WANTED.—A reliable person to canvass Albert County in the interests of the OBSERVER. A liberal percentage will be given. Apply at once to OBSERVER PUBLISHING CO. Hillsboro, A. Co.

M. JANIE Sederquist gives a remarkably lucid solution of that temperance problem, and we are pleased to publish her letter in the children's column. We hope she will favor us with another letter at an early date.

THREE PAIRS OF TWINS.—NEW YORK MILLS, MINN., April 11.—Mrs. Andrew Babers, a Finnish woman, living here, recently gave birth to six children at one birth; three were born dead, the others are still living.

WAS IT AN EYIL OMEN?—Lawyers were as plentiful in Hillsboro last Thursday as bees in a clover patch on a mid-summer's day. We have not yet heard of any appalling disaster resulting from their presence in our usually peaceful village.

HOW HE PROPOSED.—A mild sensation was caused in Bathurst last week by the complaint of a young lady that one of the opposite sex threatened to shoot her unless she consented to marry him. The sheriff thought it was his intention to shoot to kill and declined to arrest him.

EARLY FLOWING.—About half an acre of land was plowed on Saturday last, on the farm of Mr. Jas. Gibson, Boundary Creek. No frost of any consequence was encountered, and it is the intention to continue plowing this week. This is considered very early.—Times.

LECTURE.—Dr. Smith, one of the Sackville professors, has been engaged by the Hillsboro W. C. T. U. to return here on Friday evening, April 26. Subject, "From the past to the future." Every person should endeavor to hear this lecture, which has delighted various audiences throughout the province.

THAT BREAKWATER.—David Wallace Esq. has bought out his former partner's (C. W. Derry) interest in the breakwater at Edgett's Landing and is now in Hillsboro making preparations to prosecute the work vigorously. Having secured the necessary materials during the winter the contractor is now prepared to push the work forward rapidly.

MILLINERY.—I have just returned from Paradise, Nova Scotia, and St. John, N. B., with a large and well selected supply of Millinery, and have opened a new Millinery Store opposite Co. Store. Thanking the public for their liberal patronage, and soliciting a continuance. E. A. MAINWARING. Hillsboro, A. Co., April 17, 1889.

JOURNALISTIC.—Last week the Bridgetown N. S. Monitor celebrated the commencement of its sixteenth year by appearing in a new dress of type in its reading columns. The Monitor is bright, newsy and interesting, and we are pleased to note the signs of prosperity. We trust it may live to celebrate scores of birthdays, each with some marked improvement over its predecessor.

HILLSBORO DAGO STORE.—We direct our readers' attention to J. A. Beatty's advertisement in another column. Hillsboro is justly proud of her drug store which would do credit to a large town. Strangers express surprise to find such a large, well stocked, admirably kept drug store in a country village. A large assortment of every variety of drugs, medicines, etc., always on hand. Physicians prescriptions carefully compounded.

Reid and his daughter Carrie were made glad, on Monday last, when the good schooner Carlotta here in sight and gracefully glided alongside the government wharf, where crowds gathered to welcome the captain and his estimable daughter home, after an absence of about 6 months.

WOLVES IN RESTIGOUCHE.—A pack of thirteen wolves passed over Port Logan Lake last Friday, in full chase after three caribou, which were then about tired out, judging from their straggling leaps. 'Tis about twelve years since they were in this locality in large numbers. A few hours before the pack crossed the lake, three young fellows from town were fishing on it, and had they remained, would surely have been torn to pieces. The lake we write of is about twenty miles from town, and good fishing there draws parties occasionally from town.—Campbell's Pioneer.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—An Elgin, A. Co., correspondent, sends us the following under date April 15:—Quite a serious accident happened in the steam saw mill of Messrs. C. & S. Goggin here today by which the senior member, Mr. Charles Goggin, will probably lose all the fingers of his left hand. While engaged in edging a board, or rather in cutting up a board into clap boards, his hand came in contact with the edge and was cut through by the knuckle joint. The hand is also out some above those joints. It is not yet known whether amputation above these joints will be necessary or not.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken up by pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once to a bottle of Mrs. W. S. Porter's Soothing Syrup. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the bowels, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. W. S. M. AND C. A. S.—The Semi-annual meeting of the Moncton and Cordale Agricultural Society was held on the 9th inst., at Moncton. Mr. Ezra Steves presided. Mr. Joshua Peters, the society's delegate to the government sale of horses at Fredericton, reported that he had secured the services of the iron gray Percheron horse Rowland (or Deacon), weight 1600 lbs, for $385.

