current wafts the gossamer in the air, and when enough is spun the insect drifts away. When it wishes to land it hauls in the thread. Wherever it lands it can spin webs without the slightest instructions from older spiders. Older male spiders seem to lose this gift. There are about 500 species of spiders in America, but only two, the house and garden spiders, are well known.

In Cleopatra's Needle. Will the workmen who are busy repairing the base of Cleopatra's Needle disturb the jars which were placed in the pedestal when the monolith was erected?

The jars contain British coins, a translation of the meaning of the hieroglyphics inscribed on the monument. Among the gifts, a number of children's toys, copies of newspapers, a map of London, a translation into many languages of St. John III, 16, a history of the monument and a journey to London, and many other things.

This was after the custom of the ancient Egyptians. — London Chronicle.

Conductor Shanley Mann left last week for Montreal, to consult a specialist regarding his health, which has not been the best for some time past, and it was thought an operation would be necessary, however, his many friends will be glad to hear that this will not be necessary and latest reports are that he is improving under the treatment he is receiving. Mr. Mann, who was accompanied to Montreal by Coun. Homer Matthews, will be in that city for several weeks.

LOTS OF ROMANCE AT OPERA MONDAY

The Love Affairs of a Countess in "An Adventure in Hearts"—Secret Service Serial and News.

Next Monday's bill at the Opera House should satisfy the most ardent lover of romantic fiction. With big, good-looking, Robert Warwick in a European love-tangle in which nobility figures, quarrels, secret agents, blackmailers and chivalrous rescuers, the yarn, fairly tingles with delicious excitement.

The story is an adaptation of the famous novel "Captain Dieppe," by Anthony Hope, author of "The Prisoner of Zenda," and other celebrated romantic classics.

Major Robert Warwick, the soldier star, is right at home in the part of "Captain Dieppe" and is surrounded by an excellent cast of capable players.

Then there is also the second chapter of the thrilling secret service serial "The Invisible Hand" featuring Antonio Moreno and a budget of interesting happenings in the Pictorial News. The same bill will also be shown on Tuesday.

"HALLO, DAD!"

The characteristic wit of the Prince of Wales is illustrated by this amusing story:

One of our youthful pilots in Northern France came dashing down a road on a motor-bicycle. A staff car was pulled up by the roadside. While the driver was making the necessary adjustments a young red-tail stretched his legs. The young pilot threw himself from his machine, and addressing the staff officer, said—

"Can I be of any assistance?" "No, thanks!" said the youthful red-tail. "It's only a minor trouble."

"Right-o," said the pilot. "I seem to know your face, old chap! Who are you?"

"I'm the Prince of Wales! And you?"

The pilot grinned unbelievably, and then answered with his eye twinkling, "Oh, I'm your pater, the King!"

Three days later the prince visited a certain famous flying squadron on entering the mess-room the first person to catch his eye was the pilot he had met on the road. Instantly the prince's face broke into a smile of greeting, and he advanced with outstretched hand.

"Hallo, dad!" he said.