On motion, Havelock Mitton and John B. Lutes were authorized to attend Mr. Josiah Wood's sale of stock at Backville April 10th.

On motion, the directors were authorized to secure a carload each of white and black oats, the members to get the same at once; also to secure other seeds as asked for by members of the society, before the 15th of the present month, cash to be paid on application.

After discussion it was resolved that the society hold an exhibition this year in Moncton and strong committees were appointed to make necessary arrangements, secure permanent grounds, etc.

Mr. W. J. Robinson was authorized to purchase 9 pigs for the use of the society, and some other minor business was transacted when the meeting adjourned. The Directors had a meeting at the club.

BAPTIST QUARTERLY MEETING.—The Albert County Baptist Quarterly Meeting was held with the Salem Church last week. A large number of lay delegates was present besides the following eldersmen: S. W. Keirstead, Michael Gross, I. W. Carpenter, A. H. Lavers, J. E. Fillmore, J. F. Kompton, L. M. Weeks, W. Camp and Isaiah Wallace, general missionary agent. Tuesday evening Rev. L. M. Weeks preached the quarterly sermon from Isaiah 52.1. "Awake! Awake! put on thy strength, O Zion;" etc. The sermon was powerful and convincing and highly appreciated by all who had the pleasure of listening to it. Rev. I. Wallace also preached an excellent sermon during the session. On Wednesday evening a very successful missionary meeting was held at which eloquent, soul-stirring addresses were delivered, followed by a good collection.

A resolution was passed, and ordered to be published in the Messenger and Visitor, expressing high regard for Rev. L. M. Weeks, regret at his being about to leave the County, and wishing him success wherever he might be called to labor.

An excellent influence was exercised by the Quarterly of the Salem church, members were awakened, souls converted, and pastor Camp expects soon to receive candidates for baptism. Rev. J. F. Kompton remained after the session had closed and preached a powerful sermon on Thursday morning from John 3:14.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. W. Camp baptized one person last Sunday.

Rev. S. W. Keirstead, of Surrey, A. Co., writes to the Messenger and Visitor, under date April 2, as follows:

Allow me to say through the columns of Messenger and Visitor, that we are still toiling on in this field. We can say for ourselves, that we are in the midst of a kind and generous people; and many of them are, we believe, earnest workers in the Lord's vineyard. My field embraces the Valley and Hill country. We hold some special services in the 3rd Hillsboro church a few weeks ago, and the church was much revived and we felt the Lord to be present, and wanderers were brought home, and we trust that much good seed was sown, and if we do not have the pleasure of reaping, some one else may. One promising young man was received for baptism at last conference; will probably be baptized next Sabbath. We have also held a few special services in Valley church and some refreshing seasons were enjoyed; but we are not enjoying what we would desire. We are praying that the cloud which appears to hang over this part of the field may break, and the blessed Son of Righteousness shine forth upon us. We hold monthly missionary prayer meetings in both churches and are trying to arouse the missionary spirit in our people. We also wish to acknowledge our gratitude and thanks to church and congregation in Surrey for a recent donation of $50.00. This, with the many other acts of kindness, makes us feel that we are among a people who believe in encouraging their pastor, and may the Lord bless and prosper them in my humble prayer.

We have a school taught by a Miss Wilson from Kings Co. Albert County teachers must either be getting scarce or else the people prefer to get their teachers from other counties the same as they do some of the members to represent them in the House of Assembly at Fredericton. Come young men and maidens this will never do. You must have more an ambition and strive to do the work required in the county yourselves. There are just as good teachers in Albert Co. as are to be found anywhere. We also have been just as capable of representing us at Fredericton as Westmorland county has and we should use the home-made instead of the imported article.

Edward Miller's children have inflammation.

John Lutes goes away soon for a summer job, but not because there is nothing to be done at home, as there is work here for all hands.

A. McFarlane's new mill is tearing the logs up in a lively manner, showing that the labor expended on her last winter was not in vain.

Temperance Arithmetic.

I am eleven years old, am a native of Hampton, Kings County. I came here last November. Since then I have been attending the Superior School here and have also been a reader of THE OBSERVER. I have worked the "Temperance Arithmetic" question you gave last week. I send you my solution for publication. The question reads:—If a man drinks half a pint of liquor every day, how many gallons will he drink in 50 years and how much will it amount to at 10 cts. per quart?

In 50 years there will be 12 Leap Years and 38 Common Years. In the 12 Leap Years he would drink 12 times 366 = 4392 days, and in the 38 Common Years there would be 38 times 365 days or 13870 days. Now 13870 days plus 4392 days make 18262 days in 50 years. If a man drinks half a pint a day he would drink on 18262 days, 9131 pints, or 4565 1/2 quarts, these at 10 cents per quart is equal to $456.55. But 456 1/2 quarts is equal to 114 1/4 gallons. If I am right he would drink 114 1/4 gallons in a year and it would cost him $456.55.

The Drunkard's Child.

I had a home, a happy home, With peace and plenty blest, Where love and sweet contentment reigned— A haven of joy and rest. But oh! it did not always last, There came a woe-filled day, A serpent dark found entrance there And stole our peace away.

I had a mother in those days And young and fair she was; To-night alone I walk the street With none to care for me, I know a father's tender love— A father's watchful care; How shall I spend the future years? And see his face no more?

My father, how I worshipped him! He was my joy and pride, The happiest hours I ever knew Were spent when by his side. Of all the love that filled my heart The best to him I gave, But oh! that father sleeps to-night Under a drunkard's grave.

I wept not when my mother died, Though she was good and kind, And oh! how I loved the crippled boy She had to leave behind. For oh, I knew that she was safe Upon the golden shore, Where cold and hunger, grief and pain Would trouble her no more.

I wept not when I left my home, Though bitter was the pain, To think those dear familiar rooms Would never be home again, For still one hope was left to me— My father I might save, But oh! that hope is gone to-night— He fills a drunkard's grave.

I know I have another home, Not built by hands of clay, Which he who sold my father drink Can never take away. For on a drunkard's mill like me The Saviour died to save, But can that love avail for one Who fills a drunkard's grave?

I know the words in God's own Book, I've read them o'er and o'er, Which say no drunkard's feet can tread Upon the heavenly shore. My stricken heart can know no rest 'Till this side of Jordan's wave, For him I loved the best on earth Lies in a drunkard's grave.

—Lena in Wolfville Acadian.

It was Freddy's first experience with soda water. Drinking it down eagerly, he was aware of a tingling sensation in his nostrils. "How do you like it?" asked his mother, who had stood near. He wrinkled up his nose as he replied: "It tastes like your foot was asleep."

A DIFFERENT VIEW.—Small Boy (to his big sister)—Edith, do you know why I think you are like a cat that has fallen into a hog-pen of molasses? Edith.—Because I'm sweet. Small Boy.—No, because you're so stuck up!

LITTLE three-year old Arthur was pulling the cat's tail, when a gentleman visitor said: "You mustn't do that, she will bite." To this he replied: "Cats don't bite at this end."

MOTHER to Bobby, who has just pronounced his prayers.—Why, Bobby, you forgot to pray for papa. Bobby.—Why, so I did, and he needs it so much, doesn't he ma?

Catarh, Catarrhal Deafness, Hay Fever.

A New Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and catarrhal tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once or twice a week. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (white) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 303 W. King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American, the Sufferers from catarrhal troubles will carefully read the above.
